Ce avem de învăţat din această întâmplare a lui Nefer? Că nu putem să evaluăm ceva ca fiind imposibil dacă nu avem suficiente informaţii despre acel ceva, indiferent că este vorba de o persoană sau de o acţiune. Dacă vom avea convingeri absolutiste, întemeiate pe premise eronate, riscăm să dăm greş în tot ceea ce ne-am propus, şi chiar să ne facem de ruşine. Niciodată nu vom putea atinge un nivel superior de performanţă dacă atunci când vedem o lumină la capătul tunelului ne formăm convingerea fermă că este un tren.

Înainte să deprinzi cunoştinţele necesare leadershipului, gândeşte-te cum să câştigi o stimă de sine înaltă prin controlarea tendinţei de a considera reuşita (într-o competiţie) drept regulă de bază în sensul dobândirii unei orientări puternice către valorile de referinţă ale unui om independent.

Totuşi imposibilul s-a întâmplat ! Iar atunci când Nefer s-a pomenit faţă în faţă cu realitatea, care era cu totul alta decât se aştepta el, a rămas brusc fără „combustibil”. Dezorientarea i-a diminuat performanţele, l-a încetinit şi l-a făcut neatent. Ceea ce l-a condus la eşec. Realitatea l-a înfrânt.

Când vrei să evaluezi care-ţi sunt sorţii de izbândă în faţa concurenţei, totdeauna să culegi date cât mai multe despre ea, şi despre performanţele sale. Nu porni de la ideea preconcepută că tu eşti cel mai bun. Desigur sunt situaţii când nu ai informaţii suficiente şi nu ai posibilitatea să le obţii. În cazul acesta este necesar să-ţi dezvolţi din timp abilităţile şi competenţele pentru că nu ştii cu cine ai de-a face.

Un lider gândeşte la nivelul onoarei de a servi un singur ideal: de a nu lăsa pe nimeni în urmă. La polul opus, un om independent, are ca ideal de viaţă onoarea de a se prezenta singur drept un erou năzdrăvan, unicul responsabil de buna desfăşurare a lucrurilor. Un om independent este uneori mai valoros decât un lider, fiindcă raportându-se doar la propriile experienţe, la propriile obiective, este mai atent la felul cum pune săgeata şi întinde coarda, fără să depindă de sprijinul altora sau de circumstanţele pe care le creează ceilalţi în jurul lui.

Un tigru este un vânător mult mai iscusit decât leul, tocmai fiindcă succesului lui nu depinde de implicarea grupului.

Valorile de referinţă ale unui om independent, luând în considerare o imagine de sine pozitivă, sunt: discreţia, nonconformismul, previzibilitatea, perseverenţa, subtilitatea cu care interpretează consecinţele deciziilor şi faptelor sale.

Principiul încrederii absolute s-ar putea formula astfel: "Nu te încrede în tine atâta timp cât nu eşti sută la sută sigur că rezultatul va fi în favoarea ta."

Principiul îndoielii

Nu te îndoi de intenţiile conducătorului când încă nici nu le cunoşti.

Cândva, peste nu ştiu câţi ani, voi dori să-mi aduc aminte de lucrurile importante şi folositoare pe care le-am învăţat pe tot parcursul vieţii. De aceea scriu aceste rânduri cu mult drag şi pasiune. Pentru că timpul şi viaţa şterg multe din memorie, dar ce scriu va rămâne întotdeauna vii, aici, pe World Wide Web. Totuşi nu scriu doar pentru mine, ci şi pentru voi cititorii, care sunteţi dornici să asimilaţi noi cunoştinţe despre leadership pe care mai apoi să le aplicaţi, dornici să vă îmbunătăţiţi performanţele şi abilităţile. Sper din tot sufletul să vă fie de folos. Acum, şi în viitor.

Cu mult timp în urmă am intrat în posesia unei cărţi pe care, înainte de toate, aş caracteriza-o "necesară". Pentru mine ea a însemnat mult, fiindcă m-a învăţat multe lucruri. A fost, de asemenea, prima carte istorică pe care am citit-o, şi care este şi o lecţie frumoasă de leadership. Se numeşte „ Hannibal ante portas ", iar autorul, dacă nu aţi auzit de el (nici eu nu auzisem de el la acea vreme) se numeşte Slavomir Nastasijević. În acest articol mă voi opri asupra unui anumit pasaj din această splendidă carte.

Leadership: A da un sens de învăţare lecţiilor care vin din interiorul experienţei personalităţii tale este o exprimare a convingerii că tot ceea ce te inspiră se va împlini?

Victoria înregistrată în bătălia de la lacul Trasimenus împotriva consulului roman Flaminius fusese una totală. Armata cartagineză, condusă de Hannibal, s-a ales cu o mulţime de arme şi cu câteva mii de prizonieri italici. Aceştia urmau, conform regulilor războiului, să fie ucişi sau făcuţi sclavi. Dar, de această dată lucrurile au stat cu totul diferit.

Pentru prima dată Hannibal s-a adresat prizonierilor:

- Italici, Hannibal n-a venit în Italia să vă înrobească... Pe voi v-au făcut prizonieri oştenii mei în luptele în care v-au împins romanii, dar eu nu vă consider vrăjmaşi, vă vreau binele şi am hotărât să vă dăruiesc libertatea... Duceţi-vă la casele voastre şi spuneţi pretutindeni: Hannibal nu a venit în Italia s-o înrobească, ci s-o elibereze de domnia romanilor, urâtă în toată lumea !

Apoi el porunci să fie eliberaţi toţi sclavii, să li se scoată cătuşele şi să li se dea merinde pe trei zile.

Sclavii se înghesuiau, se dădeau la o parte unul pe celălalt, se îmbrăţişau, alţii plângeau de bucurie sau râdeau că ieşiţi din minţi. Dar decizia lui Hannibal ului toate căpeteniile cartagineze, care începură să mormăie şi să încrucişeze priviri fulgerătoare. Era ceva fără precedent. „Numai un nebun de legat poate da drumul la mai bine de trei mii de prizonieri", îşi spuneam în sinea lor cu toţii.

Performanţa în leadership se înscrie în condiţiile unui statut de "drum în lucru" semnalizat corespunzător cu indicatorul de prioritate faţă de ceea ce vine din sens opus, atunci când reacţiile oamenilor sunt de partea unor convingeri care nu trebuiesc chestionate.

Colontai, unul dintre comandanţii cei mai valoroşi ai lui Hannibal, scrâşnind din dinţi îl întrebă:

- De ce le dăruieşti libertatea?

Iar Sivas, un alt comandant, adăugă:

- Ce-o să le spunem războinicilor noştri când vor auzi de toate astea?

Hannibal râse şi le răspunse:

- Tăceţi... În ţinutul lui fiecare va povesti despre nobleţea noastră, ceea ce este adevăratul chip de derutare a adversarului. După ce cucerim Roma şi toată Italia, puteţi să luaţi câţi sclavi doriţi.

Toţi comandanţii au încuviinţat în gura mare hotărârea lui Hannibal.

Leadership: Viziunea ta asupra a ceea ce eşti capabil să duci la bun sfârşit trebuie să se conformeze unei experienţe de putere personală care te apropie de tendinţa de a te crede invincibil?

Nu judeca acţiunile conducătorului dacă nu cunoşti intenţiile sale. Numai un conducător iscusit poate câştiga victorie după victorie. Şi numai un conducător iscusit poate mereu să-şi mobilizeze oamenii la maximum, pentru atingerea obiectivelor propuse.

Hannibal a fost un astfel de conducător. Toate bătăliile câştigate s-au datorat iscusinţei sale de a nu-i scăpa niciun mic amănunt. Şiret, foarte îndrăzneţ, calculat, Hannibal studia din timp toate aspectele privitoare la desfăşurarea fiecărei bătălii, gândea dinainte toate strategiile ştiind că ţelul său suprem, acela de a cuceri Roma, nu este deloc unul uşor de atins. El ştia de la tatăl său, Hamilcar Barcas, că singura cale de a evita un fiasco era să intuiască dinainte mişcările adversarilor înţelegându-le psihologia şi tacticile - să le anihileze punctele forte şi să nu acţioneze niciodată hazardat. Superioritatea lui în ceea ce priveşte aplicarea tacticilor militare l-a ferit multă vreme de înfrângeri şi de orice formă de revoltă a oamenilor săi.

La rândul lor, punii conduşi de Hannibal, zeci de mii de războinici, nu s-au arătat niciodată reticenţi, dimpotrivă, recunoscându-l ca fiind un conducător fără cusur, l-au urmat până la moarte, ascultându-i ordinele cu obedienţă. Au admis întotdeauna ordinele sale fiindcă ştiau că are dreptate, fiindcă era călit în luptă şi totodată foarte cultivat, fiindcă înţelegea mai bine aspectele legate de câştigarea unei batali şi ştia cum să procedeze în orice fel de împrejurări.

Încununarea puterii de convingere este consecinţa confruntării finale între ceea ce apare în faţa celorlalţi drept greu de crezut şi ceea ce este crezut printr-o delimitare de ceea ce constituie o impresie de moment.

Chiar dacă nu-i cunosc intenţiile, oamenii nu au motive să judece acţiunile celui care îi conduce decât dacă acesta s-a dovedit în prealabil a fi nepriceput sau necunoscător. Iar un conducător excelent ştie să-i convingă pe oameni să nu-i judece intenţiile. Îndoiala, suspiciunea, lipsa de încredere în lider, sunt în defavoarea acestuia. Este un semnal de alarmă când oamenii ajung să pună la îndoială deciziile sale, un semnal care nu poate fi ignorat, şi care îl poate îndepărta de ei.

Scriitorul finlandez Mika Waltari a spus odată că oamenii sunt ca apa care trece dintr-un vas în altul şi împrumută supusă forma vasului în care a fost turnată. În general oamenii se supun şi recunosc deschis dreptatea acelui lider care îi conduce întotdeauna spre victorie. Dar dacă acesta nu dovedeşte hotărâre, încredere în forţele proprii, competenţă, tărie de caracter, voinţă şi curaj, este aproape o certitudine că oamenii vor avea anumite îndoieli vizavi de intenţiile sale.

P.S. Dacă conducătorul este foarte iscusit, dă-i întotdeauna ascultare. Nu te îndoi de intenţiile sale când încă nici nu le cunoşti, pentru că nu faci altceva decât să semeni neîncredere, dezbinare şi insubordonare. Mai degrabă străduieşte-te să înţelegi strategia lui.

Principiul inegalității progresive

Cuantumul privilegiilor pe care ţi le acorzi este invers proporțional cu angajamentul față de progres și moralitate.

Dacă aveţi drum prin Copou şi vreţi să vizitaţi "Casa Universitarilor din Iaşi", această clădire de patrimoniu construită în jurul anului 1800 de Iordache Cantacuzino, recent reabilitată şi modernizată, veţi fi întâmpinat la intrare de un gardian foarte de treabă. El nu are voie să primească înăuntru decât persoanele care lucrează în sistemul universitar. Exact, mi s-a întâmplat mie, cu vreo două săptămâni în urmă, când am vrut doar să vizitez clădirea nouă. Porţile erau deschise. Doi tineri intraseră în faţa mea. Nimeni nu i-a întrebat nimic.

Eu am fost oprit la intrare, domnul însărcinat cu paza mi-a explicat clar, într-un mod simplu şi direct, că această clădire nou restaurată este de fapt un restaurant exclusivist, dar cu mâncare foarte ieftină, la care au acces doar universitarii. Şi, apropiindu-se uşor de mine, aşa cum se apropie un creştin de altar, cu smerenie și respect, omul mi-a spus că cei doi tineri care au intrat în faţa mea sunt fii de profesori, şi din acest motiv au trecere liberă.

Tot atunci am aflat că orice fel de mâncare la acest restaurant exclusivist, costă de vreo 3 ori mai ieftin decât oriunde un altă parte. De exemplu, preţul unei ciorbe este de aproximativ 6 ron, în comparaţie cu un restaurant din Palas unde preţul unei ciorbe începe de pe la 18 ron.

Deci, vă daţi seama ce se întâmplă? Această clădire istorică, unde altădată mergeau toţi ieşenii la o cafea, un lăcaș de cultură, un spațiu al spiritului unde altădată îşi confruntau ideile toate generaţiile tinere şi libere, acum a ajuns să fie în subordinea unei singure instituţii, patrimoniul UAIC. Nu-i aşa că, din punct de vedere moral, nicio autoritate nu trebuie să împiedice accesul la cunoașterea și aprecierea trecutului nostru comun?

Am plecat din acel loc, aşa cum pleacă pictorul atunci când este dezamăgit de culorile care nu reușesc să exprime emoțiile pe care le simte.

Leadership: Poţi să lărgeşti orizontul de receptare al imaginii "de putere" ţi-o creezi, rămânând solidar unei cauze care promovează câştigul provenit dintr-o generozitate excesivă care întreține pasivitatea?

O clădire istorică poate să determine o lărgire a orizontului cunoaşterii şi interpretării realităţii cu mijloacele artei, dar universitarii de la Cuza au reuşit performanța de a transforma o clădire istorică într-un bastion al privilegiilor, asigurându-și doar lor intrarea într-un restaurant exclusivist, cu prețuri "alese" doar pentru ei. Aceşti parveniţi, lipsiţi complet de lumina culturii, n-au înţeles puterea principiului următor: "Privilegiile dobândite prin statutul social pot inhiba angajamentul față de avansarea societății și respectarea eticii constructive."

Cunoaşterea şi bunul simţ nu fac casă bună împreună cu parvenitismul. După ce că şi-au "aranjat" salarii nesimţiţi de mari, plecări în străinătate cu Erasmus (chipurile ca să sprijine mobilitatea în scopul învățării), şi tot felul de alte beneficii, uite că iluştrii profesori, insidioşi precum diavolul, şi-au extins aria de privilegii. De această dată, numai ei au drept de acces într-un local istoric, numai ei au dreptul de a servi mâncărurile cele mai alese la un preţ de nimic. Toţi ceilalţi ieşeni sunt rugaţi să iasă afară din clădire, eventual să se uite din afara porţii.

În realitate, însă, nu este vorba despre confirmarea vreunei vocaţii autentice îndreptate spre promovarea valorilor ieşene, ci despre polivalenţa unor interese care, bineînţeles, nu-şi vor găsi niciodată confirmarea în vreo notă inovativă de îmbogăţire a culturii (făcută cu pilduitoare pasiune şi temeinicie). Aceşti indivizi lunecoşi, care au ajuns la conducerea facultăţilor, folosindu-se de resursele instituţiei strict în folosul membrilor "familiei", n-au nici timpul şi nici vocaţia reflexivităţii pentru a aprofunda înţelegerea principiului următor: "Abundența de privilegii alimentează inerția și erodează atât progresul, cât și moralitatea."

Cu cât ești mai neavizat în domeniul cunoașterii, cu atât ești mai predispus să faci manevre subtile în favoarea propriei persoane și să îți creezi avantaje nejustificate !

Lipsa totală de angajament față de moralitate și progres, negând astfel patrimoniul comun al societății, rezultă din acumularea peste măsură de privilegii. Acest lucru poate fi considerat o regresie sau decadență, o reacţie la criza valorilor, deoarece societatea se îndepărtează de valorile pozitive în loc să progreseze și să se îmbunătățească. Dacă ne gândim bine, accesul permis doar "membrilor familiei" în această clădire istorică, urmează modelul Cosa Nostra, deoarece conducătorii facultăţii au reuşit să transforme un simbol al patrimoniului ieşean într-un bastion al privilegiilor lor exclusive.

Bun, dar cine sunt de fapt profesorii de la Cuza? Vă rog să verificaţi singuri ce vă spun acum. Ei sunt o familie extinsă, o unitate exterioară de interese, ancorată exclusiv în materialitate. Aici toţi profesorii sunt rude: soţul şi soţia, copiii, vecinii, prietenii, verişorii, cumătrii, nepoţii, adică un enorm sistem de "pile şi relaţii" ghidat exact după modelul lui Al Capone care îşi proteja și promova membrii familiei sale în organizația sa.

Iar dacă Al Capone a condus un imperiu criminal care se ocupa cu contrabandă de alcool, jocuri de noroc și prostituție, aici în universitatea Cuza găsim un imperiu de impostori deveniţi peste noapte "intelectuali" care, creându-şi de privilegii prin poziția ierarhică, reuşesc tot mai mult să ducă la diminuarea contribuției la progres și la îndepărtarea de normele morale edificatoare. În caz că nu ştiaţi, universitatea Cuza a devenit în ultimii 30 de ani o adevărată afacere, înfloritoare, profitabilă şi tenebroasă, făcută pe spinarea studenţilor naivi, buni plătitori. Toţi cei care au trecut pe la conducerea facultăţii, toţi de la primul până la ultimul, au intrat benevol pe terenul propice al corupţiei.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi orientezi demersurile de transformare a autorității tale într-un efort de deschidere spre spaţiul investiţional, îndreptat spre autenticitatea unei initiative de tipul "cu ce dai, cu aia ţi se întoarce" ?

Altfel spus, universitatea Cuza a devenit o caracatiță care operează lipsită de orice scrupule, conducând la o scădere a efortului în progres și la o îndepărtare de comportamentul moral constructiv. Înghesuindu-se în fiecare colț al societății, această La Piovra îşi extinde tentaculele în toate direcțiile, în toate oraşele din ţară, prin intermediul filialelor sau legăturilor cu alte facultăţi. Bineînţeles că membrii acestei familii numeroase nu înţeleg aspecte de genul: "fiecare reuşită în activitatea profesională este un demers în realizarea unor valori morale".

De unde să ştie ei aşa ceva? Cu cât își creează mai multe privilegii, cu atât devin mai puțin muncitori și mai puțin dispuşi să contribuie la avansarea științei sau la respectarea normelor morale edificatoare. Oamenii care nu au cunoaştere, întotdeauna au ca obiectiv materialitatea.

Hai să mai vedeţi ceva. Orice carte scrisă de aceste "somităţi" conţine aproape de două ori mai multe surse biografice decât numărul de pagini din întreaga carte. Te întrebi dacă au reuşit să conceapă măcar o singură frază fără "inspiraţia" furnizată de la alţii. Până şi titlul cărţii ar trebui să aibă o notă de subsol. Iar dacă întrebi orice cadru didactic ce este un blog, sau un website, vei rămâne cu totul stupefiat: 99% din profesori nu au un blog personal în secolul 21. Ei n-au reuşit nici până în ziua de azi să spună două cuvinte, din mintea lor, pe o pagină de internet. Habar n-au ce-i schimbarea sau tehnologia, habar n-au ce-i cu viaţa lor. Toţi sunt o apă şi un pământ, de la cel mai de sus, până la cel mai de jos. Atât de mici şi neînsemnaţi la nivel intelectual, şi atât de neputincioşi în faţa voinţei divine.

Leadership: Este posibil ca din manipularea percepției realităţii să rezulte o performanță controlată prin aplicarea secretă a unui "efect de distanțare" de public?

Bine, dar poate vă întrebaţi ce este corupţia? Ei bine, corupţia reprezintă aceste jocuri de interese, nesfârşite aranjamente, şmecherii şi escrocherii la care recurg membrii familiei pentru a-şi obţine "porţia de supă" la un preţ redus, şi fără ca nimeni altcineva în afară de ei să nu guste din celelalte capodopere gastronomice ale maestrului bucătar. Iar supa are întotdeauna un alt gust, mai sofisticat, atunci când comanzi în cât mai multe restaurante de lux, din diferite colţuri ale lumii, şi mai ales când nu trebuie să plăteşti nimic. Totul plăteşte universitatea din banii studenţilor. Înţelegeţi ce vreau să spun, da?

Omul cu multe privilegii este adesea cel mai departe de a contribui la progres și moralitate. Drept dovadă, pe când eram student, consultând cartea unei profesoare oarecare, la o notă de subsol am găsit un weblink ce făcea trimitere spre o lucrare scrisă în limba engleză din care erau traduse şi copiate cuvânt cu cuvânt, pagini întregi, da chiar în lucrarea ei. Atunci mi-am dat seama că domniţa a tradus pagini întregi din diferite cărţi, le-a adunat într-o singură lucrare, şi probabil astfel a ajuns peste noapte mare profesoară. Nesimţire totală, nu-i aşa? Exact tiparul Elenei Ceauşescu care deşi era analfabetă, abuza de autoritatea soţului ei pentru a-şi trece numele ca şi "coautor" pe lucrările realizate de alţii.

De fapt, cred că aceeaşi procedură au urmat-o mulţi alţi membri ai familiei pentru a ajunge profesori, iar nimeni nu le-a verificat lucrările. Mai mult ca sigur, dacă ar lua cineva lucrările profesorilor la "puricat", ar găsi mai multe cazuri de plagiat decât poate încăpea în obrazul gros. Ca să nu mai spun, tezele de doctorat ale profesorilor au dispărut complet de pe faţa pământului. Nimeni nu ştie ce scrie în doctoratele alea care, totuşi, le-a adus o grămadă de beneficii. Iar asta pentru că familia universitarilor se ghidează după principiul ferm al obscurităţii: "Nimeni să nu afle, totul trebuie să rămână ascuns de văzul lumii".

Leadership: Confidenţialitatea cu care îţi asiguri accesul la exercitarea puterii oferă posibilitatea de a controla modul în care publicul percepe o anumită situație?

Dar adevărul iese întotdeauna la iveală. Tocmai aceşti indivizi, disimulați sub prestigiul profesiei de profesor, sunt nimeni alţii decât falşi învăţători de care aminteşte Biblia, ei sunt trădătorii de neam de care vorbea Constantin Noica cu aproape un secol în urmă. Şi, cu cât ei reuşesc să îşi creeze mai multe privilegii, cu atât vor fi mai mult inclinaţi spre a săvârşi abuzuri în folosul "familiei". Totul pentru familie, şi numai pentru familie.

Poate că, în curând, toate muzeele din Iaşi vor trece în subordinea universităţii Cuza, şi vor deveni "cluburi exclusiviste" ale familiei. La Sagrada Familia. Iar ceilalţi români nu vor putea să le mai viziteze, chiar dacă aceste clădiri fac parte din patrimoniul cultural naţional, ci vor fi obligaţi să le privească, atât cât se poate, din afara porţilor închise.

Aceasta este istoria rescrisă a trădării la români.

Ieri după-amiază, urcând dealul Copoului, un domn în vârstă, de vreo 67 de ani trăgea de poartă ca să intre în "Casa Universitarilor din Iaşi". Era foarte cald afară. Omul, un simplu turist venit tocmai din Tulcea, s-a oprit să bea ceva rece la o terasă frumos amenajată. Din păcate, lacătul cu care era închisă poarta din faţa clădirii a semnalat o restricție elitistă, sugerând o exclusivitate nejustificată, o separare intenționată între privilegiați și restul lumii.

Lacătul este semnul că somităţile laşiului, universitarii, au intrat în concediu. Şi atunci când ei sunt în vacanţele asigurate de universitate, accesul într-o clădire cu mare valoare istorică este interzis publicului. Chiar şi atunci când ei se vor întoarce din concediu, accesul publicului larg va fi în continuare restricționat.

Important este să nu uităm această nedreptate, să ne exprimăm nemulțumirea și să solicităm acces egal la patrimoniul nostru istoric.

Leadershipul de calitate trebuie să se ghideze după următorul principiu: "Succesul bazat pe valori morale devine o reușită profesională doar atunci când cunoașterea nu devine un instrument de restricționare nejustificată a drepturilor celorlalți semeni."

Principiul inegalității progresive se referă la abuzul pe care îl comit oamenii lipsiţi de moralitate şi cultură, spre obţinerea de beneficii în folosul personal. Principiul poate fi formulat astfel: "Cuantumul privilegiilor pe care ţi le acorzi este invers proporțional cu angajamentul față de progres și moralitate."

Principiul înţelegerii cu tine însuţi

Felul cum contribui la înţelegerea realităţii care te încătuşează, conturează adevărata lume a percepţiilor despre valoarea pe care ți-o inspiră viața.

Pentru întâia oară înţelegeam că propria mea supravieţuire depindea de supravieţuirea lumii, tot aşa cum măiestria unui pictor depinde de motivaţia pentru care pictează, ştiind că profunda inegalitate între cei bolnavi şi cei sănătoşi era rezultatul multiplicării unei gene iniţiale - a răului.

O luciditate fără precedent în analiza realităţii, o aventură a spiritului în contact permanent cu explorarea materiei, explozia copleşitoare a unei nebunii ce traversa firesc meandrele dăruirii inutile de sine, toate acestea păreau să izvorască din adâncurile unei trăiri, dincolo de orizontul meu.

Ca orice alt muritor de rând, doar că puţin mai avantajat de hazard şi de însăşi apariţia unui fenomen misterios - al credinţei în planul unui Dumnezeu necunoscut, îmi reformulam fără încetare convingerile, reexaminam regulile unui mediu tot mai ostil - reguli introduse în structura realității ce revendica prioritatea unei cereri anterioare: "Stay Alive ! "

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi păstrezi o poziție dominantă, îmbinată cu umanismul și conștiința propriilor slăbiciuni, pentru a deschide noi orizonturi de cunoaștere și transcendență?

Numaidecât, forţa călăuzitoare a deducţiei şi prudenţei mă îndruma spre o cale neştiută, cât se poate de dură, unde totul părea desprins din memoria întunecată a pictorului Edgar Freemantle, din Duma Key. Mai aveam multe de suferit, de răbdat şi de învăţat până ce să ajung la constarea scriitorului Todd Burpo, că "Raiul există".

Obsedat de plăcerea de a privi, de a descoperi aventuri noi, de a mă preface încrezător într-o poziţie dominantă de dragul autenticului umanism, ceea ce mă plasa în ipostaza unui artist chinuit între inspiraţia geniului său şi disperarea întunecată a minţii intrată în dialog cu Dumnezeu, care e tot una cu paza gândurilor, am început să mă privesc ca pe o biruinţă a vieţii asupra morţii.

Să fi fost oare un simptom al unei stări psihotice? Numai intrarea neaşteptată în infernul lui Dante îmi deschidea noi orizonturi spre transcendenţă, spre noi senzații, spre noi cunoașteri, mai ales că în subconştientul meu se formase deja un fond de răutate.

Leadership: Adopţi o atitudine de împingere a raţiunii spre formarea „Omului Nou", prefăcându-te încrezător într-o poziţie dominantă de dragul autenticului propriului Sine?

Una din destăinuirile lui Humbert Humbert din romanul Lolita, ilustrează aceeaşi atitudine abordată de mine, o atitudine de împingere a raţiunii undeva ...mai încolo..., având la bază o anumită emoție negativă care trebuia să se consume într-un fel.

"Am visat uneori că încerc să ucid. Ştiţi ce se întâmplă? De pildă, ţin în mână o puşcă. Ochesc spre un duşman invizibil care mă priveşte interesat. Oh, apăs pe trăgaci, perfect, dar gloanţele cad moale, unul după altul, din gura bleagă a ţevii. Singurul meu gând, în acele vise, era să-mi ascund fiascoul, să nu-l sesizeze duşmanul meu, care încet-încet începea să

Fidelitatea faţă de tine însuți se determină în funcție de valoarea pe care ți-o acorzi atunci când trebuie să-ți accepți limitările în lupta cu imperfecţiunile și rătăcirile tale.

Cu intensitate, în esenţa mea se justificau aberaţiile, prejudecăţile unei morale care favoriza tendinţa spre excesul de a adopta simţământul de ascundere a unei neputinţe, vina propriului eşec pe flacăra roşie a presentimentului de finitudine a unei existenţe precedată de neant.

Afirmam apoi, că uite ce mult pot trăi dacă îmi inteţesc căutările spre o experienţă de limită, spre un tragic al întrebării de recapitulare a motivelor pentru care îmi refuzam orice invitaţie la culoare, şi al răspunsului pe care mă temeam să-l aflu. Sau poate eram eu prea sentimental.

Cel ce îşi acordă o valoare unicat de tipul: „Nu pot să-mi corectez pornirile sufleteşti", este mai aproape a se arăta încântat de atmosfera încordată a visării decât cel ce își acordă o valoare unicat de tipul: „Mă simt în stare să joc în finală".

Atitudinea care produce leadershipul este de multe ori o rejucare a finalei dintre ceea ce te rănește și ceea ce te transformă într-un visător, din care iese victorioasă conștiința spiritului de unitate.

Cu siguranţă, nu mai eram un Michelangelo al propriei sale vieţi, având posibilitatea să-mi modelez soarta după bunul plac. Ci eram conturul inexpresiv, încărcat, al unui alter ego revoltat faţă de eşecul angajării într-un joc al perspectivelor de situaţie, în acelaşi timp raţional şi iraţional. Eram un Humbert Humbert care se defineşte prin coloratura unei lumi decăzute, ducând în cârcă un rol greoi.

Autenticul propriului Sine, care poate revoluţiona leadershipul, se formează prin forţa responsabilităţii de a te raporta la imperfecţiunile și rătăcirile tale, iar în umbra lor să te descoperi ca o conştiinţă a valorii în raport cu un om "cu totul altul".

Răspunsul tău la cererea unui mediu ostil prezintă o particularitate a limitărilor de acces la raţiunea credinţei într-un adevăr care te eliberează şi îţi dă şansa unui nou inceput?

Principiul înţelegerii cu tine însuți se poate formula astfel: Felul cum contribui la înţelegerea realităţii care te încătuşează, conturează adevărata lume a percepţiilor despre valoarea pe care ți-o inspiră viața.

Să te înţelegi cu tine însuţi înseamnă să te lupţi cu realitatea, fără să-ţi pui singur beţe în roate.

Principiul interdependenţei

Când un om îi înşală încrederea liderului, îi ştirbeşte acestuia şi încrederea în capacitatea de a conduce.

În anul 2008, laboratorul unui mare spital a hotărât să se acrediteze. Pentru că managerul tehnic fusese deja desemnat, conducerea spitalului a trebuit să numească o persoană de încredere care să fie RMC (Responsabil cu Managementul Calităţii). Grea alegere, pentru că o asemenea funcţie presupune profesionalism, perseverenţă şi verticalitate. Din micul colectiv de specialişti cu studii superioare din laborator, o singură persoană, Bogdan M., s-a oferit voluntar pentru această funcţie care necesita timp şi competenţă. Managerul tehnic, ca şi conducerea spitalului, au acceptat.

Deşi pe parcursul anilor precedenţi între managerul tehnic şi Bogdan M. au existat divergenţe de opinii, ei au purces totuşi la întocmirea procedurilor generale. Cu ajutorul unui consultant specializat în acest domeniu, până la sfârşitul anului 2008 se întocmiseră peste jumătate de proceduri.

Dar în anul 2009, datorită restricţiilor financiare la nivel de spital, impuse de forurile superioare, s-a sistat consultanţa în vederea acreditarii. Neavând încotro, managerul tehnic al laboratorului a decis să implementeze procedurile generale întocmite deja, şi care erau posibile fără investiţii financiare prea mari din partea spitalului.

Lucrurile sunt de obicei judecate după urmări. Tocmai atunci când laboratorul s-a confruntat cu acea mare problemă, managerul tehnic s-a izbit de opoziţia lui Bogdan M. care nu a mai vrut, sub nicio formă, să se mai implice în acest proces de acreditare. Imediat ce a realizat că sarcinile pe care le are de executat s-au înmulţit şi au devenit mai grele, el a renunţat la funcţia lui.

Dacă s-ar fi oprit aici nu ar fi făcut prea mult rău, dar nu s-a oprit aici. El a instigat personalul împotriva managerului tehnic, a destabilizat fragilul echilibru din laborator, ajungând să pună chiar beţe în roate managerului tehnic. Consecinţa fiind imposibilitatea continuării procesului de acreditare, precum şi crearea unui curent de opinie negativ în colectivul laboratorului vis a vis de acreditare şi faţă de această funcţie de RMC care a fost refuzată de toţi.

Leadership: Eşti constrâns de necesitatea continuităţii angajamentelor asumate să te plasezi semnificativ sub standardul propriei tale expresii: "ceea ce era un câştig am socotit ca pierdere a măsurii"?

Oamenii siguri se cunosc în împrejurări nesigure. Care să fie pricina acestei ciudăţenii sufleteşti care îl determină pe omul cu o poziţie importantă să se elibereze de orice fel de obligaţii şi să refuze să-şi asume responsabilităţile ce îi revin atunci când situaţia devine critică şi, mai mult decât atât, să se răzvrătească chiar împotriva celui care i-a întins o mână de ajutor, fără să arate nici cel mai mic regret?

Probabil lipsa de experienţă, de profesionalism, incapacitatea de a găsi soluţii la problemele spinoase în momentele critice, la care se adaugă falsitatea şi ipocrizia. Când un om îţi făgăduieşte cinste, dar te răsplăteşte cu necinste, când îţi făgăduieşte loialitate, dar te răsplăteşte prin vrăjmăşie punându-ţi beţe în roate, instigând cu o ură înverşunată pe toată lumea împotriva ta, nu ai de ales: ori să-ţi dai demisia din funcţia pe care o deţii, ori te descotorosești de el.

Ideea de complementaritate, solidaritate şi sentimentul de unitate, le lipseşte cu desăvârşire acelor oameni care nu se pot mulţumi cu un rol secundar, sau care, nu au tăria să-şi asume răspunderea pentru propriile decizii sau acţiuni în cazul unei eventuale răsturnări de situaţie. Un astfel de om, oricât de multă stimă şi consideraţie i-ai arăta, te va lăsa baltă fără nicio remuşcare exact atunci când ai mai multă nevoie de el. Şi în acest caz, povara care trebuie cărată, grea aproape cât o lume, va trebui s-o ridici şi s-o duci până la capăt de unul singur.

Măsura valorii tale se pierde atunci când vrei să-ţi demonstrezi valoarea, în mod progresiv, într-un context de confruntare cu o opoziţie care îţi pune la încercare adevăratul tău Sine. Acel sine pe care raţiunea îl cuprinde numai în clipa când începi să te consumi în vederea realizării misiunii tale.

Leadershipul se întemeiază ca reacţie la trecerea spre o nouă treaptă de maturizare atunci autenticul în ceea ce vrei să te reprezinte nu exprimă o atitudine de negare faţă de ceea ce îţi depăşeşte limitele.

Autonomia dată de exemplul personal nu se potriveşte definiţiilor date orgoliului în cazul unei schimbări de situaţie. Ea se loveşte de o barieră numită lipsă de experienţă care te opreşte de la a comunica în mod natural cu ceilalţi, barieră pe care o fortifici cu concepţiile tale despre cine are dreptate şi cine greşeşte în punctul în care tu te faci vinovat de toate.

Atunci când exista rea voinţă, ranchiună, nepăsare, orgoliu hipertrofiat, nu se poate obţine succesul. Dacă dintr-un motiv sau altul un membru al echipei tale începe să-ţi pună beţe în roate cu o înverşunare nemaipomenită, cu o răutate fără margini, …mici înţepături, dar multe, şi fără oprire…, nu poţi decât să simţi fiorul dezastrului străbătându-şi tot trupul, simţi că eşti tras în jos, că te goleşti de viaţă, şi ca urmare îţi pierzi energia şi încrederea în forţele proprii.

Îţi doreşti să nu te poată influenţa, să înceteze, dar dacă el continuă şi nu se lasă până ce nu te vede totalmente fără vlagă, ce faci? Ei bine, în acest caz n-ai decât două variante: ori te resemnezi, ori continui de unul singur să faci totul, ceea ce este foarte greu.

Înainte să înţelegi leadershipul trebuie să treci de cea mai dificilă parte a experienţei de acuzat: să-ţi asumi o vină pentru care mai întâi te pedepseşti singur, la nivel subconştient şi moral.

Ca lider trebuie să dai dovadă de o tenacitate nemaiîntâlnită în urmărirea scopului propus. Dar fără oameni de nădejde, nu vei reuşi niciodată să ajungi prea departe. Trebuie să te încrezi în ei, în adâncul fiinţei tale, să te bizui pe cuvântul lor şi pe sprijinul lor la nevoie. Dar, în acelaşi timp, trebuie să te pregăteşti sufleteşte şi pentru noi lupte. Căci nu întotdeauna lucrurile vor sta atât de roz precum îţi închipui, iar adevărata natură umană nu se lasă descoperită uşor. Unii oameni pot determina stagnarea şi nu progresul.

P.S. Succesul unui lider depinde în totalitate de calitatea oamenilor pe care îi conduce.

Principiul lumilor paralele

On Decembrie 14, 2010

Lasă-i pe oameni să aibă acces la lumea pe care o construieşti, altfel nu vei reuşi să te integrezi niciodată în lumea lor.

Cineva a făcut mai demult o observaţie care mi-a rămas bine întipărită în minte: "În zilele noastre, este nevoie de două lucruri: primul, oamenii bogaţi trebuie să afle cum trăiesc oamenii săraci, al doilea, oamenii săraci trebuie să afle cum procedează oamenii bogaţi."

Aceste cuvinte spuse cu o mare înţelepciune relevă însă o realitate tristă şi adevărată – aceea că între oameni există mari distanţe şi mari bariere de comunicare. Tot ele relevă faptul că atât lumea oamenilor săraci, cât şi cea a oamenilor bogaţi, vor rămâne mereu două lumi paralele până ce nu se vor descoperi reciproc, până ce nu se vor uni şi se vor susţine una pe cealaltă cu maximă seriozitate şi cu mare bucurie sufletească.

Leadership: Ai pretenţia să accesezi şi să trăieşti într-o dimensiune a eternei stăpâniri, dacă tu însuţi nu-ţi poţi stăpâni impulsul de a te supraestima?

Lumea închisă a căpitanului Nemo. Dacă ai citit "2000 de leghe sub mări" de Jules Verne, atunci precis îţi aminteşti de cei trei tovarăşi, Aronnax, Ned şi Conseil, pe care soarta i-a aruncat pe vasul căpitanului Nemo. Timp de zece luni aceştia au dus o viaţă incredibilă, sechestraţi în imensul submarin ce călătorea cu o viteză deosebită, supunându-se în tot acel timp întru totul ordinelor căpitanului, care iniţial le-a promis libertatea, dar nu s-a ţinut niciodată de cuvânt.

Deşi căpitanul Nemo s-a arătat iniţial deosebit de binevoitor şi de prietenos, cei trei şi-au dat destul de repede seama că pe acesta nu-l interesa aproape deloc soarta lor. Nu s-au înşelat. Toţi trei au fost consideraţi de Nemo nişte marionete pe care le mânuia după voia lui. Nu i-a ascultat niciodată cu interes, nu le-a acordat deloc importanţă cererilor şi doleanţelor lor, ci i-a ţinut ostatici, întreţinându-le speranţele de libertate numai cu promisiuni deşarte.

Niciodată cei trei tovarăşi nu ştiau încotro se îndreptau. Nemo era un comandant care nu se temea de nimic, era o persoană ciudată, care te speria, care îţi inducea acel cumplit simţământ de teamă oricând dorea el. Părea că-şi înăbuşise cu totul simţămintele omeneşti – dorea să-i oprească pe cei trei pentru totdeauna la bordul lui Nautilus, adică, indirect, să-i supună unei adevărate robii. Aceasta era regula de aur a căpitanului Nemo: cine intra în Nautilus nu trebuia să-l mai părăsească pentru ca secretul vieţii lui şi a bogăţiilor colosale pe care le adunase să nu fie niciodată dezvăluit.

Supraestimarea este vina de a te simţi blocat într-un model repetitiv de alegere a opţiunilor de personalizare a realităţii, de la idealism la cinism, pentru care ar trebui inventată pedeapsa de a te angaja într-o călătorie fără însoţitori şi fără întoarcere.

Două lumi paralele, două percepţii diferite. Care e cea câştigătoare? Căpitanul Nemo era unul din acei savanţi ale căror merite nu sunt preţuite cum trebuie şi care răspund prin dispreţul lor la nepăsarea oamenilor. Nimeni nu-i înţelegea gândurile, nimeni nu avea acces la ele.

Dacă ajungi să descoperi un sâmbure de umanitate la un astfel de individ, nu înseamnă nicidecum că-l cunoşti pe deplin. Sigur te înşeli în privinţa lui. Când crezi că ştii prea bine ce fel de fiinţă e, când crezi că îi cunoşti prea bine simplitatea, afecţiunea ce ţi-o poartă, blândeţea-i naturală, cazi în capcana pe care el ţi-a întins-o cu multă abilitate. Într-un final ai să constaţi că, de fapt, lumea lui e o lume care nu poate fi împărţită cu nimeni, e o lume la care accesul este limitat doar la anumite persoane – de regulă de acelaşi soi cu el.

Trebuie să-i înţelegi refuzurile şi încăpăţânarea unui astfel de om, dându-i o ascultare absolută, altfel se va transforma într-un aprig duşman în faţa căruia n-ai nicio putere. Dacă gândeşti cumva că insistenţele tale ar putea schimba hotărârea lui cu privire la orice propunere pe care o consideri necesară pentru viitorul vostru comun, atunci te înşeli amarnic. N-are niciun rost să-i schimbi intenţiile, la fel cum n-are niciun rost să te încăpăţânezi să schimbi imposibilul. Un veritabil savant nu poate face echipă decât cu un alt veritabil savant, la fel cum un om bogat îşi găseşte de regulă prieteni numai printre oamenii bogaţi. Ca să ai acces la lumea unui om ca Nemo, trebuie să ai puterea să construieşti şi tu un Nautilus, altfel vei rămâne doar pe post de tolerat.

Leadership: Te refugiezi în imperiul unei singure lumi cu condiţia de a te dezvălui într-o poveste apăsătoare despre iluzia superiorităţii?

Una din marile iluzii ale leadershipului, de care oricând poţi fi înfrânt, este aceea de a te încrede în Dumnezeu ca într-un foc mistuitor, crezând cu tărie că El te va răsplăti cu recunoştinţa de a fi egalul Lui. Iar una din strădaniile cele mai teribile de a nu te cunoaşte este să te mişti continuu într-o singură direcţie fără să auzi "îmi vine să mă opresc."

Un om însufleţit de ideile şi de pasiunile sale, îşi va apăra întotdeauna imperiul propriei sale lumi. Căpitanul Nemo, omul acesta deosebit de misterios, nu s-a arătat aproape deloc în timpul drumului, fiind peste măsură de ocupat cu munca lui ştiinţifică. Iar cei trei tovarăşi au avut dreptul să cunoască numai o anumită parte a submarinului. Ceea ce reprezintă dovada clară a faptului că le era interzis să aibă acces la lumea lui ascunsă – cea adevărată.

Poate că ar trebui să înţelegem modul de gândire al căpitanului Nemo. La urma urmelor el îşi construise singur submarinul, despre a cărui existenţă nu ştia nimeni. Oamenii trăiau încă cu convingerea fermă că toate naufragiile misterioase care aveau loc se datorau unui cetaceu uriaş. Eliberându-şi ostaticii, ar fi însemnat să divulge secretul, iar întreaga lui muncă să fie compromisă.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o legătură sufletească cu oamenii din jurul tău, fără să-ţi respingi profunzimea de a-i judeca prin prisma dualităţii dintre revoltă și resemnare, vinovăția asumată și instinctul criminal?

Ce legătură a existat între acele trei sufletele eroice şi sufletul căpitanului Nemo? Absolut nici una. Căci două lumi complet diferite, fără o punte de legătură, se vor respinge mereu. În loc să se bucure de călătoria subacvatică, aşa cum li s-a promis, cei trei tovarăşi au ajuns să regrete timpul pe care l-au petrecut în submarin. Şi pentru că nu s-au putut bizui pe bunăvoinţa căpitanului, s-au folosit de cel dintâi prilej ca să fugă. Numai printr-un miracol au reuşit să scape cu viaţă.

Căpitanul Nemo a eşuat în final. Lumea lui ştiinţifică şi plină de bogaţii s-a prăbuşit. Ceea ce reprezintă dovada clară a faptului că modul în care a abordat lucrurile, felul în care a privit lumea, felul în care şi-a conceput viziunea, şi mai ales felul în care a relaţionat şi a comunicat cu oamenii, a fost ineficient şi neproductiv. Fiindcă nu s-a putut integra în lumea oamenilor de rând, a plătit un preţ mare.

Lasă-i pe oameni să aibă acces la lumea pe care o construieşti, altfel nu vei reuşi să te integrezi niciodată în lumea lor şi vei fi părăsit. Sau, chiar mai rău decât atât, vei plăti un preţ mare pentru egoismul tău.

Înainte să te comporţi ca un rege atotstăpânitor asigură-te că-ţi doreşti să porţi coroana a cărei greutate te poate strivi.

Principiul percepţiei de fond

Imaginea căreia îi dai viaţă prin intermediul creaţiei corespunde unei reprezentări vizuale comparative între ceea ce se ascunde şi ceea ce se dezvăluie.

Începe meciul, finala Italia-Anglia. N-am fost niciodată microbist, deși am jucat fotbal în tinereţea mea. Sună tare ciudat, nu-i așa? Și dacă urmăresc numai finala, la fiecare campionat European, este pentru că orice meci important poate da o învățătură importantă despre viață.

Nu țin cu nicio echipă, dar sper să fie un meci frumos. Deja este 1-0. Spectacolul a început, sau s-a terminat? Căci așa este în fotbal, la fel ca și în viață, ne place să înscriem, iar după ce-am înscris, nu mai facem un joc frumos. Surprinzător este că adevărata chemare a omului în această viaţă, dreptul de a fi un performer prin prisma şansei primordiale de a înscrie un nou succes, poate lua o întorsătură radicală: s-ar putea ca tentaţia de a fi bun cu orice preţ să fie de fapt o solicitare mult prea mare din partea unui om fără nicio pricepere în domeniul calităţii şi eficienţei.

Or ce înseamnă un joc frumos? E atunci când amândouă echipele sunt echilibrate, când există fair play, și când amândouă luptă pentru a obține un rezultat pozitiv, nu neapărat o victorie, ci o intrare în istorie, sau o cotație preferată a fanilor.

Cât de important este acest lucru de ştiut. Recunoașterea și schimbarea atitudinii noastre față de viață sunt similare cu extazul eliberator al publicului la cote inimaginabile, la fiecare fază de gol.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi măreşti posibilitățile de experimentare a unui moment de trecere în amintire, demonstrând că îţi poţi stimula imaginația pentru a reprezenta pe ecranul mental o imagine plină de viaţă a cărei forţa artistică este amplificată de un inegalabil freamăt lăuntric?

Fotbalul nu are nevoie de condiţii speciale sau atenţie excesivă pentru a avea grijă de "spaţiul lăuntric etern" în care se desfăşoară conţinutul vieţii tale. Or depărtarea de ceea ce îţi face mare plăcere să faci, doar ca să te antrenezi pentru examenul vieţii, este definită ca o perioada de reconectare, de meditație şi de mindfulness care te ajută să-ţi reduci nivelul stresului şi pe cel al anxietăţii.

Aş mai adăuga ceva. Fotbalul nu este o creaţie menită să trezească sentimente spirituale, să răscolească în trecutul tău şi să fie privită cu ochi sensibili, cum sunt ochii unui pictor care şi-a redesenat cu îndrăzneală viaţa. Fotbalul nu intră în categoria de curiozităţi inexplicabile care-l fac pe poet să transgreseze, prin conştiinţa apartenenţei la fiinţă, toate obstacolele spaţiului şi timpului. Mai degrabă, cred că fotbalul este doar tentaţia de a căuta fericirea de moment într-un eveniment plin de glorie care nu-ţi aparţine ţie, ci jucătorilor titulari. Deci, cum spuneam, la mijloc este vorba tot de asemănare şi comparaţie.

Dar comparaţia cu fotbalul este o figură de stil care constă în asocierea unor imagini, situații sau personaje aflate în aceeaşi arie vizuală a spectatorilor. Hai mai bine să încercăm altceva. Imaginează-te în postura unui pictor care transpune pe pânză imaginile create de poet. În acest caz, iată cum ar sta lucrurile, aşa cum le vedea cineva pe o pagină web:

"Culoarea dominantă va fi albastru închis deoarece reprezintă noaptea. Voi utiliza culorile reci pentru a exprima momentul zilei din poezie şi pentru a crea un tablou cât mai real. Voi aduce în prim plan doi îndrăgostiți şi de asemenea voi evidenția luna şi lumina palidă pe care ea o emană, cu scopul de a crea o atmosferă mai romantică. În plan mai depărtat voi picta apele ce sclipesc în lumina lunii. Voi folosi umbrele pe lângă copacii desfrunziţi şi lumina doar în jurul lunii."

Ca să concluzionez. Pentru a întregi fizionomia unui fenomen de rezonanţă lăuntrică, deci fizionomia acestui nedepăşit fenomen de comparaţie şi de relaţie cauză-efect, trebuie să încercăm să privim lucrurile nu numai de foarte de sus (din înălţimea unei glorii care ne linişteşte gândurile şi sufletul) ci şi foarte de aproape, de foarte din adânc, din prisma unui tablou al cărui subiect degajă pasiune şi mişcare, în culori calde, roz-portocalii, şi al cărui model de inspiraţie nu poate fi dezvăluit, ci doar intuit.

Leadershipul este realitatea pe care o percepi sau ţi-o creezi despre o imagine a cărei compoziţie constă în elaborarea unei forme de comparaţie a sinelui cu oglindirea ta într-un moment legendar.

Principiul percepţiei de fond are ca prim considerent de luat în seama acea formă de reflectare a realităţii în conştiinţa omului, prin care înţelegem un proces de comparaţie între o imagine care emoţionează prin impresia de viu, de autentic, de fapt trăit direct, nemijlocit, şi o imagine de mare fineţe a cărei esenţă este sensul lăuntric al fiinţei.

Să luăm mereu în calcul conținutul, suma elementelor care constituie structura internă a unui lucru, ceea ce apare ca esență a lui și îi condiționează aspectul, atunci când vrem să înţelegem leadershipul sau arta picturală.

Principiul privirii de dincolo de vedere

Ceea ce vezi în jur este sinonim cu felul în care îţi descrii gândurile într-o direcţie care susţine viaţa altui sistem de reflectare a realităţii.

Privesc acest trandafir zgribulit din grădina mea, zgribulit de o nemulţumire nedesluşită, de frica vreunei dureri viitoare. Trupul lui încă mai are multe de suportat. El îmi simte prezenţa tăcută, discretă, îngândurată, ca şi când am fi fost amândoi blocaţi într-un labirint psihologic, întreţinut artificial, în care odată ce te rătăceşti uiţi orice fel de egoism şi interese personale.

Într-adevăr, când te simţi abandonat, descumpănit, uitat, se resimte o nevoie acută de a şti mai multe despre lume, despre viaţa în sine, cu ale ei fragmente de clarobscur încadrate într-un tablou cu multe contraste bizare, neaşteptate şi atipice. Simt că aşa a trebuit să fie, ca cel uitat să fie amintit şi înnobilat cu acea tainică sclipire, hărăzită doar fiinţelor predestinate cu har, iar cel făgăduit unui destin de mare artist să posteze cu succes în catalogul nemuririi o frumuseţe aproape stelară.

Onestitatea cu care-mi notez şi îi cercetez experienţa vizuală, sentimentul de apartenenţă la aceeaşi realitate, reface puntea solemnă care ne reuneşte. Fiind un artist al culorilor şi nuanţelor bine alese, iar trandafirul fiind un model de mare inspiraţie, această complicitate la construirea unui metaunivers în care până şi moartea este relativă ne face să nu mai întoarcem ochii de la realitatea propriu-zisă - spre perspectivele abisal obsesive ale temerilor unor fiinţe înstrăinate de la adevărata lor identitate.

Nu mai cred nimic, nici chiar dacă ar trebui să mă pun în locul lui pentru a-mi da seama că, oricât de artist aş fi, tremur în faţa unei despărţiri de un prieten nou descoperit. Poate că, totuşi, am fost un trandafir în altă viaţă, şi nu orice trandafir, ci un splendid "Double Delight". De aceea spun, şi adesea îmi repet, că nu mă pot despărţi de mine însumi, fiindcă sunt compus dintr-o altă jumătate situată în alt plan de vibraţie.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti viziunea despre un model de realitate care te împinge spre creaţie, chiar şi atunci când realitatea prinde o altă "viaţă" în propria-i duplicitate?

Pentru a fi mai bine lămurit cu mine însumi, mi-aş sfătui inima să cerceteze bine ceea ce vede, înainte de a deveni cu adevărat gata să bată prin verificarea existenţei pulsului altcuiva. Trandafirul aparţine unei interiorităţi care înţelege doar parţial ce i se întâmplă, în timp eu aparţin întâmplării de a trăi interiorizarea ideii de non-diferenţiere calitativă între părţi, ca un continuum inseparabil între conceptul de „destin" şi acela de „creator".

Trandafirul nu dă semne că ar fi dispus să se însenineze astăzi, dar aş putea să-i amintesc de soarele blând de ieri. Şi intrucât suntem amândoi legaţi printr-o vastă zonă de tranziţie spre maturitate, printr-un soi de fir nevăzut, energetic şi spiritual, i-aş cere inimii mele îndrumare spre sursele unei arte net superioare faţă de ceea ce ofereau, la un moment dat, învăţămintele lui Schelling: "cel mai umil a devenit supremul, iar cel mai şters portret a devenit un univers poetic multicolor".

Mai mult decât atât, i-aş cere inimii mele să cerceteze viaţa pe Pământ cu ajutorul vederii unui trandafir, prin prisma obiectivului unui fotograf care surprinde acea zonă a câmpului vizual aflat în afara zonei obişnuite de vedere a muritorului de rând. Aici cred că sunt moralizatoare cuvintele lui Mika Waltari din romanul "Etruscul":

"Comorile şi bogăţiile pier. Minunate amfore pictate, statuete delicate, oare ce vă mai rămâne din ele? Doar din pictura de pe pereţii de piatră ai mormintelor se va mai păstra ceva. Fiindcă nimeni nu fură pereţi din morminte. Şi pietrele nepreţioase vor rămâne la locul lor. Dar nimeni nu le va putea citi.

Sunt sigur că, după ce mă voi apleca să ridic aceste pietre netede din pulberea în care secolele le vor fi îngropat, mă voi regăsi. Voi urca scara îngustă şi voi ieşi din nou la lumină. Ochii mei vor fi din nou vii şi vor vedea conul sacru al zeiţei de pe muntele ce se află în faţa mormântului. Mă voi recunoaşte, îmi voi reaminti de mine, cel care sunt acum. Iar după aceea... după aceea se va decide totul."

Leadership: Creaţia ta este îndreptată spre însuşirea unui destin menit să îşi asume versiunea unui simbol care captează dualitatea unui Eu real și imaginar în același timp?

Ce-am observat? Trandafirul este capabil să înţeleagă viaţa pe pământ, istoria ca şi prezentul, fără a avea nevoie să o definească în vreun fel, fiind el însuşi o concentrare de cultură expresivă, încorporând povestiri, idei, simboluri. Ca atare, într-un univers estetic paralel, strâns legaţi amândoi printr-o legătură condiţională, într-o singură concentrare de culoare pală manifestată pe fondul unui decor de poveste, se arată tocmai acea perspectivă asupra vieţii din care noi nu privim niciodată lucrurile, ca un ocean din al cărui vifor nu se vede o ieşire...

Din când în când, trandafirul îşi aruncă privirile în jur, ochii fiindu-i luminaţi involuntar de o licărire stranie. Şi ce vede el? Vede înfăptuirile, doar visate, ale unor gânduri care cu siguranţă sunt de moment, gânduri care aparţin tuturor, dar pe care puţini au curajul să le îmbrace în cuvinte. Pesemne, nici el nu poate să se desprindă de o realitate cuprinsă într-un tablou cu multe nuanţe, acea realitate a unei vieţi umane trăite prin artă, prin simbol, prin comparaţii, care deşi aparţine trecutului este prezentă tocmai prin forma dată lumii obiectuale.

Încă încerc să-i citesc în ochi propria-mi viaţă, cu micile înfăptuiri ale pensonului vorbitor care ştie cum să aştearnă pe pânză povestea unei mici urme a prezentului din întreaga istorie a Pământului. Şi, cel puţin pentru o clipă, mă văd în postura acelui creator care, putând a însufleţi o floare, piatra sau metalul, şi orice alt lucru din jur, nu poate totuşi să-şi schimbe destinul. Am doar dreptul să-mi consum destinul în felul în care simt, sau m-am simţit faţă de o întâmplare...

În cazul artei, leadershipul implică apartenenţa unui creator la instaurarea unui dualism al fiinţei sale: prin alimentarea unui ego care continuă să dețină puterea, şi prin inventarea unui Alter Ego care se proiectează într-un plan figurativ.

Principiul privirii de dincolo de vedere se referă la mijlocul prin care un artist suflă viaţă în orice corp din mediul înconjurător, acceptând ideea că totul provine din materie şi se transformă în materie la un alt nivel. Practic, artistul poate să transforme totul într-un tablou complet care, ca şi exerciţiu de imaginaţie, poate funcţiona de sine stătător.

Principiul rodirii

On Ianuarie 26, 2010

Pentru ca o relaţie să fie trainică, ea trebuie să rodească la timpul potrivit.

Nu ne mustră niciodată conştiinţă decât atunci când greşim. Iar cu cât greşeala este mai mare, cu atât eul nostru interior are mai mult de suferit. Dar în cazul cel mai rău, dacă greşeala pe care am făcut-o este prea gravă, riscăm să plătim un preţ foarte mare. E limpede ca lumina zilei că celebrul proverb „din greşeli învaţă omul" nu-şi mai are rostul dacă ajungem în punctul în care nu mai putem schimba nimic. Prin urmare, pentru ca lucrurile să fie întotdeauna aşa cum ne dorim noi să fie, pozitive şi frumoase, trebuie să ne ferim să facem greşeli majore. Sau putem avea norocul să întâlnim, la timpul potrivit, o persoană specială care să ne scape de necazuri, care să ne împiedice să facem greşeli iremediabile şi care să ne ghideze paşii în direcţia cea mai bună.

Alejandro, personajul principal din filmul „ The Mask of Zorro (1998) " a fost la un pas de a săvârşi o greşeală fatală, dar a fost salvat în ultimul moment de Don Diego de la Vega (Zorro). Se afla la o masă, beat, când deodată îl văzu căpitanul Harrison Love, cel care îi omorâse fratele. Fără să mai stea prea mult pe gânduri, cuprins de o furie fără margini, apucă sabia, se ridică de la masă şi se năpusti asupra lui.

Dar mare noroc a avut fiindcă Don Diego de la Vega i-a înăbuşit imboldul rău ce-i năvălea în inimă şi l-a împiedicat să-şi ducă la îndeplinire planul, altfel ar fi fost ucis şi nimeni nu ar mai fi putut răzbuna moartea fratelui său.

Leadership: Reacţia ta la dualitatea care te încearcă în momentele de cumpănă este o reprezentare a situării tale într-un context de acceptare a unor circumstanţe întâmplătoare?

Relaţiile trainice rodesc la timpul potrivit. La fel ca şi Alejandro, care voia să răzbune moartea fratelui său, Don Diego de la Vega dorea nespus să răzbune moartea mult iubitei lui soţii, Elena. Niciunul dintre ei n-ar fi reuşit să-şi atingă ţelul dacă ar fi acţionat pe cont propriu. Don Diego de la Vega, mai înţelept şi mai iscusit, i-a propus apoi lui Alejandro să colaboreze cu el, doar în felul acesta va reuşi să-şi răzbune fratele. Alejandro a acceptat şi, într-un timp foarte scurt, între ei s-a dezvoltat o relaţie strânsă de prietenie.

Dar oare întâlnirea lor a fost pur întâmplătoare sau nu? Ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă, să spunem, Don Diego de la Vega l-ar fi întâlnit pe Alejandro cu cinci ani mai devreme? Sau poate cu cinci ani mai târziu? Sau ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă numai unul dintre ei ar fi avut nevoie de celălalt, iar celălalt nu?

Ei bine, aproape sigur lucrurile ar fi stat cu totul altfel. Dar întâlnirea lor a avut loc exact la momentul potrivit, când fiecare a avut nevoie de celălalt. Astfel au fost pregătiţi să comunice bine, au avut încredere unul în altul şi şi-au putut atinge scopurile. Răsplata pentru alianţa pe care au încheiat-o a fost pe măsură. Într-o altă ordine de idei „au semănat" o sământă numită colaborare şi au cules „rodul" care, din păcate, s-a numit răzbunare.

Dualitatea este conflictul dintre negativ şi pozitiv care apare atunci când trebuie să iei o decizie presantă în circumstanţe inopinate. Mai întâi îţi renegi calităţile comparându-le cu ale altora, apoi îţi să îţi conştientizezi calităţile şi îţi precizezi cât mai exact sistemul de valori la care te raportezi, astfel încât să fii încredinţat că o anumită misiune ţi se potriveşte într-adevăr pentru a o îndeplini.

Cu siguranţă viaţa bate filmul. În realitate lucrurile nu stau nicidecum diferit faţă de cum s-au petrecut în „ The Mask of Zorro (1998) ", doar acţiunea şi timpul diferă. Întotdeauna cele mai reuşite relaţii sunt rezultatul dăruirii lipsite de egoism a două sau mai multe persoane în vederea îndeplinirii unui scop comun.

Leadership: Felul în care integrezi o experienţă personală fragilă în interiorul unui cadru de sprijin, schimbă optica prin care te raportezi la ceilalţi într-un mod de inferioritate sau de superioritate?

Coincidenţele nu sunt întâmplătoare. Atunci când îţi propui un scop măreţ şi aştepţi să se întâmple ceva bun, în mod surprinzător se produc tot felul de evenimente care te conduc în direcţia cea mai bună. Cu siguranţă, exact la momentul oportun, vei întâlni persoana potrivită care te poate ajuta să-ţi atingi scopurile, iar prin ajutorul pe care i-l vei oferi la rândul tău, o vei ajuta să-şi atingă propriile ei scopuri. Aşa cum remarca odată Brian Tracy, unul dintre cei mai cunoscuţi conferenţiari şi consultanţi pe probleme de dezvoltare personală şi profesională, în majoritatea cazurilor, coincidenţele nu sunt întâmplătoare. Fiecare aspect al vieţii este aşa cum trebuie să fie.

Cred că orice relaţie interumană, ca să se dezvolte şi reziste în timp, trebuie să se producă la momentul potrivit. Nicidecum înainte de vreme. Adică atunci când două sau mai multe persoane sunt pregătite din punct de vedere emoţional să întemeieze o relaţie de colaborare; atunci când îşi adună eforturile spre realizarea unui scop comun, când merg spre o direcţie unică. Relaţiile care se nasc rapid, dar care nu se sprijină pe o bază comună se ofilesc uşor şi mor. Ele nu sunt continue şi de durată cum ar fi normal.

O relaţie de colaborare este greu de stabilit şi greu de păstrat dacă două sau mai multe persoane nu au nimic în comun. Natura şi scopul relaţiei sunt cele care determină trăinicia ei. În mod cert, caracteristica tuturor relaţiilor interumane este angajamentul pe care şi-l iau două sau mai multe persoane, încă de la început, că se vor ajuta reciproc, în scopul realizării ţelurilor comune.

Dar întotdeauna când integrezi o experienţă personală fragilă în interiorul unui cadru de sprijin, se schimbă optica prin care te raportezi la ceilalţi. Poţi să te raportezi într-un mod de inferioritate, punându-ţi demnitatea înaintea sentimentelor şi înainte de a-ţi asuma vreo decizie. Sau poţi să te raportezi într-un mod de superioritate, renunţând la a recepţiona activ experienţe de învăţare şi oferind un feedback de tipul "mulţumesc, dar nu ţi-am cerut nimic" la sugestiile de prietenie.

Leadershipul reprezintă un mod de a-ţi exprima atitudinea de superioritate printr-o asumare a inferiorităţii atunci când trebuie să câştigi o experienţă de învăţare.

P.S. Numai cine are un scop clar definit şi este dispus să facă totul pentru a-l atinge va întâlni, la momentul potrivit, acea persoană demnă de încredere care să fie dispusă să colaboreze cu el şi să-l sprijine în tot ceea ce întreprinde. Sau, cum spunea Don Diego de la Vega: "Când elevul e gata, maestrul va apărea."

Momentele importante care îţi pot schimba viaţa sunt ca telefonul. Nu ştii niciodată când apar ele, după cum nu ştii niciodată când va suna telefonul. Dar atunci când sună, ridică receptorul şi răspunde. Poţi primi vestea cea bună care îţi va modifica viitorul.

O carte ce a meritat să o recitesc este „ Contele de Monte Cristo " de Alexandre Dumas. Ea înfăţişează povestea unui tânăr, Edmond Dantes care, trădat fiind de amicii săi, ajunge să fie întemniţat în castelul d'If, unde stă închis o lungă perioadă de timp. Ani de zile stă singur între pereţii reci de piatră, fără să întreţină o conversaţie cu nimeni. Dar nu se gândeşte să fugă – departe de el gândul acesta. Există lucruri care par atât de imposibil de înfăptuit, încât nici nu-ţi trece prin minte să le încerci, ci să le ocoleşti din instinct. Se resemnează cu gândul că îşi va sfârşi viaţa singur, departe de familie şi prieteni, iar acest gând îl împinge tot mai mult spre sinucidere.

Dar totul se schimbă într-o zi când, un alt deţinut, abatele Faria se iveşte pe neaşteptate în viaţa lui. Faria îi propune lui Edmond să i se alăture în demersul său de a săpa un tunel prin care să evadeze (adică să dedice acestei munci încă trei ani din viaţă, ca până la urmă, dacă vor reuşi să sape şaptesprezece metri pe sub pământ, să ajungă în faţa unei prăpăstii care dă în mare; apoi să se arunce de la cincisprezece-douăzeci de metri cu riscul de a cădea peste vreo stâncă, dacă nu cumva îi ucideau mai înainte plumbii santinelelor; în final să fie siliţi, dacă scapă de toate primejdiile acestea, să străbată înotând o leghe).

Leadership: Ai suficientă prezenţă de spirit ca să răspunzi la apelul salvator atunci când viaţa ta se sprijină pe ordinea reflecţiilor despre temeiurile justificării nefericirii tale în faţa lui Dumnezeu?

Edmond cade pe gânduri şi începe să-şi măsoare şansele. Dar până la urma acceptă cu condiţia ca abatele să-l înveţe tot ceea ce ştie: matematicile, fizică, istoria, etc.

Edmond "a răspuns" propunerii abatelui Faria de a-l ajuta la săparea tunelului care le-ar fi adus libertatea, iar mai departe acest răspuns i-a adus şi alte beneficii: să înveţe să scrie şi să citească, să înveţe filozofia şi să îşi dezvolte abilităţile şi îndemânarea în manevrarea armelor şi cunoaşterea oamenilor. Ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă n-ar fi răspuns la "apel"?

Şi ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă, atunci când s-a ivit prilejul să evadeze, n-ar fi ştiut să se folosească de el, chiar dacă erau şanse minime? Nu-i aşa? Poate că niciodată nu şi-ar fi putut recuceri fericirea şi libertatea furată, poate că niciodată nu i-ar mai fi pedepsit pe cei care l-au trădat, poate că niciodată nu i-ar mai fi putut răsplăti pe aceia pe care i-a iubit.

După cum spunea abatele Faria, evadările norocoase, cele încununate de succes deplin, sunt evadările chibzuite cu grijă sau pregătite pe-ndelete, dar cele mai bune sunt acelea pe care le prilejuieşte întâmplarea. Prilejul de a evada, pe care Edmond l-a aşteptat, s-a ivit în cele din urmă şi, ca orice om curajos cu spirit de iniţiativă s-a folosit imediat de el. Asta a fost marea şansă pe care o aşteptase. Dacă nu reuşea exista posibilitatea de a nu mai avea altă şansă.

După spectaculoasa evadare şi după ce a descoperit marea avere a lui Spada, Edmond a ajuns mai bogat decât oricine. A ajuns deasupra tuturor. A ajuns să fie privit de lumea întreagă ca un mare senior, un om ocrotitor şi mărinimos, un filantrop respectat în saloanele Parisului, dar în acelaşi timp, un om de temut, mai ales pentru cei care l-au trădat.

Leadership: Te manifeşti într-un mod care îţi pune în valoare atuurile intelectuale sau într-un mod care îţi conferă doar un sentiment de libertate?

Principiul telefonului este foarte uşor de înţeles. Dar nu este deloc uşor de pus în aplicare, asta e sigur. Destinul cuiva poate fi făurit de evenimentele sau întâmplările neprevăzute ale lumii exterioare. Mulţi oameni au planuri de viitor îndrăzneţe şi măreţe şi se avântă cu un elan neînchipuit de mare în îndeplinirea lor.

Dar atunci când vine furtuna şi sunt izbiţi de stânci, se resemnează. Un singur lucru cred îi poate salva: curajul şi spiritul de iniţiativă. Atunci când prilejul se va ivi, la fel ca un tigru nemilos care şi-a aşteptat prada mult timp, ei trebuie să sară să-l înhaţe, cu aplomb şi agilitate.

Secretul putinţei de a te detaşa de un trecut turbulent este să fii pregătit să profiţi de momentele prielnice unei ascensiuni de putere din care să-ţi faci un adevărat scop în viaţă.

N-am să uit niciodată ce spunea odată scriitorul D. Rosenzweig: „ Napoleon Bonaparte poate ar fi rămas un modest ofiţer de artilerie într-un oraş din provincie, dacă nu s-ar fi desfăşurat marele proces de răsturnare politică şi socială din Franţa, între anii 1789-1794. Dar Napoleon s-a adaptat la situaţia concretă din acel moment şi profitând de această mare oportunitate (revoluţia), a evoluat rapid şi a devenit un contrarevoluţionar îndată ce a preluat conducerea. Sau mai precis, contra-revoluţionismul l-a împins spre putere. S-a ridicat în faţa naţiunii şi s-a prezentat ca restauratorul unităţii naţionale, ca purtător al gloriei franceze. "

Cu alte cuvinte, Napoleon a ştiut să folosească în chip genial posibilităţile oferite de evenimentele din jur.

O caracteristică a oamenilor eficienţi este că ştiu să recunoască ocaziile atunci când acestea se anunţă favorabile, şi se grăbesc să profite de pe urma lor.

Întreaga capodoperă a existenţei este consecinţa utilizării unei perspective de vizualizare a viitorului dintr-o poziţie de ofsaid la limită, care poate oricând declanşa un atac periculos sau o fază de gol.

Napoleon, ca şi Contele de Monte Cristo, nu au avut nevoie decât de un prilej, de „un apel", pentru se ridica deasupra tuturor. Iar dacă nu ar fi recunoscut şi profitat de momentul acela unic, care apare uneori o singură dată în viaţă, ci ar fi renunţat mai înainte, totul ar fi fost pierdut.

Spre finalul poveştii, Contele de Monte Cristo îi trimite o scrisoare prietenului său Maximilian, care se termină cam aşa:

- Nu uita niciodată, drag prieten, că până în ziua când Dumnezeu va binevoi să-i destăinuiască omului viitorul, toată înţelepciunea omenească va fi cuprinsă în aceste două cuvinte: „Aşteaptă şi nădăjduieşte".

Ring ! .. Ring ! ... Ring ! ...

Leadershipul înseamnă să-ţi recuperezi direcţia în momentele de cumpănă ancorate în acea parte din viaţă pe care ai pierdut-o, căreia nu-i mai aparţii, căreia i-ai fi preferat moartea, dar căreia durerea îi poate da un înţeles ce corespunde numai planului divin.

Principiul timpului pierdut

Ceea ce aştepţi să primeşti de la viaţă este direct proporţional cu ceea ce eşti în stare să resimţi ca pe o cotitură nefericită a destinului.

Se scurseseră zile, apoi săptămâni, apoi ani. Edmond Dantes aştepta în continuare, cu o speranţă neliniştită, să fie eliberat din castelul d'If. Sau măcar să se petreacă o schimbare în viaţa lui, pentru că singur în aceeaşi celulă nu mai putea rezista multă vreme. Se ruga să fie luat din celula lui şi mutat în alta, chiar mai adâncă şi mai întunecată. O schimbare, fie şi în rău, ar fi însemnat o schimbare totuşi. Se ruga să fie scos la plimbare, să i se dea aer, cărţi de citit, unelte de muncă. Ceva nou de făcut, orice, ar fi însemnat o izbăvire. Dar totul rămânea neschimbat, mai puţin timpul, care se scurgea implacabil.

Bietul om uitase socoteala zilelor de când se afla închis. Îşi pierdu încrederea în sine. Îşi pierdut credinţa în Dumnezeu. Îşi pierdut orice speranţă. Nu mai avea decât trecutul său atât de mărginit, atât de mohorât şi viitorul atât de îndoielnic.

Dar toată suferinţa lui, toată această stare de nemulţumire şi frustrare în care se afla, dispăru odată cu apariţia abatelui Faria. Tot ce i se păruse întunecat şi sumbru, începu dintr-o dată să aibă un colorit. Bucuria de a avea un tovarăş căruia să-i poată împărtăşi gândurile, sentimentele şi tot ceea ce-l frământa, era atât de mare, încât nu a mai ţinut seama de trecerea timpului.

Leadership: Îţi evaluezi nivelul de reuşită prin prisma sentimentului unei implicări în crearea unei legături stabile şi durabile între două personajele diferite, vizavi de ceea ce te interesează să împlineşti prin înrădăcinarea sensul tău de sine în ceva care îţi confirmă valoarea?

Dacă ai citit romanul „ Contele de Monte Cristo" , atunci ştii că abatele Faria a avut un rol extrem de important în reuşita lui Dantes. I-a alinat suferinţa şi l-a întărit moral. L-a salvat ca prin minune de la disperare, sau poate de ceva şi mai rău. Aici se conturează două personajele diferite: unul fascinat de puterea divină, vrednic de închinarea vieţii în vederea răspândirii cunoştinţelor ortodoxe, iar celălalt este dominat de puterea de a schimba sensul vieţii prin creşterea şanselor de a rezista încercărilor ei.

Munca îndelungată (săparea tunelului) îi umplea zilele lui Dantes, iar atunci când se odihnea, avea speranţele care îl consolau. Cuvintele bătrânului, care cuprindeau numeroase învăţăminte, îl îndemnau să-l asculte cu tot mai mult interes. Întocmiră şi un plan de educaţie şi studiu. În timp ce lucrau, Faria îl instruia pe Dantes, vorbindu-i când într-o limbă, când în alta, învăţându-l istoria popoarelor şi a marilor oameni. Aşa zilele trecură mai repede şi mai pline de învăţăminte. După un an Edmond Dantes era un alt om.

Înrădăcinarea sensul tău de sine în ceva care îţi confirmă valoarea este specific omului care nu se află în legătură directă şi continuă cu lumea exterioară, care se afirmă şi se realizează mai mult în solidaritate cu voinţa divină, identificându-se cu acea imagine puternică a cărei realitate a fost exprimată foarte bine de Shakespeare, astfel: "Virtutea şi ştiinţa sunt daruri mai mari decât nobleţea şi bogăţia."

Dantes şi-a petrecut jumătate din tinereţe într-o celulă, dar timpul nu a fost pierdut. Pentru că abatele Faria l-a învăţat tot ce avea nevoie pentru deveni o persoană respectată în societate, cu o autoritate deosebită, demnă de invidiat, cu cunoştinţe deosebite în diferite domenii. Fără nicio îndoială Dantes a avut nevoie de ceea ce a avut de oferit Faria, iar prezenţa acestuia i-a îndulcit captivitatea. Nu ar fi ajuns poate niciodată un om educat, cu însuşiri alese, cu un comportament adecvat înaltei societăţi, dacă nu l-ar fi întâlnit pe bătrân. Şi mai mult ca sigur n-ar fi descoperit comoara lui Spada.

Leadership: Tranziţia ta de la credinţă la ştiinţă este rezultatul unui proces de jos în sus pus pe seama unui accident din visul vieţii tale pe care hazardul l-a înscris în organizarea evenimentelor pentru ca tu să fii biruitor asupra puterilor lăuntrice?

Perseverenţa, dorinţa de cunoaştere, de perfecţionare, de a dobândi noi abilităţi, l-au transformat într-un alt om pe Dantes. Au rămas de neuitat cuvintele pe care Contele de Monte Cristo (Edmond Dantes) le-a aşternut în scrisoarea lui de adio: „Doar cel care a simţit nefericirea cea mai cumplită e în stare să simtă cea mai mare fericire."

Timpul pe care l-a petrecut împreună cu abatele Faria n-a fost nicidecum de prisos, nu-i aşa? I-a adus, până la urmă, cea mai mare fericire. Iar visul lui Edmond Dantes s-a împlinit până la urmă, a ajuns mult mai mult decât ar fi sperat vreodată să ajungă, fără să ştie că hazardul i-a pregătit dinainte drumul cel mai greu de străbătut, tocmai pentru ca lui să i se acorde răsplata cea mai înaltă.

Practic, reuşita lui Dantes s-a datorat în cea mai mare măsură relaţiei pe care a stabilit-o cu abatele Faria. Bătrânul, care servise cardinalului Spada, păstrase totuşi ceva din vorba directă, pe şleau, a omului din popor, şi astfel Dantes l-a putut înţelege cu uşurinţă. A învăţat de la bătrân să aprecieze importanţa lecturii, a învăţat să scrie şi să citească, a învăţat matematică, fizică, a aflat lucruri noi despre civilizaţii şi culturi, despre istorie, geografie, chiar şi astronomie. Dar mai important decât toate acestea, a învăţat cum să fie o persoană manierată şi influentă.

A fi biruitor asupra puterilor lăuntrice înseamnă să ocroteşti sentimentul de a fi departe de lume, să ocroteşti puterea de a fi perseverent şi slăbiciunea de a fi încăpăţânat, încât să deprinzi toate virtuţile care fac podoaba leadershipului: credinţa, câştigarea sufletului, disciplina şi inteligenţa.

Într-o relaţie umană ai întotdeauna de învăţat. Schimbi impresii, împărtăşeşti cunoştinţe şi experienţe, devii mai informat şi mai motivat să treci la acţiune. Indiferent cine eşti, indiferent unde te afli, indiferent ce faci, niciodată timpul pe care îl petreci împreună cu un prieten nu este timp pierdut. De la oricine poţi învăţa ceva nou, de obicei chiar de la cine te aştepţi mai puţin. Preţuieşte deci, momentele petrecute cu prietenii şi nu le schimba pentru nimic în lume.

Scriitorul Les Giblen a ilustrat foarte bine acest aspect: „ Indiferent ce definiţie ai da fericirii, până la urmă vei fi convins că propria ta fericire depinde în mare parte de relaţiile pe care le ai cu ceilalţi. "

"Naşterea din nou" este atributul sufletelor mari care ştiu câtă glorie este în a trece, cu neclintită putere a sufletului, proba de foc a vieţii: de a fi singur într-un loc din care crezi că nu poţi evada. Învaţă să rezişti până în punctul când eşti pregătit să trăieşti experienţa salvării. Trebuie doar să cunoşti pe acel cineva special capabil să-ţi prilejuiască schimbarea pe care o cere destinul în schimbul unei transformări colosale.

Leadershipul se introduce ca mijloc de probă, expresie a dezvoltării caracterului, în căutarea destinului pe care trebuie să-l înfrunţi ca să-ţi câştigi dreptul de a fi un om înzestrat cu calitatea virtuţii.

Principiul timpului pierdut se aplică numai în cazul celor dispus să renunţe la o întreagă lume pentru a-şi câştiga victoria credinţei dătătoare de virtuţi şi har. După cum şi zicala din biblie: "Dacă vrei să ajungi în împărăţia cerurilor (acea înălţime a înţelepciunii desăvârşite), lasă totul şi urmează-Mă pe Mine ! "

Timpul petrecut cu un prieten nu e niciodată timp pierdut.

Principiul universului sufletesc

Tot ce se întâmplă în jurul tău are un răsunet în sufletul tău.

Edward Lewis. Nu era doar un bărbat arătos, ci şi foarte important. Iar pasiunea lui cea mai mare, care se transformase într-un business uriaş, şi cu ajutorul căreia îşi crease un imperiu de milioane de dolari, era aceea de a cumpăra companii ce se aflau în impas financiar, de a le desface în bucăţi şi de a le vinde la un preţ mult mai mare.

Dar odată ajuns în Beverly Hills, lucrurile aveau să ia o întorsătură neaşteptată în viaţa lui. Având nevoie de o damă de companie, el a angajat o prostituată, Vivian Ward, o tânără fără viitor la prima vedere, dar care părea să întrunească trăsăturile necesare pentru atingerea scopului său, fiindcă era destul de atrăgătoare. În schimbul sumei de 3.000 de dolari, Vivian a acceptat propunerea lui Edward, îndeplinindu-şi rolul locuind împreună cu el într-un apartament de lux şi însoţindu-l la reuniunile sale de afaceri.

La un moment dat, între ei doi are loc un dialog, al cărui substrat avea să-i schimbe lui Edward percepţia despre sine. Edward îi povestea despre tatăl său, care fusese preşedintele celei de-a treia companii preluate de el, companie pe care, din ura ce i-o purta acestuia, o vânduse bucată cu bucată.

Vivian se apropie de urechea lui şi, învăluindu-l într-o privire liniştită şi limpede totodată, îl întrebă: "Şi asta te-a făcut să fii fericit?"

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să descoperi o versiune a vieţii care se petrece ACUM, astfel încât să reprezinţi versiunea îmbunătăţită a unui ecou prelungit şi răsunător în viaţa altcuiva?

Într-un suflet mare, gândurile profunde găsesc întotdeauna ecou.

Sunt împrejurări când greutatea constă tocmai în răspuns. În clipa de tăcere care se lăsă brusc, amărăciunea îi cuprinse sufletul lui Edward. Abia atunci el realiză ceea ce era de fapt: un distrugător de lumi. Căci nu zidea nimic. Ci desfiinţa companii, le dezmembra vânzându-le bucată cu bucată. Adică ruina vieţile oamenilor, îi deposeda de fructul muncii lor. Concluzia la care a ajuns l-a alarmat şi l-a determinat să-şi schimbe percepţia asupra propriei sale persoane şi asupra business-ului său.

Finalul filmului "Pretty woman" este neaşteptat. Edward Lewis şi-a reconsiderat poziţia în legătură cu oferta sa de achiziţie a companiei Morse Industries. Interesele sale s-au schimbat total. În loc s-o achiziţioneze şi s-o dezmembreze, aşa cum dorise iniţial, aşa cum procedase cu toate celelalte companii, Edward a decis să-l ajute pe managerul companiei respective, pentru ca aceasta sa nu intre în colaps financiar, semnând cu el chiar un contract de colaborare.

Edward Lewis nu mai era acelaşi om ca înainte. Şi-a dat seama că poate construi ceva, nu numai să demoleze şi să distrugă.

Leadership: Relaţia dintre ceea ce eşti şi acţiunea ta exterioară se întemeiază pe putinţa de a te accepta ca egal al unei victorii trecătoare sau ca egalul unei conştiinţe care înfruntă instinctul dominant?

Rănile morale se acoperă, dar nu se închid. Între faptele şi gândurile tale se dă neîncetat o luptă. Dacă faptele sunt cu un pas înaintea gândurilor, atunci ele câştigă bătălia, iar tu rişti să ajungi un "distrugător de lumi".

Edward Lewis era un tip civilizat, cu o educaţie aleasă, dar a realizat, intrând în relaţie cu Vivian, o prostituată fără viitor, dar deosebita prin simplitatea cu care vedea lucrurile, că avea toate resursele necesare să construiască ceva şi să câştige la fel de mult fără să dezmembreze companii şi să ruineze vieţi. La această constatare a ajuns după ce Vivian i-a făcut rezumatul "ocupaţiei" lui, aceea de distrugător.

Acea ciudată, înduioşătoare scânteie de "demnitate" a fost acel ceva în stare să-i schimbe lui Edward universul sufletesc. Realizând că poate fi mai bun, el şi-a reorientat în final business-ul spre ceva constructiv.

Leadershipul este reperul unei revelaţii de sine la care se poate ajunge doar printr-o unire desăvârşită cu o cultură de viaţă care pune accent pe validarea sentimentelor de pierdere şi auto învinovăţire, nu doar pe obţinerea unor victorii colosale.

Nu voi uita niciodată observaţia pe care a făcut-o odată scriitorul Alexandre Dumas: "Rănile morale se deosebesc de celelalte prin aceea că se acoperă dar nu se închid; mereu dureroase, mereu gata să sângereze când le atingi, ele rămân în inimă vii şi deschise."

Poţi să n-ai bani şi influenţă, dar intenţiile tale să fie cele mai bune şi mai constructive. Şi invers, poţi să ai putere, dar intenţiile să-ţi fie distructive. Ca să-ţi păstrezi inima împăcată şi conştiinţa liniştită în orice moment al vieţii, învaţă să-ţi coordonezi gândurile şi faptele. Stabileşte o legătură directă între interesele tale şi consecinţele ulterioare. Încearcă să vezi, judecând tu însuţi totul, ascultându-ţi inima, dacă ceea ce faci este atât în folosul tău, cât şi a celorlalţi. Nu uita că nimic nu este de neschimbat, inclusiv intenţiile şi gândurile pe care le ai.

Concluzie: Sufletul omului este un "amestec" de sentimente formate pe parcursul vieţii sale, şi care în mare măsură îi guvernează acţiunile. Dacă acest univers este dominat de sentimente de ură, răzbunare, ranchiună, atunci consecinţele faptelor sale vor fi distructive.

A-ţi menţine dispoziţia de respingere a pretenţiei de construire a "Omului Nou" pentru că nu îndrăzneşti să te recunoşti în ipostaza de om fericit, lăudându-te uneori cu ceea ce nu eşti, înseamnă de fapt să distrugi o lume care reflectă un nivel de conştiinţă suficient de elevat încât să realizezi că în spatele fiecăruia există un spirit divin care ar trebui adorat.

Forţa de greutate cu care acţionează leadershipul este capacitatea omului de a învinge o rezistenţă măsurată în cantitatea de energie şi stare de spirit cu care călătoreşte spre destinaţia numită: vanitate.

Într-un suflet mare totul are un ecou. Ar trebui să ne gândim adesea cine suntem, ce vrem să facem, ce vom da mai departe celorlalţi din jurul nostru şi să ne reconsiderăm poziţia.

Principiul “Unu în Multiplu”

Faptul indivizilor de a fi în număr mare este rezultatul cercetării acţiunilor unui număr mic de indivizi.

La ultimul maraton la care am participat totul a fost diferit, mai ales prin prisma apariţiei unei ploi torenţiale care parcă nu se mai termina, dar şi prin aprecierea realistă a situaţiei impuse de modalitatea de manifestare şi acţiune a mentalului colectiv. Tot ce semăna cu o voinţă neînduplecată, um desejo enorme , o pasiune sau o idee îndrăzneaţă, nu obosea pe nimeni. Niciun regret nu se exterioriza pe chipul alergătorilor, dimpotrivă, parcă tocmai vremea nasoală aducea cu sine, în plus, acea doză de provocare absolut necesară pentru întărirea tonusului general.

Fiind solidar idei de sportivitate pe care se bazează idealul de pace și de prietenie, n-aş putea nicidecum să afirm că a existat în mine vreun regret amar care m-ar fi putut irita, vreun sentiment de durere, să-mi doresc să fac ceva diferit sau să anulez o acțiune, mie, pentru care sportul este o parte din viaţa mea. De altfel, recunoscând că un corp sănătos este dominat de o minte sănătoasă, existând în mine, din nefericire poate, prea multă pasiune - chiar debordantă uneori, iată că runningul reuşeşte la asemenea concursuri performanţa de a întări prietenia dintre alergători tocmai prin refuzul fiecăruia de a nu se da bătut, în niciun fel de circumstanţe.

Peste mulţi ani, poate la bătrâneţe, nu voi mai fi în puterea a face ceva exterior în mod voit, încât să-mi arăt din nou şi din nou caracterul vitejesc, impetuos, plin de iniţiativă. Poate nu voi mai fi capabil de reacţii spontane, fiindcă deocamdată toţi au această putere prin impuls voluntar. Când îmi va scădea entuziasmul, voi avea mai puţine aspiraţii, dar voi avea mai multe amintiri, asemenea unei călătorii reversibile a sufletului, acceptând forma de acomodare cu acele situaţii emoţionante pe care mi le oferă constrângerea de timp, de loc şi de mod, înţelegând că n-am mers niciodată pe un drum greşit.

Leadership: Îţi este greu să combini trăirea unui moment de excepţie - cu imortalizarea unor imagini din care se poate surprinde tiparul unei lumi duale transformate într-un tablou pe jumătate abstract?

Creându-mi propria realitate bazată pe înţelegerea atmosferei dinainte de concurs, concentrându-mi toate gândurile într-o idee fixă, obsedantă, care în mâna altora ar fi putut deveni periculoasă, acea Serestassifa-Mystica (legătura între lucruri la care nimeni nu s-ar gândi), mi-am îndreptat atenția spre prezența efectului de substituție a valorii adăugate de performanţă - cu un simţământ unic şi primordial de comuniune. Practic, mă loveam de impresia solemnă că oamenii trăiesc împreună, aparţin unii altora, și nu sunt izolați.

La concursurile de maraton totul se realizează prin conexiunea minte-suflet. Înflăcărată, ridicată în sfera unui determinism ineluctabil, expresia emoţională a fiecărui alergător, combinată cu un joc de reacţii spontane şi de mimici intenţionate, alcătuiesc un veritabil limbaj. Fiecare oferă totul din sufletul lui, dar nimeni nu vrea nimic din sufletul celorlalţi, nimic în afară de acea admiraţie înflăcărată care te face să-ţi alegi un model de urmat, o adâncă şi intuitivă pătrundere în caracterul sublim al unei entităţi ce-şi are însăşi cauza şi principiul propriei existenţe bazată pe unitate şi solidaritate.

Şi alerg, şi alerg, şi alerg, la fel cum un pictor îşi depăşeşte nivelul de măiestrie la rezultatele cele mai de seamă, acolo unde se cere o înzestrare psihologică ieşită din comun. Şi chiar dacă uneori, în tot acest timp, simt că rătăcesc într-un oniric suprarealist, atins câteodată de o tuşă mai apăsată în jurul ideii de abandon a „daimonului", acel ceva extra-ordinar care trece dincolo de obișnuit și îl lasă în mod răspicat în urmă, încă îmi caut identitatea în spaţialitatea inerentă unei imagini care mereu se întrevede la orizont şi este stocată, cu o rezoluție de o secundă, într-o oglindă a sufletului.

Cum bine remarca scriitoarea Hannah Arendt: "Semnătura unică a fiecărui artist, sensibilitatea ei fără precedent faţă de stil dovedesc o preocupare pentru acele trăsături prin care artistul îşi depăşeşte iscusinţa şi măiestria într-un chip asemănător cu felul în care unicitatea fiecărei persoane depăşeşte suma totală a calităţilor sale."

Leadership: Poţi să determini accentuarea lui "Unu" în planul evoluţiei formelor de comunicare vizuală şi emoţională, într-o succesiune firească de consecinţe care nu te împovărează de efectele unei perspective analogice, din trecut?

La un moment dat am văzut un tânăr de vreo 17 ani îmbrăcat sport, cum îi înmâna altuia propria sa pelerină de ploaie. În alt moment, unul dintre câştigătorii de pe podium s-a oferit să doneze premiul de 350 RON unui sportiv aflat în scaun cu rotile. N-am putut să nu observ nici felul cum au intervenit unii alergători pe traseul montan, atunci când alţii nu ştiau încotro să se îndrepte. Se crease un mediu cu adevărat prietenos, de neuitat, accesibil, şi deci în totalitate neconcurențial, cu toții fiind parcă tensionați, activi în căutarea unei lumi duale în care unul aparţine celorlalţi, şi ceilalţi aparţin doar unuia singur.

Un alergător de cursă lungă este exemplul acestei gândiri: mi-am dat seama că sunt responsabil pentru emoţiile celorlalţi într-o lume în care există doar "unu în multiplu". Vă repet. Momentul în care sunt cel mai fericit este atunci când vreau să cunosc preamărirea Eului din mine, pentru a împlini așteptările propriei individualităţi. Doar astfel pot să-mi pot desăvârșesc un caracter de vioiciune, de spontaneitate şi de libertate faţă de orice limitare.

Destinul transformărilor majore care au loc în leadership depinde de concretizarea unei confruntări duale: să duci o luptă cu tine însuţi pentru o lume în care exişti doar ca echivalent al unui multiplu de 1,1.

Principiul "Unu în Multiplu" se aplică situaţiei în care un singur om depinde de alţi oameni pentru a-şi reconfirma hotărârea de a fi unic, respectând cerințele minime stabilite de vocea autorităţii care spune: "eşti mai mult decât ai devenit într-o lume în care fiecare merge pe drumul lui".

Şi, ca să închei, mai spun doar atât. Există doar două consecinţe care nu te împovărează de efectele unei perspective analogice, din trecut: nu există recompensă pentru fapte, ci pentru intenţia care a generat fapta. Şi, apoi, nu contează ce obţii la finalul cursei, ci contează cât dai din tine ca să reuşeşti o schimbare pe plan motivaţional.

Cu ce am rămas în minte şi în suflet? Faptul că oamenii aceştia nu dibuiesc prin lume ca orbii, şi nici nu se împleticesc ca beţivii într-un continuu dialog cu ei înşişi, pe un urcuş întortocheat, abrupt, zigzagat, pe care mulţi se fac că nu-l sesizează. Uneori ei se opresc într-un loc, privesc în jurul lor cu veselie, cu dor. Alteori privesc spre pământ să vadă cum creşte-o floare, admiră chiar şi cel mai mic fir de iarbă, ascultă chiar şi cel mai mic „zgomot" al naturii. La urma urmelor, cred că fiecare alergător are ceva din trasăturile unui artist...

Principiul valorii umane în prezentul continuu al veşniciei

Valoarea ta nu este nu este nici mai mare, nici mai mică decât cea pe care ţi-o stabileşti singur în cursa împotriva destinului.

Aş fi vrut să-mi fac din scopul vieţii o idee magnifică, o combinaţie fără precedent de experienţă, talent şi ambiţie, să iau întâia şi ultima oară o decizie corectă pentru care să nu regret nimic. Nicio interacţiune anterioară cu alte idei nu se dovediseră eficiente şi profitabile, nicio ocazie de a mă afirma nu-mi ieşise în cale. Cu aceeaşi căldură cu care focul mistuie pădurile, aş fi vrut să-mi concentrez întreaga energie asupra unei ţinte propuse, bine gândite şi definite, să fac din mine însumi un soi de Magellan care, cu acea mare efervescenţă intelectuală degajată dintr-un temperament tenace şi feroce, face din scopul vieţii sale o obsesie magnifică.

Dar, cu adevărat, lucrurile nu stau ca în cărţi, iar cărţile nu schimbă lucrurile şi nici ideile măreţe, şi nici măcar nu separă scopul de acea idee simplă, dar fixă, capabilă să-ţi orienteze mai uşor şi mai precis viaţa personală şi profesională, cu un efort mic. Nu este deloc uşor să-ţi depăşeşti limitările mentale şi să-ţi amplifici respectul de sine, ţintind cât mai sus cu putinţă, inspirându-te din entuziasmul şi energia degajată de marile evenimente. Într-adevăr, dacă aş fi avut o idee fixă, şi credeţi-mă am avut numeroase ocazii să-mi fabric asemenea idei, poate că aş fi acţionat ca o lupă: mi-aş fi concentrat întreaga energie asupra ţelului propus.

În ciuda acestui lucru, am căutat o alternativă a reuşitei sub influenţa unei conştiinţe care m-a ajutat să fiu mai bun, mai înţelegător şi să îmi depăşesc câteva limite pe care le aveam şi, în sfârşit, ca o chemare profetică, să dovedesc finalitatea unei idei în care oamenii sunt dispuşi să creadă. Ca şi în cazul lui Magellan, am pornit de la o idee greşită, una cosa da poco , şi am ajuns să culminez cu o victorie: realizarea progresivă a Marii Opere Hermetice, această mega-cascadă numită Elekmesithus (un nebănuit avânt spre veşnicie), care curge dintr-o stâncă uriaşă aflată la marginea unei prăpăstii: "Oglinda Ego-ului"

Leadership: Distanţa pe care o ai de parcurs spre reuşită ajută la crearea unei senzaţii de măreţie, în paralel cu formarea sentimentul de “sens al valorii umane organizat într-o reprezentare a sinelui Suprem” ?

Până la urmă, orice încercare de a fi altcineva devine un teren fertil pentru depăşirea Ego-ului, o justificare pentru instituirea unei diferenţieri între Sinele Suprem şi Sinele Divin cu sprijinul intelectiv şi speculativ al sufletului: Thanusintreck (unitatea adevăratei credinţe întemeiată de Hristos) la care omul nu poate ajunge fără sprijinul exclusiv divin. E nevoie şi de nişte cunoştinţe solide de alchimie. Şi uite aşa, încercând să observ realitatea obiectivă prin oglinda propriei subiectivităţi, cu totul de necrezut, am început să-mi amplific respectul de sine, ţintind cât mai sus cu putinţă. Peste mări şi ţari, peste toate hotarele de timp, peste toate distanţele aflate sub matca lumii.

Sinele Suprem a dat măsura valorii mele, putând fi tradus prin: “am devenit persoana la care aspirat să fiu”. Este un simbol al aspiraţiei spre desăvârşire. Sau un indiciu al aspiraţiei spre libertatea spirituală.

Până la urmă, toate lucrurile, toate evenimentele, tot ce mi s-a întâmplat, conjunctural sau preferenţial, m-au condus la obţinerea unei vederi mai largi decât eram obişnuit. Ştiind că energia se îndreaptă întotdeauna în direcţia gândurilor, şi că intuiţia, prin intermediul unei senzaţii subtile de măreţie, îşi face mereu loc printre legile minţii, mi-am putut depăşi convingerea despre valoarea de sine. Numai timpul nepieritor va dovedi cât de uitată este lumea pe care mi-o construisem ca pe un fel de mediator neserios, înainte de a mă îndrepta spre realizarea unei deveniri care, de fapt, nu se încheie. Sau dacă se încheie, de fapt se reia.

Leadership: Avântul cu care tinzi spre absolut se materializează printr-o hotărâre exemplară dusă la limita geniului, graţie unei fapte exemplare care se propagă la nivelul promovării mitului destinului total?

Şi, ce altceva rămâne de fuzionat, între credinţă şi tăgadă, între disciplină şi spontaneitate, între rigoare şi libertate, decât puternica faptă, de toţi râvnită şi numai de mine înfăptuită, acea mangâiere lină a cununii biruinţei: descoperirea unei noi forţe fundamentale a naturii, tradusă prin hotărârea exemplară, dusă la limita geniului, de a ajunge la adevărul despre mine.

Da, a fost cu putinţă. Într-un singur moment al vieţii, într-o secundă astrală - mistuitoare ca soarele, reţinut de geografie într-un arhipelag de încurajare, mi-am dat seama că pot să fac mai mult decât credeam că pot face. Şi asta a schimbat totul. Tocmai omul care nu înţelegea mai nimic a putut cuprinde în propria-i solitudine, ca o vâlvătaie a gloriei, lauda cerească, universală, transformând-o alchimic într-o acţiune de coborâre a lui Dumnezeu la om şi de înălţare a omului către Dumnezeu, prin credinţă şi colaborare liberă.

Şansa unui avânt spre absolut s-a materializat într-un semn profetic care depăşise orice închipuire. Poate că trebuia de la început să ader la un anumit algoritm care să ordoneze crescător elementele unei vaste cunoaşteri de pe diagonala principală a unei matrice date, garantând obţinerea unui "Ab Solutus", efectul unui avânt speculativ spre înălţimile inteligibile, la forma de una carrera tumultuosa hacia el infinito del mundo.

Reţineţi ce vă spun acum. În imensitatea ei, şi într-o singură clipă, puterea lui Dumnezeu poate umple spiritele rătăcitoare cu cea mai înaltă ştiinţă, dar numai la timpul hotărât, numai când astrele se aliniază şi când Mercur nu este retrograd. Aşadar, singurul lucru pe care l-a cerut destinul de la mine, într-o vreme zbuciumată de tranziție, a fost aşteptarea până la timpul dinainte hotărât, grea povară pentru cei fără credinţă, sclipitoare lucrare pentru cei care vor înfăptui minuni.

Leadership: Avântul tău spre reuşită poate fi interpretat ca un îndemn de „a te abandona unei vederi mai îndepărtate", până ce atingi un grad de conştiinţă care este însăşi măsura unei capacităţi profetice ce nu încetează să te uimească?

Mai ales de la Magellan, destinul a cerut un preţ mare înainte ca el să devină eroul lumii după realizarea faptei exemplare. Iar scriitorul Ştefan Zweig a ilustrat cel mai bine marea valoare, sclipitoarea superioritate a lucrării geniului, sublima manifestare a energiei latente focalizată spre cerurile veşniciei:

"Întotdeauna un om realizează maximum posibil numai când fapta lui devine exemplară. Şi, din această privinţă, exemplul lui Magellan - fapta lui aproape uitată - a dovedit pentru toate timpurile că o idee, dacă e purtată de aripile geniului, dacă e dusă mereu şi hotărât înainte de o pasiune, se vădeşte la urmă mai puternică decât toate elementele naturii. Măreaţa lui faptă a arătat că un singur om, cu scurta şi trecătoarea sa viaţă, poate transforma într-o realitate şi într-un adevăr nepieritor ceea ce fusese numai o dorinţă, numai un vis pentru sute de generaţii."

Nu este nicio exagerare. Acesta este adevărul curat: valoarea mea este infinit mai mare decât am crezut vreodată că este posibil. Dar trebuie reţinut un lucru important, care mereu scapă atenţiei generale: numai un om cu o voinţă neclintită, fiind gata să sacrifice totul, tot ce posedă în lumea aceasta pământească, va fi demn să cuprindă între aripile infinitului o idee capabilă să treacă pragul veşniciei. Pentru ca o faptă să câştige timp, să smulgă o părticică din infinit, nu-i de ajuns ca autorul ei să pornească într-o lungă şi periculoasă călătorie, el trebuie să se înapoieze cu cel mai preţios câştig ce există în lumea aceasta: o nouă conştiinţă.

Leadershipul are ca finalitate următoarea menţiune: "Valoarea omului este dată de măsura convingerii sale legate de propria valoare, ca singură modalitate de a ajunge la nivelul puterii Destinului."

Principiul valorii umane în prezentul continuu al veşniciei dezvăluie de fapt puterea omului de a se impune în faţa unui destin care, chiar dacă impune mult chin şi suferinţă, îl conduce spre împlinirea unei fapte exemplare care-i va asigura saltul spre nemurire.

Principiul vederii de dincolo de văz

Ceea ce vezi în interiorul tău este ceea ce altora le scapă din vedere cand privesc în exteriorul lor.

Fiecare om povesteşte, prin imagini, dar şi prin forţa cuvântului folosit cu meşteşug, un fragment al vieţii lui. Alţii, mai deschişi asupra propriei lumi interioare, introducându-se în interiorul unui bucle de reacţie şi control, îşi manifestă emoţiile, gândurile şi starea de spirit ca şi când s-ar arunca cu ochii deschişi într-un delir experimental, aducător de noroc într-o poveste magică. Inima bate, mintea creează, sufletul absoarbe, iar trupul se mişcă elegant în forma unei margarete de câmp, într-o eternă şi superstiţioasă joacă.

S-a întâmplat după concursul de semimaraton. Petrecere. Muzică, voie bună. Multă mâncare. Şi dans. Bineînţeles, dans. Dar nu oricine ştie să danseze la fel de graţios, atât de plin de viaţă, precum "Numărul 47". O căldură plăcută îi cuprinde tot corpul, zâmbeşte de parcă s-ar plasa într-un miraj, mereu la jumătatea drumului dintre real și fantasmagoric, păstrându-şi valoarea de referinţă numită "Rebound Number". Eleganţa cu care se mişcă, nota de atipic pe care o transmite în jur întrece orice voluptate a fluturilor de câmp, ştiind că orice bătaie de aripi poate să se transforme într-un uragan.

Omul cântăreşte vreo 98 kg, dar nimeni nu-i observă greutatea în timpul dansului, atât de uşor îşi onduleză trupul, şoldurile, în bătaia blândă a vântului primăvăratec. Nu este câştigătorul concursului, nici pe departe, dar pentru mine este laureatul, eroul zilei, genialul, o ímpeto de uma exaltação contínua e incansável. Toţi ceilalţi s-au risipit în uitare, cu tot cu medaliile lor. Dar el, sufletul petrecerii, simbolul puterii de viaţă, rămâne o cunună de lauri pe timp îndelungat, triumfător ca un zeu tânăr. Iar culorile aurei sale de supererou, revărsate din al său nepreţuit tezaur al eleganţei şi grandorii, trebuie musai să strălucească ca într-un tablou de Paolo Veronese.

Leadership: Viziunea ta poate să depăşească limitele unui orizont care nu-ţi aparţine, dar aparţine scenariului care recuperează conţinutului propriei tale ideaţii?

Îşi concentrează imaginaţia creatoare într-un miraj din care nu şi-ar dori să mai iasă. Felicitări ! Gloriei sale i se cuvinte, cu siguranţă, o aleasă apreciere, cu aceeaşi măsură în care Alexandre Dumas îşi descria personajul cheie în romanul "Mâna Providenţei":

"Pare ciudat cât de mult mă preocupă acest om. Are pentru mine atracţia necunoscutului. Niciodată n-am resimţit o mai înflăcărată dorinţa de a pătrunde în tainiţele unui suflet. Există ceva în el care mă atrage într-un mod invincibil. Poate că nu-i decât o aparenţă, poate că, aşa cum mi s-a întâmplat de atâtea ori, este doar o vedenie, dar una care mi-a schimbat viaţa pentru totdeauna."

Şi cum se vede omul acesta? El se vede ca un învingător, exprimându-şi starea de fericire prin intermediul dansului şi a muzicii, chiar dacă lumea nu ştie acest lucru. Dansul este starea de graţie a învingătorului care-şi depăşeşte limitele, şi nimeni nu bănuieşte ce se petrece în interiorul lui. El se simte învingător chiar dacă nu a urcat pe podium, şi continuă să danseze în timp ce toţi ceilalţi şi-au epuizat energia şi dorinţa de a fi în centrul atenţiei.

Leadership: Poţi să descrii o emoţie capabilă să genereze o imagine de mişcare, încât să reprezinţi o atracţie pentru imortalizarea unui moment care de cele mai multe ori scapă tuturor printre degete?

Iată povestea vizuală care trebuie imaginată de cel care priveşte realitatea cu alţi ochi. Un om oarecare, unul care trece total neobservat în timpul concursului, dintr-o dată devine strălucitor în faţa tuturor ochilor din jur. Se simte foarte bine acolo unde gândurile se suprapun între plutire şi uitare, între visare şi renaştere, aventurându-se în extazul unei transe, într-o stare abstractă a conştiinţei în care toate sunetele şi senzaţiile se contopesc. Din acest tablou răzbate aurora unei dezinvolturi sănătoase.

Senzorul lui de mişcare poate fi ghidat de dorința de a se depăși, de o intensificare a abilităților mentale și fizice sau de căutarea extazului mistic, existând într-un tablou colorat care însufleţeşte, devine viziune, şi prinde contur într-un mod extrem de natural și expresiv. Şi încă câte nuanţe, câte infinitezimale deosebiri nu poţi cerne atunci când îţi propui să găseşti o ieşire din anonimat, prin intermediul unei mişcări care deschide orizonturile, o formă de intervenţionism în peisajul aproape ireal al unei zile dedicate evadării de griji.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să creezi un tablou viu care să evolueze în fața privitorilor, într-un moment de mare încărcătură emoţională care are marele avantaj al transmisibilităţii?

"Să aveți parte de un tablou viu care evoluează în fața ochilor voștri", cam asta exprima atitudinea Omului Zilei, corelat cu persistenţa unei dezinvolturi particulare şi a spiritului improvizatoric. Dansul lui neaşteptat, înaripat cu ritm, cu umor, cu farmec, era un moment în care se regenerau, apăreau celulele tinere şi forţau măsura într-o oarecare normalitate, forţau într-un sens benefic reînnoirea sângelui său de Miltiades. Sau, poate că el a găsit un nou mod de a-şi pune gândurile în ordine în crearea unui spaţiu interior, în alegerea paletei de culori şi a unui fond artistic care fac dintr-un tablou un spațiu sigur al bucuriei și satisfacției pentru privitori.

Ştie că viaţa e un vis, un dar, un tablou, şi cât de frumos este văzută depinde doar de el. Era pentru o certitudine, un fel de steag de luptă, un fel de instinct de putere stropit cu acea substanţă invizibilă a timpului prins cu clipa în sac. Capabil să surprindă pulsul intim şi viu al evenimentului, degajarea lui având marele avantaj al transmisibilităţii, şi-a construit imediat un fel de imagine a superiorităţii, sau mai bine zis, dansul era un fel de mărturisire în imagine a vocaţii sale spre lumea artelor frumoase. Dansul lui rămâne lumina ochilor celor care l-au privit.

Pe scurt. Tot ceea ce ochii mei au captat azi, dansului omului necunoscut, părea un fragment extras din romanul "Trilogia New York-ului":

"Omul era un spaţiu inepuizabil, un labirint de paşi interminabili, şi oricât de departe ar fi mers sau oricât de bine ar fi ajuns să cunoască împrejurimile, întotdeauna rămânea cu impresia că se rătăcise. Că se rătăcise în sine însuşi. Se simţea de parcă s-ar fi lăsat pe sine în urmă şi atunci, abandonându-se mişcărilor fine, bine coordonate, şi reducându-se la un ochi care vede, reuşea să fugă de obligaţia de a gândi, iar aceasta îi aducea, mai mult decât orice altceva, o anumită pace, un gol interior sănătos. Mişcarea era esenţa lucrurilor, impulsul prin care punea un picior în faţa celuilalt, permiţându-se să se lasă purtat de mersul propriului corp."

Ca să-ţi cultivi vocaţia spre cunoaşterea vieţii interioare a omului, trebuie să fii capabil să vezi interacţiunea exteriorului cu el, fără să te laşi purtat orbeşte de valul pasiunii lui.

Principiul vederii de dincolo de văz surprinde evoluţia unei activităţi de constatare a unei stări de fapt. Pe omul respectiv eu l-am văzut învingător, chiar dacă nimeni altcineva n-a ştiut să-l vadă învingător. Şi cum mă văd pe mine însumi? Tot un învingător. Fiindcă leadershipul este un schimb necesar, prin pătrunderea exteriorului în interior.

Nimeni nu vorbeşte despre medaliaţii care au urcat pe podium. S-a ales praful de imaginea lor. Succesul n-a durat mai mult de-o clipă. Dar "Numărul 47" este viu, încă îl văd dansând. El este adevăratul învingător, fiindcă despre el citiţi voi acum, cu el v-aţi identificat câteva momente, el a rămas în sufletul vostru. Toţi ceilalţi participanţi la cursă s-ar spune că nici n-au existat, nu vorbeşte nimeni despre ei. Dar de "Numărul 47" vă veţi aminti întotdeauna, chiar dacă nu l-aţi văzut realmente niciodată.

Principiul visului desprins dintr-o singură privire

On Iulie 14, 2020

Privirea aruncată într-un vis care te luminează este identică cu sporirea concentrării ochilor de artist în direcţia regăsirii sale divine.

Am avut parte de un vis răscolitor, imprevizibil, dar expresiv, care parcă dă sens numai unei opere de artă semnată Admystierdhes (produsul unei creaţii care domină divinul). Şi în acest vis straniu, mai luminat decât stelele nopţii, mai complex decât simplul acord al culorilor de ulei, mi-a apărut un splendid trandafir roşu, de culoarea sângelui de maur. Numai că atât visul, cât şi trandafirul sângeriu păreau că izvorăsc dintr-un suflet enigmatic pe care în alt secol, vechii cabalişti l-au glorificat în pagini demne de istoria unui neam nemuritor.

Arta uneşte realul cu irealul într-un soi de atitudine creatoare prin care artistul îşi justifică existenţa extrasă din ştiinţa cerurilor divine. Iată de ce visul, fin cântărit cu o minte artistică sortită pentru pictura peisajului de mare profunzime, surprinde categoric printr-o frumoasă stratificare vizuală a diverselor corelaţii metaforice. Mă refer aici şi la noutatea accesibilă într-o călătorie astrală, printr-o proiectare a exprimării emoţionale deschise, autentice, spontane, într-un spaţiu al cărui cuvânt de ordine este ficţiunea.

Într-o bună zi voi privi în urmă şi-mi voi aminti visul, atât de viu, atât de profund, atât de necesar actului artistic, şi poate că astfel voi înţelege măcar o mică parte din planul lui Dumnezeu în privinţa destinului meu. Trandafirul este parte din visul unui artist, tot aşa cum artistul care accede la conştiinţa divină face parte dintr-un spaţiu privilegiat, în care toate aspectele SINELUI se unesc în UNUL.

Tot ceea ce conştientizează artistul, rezultând din esenţa regăsirii sale într-un joc al hazardului care, de asemenea, este un alt vis de apropiere cu imaginarul unei lumi prea puţin cunoscute, face referire la efectul exercitat de opera sa asupra vieţii spirituale sau a sensibilităţii omului. SINELE restrâns în UNUL este punctul de plecare cel mai convenabil pentru o tratare comprehensibilă a artei care începe cu armonia dintre Divin şi Lumesc, dintre Cer şi Pământ, dintre Creator și Creație.

Leadership: Opera pe care o creezi se poate constitui într-o artă a "privirii duble", în care emoţia joacă un rol de prim plan la nivelul unei manipulări artistice data de fundalul unei imagini memorabile?

În vis, trandafirul mi-a spus cu acea simplitate și căldură a rostirii unui mare artist:

- Priveşte în jur fără să te priveşti tu însuţi cu ochii care eşti privit de lume. Încearcă să simți cu ochii tăi doar ceea ce este pregătită privirea ta să înțeleagă într-un timp care a scris o istorie a spiritualităţii umane, neatinse de viforul uitării şi al deşertăciunii. Iar dacă tot ceea ce simţi se recunoaşte într-o privire plină de înţeles, din partea unui timp fidel voinţei divine, atunci felul artei tale se va constitui într-un cald şi expresiv omagiu adus talentului creator, care e acelaşi omagiu adus vieţii de dincolo de moarte.

I-am ascultat sfatul. Am luat privirea mea, cu aceeaşi uşurinţă cu care pictorul încearcă vopseaua pe hârtie înainte s-o aplice pe şevalet, am înălţat-o deasupra privirii lumii, şi mi-am pus speranţa în alteritatea spirituală cea mai ridicată. Pictura devenise o parte a privirii minuţioase, cât se poate de frumoasă într-un tablou al cărui privitor îşi dă seama, în mod limpede, cu toată puterea, de rostul clădirii unei culturi speciale pentru artă. Iar dacă aş fi reuşit să-mi oglindesc neîncetat privirea, cu mândrie şi admiraţie, în lumina unor ochi care îşi lărgesc vizibil orizonturile, atunci poate, doar poate, aş fi reuşit să însufleţesc o poveste ce coboară din negura vremii şi devine realitate în faţa şevaletului.

Tot din acelaşi motiv, al visului ce mi-a năucit existenţa în timpul somnului, ochii mei speciali s-au întors sentimentali, cu o privire fructificată într-o viziune care înseamnă depărtare, spre cuvintele lui Umberto Eco din romanul Numele Trandafirului :

"Un vis este o scriptură, şi multe scripturi nu sunt altceva decât vise. Cu toate acestea, cu cât mă gândesc mai mult la visul tău, cu atât îl găsesc mai plin de înţeles. Poate nu pentru tine, ci pentru mine. Iartă-mă că pun stăpânire pe visele tale, ca să-mi desfăşor mai departe ipotezele; da, ştiu, e un lucru urât, n-ar fi trebuit făcut. Dar cred că sufletul tău adormit a înţeles mai multe lucruri decât am înţeles eu... treaz."

Leadership: Imaginea pe care ţi-o conturezi faţă de o lume percepută în mod subiectiv oferă posibilitatea adăugării unei dimensiuni emoţionale la un proces imaginativ care amplifică experienţa de cunoaştere în UNU?

Visul meu corespunde descărcării unei trăiri spirituale profunde prin reflectarea obsesivă a imaginii unui trandafir "Double Delight", şi o face bine, prin creaţia unui artist de marcă care ştie să vadă într-o pictură prea plinul propriei sale fiinţe. Însemnările mele pline de metafore, pline de gânduri, pline de culoare, confirmă acest lucru. Eu şi visul. Ochii acestor doi coordonatori ai facerii lumii se disting numai din apropierea spiritului naturii, spirit evocator de artă, de lumină, de sentimente. Iar trandafirul veghează în taină asupra rezonanţei noastre, el fiind numitorul comun al alianţei plină de nobleţe dintre actul de creaţie şi fiinţa spirituală.

Într-o bună zi voi încerca să scriu un tratat estetic despre ochii mei profunzi, pentru ca privirea-mi atât de senină, afectivă, să cuprindă un întreg orizont artistic. Să însufleţesc un obiect artistic este o ficţiune, dar să însufleţesc un corp al naturii este un perpetuum mobile de ordinul unui suprarealism ce poate fi explicat prin legătura dintre limbajul operei de artă plastică şi metafizica unei realităţi întoarse.

Desigur, nu aş încerca să descriu un fenomen psihologic apărut în timpul somnului, mai ales cu privire la artă, fără să urmăresc forţa de iradiere a unor nuclee metaforice revelatorii în raport cu transcendenţa unei alte lumi în lumea mea. Visul vede prin intermediul privirii mele acea artă a dialogului dintre fiorul sublim al plăcerii de a trăi o poveste fără sfârşit şi fiorul sublim al încântării spontane câştigate în faţa eternului mister artistic.

Experienţa de cunoaştere în UNU reflectă un element important al asemănării dintre Dumnezeu şi om, şi anume nemurirea - obţinută prin prisma unei creaţii veridice care amestecă voit registrul fantasticului cu cel al miraculosului.

În sfârşit. Dacă după tot ce ai citit aici ţi-am lăsat impresia de veridicitate a visului ce te pune serios pe gânduri, luând în calcul compromisul dintre un arhetip al imaginarului şi un arhetip al sensibilităţii umane, înseamnă c-am izbutit o apropiere de esenţa artei: ficţiunea plină de vitalitate, deschiderea zborului spre cerul unei alte lumi, de neuitat.

Pe această cale, subtilitatea unei filosofii a existenţei, predispusă la încercările artei de a mă defini prin prisma concretului din planul naturii, ca o împlinire a acordului dintre viziune şi vocaţia de creator, ar putea fi acordată rodului unei noi forme de interiorizare: Samizordesthru , dovada subtilităţii unei trăiri poetice ascunsă în spatele unei imagini metaforice.

Textele mele sunt pline de experienţe subiective. Uneori, interpretarea cuvintelor cu duble înţelesuri sunt trecute printr-o proiecţie a dorinţelor nemărturisite. Limbajul plin de simboluri nu oferă totdeauna chei potrivite pentru lacătele nedeschise ale sufletelor tuturor cititorilor mei, dar pentru cine îl înţelege, el construieşte punţi de la inimă la inimă. Poate că acesta este un aspect definitoriu al suprarealismului, şi va rămâne tot timpul prezent într-un efort de a mişca o întreagă lume spre un singur ideal: libertatea totală de expresie.

Arta care poate contribui la popularizarea leadershipului are ca factor declanşator privirea aruncată în interiorul unui vis de veacuri trăit (ca într-o poveste) cu ochii unui artist capabil să creeze capodopere complet neașteptate și incredibile.

Principiul visului desprins dintr-o singură privire are puterea să emoţioneze o întreagă lume numai şi numai dacă artistul reuşeşte să redea asemănarea dintre un limbaj plin de simboluri şi transpunerea sa într-o lume suprareală, de esenţă, care nu se mai destrămă.

O experienţă sensibilă vizează întipărirea unei amintiri de neuitat pe care vei dori să o împrospătezi mereu.

Am triumfat sâmbătă la concursul de semimaraton. Nu din punct de vedere al locului pe care l-am obținut în clasament, nici ca protagonist al vreunui spectacol de zile mari. Am triumfat pentru că am fost alături de oameni deosebiți, am triumfat pentru că sora mea a obținut un loc excelent, neașteptat, după numai un an de antrenamente.

Niciun alergător nu a participat la concurs pentru lucruri obișnuite, și nu găsesc în asta nimic deosebit. Dar fiecare a strălucit în felul lui.

De exemplu. Un alergător oarecare s-a oprit și a ajutat o doamnă în vârstă să se ridice după ce și-a luxat piciorul în urma unei alunecări nasoale. Un alt alergător a făcut cele mai spectaculoase imagini, renunțând la un loc mult mai bun în clasament. Un altul s-a întors 4 km doar ca să rămână lângă prietena lui (de care nu aflase că se înscrise). Și nu am putut să nu observ felul cum au fost felicitate de crainic ultimele două concurente ajunse la linia de finnish, a fost cu totul minunat și motivațional.

Dacă fiecare din concurenți a triumfat prin ceva, acel ceva a fost lucrul obișnuit care pare atât de banal, încât nimeni nu-l observă. Tu vezi campionii pe podium, dar campionii trec pe lângă tine și nici nu se uită în urma lor. În acest caz, eu am triumfat tocmai fiindcă am privit în urmă, și cred că am jucat un rol de frunte în coordonarea eforturilor de a aduce în prim plan spectaculosul.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi maximizezi capacitatea de a înțelege realitatea esenţială a experiențelor sensibile, surprinzând doar ceea ce este relevant pe parcursul unei activităţi intense care generează amintiri de neuitat?

Iar dacă vei triumfa oricând prin ceva, acest lucru este posibil cu ajutorul privirii. Să observi oamenii, lucrurile sau întâmplările care nu se pot "deghiza". Fotografiile nu servesc la nimic, fiindcă deghizările ulterioare pot să le răpească orice valoare.

Un alergător care se concentrează doar asupra obţinerii unul loc fruntaş pe podium va fi surprins ca un moment trecător şi încurajator, ca ceva cu care se poate identifica toată lumea. Dar el nu va fi perceput ca un fel de descătuşare din rigorile realului, nici ca o consecinţă a activităţii mentale constante, nici ca o asumare a responsabilității față de propriul sens existenţial.

Și ce poate fi mai spectaculos decât a face utilă înlocuirea dorinței de a ajunge pe podiumul de premiere, cu o discreție inatacabilă a privirii. Este vorba de micro-realismul cotidian, ilustrând lumea concretului banal și a întâmplărilor mărunte din care este făcută viața omului. Trebuie doar să privești și să descoperi acele lucruri care nu sunt considerate demne de interes, eventual ceea ce este privit cu un oarecare scepticism.

La fel cum amprentele degetelor nu pot fi înlăturate cu ulei fierbinte sau cu fier înroșit, deoarece epiderma se reface și reproduce toate punctele caracteristice ale amprentelor, tot așa ștergerea zonelor trunchiate ale unei imagini nu are niciun efect, nici nu poate fi limitată la un anumit mesaj.

Relevant aici este realitatea esenţială a experienţelor sensibile prin care treci, pline de emoţii şi momente intense, care te pot îmbogăţi spiritual şi te vor ajuta să devii cine eşti în esenţă. Nu este vorba de acele experienţe care te captivează prin spirit competitiv şi hazard, nu acelea care te ajută să-ţi lărgeşti orizonturile, nu acelea care te fac mai puternic, nu acelea care te inspiră să mergi mai departe. Ci acele experienţe care te conving să vezi că aparţii aceleaşi realităţi ca şi sufletul tău.

Leadership: Poţi să te implici în conducerea unor întâmplări, fără să iei decizii importante şi fără să schimbi cursul lor, prin intermediul experienţei de viaţă evidenţiată într-o imagine rară?

Asta este ceea ce numai un artist face: el constată că lucrurile frumos împachetate nu leagă întâmplările spectaculoase. Într-un timp record, şi anume între două sau mai multe situaţii banale, se petrece o schimbare, ca un fel de extindere a unei fotografii ce surprinde realitatea lumii sensibile văzută prin ochii unui artist care nu pierde din vedere niciun detaliu al imaginii pe care o creează din fragmente de memorie (convergente spre un acelaşi ideal de frumusețe plastică în mișcare).

Da. Un punct de mişcare este o aruncare a luminii asupra unui orizont de taină în care trebuie să mai încapă și altceva decât imagini şi acţiuni, altceva decât realitatea obiectivă, altceva decât elementul concret exprimat la prima vedere.

Prin urmare, dacă sunt un artist, este pentru că știu să adun acele întâmplări reale în urma cărora pot învăța ceva fără să fiu nevoit să iau atitudine. Iată, deci, ce înseamnă să fiu în conducerea unor întâmplări fără să iau decizii importante, fără să schimb cursul lor.

O imagine care creează amintiri de neuitat te poate învăţa să acorzi o mare mare importanţă realităţii pe care nu conteneşti să o refaci prin analogie cu simbolul întâlnirii dintre “interior” şi “exterior”, exprimat prin Estankandyr , acea facultate a intuiţiei suprasensibile de a controla lumea lăuntrică şi cea exterioară recurgând la forţă şi expresivitate artistică, la impresionism.

O imagine te poate învăţa să fii în conducerea unor întâmplări, fără să iei decizii importante şi fără să schimbi cursul lor, atunci când ceea ce te individualizează indică un instantaneu care devine “viral” în toată lumea.

Priveşte această imagine şi include-te în ea prin intensitatea trăirilor pe care ea le generează. Pentru ca leadershipul să fie inclus în acest plan, imaginea trebuie să devină un suport care invită privitorul să participe la un "joc" al multor de viziuni și emoții. Totodată, imaginea trebuie să devină un mijloc de comunicare sensibilă între privitori și un mediu astfel descoperit, devenit apropiat, cunoscut.

Priveşte, acesta este leadershipul meu !

Un lider adevărat are mereu în repertoriul său ceva care exprimă înălţimea "operei" sale admirabile.

Am stat multă vreme în preajma maestrului. Acesta este unul din lucrurile din viaţa mea de care pot spune că sunt cu adevărat mândru. Pentru că el, un om profund, care ştia să se comporte simplu şi uman în relaţiile cu ceilalţi, şi posedând un bagaj apreciabil de cunoştinţe, mi-a deschis ochii către tot ce este mai frumos şi mai bun în această lume. Mi-a împărtăşit din secretele antichităţii, din înţelepciunea anticilor şi mi-a predat istoria artelor. M-a învăţat cum să citesc operele marilor artişti, şi cum să înţeleg arta lor.

Arta maestrului meu era desăvârşită. Picturile sale erau de o frumuseţe inegalabilă, şi cu siguranţă aveau o incontestabilă valoare artistică. Însemnele marelui său stil erau: claritatea compoziţiei, simplitatea, măsura şi echilibrul. Cu o uşurinţă şi o spontaneitate nemaivăzute, el îşi schiţa mai întâi pe pânză, cu creionul, ceea ce dorea să picteze – idei pe care de cele mai multe ori le combina cu altele. Apoi se gândea la combinaţia de culori, după care trecea la realizarea picturii.

- Sunteţi un om cu totul superior, i-am spus într-o zi, cu admiraţia fără margini pe care i-o purtam.

Privindu-mă cu bunătate, o bunătate pe care rareori o întâlneşti, o bunătate pe care aş vrea să o văd măcar pe jumătate la oamenii pe care îi întâlnesc zilnic, maestrul mi-a răspuns cu glasul lui blând şi hotărât:

- Nu, nu ! Te înşeli, Nicu. Nu sunt un om superior, ci doar un om care aspiră către superioritate. Voi fi superior numai atunci când creaţiile mele vor fi absolut perfecte şi vor găsi rezonanţă în sufletul tuturor privitorilor.

Leadership: Calitatea "operei" tale este rezultatul unui consens de constituire a valorii de tipul "must see between colors and moods" ?

Frumosul este o noţiune relativă. Ceea ce socotim frumos în unele lucruri, nu mai apare la fel în altele. Aşa este şi în leadership. Ceea ce unor oameni li se pare frumos şi bun, altora li se pare insuportabil. Însă, ideea de a-şi concentra atenţia asupra "creaţiei" sale, astfel încât să o aducă la standarde cât mai înalte, îi conferă liderului o valoare mare. Căci la fel cum efectele picturale sunt obţinute cu o ştiinţă rafinată, tot astfel efectele leadershipului se pot obţine asimilând cat mai multe cunoştinţe solide în domeniu. Este uşor de realizat acest lucru? Evident că nu. Dar merită efortul.

Calitatea operei unui artist este rezultatul unui consens atins de două forţe: amintirea a ceva ce niciodată n-ai să mai vezi şi exemplul unei lecţii de viaţă mereu prezentă în suflarea unei picături de tuş.

În faţa acestei opere ne-am putea defini mai bine sentimentele folosind însăşi cuvintele pictorului suprarealist Giorgio de Chirico: "Fiecare lucru mă priveşte întrebător cu ochi misterioşi. Înţeleg astfel că totul posedă un spirit, un suflet impenetrabil."

Arta pe care o cultivă artistul, sub calmul şi tăcerea unui timp care îşi încetineşte mersul, între simboluri şi semnificaţia lor, este abisul imaginarului compus din infinite taine ale căror uşi odată deschise se dilată într-o lume-imperiu al fabulosului tratat în mod realist. Te simţi ca într-un peisaj atemporal, aducând cu sine un rest de mare în care vâslesc frumosul şi credinţa, fiiinţele şi nefiinţele, toate inversându-şi locul la cea mai simplă fulgerare a unui gând. În sfârşit, simţi că eşti prins prea mult într-o creaţie din care nu te mai poţi desprinde.

Valorea de tipul "must see between colors and moods" se instalează în compoziţia fiecărei opere, redând atitudinea intimă de compromis între diverse orientări, teme şi motive, ca nişte splendide stele călăuzitoare, după cântarul importanţei fiecărei urmă de pensulă în ierarhia amintirilor care îl leagă pe artist de viaţă, predeterminandu-i prezentului şi coordonându-i visele din viitor.

Leadership: Puterea ta străluceşte în sentimentele pe care le investeşti în starea de recunoştinţă pentru ceea ce-ţi doreşti să-şi amintească ceilalţi pe fondul unui consum excesiv de artă?

Dat, totodată, calitatea "operei" unui lider este rezultatul unui consens al majorităţii. Am spus de multe ori lucrul acesta, deoarece cred cu tărie în el. Leadershipul pe care îl exercită liderul are o influenţă deosebită asupra oamenilor, asupra personalităţii lor, asupra capacităţii lor, respectiv, asupra evoluţiei lor.

Dacă liderul exprimă un sentiment şovăielnic în redarea propriilor sale viziuni şi principii, atunci, fără nicio îndoială, el nu va reuşi să-şi dovedească superioritatea, iar în acest caz nu va fi urmat de nimeni. Însă, cu cât numărul celor care îl admiră este mai mare, cu atât "opera" sa va fi mai preţioasă. Majoritatea reprezintă constituentul esenţial din care ia fiinţă opera, decizând care este măsura reală a valorii liderului.

Eforturile de realizare a unui consens de constituire a valorii şi materializarea compatibilităţii depline între modelul tău de frumuseţe şi exigenţele majorităţii, ar trebui să fie focalizate pe înţelegerea criteriilor lor de apreciere a frumuseţii.

Leadership: Ceea ce era văzut inițial ca reper al artei de a te îmbogăţi prin mijloace de relaționare cu trăirile autentice, s-a transformat într-un soi de atracţie din care se dezvoltă o serie nouă de tendinţe?

Nevoia de a conduce creşte mereu, dar şi atitudinea oamenilor se modifică mereu. Pentru ca leadershipul tău să se "vândă, adică să aibă priză la oameni, trebuie ca el să impresioneze prin ceea ce eşti tu, printr-o înaltă ţinută morală şi profesională, prin iniţiative benefice, prin acea sensibilitate şi intuiţie psihologică proprie artiştilor adevăraţi.

Un pictor iscusit ştie că speranţa belşugului său stă în paleta sa de culori şi de aceea caută mereu să găsească o combinaţie care să anime un pic spiritele, o combinaţie de culori în stare să calmeze şi să provoace în acelaşi timp. Tot aşa şi tu trebuie să îţi însuşeşti un set de principii sănătoase care să-ţi exprime convingerile, şi un set potrivit de practici şi proceduri care să aibă efect de durata asupra oamenilor, care să fie în stare să le provoace o anumită afinitate faţă de tine.

Ca lider, este absolut necesar să ai în repertoriul tău ceva care să exprime înălţimea "operei" tale admirabile. La fel cum un pictor se pricepe de minune să folosească culorile, într-un fel îndrăzneţ şi precis, combinându-le în diferite variante - tot aşa şi tu trebuie să te pricepi de minune în a realiza şi folosi propriul tău model de leadership, într-un fel îndrăzneţ şi precis, care să sugereze o spiritualitate aparte şi să reliefeze talentul tău deosebit, combinând în mod inteligent toate acele elemente care îţi pot pune cu adevărat în valoare potenţialul.

O singură artă în materie de tendinţe se dezvoltă neîncetat în cadrul leadershipului: crearea artisticului ca forma de depăşire personală, cu titlul unui destin de legendă: "I am the one and only ! "

Această artă se ghidează după ideea potrivit căreia ceea ce simţi atunci când îţi vezi rodul muncii împlinit trebuie să prindă contur în mintea celor care vor să-şi contruieasca propriul lor spaţiu de forţă în abilitatea de a comunica o angajare autentică în tratarea unei teme în plan emoţional.

Priveşte, acesta este leadershipul meu ! sugerează o chemare spre admiraţia cea mai înaltă şi mai sinceră vizavi de mijloacele artei de a înfăţişa stări din viaţa reală, din care transpare sensul unei traiectorii de destin spre un statut de legendă.

Concluzie: Un lider trebuie să aibă în "repertoriul" său ceva care să-l deosebească de ceilalţi, dar care să fie unanim acceptat şi adoptat. Acest „ceva" demonstrează calitatea leadershipului său.

Privește adânc provocarea și vei vedea esența

Focalizarea vizuală oscilează între detaliul imediat și perspectiva largă.

Sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, a mai reușit un record la semimaratonul desfășurat pe dealurile "Mărzești". Pe acest pământ dedicat parcă alergării, înfloresc virtuțile, pe pământul pe care îl calci în alergare neobosită cu sudoarea frunții, într-o neobosită căutare a limitelor proprii. Aici, într-un decor plin de visuri sculptate în realitate, Oana și-a făurit o lume a ei, ochii ei distingând între lumina speranței și umbrele temerilor. Iar dacă și-ar fi privit din depărtări urmele pașilor ei, haciendo invisibles todos los intentos, ar fi putut contura forma unei spirale nesfârșite, ca simbol al trecerii prin timp și spațiu, al veșnicei dorințe de a progresa.

În spațiul în care alergi fără oprire se înfăptuiește o victorie a spiritului. A asculta de cei puternici aici, pe acest pământ al forțelor dinamismului, unde fizica devine o constantă a mișcării, o combinație între știință și artă, un experiment constant al legilor naturale, înseamnă să înțelegi legătura profundă dintre corp și minte. Nu, nu este vorba doar despre mușchi și efort fizic, ci despre disciplină, hotărâre și sacrificiu, și despre faptul că adevărata putere vine din depășirea propriilor limite. Acuitatea vizuală în efort intens oglindește claritatea gândirii sub presiune, iar claritatea scopului fiind ceea ce ghidează pașii într-o căutare neobosită, se transformă într-o adevărată călăuză spirituală.

Leadership: Poți transforma fiecare privire trecătoare într-o contemplare a măreției artistice, modelând fiecare provocare într-un tablou viu al perfecțiunii?

Când Napoleon privea spre oceanul întins, din vârful stâncii, nu făcea altceva decât să-și ridice ochii spre măreție, spre soarele idealurilor sale. Asemenea lui, alergătorul care se avântă pe poteci abrupte nu vede doar pietre și oboseală, ci vede dincolo de ele: oceanul posibilităților și soarele înalt al victoriei. Chiar și atunci când totul pare o povară, fiecare privire spre vârf este o recunoaștere a spiritului indomptabil. În acest sens, Oana a dat dovadă nu doar de curaj, ci și de acel simț al perfecțiunii caracteristic artiștilor consacrați care triumfă prin dăruire, reprezentând o adevărată inspirație pentru toți cei care o priveau.

Cu cât alergătorul montan urcă mai sus pe cărările singuratice ale muntelui, cu atât mai mult spiritul lui comunică cu natura sălbatică, reușind să transforme fiecare vârf cucerit într-un loc "Sfânta Elena" personal, unde izolarea fizică devine o sursă de măreție interioară. Cei slabi de caracter, nepregătiți pentru curse istovitoare, locuitorii categoriilor inferioare ale pământului, trebuie să dea ascultare celor puternici. Întotdeauna e așa. Iar cei puternici, care duc în mușchi greutatea dealurilor abrupte și povara ambiției, trebuie să ajungă la înțelegere între ei, să-și unească spiritele în vederea atingerii unui singur ideal — asemenea vulturului bătrân, care, deși legat de stâncă, nu și-a coborât privirea de la măreția cerului.

Imaginea astfel nu dezvăluie o lume închisă, ci fixează un punct, o situație în care totul poate deveni artă. Oana a cucerit măreția, respectul tuturor celorlalți alergători, în felul cum un artist cucerește patosul uman, imortalizând învingătorul într-un moment de înaltă glorie, chiar dacă asta înseamnă să își depășească limitele până la epuizare. A fost un moment efemer transformat în eternitate prin mișcare și efort susținut, în acest timp creându-se o operă de artă adevărată, coerentă, putând fi chiar dusă la extrem, ajungem să-l admirăm pe artist ca pe un fel de meșter vrăjitor, care-și impune cele mai grele sarcini numai pentru a demonstra că este capabil să le depășească.

Leadership: Poate fi efortul tău o mărturie a forței interioare, într-un mod similar unui artist consacrat care își dăruiește complet creația, transformând efemerul într-o eternitate?

Claritatea scopului este ceea ce ghidează pașii într-o căutare neobosită. Realizând totuși o operă de artă pe deplin organizată, Oana a devenit creatoarea propriei realități, desenând în noroi și pietre traseul unei povești de mare succes. A excelat tocmai prin surprinzătoarea ei precizie în a da sens unui parcurs imortalizat pe o pânză a naturii — un drum sinuos, plin de obstacole, dar și plin de momente de triumf. Fiecare clipire, fiecare respirație păstrează în memoria ei momentele de triumf și sacrificiu, ca și când timpul însuși s-ar opri pentru a le imortaliza.

Ochiul vigilent al alergătorului deslușește nu doar peisajul, ci și calea progresului invizibil. Așa cum locul de exil al împăratului nu i-a putut diminua măreția, la fel alergătorul creează și înnobilează locul prin efortul său, chiar dacă traseul accidentat și efortul istovitor i-au pus la încercare voința. Să menții atracția deosebită a luptei cu sine și să domini totuși atotstăpânitor imaginea succesului, iată splendoarea, aceasta este misiunea alergătorului-artist, a creatorului de lumi nevăzute, care transformă fiecare pas într-o mărturie a dorinței de a atinge culmi tot mai înalte.

Un singur moment îmi amintesc foarte bine, când Oana se afla în vârful celui mai înalt dintre dealuri, înaintea celorlalți concurenți. De parcă ea ar fi fost vârful spre care ceilalți tindeau. Tot mereu, vârfurile dealurilor și munților devin pentru ea ceea ce stânca înaltă a fost pentru "vulturul bătrân" Napoleon - un loc de unde privește spre soarele propriilor aspirații, spre "oceanul întins" al posibilităților infinite. În această izolare aparentă, ea nu este pedepsită sau limitată, ci își găsește libertatea supremă. Fiecare pas pe potecile abrupte este o afirmare a spiritului ei neînfrânt, iar comunicarea cu natura sălbatică devine sursa unei demnități interioare pe care niciun obstacol exterior nu o poate diminua.

Sunt mândru de Oana, deoarece a atins un nou nivel de excelență, din moment ce a înfruntat provocările cu demnitate, rămânând totodată fidelă idealurilor sale. Așa cum Napoleon a transformat acel loc îndepărtat într-un simbol al măreției sale neînfrânte, la fel și sora mea a transformat fiecare traseu dificil într-o oportunitate de a-și demonstra forța interioară.

A-ți depăși limitele nu înseamnă doar să atingi un vârf, ci să transformi fiecare obstacol într-un simbol al propriei măreții.

Privește adânc provocarea și vei vedea esența atunci când încerci să-ți depășești propriile bariere, demonstrând astfel acea putere interioară demnă de un luptător, printr-un soi de determinare neobosită. Mă refer la faptul că trebuie să mergi dincolo de temeri, că adevăratul progres vine din confruntarea cu propriile limite.

Esența unui alergător este, de fapt, ceea ce unește esența unui artist de Napoleon: și unul și celălalt sfidează limitele impuse, căutând mereu măreția.

Priveşte bine la ce spun ochii tăi

On Aprilie 16, 2020

Ideile mari încolţesc rar, şi unii le mai şi calcă în picioare, sau pur şi simplu trec nepăsători pe lângă ele.

Există o relaţie specială între mine şi natură, două prezenţe active influenţându-se reciproc, tot atât de intens precum creează artistul o pictură despre frumuseţea naturii pe o pânză atât de gingașă încât aproape că îţi este teamă să o atingi cu nişte mâini nedeprinse cu mijloacele privilegiate ale artei. De pildă, iată, acum privesc cu mult drag, cu mult înţeles sufletesc, această frunză plină de viaţă, în formă de inimă, pe care un pictor iscusit ar surprinde-o în ipostaza de muză, simbol al unei înnoiri periodice, produs al unei sensibilităţi lirice.

Şi ea îmi vorbeşte cu o voce ciudată, ca un om matur, şi eu o ascult intens, cu spirit de artist, şi amândoi ne înţelegem de minune într-o capodoperă a creatorului numită Arynexisthes , sau momeala unei realităţi mai înalte. Poate că toată această pătrundere a mea în sânul naturii, privită ca o angajare afectivă într-un univers simbolizat, este doar consecinţa unui joc de lumini şi umbre dintr-un labirint al mulţimilor poetice, într-un pluralism nedefinibil şi non-descriptibil. Sau, poate că sunt captivul unei realităţi sui-generis aflată la marginea realităţii din sfera unui vis numit viaţă.

Actul de transfer al simţurilor de la un ochi de artist la o privire a naturii, perceput în materie picturală, este prin urmare un act de conversiune simbolică în dublu sens: mai întâi trebuie să surprind o realitate atât de profundă şi subtilă într-o secundă astrală, încât s-o redau ca pe un centru al universului, apoi trebuie să-mi canalizez forţa vitală artistică în subtilitatea unui mesaj cu mare putere de evocare a revărsării luminii dumnezeiești în ambianța sferei tainice de forță a planetei Pământ.

Leadership: Cum argumentezi apartenenţa ta la sfera realităţii din spaţiul creaţiei, prin prisma transferului de simţuri de la un ochi de artist la o privire a naturii?

În acelaşi timp, frunza poate fi exprimarea unei arte care îşi trage sorgintea din peregrinările unei perle, pe cât de mică pe atât de preţioasă, într-un deşert numit „I feel so much less alone". Pentru că nimeni nu ştie să recunoască în ea o adevărată capodoperă vizuală și o poveste fără vârstă ce traversează spaţiul şi timpul, simbolizând totodată forţa pe care o deține numai creatorul capabil să dăltuiască lucrările cele mai fine.

Mă simt atât gol fără privirea ei, încât privirea mea îşi poate pierde disciplina: aş fi în incapacitatea de adaptare la o răscruce a vieţii. Privirile noastre denotă tendința ochilor de a devia mai mult decât este necesar spre arta unei noi Dumnezeiri. Chiar şi prin astfel de convingeri superstițioase se reflectă sentimente, sau conştiinţa legăturii cu viziunea, cu puterea credinţei investită în dialogul cu Creatorul lumii. Este aceeaşi putere despre care cineva spunea că nu este o simplă carte, ci însuşi spiritul dinamic ce transformă viaţa întregii lumi.

Frunza mea se pregăteşte cu mult freamăt de orice i se încredinţează, făcută să zboare prin faţa ochilor expresivi care îşi datorează culoarea, căprui spre verde, tocmai expresiei unei realităţi mai înalte, ceva cu o semnificaţie mult superioară celei pe care i-ar atribui-o omul de rând. Şi eu îi încredinţez împlinirea mea, visul meu, emoţiile mele, pentru ca ea să-mi încredinţeze o parte din înţelesul verbului "a trăi" sub domnia unei naturi spirituale încorporată în jurnalul-schiţă a unui artist de geniu.

Iar dacă creaţia mea este o creaţie a naturii care îşi cere dreptul la reprezentare pe o pânză fină de bumbac, printr-o imortalizare în eternitate, atunci mai rămâne de simbolizat abordarea vieţii mele într-o manieră calmă, veselă, de o puternică expresivitate.

Leadership: Obiectul privirii tale te ajută să navighezi prin labirintul vieţii într-o manieră care acordă valoare propriei creații, încât să determini o schimbare în ceea ce te reprezintă la nivel de Supraom?

Mi-aş dori să fiu o mică frunză, pentru ca vântul serii de toamnă târzii să o ducă în calea unei priviri ce nu uită nicio clipă frumuseţea unei privelişti de vis. Poate că o frunză asemănătoare celei care m-a inspirat pe mine, completându-mă cu spiritul ei generos, cu povestea ei emoţionantă, a trecut prin câmpul vizual al unui doctor, cum este celebrul doctor Corneliu Duda din Târgu Mureş, care la prima oră de curs obişnuia să scrie pe tablă aceste rânduri:

Însăşi simţirea inimii mele primeşte pulsaţia unui atare model liric. Nu oricine reuşeşte asta. Căci am observat o frunză, şi ea m-a observat pe mine, felul cum o privesc cu ochii larg deschişi, plini de sentiment. Şi observându-i forma plină de mister, care vorbeşte inimii, aşa cum vântul a aşezat-o la picioarele mele, plină de mesaj artistic, am zis s-o ridic şi s-o iau cu mine într-un gând transcedental. Inimii mele nu-i lipseşte glasul de a mulţumi naturii pentru o asemenea întâlnire cu însăşi transparenţa mea simbolică, care reprezintă ocazia de a păşi cu toată fiinţa mea în altă lume, poate ciudată, poate cu totul diferită de a mea.

O clipă am stat de vorbă cu frunza mea, ca parte a unui dialog între Creator şi Opera lui. O simţire plină de tremurare a inimii m-a cuprins, clătinată şi speriată de o eventuală exigenţă în domeniul creaţiei artistice, contrazisă de ceva potrivnic firescului: "Ideile mari încolţesc rar, şi unii le mai şi calcă în picioare, sau pur şi simplu trec nepăsători pe lângă ele..."

Un supraom este un creator care consumă experienţe vizuale şi emoţionale cu scopul de a da realităţii nuanţa unei expresii de sine originale, de la figurat la propriu: "nu poţi să simţi că păşeşti în altă lume fără să îndeplineşti condiţia de imitator al miracolului naturii".

Priveşte bine la ce spun ochii tăi dacă vrei să surprinzi detaliile unei lumi întregi într-o singură expresie a naturii. Numai privindu-te ca o splendoare a naturii, cu ochii care nu au vârstă, vei putea să întregeşti imaginea unei lumi la care doar creatorii au acces. Şi pe măsură ce deschizi bine ochii spre frumusețea magnifică a naturii, se va întinde în fața ta un alt aspect al creaţiei, sinonim cu acel conţinut sufletesc de care trebuie să ai mare grijă dacă vrei să obţii apropierea de marea lucrare a Creatorului..

Priveşte ceea ce altor ochi nu le este dat să vadă

"Întotdeauna într-un suflet puternic se găsește emoția și căldura necesară unui imbold subtil ce duce la căutarea frumosului."

Era o vreme ploioasă, înceţoşată, în care nu ţi-ai fi scos mănuşile de pe mâini şi nasul de după fular. Noroiul gros era pretutindeni, umiditatea pătrundea îngrijorător până la oase. Ajunsesem la finalul cursei de semimaraton, şi tremurând de frig, am intrat într-un local din apropiere pentru a servi un ceai fierbinte. Un refugiu liniştit, dar neliniştitor de lumea exterioară. De acolo puteam să văd pe geam noii sosiţi la linia de final, cum îşi proclamau, parcă la unison, mândria de a fi puternici prin ei înşişi, mândria de a fi ieşit cu fruntea sus din confruntarea numită "întrecere cu vremea".

În sufletul lor tăcut, discret, dar oarecum neliniştitor, se amestecau sentimente contradictorii, aşa cum se amestecă două culori opuse într-un tablou ce trădează influența clarobscurului. Mai întâi, era admiraţia faţă de progresele înregistrate, o emoţie care îi punea în raport cu lumea şi în întâmpinarea ei, apoi era acea compasiune deprimantă faţă o fiinţă amărâtă şi neajutorată, manifestată înadins cu gândul la ce-a trebuit să înfrunte fiecare din ei ca să facă faţă cu succes unei situaţii, aproape tragică prin generalizarea ei, care fusese practic echivalentul unei scurte treceri prin iad.

Vădit lucru. În clipa când mă uitam în ochii lor senini, dar cumva zbuciumaţi de o luptă lăuntrică, prin sensurile ce le deşteaptă în mine reprezentarea unei imagini grayscale, îmi închipuiam că am intrat în posesia unui secret molto sensibile care se deschide treptat, îţi întâmpină simţurile cu încărcătură energetică dar îţi poate afecta în cel mai înalt grad viața pe care o are de trăit alt om, fie el chiar și omul din imaginea care te inspiră. El te strigă, te strigă, te strigă, dar nu umblă după tine, ci te lasă să te pierzi în căutarea unui nou început.

Leadership: Poţi modifica fundalul unei imagini care te impresionează, împărţind-o în mai multe părţi specifice, încât să obţii un simţământ care, altfel, nu s-ar ivi niciodată?

Ochii mei însufleţitori, liberi să vadă ceea ce s-au obişnuit să vadă, au văzut mesajul ochilor străini de mine însumi. Organe absolut incredibile, ochii celorlalţi alergători păreau să fi reţinut ceva dintr-o realitate mereu identică cu cea sugerată de cadrul unei picturi care dă iluzia abstractului, rămânând, însă, profund ataşată materiei vizibile. De parcă s-ar fi aflat în căutarea unui răspuns logic la miracolul la care fuseseră martori fără voie, acel Sientethelis Esspyn Aspertithos, trăirea prin imaginea din oglinda naturii, o trăire care se înfăţişează sufletului ca simbol al unei experiențe spirituale trecută prin acceptarea paradoxalului, dar rezolvată prin intervenţia miraculosului.

Pot eu oare modifica rapid fundalul acestei imagini împărţind-o în mai multe părţi specifice, încât să obţin un simţământ care, altfel, nu s-ar ivi niciodată? Iar dacă imaginea pe care o surprinde ochiul artistului se aliniază şi trece într-un tărâm magic, exprimat poetic, admirativ, atunci alergătorii ar face parte din categoria "vederii din care se spune o poveste", sugerând totodată iluminarea figurii împăcate cu rezultatul obţinut la final.

Asta am şi făcut. Împărţind imaginea în mai multe părţi, părţi umbrite, părţi luminoase, părţi expresive sau conotative, părţi realiste sau simbolice, senzoriale sau dinamice, am reuşit să schimb destinaţia mesajului final: "Numai ceea ce te consumă şi te oboseşte enorm îţi provoacă acea emoţie puternică ce îţi invadează inima."

Da. Priveam pe geam chipurile alergătorilor cuprinşi de simţământul unei victorii care plăsmuieşte povestea unei lumi pe care, vai, nu mai ştie nimeni s-o spună. Chipurile lor exprimau o atitudine de acceptare şi deschidere către necunoscutul fenomenelor naturii, fapt ce aducea experienţe noi de reprezentare a vizualului printr-o predominanţă a emoţiilor asupra raţiunii. Şi, bucuroşi c-au ajuns la final pe o vreme atât de capricioasă, s-au evidenţiat pe planul tangent la spectacolul dinamic şi năucitor al naturii, făcând parte dintr-o realitate ce poartă numele "Fragmentarism" - marcat grafic prin forme de umbră şi lumină așezate în echilibre ușor instabile, dar inserate armonios într-un microcosmos însufleţitor.

Leadership: Imaginea care o ai în minte se îndreaptă mai mult spre simțuri decât spre intelect, dar necesită mult timp pentru a-i atribui sensul de "deschidere spre interior"?

Ceea ce se distinge în această atmosferă a victoriei faţă de tine însuţi, fapt ce-mi permite să fac distincţia clară între o artă care se rezumă doar la ceea ce reţine retina pictorului şi o artă prin care se pot exprima sentimente, este încercarea de a evada, de a te desprinde de universul cunoscut şi banalizat, de a te lansa spre necunoscut ca un explorator îndrăzneţ, ca să "găseşti ceva nou".

Pe această cale devii o persoană mult mai puternică, mult mai determinată, dar totodată mult mai sensibilă. Este exact ceea ce transmite starea experimentată de eroul scriitoarei Marguerite Yourcenar în "Piatra Filosofală":

"I se întâmplase adesea să deschidă o uşă, numai ca să-şi arate că n-o închisese pe vecie în urma lui. Să se întoarcă spre un trecător ce se depărtase, doar ca să nege definitivul unei despărţiri, demonstrându-şi astfel mărginita-i libertate omenească. De astă dată săvârşise o faptă ireversibilă, ştia că se va despărţi la final de forţa naturii, şi va rămâne doar un trup trecut de la starea naturii, în care s-a bucurat de libertate, la starea de conştiinţă pură cunoscută ca "lumină". Inima îi bătea năvalnic. În trupul lui avea loc o activitate violentă şi dezordonată, ca într-o ţară învinsă unde toţi luptătorii au depus armele. Îl cuprinse un fel de înduioşare faţă de trupul acela care-l slujise cu credinţă, care ar fi putut la urma urmei să ducă multă vreme greutăţile..."

Pe bună dreptate. Frumosul în artă este imaginea plină de sens care nu se lasă niciodată uitată, acea imagine plină de vibraţie care transmite un mesaj optimist oricăruia dintre noi: ceea ce simţi că te încarcă pozitiv este urmarea a ceea ce ai trăit în momentele când nu puteai decât să accepţi durerea şi capriciile naturii.

Leadershipul este învăţarea de a te desprinde de acel fel de a fi impus de exterior, dar care ajunge să te definească în planul superior al unui moment de reflecţie: ceea ce te consumă, concomitent te „încarcă".

Lecţia asta au învăţat-o toţi alergătorii de performanţă.

Iar dacă este adevărat ce spunea cineva, că întotdeauna într-un suflet puternic se găsește emoția și căldura necesară unui imbold subtil ce duce la căutarea frumosului, atunci ceea ce mă face să mă integrez într-o imagine de invidiat, probabil iubindu-mă mai mult pe mine însumi, este credinţa că pot oricând să neg definitivul unei despărţiri de momentul actual, şi să mă transpun vizual într-un plan superior de unde să-mi privesc viaţa ca şi cum aş lua parte la o aventură memorabilă...

Priveşte ceea ce altor ochi nu le este dat să vadă dacă vrei să te încadrezi într-o imagine cu dublă deschidere: o imagine care îţi dă senzaţia de Deja-Vu şi o imagine care îţi dă un context pentru ca tu să ai un rost în ceea ce alegi să înţelegi.

Priveşte încotro mergi, căci vei ajunge încotro priveşti

Vederea nu este făcută să încânte ochii, ci pentru ceea ce ochii regăsesc în ea: o amintire specială sau o parte din tine însuți.

Este o zi splendidă pentru ochii care admiră frumusețea florilor dintr-un cadru luxuriant, mai ales când vederea se bazează pe trăirile cu adevărat autentice și intense a unei realităţi alternative, sub pretextul de a descoperi autenticitatea naturii în simplitatea ei. Mă aflu în grădina botanică, în realitatea unui tablou care transmite linişte, o atmosferă relaxantă. Cu siguranţă, vederea mea îmbunătăţită cu potenţial artistic se individualizează la contactul dintre gustul pentru frumos şi intensitatea expresivă a unui spaţiu special, olfactiv, fonic şi vizual, departe de orice exclusivism sau patimă obscură.

În acest plan pictural, pur abstract, opera privitorului constă în a surprinde culorile vii ale florilor, concepute parcă în coordonatele unui univers care îşi asumă profunzimile şi complicaţiile unui timp static, Aronecotebit Sayolesena Yracocacisen, o dimensiune afectivă a realităţii, un timp care nu se mai întoarce, părând un infinit creat ciclic, la a cărui seninătate veghează zeii din afara universului și legilor lor. Dezvăluind sensuri şi implicaţii neaşteptate, ochii privitorului se luminează la fiecare pas, atât de mult îşi concentrează ei atenţia - în special asupra imaginii de ansamblu, detaliile unui decor personalizat făcând parte dintr-o trilogie dedicată picturii sau fotografiei.

Planul unui fragment dintr-o astfel de realitate, concepută pentru vizionarea captivantă a unei cât mai diversificate palete de manifestări lăuntrice, intersectează vederea ochilor mei cu viziunea concentrată asupra imaginilor din jur, în punctul în care experiența de redare a culorilor într-un tablou capătă un caracter de esteticitate. Din acest motiv încerc să disting, să memorez, să fac aprecieri asupra unui "dincolo de real", prin trecerea de la perceput la imaginar, pe care actul vederii îl aduce cu sine detaliilor simple, dar suficient de complexe pentru a-mi ține ochii concentrați o vreme.

Leadership: Creaţia ta accentuează ipostaza unui privitor care, contemplând, face abstracție de realitatea din jur și de sine însuși, important fiind doar obiectul privirii sale?

Însăşi ochii au devenit prizonierii unui spaţiu care se construieşte permanent pe sine, o acceptare tacită a dimensiunii unei imagini mai mari, cum este imaginea atribuită unei priviri "de dincolo de aşteptat", în intenţia frumosului de a putea fi înlocuit prin întruchiparea unei flori graţioase care sporeşte strălucirea şi caracterul ingenuu al primei etape a tinereţii. În culori calde, în nişte tonuri delicate ca de acuarelă, florile îşi dezvăluie puritatea, frumuseţea, mirosul printr-o încercare de evitare a vederii mele, dar nu au puterea de a străluci, fără să fie strălucitoare.

Deci, ce este o realitate alternativă? Este surprinderea în imagini a unei senzații de "înviere", ca şi când m-aş fi renăscut într-o feerie de culori vibrante, încercând să evadez dintr-o amintire fără de prezent sau, dimpotrivă, să mă alături unui proces de revedere condiţionat de artă să-mi lumineze sufletul, simţurile, trăirile. Este un instantaneu al unei scene observabile într-o manieră invizibilă, caz în care mă concentrez să văd doar o singură parte a unei imagini încântătoare, lăsându-se greu dezvelită, acea parte ce ține de imaginație, viziune, perspectivă, și care produce totul: artă, emoții, reacții.

Este, în același timp, o descriere realistă a unei situații “observabile”, dar greu detectabile la o primă vedere, care dă naștere la o operă de artă.

O amintire preţuită sau o imagine emblematică? Tot admirând florile din jur, în special trandafirii care îmi vorbesc prin intermediul culorilor atât de vii, rugându-mă să îi revăd tot mai des, considerându-i drept nişte fiinţe vorbitoare special create pentru a-mi bucura sufletul şi privirea, am realizat cât de important este să mă reîntorc într-un cadru natural, departe de agitația orașului, departe de gândurile sociale care mă trag în jos. Numai în grădina botanică stau cuminte într-o continuă aşteptare. Nici nu mă gândesc să mă îndepărtez de pe calea încântărilor spirituale ale vieţii.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să cuprindă o imagine capabilă să exprime o amintire specială, o amintire păstrată în memorie drept un model de viziune care unește spiritualul și materialul într-un singur întreg?

Și, da, vederea este o totalitate împlinită când întâlnește imaginile care îi satisfac nevoile, mai ceva ca niște ochelari progresivi, luând în considerare experiența de recunoaștere a unei creații care, nesituându-se într-un singur curent artistic, amestecă voit registrul miraculosului cu cel al inexplicabilului. Ea se întrupează într-o putere enormă de pătrundere, asumând limitele timpului şi spaţiului prin viziuni și închipuiri care balansează între imaginile fixe şi dinamice, între instantaneul îngheţat al clipei de față şi durata unei experiențe de Deja-Vu.

Această creaţie, numită cu adevărat "O Aventură extraordinară în lumea florilor", îl determină pe spectatorul anonim, ca şi pe fotograful profesionist să plonjeze într-o lume fantastică şi aparent iluzorie, doar ca să crească puterea supranaturalului în arta picturală. Este o încântare să vezi un peisaj de grădină cu flori, atât de variat, matur, aproape neînțeles, și la fel ca Dumnezeu, să fii unicul creator care îi poate da o notă de atemporal, o simbolistică aparte într-un imaginar suprarealist, o frumusețe absolută într-un soi de paradis terestru.

Nu în ultimul rând, tot plimbându-mă printre flori, privirea mea a luat locul privirii unui iubitor de artă, pe nume Marcel Brion, care a scris la un moment dat despre pictorul spaniol, de origine greacă, El Greco:

"Paleta lui El Greco aduce cele mai rare şi mai subtile combinaţii de tonuri, cuprinse într-o pastă picturală uşoară, transparentă, aproape lichidă. Acum când ne-am obişnuit să vorbim despre materia unui tablou, nu mai ştim cum să caracterizăm materia atât de puţin materială, de anti-materială, a picturilor lui El Greco, şi putem doar să spunem că, evocând forme insesizabile şi înveşmântându-le în culori ce sunt sunt ale devenirii mai degrabă decât ale fiinţei, artistul spiritualiza, potrivit viziunii sale, materia. Spiritual ar fi fost în primejdie să rămână prizonier al materiei, mai ales dacă accepta să intre în trupul atât de carnal al oamenilor, prin urmare trebuia ca materia specială din care-şi ţesea aparenţa să fie fără greutate, fără grosime şi fără densitate; deschisă şi perfect permeabilă spiritului."

Evaluarea unei opere de artă este dată de experienţa subiectivă a unui artist care ştie să surprindă momentul în care propria lui vedere devine valoare spirituală a unui tablou pictat.

Leadershipul se conjugă aici cu intensitatea unei priviri care surprinde într-o viziune unică acea imagine care nu te invită neapărat la acţiune, dar corespunde nivelului lăuntric, vibraţiei sufletului tău.

Priveşte încotro mergi, căci vei ajunge încotro priveşti. Ai convingerea că te vei întoarce acolo unde amintirile rămân vii, prind culoare, creând sentimentul unei intimităţi profunde şi reale. Ia în calcul faptul că un pictor întruchipează simultan gândurile, sentimentele, aspirațiile și idealurile sale într-o operă de artă care explorează misterele lumii naturale şi, totodată, încurajează să te gândeşti la starea spirituală a acestei lumi.

Priveşte-mă aşa cum se priveşte ochiul pe sine

Ceea ce simţi cu adevărat este ceea ce vezi la tine când te apropii sufleteşte de o imagine care persistă în mintea ta.

Mărturia unei vieţi se află într-o singură imagine, cu toate tainele destăinuite, cu toate rosturile revelate, ca putere a sufletului prin care se voieşte curgerea lină a sensibilităţii izvorâtă din fiecare acord al dorului de libertate, al visului pur. Fugi din Iad ca să ajungi în Paradis, şi imaginea capătă o luminozitate aparte, un caracter neobişnuit, un sens artistic prin care, la nivel de micro-spațiu, suntem invitaţi să-l înţelegem.

Numele ei de cod este Nina. Ca orice agent secret, ea fuge într-o zi, dăruindu-se aceluia care n-o brutalizează, şi n-o trimite în misiuni riscante. Experienţa tragică din viaţa sa, visul unei păsări captive într-o cușcă cu gratii dese, trebuia să se preschimbe în zborul unei păsări colibri, ce trece și nu lasă urme, la hotarul dintre ceaţă şi lumină. A o înţelege până într-atât încât să refaci înadins, cu aceeaşi intensitate a unei unde fine de pace sufletească, experienţa acumulată de-a lungul unei vieţi petrecute pe baricadele misiunilor riscante, înlocuind vechile obiceiuri, gânduri, simţiţi, înseamnă să renunţi la tine însuţi şi pentru a deveni altcineva.

Odată cu văzul, simţul dominant prin care oricine se exteriorizează, privitorul anonim surprinde un chip sublim ajuns la asemănarea cu cea mai luminoasă şi călduroasă rază de soare, ca şi când deţinătorul chipului s-ar număra printre cei care posedă "cheia nevăzută" cu care se pătrunde în paradisul veşnic al simbolisticii. De data aceasta, conştiinţa întreagă încearcă să cuprindă realitatea totală a unei imagini a blândeţii care, dincolo de un fundal în clarobscur, marcat doar pe alocuri de mici fâșii luminoase, dezvoltă paralel şi respectă o tainică corespondenţă cu măiestria unui artist care parcă respiră poezie.

O vezi în fotografie aşa cum se vede ea pe sine, naturală, fără filtre de înfrumuseţare, fără linii dure, într-o realitate a reflecțiilor în oglinda mentală, cu o privire blândă, un surâs blajin, care vizează atingerea unei brize uşoare de dimineaţă trecând uşor peste suflet. Şi încă te întrebi ce spun ochii. Ceva din off, ca un ecou de peste timpuri, îmi şopteşte: priveşte-mă adânc, cu suflet, şi spune-mi ce-i lipseşte ochiului meu pentru a-şi desăvârşi vederea?

Leadership: Felul cum te vezi depinde de ceea ce simţi în momentul când reuşeşti să atingi acel spaţiu adânc din tine care te recomandă ca fiind creatorul unei viziuni "retrăită prin reamintire" ?

Priveşte-o aşa cum ea se priveşte pe sine. Şi, spune-mi, dacă poţi, de ce privirea ei scormonitoare, înlocuind o mie de cuvinte, se zbate o clipă între mine şi tabloul pe care pictorul îl termină cu ultima mișcare de pensulă, apoi se strecoară, alunecă prin mine, se află într-un scurt raport de dialog cu sufletul meu, şi în cele din urmă imaginea ei se conturează ca un tablou finit? De ce?

De aici se naşte un mister, o evidenţă simbolică, o proiecţie cosmică a sinelui născut dintr-o simplă fantezie, ceva care pentru mine este chiar frustrant. Pentru că ochii care văd imaginea unei fiinţe în toată profunzimea ei, cuprinsă de o linişte aproape mistică, sunt aceiaşi ochii tăcuţi, rezervaţi, ghidaţi de simțul vederii în beznă, fapt ce îmi permite să experimentez la o scară mult mai mare universul lăuntric pe care fiinţele luminate şi-l speră în taină, în general neîmpărtăşit.

Viziunea mea poartă numele unei figuri puţin cunoscute, dar pe care creaţia artistică o are în promovarea identităţii mele. Bineînţeles, cel ce ştie să aprecieze vastitatea, precum și complexitatea unei capodopere, fiind inspirat de un sentiment ce se zbate o clipă între sine şi tablou, nu este nicidecum străin de cuprinsul "Tratatului despre pictură" a lui Leonardo Da Vinci, unde găsim următoarea menţiune:

"Mult greşesc acei pictori care adeseori pictează un model reliefat, într-o lumină specială de la ei de acasă, şi apoi îl aşază în marea lumină de afară, unde aerul cuprinde şi luminează toate părţile în acelaşi fel. De aici li se întâmplă să pună umbre puternice acolo unde nu se pot afla astfel de umbre, şi chiar dacă ar fi, lumina zilei e atât de tare încât abia se mai văd. Şi tot aşa se întâmpla cu reflectările ce nu e cu putinţă să le vezi."

Mărturia unei vieţi învolburate se află într-o singură imagine care asigură maximum de acuitate vizuală în câmpul unei reînnoiri sufleteşti ce se înfăptuieşte cu adevărat doar în măsura în care exprimă esenţa nemuritoare a unei persoane.

Curios cât de stranie, simţitoare şi fascinantă este atingerea unui gând de amintire, venit de dincolo de pustiu, atunci când vrei cu tot dinadinsul să pătrunzi inima unei femei. Chipul vorbeşte, spune multe. Nu tace, ci te priveşte cu sinceritate, fără falsitate, fiind la fel luminos ca soarele printre frunzele palmierilor pe o plajă aurie. Este ceaţă, pe înserate, dar chipul îi este luminat de aureola unei stele, creşte când e privită prin prisma unei lacrimi, şi reînvie magia unei poveşti nemuritoare.

Ochii te privesc, cu dor, cu suspine. Par atingerea unui înger ce îţi alintă inima, te face să-i asculţi şoaptele, ca soarele ce escaladează zarea, ca şi când nu ar fi nimic altceva decât mirajul unei clipe căzute în afara timpului, ca un fruct copt, desprins de ram de propria-i greutate. Aceiaşi ochi calmi, plini de misterul unei Somines dres Scarthes, vibraţia unei emoţii efemere, surprind fiinţa visătoare în toată complexitatea şi dinamica contrariilor, recurgând la un procedeu de substituție, reproducând imaginea care evocă în chip poetic impresiile produse de apariția unei estetici distincte, vizionare, ca regândire a unei realităţi tăinuită într-un dincolo de nume, într-un dincoace de cuvânt.

Nina. Acum eşti în sfârşit liberă, singură cu tine, cu visul devenit realitate. A fost lupta inimii tale de a-şi găsi ecoul în creaţia greu de înţeles a vieţii. Iar dacă vreodată cineva te-ar vedea întâmplător, aşa cum vezi o pasăre în libertate, şi dacă te-ar recunoaşte după seninătatea privirii, dar mai ales după răbdarea cu care privirea însăşi povestește despre tine, va simţi acea mângâiere fină pe care o lasă atingerea unei bucăți de catifea, o îmbrățișare suavă, căldura soarelui la plajă.

Vei rămâne veşnic în memoria celor care îţi vor descoperi chipul într-un tablou zămislit cu suflet...

Sub semnul leadershipului stă recunoaşterea unei vieţi învolburate a cărei taină n-o afli, nu o poţi înțelege, oricât te-ai strădui să-i găseşti sensurile, decât privind chipul unei persoane în imaginea care te-a impresionat cel mai mult. Acolo unde privirea nu pătrunde, acolo se ascunde sufletul.

Priveşte-mă aşa cum se priveşte ochiul pe sine şi poate, într-o bună zi, vei înţelege de ce privirea mea adâncă întâlneşte doar ochii care ştiu să vadă acea luminiţă îndepărtată, de dincolo de întuneric. Poţi să răscoleşti luminiţa aceasta din sufletul pe care-l ai în faţa ta, ea nu se va stinge niciodată atâta timp cât îţi aminteşti de mine, de chipul meu călător ce alungă în vânt rătăcirea şi haosul, şi le preschimbă în raze de soare.

Poate că aşa stau lucrurile. Ochiul artistului se priveşte ca un ultim scop al creaţiei; s-ar aştepta ca în clipa stingerii sale să nu fie sfârşitul lumii...

Priveşte-mă bine... Dar fă-o altfel

Nu poţi cunoaşte lucrurile în ele însele, ci numai felul în care acestea îţi apar ca percepţie a deosebirii dintre tine şi imaginea de care te ataşezi.

Mă uit acum la o bicicletă, chiar asta fac, mă uit la o bicicletă cu care cred c-aş putea să parcurg sute de km fără probleme. De fapt, nu am nevoie de mai mult decât de imaginea unei biciclete ca să îmi binecuvântez sufletul cu vederea ochilor destinaţi exclusiv identificării frumosului provenit din lucrurile din jur. Mai mult, rotind axa vederii spre centrul pătratului magic, Orevinthus Thacrosm, un tot unitar al cărui scop este armonia cu realitatea înconjurătoare, s-ar spune că principalul meu talent este surprinderea, într-un mod rapid şi natural, a frumuseţii lucrurilor care mă înconjoară.

De aici vine puterea pasiunii mele pentru "limbajul imaginii" construit ca o încercare de recuperare a spaţiului plin de afectivitate, ca o transpunere integrală a artistului în fiecare lucrare a sa, spre confirmarea profunzimii unei impresii despre viziune, sublim, despre frumos şi cunoaştere, despre emoţie şi libertatea de creaţie.

Aşa stau lucrurile. Arta se conturează începând de la ceea ce vezi, vizionar şi revoluţionar, sau chiar utopic, evidenţiat datorită spiritului vizionar şi aspiraţiei către perfecţiune. Iar bicicleta aceasta bine întreţinută, artistic lucrată, făcută probabil la comandă, bine echipată pentru drumuri denivelate, parcă ar căuta să-mi întindă zărea. Este ca şi cum aş fi văzut-o aruncată în faţa mea, într-o nălucire mişcătoare, splendidă, o frântură din visul pătimaş al lui Icar, în încercarea de a lărgi un orizont pierdut din vedere.

Mă simt minunat în preajma bicicletei, aidoma unui artist care nu îşi construieşte agresiv imaginea, ca mulţi alţii, ci care vrea doar să-şi pună în valoare măiestria şi priceperea. Ca singur element desfătător, însăşi acest obiect tehnologic prin excelență caută să-mi citească gândurile, făcând să se nască în mine unele din acele nădejdii care sfărâmă toate piedicile, toate reacţiile. Ba vă spun, când o privesc, răbdătoare, înţelegătoare şi docilă, atât de dornică să cuprindă orizontul, pare că şi ea mă priveşte cu aceeaşi ochi, cu acei ochi uşor de privit și greu de uitat, care au dreptul să admire şi să laude pe limba omului: "Nu am decât cuvinte de surpriză şi admiraţie pentru acest artist care m-a înfrumuseţat până la cel mai mic detaliu".

Leadership: Poţi să reinventezi povestea vieţii tale apelând la forţa sugestivă a unei imagini, în acord cu revelarea unei viziuni inedite asupra realităţii pe care doar Sinele tău o poate crea?

Asemenea unui artist care îşi vede împlinită creaţia, am simţit bucuria unei mari împliniri văzând bicicleta cum se lasă privită îndelung, admirată ca o vedetă, palpitând de o tinereţe nouă. Ea revelează acea lume de sentimente utopice în care trăiesc eu însumi atunci când imaginaţia mă duce mult prea departe, în sensul efectuării unui salt peste veacuri. Tot viitorul meu, toate calculele mele, toată măreţia mea, toată temeinicia mea se reazemă pe acest "prim mişcător nemişcat" care are cauza mişcării în sine. Fidelitatea unei imagini este întotdeauna supusă unei judecăţi de valoare artistică.

Poate că anumite stări atmosferice o influenţează, sau poate îi sunt cu desăvârşire străine, dar oricum şi-ar purta gândurile, mă închipuiesc dinainte prieten cu ea zicându-i că niciodată nu-şi va risipi frumuseţea, pe nicio vreme. La ea îmi stă gândul, sufletul, nădejdea, chiar când îmi închipui că mă gândesc la altceva, în încercarea de recuperare a spaţiului subordonat materiei picturale a unui desen puternic, realizat din linii pline de forţă şi monumentalitate, la fel de importante creaţiei precum starea pe care o are artistul în faţa şevaletului.

Chiar neştiind-o bine, tot mă gândesc la ea, nădăjduind a o regăsi chiar dacă aş pleca în alt oraş.

Iar dacă îmi proiectez în imaginea ei o stare a sufletului, căci lucrul de căpetenie al valorii ei nu e preţul de cumpărare, ci profunzimea stării pe care o declanşează în rândul privitorilor, şi deoarece emoţiile pe care mi le transmite prin imagine îmi îngăduie să sporesc în conştiinţa mea părţi mai vechi din viaţa pe care am dus-o, părţi mai depărtate, dar esenţiale, este pentru că simt plăcerea aia pe care o dă convorbirea cu un om superior ce a izbutit să lepede trecutul şi să înţeleagă în mod real prezentul.

Leadership: Cum se măsoară amploarea creaţiei tale prin observarea fiecărui lucru din jur, atunci când argumentul unei posibile extinderi a imaginaţiei oferă „deschiderea către fiinţă"?

Şi când o privesc, tot astfel mă priveşte şi ea pe mine spre a dezlănţui acel suflu de idealism, de idei nobile, de speranţe, un ideal de libertate atât de specific futuriştilor în care individul este pus în prim-plan de compoziţiile abstracte şi suprarealiste. Bicicleta nu este o fiinţă, subiect al experienţelor şi al altor stări mentale durabile, cu toate acestea ea reprezintă o putere dătătoare de viaţă. Căci atinge fiecare parte vitală: creierul, inima, nervii, aceasta fiind pricina care caută cu înfrigurare să-şi destăinuie pasiunea pentru decorul şi ambianţa diferitelor evenimente, cu riscul imposibilităţii de a fi imortalizată în marmură pentru eternitate.

Dacă bicicleta este o temă de creaţie, atunci argumentul unei posibile extinderi a imaginaţiei va da „deschiderea către fiinţă", adică devenirea întru fiinţă, cum ar zice Noica, poate fiindcă, indubitabil, ea este nedespărţită de dragostea ciclistului care o pilotează, aceasta fiind trăsătura dintâi care vine să se adauge următoarelor condiţii cumulative: amintirile, emoţiile, suma faptelor incluse în galeria marilor evenimente de gen ale vieţii. Prea bine, aş zice, uite că bicicleta, plină de armonie şi eleganţă, este un mijloc eficace de a înlătura monotonia liniilor drepte, orizontale şi verticale.

Şi, nu-i aşa? Câte observaţii fugitive, dar răbdătoare, unele mai puţin senine, trebuie să strângi asupra mişcării regulate pe care ea o parcurge ca ştiinţă a deplasării din punctul A în punctul B, încât să îţi închipuieşti că pictezi, din alternarea spiţelor negre cu cele frumos lustruite, o lume din care nimeni nu mai înţelege nimic, dar care lasă loc de imaginaţie şi creativitate.

Amploarea unei creaţii purtată pe tărâmul leadershipului se măsoară prin admiraţia pe care o manifeşti pentru acel lucru investit cu forţa de a produce o transformare în tine, provocându-te să vezi altfel lumea. Totuşi, o eventuală frângere de inimă se poate produce atunci când ceea ce vezi pare împotriva ta, schimbându-ţi starea de spirit.

Iată că bicicletă, splendidă inovaţie tehnologică, s-a dovedit în stare să trezească admiraţie, dispoziţia de a vedea în aproapele ei un egal, nu doar prin diversitatea de emoţii la care a fost supusă "vederea dincolo de imaginaţie", ci prin puterea ei de a face dintr-un lucru mic o lume aparte, însufleţită de o viaţă demnă, plină de bucurie şi activitate.

Ajungând să fiu prietenul ei, ca un creştin prea cuvios, am putut să pătrund într-o lume întineritoare în care domneşte frumosul, sănătatea, spiritul de aventură şi riscul. Şi încă mă gândesc la ea, cu drag, cu vederea remixată de imaginaţie, comparând-o cu procesul realizării unei picturi intuitive în care este valorificat simbolul oglinzii: "vezi în jur doar ceea ce te atrage la tine".

Priveşte-mă bine... Dar fă-o altfel. Acesta este mesajul pe care ţi-l transmite revederea cu obiectul reflecției tale, luând în considerare faptul că ceea ce vezi în jur este sinonim cu ceea ce este valoros în tine, nu cu ceea ce se întâmplă în realitatea obiectivă, împărtășită de ceilalţi. Cred că imaginea bicicletei a mediat foarte bine relația dintre realitate și eu însumi.

De asemenea, cred că avea dreptate scriitorul Liviu Damian: "Cunoaștem lucrurile în acord cu natura sau cu ceea ce sunt lucrurile în ele însele și permitem ca ceea ce știm despre lucruri, însușirile lor, să determine conţinutul şi forma cunoaşterii. Asta este ceea ce se întâmplă în experienţa de zi cu zi."

Priveşte-mă cu ochii cu care mă priveşte Dumnezeu

Un artist desăvârşit nu se poate mântui decât admiţându-şi condiţia de creator ridicată la potenţialul extraordinar de a fi unul cu Dumnezeu.

I-am spus lui Dumnezeu că vreau să fiu un rege, iar el mi-a spus că mai întâi trebuie să devin un magician iscusit, apoi un pictor desăvârşit. La mijloc era metoda substituţiei, magia de a fi Dumnezeu şi arta de a fi magician, văzute printr-o oglindă plină de contrast care măreşte imaginea unei realităţi până la vârful fin şi catifelat al unei pensule vii, personificată prin Appolo, zeul artelor, dar şi al profeţiei, al gândirii proactive. Aceeaşi pensulă, ar fi putut fi utilizată separat în chip de baghetă magică, personificată prin puritate şi credinţă.

Convins fiind că un magician trebuie să aibă propriul lui spațiu, izolat și ascuns vederii, unde să își poată practica pe deplin, liber, neîngrădit, propriul crez despre actul scenic, m-am prefăcut într-un artist care ştie să sugereze printr-un simbol al misticismului suprarealist un anumit mesaj celor ce-i vizualizează opera. Dumnezeu este regizorul cu care mă identific atunci când lucrez la scenariul vieţii mele, chiar dacă construcţiile mele artistice n-au ajuns încă la nivelul de măiestrie tehnică şi de expresivitate a magicianului desăvârşit.

Factorul determinant al tuturor transformărilor de personalitate se pliază pe ideea principală a magiei, cum că totul poate fi expus înşelător, şi numai un artist poate să distingă adevărul, diferenţa dintre autenticitate şi kitsch. În privinţa meşteşugului artistic, de a propune simboluri care să proiecteze o imagine de asociere pozitivă şi convingătoare asupra lui Dumnezeu, omul simplu nu va reuşi să distingă altceva decât nişte mâzgălituri făcute totuşi în cunoştinţă de cauză.

Totul este să fii altcineva, într-o pictură plină de fantezie. Sau pe o scenă improvizată. Iar când eşti un rege al creaţiei, îţi permiţi luxul de a vorbi cu Dumnezeu aşa cum ai vorbi despre tine în povestea unui magician surprinsă cu talent de artist într-un tablou plin de viaţă, prefăcut prin metamorfoză în frânturi de fabulos.

Leadership: Îţi poţi aduce creaţia într-un plan mai înalt de vizualizare a unei imagini despre tine însuţi, încât să devii o extensie a superiorităţii absolute prin intermediul unei fiinţe care îşi depăşeşte condiţia de "anexă a unei poziţii privilegiate" ?

Oare o dispoziţie pentru fantastic, printr-o lege necunoscută a creaţiei, este ceva ce pur şi simplu înţelegi, sau nu?

Dumnezeu era martorul meu principal la fiecare număr de magie, în timp ce pictorul încerca să surprindă pe pânză toată bogăţia şi varietatea efectelor de lumină reflectate într-un spectacol-mărturisire, pus în scenă de un regizor atât de minunat încât ai putea crede că este un adevărat vrăjitor al regiei. Era ca şi cum aş fi căutat un glas care nu era nicăieri perceput cu uşurinţă, dar care îşi revărsa ademenitor dramul de profunzime cutremurătoare în tiparul unei imagini convertite de la forma colorată - la cea de alb-negru, ca fiind un exemplu de număr miraculos.

Arta intervine oriunde o conduce magia. Iar Dumnezeu nu există cu adevărat decât dacă eşti un Creator desăvârşit. Desigur, cineva ori este, ori nu este prezent în această ecuaţie. În acelaşi timp trebuie să ţinem seama că nu există. Artisticul contează. Magia învie arta în fiecare vers al imaginaţiei. Iar sufletul trebuie urmărit prin ochii unui spectator în lumea scenei, în lumea culturii filmului, în lumea fascinantă a decorurilor, a costumelor, a unghiurilor surprinse cu ajutorul camerelor de filmat.

Puterea absolută a artistului constă în modalităţile de realizare a unei improvizaţii autentice de creaţie pusă sub semnul expresionismului magic, aptă să reflecte rezultatul instaurării unei realităţi augmentate fără precedent.

Luminile şi-au pierdut din intensitate. Decorul, un pic noptatic, părea ireal, ieşit parcă dintr-un tablou pictat de maeştrii celebri ai secolelor trecute. Iar magicianul, în a cărui sânge clocotea beţia dulce a puterii absolute, fiind prins într-un du-te vino la întâmplare pe minunata lume a scenei, continua să-l descrie cât se poate de bine pe Dumnezeu, în timp ce Dumnezeu continua să se amuze copios de o poveste înfăşurată în magie.

Desigur, tot ceea ce eu cunoşteam mai bine despre Dumnezeu, de altfel în privinţa lucrurilor mistice, cunoşteam potrivit spuselor unui magician, a cărui poveste de succes, înclinată spre practica desenului, putea fi caracterizată doar prin determinarea şi perseverenţa creatorului de a-şi vedea visul transformat în realitate.

Cam asta este magia, o conectare la divinitate. Prin magie construieşti bucăţi de realitate, prezentă şi viitoare, şi transmiţi speranţa că ceea ce urmează să se întâmple este cauzalitatea, creaţia şi povestea unui Creator a cărui providență lucrează prin voia unei puteri nemărginite.

Leadership: Stă în puterea creaţiei tale să fie transferată într-o nouă configuraţie de reprezentare vizuală cu toată forţa personajului interpretat în mijlocul unui eveniment care te reprezintă ca o familiaritate deliberată cu supranaturalul?

Videoclipul "A Kind Of Magic" a lui Freddy Mercury aduce un fel de contradicţie dimensiunii leadershipului: poţi fi în acelaşi timp un artist al efectelor produse de ştiinţă şi un împlinitor al puterii lăuntrice care face din tine o răsfrângere a unei energii imaginative?

Dacă da, cu ce risc? Cu riscul de a te ataşa în mod rigid de ceea ce laşi în urma producerii efectelor (that kind of magic that pushes you beyond what you thought you were capable of) şi de a te desprinde de modul tradiţional în care artiştii interacţionează cu lumea.

Supranaturalul este religia artei de a fi cineva mai presus de înţelegerea lumii, conform legăturii menţinute de asemănarea incredibilă dintre Creator şi Creaţia lui. Este, totodată, acea putere lăuntrică pe care o prezinţi lumii prin prisma imaginii formată din întrepătrunderea neprevăzutului cu senzaţionalul, a luminii şi a umbrelor, a poveştii tale de viaţă cu personajul desprins dintr-o lume mai puţin cunoscută, un personaj care trece dintr-o lume în alta.

Dar această putere lăuntrică cui sau cărui fapt se subordonează? Oare realităţii sau irealităţi? Şi în ce se măsură reuşeşte ea să te modeleze într-un flux de transformări succesive? Cum se echilibrează ele?

Probabil, în funcţie de capacitatea de a te accepta ca fiind o performanţă a ştiinţei, de a fi o Creaţie unică sub raportul valorii şi limitelor de exprimare, în înţelegerea metaforelor sau expresiilor cu sens figurat, simţindu-te conectat la o cauză măreaţă: de a-ţi exprima cu orice chip vederile artistice printr-un soi de putere ascunsă, misterioasă, incomprehensibilă.

Ca să faci din leadership o capodoperă a geniului creator, mai întâi încearcă să înţelegi dedesubturile creaţiei artistice prin construirea unui personaj desprins dintr-o lume suprarealistă.

Învaţă să te exprimi sub formă de alteritate: despre „celălalt Tu" situat într-un plan mai înalt de cunoaştere, care poate să se convertească oricând la o altă realitate (mai luminoasă în invizibil, şi mai amplă).

Priveşte-mă cu ochii cu care mă priveşte Dumnezeu dacă vrei să înţelegi arta de a fi magician din prisma unui artist care se hrăneşte cu euforia creaţiei, el găsindu-şi expresia plenară în puterea de a se plasa într-o realitate alternativă.

Secretul de a fi Dumnezeu constă în puterea de a combina magia cu arta, încât pictorul să fie considerat un magician, iar magicianul să fie considerat un estet, şi amândoi să fie consideraţi simbolul unei noi direcţii de gândire. Cine îndeplineşte această condiţie, şi-a câştigat deja superioritatea în mijlocul acestei lumi !

Priveşte-mă cu ochii începutului fără sfârșit

Mintea performerului pare să aibă un răspuns logic la tot ceea ce îi pune la încercare înţelegerea: "Știu că unu ori unu fac unu. Și că unu ori o mie se reduce tot la unu."

Am fost la concursul de maraton, atât cât a durat prezența mea pe o perioadă scurtă de timp, la probele de 33 k, respectiv 48 k. Este interesant să te încarci cu emoțiile celorlalți învingători de orice fel și de orice vârstă, pasionați ai momentelor de mare intensitate, și să te prezinți ca un însoțitor suplimentar al mult așteptatei revederi din fiecare an.

Fără vreun pretext oarecare, direct din perspectiva ochilor care surprind freamătul tainic al inimilor ascunse în această poveste, am putut descoperi deosebirea dintre ceea ce este dat și ceea ce este realizat: prima este pură întâmplare, cealaltă este o artă de neînlocuit, o realitate de ordinul atribuirii de semnificații. Şi oricât m-aş fi adâncit în intimitatea unui orizont finit de aşteptare, pentru a face loc lărgirii spaţiului de trăire intensă a energiei altora, a stării în care toată lumea este activă şi alertă, deci lăsându-mă împins de măreţia evenimentului dincolo de scurgerea vremii, parcă tot îmi păstrasem o reţinere în a relaţiona cu acea simţire de taină, numită "depărtare de mine însumi", care tot striga, şi strigaa, şi strig, fără să o audă nimeni.

Părea că vocea din mine este ecoul vocilor din jur care răsunau tot mai puternic, precum gongul unei pendule la atingerea orei exacte, dar așa cum răsună muzica, în forma ei pură, pe cele mai renumite scene din lume, pe acordurile unui faimos ecou lăuntric al luptei dârze: "We are the champions ! " Normal că fără emoții ar fi fost doar un divertisment pe care nu mi l-aș fi putut îngădui. Emoțiile rezultate din acțiune, continuate sub formă nedeghizată, își mențineau cadrul de referință simbolic.

Leadership: Conexiunea cu tine însuţi depinde de facultatea ochilor tăi de a se uni într-o singură direcţie, aşa încât să descoperi care este potenţialului celorlalţi oameni de a ocupa o poziţie de forţă vizavi de un anumit eveniment?

Mai este ceva. Cuvintele care caracterizează pregnant scopul celei mai mari acțiuni sportive a săptămânii, cu intense vibrații de înflăcărare, fără să le găsesc niciun cusur, având o valoare aproape egală cu valoarea rezervelor de aur ale băncilor mondiale, par bine impregnate pe chipul finaliștilor: "am cuprins cu sufletul, cu inima, mult mai mult decât pot să vadă ochii ! " Aşadar, emoţiile sunt reacţii psihologice specifice şi intense, faţă de un anumit eveniment.

Acum, cugetul pare nesemnificativ. Dar ceva trebuie să îmi ușureze efortul de a găsi zborul perfect spre o întindere mare ce depășește linia oricărui orizont, cuprinzând o arie foarte largă de posibilități, sau chiar totul. Până la urmă este și asta o facultate a ochilor de a se uni într-o singură direcție menţinută prin aspiraţia de atingere a unei înălţimi fără precedent. Iar cu mintea se întâmplă la fel, când ea zboară, totul pare să i se supună, pare să fie în altă parte chiar și în prezența unor elemente care îi distrag atenția. Mai ales la concursuri, mintea alergătorului de performanţă pare să aibă un răspuns logic la tot ceea ce îi pune la încercare întinderea şi înţelegerea: "Știu că unu ori unu fac unu. Și că unu ori o mie se reduce tot la unu."

Înţelegeţi că în cursul acestei bătălii cu vremea ploioasă, nu doar cu sine, fiecare participant la cursă și-a păstrat ultima rezistență a forțelor fizice până la final. Un misterios strigăt de victorie umplea ecourile lumii din jur într-un inefabil de vrajă, o suflare a pasiunii exprimată sub formă de stimuli, amintiri, clipe de neuitat.

Or sufletul, care într-un singur parcurs ascunde și are cusut adânc în el „alteritatea", acest realism înverșunat îmbibat de avântul spre înălțimi nebănuite, străin în mijlocul cadrului cotidian, el nu privește decât spre înainte, spre un alt orizont, spre a fi protagonistul unei alte piese plină de imagini motorii aliniate într-un spațiu geografic plin de variante de improvizație. Să ascultăm visele sufletului și să îi împărtășim nostalgiile…

Leadership: Probabilitatea de a te situa în prim planul unei vederi care lărgeşte orizontul înţelegerii lumii din jur, depinde de gradul de certitudine pe care îl ai faţă de un anumit eveniment ce presupune "distanţare" ?

O suflare a aerului proaspăt se simțea în toată agitația asta, o suflare de un fel anume, ca și când cineva sau ceva ar fi încercat să facă ordine în ceea ce se întâmplă pe o imensă scenă plină de necunoscuți. Nici eu nu m-am recunoscut la început, nu-mi rezervasem acea onoare unică de a mă ști vast, acoperit de uralele mulțimilor din mine, fiindcă am poposit chiar la final, și fiindcă la final nu poți ajunge să păstrezi bucuria începutului.

Nici n-am uitat că maratonul este un eveniment ce presupune distanţare, fiindcă nu stai să alergi în cârca altuia.

Mâine va fi cursa mea, varianta optimă de a-mi ușura accesul la un alt orizont, departe, altundeva, un fel de confruntare cu apetitul insațiabil de nemărginire, în sensul de a-mi concentra toate resursele pentru a-mi mobiliza nevoia de a fi altundeva. Un nou început pe care finalul îl va considera un alt început…un început care va avea curajul să spună în față la final: „am uitat când am început, căci am făcut un pas în față și am devenit de nerecunoscut."

Fabulos ! Un mare artist găsește întotdeauna ceva de retușat chiar și la o capodoperă. Prin urmare, dacă rezultatul nu mă va mulțumi pe deplin, voi ajunge să inventez eu unul, cu un alt început și cu alt final, sperând că aceasta va fi singura, dar și cea mai bună variantă prin care îmi voi putea ușura nevoia de a mă simți valoros. Plin de avânt, mă voi confunda cu altcineva care, privindu-se într-o oglindă magică, străbătând spațiul și timpul, simte ceva imposibil de imaginat: că m-am reinventat în altă parte, undeva unde nu pot fi niciodată întrecut de nimeni. Astfel, finalul va fi numai al meu, hotărât numai de creatorul cel mai înverșunat în a reinventa realitatea.

Mâine va fi începutul. Începutul fără sfârșit. Poate că, de fapt, acesta sunt eu: începutul fără sfârșit, chiar dacă ajung oriunde, undeva, la sfârșit…

În leadership, trebuie să cultivi o privire situată în prim planul atitudinii de sine faţă de alţii, pentru a înţelege mai bine că realitatea care te citează ca martor al unui eveniment de mare anvergură trebuie să fie exprimată în termeni de "parte care înlocuieşte întregul".

Priveşte-mă cu ochii începutului fără sfârșit dacă vrei să mă cunoşti în ipostaza de "învingător favorit" în al cărui car de biruinţă sunt purtaţi toţi ceilalţi învingători.

Fără îndoială, începutul oricărui concurs reprezintă un moment frumos și emoționant, un exemplu de convergență între tine însuţi şi restul lumii. Dar niciodată începutul nu va înlocui finalul care reprezintă formula de încheiere a unei opere de mare întindere: împăcarea cu tine însuţi, o formă a luptei de rezistenţă, o acceptare tacită a contradicţiilor tale cu tine.

Priveşte-mă cu ochii îndreptaţi spre eternitate

Opera de artă este un mesaj vizual ce rezonează cu sufletul celor care o descoperă.

Sunt la mare, savurând din plin litoralul grecesc. Privesc în jur, cu emoție, cu admirație, cu perspicacitatea unui Sherlock Holmes aflat printre tablouri, ca și când ar trebui să găsesc printre varietatea imaginilor din jur o parte infinit de măruntă a personalității mele. Una distinctă care îşi făureşte o nouă imagine asupra modului în care "extraordinarul" din cotidian devine un Shatiitusni Oridaass Etta Inevaenci, o rostire a sentimentelor născute dintr-o căutare înălțătoare a adevărului interior".

Și ce văd? Văd peste tot lucruri, pârghii de inspirație, de la nişte simple șezlonguri multicolore, la palmierii verzi care par a se fi răspândit în mod natural. Nisipul îşi schimbă culoarea atunci când valurile se retrag. Vântul călduț bate permanent, dar în rafale domoale, iar apa este de un albastru intens, la fel de caldă și plăcută ca în orice colţ al insulei. Bineînţeles, în tot acest amalgam de locuri, vederi, forme geometrice, atracţii, contraste, limbaje vizuale și sonore, printre care am toate şansele să regăsesc starea de visare specifică unui apus de neuitat, trebuie să mă străduiesc nu numai să imit natura, ci s-o şi întrec în ceea ce priveşte Creaţia.

Practic, tot ce este în faţa mea apare în strălucirea unui mare spirit şi caracter, unealtă aleasă a Creaţiei concepută pentru a intensifica coloristica în căutarea luminii vitalității, ca şi când ar trebui să plonjez într-o lume fantastică şi aparent iluzorie, o frântură din holograma raiului, doar ca să cresc puterea supranaturalului în arta picturală. Până la urmă, asta înseamnă să fii pictor: trebuie să explorez coloristica supranaturalului în arta picturală, încât să transcend limitele cunoscute ale realității și să creez o dimensiune nouă și mistică în cadrul unui tablou viu, autentic.

Leadership: Viziunea ta are un conținut care împinge conceptul de artă spre ideea de "efort interpretativ" menit a afla sensuri ascunse ale subiectului aflat în prim plan?

Poate că marea, aşa cum o privesc cu ochi plini de uimire, înfășurându-mi privirea în valurile ei dansatoare, mă supune unui test ocular. Nu degeaba mă simt epuizat în încercarea de a surprinde, într-o formulă instantanee, o stare punctuală, sau de a surprinde estetic esenţa spaţiului care hrănește gândurile fără margini, înşirând constelații de posibilități. De fapt, artistul în orizontul mării se adânceşte, se pierde, se regăseşte, se bucură şi oftează, eliberând astfel valenţele unei neconvenţionale creativităţi ce pictează cu multe cuvinte neuzuale.

Fundamentul de pe care acest lucru devine posibil depinde de totalitatea vederilor concentrate într-o singură viziune, proces de substituție sau de restrângere subordonat acțiunii și gândirii, exprimând un conținut care împinge conceptul de artă spre ideea de "efort interpretativ" menit a afla sensuri ascunse ale subiectului aflat în prim plan. Dar vederea rămâne o taină dacă nu iau în considerare cuvintele lui Andersen, din celebra poveste "Mică Sirenă:"

- Dar de ce nu avem şi noi suflete nemuritoare? întrebă îndurerată mica prinţesă pe bătrâna regină a mărilor. Mi-aş da bucuroasă sutele mele de ani doar ca să fiu o muritoare pentru o singură zi şi să am speranţa că voi cunoaşte şi eu fericirea din lumea aceea minunată de dincolo de stele. Chiar dacă uneori mă simt mai fericită decât muritorii de deasupra. Dar, până şi eu am să mor într-o bună zi, şi asemenea spumei mării, am să plutesc la suprafaţa marii fără să mai aud vreodată muzica valurilor sau să văd florile cele frumoasă sau soarele lor. Nu pot face nimic să capăt un suflet nemuritor?

Leadership: Creaţia ta aduce în prim-plan subtilitățile ascunse ale subiectului care te priveşte la nivel profund, şi care se vrea peren la nivelul comparaţiei dintre realitate şi imaginar?

Cred că singura cale de a intra în sfera experienței estetice, schimbându-mi percepția asupra lumii înconjurătoare prin intermediul vederii, viziuni, şi interpretării sensurilor vieţii dintr-o chemare a mării, este să aduc în prim-plan subtilitățile ascunse ale subiectului care mă priveşte la nivel profund, ale subiectului care se vrea peren la nivelul simbolurilor şi metaforelor. Numai un asemenea subiect ar putea să ilustreze specificul spiritualităţii: "explorarea dimensiunilor profunde ale existenței umane care depășesc aspectele materiale și raționale ale vieții".

Opera de artă este o punte între realitate și vis, între văzut și înțeles, mai ales dacă mă raportez la un personaj de poveste care vrea el însuşi să devină real în realitatea mea. De fapt, cred că asta este ceea ce realizează un artist. Aidoma operei de artă, văzută ca o formă de comunicare transcendentă prin estetică și emoție, ca un refugiu pentru contemplare și introspecție, artistul ştie să contopească două lumi aparent străine: o lume care înflorește în imaginație și o lume care prinde viață în realitate.

Leadership: Poţi să conferi creaţiei tale o perenitate care sugerează "trăirea momentului evocat", creând o siguranţă afectivă în sensul permanenţei operei de artă care înfăţişează realitatea ca poveste?

Artistul care aspiră la o anumită perenitate are un alt mod de a-şi crea siguranţa afectivă, evident în sensul permanenţei operei de artă. Nimic nu-i de prisos, totul este necesar. Ca să ajungă dincolo de ceea ce vede, fără a coborî arta la nivelul unei banale imitaţii, el trebuie să găsească fereastra către esența umană, unde realitatea și visul se contopesc într-o lume misterioasă în care se scrie povestea celor nevăzuți și neauziți.

Deci, opera de artă nu este doar o călătorie spirituală prin culori, forme și texturi, ci reprezintă şi o manifestare sublimă a fragilității și a efemerității vieții, în contrast cu căutarea unei dimensiuni superioare a spiritului.

Mica Sirenă ştie că imaginea ei nu este trecătoare, ci eternă, ea însăşi nefiind limitată la sfera muritorilor, ci depășind granițele nemuritorilor. În acest sens, ochiul artistului devine un mod cu totul singular de a forma corespondenţa dintre ceea ce se vede, stimulat de emoţii, şi ceea ce se posedă prin această vedere, fiind mai presus de toate cele cunoscute prin simţuri şi prin minte.

Atenţia focalizându-se doar asupra calităţii nerepetabile a modului de a forma o punte între realitate şi vis, artistul realizează o imagine care nu este constrânsă de pământesc, ci transcendentală, şi asta deoarece el însuşi nu vrea să fie încarcerat în efemer, ci liber în eternitate...

Forma pe care o ia leadershipul în sensul de Creaţie, coincide cu imaginea exprimată de artist într-o călătorie prin timp şi spaţiu, care revelează conexiuni neașteptate între prezentul etern și momentul atemporal.

Priveşte-mă cu ochii îndreptaţi spre eternitate ca să mă poţi întâlni în momentul prezent de care niciodată nu te vei putea desprinde. Asta se poate înţelege mai bine în termeni de creaţie care se foloseşte de o povestire pentru a exprima o trăire menită să pună în valoare noblețea sufletului omenesc, puterea de sacrificiu și de dăruire, sinceritatea și empatia.

Într-adevăr, sunt scriitori precum Andersen, Fraţii Grimm, Charles Perrault, care au lăsat un mesaj ascuns în fiecare operă a lor. Mulţi copii au citit poveştile lor, dar le-au citit prea devreme, fără să le înţeleagă mesajul. Numai un artist ajuns vârsta deplinei maturităţi artistice ştie să vadă ceea ce pentru alţii trece neobservat.

Priveşte-mă cu ochii minţii sau chiar cu privirea reală

Numai observând şi imortalizând elementele aparent separate ale realităţii, artistul poate scoate la iveală o înţelegere din ce în ce mai cuprinzătoare a Totului.

Cine a desluşit taina marii ştiinţe, va avea şi infinitul de partea lui. Acest lucru se poate constata uşor, atât de uşor, numai privind o frunză de culoarea smaraldului, unică printre alte frunze din acelaşi copac. Or dacă cercetăm cu atenţie această frunză, cu acei ochi care reţin imaginile şi recunosc priveliştile, fără a o confunda cu simpla reprezentare a unei imagini din natură, şi dacă i-am acorda proprietatea ochiului de a vedea și distinge formele obiectelor, dimensiunile acestora şi alte detalii, vom constata că ea devine un câmp de explorare a mediului înconjurător.

A privi această frunză ca pe o carte deschisă vederii, une ligne directrice dans la réalisation du dessin , este un proces cu atât mai complex cu cât fondul perceptiv al receptorului este mai dezvoltat, mai ales că ea poate fi particularizată sub aspectul constituirii unui fond de acord emoţional care nu execută o presiune interioară pronunţată asupra proceselor intelectuale. În acest context, să ne gândim la faptul că o frunză nu este doar un mijloc de explorare a câmpului vizual, ci poate fi o entitate de ordin raţional, comunicaţional şi informaţional.

Dar ce vede o frunză când stă alături de alte frunze? Ce vede o frunză prin intermediul frunzelor de lângă ea? Ce vede o frunză când se lăsă purtată pe aripile vântului? Mai ales, ce vede o frunză când priveşte în jurul ei nu cu ochii, ci mai degrabă cu mintea, cu urechile, cu sufletul, filtrând realitatea prin gândurile unui artist care folosește mediul pictural pentru a crea reprezentări abstracte ale unor amintiri imaginare?

Leadership: Poţi să creezi un conținut vizual care să vizeze reprezentările realităţii, aşa încât să afli lucruri noi despre semnificațiile simţurilor care au impact major asupra a ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul tău?

Voi pleca de la ideea că însăşi frunza se constituie ca un fapt de memorie vizuală într-o imagine de esenţă spaţio-temporală, efectuând asupra datelor furnizate de simţuri o analiză de impact asupra mediului înconjurător. Ochii nu uită niciodată ceea ce rămâne în suflet, ca o palidă amintire a ceea ce a fost cândva. Iar artistul ştie acest lucru, că o frunză vede dintr-un anumit unghi o persoană care trece prin faţa ei, pe când o altă frunză din acelaşi copac vede ceea ce nu apare în ochii celorlalte frunze, şi în fiecare zi alţi oameni trec prin faţa copacului plin cu frunze, şi multe alte lucruri se arată vederii în mod diferit. Nu-i aşa?

Este departe de mine gândul de a pretinde oricărei analize să facă disecţia realităţii, recompunând o imagine şi discutând-o ca pe un tot unitar. Dar, fiind conştient că materia interacţionează prin intermediul unor forţe instantanee de la distanţă, nu doar din apropiere, voi considera că o frunză simte totodată vibraţia energetică a fiecărei culori, a fiecărui lucru, a fiecărei fiinţe ce pătrunde în câmpul ei vizual.

S-o spun altfel. Materia interacționează prin intermediul unei vederi mistice, a unei vederi care depăşeşte în toate direcţiile unghiul de valabilitate al proiecţiei unei succesiuni de imagini în mişcare. Iar dacă frunza este formată din aceeaşi materie din care sunt compuse celelalte elemente ale lumii, şi dacă ea se adresează unei singure entităţi din scena pe care o derulează vederea, atunci subiectul imortalizat poate pătrunde într-o lume de mistere, simboluri şi corespondenţe cosmice.

Leadership: Poţi creezi o imagine cuprinzătoare din entităţi autonome, aşa încât ea să prindă viaţă cu ajutorul unei vederi ce reuneşte, la rândul ei, alte vederi?

Numai artistul vede ceea ce alţii pot abia întrezări, fiindcă numai el ştie să vadă o imagine prin ochii unei frunze, mai ales dacă aceşti ochi acoperă în câmpul de vizibilitate fiecare aspect al unei realităţi care se cere descrisă fără nici o umbră de disimulare. Bineînţeles că în ajutorul vederii artistului sare o altă vedere ce reuneşte, la rândul ei, alte vederi. Abia după această activitate mentală de constatare, înţelegere şi judecare a unor stimuli veniţi din exterior, cu ajutorul receptorilor senzoriali, artistul are posibilitatea de a recompune imaginea şi a o discuta ca pe un tot unitar.

Aş vrea să încerc ceva nou. Aş vrea să desluşesc mesajul unei frunze, să fiu factorul declanşator al vederii ei, să-i reglez poziţionarea în spaţiu atunci când este purtată de vânt, cu mult înainte ca ea să simtă mângâierea pământului. Chiar dacă chipul ei este contorsionat de suferinţă, anunţând cu o voce sfâşiată că o doare îngrozitor sufletul părăsind ramurile copacului şi lăsându-se pradă vântului, ea poate ajunge mai uşor în apropierea vederii pictorului care ştie să dezvăluie ceea ce alţii nu pot să vadă.

Mai mult decât atât, am hotărât să-mi extind orizontul realităţii încercând să-mi dau seama ce vorbește un muc de ţigară scăpat pe trotuar, cu o frunză atinsă de picăturile reci ale ploii pe care soarele se străduie să le dea uitării. Care este miza unei asemenea comunicări, din prisma unui observator al materiei fizice? Căci, da, am capacitatea de a suscita multiple asociaţii şi reprezentări de tip imaginativ.

În fond, mă adresez unei singure opere eligibile pentru a fi constituită ca garanție a absolutului şi a talentului meu de artist. Accentuez acest lucru deoarece artistul vede numai ceea ce doreşte să observe, transpunând în lucrare numai ceea ce se arată ca entitate omniprezentă într-un dialog despre natura ascunsă a comunicării dintre elemente. Numai astfel, observând şi imortalizând elementele aparent separate ale realităţii, el poate scoate la iveală o înţelegere din ce în ce mai cuprinzătoare a Totului.

În câmpul leadershipului putem introduce variabila "creaţie" dacă reuşim să acordăm o atenţie deosebită capacităţii artistului de a detecta cu simţul vederii acea realitatea dintre realităţi, şi de a o transforma într-o senzaţie percepută ca imagine.

În timp ce priveam o frunză cu un sentiment de simpatie, ca pe o operă a creaţiei lui Dumnezeu, un glas din off mi-a răsunat în minte: "Priveşte-mă cu ochii minţii sau chiar cu privirea reală dacă vrei să te iniţiezi în domeniul picturii".

Cine aude și dă ascultare acestui glas lăuntric, care este cel mai de preț dar făcut de natură, va găsi în el un ghid excelent pentru stăpânirea artei. Nu uitaţi că simţul văzului, instrumentul puterii de a înţelege relaţia estetic-ideatic, reprezintă cea mai mare comoară a artistului.

Priveşte-mă cu ochii simţurilor

Văzul poate să influenţeze elementul privit numai dacă el contribuie, în mod direct, la modelarea trăirilor tale.

Am fost în vacanţă în Grecia. Mereu frumoasă, mereu primitoare, cu peisaje spectaculoase, Marea Ionică mi-a încântat ochii într-atât încât nu mă mai puteam uita decât la ea, fără să-mi pese de timp, sau de expunerea la soare. Şi o priveam cu acea privire senină, îndreptată spre interior, înţelegându-mi libertatea, starea de spirit provenită parcă din conştiinţa unitară a pictorului, prin care se manifestă acea conexiune misterioasă între tot ce înseamnă creație și detașare de cotidian.

Are şi marea viaţa ei, harul ei deosebit, la fel cum pictorul are ştiinţa travaliului pe paletă, a obţinerii prealabile a calităţilor pigmentare prin amestecuri multiple. Şi cred că nimic nu contează mai mult decât s-o revăd cu ochii minţii şi cu mintea limpede. S-o revăd cu un tonus viu, să stau de vorbă cu ea, s-o fotografiez, să-i simt briza cu acea atingere a trecutului care se repetă, având o valoare exemplară pentru prezent. Să fiu atât de aproape de ea încât să-i pot simţi mirosul, să aud zgomotul valurilor care se rostogolesc pe mal, să simt apa mângâindu-mi picioarele în timp ce şterge urmele lăsate de mine pe nisip.

Fără să-mi dau seama, paleta pictorului s-a îmbogățit cu mijloace expresive deosebit de inspirate, poetice, în ceea ce priveşte culoarea şi desenul, făcând să apară efectul de tip "pururea nou" pe care îl produce o creaţie extinsă spre un nou orizont. Mai mult, amestecând albastrul mării cu seninul ochilor de artist după toate regulile simetriei, fapt ce lasă loc argumentației într-un cadru care permite libera exprimare, am reuşit să transpun pe pânză o imagine menită să sugereze o stare de liniște și pace. În sfârşit am fost atins de dorul unei mângâieri sufleteşti: mai bine să mă apropii de o combinaţie vizuală de culori, decât să mă pierd într-o perspectivă îndepărtată.

Leadership: Ceea ce vezi poate să amplifice senzaţia de real într-o zonă a rememorărilor care oglindesc acea „exprimare a unui lucru prin altul"?

Marea are mirosul ei, sărat şi curat, briza care adie aducându-mă în contact cu zeci de substanţe ce provin din materia organică a mării. Iar mirosul, având un caracter concret fiindcă pleacă de la experiență și rămâne în contact cu aceasta, amplifică senzația de real, de controlabilitate a mediului natural. Vă daţi seama că pictura are ca pivot de receptare a emoţiilor un fenomen de trăire a experienţei de viaţă, deci se bazează totodată pe o ştiinţă a simţurilor scăldate în lumina sufletului.

Pe de altă parte, mirosul este un stabilizator al emoţiilor, un factor deosebit de puternic pentru a trezi amintiri, un declanșator al memoriilor mai autentic decât gustul sau auzul. Deci, pictorul, în ce priveşte chimia vopselelor, trebuie să îmbine categoric simțurile vizuale și olfactive în aşa fel încât creierul să se oxigeneze, să se autoprotejeze împotriva epuizării. Şi dacă este aşa, atunci mirosul schimbă percepţia pictorului asupra mediului din jur, modificând felul în care el aşterne culorile sub acţiunea unui sentiment de alteritate, transformându-se într-un romantic incurabil care combină relaxarea cu ideea de puritate, de comuniune cu natura.

În acest caz posibilităţile de stabilire a unui acord între culorile unei picturi cvasi-figurative, purtătoare de semnificaţie, înfăţişând imaginea unei odihne revelatoare, a unei stări de spirit mistice, sunt nelimitate şi ţin de sensibilitatea artistului la mirosuri, la percepţia culorilor în cazul unui element irezistibil. Categoric, activitatea simţurilor trebuie să îi stârnească raţiunea, să o provoace. Prin această provocare, raţiunea îşi aminteşte, în timp ce ideile provin întotdeauna din impresii, emoţii, expresii de culoare.

Leadership: Imaginea la care se raportează creaţia ta poate să se extindă pe un câmp vizual ce implică trăirea exclusivă a unor emoţii intense pe durata unui timp care se retrăieşte?

Aici, o atitudine pur contemplativă, învăluind un dinamism armonios al nuanțelor mării, se leagă de felul cum cineva îl caracteriza pe pictorul Minu Movilă, aşa încât comparaţia cu mine pare desprinsă din fragmentul unei existenţe din care nu lipseşte nimic, în afară de un mic detaliu care, amplasat aşa cum trebuie, poate transforma sentimentul libertăţii într-o adevărată nestemată.

"Pictorul Minu Movilă dezbate cu ajutorul preceptelor structurale ale bidimensionalului, unghiuri, perspective, planuri, iscodind în jurnalul misterios al concretului. Găsind soluții și laitmotivuri în care fragmentul imagistic să se releve, narând termeni vizuali, experiența și sensibilitatea artistului să lasă loc intervențiilor estetice. Minu Movilă rămâne un romantic în care statornicește implicarea directă a sufletului creator, fapt lizibil mai ales în modulările cromaticii, care se pliază pe termeni tehnici și stilistici, potențați în variantele potrivite."

Prin astfel comparaţie, dintre mine şi el, dintre doi artişti asemănători sufleteşte, sporirea vederii în focul viu al unei amintiri de-o viaţă merită o analiză atentă. Implicarea sufletului într-un act de creaţie, într-un loc în care artistul gândeşte, îşi imaginează, îşi restructurează experienţa pe plan mental, trebuie să îşi găsească forma stilistică în folosirea unei realităţi nemaitrăite, mai presus decât efemerul unei clipe suspendate în imaginar.

Fiind mai mult decât cred că sunt, încă mă întreb dacă nu cumva am trăsăturile unui artist sufletist, atins de o zonă din câmpul vizual care poate aduce vibraţie calmă şi liniştitoare unui spaţiu care se lărgeşte odată cu mintea sa, culorile devenind paleta prin care pot aduce la viață expunerea permanentă a unei teme complicate, dar pur şi simplu frumoase: "Dorul Nemuritor".

Pentru a modela o realitate pozitivă și constructivă, trebuie să fii atent la ceea ce observi și cum îţi interpretezi percepțiile, aşa încât toate trăirile pe care le transmiţi să sublinieze importanţa imaginii la care te raportezi.

Priveşte-mă cu ochii simţurilor, cu dorul unei inimi învolburate ca marea, și vei descoperi adâncimile și bogățiile pe care le pot oferi experiențele noastre împreună. Adu-ţi aminte de acele emoţii care vibrează în interiorul tău, imortalizează-le într-o imagine de vis, şi lasă-le să te învăluie în căldura unei imaginaţii aprinse.

Acum eşti şi tu un artist.

Priveşte-mă cu ochiul vederii din spatele pânzei

Este extrem de greu să pătrunzi cu sufletul artistului în sursa profundă, şi chiar şi pentru el misterioasă, din care ţâşneşte instinctul creator.

Dacă a început un nou an, atunci el trebuie să înceapă cu memoriile unui trandafir Osiria, atât de delicat în a-şi trăi zilele pline de colinde, pline de emoţii generate de întâmplări, evenimente, contexte. Mai bine decât acum, niciodată nu mi-am dat seama de fondul său de ingenuitate şi entuziasm, ascuns în fiecare tremur de viaţă care eliberează cu uşurinţă căldura sufletească din preajma sărbătorilor.

Ce anume menţine trează vibraţia sufletului îmbrăţişător al atâtor frumuseţi care nu vorbesc niciodată oamenilor?

Este rece afară. Zăpada este aşternută peste tot, peste zi şi peste noapte, la fel cum o bogată adormire se aşterne peste orice gând, peste orice amintire a trandafirului. Numai prezenţa mea inopinată îi stârneşte atenţia. Prin ochiul vederii de dincolo de vedere, el simte orice adiere de aer, orice vibraţie şi radiaţie de căldură din jur, simte fiecare pas pe care omul îl face pentru momentul prezent, dar cu orientare spre cele sfinte, spre cele ce nu se văd ale facerii lui Dumnezeu, spre cele ce se nasc şi mor.

Ştiu că este greu de observat acest lucru. Inconştient, de o fineţe impalpabilă, trandafirul transmite un mesaj a cărui importanţă se demonstrează numai în artă: "Trebuie să-ţi inserezi un fapt de viaţă într-o formă coincidentă cu împlinirea întrupării tale artistice."

Trandafirul simte, reacţionează la stimuli, la fel cum simte un artist al cărui dar formidabil este să prefacă albul în culoare, hrănindu-se din înţelepciunea paletei care se încarcă din lumina caldă şi relaxantă a vopselelor plăcute ochiului. Or acest ochi, plin de frumos, hiperrealist, desprins parcă dintr-un peisaj selenar, combină expresionismul minimalist abstract şi caracteristicile rafinamentului elegant într-un design unic. Nu este nimic fundamental misterios ori invaziv în legătură cu acest simţ, un larg câmp al mijloacelor de exprimare prin senzaţii, decât dacă iau în calcul o indiscreţie de tipul Astonmedarhos , manifestarea libertăţii de a-mi găsi o asemănare în planul naturii.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să cuprindă un simplu fapt de viaţă într-o singură imagine care reuşeşte să nască sentimentul de a fi cea mai bună versiune a ta în planul unei perfecţiuni ireale?

Fără să manifest nicio îndoială cu privire la realitatea lumii sensibile, continui să privesc trandafirul la fel cum priveşte el albul zăpezii: printr-un control variabil al intensităţii sentimentelor, printr-un reglaj continuu al intensităţii luminoase, exact ca atunci când pictorul încearcă să dea o atenţie deosebită surprinderii detaliilor într-o lumină cât mai exactă. Acest pictor se chinuieşte din răsputeri să obţină un adevărat rezultat din viziunea sa, mai ales dacă reuşeşte să se integreze cu spiritul, cu energiile pământului, cu principiul deplinei egalităţi, într-o poveste plină de ingenuitate şi geniu vizual.

Mai trebuie spus ceva. Trandafirul are un ochi cuprinzător, vrând parcă să trateze lumea în mod holistic. Şi mă priveşte la fel cum îl privesc eu: ca pe-o expresie artistică a unui univers recuperator, aflat mereu în căutarea unor noi mijloace de extindere a ariei de frontieră: între real şi imaginar.

Şi tot privindu-l învelit cu plapuma zăpezii, la fel cum el mă priveşte visător cu ochi de stele, îmi amintesc de argumentul "de metodă" pe care îl invoca în mod hotărâtor esteticianul francez Victor Basch: "Este extrem de greu să pătrunzi cu sufletul artistului în sursa profundă, şi chiar şi pentru el misterioasă, din care ţâşneşte instinctul creator. Al doilea argument este că artistul însuşi, înainte de a crea, a contemplat şi s-a delectat".

Şi iată ce îşi aminteşte trandafirul despre începuturile sale în alb şi roşu, cu ajutorul senzaţiilor de bun augur primite în faţa peisajelor captate prin fenomenul de persistenţă a vederii de dincolo de vedere. Îşi aminteşte de un creator transformat într-un om special care, fără a se concentra asupra dorinţei de dominare a unei imagini în dublu exemplar, în raportul spaţiu-timp, reuşeşte să redea o anumită stare sufletească plecată de la alb şi ajunsă la culoare.

Numai un asemenea om, special, reuşeşte să redea expresia intensă a unui sentiment care emoţionează, sentimentul unităţii: de a fi una cu natura. Sentimentul de a fi cea mai bună versiune a ta în planul perfecţiunii ireale, într-un plan al transcendenţei metafizice.

Leadershipul cuprinde vederea artistică cu care te-ai deprins în încercarea de a te adapta la un alt mediu de viaţă, într-un context în care trebuie să-ţi accentuezi trăsăturile unice (şi unde imaginarul şi realul se întrepătrund).

Priveşte-mă cu ochiul vederii din spatele pânzei dacă vrei să desluşeşti misterele spiritului descins din alte lumi pământeşti. Numai un artist genial, care ştie să scoată în evidenţă culoarea din spaţiul clar-obscurului, servind scopului de a întări efectul culorilor sufletului şi sentimentului într-o atmosferă de rigoare intimă, dispune de un asemenea ochi ce poate cuprinde două imagini într-una singură.

În lumile de dincolo de aceasta există infinit mai multe moduri de a simți...

Priveşte-mă cu privirea cu care te urmăresc eu

Un lider care are talent şi fire de artist va da întotdeauna dovadă de o inteligenţă asociativă, acceptând provocarea de a amplifica vizibilitatea unei imagini îndepărtate faţă de punct static.

Sunt în gara din Cluj-Napoca. Aștept trenul, alături de alte priviri care par să observe totul în jur. Dar nimeni nu mă observă pe mine, nu fiindcă nimeni nu ar avea ochi pentru mine, ci fiindcă privirile străine au întotdeauna obiceiul de a se focaliza asupra unui obiectiv bine determinat. Iar trenul încă se lasă așteptat…

Dar oare trenul nu are, la rândul lui, o privire care să iasă în evidență, mai mult decât orice altă privire care încearcă să-i intercepteze poziția geografică? O expresie gânditoare şi un surâs enigmatic, constituite într-o privire pătrunzătoare care sustrăgându-se oricărui control, trece prin lucruri căutând ce este dincolo de ele. Or această privire vede drept înainte, neglijând cu orice preț aspectele laterale ale spaţiului pe care îl traversează, spre satisfacerea acelei curiozităţi exemplare care pune accent pe dinamism şi pe libertatea de reacţie a privitorului.

Iar dacă privirea mea întâlnește privirea dreaptă și rece a trenului, fără nicio constrângere de spațiu și timp, ar însemna să fim doi martori suficienți pentru a justifica confirmarea unui alt punct de vedere, nu-i aşa? Astfel este posibil acordul dintre un simbol al timpului care trece, exprimat prin Kamtirodhis , fără a cunoaşte momentul când se apropie trenul, şi staţionarea în suflet a unei închipuiri menită să îmbrace forma unei metafore continue sau prelungite.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi extinzi câmpul vederii prin comparaţie cu ceea ce se întâmplă dincolo de imaginar, aşa încât să ilustrezi o imagine care se extinde dincolo de cadrul de referinţă al celuilalt "TU" ?

Mai trebuie spus un lucru. Curiozitatea trenului nu-l va limita la observarea peisajelor care îl înconjoară, fiindcă greutatea lui nu este un impediment pentru a circula cu viteza, nici de a observa ceea ce se întâmpla în jur, la fel cum ar face-o un pictor care ştie să îmbine perfect arta şi medii diferite de reprezentare artistică pentru a-şi manifesta talentul.

Faptul sugestiv care atrage atenţia în mod serios este însăşi spaţiul pe care îl străbate trenul, încât artistul să poată reprezenta durata într-un mod atât de sensibil încât timpul să fie faţă de el ca o linie de-a lungul căreia se intersectează planul orizontal al proiecțiilor grandioase ale suprarealiştilor şi planul transcendent şi intrinsec al teoriei cunoaşterii.

Respectând însă vederile laterale, formele exterioare de interacțiune cu alte persoane sau lucruri, trenul trebuie să confirme mărturisirea de a se conecta la mine, adăugând că "o face fără să fie silit de nimeni".

Într-adevăr, s-ar spune că trenul, luând forma unei făpturi imaginative, îi oferă artistului aceeaşi vedere pe care el o cuprinde de la distanţă, dovedind prin acest amănunt faptul că ideile sunt cuprinse în simţul vederii, şi că artistul le va distinge în măsura în care va ţine seama de importanţa gândirii abstracte.

Leadership: Imaginea care te transpune în mijlocul Creaţiei Artistice este asociată cu poziționarea ta în zona cea mai îndepărtată față de locul unde aştepţi în mod normal?

Enystemagntis: să vezi prin ceea ce se vede intuiţia, prin ceea ce se întâmplă cu tine atunci când te transpui în alt loc, odată cu deschiderea altor perspective. Totuşi, reconstituind spaţiul străbătut de tren ca o creaţie străbătută de o culoare a nemărginirii sau a irealităţii, dar independent de mulţimea obiectelor care se află în raza de acţiune a artistului, voi fi împins de raţiune să cred că relaţia dintre deplasarea trenului şi călătoria sa pe calea artistică reprezintă posibilitatea de redare a realităţii într-o imagine-simbol, unică.

Iată cum trenul devine, într-o singură clipă, o îmbunătățire a vederii mele de la distanță, antrenând o intimidare a privirii mele de aproape, odată cu înaintarea lui spre gară. Aşadar, nimic nu scapă ochiului vigilent de artist care trece rapid de la o direcţie predeterminată, la o perspectivă psihologică a privirii interioare. Era de aşteptat, căci în activitatea facultăţii mele de a vedea există două grade importante de comparaţie pe care le pot preciza: un fel de memorie care necesită alimentare constantă pentru a reține datele din ea, şi o inteligenţă asociativă, care este capabilă să accepte provocarea de a amplifica vizibilitatea unei imagini îndepărtate.

Dacă după trecerea unui răstimp, cineva ar îndrăzni să revină în gară, dispus să aștepte trenul, echivalent cu regăsirea unei priviri care spune mai mult decât 100 de priviri, atunci aș avea un singur mesaj să-i transmit, ca o confesiune sinceră:

Omul care nu știe să aștepte într-un singur loc un motiv pentru a vedea mai bine lucrurile simple, este un om a cărui privire nu este în stare să străpungă scurgerea liniară de "acum-uri", și care nu este în stare să străpungă neobișnuitul existent în sine, undeva retras de privirile lumii...

Leadershipul, în activitatea facultăţii de a vedea, seamănă cu felul în care percepi o experienţă de artă live, fără contact direct cu subiectul care a provocat o comparaţie: el are o manieră de a asigura deschiderea către nou, asumându-şi o direcţie care justifică o stare de spirit revelatoare.

Priveşte-mă cu privirea cu care te urmăresc eu, ori de câte ori încerci să surprinzi o imagine mai clară a fenomenului depărtare-apropiere, prin prisma a ceea ce se vede cu ochiul liber, dar care se percepe artistic numai prin comparaţii.

Priveşte-mă dincolo de cele ce se văd

Pecetea artistului se simte tocmai în felul cum alege părţile vieţii pe care le înfăţişează în opera care este cu atât mai genială, cu cât mai multe se ghicesc dincolo de cele ce se văd.

George Kopaliani – Feel my mind. Melodia aceasta spune totul despre atitudine, este despre puterea de a-ţi educa spiritul atunci când meriţi să descoperi despre tine ceea ce nu ai descoperit niciodată până acum. În mare, este vorba despre RUNNING, o lume simbolică, încercată inegalabil în linia unor rafinate arderi şi distilări lăuntrice, câteodată reuşind să dezvăluie cele mai rafinate sentimente care hrănesc din belşug sufletul. Căci, adesea, runningul se dezvăluie prin trezirea, amplificarea şi dobândirea controlului pe termen lung asupra performanţelor mentale de care poate face dovada numai un creator care a supus formele de exprimare artistică, unei rigori autoimpuse, exploatând însuşirile propriei naturi.

Feel my mind se ascultă în timpul unui antrenament confortabil si echilibrat, dar într-un clarobscur vesperal, atunci când urmezi chemarea inimii. Începe slow, ca o încălzire a sufletului dinaintea muşchilor, în planul subtil al unei interiorităţi mişcătoare, uneori aplecată spre fabulaţie, care se abandonează unei acţiuni intense ce necesită uzul corpului. Apoi pe la jumătate, puţin după minutul 3, se declanşează dinamismul, când dai tot ce poţi. O voce caldă din background îţi şopteşte duios, preventiv, să nu renunţi. Cu niciun preţ, să nu renunţi. Ceva îţi dă putere să continui, chiar dacă simţi că nu mai poţi.

Dintr-o dată ai impresia că intri într-un culoar cosmic, începi să rezonezi cu astrele, plin de viaţă şi tare visător, nu mai eşti atent la alergat, nu mai eşti atent la lumea din jur, nu mai vezi pe nimeni. Eşti doar cu tine, cu aerul de sfinţenie al singurătăţii grandioase, în învăluirea dulce a sentimentului de înălţare spirituală ce trece într-un zbor fantastic prin taina înserării. Sincer cu tine însuti, cu sufletul tău, doar cu luna şi cu stelele. Şi începi să îţi construieşti un ritm normal de RUNNING. Ceva din umbră, ca o şoaptă venită din neant, sorbind puteri din izvoarele unei conştiinţe libere, continuă să-ţi şoptească: SĂ NU RENUNŢI !

Şi atunci ţi se deschide în cale o privelişte parcă salvată dintr-un avatar. Este lumea ta ! Şi nimeni nu înţelege lumea ta, fiindcă este lumea înaripată, atât de rară, plină de introspecţie, a învingătorilor !

Leadership: Obiectul atenţiei ce poate să cadă sub simţurile tale, ţi se poate impune ca un întreg unitar înainte de a-i cerceta conţinutul?

Este un suflet în această melodie, rezervat şi totodată energic, dincolo de structura ei organică, analizată sub impulsul vieţii intense, a trăirii imediate. Linia ei melodică, atât de sensibilă, de mare vibraţie emoţională, îmi mângâie sufletul cu aceeaşi ardoare cu care un pictor îşi afirmă nemărginita-i dragoste de viaţă într-o izbucnire cromatică radiind de lumină şi sentimente. Este acolo, în frigul începutului de iarnă, îndărătul frunzei care tremură, îndărătul muşchilor încordaţi, şoptind lucruri adânci şi neînţelese, aducând de mai multe ori succesiunea Largo-Allegro în momentele învinse de nesperate elanuri.

Sunetul Adagietto, plăsmuit din profunzimile devenirii cosmice, plonjând alene în propriile-mi sentimente pentru a descoperi analogia cea mai vie cu operele eterne ale Sfântului Spirit, se prelungeşte în spaţiul dintre realitate şi închipuire. Încă alerg nestingherit, visător, cuprinzând în gânduri şi în suflet întreaga vibraţie a unei rostiri prin care fiinţa universală se relevă ca lume a fiinţării omeneşti, şi chiar a celei Dumnezeieşti. Când alergi, sunetul de glorie al infinitului te urmăreşte, nu-ţi dă pace, dar nici nu te consumă.

Efectul expresiv vine din alăturarea imediată a două stări muzicale contrastante: una păstrează măreţia gândurilor din îndărătul mişcărilor spontane (materializate într-o imagine auditivă), iar perechea ei face ecoului trăirilor individualizate Tremolo , spuse parcă "pe şoptite" într-un cadru de spirit compact, al solidarităţii cu o privire iluminatoare asupra pasiunilor solitare.

Mai e ceva care nu se vede, şi care totuşi trebuie să se vadă, sau măcar să se simtă. Întotdeauna un suflet coordonat de sunetele cele mai grave până la cele mai înalte, transformându-se în mii şi mii de sunete diferite, devine centrul universului.

Leadership: Poţi să activezi opţiunea "image adjustment" sub forma unei impresionante confesiuni a sentimentelor, manifestându-ţi pe deplin disponibilitatea de a deveni o singură entitate expresivă conţinută într-un singur cadru evocator?

Runningul este trăit ca o luptă ce o duci, mai întâi, cu tine însuţi. Nu-ţi numeri paşii, dar îţi asculţi sufletul, ţi-l umpli cu voie bună, orientându-l către proiecţiile astrale. O lume nouă se deschide la fiecare pas, acolo, în tăcerea înserării care n-are altă menire decât a şopti o silabă - fie pentru a doborî un munte, fie pentru a zbura ca o pasăre cântătoare. Şi este uşor de suportat runningul, ca un fel de vrajă a unui univers total diferit de lumea celorlalţi, mai ales când sunetul "solemnis", născut parcă din tăcerea pământului, din gravitaţia aerului rece, activează puterea spiritului creator în conştiinţa universală.

Asta o demonstrează scriitorul Alexandru Vlahuţă atunci când povestea despre pictorul Nicolae Grigorescu:

"O luptă straşnică este viaţa lui. Fiecare dimineaţă îi aduce o speranţă nouă, şi fiecare seară este o nouă disperare. Veşnic nemulţumit de lucrul lui, răzând de câte zece ori o pânză, plecând şi întorcându-se de câte zece ori în acelaşi colţişor de natură, care mereu tot altceva spunea din marele mister, şi el mereu întrebând, simţind că, dincolo de liniile şi de culorile care se văd, mai este ceva ce nu se vede, şi care totuşi trebuie să se vadă. Trebuie. Că aceasta şi este chemarea unui artist pe lume - să te facă să vezi în vecii vecilor ceea ce natura nu arată decât o singură dată, la fulgerarea unei clipe, o singură dată, în toată necuprinsa şi spăimântătoarea veşnicie a vremii."

Ei bine, unde este mai multă emoţie: într-un suflet de pictor, sau într-un suflet de alergător? Amândoi pornesc pe acelaşi drum lung, al izbăvirii: unul cu şevaletul în braţe, celălalt cu medalia de aur în vis, unul execută cu piciorul de pe obstacol o impulsie cu întinderea articulaţiilor, celălalt surprinde şi selecţionează ceea ce e caracteristic în natură. Dar, şi unul şi celălalt privesc cu atenţie, înainte şi în jos, pentru a echilibra contrastul dintre imaginar şi perceptibil, mijlocind interferenţele omului sacru.

Cu ce drag te întorci acolo unde îţi este sufletul de artist, bine şlefuit într-un model de învingător. Câtă încordare există într-o muncă îndrăzneaţă care combină supleţea şi sensibilitatea în punctul în care tempoul se modifică din Largo - în Animato, per giocare con entusiasmo e spirito , caracterul acustic fiind astfel prelungit ca un ecou cu adânci rezonanţe de dincolo de timp şi spaţiu, conform căruia "spiritele trăind în locuri şi epoci diferite gândesc la fel, simt aceleaşi imbolduri creatoare, chiar comunică pe canale nebănuite, diafane şi evanescent".

Mi-am dat seama - Feel my mind - că ori de câte ori mă voi întoarce la Running, la fel cum artistul se întoarce la pânza sa, compunând culori şi emoţii, voi fi adânc pătruns de sentimentul de libertate pe care ţi-l oferă sinceritatea şi fidelitatea, sentimentul acela de "aş rămâne aici, nu vreau să mă întorc." Dar asta nu se vede, nu-i aşa?

Leadershipul poate fi considerat valabil sub forma unei impresionante confesiuni a sentimentelor, o reflectare asupra universului interior ce nu intră niciodată conflict cu realitatea exterioară.

Priveşte-mă dincolo de cele ce se văd, dacă vrei să înţelegi ceea ce se simte doar cu inima.

Alergătorul are un suflet, nu-i auzi plânsul, suspinele, nu-i auzi paşii trecând peste obstacole, peste vârfuri semeţe, peste stânci singuratice, ocupând o scenă subiectivată de lumini şi umbre. Adesea, fără să lase vreo urmă, dar potrivindu-se într-un singur cadru "Eu Însumi", el păşeşte victorios spre un orizont neaşteptat, unde îşi va crea lumea lui. N-o să-l mai vedeţi decât, poate, la fulgerarea unei clipe, în toată necuprinsa veşnicie a vremii.

Bine spunea Nicolae Iorga: "Pecetea artistului se simte tocmai în felul cum alege părţile vieţii pe care le înfăţişează în opera care este cu atât mai genială, cu cât mai multe se ghicesc dincolo de cele ce se văd."

Priveşte-mă fără să mă vezi

Adevărata valoare a unei opere artistice izvorăște din autenticitatea experienței personale, revelată adesea în momentele de vulnerabilitate extremă.

În penumbra unei camere, o femeie plină de experiențe și bizarerii, punându-şi sub lupă multiplele fațete ale personalităţii, își caută schimbarea interioară. Pare să oscileze între rugăciune și amintiri senzuale, într-un dans al conștiinței ce transcende timpul și spațiul. Camera semi-luminată, filtrând razele soarelui prin perdele grele, pare să fie încadrată într-un tablou chiaroscuro al lui Caravaggio, o cameră de luat vederi surprinzând silueta unei melancolii bolnave, a unei sentimentalităţi exagerate, foarte asemănătoare cu cea a plantelor de seră, care nu pot suporta intemperiile naturii.

Dumnezeul căutat nu-și face simțită prezența oricum, ci lăsând-o singură cu gândurile sale tumultoase, din haosul original al păcatului de a fi fost cu adevărat frumoasă, o fiinţă luminată de darul esteticii prin care se reflectă însuşirea omului de a simţii emoţie în faţa operelor de artă. Oare cum ar putea ea să găsească echilibrul între spiritualitate și senzualitate, între trecut și prezent?

În timp ce se roagă, mintea ei călătorește spre amintiri de mult timp închise în cufărul memoriei, amintiri ce renasc acum, cu forţa înnoită, cu fiecare rol pe care-l face şi care-l joacă pe o scenă improvizată de însăşi mintea ei, pentru a treizecea oară ca şi cum ar fi prima şi ultima oară. Mereu materializându-se în greșeli palpabile. Această reminiscență dintr-un trecut recent, proba vie a unei experiențe intense la care conştiinţa revine obsesiv, marcată de traiectoria vieții ei alerte, pasionale, tumultoase, iese la suprafață din când în când, vulnerabilizând-o total, ca pe o rană deschisă în care sângele continuă să curgă. Şi curge, şi curge, fără oprire, alimentând durerea de a se şti captivă într-o existenţă finită.

Leadership: Accepți adevărul de a fi vulnerabil, ca o dovadă a existenței unei opere de artă care dezvăluie culisele sufletului tău, făcând ca fiecare trăire să capete un sens mai înalt?

Când se roagă, și se roagă cu acea durere dreaptă, care nu iese la iveală decât în timpul rugăciunii, gândurile ei se adâncesc într-un soi de crescendo al disperării tăcute. Dar acum, ca un Phoenix, aceste amintiri renasc prin greșelile ce i se arată în minte obsesiv, compulsiv. Întotdeauna tristețile fără motiv, fricile fără fundament și toate cele ce definesc condiția umană, se justifică sub egida unui interior cu potențial de zeificare, nu doar prin frământările interioare. Adevărul din ea se dezvăluie mai ales acum când, adultă fiind, se simte neajutorată, manifestându-se prin nesimțire și nepăsare, căci în esență, e doar un copil care nu știe să fie altfel. Izbucnește într-un râs nebunesc, fără logică, semn al unei stări psihice febrile.

Este și asta un fel de a elibera tensiunea acumulată în fundamentul mintalului ei.

Într-o stare de "Resthesia", o fuziune între zenit spiritual și sinestezie emoțională, ea explorează acea conexiune transcendentă cu divinul care o călăuzește spre un punct de revelație, încă neclar. Aceste frământări, încă slabe, dar se simte cum cresc, nu sunt simple defecte umane, ci manifestări ale unui interior cu posibilități îndumnezeitoare, în raport cu tenebrele ce au coborât peste lume ca rod al propriei ei funcţionări dizarmonice. Ca atare, vulnerabilitatea ei devine o poartă către transcendență, o reminiscență dintr-un trecut recent ce îi marchează traiectoria vieții, în care sângele trupului ei pulsează cu intensitate, curge spre adâncurile sufletului ei.

Frământările ei sunt urmărite şi din perspectiva eroinei lui Anne Hebert, din romanul "Kamouraska":

"Trebuie să acţionez repede. Să mă apăr de furia timpului. Să mă salvez în întregime, irevocabil. Să mă împac pentru totdeauna cu mine. Să şterg o întreagă perioadă din viaţa mea. Să-mi regăsesc candoarea, naivitatea, farmecul, rostul. Cum mult înainte să... S-ar părea că încerc să scot, cu cazná, la lumină, un cuvânt, unul singur, apăsător, îndepărtat. Indispensabil. Un fel de greutate ascunsă sub pământ, ştiută doar în cer. O ancoră ruginită. Prinsă de o funie lungă, subterană. Un soi de rădăcină adâncă, pierdută, care continuă să alimenteze amintirile și emoțiile din adâncul sufletului meu."

Leadership: Accepți recunoașterea înfrângerii ca pe un catalizator al unei profunde introspecții, pentru a scoate din sine esența sufletului tău și a-l dărui lumii printr-o capodoperă?

Ea știe mai bine acum, după ce s-a recunoscut înfrântă, de ce o operă nesemnată cu sângele propriei vieți are mai puțină valoare pentru sine. Cert este că autenticitatea interioară se revelează în momentele de fragilitate, când sufletul adult se simte copil din nou. Deodată, comme un éclair dans la nuit de l'âme, izbucnește într-un râs nebunesc, fără logică, semn al unei stări psihice febrile. Acest râs, capabil să răscolească adâncurile ființei, devine un catalizator pentru explorarea sinelui într-un parcurs al sângelui tumultuos care-i asigură drumul înainte. Spre iad, sau spre rai?

Nu-i de mirare că tatuajul de pe mâna ei dreaptă, un păianjen, simbolizează pierderea ultimelor fărâme de omenie în relațiile interumane. Oare acest simbol sugerează că ea poartă în subconștient un venin capabil să paralizeze sau chiar să omoare prada emoțională? În spatele ei, o statuie albă o privește cu ochi de zeu tăcut, dorind parcă să-i înghețe agonia, să-și satisfacă orgoliul de a o vedea fragilă, mai puțin încrezătoare decât altădată. În acelaşi cadru, un vultur pleşuv stă țeapăn pe un cuier de lemn, întorcându-și ochii spre ea de fiecare dată când își ridică privirea spre cer, amintindu-i că, pe măsură ce se simte tot mai mică, își spune „gata, gata, e bine". Este acest vultur un simbol al aspirațiilor ei înalte sau o reprezentare a privirii omnisciente a divinității?

În acest moment de introspecție intensă, ne amintim de cuvintele lui Feodor Dostoievsky din "Frații Karamazov":

"Dragostea activă, comparativ cu visarea, este o chestiune crudă și înfricoșătoare. Dragostea visătoare însetează după o realizare rapidă, de a fi satisfăcută rapid cu admirația tuturor. Dar dragostea activă este un angajament profund, o luptă continuă și plină de sacrificii."

Aceste cuvinte par să rezoneze cu lupta interioară a femeii, între idealul spiritual și realitatea carnală a existenței sale, un soi de a spune că totul e un joc al cărui miză este însăși esența vieții, trăită cu intensitate și vulnerabilitate, "Otthathia Atensamphor", regăsirea sinelui în persoana iubită, poate cea mai grea căutare din viață. Starea psihică febrilă poate fi un catalizator pentru creație autentică, eliberând energii creative reprimate.

Leadership: Poți să transformi frustrarea și dorința de a copleși lumea cu emoții într-un mijloc de exprimare artistică, recunoscându-ți vulnerabilitatea ca pe o dovadă a determinării în căutarea sinelui?

În căutarea sinelui, omul oscilează între dorința de transcendență și atracția către teluric. În timp ce se imaginează pe sine tot mai mică, spunându-și "gata, gata, e bine", asocierile timpurii din subconștientul ei o năpădesc, o fac să se simtă copleșită de propriile temeri și amintiri. Cum ar putea ea să reconcilieze aceste amintiri cu prezentul ei spiritual, încât să creeze un nou fundament pentru iubire? Își reamintește de focul pasiunii pe care fotograful și regizorul, în același timp, i-l trezeau, făcând-o să simtă emoții pe care nu le crezuse posibile. Oare această experiență a fost o revelație sau o cădere din grația divină?

Frustrarea că nu a primit darul lui de a copleși lumea cu emoții o apasă, lăsându-și Ego-ul să iasă la suprafață, să fie nesimțit și grosolan. Nu ea este de vină, ci Ego-ul.

Cu un buchet de trandafiri în mână, mărturie tăcută a frumuseții efemere, rupe un boboc, întorcându-l pe toate părțile, contemplând alte scenarii, alte decoruri. Purtând mănuși negre, simbol al unei anumite intimități, ea se mișcă printre umbre și raze de soare care pătrund ușor printr-o fereastră semi-deschisă. Uşor, asemenea Venerei din "Nașterea lui Venus" a lui Botticelli, ea atinge cu palma chipul statuii, ca și cum ar fi fost jumătatea care o însuflețește, un gest tandru și senzual. Ceasurile de pe perete conturează timpul pierdut, dar dorit înapoi, în lupta cu amintirile senzuale. Nimic nu-i aduce trecutul înapoi, dar atingerea îi oferă o alinare temporară.

Capodopera cea mai grandioasă a artistului este de a se exprima autentic prin simboluri, prin diverse chipuri, în dialog cu profunzimile sufletului său.

Priveşte-mă fără să mă vezi și încearcă să ghicești ce este în mintea mea, în sufletul meu, în viața mea. Doar așa, printr-o intuiție profundă, închipuind ceea ce este ascuns, vei putea afla o parte, măcar o parte din ceea ce sunt cu adevărat. Încă nu știu de ce te îndepărtezi, nu știu cum să te apropii, dar aștept cu nerăbdare clipa în care vei putea să mă vezi cu adevărat.

Priveşte-mă fără să-mi uiţi privirea

Legătura fundamentală între imagine şi percepţie este subiectivitatea cu care îşi iau avânt amintirile în adâncul tău.

Gândurile mele se îndreaptă mereu spre mare şi spre nisipul litoralului, două variante ale aceleiaşi reprezentări de memorie. Asta dezvăluie cu mai mare acurateţe forţa unui suflet de artist care prin picturile sale îşi povestește universul în culori, pictând chipul soarelui în maniera în care marea, în glasul ei melodios, sărută nisipul şi apoi se retrage în timpul refluxului. Surprinzător, uscatul ia forma unor cărări de-a lungul cărora îmi port cu drag aducerile-aminte, izbucniri de tandreţe, puseuri de febră a nostalgiei, relaţional cu ideea de spaţiu perspectival care posedă proprietăţi intrinsec sensibile.

Aşadar, există două aspecte ale aceleiaşi realităţi destinată parcă să respecte şi să fie acordată numai la o suprafaţă de culoare care posedă în ea însăşi o semnificaţie spaţială, Rhyvalhystus (timp al încremenirii universale), ducând la formarea personalităţii mele de artist. Şi nu un oarecare artist, ci unul capabil să transforme amintirea în nişte teme emoţionale, vizuale.

De fapt, în multe din amintirile mele la Marea Neagră, de-a lungul cărora am analizat urmele mărunte pe care le-am lăsat (și care dezvăluie, chiar şi acum, alte adevăruri surprinzătoare), se află neîntrecuta senzaţie a celei mai pure lumini şi a unei imense depărtări: lumina unei viziuni personal umanizate şi măsura distanţei parcurse de la vedere la viziune.

Leadership: Poţi să reînvii o realitate prin readucerea în prezent a trecutului, în faţa unei oglinzi convexe care reflectă imaginea ideală a unei vieţi nesfârşite?

Da. Între mine şi mare se ascunde un secret: nu putem exista fără să încorporăm, viceversa, sensurile unei opere de artă care se lasă descoperită doar după capriciile memoriei dublate de o imagine a realităţii imaginare, provenită dintr-un trecut care se încăpăţânează să nu mai treacă. Într-un fel sau altul, este vorba despre existenţa unui timp subiectiv, reînviat prin memorie involuntară, şi reprezentat într-o oglindă convexă care reflectă imaginea ideală a unei vieţi nesfârşite.

Oare sunt doar capriciile unei fantezii invenţioase care scormoneşte cu mâinile pline realul, eclipsând orice atracţie din jur? Sau, poate că mă pasionează în special marea din imaginea unei lumi idilice, rare, izolate, în care vreau să mă pierd fără ţintă, fără plan, fără urmă, ca într-un labirint al oglinzilor convexe care, în mod înşelător, conduce mereu în acelaşi loc.

În aşa fel trebuie să mă modelez pe tendinţele mării de a încânta ochiul privitorului, încât esenţa dinamicii viului să rămână intactă prin raportare la artă, sau mai exact la reprezentarea picturală a frumuseţii unui dialog între privire şi îmbrăţişare. Privirea faţă în faţă cu mine însumi, cu tot ce atrage după ea, şi îmbrăţişarea unei iluzii hoinare în care ar fi trăit sinele meu anterior.

Leadership: Imaginea care îţi lărgeşte orizontul poate să justifice existenţa unui timp subiectiv, reînviat prin memoria involuntară şi ridicat la rangul unei confesiuni care reflectă fragilitatea afectivă?

Intrând în acest spaţiu al imaginii care orientează privirea spre descoperirea artisticului, apreciat ca fundament al conservării mării în lucrarea memoriei, am reuşit să mă integrez într-o carte scrisă de Paul Auster, care vorbea despre criticul şi filozoful literar rus, Mikhail Bakhtin:

"În timpul invaziei nemţilor în Rusia, în cel de-al doilea război mondial, Bakhtin a fumat singurul exemplar din manuscrisul cu opera sa, un studiu vast al literaturii germane (care avea dimensiunile unei cărţi şi la care lucrase ani întregi). Una câte una, el a smuls fiecare pagină din manuscris şi a folosit hârtia ca să-şi răsucească ţigările, fumând, zi după zi, câte puţin din carte până când n-a mai rămas nimic. Aceste poveşti sunt adevărate. Sunt totodată şi parabole, poate, dar au semnificaţia pe care o au pentru că sunt adevărate."

În opera mea artistică, în care imaginile se contopesc într-un ecou al vremurilor cu vise dintr-un loc al deconectării de la stres, am demonstrat o înclinaţie specială înspre acest gen de atitudine de viaţă.

Mai ales în memoriile mele, atât de variate și colorate, se regăseşte următoarea relatare: tot ceea ce văd cu ochi de amintire este, zi de zi, o pagină smulsă dintr-o viaţă trăită fără regrete, rămasă neclintită în faţa unei imagini de vis care, misterioasă și indescifrabilă, transformată într-o poezie a timpului, schițează o călătorie fascinantă de auto-descoperire. Şi chiar dacă din memoriile mele se vor risipi toate paginile, una câte una, azvârlite într-o uitare enigmatică, nemeritată, fără capăt, un singur lucru va rămâne totuşi cu rădăcini în inimi: parfumul de Briza Mării.

Leadership: Impactul pe care îl are asupra ta imaginea totalităţii prezenturilor tale de-a lungul vieții, te pune în ipostaza unui Creator aflat în proximitatea unei viziuni pe cât de revelatoare, pe atât de profundă?

Parfumul aspru al ficţiunii se simte în felul cum imortalizez un momentul sublim de emoţie, atunci când apa mării se retrage în larg, lăsând vizibilă o fâşie îngustă de pământ pe care ochii mei o consideră mijlocul de veşnicie într-o realitate virtuală simulată, un "no men's land" în care se întâlnesc şi se înfruntă un număr mare de mituri, legende şi simboluri. Şi, încă un lucru asupra căruia sunt de acord, un fenomen universal tradus printr-un Achthas Syncorthesys (simbolul elanului spre spiritualizare), este acea deplină sinceritate a pictorului şi puternica originalitate cu care el surprinde detaliile, fără a se pierde în ele.

Exact ca într-un fel de labirint vizual în care personajul se pierde fără urmă de a fi găsit, dar devine o fiinţă eternă prin faptul că amintirea lui este imortalizată într-o capodoperă de artă care se dezvăluie în contrastul puternic dintre imagine, realitate şi simbol. Prin urmare, arta își dezvăluie adevărata valoare la malul mării, prin monologurile minţii de artist care, bântuindu-l ore şi ore, aduce la viață acele emoții atât de copleşitoare, intense, și face lumină asupra a ceea ce înseamnă să trăiești din amintiri transpuse în imagini.

Ce-i drept, în amintire nu poţi să trăieşti într-o totală necunoaștere, într-o uitare esențialmente desăvârșită, ci doar să te vezi, să te descoperi pe tine însuţi, să te miri tu însuţi de intensitatea reacţiilor tale faţă în faţă cu realitatea, fără să te prefaci a fi altcineva.

Iar marea creează o dublă într-o fotografie: mă clonează în tot mai multe ipostaze, dintre care cea mai veridică este de Creator al Microcosmosului. Într-adevăr, o singură fotografie poate trezi o infinitate de emoții într-o buclă a timpului trecut reînviat prin rememorare. Emoţii vărsate şi depozitate perfect într-o capsulă a timpului, ca un cufăr plin cu o comoară ascunsă care înseninează viaţa monotonă...

Un artist trebuie să ia în considerare unitatea dintre imagine şi mediul prin care este transmisă imaginea, dintr-o raţiune logică: nicio imagine nu poate exista fără un mediu de abstractizare a realităţii, nici măcar imaginile mentale care folosesc fluxul amintirilor drept mediu de dezvoltare a conştiinţei de sine.

Priveşte-mă fără să-mi uiţi privirea de fiecare dată când încerci să pătrunzi o realitate care îţi reflectă starea de spirit, acordată la o împlinire spirituală care transcede spaţiul şi timpul şi cu care îţi înnobilezi viaţa, numită "rememorare întineritoare".

Priveşte-mă fără să te supui vederii mele

Îndreaptă-ţi privirea spre ceea ce este semnificativ imaginii cu care rezonează lumea, fără să-ţi sporeşti tendinţa de a controla procesul formării imaginii în sine.

Multă lume este prezentă la concursul de azi din Cluj-Napoca. Maratonul se anunţă foarte disputat. Sunt foarte mulți concurenți, dar şi foarte mulți susținători. Toți urmăresc ceva, altfel nu ar fi fost prezenţi acolo încă de dimineață. Este de ajuns să privești cum sunt priviți cei care aleargă, față de susținătorii de pe margine, totul înlănţuindu-se firesc, distinct, liber, într-un montaj neaşteptat de atitudini tot mai implicate. Şi realizezi imediat că privirea susținătorilor este ferm fixată spre traseul de alergat, deci nu la tine, chiar dacă ești unul dintre susținători.

În afară de asta, dacă voi reuși să dovedesc, așa cum cred că se va întâmpla, faptul că nicio privire nu poate fi învinuită de glasul conștiinței responsabile, mărturisindu-și nevoia de a fi pe placul tuturor, fără a fi influențată în mod excesiv de mecanisme diverse de comparație, atunci toți susținătorii se vor situa mai prejos de alergători din punct de vedere al viziunii de apartenență la un scop măreț. Trebuie admirată atitudinea care face dintr-un susţinător un participant fără voie la fericitul eveniment.

S-ar putea spune că orice privire ce caută altă privire, nu este o privire mulțumită de sine, ci una vulnerabilă care se poate schimba în orice clipă, în loc să aștepte totul. Iar o privire care vede, nu este neapărat o privire cu mare ecou în profunzimea ființei.

Accentuez acest lucru. Dacă fiecare privire ar urmări-o pe cea de lângă ea, probabil și-ar pierde din demnitate, fiindcă nicio privire focalizată asupra unui obiectiv important nu se poate coborî până acolo încât să observe ceva neînsemnat, nu-i așa? Prin urmare nu îți poți rezerva dreptul exclusiv de a condamna o privire care nu te privește pe tine. Trebuie să aștepți cursa ta și să devii ținta numărul unu cel puțin a unei priviri, ca să fii împăcat cu tine.

Leadership: Îţi controlezi emoţia pe care o emană îndreptarea atenţiei tale spre sursa unui stimul vizual capabil să producă o senzaţie de "cerc complet", atunci când îţi expui preocuparea faţă de ceea ce te înconjoară?

În timpul primei curse la care am asistat, privirea mea avea o singură convingere, pe baza unei singure bănuieli, anume că ea nu are o limită de timp pentru a se potrivi preferințelor altora. Iar dacă s-ar aduce la cunoștință vreo acuzație împotriva privirii mele, și ar trebui să răspund la aceasta cum cred de cuviință, încât să nu mi se ceară explicații mai amănunțite, aș spune doar atât:

O privire nu trebuie să se lase convinsă cu ușurință de promisiunea unui eveniment anunțat, cum că va face senzații tari, la fel ca o reclamă care te face să cumperi orice. Ci, mai bine ar fi să continue cu fermitate să se facă nevăzută, ca să prevină vreo "cădere" în caz de prea multă trufie.

Ca s-o spun altfel. Un stimul vizual capabil să producă senzaţia de "cerc complet" apare drept rezultat al unei succesiuni de întâmplări senzaţionale care inițiază un răspuns la acţiunea evenimentelor de mare anvergură prin care tu devii un factor de schimbare. În consecinţă, atmosfera care atrage atenţia privirii tale la un anumit eveniment, aspectul de ansamblu al unei imagini la care te uiţi ca la un întreg, poate să declanşeze o atitudine părtinitoare faţă de unii sau de alţii.

A-ţi controla emoţia care te încearcă la un anumit eveniment înseamnă să-ţi întăreşti convingerea că ceea ce trăieşti intens are un sens important şi nu trece neobservat, şi că ceea ce contează pentru tine contează şi pentru ceilalţi.

Totodată, această emoţie poate să izvorască din convingerea că ceea ce trăieşti intens într-un anumit moment de maximă sportivitate poate să producă un impact semnificativ în procesul de formare a unei noi imagini despre sine. Cel puţin în cazul susţinătorilor, nu uita că învingătorul este şi în tine, chiar dacă participanţii la cursă încearcă să îţi încânte privirile cu inedite ruperi de ritm.

Fiecare om este supus privirii care îl caută, nu neapărat privirii pe care și-o dorește sau cea pe care o merită. Și asta numai dacă stabilește de la bun început motivul cert al unei regăsiri de fond în prim planul cuiva. Ce se înțelege de aici? Că omul poate să fie privit doar fiindcă vrea să fie privit, sau în caz rar, privirea lui poate atrage involuntar alte priviri care caută ceva senzațional? Are privirea un caracter cu desăvârșire arbitrar? A avea în prim plan o privire, înseamnă să împărtășești convingerile ei?

Leadershipul este atitudinea omului care ştie să ţină o flacără aprinsă în mijlocul mulţimii, dar care se concentrează numai pe imaginea flăcării ce s-a imprimat în mintea sa.

Priveşte-mă fără să te supui vederii mele este motto-ul unui om care a înţeles faptul că, doar aflându-se în mijlocul oamenilor, nu va putea niciodată să atragă total atenţia asupra lui. Şi asta deoarece oamenii care trăiesc un episod plin de însufleţire, plin de neprevăzut, sunt atenţi mai degrabă la rezultatul final, decât la un "anunţ" de mică amploare.

Priveşte-mă fără să-ţi forţezi vederea

Perspectiva din care priveşti o imagine fără contur uman definit, îţi formează percepţia asupra a ceea ce înseamnă să fii de fapt o fire artistică.

O furnicuţă. Atât am în faţa ochilor mei, o furnicuţă, un banal punct mişcător în care se fixează toată atenţia ochilor mei, dar ea reprezintă o unitate de măsură care declanşează creaţia. Şi oare cum aş putea să privesc această furnicuţă cu ochii unui artist care ştie cu certitudine un lucru: creativitatea este peste tot, mai ales în sensul îndeplinirii condiţiei noutăţii. Căci furnicuţa nu ştie că o privesc atent, privirea ei fiind îndreptată spre punga de zahăr de pe masă, sperând poate că nimeni nu îi va detecta prezenţa. Nu ştiu dacă sunt tocmai o încântare pentru ochii care îşi ascund vederea…

Atotştiutoare şi înţeleaptă, axându-se pe o muncă meticuloasă care necesită multă răbdare, furnicuţei nici nu-i trece prin minte că cineva s-a gândit deja la transpunerea ei într-o imagine unică, o imagine ce poate genera noi unghiuri de analiză a simbolurilor care pot fi cuprinse în elementul "noutate" , conştientizări sau mecanisme suplimentare de identificare a cauzelor pentru care se manifestă o anumită preferinţă pentru arta figurativă.

În particular: din orice unghi aş privi o mică vietate, o imagine a sensibilităţii în arta plastică, un sistema de reflexión sobre la realidad y fijación de ideas, privirea tot nu uită acea mică sferă de existenţă care devine preţioasă prin însăşi călătoria ce o face, traversând spaţiul dinaintea ochilor mei cu aceeaşi discreţie cu care artistul îşi construieşte profilul stilistic din fragmente caleidoscopice.

Nu încape îndoială. Perspectiva din care priveşti subiectul fotografiat, imortalizat într-o privire care nu durează decât câteva secunde, se modifică în funcţie de tiparul ideal spre care tinde artistul toată viaţa lui: un background persistent în memoria lui vizuală.

Leadership: Unghiul din care priveşti un singur cadru de referinţă îţi poate asigura un background persistent în memoria vizuală a unui artist care dezvăluie multiple variante de receptare a Creaţiei sale?

Dacă te întrebi ce-i cu furnicuţa asta, fiind un amănunt imposibil de prevăzut care se naşte aleator din manifestarea propriei individualităţi cu întâlnirea unei priviri admirative îndreptate asupra unei ţinte întâmplătoare şi simbolice, află că totul depinde de perspectiva din care priveşti o operă de artă. De asemenea, dacă o imagine vie este privită concentrat mai mult timp, când privirea se mută pe o suprafaţă de nuanţă închisă, aceeaşi imagine va fi văzută mai degrabă ca o ciudăţenie, ca o transgresiune personală, ceva intruziv sau ofensator şi, în consecinţă, nu va fi prea amuzantă.

Hiper-realismul se joacă la limita dintre realitate şi artă. Din acest motiv, graţie unei priviri reînnoite îndreptate spre furnicuţă, fiind şi ea o verigă importantă în lanţul ecologic, o vieţuitoare foarte prevăzătoare, artistul va încerca imitarea naturii, ducând naturalismul la extrem. Furnicuţa va apărea în mod necesar transformat în altceva, anume într-o fiinţă.

Prin urmare, receptarea creaţiei mele la nivel tematic poate fi determinată prin două variante: printr-o imagine care spune o poveste, şi printr-o personificare care stăpâneşte tehnicile narative. Este nevoie de educaţie artistică pentru a înţelege acest lucru.

Leadership: Poţi să arăţi că mijlocul de validare a creaţiei tale depinde de aprecierea unui punct fix sau mişcător, din care se alimentează esenţa unei viziuni profund figurative?

Încerc să subliniez faptul că personificarea devine obligatorie, artistul decupând din realitate acele părţi pe care le găseşte interesante şi reproducându-le cu maximum de minuţiozitate într-o creaţie al cărei univers se întrepătrunde cu acela a lui Thales care, pentru a ajunge să descopere proprietăţile oricărui triunghi isoscel, nu urmează pas cu pas ceea ce vede, ci încearcă să construiască triunghiul isoscel la modul general.

Într-adevăr, succesorul unui număr este tot un număr, iar cota de originalitate a unei creaţii este dată de distanţa dintre vederea ochilor obişnuiţi şi vederea ochilor iluminaţi de reprezentările artei - accesibile în versiunea unei lumi mai mici, reprezentată de modele neregulate şi vulnerabile. La fel de cert este faptul că simbolul hărniciei şi al stăruinţei, care învinge cu hotărâre toate obstacolele, reprezintă o operă a naturii încadrată în coordonatele unei viziuni de o pregnantă originalitate, recunoscută drept unica formă necesară artei, de vreme ce nu poate fi născocită de om prin artă, fiindcă natura este o plăsmuitoare datată cu mult înaintea omului.

Furnicuţa nu este o deviere care reduce din puterea unei priviri pătrunzătoare, făcându-şi din discreţia cu care traversează lumea artistică o redutabilă reflectare în oglinda lumii omului obişnuit, o reflectare în sens alegoric, bineînţeles. Ci, mai degrabă, este forma particulară instituită de individualitate prin care se manifestă esenţa unei viziuni profund figurative, particularul existând doar pentru a asimila întreaga gamă a elementelor văzute de aproape ce au în contrapondere perspectivele ample, cuprinse dintr-o singură privire.

Leadership: Poţi să ghidezi receptarea creaţiei tale la un nivel de Creator fără seamăn, îmbinând într-un singur organism două noţiuni comparate?

În această furnicuţă trebuie să se obiectiveze întotdeauna particularul, punând pe primul loc, cât de solid posibil pentru analiza creaţiei artistice, mişcarea neîntreruptă a unui organism inferior destul de impunător ca pondere a conceptului şi concepţiei, dar evolutiv din punct de vedere al arealului tematic abordat de către arta picturii.

Furnicuţa se are doar pe sine însăşi în totalitatea formelor ei de manifestare şi de existenţă, constituindu-se drept subiect de creaţie - nu printr-o întrupare a forţei îmbinată cu blândeţea, ci îmbinând într-un singur organism două noţiuni comparate: omul şi natura.

Ea se poate obiectiva ca idee originală de creaţie doar în măsura în care se întrupează (ca factor senzaţional) atât în cuvinte, cât şi în imagini, mişcări şi momente în mişcare, spre conturarea unui viitor suprarealism. Într-o singură clipă, furnicuţa se poate reflecta în dimensiunea microscopică a unei lumi în devenire, ca unitate particulară de formă şi conţinut, ca unitate de observare a realităţii prin intermediul unei priviri care nu poate fi observată decât într-o stare în care doar un artist poate să o cuprindă într-o imagine de detaliu.

Iar din punct de vedere al conceptului "nothing is ever too much for doing an impression of reality in painting", cred că furnicuţa ar avea ceva important de spus :"If I do an impression of being someone special, you will imitate and reproduce my actions with spatially congruent body parts, in art."

Leadershipul este rezultatul comparaţiei pe care o efectuează subiectul între el însuşi şi alte elemente din jur, încât imaginea care va ajunge la privitor să fie identică cu cea venită de la creatorii de conţinut.

Priveşte-mă fără să-ţi forţezi vederea, mi-a spus furnicuţa în timp ce o priveam cum se îndreaptă grăbită spre punga de zahăr de pe masă. Iar atunci când vorbele ei mi-au pătruns în adâncul minţii, ca un fel de condiţionare care a devenit convingere, am realizat pentru prima dată că ceea ce un artist trebuie să scoată în evidenţă prin intermediul creaţiei sale este imaginea proiectată, punct cu punct, asupra înfăţişării celui care stă în fața sa.

Priveşte-mă în comparaţie cu aspectul unei imagini artistice

O transpunere a personalității Creatorului în natură este o reproducere fidelă a ceea ce te aştepţi să vezi într-o imagine care trezeşte amintiri.

Astăzi privesc cu totul diferit marea, acest spaţiu al absolutului în care puţini se încumetă să-şi construiască povestea vieţii. Ea este molipsitoare prin felul în care o văd cu colțul ochilor, ca pe o iluzie a unei realități intense, ca un fel de senzație amăgitoare de deja-vu menită să mă aducă în cel mai vulnerabil punct al artei: actul de a privi cu multă suspiciune orice reprezentare, şi cea perspectivală şi cea neperspectivală, oricare ar fi ea.

Marea este emoţie, metaforă, viziune, este noţiune, idee, gând şi vis deopotrivă. Iar într-o versiune artistică, în marea variabilitate a activităţii creative, marea îşi revarsă harurile în sufletul meu printre vastele comori ale unei imaginaţii fermecătoare, reflectând o taină de tip borgesian în care totul se poate atinge doar într-un vis din spatele amintirilor. Este şi asta o forma de a face artă, folosind orice mediu pentru a reprezenta o idee artistică, emoţia sau imaginaţia.

Cuvintele îmi sunt insuficiente pentru a-mi exprima admiraţia şi recunoştinţa faţă de ceva exterior, la creazione di una natura immutabile, în proporţiile cuvenite reprezentării ideii de "început fără sfârşit" concepută pe linia plasticităţii metaforice pe care o capătă insistenţa privirii mele în momentele de "back în time".

Ţineţi cont de asta ! Orice artist, gândind într-un flux de imagini, simboluri, reprezentări ale imaginaţiei care adesea nu îşi au baza în nicio percepţie, poate să denatureze experienţa timpului, trăitul într-o clipă, la fel cum o pată minusculă de culoare poate schimba aspectul celei mai mari picturi. Artistul riscă astfel să nu-şi mai desprindă privirea de la ceea ce l-a afectat sufleteşte.

Leadership: Poţi să demonstrezi că există o legătură între procesul percepţiei vizuale în sine şi conştientizarea acestei percepţii vizuale, experimentând fiorul retrăirii unui eveniment semnificativ?

Limbajul marii îmi spune totul despre gândirea mea, considerând că deţin tainele pe care doar natura le păstrează și le poate reda celor care știu să o asculte. Marea rămâne o zonă ocultată, definită printr-un Idearesthos Misearostys, multiplicarea nostalgică a unei stări de adoraţie, însoţită de fiorul comuniunii mistice, evocând parcă acea dorinţă şi aşteptare pe care o am faţă de un vis care nu mă lasă în pace.

Şi nu numai atât. Cred că marea este o înrudire între obiectul percepţiei (ceea ce se impune în prim plan) şi câmpul percepţiei (ceea ce trece în planul secund) pe fundaluri care se complică gradual, pretinzând din partea privitorilor să o completeze mental cu atribute simbolice divine.

Încă o dată, pot să simt toată mulţumirea, toată liniştea de care se poate bucura vasta întindere a unei realităţi cutezătoare, imuabilă, interpretativă. Văd marea cum se adânceşte treptat, ca să nu-i sperie pe cei care nu ştiu să înoate, o văd cum se sparge-n bucăţele lovind ţărmul, dar în necuprinsul ei rămâne intactă. O văd cum se agită, o văd cum îşi schimbă culoarea aproape în fiecare zi, cum îşi aduce spre ţărm adâncul suspinelor grele, cum descoase secrete din oameni, cum se scutură de spume printre stânci de piatră şi cum îşi leagănă cu supleţe valurile, vrând parcă să-şi creeze un profil de stabilitate, de echilibru natural.

Şi iată ce-mi spuse marea: "Voi fi foarte bucuroasă, preaslăvite pictor, dacă îţi vei da osteneala să lămureşti unele din îndoielile mele care dau nesiguranţă percepţiei mele despre frumos, despre artă, despre felurite alte subiecte plăcute pentru desen și pictură. Deci, nu-ţi fie de mirare dacă tratatul tău despre totalitatea observaţiilor care dau experienţa vizuală a unei realităţi obişnuite, îţi va pune în faţă o seamă de probleme şi întrebări la care, dintr-o reală pricepere doar a naturii omeneşti, nu îţi vor furniza niciun răspuns concret. N-ai vrea, cu acest prilej, să-mi împărtăşeşti şi mie părerile tale despre frumosul pe care vrei să ţi-l construieşti pe seama mea?"

Leadership: Poţi să te identifici cu vibraţia unei experienţe mistice de neuitat într-un proces de receptare a unei imagini de referinţă, fapt care să conducă la formarea altei imagini?

Într-una din călătoriile sale, plimbându-se pe o plajă părăsită, Nils văzu pe nisip un bănuţ de aramă, ruginit. Dându-şi seama că avea de-a face cu un lucru lipsit de orice valoare, nici nu se gândi să-l ridice şi să-l pună în buzunar, ci îl zvârli cu piciorul cât colo. Când vru să plece mai departe, rămase uluit văzând că la o depărtare de câteva sute de paşi se înalţă un zid lung, cu creste şi turnuri. Se strecură pe sub poartă şi intră în oraşul necunoscut. Aşa ceva nu-i văzuseră niciodată ochii. Numai prăvălii cu lucruri preţioase, oameni deosebit de arătoşi, case înalte pline de măreţie, frontispicii împodobite cu ornamente care mai de care mai meşteşugite, etc. Oriunde îşi arunca ochii vedea numai însufleţire. Era raiul pe pământ. Nils cutreieră bună bucată de timp oraşul, nimeni nu-l băgă în seamă, mai ales fiindcă era mic cât un deget. La un moment dat îşi spuse în sinea lui: "N-am să fiu niciodată atât de bogat să cumpăr ceva de aici ".

Şi, dintr-o dată, la chemarea acestei dorinţe, tot mai mulţi negustori se strânseră în jurul lui. Toţi îi dădură a înţelege că pretindeau ca plată pentru orice produs numai atât: un singur bănuţ, oricât ar fi de mărunt, pentru ca blestemul care plana asupra oraşului să fie oprit. Dar Nils nu avea niciun bănuţ. Atunci toţi negustorii începură să plângă cu lacrimi. Înduioşat de starea lor jalnică, şi amintindu-şi de bănuţul de pe ţărmul mării, Nils o luă la goană. Ieşi pe poarta din oraş şi se îndreptă direct înspre locul unde descoperise bănuţul. Îl găsi imediat. Dar când să se întoarcă spre oraş, nu mai văzu decât marea tălăzuindu-şi neîncetat valurile. Oraşul dispăruse din nou, pentru încă o mie de ani.

Pentru a te situa într-o imagine care îţi reflectă realitatea interioară mai întâi trebuie să dai contur unei poveşti de care nu te mai poţi despărţi, cu riscul de a trăi dezamăgirea risipirii unei poveşti frumoase care însă nu a fost posibilă decât în imaginaţia ta.

Priveşte-mă în comparaţie cu aspectul unei imagini artistice dacă vrei să te raportezi la o realitate care nu cunoaşte decât orizontul misticii, transmisă prin filtrul nostalgiei, fapt ce are un impact mult mai profund asupra mentalului şi emoţionalului. Or marea se constituie ca imagine artistică atunci când surprinde o realitate care de cele mai multe ori e ignorată, trecută cu vederea sau... neştiută !

Aşa stau lucrurile. Atunci când continui să te bucuri de senzaţia de imersiune în lumea de vis a mării, pe care reuşesc să şi-o creeze mental toţi artiştii, începi să te simţi ca într-un miraj care, deşi e temporar, te face să pornești înainte și nu fii atent la lecțiile învățate. Pe când eșecul, dacă este privit ca pe o lecție, sau ca un pas intermediar, este fenomenal.

La un moment dat aş fi vrut să mă pierd într-un peisaj de poveste, ca într-un miraj pe care marea îl creează într-o zi de vară toridă, însă căldura zilei începea să se simtă cu acuitate, iar asta îmi dădea de ştire că nu trebuie să mă hazardez la o gândire utopică unde esenţa şi aparenţa coincid...

Învaţă să faci din arta ta povestea minunată a unei fiinţe a naturii compatibilă cu nobleţea, solemnitatea şi spiritualitatea unei imagini a „Celui de Neimaginat”.

Sunt doar o frunză, poate cea mai vizibilă într-un plan mai înalt de existenţă, din cauza stării mele de spirit. Mă vezi, mă simţi, mă reţii în memoria ta, nu-i aşa? Sunt imaginea unei mişcări sensibile faţă de chemarea realizată de schimbarea anotimpurilor, ispirazione o omaggio all'artista , oferind timpului exemplul unei libertăţi totale de apropiere către artă, către frumos şi bine, cu condiţia să fiu considerată drept cheie şi condiţie primă a oricărei libertăţi de expresie.

Atractivă, bine îngrijită, vederea mea este chiar vederea ta căreia i se adaugă simţirea unei providenţe pe care şi eu am simţit-o de atâtea ori „prezentă” în simţul artistului de a vedea o realitate pregnantă şi vibrantă, extinsă într-o expresie visătoare, melancolică sau suferindă. Ochii impregnaţi puternic cu naturalism nu uită niciodată o minune a naturii, iar privirea, chiar şi cea mai îndepărtată, nu poate evita intrarea ochiului în contact cu arta. Cu prisosinţă, arta de a face dintr-o pictură oarecare o poveste de vis, sau dintr-o poveste oarecare o imagine asemănătoare unei picturi sublime.

Un joc de culori într-un peisaj de toamnă, sau o speranţă obosită într-un joc de-a v-aţi ascunselea?

Există un soi de privire pe care ochiul nu o surprinde decât prin înrudirea cu o realitate artistică. Se numeşte fotografie, sau creaţie ştiinţifică. Aici sunt menţionată doar în trecere, rareori în scopul asigurării solemnităţii, şi doar de către iubitorii de selfies. Cu discreţie, cu bun gust, pledând pentru autonomia esteticului, am fost nevoită să-mi fac un obicei de a mă introduce singură în peisajul unui tablou cuprins de privirea vizionară a unui artist care ştie să exprime foarte bine absolut tot ce ştie toată lumea, dar pe care lumea nu o poate face.

Atât de mare îmi este dorinţa de a fi imortalizată într-un tablou comandat să fie genial, sau măcar într-un poem de geniu care marchează cultura lumii. Cred că aici se intersectează filosofia marilor artişti cu gândurile mele.

Leadership: Ceea ce scoate în evidenţă imaginea ta se poate asocia cu arta de a imortaliza stări decupate artistic dintr-o anume zonă a sensibilităţii naturii care te poate transfigura într-un entuziast al trăirilor pure?

Dacă nu ştii să fii o frunză, plăcută la atingere, în înţelesul propriu al cuvântului “Creaţie”, plasând pensula între o multitudine de culori sensibile la vedere, atunci nu ştii nimic despre cum să fii o forţă a naturii pe care artistul şi-o exercită în scopul de a realiza o capodoperă. O frunză poate să exprime o exclamaţie, o întrebare sau un răspuns. Ştie să se bucure în fiecare clipă de imaginea statică sau dinamică pe care o surprinde artistul în încercarea de a articula un detaliu care-şi face apariţia deseori în momentele cele mai nepotrivite.

Aceeaşi frunză, din marele amestec de culori al lumii, îmi călăuzeşte gândurile, sufletul, viziunea, spre un fragment din "1001 de nopţi", pentru că frunza are darul de a spune povestea copacului din care a căzut, iar copacul l-a cunoscut bine pe omul care l-a plantat. Iar acel om, pe când era un biet tânăr, sărac dar visător, a făcut o călătorie până la marginea Deșertului Siriei, deșert care se întinde până la Eufrat, şi unde domnea califul Harun al-Raşid din Dinastia Abbasizilor. În acest deşert el şi-a scris propria poveste.

- Poţi tu să-mi spui, o, tinere, de unde ai dobândit toate lucrurile acestea, câtă vreme nu eşti decât un supus dintre supuşii mei? Îl întreabă Harun al-Rasid. Cum se face, dar, c-ai ajuns, în atât de puţină vreme, şi atâta de tânăr încă, la treapta aceasta de bogăţie, de falǎ şi putere? Tu, care erai cel mai leneş şi mai molâu din câţi se pot găsi pe faţa pământului?

- Am să-ţi spun povestea mea, o, emire al drept-credincioşilor, care este o poveste atât de minunată şi de plină de întâmplări nemaipomenit de vrăjite încât, dacă ar fi scrisă cu acul pe colţul din lăuntru al ochiului, ar fi o învăţătură de mari foloase pentru acela care ar voi să se bucure de ea.

Şi toate acestea pentru că o frunză marchează trecerea dintre lumi, fiind luată în seamă doar de memoria unei conştiinţe care ştie să scrie o poveste despre "destin" cu testul credinţei, al înţelepciunii şi al elanului creator.

Leadership: Poţi să explorezi zonele fine ale sensibilităţii tale pe principiul asocierii care guvernează spiritualitatea, solemnitatea și puterea sentimentelor autentice care fac ca o mie de oameni să se transforme într-unul singur?

Frunza poate să memoreze, poate să mă asculte, la fel cum o ascult şi eu pe ea, fiindcă frunzei nu-i pasă cine o vede, atâta vreme cât nimeni nu povesteşte despre ea. Când o ridic, uşor, cu blândeţe, cu sensibilitatea proprie pictorului, îi provoc o fericire imensă, ca la atingerea unei ploi delicate de vară. Şi fiindcă ea simte căldura mea, realitatea mea, inima mea, îmi răspunde pe tonul unui poet plin de nădejde în mesajul operei sale: "Vădit că fiecare lucru îşi are tainicul lui strop de poezie, cântecul lui. Să-l simţi, e un mare dar; să ne faci şi pe noi să-l simţim, asta e ceva din puterea lui Dumnezeu."

O înţeleg, îi ştiu rostul vieţii pe pământ, fiindcă şi eu sunt din pământ, şi ea se întoarce la mine. Frunza continuă să-şi urmărească calea pietruită de destinul unui pribeag, de destinul unui faraon, de destinul unui războinic, de destinul unui bijutier, sau de destinul unui martir. Urmărind-o pe drum, aşa cum este luată de vânt, cu întregul ei conţinut artistic, în bătaia solemnităţii, descopăr cu uşurinţă la fiecare pas o mulţime de fiinţe, alte chipuri şi culori, alte conexiuni, alte lucruri despre mine însumi.

Şi, dătătoare de linişte, de lumină, de clipe de luciditate, are puterea să-mi facă cu ochiul, dar în aşa fel încât privirea mea să nu-i afle dezlegarea. Decât foarte puţin. Frunza trezeşte în mine o mulţime de gânduri, nesigure şi fugitive, dar tandre şi pline de înţelepciune. Probabil că îşi are corespondentul în fenomenele contracţiei sufleteşti ale unei muze rubensiene, dincolo de straturile fine ale unui machiaj natural: notele fine de viaţă intimă, notele fine de pitoresc, notele fine de misterios şi pretenţios îşi încep primele contracţia, după examinarea observaţiilor extrem de fine ale unui spirit viu şi alert.

Eu sunt spiritul unei frunze care s-a pus în locul unui artist genial, foarte experimentat în a face din arta sa povestea minunată a unei frunze compatibilă cu nobleţea, solemnitatea şi spiritualitatea unei imagini a „Celui de Neimaginat".

Leadershipul este imaginea "Celui de Neimaginat" concretizată într-o operă artistică al cărui mesaj, ce face proba timpului, poate fi exprimat în felul următor: "Cel mai greu lucru din lume este să accepți să fii mereu același tu, sub alt chip şi altă înfăţişare."

Priveşte-mă sincer, şi nu te preface că nu mă vezi dacă vrei cu adevărat să înţelegi modalitatea prin care artistul ajunge la nivelul Marii Arte printr-o tehnică aparte, numită Syrapher-Nupitho s, sau "vocea Domnului în fiecare expresie a naturii".

Îmi ridic uşor privirea şi mă uit în ochii frunzei din dreapta mea. Ai dreptate, chiar aşa sunt ochii tăi, seamănă bine cu ochii mei, fiindcă ochii DOMNULUI aleargă încoace și încolo pe tot pământul, pentru a se arăta puternic de partea celor a căror inimă este desăvârșită spre el.

Priveşte-mi ochii în oglindă ca să îmi cuprinzi imensitatea vederii

Nu poţi cunoaşte lucrurile "întrând în ele", ci numai felul în care acestea îţi apar ca percepţie a deosebirii dintre tine şi mediul în care îţi oglindeşti trăirile.

Eram înconjurat de o ceaţă cumplită. Un blur amăgitor trecea prin mine cu puterea unui duh care te privează de Dumnezeu dacă nu ştii să invoci energia Arhanghelilor, s-o aduni în interiorul tău şi s-o vizualizezi cum se extinde adânc în inima Universului. Un pendul invizibil care mi s-a arătat de două ori în acelaşi vis, caracterizat de trecerea timpului printr-un delir incoerent şi mişcări dezordonate, mi-a spus multe despre ceea ce am uitat de mult şi, făgăduindu-mi infinitul, mi-a lăsat răspunderea de a decide unde doresc să mă situez la nivelul unui model de simulare a realităţii într-o lume a fanteziei şi imaginaţiei.

Pierzându-mă printre alte umbre, sporite de alte senzaţii de ireal, fără să atrag atenţia asupra mea şi fără să recurg la măsuri drastice pentru a rămâne ascuns într-o iluzie deşartă, mi se părea totuşi că sunt supravegheat de un urmăritor a cărui vizibilitate rămânea în afara oricărei priviri. Senzaţia era aceea că cineva, bine ascuns în viaţa mea, a agăţat pendulul invizibil în multe locuri unde timpul n-a funcţionat niciodată, şi că acolo, în mijlocul unei tăceri adânci, în vârtejul unei intrigi prea complicate, singurul lucru care putea capta atenţia era încercarea de inversare a privirii mele mistice dinspre obscuritate spre seninul de dincolo de mine.

Totul se petrecea într-un spațiu nedefinit, al sufletului pus la grea încercare de o voinţă abstractă, de o prezenţă situată în afara înţelegerii mele, care voia parcă să-mi sugereze să mă retrag într-o buclă a autoînchiderilor în mine însumi, din imposibilitatea existenței unui infinit real. Era singurul gând pe care mi-l puteam permite, acela că purtam în mine "începutul şi sfârşitul" unui cerc mişcător unde ambiţiile celui exilat recent erau puse în balanţă cu oboseala celui aflat în exil de multă vreme, precum personajul dintr-un roman scris de Louisa Lim.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o imagine care să-ţi arate în background ce simţi faţă de tine însuţi, prin însăşi esenţa raţiunii de a reflecta un spaţiu figurativ într-un permanent joc al dedublării?

Şi nu degeaba fiecare pas pe care voiam să-l fac înainte devenea tot mai anevoios, fiindcă invoca amintiri neclare despre un moment care ar fi putut fi trecut, dar era viitor. O perdea fină de stropi care se dispersa cu greu în atmosferă îmi înceţoşa înţelegerea asupra lui Dumnezeu şi îmi bloca umblarea cu El, în timp ce o altă perdea de vânt împingea lumina în unduiri simetrice şi ameţitoare. Aşadar, eram la mijloc, între două perdele discrete, într-un timp al tainelor fără de seamăn, şi eram însoţit peste tot de un pendul invizibil care oscila sub acţiunea unor forţe externe.

Simţeam faţă de mine un soi de remuşcare, fiindcă aş fi putut să mă oglindesc în altcineva, și să ne potenţăm reciproc, cu toate acestea am acceptat să rămân singur, cu reflexia mea.

Atunci am înţeles că visul din câte fac parte, graniţa subţire dintre ruptură şi deschidere, este o Sivoyectha Unhedins, o recreare simbolică a realităţii, nu o copie pasivă, fotografică, ci o aventură totală şi tainică, o proiecţie a curiozităţilor nepotolite şi a dorinţelor nemărturisite. În tot acest cadru incert, unde visul concurează realul, eram doar un fragment al unei oglinzi cu iluminare de fundal în care refuzam să mă uit, o formă intermediară de universalitate limitată şi analogică. Curios este că în profunzimea înceţoşată a acestui cadru ireal, modificat, restrâns, încovoiat, nu vizibilul era oglindit, ci acea parte a sufletului meu care tânjește să fie un spirit liber.

Leadership: Reuşeşti să transmiţi o emoţie prin imagine, acolo unde are sens paralelismul dintre experimentarea unei viziuni artistice şi extinderea unui orizont remanent dincolo de tine?

Până la urmă, este ceva bun în toate astea, nu? Chiar dacă nu pot şti cu certitudine cine voi fi mâine, dacă voi fi numai reflexia unei oglinzi care oferă o imagine diferită a realităţii, sau dacă voi fi doar reproducerea unui tablou plin de viaţă, cu o scenă din 1001 de nopţi, un singur lucru rămâne cert: am învăţat să trăiesc înăuntrul unei enigme care acoperă cu văluri dense memoria mea dintr-un timp al fabulosului, explicativ într-un permanent joc al dedublării. În vis, fiecare zi este diferită, şi în fiecare zi mă nasc din nou, fără să-mi recunosc experienţele anterioare.

Aşadar, eram prins într-un vis plin de oglinzi aşezate asimetric printre tablouri cu picturi necunoscute. Nu le voi număra. Nu. Azi nu. În orice caz le-am memorat pe toate, apoi am închis ochii şi-am rămas aşezat acolo unde aerul devenea tot mai dens, mai plumburiu, mai ceţos, părând că fiecare metru din acest spaţiu era străbătut de o undă invizibilă de melancolie, complet imprevizibilă, propagată ca un ecou interminabil în neantul eternităţii. Deci, nu mi-am pierdut simţul finalităţii, având corespondentul primordial în lumea spirituală, ci doar am avut ideea genială de a nu mă limita la nivelul lucrurilor fizice, la zona imediatului şi a tangibilului.

Leadership: Poţi să parcurgi în sens invers drumul propriu-zis al analizei obiectelor, aşa cum ele se înfăţişează simţurilor, criteriul principal de abordare a realităţii fiind de la "parte" la "întreg"?

Imaginaţia poate merge şi mai departe. Dacă am devenit un vis, ca o simultaneitate de stări sub acelaşi cer, fie printr-un eveniment extrinsec ochiului, fie printr-o cromatică plăcută ochiului, fără culori stridente, asta se datorează faptului că am continuat să fiu o imagine dintr-o oglindă concavă care apare diferită de forma ei reală, putând fi imortalizată doar de un artist capabil să măsoare prezentul dintr-un unghi al viziunii care derulează, înainte şi înapoi, căutări ale sinelui în labirintul artelor vizuale.

Dintr-o dată culoarea s-a manifestat prin influenţa ei asociativă. S-a făcut lumină pretutindeni, o lumină imensă părea să iradieze din fiecare lucru pe care îmi aluneca privirea. Oglinda devenise cadrul unui tablou mişcător, din care se detașează, figurile, detaliile. Iar ea avea acea calitatea misterioasă a oglinzii din romanul lui Michel Foucault:

"Oglinda nu arată nimic din ceea ce reprezintă tabloul propriu-zis. Privirea ei imobilă se îndreaptă, dincoace de tablou, în această regiune în mod necesar invizibilă pe care o formează faţa ei exterioară, spre personajele aşezate aici. În loc să se întoarcă spre obiectele vizibile, această oglindă traversează întreg câmpul reprezentării, neglijând ceea ce ar putea capta acolo, şi restituie vizibilitatea a ceea ce rămâne în afara oricărei priviri. Dar această invizibilitate pe care ea o înfrânge nu este una a ascunsului: oglinda nu ocoleşte vreun obstacol, nu schimbă vreo perspectivă, ci se adresează invizibilului rezultat în acelaşi timp din structura tabloului şi din existenţa sa ca pictură. În oglindă se reflectă ceea ce toate personajele tabloului sunt pe cale să fixeze, cu privirea aţintită înainte; este deci ceea ce am putea vedea dacă pânza s-ar prelungi în faţă, coborând puţin, astfel încât să cuprindă şi personajele care îi servesc drept model pictorului."

Sensul profund al leadershipului poate fi captat într-o singură imagine: în care Creatorul este şi propria lui Creaţie. Astfel, tot ceea am cuprins într-un tablou, real şi ireal în acelaşi timp, este de fapt reflexia relaţiei dintre anumite entităţi fizice şi o stare de spirit, destul de rebelă, care nu poate fi îngrădită de restricțiile fizice.

Priveşte-mi ochii în oglindă, ca să îmi cuprinzi imensitatea vederii. Şi astfel, vei avea deschidere directă spre calea de acces pentru forţele creaţiei care presupun: rearanjarea unor lucruri deja existente, dar şi un grad de singurătate, de retragere, de izolare într-o realitate virtuală.

A parcurge în sens invers drumul propriu-zis al analizei obiectelor, aşa cum se înfăţişează simţurilor, înseamnă să-ţi focalizezi atenţia asupra a ceea ce lipseşte din "imagine" şi să-ţi dai seama ce anume contează cu adevărat să adaugi, ca să înlocuieşti iluziile cu realitatea.

În pictură, extinderea unui orizont remanent dincolo de tine presupune apartenenţa ta la o realitate care a trecut dincolo de imediatul perceptiv, spre un nivel de conştiinţă care este influenţat de dualitatea: bidimensional şi tridimensional.

Priveşte-te în gânduri, fără să fii umbrit de ele

Rămâi consecvent cu ceea ce este esențial pentru tine: să îţi aparții ţie, să îţi înfrângi nevoia de a te identifica cu ceva diferit de tine.

Aud ecoul minţii mele pe boarea vântului de vară. Şi, cel mai important, când asculţi ceva liniştitor, este pentru că sufletul tău este acolo, în bătaia soarelui, lângă mare, lângă nisip, abia căutând acel ceva deosebit care să nu te consume, o sclipire, o vorbă frumoasă, o idee conturată de un gând care îți trece prin minte și pe care nu-l poţi împărtăşi decât cu tine. Totul începe de la un gând care apare în câmpul conştiinţei tale.

Da. Îmi place linişte, la fel cum îmi place senzaţia de spaţialitate a unei galaxii, care este la rândul ei o parte a universului, fiind un moment important pentru întreaga creaţie pe care gândul o realizează pe urmele unui vis înălţător, brav, stimulator, în încercarea de a-şi demonstra adecvarea la un mediu curat şi liniştit. Şi dacă ceva din mine constituie un univers, atunci liniştea este doar o parte a unei galaxii nesfârșite, cu metafora conştiinţei unui simbol al minţii paşnice, al spiritului regresiv, al incapacităţii de a înţelege semnele timpului.

Iar atunci când eşti secondat de conştiinţa unui univers nou, descoperire de sine legată de descoperirea unui univers care a devenit cu adevărat universul, devii mai priceput în a înţelege strălucirea mării în care se reflectă culorile nesfârşite ale apusurilor de soare, imaginea unei noi întâlniri cu tine însuţi, imaginea unei lumi noi, găsită departe de cea pentru care fusesei pregătit.

Leadership: Tema creaţiei tale stă în a găsi un ritm al comunicării prin tine însuţi, un soi de acompaniament pe fundalul căruia se evidenţiază anumite secvenţe dintr-un nesfârşit dialog imaginar cu Celălalt?

Reiese că sunt un fin observator al gândurilor mele, luminat de o rază de soare în şirul interminabil al gândurilor despre mine însumi, sortate și canalizate într-un singur punct, Tedudhenthelis , un perfect şi atotprezent Aici şi Acum. La fel cum cineva se plimbă pe malul apei privindu-te, la fel stau și eu pe un şezlong observându-mi gândurile şi sentimentele fără să le judec. Este un fel de depărtare care îşi caută apropierea şi care nu comunică decât printr-un soi de empatie transcendentă, curioasă, spontană. Drumul spre Celălalt trece prin tine însuţi…

Dar, mai ales, tabloul în care mă încadrez, cu liniştea de pe malul mării, este cu atât mai interesant cu cât gândurile îmi sunt oprite în faţa unei cărţi a scriitoarei Simona Popescu, în care stau scrise următoarele cuvinte:

"Sunt acum, departe, în viitor. Vorbesc din inima bătrâneţii. Am amintiri a ceea ce încă nu s-a întâmplat. Am devansat. E un joc vechi, foarte vechi. S-ar putea numi bătrânul-întinereşte. De fapt, nu timpul trecut, timpul pierdut îl cauţi tu – că nu-i nimic trecut, nimic pierdut – ci un sens în încâlceala asta din care te hrăneşti şi care te destramă, uitarea unei fiinţe, veche şi nouă, un fel de coral uman înmugurit, tot mai tânăr şi mai bătrân."

Marea mă priveşte şi ea, cu gândurile ei. La fel scoicile, nisipul, soarele, al căror gânduri sunt purtate către mine de o trăire a sentimentului în afara cuvintelor, o trăire a experienţei de viaţă care, oricât de lungă, are loc în afara vârstelor. Şi, dintr-o dată, într-o străfulgerare de gând, revăd în memorie cuvintele care mă bântuie cu adevărat: "Importantă este opera pe care o execuţi cu acest material confesiv ce conţine o prefacere a bătrâneţii în tinereţe."

Leadership: Ce trăsătura te caracterizează, în funcţie de ce vezi în această imagine în care tu însuţi creezi posibilitatea de a fi una cu persoana care te priveşte din dimensiunea ei imanentă spre autenticul unei deveniri transcendentale?

Este destul de clar. Am descoperit că pot să meditez, să am o stare interioară de pace, chiar dacă îmi trec o mie de gânduri prin cap despre mare, despre nisip, scoici şi soare. Şi pot să devin propriul observator al gândurilor mele, identificându-mă cu mediul ambiant, dar nu precum un chimist care aprinde cuptorul, suflă din foale, încinge creuzetul, analizează şi distruge materia asupra căreia spiritul proiectează forţele şi energiile sale. Ci asemenea unui fragment dintr-un fel de schimb de suflete la care asist de la distanţă. Căci sufletul meu trăieşte în adâncul sufletului mării, a nisipului, a scoicilor.

Simbolul inocenţei netulburate, metoda perfectă de a-mi reflecta propriile emoţii, liniştea cea mai deplină, îmi pune stăpânire pe gânduri, mă poartă dintr-un context în altul, deschizându-mi o altă lume conectată la infinit.

Nisipul este neschimbat, la fel și scoicile de anul trecut. Au rămas în același loc, fără remușcări. S-au mărit plajele, dar nisipul e același, scoicile aceleași, doar că într-o cantitate mai mare, aş zice. Și toți calcă același nisip, pe aceleași scoici, pe aceeași plajă, fiindcă timpul nu schimbă prea multe de la un an la altul în opera naturii. Iar în locul în care stau eu întins pe şezlong, se simte aceeaşi linişte ca cea de anul trecut, aceeaşi boare proaspătă, jucăuşă, încântătoare.

Și dacă aș vrea o clipă, măcar, să fiu nisip, la fel de mult cum aș încerca să fiu o scoică, așa cum numai alchimiștii reușesc să transforme plumbul în aur punând în acțiune curenții puternici ai spiritului, atunci aș cere mai întâi îngăduința mării, fiindcă ei îi aparține plaja. Dar bătrâna mare este cu mult mai înțeleaptă ca mine. Înainte de a găsi în ea martora transformării mele într-un timp al scoicilor devenite nisip, marea mi-a vorbit simplu așa cum le-a vorbit sute de ani alchimiștilor:

- Scoicile și nisipul îmi aparțin mie, dintotdeauna. Dar omul nu a învățat de atâta amar de vreme să rămână consecvent cu ceea ce este esențial pentru el: să își aparțină lui însuși, să își înfrângă nevoia Egoului de a se identifica cu ceva diferit de dânsul.

Autenticul unei deveniri transcendentale vizează acea oglindă invizibilă a egoului tău care te afectează în mod subtil, acea lărgire sau extindere a egoului, iluzia de înălţare deasupra a tot ceea ce este real, încât ceea ce te face să te simţi altcineva este tocmai ceea ce te inspiră (dar te şi îndurerează).

Priveşte-te în gânduri, fără să fii umbrit de ele dacă vrei să trăieşti în dimensiunea artei. Asta am făcut şi eu când, alături de gândurile mele, am simţit atât de confortabil briza mării şi am devenit asemenea nisipului sau scoicilor care mă înconjoară, sinonimul timpului fără vârstă care a reuşit să-mi dezvăluie o altă latură a activităţii mele artistice.

În acest sens, o singură trăsătură mă caracterizează în întregime: atenția mentală concentrată.

Privirea care se oglindeşte în ochiul ce surprinde imediatul

Pentru ca întreaga creaţie a minţii tale să ia o formă expresivă, mai întâi învăţă să priveşti cu atenţie o imagine mişcătoare.

O frunză, plină de irizaţii, îşi ondulează forma în bătaia vântului primăvăratic. Cade încet, în sublimul unei demonstraţii de o clipă, apoi se înălţa iar, în sublimul unui act artistic. Pentru că este văzută prin ochii unui artist, al cărui privire cuprinde tot ceea ce frunza naşte într-o imaginaţie fotografică, el având puterea de a mişca în orizontul creaţiei orice strop de culoare.

Catifelată, moale, duioasă. O văd ca şi cum m-aş vedea pe mine zburând cu aripi de înger într-o pictură renascentistă. Frunza are şi un nume, Marhessyl , sau "cea care zboară spre apus".

Atât îţi trebuie ca să faci din tine însuţi o capodoperă. O frunză. Să o simţi e mare lucru; să faci şi pe alţii s-o simtă, acesta este atributul artistului de a fi mijlocul de transpunere a frumosului în materie. A-i surprinde farmecul, a-i admira forma în bătaia vântului, în razele aurii ale soarelui, este o mărturie a sublimului dialog dintre profunzimea privirii la care visez şi răgazul de a-mi îmbelşuga sufletul în locuri în care nu am pus piciorul niciodată.

În sfârşit, libertatea de a privi este motivul ochiului de a-şi povesti viziunea despre ce înseamnă arta, despre ce înseamnă să fii narator vizual.

Am cunoscut o altă frunză, cuprinsă de vraja unui magician, răscolită de cuvintele magice ale unui iluminat, foarte apropiată de evoluţia unui suflet aventurat într-o lume plină de măşti, de dincolo de cuvinte. Încă nu ştiu dacă ea era conştientă de modul cum am perceput-o eu: ca pe o simplă siluetă feminină, de o eleganţă nobilă, în marea de oameni ce trecea prin stângă şi dreapta mea. Sau ca pe-o iluzie. Sau ca pe o provocare actoricească căreia trebuia să-i răspund pozitiv, încercând să imit freamătul ei, balansarea ei dintr-o parte în alta. Sau ca o participare discretă, neostentativă, la un dans al pasiunii.

Încă nu ştiu dacă ea m-a văzut cu ochii cu care am văzut-o eu, dar ştiu că privirea mea era reflectată în culorile ei, verde şi roşu, potrivite pentru "machiajul" ochilor ei.

Leadership: Eşti în măsură să-ţi manifeşti aptitudinile artistice folosind acea poziţionare a privirii în mijlocul naturii, asupra unei prezenţe active în organizarea creaţiei, încât să oferi o viziune care impune puritatea și simplitatea lucrurilor?

Ca să-ţi dai seama de valoarea unui om care acţionează conform planului naturii, înspre scopul Creaţiei şi întoarcerea la Creator, întreabă-l despre o frunză care tocmai s-a desprins de creangă. Iar ca să faci o frunză să intre în spațiul inimii tale, în clipa când o poţi privi ca printr-o pânză pictată în multiple culori, iată cum trebuie să o abordezi. Din mai multe perspective:

- Dacă eşti pictor şi nu ştii să faci dintr-o frunză un tablou plin de armonie, înseamnă că nu ştii să vezi frumuseţea naturii, şi probabil nu ştii nimic despre psihologia culorilor.

- Dacă eşti doctor, şi nu ştii să observi bine o frunză, mai ales particularităţile ei în momente diferite, înseamnă că nu ştii mare lucru nici despre boala de care suferă pacienţii tăi.

- Dacă eşti scriitor, şi nu ştii să renaşti o relaţie cu un personaj în felul de a fi al frunzei, înseamnă că îţi lipseşte darul de a trăi prin cuvinte. Nu stăpâneşti arta prin care se revelează expresia cuvântului.

- Dacă eşti sculptor şi nu ştii să cioplești o frunză într-o bucată de lemn, înseamnă că straturile subţiri ale minţii tale sunt nelucrate.

- Dacă eşti mecanic şi nu ştii să vezi în mişcarea frunzei luată de vânt o nouă utilizare a motorului, înseamnă că îţi lipseşte viziunea.

- Dacă eşti compozitor şi nu reuşeşti să-ţi sincronizezi notele muzicale, să amplifici sau să reduci efectele sonore după nesfârşitele nuanţe de ruginiu ale frunzei care cade pe oglinda calmă a apei unui lac, înseamnă că-ţi lipseşte flerul de a contopi mai multe tehnici de mastering, mixing.

- Dacă eşti regizor şi nu poţi să impulsionezi jocul de imagini pe care îl creează diversele mişcări ale frunzei luate de vântul primăvăratic, înseamnă că îţi lipseşte flerul de a întoarce percepţia publicului de la "nevoia de a ști" la "frumosul de a ști".

Pentru ca întreaga creaţie a minţii tale să ia o formă expresivă, mai întâi învăţă să priveşti cu atenţie o frunză, învaţă să pătrunzi în existenţa ei, în forma ei, în interiorul celulelor ei, apoi ridic-o în aer doar cu puterea gândului şi du-o până acolo unde ea poate deveni centrul admiraţiei unei capodopere.

Poţi face din leadership o încununare a creaţiei atunci când obiectul atenţiei tale este cuprins între evident şi subtil, cu condiţia să-l iei în considerare drept centru al admiraţiei unei capodopere.

Privirea care se oglindeşte în ochiul ce surprinde imediatul măsoară distanţa dintre evident şi subtil, prin faptul că tot ceea ce cuprinzi în cadrul unei imagini poate avea valenţe de personalizare a realităţii, de la materialism la idealism.

Privirea dă sens ochilor pătrunzători

Vederea persistă dacă nu încetezi să privești natura într-un fel anume, fără ca ochii străini de arta ta să o influențeze.

Liniile drepte sunt niște monștri spunea de mult Delacroix, iar dacă este așa atunci mă voi feri să trasez o linie dreaptă de-a lungul lucrurilor pe care le cuprinde ochiul de artist, aproape regulat, ci le voi izola într-un spațiu invizibil, în centrul unei lentile convexe, impalpabile, care le deformează și le face suprarealiste. Într-adevăr, este ceva suprarealist să vezi, să simţi, să exprimi o viziune asupra lucrurilor printr-un soi de Tahtre Talutra Uncupatysat, trăirea momentului într-un plan imaginativ, aşa încât lucrurile să pară fantastice dintr-o dimensiune aparte.

În această fază a creației nu voi încerca să sugerez profunzimea tuturor lucrurilor prin natura lor statică, precum un far de coastă abandonat, sau prin natura lor dinamică, precum un evantai ce transmite scenei o ciudată impresie de oscilație. Nici nu voi încerca să exprim profunzimea printr-un clarobscur care luminează și umbrește. Ci voi încerca să redau în culori neutre senzația de calm, schematizând în unde concentrice lumea complexă a gândurilor mele care se întrepătrund armonios, ca într-o poveste nesfârșită, trăită doar de mine.

Spun asta fiindcă numai eu pot să exprim ceea ce observă ochii mei, numai eu pot să redau artistic ceea ce îmi inspiră privirea axată pe detaliile subtile. De aceea, am plasat cu grijă o inscripție în centrul compoziției mele: "vederea persistă dacă nu încetezi să privești natura într-un fel anume, fără ca ochii străini de arta ta să o influențeze." Totodată, prin prisma unei scheme concepute cu spontaneitatea viziunii, și mai ales dacă îmi voi schimba optica în privința cultivării percepției și interpretării imediate ale realului, voi reuși să formez fundalul unic al unei picturi suprarealiste unde culorile vor fi întinse pe suprafețe largi, creând un peisaj vizual distinct și expresiv.

Leadership: Poţi să captezi momentul prezent într-o imagine vibrantă, paralel cu realitatea vizibilă, încât să creezi un tablou capabil să provoace o gamă largă de simțiri și reacții în privitor?

Sunt pe litoralul Dubaiului, mai exact în Pearl Jumeirah. În timp ce mă uit în depărtare, participând la tot ce-mi este exterior, linia orizontului se întinde în fața ochilor mei cu o eleganță desăvârșită, în timp ce valurile mării se armonizează cu cerul albastru prin mișcarea lor constantă și ritmică, însuși cerul fiind o sursă de evadare din banalitatea cotidiană. Totodată, culoarea apei se amestecă delicat cu nuanțele nisipului, formând un tablou vibrant și plin de viață, cu o pânză al cărei subiect este cu totul deosebit prin faptul că pune experiența impresionismului în centrul atenției.

În timp ce nisipul fin se strecoară printre degetele picioarelor mele, precum apa printr-o țesătură pentru a se separa de părticelele solide sau de corpuri străine, privirea este atrasă de câteva scoici care par a fi sculptate cu migală dintr-un vis minunat. Captând acest moment într-o imagine vibrantă, paralel cu realitatea vizibilă, voi putea să creez tablouri capabile să provoace o gamă largă de simțiri și reacții în privitor. Asta înseamnă să surprind și să reflectez în mod expresiv esența și atmosfera momentului prezent într-o fotografie, sau într-o imagine picturală, cu consimțământul artei de a transcende realitatea și a transforma într-o formă creativă ceea ce este perceput.

Evident. Pictorul din mine ar înțelege fiecare detaliu din acest peisaj marin, dincolo de albastrul vibrând în lumină, clipind de pete aurii, și l-ar transforma într-o lucrare remarcabilă în care tușele groase, fugare, curg, șerpuiesc și se învolburează ca și cum ar beneficia de o viață autonomă, de o agitație fără sfârșit. El ar folosi pensule fine și culori vibrante, adesea întâlnite în pictură în ulei și acrilic, pentru a reda strălucirea soarelui și reflexiile jucăușe ale apei în timp ce prinde esența fiecărui val, mărimea și energia lor, captându-le mișcarea într-un mod unic, prin trăsături sensibile de penel care dau viață acestui peisaj.

Leadership: Poți surprinde aspectul vizual din dimensiunea cauzală a unei opere care aparține naturii, încât trăirea emoțiilor să nu devină captive într-un tablou datorită vulnerabilității de a le dezvălui?

Dar arta nu este doar despre aspectul vizual cuprins în dimensiunea cauzală a unei opere care aparține naturii, cu permisiunea lui Dumnezeu, ci și despre trăirea emoțiilor (ca la vederea unor frumuseți oceanice) care pot deveni captive într-un tablou datorită vulnerabilității artistului, fremătând de o inexplicabilă bucurie, tânjind să realizeze ceva nemaivăzut. Cum este cazul acelui personaj feminin al lui Dumas, din romanul "Mâna Providenţei", care îşi dezvăluie la un moment dat latura artistică:

"Nu există decât spaţiul între noi, şi am încercat să pun în el infinitul: arta. Ideea perfecţiunii m-a acaparat şi mi-a creat un univers aparte şi deasupra lumii reale. Nu te-am uitat, dar acum aveam pentru tine un sentiment blând şi melancolic ca la amintirea unei fiinţe scumpe. Mi se părea că ai murit. Da, printr-un bizar efect al imortalităţii artei, mi se părea că tu care trăiai în mijlocul lumii, ai sărbătorilor şi placerilor ai murit, iar eu, care nu existam decât prin artă, care eram izolată de toţi şi de toate, eu care nu mai aveam emoţii, nici interes, decât pentru persoane himerice şi pentru suferinţe imaginare, eram vie."

Aici este vorba despre expresivitate vizuală: încerci să transpui emoțiile, energia și caracterul momentului în imagine. Deci, trebuie să apelezi la tehnici precum compoziția, culorile și lumina pentru a evidenția aspecte importante pe care inima ta le simte profund.

Privind valurile mării cum se zbat în câmpul vederii mele pentru a ieși în evidență, și simțind briza ușoară cum încearcă să creeze un efect de realitate, inima îmi bate mai puternic și sufletul meu se umple de bucurie și liniște ca atunci când te retragi într-o contemplare care transformă opera de artă într-o experiență profundă și personală. În aceste momente profunde, aducătoare de trăiri valoroase, mă simt conectat cu esența vieții și cu forța creatoare a naturii, mai ales din punct de vedere al unei forțe pozitive produsă de o tehnică picturală bazată pe diluarea cu apă a culorilor, fapt ce duce către rezultate de-a dreptul poetice. Tot ce trebuie să fac acum este să decid ce anume am puterea să schimb printr-o singură privire, şi nu orice privire, ci una care redefineste întreaga perspectivă, aducand în lumină noi posibilități și înțelesuri.

Procesul de elaborare a unei viziuni implică abilitatea de a capta și a transmite esența unui moment într-o imagine de neuitat, respectând totuși puterea artei de a transcende și a interpreta realitatea într-un mod unic și subiectiv.

Privirea dă sens ochilor pătrunzători atunci când ei își deschid poarta către profunzimea sufletului, surprinzând orice lucru din jur cu acea privire penetrantă care descoperă esența dincolo de aparențe. Un om cu viziune are capacitatea de a vedea dincolo de aspectele obișnuite și de a găsi modalități inovatoare de a aborda orice temă şi orice subiect, similar cu modul în care ochii pot descoperi detalii subtile în artă sau pot reinterpreta realitatea într-un mod unic.

Privirea interioară transcende limitele vizuale fizice

Fiecare pas pe care îl parcurgi în drumul tău se poate transforma într-o revelație a sinelui, dacă în urcușul tău găsești un dialog profund cu natura.

În labirintul verde al munților, unde timpul își pierde consistența și spațiul devine tot mai eteric, sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, își croiește drum nu doar prin păduri și stânci, ci și prin straturile propriei conștiințe. Alergarea montană, pentru ea, nu este doar un sport, ci o „Xenthoria Ulmivent”, o fuziune miraculoasă între efortul fizic și transcendența spirituală, unde fiecare respirație devine o rugăciune tăcută adresată zeilor necunoscuți ai naturii. Ea nu percepe alergarea doar ca pe un act de simplu efort fizic; este, mai degrabă, un dialog nesfârșit între ea și natură, un limbaj tainic al pașilor care o apropie de adevărata ei esență.

În procesul tainic al alergării, fiecare pas devine o notă în simfonia universală a auto-descoperirii. Este ca și când muntele însuși ar cheama-o la înălțare spirituală, fiecare cărare șerpuită, fiecare pantă abruptă, fiind un vers dintr-un poem ancestral despre curaj și perseverență. De parcă fiecare piatră, fiecare rădăcină expusă ar fi un profesor tăcut, oferind lecții despre echilibru și determinare. Bineînțeles, în fiecare mișcare, Oana resimte acel freamăt al solului sub picioare, ca și cum întreaga ființă a pământului s-ar întinde să o primească, să o îndrume, să-i arate drumul către o cunoaștere mai înaltă.

Iar când viteza ei se triplează, manifestându-se în ea acea forță interioară nebănuită, un zâmbet misterios îi înflorește dintr-odată pe chip, căci depășirea barierelor nu este doar o realizare fizică, ci o ruptură dulce de orice limitare mentală, un soi de transcendență extatică. Pașii rapizi eliberează sufletul de constrângeri. Fiecare pas, tot mai rapid, devine o formă de eliberare, o respirație adâncă a sufletului care se scutură de fricile invizibile, de umbrele vechilor îndoieli. Cel mai probabil, alergarea, prin ochii Oanei, este mai mult decât o competiție, este o călătorie spre sine, o victorie a spiritului asupra imperfecțiunilor percepute de ea ca fiind niște iluzii temporare.

Leadership: Voința cu care înfrunți un traseu dificil poate să devină o revelație vizuală a efortului personal, modelându-se asemenea unui tablou viu, în acord cu viziunea unui artist?

"El ritmo del corazón se sincroniza con el latido de la montaña," șoptește parcă aerul rarefiat al înălțimilor, în timp ce Oana își găsește calea prin labirintul vertical al naturii. Pe măsură ce avansează, senzația de apartenență la universul naturii se amplifică, tot așa cum într-un pictor se amplifică senzația de inspirație atunci când găsește echilibrul perfect între tehnică și emoție. Psihologic, fiecare moment trăit între păduri și stânci devine o mărturie a rezistenței sale interioare, acea forță nemărginită care, ca un izvor nevăzut, se revarsă din profunzimea ființei sale. Suflul acesta interior care o îndrumă este o "insuflețire" cu valențe sacre, o chemare tăcută spre un scop mai înalt, către acea perfecțiune imposibil de descris în cuvinte, dar atât de tangibilă în experiența de transcendență prin efort.

Primul criteriu în artă este autenticitatea. Diferența dintre o pictură ieftină și una foarte scumpă este dată în primul rând de autenticitate. De exemplu, un tablou de Monet va valora mult mai mult decât o copie. Pictura autentică se recunoaște ușor; de multe ori se fac și analize înainte de a se stabili dacă trece sau nu acest punct de pe lista lungă de criterii.

În cazul Oanei, autenticitatea nu este doar o stare, ci un proces perpetuu, unde fiecare sesiune de antrenament se aseamănă cu o piesă de artă - nu poate fi replicată, ci doar trăită. La fel cum o analiză minuțioasă a unui Monet dezvăluie originalitatea fiecărui detaliu, așa și transformările subtile din ritmul și perseverența Oanei dau naștere unui tablou viu al propriei sale evoluții, comparabil cu „Persistența Memoriei", unde timpul se topește și realitatea se îndoaie sub greutatea efortului și a voinței personale.

Adaptarea rapidă a vederii la schimbările de mediu reflectă flexibilitatea mentală. Este esențial să înțeleg că, pentru Oana, optimizarea antrenamentului nu este doar o chestiune de tehnică sportivă, ci o „Epedysasis Harrexhium”, o chemare eternă a depășirii de sine, acea unică șansă de a se reinventa continuu. Desigur, fiecare ajustare în rutina sa este precum o pensulă pe pânza existenței, demonstrând astfel că se poate obține o capodoperă personală dacă fiecare efort este îmbibat cu pasiune și autenticitate.

Leadership: Poți să transformi fiecare provocare a terenului pe care te deplasezi într-o oportunitate de creștere interioară, văzând dincolo de obstacolul fizic lecția spirituală pe care o oferă viața?

Când viteza Oanei se triplează, este ca și cum ar fi atins un punct culminant, o aliniere perfectă între efortul personal și ritmul cosmic al universului. Astfel, granițele dintre corp, minte și spirit se dizolvă, lăsând loc unei conștiințe expandate să cuprindă nu doar traseul, ci întreaga ei existență. Din acest motiv, consider că antrenamentele ei săptămânale de alergare au devenit meditații în mișcare, o uniune sacră între forță și claritate mentală. Un fel de yoga a alergării, unde fiecare inspirație aduce energia primordială a dealurilor în ființa ei, fiecare expirație eliberând orice urme de îndoială și teamă. În aceste momente, Oana nu mai aleargă pe munte, ci devine muntele însuși – neclintit, etern, plin de secrete ascunse în fiecare cută a rocii și în fiecare frunză tremurândă.

În acest context, îmi amintesc de cuvintele lui Henry David Thoreau din romanul "Walden": "Am mers în păduri pentru că voiam să trăiesc deliberat, să înfrunt doar faptele esențiale ale vieții și să văd dacă nu puteam învăța ce avea ea să mă învețe." Asemenea lui Thoreau în căutarea esențialului, Oana găsește în fiecare cursă montană o oportunitate de a distila esența propriei existențe, fiecare picătură de sudoare devenind o perlă de înțelepciune.

Câmpul vizual extins în timpul alergării reprezintă lărgirea perspectivei asupra vieții, în versiunea unei conexiuni cu Dumnezeu. Sau, mai degrabă, în căutarea perfecțiunii în alergare, Oana a descoperit că adevărata cursă se desfășoară în interiorul ei, unde fiecare victorie asupra limitelor proprii este o victorie asupra întregului univers. Percepția vizuală a vitezei amplifică senzația de transcendență, nu-i așa, Oana? Fiecare pas înainte reprezintă o respirație adâncă a spiritului tău, până în punctul în care simți eliberarea de tensiune, când simți acea ușurare a minții care îți aduce liniște.

Leadership: Reușești să transformi victoriile spirituale în performanțe corporale excepționale, creând astfel o operă de artă de artă vie care transcende imediatul?

Alergarea înseamnă deschiderea ochilor către noi orizonturi interioare. La ultimul concurs, "Trail la Cabană", Oana a câștigat un nou loc 1 la cea mai grea cursă, de 25 km. Un alt record personal. Iar drumul spre recorduri a fost iluminat nu doar de ambiția personală, ci de o flacără interioară invizibilă care pare să ardă cu intensitatea unei stele nou-născute. Această energie mistică, izvorâtă din adâncurile ființei sale, nu este doar un combustibil pentru mușchi, ci o forță de transformare care reconfigurează întreaga sa existență. La urma urmei, victoriile spirituale se manifestă prin performanțe corporale excepționale.

În fiecare cursă, Oana simte cum se conectează cu forțele invizibile ale naturii, devenind un canal prin care energia primordială a pământului se manifestă. Şi se manifestă ca un pictor în acțiune, reușind o capodoperă. Fiecare pas este o afirmare a vieții în ritmul artei, fiecare respirație fiind o comuniune cu esența universului. Numai în aceste momente de grație, timpul își pierde linearitatea, devenind un cerc perfect în care trecutul, prezentul și viitorul se contopesc într-un singur moment etern de pură existență.

Dacă ar trebui să dau un sens leadershipului, aș oferi următoarea povață: "Deschide-ți sufletul către ritmul infinit și amplitudinea alergării, înțelegând că fiecare pas este o poartă către dimensiuni necunoscute ale propriei ființe."

Privirea interioară transcende limitele vizuale fizice atunci când efortul alergării devine meditație în mișcare. Spun asta deoarece determinarea depășește percepția obstacolelor exterioare, mai ales când traseul devine tot mai solicitant, deoarece mintea focalizată transcende limitările fizice aparente.

Privirea îți oferă o cale, dar numai spiritul îți poate arăta direcția

Locul de unde privești îți oferă o perspectivă nouă, numai dacă transformi acel loc îndepărtat într-un simbol al măreției tale neînfrânte.

În momentele în care simți că ești testat până la limitele tale, tocmai atunci afli cât de departe poți merge, iar muntele devine simbolul acelei chemări interioare care te provoacă să crești dincolo de ceea ce credeai posibil. Sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, știe cel mai bine acest lucru, atunci când experimentează libertatea alergării, cu orice prilej de afirmare a puterii sale interioare. Fiecare detaliu al cursei, de la topografia terenului până la bătăile inimii sale, devine o piesă într-un puzzle al conexiunii universale, al sinergiei dintre om și natură, a cărui imagine finală revelează adevărata natură a existenței sale.

Creația implică un dialog constant între efortul fizic și înțelegerea spirituală. La ultima cursă, semimaratonul de 22 km la „Curtea Domnească", Oana a alergat o bună bucată de drum înaintea multor alergători, ajungând aproape de vârful muntelui singură, într-un spațiu al reconectării cu sine, un spațiu al unei libertăți altundeva imposibile. Demnitatea nu ține de locul în care te afli, ci de spiritul cu care îl însuflețești. Ceva din ea părea să-i atragă atenția constant: „Deschide-ți sufletul către chemarea tainică a muntelui, înțelegând că fiecare pas pe cărările sale devine o revelație a sinelui."

În acest context, creația nu este doar actul de a face din alergare o artă, un "Atinursum Insumaton", un mod unic de exprimare prin mișcare, prin grația și constanța prin care ritmul susținut dezvăluie armonia interioară, ci este forma în care mintea și corpul se unesc pentru a exprima un mesaj despre unitatea cu natura. Iar dacă ar fi să dau o formă artistică parcursului Oanei, așa cum ar face-o un artist atunci când pictează un ideal, aș spune că dincolo de pânza oboselii, se conturează o eleganță neobservată, fiindcă orice mișcare exprimă o unitate cu natura.

Leadership: Poate fi interpretată revelația ta interioară ca o „fereastră spre măreție", considerând că privirea ta devine un instrument de percepție artistică a unei realități secunde?

Tăcerea Oanei era mai elocventă decât orice cuvânt ar fi putut rosti, dar gândurile îi spuneau, o asaltau cu un singur mesaj profund, neașteptat, înălțat spre sublimul adevăr interior, de care doar inima părea să fie conștientă:

Toată această fărâmă de suflet exprimată cu atâta claritate în cuvinte, prin glasul unei artiste a cărei grație se manifestă în câmpul alergării, numaidecât face trimitere spre un fragment din „Portretul împăratului", descris de talentatul scriitor Wilhelm Hauff:

"Fiule, replică generalul, cum poți să fii mare într-un compartiment al cunoașterii mai mare decât orice alt om al secolului, fără să fii un om mare? Nu o mașinărie, nu trupul te face să fii mare, ci spiritul. Acele forme învechite ale Europei, gândite de bărbați deștepți cu mii de ani în urmă, s-au prăbușit, fiindcă erau forme golite de spirit. Ochii care nu sunt luminați de spiritul viu observă doar suprafața lucrurilor, iar privirea devine o fereastră spre măreție numai atunci când o folosești pentru a vedea dincolo de forme."

Leadership: Poate natura să devină un decor unic, în care corpul tău se integrează perfect, generând o compoziție figurativă ce îmbină grația cu forța interioară?

Gândurile Oanei s-au mai îndreptat către ea o dată în acele momentos de triunfo, atunci când vârful muntelui i-a revelat ceea ce inima știa deja, cu aceeași claritate a unui artist care, ajungând în fața pânzei albe, vede deja opera finalizată:

Timpul final este rezultatul unui complex proces de sincronizare între efortul fizic și motivația interioară, în care fiecare mișcare este o reacție la provocările mentale ale cursei. Iar pentru că timpul final este și o expresie a puterii Oanei de a se reinventa, într-o izolare aparentă, atunci manifestarea spiritului ei devine o forță transformatoare, un soi de revelație în mișcare. Prin urmare, adevărata claritate a vederii nu este fizică, ci o rezultantă a viziunii tale interioare neînfrânte.

Manifestarea unei determinări continue armonizează pulsul fizic cu ritmul sufletesc, transformând izolarea în revelații mobile ale spiritului neîngenuncheat de provocările exterioare. În acest sens, leadershipul devine un act de echilibru între viziune, determinare și abilitatea de a te propulsa neîncetat către înălțimi mari.

Privirea îți oferă o cale, dar doar spiritul îți poate arăta direcția atunci când ești la răscruce de drumuri, în ideea că fiecare alegere definește cine devii, corelat cu evoluția constantă a sinelui. Numai într-o izolare aparentă poți să descoperi adevărata esență a vieții, găsindu-ți libertatea supremă prin tăcerea gândurilor, ca o afirmare a spiritului tău neînfrânt în fața provocărilor.

Privirea mea este un limbaj tăcut al sufletului

Voința de a dăinui în ochii lumii dă forma pe care sensul tău interior o dă vieții.

Singurul adevăr pe care-l cunosc cu adevărat este că sunt bântuit de oameni. Ani de-a rândul i-am privit cu ochi cerești, prin oglinda unui număr infinit de reflecții, cutreierând gândurile lor și simțind suspinul adânc, misterios al tăcerilor îndelungate, al bucuriilor neexprimate, al sentimentelor nespuse. Ce se petrece în viaţa lor, ce scot la iveală în momentele dificile, în momentele alea de maximă tensiune când vulnerabilitatea măștilor scade până la zero, iar barometrul discernământului al cărui ac se mută de la „supus" spre „liber", rămâne pentru mine o experiență revelatoare și o amintire de suflet.

Nimeni nu ştie cine sunt, cu adevărat, dar eu am văzut pe toată lumea. Nimic nu a scăpat ochilor mei ageri, în trecerile mele prin lume. Tainice, rapide, însufleţitoare, trecerile mele se evaluează prin prisma a ceea ce am descoperit: totul se compensează, totul se face mai întâi cu inima, şi apoi cu mintea. Până la urmă, cel mai mare secret este să trăieşti o poveste uimitoare, şi să o scrii mai apoi atât de frumos, încât să simt nevoia să o recitesc chiar şi după mii de ani.

Un anumit eveniment, un gest de afecţiune sau o acţiune susţinută a vreunul erou solitar, îl fac vinovat faţă de orânduirea obiectivă, certă şi inviolabilă a lumii. Totul se filmează, se înregistrează cu ochii selectivi care, asemenea lentilelor selectiv colorate, văd doar ceea ce sufletul este pregătit să înțeleagă. Înainte ca ochii oamenilor să se stingă definitiv, în acord cu ceasornicul ceresc, am să le spun o simplă vorbă: "Viața e scurtă, iubiți-vă unii pe alții."

Leadership: Poți înfrunta ideea că persistența de a deveni ceea ce îți dorești este un catalizator pentru o profundă introspecție care ia forma unei arhive de amintiri greu de împărtășit cu generațiile viitoare?

În mica mea trecere prin lume, din timpul războiului, am întâlnit niște ochi care pictau speranță pe pânza disperării. Alți ochi, ca într-un cuibușor de rândunici, își ascundeau lacrimile sub pleoape tremurânde. Şi mai erau ochii aceia sclipitori, plini de viaţă, ai băiatului cu părul bălai, Rudy, care într-o clipă de visare îmbătătoare, s-a pictat în negru încercând să imite un campion mondial la atletism.

Îşi dorea nespus să ajungă cel mai rapid alergător din lume, vis pentru care se antrena zilnic pe marginile umede ale uliţelor. Pe drumuri şerpuitoare, la fel ca viaţa multor oameni. Părea străbătut de acea încordare senină a sufletului în care viaţa, cu contrarietăţile ei, apare plină de sens şi vrednică de trăit. Faceţi din el un Don Quijote interior, spuneţi-i un cuvânt despre izbândă, "Xegerolo", şi veţi găsi voinţa de a crede în eternitatea lumii. Persistența lui de a se vedea de neînvins a devenit o necesitate pentru ca fapta lui să capete măreția luptei pentru un principiu, pentru adevăr, pentru bine, pentru iubire.

Până la urmă, semnul adevăratei existențe este disperarea generatoare de acțiune spirituală, din care se naște speranța eroică de a mișca munții din loc.

De la o vreme, însă, drumurile s-au încâlcit și nicio călăuză părea să nu le mai descurce, în afara sentimentului de nostalgie pentru drumul neatins. Libertatea, dacă mai exista aşa ceva, nu putea fi suportată decât de mici clipe de bucurie, de care uneori îmi aduc aminte. Doar uneori. În ceea ce priveşte un artist cu har, el aude zgomotele trecătoare ale zilei, dar le trăiește intens ca și când ar simți vibrațiile majore ale universului.

Leadership: Conștientizezi cum rănile vieții pot deveni un catalizator pentru o privire dincolo de aparențe, conducând la o profundă introspecție care îți redefinește percepția asupra realității?

Ochii mei n-au putut să treacă cu vederea sunetul de acordeon izvorât, ca dintr-un portal fermecat, din mâinile unui bătrân al cărui suflet respira artă. Hans era îngerul alinării în buncărul întunecat, acordeonul lui simbolizând speranța în vremuri sumbre. Toată lucrurile care trecuseră prin sufletul lui îi erau dragi, altfel nici nu le-ar fi pictat atât de bine în note muzicale. Pentru unele din ele nutrea mai mult decât un sentiment de dragoste, dar şi un sentiment de recunoştinţă, o deosebită duioşie care se vedea în felul cum lumina spiritul celor care îl ascultau. Întotdeauna profunzimea sufletului transformă suferința în frumusețe.

Mai erau ochii aceia negri de supărare ai lui Rosa, o femeie învelită în tunete, dar care ascundea în ea cea mai pură duioșie. Numai lacrimile tăinuite în momentele singurătății puteau să dezvăluie acea delicateţe sentimentală care-i caracterizează pe cei cu inima curată. Rănile vieții nu iau un aspect clinic pentru cei care au învățat să privească dincolo de aparențe. La urma urmei, resimțirea realității ca vis, vine ca un soi de justificare a existenței spiritului conștient că aparține unei priviri care nu slujește vieții, ci veșniciei de dincolo de moarte.

Ancorarea în efemer este rezultatul unei năzuinţe miope. Însă, nu este şi cazul lui Liesel, care, într-un loc numit Strada Raiului, şi-a deschis ochii asupra unor lucruri pe care Eu nu le-am văzut atât de bine înainte, şi am descoperit în ea sufletul unui credincios care cercetează cuvântul secret: "viaţă". Max, prietenul ei, a învăţat-o că fiecare vietate, fiecare frunză, fiecare pasăre, sunt vii pentru că au înlăuntrul lor cuvântul secret pentru viaţă. Asta e singura diferenţă între noi şi un bulgăre de lut. Un cuvânt. Cuvintele sunt viaţă, Liesel. Toate acele pagini albe...sunt acolo să le umpli. Cu viaţă.

Leadership: Amintirile pe care le împletești în povestea vieții tale pot deveni o lecție de determinare ce transformă efemerul în etern, influențând modul în care generațiile viitoare își vor contura propriul destin?

"Am văzut atâtea lucruri măreţe. Am participat la marile dezastre ale lumii şi-am lucrat pentru cei mai mari răufăcători. Şi am văzut şi cele mai mari miracole. Însă, totul rămâne precum am spus iniţial. Nimeni nu trăieşte pe vecie. Când am venit în cele din urmă după Liesel... am simţit o plăcere egoistă, ştiind că şi-a trăit cei 90 de ani atât de chibzuit. În acest răstimp, poveştile ei au ajuns în multe suflete. Pe unele le-am aflat în trecerile mele. Max, a cărui prietenie a dăinuit aproape cât viaţa lui Liesel... Aproape...

În ultimele ei gânduri, Liesel a revăzut lunga listă a celor care şi-au contopit vieţile cu a ei. Cei trei copii... nepoţii... soţul ei. Printre aceştia, arzând precum candelele, se aflau Hans şi Rosa, fratele ei... şi băiatul mereu cu părul de culoarea lămâii. Am vrut să-i spun hoaţei de cărţi că a fost unul din puţinele suflete care m-au făcut curios despre cum e să trăieşti. Însa în final, n-au mai existat cuvinte. Doar pace...

Singurul adevăr pe care-l cunosc cu adevărat este că sunt bântuit de către oameni."

Bine spunea George Călinescu: "Un artist adevărat ştie să scoată din ceea ce a trăit el, ceea ce e al tuturor şi mai ales să dea experienţelor lui sfera largă a vieţii semenilor săi. Ştie să trăiască în numele contemporanilor şi prin ei, a omului universal."

Privirea mea este un limbaj tăcut al sufletului atunci când cuprinde în taină frumusețea ascunsă a lumii. Nu sunt sigur care este rostul tuturor celor ce se întâmplă. Dar am cuprins totul cu privirea mea, fără să-mi scape nimic, nici măcar un sunet de acordeon, nici măcar un cuvânt plin de viaţă, nici măcar o lacrimă ascunsă, nici măcar un gând trecător. Tot astfel, voi cuprinde cu privirea mea fiecare gest, fiecare clipă care construiește o poveste de care merită să-mi amintesc peste mulţi, mulţi, mulţi ani.

Aș vrea să-ți cunosc și ție povestea, dar mai întâi vreau să faci din viața ta o adevărată capodoperă, o prioritate pentru Mine. Aş vrea să fii tu unul din puţinele suflete care să mă facă curios despre cum e să trăieşti.

Privirea ochilor care au înţeles taina vederii

Învaţă să faci diferența între ceea ce vine din interiorul tău sub formă de reflecţie, și rezultatul interacțiunii cu un element exterior.

Ochii mei privesc felul în care o musculiţă se roteşte haotic în jurul florilor, ca şi când nu şi-ar găsi locul într-o grădină atât de spaţioasă. Poate că raza ei vizuală are acces la o viziune mai sintetică, cu o structură compoziţională articulată ritmic, asemănătoare ochiului de pictor care surprinde fiecare detaliu al unei imagini de mare artă. Spaţiul pe care musculiţa vrea să-l străbată, înconjurat de culori, atât de generos, ordonat, încerc să mi-l imaginez ca fiind un proces dublu al comparaţiei dintre Renaştere şi începuturile Iluminismului, spre a dezlega conţinutul enigmatic al unei alchimii scripturale, într-o lume Panoramă.

Are și musculiţa un spirit liber, la fel ca cel al artistului, vrând să depăşească orice captivitate, dorind să strălucească printre culorile unei grădini în care trandafiriii stăpânesc până toamna târziu. Orice pictor şi-a început cariera de la nivelul "musculiţă", fiindcă ochii lui trebuie să înveţe să observe lumea, mai întâi de toate, dintr-o analiză minuţioasă, extrem de solid documentată, cu un fir logic foarte clar.

În artă, aşa stau lucrurile. Până să începi să dai o interpretare de la efect la cauză, concentrându-te asupra posibilităţii de a formula noi scheme compoziţionale, trebuie să ajungi la o intelegre foarte bună a mediului din care provin cele mai creative și de impact atribute ale incidentalului.

Iar dacă curiozitatea musculiţei nu se limitează la observarea obiectelor şi florilor care o înconjoară, se va examina pe ea însăşi în momentul când se îndepărtează de privitor, încât ceea ce o aşează în memoria unei amintiri vizuale să fie legat de un spirit al naturii, ceva care o deosebeşte de totul din jur.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi reprezinţi viziunea în cel mai bun mod posibil prin puterea de transfigurare dată artistului, una reală, capabilă să convertească o imagine vie în factor estetic?

Musculiţa. Această personificare a naturii nu s-a reîntors la viaţă sub forma unui Merlin din legenda Graalului, legenda unui intelectual imaginativ şi generos, ci pare a fi legată mai degrabă de "Obsesia unităţii primare" care a dominat întreaga existenţă a lui Michelangelo. Marele artist spunea că: "Tot ce se află în jur, prin esenţă, prezenţă sau ficţiune, pictorul le are mai întâi în minte, apoi le trece în mâini, iar acestea sunt într-adevăr în stare să alcătuiască o armonie îmbrăţişată de văz, ca însăşi realitatea."

Nu degeaba musculiţa zboară, zboară, zboară, se agită în jurul fiecărei flori din grădina mea, fiindcă vrea şi ea să fie surprinsă ca un martor viu al acţiunii şi ca un exemplu viu al creaţiei, al dedicaţiei pictorului pentru surprinderea spectacolului naturii.

Staţi să vedeţi. Musculiţa face parte dintr-un tablou care prezintă evoluţia unui fenomen de combinare a mai multor forme de artă pe o perioadă lungă de timp. Nu degeaba, încerc să-i asociez zborul ondulatoriu, silenţios, simplu, cu un anumit pattern al trăsăturilor de personalitate prezente la acel pictor care, la un moment dat a declarat: "Eu sunt... o pată de culoare".

Mai degrabă, musculiţa este un pol al trăsăturilor de personalitate, relaţional cu senzorialul și intuitivul, funcții care colectează informațiile din mediul exterior, prin percepție. Extrovertitul se concentrează pe lumea exterioară, şi bineînţeles că musculiţa îşi ia energia din momentele definitorii ale primelor experienţe senzoriale făcute cu mirosul neobişnuit al florilor.

Viziunea unui artist are ca suport capacitatea lui de a găsi teme şi expresii plastice pline de vitalitate, prin sesizarea unei schimbări în tipologia ordinii pe care raţiunea o descoperă în orice moment aleator.

Izbită de asemănarea cu un pictor, pe care a început s-o descopere printr-un antrenament vizual sistematic, deci realizând o îmbunătăţire a sensibilităţii de contrast, musculiţa zboară, zboară, zboară, şi vede totul într-un mod obiectiv, într-o variantă de perspectivă, în proporţiile echilibrului pe care îl dau nuanţele luminoase, vii, ale percepției, ale contemplării și raportării la Marele Tot.

Nu este vorba de acel echilibru al „geografiei umane" creat cu efort și pasiune, ci de acel echilibru al perfecţiunii dobândit printr-o tehnică aparte: reprezentarea elementelor din jur la scară naturală, 1:1.

Dacă aș avea vederea musculiţei, atunci aş vedea lucrurile mai limpede, mai nuanţat mai obiectiv, sau poate mai intens. Gândesc că şi ea dorește să fie surprinsă în esenţa ei, ca personaj principal al unei întâmplări imortalizate în varii picturi. Chiar așa, hai să ne gândim la o musculiţă care ar dori să vadă lumea în culori de acuarelă. Iar în acest caz, nu-i aşa că un studiu experimental al trăsăturilor ei de personalitate ar scoate la iveală acea transfigurare senină a artistului (starea lui sentimentală) într-un imaginar poetic și cu o cromatică rafinată?

Într-un moment neaşteptat am remarcat un lucru interesant. Privirea musculiţei se schimbă în luminozitatea fundalului pe care pictorul creează o nouă imagine a fantezie sale. Şi există mai multe posibilităţi de a reprezenta o asemenea vedere în spaţiul pictural: din punct de vedere al diversităţii unor dialoguri virtuale cu personaje imaginare, sau din punct de vedere al mesajului simbolic pe care ni-l sugerează adoptarea unei realităţi (pe care m-am făcut că nu o văd) reprezentată de comuniunea divers-exprimată între om, natură şi vieţuitoare.

Leadershipul este felul cum evoluează viziunea ta asupra realităţii într-un context de semnificaţii atribuite legăturii între ceea ce se vede şi ceea ce se citeşte, între observat şi raportat, între ceea ce se află în afara ta şi ceea ce vine din interiorul tău sub formă de reflecţie.

Privirea ochilor care au înţeles taina vederii se referă la modul în care artistul găseşte corespondenţe între viziune şi reflecţie, în aşa fel încât ceea ce exprimă prin idei şi sugestii să fie o extindere a experienţei de descoperire a lumii şi, implicit, a Sinelui.

Privirea ochilor luminaţi de avantajul unei vederi înaintate

Ochii care ştiu să vadă realitatea în "dualitate", sunt mărturia unei schimbări de identitate între un model de referinţă al actului de creaţie şi fenomenul de oglindire într-o privire plină de viaţă ca şi a ta.

Ochii mei nu obosesc nicidecum atunci când citesc din opera lui Wilhelm Hauff, cu atât mai mult cu cât privirea mea se mută de la un simbol la altul, cu aceeaşi discreţie cu care însuşi scriitorul a trăit în poveştile sale prin intermediul personajelor şi a evenimentelor din mintea sa. Iar ochii, atinşi de imaginea unei lumi de vis, se îndreaptă în chip maşinal spre surprinderea unei deplinătăţi a făpturii îndumnezeite pe care o văd şi în care cred doar cei înzestraţi cu darul nativ de a asculta gândurile şi emoţiile unei fiinţe imaginare.

Mai mult decât atât. Ochii mei, cu vedere directă în mintea şi sufletul personajelor lui Hauff, solicită atenţia unei lumi în transformare din "Povestea vasului nălucă" sau "Inima rece" , cu un conţinut ridicat deasupra disputelor deşarte, a intereselor meschine şi a pasiunilor trecătoare, pe care o descoperă ca o paletă de nuanţe distincte, satisfăcând nevoia omenească de a accede transcendentul, supravieţuind între Chin și Amin.

Aş fi vrut să fiu măcar o prezenţă ascunsă în poveştile lui Hauff, aşa cum erau "Omuleţul de sticlă" sau "Omul cu mantia roşie", pentru ca spiritul meu să reziste oricăror metamorfoze şi să ajungă cât mai departe cu tot ce alcătuieşte esenţa unui nou început de drum în aventura vieţii. Aş fi vrut să fiu înzestrat cu înţelepciunea lui Musfata şi cu norocul Califului Barză, să pot zbura pe întinsul lumii numai cu o pereche de conduri de mătase, dar mai mult ca orice aş fi vrut să trăiesc acea înlănţuire de întâmplări minunate pe care Cerul le hărăzeşte numai făpturilor de basm.

Nu degeaba mi-am proiectat gândurile în această realitate, a lui Wilhelm Hauff, nu degeaba privirea ochilor mei surprinde doar o parte din realitatea unui artist al şaradelor, deoarece atenţia mi se împarte între două lumi de vis, scoase de sub presiunea concretului, amintindu-mi de o viaţă anterioară, dedicată celei de a șaptea arte: frumuseţea de a fi una cu toate lucrurile, adică „dubla" izbutită de transpunerea mea într-o stare modificată de conştiinţă.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să atribui viziunii tale un șablon de vizualizare a experienţei de a fi altcineva, într-un mod care permite modificarea percepţiei despre lume după aplicarea șablonului?

Aflaţi că am început să manifest un oarecare interes faţă de opera lui Hauff, tocmai pentru că un spirit care se recunoaşte identic în altul rămâne credincios temelor care definesc Universul: erudiţia, visul, metamorfoza, simetriile abstracte, răsfrângerile în oglinzi, partea şi întregul, finitul şi infinitul, moartea şi nemurirea. Toate acestea conduc la necesitatea imperioasă a postulării eternei reîntoarceri. Este sunetul unui ecou îndepărtat descoperit printre reperele de performanţă artistică din destinul individual al regizorilor.

Pe Wilhelm Hauff îl preocupa devenirea primordială, obsedantă, a omului obişnuit într-un spaţiu oarecare – dar identic cu puterea spiritului, cu decizia mereu reînnoită de a forţa un personaj să-şi croiască o altă soartă. Se vede că Hauff era înzestrat cu puterea de a converti un eveniment tragic într-unul vesel, sau un mesaj poetic într-o formă lingvistică propriu-zisă care implică, în acelaşi timp, o atitudine a vorbitorului şi o referinţă obiectivă.

Mai cred că verdele era culoarea preferată a lui Wilhelm Hauff, cu care a izbit cel mai mult în personajele sale, fiindcă verdele simbolizează viața, creşterea, renașterea şi eternul, reprezentând totodată culoarea vegetației ce ne înconjoară pretutindeni.

Bineînţeles, există destui cititori care sunt îndreptăţiţi să nu acorde credibilitate basmelor sale, mai ales că în fiecare basm se regăseşte ceva din esenţa propriei sale fiinţe, o fiinţă mereu atrasă de propriile adâncuri, şi mai puţin de înălţimile unei creaţii de unde se zăreşte ceva mai mult decât se aşteaptă careva. Nu locul în care ne aflăm contează, ci locul în care privirea ochilor noştri îşi orientează atenţia: spre răsăritul unei stele, sau spre forma unei frunze în şuieratul uşor al unei rafale de vânt. Abia de aici începe arta creaţiei...

Leadership: Înţelesul pe care îl dai unei creaţii este important pentru credinţa ta într-un timp transcendent, al unei dăinuiri perpetue dominate de simbolul alterităţii?

Oricine este îndreptăţit să-l judece şi să-i conteste creaţia lui Wilhelm Hauff. Dar cuvintele exprimate de sufletul său în "Portretul Împăratului" vor rămâne veşnic o constelație de experimentări literar-artistice, o podoabă de har pe care Dumnezeu a făgăduit că o va da tuturor celor ce îi cer cu prisosinţă să deprindă tainele Marii Ştiinţe (intrarea într-o lume metafizică, superioară, dincolo de spațiu și de timp, dincolo de viață și de moarte).

"Oricine este îndreptăţit s-o facă şi eu nu pot decât să-l deplâng pe acest om, nu să trec cu vederea un fapt: calea sa pe acest pământ n-a urmat drumul trasat. Dar lumea îşi va duce aminte de el şi cu alte sentimente. Mai marii pământului nu par a fi învăţat multe de la el, poate mai degrabă cei mici. El şi-a croit drumul la fel de înălţător ca Alexandru, l-a urmat pe Cezar, lumea i-a mulţumit ca lui Hannibal, pe stânca aceea a trăit ca Seneca, iar ultimele sale zile au fost demne de un Socrate."

Şi dacă aţi citi de o mie și una de ori aceste cuvinte, tot nu v-aţi da seama de acea firavă urmă a paşilor de întoarcere la Dumnezeu, înscrisă în infinitul spaţiu al Universului, pe care unii o descoperă doar căutând foarte bine din priviri. Nu uitaţi faptul că înţelesul pe care îl daţi unei creaţii este important pentru credinţa într-un tel măreţ sau pentru credinţa într-un timp transcendent, al unei dăinuiri perpetue dominate de enigmaticul cuvânt "Mutabor" (simbolul alterităţii şi al visului).

Viziunea pe care o ai asupra leadershipului este aceeaşi cu vederea ochilor îndreptată spre un dublu al tău.

Asta nu înseamnă neapărat să trăieşti ceva similar cu experienţele vieţii altcuiva, ci să percepi corect realitatea altcuiva pe care numai povestind-o din punctul tău de vedere ai şansa să devii una cu ea. Nu degeaba spun acest lucru, fiindcă am trăit, pentru câteva clipe, în realitatea determinată de adevărul altcuiva, nu mai puțin reală decât a mea.

Privirea ochilor luminaţi de avantajul unei vederi înaintate aparţine artiştilor care pot să redea strălucirea şi expresivitatea trăsăturilor de personalitate a personajelor lor printr-o dublă reflexie: o reflexie a lumii interioare şi o reflexie a realităţii care transcende ceea ce e trecător.

Privirea unui om pierdut în propria sa reflecție

Tot ceea ce te acaparează în realitate, în palpabil, se vede când eşti permanent conştient de propria imagine reflectată în oglindă.

Demult m-am privit într-o oglindă, şi mi-am văzut chipul reflectat într-o altă oglindă, mult diferită, dar asemănătoare cu aceea în care şi altă dată mi-am privit chipul. Şi ea, captivantă, tot mai fidelă, oglinda aceea s-a transformat tot mai mult în chipul în care mi-am oglindit bucuriile şi tristeţile, şi în care artistul îşi îmbrăţişează creaţia. Era o oglindă într-o variantă 3D, reflexia ei invadându-mi spaţiul tridimensional şi timpul în care Universul "a aranjat" să se întâlnească pe aceeaşi lungime de undă cu mine.

Şi fix în aceeaşi oglindă, în tot acel spaţiu pe care universul îl ocupă energetic sub formă de fotoni şi temperatură, a avut loc o expansiune intrinsecă prin care s-a modificat scara spațiului în sine, şi eu am devenit una cu imaginea unei galaxii în spaţiu. Ce se înţelege, însă, prin aceasta? Cum adică să mă văd din punct de vedere tridimensional, eu care trăiesc într-o dimensiune a conștiinței aflată dincolo de timp și spațiu, eu cel care de atâtea ori mi-am privit perspectiva de viaţă, în mod conştient, printr-un fel de spiritualizare a micului univers din care, până la vârsta de douăzeci şi cinci de ani, nu ieșisem deloc?

Iată ce îmi exalta sufletul, ce îmi încânta simţurile. Să mă distanţez de lumea asta, să evadez printr-un fel de tunel cuantic, aleator, să trec într-un univers paralel, printr-un fel de porţi spaţio-temporale, şi să devin reflexia imaginii unei stele pline de strălucire care arată ca un ochi normal, numai că funcțiile sale sunt superioare în constelația Gemenilor.

Sau, poate că a fost vorba de o gaură neagră, a cărei existenţă nu a fost demonstrată ştiinţific, şi pe care eu mi-am închipuit-o ca fiind o regiune în spațiu-timp cu o forță gravitațională atât de mare încât, chiar dacă aş fi fost redus la nimic, să pot exista totuşi ca reflexie a cuiva care a fost Cineva…

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti şi să-ţi asumi o imagine care surprinde realitatea în momentul petrecerii acesteia, şi în acelaşi timp să obţii o imagine care se repetă de mai multe ori, în mai multe feluri?

Ideea de bază e că orice s-ar fi putut întâmpla în trecutul meu, de fapt s-a întâmplat într-un univers paralel, iar reflexia mea într-o oglindă a făcut posibilă deplasarea mea cu viteza maxim posibilă în acel univers. Adică, modul în care s-a scurs timpul meu, al celui din oglindă, trebuie corelat cu ce s-a întâmplat în Univers, în timpul ce s-a scurs în lumea reală a celui care s-a privit în oglindă, doar ca să constate că este acelaşi, şi totuşi diferit de el însuşi.

Şi dacă m-am privit într-un anumit fel, aşa cum o face pictorul când îşi instaurează autoportretul ca tipar recognoscibil, marcă a misterului de dincolo de aparenţe, a fost ca să fiu perceput altfel decât dacă as fi fost privit din aceeaşi perspectivă. Nu-i de mirare că am ajuns un expert al teoriei existenţei universurilor paralele, o busolă în orientarea personalităţii mele prin mirajul consecinţelor de dincolo de mine, ţinând cont că angajarea mea în jocul de-a "make a mirror in the Unity of immanence and transcendence" include unitatea subiacentă a universului.

Nu era o oglindă oarecare, ci una capabilă să obţină prin reflexie o altă reflexie, asemeni jocului de oglinzi dintr-o lectură din care am putut scoate un personaj caracterizat de un suflet nobil, şi pe care Alice în Ţara Minunilor l-a descoperit întâmplător în ea însăşi, prin reflectarea ei într-o oglindă compactă, cu mai multe trepte de luminozitate, care implica mai multe lumi de joc.

Într-adevăr, reflectându-mă în acea oglindă specială, am sperat să accesez un portal către o dimensiune paralelă, justificată prin făurirea unui ideal care depăşeşte prezentul, şi în care artistul îşi priveşte opera cu ochii plini de nemurire. "Who in the world am I? Ah, that's the great puzzle." Poate că dacă mi-aş multiplica existenţa în alte lumi, într-o altă secţiune a aceluiaşi plan divin, aş reuşi să mă multiplic în chip indefinit într-un univers de unităţi existenţiale.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi construieşti o lume numai a ta printr-o filtrare a imaginii pe care, trecând-o prin propriul suflet, să dea naştere la o entitate duală capabilă să servească unui segment de realitate aflat în plină expansiune?

Nu este de mirare că ce-am văzut în oglindă este diferit de ce-am privit la mine, gândindu-mă că tot ceea ce mă reflectă în realitatea concavă a unei firi omeneşti (de o adâncime şi de o vioiciune aşa cum rareori produce reflecţia universului la scară mică), este o imagine de sine bine structurată în direcţia unei vieţi virtuale. Şi cred că de aici a început totul, cu instalarea mea într-un joc al oglinzilor ce pune faţă-n faţă doi străini: unul care ar vrea să-l cunoască pe celălalt, şi unul care îl cunoaşte pe celălalt, dar nu se cunoaşte pe sine.

Fiindcă tentaţia misterului de dincolo de aparenţe, clasa conducătoare a minţii mele însoţită de coordonate temporare şi spaţiale, deci impusă de forţe externe, cere o abordare caracterizată de sensibilitate şi o selecţie ponderată a ceea ce poate fi reprezentat în imaginaţie, şi cu atât mai puţin la ceea ce poate fi perceput. Iar dacă am priceput ceva din punctul de vedere al oglinzilor, deşi în unele situaţii interiorizarea noilor reflexii poate deveni mijloc de conformism şi manipulare, este că nu-mi pot contrazice sinele nereflectat.

Şi dacă m-aş uita din nou în aceeaşi oglindă, cu aceiaşi ochi cu care m-am privit în alte oglinzi, sperând să mă văd diferit, sau măcar acelaşi, dar puţin mai intens luminat de o simbolistică specială, de licărirea nepământeană, constantă, a unei singure străluciri, şi dacă m-aş pune lângă o mare oglindă numită "simetrie de paritate", atunci m-aş deosebi într-adevăr de cel cu care mi-am dat seama că semăn leit, dar nu e nicio clipă acelaşi.

Bine spunea Alice în Ţara Oglinzilor: "Dacă aş avea o lume a mea totul ar fi nonsens. Nimic n-ar fi ce este, pentru că totul ar fi ceea ce nu este. Şi invers, ce este, n-ar fi, iar ce n-ar fi este. Vezi?"

Marea revelaţie a creaţiei mele este o mediere între toate experienţele vieţii trăite în realitate, dar disponibile într-un spaţiu separat, propus ca fiind nemărginit.

Privirea unui om pierdut în propria sa reflecție se îndreaptă către două imagini concomitente ale aceluiaşi om. Un om ca mine ar avea aceeaşi ochi la proporţii cosmice dacă s-ar vedea în lumina maximei sincerităţi drept o proiecţie a voinţei inexorabile care a creat sau a scris lumea.

Sau cum spunea un personaj al lui Borges: "Povestea vieţii mele este reflexia celui care am fost eu în timp ce o scriam."

Privirea pătrunzătoare a unor ochi luminaţi de reprezentările artei

"Când nu trebuie să-ţi dovedeşti talentul de a desena realul, tot ce-ţi rămâne este imaginarul exprimat prin culoare şi forme libere."

Ţin în mână o placă de faianţă mai veche, cu granulație fină, cu un finisaj impermeabil. Nu cred că este fabricată în România. O privesc cu atenţie, cu acea atenţie de care am nevoie ca să mă reconectez la o realitate care se schimbă într-o lume globalizată, şi nu ştiu ce anume, dar ceva mă atrage în mod deosebit la ea. Poate culorile care îi compun modelul atât de fin, o cromatică compusă din nuanţe maro şi bej. Poate textura din care este făcută, una aerată şi luminoasă, aplicată longitudinal, evocând puternic piatra de stâncă.

Placa de faianţă este prea bine realizată, prea le place ochilor mei s-o privească fără să se plictisească, fiindcă dacă o privesc din unghiuri opuse pare diferită. De ce mă atrage aşa mult, încă nu ştiu. Dar culorile atât de importante prin impactul lor, însemnând existenţa unui imens arsenal al imaginarului micro-cosmic, de care ochii mei se bucură nespus, evidenţiază interconectarea unor gusturi fine şi alese în ceea ce priveşte simbolistica artei de care se simte mai apropiat un artist atunci când tot ce are la dispoziție este instrumentul imperfect al talentului de a scoate în evidenţă ceva extrem de captivant.

Culorile sunt un fel de limbaj vizual, reflectând instinctele și sensibilitățile artistului, nu-i aşa?

Am ochit placa de faianţă chiar atunci când aveam în cap o combinaţie de culori care se potriveşte cel mai bine cu personalitatea mea, în numele unei realităţi imediate pe care o descoperisem prin sistemul "văzând şi făcând". De fapt, atunci când vezi o combinaţie de culori care te impresionează, eşti tentat să reţii combinaţia pentru viitor prin „ochii minţii" concentraţi asupra trăirilor şi stărilor interne ale conştiinţei.

Oare n-am atras atenţia de atâtea ori că o culoare sau o plajă largă de culori trebuie să atragă atenţia privitorului, să povestească o întâmplare reală, o experienţă frumoasă din care artistul a tras noi învăţăminte despre adevărata bogăţie a formelor de creaţie?

Leadership: Poţi să te contopeşti cu o creaţie artistică care încearcă să scoată în evidență momentul în care te găseşti faţă în faţă cu realitatea vizualului, concentrându-te asupra posibilităţii de a-ţi exprima sufletul într-un mod inedit?

În semn de mulțumire profundă adusă artiştilor plastici, m-am decis să păstrez placa de faianţă, luând în considerare tentaţia de a reproduce modelul ilustrat iniţial doar cu ajutorul promptului vizual. În mintea mea stă toată bogăţia actului de creaţie pe care ochii de artist au agonisit-o studiind lucrările cel mai minuţios realizate, sprijinit fiind de percepţia constrângerii de a respecta cât mai riguros stilul original. Atrag atenţia că ochii mei nu sunt doar nişte admiratori de forme ale frumosului, cum sunt frumosul natural şi frumosul creat, sau ţinând cont de forma simbolică, cea clasică și cea romantică. Ci, în primul rând, ochii mei sunt destinaţi rafinării sistematice a observaţiei şi a metodelor de evaluare a obiectelor de artă.

Bine spunea cineva pe web: "Când nu trebuie să-ţi dovedeşti talentul de a desena realul, tot ce-ţi rămâne e imaginarul exprimat prin culoare şi forme libere." Iată, deci, că placă de faianţă are să spună un secret despre un desen care pare clasic pentru vremea lui, dar nou pentru aceste timpuri în care arta nu-şi mai găseşte locul în confecţionarea manuală a produselor, ci în competiţia tehnologică. Şi chiar dacă mecanismul natural de vedere al ochilor mei îşi pierde culorile cu cât privesc dintr-un unghi mai închis, se pare că placa de faianţă îşi dă libertatea de a exprima culorile reprezentative, în combinaţiile plăcute ochilor mei.

Culorile sunt importante prin impactul lor, nu-i aşa? Dacă aş schimba culoarea oricărei imagini în culoarea opusă a culorilor pe care ochii mei le percep natural, şi dacă modelul plăcii de faianţă s-ar curba în jurul câmpului meu vizual, într-un rotund asemănător „formei privirii", atunci aş înţelege mai bine de ce mă consider un artist al culorilor răzvrătite, al formelor aflate într-o flexibilitate simplistă, a compozițiilor explozive prin temele pregnante şi simbolistice.

Alteori, vederea mea este înzestrată cu un efect de deschidere către un transcendent al sufletului, în sensul de acceptare a unei realități invizibile care se obține printr-un joc de clarobscur, prin umbre și lumini, în care aş putea să mă aflu amăgind timpul.

Leadership: Poate creaţia ta să faciliteze expunerea sensibilităţii readusă în actualitate printr-o reinventare a modelului de referinţă al actului de creaţie care invită la o depăşire a propriei personalităţi artistice?

Numai un artist îşi umple ochii, înainte de a picta un tablou, cu acele modele reuşite de creaţie care te inspiră, prin culoare, să meditezi la frumuseţea perfectă care te înconjoară. Mai cred că, în adâncul fiinţei mele, există o rezervă de admiraţie pentru înălţimea expresiei, un „cult" și un fenomen al obiectului personalizat în culori pastelate, printr-o sensibilitate aparte. Închipuiţi-vă că dacă nu ar fi fost culoarea plăcută ochiului, nu m-ar fi atras nicio formă a modelului inscripţionat pe placa de faianţă. Prin urmare, placă de faianţă este copia fidelă a unei imagini pe care ochii mei nu o pot s-o înlocuiască cu o alta, fiindcă însăşi culorile, vibrante şi cu textură fină, nealterate în timp, au o mare însemnătate: ele deosebesc ființa unui neam de ființa celorlalte neamuri.

În acest sens, celebrul scriitor Antoine de Saint-Exupery avea ceva important de spus: „În făurirea omului este important mai întâi nu a-l instrui, ceea ce este ceva zădarnic dacă ajunge doar o carte care merge; este nevoie să fie crescut, educat, pentru a-l duce la înălţimea unde nu mai sunt lucruri, ci chipurile născute din nodul divin care leagă lucrurile. Căci nu este nimic de aşteptat de la lucruri dacă ele nu răsună unele în altele, aceasta fiind singura muzică pentru inimă".

Poate că însăşi placă de faianţă are o viaţă şi un suflet, la nivel metafizic şi atomic, bineînţeles. Altfel ea nu ar fi putut să reziste timpului, poate chiar mai mult decât orice om. Iar ea a avut ceva de spus despre mine atunci când ne-am întâlnit întâmplător. Mi-a spus că sunt un artist deosebit tocmai datorită însuşirii mele de a distinge frumosul acolo unde alţii nu-l văd.

Conform acestui fapt, presupunând că placa de faianţă ar fi curioasă să descopere cum există această însuşire într-un artist al formelor stilizate, lucrând fie cu multe culori, fie în contraste de alb şi negru, ea s-ar vedea determinată să-şi închipuie că are de-a face cu un suflet tot atât de mare ca şi ea, un suflet de natură suprasensibilă, care se simte şi se află în orice lucru din jur.

Să nu uităm că modelul de referinţă al unui act de creaţie este pregătirea sufletului pentru recunoașterea imortalității sale. Iar, în acest caz, Marea Operă a Creaţiei este produsul unui suflet care, stătător sau călător, îşi etalează splendoarea, erudiţia şi energia substanțială, într-o suprarealitate.

Privirea pătrunzătoare a unor ochi luminaţi de reprezentările artei cuprinde trăirile unui artist a cărui realitate este legată, în principal, de lumea exterioară sau mai bine zis, de cunoaşterea esenţei lucrurilor (anterioară experienţei concrete).

Privirea pescăruşului

În artă, omul nu reprezintă nimic pentru sine însuși, ci numai în relație cu un punct pe care natura îl creează prin similaritate și contiguitate.

Un pescăruș plutește lin pe apa mării, undeva în larg. Valurile mici nu-l deranjează, căldura nu-l doboară. Pe de o parte el este văzut ca operă a naturii, pe de altă parte ca un simbol al libertății, zborul sufletului și plinătatea vieții. Până la urmă, viaţa lui nu este diferită de a celorlalţi pescăruşi, doar că el este singurul care atrage atenţia printr-un lucru interesant: pare a fi capabil să cucerească privirile tuturor.

Dar, întrebare: ce vede el atunci când privește spre plajă?

Vede niște puncte mișcându-se aleator, individualități întru totul autonome, nelimitate prin număr. Vede oamenii drept niște rătăciți, dacă nu chiar ca renegați. Aceste puncte sunt separate între două realități: una matematică, una vizionară. Iar dacă ne raportăm la puncte, atunci lumea oamenilor poate fi intuită ca o lume a păsărilor.

Cred că omul se poate constitui în specie și poate fi una cu pescărușul, pentru că este tot un punct văzut de la depărtare, din larg, nelimitat de constrângerea spaţiului şi timpului. Iar realitatea pescărușului se poate extinde la vederea unor puncte izolate de el, dar apropiate în depărtare, care pătrund ca ceva de sine stătător în universul lui finit.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să produci o creaţie atâta vreme cât îţi poziţionezi sinele în planul efectului de apropiere-mărire, sau cu cât înlănţuieşti mai mult finitudinea în infinitate?

Arta dobândește aici în chip necesar caracterul unei perspective revelate ca o distanțare dintre anumite puncte, pe un plan de imagine plat. Din acest motiv adaosurile de culoare şi de lumină, fiind o cauză nemijlocită a creaţiilor artistice, se întâmpla să deschidă o vastă perspectivă de înţelegere a efectului de apropiere-mărire și de depărtare-micșorare. Și ce facem mai departe cu această perspectivă? Ei bine, o convertim într-o tehnică de pictură.

Menirea acestei tehnici este de a surprinde latura unei figuri reprezentative în care succesiunile de puncte se vor înfățișa în cele din urmă ca totalitate.

Pescărușul poate să împrumute naturii o manifestare a omului sau vederea lui, numai dacă distanța dintre puncte este considerată identitatea absolută dintre universal și particular. Cu cât pescăruşul este mai mult văzut ca un univers autonom, cu atât artistul este mai organic, fiind capabil să înlănţuiască mai mult finitudinea de infinitate.

Marii artiști știu să combine după bunul plac distanța dintre o latură arbitrară și latura opusă ei. Ei mai știu că deseori contrariile se află în același raport în care se află natura și libertatea, punând accent pe ideea de "absolut", intuit în fenomen sau în relaţie cu particularul. În artă, omul nu reprezintă nimic pentru sine însuși, ci numai în relație cu un punct pe care natura îl creează prin similaritate și contiguitate.

A-ţi poziţiona sinele în planul efectului de apropiere-mărire înseamnă să imortalizezi o scenă din întinderile vaste ale îndepărtatului – în relaţie cu particularul, încât ceea ce urmează să revelezi în artă să aibă un caracter unitar, sintetic şi individual.

Privirea pescăruşului se apropie de privirea artistului, fiindcă în amândoi se oglindeşte spaţiul unei alterităţi care pune în scenă o anumită identitate menită să reflecte - ca marcă distinctivă – "unitatea care constituie plăsmuirea infinitului în finit".

Privirea selectează ceea ce sufletul caută

Percepția vizuală a lumii exterioare oglindește profunzimea și complexitatea peisajului interior al observatorului.

Într-o grădină plină de viață, o musculiță își caută locul cu frenezie, cu acea determinare necurmată a ființelor mici. Dar îşi caută locul aşa cum artistul, în devenirea sa, caută prin simțuri să cunoască și să înțeleagă lumea. Zborul ei haotic, asemenea traiectoriei unui electron într-un atom aflat în stare de energie maximă, ilustrează perfect teoria haosului în sistemele complexe, dar în același timp denotă, la fel ca în artă, acea armonie ascunsă în aparenta dezordine. Fiecare mișcare a musculiței, aparent aleatorie, face parte dintr-un pattern mai mare, invizibil ochiului neatent - exact ca destinele oamenilor în marea tapiserie a existenței.

Florile, în diversitatea lor cromatică, reprezintă spectrul complet al emoțiilor mele: trandafirii roșii - pasiunea nestăvilită; margaretele galbene - bucuria simplă a vieții; lalelele mov - misterul necunoscutului. Această grădină nu este doar un ecosistem botanic, ci un verdadero mandala de mi psique, unde fiecare petală și fiecare frunză își are locul său precis în marele design pământesc. Perspectiva oculară influențează direct interpretarea și răspunsul emoțional la stimuli.

La urma urmelor, ce este mai important, altceva decât a şti că opera căreia ochii tăi îi dau viaţă, Alethesira Icnusemut Ulgarorium, este expresia unei lumi create pentru plăcerea imaginaţiei, o mărturie a frumuseții și încrederii tale interioare răspândită în jur prin felul ochilor de a spune ceea ce-şi doreşte sufletul. Din această cauză, poate, obiectivul principal al imaginii în care îmi încadrez sufletul este legat de cercetarea şi deplina valorificare a potenţialului constructiv al culorilor pe care mi-l dă darul artistic de a exista într-o lume fără frontiere, unde imaginația se îmbină cu realitatea.

Leadership: Poți să te focalizezi pe o singură perspectivă prin felul ochilor de a-și menține o vedere precisă și clară, pe măsură ce distanța față de obiectul privit se micșorează?

Musculița, în a ei "Azenthopia Floralis" (acea stare de anxietate existențială produsă în fața frumuseții copleșitoare a lumii), este precum un Ulise modern, navigând pe marea incertitudinii, căutând un Itaca al sensului vieții, dar și o condiție indispensabilă creației: "Vederea periferică captează esența întregului, așa încât detaliile se contopesc într-o viziune holistică a realității."

Zborul ei frenetic, văzut de sus, desenează parcă ecuațiile lui Lorenz, cele care stau la baza teoriei haosului, amintindu-mi că din aparentul haos se poate naște ordinea cea mai sublimă. Bineînteles, în dansul cosmic al existenței, fiecare bătaie de aripă poate declanșa un uragan de semnificații. Prin urmare, musculiţa, cu înțelepciunea sa străveche, joacă totodată rolul unui Socrate al grădinii, provocând o libelulă la o maieutică a sinelui:

- Qué buscas, pequeña? Ce cauți cu atâta înverșunare în acest vârtej al existenței?

Răspunsul libelulei oglindește dilema fundamentală a fizicii cuantice - principiul incertitudinii lui Heisenberg:

- Nu știu exact ce caut. Poate un loc unde să mă odihnesc, sau poate doar să găsesc ceva ce încă nu am descoperit.

Cu cât libelula încerca să-și definească mai precis poziția în viață, cu atât mai neclar îi devenea impulsul interior, şi cu atât arta îi apărea mai abstractă și inefabilă.

În acest moment de "artheosia", fuziunea dintre artă și epifanie, musculița a realizat că, asemenea particulelor cuantice, ea există simultan în toate stările posibile până în momentul "observației" sau al conștientizării de sine. Grădina întreagă devine un câmp cuantic al posibilităților infinite. Ocular, lumea se transformă în experiență personală. Practic, eeea ce vezi când privești înlăuntru este ceea ce arta revelează în exterior.

Leadership: Care este rolul tău de "observator" în transformarea potențialului artistic într-o operă concretă, știind că percepția cu care te alegi ulterior influențează realitatea înconjurătoare?

Oare nu sunt și oamenii, în esența lor artistică, armonioasă, semnificativă, asemenea acestei musculițe cuantice, existând simultan în multiple stări de conștiință până în momentul auto-observației? Nu cumva căutarea lor febrilă a sensului vieții, dincolo de efemerul clipei prezente, este echivalentul macroscopic al principiului complementarității lui Bohr, unde claritatea unui aspect al existenței noastre obscurizează inevitabil altele? Și nu cumva arta servește ca pod între aceste stări aparent contradictorii, tot așa cum simplitatea ascunde adesea profunzimea?

Natura servește ca oglindă pentru introspecția și autoanaliza umană. În final, musculița își găsi loc de odihnă pe o margaretă, într-un moment de iluminare instantanee. Această alegere aparent simplă, dar ca o morfină pentru mintea antrenată să observe ceea ce se ascunde ca mesaj în spatele realităţii, reprezintă de fapt rezultatul unui complex algoritm existențial, similar cu cel folosit de natura însăși în procesul de selecție naturală. Musculița descoperise, fără să știe, principiul minimei acțiuni din mecanica analitică, alegând calea optimă prin labirintul posibilităților.

Leadership: Cum se manifestă în interpretările diverse ale operei tale artistice ideea de simultaneitate a stărilor posibile de spirit, până în momentul observației unei priviri contemplative?

Povestea musculiței devine astfel o parabolă cuantică a condiției umane, un dans fractal între determinism și liber arbitru. Ne amintește tuturor de cuvintele lui Werner Heisenberg:

"Primul pahar de vin îl bem pentru sete, al doilea pentru plăcere, al treilea pentru insolență, iar restul fără număr."

Așa și noi, în căutarea sensului vieții, începem cu necesitatea, continuăm cu curiozitatea și ajungem la transcendență, doar pentru a descoperi că răspunsul a fost întotdeauna în noi înșine, asemenea unui cod QR existențial ascuns în ADN-ul sufletului nostru. Și tu, cititorule, în ce ecuație a existenței tale rezidă variabila necunoscută a inspirației creatoare? Ce principiu cuantic guvernează zborul gândurilor tale în grădina infinitelor posibilități de redare artistică a realității interioare?

Încotro zboară gândul tău în grădina vieții, când cauţi esența experienţei de creaţie?

Maniera de a înţelege leadershipul este similară modului în care zboară musculiţa: aparent haotic, dar cu un scop precis în minte. Iar pentru a înţelege arta trebuie sa fii peste tot, si în acelasi timp sa te concentrezi pe fiecare detaliu.

Privirea selectează ceea ce sufletul caută atunci când dorul de frumos și armonie devine o nevoie existențială, precum este nevoia musculiței de a se contopi cu ritmul pulsant al naturii înconjurătoare, de a descoperi nectarul ascuns în inima florilor, sau de a găsi un loc de odihnă în vasta grădină a lumii. Nu uita că ochii sunt ferestre prin care sufletul explorează universul naturii.

Prizonier în propria creaţie

Cuvântul sfânt este un act artistic gândit și controlat prin care se realizează, direct sau indirect, apropierea de prezenţa Creatorului Suprem.

Am rugat stiloul să scrie despre mine, încât să mă cunosc mai bine prin a-mi cunoaşte limitele, ştiind că numai astfel lumea creaţiei va dezvolta o mişcare sferică pe coordonatele unei ontologii a conştiinţei cosmice. De altfel, creaţiei îi va fi mai uşor să-şi dezvolte obiectivitatea, conştientizarea limitelor reale, ştiind că stiloul este lumea unei conştiinţe universale aflată în mişcare rectilinie, mai ales dacă el va scrie în sfera unei filozofări teoretice despre coordonatele ontologice ale unei fiinţe autentice.

Stiloul este puternic atunci când guvernează materia şi o conduce, prin sfinţire şi iluminare, în direcţia unei imagini a cerurilor desprinsă din interpretările experienţei de receptare a creaţiilor aferente unui univers atemporal. Iar dacă planetele intră sub dominaţia lui Saturn sau Neptun, în egală măsură atunci când reprezint figura unei fiinţe ce pare să aştepte înfruntarea sorţii, înseamnă că stiloul va avea un cuvânt mai important de spus despre mine.

Aceste consideraţii trebuie luate în seamă şi pentru existenţa unei pensule care leagă lucrurile de stelele fixe, stabilind corespondenţa dintre imaginea unui sfânt şi natura celor 8 planete. Dacă acest instrument sensibil face totul atât de frumos pe pânza şevaletului, cu caracterul experimental al unei încercări de sondare a interiorului "ştiinţei despre fiinţă", o face pentru a atenua rivalitatea cu stiloul. Natura celui care va fi mai puternic dintre ele va câştiga cea mai mare semnificaţie în toate întâmplările vieţii mele.

Spun asta pentru că dacă aş corela scrisul cu una din stelele fixe, corespunzătoare naturii mele, atunci pensula va fi înscrisă, ca o adevărată prinţesă Andromeda, în simbolul unei fiinţe energetice care îşi caută reperul de ordin superior într-o călătorie mistică prin timpuri şi spaţii paralele.

Leadership: Poţi să elaborezi o viziune curat-plastică care să se bazeze pe ecourile lăsate de o imagine pe care nu ai cum s-o uiţi, chiar dacă o vezi o singură dată?

Aşadar, mă cunosc mai bine fiindcă stiloul a primit sarcina de a guverna în ceruri, deasupra tuturor corpurilor astrale, dar mai ales pentru că el este stăpânul tuturor virtuţilor mele. Mă cunosc mai bine fiindcă pensula, aparţinând Luminii Celeste, îşi împrăştie razele colorate peste planetele identităţii mele infinite, împrumutându-mi mii de înfăţişări în funcţie de realitatea în care se oglindesc raţiunea, inteligenţa şi conştiinţa infinită a universului.

Iar dacă cuvintele mele reprezintă elemente naturale pe care un alchimist le selectează pentru a elabora întregul conţinut al Marii Opere, ştiind că părţile lumii se atrag reciproc printr-o asemănare cu sufletul naturii, atunci nu trebuie decât să rostesc o invocaţie a pământului către ceruri ca să pot explica adevărata semnificaţie a lumii sub aspectul divin. Deocamdată lucrarea este neterminată, dar cu siguranţă atunci când va fi gata, va fi cea mai renumită din domeniul cultural-artistic.

Căci, da, stiloul meu acţionează prin mijlocirea puterii naturale date de subtilităţile şi motivaţiile scrisului incluse în studiul vieţii sufleteşti, ca dizolvant al conştiinţei de a aparţine unui Tot Nedivizat, la fel cum alchimistul acţionează asupra "Materiei Primordiale" în scopul deosebirii sufletului de corp, esenţialul de neesenţial, dintre "lucrul în sine" și "fenomenul abstract".

Dacă observaţi cu atenţie, viziunea pe care mi-o oferă stiloul despre lucruri şi despre mine însumi este o înfăţişare a unui moment extraordinar, preţios şi rar, când mă proiectez astral în altă lume ca să fac legătura între sacru şi poetic, între spirit şi corp.

Leadership: Poţi să încarci imaginea unei noi dimensiuni a personalităţii tale cu detalii care maximizează efectul recunoaşterii unei perspective noi de receptare a realităţii constituită prin intermediul cuvântului sfânt?

Iată, în acest fel se pot atrage elementele naturale, ca o chemare profetică tradusă în prisma infinită a sfinţilor, deci a artiştilor consacraţi: prin unirea dintre lucruri, gânduri şi fenomene, de altfel toţi suntem atinşi de ele la nivel de cunoaştere prin revelaţie. Or, ecoul imaginii pe care nu am cum s-o uit, fiindcă mă pune în centrul unei teme artistice vechi de când lumea: "Mâna care mişcă Aştrii", întruneşte condiţia obligatorie a unui spirit luminat de sclipiri de geniu ce şi-a dedicat întreaga existenţă universului numit "Eu însumi".

Dar aceleaşi elemente se pot respinge între ele prin caracterul unei călăuziri a privirii grosiere spre partea cea mai puţin prietenoasă cu mediul, spre partea cea mai puţin vizibilă a materialului calitativ, aferent unei schimbări de substanţă ale distinselor "voci în materie", greu de transpus într-un limbaj universal. Sau ale cărui sensuri preliminare au dispărut prin nefolosire, prin neîntreţinere sau prin neaducere aminte.

Aţi înţeles. Cuvântul sfânt este un act artistic gândit și controlat prin care se realizează, direct sau indirect, apropierea de prezenţa Creatorului Suprem.

Şi nu doar stiloul leagă arta de alchimie, cerul de pământ, sufletul de materie. Şi pensula pictorului poate face vrăji şi farmece, chemând soarele, luna, stelele, elementele naturii să o ajute în ceea ce vrea ea să ducă la bun sfârşit, exprimându-se printr-un limbaj magic care dă viață unui dialog mutual între imaginea vizuală, partea verbală sau nonverbală din lucruri, și saltul în reflecția imediată asupra fiecărui amănunt al reducerii la esenţial. Adică, reducerea unei imagini în culori la nuanțe ale unei singure culori.

Imaginea cheie a dimensiunii personalităţii mele în plan artistic poate fi identificată cu o altă versiune a lui Eu Însumi, cel care voi fi la o altă vârstă, atunci când Creatorul Universului mă va chema să fiu una cu El.

Trăirile şi gândurile mele nu se pierd în negura timpului, ci se translatează din punct de vedere morfologic într-o cu totul altă formă, la fel cum arma unui pictor rămâne întotdeauna culoarea, în special dacă iau în considerare un anumit grad de comparaţie cu ceea ce se numeşte "cuvântul-imagine".

Cu claritate, cu duioşie, fără pretenţii de exclusivitate, sper ca apropierea mea de artă să fie suportul vizibil şi fizic al unei memorii care aduce tuturor amintirea comună a unei lumi cândva existente, dar neculese pe câmpul unei discuţii despre semnificaţia cuvântului "compoziţie". Încă îmi caut înţelesul lăuntric...

Prizonier în propria creaţie este artistul atent şi minuţios, înclinat să folosească stiloul şi pensula în scopul producerii unei eliberări din cătuşele gândurilor care absorb existenţa unei determinări superioare explicată în termeni de "similaritate dusă la nivel superior".

Da, aş vrea să fiu Creatorul Universului, poate chiar sunt, dar nu sunt sigur că sunt în stare să-mi suport în singurătate luciditatea, judecata la care m-am supus.

Prizonier în pustiul ştiinţei

Caută să cuprinzi universul ştiinţei, fără să-ţi extinzi perimetru de exploatare a omului dincolo de limita admisibilului.

Precizia măsurătorii unui perimetru depinde de metodele şi instrumentele folosite, care sunt alese în funcţie de precizia dorită şi timpul aferent. Dar când vine vorba de om, de "terenul" acesta greu de apreciat, greu de exploatat şi de pătruns, constituind o provocare pentru oricine se avântă pe meleagurile ştiinţei, se cere şi efectuarea măsurării unghiurilor caracterului care se modifică odată cu etapele vieţii.

Ştiinţa este impactul unei tehnologii asupra vieţii, asupra realităţii şi asupra puterii. Astfel, cercetătorul poate folosi în sprijinul experimentelor sale una din următoarele metode. Metoda deterministă, dar cu impact negativ asupra statusului funcţional. Sau metoda profundă, care sensibilizează până la limită, sau chiar dincolo de ea, mărind pulsaţia conştiinţei.

Doctorul Frederick Chilton alege metoda de mijloc: condiţionarea subiectului principal de studiu prin izolarea lui de orice contact cu lumea exterioară. O teroare subtilă care întrece picătura chinezească prin simplitate, cauzând acea necesitate lăuntrică de a comunica orice gând sau sentiment. Singurătatea produce starea de suferinţă supremă. Şi ea se cere umplută numai prin dialog.

Tentaţia cea mai mare a unui om de ştiinţă este să se considere un miracol al naturii prin însăşi experienţa sa de a interveni în cursul firesc al lumii, pentru asta fiind în stare să renunţe la orice lucru sau fiinţă care nu-i este de folos.

Doctorul Chilton vrea să facă noi descoperiri, să aducă noi detalii despre complexitatea factorului uman. Aflat sub imperiul pasiunii imense de a cerceta ascunzişurile omului, el îl supune pe Hannibal Lecter încercării repetate de a se autodepăşi într-un cadru foarte restrâns. Vrea, poate, să recreeze natura umană în funcţie de rezultatul spectaculos al măsurătorii unui sistem care nu este determinist. Şi să emită noi teorii. Dar pentru a scoate la iveală comori de ordin ştiinţific, Chilton trebuie să se dedice trup şi suflet tentaţiei sale nebuneşti de a destabiliza structura de fond a pacientului său.

După cum marele erudit Richard Bentley voia să folosească "Principia" pentru a demonstra intervenţia lui Dumnezeu în mersul lumii, dr. Chilton vrea să folosească cunoştinţele dobândite pe urma observării lui Hannibal Lecter pentru a demonstra o nouă dimensiune a naturii umane, supuse rupturii de echilibru între raţiune şi emoţie. Apoi, nu-i mai rămâne decât să se debaraseze de "cobaiul" său.

Leadership: Îţi explorezi lumea interioară sub deviza "Stay Alive", adăugând valoarea "True" la condiţia de fond a reprezentării tale pe traseul sinuos al formării unui caracter puternic?

Însă Hannibal Lecter, cobaiul bătrân rezistent la orice veninuri, reacţionează întotdeauna imprevizibil. Nimeni nu poate experimenta slăbiciunile sale, cu niciun chip el nu cedează în faţa unui tratament ostil. Nimeni nu poate să bată un cui de plastic în carcasa de oţel a minţii sclipitoare, oricât ar fi de maleabil. Şi asta deoarece procedurile stocate în mintea sa, cu numeroase instrucțiuni de control și comenzi avansate de update, sunt greu de schimbat.

În cazul lui Hannibal nu se pot înregistra deviaţii de personalitate. Iar funcţiile de căutare " VLOOKUP ", HLOOKUP şi " MATCH ", la nivel de gânduri, emoţii şi trăiri, ca metode de investigare şi observare amănunţită, sunt foarte greu de accesat de către un cercetător.

Cu atât mai puţin în cazul doctorului Frederick Chilton. Căci dorinţa lui debordantă, care ar necesita sute de ore de cercetări, nu poate depăşi altitudinea de mii de încercări de reproiectare a gândirii fiinţei umane la care a ajuns Hannibal Lecter.

Nivelul cel mai înalt al reuşitei lui Hannibal, în ceea ce priveşte capacitatea de persuasiune, este aidoma unui munte inaccesibil majorităţii alpiniştilor. Iar acest Great Eyry pe care doar foarte puţin psihologi îl pot atinge, este, ca să spunem aşa, inaccesibil doctorului Chilton. Acest alpinist incomod, fără frânghii de căţărare, este neglijat complet de biruitorul înălţimilor cele mai de sus.

Există o limită în precizia cu care se face oricare măsurătoare, în funcţie de deprinderea operatorului. Mai ales dacă acestuia îi lipseşte elanul pentru creaţie al omului de geniu care, datorită autocunoaşterii şi experienţei profunde, nu are nevoie să izoleze o minte străină ca să cuprindă universul ştiinţei.

Leadership: Îţi experimentezi împlinirea de ordin profesional pe „subiecte umane" mai avansate, cu precădere în situaţia în care te pui în prim planul unui fenomen care nu este direct, ci intermediat de o vedere peste "întreg" ?

Efectul folosirii funcţiei şi autorităţii asupra individului, mai ales asupra potenţialului sau extraordinar de a furniza noi probe utile, concludente, pertinente cauzei pe care o serveşti (atingerea perfecţiunii în practica leadershipului), nu este uniform pe tot parcursul drumului până la țintă pe întreg ciclul de evoluţie.

A încerca să dezvolţi o nouă modalitate de gândire, exploatând factorul uman ca pe o provocare uriaşă, nu-ţi va garanta ieşirea din labirintul de contradicţii în care sigur vei ajunge să te pierzi.

Intenţionezi să foloseşti cunoştinţele dobândite pe urma observării omului, care se supune doar propriei sale autorităţi, pentru a demonstra o nouă dimensiune a naturii umane? Dacă da, atunci ia mai întâi în calcul " imprevizibilul ", harta imprecisă a modului în care el reacţionează.

Materia primă, substanţa primordială a întregii tale activităţi de cercetare, Omul , poate produce un excedent de concluzii dificil de asimilat. Sau poate crea anumite ambiguităţi care te plasează într-o zonă incertă. Aşadar, caută să cuprinzi universul ştiinţei, fără să-ţi extinzi perimetru de exploatare a omului dincolo de limita admisibilului.

Căci, s-ar putea ca în dorinţa de împlinire de ordin profesional, făcând experimente pe „subiecte umane" cu structură complicată ca experienţă şi model de gândire, să te împotmoleşti şi mai tare într-o rutină a analizei şi mestecării informaţiei. O dinamică neprevăzută a expansiunii spre nişte orizonturi pe cât de ademenitoare, pe atât de obscure şi de înşelătoare.

O vedere peste "întreg" se formează din tentaţia de a cuceri culmile cele mai înalte ştiinţei, sub aspectul unei intervenţii de ordin psihologic asupra omului, în încercarea de a face din el un instrument pasiv în mâinile unui Dumnezeu atotputernic.

Prizonier în pustiul ştiinţei devine acel lider care, în dorinţa de a atinge performanţe deosebite, se cramponează pe disecarea "factorului uman" luat ca o entitate individuală. Pierzând astfel din vedere "factorul uman" ca o entitate colectivă. Ca urmare, în loc să minimalizeze riscul apariţiei unor efecte nedorite, el rămâne captiv al unei cercetări care îl îndepărtează de scopul iniţial.

Prizonierii timpului

Activează prezentul printr-o comandă de tip "Update", ca să asiguri unitatea dintre conţinut şi formă în strânsa lor coeziune şi interdependenţă.

Neliniştit, dar stăpân pe sine, generalul Wellington era călare şi rămase acolo toată ziua, în aceeaşi atitudine, puţin mai sus de vechea moară de la Mont Saint-Jean. Wellington a dat dovadă de un eroism rece. Ploua cu ghiulele. Aghiotantul Gordon căzuse la picioarele lui. Lordul Hill, arătându-i un obuz care tocmai exploda, îi spuse: " Milord, ce instrucţiuni şi ce ordine ne lăsaţi dacă veţi fi ucis? "

Wellington îi răspunse: " Să faceţi ca mine ! Să ţineţi piept aici până la ultimul om ! " *

Leadership: Îţi raportezi forma de manifestare a sinelui la conţinutul timpului, într-un punct în care se suprapun efectele ambiţiei excesive cu acţiunea unor anumite solicitări ale cauzelor evenimentelor?

Liderul este factorul important în promovarea valorilor şi idealurilor, este schimbarea plină de semnificaţii şi plină de provocări (nu de promisiuni), pe care o văd ceilalţi. Este un fel de generator al posibilităţilor de a juca un rol-cheie în promovarea unei conştiinţe care trezeşte oamenii din starea dominantă de confuzie sau moleşeală, îndemnându-i la acţiune prin adoptarea unei atitudini ferme care pune în valoare calităţile lor cele mai relevante.

Vei înţelege că în evoluţia leadershipului există anumite evenimente care nu sunt luate în seamă serios, pe care istoricii şi experţii fie le evită, fie le trec sub tăcere. În special prezentul pur al trăirii omului, existent mai ales în stadiul trezirii conştiinţei, care dă startul spre autenticitate, marcată de îndemnul la deşteptare, la luptă, la unitate.

Numai acest prezent, activat printr-o comandă de tip "Update", continuă să te reprezinte, îndemnându-te să te gândeşti la ce poţi face mai bine pentru a cuprinde încă un vârf de experienţă necesară consolidării valorilor şi obiectivelor care dau fermitate leadershipului. Fii responsabil pentru acele evenimente care fac o diferenţă şi transformă atitudini.

Ce se întâmplă în fundamentele spirituale ale acestei evoluţii, începând cu prezentul, unde găsim în germene multe forme de manifestare ale sinelui adevărat care reuşeşte să se conecteze la sfera evenimentelor, automotivându-se şi învingându-şi condiţia de prizonierat într-un timp care continuă să se dilate?

Pentru obţinerea unor performanţe garantate, ca mod de achitare a obligaţiei morale faţă de susţinătorii tăi, este important să-ţi raportezi forma de manifestare a sinelui la conţinutul timpului, la acea unitate nevăzută care îţi marchează fiecare pas din viață, mereu, în orice circumstanțe. Adică să accepţi sensul existenţei ca al uneia care este, în esenţă, o lucrare desfăşurată pe frontul de luptă al motivaţiilor, al temerilor şi al perspectivei asupra distribuirii statusurilor. Ca lider, tu eşti deţinătorul unui status care influenţează statusurile celorlalţi oameni în mijlocul evenimentelor.

Leadershipul este timpul pe care ţi-l acorzi ţie însuţi într-o călătorie din care s-ar putea să nu te mai întorci, dar din care înveţi o lecţie importantă: mai bine să rezişti oricăror opoziţii, decât să-ţi dispreţuieşti propria fiinţă aleasă ca model de decizie hotărâtoare care schimbă destinul pentru generaţiile viitoare.

Prizonierii timpului reproduce acea realitatea resimţită acut căreia trebuie să-i găseşti mereu o contrapondere în faţa incertitudinilor şi, mai ales, a fatalităţii, pentru a nu-i deveni victimă prin simpla acceptare a statusului de persona indefensos . Reliefează necesitatea de a fi ancorat în prezentul mereu în schimbare, în funcţie de cerinţele evenimentelor de zi cu zi, pentru a face faţă unui viitor incert.

Prizonierul unei gândiri prodigioase

Creează-ţi o imagine obiectivă a ceea ce vrei să fii, fără să te poziţionezi într-un context variabil de evoluţie situat la limita dintre cunoscut şi necunoscut.

Nu eram ca una din acele fiinţe cuprinse între formulele unei realităţi fără adevăr, fără deschidere, fără întoarcere, pline de contraste, despre care numai Cyrano de Bergerac, în călătoria lui spre soare, în imaginaţia lui de necuprins, ar fi luat la cunoştinţă. Nu eram nici ca unul din acei titani din Olimp, înzestraţi cu puterea de a stăpâni universul. Da, pare neînţeles. O mândrie invincibilă mă lega, ca în vraja unor obscure solicitări ale căutării de sine, de o altă faţetă a personalităţii mele.

Simţeam că ceva mă urmăreşte, umbra ştearsă a propriei mele slăbiciuni. Ba nu, era altceva, o tentativă de construire a unei identităţi aparte, prin refuzul oricărei imperfecţiuni, prin negarea oricărei esenţe care ar putea să se ridice şi existe mai presus de Eul subiectiv. Straniu, nu mai eram sigur că sunt personajul din ecranizarea propriei mele vieţi. Ci doar un mecanism de interacţiune dintre două extreme, mărginit şi nemărginit. Un mic univers oscilant, în care totul este variabil, în care nu mai poţi fi sigur nici măcar de trecerea timpului, în care nu există legi, în care nu mai primează realitatea. Ci doar imaginarul.

Eram bine poziţionat în această dimensiune a polarităţilor, precum eroul unui roman celebru care oscila fără limite între lumea imaginară a cărţilor şi propria sa viaţă interioară, în care era zăvorât. Fiecare secundă nu mai conta, nimic nu mai putea fi cântărit cu luciditate, fiecare atom din mine se orienta pe o nouă frecvenţă. Asta era căptuşeala mea, tâlcul meu din spatele întrebărilor fără răspuns.

Nu aşa se spune, că omul, înainte de a-şi pierde personalitatea, se eclipsează în dosul ficţiunii ţesuse cu naturaleţe în cele mai reuşite pagini. Totul începea să se învârtească în mintea mea, încet, ca un du-te-vino al cuvintelor magice dintr-o carte fără sfârşit. Mi se părea totul ireal, ieşit din cadrul puterii mele de înţelegere. Inevitabil, eram obsedat de esenţa a ceea ce eram. Cred că o luasem razna de tot cu această obsesie. Nu mai ştiam dacă pot rămâne aceeaşi persoană sau nu, o parte a unui capitol dintr-o carte rămasă neterminată.

Leadership: Îţi analizezi poziţia faţă de ceea ce superior propriei tale realităţi, dând viaţa unor noi modele de interpretare a propriei existenţe care nu se repetă niciodată?

În încercarea de a da viaţă unor noi modele de interpretare a propriei existenţe, care dau consistenţă laturii nevăzute a varietăţii de roluri, valori şi aşteptări, dezvoltându-le şi implementându-le într-o „lume nouă", trebuie să-ţi analizezi poziţia faţă de ceea ce superior propriei tale realităţi.

Adică, să trasezi coordonatele unei viziuni mai profunde, mai complexe, dincolo de lumea materială, care poate să asigure continuitatea gândirii bazată pe o altă manieră de a vedea lucrurile şi de a înţelege viaţa. Subiectiv şi obiectiv. Imaginar şi Real. Dar fără să te rezumi la orizont plin de paradoxuri.

Puterea gândirii superioare, prin formarea unei noi concepţii despre sine, inserate în formula magică „ I am a completely different person ", îndreaptă viziunea într-o direcţie paralelă conştiinţei, prin virtutea de a se automultiplica şi amplifica.

Acest lucru este posibil prin manifestarea nemulţumirii faţă de sterilitatea prezentului, sau prin cultivarea unui ideal înalt, autoimpus, care înlătură efectele de umbră, de măşti, a realităţii interioare, lăsând loc posibilităţilor de imaginaţie să se concretizeze într-o formă materială.

Atunci când simţi că nu aparţii unui anumit loc, când simţi că nu eşti suficient de puternic să-ţi asumi rolul de protector al unei gândiri independente, ajungi să te proiectezi în viitor altfel faţă de cum eşti. Ceea ce denotă o abordare a cunoaşterii dincolo de frontierele realităţii, acceptate ca fundament al evoluţiei personale. O cunoaştere pusă sub semnul subiectivităţii unei reflecții sensibile a realității, dar care asigură o mai bună înțelegere a sinelui și a motivațiilor personale. În acest caz, omul capătă o valoare adiţională, pozitivă şi negativă totodată, prin acceptarea dependenţei faţă de un alt fel de a fi, într-un context mai greu de înţeles pentru mentalităţile retrograde.

Singurul model de interpretare a existenţei care nu se repetă niciodată este în strânsă legătură cu manifestarea unei noi realităţi din poziţia conştiinţei de a nu denatura frumuseţea lumii văzute prin prisma experienţelor proprii. Iar ceea ce este superior acestei realităţi, neputându-se concretiza într-o formă materială, corespunde tentativei de construire a unei identităţi aparte, prin negarea oricărei esenţe a unei vieţi cu semnificaţie care ar putea să se ridice mai presus de Eul subiectiv.

Leadership: Oscilezi între două contradicţii: datoria de a accepta adevărul a ceea ce eşti şi necesitatea de a-l ascunde?

Vis sau realitate? Eroul principal al romanului „Reţeaua gândurilor" se întreba dacă ceea ce a trăit este un produs oniric sau este, dimpotrivă, adevărat. Dar cel care îşi punea de fapt întrebarea este chiar autorul, Herbert Frank, iar sensul ei nu pare altul: nu-i aşa că asemenea lucruri ar trebui să nu se întâmple decât în vis?

Leadershipul este parte a unui proces de evoluţie din ce în ce mai greu de anticipat, promovând armonia dintre gândire, existenţă şi realitate, ce nu îmbrăţişează decât particularul, adică o reprezentare unică a identităţii. Altfel spus, un lider poate să oscileze între două contradicţii: datoria de a accepta adevărul a ceea ce este şi necesitatea de a-l ascunde, în cazul în care se eclipsează în dosul ficţiunii datorate mândriei de a fi mai mult decât este.

De fapt, fiecare lider va fi supus probei „trăirii" de-a lungul procesului de evoluţie, prin intermediul nevoii de a aduce în planul concretului lucrurile considerate nepalpabile, idealiste sau irealizabile. Prin exploatarea nevoii de identitate şi prin satisfacerea nevoii de reinventare personală.

Din prisma cunoscutului şi a necunoscutului care influenţează direct realitatea asupra căreia te concentrezi, o parte a leadershipului s-ar putea constitui într-un fel de ştiinţă a relaţiilor dintre aspectele cele mai diverse ale vieţii şi aspectele ascunse ale personalităţii ce ies la suprafaţă doar printr-o deschidere către fantastic, după multe încercări de definire a noţiunii de "gândire inovatoare".

Prizonierul unei gândiri prodigioase este omul care caută sa se cunoască mai bine şi să genereze o devenire favorabilă, prin abordări neliniare ale realităţii, printr-o conturare accentuată a neverosimilului.

Dar numai cine îşi creează o imagine obiectivă a ceea ce este, fără să se poziţioneze într-un context variabil de evoluţie (trecându-l prin sita imaginarului şi structurându-l în sensul ideologiilor prezentului), va putea să-şi păstreze coerenţa identităţii.

Analizează cu seriozitate şi opusul evoluţiei, creaţia pe care tu însuţi o zămisleşti şi ţi-o impui: „ To be someone else ".

Proba de îndemânare

Ajustează-ţi atitudinea şi practicile adecvat în raport cu propriul tău potenţial de a crea rezultate, pentru ca leadershipul tău să prindă contur.

În timpul unei călătorii pe Nil, faraonul Kheops a dorit cu orice preţ să verifice abilităţile fiilor săi de a conduce o barca şi i-a pus să vâslească. El le-a spus fiilor săi: " Cine ştie să conducă o barcă îşi dovedeşte deja capacitatea de a guverna o ţară. Amândouă cer îndemânare, statornicie şi fermitate. "

Abilitatea de a-i conduce pe oameni este similară cu conducerea unei bărci. Oricât de banal ar părea la prima vedere condusul unei bărci nu este un lucru uşor. Dacă urci pentru prima oară într-o barcă abia o vei putea urni din loc, iar apoi, mai mult ca sigur, ori te vei învârti în cerc ori te vei deplasa foarte încet. Dar cu timpul, dacă exersezi, dacă înveţi cum să mânuieşti vâslele şi cum să-ţi sincronizezi mişcările braţelor, vei putea să navighezi în direcţia aleasă de tine cu mai multa uşurinţă.

Dacă eşti la început de drum şi nu ştii cum să-i conduci pe oameni în direcţia aleasă de tine, probabil că îţi lipseşte îndemânarea. Însă nu trebuie să îţi faci griji. Este normal ca la început să fii neîndemânatic. Fii convins că foarte puţini lideri au avut un talent înnăscut, marea lor majoritate şi-au cultivat în timp talentul. Doar exersând zi de zi vei ajunge să deprinzi cunoştinţele şi abilităţile necesare unui leadership eficient.

Leadership: Începi să-ţi manifeşti înclinaţia spre asumarea gestionării riscului de tipul "transfer de prerogative" datorat exemplului semnificativ de determinism creat în diferite activităţi voluntare?

Aşa cum un bun cârmaci opreşte nava, ori o face să vireze, spre a ocoli vârtejurile primejdioase pe care vâslaşii nu le zăresc – tot aşa şi potenţialul tău de lider, ca să nu se diminueze, şi pentru ca influenţa ta să continue să crească prin intermediul celorlalţi, trebuie mai întâi să-ţi ajustezi atitudinea în mod corespunzător, să schimbi ceea ce nu merge şi să fii prudent. Gestionează-ţi bine resursele interioare şi abilităţile, coordonează-ţi mai bine practicile în aşa fel încât să simţi că faci progrese. Nu uita că progresul tău contribuie la progresul celorlalţi.

Nimic nu este uşor, dar nici imposibil. Obţinerea unor performanţe de nivel înalt necesită un efort continuu şi susţinut. Dacă te dedici studiului neîntrerupt şi dezvoltării profesionale, vei deprinde cu timpul abilităţile necesare pentru a lucra eficient cu oamenii şi pentru a-i conduce. Cu certitudine trebuie să dai dovadă de îndemânare pentru a-i atrage pe oameni de partea ta. Iar îndemânarea se dobândeşte în timp, prin practică şi exerciţiu.

Transferul de prerogative se datorează exemplului semnificativ de determinism creat în diferite activităţi voluntare atunci când avansezi cu îndrăzneală pe o cale neumblată învăţând să îţi ţii echilibrul pe o distanţă cât mai lungă. Mai întâi echilibrul dintre ceea ce merită să faci și ceea ce poți să faci, apoi echilibrul dintre ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce vrei să arăţi lumii.

Determinismul se manifestă în condiţiile existenţei unei legături de cauzalitate între faptele pe care le săvârşeşti în favoarea cuiva şi judecăţile tale apreciative bazate pe cunoaşterea şi abilităţile pe care le deţii, între tendinţele tale de autonomie şi tendinţele de a apela la altcineva în situaţii în care decizia o poţi lua singur.

Sau, după cum spune dicţionarul, determinismul este o concepție conform căreia se identifică cauzalitatea cu necesitatea, excluzând întâmplarea.

Modul în care îţi menţii echilibrul în orice situaţie determină valoarea timpului pe care îl controlezi prin voinţa cu care abordezi o ascensiune îndrăzneaţă, prin voinţa cu care ai reuşit să treci peste teamă şi să obţii noi performanţe.

Proba de îndemânare începe cu experienţa trăirii unui eveniment de tipul "First Look", la care iei parte dintr-o poziţie de curiozitate, şi se finalizează cu prilejul unui eveniment de tip "Stay in Balance" la care eşti obligat să te declari apt.

Pe scurt, leadershipul trebuie să fie un proces dinamic, bazat pe motivaţie, şi nu trebuie transformat într-un duplicat care are valabilitate doar în ziua curentă "examinării" tale. Pentru ca leadershipul tău să prindă contur şi să aibă valabilitate pe termen lung, trebuie să-ţi ajustezi atitudinea şi practicile adecvat în raport cu propriul tău potenţial de a crea rezultate, chiar şi în lipsa examinatorilor.

Problema centrală a montajului audio-vizual

Leadershipul în regie se manifestă prin abilitatea de a folosi presiunea timpului ca un catalizator pentru decizii creative, ajustând structura și intensitatea scenelor în funcție de momentele cheie.

Rămâne încă de rezolvat problema centrală a montajului audio-vizual. Termenul de realizare îl grăbește pe maestrul Eisenstein. De trei ori până acum a fost nevoit să-l readucă pe parcursul producției (în afara reducerii substanțiale prin filmarea bătăliei în plină vară). Ritmul acesta drăcesc îl obosește peste măsură. A fost o muncă de iad, va comenta după terminarea filmului, care l-a ostenit într-atâta încât, luni de zile după premieră, încă nu se poate concentra în obișnuita sa activitate teoretică.

Cât de mult ar dori acum să poată experimenta în liniște, cu metodă și control, atâtea gânduri și dorințe acumulate în anii de meditație asupra cinematografului sonor! Dar filmul trebuie să fie terminat până la 7 noiembrie. Termenul nu poate fi amânat cu niciun chip. De aici, dureroase renunțări: o scenă întreagă, cea de pe podul peste Volchov, anevoios filmată, este acum pur și simplu aruncată – spre marele regret al lui Eisenstein – pentru că graba nu permite finisarea ei. Întrevede o nouă tragedie: renunțarea la toate ideile sale privind montajul audio-vizual, imposibile de realizat fără mult răgaz, fără numeroase încercări la masa de montaj. Atunci, în acest moment, are norocul să se întâlnească cu calitățile deosebite ale lui Serghei Prokofiev.

Leadership: Poți să-ți demonstrezi capacitatea de a adapta planificarea inițială la realitățile producției, fără a sacrifica calitatea narațiunii?

Incompatibilitatea sau compatibilitatea insuficientă a multor scene în montajul audio-vizual limitează folosirea acestora în cazuri de complexitate narativă ridicată. În aceste condiții, este necesar să se recurgă la tehnici complexe – de exemplu, experimentarea cu ritmul, pentru a facilita coerența narativă. Mai ales că, pentru a se obține o narațiune completă, se utilizează uneori mai multe tipuri de montaj, fiecare dintre acestea având efecte satisfăcătoare în secvențe unde celelalte ar crea obsesii creative.

Practica a arătat că nu există un termen de realizare perfect inert, în ideea că timpul influențează întotdeauna procesul creativ. Ideile regizorului, cu excepția celor de structură și ale scenelor nepolare, sunt influențate mai mult sau mai puțin de natura presiunii timpului, judecând după faptul că deciziile creative se schimbă sub presiune. În general, într-o situație de urgență, scenele corespunzătoare meditațiilor profunde sunt deplasate spre momente mai puțin intense, iar cele corespunzătoare acțiunilor dinamice sunt deplasate spre momente mai intense, față de situația din planificarea inițială (când ideile erau libere).

Leadership: Poți să îți demonstrezi abilitatea de a menține coerența narativă în situații de complexitate ridicată, evitând obsesiile creative?

De obicei, au loc și modificări ale intensității și duratei scenelor, în efortul de a maximiza impactul în timp limitat.

S-au elaborat o serie de teorii care încearcă să lege aceste modificări de natura procesului de creație, mai exact de caracteristicile sale macroscopice – concentrarea regizorului și claritatea viziunii sale, ambele cazuri reprezentând factori cruciali în procesul creativ. Relațiile obținute pentru modificările intensității și duratei scenelor sunt foarte complicate, dar le putem prezenta pe scurt aici ca fiind niște ecuații ale creativității sub presiune.

Așa cum solvenții influențează vibrațiile moleculare, presiunea timpului influențează ritmul și structura filmului, acesta fiind modul în care se nasc soluții creative neașteptate. De asemenea, renunțările dureroase la anumite scene, precum cea de pe podul peste Volchov, sunt similare cu modificările în structura moleculară cauzate de solvenți, mai ales că pot duce la o reconfigurare benefică a întregului. În final, întâlnirea cu Serghei Prokofiev poate fi văzută ca descoperirea unui "solvent" perfect, capabil să armonizeze elementele audio-vizuale chiar și în condiții de timp limitat, permițând astfel realizarea unui montaj audio-vizual complex și inovator.

Leadershipul în montajul cinematografic implică abilitatea de a depăși incompatibilitățile dintre scene, printr-un proces flexibil de tipul "montajului asociativ", pentru a menține coerența narativă.

Procedura chirurgicală necesită o planificare minuțioasă și precizie, similar cu rezolvarea problemei centrale a montajului audio-vizual. Medicul, asemenea unui maestru, trebuie să aibă control deplin asupra fiecărui aspect al intervenției. În timpul operației, echipa medicală trebuie să urmeze un ritm strict pentru a minimiza riscurile, la fel cum termenul de realizare grăbește producția. După intervenție, pacientul are nevoie de timp pentru a se recupera în liniște, fără perturbări, reflectând dorința de a experimenta în liniște și metodă.

Experimentarea și ajustările sunt cruciale pentru succesul pe termen lung, la fel cum gândurile și dorințele acumulate în anii de meditație asupra cinematografului sonor sunt esențiale. Fiecare decizie trebuie luată cu mare atenție, chiar dacă uneori, în ciuda eforturilor intense, se impun renunțări dureroase. Acestea sunt esențiale pentru a asigura cel mai bun rezultat posibil, în mod similar cu eliminarea scenei de pe podul peste Volchov, regretată de maestrul Eisenstein. Astfel, în această complexă procedură, apar tragedii și regrete, dar și norocul de a întâlni calitățile deosebite ale unui colaborator de valoare.

Esența leadershipului în cinematografie constă în capacitatea de a adapta viziunea creativă la constrângerile temporale, restructurând scenele în funcție de intensitatea momentelor cheie, pentru a menține coerența emoțională și narativă.

Problema centrală a montajului audio-vizual este că sincronizarea perfectă între sunet și imagine necesită timp și experimentare, urmând un proces meticulos până în momentul finalizării complete a filmului. Spun asta deoarece graba în producție afectează inevitabil calitatea montajului, menit să consolideze atmosfera și emoția, mai ales în ceea ce privește impactul asupra audienței.

Procedura de urgenţă

Maximizează-ţi nivelul de autoacceptare şi motivaţie în asumarea unui rol cheie, prin intermediul a ceea ce te face să suferi în cazul când nu te ridici la înălţimea rolului tău.

În meseria de medic, care necesită foarte multe obligaţii şi un nivel înalt de instruire, nu poţi fi niciodată sigur de ceea ce îţi rezervă viitorul. O mulţime de probleme pot apărea pe neaşteptate, obligându-te să ieşi din modul tău standard de gândire, să te adaptezi situaţiilor foarte diferite, foarte complexe. Şi să gândeşti ca un om de acţiune care, cu întregul avânt al inimii sale, cu un entuziasm deosebit, dar bazându-se şi pe intuiţie şi cunoştinţe temeinice, se grăbeşte să-şi îndeplinească obiectivele care i-au fost atribuite.

Ca medic, fii convins că abilităţile, atitudinea, voinţa, capacitatea de reacţie rapidă, spiritul de discernământ faţă de tine şi faţă de alţii, îţi vor fi puse la grele încercări, în situaţii foarte delicate, în împrejurări cu adevărat extraordinare.

Leadership: Felul în care slujeşti unui scop al unităţii dintre conştiinţă şi angajamentul faţă de responsabilitatea socială, vine să demonstreze măreţia pe care o trăieşti prin cultivarea sentimentului de vinovăţie?

Să luăm exemplul unui ştrand, în care există mai multe bazine de înot, pentru copii şi adulţi. Eşti unul dintre cei trei medici, de la punctul sanitar de urgenţe (care, evident, trebuie să îndeplinească condiţiile de funcţionare), din cadrul Serviciului de Ambulanţă. Nu trebuie să fii mereu atent la ce se întâmplă în bazinele de înot, fiindcă asta intră în atribuţiile salvamarilor, dar este imperios necesar să fii pregătit să acţionezi în cazul în care se întâmplă un accident. Trebuie să fii o persoană responsabilă, capabilă să ia decizii rapide şi ferme.

Şi să presupunem că, într-o zi, când ceilalţi doi colegi ai tăi sunt plecaţi la masă, eşti anunţat că ceva groaznic s-a întâmplat la ultimul bazin de înot. În timp ce te deplasezi degrabă spre locul indicat auzi ţipete şi observi că este scos din bazin un copil livid şi fără vlagă. E întins pe nisip şi toţi se uită la el şi nu fac nimic. Ajungi imediat la faţa locului. Ce faci în clipa următoare?

1. Te panichezi şi încerci să-i contactezi telefonic pe ceilalţi doi colegi ai tăi sau pe şeful ierarhic?

2. Soliciţi intervenţia SMURD?

3. Întocmeşti foaia de observaţie?

4. Recoltezi probe pentru analiza de laborator (sânge, urină, coprocultura, spută, etc.)?

5. Intervii prompt cu măsuri de resuscitare cardiovasculară?

Măreţia pe care o trăieşti prin cultivarea sentimentului de vinovăţie se poate observa în felul în care reacţionezi atunci când ţi se reproşează anumite lucruri sau fapte: simţi că ţi se rupe sufletul de ce s-a întâmplat, dar consideri cu toată fiinţa ta c-ai făcut tot ce-ai putut ca să îndrepţi situaţia.

Desigur, normal este să intervii cu măsuri de resuscitare, şi abia ulterior să cercetezi cauzele care au dus la producerea tragediei. Cauzele pot fi multiple: stop cardiac, hipoglicemie, spasmofilie, atac cerebral, etc. Ar fi însă o greşeală care poate costa viaţa bolnavului să nu intervii degrabă cu măsuri de resuscitare şi să pierzi timp preţios cu îndoielile tale. Întâi şi întâi intervii cu ce poţi, cu toate resursele pe care le ai la îndemână, cu toate metodele posibile, cu îndrăzneală şi multă atenţie, înţelegând bine că numai de tine depinde viaţa celui în suferinţă. Dar, şi la asta voiam să ajung, cel mai important lucru este să respecţi procedura specifică instituită pentru asemenea cazuri.

Doar într-o astfel de împrejurare, când are loc un accident grav şi eşti nevoit să intervii, se poate observa iscusinţa ta, ca medic. Degeaba intenţionezi să faci bine un pacient dacă nu cunoşti şi nu respecţi procedura pe care o ai de urmat în caz de urgenţă, şi dacă nu dai dovadă de multă promptitudine, inteligenţă şi îndrăzneală.

Când cunoşti procedura, fă ce trebuie făcut într-o asemenea împrejurare gravă. În ceea ce priveşte soarta pacientului, ea stă numai în mâinile tale.

Leadership: Îţi urmăreşti propria poveste care cucereşte inimile tuturor într-un episod "Puterea destinului" care uimeşte prin intensitatea sentimentului pe care îl ai faţă de persoana căreia i-ai hotărât alt drum?

Este de o importanţă majoră ca în orice unitate medicală să fie clar precizata procedura în cazul primirii unor urgenţe medicale, astfel încât medicii să poată interveni prompt şi să ia imediat măsurile potrivite. Procedura de urgenţă implică, în primul rând, terapia necesară susţinerii funcţiilor vitale (respiraţie, circulaţie, tonusul neurovegetativ, activitatea sistemului nervos, excreţia, etc). Ulterior, când bolnavul are stabilizate funcţiile vitale se pot solicita investigaţii care să orienteze medicul spre diagnostic şi terapie etiologică.

Instituirea şi respectarea unei proceduri de urgenţă în unităţile medicale. Când medicul de gardă primeşte o urgenţă medicală, cum ar fi un bolnav aflat în stop cardiac, el trebuie să cunoască în prealabil procedura specifică pentru urgenţa respectivă şi să o poată aplica. Ce este imperios necesar: să ia proba pentru analize, sau să ia măsurile care se impun pentru că pacientul să-şi reia funcţia cardiacă?

Şi îmi îngădui, pe această cale, să mai pun o întrebare: medicul trebuie să acţioneze de unul singur, sau se cuvinte să apeleze şi la ajutorul altor medici? Răspunsurile la aceste întrebări trebuie să fie incluse în procedura de urgenţă, pe care orice spital trebuie să şi-o definească. Şi este important să menţionez faptul că orice procedură de urgenţă trebuie, în primul rând, să aibă definită noţiunea de urgenţă medicală.

Leadership: Dorinţa ta de a fi necesar într-o situaţie cheie depăşeşte urmările disponibilităţii tale de a accepta asumarea unui rol important din perspectiva a ceea ce eşti dispus să pierzi în cazul unui eşec?

Odată stabilită procedura de urgenţă, ea trebuie obligatoriu să fie cunoscută de către toţi medicii de gardă. În caz de eşec, dacă bolnavul moare, analizând fiecare situaţie în parte, se pot stabili cauzele care au dus la acest deznodământ nefericit, cauze care pot ţine fie de pacient, fie de medic, fie de lacunele procedurii în sine. Iar analiza este necesară pentru îmbunătăţirea continuă a activităţii medicale.

În leadership trebuie să existe o succesiune logică de activităţi şi acţiuni în ordinea importanţei efectelor lor. Există o importanţă gradată a acţiunilor pe care trebuie să le desfăşori, nu poţi acţiona doar urmându-ţi instinctul şi bazându-te pe încrederea în propria ta persoană. Ci este necesar să urmezi un anumit regulament, nu poţi acţiona numai după capul tău, cum crezi tu că-i mai bine. Şi, mai presus de toate, ca lider trebuie să ai o capacitate organizatorică foarte bună, o capacitate decizională ţintită, pentru că efectele să fie cele scontate.

A răspunde de soarta unui om este ca şi cum ai savura cu nesaţ o îngheţată mult prea rece: nu trebuie să dai declaraţie pe propria răspundere în cazul apariţiei unor probleme de sănătate, dar trebuie fii capabil să înduri cauza şi intensitatea durerii care îţi vor afecta întreaga viaţă.

P.S. Într-o situaţie de criză nu mai ai timp să te gândeşti şi să te întrebi: „Acum ce fac", ci trebuie să ai bine stabilite priorităţile, cât şi succesiunea logică a activităţilor necesare înlăturării acestei situaţii nedorite. Desigur, în situaţii grave e bine să existe proceduri scrise.

Procesul vizual reprezintă oglinda artistului

Arta trebuie să renunțe la efemeritate pentru a oferi aspirații eternizate.

Marea își deschide infinitul în fața mea, printr-un soi de calm care face ca arta să capete profunzime într-un tablou care mă captivează şi, în acelaşi timp, îmi amplifică senzația că navighez prin adâncurile liniștite ale unei inimi contemplative. Însă ceea ce cheamă ființa mea la propria ei lume artistică, văzută ca lume a sensurilor profunde, cu deschidere spre spațiile interioare ale emoționalului, mentalului şi ale sufletului, în care funcționează realitatea duală a contrastelor dintre aparenţă şi esenţă, este acea pasiune inextingibilă pentru creație care mă face să nu pot încheia o zi până nu am văzut apusul într-o perspectivă în care timpul pare să se oprească.

Pictorul, supus intenției de a reconstitui ce vede, privește lucrurile ca o luptă a reflexelor, unele contra celorlalte, capabile să fragmenteze forma în așa măsură încât, în ciuda efectului de lumină și umbră, ele să pară simboluri vizuale. Deschise influențelor exterioare, lucrurile se pot modifica în spațiu fără să se anuleze reciproc, participând astfel la jocul colorat al atmosferei în care se află. Și, din profunzimea peisajului, continuat la nesfârșit în lumină, într-o balansare perfectă de nuanțe, lucrurile nu trebuie să creeze iluzia distanței, ci să pară absorbite într-o singură compoziție. Doar astfel reușesc să mă conectez cu esența mea creativă profundă.

Cine uită să asculte marea, uită de el însuși, iar cine n-o priveşte mereu cu dor, nu poate să înţeleagă adâncurile ei. Asta mă duce cu gândul la o poveste scrisă de Carlos Ruiz Zafon, unde o mulţime de oameni îşi doresc să pună mâna pe un roman misterios şi imprevizibil, dar lăsat cu totul uitării în "Cimitirul cărţilor uitate". Unii vor să-l cumpere plătind mai mult decât valorează, alţii îl caută ca să îl ardă. În orice, caz, "Umbra vântului" este o meditaţie profundă asupra destinului omului şi a reflexului acestuia în opera de artă, între peren şi efemer.

Leadership: Prin explorarea temelor profunde poţi influenţa modul în care percepi puterea de a imortaliza frumusețea momentului într-o creaţie artistică?

Într-adevăr marea, la care mă reîntorc mereu, cu neasemuitele ei privelişti pline de culori vii, explorează teme profunde precum destinul, moștenirea și relația dintre viață și artă, aşa încât reprezentarea imaginii mele în tablou pare să constituie portretul unei zile de vară la malul mării, în care briza mângâie delicat nisipul și valurile oferă o senzație plăcută de relaxare și libertate. Dacă romanul lui Zafon urmărește destinul unor personaje complexe și modul în care acestea sunt reflectate și chiar păstrate în cărți, fapt ce reprezintă o formă de artă perenă, tabloul meu urmărește să imortalizeze frumusețea momentului și să o transpun pe pânză, mai original ca oricând, pentru a fi apreciată și păstrată într-o altă formă de artă, cea vizuală.

În contextul unui pictor aflat pe litoral, situat direct în peisajul mării care-l reprezintă, în timp ce creează imagini ale peisajelor marine, ar putea găsi o multitudine de paralele cu spaţiul unui nou câmp de cuvinte, sau cu spaţiul unui nou mod de existenţă. Prin lucrările sale aparte, liniştitoare, sufletiste, el încearcă să surprindă câte un moment efemer, un fragmento de eternidad, aşa cum este lumina soarelui la apus, spuma valurilor, sau zâmbetul unui copil pe plajă.

Sub semnul sublinierii unui ecou al timpului, el transformă ceea ce este efemer în ceva peren, exact așa cum personajele din "Umbra vântului" sunt imortalizate prin cuvinte pe pagină.

Toate astea ţin de mine. Mi-am dat seama că însăşi pictura și literatura sunt forme de artă diferite, ambele având puterea de a conserva și transmite emoții, gânduri și fragmente din viață pe care altfel le-aş fi uitat sau le-aş fi pierdut, aşa cum se pierde un vis care se estompează. Atât pictorul, cât și eu, scriitorul, unul și același suflet creativ, fiecare explorând lumea în felul său unic, își folosesc talentele pentru a da naștere unor opere care transcend timpul și spațiul, creând astfel un tip de imortalitate, Astverothesys Cullmhas, direct corespondentă a Pietrei Filosofale.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o creezi poate să capteze momentele pline de emoții într-o formă perenă ce va fi apreciată de generațiile viitoare, într-un soi de dialog atemporal?

Este timpul să mă reîntorc acasă, departe de mare, departe de litoral, departe de soarele arzător. În mod special, sunt conștient de trecerea efemeră a timpului, percepută ca un fel de moarte simbolică, un fel de retragere în neantul unei mari rătăciri din care nu poţi ieşi fără "firul Ariadnei".

Mareele vin și pleacă, schimbând în fiecare zi tabloul natural. Într-o zi, cât mai curând, mă voi întoarce pe litoral și mă voi pierde în peisajul vast al mării, în așa fel încât tabloul să capteze esența noastră profundă și să o reflecte în toată splendoarea ei.

Prin pictură, prin culoare, am captat aceste momente pline de emoţii într-o formă perenă, ce va fi apreciată de generațiile viitoare. Desigur, pictorul și marea sunt păstrători ai memoriei umane, capturând complexitățile și frumusețile vieții în operele lor de artă. Amândoi, supuși tabloului unei singure povești, facem parte din ceea ce sufletul adună în următoarele cuvinte, pe care vântul serii senine le transmite vântului, șoptindu-le doar stelelor răsăritoare:

"Îţi scriu pe ascuns, fără ştirea nimănui. Tu şi numai tu îmi vei recunoaşte vocea secretă. Îţi scriu doar ţie, ca să-mi descarc sufletul și să-ți împărtășesc frumusețea și tăria, într-o conexiune spirituală cu întregul univers.

Acum ştiu că te-am pierdut, că am pierdut totul, poate pentru totdeauna. Dar, chiar şi aşa, nu pot accepta să pleci pentru totdeauna şi să mă uiţi, fără să ştii că nu-ţi port pică. Eu ştiam de la bun început, ştiam că o să te pierd, că niciodată nu aveai să vezi în mine ceea ce văzusem eu în tine. Vreau doar să ştii că te-am iubit din prima zi şi că te iubesc în continuare, acum mai mult ca oricând, chiar dacă ţie îţi va fi greu fără mine. Nu-mi doresc nimic altceva pe lume decât ca tu să fii fericită, ca toate aspiraţiile tale să se adeverească şi ca, într-o bună zi, deşi cu timpul mă vei uita, să înţelegi cât de mult te-am iubit."

Fie că este vorba de un roman sau de o pictură, arta are puterea de a transforma ceva trecător în ceva durabil, oferindu-ne astfel o cale de a medita asupra destinului și a sensului vieții. Astfel, arta trebuie să renunțe la efemeritate pentru a ne oferi aspirații eternizate.

Întâlnirea dintre leadership și artă se realizează în punctul în care efemeritatea devine perenitate, iar viziunea liderului îmbinată cu creativitatea devin fundamentul pentru o schimbare durabilă și inspirată pe planul unei realităţi mai vaste.

Procesul vizual este modul în care ochiul percepe realitatea, arta devenind astfel o formă de exprimare unică prin care este ilustrată complexitatea lumii într-o manieră subiectivă și interpretativă. Procesul Vizual sugerează un soi de exaltare, ca atunci când ochii surprind frumusețea subtilă a detaliilor și se învăluie în magia momentului, făcând ca timpul să pară suspendat într-un paradis aparte.

Pictorul reia procesul vizual ori de câte ori se recunoaște inspirat de marea sa pasiune, conform ideii: "Ceea ce iubești, pictează cu tot sufletul ! "

Atingerea maestrului

On Mai 10, 2010

Liderii sunt înzestraţi cu însuşiri excepţionale, însuşiri care întrec cu mult calităţile obişnuite ale oamenilor de rând, şi pe care doar timpul şi viaţa le scot la iveală. Inteligenţi, ambiţioşi uneori până la exces, se pregătesc în mod deosebit, încă din cea mai fragedă tinereţe, pentru misiunea lor. Ascensiunea celor mai mulţi dintre ei se realizează, dimpotrivă, lent şi stăruitor, prin sacrificii şi munca enormă. Dar în cele din urmă reuşesc să-şi atingă scopurile propuse datorită perseverenţei, credinţei şi dăruirii pe care le manifestă, mereu, faţă de idealurile lor. Uneori reuşesc să se impună prin metode numai de ei ştiute, prin viclenie şi diplomaţie precoce, alteori prin forţă, dar de multe ori printr-o conduită etică exemplară, prin imaginaţie şi ingeniozitate.

Pentru unii lideri „a conduce" înseamnă mai mult a juca un joc de şah, un joc de inteligenţă şi perspicacitate; pentru alţii înseamnă un joc de noroc, un joc pe care cred că-l pot câştiga mergând de fiecare dată la risc şi pariind totul pe o singură carte. Dar întotdeauna balanţa se înclină în favoarea celor tari, care joacă şi vor juca întotdeauna dur, şi care vor adopta toate strategiile posibile pentru a câştiga, spre disperarea şi dezamăgirea multora. Din fericire sau din nefericire, soarta întotdeauna îi favorizează doar pe cei puternici, care se încăpăţânează să câştige cu orice preţ, iar pe cei slabi, fără o permanentă credinţă şi voinţă, îi doboară negreşit. Celor nemerituoşi ascensiunea spre putere se datorează unor împrejurări deosebite şi nu muncii lor. Ei vor rezista puţin fiind, în chip brusc, înlăturaţi de cei cu adevărat merituoşi.

Consider că „Atingerea maestrului" este o carte utilă tuturor oamenilor, dar mai ales tinerilor care, fiind la început de drum, li se reproşează lipsa de experienţă, ca şi când şcolile urmate le pot oferi acest lucru.

Cele 63 de calităţi ale liderului

În sfârşit este gata. Dacă ţi-au plăcut cele 22 de calităţi ale liderului despre care ţi-am vorbit în secţiunea Calităţile unui Lider, atunci sunt sigur că le vei găsi utile pe toate cele 63. Adică, îţi voi oferi în plus 41 de calităţi.

Volumul de faţă reprezintă o sumă de calităţi clare, pragmatice şi eficiente absolut necesare în leadership. Mi-a trebuit ceva timp ca să înţeleg că ele stau la baza unor principii solide, şi să fiu conştient de adevărata lor valoare. Am fost ajutat foarte mult de oameni de înaltă calitate profesională şi morală, cu o experienţă vastă şi cu multe realizări, cărora le datorez o recunoştinţă profundă. Pe această cale vreau să le mulţumesc tuturor celor care au fost alături de mine, îndrumându-mă cu sfaturi pe tot parcursul realizării acestei cărţi.

De ce să citeşti această carte? Pentru că este hotărâtoare pentru optimizarea performanţelor tale. Aşa cum un sculptor reuşeşte să modeleze cu o fineţe şi cu o iscusinţă deosebită o figurină până ce o face demnă de toată admiraţia – tot aşa şi tu trebuie să-ţi modelezi în mod constructiv gândirea, convingerile, percepţiile, abordările, până când vei reuşi să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti performanţele manageriale şi să fii un exemplu demn de urmat în organizaţia din care faci parte.

De ce îţi recomand această carte? În primul rând fiindcă pune accent mai mult pe latura umană decât pe conceptul de business, ceea ce permite cu uşurinţă citirea şi înţelegerea ei; apoi pentru că dezvăluie principalele coordonate după care se construiesc personalitatea şi aptitudinile liderilor, punând în evidenţă ceea ce este important pentru ca ei să-şi mărească influenţa.

Aşa cum doctorii trebuie să descâlcească firele încurcate ale bolii, să ştie ce întrebări să pună pacienţilor, să recunoască indiciile fizice subtile şi să identifice testele care ar putea duce, în cele din urmă, la diagnosticul perfect – tot aşa şi tu trebuie să descâlceşti modul în care poţi obţine rezultatele cele mai bune, să-ţi descătuşezi potenţialul de lider şi, în cele din urmă, să funcţionezi la capacitatea maximă.

Dacă vrei să fii o persoană care să-i conducă pe alţii şi să îndrumi o organizaţie spre succes, atunci trebuie să fii mult mai mult decât un bun practician, trebuie să înveţi să stabileşti relaţii, să le dezvolţi şi să le menţii permanent la cote înalte. Leadershipul este o alchimie care combină calităţile tale umane cu aptitudinile tale profesionale, cu scopul de a-ţi utiliza întreg potenţialul şi de a-l transfoma în "aur".

Această carte este indispensabilă pentru tine dacă eşti, într-adevăr, interesat să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti abilităţile de lider. Sunt sigur că te vei bucura de ea !

On Mai 10, 2008

Am scris această carte practică şi foarte utilă, pentru a prezenta tuturor cititorilor principiile care au stat la baza dezvoltării personale a fiecărui lider. Am conceput-o că pe un manual intensiv şi foarte uşor de folosit, în care am inclus foarte multe exemple despre modul în care acţionează liderii, indiferent de dificultăţile cu care se confruntă, şi despre deciziile cântărite pe care le iau în vederea depăşirii situaţiilor riscante ce pot apărea.

Un manager este cea mai importantă persoană dintr-o companie, totuşi puţini dintre indivizi deţin aptitudini profesionale adecvate unui post de conducere şi îndeplinesc calităţile necesare unui manager de succes. Unii oameni care ocupă posturi importante de conducere cred că posedă din naştere talent şi aptitudini de lider, însă această impresie este crunt zdruncinată atunci când membrii echipei lor nu mai sunt cooperanţi, tocmai din cauza deciziilor greşite pe care le iau, şi mai ales din pricina nerespectării anumitor principii de conducere eficiente. De aceea leadershipul, ca orice altă ştiinţă, poate fi deprins mai uşor numai prin înţelegerea unor principii de bază, prin aplicarea lor atentă şi consecventă.

Trăsătura esenţială a acestei cărţi, faţă de altele existente pe piaţă din acelaşi domeniu, este aceea că descrie, prin exemple, competenţele ideale ale unui lider. N-am susţinut niciodată că este uşor să devii un lider foarte bun, dar dacă oamenii vor urma pas cu pas strategiile oferite de această carte, cu siguranţă se vor afla pe drumul cel bun.

Vă promit că după ce veţi termina de citit această carte, veţi avea tot ce vă trebuie pentru a deveni un...Merlin.

Leadership - Pe înţelesul tuturor

On Mai 10, 2007

De ce această carte când există poate sute de alte cărţi sau tratate referitoare la lideri şi leadership?

Parafrazându-l pe Oscar Wilde, m-am gândit că ar fi foarte bine ca fiecare individ să ştie "Ce înseamnă să fii lider", şi asta cu atât mai mult cu cât termeni precum lideri şi leadership au intrat oarecum forţat în limba română şi sunt mai puţin accesibili omului obişnuit.

Şi tocmai individului obişnuit se adresează această carte, poate şi datorită faptului că în general marii lideri au provenit din rândul oamenilor obişnuiţi care... purtau în raniţă bastonul de mareşal.

Fără a avea pretenţia unui tratat, cartea reprezintă încercarea unui om obişnuit - autorul - care prin cuvinte obişnuite, fapte şi exemple obişnuite insuflă individului obişnuit curaj şi optimism în aventura de a fi propriul său stăpân şi cine ştie...poate chiar lider.

La fel ca efectul basmelor din copilărie care au făcut ca visele unor copii obişnuiţi să devină realitate, sper ca şi povestirile sau întâmplările presărate pe tot parcursul cărţii să constituie exemple de urmat pentru fiecare cititor. Mi-aş mai dori ca fiecare cititor să conştientizeze că, dacă îşi doreşte ceva cu orice preţ în viaţă, trebuie să lupte din răsputeri că să obţină ce şi-a dorit. Şi la fel ca şi Sisif, să nu se descurajeze niciodată.

Românul obişnuit are un potenţial mare care ar fi păcat să nu fie pus în valoare. Cu cât vor exista mai mulţi lideri autentici, cu atât vom fi mai conştienţi la...urne şi vom avea un viitor mai luminos.

Leadership Puzzle

On Mai 10, 2009

De fiecare dată când un producător de jocuri lansează pe piaţă un nou joc, orice fel de joc – de strategie, de logică şi îndemânare, de acţiune, de antrenare a minţii, pentru copii sau pentru oameni maturi, pe calculator sau clasice, lumea se îngrămădeşte în magazinele de profil pentru a le cumpăra. Curiozitatea şi entuziasmul îi determină pe împătimiţii jocurilor să se apuce de jucat cât mai repede, fără să mai citească instrucţiunile date.

Dacă aceştia continuă să joace ore în şir, înseamnă că jocul este palpitant şi antrenant, interactiv, simplu şi bine conceput. Dacă nu, probabil că jocul nu este unul foarte bun sau spectaculos, ci dimpotrivă, searbăd sau obositor. Cercetările au demonstrat, de nenumărate ori, că oamenii, de toate vârstele, preferă jocurile care se apropie cât mai mult de realitate, care implică o anumită gândire, anumite abilităţi, curiozitate şi explorare. Şi să nu uităm că unele jocuri contribuie la antrenarea creierului iar omul îşi poate dezvolta unele abilităţi ca şi capacitatea de analiză şi sinteză.

Am scris această carte, care combină într-un mod simplu dezvoltarea personală cu leadershipul, ca pe un joc de puzzle, unde trebuie să combinaţi toate piesele date pentru a reconstitui imaginea de ansamblu. Sper să vă ţină în permanenţă atenţia concentrată asupra lucrurilor care sunt scrise în ea, şi să nu-i daţi drumul din mână până ce nu o veţi termina.

Aidoma jocului de puzzle, care constă în asamblarea unor piese cu forme diferite pentru a reconstrui întregul, dumneavoastră puteţi înţelege mai uşor şi mai bine modalităţile de dobândire a abilitaţilor de leadership, dacă vi se explică "pe bucăţele" elementele necesare. Dorinţa mea, cea mai mare, este aceea de a vă ajuta să vă dezvoltaţi gândirea şi modalităţile de acţiune tipice unui lider având speranţa că veţi căuta să înţelegeţi, să pătrundeţi, să adânciţi, să memoraţi, să ţineţi minte cât mai multe din aspectele prezentate în capitolele acestei cărţi.

Liderul întregeşte mai multe calităţi şi aptitudini, câştigate în timp îndelungat cu multă trudă, cu răbdare şi entuziasm, pe care alţii nu le au. Cartea de faţă intenţionează să contribuie la dezvoltarea dumneavoastră personală în domeniul leadershipului, să vă ajute să deprindeţi mai uşor şi într-un timp mai scurt multe dintre secretele liderilor şi, cu această ocazie, să vă crească eficienţa în domeniul în care activaţi.

Sper ca această carte, structurată în mai multe capitole, diferite ca idei şi conţinut, să vă ajute să întregiţi imaginea liderului foarte bun. Ea se adresează nu numai oamenilor cu funcţii înalte de conducere, ci şi acelora care năzuiesc să ajungă mai sus şi să se menţină acolo.

Performanţa în conducere

Liderii sunt total diferiţi de ceilalţi oameni. Ei văd mereu ceea ce tuturor oamenilor obişnuiţi le scapă, ştiu să iasă în evidenţă numai atunci când este necesar şi au acea abilitate extraordinară de a găsi soluţii la cele mai întortocheate probleme. Mai mult decât atât, liderii îşi cunosc foarte bine valoarea şi sunt conştienţi de propriile lor atuuri.

Veţi vedea în paginile acestei cărţi că liderii sunt impulsionaţi de o puternică dorinţă personală de a realiza lucruri valoroase în viaţă, că dau dovadă de imaginaţie şi spontaneitate în orice moment şi în orice loc, că urmăresc un anumit ideal şi nu aşteaptă ca altcineva să le-o ia înainte, ci acţionează din timp cu o precizie maximă. Obţinerea performanţei şi succesului este preocuparea lor cea mai mare. Şi ceea ce îi mobilizează cel mai mult nu sunt beneficiile materiale, cât dorinţa arzătoare de a lăsa ceva bun în urma lor, de a nu fi doar simpli figuranţi în spectacolul vieţii.

Scopul acestei cărţi este de a vă oferi cât mai multe informaţii preţioase prin exemple concrete, şi de a vă arăta o cale prin care să dobândiţi capacitatea de a-i determina pe ceilalţi să vadă lucrurile din aceeaşi perspectivă ca dumneavoastră. Veţi învăţa cum să vă selectaţi partenerii de muncă potriviţi, cum să vă creaţi avantaje proprii şi cum să rezolvaţi dificultăţile apărute înainte ca ele să capete proporţii. Totodată vă voi arăta cât de important este să fiţi propriul dumneavoastră lider şi de ce este necesar să abordaţi problemele sub toate variantele posibile.

Produsul evoluţiei dincolo de sfârşit

Controlează modul cum treci prin fazele de supradezvoltare, fără să te îndepărtezi de reperele bine determinate ale unei funcţionări stabile.

Ajunsesem să regret fiecare moment care mă ţinea departe de mine însumi, ca în cazul unui artist căruia nu-i place decât o artă ce pleacă de la neliniște pentru a ajunge la serenitate. Nu mai părea să existe nicio îndoială în privinţa a ceea ce mi se întâmplase de fapt. Fiecare efort investit în acceptarea sau respingerea oricăror ipoteze privind efectul producerii avalanşelor de idei şi revelaţii, devenise tot mai anevoios. Un obstacol care nu putea fi ocolit, asigurând prin contrast o mai bună înţelegere a propriilor defecte şi calităţi.

Pentru inovatorul unui limbaj tot mai complex şi specializat pe un anumit domeniu, timpul nu mai reprezenta un teren de joacă. Ci un carusel al derutei şi al instabilităţii, care se învârtea mereu, tot mai repede, când într-o direcţie, când în alta. Psihicul nu mai putea susţine greutatea aşteptărilor pe care le generam tot timpul. Arta mea părea a se fi transformat într-o fereastră cu vedere spre un gol al dispariţiei liniei, fiecare aspect al peisajului ce propunea concepte inedite anunţând o formulă estetică desprinsă dintr-un con de umbră al sinelui, asemănător căderii într-un abis insondabil.

Gradul de focalizare al gândirii, al atenţiei, părea a se menţine la un nivel scăzut. Straniu. Arta mea părea a simboliza mereu altceva decât plănuisem iniţial, la care mai curând mă înspăimântam decât eram uimit, fiindcă totul părea fără limite, dar în acelaşi timp fără viaţă. Gradul de canalizare a energiei psihice în direcţia unui singur tip de activitate scăzuse până la doza minimă de întreţinere a forţei creatoare. Dorinţa arzătoare de a evada din rutină, dorinţa de schimbare absolută devenise o unealtă de nepreţuit.

Arta este un triumf al ştiinţei. Iar ştiinţa, greoaie, provoca o adevărată debandadă în mintea mea. Cu cât făceam mai multe descoperiri, cu atât mai mult se restrângea terenul meu de relaxare. Cu cât avansam mai adânc în necunoscut, cu atât mai mult mă îndepărtam de bucuria pură şi simplă a vieţii. Negreşit, efortul maxim se însoţea de suprasolicitare. În loc să permit minţii să se elibereze şi să atingă starea de destindere, blocam energia din mine în punctul de dezvoltare maximă.

Leadership: Poţi să transformi viitorul creaţiei tale într-un nou început de argument estetic, prin interpretarea fenomenului de constantă a percepţiei faţă de un "adevăr total" menit să îţi apropie viziunea de cerinţele unei lumi noi?

Aspiraţia mea pentru atingerea idealului absolut în creaţie se năruise dintr-o dată. Ca şi cum mi-aş fi pierdut raţiunea, ca şi când o mână grea, nevăzută şi rece m-ar fi împins spre un mediu neprietenos, spre compromisuri neplăcute. Iar această forţă de neclintit, folosindu-se de o anumită brutalitate a atuurilor ei, genera o întrerupere a acordului cu mine însumi.

Ceea ce poate da artei o natură spirituală, esenţială, expresivă prin căutarea neîncetată a unui ideal de ordine şi claritate, stabilit de o formulă a frumosului, este fenomenul de constantă a percepţiei faţă de "adevărul total" menit să te apropie de lumea viselor care devin realitate. În cazul meu, singurul adevăr menit să îmi apropie viziunea de cerinţele unei lumi noi (să fie percepută drept expresie fascinantă a transcendentului, a fiinţării unei conştiinţe care nu cunoaşte îndoiala) era desprins din coşmarul teoriei haosului.

La mine, haosul nediferenţiat părea faţă de sfârşit. Nu eram hotărât. Nu eram pregătit să trag vreo concluzie. Poate că aş fi putut compensa trecutul, avântându-mă într-un viitor cu mai mult timp liber pentru a mă putea concentra pe lucrurile care într-adevăr contează. Ajunsesem să mă asemăn întrucâtva cu eroul unui roman de George R.R. Martin. Intenţionam să mă apropii de sfârşit. Şi poate că astfel aş fi reuşit să intuiesc şi să construiesc începutul.

Aici se cuvine să citez vorbele unui celebru bancher, referindu-se la arta de a vedea totul în ansamblu: "Elementele diferite ale desenului imprimate în acelaşi loc, pe faţă şi pe verso, formează o imagine întreagă atunci când bancnota este luminată din partea opusă privitorului."

Leadership: Poţi să avansezi în plan artistic dacă te învârţi în cercul unei capodopere care nu este reflectarea unei idei eterne, dar care îşi lasă amprenta asupra percepţiei despre forma ta de existenţă în lume?

Potenţialul tău de dezvoltare, care se cere împlinit în mod imperios şi scos la lumină, se desfăşoară în planul concret al existenţei tale, al valorilor fundamentale, a misiunii şi viziunii pe care ţi le asumi în numele propriilor nevoi şi interese. Dar mai ales în numele propriei tale personalităţi integrată perfect cu funcţionalitatea şi perfecţiunea artei la care te raportezi.

Iar acest potenţial de dezvoltare se amplifică numai între anumite limite de suportabilitate bine stabilite de viaţă în relaţie cu leadershipul. El fixează o limită superioară de dezvoltare şi creaţie prin utilizarea informaţiei, şi una inferioară de stagnare şi inerţie.

Aspiraţia ta pentru atingerea idealului absolut în creaţie se poate nărui dintr-o dată dacă încerci să-ţi depăşeşti limitele admise pentru tine însuţi. Efectul nu va fi mai spectaculos, ci va contrar aşteptărilor tale.

Efortul supra-intens generează sfârşitul pasiunii. Aceasta este o consecinţă a depăşirii unei bariere sau limite maxime cu putinţă de atins. Iar într-o eră în care se generează şi circulă rapid informaţiile şi ideile novatoare, este puţin probabil (dacă nu imposibil) să ţii pasul cu ele. Orice tentativă de a cuprinde şi de a înţelege totul, este sortită eşecului. Orice suprasolicitare a minţii generează efecte contrare atunci când veniturile sunt infime faţă de cheltuielile enorme, şi nu vor avea o finalitate practică.

În leadership totul se construieşte pas cu pas. Dezvoltarea se realizează în timp, se modelează şi se corelează cu noile descoperiri din ştiinţă spre a atinge un nivel maxim posibil de productivitate şi eficienţă Orice tentativă de a răzbate dincolo de maximul admis de propriile tale capacităţi poate genera sfârşitul lamentabil.

Percepţia despre forma ta de existenţă în lume se realizează direct prin intermediul artei atunci când încerci să faci o comparaţie între marile dezamăgiri ale eforturilor de creaţie şi revelaţiile spontane: primele îţi testează determinarea şi îţi deschid ochii, celelalte îţi trasează o direcţie şi te fac să te simţi că aparţii unui tot unitar, nu că te învârti în jurul cozii.

Reperele bine determinate care măsoară progresul leadershipului sunt date de cele patru aspecte primordiale ale artei: preocuparea pentru esenţializarea unei idei care se doreşte a fi transmisă, profunzimea de a simţi şi ceea ce nu este spus în cuvinte sau ce nu poate fi explicat raţional, perspectiva care conferă o imagine de ansamblu a unei noi realităţi şi revelaţia unei lumi care refuză să moară.

Produsul evoluţiei dincolo de sfârşit nu este altceva decât rezultatul eforturilor care nu sunt totdeauna pe măsura aşteptărilor şi nu reuşesc să menţină un ritm ridicat de dezvoltare a omului care aspiră cu tot dinadinsul la autodepăşire. Desemnează, în acelaşi timp, tranzitul spre un nou început, spre o direcţie mai bună, spre devenirea de sine în cadrul unui ideal de viaţă acordat la reperele bine determinate ale unei noi şi stabile funcţionări.

Profunzimea din universul existenţial al omului

Modul în care înalţi omul sau îl cobori, depinde de felul în care realitatea exteriorizată este filtrată de conştiinţa ta.

Eram uimit cât de departe mă ducea drumul meu, întortocheat, dar creator, eliberator de orice fel de încătuşare, interpretabil prin procentul variabil dintre subiectivitate şi obiectivitate, dintre real şi ireal. Două constante a căror sursă de cunoaştere, pentru dezvoltarea mea de mai târziu, devenea tot mai obsesivă, tot mai tot mai amplă, tot mai pregnantă.

De parcă aş fi făcut o călătorie inter-dimensională, păşind într-un univers paralel, bazat pe cauză şi pe efect, din care numai ştiinţa, cuprinzătoare, ce depăşea posibilităţile fizice ale oricărui savant, mă putea ajuta să evadez. Să mă reîntorc, ca un fiu rătăcitor, încărcat de un "magnetism" puternic, la realitatea dură a vieţii, la mine însumi, la profunzimea fiinţei mele.

O lume aparte se fertiliza ca o energie potenţială, sub înrâurirea unor gânduri şi a unor simţăminte electrizante prin manifestările lor, impunând o anumită armonie, un anumit echilibru sufletului meu. Revelatoare şi transformatoare, ele se strecurau uşor, ca un abur lin, în ungherele cele mai ascunse ale conştiinţei mele, câştigând tot mai mult teren.

Leadership: Cauţi să demonstrezi posibilitatea trecerii din real în necunoscut, cu diverse nuanţări situaţionale, acoperind în parte mecanismele gândirii cu pericolul unor exagerări care aplatizează silenţios elementele separate ale fundalului pe care îţi plasezi imaginea?

Cele mai însemnate taine ale omului, ale simţămintelor condiţionate de situaţiile obiective, puteau fi percepute numai dacă atingeam acel înalt nivel de înţelegere a adevaratelor dimensiuni ale existenţei sale, acea putere înălţătoare a unei gândiri mistuite de marile întrebări ale universului.

Eram eu, cel care a fost schimbat. Omul perseverent care după lungi căutări şi multe eşecuri, după multe dispute interioare şi amare dezamăgiri, analize şi testări complexe, a reuşit să identifice elementul primordial care stătea la baza alchimiei, dar şi metoda care stătea la baza realizării iluziilor. Mă transformasem într-un magician? Fondatorul unei entităţi net superioare care putea influenţa cu uşurinţă existenţa umană? Găsisem eu oare acel " Lapis philosophorum "?

Totul fusese mărit, exagerat de o imaginaţie fecundă? mă întrebam nesigur, măsurând, ca un căutător de comori, importanţa descoperirii mele. În fond, eram doar eu şi cu mine însumi, magicianul şi omul, două extreme care deşi se manifestau concomitent, se excludeau reciproc. Războindu-mă cu aşteptarea, cu timpul, cu neliniştea, cu rutina, fără să umplu cu nimic golul acela din colţul mândriei mele de explorator. Era o lovitură de pedeapsă, une tentative de pénalité dată de destin pentru un "înapoi", pentru regresul meu probabil?

Atât de imprevizibilă şi de pretenţioasă era magia.

Leadership: Te laşi prins de frumuseţea complexităţii fundalului pe care se desfăşoară experienţa suprarealistă pe care ai dobândit-o pentru a întreţine iluzia pe care nu o vezi?

Leadershipul are la bază o formulă, o filozofie simplă, forma cea mai cuprinzătoare a dezvoltării sale, acceptată de toţi liderii veritabili: "Modul în care înalţi omul sau îl cobori, depinde de felul în care realitatea exteriorizată este filtrată de conştiinţa ta" . Despre acest lucru am discutat pe larg la webinarul anterior.

Felul cum percepi realitatea determină felul cum îţi percepi imaginea. În consecinţă ar trebui să porneşti de la această premisă corectă, aceea că omul poate fi modelat, influenţat, dacă existenţa lui este amplasată sub înrâurirea unor gânduri şi a unor simţăminte "electrizante" care creează o nouă entitate de control: magia.

Ca să reuşeşti să identifici elementul primordial care stă la baza leadershipului, mai întâi găseşte factorul principal şi decisiv al înţelegerii magiei care uimeşte şi dă bine la imaginea de artist complex. Urmează drumul cunoaşterii bazată pe verosimil, justificând calitatea atribuită gândirii de a modifica profund situaţia cunoscută până la ea, valorile, atributele unei idei.

Urcă spre zona dominantă a caracterului omului, care adăposteşte cele mai însemnate taine ale fiinţei şi ale vieţii sale, printr-o celebrare a inexplicabilului. Examinează trăsăturile omului cu lupa puternică a propriilor tale virtuţi, cercetând până în străfundurile fiinţei sale, fiecare unghi, fiecare colţişor făcut din emoţii, impunând un anumit echilibru existenţei sale – aceasta fiind misiunea cea mai înaltă a liderului.

Şi acesta este, de fapt, indicatorul principal care trebuie luat în calcul. Cu înalta putere de concentrare a unui aeronaut, liderul veritabil scotoceşte cu atenţie toată "întinderea" naturii umane, toate regiunile raţiunii şi ale sentimentelor neexplorate de nimeni altcineva. Dar în acelaşi timp îşi subsumează magia clipei de a se recunoaşte în interiorul unei identităţi diferite, ilustrând profund spunerea faustică „Verweile doch ! " (Clipă, rămâi !)

El ştie să profite, şi chiar să direcţioneze briza ce adie dinspre piscurile cele mai greu accesibile, mai aspre şi mai aride ale psihicului uman, astfel încât să risipească aburii de neîmplinire personală sau de auto-devalorizare în bătaia razelor unui soare strălucitor. Dezvoltarea şi punerea în aplicare a unei reînnoiri morale pe orice suprafaţă acoperită cu "pâclă" din universul uman - asta da reuşită totală în leadership !

Iluzia pe care nu o vezi este ceea ce ţi se întâmplă în timp ce ochii lumii sunt aţintiţi spre ceea ce i-ai făcut să creadă: că ai uitat cine eşti cu adevărat şi că te-ai pierdut într-o altă realitate.

Profunzimea din universul existenţial al omului aduce în câmpul atenţiei rezultatul unei direcţionări conştiente a efortului intelectual, emoţional şi creator al liderului spre dezlegarea celei mai mari taine a lumii: "omul", şi totodată a celei mai importante întrebări din toate timpurile: "Care este sensul existenţei lui?".

Aşa cum un arheolog reconstituie o epocă întreagă după stilul construcţiei descoperite, tot astfel şi tu, ca să înţelegi dimensiunea umană, trebuie să porneşti de la premisele corecte care stau la baza existenţei omului, să admiţi existenţa acelor vulnerabilităţi care îi subminează dezvoltarea în drumul lui spre perfecţiune, să le identifici, să le analizezi cu acel "organ zeiesc": inima, şi apoi să încerci să le corectezi sau să le elimini.

Nu te mustră conştiinţa, nu te doare sufletul atunci când realizezi că tu, sau oamenii din jurul tău, nu pot atinge un anumit stadiu de "evoluţie"? Ai greşit ceva? Ai uitat ceva? Ţi-ai ratat misiunea?

Concluzie: Liderul trebuie să ştie că acţionează pe un teren instabil şi într-o continuă schimbare. Terenul este constituit din oameni, care sunt individualităţi distincte şi care în ansamblu constituie o forţă ce acţionează, sinergic sau nu, cu el.

Pe nisipuri mişcătoare nu poţi construi nimic. Prin urmare, liderului îi revine rolul de a găsi liantul perfect pentru a consolida "terenul". Acest ţel poate fi atins doar prin cunoaşterea profundă a oamenilor şi a universului lor interior, ca şi găsirea căilor şi metodelor adecvate de a-i înălţa, şi nu de a-i coborî.

Profunzimea unei înţelegeri superioare

Caută în tine toate resursele necesare dezvoltării forţei de a acţiona, privind mereu în urma ta.

Ştiam ce trebuia să uit sau să reţin, ce mă aştepta din perspectiva unei concepţii precise asupra propriei fiinţe, analizând lucrurile mai adânc, punându-le într-un loc sigur, într-un sertar al inimii ce se putea ţine întredeschis la nevoie. Am ştiut, aşa cum ştie un pictor să-şi aleagă modelele, să selectez toate acele puncte de interes, firimituri ale cunoaşterii asimilate prin experimentare, împinse până la manifestare într-o anumită formă. Ele puteau fi redimensionate prin parcurgerea unui traseu al identităţii şi unităţii.

Trebuia să am grijă ca ele să se potrivească în imaginea pe care o voiam ştearsă din memorie.

Ciudat, era exact aceeaşi imagine pe care voiam s-o proiectez în viitor, în întreaga ei complexitate, cu toate continuităţile şi contradicţiile ei, prin puterea raţiunii unui căutător de lumi noi, chiar dacă sensurile curenţilor de bună dispoziţie se modificau în funcţie de perspectiva pe care urma să o adopt.

Ca să înţelegi teoriile sau ipotezele unui artist care îşi gândeşte viziunea asupra subiectelor inspirate dintr-un update al realităţii, trebuie să faci uz de imaginaţie pentru crearea unei imagini fabuloase.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi cultivi o imagine de sine care derivă, treptat, din reflectarea subiectivă, conştientă şi sintetică a Eului aflat în situaţia concretă de a-şi ascunde gândurile din care se hrăneşte realitatea?

În lume toate-s trecătoare. Imaginea dezolantă a acestui adevăr este reflectată în examinarea profundă a vieţii prezente pe care arta o foloseşte ca pe o pârghie pentru a evidenţia strălucirea unei taine moralizatoare. Omul în care conştiinţa lucrează mereu, determinantul oricărei rezistenţe de ordin aprioric, învăluindu-se în această taină ca un personaj care nu mai poate ieşi din povestea în care a fost integrat, trage întotdeauna foloase de pe urma ei.

Taina aceasta a percepţiei faţă de lucrurile înconjurătoare, faţă de tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, poate să ia in considerare ideea de a te căuta acolo unde poţi să nu găseşti nimic, sau unde poţi să afli totul printr-o viziune a unităţii universale.

Iar cheia unei taine ascunsă cu grijă poate fi o poveste moralizatoare când vine vorba de a te conecta autentic la realitatea existenţei operei numită sugestiv "informaţie", la o reprezentare a ei ca „peisaj" al cărui șarm poetic este extras parcă dintr-un decor de film. Este moralizatoare pentru că te învaţă să te priveşti diferit, în ansamblu, ca o fiinţă care patrunde mai multe planuri de construcţie a imaginii lumii, nu doar fizic, ci si spiritual, energetic.

La sfârşitul zilei accesam toate experienţele adunate de-a valma în mintea mea, de la imaginaţie şi de la singurătate, combinându-le sporadic şi găsindu-le loc în interiorul unor explicaţii care nu ţineau cont de adevărurile celebrei maxime: " în toate treburile, să luăm în seamă sfârşitul ". Încercând să împac lucruri care erau de neîmpăcat, puteam să întăresc hotărârea de a duce la îndeplinire un mereu alt plan care-mi stimula disponibilitatea de a mă recunoaşte şi a mă descoperi în totalitatea defectelor şi calităţilor mele.

Leadership: Ştii să apreciezi arta adusă de-o imagine dezolantă, fără a suferi o transformare în modul de a te servi de cele trecătoare?

Când priveşti în urmă spre a descoperi ce există deja în tine (puterea de a uita, de a ierta, de a răbda) te aştepţi să auzi chemarea, glasul unic al inimii care va răsuna puternic în împrejurările viitoare prin acțiunea raţiunii capabilă să contureze o nouă identitate. Arta este rezultatul unei priviri mai largi în exteriorul tău cu intenţia de a conştientiza o nouă modalitate de a-ţi percepe propriile emoţii şi a-ţi înţelege tendinţele, fără să suferi vreo dezamăgire din cauza eventualelor schimbări de imagine.

A suferi o transformare în modul de a te servi de cele trecătoare înseamnă să renegi ceea ce eşti în timp ce viaţa îţi aruncă o privire plină de mister pe sub genele umbroase ale unor perspective de profundă reflecţie. Fără să uiţi că tot ce ţi s-a întâmplat poartă sâmburele unei revelaţii foarte preţioase ce are nevoie de o manifestare exterioară.

Aici, arta pe care încerc s-o evidenţiez este compatibilă cu viziunea despre lume într-un punct al experienţei de a exista ca fiinţă care îşi doreşte să atingă o relaţie cu ipostaza de descoperitor al unei realităţi alternative, fără să ţină cont de limitele pe care le impune forţa simbolizatoare a amănuntelor care pot deveni în timp tot mai marginale.

Leadership: Ai ajuns în faza de a te identifica într-o mare măsură cu acele convingeri care susţin legătura dintre experienţele şi aşteptările tale anterioare, în corespondenţă cu "that loneliness that drives you crazy" ?

Leadershipul este meritul iniţiativei de a te construi în jurul propriului Ego supus unei solicitări de tip „ găsirea unor legături între experienţele şi aşteptările tale anterioare ", deoarece reprezentativitatea ta (din unghiul unei perspective mai largi asupra lumii) survine după ce ți-ai adunat şi asumat curajul de a te recunoaşte în totalitatea defectelor şi calităţilor tale.

Una dintre condiţiile artei este să nu creezi o imagine falsă, înşelătoare, asupra a ceea ce se întâmplă în interiorul tău. Fac aici o paralelă cu o mare personalitate din istoria lumii. Ceea ce l-a ajutat pe celebrul Tyllerand să gândească profund, încercând permanent să descopere un nou izvor de putere la rădăcina fiecărei înfrângeri, a fost nevoia imperioasă de a-şi nota propriile experienţe în taina clipelor de singurătate.

Încă din fragedă tinereţe el îşi consulta Egoul, punându-şi tot felul de întrebări. De pildă: din ce motive l-au îndepărtat părinţii din casă şi nu l-au iubit? Pe ce principii se bazau ei? Ce morală, ce religie sau ce interes le dicta o asemenea purtare? Ce valoare umană pot avea o religie şi o morală care îngăduiau o atât de cruntă nedreptate ca aceea a cărei victimă era?

După cum îl caracteriza Jean Orieux: "Cardinalul de Tyllerand, magicianul care a făcut toate jocurile lumii, le-a stăpânit, le-a subjugat cu o naturaleţe nemaiîntâlnită, întrecându-l cu mult în dibăcie pe stăpânul Bonaparte, avea o cultură deosebit de vastă. Dar mai presus de toate, era o minte pătrunzătoare, speculativă şi dovedea multă chibzuinţă în acţiunile sale. Era celebru pentru vederile sale largi, posedând mai mult decât oricine calităţile superioare ale omului de geniu."

Cel ce experimentează „ that loneliness that drives you crazy „ este de fapt un căutător al adevărului care doreşte să beneficieze de lumina inteligenţei, virtutea de a suporta în linişte şi cu speranţă greșelile fiecărei zile, singurul capabil să se întremeze după orice grea încercare. Ascensiunea pe care o îmbrăţişează leadershipul este lungimea unui pas înainte făcut de omul care se confruntă cu limitele conştiinţei sale, căutând a descoperi ce sens ascuns are viața și rolul lui în ea.

Bine spunea Friedrich Nietzsche: "Viaţa înseamnă a transforma constant în lumină şi în flacără tot ceea ce suntem şi tot ce întâlnim" pe parcursul fiecărei zile. Un om al transformărilor de sine, cuprinzând în granițele conştiinţei sale conceptele „rău și bine" pentru a accede în orizontul înţelegerii depline, se apropie de acea măreţie pe care soarta şi celelalte deosebite însuşiri ale genialităţii au făgăduit-o spiritelor sublime.

A te identifica într-o mare măsură cu acele convingeri care susţin legătura dintre experienţele şi aşteptările tale anterioare înseamnă să reflectezi la ceea ce te-a determinat să devii altcineva faţă de valoarea gândirii de a pătrunde cât mai adânc în concreteţea lucrurilor, în limitările propriului tău realism.

Eşti condus în viaţă de convingerea că orice imagine pe care o întreţii cu perseverenţă şi încredere poate deveni dependentă de crearea şi propagarea unei noi forme de artă? Iar arta pe care încerci s-o evidenţiezi este compatibilă cu viziunea despre lume într-un punct al experienţei de a exista ca fiinţă ce îşi doreşte să atingă o relaţie cu ipostaza de descoperitor al unei realităţi alternative?

Profunzimea unei înţelegeri superioare nu se atinge prin simplitatea de privi totul cu inocenţă, ci prin asumarea curajului de a te recunoaşte în totalitatea defectelor şi calităţilor tale.

Un om poate să ajungă în faza de a se recunoaşte şi a se identifica într-o mare măsură cu convingerile care susţin comportamente sănătoase, cu acele „Da" și „Nu" ale conştiinţei, numai dacă priveşte mereu în urma lui spre a descoperi ce există deja în el însuși - puterea de a uita, de a ierta, de a răbda.

El aşteaptă în taină să audă chemarea, glasul unic al inimii, care va răsuna puternic în împrejurările viitoare prin acțiunea raţiunii care îşi conturează o nouă identitate.

Proiectele neterminate ale creatorului de artă

Lărgeşte cadrul experienţei personale dincolo de limitele ei, garantând continuitatea procesului de transformare a materiei studiate şi a creaţiei pe care o întâmpină ştiinţa ta.

Al doilea proiect al lui Serghei Eisenstein, un film despre Moscova, este judecând după schiţele şi însemnările păstrate, o epopee a dezvoltării oraşului. Proiectul acesta este prima reflecţie a preocupărilor inhibate din pricina nerealizării lor, din pelicula neterminată „Que viva Mexico ! ”. De altminteri tema aceasta va reveni în numeroase rânduri, în legătură cu alte proiecte, până la sfârşitul vieţii. Ideile compoziţionale ale filmului mexican rămân ca o obsesie în activitatea creatoare a regizorului, renăscând mereu în alte şi alte forme, din păcate fără a ajunge niciodată la realizare.

Din punct de vedere epic, era un proiect de film despre istoria Moscovei şi a unui proletar moscovit. Figura lui se schimbă din epocă în epocă, trebuia să treacă prin film ca un descendent al fiecărei generaţii generaţie, dar şi ca un personaj unic, care desface cadrul biografiei personale dincolo de limitele ei şi ale biografiei familiei, ale generaţiei, ale clasei.

Compoziţional, regizorul trebuia să reprezinte un aspect nou, original al evreului rătăcitor, al figurii aceluia care, cu paşii săi prin spaţiu şi timp, ne-a cucerit adeseori fantezia şi imaginaţia. Dar şi acest proiect este respins de Sumiatki, iar Eisenstein îl va relua abia peste 12 ani, în 1946. În ceea ce priveşte proiectele ambiţioase ale acestui geniu, majoritatea au rămas în stadiu de schiţă, şi nimic mai mult. *

Leadership: Întâmpini o rezistenţă bine organizată din partea unei versiuni compromiţătoare a propriei tale individualităţi, în corespondenţă cu persistenţa unei obsesii în activitatea creatoare care pune stăpânire pe dimensiunea rolului tău?

A interacționa cu identitatea ta reală, impunându-ţi conştient modelul de gândire în structura a ceea ce vrei să realizezi, cu voinţa fermă cu care intenţionezi să cucereşti o ştiinţă superioară, este echivalent cu a trata simptomele unei boli, fără a înlătura cauzele producerii ei. Căci întotdeauna omul care este secondat de munca de creaţie în procesul de extindere a capacităţilor intelectuale va avea de confruntat un inamic misterios, o rezistenţă mai bine organizată din partea unei versiuni a propriei sale individualităţi care este necorespunzătoare cu normele performanţei.

Acest inamic este minusul de coerenţă în activitatea de creaţie, incapacitatea de prelucrare şi valorificare a elementelor novatoare care susţin domeniul pe care îl reprezinţi. Este de fapt o întrerupere a continuităţii procesului de transformare a materiei studiate într-o sursă de împlinire personală şi profesională.

Dacă vrei să-ţi transpui aspiraţiile de regizor în viziunea unui personaj, mai întâi învăţă să îndeplineşti un rol mare: acela de a desface cadrul biografiei personale dincolo de limitele ei, adică încearcă să scoţi în evidenţă obsesia ta pentru prezentarea unei realităţi supreme în care funcţionează distincţia dintre posibil, virtual şi real. Dar, astfel, versiunea propriei tale realităţi devine compromiţătoare pentru veridicitatea modului tău de a vedea lumea, a modului tău de a fi, gândi şi acţiona prin ungherele alterităţii.

Deseori ideile bune se risipesc precum amintirile dintr-o copilărie încheiată demult. Ceea ce rămâne în locul lor este prea stâncos, prea puțin adânc, sau prea sărac pentru a întreține producția de noi modele de leadership.

Transformarea continuităţii materiei ştiinţifice într-o discontinuitate a funcţiei de comunicare a gândirii în planul realizărilor profesionale are ca şi consecinţă intrarea într-o zonă de aşteptare ce face tranziţia spre o slabă recunoaştere a potenţialului tău creator şi adaptativ.

Leadership: Eşti decis să-ţi urmezi obsesia pentru performanţa creaţiei artistice dată de rezultatul asociaţiei dintre "asemănare" şi "contrast", cu scopul obţinerii unei finalităţi precise în conturarea unei identităţi unice?

Versiunile de dezvoltare ale liderului, oscilante între glorie şi solitudine, între onoruri şi sărăcie, între orgoliu şi inconstanţă, se îndepărtează tot mai mult de ceea ce el este capabil să realizeze. Asta în cazul în care ideile compoziţionale ale creaţiei sale nu renasc mereu în alte şi alte forme, în scopul obţinerii unei finalităţi precise sau a unui produs nou de îmbunătăţire a performanţelor.

Compoziţional, leadershipul poate să reprezinte aspecte noi ale integrării experienţelor personale, în contextul tendinţelor de înnoire şi lansare a unei creaţii care poate realiza o armonie perfectă între necesar și calitativ, între ştiinţă şi practică, între o gândire tradiţională şi una modernă. Acest lucru se poate exprima printr-o comparaţie ce stă sub semnul întrebării: „ O sticlă pe care o arunci în apă, rămâne pe loc sau se lăsă purtată de curent spre alte zone? "

Ceea ce creezi prin însuşi faptul cunoaşterii nu are neapărat o greutate fixă care măreşte valoarea leadershipului. Dar dacă munca de cercetare stagnează, atunci nu te mai poţi autodepăşi şi astfel te îndepărtezi tot mai mult de ceea ce ai putea deveni.

În ceea ce priveşte rezultatul creaţiei artistice a unui regizor, s-ar spune că uneori este rezultatul asociaţiei dintre "asemănare" şi "contrast", fiindcă ceea ce aduce în prim plan este o dezvăluire a adevărului vieţii sale văzut din perspectiva unui personaj cu care, în mod normal, nu ar putea convetui. Puteţi să vi-l imaginaţi pe Francis Ford Coppola producând un film românesc cu titlul "Mihai Viteazu" ? Sau vi-l puteţi imagina pe Serghei Eisenstein producând un american epic space-opera de genul "Star Wars"?

Ceea ce reuşeşti să împlineşti prin adoptarea unei gândiri constructive şi prin perseverenţă, poate avea un efect de amplificare a conştientizării propriei valori şi unicităţi. Sau poate avea un efect de întunecare a viziunii aflate în plină dezvoltare şi redirecţionarea ei spre o zonă de receptare redusă, dacă nu cumva se concretizează în ceva palpabi. Într-o construcţie bine gândită de tipul „ Change Request " care facilitează înlănţuirea solidă a tuturor elementelor novatoare care măresc valoarea leadershipului.

Conturarea unei identităţi unice, ca factor semnificativ pentru impactul creaţiei artistice, trebuie să asigure "un reminder" al paşilor prin spaţiu şi timp parcurşi cu seninătate de un personaj pe drumul dinspre realitate spre ideal, şi dinspre ideal spre concret.

Proiectele neterminate ale creatorului de artă vizează căutările permanente de îmbunătăţire a potenţialului propriu de creaţie, care însă nu sunt puse în valoare. O obsesie în activitatea creatoare poate renaşte mereu în alte şi alte forme, dar dacă nu ajunge la materializare înseamnă că ai ajuns în acel punct al plafonării în care leadershipul nu se mai poate reinventa.

Printr-o gândire creatoare şi constructivă poţi atinge acele performanţe cu ajutorul cărora se poate realiza o operă durabilă în timp. Ceea ce ai început poate suferi întreruperi temporare, dar întotdeauna poate fi continuat şi îmbunătăţit sub o altă formă. Şi numai această continuare după atingerea unul punct critic, numai această exercitare a voinţei dusă până la încăpăţânare, poate face din tine un învingător.

Capacitatea de a alinia sensibilitatea personală la esența creației duce la nașterea unei capodopere care își găsește eternitatea.

Trei zile am stat la o pensiune, undeva la munte. O bătrână îngrijitoare, simplă, modestă, își găsea bucuria în munca ei, transformând grădina într-o oază de culoare și viață. Aidoma unei chemări din adâncul inimii, "Heshthiss Uretharus", bătrana părea că și-a primit inspirațiile direct de la natură, direct din sufletul misterios al unui editor de imagini, făcând ca tot ce este mai prețios pentru neuitare, para facil recordação, să se ordoneze într-o poveste a pământului viu, pur, sacralizat cu pașii unei inimi fragile, dezgolite între ecouri tăcute.

Inspirată de natură, o astfel de grădină poate spune povestea pământului viu, la fel cum un artist creează artă trăind în sufletul unei ființe pătrunse de harul divin. Iar dacă mă ocup cu tema „Euharistia" (Taina Vieţii veşnice), atunci pământul devine un soi de altar al ființei, din care artistul își înalță creația.

O vedeam zilnic cum îşi admiră florile, mi se părea că pune un nume fiecăreia, şi o făcea cu sensul şi cu taina vieţii transformate într-o operă de artă, îngânând parcă în dreptul fiecăreia un politicos "mulţumesc" cu iz de binecuvântare. Pensula inimii ei n-a pus pe pânză decât culoare, un strop de împăcare cu sine şi cu lumea, o clipă de linişte între două triluri de ciocârlie, pe fundalul unui: "simt doar ceea ce văd".

O privire încărcată de cea mai curată armonie îşi deschide orizontul doar în faţa simplităţii curate. Micile aranjamente florale, adaosuri de delicateţe însufleţite cu mână tremurândă, cu spirit de dăruire, mi-au încântat privirea și mi-au luminat acele zile. Numai în acest spectacol al culorilor și formelor, interdependența om-natură se accentuează, iar viața artei devine o prelungire a vieții umane, integrată și parte a naturii.

Leadership: Chemarea inimii tale este o mărturie a unei viziuni artistice care scoate din sine esența sufletului și o oferă lumii?

Frumosul, o idee de origine emoțională, își are rădăcinile în senzorialitate. Consfinţirea unei realităţi recunoscute în jur, emoția produsă de frumos, sunt impregnate de senzorialitate, o condiție a vieții estetice care înalță spiritul spre sublimul unei vieți folositoare, spre a-i da un ideal de frumusețe, identificat cu însăși suflarea „verdelui". Bătrâna are ceva de arătat lumii, spre deosebire de mulți "iluminați" ai societății, care, în goana lor după titluri și recunoaștere, au uitat să creeze, să simtă, să trăiască cu adevărat. Ea, cu mâinile ei simple, cu sufletul ei bun, creează frumusețe în fiecare zi, îngrijind cu dragoste florile pe care le numeşte: "darurile naturii".

Arta este reflexia pură a sufletului în geografia vizuală a lumii. Rodul sufletesc al bătrânei, reflectat pe un chip luminos, se vede peste ani. De rodul ei se bucură creştinii. Atât cât are, din puţinul ei muncitoresc, îl arată lumii. Creaţia este o floare care înfloreşte. N-o înstrăinează. N-o îmbracă în lauri cu aplauze, nici n-o bagă în faţă doar de dragul de a apărea în vreo expoziţie, în vreo amintire. Doar atât, o îngrijeşte într-un colţ al grădinii. O luminează doar cu spiritul. Frumuseţea se extinde de la sine. Pensula inimii pune culoare în orice privire care o întâlneşte.

În mod asemănător scria Alexandru Vlahuţă despre pictorul Nicolae Grigorescu:

"Ce devreme a înţeles pictorul taina aceasta a vieţii în opera de artă ! A simţit-o. A activat-o. A continuat-o. Şi de-ar fi văzut că lucrurile lui nu plac nimănui, şi nu sunt pricepute de nimeni, cum nici n-au fost atâta timp, el tot asta ar fi făcut. Porunca vremii? Omul ăsta n-a cunoscut decât porunca inimi lui, după o chemare strămoşească, o dată, şi încă o dată. Numai gândul că trebuie să facă un lucru îl înstrăinează de lucrul acela pe care, altfel, l-ar fi făcut cu drag. Mulţi nu vor înţelege niciodată puterea de viaţă, sufletul pururea proaspăt din opera unui pictor."

Leadership: Cum ar putea acordul sufletului față de artă să se manifeste în reprezentări delicate, găsind rezonanță estetică în simplitatea naturii?

Sufletul curat este comoara mâinii care îngrijeşte pământul. Omul se înalță mai presus de sine atunci când își recunoaște umanitatea. În acest sens, natura receptivității sale față de frumos se manifestă printr-o asociere de ordin empatic, o îmbinare de sensuri a percepțiilor conjugate în imagini. Cu siguranţă, acordul pe care sufletul îl dă artei se traduce în reprezentări ideale, imagini neimitative, vii, care având legătură directă cu natura, găsesc rezonanță estetică în sufletele celorlalţi. Proiecția sufletului omenesc inundă geografia întregului peisaj, iar estetica vizuală devine o reacție vitală la frumuseţea naturală.

Orice grădinar, ca orice un artist anonim, ne amintește că frumusețea se găsește în lucrurile simple, în gesturile cotidiene, în sufletul bun al omului. El ne învață că adevărata artă izvorăște din iubire și pasiune, iar creația este o formă de comuniune cu natura, în primul rând, și apoi cu semenii. Din pământ ne-am născut, la pământ ne întoarcem. Iar bătrâna de la pensiune mi-a oferit o lecție de viață, o lecție despre frumusețe, despre dăruire și despre bucuria de a crea: "Munca dedicată reflectă sufletul bun al omului."

Atâtea taine cer artei vestmântul nepieritor al pământului îngrijit cu suflet. Dar taina cea mai mare, tot Alexandru Vlahuţă o dezleagă:

"Pictorul creează o lume tipică. A lui şi-a tuturora. Aceasta-i puterea Artei; şi secretul ei acesta e. Toate curg. Ea le opreşte cu privirea, alege lamura lor s-o toarnă-n tipare eterne. Un adaos la opera vie şi pururea nouă a lui Dumnezeu. Prin urmare, fă ce simţi, şi atâta cât simţi - unde nu te mai mişcă, lasă paleta jos: lucrul tău, fiind numai sinceritate, va creşte şi se va desăvârşi în sufletul celorlalţi. Va trăi. Altfel, vrând să-l isprăveşti, îl omori…"

Determinarea de a crea din inimă, fără a forța desăvârșirea, este o formă de auto-personalizare și de recunoaștere a limitelor proprii prin depășirea lor.

Proiecția sufletului omenesc în toată geografia văzului intervine în momentul în care arta devine o formă de comunicare autentică a emoțiilor și gândurilor interioare. Apare atunci când creatorul transcende barierele materiale și exprimă ceva profund și universal, cu puterea de a atinge inimile și mințile celor ce privesc sau experimentează lucrarea sa. Această proiecție transcende limitele individuale, conectându-se la experiența comună a umanității și la înțelegerea profundă a vieții, în sânul naturii.

Prin urmare, "esența creației" se referă la capacitatea de a alinia sensibilitatea personală cu natura, ducând la nașterea unei opere de artă care reflectă profunzimea sufletului și eternitatea. Aceasta implică o conexiune empatică și autentică cu mediul înconjurător, unde frumusețea și arta sunt manifestări ale unei interacțiuni armonioase între om și natură, având rădăcini în sensibilitate și emoție.

Prometeu înlănţuit

Învaţă să faci saltul spre excelenţă, fără să te supui unei tensiuni prea puternice de ordin revelatoriu.

Mă aflam în conflict cu mine însumi, o lege inflexibilă a vieţii de care nu-mi puteam bate joc. Nu voiam să accept faptul că nu se poate trăi într-o lume proprie, utopică. Lumea mea, interconectată la nivel subtil cu mintea şi cu puterea de observaţie, oferindu-mi un mod nou şi incitant de a explora misterul a ceea ce eram eu adevărat. O lume formată din multe sisteme distincte, dar relaţionate între ele, funcţional, printr-o desfăşurare ambiguă de energii potenţiale apărute în timpul unor procese tranzitorii. Însă ele produceau pierderi, nu de natură directă, ci indirectă.

Unui om învăluit de o veritabilă colecţie de gânduri şi întrebări, modelat de o cascadă tumultoasă de reguli alambicate ce curge cu putere producând docilă energie, îi trebuie doar un impuls de moment pentru a crea o lume întreagă cu legi proprii. Era încercarea de inversare a unui proces permanent în construcţie, o largă desfăşurare a imaginaţiei mereu pusă la îndoială, un fir conductor care îşi triplează lungimea până la absurd.

Necontenit, ţinteam cu uriaşa mea voinţă asupra întregului în încercarea de a-mi desfăta propriul " ego pride " într-un mic paradis, în lumea mea particulară. Torenţial, ceva în mine se dezlănţuia cu furie, cu toată setea, cu necruţare. Acea poftă agresiv-pătrunzătoare de a poseda cunoaşterea, acea fanatică ambiţie care socoteşte amănuntul, semnul particular, fenomenul izolat.

Leadership: Opera la care te raportezi favorizează întâlnirea cu un Creator al realităţii care îşi exprimă viziunea în spaţiul unei relaţii cu menirea de a fi înţeles dincolo de exersarea continuă a cunoaşterii?

Omul care îşi caută sensul este un artist al deducţiei care pleacă de la o premisă generală pentru a ajunge, de cele mai multe ori, la o concluzie particulară. Eram atins de un moment de maximă încordare. O coagulare a stimulilor care declanşau o reacţie adversă, scoţând la lumină răspunsuri mai puţin aşteptate, cele mai adânci temeri şi nesiguranţe. Cine eram eu?

Mi-am recâştigat apetitul pentru această frumoasă nebunie numită "creaţie". Îmi plămădeam opera cu acea intensitate a unui curent electric ce străbate un circuit, depăşind valoarea maximă admisă, dublând riscul de a se auto-distruge. Cumva, simţeam că trebuie să mă fac înţeles dincolo de exersarea continuă a cunoaşterii, printr-o imagine şi atât, o imagine a satisfacţiei de a mă vedea împlinit pe plan creator, artistic, o imagine a unei fiinţe plină de semnificaţie fixată într-o realitate care este în acelaşi timp unitate deschisă şi pluralitate complexă.

Capacitatea de creaţie este şansa de a evolua prin imaginaţie la o cunoaştere care premerge unei experienţe făcută să zguduie în totalitate ceea ce a fost şi să permită reînceperea unui absolut altceva. Îndoielnic, fără să posed o anumită logică, încercam să fac distincţia între două tipuri de entităţi: A şi B, într-o relaţie de unu-la-unu. Trebuia să văd dincolo de zidul ce se înălţa odată cu creşterea nivelului de cunoaştere şi putinţă. Tratam totul cu dispreţul uşor arogant al unui elev al filozofilor.

Leadership: Revelaţia la care se poate ajunge prin intermediul creaţiei tale are meritul de a supune reexaminării rolul de artist al unui moment de luciditate în care totul este favorabil apariţiei unei arte originale?

Din materia pe care o avea la îndemână, pământul argilos, Prometeu, fără să dea ascultare zeilor din Olimp, a creat primul om lipsit de viaţă şi conştiinţă, apoi a furat focul divin pentru a insufla viaţă creaţiei sale.

Eu lucram mai intens cu argila realităţii pe care o modelam după gradaţiile unei observaţii atente a omului şi a psihologiei sale existenţiale, fără să mă conformez niciunei norme, niciunui tipar, niciunui curent. Ci aşa cum spunea Kant: " Have courage to use your own understanding. "

Cercetam şi ajungeam la revelaţie. Evrika ! Dar trebuia să protejez secretele pe care pretindeam că le pot revela. Cu orice preţ, stăruitor, trebuia să obţin o reacţie pozitivă, trebuia să lămuresc în ce anume constă acea trecere de la esenţă la existenţă, trecând prin substanţă, care putea să dea sens eforturilor mele de a insufla viaţa propriei mele creaţii.

O artă originală face legătura dintre ceea ce iese la lumină şi lucrul din care ceva iese la lumină, fiind punctul de demarcaţie dintre ceea ce gândeşti, ceea ce spui şi ceea ce faci într-un context de schimbări de priorităţi.

Mă furnica, mă cutreiera, mă traversa un fior de entuziasm, un val de ezitări, clipe de mare intensitate. Câteodată simţeam că aş fi putut renunţa bucuros la munca mea, dar ar fi însemnat să risc să nu mai bat niciun record de performanţă. Ştiu că era o prostie, că asta însemna să-mi amputez acea latură din mine, ce simte, raţionează, acumulează noi stimuli, intensificând fiecare stadiu al evoluţiei mele. Să las la o parte ani şi ani de chin şi de muncă, de nesomn?

Rolul siguranţelor fuzibile dintr-un panou electric este acela de a întrerupe circuitul atunci când intensitatea curentului electric depăşeşte valoarea maximă admisă.

Tot astfel rolul meu era acela de ucenic al propriului meu Ego, de responsabil principal al propriei mele transformări, însărcinat cu instalarea cablurilor de legătură dintre creaţia şi evoluţia mea - care-mi puteau garanta libertatea pe plan intern şi profesional. Dar fără să-mi expun potenţialul riscului major de a suferi "rupturi", de a pierde din esenţă şi din valoare. Trebuia să fac saltul spre excelenţă, fără să ma supun unei tensiuni prea puternice.

Prioritatea mea nu era aceea de a experimenta în sfârşit o creaţie deşteaptă, ci de a face din creaţie o direcţie de urmat înspre detașarea mea maiestuoasă față de fenomenul dependenţei de a fi ca ceilalţi.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti capacitatea de a plămădi o operă fără egal, fără să o supui riscului de a se auto-distruge?

Tu însuţi te afli într-un proces permanent în construcţie şi în reconstrucţie. O largă desfăşurare a imaginaţiei mereu pusă la îndoială, un fir conductor care îşi triplează lungimea până la absurd, neşansa unei evoluţii perfecte şi a resorturilor ei, pot reprezenta nişte repere abstracte care nu pot suplimenta adevăratul tău necesar existenţial, lipsurile tale cele mai mari.

Consecinţa? Vei atinge frecvent momente de maximă încordare, declanşând o reacţie adversă, scoţând la lumină răspunsuri mai puţin aşteptate, cele mai adânci temeri şi nesiguranţe. Cine eşti tu cu adevărat?

Aceasta e esenţa înţelepciunii în lupta dintre tine şi leadership: capacitatea de a-ţi plămădi opera, fără să o supui riscului de a se auto-distruge. Trebuie să vezi dincolo de zidul ce se înalţă odată cu creşterea nivelului tău de cunoaştere şi putinţă. Ce este dincolo de acest zid? Ce se află dincolo de apetitul pentru această frumoasă nebunie numită "creaţie" ?

Curajul de a utiliza înţelepciunea ta, your own understanding . Dar mai ales capacitatea de gestionare a echilibrului dintre câştig şi pierdere, dintre o funcţionalitate bună şi o funcţionalitate precară.

Cercetează şi ajungi la revelaţie, fără să te laşi dominat de o realitate imaginată, prea încurcată. Fii ucenicul propriului tău Ego. Acelui Ego care nu se diminuează voit, în contactul cu stimulii puternici ai evoluţiei prin sporirea cunoaşterii.

Învaţă să faci saltul spre excelenţă, fără să te supui unei tensiuni prea puternice. Căci altfel rişti să devii un " Prometeu înlănţuit ", suferinţele pricinuite de curajul tău de trece de limitele normalului, dictate de voinţa ta de a te depăşi, te vor face să suspini amarnic. O rătăcire înspre absolut pentru care vei plăti cu chinuri grele.

Leadershipul este revelaţia unei noi identităţi care nu trebuie să o consideri dreptul punct de plecare al unei creaţii de mare cultură, ci o variantă a sinelui care străluceşte prin ceea ce reuşeşti să declanşezi la nivel de trăiri, sentimente sau emoţie.

Prometeu înlănţuit simbolizează neîntrerupta transformare determinată de încercarea de a-ţi desfăta propriul " ego pride " într-un mic paradis, în lumea ta particulară. Acel Ego superior care se străduieşte din răsputeri şi fără încetare să te transforme în altcineva, îndepărtându-te de tine însuţi făcându-te să te simţi prea "sus" în raport cu nivelul de susceptibilitate al potenţialului tău leadershipului.

Eşti conştient de înălţimile la care poţi zbura?

Promotorul de neînlocuit al onorurilor

Valoarea ta e dată de măsura în care îi ridici şi pe ceilalţi la un nivel înalt.

Celebrul sculptor francez, Antoine Bourdelle, s-a dovedit a fi un profesor excepţional. Toţi îi admirau operele, îi ascultau sfaturile, primeau învăţătură de la el, urmându-i cu admiraţie şi respect toate indicaţiile.

Bourdelle, care era plin de idei în materie de artă, îi îndemna pe tineri spre concentrare, spre studiu gândit. El le spunea deseori înainte ca ei să se apuce de treabă:

- Înainte de a acţiona manual, priviţi mult modelul; formaţi-vă în minte prin analiză imaginea construită pe care o veţi sculpta sau picta cu mâinile voastre.

Leadership: Tu îţi poţi forma în minte, prin analiza unui model determinist de cauză-efect, imaginea din care îţi poţi făuri o realitate a relaţionării dintre percepţie şi reprezentare?

Pentru a te face plăcut, trebuie să îngădui celor din jurul tău să înveţe ceea ce doar ţie îţi este cunoscut, dăruindu-ţi cu toată inima talentul, donând cu multă generozitate din resursele tale pentru reuşita lor - un ajutor care să vină cu adevărat atât din inimă, cât şi din raţiune. Ei trebuie să găsească în tine un om de nădejde, credincios cultului recunoştinţei şi prieteniei, dornic de a-şi pune cunoştinţele în folosul lor, şi deloc lacom în a-ţi împărţi faima cu ei. Eşti un participant activ în formarea lor?

Există în tine o sinceră dorinţă de perfecţionare a celorlalţi? Eşti fericit că poţi contribui la ea? Ca să fii un exemplu pentru ceilalţi, pune-ţi mai întâi în valoare vigurosul talent de a te integra în lumea lor, în munca lor, contribuind la transformarea totală a percepţiilor lor despre ceea ce înseamnă arta, respectiv leadership. Aruncă o privire către tine însuţi. Unde te situezi în raport cu ei? Vei constata oare anumite "anomalii" în modul în care te privesc ceilalţi?

În fine, arta este mijlocul cel mai facil de a-ţi construi o imagine puternică. Arta transmite un mesaj complex, prezentându-te drept un simbol al fineţii şi al consecventei. Înainte să fii de folos oamenilor învaţă să fii de folos artei, căci numai arta cucereşte lumea pe neaşteptate. Aşa cum fotbalul se joacă pe goluri, leadershipul se axează pe colaborare, în spiritul adevăratului fair-play, şi "se joacă" pe acel teren pe care oamenii pot câştiga împreună cu tine printr-un efort consecvent şi inteligent, fiecare abordare comună, bine coordonată, echilibrată şi unanim aplicabilă însemnând un pas înainte spre succes.

A-ţi forma în minte, prin analiza unui model determinist de cauză-efect, imaginea din care îţi poţi făuri o realitate a relaţionării dintre percepţie şi reprezentare, înseamnă să îţi atribui o caraterizare sugestivă ce are la bază o lucrare ce aparţine artei.

Capacitatea de a relaţiona cu ceilalţi este ca o construcţie pe care se clădesc impresiile diferite, şi care se poate prăbuşi dacă ele nu impresionează prin utilitate, accesibilitate şi performanţă. Aşa cum ucenicii îşi îmbogăţesc de la o zi la alta sufletul cu noi impresii despre arta mentorului lor (dacă acesta le dezvăluie cu mult entuziasm din tainele picturii pe care o practică şi din experienţa sa), tot aşa şi oamenii de care te înconjori tu, ei pot conta pe tine numai dacă ajung să creadă mai întâi în leadershipul pe care îl practici, numai dacă fiecare dintre ei ajunge să spună: "Într-o bună zi, am să fiu şi eu ca el."

Celebrul scriitor american C. Maxwell a reliefat foarte bine acest adevăr: "Încrederea este unicul factor important în clădirea relaţiilor personale şi profesionale. Ea uneşte adepţii cu liderii."

Tu intenţionezi să faci accesibilă celorlalţi măcar o parte din tainele artei tale? Sau distrugi climatul de încredere ascunzând oamenilor informaţiile care i-ar putea ajuta să se dezvolte şi să ajungă la fel de buni ca tine? Te închizi în tine însuţi? Sau oferi şi celorlalţi cheia transformării, cheia către performanţa absolută care se află înăuntru tău, în bogăţia cunoştinţelor tale şi în profundă originalitate a gândirii? Ştiinţa conducerii nu poate funcţiona dacă nu dezvolţi activ încrederea celorlalţi în tine.

Valoarea ta e dată de măsura în care îi ridici şi pe ceilalţi la un nivel înalt. Dar valoarea poate fi dată şi de măsură în care îţi exprimi concepţia despre artă, arătându-ţi măiestria în a da naştere unei creaţii uimitoare.

Leadershipul este mijlocul facil de a-ţi construi o comparaţie sugestivă cu ajutorul şi justificarea unei creaţii ce se încadrează în tema: "You must constantly remind you of yourself in a picture".

Promotorul de neînlocuit al onorurilor poţi fi şi tu dacă anticipezi nevoile de perfecţionare a celorlalţi oameni, şi dacă îţi aduci aportul la promovarea şi menţinerea lor la un nivel optim de dezvoltare. Dacă ei îşi extind cunoştinţele la un nivel avansat şi dacă îşi îmbunătăţesc vizibil abilităţile, atunci vei avea parte de felicitări, de onoruri la scena deschisă.

Concluzie: Fiecare individ şi-a construit pe parcursul vieţii o scară de valori, în conformitate cu educaţia, cultura şi profesionalismul său. Aceste scări nu sunt identice. Unul care se consideră în vârful scării proprii s-ar putea să corespundă doar la jumătatea scării altuia, şi chiar la baza scării unui lider, iar în comparaţie cu "scara standard" toţi să se situeze mai jos de vârful acesteia.

Scopul în leadership este acela de a ajunge cât mai sus pe scara standardului, pornind de la îmbunătăţirea relaţiilor interumane, de la identificarea nevoilor de instruire şi întărirea relaţiilor de colaborare – pentru ca toţi să se perfecţioneze şi să ajungă mai sus în comparaţie cu standardul.

Promotorul ştiinţei viitorului

Transformă marile tale inovaţii într-un mijloc de comunicare a gândurilor şi sentimentelor, astfel încât ştiinţa ta să servească drept etalon al manifestării unei puteri incomensurabile.

Inovaţia formală o găsea în aplicarea cinematografică a montajului de atracţii, aceasta era şi metoda realizării oricărui film. Depăşită curând după aceea, această părere a lui Eisenstein are totuşi importanţă în biografia sa creatoare, deoarece filmul "Greva" conţine embrionar – şi uneori mai mult decât atât – marile inovaţii artistice de mai târziu. Ideile montajului Eisensteinian le găsim aici în acest film. Rolul metaforic, asociativ al montajului apare clar în acea secvenţă, adeseori citată, în care scenelor reprezentând represiunea mişcării muncitoreşti li se alătură imaginile tăierii vitelor la abator.

Exemplele de acest fel abundă în film. Montajul devine un limbaj, un mijloc de comunicare a gândurilor şi sentimentelor. Chiar şi abstracţiuni pot fi exprimate prin montaj, cum reiese din exemplul citat mai sus. Asistăm deci la primii paşi ai descoperirii funcţiilor montajului şi totodată, la primul pas spre filmul intelectual de mai târziu. *

Leadership: Poţi să conturezi o viziune care să ofere o nouă imagine a conceptului de "oglindă a temei care îşi reprezintă lumea", astfel încât să schimbi cursul acţiunii unei opere care sfidează şi răstoarnă convenţiile stilistice ale modernismului?

Ceea ce transmiţi şi ceea ce recepţionează ceilalţi, aducând la vedere imaginea a ceea ce ştii în mod practic, depinde de ceea ce descoperi şi împlineşti pe fondul depășirii propriilor limite. Limitele sunt asemenea loviturilor de ciocan care îţi dau de ştire că trebuie să regândeşti felul în care combini elementele de creaţie ce îţi garantează obţinerea rezultatelor ştiinţifice de vârf, mobilizându-te spre a-ți duce atribuțiile de „inovator" până la capăt.

Marii creatori se concentrează asupra stabilirii tipului de cunoaştere care orientează acţiunea într-o abordare ştiinţifică, nu doar ca un mod de a-şi testa limitele şi înalta calificare în domeniu, ci ca un mijloc de comunicare a gândurilor şi sentimentelor resimţite într-o manieră originală de a trata anumite teme. Aceste teme pot cuprinde viziuni despre lume sau descrieri ale unui anumit mod de viaţă, evidenţiate printr-o deschidere către obiectivitatea ştiinţifică, având reprezentare într-o oglindă care reconfigurează realitatea.

Putem vorbi despre "o oglindă a subiectului care îşi reprezintă lumea" în cazul în care abordarea unei viziuni are ca primă formă de manifestare o formă de comunicare a unei informaţii sau a unui sentiment pe care scenaristul le simte în propria lui viaţă. Aici leadershipul capăta accent de subordonare faţă de ideile care confirmă influenţa gândirii şi mai ales a simţirii asupra celor din jur, fiindcă scenaristul trebuie să ARATE, nu să SPUNĂ, găsind o modalitate de a antrena publicul să adopte o anumite stare care să ilustreze o parte a personalităţii sale.

O operă care sfidează şi răstoarnă convenţiile stilistice ale modernismului este rezultatul unei viziuni capabilă să menţină aura artistică şi autonomia auctorială în abordarea unei teme care rotunjeşte realitatea şi-i dă un înţeles mult mai cuprinzător decât poate ştiinţa să ofere.

Într-un limbaj accesibil, scenaristul trebuie să imprime operei sale acel joc de scenă sufletesc care trădează la fiecare mişcare un puternic efect eclectic, spectaculos, comic sau dramatic.

Lumina din poveste trebuie să aibă un puternic rol dramaturgic și spiritual, adică să cuprindă acea explozie de emoţie pe care o generează fenomenul „deja-vu”.

Ceea ce un bun regizor vrea să împlinească, prin realizarea unui montaj din elementele cheie de diferenţiere, căpătând forma unui limbaj de descriere şi modelare a raţionalităţii ştiinţifice, şi integrarea ei pragmatică în leadership, este acea viziune creatoare aducătoare de valoare adăugată. O viziune care să fie mai măreaţă decât calităţile de moment sau decât puterea de a crea o varietate de conținut și experiențe.

Primii paşi ai descoperirii funcţiilor montajului sunt un periplu neobosit printre punctele de reper ale unei ştiinţe corespunzătoare observaţiilor şi cele ale unei ştiinţe care, în principal, se bazează pe resurse de idei şi proiecte inovatoare.

Poţi să închei un parteneriat care să funcţioneze bine între autoritatea ta de promotor al ştiinţei şi contribuabilii la direcţia ta de gândire, numai dacă în arta ta se găseşte reflectată raţiunea de a asigura baza pentru formularea unor noi standarde de performanţă. Aceste standarde sunt menite să garanteze faptul că ştiinţa asimilată şi practicată după modele proprii de pregătire, va servi drept etalon al manifestării, cu discreţie, a unei puteri incomensurabile. Acea putere de a-ţi modifica parametrii de funcţionare şi direcţia evolutivă de-a lungul existenţei.

Regizorul este posesorul unor forme de întărire a unei creaţii în raport cu ființa sa, despre un subiect actual abordat din unghiuri diferite, dintr-o perspectivă artistică care-ți dă sentimentul de detașare spirituală față tot ce este pieritor şi efemer.

Poţi să dezvolţi acea parte a subiectului care determină cursul acțiunii unei opere dramatice sau epice, care să reflecte deschiderea către obiectivitate a viziunii artistice?

Promotorul ştiinţei viitorului este liderul-creator care reuşeşte să transforme marile sale inovaţii într-un mijloc de comunicare a gândurilor şi sentimentelor. Ştiinţa lui poate să servească drept etalon al manifestării unei puteri incomensurabile numai dacă reuşeşte să-şi modeleze raţionalitatea şi s-o integreze pragmatic în leadership.

Ştiinţa este materia care prinde viaţă după o simplă reamenajare a resurselor de inspiraţie şi creaţie, iar ea se raportează la leadership atât prin raţiune şi pragmatism, dar şi prin emoţiile înregistrate în subconştient în relaţia cu experienţa acumulată în domeniu.

Propulsaţi-vă în direcţia succesului

Salvează climatul tău de excelenţă, scoţând la iveală acele calităţi care transmit energie şi acţiuni cu valoare pentru ceilalţi oameni.

În filmul „ Mumia (1999) ”, eroii principali, fraţii Evelyn şi Jonathan doreau să ajungă în oraşul morţilor Hamunaptra, dar din păcate harta pe care o aveau şi pe care cu greu au procurat-o era deteriorată aproape în întregime. Singura lor speranţă era să găsească pe cineva care să cunoască drumul şi care să-i poată ghida în direcţia respectivă.

În închisoarea din Cairo ei îl întâlnesc pe Rick, fost comandant de trupe, care fusese încarcerat şi urma să fie spânzurat. Rick ştia că singurul lui bilet de scăpare sunt cei doi exploratori, aşa că le propune un târg: " Dacă vreţi să vă conduc în oraşul morţilor, scoateţi-mă rapid de aici ."

Leadership: Cursul evoluţiei tale câştigă noi semnificaţii prin redefinirea condiţiei de suferinţă în care te găseşti, pe măsură ce versiunea ta de trăi începe să funcţioneze ca o nouă realitate?

Cu ce condiţie culegi un fruct necopt? Cu condiţia ca el să se coacă degrabă şi să respecte întocmai condiţiile pentru obţinerea unei calităţi perfecte a unui produs alimentar care se vinde bine. Viaţa omului prins în mreaja unei alegeri nefaste se desfăşoară în condiţiile în care el este înconjurat permanent de forme noi de manifestare a nevoii de libertate în contexte grele de încercare.

Versiunea ta de trăi începe să funcţioneze ca o nouă realitate în faptul că spiritul de observaţie şi gândirea axată pe controlul evenimentelor alcătuiesc materialul combinării unui statut de "legendă vie" cu un rol de autonomie în iniţierea unei "cauze de suflet".

Omul poate "renaşte" cu mai multă ardoare dacă dă ascultare acelei nevoi intense de-a asigura o evadare din dimensiunea spaţiului în care trăieşte. El se poate îndepărta de formele de activitate care nu produc "efecte de trambulină" în realitatea curentă, asigurând acea claritate de care are nevoie pentru a şti ce paşi să urmeze încât să obţină noi performanţe.

Problema e că în prezent, exigenţele liderilor privitoare la schimbarea personală au început să fie tot mai puţin ridicate, în ciuda accesului la atâtea stări interioare mobilizatoare. Suferinţa ori bucuria omului sunt stări determinate de condiţiile inspiraţiei cu care el îşi călăuzeşte paşii spre crearea unui nou destin, perceput adesea sub diferite unghiuri şi la diferite grade de intersecţie cu sindromul aspiraţiei de a comunica altora o viziune neobosită.

Cursul evoluţiei tale poate câştiga semnificaţia de "premieră absolută" atunci când gândirea ta limitată, axată doar pe intervenția lui Dumnezeu, începe să fie înlocuită cu acea manifestare de voinţă care generează acumularea de simţire a biruinţei, oferindu-ţi posibilitatea să intuieşti cursul evenimentelor.

O cauză de suflet poate fi înţeleasă ca o evadare din tumultul unei vieţi nesigure, în favoarea unei cereri personalizate de libertate numită "Descoperă-ţi curajul de a fi autentic" pe care o consideri demnă de încercat.

Tu ridici mâna atunci când vrei să schimbi direcţia? Rick a înşfăcat noua lui sarcina şi i-a condus pe cei doi fraţi în oraşul morţilor. Acesta este tipul de abordare pe care un lider trebuie să o adopte. Dacă vrei să conduci oamenii, mai întâi de toate oferă-ţi serviciile de ghid. Poate că la fel ca şi Rick, nici nu vei avea de ales. S-ar putea să fie singurul tău bilet câştigător.

Vei avea numai de câştigat dacă te oferi voluntar pentru sarcini sau activităţi suplimentare. Indiferent ce eforturi sau sacrificii suplimentare ar fi necesare, trebuie să onorezi noua îndatorire pe care o primeşti şi să o duci la bun sfârşit. Cariera ta depinde de modul în care te implici şi de felul cum tratezi noua sarcina care ţi-a fost atribuită.

Aşa cum jocul de ansamblu al unei echipe de fotbal presupune, în primul rând, organizare, tot astfel leadershipul tău trebuie să presupună mai întâi de toate o adâncă schimbare a propriei tale persoane, a propriei tale lumi – să te transformi dintr-un om pasiv într-unul activ, dintr-un om vechi, într-unul nou, să depăşeşti acea linie care te blochează şi care te desparte de acea persoană pe care doreşti să fii.

Caută permanent noi căi de a-ţi oferi serviciile, nu ezita să le dai o mână de ajutor celor care au imediată nevoie. Fii convins că nu sunt mulţi aceia care oferă servicii profesionale de calitate, care îşi execută sarcinile stabilite prompt şi într-o manieră excelentă. Ridică mâna, fă-te observat în mulţime. Aminteşte-ţi ce spuneam într-un articol anterior, dacă vrei să avansezi într-o poziţie superioară trebuie să te mişti mai rapid decât toţi ceilalţi. Iar una din căile prin care poţi face acest lucru este să îţi oferi primul serviciile şi ajutorul în beneficiul altora.

Salvează climatul tău de excelenţă, scoţând la iveală acele calităţi care transmit energie şi acţiuni cu valoare pentru ceilalţi oameni.

Leadershipul se iniţiază prin stabilirea unui context de revelanţă şi de încredere care împinge omul către valorizarea exclusivă a unui anumit tip de decizie, numită: IREVOCABILĂ, din care toată lumea are de câştigat !

Protagonistul unei lumi determinate de punctul maxim de iluminare

Experimentează leadershipul ca pe o ştiinţă vie care evoluează continuu, asigurând resursele necesare realizării unei viziuni multilaterale despre lume şi viaţă.

Mă fascina lumea lor... a celor care nu cuvântă, aflaţi în afara perimetrului de exploatare a realităţii, în măsura în care îşi puteau asigura anonimatul. Ei erau protagoniştii unei lumi determinate de punctul maxim de iluminare, în sensul vectorului forţă care îşi avea originea nu în creaţie, ci într-un Creator care era constrâns să traverseze mereu, într-o adevărată goană, câmpul de profunzime a unei fenomenale cunoaşteri. Cuprins între diferenţa şi suma modulelor componentelor unei variabile-structură derivate din marea ştiinţă a timpului.

Precum lumea creată de Terry Gilliam, mă cufundam într-un univers imaginar, în care licuricii aveau nume, iar veveriţele vorbeau, tot mediul înconjurător căpăta viaţă, o valoare, un sens. Singurul sens în care se putea vorbi de o filozofie adâncă, organic legată de diverse existenţe, dar în special de activitatea multilateralului.

Concomitent, simţeam că fac parte dintr-o metafizică unică, riguroasă şi profundă, care mă plasa în centrul unei reţele de corespondenţe între cer şi pământ, între punctul material de energie constantă şi punctul material de impuls constant.

Concret, eram supus unei îndatoriri stricte: să compun zilnic o imagine ce îmi trece fugar prin faţa ochilor, dar se întipăreşte, pentru totdeauna. Mai curând o comedie a cuvântului decât un sentiment de apartenenţă la o gândire exterioară, cu un surplus de informaţii, de experienţe. Un plin neînţeles, ca un paradox al evoluţiei pus în evidenţă de o provocare pe care o poţi accepta sau nu.

Dacă l-aş parafraza pe scriitorul român, Al. Busuioceanu, aş spune că metafizica mea, departe de a fi o atitudine intelectuală, era mai mult un amestec nelămurit de intuiţii şi credinţe mistice ce mă făceau să atribui o metafizică şi primitivului care însufleţeşte şi antropomorfizează natura din jurul lui.

Era o metafizică pe care doar o presupuneam, uşor de experimentat ca pe o ştiinţă vie, pe care pregătirea mea intelectuală o îngăduia într-un anumit grad, dar pe care nu o puteam exploata, nici desluşi, în întregime.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri resursele necesare realizării unei viziuni despre lume şi viaţă care să stabilească obiective dincolo de hotarul unei realităţi care devine tot mai copleşitoare pe măsură ce se revelează în descrierea unui spaţiu de refugiu în imaginar?

O ştiinţă vie care evoluează continuu este strâns legată de fiorul necesar construirii unor noi modalităţi de exprimare care să confere realităţii o anumită particularitate, veridicitate şi consistenţă, printr-o explicaţie chiar fantezistă, dar atrăgătoare şi captivantă.

Un domeniu cum este leadershipul, reluând în discuţie problema creaţiei, deschizând omul în faţa unei noi realităţi prin luarea în considerare a necesităţii confecţionării unui suport de susţinere a opţiunilor de configurare şi iniţializare a unei arte caracterizate de un fundament ştiinţific complex, trebuie să furnizeze o inepuizabilă posibilitate de a se impune ca sursă de inspiraţie pentru viitoarele generaţii.

Cărţile lui Jules Verne au avut darul de a iniţia oamenii în lumea gândurilor ascunse, în lumea acelor taine mai presus de orice înţelegere, determinându-i să pună bazele unor tehnologii avansate, transformându-i în savanţi. Tot astfel leadershipul, adaptat la intenţiile de accesare a unui fond nou de concepte, modele şi teorii, reprezentând din acest punct de vedere un adevărat upgrade conceptual, dar şi o realizare pur personală, duce la o amplificare a tendinţelor de consum ştiinţific, în favoarea unei perpetue evoluţii spre modernitate şi progres.

Dar pentru ca omul să-şi poată demonstra potenţialul creativ într-o evoluţie plină dinamism şi de mutaţii de ordin cantitativ şi calitativ, în conţinutul şi modul de asigurare a resurselor necesare realizării şi implementării unei viziuni consistente despre lume şi viaţă, care stabileşte obiective dincolo de obişnuit, el trebuie să devină un Creator. Dornic să traverseze mereu, într-o adevărată goană, câmpul de profunzime a unei fenomenale cunoaşteri. Pe care pregătirea sa intelectuală o îngăduie într-un anumit grad.

Un refugiu imaginar este o parte a conştiinţei universului, reprezenand singura modalitate de a produce ceva nou din năzuinţa de a împlini şi stăpâni ceva mai mult, mai larg, dintr-un spaţiu nedeterminat, fără sfârşit.

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti izvorul reînnoirii tale în contextul unei viziuni induse de o ştiinţă a totalităţii existenţei la nivel de interpretare a unei realităţi care se desfăşoară în mod plenar în activitatea imaginativă?

Pentru a crea posibilitatea unei evoluţii adaptate la o lume modernă, omul trebuie să găsească un anumit element dintr-o structură de date, să aplice acel algoritm dintre ideal şi realitate ce are o formulă ştiinţifică unică, bazată dacă se poate pe cunoaşterea apriori a timpului pe care viaţa, cu multiplele ei coordonate şi nuanţe, îl conturează neîncetat.

Să vadă prin acel material de construcție artificial, necesar oricărei creaţii, un amestec de noi factori de diferenţiere a capacităţilor sale intelectuale, fără a face din creaţie un fel de modus operandi supus logicii riguroase a unui raţionament care nu se poate autocrea, învins de concluzia: "Nimic nu se mai poate schimba."

Leadershipul trebuie experimentat ca pe o ştiinţă vie care evoluează continuu, ridicat la o justă înţelegere a necesităţii de a garanta repartizarea echilibrată a unor elemente de anticipaţie şi noutate, combinându-le perfect în relaţie cu viaţa. Într-o zonă compusă riguros din analize şi fapte care se potrivesc cu pattern-urile unei singure reguli: "Întotdeauna este loc de alte interpretări."

Preferinţa de a te refugia într-un univers imaginar care să coordoneze totalitatea vieţii se lasă exprimată din unghiul receptării unei realităţi care fascinează şi ridică întrebări asupra rostului tău în lume. Ea poate fi conceptualizată prin raportare la ştiinţa de a te exprima prin imagini, prin recurgerea la comparaţii şi alte figuri de stil, prin creaţie filosofică, prin viziune şi expresie literară.

Vei deveni protagonistul unei lumi determinate de punctul maxim de iluminare numai atunci când îţi vei găsi valoarea în contextul unei viziuni induse de o ştiinţă a totalităţii existenţei, care include deopotrivă pozitivul şi negativul, manifestându-se prin formele de cunoscut şi necunoscut care există în tine şi în afara ta. Şi în care ai început să crezi.

Protejează-ţi imaginea companiei

On Martie 19, 2009

Adaugă un plus de vitalitate leadershipului tău, asigurându-te că elementele lui constitutive sunt realizate şi menţinute la un nivel de maximă calitate.

Din nou au dat lovitura.

Nişte spărgători au reuşit să înşele vigilenţa sistemelor de supraveghere şi alarmare şi să jefuiască o bancă. Au reuşit să sustragă aproape 300.000 de lei din seiful cu valori. Toate ziarele şi televiziunile au comentat de zor acest incident, iar poliţia se pare că nu a dat de urma infractorilor.

De câte ori apare pe prima pagină a ziarelor un astfel caz nerezolvat imaginea poliţiei are de suferit. Cum poate exista crima organizată din moment ce poliţia este mereu la datorie şi îşi îndeplineşte atribuţiile cu multă perseverenţă şi grijă? "Vom face tot ce putem" spun şefii poliţiei, însă din păcate rezultate palpabile nu prea se prea văd. Din aceasta cauză poliţia este tot timpul criticată şi învinovăţită că este o instituţie ineficientă.

Este leadershipul tău un „succedaneu"?

Succedaneul, în limbaj medical, se defineşte drept produs farmaceutic relativ eficient, în condiţiile unei maladii determinate, care însă nu este cel mai indicat să fie prescris. Cu alte cuvinte în lipsa produsului farmaceutic ideal, se prescrie un "medicament" ce prezintă mai puţină încredere - succedaneul.

E necesar ca noi să fim conştienţi şi de această modalitate: a „succedaneelor" manageriale. Atâta timp cât o companie funcţionează haotic şi nu obţine rezultate mulţumitoare nu poate fi vorba despre performanţă în rândul celor ce se află la conducerea ei. E vorba de acea ierarhizare a calităţilor şi defectelor ei, mai mult sau mai puţin categorică, şi a ordinii importanţei lor pe care uită s-o stabilească managerii – astfel încât să poată implementa măsuri mai eficiente pentru ca rezultatele finale să fie cât mai bune.

Aşa cum olarul îşi modelează figura frământând lutul cu gesturi sigure, oprindu-se să finiseze orice detaliu – tot aşa şi tu trebuie să incluzi în chip armonios în leadershipul tău acele politici care să nu rămână cu „datorii", asigurându-te că elementele lui constitutive (integritatea, competenţa, rezistenţă la corupţie, tenacitatea şi eficienţa) sunt pe deplin realizate şi menţinute la un nivel de maximă calitate. Aceste elemente vădesc valoarea şi spontaneitatea leadershipului tău.

Imaginea care îţi decide leadershipul ţine de configurarea perspectivei vizavi de ceea ce vrei să auzi despre tine fără să te împotriveşti unei controverse create în jurul a ceea ce dă roade în absenţa ta.

O politică fără datorii reprezintă o reflecţie asupra stării de echilibru a instituţiei sau companiei pe care o conduci, reprezintă intenţia ta de a transmite o anumită concepţie care să pună accentul asupra creării de valoare - care să genereze încredere şi solidaritate.

Tu urmăreşti în mod sistematic felul cum se înfăţişează componentele constitutive ale leadershipului tău? Eşti consecvent în a apăra respectarea principiilor care permit promovarea valorii instituţiei pe care o conduci? Sau eşti un manager slab care explică neîncetat de ce nu merge bine treaba, asigurând pe toată lumea că nu este vina lui?

Integritatea, competenţa, rezistenţa la corupţie, tenacitatea şi eficienţa sunt elementele constitutive ale leadershipului tău?

Leadership: Zona experienței tale de utilizare a responsabilităţii se distinge printr-o încadrare diferită a faptei care te va urmări mereu?

În goana după senzaţional sau alteori prezentând parţial sau deformat faptele, ziarele şi televiziunile nu fac altceva decât să păteze imaginea anumitor instituţii sau organizaţii. Este corect sau nu, adevărat sau fals, concluziile le trag oamenii care văd ştirile şi care, încetul cu încetul, încep să-şi piardă încrederea în eficacitatea acelor instituţii sau companii.

Cu toţii judecăm lucrurile la suprafaţă, după felul în care ne sunt prezentate faptele în mass-media, fără să cunoaştem realitatea în sine. O companie sau o instituţie care este bombardată permanent de critici şi cuvinte de ocară nu ne va lăsa o impresie prea bună şi cu siguranţă o vom ocoli.

Ceva trebuie făcut, dar ce? Dacă managerii ţin la prestigiul şi imaginea companiei pe care o conduc atunci trebuie să acorde mai multă atenţie serviciilor pe care le promovează şi la modul în care se implică în rezolvarea problemelor. Asta din respect pentru clienţii care le oferă încrederea apelând tot timpul la serviciile lor.

Leadershipul este prestanţa pe care ţi-o dă faptul că eşti capabil să accepţi compromisul dintre idealul de a servi unei cauze mai înalte şi contextul pe care ţi-l creezi pentru a nu rămâne cu urmele acuzatoare ale faptelor tale.

Este o vorbă veche care spune: "peştele de la cap se strică". De vină pentru eşecul unei instituţii este fără îndoială managerul care nu s-a implicat la timp în rezolvarea problemelor, care nu a fost îndeajuns de abil să-şi întemeieze o echipă formată din buni profesionişti care să intervină eficient în situaţii dificile şi care nu a fost capabil să ia măsurile care se cuvin din timp. Toate acestea s-au concretizat într-o imagine publică nefavorabilă care în mod sigur a condus la eşec. Nimic nu este întâmplător, orice cauză are un efect şi orice efect are cauza sa.

O imagine de succes atrage după ea succesul. O instituţie sau o companie trebuie să fie într-adevăr capabilă să ducă la bun sfârşit misiunea pe care şi-o asumă, şi să-şi creeze o imagine de succes. Însă o imagine de succes nu apare de la sine, ci se construieşte în timp cu efort din partea tuturor angajaţilor.

Concluzie: o instituţie sau o companie care doreşte să fie respectată trebuie să-şi promoveze o imagine cât mai bună, adică să demonstreze că merită încrederea celor care se bazează pe serviciile ei, prin eficacitate şi promptitudine.

Reîntorcându-mă la începutul acestui articol, poliţia română îşi va putea crea o imagine mai bună dacă va câştiga lupta cu infractorii şi dacă îşi va concentra eforturile asupra prevenirii infracţiunilor. Dar pentru asta trebuie să-şi schimbe metodele de acţiune, astfel încât să apere cu mai multa eficienţă interesele şi nevoile cetăţenilor şi să fie în stare să soluţioneze problemele în cel mai scurt timp.

De unde ştim dacă o instituţie sau o companie este de succes? După imaginea pe care o lasă.

Pulsul fermecător al vieţii

Sporeşte-ţi credibilitatea faţă de cei cu care interacţionezi, construindu-ţi leadershipul pe un fond sufletesc consistent.

În numărul 169 al revistei Cariere , ne este dezvăluită pe scurt povestea medicului dentist, Roland Hermann, într-o ipostază mai mult decât provocatoare: aceea a unui om care ar merge chiar şi până la capătul lumii, acceptând riscurile de rigoare, numai pentru a servi unei cauze nobile.

Amazon, Nepal, Ciad, Bolivia, Guyana sunt câteva din locurile în care neobositul medic român s-a aflat pentru un singur scop: să le dea o mână de ajutor oamenilor cu un nivel de trai foarte scăzut. Lucrul cel mai important pe care Roland l-a învăţat în aceste proiecte de voluntariat a fost să preţuiască viaţa, să respecte oamenii şi fie alături de ei în momentele grele. Dorinţa de a-şi trăi viaţa pentru ceilalţi, de a-i vedea sănătoşi şi fericiţi este singura bucurie care îi va încălzi întotdeauna sufletul.

Citind despre meritele sale şi despre munca sa, pot spune că Roland Hermann este o persoană demnă de toată admiraţia prin faptul că adaugă multă semnificaţie meseriei sale şi propriei sale vieţi, păstrându-şi intact fondul sufletesc şi moral care îl conectează de ceilalţi oameni.

Leadership: Apartenența ta la un trend de consolidare a nivelului de reprezentativitate este o condiție a ascensiunii sale către cea mai înaltă demnitate a numelui ce-l porți?

Din motive care ţin de specificul evoluţiei societăţii la acest moment, factorul capital şi suplimentarea acestuia tinde tot mai mult spre dobândirea acelei "excelenţe exclusiviste" care sprijină idealurile izvorâte din inimă. Cooperare, întrajutorare, voluntariat şi bunul exemplu trebuie să fie resursele de bază ale imaginii tale în lume.

Iată, deci, că acele cunoştinţe referitoare la înţelegerea principiilor fundamentale ale leadershipului sunt asimilate tot mai mult ca norme de reglementare a vieţii a oamenilor, solidaritatea făcându-şi tot mai frecvent apariţia în diverse zone de business sau de dezvoltare personală.

Libertatea de a te desăvârşi prin ceilalţi, adoptarea unui tip de gândire şi un cod de conduită responsabil faţă de protecţia propriului brand, fac din tine - nu un spectator, nu un străin - ci un erou social, o fiinţă integrală, un om de virtute. Spre deosebire de "omul de zăpadă" care încearcă să-şi impună respectul numai în vremuri reci, aşteptând ca toată lumea să-l admire, fără să facă absolut nimic la modul comun.

Tocmai din acest paralelism evolutiv, la interferenţa dintre responsabilitate şi lejeritate în spirit şi acţiune, se conturează foarte clar înclinaţia omului spre leadership, luând la cunoştinţă şi regulile după care el se dezvoltă. Din această specificitate fundamentală decurg toate celelalte particularităţi care fac din individ o fiinţă unică, înaintând sub specia celor mai depline implicări în campanii de întrajutorare la un nivel mai înalt de înţelegere a sinelui.

Numele ce-l porţi are ca prim centru de greutate acel trend al recunoştinţei faţă de ceea ce vine dintr-o direcţie în care nu mai contează când şi unde te afli, ci felul cum te simţi în timpul unei examinări din perspectiva observatorilor cu care interacţionezi.

Lipsa unor principii morale bine definite, neutralitatea etică, alături de individualismul exacerbat, dezvoltat într-o manieră care nu face cinste nimănui, îl determină pe individ să îşi întărească structura interioară a caracterului sub "un strat gros de zăpadă", care opune rezistenţă oricărei tendinţe de acţiune îndreptate spre sensul unic şi definitiv al excelenţei.

O evoluţie ce poate fi privită ca o explozie de voinţă şi cu efecte incoerente, fără niciun simptom clar, dar susceptibilă la reacţii adverse. Iar aceste efecte se intersectează şi conflictualizează cu acele structuri de gândire şi acţiune care se distanţează de acel prag al recunoaşterii absolute, dar nefondate pe un suport faptic credibil şi suficient.

Un fulg de zăpada se formează din combinaţia mai multor cristale de gheaţă, dar asta nu îl transformă într-un diamant.

Leadershipul este o impresionantă aventură în căutarea unor noi tărâmuri ale artei, a cărei savoare este degustată doar de călătorii care acceptă răspunderea de a-şi modela caracterul - căutând prin intermediul modului lor unic de a fi, prin tendinţa lor de preţuire, acceptul societăţii care nu pretinde ignoranţa.

Măsura leadershipului tău e dată de modul în care te concentrezi asupra idealurilor tale în timpul unui slalom continuu pe graniţa dintre evenimentele vieţii şi performanţa de a le controla?

Pregătirea pentru crearea unei relaţii pozitive şi sănătoase începe cu implicarea ta în sprijinirea unei cauze nobile. Încercând să vezi lumea prin filtrul unei sensibilităţi aparte vizavi de nevoile şi necesităţile oamenilor, dând ascultare vocii acelea din spatele minţii care îţi şopteşte neîncetat să nu rămâi indiferent la suferinţele lor vei menţine sub control percepţia lor asupra abilităţilor tale de a-i influenţa.

Pentru a-i influenţa pe oameni trebuie să ocupi un loc în sufletul lor. Şi vei reuşi acest lucru doar acaparându-i pe toţi cu sentimente unice de afecţiune.

"Nu tot ceea ce poate fi măsurat contează, şi nu tot ceea ce contează poate fi măsurat" , spunea odată Albert Einstein.

În leadership un singur lucru contează şi care în acelaşi timp poate fi măsurat: credibilitatea. Eşti credibil doar dacă eşti înzestrat cu acea însuşire a oamenilor însufleţiţi de un înalt patriotism, care manifestă un interes real pentru ceilalţi.

Aşa cum un pictor urmăreşte să sublinieze prin lumină şi umbră individualitatea fiecărui obiect aflat în spaţiu, tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să urmăreşti să subliniezi prin intermediul leadershipului tău individualitatea caracterului tău deosebit, în virtutea acelui sentiment de nobleţe care îţi pune în valoare frumuseţea interioară.

Performanţa de a controla un eveniment depinde de modul în care te prezinţi într-o situaţie în care poţi acţiona liber chiar şi atunci când ai de pierdut ceva.

Aşa cum bine preciza cineva: "Dacă ai de pierdut ceva important ce nu poți recâștiga, da, atunci ai motive să stai în dubii dacă să faci sau nu un pas neprevăzut în viață."

Pulsul fermecător al vieţii este dat de fondul tău sufletesc care te menţine mereu viu, care e mereu prezent undeva în adâncul fiinţei tale şi care te îndeamnă să iei atitudine şi să nu stai cu mâinile în sân atunci când cineva are nevoie de ajutor.

Leadershipul tău va căpăta o semnificaţie pozitivă, îţi vei spori credibilitatea faţă de cei cu care interacţionezi şi vei fi iubit doar dacă pulsul vieţii tale se va menţine mereu ridicat. Accelerează-ţi pulsul vieţii implicându-te personal în sprijinirea unei cauze nobile care să-ţi aducă satisfacţii morale, şi care să merite tot respectul şi susţinerea oamenilor.

Concluzie: Un leadership de calitate nu este cel autoimpus din dorinţa de a ascensiona pe plan social, ci cel ce izvorăşte din adâncul sufletului ca urmare a unei dorinţe de a le acorda ajutorul celor aflaţi în derivă sau a celor aflaţi în imposibilitatea de a avea un mod de acţiune unitar şi eficient. Astfel îţi sporeşti credibilitatea în faţa celora cu care interacţionezi şi doar aşa îţi accelerezi pulsul fermecător al propriei tale vieţi, obţinând satisfacţii din tot ceea ce faci.

Punctul cel mai nordic al solidarităţii

On Martie 13, 2009

Câştigă devotamentul oamenilor, aliniindu-ţi valorile la aşteptările lor.

M-am gândit deseori la această povestioară pe care unul din profesorii din facultate a spus-o la unul din cursurile sale:

Un mare om de afaceri moare şi ajunge la porţile raiului. O speranţă nebănuită îl cuprinse. Tânjea după bine şi frumos.

Este întâmpinat de sfântul Petru, care îl întreabă:

- Cum ai făcut averea?

Brusc, toate nădejdile i-au fost zdrobite, trecând pe neaşteptate de la calm la furie. Căci trebuia să spună adevărul, şi să aibă curajul să înfrunte cu demnitate decizia finala de care depindea fericirea sau nefericirea lui.

- Pai, spuse apoi omul cu un glas ce ar fi înmuiat chiar şi inimile împietrite, am luat o mica parte de la ceilalţi oameni, apoi i-am investit în afaceri imobiliare…

- Cum i-ai luat? întreabă sfântul Petru.

- Păi, vedeţi, am „împrumutat" de la ei…pentru o perioadă mai lungă de timp.

- Şi le-ai dat înapoi banii, cu dobândă? a fost întrebarea finală a sfântului Petru.

Leadership: Poţi să te bazezi pe asemănarea dintre ceea ce modelezi prin intenţiile tale și povestea pe care o imaginezi ca să-ţi ascunzi intenţiile, încât să nu te încarci cu presupuneri care încalcă prezumţia de nevinovăţie?

Ne bazăm reuşita pe propriile noastre presupuneri, ne punem încrederea în convingerile noastre, chiar dacă ele nu corespund valorilor şi aşteptărilor celorlalţi. Este oare de acceptat ca drumul pe care îl străbatem spre atingerea scopurilor alese să ocolească (sau să se desprindă) de toţi aceia care au contribuit direct, sau indirect, la reuşita noastră? În final, toate fărădelegile sunt pedepsite într-o formă sau alta.

Lumea nu este infinită, şi ea nu se opreşte la tine, ci la ceilalţi, la toţi aceia care ţi-au pus la dispoziţie mijloacele care să te ajute să reuşeşti. Acesta este mesajul poveştii de mai sus. În devenirea noastră ca lideri trebuie să ne centrăm gândirea şi faptele în jurul unui nucleu comun către care converg convingerile şi valorile celorlalţi: solidaritatea, libertatea şi dreptatea.

Trebuie să adoptăm acea gândire, acea atitudine şi acele decizii bazate pe dorinţa de revanşă faţă de ceilalţi, fiindcă în subconştientul nostru va rămâne mereu acea sămânţă de adevăr pe care nu-o vom putea ascunde niciodată: n-am fi reuşit de unii singuri.

Leadership: Poţi să exprimi o clarificare interioară ce consolidează Eul în opoziţie cu lumea exterioară, fără să suferi din cauza sentimentului premonitoriu al detectării unei culpabilităţi neasumate şi sfidate printr-o incapacitate a introspecţiei?

Un personaj dintr-o operă celebră a scriitorului Boleslaw Prus făcea următoarea remarcă: „Nechibzuit ar fi acela care ar socoti că nu-mi sunt cunoscute toate greutăţile puse pe talgerele cântarului." Cât este de adevărat ! Pentru a-ţi linişti ego-ul, trebuie să trăieşti experienta faptului că da, îţi poţi asuma consecinţele, fără să suferi din cauza unei dorinţe neasumate. Nu trebuie să suferi din cauza sentimentului premonitoriu al detectării unei culpabilităţi neasumate şi sfidate printr-o incapacitate a introspecţiei.

Reuşita noastră în leadership este precum o balanţă. Recompensele pe care le obţinem sunt contrabalansate de cele pe care le oferim celorlalţi. Suntem datori să dăm dobânda care li se cuvine celor care ne-au netezit drumul spre performanţă.

Aşa cum la aparatele foto digitale marca Canon, funcţia "Zoom Flaming Assist" ajută utilizatorii să urmărească subiecţii aflaţi la distanţă sau în mişcare atunci când se utilizează cu zoom-ul extins – tot aşa un leadership bazat pe solidaritate te ajută să-ţi urmăreşti conduita morală pe care o ai atunci când îţi utilizezi calităţile şi abilităţile în scopul obţinerii recunoaşterii şi respectului celor din jur.

Principiile după care îţi ghidezi leadershipul sunt ca un teritoriu necercetat. Mai întâi trebuie să investighezi traseul pe care îl parcurgi spre inimile oamenilor, şi după aia să te lansezi în carieră. Iar în încercarea ta de a ajunge într-o poziţie mai înaltă, gândeşte-te mereu la „dobânda" pe care o vei avea de rambursat celorlalţi. Vei reuşit să câştigi devotamentul oamenilor doar dacă îţi aliniezi valorile la aşteptările lor.

A exprima o clarificare interioară ce consolidază Eul în opoziţie cu lumea exterioară, înseamnă de fapt să-ţi faci o confesiune: "tot ce reuşesc să realizez nu trebuie să îndepărtez prin obligaţia de a da explicaţii".

Punctul cel mai nordic al solidarităţii este punctul de referinţă după care se măsoară capacitatea ta de a te raporta la ceilalţi. Fă-ţi timp, şi încearcă să priveşti cu ochi critic activităţile pe care le întreprinzi, dovedind că ai caracter şi o mentalitate bazată pe solidaritate, altfel nu vei însemna nimic pentru cei din jurul tău.

Concluzie: Unul singur a fost Atlas ce a putut să ţină singur Pământul pe umerii lui. În realitate trebuie să ştim să ne facem colaboratori, adepţi şi susţinători, pentru a nu porni singuri pe drumul greu spre performanţă. Şi, o dată ce i-am găsit şi ne-au însoţit ajutându-ne să ne atingem scopul, să nu uităm să le fim şi recunoscători şi să ştim să ne şi revanşăm faţă de ei.

Alegând calea dreaptă şi însoţitori de nădejde, probabilitatea de a ne atinge scopul este foarte mare. Iar dacă ştim să răsplătim încrederea şi loialitatea celor care ne-am ajutat, înseamnă că am câştigat şi prieteni adevăraţi pe care ne putem baza oricând.

Punctul de pornire în drumul spre desăvârşire

On Aprilie 20, 2009

Explorează-ţi personalitatea în profunzimea sa identificând acele valori şi convingeri care fac din tine un lider adevărat.

Mi-a atras atenţia un pasaj din romanul „ Doctorul Misterios ” de Alexandre Dumas care pune bine în evidenţă limitele, dar şi calităţile unui lider.

Priceputul doctor Jacques Merey, din oraşul Argenton, este anunţat în mod neaşteptat că a fost numit deputat la Convenţie, ceea ce însemna că trebuia să plece la Paris ca să se ocupe de problemele Franţei care traversa o perioadă de profund declin şi frământări, şi deci însemna să-i părăsească pe cei dragi. Însă Jacques nu vroia să accepte mandatul oferit, fiindcă nu se credea demn de această responsabilitate.

Dintr-o dată, cineva din mulţimea strânsă în jurul doctorului, exclamă:

- Ţi-ai face datoria, de la care lipseşti astăzi, Jacques Merey? Nu ai fost înzestrat cu o inteligenţă superioară şi cu o cultură considerabilă, ca să te îngropi într-un oraş de provincie, în timp ce Parisul, creierul Franţei, luptă pentru libertate. Tu poţi fi unul dintre cei care vor striga omenirii: „Franţa este liberă ! ” Şi tu refuzi ! Jacques Merey, îţi spun, treci pe lângă o glorie nemuritoare ca un orb pe lângă o comoară. Jacques Merey, Franţa putea să te cinstească, ea te va dispreţui; putea să te binecuvânteze, dar te va blestema !

Leadership: Profilul global al personalităţii tale este o expresie cantitativ-calitativă a totalităţii experienţelor pe care le trăieşti printr-o curioasă psihologie a eliberării de dependenţa în care te afli?

Desăvârşirea liderului se referă atingerea nivelului cel mai de sus de umanitate, în care s-au păstrat intacte valorile morale (bunătatea, infelegerea, generozitatea, adevărul, binele, credinţa), el ajungând să împărtăşească emoţia ataşată de un eveniment important care poate marca lumea. Altfel spus, desăvârşirea este rezultatul unei trăsături de personalitate care reflectă structura motivaţională a liderului în situaţii croite să arate că doar de el depinde succesul unui eveniment.

Un lider bun joacă întotdeauna un rol important în viaţa oamenilor, însă nu întotdeauna un lider este pregătit pentru schimbarea pe care trebuie s-o facă în propria persoană, în propria viaţă, în propriile percepţii şi gânduri, în propriile sale interese pentru a concura la proba definitorie a devenirii, a desăvârşirii sale. Un asemenea lider îşi trăieşte experienţele de viaţă printr-o curioasă psihologie a eliberării de dependenţa în care se află (dependenţa de a fi mereu în control), fiindcă ajunge să se lase condus de instinctul apartenenţei la umanitate, la spiritul civic din el însuşi.

Ca să poţi îndeplini o misiune, ca să accepţi despărţirea de vechiul model de gândire, ca să deschizi calea spre o mai bună aliniere la aşteptările celorlalţi, ai de ales între două drumuri: unul care întâlneşte inamicul, celălalt care trece la vedere prin faţa inamicului. Inamicul tău numărul unu, care poate împiedica leadershipul tău să se dezvolte, este “convingerea” bine înrădăcinată în mintea şi în sufletul tău că nu vei putea să te impui într-o situaţie delicată, că nu vei putea să-ţi impui personalitatea în faţa acelora care te-au ales şi te susţin în încercarea ta de a-i călăuzi spre un viitor ambiţios.

Acest inamic îl poţi evita sau îl poţi înfrunta cu mult curaj şi determinare. Dacă convingerea ta nu coincide 100% cu cea a majorităţii oamenilor, atunci leadershipul tău nu se va putea îndrepta spre o dezvoltare sănătoasă şi durabilă. Reuşita în leadership este în primul rând o călătorie interioară care îţi pune la încercare sentimentele şi credinţa, care îţi zguduie toate certitudinile şi te provoacă să-ţi depăşeşti limitele impuse de voinţa ta, de capacităţile tale de a lua decizii şi de a soluţiona probleme; este o călătorie care te va călăuzi spre măreţie şi care îţi va lumina calea spre o mai bună cunoaştere de sine.

Profilul global al unei personalităţi distincte se constituie ca o îmbinare dintre măreţie şi năzuinţă, pe fondul autenticităţii în a reacţiona ca un factor cauzal în faţa evenimentelor majore, nu ca un "automat" la cerinţelor celorlalţi.

Adevăratul tău potenţial tău de lider iese la iveală atunci când îţi exprimi intenţia de a-ţi duce la capăt misiunea ce ţi-a fost încredinţată. Jacques Merey a acceptat până la urmă chemarea oamenilor şi a dovedit, în ciuda propriilor suspiciuni, că este pregătit pentru asta. Rolul lui a fost unul hotărâtor. El a reuşit să demonstreze că are capacitatea de a atinge ţeluri deosebite, că este curajos şi foarte abil în a urma căile dure şi complexe spre noi performanţe.

Punctul de pornire în drumul spre desăvârşirea leadershipului sugerează acea hotărâre pe care o iei din convingerea că ai putea să le fii de folos celorlalţi. Leadershipul este un drum pe care îl urmezi pe propriul tău risc şi care începe de la tine, de la punctul în care te-ai decis că este momentul să preiei frâiele conducerii pentru că eşti persoana cea mai potrivită pentru a-i ghida pe ceilalţi spre un scop comun.

Dar pentru asta trebuie să ai o motivaţie intrinsecă, trebuie să-ţi schimbi starea de spirit, să te pui singur în valoare, să ieşi din vechile structuri de a gândi, să mişti lucrurile în cel mai elegant şi mai eficient mod posibil, şi să ai dorinţa să deschizi drumuri spre un viitor cât mai bun.

Aşa cum punctul de pornire al oricărei afaceri îl constituie identificarea şi furnizarea beneficiilor pentru toţi clienţii (mai bine decât concurenţa) – tot aşa punctul de pornire al evoluţiei leadershipului tău îl constituie identificarea acelor valori şi convingeri care te transformă, dintr-un om obişnuit, un lider desăvârşit, furnizându-le oamenilor acea cantitate de încredere de care au atâta nevoie ca să-şi hrănească speranţele spre mai bine.

Leadershipul urmăreşte punerea în evidenţă a importanţei raportării evenimentelor la o relaţie cauzală între personalitatea individului şi potenţialul de a fi un răspuns pozitiv la provocările impuse de dinamica şi schimbările lumii.

Concluzie: Punctul de pornire în leadership constă în identificarea scopului acestuia ce se bazează pe o motivaţie lăuntrică a liderului care în urma unei analize profunde a competenţelor şi abilităţilor sale acceptă, fiind susţinut de oameni, să pornească pe căile dure şi spinoase de obţinere a unor performanţe înalte (învingând concurenţa) spre atingerea obiectivelor propuse.

Punctul maxim al înstrăinării omului de lume (II)

Contribuie cu idei şi sugestii la reprezentarea simbolică a "Omului Nou", trecând toate experienţele de creaţie prin prisma analizei personale.

O necesitate, un experiment? În articolul precedent vă spuneam că Harold J. Morowitz a încercat să evalueze în monedă valoarea unui om la preţul cataloagelor de produse biochimice. La rândul meu, am încercat să recreez lumea şi universul prin promovarea unei viziuni alternative.

Singurul lucru care mă separa de acest biofizician, pentru că totdeauna se face o comparaţie între două minţi ieşite din comun, între două imagini mentale care orientează contactele culturale şi le determină conţinutul, este că eu întotdeauna mi-am folosit stiloul şi cerneala pentru a contura o realitate, fără să mă raportez la valoarea unei constante de tip referinţă.

Tu cum poţi evalua ponderea progresului tău? Prin ce se defineşte viziunea ta? Printr-o contestare a prezentului real? Cum poţi să reprezinţi cu precizie "culoarea locală" a propriei tale opere? Te îndrepţi spre o destinaţie neaşteptată, inaccesibilă celorlalţi aspiranţi la statutul de lider? Ce eşti tu în sânul marelui curs al tranziţiei spre desăvârşire, care se scurge de la un infinit la altul?

Este aşa de lejer să tragi draperiile şi să-ţi limitezi orizonturile, spunea cineva. Însă desăvârşirea în leadership se realizează atunci când dai frâu liber acestor trei constante ale tale, viziunea, imaginaţia, creativitatea, nucleul transformării tale, cheia progresului tău, demonstrarea adevărată a magnitudinii influenţei imense ce o are "doctrina" ta asupra societăţii umane moderne.

Leadership: Ce se întâmplă dincolo de preferinţele tale pentru un anumit stil de gândire şi cum te raportezi la valoarea supremă care ar putea să dea sens vieţii tale, încât să păstrezi cea mai importantă constantă a performanţelor tale?

Dacă aş vrea să-mi definesc viziunea, mi-aş redirecţiona atenţia la ce scria pe blogul personal jurnalista Raluca Rebedea Zenga, soţia celebrului fotbalist italian Walter Zenga. Ea spunea următoarele: " Nimic nu este mai plăcut decât să amesteci culori pe o paletă, să vezi pigmentul migrând în fuziuni spectaculoase, oglindind perfect imaginea care o avem în minte. "

Lipsa de performanţă în artă se datorează parţial imposibilităţii de a "amesteca culorile" într-o singură creaţie, pe o singură suprafaţă, pentru a obţine o compoziţie unitară.

De fapt, ceea ce caracterizează un stil artistic de mare valoare este chiar stilul de gândire pe care îl foloseşti în mod uzual pentru a explica şi exprima realitatea: putere, raţiune, interes, calitate. Iar în spatele preferinţelor pentru acest stil stau experienţele de creaţie trecute prin prisma analizei personale, prin reprezentarea simbolică a "Omului Nou" sau prin modificarea finalului unor acţiuni prin intermediul unei metafore sau hiperbole.

Leadership: Cum arată pentru tine orizontul de înaintare în progres, perceput prin prisma unei trăiri intense a aspiraţiei spre absolut?

Valoarea supremă pe care un om de ştiinţă o poate da sensului vieţii sale rezidă din îndrăzneala cu care exprimă cuvântul "toleranţă" în redarea oricărui orizont de înaintare pe calea progresului, fără să condamne virtutea de a face o simbioză între imaginaţie şi inovare.

Experienţele sale de creaţie, ce se constituie în scheme sau tipare de gândire utilizate pentru a percepe, înţelege şi interpreta realitatea, păstrează cea mai importantă constantă a performanţelor sale: capacitatea de a vedea mai departe decât alţii şi de a verifica adevărul premiselor pe care se bazează demonstraţiile sale de viziune.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi defineşti viziunea prin intermediul unei descoperiri care s-ar prezenta la prima vedere unitară în ceea ce privește contextul ei de interpretare, astfel încât raţiunea ta să se ridice deasupra percepţiei comune a lumii?

Fii ca unul din marile spirite inovatoare: menţine-te în plutonul fruntaş al performerilor. Lasă-ţi străbătută mentalitatea de acea singură putere activă în creştere exponenţial: deschiderea la nou. Nu te subordona unui sistem de gândire convenţional, cu ramificaţii subţiri, dense et inégale . În leadership contează viziunea pe care ţi-o plăsmuieşti din vise, nu cea plăsmuită din dezvoltarea unor teorii ştiinţifice doar de dragul de a-ţi dovedi că ai un IQ de geniu.

Adaptează-ţi "meniul" leadershipului pentru a corespunde unor aspiraţii şi preferinţe tot mai largi, mai puţin clasice, mai apropiate de viitor. Adaugă în permanenţă noi din ingrediente viziunii tale, puţin piper sau, după gust, puţină scorţişoară, fă-o mai picantă sau mai dulce. Aruncă o lumină nouă asupra fundamentelor şi principiilor cu care îţi însămânţezi leadershipul prin intermediul descoperirilor care s-ar prezenta la prima vedere unitare în ceea ce privește contextul de interpretare a viziunii.

O astfel de interpretare a viziunii poate fi formulată în felul următor: "Rămâi fidel imaginii pe care o ai despre tine însuţi într-un viitor căruia îi aparţii prin afinitatea faţă de exigenţele unei gândiri autonome."

Raţiunea ta se poate ridica deasupra percepţiei comune a lumii dacă ea îndrăzneşte să se constituie ca un alt tipar de trezire la o realitate de care se ia act prin intuiția sensibilă, în favoarea imaginarului care în intensitatea-i crescândă prinde treptat conturul unei lecţii de izbândă asupra imposibilului (sub protecţia unei poveşti nemuritoare).

Punctul maxim al înstrăinării omului de lume simbolizează cel mai însemnat pas spre viitor, simbolul progresului tău profesional, ceea ce îţi poate redimensiona propriile limite. O părticică a unei alchimii ale cărei secrete bine păstrate ies la iveală după ce te deprinzi cu "noul şi necunoscutul". Este compensaţia de care ai nevoie faţă de sentimentul de "părăsire" a unei realităţi unanim acceptate.

Punctul maxim al înstrăinării omului de lume (I)

Porneşte în căutarea unei noi dimensiuni de înţelegere şi cunoaştere a leadershipului, fără să te subordonezi unui sistem de referinţă convenţional.

Îţi aminteşti de acel biochimist, Harold J. Morowitz, care a avut curiozitatea să calculeze costul unui om, tradus în materialele componente, la preţul cataloagelor de produse biochimice? Un gram de om costa în medie 245,54 dolari, în timp de organismul întreg costa aproximativ şase milioane de dolari.

Acest calcul îndoielnic (pentru unii aberant, dar totuşi plauzibil din punct de vedere medical sau ştiinţific) a biochimistului nostru, care s-a restrâns la domeniul său specific, se asemăna cumva cu schema mea de gândire. Pe baza acesteia mi-am modelat o lume a cantităţii şi măsurii, mai ales fundamentele unei noi abordări a relaţiei dintre epistemologie şi ontologie din perspectiva costului pe care îl implică apariţia unei noi creaţii. Tot atât de "împodobit" de calcule şi previziuni eram şi eu.

La mine calculul cuprindea în sine mai mult decât atât: el cuprindea toate scenariile posibile de viitor a existenţei mele organizată sub umbrela unei gândiri specifice matematicianului care încearcă să demonstreze că o anumită ecuaţie poate fi rezolvată printr-o formulă algebrică. Totuşi, eu nu încercam să evaluez în monedă valoarea unui om, ci încercam să recreez lumea şi universul prin promovarea unei viziuni alternative.

O utopie, o naivitate sau o customizare a realităţii? O necesitate, un experiment, ceva la care te poţi gândi fără să ai senzaţia că ar trebui să ceri o aprobare?

Ştiinţa cere răspunsuri, dar mai întâi de toate ea pune întrebări. Aş fi putut eu oare să reprezint cu precizie ceea ce nu putea să existe, iluzia, culoarea locală a propriei mele opere, două lumi imaginate, trecute prin acelaşi malaxor al analizei şi detaliului, dar total diferite? Două lumi paralele, bine conturate, definitivate, adaptate pentru a corespunde propriilor mele aspiraţii şi preferinţe?

Leadership: Eşti preocupat de experienţa de a te simţi înţeles în profunzimea unei lumi create după propriile reguli, o lume a ta, care însă te obligă să integrezi în ea viziunea realităţii de care tinzi să te îndepărtezi?

Eram fascinat de mirajul unor lumi noi ale ştiinţei. Lumi care puteau să prindă viaţă, urmând a fi explorate liber numai de acele conştiinţe care nu s-au subordonat unui sistem de gândire convenţional, cu ramificaţii subţiri, dense et inégale . Lumi pregătite pentru o dezvoltare progresivă, întrepătrunse de un alt gen de cunoaştere, de o energie universală stocată într-un condensator intercalat într-un circuit continuu de percepţii şi perspective, reprezentări, funcţii bine definite între ele, având un numitor comun: deschiderea spre nou.

Lumi total inaccesibile oamenilor obişnuiţi, tangibile doar marilor dezvoltatori, alchimiştilor, acelor desperados ai progresului şi ai evoluţiei rapide, blindaţi cu puterea de a transforma elementele obscure în structuri clare, promiţătoare. Lumi aprobate, cuprinse cu mintea doar de marile spirite inovatoare care s-au menţinut în plutonul fruntaş al performerilor.

Adesea, mă încurcam în combinaţii inevitabil compromiţătoare, de natură ideologică, spirituală sau umană. Tendința exagerată în căutarea unei alte dimensiuni de înţelegere şi cunoaştere. Înfăptuirea unui ideal intelectual, ascuţit la fel ca o sabie, cu urmări neaşteptate, relative – dulci şi amăgitoare, dar cu potenţial distructiv, într-un prezent atemporal.

Ştiinţa este o parte a magiei de a-ţi cunoaşte şi depăşi limitele, cu riscul de a te pierde în amănunte, într-o multitudine de informaţii, într-o realitate virtuală, în valurile interpretărilor. Deci trebuie să menţii o administrare bună a fondului de inovaţii a cărei valoare principală să fie predictibilitatea.

Iar realitatea de care tinzi să te îndepărtezi prin actul de creaţie nu poate fi niciodată pusă la edificiul iluziei, căci ea te priveşte din unghiul prezentului, din unghiul convingerilor pe care ţi le respecţi până la capăt şi are un anumit "câmp vizual" în ceea ce priveşte impresiile, emoţiile, senzaţiile, părerile pe care ţi le faci, clipă de clipă, despre lume, viaţă, schimbare şi visuri.

Te poţi constitui drept o autoritate în domeniul conducerii prin faptul că nu valorezi doar prin ceea ce eşti sau devii, ci şi prin descoperirea a ceea ce însemni într-un proces al creaţiei absolute?

Într-un proces al creaţiei absolute, în care numai Dumnezeu mi-ar fi putut deveni partener, riscam să cad într-un soi de admiraţie împinsă la extrem faţă de tot ce înseamnă schimbare, faţă de tot ce e fragil, ameninţat, unic. Forma mea de exprimare în limbaj ştiinţific, considerându-mă adeptul unei viziuni unice şi plină de ficţiune, era de asemenea foarte alambicată, înţeleasă numai de un spirit pătrunzător care poate zdrobi orice adversitate în lupta cu acea nuanță de umbră care pune la respect pe oricine îndrăznește să se împotrivească ideilor sale.

Ceva învelit în tăcere. Un licăr de lumină apărea în imaginaţia mea, mă bântuia, mă îmboldea cu o energie irezistibilă spre o destinaţie neaşteptată, inaccesibilă. Eram dezorientat de umbra perfecţiunii ce contorsiona pe alocuri noţiunea adevărului, oferind o imagine superficială şi incompletă a realităţii. Ştiinţa îmi apărea în faţa ochilor drept etajul cel mai de sus al unei cunoaşteri confecţionate din legile şi principiile unei vechi înţelepciuni care spune că orice lucru are două toarte de care poate fi purtat: una de care e greu de dus, alta de care e uşor (depinde de ce vrei să faci cu el şi ce întrebuinţare îi oferi).

O descoperire care arunca o lumină nouă asupra fundamentelor şi principiilor pe care le susţineam, un număr mare de lumi putând a fi cuprinse de orizontul meu. Redimensionarea propriilor mele limite, o părticică a unei alchimii ale cărei secrete năzuiam să le stăpânesc întru-totul mă ajuta să descopăr o multitudine de posibilităţi de dezvoltare, scenarii de viitor bine puse la punct.

Hotărâsem să fac din mine însumi o forţă ce ordonează universul pe scara timpului. Era posibil aşa ceva?

Leadership: Ce reprezinţi în sânul marelui curs al tranziţiei spre desăvârşire, prin comparaţie cu imaginea unei viziuni alternative care într-adevăr afectează lumea într-o modalitate practică și concretă?

O întrebare, aparent banală, pe care am adresat-o de mai mult ori la webinariile mele, este aceasta: " Unde trebuie să te dezvolţi, şi până la ce nivel? "

Nu este de-ajuns să-ţi dezvolţi leadershipul, pentru a putea transforma o companie sau oamenii din jur. La fel cum nu este de ajuns să cunoşti fizica şi chimia "lumilor spaţiale" pentru a ajunge pe lună sau pentru a înţelege tot universul. Îţi trebuie puterea de a pune în practică ceea ce ştii sau ceea ce îţi imaginezi că poate deveni viitorul.

Altfel, în sânul marelui curs al tranziţiei spre desăvârşire, te vei raporta la tine ca la un Dumnezeu care ar favoriza o realitate în detrimentul alteia, un Dumnezeu care nu interacţionează direct cu omul - ci cu materialul genetic al omului, cu creierul şi cu sistemul nervos.

Pentru a face posibil acest salt spre adevărata performanţă, spre un " mai sus ", spre un " dincolo " la nivel de conştiinţă şi de cunoştinţe suficient de elevat pentru a putea înţelege leadershipul, trebuie să parcurgi un intensiv proces de schimbare. Unul în care să-ţi manifeşti acea latură măreaţă, acea calitate care satisface cele mai mari exigenţe ale prezentului şi viitorului: încercarea, sau mai bine zis spontaneitatea şi forţa de a crea viziuni inedite. O customizare a realităţii, dar o necesitate, un experiment, ceva la care tot timpul trebuie să te gândeşti.

Ca un adevărat front de luptă, orizontul pe care îl scrutezi zilnic, motorul de bază al evoluţiei individuale, acest reper greu de depăşit a tuturor particularităţilor care te diferenţiază de restul lumii, marchează trendul leadershipului şi dezvoltării personale.

Orizontul este autoritatea atât de importantă, atât de frecventă în ceea ce priveşte acceptarea şi implementarea unei alternative, a unui alt mod de a percepe " Acum-ul ", ralierea la un alt gen de mentalitate - "laterală" cum o numea Edward de Bono, care celorlalţi le este străină fiindcă nici măcar nu doresc să o înţeleagă.

Marea ispravă a ştiinţei este subsumată viziunii alternative din care se constituie o creaţie de mare anvergură intelectuală din câmpul unei poziţii de putere, chiar dacă această viziune seamănă a rătăcire care deturnează adevăratul sens al existenţei noastre.

Viziunea, imaginaţia, creativitatea, sudarea lor, această fuziune din care rezultă un singur jucător puternic care va beneficia de reale avantaje competitive – un puissant leadership , te vor însoţi permanent în drumul evolutiv, ascendent, parcurs de la starea obişnuită de funcţionare, când nu faci altceva decât să amesteci câteva "culori pe o paletă", până la acea stare de "trezire", când amesteci toate ingredientele şi să le condimentezi după gustul propriu.

Punctul maxim al înstrăinării omului de lume este acel nivel al performanţei pe care îl ating oamenii ce cred într-o viziune mult mai vastă, apropiind puncte de vedere divergente ale unor domenii cu care se află în strânsă legătură: ştiinţa, tehnica, arhitectura şi ingineria. Dar nici nu trebuie să exagerăm, îndepărtându-ne de spiritualitate. Căci aşa cum spunea un mare fizician:

"Ştiinţa fără Spiritualitate este şchioapă, iar Spiritualitatea fără Ştiinţă este oarbă."

Pune-mi visul la picioare ca să merg cu tine în realitate

Încearcă să dai sens unei experienţe intrapsihice strict individuale, încât impactul creaţiei tale să nu se limiteze la observaţiile externe asupra realităţii materiale.

De atâtea ori am încercat să mă împac cu mine însumi, să mă leg de anumite decizii cu potențial pozitiv ce ar fi putut fi luate fără intervenție directă asupra cauzelor şi efectelor de natura subiectivă, oricare ar fi acestea. Tot de atâtea ori am încercat să cutreier câmpul cunoaşterii asemenea unui artist al penelului care împacă foarte bine două universuri paralele, insistând asupra celor mai delicate suprapuneri cromatice şi ideatice, în condiţiile în care nu ştiam nimic despre realism şi suprarealism.

Lumea materială reducându-se la culoare, la percepţia vizuală şi la starea de reverie, am acordat o atenţie sporită noţiunii uriaşe, profunde, atotcuprinzătoare, care este VISUL, materia unui început de drum artistic, un element esențial al reveriei și al creației, mijlocul primordial de transcendere a concretului. Aşa cred, că visul este caracterizat printr-o contopire inefabilă a eului creatorului cu imaginea unei realităţi transfigurate, aceasta putând fi considerată - de ce nu - imaginea împărăţiei Cereşti.

Şi niciodată nu mi-am putut închipui ceva mai greu de realizat în tot acest Ustedernharus , necesitate a stabilirii unei limite între curiozitatea omului și intruziunea sa în spaţiul unei subiectivităţi absolute, decât faptul de a face o artă eliberată de sub presiunea concretului.

Sunt rare cazurile când un Creator vede într-un vis imitaţia unei realităţi străpunse de imaginarul unui peisaj al memoriei, reprezentând un scenariu al derulării vreunei acţiuni memorialistice care, dintr-un motiv sau altul, ne impresionează prin vizibilul tuturor celor ce sunt şi nu sunt.

Oare asta înseamnă că mi-am acordat o aşa mare atenţie sufletului, încât să simt şi să percep o lume dincolo de familiar, caracterizată de o intensitate care anulează orice tăinuire, dar acceptă orice expresivitate?

Leadership: Îţi înţelegi demersul artistic ca pe un continuu exerciţiu confesional, într-un dialog sensibil şi intens cu o realitate care încă nu a avut loc, dar aşteaptă să se întâmple?

Haideţi să vă spun ce-am visat: am visat o lume în care arta depindea strict de sugestivitatea unei metafore recurente, cum că gândirea dependentă se desfășura în cercuri, iar gândirea creativă în spirale. În lumea aceasta eu eram un pictor desăvârşit care avea de fiecare dată la dispoziţie pânza potrivită, pensula sau culoarea pentru a-şi împlini demersul artistic ca pe un continuu exerciţiu confesional, într-un dialog sensibil şi intens cu universul. Văzându-i pânzele, te transpuneai imediat într-un colţ de rai şi erai pătruns de calm şi linişte sufletească.

Chiar şi visul de care mă leagă bibliografia unei gândiri aparte se bazează pe credinţa într-un ideal de frumuseţe neschimbător şi transcendent, fiindcă el s-a produs ca o mutaţie majoră în modul în care sunt comunicate concluziile întâlnirilor cu mine însumi, în altă dimensiune a realităţii.

Visul arată coordonatele unei imagistici cerebrale, improvizate, de avangardă, arată creşterea contrastului dintre aparență și esență, dintre ilustraţia dispoziţiei sufleteşti a omului care se încrede în el însuşi şi perspectiva temporală a reflecţiilor de pictură în acuarelă. O imagistică nu de puține ori temerară...

Demersul artistic este o metodă de improvizaţie în care povestitorul şi personajele lucrează împreună, simultan, şi în care realitatea şi visul sunt atât de bine împletite încât cititorul nu reuşeşte sã facã diferenţa între ele.

Cu un fel de mândrie ascunsă, cu îngăduinţa profunzimii şi a tainei inepuizabile, am exprimat în aceste rânduri un fel de rezumat al trecerii mele în altă realitate, procedeu mistic care în artă se numeşte Luisorethis , sau "reconstrucţie a vizibilului în invizibil". Este ca şi când mi-aş fi asumat privilegiile unei entităţi superioare din alt spaţiu, sub înfăţişarea unui erou numit "spirit de observaţie cerebral", discret şi fin în acelaşi timp, de a exista sub stindardele Iluziilor unei lumi fantastice.

Visul este creaţia unei minţi scenaristice care vrea musai să sugereze sau să sublinieze un anumit mesaj. Să fiu în dialog cu vizibilul şi să fiu invizibil în planul unui magician ce vrea să stăpânească asupra lumilor superioare şi a celor inferioare. Faptul acesta face diferenţa dintre un stadiu de conştiinţă expansiv, amortizator, care nu suportă îngrădire, şi o formă de imaginaţie străpunsă de invizibilul unei epopei speciale în care destinele emblematice se proiectează pe un fundal pictat în tonalităţi calde.

Demersul artistic este o migrare din planul unei orientări extrinseci spre una intrinsecă. Este perimetrul unei figuri emblematice, automat trannspusă într-o creaţie originală care nu se termină niciodată întrucât tot ceea ce trăieşte artistul face parte din planul unei imagini care încearcă prin sensibil să pătrundă în inteligibil.

Pune-mi visul la picioare ca să merg cu tine în realitate este motto-ul unui artist care vede totul printr-o „lentilă spirituală", recunoscndu-şi credinţa prin acceptarea provocării de a se vedea din perspectiva unei noi dimensiuni de exprimare, de reflecție, frumusețe și "înălțare".

Bine spunea cineva pe un blog: "Când mergem sau suntem invitați musafiri în sufletul unui artist, putem fi recunoscători că acel om și-a adunat forțele lui interioare și a ales să vină în fața noastră, să le expună. Astfel ne putem bucura de expresivitatea și frumusețea muncii și creației lui."

Purtătorii de informaţie

Cultivă-ţi propria cultură ştiinţifică după modelul altor vizionari, acţionând strict în direcţia tendinţei de a te remodela pe tine însuţi.

Întreaga cultură a lumii, relatează istoricul de film Jay Leyda, a fost pusă în joc pentru fiecare problemă nouă. Şi nu este nicio exagerare aici: pentru una din scene, problema compoziţiei devine aceea de a arăta spectatorilor cum vedea dramaturgul Ivan Turgenev lucrurile din jurul său. Pentru aceasta, marele regizor Eisenstein decortică stilul scriitorului, îi caută sursele, mecanismul de creaţie, şi transpune în cifrul expresiei plastice, viziunea lui.

Într-o secvenţă, ţăranii care aşteaptă şi ascultă preiau atitudinile şi chiar iluminarea violentă a apostolilor care ascultă şi aşteaptă, din picturile spaniolilor târzii. O splendidă broderie aduce cu sine parcă compoziţia unui Vermeer. Astăzi există pasaje în film în care o cultură enciclopedică a fost atât de integral contopită în cinematografie, încât aceasta nu-ţi poate aminti de nimic altceva decât de Eisenstein. *

Leadership: Păstrezi nişte repere de comparaţie cu alţi vectori ai descoperirilor ştiinţifice, judecându-ţi opera prin propriile experienţe de abordare a compoziţiei ei?

E o cale destul de grea să încerci să creezi o sferă de influenţă în cadrul interacţiunii cu alţi artişti, bine sudată în jurul tendinţelor de acceptare a unor noi abordări în susţinerea creaţiei personale. E greu să pui o întreagă cultură a lumii în jocul reconfigurării viziunii personale. Dar întotdeauna un consumator de ştiinţă veritabil își urmează propriul traseu de formare a unui stil de creaţie, particularizându-se prin contopirea cu alţi reprezentanţi de acelaşi gen.

Din contopirea a două idei reiese o a treia idee. Iar o cultură enciclopedică atât de integral contopită în creaţie, la care ajungi prin încercarea de a-ţi fundamenta concepţiile teoretice pe baza informaţiilor acumulate din suma experienţelor dobândite de alţii, se poate se manifesta ca o reacţie în lanţ ce produce efecte pe termen îndelungat. Ea va duce la declanşarea unei explozii de direcţii în domeniu.

Patru vectori de comparaţie sunt necesari pentru a configura un stil de creaţie unitar: cuvântul, imaginea, interpretarea rezultatului final şi modalitatea de transmitere a adevărului pe care se sprijină întrega construcţie conceptuală a unei experienţe dominante. Iar reperele de comparaţie cu aceşti vectori sunt: trăsăturile prin care se defineşte personajul, felul în care povestea lui exprimă suferinţă sau bucurie, modul cum sunt plasate scenele pe un fundal cât mai viu.

Regizorii cei mai de seamă au acumulat chibzuinţa de a crea o poveste înainte de a experimenta trăirile unei opere de artă şi de a aprecia o interpretare artistică înainte de a se inspira dintr-o anumită temă sau situaţie.

Poţi să păstrezi nişte repere de comparaţie cu alţi purtător de informaţie, creându-ţi ulterior propriul nivel de a te autoaprecia, de a te considera "sarcină de îndeplinit", prin exersarea unor modalităţi noi de exprimare şi formule noi de creaţie. Dar asta poate presupune să-ţi judeci opera prin propriile experienţe de abordare a compoziţiei ei, ceea ce reprezintă o abatere de la normele leadershipului participativ - „think in the mindset of others" - atunci când vine vorba de a oferi conținut.

Experienţele de abordare a compoziţiei unei opere, sub hazardul aglomerări aleatorii de amănunte, ţin de locul pe care îl ocupă personajul într-un anume timp şi spaţiu, făcându-l să treacă printr-o serie de aventuri legate de evenimente reale, dintr-o necesitate obiectivă de a crea premisele unei parcurgeri facile a unei vaste biografii. Liderul este totodată un purtător de informaţie alimentat dintr-o sursă străină ce trebuie etichetată ca „contopitoare", spre deosebire de altele care nu sunt la înălţimea chemării sale.

Chemarea de a se lega la bornele unei surse de informaţie ştiinţifică, corectă, sintetizată, ordonată, este asemenea unui receptor care extrage semnale utile din undele radio primite, transformându-le într-o formă care prevede utilizarea informațiilor conținute în acesta.

Cultura ştiinţifică de care dă dovadă un regizor ţine de felul în care sunt dispuse elementele imaginii într-un tablou, astfel încât să se echilibreze între ele sub forma unei lumi de personaje menite să supravieţuiască întâmplărilor "de atunci" şi "de acum".

Purtătorii de informaţie sunt toţi acei indivizi, străluciţi prin însuşirea de a da viaţă unor tendinţe noi în domeniul de activitate, care acţionează în direcţia dezvoltării şi afirmării unei culturi şi compoziţii ştiinţifice aparte, provenite atât din activitatea lor creaţie cât şi din experienţele altora.

Puterea de a fi prezent în propria capodoperă

Valoarea pe care o atribui activității tale este constituită de ponderea decisivă acordată efortului născător de un imbold care transformă fiecare pas într-un act al înțelegerii de sine.

Sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, a câștigat încă o medalie la concursul recent de Running care, adăugată celorlalte medalii câștigate în ultimii ani, fac din ea mândria cu care îmi ridic propriile standarde. Bine că se țin în lanț aceste succese, atât de remarcabile prin perseverență și angajamentul lor, în linie cu depăşirea oricărui obstacol de natură fizică sau mentală, făcând să se nască un soi de Inseloratae Endiogat Ishitiscur, o eliberare de constrângerile sociale și o invitație la explorarea nelimitată a libertății.

Cu uşurinţă, cu claritate în identificarea simțirii, îmi dau seama că sângele care-i alimentează mușchii într-un efort fizic intens, rodul unui metabolism eficient și a unei oxigenări adecvate, curge fără restricții, nu-și întrerupe ritmul nici chiar atunci când se acordă premiile, pentru că pasiunea nu cunoaște pauze. Da, este sora mea, sânge din sângele meu, imboldul nostru provenind din linia unui artist care își pictează viața cu culorile îndrăznețe ale pasiunii. Iar dacă artistul din noi își exprimă eforturile în mod sublim, printr-un soi de umanism care îmbrățișează fiecare detaliu, atunci flacăra care animă fiecare gest, făcând mușchii să danseze subtil, devine raza tămăduitoare a râvnei noastre, îndrumându-ne către potențialul nostru maxim.

Aşa cum un pictor posedă darul de a imprima materiei picturale sugestia unei identităţi de substanţă cu materializarea obiectului, într-o configurare sintetică a formelor, tot astfel alergătorul îşi etalează abilităţile, îmbinând armonios corpul şi pasul, pentru a crea o imagine vie şi puternică a determinării sale. Nu doar că, prin efort intens, Oana se eliberează în mod neobișnuit de constrângeri, și nu lasă piatră de piatră din interiorul ei să se clatine, dar conferă luptei interioare o identitate supremă, de genul: "o pasăre fenix renăscând din propria cenușă".

Leadership: Poți crea o artă interactivă care să invite la participare activă și la o implicare personală a publicului, transformându-ți parcursul artistic dintr-o simplă privire într-o colaborare directă și creativă, în care fiecare devine co-creator al operei de artă?

Sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, are un suflet de artist înainte de a fi o devotată alergătoare, deoarece pasiunea ei este frumosul pe care îl exprimă la fiecare pas, prin atitudine şi prin energia pe care o emană. Arta o parte a provocării de a se regăsi pe sine în fiecare pas al cursei, ca și cum ar fi parte dintr-un tablou viu, revărsându-se dincolo de limitele sportului, într-un destino fatto per volgere il volto a colui che ha saputo cambiarne il corso a suo vantaggio.

Şi numai observând tensiunea și dedicarea ei în timpul competiției, potenţialul ei de a deveni ceva puternic, şi în acelaşi timp estetic, ar putea înțelege complexitatea psihologică din spatele performanței sale.

Mereu şi mereu, sora mea își temperează nervii în fața competiției, iar tensiunea ei pare contopită într-o unică entitate Phoraaziel Ohatarrem Ethisitian, adică, frumusețea răspunde vibrațiilor divine din suflet cu aceeași sensibilitate cu care pictorul atinge paleta de culori, fără să simtă vreo constrângere.

Leadership: Contextul în care te regăseşti aduce în lumină importanța controlului emoțional și a clarității obiectivelor pentru atingerea succesului urmărit, doar dacă este marcat de o interdependenţă reciprocă între două entităţi mobilizatoare?

Este aproape imposibil să nu asist la o dedublare a personalității, căci jumătate din cugetul și comportamentul ei par condiționate de incertitudinea rezultatului final, deci de o așteptare plină de speranță, cu excepția împrejurării în care obiectivul final este clar definit. Iar cealaltă jumătate, purtătoare de torța idealurilor artistice sublime, manifestată doar prin expresivitate, pulsând ca o inimă incandescentă, se contopește printr-o afinitate născută din stele.

Trebuie musai să depășească această tensiune fără să se realizeze un impresionism care, până la un punct, poate fi considerat firesc. Şi, fiindcă este sora mea, sânge din sângele meu, unificată cu spiritul meu, privind din perspectiva unui artist care pictează cu culori vii și cu pasiune inimii, o pot considera demnă de a străluci în lumina unei viziuni însufleţitoare comune: "Fiecare pas al cursei este o tușă de culoare pe tabloul sufletului meu."

Eu am fost inițiatorul pașilor ei în alergare, iar ea a purtat cu măiestrie ștafeta spiritului meu pe culmile podiumului, într-o armonie plină de graţie și putere.

Leadership: Cum îți stimulează înțelegerea cauzei-efect din cursul evenimentelor căutarea reprezentării vizuale a percepției conștiente, ca o imagine care te provoacă să-ţi descoperi măreția?

A existat întotdeauna în Oana Fântânaru acea aspirație extraordinară spre transcendență, efortul spre a se autodepăși, ca o epopee a luptei înverşunate pe care o dă natura împotriva omului, și invers. În alergare, la fel ca şi în artă, nu poți crea o capodoperă fără să simți pulsul sufletului tău. Este o magnifică exaltare a luptei continue umane, a imensei energii a omului care niciodată nu se lasă învins, fiind simbolul ființei neînfrânte, a perseverenței care nu cunoaște limite, în mod analog cu nevoia artistului de a scoate din sine esenţa sufletului său şi de a-l dărui lumii printr-o capodoperă.

Focul ei este o stea fixă, arzătoare, a cărei lumină îi ghidează calea, orientând-o spre noi orizonturi. Opera ei de artă, osteneala de a face ceva măreț și de neuitat, fie că este vorba despre alergare sau despre orice altă formă de exprimare personală, arată lumii întregi că, în fața voinței neclintite, obstacolele se transformă în trepte spre succes, şi orice pas pe care îi urmează sunt marcanţi, exact ca o coregrafie a viziunii unui artist dispus să înfrunte limitele și să exploreze noi orizonturi.

Așadar, parcursul ei în recentul concurs de running nu este doar o demonstrație de viteză și rezistență fizică, ci mai ales o mărturie a forței interioare, o dovadă a determinării în a-și urmări potenţialul până la cel mai înalt nivel posibil, fără a se lăsa descurajată de nicio încercare sau eșec. Această lecție de determinare pe care ne-o oferă Oana Fântânaru, această recompensă a viziunii conform căreia limitele sunt doar iluzii care pot fi depășite, trecând dincolo de simpla competiție sportivă, devine un exemplu de urmat pentru fiecare dintre noi, indiferent de domeniul în care ne desfășurăm activitatea.

Punctul de sprijin al leadershipului îl constituie triumful spiritului uman în provocările încrucișate ale artei și sportului, astfel: "Puterea de a fi prezent în propria capodoperă transformă cursa vieții într-o călătorie a autodescoperirii și a exprimării autenticității."

Puterea de a fi prezent în propria capodoperă vizează parcursul pe care trebuie să-l urmezi pentru a-ți exprima cu adevărat aspirația și efortul spre a te autodepăși, pentru a scoate din tine esența sufletului și a-l dărui lumii sub formă de creaţie.

În încheiere, povestea surorii mele la acest concurs nu este doar despre alergare, ci despre faptul că fiecare pas făcut înainte pe traseu reflectă un pas înainte în propria evoluție, în propria călătorie de autodepășire și descoperire a sinelui. Este vorba despre arta de a trăi cu pasiune și de a transforma fiecare provocare într-o oportunitate de depășire a sinelui, având viziunea pictorului care creează o capodoperă.

Merită, deci, facută precizarea că orice alergător poate fi un artist prin ceea ce realizează pe traseu. În esență, nu este vorba despre cum să fii învingător în cursa vieții, ci despre cum să te perfecţionezi în această cursă asemenea unui artist care creează o capodoperă în fiecare gest și în fiecare moment de conștientizare a sinelui.

Puterea de vrajă a magicianului

Dă un avânt puternic leadershipului tău, fără să te opreşti la acel prag în care punctele tale vulnerabile sunt puse la grea încercare.

Îţi aminteşti de celebrul film „ Zorro (1975) ”? La un moment dat căpitanul Huerta o răpeşte pe iubita lui Zorro, întinzându-i acestuia o capcană.

Nimic nu confirmă mai bine caracterul unui om decât proba de foc a curajului. Zorro, cel mai pătrunzător dintre toţi, simte ceea ce i s-a pregătit. Fantezia lui se strecoară, ca un gaz incolor, dincolo de imaginaţia colonelului Huerta, ghicind astfel, gratie simţului lui „superior”, nu numai care era planul exact al capcanei ce i s-a întins, dar şi calea de scăpare, calea ocolitoare cea mai avantajoasă.

Geniul nu cunoaşte niciun fel de obstacole. Zorro îşi găseşte scăparea în neatenţia cu care Huerta şi-a calculat planul.

"Cine se crede această fantomă primejdioasă, crede că ar putea să depăşească, dintr-o smucitură, dintr-un salt, orice capcană şi să pătrundă tainele cele mai ascunse? Cum a reuşit oare acest panglicar uşuratic să scape din capcana întinsă cu atâta meticulozitate, cu atâta pricepere şi măiestrie? Ce vrajă, ce scamatorie l-a scăpat, şi de această dată, de o mare încercare?" se întreabă cu spaimă în suflet colonelul Huerta.

Dar zadarnice întrebări ! Zorro şi iubita lui au scăpat nevătămaţi. Încă o dată colonelul s-a dovedit a fi mai prejos decât „salvatorul” poporului.

Leadership: Acţiunile pe care le îndeplineşti sunt o urmare a alegerii tale de a rămâne prea mult într-un singur loc pe tot parcursul unor lecţii de evaluare a posibilităţilor tale de a fi altcineva?

Dreapta împotrivire a unui singur om poate birui orice bariere, mai ales dacă e vorba de Zorro. Lumea a pus pe seama lui lucrurile cele mai extraordinare şi mai imposibile, şi pe drept cuvânt îşi merită toate laudele şi aprecierile. Gloria unui geniu nu se poate stinge asemenea unei lumânări. Un geniu nu se poate prăbuşi atât de vertiginos în prăpastia uitării şi a dispariţiei, un geniu nu se retrage în anonimat după ce a cunoscut cel mai senzaţional triumf.

Ci continuă, însufleţit de un ideal nobil, punându-şi în acţiune întregul instinct al geniului său, să lupte pentru a-şi transforma viziunea în realitate. Făcând abstracţie de punctele vulnerabile care îi pun la grea încercare răbdarea, dar şi omniscienţa.

Zorro a posedat aşa zisul simţ lăuntric, cu ajutorul căruia a fost în stare să vadă, cu absolută claritate, cu o acurateţe inegalabilă, tot scenariul pe care i-l pregătise duşmanul său. El a avut o minte într-adevăr pătrunzătoare care l-a asigurat împotriva primejdiilor, ajutându-l să desluşească realităţile ascunse, să creioneze strategia şi să-şi calculeze foarte bine toate posibilităţile reale de reuşită. Şi tot mintea pătrunzătoare i-a permis să se înalţe la un nivel acceptabil al riscului, deasupra tuturor, stabilind o legătura strânsă, bazată pe încredere, cu "inima" poporului.

Te înalţi la un nivel acceptabil al riscului, punându-ţi în acţiune întregul instinct al geniului tău?

Atunci când treci printr-un moment cheie în viaţă, atunci când din toate direcţiile eşti încolţit de ameninţări şi de vulnerabilităţi, când necazurile par să se ţină scai de tine, numai două lucruri îţi pot sări în ajutor: o minte pătrunzătoare şi o fantezie energică.

A rămâne prea mult într-un singur loc pe tot parcursul unor lecţii de evaluare a posibilităţilor tale de a fi altcineva înseamnă să te hazardezi să îţi impui o diferenţă prea mare între tine şi ceilalţi oameni. Înseamnă să dovedeşti anumite lucruri pentru a fi în centrul atenţiei totale, fără să ţii cont de ceea ce trebuie să-ţi impui tu însuţi: o limită în orice. Sau mai exact trebuie să-ţi ştii limitele, cât poţi duce şi până unde te împinge patima autodepăşirii sau patima slujirii unui ideal înalt.

Leadership: Rămâi ferm pe poziţii adoptând o atitudine de învingător, fără a deveni o victimă sigură a efectelor de conectare la o valoare de tip "Empty Artist" ?

Tu eşti în stare să te concentrezi asupra soluţiilor în situaţiile critice? Vezi clar cum stau de fapt lucrurile? Ai o viziune asupra felului cum ai putea să le influenţezi? Ai curajul să calci pe teren nou şi să ieşi din tiparul cu care te-ai obişnuit? Eşti mulţumit de nivelul tău curent de performanţă? Refuzi să rişti şi să creşti şansele de reuşită? Cum te percep ceilalţi oameni? Poţi conta pe ei în cele mai grele momente? Dar ei, pot conta pe tine?

"Empty Artist" este cazul exemplar al omului care suferă datorită concentrării excesive asupra performanţelor sale, pentru că a găsit nivelul cel mai profund al suferinţei: a venit cu un produs care îi aparţine 100%, care îl defineşte ca autoritate autonomă, dar este judecat foarte dur pentru calitatea produsului în conformitate cu bazele unei direcţii de gândire prost configurate - parțialitatea în luarea deciziilor, abuzul de putere sau de încredere, favoritismul, ambiţia excesivă, rigiditatea, competenţa agresivă, etc.

Leadershipul întotdeauna incită la reflectare şi explorare. Este un fel de stimul care îmbunătăţeşte în mod semnificativ opţiunile tale de a filtra orice încercare de a-ţi exercita voinţa asupra altor indivizi până în acel punct în care ei sunt nevoiţi să te accepte ca pe un om superior.

Un ideal de judecată şi de dreptate din spatele regulilor de drept pe care trebuie să le aplici pe durata acestei recunoaşteri de superioritate, este absolut obligatoriu, căci îţi demonstrează vitalitatea, întreaga energie creatoare pe care ai pus-o în împingerea uriaşului mecanism al exercitării puterii tale pe drumuri noi.

Dar totodată leadershipul se poate comporta ca un fel de frână pusă galopului transformărilor prin care treci, de la nivelul inferior la cel superior. Acest sentiment de măreţie la care aspiri, şi pe care ajungi să-l simţi după ce ai doborât toate barierele impuse de alţii, devine cu uşurinţă un ideal aruncat consolator în vânt dacă îţi abandonezi angajamentul faţă de valorile şi principiile în care crezi cu convingere (ce au jucat un rol semnificativ şi în povestea de succes a lui Zorro).

Dacă nu ştii să-ţi temperezi tendinţa de a te sălta la un nivel superior, dacă te grăbeşti să atingi măreţia, vei avea un mare şoc atunci când vei apăsa "pedala de frână". Rişti o deconectare de la sursa întregului tău potenţial de lider, pierderea acelei energii definitorii care se declanşează în direcţia scopului şi rezultatului neaşteptat.

Un lider excelent reacţionează foarte bine la acţiunile sale atunci când conduce, dar şi atunci când frânează brusc.

Leadershipul este atitudinea pe care ţi-o imprimă imaginea unei realităţi imediate care nu se opune celei adevărate.

Puterea de vrajă a magicianului este puterea de inducere în eroare a adversarilor, ştiuţi şi neştiuţi, şi este dată de experienţă, intuiţie şi capacitatea de cunoaştere a oamenilor.

Experienţa te învaţă ce acţiuni să adopţi în situaţiile de cumpănă, şi cum să te aperi de rivalii ştiuţi şi neştiuţi care întotdeauna vor sta în calea ta. Tot experienţa, ca şi atenta cunoaştere a oamenilor, îţi dezvoltă intuiţia necesară în a contracara acţiunile celor rău intenţionaţi.

Cunoscând bine natura umană şi modul de acţiune al oamenilor din jurul tău, vei putea lua deciziile adecvate oferind elemente surpriză prin care să poţi anihila sau contracara orice acţiuni subversive, ca în final să-ţi atingi scopul propus.

Dă un avânt puternic leadershipului tău, fără să te opreşti la acel prag în care punctele tale vulnerabile sunt puse la grea încercare.

Puterea desăvârşită a influenţei

On Martie 26, 2009

Poți percepe un sfat care îndeamnă la ascultarea inimii, ca pe un echilibru între reprezentarea vizuală a emoțiilor și realitatea rațională?

La începutul filmului „ Meet Joe Black (1998) ”, are loc o discuţie între Bill Parrish, directorul general al Parrish Communications, şi fiica mai mică a acestuia, Susan. Bill era nu doar un lider puternic, erudit şi inteligent, ci şi un om cu o deosebită sensibilitate sufletească. Nu dorea ca micile sale temeri să se transforme în realitate. Gândirea lui era mai limpede decât al lui Susan, care era încă destul de tânără şi neglijentă în a-şi evalua adevăratele ei valori şi convingeri.

Susan vroia să se căsătorească cu iubitul ei, Drew, dar Bill a intuit că între ei doi nu există acea înflăcărare, acea pasiune caracteristică oamenilor îndrăgostiţi. El îi dă lui Susan un singur sfat: „Nu-ţi mai asculta mintea, ci ascultă-ţi inima."

Leadership: Poţi să evaluezi adevăratele valori ale oamenilor înainte de a-i schimba, punând pe primul plan al atenţiei tale consolidarea atitudinii lor faţă de alegerile calificate drept "manifestare a unei afectivităţi uşor exagerate" ?

Această discuţie între Susan şi Bill a avut un efect pozitiv, căci a dus la clarificarea sentimentelor ei, şi la o temeinica înţelegere a propriilor ei emoţii şi gânduri. Sfatul lui Bill a avut puterea să o determine pe Susan să se adune în ea şi să se despartă de tot ceea ce nu corespundea adevăratelor ei sentimente.

Acesta este un exemplu elocvent despre modalitatea în care un lider reuşeşte să-i influenţeze pe oameni. Un bun lider procedează cu oamenii din jurul său exact aşa cum a procedat Bill Parrish cu fiica sa. Se implică în ajutorarea celorlalţi, fără a deveni „deranjant". Un lider nu pătrunde în viaţa privată a celorlalţi oameni în vreun mod care să denote lipsă de respect, care să-l pună într-o lumină proastă, sau care să-i degradeze în orice fel imaginea. El reuşeşte să le diminueze oamenilor impulsul de a se orienta într-o direcţie greşită, redirecţionându-le motivaţiile şi aspiraţiile spre un ideal care să corespundă cu adevăratele lor valori şi sentimente.

A îndruma oamenii într-o altă direcţie faţă de a lor, presupune să poţi disceme ceea ce simt ei, să le evaluezi adevăratele valori şi convingeri, să ştii încotro se îndreaptă atenţia lor, încotro îşi canalizează energiile, şi să-i ajuţi să-şi clarifice sentimentele, motivaţiile şi aspiraţiile. Dacă cele mai preţioase valori ale oamenilor sunt afectivitatea, confortul material şi credinţa religioasă, iar pe ultimele locuri recunoaşterea socială, prieteniile, buna reputaţie şi performanţa, atunci liderul trebuie să găsească un ehilibru între protejarea acestor valori şi promovarea lor, fără să stârnească o reacţie defensivă din partea nimănui.

Leadership: Crezi că ascultarea inimii în locul minții poate să fie reflectată ca o revelație în arta deciziilor personale, vizualizându-se ca o expunere a valorilor și convingerilor proprii?

Leadershipul înseamnă influenţă. Aşa cum o piesă lego o poţi lega numai de o altă piesă lego ca să poţi construi ceva - tot aşa gândurile şi sentimentele tale trebuie mai întâi să se lege de cele ale oamenilor din jurul tău ca să poţi, apoi, să le redirecţionezi percepţiile în direcţia dorită de tine. Însă, şi mai mult decât atât contează recunoaşterea de sine produsă în perimetrul relaţiei dintre puterea de a fi ascultat şi imaginea pe care o arăţi lumii, aşa încât ceea ce reflectă aspectele existenţei pe care o urci spre un nivel de înţelepciune să se sprjine de mica biruinţă a credinţei de a nu ceda presiunilor exterioare.

Singura cale de a-i conduce pe oameni într-o direcţie nouă, este să-i ancorezi la gândirea ta, la sentimentele şi percepţiile tale. Această ancorare este precum un binecuvântat adăpost care le înlătură oamenilor orice urmă de îndoială în privinţa alegerilor pe care le fac, protejându-i de o gândire nesănătoasă. Iar acest adăpost, care trebuie să corespundă atât convingerilor tale, cât şi ale lor, trebuie să le îndeplinească anumite nevoie sau dorinţe, nu să se transforme într-o capcană din care nu mai poată ieşi.

Leadership: Suma tuturor credinţelor şi a convingerilor tale s-a format drept urmare a unei recunoașteri de sine în perimetrul unei relaţii de profunzime cuprinsă între puterea de a te face ascultat şi nevoia de a-ţi crea o imagine favorabilă?

Aşa cum o companie nu îşi are locul pe o piaţă în care ea nu poate fi cea mai bună – tot aşa intenţiile tale de a le schimba oamenilor percepţiile nu-şi au locul dacă ele nu sunt cele mai bune şi mai oneste. Este întotdeauna foarte greu (şi totodată riscant) să ai încredere într-un om ale cărui valori şi convingeri diferă mult de ale tale, sau dacă acestea se îndepărtează de la etica pe care ei o respectă şi o urmează.

După cele spuse până acum conchid că recunoaşterea de sine se formează din ecuaţia "ascultă-ţi inima iniante de a-ţi asculta mintea", după considerentul că experienţele repetate ce îţi afectează stările sufleteşti depind mai puţin de viaţa profesională, ci de acea revigorare a ideii de "mărturisire de sinceritate" ce are loc înaintea luării unei decizii favorabile.

În leadership trebuie să înveți să-ţi asumi puterea de a te vulnerabiliza fără să fii rănit, și de a-ţi cultiva puterea de a recunoaște că nevoia de a lega partea fragilă a personalităţii tale de aprobarea celorlalţi, variază în funcţie de strădania ta de a-ţi reaminti cât eşti de puternic.

Puterea desăvârşită a influenţei reprezintă abilitatea liderului de a obţine un răspuns pozitiv de la oameni constând în modificarea şi reorientarea gândirii şi sentimentelor lor spre (şi în concordanţă) cu o realitate obiectivă. Procentul care îţi garantează accesul la sistemul lor de valori şi convingeri, şi care îţi conferă autoritate asupra lor, va creşte simţitor numai dacă reuşeşti să-i convingi că deciziile tale le va aduce speranţa de mai bine, liniştea sufletească şi succesul profesional. Nu le îngădui oamenilor să se lase biruiţi de o gândire bazată pe nişte sentimente care se vor evapora în timp, insuflă-le un nou spirit învingător într-un mod în care să te avantajeze şi pe tine.

Concluzie: Puterea influenţei este o adevărată ştiinţă a manipulării emoţiilor şi intereselor oamenilor. Ea presupune însă o bună cunoaştere şi o bună comunicare interumană a oamenilor cu care interacţionezi.

Se pune întrebarea dacă această manipulare este benefică. Răspunsul este pozitiv doar atunci când scopurile sunt nobile, atunci când beneficiul este al tuturor persoanelor implicate într-o situaţie. Redă-le oamenilor tendinţa de a se orienta într-o direcţie favorabilă, ajutându-i să-şi clarifice sentimentele, motivaţiile şi aspiraţiile.

Puterea Liderului

Cine nu îşi pune Eul în faţă, acela nu va atinge Absolutul şi nu va descifra nici viaţa.

Pictorul român, Nicolae Grigorescu, era făcut pentru a vedea înlăuntrul lucrurilor. Tăcut, pururea gânditor, neliniștit, având nu numai pasiunea de a observa, dar și darul de a vedea, omul acesta era cu neputință să se mulțumească numai cu ce spun formele la suprafață.Toată adâncimea acestui suflet meditativ își cerea în afară proporția de adâncime, în bătaia privirii pe care o aruncă asupra lucrurilor. El nu era un trecător grăbit în lumea aceasta, pe care a căutat s-o vadă, fără să fie văzut. Un lucrător grăbit, da. Grăbit să scuture cât mai multă viață și cât mai mult înțeles din spăimântătoarea fugă a clipelor lui. Să vadă repede, și repede să spună ce-a văzut.

Toată viața lui era în ochi. Acolo ardea flacăra sufletului lui. În ochi și în mâini, care nu erau decât o continuare a ochilor. O imperioasă nevoie de a-și exprima prin linii impresiile lui. El cugeta în linii. Acasă, pe drum, în plimblările lui prin țară, ca și în călătoriile lui în străinătate, își însemna ce vedea, repede, cu iuțeala mișcărilor instinctive. Chiar și când era bolnav și nevoit să stea în pat, simțea în mână neastâmpărul, trebuința de a crea. Dacă zăbovea o muscă la o picătura de sirop de pe măsuţa lui de marmură, în două minute de poză, musca era pe hârtie, aidoma gata să zboare. La Paris, fiind odată bolnav și neputându-se mișca din loc vreo două săptămâni, toată vremea nu făcea decât să deseneze figurile fantastice pe care ochii lui aprinși le vedeau în florile tapetului de pe păreți. *

Leadership: Îţi construieşti viziunea despre un model de realitate care te împinge spre creaţie, spre nou, chiar şi atunci când realitatea devine o închisoare?

Ce este viaţa ta: o închisoare sau un refugiu? Raportându-ne la leadership, hai să vedem acest lucru prin ochii unui artist care dezveleşte culoarea imaginaţiei având imaginaţia culorii.

Culoarea distinctă a leadershipului este imprimată de cel ales de majoritatea oamenilor, care a decis că este cel mai indicat să-i reprezinte şi să le asigure interesele. Dar culoarea leadershipului se poate asemăna cu cea a frunzelor proaspete, abia culese de pe ramuri care, departe de a fi perfecte, cu diverse defecte mai vizibile sau mai puţin vizibile, poţi face o prăjitură excelentă.

Un lider trebuie să ştie şi să înveţe să simtă, să perceapă ce poate obţine din puţin ceva, dacă nu excelent, măcar ceva mult mai bun…punând în valoare fiecare din componente – cu bune şi cu rele. A fi singur cu tine însuţi nu este o închisoare, ci un refugiu împotriva zgomotului nesfârșit din viața trăită în mijlocul lumii. Sau, cum spunea pictorul Constantin Brâncuşi: "Cine nu îşi pune Eul în faţă, acela nu va atinge Absolutul şi nu va descifra nici viaţa.."

A rămâne singur cu tine însuţi este o muncă migăloasă în care trebuie să înveţi cum să te bucuri independent de ceea ce ţi se întâmplă atunci când eşti în mijlocul lumii. Da, cu siguranţa înveţi multe despre tine atât din succese, dar mai ales din greşeli, şi mai ales trebuie să ştii cum să procedezi pentru ca cei mulţi să accepte schimbarea în toate aspectele vieţii – în gândire, în educaţie, în comportament, pentru a fi în concordanţă cu realitatea.

Leadership: Felul cum vizualizezi realitatea este diferit de felul cum rezonează sufletul tău cu mediul în care te afli, considerând că ceea ce se întâmpla în jur este expresia a ceea ce te face să fii un om asumat?

"Eu nu dau niciodată prima lovitură până când piatra nu mi-a spus ceea ce trebuie să îi fac. Aştept până când imaginea interioară s-a format bine în mintea mea. Câteodată durează săptămâni întregi până când piatra îmi vorbeşte. Trebuie să privesc foarte atent înlăuntrul ei. Nu mă uit la vreo aparenţă. Mă depărtez cât mai mult posibil de aparenţe." spunea pictorul Constantin Brâncuşi.

Avea dreptate. Înainte să te asculţi pe tine însuţi, într-un mediu care rezonează cu sufletul tău, trebuie să observi felul cum curge timpul în mintea ta, trebuie să îţi regăseşti energia atât în trupul material, cât şi în felul cum vizualizezi realitatea în mintea ta.

Percepţia oamenilor în ceea ce priveşte calitatea leadershipului tău, a măsurilor şi a deciziilor pe care le adopţi, este întotdeauna foarte clară, rareori distorsionată de factori externi – şi, deci, constituie un indiciu infailibil, un fundament solid privitor la formă şi stilul tău de a conduce.

Ca lider, trebuie mai întâi să educi aceşti oameni, să le schimbi mentalitatea, să aplici noi metode de a-i atrage lângă tine. Se găsesc din ce în ce mai multe cazuri de lideri care se complac în plăcerea de a fi în frunte, neglijând calitatea leadershipului lor, sau confundând această calitate cu detectarea celor mai bine pretenţioase forme de schimbare şi adaptare la nou. Calitatea leadershipului este dată de rezultatele pe care le obţii în procesul de schimbare a Sinelui.

Tu interpretezi un rol de facilitator al schimbării, arătând oamenilor încă de la început necesitatea dezvoltării lor printr-o reorientare a viziunii, a motivaţiei şi a mijloacelor de a-şi stimula dezvoltarea? Sau interpretezi doar un rol estetic, care, din nepricepere sau neştiinţă, ar putea dezactiva dorinţa oamenilor de a fi mai buni?

Leadershipul tău poate să împrumute expresia unei trăiri intense pe care artistul încearcă să o transmită prin referire la ideea de înălţare a omului mai presus de starea lui de fapt?

În cazul leadershipului, unde sunt acumulate toate valorile, trăirile, principiile, convingerile - care trebuie să fie vii, capabile să influenţeze, să impulsioneze, să însufleţească spiritele - se adaugă şi problema unei analize obiective, a evaluării sistematice a omului. Tocmai pentru ca liderul să facă dovada deplină a evoluţiei propriului său Eu, dovada de continuator nu doar al cunoaşterii, ci mai ales al principiilor, spiritului şi valorilor sănătoase, adoptate şi promovate, el trebuie să-şi dezvolte spiritul analitic care îi va permite să se autoevalueze şi să-şi evalueze corect oamenii şi situaţiile cu care se confruntă.

Puterea liderului stă tocmai în înţelegerea aspectelor fundamentale legate de dimensiunea umană, aşa cum puterea medicului stă în cunoştinţele sale teoretice şi practice. El îşi găseşte un aliat de nădejde în procesul prealabil de cunoaştere, de descoperire a celor mai înălţătoare trăiri, aspiraţii, idealuri pe care le degajă, le abordează, le emite fiinţa umană în ansamblul ei, pusă în faţa unor hotărâri dificile (întru desăvârşirea ei).

Numai cunoaşterea elementelor constitutive ale fiinţei umane - prin înţelegerea complexităţii sale, numai manipularea inteligentă şi în scop benefic a minţii şi a spiritului care îi alimentează permanent credinţa, puterea de a merge înainte, - îşi poate liderul dovedi adevărata valoare.

Numai insuflând oamenilor puternice sentimente care ating şi fac să vibreze cele mai sensibile corzi din sufletul lor, el poate face dovada evoluţiei propriului său Eu. Căci funcţionarea leadershipului depinde de funcţionarea celorlalţi oameni, tot aşa cum viaţa unui pilot de curse depinde de funcţionarea perfectă a motorului maşinii pe care o conduce.

Liderul nu este în măsură să dea singur valoare leadershipului său, tot aşa cum subiectul nu este în măsură să dea singur valoare unui tablou.

În leadership oamenii îşi au importanţa lor, ei determină totdeauna dimensiunea influenţei liderului, ei sunt cei care determină respectivă formă de viziune a liderului – însă viziunea nu poate constitui un criteriu, şi din fericire masele vor continua întotdeauna să judece leadershipul numai în funcţie de rezultatele obţinute. Leadershipul este o artă care presupune interpretare, aportul individualităţii liderului, al viziunii sale creatoare.

Ţi-ai dezvoltat relaţii solide cu toţi cei care lucrează pentru tine? Eşti în măsură să dai singur valoare leadershipului tău? Cum îţi dovedeşti adevărata ta valoare? Cum faci dovada evoluţiei tale?

Pentru un lider este esenţial să ştie să-şi inducă şi să inducă celorlalţi sentimentul că schimbarea este o necesitate. Şi pentru ca să accepte schimbarea, el trebuie să creadă în potenţialul său şi al oamenilor, să ştie să se auto-motiveze şi să-i motiveze pe ceilalţi, şi mai ales să creadă şi să le inducă credinţa că viitorul poate fi şi mai bun dacă adoptă schimbări, începând de azi, din acest moment.

Îi asişti pe cei care lucrează pentru tine? Cei din afara departamentului tău sau a zonei tale de responsabilitate îţi respectă opiniile şi îţi cer frecvent sfatul? Cei care lucrează alături de tine au o părere foarte bună despre tine aproape tot timpul? Îţi îndeplineşti în mod constant ţintele şi scopurile profesionale? Oamenii te consideră un expert în domeniul tău şi caută să înveţe mereu ceva de la tine? Performanţa ta duce echipa la un nivel mai înalt? Eşti un continuator al cunoaşterii?

A atinge Absolutul înseamnă să conştientizezi puterea Eului cu care te identifici şi care te guvernează în momentele de reflecţie.

Poate că, totuşi, stăpânul absolut al propriului Sine este acel spirit meditativ orientat către solitudine, intercalat în fluxul unui limbaj silenţios, dar aprig, în orice caz artistic prin transmiterea emoţiei provocate de cei mai celebri paşi de linişte sufletească.

Puterea Liderului stă în Eul pe care încearcă să-l scoată din mijlocul lumii. Mai mult decât atât, el trebuie să înveţe să nu confunde egoul pe care îl percep în ceilalţi, cu identitatea sa.

Puterea magică nu poate fi dobândită de un muritor

On Aprilie 02, 2009

Numai dominarea interioară te poate transforma într-un deschizător de drumuri pentru alții, arătându-le valoarea autocunoașterii.

Trecu o lună, petrecută de Keops în lecturi şi meditații. În timpul zilei, stătea în încăperea atribuită lui, doar cu a doua carte a lui Thot. Nu ieşea, se hrănea cu smochine, legume, pâine şi bea doar apă. Nu vedea pe nimeni, decât pe preotul care îi aducea hrana, cu care însă nu vorbea. Singura sarcină impusă era să-și țină curată încăperea, să mături, să spele podeaua cu apă multă. Seara, urca pe terasă ca să observe cerul, aşezat sau culcat pe rogojină, să mediteze și să doarmă câteva ceasuri. Când se apropie sorocul pentru lună nouă, Ibebi veni la Keops. Se așeză în faţa lui şi-i spuse:

- Keops, în timpul acestei luni cât ai stat singur cu tine însuţi, probabil că mintea ta s-a maturizat, ai avut timp să meditezi asupra tuturor lucrurilor învăţate aici. A venit timpul să treci o nouă poartă în drumul tău inițiatic spre lumină. Imediat va veni un preot pur care, ca în prima zi, te va râde, te va purifica, apoi vei fi dus în incinta templului, ca să vezi ce poate fi văzut şi să auzi ce poate fi auzit. Apoi va trebui să hotărăști singur dacă-ţi pare necesar să mai rămâi un timp în această sală, ca să te cufunzi iar în tine însuţi, sau dacă te întorci la Memphis. Acolo vei aştepta să vină la tine mesagerul Marelui Prezicător al lui Ra, ca să-ți spună că eşti aşteptat la Abidos, unde urmează să-ți desăvârşeşti inițierea, coborând în sălaşurile lui Osiris.

Te simţi acum pregătit să treci a cincea poartă și să auzi cuvintele secrete care te vor ajuta să înfrunți şi ultimul mister închis ca un giuvaer într-un lotus, dezvăluit celor ce sunt demni de el în templul ascuns al lui Osiris?

Leadership: Cât de mult crezi că s-ar schimba percepția ta despre autonomie și control asupra ființelor și lucrurilor, având acces la o cunoaștere ascunsă?

- Sunt pregătit. Să vină la mine preotul pur, să mă pregătească să trec a cincea poartă. Dar dă-mi voie să-ţi mai pun o întrebare. Ibebi încuviinţă cu o mișcare a capului. Keops spuse:

- Am citit prima carte a lui Thot, am citit a doua carte a lui Thot, le-am învăţat pe amândouă pe de rost. Există cumva şi o a treia carte a lui Thot, unde este dezvăluit marele mister, prin care dobândești puterea magică a spiritului pe care ţi-o conferă dominarea asupra lucrurilor şi a ființelor?

Ibebi dădu din cap, rămase un moment tăcut, apoi răspunse:

- Există oare această misterioasă carte a lui Thot despre care mi-ai vorbit? Nu pot să-ţi spun. Nici măcar nu ştiu cum ai aflat de existenţa ei, căci se pare că vorbeşti de cartea Marelui Thot, a zeului de trei ori Mare. Dar trebuie să te convingi că această putere magică, la care s-ar părea că aspiri şi care ar conferi o dominare asupra lumii, nu poate fi dobândită de un muritor, fie el şi fiu de rege.

Leadership: Percepția despre autoritatea asupra propriei vieți se poate modifica odată cu aprofundarea cunoașterii de sine, în cazul în care realitatea interioară și cea exterioară încep să se reflecte una în alta într-un mod neașteptat?

Singura dominare care are o valoare, pentru noi oamenii, este dominarea de sine, dominarea propriului nostru spirit, cunoaşterea de sine şi cunoașterea naturii, care ne conferă cea mai mare autoritate asupra noastră. Nu căuta mai departe, căci această dominare de care ţi-am vorbit înseamnă deja o destul de mare asceză şi o căutare interioară care cere mult timp şi multă răbdare.

Ibebi păstră alt moment de tăcere, pentru ca discipolul său să-i înţeleagă bine cuvintele. Keops pricepu că nu trebuia să mai pună întrebări despre această carte a lui Thot. Lăsă capul în jos şi aşteptă ca preotul să vorbească din nou.

- Acum, zise Ibebi, ascultă-mi instrucțiunile, reţine ce va trebui să spui, ce va trebui să înţelegi şi răspunde la cuvintele pe care le va pronunţa zeul Thot în faţa ta....

În fața porții către iluminare, fiecare pas este o alegere între a rămâne în confortul cunoscutului și a îndrăzni spre necunoscut. Pășirea prin porțile cunoașterii cere curajul de a explora necunoscutul și maturitatea de a înfrunta misterele ascunse.

Puterea magică nu poate fi dobândită de un muritor, dar numai dacă acest muritor consideră că dominarea propriului spirit poate deschide noi perspective asupra modului în care percepe realitatea înconjurătoare. Să nu uităm că percepția despre autoritatea asupra propriei vieți se modifică odată cu aprofundarea cunoașterii de sine.

În ce mod crezi că dominarea de sine și cunoașterea propriei ființe îți pot schimba perspectiva asupra realității și valorii personale?

Puterea nemăsurată

Împinge leadershipul spre noi dimensiuni cu toate puterile ce se desfăşoară în sânul tău, construindu-ţi o imagine mentală a ceea ce se află în afara ta.

Raţiunea mea căpăta avânt pentru un alt fel de existenţă, una supusă legilor nescrise ale lumii, împotriva a ceea ce era definit deja ca primordial. Era o alcătuire complicată din fantezie, realism şi magie, dincolo de adâncul semnificant al minţii prin care puteam să acced la o putere nemăsurată, care nu se stingea sub vectorul de inducţie al observaţiilor empirice. Ca şi când aş fi sărit iute într-un tren ce m-a dus de-a lungul unui ţinut necunoscut, în mijlocul unei adevărate nebunii, oferind o măsură imprecisă ordinii lucrurilor şi experienţelor vieţii, tocmai pentru că nu ştiam să dezleg firul raţiunii pentru a crea o logică generală.

Căutarea unui sens al vieţii pe care să-l atribui unei raţiuni mai înalte implică o anumită raportare la alte Euri. De fapt, cred că toată fiinţa mea era cuprinsă în imaginea unei lumi care se hrăneşte din substanţa unui imaginar absolut, specific creatorilor, dintr-o filosofie a alterităţii care inundă realitatea, activitatea creierului, toate lucrurile din jur şi pătrunde în lumea fenomenală a vieţii tainice, explicată doar prin ocheanul visului. Da, unii oameni îşi descoperă raţiunea de a fi doar într-un vis.

Rătăcitor, ca un om desprins de lucrurile acestei lumi, ca un personaj al lui Dumas pendulând între fiinţă şi nefiinţă, încercam cu greu să pătrund un mister a cărui pricină n-o cunoşteam, al cărui efect îl vedeam, dar nu-i înţelegeam scopul. Puterea se arăta drept ceea ce era: când eu, când altcineva, împrumutând mult din ideile timpului. O putere care mă desfăcea de lumea aceasta şi mă sincroniza într-o nemărginire fără nume constituind - precum simetria în artă - o condiţie a frumosului.

Leadership: Poţi cere raţiunii tale să creadă în autenticitatea unei rupturi de lume, încât să împlineşti destinul unei fiinţe care se împlineşte total prin abordarea unei creaţii menită să scoată din anonimat trăirile care te fac mai puternic?

Frumosul. Sublimul. Misteriosul. Puterea de a fi totul într-un nou peisaj, într-un alt moment, în acelaşi timp o oglindă, o reflexie a lumii, un corp de cunoștințe creat prin intermediul simţirilor, al energiilor şi al ideilor sincere, transmise într-un cloud unde erau analizate şi interpretate printr-o serie de algoritmi complecşi care puteau prezice, cu o marjă oarecare de eroare, răspunsurile la întrebările fără răspuns.

Era şi asta o cale de a aduce la suprafaţă lucruri pe care le purtam în mine şi de care nu eram conştient. Total, exista în mine o dimensiune a conştiinţei apropiate de o desfătare a simţurilor care nu-mi fusese cunoscută mai înainte. Cumva, mă inspira acea ruptură de lumea reală şi intrarea într-un vis care continua să producă imagini, sunete, mirosuri, lumini, mişcare, forţă liniara, deplasare în timp şi spaţiu, având în permanenţă controlul. Puteam să fac să dispară orice lucru sau să-l modific după bunul meu plac.

Leadershipul pune în discuţie importanţa deosebită a căutării sensului vieţii din perspectiva a ceea ce eşti capabil să devii ca să schimbi cursul ei.

Tot mai mult, voiam să devin un creator al ordinii, care cunoaște relațiile și caracteristicile tuturor lucrurilor și care poate ordona totul. Povestea mea părea mai degrabă destinul unei fiinţe care se împlineşte total prin abordarea unei creaţii menită să scoată din anonimat trăirile care o fac mai puternică: trăirea noului care întrece cu mult aşteptările cuiva, trăirea transcendenţei, trăirea timpului care nu se mai consumă, trăirea realităţii de dincolo de lumea fizică, de dincolo de ce este palpabil.

Cine caută în atitudinea înfăptuitorului de lumi frumuseţea lui interioară, simplitatea pură a inimii, acea profunzime fără de care nu poate acţiona, multiplicându-se apoi la nesfârşit prin serii de rezonanţe. Cine caută la el candoarea sufletească în ingenuitatea acelei convingeri dobândite prin experienţa bilanţului vieţii, sub incidenţa ştiinţei, cu siguranţă se va simţi încâlcit într-o plăsmuire de gânduri ba din trecut, ba din viitor, debusolându-l şi lăsându-l fără atâtea răspunsuri.

Să vezi o lume dincolo de experienţa personală înseamnă să-ţi dezvolţi capacitatea de a-ţi exprima plastic trăirile propriei personalităţi, unice şi irepetabile, continuând să ridici fundația unui vis care va deveni realitate.

A da viaţă unei creaţii care să te facă să te simţi în mijlocul unei schimbări de perspectivă vizează experimentarea directă a realităţii de dincolo de vizibil, de dincolo de ce ştii despre lume, de dincolo de palpabil, de dincolo de ceea ce poţi explica simplu în cuvinte... şi care nu încetează să te mire.

Filozoful român Constantin Rădulescu Motru mărturisea: „ Este destul ca sistemul ce avem în vedere să rămână neinfluenţat din afară, pentru ca să constatăm că toate puterile ce se desfăşoară în sânul său, cu toată felurimea lor calitativă, formează totuşi un circuit închis de transformare şi reprezintă un cuantum constant. Acest cuantum constant, sub care se subsumează manifestarea puterilor, a luat denumirea de energie. "

Structura mentală îndreptată spre explorarea spaţiului, a timpului şi a realităţilor paralele, în legătură cu acea particularitate a înfăptuirii unei asocieri între ele, are filtrul personalităţii celui care îşi hrăneşte setea de cunoaştere prin descifrarea şi asimilarea misterelor, a ştiinţelor. De la frontiera adevărurilor neştiute.

Un asemenea creator nu este lipsit de puterea de a se regăsi într-un alt timp, într-o altă lume, angrenând existenţa sa într-o dinamică a transformării şi deschiderii spre orizonturi numai de el ştiute.

Ceea ce cunoşti despre tine însuţi trebuie analizat ca mijloc de accesare a procesului de relativizare a realităţii de dincolo de reprezentarea fizică, de dincolo de ceea ce rezistă raţionalizărilor viziunii, ca şi când ai fi parte dintr-un vis care îţi copleşeşte sufletul de emoţie.

Prin prezenţa misteriosului, a ceea ce se află în afara propriei sale conştiinţe, în afara înţelegerii şi controlului imediat, oferind repartizări noi, improbabile, ale elementelor necunoscute obţinute prin revelaţie şi printr-un efort al închipuirii, se dezvoltă o altă fiinţă, o parte invizibilă a omului ce se rezumă la infinit.... fără limite.

Un înfăptuitor de lumi poate să se vadă pe sine însuşi şi să se cunoască nemăsurat prin explorarea şi aprecierea misterelor de care se înconjoară. Practic el îşi exercită puterea apelând la ceva „superior", greu neînţeles. Puterea se arată, în acest caz, drept ceea ce poate fi: când el însuşi, când altcineva, o putere care îl desface de lumea asta şi îl sincronizează într-o nemărginire fără nume.

Misteriosul, această prezenţă invizibilă, străbătută de o energie care se sustrage de la comparaţia cu viaţa, este mai reală în el decât gândurile şi emoţiile efemere, tranzitorii, ale multelor Euri.

Specificul subiectivităţii cu care vezi lucrurile este o parte a artei explorării zăcămintelor de sens ascunse într-o fiinţă cu statutul de visător, care trăieşte şi simte totul ca o prelungire a realităţii care cultivă mai mult „news” decât "other weekly paper", din perspectiva unei călătorii în alt timp şi spaţiu.

Puterea nemăsurată este cea ieşită din comun, adică cea care poate fi atinsă doar prin interpretarea unor trăiri interne, a unor senzaţii legate de anumite momente ale vieţii. Ca să produci inovaţie trebuie să converteşti misterele în convingeri, în chip pozitiv şi adecvat vieţii şi personalităţii tale.

Puterea nevăzută a unui condamnat (II)

Redimensionează-ţi limitele proprii în aşa fel încât evoluţia ta să nu capete valenţe prea mari.

Hannibal Lecter este condamnat să exploreze singur lumea, s-o înfrunte şi s-o controleze, prin faptul că voia să o condamne la a fi sub puterea Egoului său supradimensionat. Complexele implicaţii ale rolului ce-l are de îndeplinit nu pot scoate la suprafaţă însuşirile sale definitorii. Căci omul acesta atotcuprinzător ştie destulă chimie ca să prevadă rezultatul reacţiilor ce se vor produce în timp, între diversele elemente de contrast din contextul evenimentelor. El ştie, de asemenea, să se reprogrameze, creând noi algoritmi de optimizare şi securitate. La el totul se transformă într-o mecanică ascunsă a rolurilor, într-un lung proces de redimensionare a limitelor personale.

Precum puternicul Vautrin din opera lui Balzac, geniul din umbră care controla evenimentele din dosul uşilor închise cu ajutorul intuiţiei şi a simţului psihologic, Hannibal Lecter pare, de asemenea, să ştie şi să hotărască totul, dar nu întotdeauna vrea să se pronunţe. Totul se face şi se desface din spatele gratiilor, datorită minţii şi ingeniozităţii.

Iar când acest om neînduplecat se înfruptă cu cuvintele pline de credinţă: " Dacă nu merg eu la munte, vine muntele la mine ", totul capătă valenţe magice care îi amplifică evoluţia. Chiar şi izolat, Hannibal pare să deţină controlul total asupra evenimentelor, reuşind să le tempereze sau să le dinamizeze. FBI-ul apelează la el pentru rezolvarea cazurilor spinoase. Chiar se încheie şi un pact între aceste două părţi distincte. Dar, obscură, această minte plină de judecăţi şi raţionamente tăioase, este totodată plină de contraste. Mare grijă, mare atenţie !

Experienţa de a fi un om puternic seamănă cu savurarea unei ceşti de ceai: numai când simţi ceva fierbinte se aprinde sângele în tine.

Ai crede că acest condamnat bătrân şi epuizat va aştepta multă vreme pasiv, în afara sferei evenimentelor, în umbra dizgraţiei, în celula întunecată. O permanentă nulitate a fiinţei ajunsă la capătul puterilor. Cu toate acestea, o forţă latentă îi dă puterea de a fi mai mult decât este, regenerând stadiul său existenţial, oferindu-i substrat pentru o revitalizare durabilă. Se reînnoiesc neuronii, muşchii se încordează, tensiunea creşte, respiraţia se intensifică şi toate simţurile devin mai ascuţite. Şi astfel Hannibal se poate concentra mai bine asupra obiectivului principal: supradimensionarea existenţei.

Nu este exclus ca Hannibal, urmare a efortului său total de a cuprinde şi guverna toate forţele, toate legile şi constantele ştiinţei psihologice, să trăiască ideea totalităţii sale, împreună cu sentimentul harului, caracteristic acestei trăiri. Caracterul său unitar rezultă din suma părților componente, din capacităţile sale de conducere, nevăzute şi nedescifrate de nimeni. Din întreg ansamblul de posibilităţi, de variaţii şi combinaţii menite a ţine în viaţă tocmai propria lui persoană.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea să te dedici cu supunere totalităţii tale, încât ceea ce controlezi cu ajutorul Egoului să devină definitoriu pentru obţinerea unui efect: "I deserve everything I can get"?

Omul care are meritul de a fi navigat pe marile necunoscute ale vieţii, dominat astfel de un permanent dialog între sine şi, să spunem, "nebunia" sa, nu poate fi niciodată mulţumit de sine. Vrea mai mult, vrea să găsească un loc de unde să poată privi altfel lumea, chiar s-o conducă. Şi numai anulând orice aparenţe el poate să intensifice acele puteri lăuntrice capabile să înfrângă limitele propriei sale cunoaşteri şi puteri de iniţiativă.

În loc să se dezvolte acest supraindividualism, tradus printr-un care-free attitude above all circumstances, el se estompează în cazul persoanelor neîmplinite pe plan personal, care vor să deţină puterea maximă. Şi numai prin reconfigurarea realistă a aspectelor ce ţin de proiectarea nevoilor lor reale se poate realiza, în mod specific sau exclusiv, o umplere a golurilor funcţionale care permit însuşirilor lor definitorii să evolueze.

Leadershipul nu se sustrage rigorilor personale. El se poate propaga în vid, în perimetrul acelei funcţionalităţi care permite "utilizatorilor de forţe interne" să acceseze în timp real rezultatele căutării lor şi să le valorifice printr-un proces de colaborare tacită. Şi asta pe măsură ce îşi construiesc noi structuri de gândire.

Dar ce caută necontenit omul care nu stă strâns legat în cămaşa de forţă a timpului? Mai mult ca sigur el vrea să capete autoritate, caută să posede acea libertate de viziune, de voinţă. Şi, mai presus de toate, libertatea de a judeca în mod independent asupra a ceea ce este pus să facă.

Iar acest " I deserve everything I can get " devine esenţa vieţii lui, ilustrat convingător în cazul lui Hannibal Lecter. Un asemenea individ se dedică cu supunere totalităţii sale, trăind această idee cu toată plinătatea desăvârşirii sale, asemenea unui astru care asfinţeşte, dar care se înalţă mai strălucitor în altă emisferă – a la dolce vita , în sensul solidarităţii cu propria lui fiinţă, cu extremele sale, cu propriile convingeri.

Leadership: Poţi fi identic cu cineva care oricât de mult s-ar chinui să-şi dovedească contrariul propriei naturi, este totuşi predispus la a se transpune într-o forţă majoritară, necondiţionată de vreun scop înalt?

Ce urmăreşte Hannibal Lecter? Să nu fie niciodată identic cu altcineva, să nu existe nimic care să-i pericliteze poziţia ocupată pe teritoriul privilegiat al leadershipului intuitiv şi bine stăpânit. Între gândire şi decizie, în vederea atingerii scopului suprem - biruinţa pe plan psihologic - nu trebuie să se interpună nicio forţă. Îndrăzneţ, un astfel de om strânge bine totul în hăţurile ideilor sale şi da frâu liber cailor putere: aspiraţiile şi eforturile de evoluţie. Care, însă, nu se încadrează în tiparul normalului.

De ce tigrul este un vânător mult mai complex şi mai tenace decât leii sau hienele care vânează doar în grup? Fiindcă izolarea creează condiţii de dezvoltare a unor abilităţi mult superioare celor pe care le creează integrarea.

Vasta utilitate a progresului personal este profilată, în prezent, exclusiv pe integrare, pe producţia de resurse de dezvoltare partajate în comun, dispunând deopotrivă de o dimensiune intuitivă şi una practică. Un brainstorming la care se adaugă acţiunea.

Dar vor exista întotdeauna cazuri izolate de indivizi, cu capacităţi peste normal, ce vor acţiona liber, prin intensitate, prin conştientizarea talentelor, prin stimularea deprinderilor şi experienţelor individuale. Şi exact aceştia vor dicta mersul lumii, spre bine sau spre rău.

Ca şi în trecut, la fel şi în viitor. O forţă cugetătoare minoritară, neînţeleasă şi obscură, va fi mult mai presus decât o forţă majoritară unită, dar inconsecventă şi necondiţionată de vreun scop înalt. Iar un om care vrea să-ţi dovedească contrariul propriei naturi este un om care îşi dă seama de "negativul" personalităţii sale, dar totuşi este avântat spre a-şi dovedi superioritatea cu orice preţ, chiar cu riscul opoziţiei lumii.

Leadershipul este calitatea de a te raporta la efortul de a fi puternic, inteligent, iscusit, dând o mare importanţă vieți prin intermediul superiorităţii extrasă din convingerea celorlalţi că eşti plin de afecţiune, nu doar mai bun profesionist decât ei.

Puterea nevăzută a unui condamnat desemnează acele forţe interne ce se pot dezvolta atunci când sunt susţinute de motivaţii puternice, în vederea creării unei unicităţi autentice. Orientate spre bine sau spre rău.

Puterea nevăzută a unui condamnat (I)

Monitorizează-ţi evoluţia şi moderează-ţi dezvoltarea, astfel încât să treci de pragul critic de a împinge Egoul la extrem.

A fi un criminal notoriu înseamnă să fii un psiholog cu sânge foarte rece, dar în aşa fel încât răceala lui să nu iasă în evidenţă decât prin însemnătatea acordată evenimentelor în care se reflectă personalitatea sa. Limitele structurii funcţionale, între care are loc explozia de motivaţie şi inspiraţie, într-un amestec de pasiune şi trufie, sunt dirijate spre valori maxime. Aceste limite de acceptabilitate între care Hannibal Lecter oscilează, trăieşte, luptă, chibzuieşte şi hotărăşte, niciodată nu ating pragul critic. Dar nici nu coboară spre mediu sau normal.

Chiar şi exilat de societate, omul acesta dârz, creierul acesta inepuizabil, centrul activ al tuturor proceselor intelectuale de analiză şi discernere, rămâne un fragment de rocă dură propulsat într-o atmosferă a siguranţei, a la dolce vita , fiindcă rămâne de neatins în adâncurile sale. Dacă îl studiem cu atenţie pe Hannibal Lecter printr-o lupă gigantică, putem constata că acest generator uman de înaltă tensiune acţionează atât prin intensitate, cât şi prin extensiune.

Aşa cum stratul izolant al învelişului corpului uman reduce pierderea de căldură şi măreşte rezistenţa organismului, tot astfel regulatorul intern care asigură funcţionarea fără blocaje a acestui om reduce timpul pierdut cu montajul pieselor unui puzzle care nu au şanse să se îmbine perfect. Puterea lui dominantă se alimentează şi se exercită prin intermediul unei ştiinţe şi a unei gândiri minuţioase, aplicabile numai în condiţiile impuse de el. Iar aceste condiţii creează o mare derută pentru ceilalţi.

Cercetând argumentele care stau la baza raţionamentelor de tip cauză-efect, încadrându-le într-un crescendo susţinut, Hannibal îşi consolidează capitalul propriu de resurse necesare creării unor noi perspective şi noi oportunităţi explorare a talentului său cel mai pregnant. Anume, talentul de a se întreţine, de a se acompania singur, abandonându-se total în puterea lui de autosugestie, în turnul de fildeş al autocunoaşterii. Numai ridicând semne de întrebare vis a vis de ceea ce este el cu adevărat, va reuşi să ţină pasul cu propria-i imagine despre sine.

Leadership: Puterea dominantă cu care îţi înveleşti personalitatea îţi permite să observi toată extensiunea evenimentelor la care iei parte prin reflecţia propriei minţi într-un univers numit "emanaţie a unui Ego supradimensionat" ?

Un automobil, oricât de frumos proiectat, dacă nu dispune de calităţile tehnice care să-l facă superior altora ca obiect util, forma sa estetică va conta foarte puţin. Când vine vorba de leadership, elementul "calitate" trebuie să vină în completarea elementului "superioritate", să se potrivească între ele şi să se afle într-o strânsă legătură. Nu să se dizolve complet în "particular" şi "întâmplător".

Un ego supradimensionat este instinctul unui om de a se hrăni din abundenţa slăbiciunilor altora. Leadershipul este dominat de principiul unicităţii şi al armoniei, nu al generalului, extinzându-se sau restrângându-se în funcţie de nivelul psiho-profesional al omului care asigură supravieţuirea în "vid", în decursul etapelor aride şi întunecate ale vieţii. Iar asta este ceea ce transformă leadershipul într-un "produs" al necesităţii.

Suma evenimentelor propriei vieţi, ca numitor al unei gândiri de tipul "eu sunt cel ce sunt", se observă ca o prelungire a minţii supradimensionate de o reflecţie unică asupra vieţii: "Lacomul sătul tot flămând este", după cum bine observă Dimitrie Cantemir. Puterea care defineşte un asemenea individ este redată cel mai bine printr-un citat al lui Lord Byron: "Orice virtute este doar o problemă de preţ."

Leadership: Cât timp poţi să rămâi de neatins în adâncurile tale, încât abilitatea pe care o ai, acest talent de-a te simți "Superior", să nu se manifeste într-un mod pe care ai vrea să-l negi?

În condiţiile analizei adevăratului tău statut, fie de învins, fie de învingător, contrastele lumii pe care ţi-o zămisleşti nu au nicio scuză. În orice situaţie, poziţia pe care o adopţi şi curajul de a o susţine neîncetat, constituind reflectarea fidelă a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat, trebuie să se concretizeze într-un demers motivaţional consistent, unul profund transformator şi progresist.

O îndeletnicire irezistibilă te ajută să-ţi proiectezi mai bine propriul film existenţial, dar nu este de ajuns pentru a manifesta o anumită fidelitate faţă de sine. Iar o nouă abordare a spaţiului de evoluţie poate fi oricât de lăudabilă, dar dacă nu funcţionează în acelaşi sens cu trebuinţele tale superioare, vitale în reconstruirea acelor aspecte calitative de funcţionalitate, îşi pierde orice sens.

Să rămâi de neatins în adâncurile tale înseamnă să păstrezi monopolul asupra întregii tale persoane chiar şi în singurătate, chiar şi în condiţii vitrege de viaţă. Orice contradicţii de ordin moral, fiind doar de atenţionare, pot temporar să-ţi încetinească reacţiile şi perspicacitatea. Prin urmare, numai dacă ajungi până în punctul în care începi să te identifici cu persoana ta, cu propriul sine, cu propriul model de gândire, cu propria creaţie, te vei putea regăsi în îmbrăţişarea irezistibilă a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat.

Puterea ta dominantă se alimentează şi se exercită prin intermediul ştiinţei şi a gândirii minuţioase aplicabile numai în orice situaţii? Îţi cunoşti bine potenţialul? Posezi talentul de a te întreţine, de a te acompania singur, abandonându-te total în puterea ta de discernământ, în turnul de fildeş al autocunoaşterii?

A-ţi recunoaşte cu orice preţ superioritatea înseamnă să-ţi sporeşti valoarea de sine fără să-ţi asculţi conştiinţa, iar a-ţi nega superioritatea înseamnă să abuzezi de mintea ta într-un mod impropriu ei.

Puterea nevăzută a unui condamnat simbolizează acea putere interioară de mare intensitate care generează un status pro-reformator benefic. Sau unul malefic. Eşti condamnat să fii un reformator sau un demolator al propriei persoane?

Puternica confruntare a omului cu sinele

Angajează-te pe frontul spiritual, în actul de reformare a sinelui, ca să găseşti echilibrul optim între raţiune şi emoţie.

Mâna capricioasă grăbeşte lucrurile. Cum să te fereşti de efectele ei distrugătoare? Zgomotele înfundate ale fatalităţii se fac auzite, însoţite de nori de-a dreptul apocaliptici ce se răsfrâng în ceaţa densă a minţii. A neputinţei de a accepta marea enigmă. Ceva îi scapă locotenentului Boyle, ceva de neînţeles, nu pricepe legătura dintre toate acestea.

Când mâna lui dreaptă este prinsă şi trasă în jos de forţa monstruoasă, el îşi simte instinctiv sfârşitul. Semn îngrijorător. Cum s-a putut întâmpla una ca asta? Cum s-a eliberat Hannibal Lecter din cătuşe? Derutat, Boyle pare că intră într-un blocaj. Şi într-o nesfârşită umilinţă. Reacţia rapidă comportamentală nu poate fi explicată la nivel de gândire conştientă.

Dar timpul nu mai are răbdare în clipa cea mare a pedepsei. Este limpede că neliniştea inerentă, spaima cea mai dezarmantă la a cărei apariţie contribuie suspansul cel mai tulburător, nu mai poate fi potolită. Nu mai poate fi smulsă din strânsoarea pe care o exercită asupra minţii. Ca un foc care transformă orice, neliniştea aceasta înverşunată, controlată parcă de nişte forţe de coeziune puternice, activează centrii nervoşi. Ea generează inhibiţia voinţei şi blocajul acţiuni. Bietul om pare că intră într-o criză de amorţire.

Leadership: Care este răspunsul minții tale la situațiile de viață cu care te confrunţi prin eficientizarea unei intervenţii de tip "vreau să văd dacă pot să-mi permit un extra-premium de senzaţionalism" ?

Răspunsul reflex la această stranie întâmplare, printr-o singură lovitură adâncă, ca de bisturiu, secţionează orice legătură strânsă cu echilibrul, cu frontul spiritual unde mintea stătea de gardă. Iar cu cât forţa anormală se propagă mai mult în perimetrul fundamental pozitiv al omului, cu atât presiunea în circuitul venos creşte. Se produce dilataţia vaselor sangvine periferice, determinând creşterea temperaturii şi înroşirea pielii. Spaima a dat lovitura cea mare. Direct în inimă îl loveşte pe nenorocitul care a avut curajul să privească în ochi trimisul întunericului, moartea.

Abia acum, când nu mai poate astupa spărtura psihică prin care năvălesc apăsător umbrele puternice de îndoială, pe care niciun gând de natură pozitivă, nicio faptă bună nu le mai poate înfrâna, abia acum se descoperă omul, în slăbiciunea lui. În greşelile sale, în pierzania lui. Atât de bine se închide Boyle în el însuşi, încât nu-şi mai poate manifesta capacitatea de existenţă autonomă. Este ca şi mort.

Hannibal Lecter, personajul din "Tăcerea Mieilor" reuşeşte cu măiestria unui magician să domine o situaţie din care nimeni n-ar fi putut să scape. Pe linia lui de gândire se plasează nu doar simpla dorinţă de a evada, de a se sustrage de la o pedeapsă binemeritată, mişcare inopinată de altfel, ci exprimarea publică a unei trăsături diferite de caracter, mult mai grave: el este în stare să se împotrivească legii şi să ridice la nivelul performanţelor unui judecător nemilos care pronunţă cu satisfacţie şi fără drept de apel o condamnare la moarte. Tot ce i se pune în faţă este condamnat printr-o hotărâre definitivă, ca o dovadă a cruzimii şi asprimii caracterului său.

El îşi murdăreşte mâinile cu sânge într-un gest de senzaţionalism ca să răspundă unei condiţii de performanţă mai înalte, estimând riscul corespunzător unei anumite mărimi a hazardului, astfel făcând dovada unei cunoaşteri ulterioare ale evenimentelor. Senzaţionalismul nu este doar un act de teribilism, ci un vector al creşterii performanţei în ceea ce priveşte reuşita îndeplinirii unei misiuni cu caracter semnificativ: "să fii mai presus de patimile pe care păcatul le aduce în tine."

Leadership: În ce condiţii te scufunzi în conflictele propriului eu, luând ca referinţă de măsurare a inteligenţei de vârf dreptul de a nu fi supus unei decizii automate cu caracter semnificativ?

Paralel cu preocuparea de a asigura păstrarea curată a conştiinţei, în raport cu alte lucrări de consolidare a infrastructurii leadershipului care are rolul de a sprijini identitatea omului, nesupus unor forţe externe, se impune şi realizarea unei interpretări a realităţii care nu poate fi pe deplin lămurită. Un set limitat de acțiuni, cu o finalitate nu tocmai previzibilă, poate fi acordat sistemului de reproșuri diverse în mintea unui om influențat de deciziile luate la un moment dat.

Perspectivele expansiunii leadershipului în lumea de mâine se cer discutate şi în lumina unei alte realităţi pe care omul nu o poate stăpâni. Este vorba de vocea reproşului care îţi limitează gesturile şi acţiunile, strigându-ţi numele în sfera înaltă a păcatului de a domina şi distruge viaţa altora în interesul acordat unei pasiuni de cursă lungă a cărei intensitate poate naşte o legendă a perfecţiunii. Aici, inteligenţa de vârf capătă semnificaţia de faptă ilicită și antisocială, chiar dacă se pretează la capacitatea de adaptare la mediu şi la situaţiile dificile, văzută ca un mod de a te descurca în viaţă.

Atunci când se scufundă în conflictele propriului Eu, deci atunci când realitatea nu reacţionează la niciuna dintre comenzile gândirii, omul se distanţează de locul său în cadrul leadershipului. Se dezleagă de configuraţia personală creată după un model acceptat. Şi astfel el se mărgineşte de statutul lui normal de " a fi ", asemenea unui obiect dintr-o colecţie de mică valoare destinat să facă faţă uneia şi aceleiaşi trebuinţe - să cedeze la cea mai mică forţă exterioară şi să se spargă. Iar un astfel de obiect nu se va "vinde" niciodată foarte bine.

Dreptul de a nu fi supus unei decizii automate cu caracter semnificativ îi aparţine omului care îşi măsoară conştiinţa de sine prin intermediul a ceea ce este dispus să plătească pentru faptele sale.

Liderul îşi cântăreşte faptele înainte de a răspunde pentru ele, cu specificaţia că imaginea de sine pe care şi-o construieşte din revelaţiile de moment ale unei minţi sclipitoare trebuie să aibă dimensiunea experienţei de a admite ca orice greşeală se poate întoarce împotriva lui. Ori Hannibal nu era un asemenea om. Pentru un psiholog înrăit ca el, cunoaşterea profundă a fiinţei umane implica mai degrabă decizia de a o supune durerii, încât sensibilizarea şi subjugarea ei să fie totală.

Un scriitor român preciza la un moment dat: " În suferinţa cumplită pe care o generează şocul rezidă întreaga dramă spirituală a omului. " Oamenii reacţionează diferit de pe poziţiile unei rigori a gândirii, alimentată de rătăcirile şi stările de incertitudine foarte adânc înrădăcinate. Şocul, suma stărilor de tensiune care nu pot fi alungate prin esenţa rezonanţei cu stările pozitive iniţiale, făcând imposibilă o activitate neuronală decentă, creează o anumită discordanţă în acţiune în raport cu valorile impuse. De aceea reacţia rapidă comportamentală nu mai poate fi explicată la nivel de gândire conştientă.

Datorită acestor puternice contraste dintre stări şi judecăţi limitative, resimţite de om în toată profunzimea lor, sunt deformate caracteristicile pozitive ale personalităţii sale. Ca să găsească echilibrul între raţiunea distorsionată şi stările disfuncţionale care îl încearcă, omul trebuie să se angajeze cu toată forţa sa pe frontul spiritual, în actul de reformare a sinelui, de pe poziţiile unei lucidităţi fără defecţiune şi a acceptării provocării.

Negarea sau inacceptarea situaţiei, o aparentă cale de scăpare, nu face altceva decât să “îngheţe” realitatea, descurajând leadershipul (care împiedică emoţiile să domine raţiunea) să se manifeste.

A te afla pe poziţiile unei lucidităţi fără defecţiune înseamnă să-ţi dezvolţi abilitatea de a te elibera de presiunile conştiinţei în vederea îndeplinirii menirii de a fi "cine eşti atunci când nu te vede nimeni".

Puternica confruntare a omului cu sinele apare în situaţiile critice, punând la grea încercare soliditatea reacţiilor de contracarare eficientă şi de anihilare a cauzelor care au generat-o. Lipsa unui “antrenament” permanent ameninţă capacitatea de răspuns rapid prin inactivarea, chiar şi temporară, a voinţei de acţiune.

Aidoma unui boxer bine antrenat care se supune voluntar la încercări prin participarea la diverse competiţii cu adversari din ce în ce mai abili, fiecare dintre noi, şi mai ales un lider, trebuie să iasă în întâmpinarea cerinţelor realităţii nefaste. Să înfrunte prompt orice forţă externă menită să aibă efect destabilizator.

Ocolirea obstacolelor indiferent de amploarea lor nu este o soluţie. Mai degrabă o abordare promptă şi eficientă este un mod de acţiune de bun augur pentru un lider. Care trebuie permanent să acţioneze pe principiul: “ punct ochit, punct lovit ”.

Quid Pro Quo

Ieşi din limitele leadershipului, găsind acel lucru care îţi defineşte viaţa în cele mai pozitive moduri.

Filmul " Leon – The professional ". Pe scurt, aşa cum vă spuneam şi în articolele precedente, filmul prezintă relaţia remarcabilă dintre un asasin profesionist – Leon, şi Mathilda, o fată rămasă orfană. Datorită timpului pe care îl petreceau împreună, între ei s-a creat o legătură puternică bazată pe încredere şi sinceritate.

La un moment dat, Mathilda, îi spune lui Leon cu o voce indignată:

- Leon, noi nu facem altceva decât să muncim. Ar trebui să luăm o pauză. Hai să ne jucăm ceva. Un joc frumos.

Vorbele fetei l-au lăsat un pic confuz pe Leon. Era o schimbare cu care, categoric nu era obişnuit. Un asasin profesionist ca el, din principiu nu se poate coborî la astfel de distracţii. Dar, fiindcă o îndrăgea foarte mult pe Mathilda, a acceptat.

Leadership: Îţi poţi depăşi limitele profesiei tale prin sustinerea ideii unui schimb de roluri între ceea ce te pune în valoare şi ceea ce te izolează?

Jocul lor a constat într-un schimb de roluri. Era uşor să-l confunzi pe Leon cu John Wayne sau cu Clint Eastwood. În sinea ei, urmărind reprezentaţia lui Leon, Mathilda îşi spunea: " E greu să crezi că omul ăsta e un asasin, e greu să crezi că e atât de nemilos. " Într-adevăr, Leon era atât de nostim jucându-şi noul rol, era atât de distractiv, era atât de încântător să fii lângă el. Doar Mathilda îi cunoştea ambele laturi şi îl iubea oricum. Era un prieten foarte drag. Au vorbit, au râs şi au dansat.

Acel joc i-a înlăturat din minte lui Leon, cel puţin pentru o scurtă vreme, gândurile negre. I-a înlăturat din inimă tristeţea de care avea parte. I-a înlăturat din suflet acel gust amar al singurătăţii şi al uitării de sine. Astfel, el şi-a ignorat gândul care îi spunea că un adevărat profesionist, un adevărat asasin, trebuie să fie mereu realist şi să nu primească nici un pic de fantezie în viaţa lui. Şi-a depăşit pentru un timp limitele profesiei sale, iar acest lucru a fost un lucru cu adevărat înălţător pentru el, pentru liniştea lui sufletească, pentru fericirea sa.

Leadership: Cauţi să descoperi în tot ceea ce este limitat acele proporţii umane care nu sufocă viaţa?

Adevărata ştiinţă a leadershipului, care nu se rezumă la creşterea motivaţiei, înseamnă să descoperi în tot ceea ce pare limitat acele proporţii umane care nu sufocă viaţa, care nu variază în funcţie de acea iluzie reală a golirii de sine în care omul trăieşte.

Aceste proporţii sunt în strânsă legătură cu dimensiunile acţiunii tale asupra judecăţilor de valoare morale care determină o conduită sănătoasă, cu mărimea spaţiului de constrângeri care limitează numărul de alternative ale prevenirii faptelor nesăbuite, descoperirea şi anularea resentimentului de orice formă, o suprasolicitare a empatiei şi a sentimentului de vinovăţie care împovărează sufletul şi mintea.

Pentru a supravieţui şi a prospera în organizaţia ta, trebuie să fii un adevărat profesionist. Asta înseamnă să te dedici cu tot sufletul muncii tale, carierei tale, şi să nu te abaţi de la regulile pe care singur ţi le impui, sau îţi sunt impuse.

Dar viaţa personală? Bucuria, fericirea vieţii, când le vei descoperi? Respectul faţă de propria ta viaţă, faţă de sine, faţă de sentimentele tale interioare care îţi cuprind întreaga fiinţă şi îţi conferă o stare pozitivă - te vei bucura vreodată de ele cu adevărat?

Leadership: Eşti în acord cu rostul pe care îl ai de împlinit, optând pentru continuitatea unei formule de a cădea de acord asupra preţului pe care trebuie să-l plăteşti ca să suporţi o nouă înţelegere a vieţii?

Regăseşte-te pe tine, înainte de toate. Ca să ajungi să trăieşti acea senzaţie că "eşti viu", pe care numai contactul cu lumea ţi-o poate da, trebuie să revii la atitudinea aceea plină de căldură sufletească, plină de spirit, plină de calm, plină de acceptare, plină de bucurie.

La începutul poveştii " Micul Prinţ ", scriitorul francez Antoine de Saint-Exupery făcea o precizare : " Toţi oamenii mari au fost mai întâi copii, dar puţini dintre ei îşi mai aduc aminte. "

Undeva în străfundul tainic al inimii tale, nu simţi câteodată ca ai dori să joci un alt rol? Unul mai puţin obositor, şi, de ce nu, chiar mai puţin realist?

Zâmbeşte. Distrează-te mai des. Sigur ai nevoie de-o pauză, de o relaxare a minţii. Ieşi din limitele leadershipului tău, găsind acel lucru care îţi defineşte viaţa în cele mai pozitive moduri.

Leadershipul tău este asigurat de acel element care ar trebui să fie catalizatorul schimbării, într-o versiune a vieţii care chiar dacă nu merge mai departe, arată de parcă ar face-o?

Ştiai că lucrul care îi ucide pe oamenii infestaţi cu bacteria holerei (Vibrio Cholerae) este deshidratarea? Vomită şi defechează până când mor. Numai un singur lucru îi ţine suficient de mult în viaţă ca să poată elimina acea bacterie: o soluţie compusă din apă, sare şi zahăr. Dar în primul rând apa proaspătă este elementul vindecător.

Leadershipul de calitate poate fi considerat un element vindecător, doar dacă te "readuce la viaţă", doar dacă îţi permite să combini activităţile de business cu viaţa personală, doar dacă îţi permite să fii un om fericit din toate punctele de vedere. Pacea şi liniştea sufletească sunt elementele la care poate fi supus catalizatorul numit "personalitate" puternică, dar nu tuburată de tensiuni şi excese.

Ca lider numai un singur lucru te poate menţine suficient de fericit şi împlinit: menţinerea relaţiilor prieteneşti cu ceilalţi oameni.

În viaţa de lider trebuie să dai întotdeauna ceva pentru ceva. Quid Pro Quo. Trebuie să dai puţin din amândouă: trebuie să dai dovadă atât profesionalism, cât şi de empatie faţă de ceilalţi. Capacitatea de a te adapta la viaţa celorlalte persoane, depinde de felul în care îţi exprimi propria viaţă.

Fericirea ta, ca lider, va fi dată de calitatea relaţiilor pe care le vei stabili cu ceilalţi.

Sentimentele morale care permit aprecierea faptelor sunt începutul imaginii pe care şi-o construieşte puterea ta de admisibilitate asupra acţiunilor de promovare a mentalităţii responsabile de percepţia încercărilor lăuntrice şi a comportamentelor pe care acestea le induc.

Concluzie: În leadership, în orice funcţie de răspundere, dar şi în cazurile obişnuite, munca trebuie alternată cu perioade de relaxare, cu hobby-uri deconectante şi preferabil cu activităţi de socializare. Există destule exemple de lideri care au excelat şi în alte domenii: de ex. Bill Clinton era un excelent saxofonist, Vladimir Putin este un bun pianist şi un foarte bun sportiv, etc. Pentru relaxare totdeauna a fost indicată odihna activă prin care anumite porţiuni din creier "se odihnesc", în timp ce alte zone lăsate în repaus mult timp sunt activate.

Susţine-ţi cu tărie viziunea, fără să imprimi un ritm alert de dezvoltare care să împiedice adaptarea adecvată a orientării oamenilor spre viitor.

Există numai trei mari întrebări pe care oamenii, de la o generaţie la alta, indiferent de statutul lor social, şi le-au pus destul de des, şi al căror răspuns încă nu se cunoaşte: De unde venim? De ce ne aflăm aici? Încotro ne îndreptăm? Dintre aceste trei întrebări, cea mai importantă, cea mai des vehiculată în ultima perioada de timp este, fără umbră de îndoială, Încotro ne îndreptăm?

Pe mine mă frământă totuşi o altă întrebare: suntem oare pregătiţi să ajungem în locul unde suntem aşteptaţi?

Imaginaţi-vă pentru o clipă că ar exista un singur om, înzestrat cu o viziune aparte, unică prin felul ei, care ar avea capacitatea, forţa mentală şi tehnologia necesară ca să ne redirecţioneze paşii şi să ne controleze viitorul. I-am respecta fără nicio ezitare ideile şi convingerile? Am accepta să ne conducă destinele spre progres, având certitudinea că este singura noastră cale spre fericire? Sau l-am împiedica să-şi ducă la împlinire viziunea ce depăşeşte limitele imaginaţiei umane actuale?

Cât de utile ne sunt uneori poveştile în găsirea răspunsurilor. „ Robur Cuceritorul ", de Jules Verne tratează acest subiect în amănunt. Acţiunea se petrece undeva pe la sfârşitul secolului al 18-lea. Este important să menţionez faptul că la acea vreme aerostatele (baloanele cu aer cald) erau singurul mijloc de transport aerian.

Leadership: Demersurile de a pune la dispoziţia oamenilor perspectiva ta de a vedea lucrurile facilitează o dezbinare între ceea ce este necesar şi ceea ce ne temem?

Robur, un inginer în vârstă de 40 de ani, care nu se temea de nimeni şi de nimic, a izbutit să creeze un aparat de zbor desăvârşit, ce sfida legile mecanicii, şi care putea să facă înconjurul pământului, străbătând straturile atmosferei. Dar o astfel de invenţie revoluţionara era considerată imposibilă de minţile înguste ale savanţilor vremurilor de atunci, care se arătau neîncrezători şi chiar suspicioşi.

Aşa că, pentru a dovedi tuturor cât de departe poate ajunge progresul, că viitorul aparţine numai maşinilor zburătoare, şi că aeronava lui este reală şi funcţională, Robur a răpit doi dintre cei mai influenţi oameni din America, Uncle Prudent şi Phil Evans, preşedintele şi secretarul Institutului Weldon, i-a luat bord şi a pornit cu ei într-o lungă călătorie.

Deşi cei doi s-au convins pe parcursul celor câteva luni de zbor că aeronava este reală, mult mai stabilă decât orice balon, mult mai rapidă, mult mai încăpătoare, mai confortabilă, totuşi ei nu au vrut să recunoască performanţele acestei maşini zburătoare. Ci au ţinut morţiş că adevăratul vehicul atmosferic este balonul şi că doar acestuia îi aparţinea viitorul.

În finalul povestirii, Robur, s-a adresat cetăţenilor Statelor Unite, veniţi în număr mare să asiste la inaugurarea celui mai nou model de balon: Go Ahead , după ce a dovedit în prealabil că aeronava lui, Albatrosul, este de departe mult mai performantă:

- Cetăţeni ai Statelor Unite, experienţa mea s-a încheiat; dar părerea mea este, în prezent, următoarea, că nu trebuie să grăbim niciodată lucrurile, nici chiar atunci când este vorba de progresul omenirii... Naţiunile încă nu sunt coapte pentru mine. Plec, aşadar, luând cu mine secretul descoperirii mele. Dar nu va fi pierdut pentru omenire. Îi va aparţine atunci când va fi destul de instruită ca să poată profita de el şi destul de înţeleaptă ca să nu abuzeze. Rămas bun, cetăţeni ai Statelor Unite, rămas bun ! ”

Leadershipul este calitatea de a le spune oamenilor ceea ce vor ei să audă astfel încât tot ei să-şi asume vina de nu-şi fi ascuţit înţelegerea şi gândirea.

Le poţi impune oamenilor cu forţa să-ţi accepte ideile, oricât de novatoare ar fi ele?

Invenţia lui Robur ar fi trebuit să fie glorioasă, un triumf desăvârşit. Ar fi fost schimbarea ce ar fi îndreptat oamenii spre progres şi dezvoltare. Din păcate, orice viziune, chiar şi materializată, nu poate fi pusă în aplicare atâta timp cât nivelul de instruire al oamenilor şi moravurile societăţii nu o acceptă. Viziunea lui Robur, oricât de bine ar fi fost ea argumentată, prin diverse modalităţi, că este reală, nu a fost acceptată de oamenii cu un nivel de cunoştinţe inferioare lui.

De aceea, în final, el preferă să plece, luând cu el secretul descoperirii sale, fără să se uite critic în urmă, către oamenii nerecunoscători, conştient fiind că nu-i poate sili să îmbrăţişeze schimbarea, să înţeleagă lucruri pe care nu vor să le cunoască, să le explice, fără voia lor, o taină pe care ei refuză cu încăpăţânare să le fie dezvăluită.

Ştiinţa nu o poate lua înaintea nivelului general de instruire al oamenilor, iar Robur care era esenţialmente un geniu al ingineriei, un spirit elevat şi, totodată pătrunzător, care a îndrăznit să dea la o parte cortina prezentului, s-a convins de acest mare adevăr atunci când a încercat să-şi susţină şi să-şi argumenteze teoria.

Ce rol trist ar fi jucat dacă ar fi încercat să schimbe mentalitatea învechită a oamenilor. Daca ar fi insistat să-şi susţină punctele de vedere, păstrându-şi iluziile despre oameni, că aceştia vor fi totuşi dornici să înţeleagă ştiinţa de peste ani, tehnologia – rezerva sigură a viitorului, ar fi riscat să fie catalogat drept nebun, sau chiar mai rău, un impostor.

Leadership: Îţi poţi atinge cele mai înalte crezuri şi obiective dacă nivelul de instruire al celor din jur este inferior nivelului tău de cunoaştere?

Atunci când ştii că există persoane care nu sunt de acord cu tine, nu poţi înregistra succese. Degeaba te dedici unei chemări care te implică total, la cele mai adânci niveluri ale fiinţei, în acţiunile pe care le desfăşori, în proiectele pe care le dezvolţi şi le derulezi, dacă cei din jur nu îţi împărtăşesc pasiunea, ci preferă să trăiască într-o confortabilă răbdare a timpului. Mai întâi este necesar ca oamenii să aibă puterea de a se schimba ei înşişi şi să poată alege o perspectivă nouă, să aibă capacitatea de a se mobiliza şi de a privi către un orizont nou, mai vast, mai ambiţios.

O mare parte din munca ta poate fi dedicată încercării de a-i ajuta pe oameni să evolueze, să recunoască schimbarea. Dar, categoric, nu vei avea mari şanse să fii acceptat ca lider, chiar dacă le explici, le arăţi, le dai indicaţii, le expui viziunea ta grandioasă, atâta timp cât nivelul lor de cunoştinţe generale este sub limita ta. În loc ca ideile tale să le încânte sufletele de bucurie, s-ar putea să le stârnească repulsie, şi în loc să fii admirat pentru iniţiativele tale lăudabile, pentru intenţiile tale nobile, să fii denigrat.

Avansul gnoseologic al unui om de viitor aparţine conţinutului de convingeri diferite asupra modului în care funcţionează lumea, stocat într-o cauză măreaţă pentru care uneori nu merită să lupţi.

Niciun lider, oricât de progresist şi vizionar ar fi, oricât de multe abilităţi ar avea, nu-şi poate atinge ţelul dacă nivelul de instruire al celor din jur este inferior nivelului său evoluţie. Dacă nu există o viziune generală mai largă a celor pe care îi conduce şi, bineînţeles, dacă lipseşte motivaţia individuală şi un climat organizaţional adecvat, orientat spre progres, spre inovaţie şi competiţie.

Un lider care nu este atent la aceste aspecte şi imprimă un ritm alert ce împiedică o adaptare adecvată, va suferi un eşec în cel mai bun caz, iar în extremis, poate fi etichetat chiar nebun.

Quo Vadis este îndoiala pe care ţi-o dă o activitate ce se poate dovedi a fi doar pierdere de timp. Este îndoiala pe care ţi-o arăţi în final asupra propriei tale raţiuni a considera lucrurile ca fiind nu necesare, ci accidentale. Aşadar, susţine-ţi cu tărie viziunea fără să imprimi un ritm alert de dezvoltare care să împiedice adaptarea adecvată a orientării oamenilor spre viitor.

Un om de ştiinţă ar trebuie să-şi dezvolte capacitatea de a vedea o schimbare acolo unde esenţa omului şi adevărului unei noi perspective se contopesc şi se definesc reciproc.

Învaţă să te deplasezi cu viteza navigatorului în alte zone de producţie a ştiinţei, găsind puterea de a te integra în accepţiunea neprăfuită de „The Man of Time and Space".

Arta mea nu avea întotdeauna o evoluţie rectilinie. Cunoştea o perioadă de încetinire datorită intransigentelor concepţii ale ştiinţei, vii în faţa lucrării Domnului, dar oarbe în faţa sufletului, luând valoare de adevăr numai în interiorul paralelogramului forţelor de exprimare apărute în vârful cel mai de sus al aspiraţiilor de performanţă în virtutea impulsurilor creatoare.

Uneori, mă consideram învins în această învârtire aproape interminabilă a termenilor ştiinţifici, redaţi prin calcule artistice bazate pe vectori de mesaj. Ostenită, mintea-mi era străbătută de fluxurile puternice ale detaliilor tehnice desfăşurate ambiguu într-un spaţiu fără dimensiuni, în marele ocean al uitării de sine, în risipirea unui orizont fără suflet. „You had your time, you had the power..."

Ar putea oare cineva să se angajeze în proba de forţă şi rezistenţă împotriva celei mai mari sclipiri reprezentative din circuitul parcurs de curent în spaţiu? Geniului, the traveler from the future to hymself, to here and now , îi revine sarcina ingrată de a solicita un răspuns timpului care bombăneşte printre roţile evoluţiei, printre evenimentele marcante. Gigantul spirit imaginativ se vede forţat să dea însemnătate realului răscolitor, dependenţei de a fi conectat la provocările vieţii, aducând atingere onoarei sale de vitezoman. „So don't become some background noise / Who just don't know or just don't care."

Cu instinctul extraordinar al unui scientist , Freddie Mercury, navigatorul cerului, sistemul acesta revelator închis într-un perpetuum mobile, străbătut de energii nebănuite, nu mai este doar un transporter to an alternate universe , ci o stare existenţială substituită instantaneu fenomenului de producere a rodirii unei renaşteri, a regăsirii sinelui, prin organele de reproducere ale unei perfecţiuni extreme. „We hardly need to use our ears / How music changes through the years."

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi aduni toate forţele şi să azvârli creaţia la nivelul cel mai de sus al închipuirii, încât să devii un sens magnific între ştiinţă, viaţă şi veşnicie?

Leadershipul se distinge cel mai bine de la nivelurile cele mai înalte ale cunoaşterii subiective, dar se cerne de la nivelurile cele mai profunde ale trăirii şi înţelegerii obiective. Cine are puterea să se integreze în accepţiunea neprăfuită de „ The Man of Time and Space ", să se deplaseze cu viteza navigatorului în alte zone de producţie a ştiinţei, dar reflectându-şi strălucirea în planurile importante ale vieţii: fizic, emoţional, social, spiritual, acela are toate şansele să-şi seteze menirea de „superior" în ecuaţia veşniciei.

Videoclipul Radio Ga Ga este genial realizat. Liderul, din perspectiva creatorilor de artă nouă, reprezintă un experiment al cărui rezultat este ecoul pe care ştiinţa îl întoarce în careul întregului univers, sub egida a două entităţi: una a închipuirii şi cealaltă "înaintea vederii".

Substratul simbolic al unei opere cu conţinut ficţional se poate pregăti prin şlefuirea uşoară a unor păreri poetice aparte, răsturnând firescul unei lumi sui generis . Mult mai important ne apare acum faptul că o operă plastică, cu caracter ficţional, ilustrează doar un singur eveniment izolat cu reprezentare simbolică într-un câmp al cunoaşterii apriorice, un mijloc de informare prezent peste tot, în măsura în care timpul şi spaţiul sunt mult mai profunde şi sentimentul existenţei imens mărit.

După cum naturalistul Lamarck a avansat ideea că trebuie făcută o distincţie clară între organic şi anorganic determinând o altă configuraţie a ceea ce se numeşte materie, Freddie Mercury, compozitorul acesta înrăit, un adevărat mister, sensul acesta magnific între ştiinţă, viaţă şi veşnicie, îşi adună toate forţele şi azvârle creaţia la nivelul cel mai de sus al închipuirii. „Let's hope you never leave old friend / Like all good things on you we depend."

Leadership: Eşti în stare să variezi de la o lume la alta, permiţând ca tot ceea ce nu există în realitate să aparţină unei lumi accesibile doar celui care a fost martor direct la crearea şi dispariţia ei?

Deschideţi un ochi şi priviţi prin cerul ferestrei din faţă, în lumea experienţelor de vârf inovatoare, a dispozitivelor şi a mijloacelor tehnice care cuprind portretul omului postmodern. Veţi sesiza orizontul care precede o mare intersecţie, în care virajul la stânga este interzis, dar lasă o pată de lumină în dreapta, o viziune numită Radio Ga Ga. „Radio, what's new?"

Întotdeauna o entitate energetică situată între cer şi pământ, datorită unui impuls de o anumită lăţime care ar răsturna întreg sistemul de convingeri a unei lumi în devenire, unitară prin realitatea ei dezvăluită în formula aglomerării de detalii banale sau complexe, poate să creeze o punte peste toate graniţele.

Priviţi în jur, înainte şi înapoi, în viitor şi în trecut. Căutaţi această formă divină solidară cu omenirea. Ea este în tot şi în toate. Pătrundeţi în creierul ei genial, în energia forţei vitale universale distribuită pe întreaga scară a timpului, printre undele sonore ale unei anumite frecvenţe, şi veţi simţi întreaga greutate a unei existenţe fragmentare. „So stick around 'cause we might miss you / When we grow tired of all this visual."

A varia de la o lume la alta este similar cu a asculta radio-ul din mai multe locaţii diferite şi îndepărtate: informaţia este aceeaşi şi se propagă la fel de repede, dar ea nu poate fi totdeauna confirmată ca fiind adevărată sau falsă, ci doar ca un element cheie al unei compoziţii sugestionabile care conduce mintea către noi destinaţii.

Radio Ga Ga simbolizează mijlocul de comunicare care îi poate însoţi pe potenţialii consumatori de ştiinţă spre un alt nivel de autoritate, în care experienţa creaţiei atinge un vârf care nu mai justifică prezenţa efectivă, ci se distinge prin ecoul stârnit în lume printr-un impuls care răstoarnă orice sistem de convingeri.

Radiografia unui fenomen care ia amploare

Învaţă să vezi mai departe de orizonturile deschise de predecesorii tăi, încât mentalitatea ta să capete valoare de adevăr prin notorietatea şi extinderea ei.

Există oameni capabili să absoarbă zilnic, ca un burete, o anumită valoare din marile taine ale ştiinţei. Până într-o bună zi când ei înşişi se vor constitui ca limbaj al Marii Ştiinţe. În timp ce tu schimbi toate coordonatele unei ştiinţe, alţii îmbătrânesc de atâta neştiinţă şi sunt uitaţi într-o mică bulă de timp numită deşertăciune. Unii au ştiut s-a ajungă încă din tinereţe la altarul Marii Ştiinţe, alţii sunt împinşi de bătrâneţe să constate că n-au ajuns nici măcar pe drumul Ei.

Eu însumi am constatat că ştiinţa cea mai înaltă nu se dobândeşte dacă urmezi vreo şcoală sau vreo facultate. Ci numai prin dialog cu cei nemuritori, cu anticii care şi-au hrănit înţelepciunea din sensibilitatea vizionară a artistului care îşi plimbă ochii peste lume doar pentru a constata o altă faţă a ei. Să ai norocul să întâlneşti pe un asemenea CINEVA, să preiei toate cunoştinţele acumulate în decenii şi secole de existenţă, este ca şi când ai descoperi o mină de diamante chiar la tine în curte. Mare grijă peste ce cărţi nimereşti, fiindcă doar unele din ele aparţin marilor elite ale filosofiei ştiinţei cu adevărat înalte.

Ştiinţa este o căutare atotcuprinzătoare a adevărurilor ascunse ce te îndeamnă să te gândeşti la o superinteligenţă cu un rol spiritual în viaţa ta, fiind catalogată drept cota cea mai înaltă a valorificării unui ideal de asemănare cu energia vitală prezentă în tot universul.

La rascrucerea întrebărilor despre rostul existenţei şi al propriei fiinţe în lume, asemenea unui strigăt dureros, din răsputeri, ce răzbate la mare depărtare, stă libertatea de exprimare pe care ţi-o pune la dispoziţie însuşirea de a fi subiectiv, vizibil şi creator, la care se adăugă suma sintetică a unor cunoştinţe referitoare la un anumit obiect de cercetare.

Leadership: Eşti suficient de motivat să devii o extensie a exprimării creative prin intermediul altor oameni, fără a contesta veridicitatea punctelor lor de vedere?

Unul din cele mai încurajatoare complimente a venit dimineaţa aceasta din partea unuia dintre cei mai mari directori de companii publicitare din România: "Nicu, numele tău va face destul de curând înconjurul lumii."

M-am simţit ca şi când aş fi purtat un dialog intens cu Francis Bacon, măsurându-mă cu viaţa de altădată, fiindcă dintotdeauna înţelepţii au constatat că artiştii sunt veşnic tentaţi să facă un pas înainte când sunt percepuţi de o judecată diferenţiatoare şi revalorificatoare sub forma unor unicate ale inteligenţei. Pentru întâia oară eram perceput ca un fel de forţă stranie care poate conduce o lume întreagă prin îndemânarea în mânuirea cuvântului, cu care am reuşit să interpretez un rol spiritual grandios în viaţa altora.

Tot gândindu-mă la ce spun oamenii despre mine, mai degrabă decât ceea ce cred eu despre ei, am ajuns la concluzia că un om care nu schimbă coordonatele unei ştiinţe de la o zi la alta nu se va putea numi niciodată erudit. Întreaga materie a universului se regăseşte într-un bob de nisip, dar şi într-o frunză de cireş sau în petalele de trandafir. Chiar şi într-o adiere de vânt.

N-ai cum să pricepi acest lucru dacă ştiinţa pe care o consumi prin frumuseţea ideilor nu intervine în preţiozitatea cu care o tratează ceilalţi. Dacă simţi că un univers sau o lume paralelă interferează din ce în ce mai des cu realitatea ta, în planul unei experienţe de redare a unui nou conţinut de idei şi concepţii, cât încape într-un spaţiu de pură idealitate susţinut în fapt de socotelile minţii într-un exces de încredere în potenţialul vizionar, înseamnă că ai fost fecundat de ideile unui Francis Bacon preocupat de proprietăţile ascunse ale lucrurilor.

Să nu treacă nicio zi fără să faci cel puţin zece lucruri care te pot propulsa înainte spre vârful piramidei cunoaşterii. Abilitatea de a face progrese mai repede şi mai bine ca oricine este vectorul care te uneşte de performanţa care justifică leadershipul.

Leadership: Măsura maximă a cunoaşterii tale este fundamentată de experienţele unei participări la o nouă etapă de potenţare a relevanţei conceptului de "reorientare a valorii personale" într-un context de tipul conexiunilor asociative?

Leadershipul pe care îl practici dezvăluie mai mult decât ceea ce eşti. El reflectă poziţia ta în faţa cunoaşterii cu valoare adaptativă pe care o studiezi, pe care ajungi să o îmbrăţişezi şi să o susţii cu fervoare.

În legătură cu un asemenea leadership - rezultat prin aplicarea unui procedeu de recombinare a componentelor cunoaşterii, s-a înrădăcinat termenul de "bun-gust". Termenul acesta priveşte, deci, categoria produselor valoroase, cu efecte pozitive în planul educaţiei şi al culturii artistului care ştie să intensifice forţa de expresie a extraordinarei sale subiectivităţi creatoare.

Un produs axat în principal pe producţia de structuri plate de absorbţie a valorii, inadecvate şi inadaptate realităţii în continuă dezvoltare, apare ca degenerat şi nociv. Prin comparaţie cu un asemenea "produs" de calitate inferioară, leadershipul superior, care creează condiţiile esenţiale ale progresului, face parte din categoria ştiinţei mai presus de orice aşteptări.

Menţionez în treacăt, ca pe un fapt inevitabil, că într-un anumit fel vei încerca să explici "pulsul unui nou izvor de inspiraţie" dintr-o sursă de mare credibilitate, ca urmare a cercetărilor tale şi ale altora. Şi numai astfel ştiinţa va evolua, prin revizuirea constantă a rezultatelor cercetărilor tale, depăşind situaţia caraghioasă când totul se dovedeşte derutant.

Un context de tipul conexiunilor asociative se fundamentează pe aportul adus de ceilalţi oameni în procesului de dezvoltare personală, în varianta unei comparaţii cu un produs foarte căutat care nu costă nimic, dar care nici nu este la îndemâna oricui. Ci doar acelora care pot să-l împingă spre o stare mai completă, sporindu-i semnificativ calitatea şi eficacitatea.

Radiografia unui fenomen care ia amploare evidenţiază imaginea promiţătoare a unei anumite autonomii decizionale exercitată din perspectiva mijloacelor de a-ţi expune realizările şi punctele de vedere asupra necesităţii asimilării cunoaşterii, expuse în chipul cel mai potrivit al ocaziilor de a experimenta o creare din nou a lumii. Sau mai bine zis, de a experimenta imposibilul și de a-ţi debloca potențialul.

Voi încheia acest articol cu o observaţie aparţinând lui Francis Bacon:

"Văd, fiule, că mulţi oameni nu-şi întreabă nici conştiinţa, nici datoria, fie că îşi comunică descoperirile pe care se laudă că le-au făcut în studierea naturii, fie că le păstrează pentru şi înşişi. Deopotrivă de dăunătoare, dar poate că mai mică este greşeala acelora care, altmiteri bine intenţionaţi, nu au destulă experienţă şi nu cunosc arta şi mijloacele de a expune ideile în chipul cel mai potrivit."

Răsplată sau pedeapsă, îmi primesc destinul

Caută să înţelegi viaţa în deplina ta înţelepciune şi manifestare emoţională, prin eliberarea de teama că pierzi ceva lăsându-te să fii ceea ce eşti cu adevărat în decursul ei.

La auzul glasului acestuia care-i trezi până şi fibrele cele mai tainice ale inimii, Monte Cristo se înfioră. Ochii lui întâlniră privirea fetei şi nu putură să suporte strălucirea.

- Doamne ! Doamne ! - spuse Monte Cristo - aşadar ar putea fi adevărat ce m-ai lăsat să bănuiesc? Haydee, ai fi fericită dacă nu m-ai părăsi?

- Sunt tânără - răspunse ea cu blândeţe - iubesc viaţa pe care tu mi-ai făcut-o întotdeauna atât de plăcută, viaţa pe care credeam c-o visez, pe care tu m-ai învăţat s-o trăiesc. Şi mi-ar părea rău să mor..

- Deci, mă iubeşti? Monte Cristo simţi cum îi creşte inima. El îşi desfăcu braţele, iar Haydee se repezi la pieptul lui, strigând:

- Da, te iubesc ! Te iubesc, cum mi-aş iubi un tată, un frate, un soţ ! Te iubesc cum îmi iubesc viaţa, cum îl iubesc pe Dumnezeu, căci tu eşti pentru mine mai frumos, mai bun şi mai mare decât toate fiinţele ! Şi, Da, aş muri fără tine !

Tendinţa către reflectare asupra propriei vieţi sufleteşti, asupra însuşirilor psihice, asupra comportamentului şi acţiunilor proprii, apare odată cu aflarea unei veşti care îţi minimalizează poziţia puterii pe care ţi-ai construit-o.

Contele tresare de un fior dumnezeiesc, ca la aflarea unui secret stăpânitor peste timpuri, dar îşi calmează aproape imediat pornirea sublimă spre exemplificarea încântării sale. Stări sufleteşti variate i se perindă prin conştiinţă. Sensibilitatea lui sublimă nu poate fi oprită de nicio putere, ci iese la iveală ca atunci când îţi stăpâneşti lacrimile să nu curgă la auzul unei veşti bune:

- Atunci, facă-se voia ta, îngerul meu drag ! răspunse contele. Dumnezeu care m-a înviat şi m-a făcut să-mi înving duşmanii, Dumnezeu văd bine că nu vrea să pună căinţa la capătul izbânzii mele. Voiam să mă pedepsesc, dar Dumnezeu vrea să mă ierte. Iubeşte-mă, Haydee ! Cine ştie, poate că dragostea ta mă va face să uit ceea ce trebuie să uit.

- Ce tot spui, stăpâne? întrebă Haydee.

- Spun că un cuvânt de-al tău, Haydee, m-a luminat mai mult decât douăzeci de ani de înţelepciune. Nu te am decât pe tine în lume. Prin tine mă simt iar legat de viaţă, prin tine pot să sufăr, prin tine pot să fiu fericit... Am întrezărit oare adevărul? întrebă el. Doamne ! Ce are a face ! Răsplată sau pedeapsă, îmi primesc destinul. Vino, Haydee, vino ! ... *****

Leadership: Deschiderea celorlalţi faţă de versiunea identităţii tale sufleteşti este în stare să imprime o renaştere a voinţei simţitoare din care este alcătuit factorul instinctiv al sentimentului de putere?

Blândeţea şi profunzimea sentimentelor lasă întotdeauna loc de apropiere între oameni, sporind deschiderea şi receptivitatea, având de multe ori ca efect posibilitatea de a obliga la un efort susţinut de înţelegere a trăsăturilor unei alte feţe ale vieţii, exceptând situaţia când „remodelarea” traseului ei are mai mult un caracter formal.

Imaginea care defineşte calitatea vieţii va fi în sfârşit întreagă în funcţie de cum vei interpreta rolul principal în scenariul ei. Vei putea deveni un model pentru care însăşi raţiunea de a fi o reprezintă amestecul dintre fericire şi suferinţă - două regiuni apropiate care reflectă bine „lumina”, doar dacă reuşeşti să te apropii de ceea ce nu poate fi înţeles cu gândul, ci doar stors şi vlăguit cu altceva. Cu căldura sufletească.

În leadership, care face loc unei implicări în viaţa plină de forţă şi motivare, prin eliberarea de teama că pierzi ceva lăsându-te să fii ceea ce eşti cu adevărat în decursul ei, se evidenţiază contradicţiile şi oscilaţiile propriei fiinţe supuse unei legi oarbe – bazate pe fericire şi suferinţă, suflet şi minte.

De fapt, în leadership acestea trebuie să se combine şi să se completeze în perspectiva unei aşteptări împlinite, în deplina ta înţelepciune şi manifestare emoţională - ce tind să exercite, una faţă de cealaltă, o funcţie corectivă, în vederea diminuării unor aprecieri aspre, sau chiar negative, legate de ceea ce ai fi putut fi, dar nu ai fost.

Leadershipul este trăsătura suverană a vieţii, accentuarea unei stări afective pozitive, din care izvorăşte condiţia de maxim a puterii a omului care ştie că adevărata stea norocoasă apare ca o recunoaştere a unităţii în lumea dualităţii.

Răsplată sau pedeapsă, îmi primesc destinul aduce în prim plan sentimentul unei implicări în existenţa conectată la altcineva, prin fericire sau suferinţă, prin conştiinţă sau prin energie emoţională.

Întotdeauna cele mai relevante experienţe sunt legate de ceea ce interpretezi în varianta definirii personale, privită ca o coregrafie a stărilor de spirit provocate în ceilalţi, dar trăite personal la nivelul unei „lumini” de veghe.

Rătăcire în căutarea adevărurilor ascunse

On Ianuarie 14, 2016

Depăşeşte limita cunoașterii imediate, învăţând să te priveşti din perspectiva lucrurilor pe care le respingi.

Realitatea însăşi se conforma bănuielilor mele îndreptate către efectele unei magii desprinse dintr-un soi de update al nebuniei de mă contopi cu altcineva, hrănită din cunoaşterea unor relaţii, legi şi principii cauzale şi non-cauzale care aveau mereu farmec. Tindeam să cred că nu voi ajunge niciodată să le dau de cap.

Sigur că totul s-ar fi putut dovedit o utopie, până la sfârşit, dacă setea desprinsă din dorința de a mă induce în stare de confuzie, astfel încât să-mi croiesc mai uşor drum prin noile moduri de a fi şi de a părea, nu era prompt-combătută. Încă o dată am înţeles că trebuie să învăţ să văd dincolo de aparenţe, ca să pot afla mai multe lucruri interesante din arhivele unor reprezentări contradictorii ale posibilului şi imposibilului, care alternează între ele.

Promovarea unei viziuni şi a unei noi înţelegeri a realităţii îmi dădea curajul să-mi cizelez acele teorii-imagini, concepţii-cadru nu doar despre mine şi relevanţa a ceea ce mă despărţea de ce voiam să devin din perspectiva unei abordări neliniare a fenomenelor de corelare a cunoştinţelor. Ci mai ales despre ceea ce se cerea a fi explicat în faţa argumentelor rațiunii subiective de care făceam uz.

Leadership: Totalitatea experienţelor tale de interpretare a fenomenelor de alteritate ţi-au dezvoltat capacitatea de a detecta tipare, de a raţiona deductiv şi de a gândi logic, în termeni de analogii cu situaţiile în care te regăseşti drept un simbol al uniunii contrariilor?

Celebrul scriitor Umberto Eco mărturisea în romanul "Pendulul lui Foucault: "Am început să mă las legănat de simțul asemănării: orice putea să aibă misterioase analogii cu orice. Când m-am întors în Europa, am transformat această metafizică într-o mecanică, și de aceea am nimerit fără veste în capcana în care mă găsesc acum. De atunci m-am învârtit într-un crepuscul în care se anulau diferențele."

Categoric, simţeam o legătură invizibilă între mine şi o experiență trăită prin elanul dezvoltatorilor de noi moduri de gândire, asemenea unui actor ce vrăjeşte miile de spectatori entuziaşti cu trăirea intensă a stărilor sufleteşti. Lucrurile respinse de mine erau confirmarea unei realităţi pe care nu o înţelegeam, amestecuri de elemente cu semnificaţii aparte, concrete sau abstracte, ce puteau fi corelate sau apropiate pe baza unor criterii de asemănare sau de contrast, de continuitate sau discontinuitate.

Alteritatea care îmi accentua unicitatea era o combinaţie dintre capacitatea de a vedea dincolo de aparenţe şi puterea de a vedea dincolo de ceea ce raţiunea şi evidenţa îmi oferea. Eram efectul asemănării dintre două personaje asemănătoare, dar diferite prin modul de reacţie a elementelor cu semnificaţii aparte: unul care îşi asumă toate difersificarile realităţii şi unul care îşi doreşte să afle adevărul prin ascunderea realităţii.

Credeam că trebuie să mă transform într-un simbol al uniunii contrariilor în termeni de analogii cu situaţiile în care mă regăseam, ca să devin stăpân pe toate poziţiile gândirii faţă de obiectele din jur. Tot ce se afla în jurul meu, întrepătrunzându-se cu o realitate care se extindea de la zi la zi într-o lume în continuă mişcare, căpăta valenţe de metaforă, de premoniţie, de opera de artă, ca un fel de călătorie iniţiatică şi ritualică într-un univers fantastic.

Construcţia unei identităţi distincte este rezultatul unei experienţe integratoare care adună toate lucrurile într-un punct al interpretării pe care o dai sensului vieţii.

Ceea ce într-un loc lucrurile mi se revelau drept un important ghid de orientare printre cele mai importante preocupări ale filosofiei, în alt loc ele mi se revelau drept o manifestare evidentă a ideii de eternitate. Ceea ce un lucru semnifica prin analogie într-un anumit tip de relaţie cu realitatea, un altul îmi displăcea fiindcă dovedea cât de mult fusese părtaș la emoțiile mele.

Dacă aş fi renunţat la tot ceea ce implica acea magie îndoielnică, cuprinzând ghicitul unor elemente ce încă nu se manifestaseră, doar dacă le pătrundeam meditativ prin aduceri aminte şi gânduri nespuse, ştiind cum să mă privesc din absenţa a ceea ce eram, cu siguranţă nu aş fi reuşit să mă înfăţişez ca o lume nouă.

Nu mi-a rămas, acum, când totul cade sub semnul îndoielii şi a variaţiilor logice, decât să-mi pun aceleaşi întrebări la care nu putea răspunde şeicul Ahmed Nurudin: "Ce fel de lumină sunt eu? Prin ştiinţă? Prin povaţa înaltă? Prin inima curată? Printr-o cale dreaptă? Prin credinţa nestrămutată?"

Adevărul ascuns pe care doar creatorii îl scot la lumină este o confirmare a lucrurilor pe care le deja le ştii, dar care capătă o semnificaţie aparte în funcţie de însemnătatea pe care le-o dai şi în funcţie de concluziile pe care le tragi despre natura şi cauzele lor. Adevărul ascuns al lucrurilor este ponderea dominantă a unei semnificaţii în raport cu cealaltă, semnificaţie pe care numai tu poţi să o atribui lucrurilor în funcţie de cum se desfăşoară ele în viaţa ta.

A căuta sensul unei noi realităţi prin observarea şi redefinirea tuturor lucrurilor din jur înseamnă de fapt să justifici o activitate care îţi poate schimba viziunea despre ceea ce credeai că ştii şi, mai presus de toate, despre cât de mult te-ai înşelat în privinţa a ceea ce ai lăsat să treacă de filtrul primei impresii.

Rătăcirea în căutarea adevărurilor ascunse nu este niciodată zadarnică, mai ales dacă se concretizează într-un spaţiu al ideilor care asigură o perspectivă nouă asupra lumii, vieţii şi propriei persoane. Nu uita că adormirea într-o convingere închipuită poate fi începutul unei transpuneri în realitate a unor idei de progres.

În fiecare moment din viaţă eşti creaţia realităţii la care aderi.

Rătăcirea lui Luke

Descifrează sensul propriei tale valori şi sensul propriei tale evoluţii dând acţiunilor tale o anumită semnificaţie care să nu fie în discordanţă cu conştiinţa ta.

Ai văzut filmul " Cool Hand Luke (1967) "? Personajul principal, Luke, interpretat de celebrul actor Paul Newman, este condamnat la doi ani de închisoare pentru devastarea proprietăţii publice în stare de avansată ebrietate. În timpul detenţiei el declanşează o serie întreagă de acte de nesupunere şi sfidare. Dar lucrul cel mai grav pe care l-a săvârşit, din cauza căruia a stârnit ura şi dispreţul oficialilor închisorii şi gardienilor, au fost încercările sale (eşuate) de evadare.

La un moment dat, după cea de-a doua evadare, Luke ajunge într-un mic sat de la marginea oraşului. Poliţia era pe urmele lui. Câinii de vânătoare îi luaseră urma. Trebuia să se ascundă. Trebuia să facă tot posibilul să-şi piardă urmele. Pentru asta el a împrăştiat pe drum, în urma sa, condimente picante precum chilli, piper, curry, etc., reuşind astfel să le altereze câinilor simţul olfactiv, putând astfel să-şi continue fuga.

Dar de fiecare dată Luke este prins, în ciuda numeroaselor sale încercări de păcălire a poliţiei. În final el realizează că evadările sunt în zadar, şi că existenţa unui om va fi întotdeauna pusă sub semnul întrebării dacă nu se schimbă el însuşi… în bine.

Leadership: Eşti genul de om care îşi caută desăvârşirea în glorificare şi în folosirea mijloacelor de senzaţional, prin prisma subiectivă a unui personaj (cu rol de focalizator intern) capabil să captiveze lumea cu o poveste care alunecă imperceptibil în fantastic?

Fiecare dintre noi ajunge la un moment dat să gândească precum un fugar, ca Luke, respectiv să se simtă, precum o victimă neputincioasă care se zbate pentru libertatea, demnitatea şi fericirea ei. Vrem să ne ştergem urmele propriilor noastre fapte atunci când greşim, şi să devenim altcineva. Vrem să ne schimbăm situaţia în care singuri ne-am băgat, vrem să scăpăm de conştiinţa care ne tulbură - de acest urmăritor incomod care este mereu pe urmele noastre şi vrea să ne încolţească. Dar cu toate acestea nu putem scăpa niciodată de propriile noastre bariere, de acele stări sufleteşti care ne strică armonia interioară. Totul lasă urme vizibile în propria noastră fiinţă, oricât de mult am încerca să ne schimbam. Căci atunci când greşim nu mai putem trăi în linişte şi virtute.

Ascultă-ţi inima. Meditează asupra propriei tale persoane, asupra propriilor tale fapte, străduieşte-te să recunoşti stimulii emoţionali ce contribuie la dezvoltarea ta, asupra sensului drumului pe care îl urmezi în viaţă. Fă-ţi bilanţul existenţei tale. Încearcă să te înţelegi. Îţi scapă viaţa printre degete? Sau viaţa ta înseamnă să fugi mereu şi să-ţi ascunzi urma propriilor tale alegeri?

Bilanţul, care cuprinde multe şi esenţiale victorii, dar şi eşecuri, îţi redeschide porţile către propria ta regăsire, te pune în faţa consecinţelor unor experienţe pe care le-ai trăit anterior, fie pozitive, fie negative, determinându-te să îţi reevaluezi felul în care îţi canalizezi energiile şi îţi exprimi sinele, fără să te înstrăinezi de ceilalţi din jurul tău. Nu poţi învinge greutăţile vieţii prin ironie.

Leadership: Te concentrezi asupra sensului drumului pe care îl urmezi în viaţă, dând la o parte acea latură sensibilă din tine care îşi revarsă toată atenţia spre ceea ce se numește "substituirea personajului" ?

A da la o parte acea latură sensibilă din tine care îşi revarsă toată atenţia spre ceea ce se numește "substituirea personajului", înseamnă să renunţi la acel Ego care încearcă să învingă mereu pe alţii printr-o dublă opoziţie: prin raportare la o experienţă definită a actului moral şi prin raportare la o realitare care are toate şansele să se transforme în legendă.

Practic, să-ţi substitui identitatea cu o altă persoană care este demnă de un personaj de film, înseamnă să te implici sufleteşte într-o poveste care nu este a ta, o poveste care pornește din real, spre a trece în vis, pentru a reveni din nou într-o lume aparent reală. Tu poţi să joci rolul unui personaj care îşi demonstrează talentul de a transmite emoții și de a face cititorul să trăiască întreaga poveste cu sufletul la gură, fără să creezi din realitate iluzia unei existenţe mai frumoase şi mai apropiată de idealul unei libertăţi depline?

Ca să devii un lider bun, mai întâi de toate trebuie să te afli în armonie cu tine însuţi şi cu realităţile din jur. Existenţa ta, concepţiile şi valorile tale, vor avea o mai mare influenţă în determinarea evoluţiei tale. De caracterul tău, de emoţiile şi sentimentele ce emană din manifestările tale, din atitudinea ta, depinde evoluţia ta morală şi existenţa ta in general, determinând reacţia celorlalţi la tine şi implicit la rezultatele pe care le obţii sau la lipsa lor.

Aşa cum un regizor care doreşte să realizeze un film biografic caută mai întâi să descifreze sensul, semnificaţia acţiunilor personajului, tot aşa şi tu, dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să capete esenţă şi să aibă un impact pozitiv şi cât mai puternic asupra celorlalţi oameni, mai întâi trebuie să descifrezi sensul propriei tale existenţe, sensul propriei tale valori, sensul propriei tale evoluţii dând acţiunilor tale o anumită semnificaţie care să nu fie în discordanţă cu conştiinţa ta.

Un personaj cu rol de focalizator intern, pe care trebuie să-l construieşti de la zero, este rezultatul unui Ego care nu a fost modificat de influenţa lumii exterioare, şi care nu poate fi redus la raporturi directe cu conţinutul realităţii vizibile. În acest caz, Egoul tău este un personaj care caută să facă din viaţă o operă de artă, continuând să uimească chiar şi atunci când nimeni nu-l vede.

Rătăcirea lui Luke scoate în evidenţă modul în care simţim şi maniera în care acţionăm atunci când suntem puşi în situaţii de viaţă bulversante, atunci când calea pe care o urmăm face o cotitură bruscă, îndreptându-ne viaţa către nişte valori negative care ne limitează potenţialul, aspiraţiile, acţiunile şi ne blochează evoluţia.

Cineva spunea: "Pe drumul ce îl străbaţi în viaţă, eşti pus în fața consecinţelor unor experienţe pe care le-ai trăit anterior, fie pozitive, fie negative." Dacă vrei să-ţi asiguri un viitor bun, dacă intenţionezi să urci mai sus în ierarhie, atunci evită să te transformi într-o victimă care abia aşteaptă să fie eliberată din limitele modului de viaţă stabilite de ea însăşi. Ci, transformă-te într-o fiinţă mai simţitoare, mai vibrantă, care să fie orientată spre propria evoluţie morală, care să răspundă conştientă şi liberă la propriile sale chemări sufleteşti.

Concluzie: Pentru fiecare dintre noi şi mai ales pentru un lider, este importantă stabilirea unui scop în viaţă. Odată stabilit, trebuie să-ţi alegi căile cele mai scurte şi mai drepte de a ajunge la el. Pe parcursul acestora trebuie să faci din când în când câte o oprire şi să vezi dacă nu te-ai rătăcit, dacă nu ai ajuns pe alte căi ocolitoare, mai lungi, şi chiar pe căi care te îndepărtează de scopul propus.

Cu cât eşti mai riguros cu tine însuţi, cu atât te apropii mai mult de ţelul tău. Cu cât acţionezi în discordanţă cu tine şi cu ceilalţi, cu atât îţi lungeşti drumul spre atingerea ţelului.

Cei ce nu şi-au stabilit scopul în viaţă sau au preferat să fie nişte rătăcitori aflaţi în bătaia furtunilor vieţii, vor constata spre sfârşitul vieţii lor ca au trăit degeaba şi că existenţa lor nu a avut nici un sens.

Raza de lumină din împărăţia întunericului

On Octombrie 23, 2010

Reliefează latura pozitivă a personalităţii tale, proiectând adevăratele tale valori şi viziuni asupra celorlalţi.

- Să piară, căci numai atunci se va prăbuşi mai repede regimul ala nelegiuit ! rosti făţiş un reprezentând sârb la Geneva, cu privire la prizonierii din Rusia pentru care marele explorator şi diplomat, Fridtjof Nansen, întreprinse toate demersurile ca să-i elibereze. Era evident că diplomaţii europeni urau sistemul rusesc.

Dar Nansen, prin venele căruia curgea sânge de învingător şi de erou, nu se lasă cu una cu două, ci aruncă din nou lancea. El transmise un mesaj care menit să ajungă direct la inima acestor oameni ce urmau politica "scării de serviciu":

- Oare putem îngădui iernii să înăbuşe pe veci glasurile acestor milioane care strigă după ajutorul nostru? Mai e timp, dar mult timp nu mai avem de pierdut ! … În numele omeniei, în numele a tot ce e nobil şi a tot ce ne este sfânt, apelez la voi – care aveţi şi voi soţii şi copii - să vă gândiţi bine la ceea ce înseamnă a lăsa pradă foamei pe soţii şi copii. Conjur guvernele, popoarele Europei, chem în ajutor lumea întreagă. Grăbiţi-vă, înainte de a fi prea târziu pentru căinţă !

Chiar dacă a fost acuzat neîncetat de o bună parte a presei mondiale că ar fi bolşevic, spion şi vândut ruşilor, Nansen a primit până la urmă ajutorul mult dorit.

În anii 1920 şi 1921, Nansen a readus la casele lor o jumătate de milion de prizonieri, şi a smuls din ghearele foamei mai multe milioane de oameni din Rusia; în 1922 a condus schimbul unui milion de refugiaţi greco-turci; în 1923 a asigurat transportul deportaţilor bulgari în Tracia, apoi reîntoarcerea a trei sute de mii de Armeni împrăştiaţi. *****

Leadership: Un loc aparte în rândul dimensiunilor credinţei tale îl ocupă impactul major al percepţiei despre viaţă, reflectată asupra unei forme determinate de activitate pe care Egoul o taxează ca fiind o soluţie de "compromis"?

Dintotdeauna specialiştii sau numai simplii iubitori ai fotbalului şi-au pus această întrebare, cu scopul de a-şi lămuri opţiunea pro sau contra. În favoarea cărei opţiuni pledezi tu? Gândeşte-te bine. Căci dacă înclini balanţa exclusiv în favoarea fotbalului pe goluri poţi fi acuzat de oricine că te aliniezi la frontul celor care, indiferent de calitatea jocului, practicând chiar şi antijocul, nu urmăresc decât victoria cu orice preţ şi prin orice mijloace.

Exact în această situaţie a fost pus Nansen. Opţiunea lui a înclinat balanţa în favoarea oamenilor nevoiaşi, stârnind astfel proteste, furie, din partea celor care aveau alte orientări, alte priorităţi, alte mentalităţi referitor la sistemul nelegiuit rusesc.

Credinţa lui nu a fost limitată de influenţă negativă asupra percepţiei riscului pe care îl presupunea implicarea personală într-un cadru nefavorabil al războiului. El nu a permis ca omenirea să fie un loc al haosului, ci a demonstrat deschidere și atitudine pozitivă faţă de misiune, faţă de schimbare, faţă de propria conştiinţă şi faţă de reînnoire, faţă de posibilitatea de a coopera cu mişcarea politică.

Adevărata credinţă este vocea clarităţii morale într-un timp al războiului.

Leadership: Pentru ca o imagine să devină memorabilă ea trebuie să fie văzută şi simţită în mod direct, fără intermedierea inutilă a unui proces de condiţionare !

Iar opţiunea pe care o exprimă oamenii în legătură cu fotbalul, se aseamănă întrucâtva cu opţiunea pe care Nansen a selectat-o ca fiind cea mai importantă în acele vremuri. În consecinţă a fost criticat, bombardat cu acuzaţii, ironizat şi jignit.

Dar Nansen a dat dovadă mereu că are un caracter deosebit, dublat de un simţ al eticii, al valorilor şi al dorinţei de a face viaţa celor nevoiaşi mai bună. Acuzaţiile care întotdeauna i s-au adus nu i-au afectat caracterul dârz. El a continuat lupta. Mai întâi lupta cu sine însuşi, oscilând în jurul unui anumit punct, în funcţie de numeroasele influenţe cărora a fost supus – acel punct în care regretele s-au adunat şi bucuriile nu mai existau... la un punct în care sufletul său bun, dezamăgit, trist, singuratic, a învins în lupta cu raţiunea celorlalţi.

Care este efectul leadershipului produs de tine? Are o durată lungă? Tu te deosebeşti de acei lideri incapabili, care se mulţumesc cu "onoarea" de a ocupa această ierarhie, şi al căror leadership produce doar un efect "placebo"? Arată celorlalţi cine eşti tu cu adevărat. Pune-ţi sufletul la încercare, până când cauza dreaptă pe care o susţii şi pentru care te zbaţi, va învinge.

Influenţa contextuală asupra percepţiei mesajului care este transmis lumii întregi poate să diagnosticheze natura unui lider: el nu renunţă niciodată la şansa de a lupta şi de a fi puternic, el nu renunţă la şansa de a da dovadă de măreţie.

Şi, să mai ştiţi un lucru: The chance of being selected as a leader is equal for everyone.

Raza de lumină din împărăţia întunericului este singura cale prin care poţi ajunge la esenţa a ceea ce eşti tu cu adevărat. Pune în evidenţă latura umană a personalităţii tale care se opune oricărei gândiri negative care te distrage de la valorile tale cele mai profunde. Cunoaşterea propriei tale fiinţe este o luptă permanentă cu tine însuţi, pe care o poţi câştiga numai dacă îţi aperi propriile convingeri şi credinţe, care îţi susţin rolul şi îţi întăresc relaţiile cu ceilalţi.

Cunoaşte-te pe tine însuţi şi-i vei putea cunoaşte pe ceilalţi. Cunoaşterea de sine şi cunoaşterea celorlalţi este raza de lumină din împărăţia întunericului dominată de indiferenţă, nepăsare, neştiinţă, răutate şi răzbunare.

Prin pozitivismul personalităţii tale vei putea să domini pozitivismul celorlalţi, care trebuie stimulat adecvat pentru a deveni un fel de "modus operandi" pozitiv, permanent. Reliefează latura pozitivă a personalităţii tale, proiectând adevăratele tale valori şi viziuni asupra celorlalţi.

Concluzie: Toţi oamenii au convingeri şi credinţe diferite şi cu cât ele sunt mai puţin ferme, cu atâta ei sunt mai manipulabili, înclinând şi aderând mai repede şi mai uşor de partea unuia sau altuia, aşa zis lider.

Un lider adevărat, cu idei progresiste, înzestrat cu un pozitivism al gândirii şi care are ca scop îndeplinirea obiectivelor bazate pe respectarea demnităţii umane, va putea să-i orienteze pe oameni mai uşor în favoarea sa şi a ideilor sale, făcând de încline balanţa de partea lui, în defavoarea acelora care umilesc idealurile umane, care nu se pricep la altceva decât la a pune beţe în roate, la a sabota şi încetini evoluţia normală spre progres şi prosperitate.

Încearcă să descoperi adevărata cauză a tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, fără să cazi pradă tendinţei de auto-devalorizare.

Îndelungi cazne şi chinuitoare aşteptări scot la iveală, ca într-o naştere grea, adevăratele trăiri ale Laurei Quinn. De aici încolo, într-un răstimp uimitor de scurt, într-o încordare de voinţă şi printr-o concentrare extraordinară, se petrece marea dramă a sufletului ei, marea ciocnire între particulele încărcate cu sarcini opuse într-un câmp de mare intensitate.

"De ce? De ce m-am aliat cu domnul Hobbs? Sunt un complice ! Sunt vinovată ! Voi ajunge după gratii ! Dumnezeu mă va pedepsi ! Pot să negociez să scap din asta. O să mă duc la Ashcroft să-i ofer diamantele furate în schimbul libertăţii noastre ! "

Decât să trăiască neîncetat infernul lui Dante, mai bine intră de bunăvoie în purgatoriu, împinsă de sentimentul de vinovăţie, sperând că va scăpa cu sufletul neîntinat.

Ea simte această „cosmică interconectare", ştie că omul care a pornit pe căi greşite tot mai are în suflet o rază de soare, o urmă de mea culpa, şi astfel e mai aproape de adevăratul slujitor al lui Dumnezeu care se căieşte. Decât acele fiinţe care îşi continuă trendul descendent, decât acei oameni reci, cu inimă dură, îngheţată, a căror acţiuni le diminuează stima de sine, îngreunându-le semnificativ ieşirea la liman.

În profunzimea ei, Laura Quinn posedă însuşirea superioară de a se căi, de a se corecta. Energia impetuoasă, rău folosită şi rău canalizată, învaţă să o stăpânească în numele adevărului, prin Duhul Sfânt primit la renaşterea ei. Prin formula sacră, înţeleasă sincer doar de sufletul ei neprihănit: " I am truly sorry for myself ", găseşte circumstanţe atenuante, menţinându-şi în acest fel stima de sine.

Leadership: Te manifeşti în exerciţiul propriei temporalităţi ca un fenomen de individualizare pe termen lung a cărui esenţă este de a arăta cum conţinutul experienţei tale trebuie să prezinte o însemnătate a săvârşirii unei abateri de la linia firescului?

Materia luminoasă rezultă din materia întunecată. Laura are o nouă însemnătate în paralelogramul forţelor destinului: de a fi purtătoarea unei profunde spiritualităţi, de unde ea extrage esenţialul pentru structurarea unei noi configuraţii a conştiinţei sale. Lumina, fenomenul care face vizibilă lumea dinăuntrul ei, îi modifică în profunzime starea de spirit. Iar această lumină, atât de naturală, lovind-o direct ca un fulger în noapte, vine de-a dreptul de la singura sursă care o produce, mai darnică cu părţile proeminenţe ale Eului ei, conştiinţa.

Calde, foarte concentrate de energie în zona care trebuie vindecată, razele de speranţă îi ies în întâmpinare, în timp ce părţile cele mai aride din caracterul ei strâng umbră. Benevolă, trecerea de la zona umbrită la cea luminată, este realizată de o zonă intermediară de semiumbre, regrete combinate cu revolta interioară, cu mila pe care singura şi-o produce. Iar această zonă se reduce cu cât contrastul din partea luminată şi cea umbrită este mai puternic.

Zbuciumata fiinţă câştigă bătălia cu ea însăşi. În inima ei, goală, sfâşiată, sfărâmată în mii de cioburi, topită în remuşcări pline de căinţă, se strecoară delicat o bucurie, abia perceptibilă, dar eliberatoare, răcoritoare şi reînnoitoare: " I'm free, at last. " Conţinutul experienţei sale a început să prezinte o însemnătate a săvârşirii unei abateri de la linia firescului prin faptul că şi-a anulat orice şansă de a reveni la anii întunecaţi ai trecutului când a fost nevoită să accepte o realitate care nu-i confirma dorinţele.

Leadership: Actualizarea preferinţelor tale pentru şansa unui nou început se realizează ca un fenomen de individualizare a propriei imagini, prin intermediul unui determinant de tipul: "Move away from who you have been" ?

Momentele cheie ale existenţei tale sunt susţinute puternic cu argumente contradictorii? Se unesc aceste momente printr-un pod foarte îngust peste care trebuie să treci? Ce anume te poate transforma într-o făptură lipsită de apărare? Ai puterea de a te împotrivi crudei realităţi? Îndelungi cazne şi chinuitoare aşteptări scot la iveală adevăratele tale trăiri? Ai în suflet o rază de soare, o urmă de vină? Posezi însuşirea superioară de a te corecta?

Acordul sau dezacordul cu propria ta fire, atitudinea pe care o adopţi în momentele cheie, piedicile ce le resimţi la nivel de experienţe trăite îşi au izvorul în conştiinţa ta, în ceea ce s-ar putea numi influenţa viitorului asupra prezentului. Un fel de joc dublu în care cei doi adversari, cele două entităţi opuse ale aceleiaşi fiinţe, rămân captive într-o lume nefuncţională, şi care se îmbină într-un singur întreg, înşelător şi riscant: sentimentul de a fi victimă, de a fi părăsit.

În acest caz psihicul tău are de suferit grav. Începi să te simţi furat de o altă realitate, devii tot mai vulnerabil, te acuzi pe tine însuţi. Până să începi să te gândeşti la ce este bine şi ce vrei să schimbi la tine, te laşi purtat de un ritm viaţă tot mai dinamic, dar copleşitor, cu perspective sumbre de viitor. Ca urmare ajungi să te plasezi în jurul bâlbâielilor constante din închisoarea în care tu singur, nestingherit, te închizi.

Omul de afaceri american, faimos pentru îndeplinirea funcției de președinte al Corporației ITT, spunea la un moment dat un lucru memorabil: " Leadership-ul este practicat nu atât de mult în cuvinte, ci în atitudine și în acțiuni. "

Cu tot caracterul pronunţat al tendinţelor tale de dezvoltare, pornind de la particularitățile propriei tale personalităţi, numai cele progresiste sunt neîndoielnic dominante, fireşte numai la scara specifică şirului tău de valori pe axa timpului.

Leadership: Cum crezi că eşti evaluat pentru felul de a te angaja în lupta împotriva unui inamic ascuns, considerând faptul că modul de concepere a lucrurilor şi a lumii depind de imaginea pe care ţi-o sugerează o alegere de moment?

Poţi înţelege mai bine leadershipul datorită luminilor pe care le proiectezi chiar tu asupra lui. Ce fel de lumini proiectezi asupra leadershipului? Acele lumini care te împiedică să vezi un pic mai clar cine eşti cu adevărat? Acele lumini care te transpun într-o stare de inacceptare şi nefericire?

Leadershipul poate arunca, cu mare gravitate, lumini necruţătoare asupra tuturor aspectelor care pot exercita o dominare totală asupra omului. Iar aşa cum citeam undeva pe internet, omul, articulând valorile în existenţa sa şi în fluxul realităţii, îşi articulează totodată existenţa într-un angrenaj al devenirii precare uneori, manifestată prin tendinţa de a rămâne în urmă faţă de tot ceea ce-l defineşte.

Leadershipul monitorizează anumite constante umane. Mai întâi de toate se face simţit în dorinţa intimă de a te autoevalua, apoi în maniera în care te priveşti tu însuţi, şi devine crucial în maniera în care te percep toţi ceilalţi din jur.

Prin aceste considerente leadershipul, vibrând puternic pe cea mai înaltă treaptă a existenţei tale, devine bun sau rău. Un proces de răcire a zonei care te formează, un simptom de îmbolnăvire. Sau o alternativă care te avantajează, un fenomen care face vizibilă lumea dinăuntrul tău, modificându-ţi în mod corespunzător, ca un motor bine uns, starea de spirit.

După cum alchimistul, din sânul a ceea ce este solid sau neutru, trebuie să desprindă substanţa pe care o va duce cu răbdare, prudenţă, spre transmutaţia ei perfectă, tot astfel şi tu, ca să nu transformi leadershipul într-un prilej de resemnare, trebuie să desprinzi corzile care te țin pe loc, prizonier într-o realitate umbrită de însăşi dorinţele tale de ascensiune.

A te angaja în lupta împotriva unui inamic ascuns înseamnă să conştientizezi ca varianta ta superioară de a fi poate constitui primul pas către învingerea ta, în special din punct de vedere al tendinţei de a alege o recompensă mai mare tardivă în locul uneia imediate.

Razele calde ale asfinţitului reflectă modul în care te armonizezi cu propria ta fiinţă, cu propriul tău caracter, în acele situaţii incerte când lucrurile se complică, în acele situaţii în care trebuie să-ţi exprimi acordul faţă de ceea ce se va întâmpla dacă nu reuşeşti să-ţi demonstrezi vitalitatea. Totodată desemnează acea emoţie electrizantă, binefăcătoare, care te fortifică chiar şi în momentele de deznădejde, când cazi în spirala mohorâtă a patimilor.

Nu uita niciodată vorba aia: „ Atunci când cazi în gol, ai credinţa că acolo jos Dumnezeu te va prinde ."

Câştigă bătălia cu tine însuţi. Revendică-ţi drepturile şi spune “NU” oricărei tentative de a intra în zona întunecoasă a leadershipului. Fereşte-te de a aluneca în mod periculos în extrema opusă libertăţii fără margini. Păzeşte-ţi inima de orice remuşcări. Umple-ţi sufletul de acea bucurie imensă, răcoritoare şi reînnoitoare, exprimată prin cuvintele: “ I'm free, at last. ”

Încearcă să descoperi adevărata cauză a tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, fără să cazi pradă tendinţei de auto-devalorizare.

Razele calde ale asfinţitului (I)

Desprinde-te de ceea ce are un efect advers asupra clarităţii orientării tale, concentrându-te mai mult pe câştigarea acceptării tale ca individ autonom.

Nu ştia de ce îi era mai groază. Că va ajunge să-l urască pe domnul Hobbs, sau că va ajunge să se urască pe sine? Acesta era momentul cheie al existenţei Laurei Quinn, susţinut cu argumente contradictorii, un pod foarte îngust peste care trebuia să treacă încet, fără să se întâmple vreun accident. Un Upside Down enervant o desprindea tot mai mult de persoana ei. Accentuarea tendinţei de a se accepta cu toate defectele ei, sau de a se împotrivi ei însăşi de-a lungul drumului spre îndeplinirea scopurilor.

Laura Quinn, din filmul „Flawless (2007)", este una din acele făpturi lipsite de apărare, extrase parcă din romanele lui Dostoievski, despre care nu poţi spune că le urăşti sau le iubeşti, dar care prin blândeţea, prin sfiala lor, prin puterea lor de a se împotrivi crudelor realităţi, te invită la reflecţie, inspirându-ţi un sentiment profund, un soi de conştiinţă, un nou mod de a te privi pe tine însuţi.

Şi, fără să-ţi dai prea bine seama de ce, trăsăturile definitorii ale acestei fiinţe, măreţia acestui spirit - superior prin căldura pe care o răspândeşte în jur, compasiunea, stima, mărinimia, iertarea, toate aceste mici fragmente existenţiale care adunate într-un singur moment devin comoara cea mai de preţ, te urmăresc multă vreme şi până la urmă te leagă pe nesimţite de lumea ei.

Începi să simţi, să te gândeşti la ce este bine şi ce vrei să schimbi în viaţa ei, te laşi purtat de povestea ei, de ritmul ei de viaţă copleşitor, de perspectivele ei de viitor. Până ce ajungi să te plasezi în jurul bâlbâielilor constante din închisoarea în care ea singură, nestingherită, se închide şi zace acolo fără odihnă. Cum poţi să abandonezi această aprofundare analitică a acestei conştiinţe frânte?

Leadership: Îţi faci datoria de "verdict corect al unui destin solemn", detaşându-te de satisfacţia de a ridica trofeul lipsei de sens deasupra a tot ceea ce te leagă de viaţă?

Atitudinea faţă de cunoaştere a sinelui, într-un aşa numit "timp de persistenţă" (pentru o durată relativ scurtă), este importantă în explicarea eşecului spiritual, pus pe seama condiţiei de producere a unui stil de viaţă care nu maximizează marja de preferinţe a individului. Dar asta, în limitele unei obiectivităţi autoimpuse care se descoperă puţin câte puţin în contextul împlinirii personale nerealizabile pe deplin.

Cheia întregului proces de finisare a sinelui, care pune leadershipul sub unghiul unei lupte cu nonsensul, cu haosul, cu elementele vitale primejduite, aduce în conştiinţă atât uşa ce se deschide, cât şi cea ferecată, iar realizarea devine substitut al cheii. Amândouă uşile fac trecerea spre o maturitate intelectuală şi o desăvârşire ca fiinţă umană. Rămâne la latitudinea fiecăruia ce uşă alege să deschidă.

Anthony Silard, preşedintele al The Center for Social Leadership, spunea la un moment dat: "Ca să devii o persoană integră, trebuie să iei mingea şi s-o aşezi înapoi unde îi este locul, adică în tine." În acest context, mingea are semnificaţia unei asumări de responsabilitate faţă de modul cum te conduci singur pe calea vieţii, a unei continuităţi a gândirii care se adresează sieşi, exprimate în exerciţiul critic al raţiunii, folosit preponderent ca ipostază a descătuşării de limitele convingerilor adânci şi statornice.

Leadershipul are în centrul său convingerile puternice, mai ales modul în care stăpâneşti şi înţelegi emoţiile. Atunci când îţi evaluezi şansele de a în armonie cu tine însuţi, fă în aşa fel încât toate mingile să strălucească.

Verdict corect al unui destin solemn ia în considerare puterea omului de a-şi forma un ideal înalt chiar în mijlocul unei vieţi triste, fără să renunţe la ipostaza de erou al unei odisei care îl ţine conectat într-o permanentă fascinaţie.

Cu cât te concentrezi mai mult pe câştigarea acceptării tale ca individ autonom, ca om care se bizuie numai pe propriile puteri, cu atât te poţi împăca cu ideea de a fi o fiinţă superioară. Depăşirea vulnerabilităţii de a nu avea un reazăm la greu (ceea ce determină canalizarea întregii atenţii spre un ritm de viaţă copleşitor), este posibilă numai prin desprinderea de ceea ce ai fost sau de ceea ce crezi că eşti, prin reinventare, prin extinderea "mişcării" de a fi tu.

Semnificația pe care o dai cunoaşterii şi reuşitei de sine, intensificată în depozitul temporar al energiei psihice şi al sensibilităţii, este hotărâtoare în atingerea unei stări de plenitudine. Construcţia acestei stări, care se poate concretiza într-o atitudine mai îndrăzneaţă, este însă dependentă de mediul social de origine, de trecutul tău personal, de modul de reacţie la întâlnirea cu vicisitudinile inerente existenţei de zi cu zi, cu munca orientată spre un scop, etc.

Leadershipul este o obligaţie faţă de autoritatea morală şi emoţională pe care trebuie să ţi-o asumi ca atare, concepută şi impusă într-un mod autentic. Interacţiunea între dimensiunea care îţi particularizează personalitatea şi dimensiunea care îţi caracterizează existenţa, luând totodată în considerare dimensiunea ta de produs intelectual, dă naştere formei celei mai înalte de trăire, acelor mini-formaţiuni temporale limitate la relaţiile dintre mediu şi timp. Simţi împlinirea prin ceea ce trăieşti, nu prin ceea ce eşti.

Orientarea omului spre un nou început de viaţă depinde de calitatea a ceea ce îl inspiră să facă alegerile care reflectă adevăratul sine, fără să slujească unui trecut sau prezent care nu mai vrea să treacă.

Razele calde ale asfinţitului simbolizează aspectele vieţii în care întâmpini dificultăţi, impunându-ţi să iei decizii pe care, poate, nu eşti pregătit să le suporţi. Dar aşa cum într-un tablou, trăsăturile expresive ale fizionomiei sunt evidenţiate printr-un puternic joc de umbră si lumină, tot aşa, în viaţa de zi cu zi, calităţile tale de om puternic sunt evidenţiate prin acţiunea de cunoaştere a sinelui şi printr-o activă disponibilitate de cunoaştere a tot ceea ce înseamnă nou şi străin - chiar şi atunci când propriile aşteptări îţi sunt scăzute.

Razele puternice ale influenţei

On Aprilie 10, 2009

Dezvoltă-ţi valoarea personală ancorându-te la dimensiunea leadershipului celui care te îndrumă.

De obicei omul renunţă atunci când vede că eforturile sale nu dau efectul scontat. Alejandro Murrieta dorea cu orice preţ să răzbune moartea fratelui său. Dar chiar înainte să se năpustească asupra căpitanului Harrison Love, un bătrânel i-a tăiat calea, oprindu-l din avântul său prea vijelios.

Chiar atunci, în acel moment primejdios pentru viaţa lui, Alejandro a avut norocul să-l întâlnească pe Don Diego de la Vega (Zorro), care l-a salvat de la o moarte sigură. Acesta i-a spus: „Eşti băut, eşti supărat, nu eşti în stare să te lupţi cu un soldat profesionist…Dacă vrei să te răzbuni, te pot ajuta. Dar acum nu este deloc momentul potrivit să te răzbuni."

Leadership: Consideri că pentru a excela în direcția atingerii unui scop este necesar să te supraevaluezi în modul în care doi artiști de geniu își sincronizează creativitatea, creând o operă unitară și coerentă?

Îţi aminteşti de filmul „ Masca lui Zorro (1998) "? Evenimentele i-au apropiat atât de mult pe Zorro şi pe Alejandro, încât pur şi simplu potrivirea lor - atitudinea lor, modul în care şi-au unit puterile, interesele şi aspiraţiile prin colaborare - a creat pentru un suflet comun, o singură energie, transformându-i într-o unitate indestructibilă. Unitatea de scop și armonia în acțiune sunt esențiale pentru a atinge excelența într-o direcţie în care scopul este mai important decât mijloacele lui de atingere?

Alejandro a preluat de la Zorro esenţialul, şi-a dezvoltat valoarea personală ancorându-se la dimensiunea leadershipului pe care îl practica Zorro. Acesta este unul din secretele succesului. Ca să reuşeşti cu adevărat în leadership trebuie să te uneşti într-o singură fiinţă cu cel care te îndrumă - tot aşa cum doi artişti de geniu îşi sincronizează creaţia atât de perfect de parcă ar acţiona un singur creier. Trebuie să ajungi să te înţelegi cu el fără "jumătăţi de măsură". Intenţiile tale trebuie să corespundă, de fapt, cu ale sale. Leadershipul tău trebuie să fie pătruns de aceeaşi tonalitate de bază ca a lui.

Leadership: Poţi să reconfigurezi o cauză pierdută prin dominarea pasiunilor şi cultivarea libertăţii interioare a unui individ, aşa încât să te interpui într-o realitate care se configurează din fiinţarea însăşi a sinelui ca un drum făcut de unul singur?

În matematică 1 + 1 = 2. Dar în leadership 1 + 1 = Un tot unitar, o singură fiinţă.

Alejandro a ajuns să-l privească pe Zorro "de la egal la egal". Minunea întâlnirii lor a constat tocmai în armonizarea capacităţilor lor. Aşa cum, dincolo de claritate, un regizor urmăreşte la montajul filmului anumite efecte compoziţionale care să-i permită să stabilească o legătură mai apropiată cu spectatorii – tot aşa şi tu, dincolo de calităţile deosebite pe care le ai, trebuie să urmăreşti să adopţi tiparul de gândire şi acţiune al celui care te conduce ca astfel să stabileşti o legătură mai apropiată cu el.

Zorro l-a ajutat pe Alejandro să-şi pună în valoare calităţile, înzestrându-l cu acea putere evident superioară de a vedea mai departe şi mai limpede, datorită căreia - şi doar datorită acestui fapt – el a reuşit să facă acele lucruri care păreau imposibil de făcut, şi să-şi atingă scopurile ce păreau aproape imposibil de atins.

Aşa cum razele soarelui pătrund şi strălucesc prin crengile copacilor, tot aşa influenţa ta poate pătrunde şi străluci în viaţa altora. Dar pentru aceasta oamenii trebuie să te preţuiască la cel mai înalt nivel. Trebuie să recunoască în tine un stil precis de leadership care să poată să umple „golurile" lor, care să-i poată ajuta să-şi dezvolte cu adevărat potenţialul.

A te interpune într-o realitate care se configurează din fiinţarea însăşi a sinelui ca un drum făcut de unul singur, înseamnă să condiţionezi libertatea unui om cu însăşi versiunea ta de realitate, încât ceea ce se va petrece să urmeze coordonatele unei singure meniri: de a genera o singură viziune a aceluiaşi eu asupra individualităţii celuilalt.

Razele puternice ale influenţei sunt date de modalitatea prin care atragi atenţia asupra lucrurilor pe care vrei să le scoţi în evidenţă, şi de contextul care poate stimula motivaţia oamenilor pentru schimbare. Puţine speranţe de progres sunt în echipele în care oamenii nu vor să intre în sfera de influenţă a liderului ales, în acest caz atingerea telurilor comune vă rămâne doar un vis frumos şi utopic.

Concluzie: Un individ este ales ca lider datorită calităţilor sale recunoscute de majoritatea oamenilor care-l înconjoară. Acest lucru presupune acceptarea lui cât şi respectarea strategiei şi a metodelor lui de obţinere a performanţelor. Cei ce l-au ales trebuie pătrundă în sfera lui de influenţă, deci să consimtă să intre într-un proces de dezvoltare şi perfecţionare individuală.

Realitatea din lumea subterană a omului (II)

Înzestrează-ţi abilităţile de conducere cu resursele necesare schimbării, fără să pierzi contactul cu Eu-l tău.

O taină adâncă sălăşluia străină şi sinistră în adâncul sufletului meu, atrăgătoare ca o simţire. Nimic şi nimeni nu avea dreptul să se apropie de ea. Gândul că încercam să cuceresc un teritoriu de necucerit, stârnea în mine sentimentul că fusesem eliberat din cea mai crâncenă detenţie. Eram impulsionat de o nouă provocare. Reveneam în forţă cu o zvâcnire de energie şi chef de viaţă.

Magia, linia cea mai înaltă a conexiunii cu spațiul atemporal al unei eternități private, delimitată de o realitate dinamică, etern vie, spirituală şi materială simultan, se integra cu uşurinţă în viaţa mea. Şuvoaie de imagini, ipostaze, descoperiri revelatorii ţâşneau de peste tot, ca dintr-o reţea cu izvoare cu apă vie ce curgeau neîncetat şi din care puteam să-mi îndestulez sufletul şi aspiraţiile.

Flăcările galbene ale voinţei mele neîmblânzite de a înţelege în ce mod trebuie să scot în evidenţă lumina unei cauzalităţi universale, purificate prin filtrul celor mai aspre raţionamente, se extindeau cu repeziciune în jurul meu. În fiecare lucru pe care îl atingeam sau îl vedeam, în fiecare plimbare pe care o făceam descopeream o nouă realitate care mă făcea tot mai curios, un nou continent, un aprig motiv de explorare. De parcă aş fi fost dominat de o formă de energie supremă care se propaga în toate fibrele fiinţei mele. Eram totalmente supus ei, ca un sclav care se supune ordinelor.

Simţeam că pot comunica la nivel energetic, non-verbal, cu toate lucrurile care-mi ieşeau în cale. Oglinda, aparatul de fotografiat, cărţile, tot ceea ce exista în jurul meu căpăta brusc viaţă, un nou înţeles, o nouă valenţă. Dar în special tot ceea ce era modern sărea în ajutorul meu. Datorită tehnologiei, totul în jur se transforma, prindea o nouă formă, totul se derula în noi coordonate, facilitând înţelegerea şi acceptarea necunoscutei din mine.

Leadership: Cât timp poţi să priveşti o fotografie de departe?

A nu reuşi să te menţii în contact cu tine însuţi, lucru vital în leadership, este ca şi cum ai continua să priveşti o fotografie de departe: nu vei reuşi să observi anumite detalii pe care le-ai vedea de aproape.

La fel ca în fotografie, în sfera dimensiunii psihologice şi spirituale a omului, un singur gând, o singură sforţare de moment pot da naştere unor forme definitive, unor instantanee reprezentative chiar inainte de producerea evenimentului propriu-zis.

Bine observa cineva: pe tărâmul explorării personale fecundaţia adevărată se produce totdeauna numai prin încrucişarea unei idei cu experienţa. Era de ajuns doar cel mai uşor impuls, pentru ca forţa creatoare să se manifeste, pentru ca experienţa mea să se îmbogăţească. Ca apoi ea să se descarce, ca la trecerea unui curent electric, şi mai intens, şi mai profund, în toată amploarea ei.

Am mers pe drumul de munte din faţa mea, efortul era tot mai mare, progresul lent, dar constant. Magia, locul de întâlnire a realului cu irealul, vârful cel mai înalt al artei de a crea noi forme de impact asupra fiinţei umane, trebuia cucerită. Controlată şi apărată. Lucrul sporea din zi în zi şi se strângea tot mai mult în preajma mea ca o pădure, umbrindu-mi orice perspectivă. Era oare o iniţiativă lăudabilă? Era doar un strop de fericire, sau un mănunchi de dorinţe trecătoare? O pasiune arzătoare, un prilej de a evolua? Un efort benefic, sau doar o pierdere de timp?

Călătoria pe care o parcurgi spre aprofundarea cunoaşterii de sine este poza pe care fotograful nu o va face niciodată, dar pe care o "plăteşti" la fiecare tip de apariţie în lume când eşti pus în faţa reluărilor, a stop-cadrelor şi a zoom-ului.

Iar calitatea imaginii de sine pe care ţi-o creezi în această călătorie facilitează accesul la înţelegerea semnificaţiei pe care o are asimilarea experienţei de viaţă în generarea unei noi dimensiuni a deschiderii spre nou.

Într-un fel eram asemenea omului care preferă mai întâi să-şi găsească dragostea, întreţinând-o cu pasiunea cea mai arzătoare, şi abia după aia să facă bani cu nemiluita ca să nu-şi chinuiască cumva sufletul cu ideea că persoana de lângă el îl preferă numai pentru banii săi.

Doream să urc tot mai sus pe creasta ştiinţei, să pot acoperi mai întâi cu forţa magiei toate priveliştile care captează simţurile omeneşti, care zguduie trăirile cele mai fecunde. Apoi să întreţin toate emoţiile pozitive şi negative până în punctul în care orice necunoscută putea fi determinată. Dar fără să-mi chinuiesc cugetul, fără să fac uz de nicio formă de fals.

Leadership: Eşti chemat să atingi acea desăvârşire care dezvăluie esenţa a ceea ce ai învăţat şi trăit?

Celebrul scriitor rus, Lev Tolstoi, scria în memoriile sale: " Ceea ce interesează cu deosebire nu e desăvârşirea la care ajunge cineva, ci felul cum se străduieşte să se desăvârşească. "

Liderii de top se simt în mod deosebit vizaţi de aceste cuvinte. Ei sunt chemaţi să atingă, asemenea sculptorilor care imortalizează în bronz sau în piatră chipuri umane, acea desăvârşire care dezvăluie esenţa a ceea ce au învăţat şi trăit.

Magia pe care o declanşează o experienţă de tipul "learning by feeling and by direct perception" reprezintă aplicarea celor învăţate pe parcursul devenirii în temeiul unei convenţii prin care te angajezi să renunţi la ceea ce te ţine prins în mirajul unei false predestinări ca să descoperi o nouă realitate numită "Lumea mea".

De la "magie" la leadership, drumul dezvoltării şi perfecţionării este lung şi greu. Între aceste momente ale "creaţiei" in singurătate, când pârâiaşul subţire al manifestării potenţialului productiv şerpuieşte între bolovanii cei mai semeţi ai nesiguranţei, sau a lipsei unei direcţii clare, se desfăşoară o muncă nespus de anevoioasă, hotărâtoare pentru atingerea excelenţei.

Totul depinde de felul în care reuşeşti să întreţii aceste calităţi, virtuţi, valori, mici aranjamente de roluri şi de comportamente, astfel încât "magia" să nu se uzeze şi să se risipească în van. Iar alături de ele, fireşte, în cel mai înalt grad, ne interesează etica ta profesională, nivelul de cunoştinţe, condiţia lui de "magician" în lumina făcliei lui, a inspiraţiei, a gândirii, a comunicării, a responsabilităţii.

A asculta de îndrumarea vieţii înseamnă să ajungi la acea înălţime a manifestării propriei individualităţi în scopul realizării sinelui.

Dorința de a adânci, de a experimenta propriile dorințe și sentimente, te va ajuta să identifici scopul suprem în viață - de a fi de folos, onorabil, mărinimos, pentru a face diferenţa între ceea ce trăieşti la nivel interior şi ceea ce trăieşti la nivel de experienţă de învăţare acumulată pe parcursul drumului.

Realitatea din lumea subterană a omului aduce in câmpul atenţiei încercarea de căutare şi de găsire a unor răspunsuri la întrebarea cea mai veche, neelucidată încă pe deplin: „ Cine sunt eu? "

Ca să înţelegi complexitatea fiinţei umane, ca să ai o înrâurire asupra celor din jurul tău, mai întâi cunoaşte-te foarte bine pe tine însuţi.

Pentru un lider este absolut necesar să ştie să pătrundă în lumea interioară şi necunoscută a omului, să treacă de frontierele aparenţelor. Căci omul, această eternă necunoscută, care trebuie să fie descoperită, este imprevizibil şi poate, voluntar sau involuntar, să pericliteze orice... leadership.

Realitatea din lumea subterană a omului (I)

Stimulează-ţi performanţele psihologice prin raportarea la o cunoaştere fertilă, populată de caracteristicile cele mai semnificative ale fiinţei umane.

Dacă drumul acesta are un început, atunci trebuie să aibă şi un sfârşit, îmi ziceam cu o îngăduinţă forţată. Dar sfârşitul nu va fi curând, îmi repeta cu stăruinţă conştiinţa. Căci întunericul devenea tot mai clar, turnul înălţător al inspiraţiei acapara tot mai multe resurse de energie.

Eram prizonier într-o cameră fără ferestre, unde îmi construiam personajele asemenea unui fabricant de păpuşi vii care ştie să aprindă în ele acea scânteie miraculoasă, divină, dătătoare de viaţă, şi care cu puterea unui singur gând poate să le redea simţurile, să le răscolească trăirile aşa cum vântul scutură ramurile copacilor, să le dezlănţuiască, să le inunde într-un imens şuvoi de energie.

Fiecare firicel de sentiment, fiecare val de emoţie se înălţa cutezător, limpede, la un singur semn al voinţei mele. Mi se părea că pot să reglez orice schimbare în lumea neobosită, mereu incitantă, conturată de personajele mele nenumărate. Puteam să montez, să desfac, să repar cu fineţea unui ceasornicar întreg aparatul cugetării şi sensibilităţii lor - ceea ce îmi stârnea cea mai vie curiozitate faţă de esenţa naturii umane !

Leadership: În centrul simţirii tale stă trează acea calitate a conştiinţei de a trece dincolo de suprafaţa aparenţelor şi a discerne direcţia mişcării propriei formări?

Eram un bun observator, mintea mea înregistra automat totul din realitatea cotidiană, atât de precis, atât de minuţios, încât după o scurtă analiză puteam să împodobesc cu elemente obiective tot mai mult realitatea paralelă, a lumii fascinante a magiei care, ca şi iubirea, dădea sens existenţei mele.

Dacă Ulise singur s-a înapoiat din Hades, din lumea subpământeană a întunecimilor, eu mă adânceam tot mai mult în zona tumultoasă, plină de suişuri şi coborâşuri a sufletului şi psihicului uman. Să descopăr, să înţeleg însemnătatea acestor entităţi interdependente, dar după nişte legi mai puţin obişnuite, după nişte principii bine gândite care să-mi întregească totodată raţionamentul şi profunzimea simţirii.

Iar, la fel cum Ulise fusese însoţit de un zeu, eu eram însoţit de demonul cunoaşterii, principalul purtător de cuvânt al tuturor virtuţilor, marele fondator al impulsului pentru creaţie, în lumea accesibilă a imaginaţiei.

Abilitatea de a simţi se conturează prin debutul impulsului de creaţie într-un spaţiu închis în care simţurile îţi sunt răsfăţate de tentaţia de a face o comparaţie între între ceea ce se vede şi ceea ce se păstrează nevăzut.

Formarea mea începea din momentul dobândirii calităţii de observator şi se continua cu identificarea valorii momentului de corelare a artei cu creatorul ei. Receptarea unor noi idei şi concepţii despre propriul Ego, luau forma unei trăiri a originalităţi axate pe ceva pierdut sau durat, asemenea unui vis ce transportă imaginaţia în ţinuturi exotice, marcate de fascinaţia necunoscutului şi de magia depărtării de lume.

Să răzbat mai adânc decât psihologii în lumea subterană a omului. Să cuprind în întregime, ca într-o plasă de pescar, misterul naturii mele adevarate prin rascolirea acelor resurse sufletesti aflate mai curand in adormire decat in proprietatea unei realitati care nu este altceva decat o aparenta.

Să arunc momeala care produce cele mai înalte vibraţii şi să agăţ cele mai fine senzaţii şi percepţii - acesta era planul meu, ideea care stătea la baza creării unui alt sens al vietii, în lumea crepusculară a sufletului şi raţiunii unui personaj care se cere mereu reinventat.

Leadership: Îndeplineşti condiţia ca situarea ta în contextul unei închideri în viaţa privată să capete o formă prin care să fie percepută acea calitate a propriei firi pe care o ignoraseşi?

Cine poate cunoaşte mai bine tainele artei de a conduce, decât omul situat, prin înţelegerea bine fundamentată a naturii umane, prin aderarea sau respingerea tuturor factorilor de influenţă, pe o poziţie foarte înaltă a creaţiei şi maturităţii?

Dar de multe ori creaţia şi maturitatea sunt construcţii destinate staţionării într-o zonă "fără semnal" unde nimeni nu te poate contacta, dar din care poţi vedea totul de la înălţimea propriei experienţe de trăire şi de la înălţimea propriei închipuiri.

Ar greşi amarnic acela care s-ar gândi să vadă într-o casă izolată, într-un loc închis, doar un prilej de evadare din realitatea actuală, deoarece îi scapă prilejul de a-şi întemeia propria lume fantastică în mijlocul unei experienţe de tipul "learning by living deep în thought".

Ca un cititor prins în păienjenişul dramei romanului, silit să ia parte la frământările personajelor, liderul este necontenit prins în procesul de plăsmuire a acelei arte care face loc, în chip implicit, descoperirii sau reînnoirii trăirilor umane - plecând de la perceperea propriilor experienţe şi trăiri. El îşi stimulează performanţele psihologice prin raportarea la o cunoaştere fertilă, populată de acele aspecte ale realităţii extrase din terenul pustiu al propriei închisori imaginare.

A fi izolat într-un colţ de lume este conţinutul unui roman în care autorul se confesează pentru a se putea descifra mai bine, facilitând o detaliere a elementelor care îi compun caracterul.

Realitatea din lumea subterană a omului desemnează trăirile, emoţiile, gândurile şi aspiraţiile, pe care le integrezi în universul tău spiritual. Ca să înţelegi mai bine natura umană şi ca să-ţi extinzi orizontul de percepere a unor stări sufleteşti, trebuie să te integrezi într-o lume izolată din care să extragi cele mai relevante învăţăminte formate la rădăcina fiinţei tale.

Realitatea şi dublura ei imaginară

Ajută-i pe ceilalţi să treacă dincolo de norii confuziei şi să ştie exact cu cine au de a face, construindu-ţi un alibi care să dea dreptate realismului cotidian credibil.

Totul părea a fi cuantificat statistic în viaţa mea, practic totul. Mai puţin acea nevoie împovărătoare de a mă ataşa de lumea ideilor pure, acoperită frecvent de o crustă fină de conştiinţă, căreia nu ştiam să-i calculez maximum de abstracţie posibil ce m-ar fi putut feri de jocul apropierii şi depărtării de vecinătatea fenomenelor provocatoare pentru ştiinţă. Era ca si cand aş fi facut parte dintr-un scenariu de Stephen King, trebuia să trăiesc o realitate pe care unii o consideră superficială sau preferă s-o ignore, în timp ce alţii o experimentează ca pe o sabie a lui Damocles, fără să-i înţeleagă simbolistica puterii, redată într-un mod aparte.

Încrezător, deveneam mai abil în evitarea ambiguităţilor dintre real şi imaginar, dar în acelaşi timp mă transformam într-un stăpânitor al inadmisibilului ştiinţific. Într-un furnizor de algoritmi complecşi cărora numai o scurtă nebunie, numai o utopie le-ar fi putut asigura împlementarea într-o manieră continuă. Dar, oare, corectă, mă întreb?

Ştiinţa este este dublul unei realităţi care depăşeşte imediatul unei vieţi ieşite din norma curentă, care te face să te simţi invincibil în pielea unui personaj născocit pe moment.

Nu-mi plăcea să mă gândesc la mine ca la un jongler al cifrelor, bazându-mi în mare parte existenţa pe locul unde m-aş situa din punct de vedere statistic, umbrit doar de o falsă dezbatere asupra valorii identităţii mele. Ci mai degrabă ca la o marionetă condusă de resortul ideilor de redefinire a ştiinţei, prin potriviri sau combinaţii neaşteptate.

Pentru orice altă mentalitate, ştiinţa mea întreagă era ca o rază de soare ce se strecoară printr-o crăpătură a stâncii. O estimare care ar fi putut, foarte bine, să fie inexactă, căci oferea anumite explicaţii privitoare la variaţia intrărilor de capital ştiinţific extern, dintr-o sursă de înţelegere superioară ca profunzime, într-un punct în care ceilalţi nu erau total de acord.

Căci această ştiinţă făcea lucrurile mult mai complicate şi mai greu de rezolvat. Pornind de la acest cumul de nelămuriri, mecanisme de generare a unor variabile aleatoare care îşi puteau pierde coordonatele prin izolare, asupra mea a început să atârne o bănuială ameninţătoare care tindea asimptotic către certitudine. Transformându-se mai târziu într-o atenţiune care mi-a întărit paşii spre reconstituirea şi reorientarea raţionamentelor.

Salvarea mea era să ezit uneori, să ies din bătaia soarelui, dar să nu renunţ la vis, chiar dacă părea o utopie.

Leadership: Aspiraţiile tale la un ideal de neatins probează vinovăţia ta în faţa lumii în ceea ce priveşte construirea unui scenariu în care trebuie să compari o entitate a gândirii prin interiorizarea acţiunilor reale, cu o reflectare a reacţiilor tale faţă de lumea înconjurătoare?

Meciurile deschise, în care echipele " ştiinţă " şi " realitate " se confruntă în mod frecvent în opera de artă a liderului, conduc la imposibilitatea formalizării totale a unei formule majoritare de înţelegere şi apreciere a ştiinţei sale, ultra-avansată, manifestată în studiul teoriilor cu efect de constrângere sau influenţare, care să returneze o valoare adevărată, pozitivă.

Dar tocmai prin această contradicţie de idei, vise, opinii, aşteptări, orizonturi, care trădează o înţelegere fundamental diferită asupra lucrurilor, savantul se face într-un fel vinovat de acea "pată de lumină". De o prea mare integrare în leadership a unor noi surse de capital ştiinţific care nu se regăsesc în cuprinsul graniţelor de înţelegere ale celorlalţi oameni.

De aceea, fiecare savant are obligaţia de a-şi răscumpăra "vinovăţia" în faţa propriilor suporteri, probând o anumită inteligenţă, o anumită amprentă de identificare care să-i ateste calitatea, justificând apariţia unor noi elemente de dezvoltare, administrare şi popularizare a ştiinţei. Această inteligenţă are ca fundament construirea unui scenariu în care trebuie să compari o entitate a gândirii prin interiorizarea acţiunilor reale, cu o reflectare a reacţiilor tale faţă de lumea înconjurătoare.

Leadership: Îţi asumi responsabilitatea în ceea ce priveşte asigurarea livrării unui produs finit, din perspectivă a ceea ce eşti dispus să duci până la capăt fără să te încurci în mize prea mari?

O eroină a scriitoarei Anne Hebert spunea: " Inutil să te amăgeşti. Într-o zi, realitatea şi dublura ei imaginară vor coincide. Confirmând toate temerile. Abolind orice limită. Spulberând orice alibi. Interzicând orice fugă. Vei fi declarat vinovat, în faţa lumii. Trebuie să ieşi imediat din lâncezeala asta. Să reduci visul la tăcere, înainte de a fi prea târziu. Să te scuturi bine de el, în lumină. Să te descotoroseşti de fantasme. "

E un avertisment subtil, că ai o responsabilitate crescută în ceea ce priveşte asigurarea livrării unui produs finit, unui leadership real, conform normelor de calitate impuse de limitările celorlalţi oameni. Este atât de uşor să driblezi realitatea, dar e atât de greu pentru ceilalţi să treacă dincolo de norii confuziei şi să ştie exact cu cine au de a face.

Căci atunci când începi să te laşi condus de resortul ideilor de redefinire a ştiinţei, prin potriviri sau combinaţii neaşteptate, eşti tentat întotdeauna să trişezi, folosindu-te de mecanismele proprii de generare a unor variabile aleatoare care îşi pot pierde coordonatele prin izolare, adică neînţelese de nimeni. Fii dispus să duci până la capăt o acţiune fără să te încurci în mize prea mari, adică fără să faci din ştiinţă o cultură de consum sau o experienţă de joc captivantă, dar irealistă.

Ştiinţa este un produs finit, de mare calitate, numai dacă ştii să o transformi într-un scop a cărui împlinire nu presupune un câştig material. Miza cea mare a oamenilor este adesea câştigul financiar, dar pentru un creator inspirat adevăratul câştig îl constituie posibilitatea "produsului" de a fi util evoluţiei lumii.

Leadership: Asiguri aplicarea principiului: „totul se poate oricum, oricât, oriunde şi cu oricine", socotindu-te una cu suma sintetică a unor cunoştinţe referitoare la un anumit obiect de cercetare?

Consecinţa este lesne de dedus, devii asemenea unui actor sigur de reputaţia lui, care este pe de-a-ntregul prins în el însuşi şi doar se preface că joacă împreună cu partenerii de scenă. Această cufundare în tine însuţi, dialogând tacit cu leadershipul într-un limbaj pur ştiinţific, chiar dacă constituie incontestabil cea mai înaltă creaţie a geniului tău, are mari şanse să fie catalogată la prima mână drept individualism, sau vanitate ce doreşte să fie flatată, dar nu apreciată, o vanitate inconştientă de ridicolul în care se află.

E greşit să aplici criterii personale de selectare şi utilizare a cunoştinţelor, sau să le pui în faţa unui ideal de neatins pentru ceilalţi, căci ajungi să te transformi într-un stăpânitor al inadmisibilului ştiinţific, un formator al ambiguităţilor şi complexităţilor cărora numai un vis, numai o utopie le-ar putea aduce împlinirea. Iar o utopie exprimă îndepărtarea de diversitate, de realitate, pierderea oricărei coeziuni şi aplicarea principiului: „ totul se poate oricum, oricât, oriunde şi cu oricine ”.

Omul de ştiinţă se raportează, pe lângă actul de creaţie, la un singur obiect de cercetare: "Omul şi simbolurile lui în cursul evoluţiei lumii”.

Marea provocare a ştiinţei este destinată unei emancipări a gândirii prin prisma imaginii pe care o ai despre realitate, prin capacitatea ei de a face vizibile efectele unei integrări într-o poveste a cărei acțiune are loc în decorul creat de tine.

Realitatea şi dublura ei imaginară vizează integrarea leadershipului în existenţa cotidiană. Este frumos să visezi la stele şi la un cer senin, plin de vibraţii, dar nu poţi ajunge la ele dacă eşti inexact în raport cu faptele, în raport cu standardul admis în materie de felul cum percep alţii ştiinţa ta.

Pentru minţile firave a fi independent poate însemna a fi anormal, iar a fi anormal înseamnă de multe ori a fi detestat.

Realitatea visului care merge până la capăt

On Aprilie 29, 2016

Formează-ţi o nouă identitate prin acapararea unui teritoriu obținut în lupta cu viața: nebunia de a te transpune într-o realitate în care tu ești visul.

Mă temeam de îndrăzneala grăbită de a atinge linia unui orizont nemărginit, ce-şi avea trasat cu fermitate sensul unei demonstraţii de tip tablou, o dovadă de regăsire a unui spirit de mare amplitudine, dincolo de jocul subtil al raţiunii numită credinţă. Grație unei teme care preocupa deopotrivă domeniul creației artistice și acela al științei, înţelegând exigenţele unei zone labirintice destul de tăinuită înţelegerii umane obişnuite, mi-am început căutarea a ceva spiritualizat: adevărul de dincolo de negări.

Cuvintele gândurilor mele răscolitoare, completându-se în planul ideilor înălţătoare ce-şi găseau o corespondenţă în faptul că înţelegerea ştiinţei şi a vieţii trebuie să se întemeieze prin manifestarea nebuniei, voiau să mă ţină undeva, la o semidistanţă neangajantă, îngăduitor apreciativă faţă de morile de vânt ce-mi stăteau în cale. Fiorul nebuniei era seducător şi frumos: un simbol al plăcerilor descoperite printr-o despărţire definitivă de adevărurile şi lucrurile care înlocuiau la verità effettuale.

Hamlet se prefăcea că nu-i în toate minţile, pentru a-şi permite o mai mare libertate de acţiune şi exprimare, ascunzându-şi totodată mai bine intenţiile. Să ne amintim cu recunoştinţă de magicienii lui Christopher Priest care îşi întrepătrundeau acoperirea, nevăzutele unde, energia, cunoştinţele şi experienţele prin fuziunea cu elementele de fantasy. Să pornim alături de Julio Murillo în căutarea îndepărtatului Shangri-La, fugind de condamnarea la moarte, doar pentru a înţelege o taină însemnată, o existenţă trecută sub tăcere pentru totdeauna.

Şi să luăm aminte de nebunia care ne pândeşte neîncetat, uşoară ca vântul serii de noapte târzie, unde nu există decât umbrele unor lumini vagi numite "un atunci dintr-o urmă a raţiunii", anunţând veşnicul purgatoriu al lui „se poate şi mai rău".

Leadership: Eşti atent la ceea ce adaugi experienţei tale de explorator al unor noi forme de exprimare vizuală, astfel încât să redai perfect începutul unei lumi noi din perspectiva a ceea ce înseamnă să trăieşti "labirintic" ?

Cea mai mare înţelepciune se apropie uşor de cea mai mare nebunie, contopindu-se printr-un somn prelungit, repetându-se la nesfârşit ca în jocul de lumină al unui miraj fantastic, fiind mai uşor de întreţinut printr-o experienţă nemărginită ce se împotriveşte ideii de a te trezi. Visul nu este un scop îndepărtat, ci o realitate a nebuniei.

Când încerci să te conectezi la o zonă mai puţin cunoscută, ca atunci când intri într-un labirint fără ieşire, dar atât de interesant construit că ţi-ai dori să-l străbaţi mereu indiferent de capcanele ce ţi se întind ici-colo, practic începi să te gândeşti la tine ca la compoziţia unui întreg de noţiuni esenţiale pentru interpretare sau pentru receptare. De fapt, a trăi labirintic înseamnă să te adânceşti în miezul unei enigme până când ajungi să fii fascninat de rezolvarea ei, dar în aşa fel încât să te simţi completat şi nu distras de lumea ce se desfăşoară în jurul tău.

Iar eu nu eram decât o unealtă a minţii de a se abandona în braţele unei construcţii ficţionale mai autentice şi mai consistente decât viaţa însăşi, pe circumferința unui cerc imaginar a cărui rază părea egală cu a optsprezecea parte din înălțimea unei coloane numită:

vigoarea interpretării unei experienţe ieşită din comun care produce un suflu inovator.

Cum evită creatorul nebunia care îl pândeşte neîncetat, adulmecată asemenea tămâii arse de un vrăjitor? Cum evită el acest spaţiu închis în care pot fi percepute toate rezonanţele unui apel la gloria unei nesfârşite perspective, asemenea unor petale de trandafiri decorative aruncate pe o alee plină de petale vii? Poate el oare să evite acţiunea de intrare într-o buclă Moebius, încât să nu fie rotit la infinit de o forţă centrifugă şi centripetă în direcţii diametral opuse?

Nu poate. Proiecţiile minţii lui sunt tot timpul în concurenţă pentru a dovedi realitatea lumii sale, a visului care merge până la capăt. Te vei aventura cu mine?

Leadership: Poți să contribui la perpetuarea unui vis prezent ca realitate alternativă într-un tablou al dublului tău demers de autocunoaştere, fără să te consideri versiunea extinsă a unei lumi care se restricţionează?

Dispoziția de a fi motivat de idei abstracte, detaşarea de o realitate fără viitor, este proprie vizionarului sau revelatorului unei gândiri axate pe sensuri, care resimte emoțiile pe care le stârnesc visurile sale.

Un asemenea om face cinste leadershipului nu atât pentru că încearcă să dea curs într-un mod ok nevoilor sale interioare, încercând conștient să deschidă mugurii unei filosofii sau unei libertăți de exprimare, asemenea lui Gandhi sau Martin Luther King. Ci prin faptul că se descoperă dintr-o altă perspectivă, aceea a unei exilări într-un spațiu întrețesut cu realitate și fantezie.

Vorba veche a înţelepţilor va sta tot timpul în picioare: Trebuie să te pierzi înainte să te regăseşti . Da, să te pierzi în spațiul unui vis, în contururile clare și mobile pe care le evocă viziunea ascensională a unui titan asupra vieții tale, într-o versiune de tip „Reacţie după stare". Titanul este alternativa ta de cunoaştere la un nivel superior, ce te învaţă în ce fel să-ţi schimbi modul de abordare al unei noi perspective, prin reconfigurarea dispoziţiei tale faţă de senzația că eşti reconectat la o altă lume.

Construirea unei noi identităţi începe din momentul unei posibile realizări a visului. Te poți redefini din perspectiva a ceea ce ești atunci când visezi sau din perspectiva a ceea ce ești atunci când te trezeşti.

Tabloul dublului tău demers de autocunoaştere este întregit de „nebunia" cu care te confrunți în încercarea de a accede la o înțelegere a existenței în raport cu şansa de a trăi visul în realitate. Iar a te considera versiunea extinsă a unei lumi care se restricţionează înseamnă să prelungeşti nebunia până a face din ea un element al interiorităţii sub forma exteriorităţii pe care chiar dacă busola ta morală nu-l aprobă, impetuozitatea creativă îl susţine.

Leadership: Poţi să te oglindești într-o conștiință superioară de forma unei strâmtori care se deschide mereu înspre un drum şerpuit, fără să te concentrezi asupra punctelor esenţiale ale existenţei ce se exercită ca şi constrângere relativă?

Dacă viața are urcuşul ei propriu, iar lumea din jur are spațiul ei privat, atunci realitatea pe care ți-o modelezi singur, printr-o așa numită trecere sau transformare în altă persoană, poate deveni un sentiment dominator ce străbate integral pragul provocării.

Iar cea mai mare provocare pe care mintea o identifică drept amplă materie de consum, întotdeauna corespunzătoare fenomenelor asupra cărora experiența nu te poate instrui, este de a te forma și de a crede într-o conștiință superioară - dar de forma unei strâmtori.

Strâmtoarea este o zonă îngustă de legătură între două mari continente, unul care se remarcă printr-o mare diversitate de fenomene, altul care se depopulează și se divizează pe măsură ce încerci să stabileşti o legătură de durată.

Cine se dedică dezvoltării personale prin procesul de explorare a visului, prin transformarea raţiunii într-un drum şerpuit, într-o „rătăcire" de moment care să-i dea oarecum un câștig de cauză, acela riscă să nu mai iasă niciodată din această strâmtoare.

Ești propriul tău creator de vise, dar și cel care te doboară, în funcție de diametrele strâmtorii în care încadrezi. Iar punctele esenţiale ale existenţei ce se exercită ca şi constrângere relativă faţă de această strâmtoare sunt: concretul unei realităţi dure şi subiectivitatea unei conştiinţe înlănţuite în propriile replieri.

Întreg efortul creator al omului este îndreptat spre producerea unei realităţi necontradictorii, a lucrării minţii care să rămână drept un punct de reper pentru un parcurs existenţial reuşit, în vraja unor obscure solicitări ale Sinelui care se remarcă în contrast cu "Alter-Egoul" în cadrul unui proces de formare a identităţii.

Dacă vrei să mergi până la capăt cu visul tău mai întâi gândeşte-te că orice enigmă reprezintă o provocare, o mică nebunie, iar tu trebuie să te decizi să spui „Challenge Accepted".

Realitatea visului care merge până la capăt aparţine minţilor strălucite care dictează în cele din urmă şi definitiv. Minţi care nu acceptă să fie nişte existenţe trecute sub tăcere pentru totdeauna, fiind de multe ori percepute drept o taină însemnată pe care nicio rațiune nu o pătrunde.

Leadershipul este șansa ideală de a da curs formării unei noi identităţi, printr-o despărţire definitivă de adevărurile şi lucrurile care înlocuiesc la verità effettuale , prin acapararea unui teritoriu obținut în lupta cu viața: nebunia de a te transpune într-o realitate în care tu ești visul.

Vei mai putea oare să te împotriveşti ideii de a te trezi?

Realizarea unor relaţii aparte a spectacolului cu spectatorii

Sincronizarea perfectă între regie și expresia artistică este crucială pentru a obține o interpretare corectă a viziunii, pe linia unei rezonanțe profunde cu marele suflet colectiv.

Întreaga operă wagneriană – a cărei reducţie de pian o găsim adnotata de mâna lui Eisenstein – este trecută prin filtrul viziunii grandioase a regizorului. Ridicându-se prin expresia regizorală la dimensiunile hiperbolice ale mitului wagnerian, Eisenstein compune o mizanscenă monumentală, în perfect acord cu muzica operei. Decorul realizat după schiţele sale, însoţeşte în dinamica sa – munţii se ridică sau se prăbuşesc, de pildă – gesturile şi acţiunile personajelor, ca şi costumele, schiţate tot de el, subliniază ideile sale regizorale.

Corul este integrat organic, în formule originale, materialului dramatic al libretului pe care Eisenstein îl transpune – în sensul cel mai pur al cuvântului – pe scenă. Corul, prin mişcare şi chiar prin costumaţie, participă la acţiune, devenind expresia gândului sau sentimentului câte unui personaj, fiind uneori ecoul unui sentiment, alteori reacţia împotriva lui.

De fapt, regizorul Serghei Eisenstein încearcă realizarea unor relaţii aparte a spectacolului cu spectatorii. De data aceasta nu prin mijloacele folosite în tinereţe în teatru, ci prin inedite compoziţii de spaţiu, sunet şi lumină.

Leadership: Poți folosi spontaneitatea demersului tău creator pentru a accesa rapid "reacțiile" spectatorilor prin integrarea trăsăturilor generalizate ale decorurilor și mijloacelor artistice?

Structurile de informaţii trecute prin filtrul viziunii unui regizor sunt esențiale pentru organizarea eficientă a unei compoziţii în care sunetul şi lumina se întrepătrund. De exemplu, decorul şi mijloacele artistice sunt utilizate frecvent pentru accesarea rapidă a "reacţiilor" spectatorilor care urmăresc un spectacol al sentimentelor şi al gesturilor interioare. Ca dramaturg, totodată, regizorul se face cunoscut prin piesele ce se înscriu în viziunea operelor postmoderniste. Instrumentele – formule şi reguli întrebuinţate în compoziţia scenariului, sunt gândite pas cu pas pentru crearea dialogurilor şi a afectelor de scenă, iar eficiența lor este măsurată prin complexitatea temporală, schimbătoare, a decorurilor.

Regizorii trebuie să înțeleagă profund aceste concepte pentru a dezvolta creații cinematografice robuste și performanţe pentru realizarea unor relații aparte a spectacolului cu spectatorii. La fel ca în informatică, testarea și debugging-ul sunt, de asemenea, procese critice în ciclul de viață al dezvoltării unei compoziții cinematografice, asigurând că forma și conținutul povestirii funcționează corect și fără erori prin intermediul imaginilor în mișcare.

Leadership: Ai încercat vreodată să surprinzi starea emoțională a celor din jur printr-o schimbare permanentă a decorurilor, care se succed cu repeziciune, evitând totodată capcana compozițiilor neautentice?

Aşadar, fiziologia spectacolului este esențială pentru înțelegerea funcționării operei cinematografice și a scenei. De exemplu, mizanscena monumentală, care include decorul și costumele, transportă ideile regizorului către toate gesturile și acțiunile personajelor. Expresia regizorală și dimensiunile hiperbolice sunt reglate de către filtrul viziunii grandioase și pot fi influențate de diverși factori, inclusiv de dinamica muzicii operei și de starea emoțională a spectatorilor. Testele diagnostice, precum ecoul unui sentiment și reacția împotriva sentimentului, sunt folosite pentru a evalua sănătatea spectacolului și pentru a detecta anomalii în compozițiile de spațiu, sunet și lumină.

Totodată, interpretarea corectă a expresiei regizorale și a dimensiunilor hiperbolice ale montării poate dezvălui eventuale anomalii sau dezechilibre în aranjamentele scenice, partiturile vocale și efectele de lumini, la fel cum programatorii trebuie să depisteze erorile și defectele din codul sursă al aplicațiilor. Aceste analize complexe conturează un "plan de tratament" artistic, îmbunătățind coerența și impactul vizual-auditiv al spectacolului.

La fel ca în dezvoltarea software, unde managerii monitorizează progresul proiectului, evaluarea constantă a gesturilor și acțiunilor interpretate de actori asigură consistența artistică și profunzimea generală a performanței. Semnificațiile simbolice, intențiile personajelor și continuitatea narativă sunt transmise prin aceste elemente cheie.

În cele din urmă, sincronizarea perfectă între viziunea regizorală și expresia artistică a tuturor componentelor - de la decor la interpretare - contribuie la o rezonanță emoțională profundă cu publicul, oferind o experiență de operă unică și memorabilă. Asemenea deploymentului unui software finalizat către utilizatori, spectacolul reprezintă produsul final al colaborării întregii echipe creative, aliniat armonios cu concepția inițială a regizorului.

Compoziția unei creații artistice se măsoară prin complexitatea temporală și schimbătoare a decorurilor, integrând doar elementele esențiale percepute de spectatori ca un fel de armonie vizuală și emoțională.

Realizarea unor relații aparte a spectacolului cu spectatorii se bazează pe următoarea concluzie: "Este esențial să recunoști importanța proceselor de testare și debugging în ciclul de viață al dezvoltării unei compoziții, permiţând astfel detectarea anomaliilor în imaginile în mișcare."

Mai mult decât atât, aceste relații speciale se întăresc prin înțelegerea profundă a modului în care testarea și debugging-ul contribuie la rafinarea și perfecționarea compoziției, asigurând astfel o experiență vizuală și emoțională coerentă și captivantă pentru spectatori.

Reconstituirea personalităţii reflectată în dublul ei

Fii capabil să-ţi înţelegi mintea şi trăirile din prisma a ceea ce observă ochii unui artist care se hrăneşte cu seva creaţiei.

Dacă în timpul şcolii şi în timpul liceului am citit şi recitit cu plăcere o singură carte, "Basmele" lui Wilhelm Hauff, este pentru că această carte reprezintă singura sursă de cunoaştere din care am învăţat tot ce ştiu. Absolut tot ce ştiu. Despre simboluri, taine şi spiritualitate. Şi nimeni altcineva n-a ştiut să vadă printre rândurile ei, ceea ce sufletul meu a reuşit să vadă în spatele a ceea ce uneşte o lume de alta: virtutea de a pătrunde toate lucrurile care există și care se petrec odată cu ele.

Uneori mă reîntorc la această minunată carte de basme, uitând parcă toate celelalte cărţi, şi mă descopăr reinventat sub bagheta aceluiaşi Wilhelm Hauff, care m-a făcut să devin unul cu el însuşi. Iar dacă aş avea ceva important de spus, într-o singură capodoperă a reflectării asupra sinelui, n-aş putea s-o spun decât în acelaşi chip în care a procedat Wilhelm Hauff:

"Sunt doar un biet tânăr nevoit să-şi croiască un drum prin lume cu pana sa. Aparţin tuturor, îmi aparţin mie însumi, dar nu aparţin nici unei şcoli... Nu simt deasupra mea niciun stăpân sau dascăl căruia să-i datorez supunere, în afara legilor eterne ale binelui şi frumosului, spre care tind, chiar şi aşa, într-o manieră nedesăvârşită.

Se prea poate să nu fiu în stare să ţin forma departe de influenţa timpului, dar spiritul îmi va rămâne negoethean, netieckean, neschlegelean şi nemăsluit."

Leadership: Obiectul creaţiei tale este o existenţă bine documentată, mediată de eul creator aflat în solidaritate profundă cu acea conştiinţă a unei realităţi care nu a fost descifrată pe deplin în toate consecinţele ei?

La foarte mare preţuire au fost frazele simple, dar pline de înţelesuri duble, personificări şi metafore, care au permis conştiinţei artistului din mine să perceapă miraculoasa plăsmuire a unei opere de artă, fapt echivalent cu studiul unei forme de infinitate care izvorăşte din conştiinţa Creatorului omniscient. Să nu uităm, totodată, că fiecare înţeles ascuns pe care Wilhelm Hauff îl plăsmuieşte în opera sa are la bază repetarea unui cuvânt, figură de stil bazată pe polisemie și omonimie.

Cred că am avut de-a face cu maestrul unei arte narative realiste, dar purtând amprenta diversității și universalității mitului care absoarbe acele raporturi abstracte dintre realităţi, acţionând cu o spontaneitate nealterată spre elaborarea tehnicii unei arte ce pune în valoare marile atuuri ale adevăratei poetici plastice. Într-adevar, nu este vorba despre poezie, ci despre un scris poetic care ascunde, la fel ca şi limbajul picturii, un anumit fenomen de cauzalitate, o relație de tip cauză-efect, dar şi un fenomen de răsturnare a opticii obişnuite asupra realităţii.

Pe acelaşi plan de răsturnare a concepţiilor obişnuite despre realitate se desfăşoară toată efervescenţa creativă a artiştilor. Acest lucru mi-a permis să ajung la acea conştiinţă a unei realităţi ce există dincolo de aparenţe, fapt care în orice basm pivotează între candoare și deghizare, între raritate, alegeri și interacțiuni, între personaje şi propria lor conştiinţă (întruchipată în rol de judecător).

Fiecare operă de artă trebuie să aibă o structură de conectare între ceea ce se arată şi ceea ce este ascuns.

Pe scurt, consecinţele realităţii pe care o reflectă opera lui Wilhelm Hauff se pot vedea numai într-o imagine în care îţi recunoşti deopotrivă slăbiciunile şi puterile, în care îţi manifeşti deschis talentele, îţi admiţi imperfecţiunile şi îţi admiri măreţia.

Iar leadershipul poate face obiectul unei creaţii personale de excepţie dacă şi numai dacă realitatea pe care o construieşti prin gândurile, prin convingerile, prin stările sufleteşti şi prin faptele tale, devine începutul unei călătorii spirituale: eternitatea, infinitul, unitatea, întregirea, continuarea ciclurilor de renaştere şi reînnoire.

Oricărei mari creaţii i se poate atribui proiectarea unei stări sufleteşti a cărei sferă este mult mai largă decât aria funcţiilor intelectuale. Iar constatarea neaşteptată pe care o însufleţeşte orizontul exprimării artistice prin simboluri şi alegorii, întrezărit prin aluzii şi trimiteri la diverse repere de comparaţie, porneşte de la faptul că dincolo de pragul realităţii comune se află o punte invizibilă între două lumi, între cer şi pământ.

Creatorul genial al operei de artă reacţionează întocmai ca şi omul obişnuit atunci când se găseşte în faţa unui tablou puţin încărcat şi al cărui subiect nu ii este familiar: rămâne uimit de admiraţie la vederea splendorii lumeşti şi seculare.

Reconstituirea personalităţii reflectată în dublul ei sugerează apropierea dintre un artist şi creaţia lui, chiar şi atunci când ochii privitorului rămân surprinşi de asemănarea dintre "ceea ce se vede la prima vedere" şi "ceea ce se ascunde în vedere".

Ochii unui artist adevărat văd întotdeauna un simbol acolo unde alţii văd doar o banalitate sau o confuzie. Tu eşti capabil să vezi similitudini acolo unde alţii văd doar deosebiri? Eşti capabil să legi evenimentele creativ, bazându-te pe observarea unor conexiuni semnificative?

Reducţia eului la nivelul privirii pe care o avem asupra realului

Ceea ce vezi în mintea ta are la bază tot ceea ce ai perceput ca fiind o altă treaptă către un nivel de înţelegere mai profund al sinelui tău.

Am fost sâmbătă la concursul de running "Hit The Egg" din Vatra Dornei. Aş mai merge o dată, chiar dacă imediat după concurs am spus că nu voi mai merge niciodată. Primii 10 km au fost o nebunie totală, fiindcă şi nebunia are câteodată un preţ care se numeşte "Altitudine 1600 metri", adică 10 km urcare abruptă. Şi în timp ce majoritatea concurenţilor urcau dealul abrupt în şir indian, cu paşi mici, apropiaţi, şi eu încercând să ţin pasul cu cei mai buni, mi-am dat frâu liber imaginaţiei, îndrăznind pentru o clipă să rescriu regulile unui urcuş cu peripeţii.

Primul gest al manifestării imaginaţiei este să surprindă intangibilul unei realităţi bazată pe nişte fapte de necontestat, dar totuşi mult prea exterioare în ce priveşte adevăratul sens al lucrurilor. Ce vreau să spun este că, în acel moment, gândurile îmi înălţau inspiraţia spre redescoperirea propriei persoane pusă în ipostaza unui regizor capabil să controleze foarte bine ceea ce se întâmplă, pentru a putea conduce schimbarea în direcţia unei noutăţi totale, având în faţă o provocare de neuitat.

În filmul ce se derula în mintea mea încercam să văd dacă nu cumva acolo unde oamenii nu pot genera revoluţii tehnice ale cunoaşterii, se naşte o anumită tensiune de natură să instaleze o stare de moment care se evaporă în scurt timp. Or la fel cum pictorul oferă publicului o perspectivă asupra realității determinată nu doar de propria viziune, ci și de curentul artistic, tot aşa regizorul poate să construiască o perspectivă care îl condamnă sau îl elogiază pe erou în funcţie de ceea ce-l "răneşte" mai mult: incapacitatea de a se împăca cu eşecul.

Leadership: Modalitatea în care concepi imaginea de interpretare a unei realităţi faptice, se naşte din posibilitatea de interpretare a unei situaţii în care jocul de rol este exprimarea spontană a unei poveşti adevărate?

Imaginaţia mea a ajuns până acolo încât m-am văzut actorul principal într-un film în care acţiunea plana între real şi fabulos, toţi concurenţii urcând fără să ştie ce-i aşteaptă în vârf şi, în acelaşi timp, fără să ştie că au totul la îndemână pentru a se distra. Iar un asemenea actor principal, jucându-şi rolul aparte, ştie să strălucească, ştie să sugereze însemnătatea plină de naturaleţe a personajului său chiar şi atunci când vine vorba de ceva la fel de aparent necontrolat ca senzaţia de irealitate.

Altfel spus, filmul pe care imaginaţia mea îl developa ajungea la esenţa existenţei unei versiuni concurente a adevărului care se dorește a fi literalmente o revelație a naturii realității unei fiinţe care devine invizibilă din cauza caracterului absolut şi infinit al spaţiului din eternitatea timpului. De altfel, prezenţa mea în spaţiul simbolic al imaginaţiei părea să fie conceput mai degrabă ca un "plin", ca o concretizare a unei imagini de scenă, decât ca un "gol" atribuit unei profunzimi figurate.

Şi uite aşa am ajuns regizor, nu prin găsirea unor unghiuri potrivite de filmare, ci redând spectacolul unei urcări abrupte printr-un unghi de receptivitate diferit, prin prisma unei imaginaţii care rescrie realitatea prin efectul de martor, în termeni de anumite experienţe fulminante sau de condiţionări subite, pentru a o face să corespundă emoțiilor trăite de un personaj de poveste.

Leadership: Poţi să te raportezi la experienţa vizuală dintr-o perspectivă de înălţime auctorială care te poate ajuta să descoperi partea de plus-valoare pe care o poate aduce modificarea percepţiei propriei persoane la nivelul interacţiunii cu cei din jur?

Rolul pe care l-am jucat în propriul meu film, inspirat din realitate, a fost acela de a-mi trezi toate simţurile, spunându-mi că nu trebuie să iau şi să consum o varietate de momente numai cu privirea, ci să încerc să îmbin o poveste captivantă cu un un alt simţ, ascuns, al amintirilor, al legendelor vii, al gândurilor secrete, al imaginilor cu iz de senzaţional, al nostalgiilor de-o viaţă.

Pe bună seamă, imaginarul este suferinţa unei despărţiri de realitate, dar în acelaşi timp indică o schimbare a percepţiei despre ce înseamnă o lume care se ghidează după principiul "ceea ce vezi în mintea ta (adică nu în mod direct cu ochii) are la bază tot ceea ce ai perceput ca fiind o o altă treaptă către un nivel de înţelegere mai profund al sinelui tău".

Or acest fapt se asociază cu ivirea unui punct de vedere exprimat de John Fowles în cunoscutul roman "Daniel Martin":

"Am mai avut această experienţă, dar nu s-a mai repetat cu aceeaşi intensitate. Este foarte straniu, ca o întrerupere a timpului. Timpul încetează să mai existe pentru un interval scurt. Simţi că nu eşti nici cel care a pictat fresca nici tu, arheologul modern. Dacă eşti ceva, eşti pictura însăşi. Mă iertaţi că trebuie să mă exprim prin metaforă, nu găsesc alte cuvinte. Exişti, dar nu în timp. Ai fost acolo dintotdeauna. Fără trecut său viitor. Datele din istorie, cronologie sunt paravane ca cele de care vorbeam adineauri."

Există versiuni concurente ale adevărului exprimat de John Fowles, dar cea mai importantă este aceea că orice experienţă pe care o trăim, o trăim prin însăşi felul în care privim lucrurile în încercarea de a deveni una cu ele, într-o realitate a cãrei acceptare şi înţelegere ne ancorează într-un spaţiu ambivalent: al creaţiei şi al alterităţii.

Partea de plus-valoare pe care o poate aduce modificarea percepţiei propriei persoane la nivelul interacţiunii cu cei din jur este dată de capacitatea ta de a experimenta anumite situaţii din punct de vedere al modului cum controlezi experienţa realităţii, astfel încât aceasta să capete un sens aparte în mintea ta, dar şi în mintea celor din jur.

Deci, partea de plus-valoare coincide cu imaginaţia regizorului. Ea se referă la acea capacitate de care numai tu poţi să dai dovadă într-un moment în care nimeni nu se asteaptă, adică atunci când realitatea oglindeşte filmul pe care tu ţi l-ai făcut în cap.

Reducţia eului la nivelul privirii pe care o avem asupra realului se poate corela cu experienţa de cunoaştere a realităţii din prisma unui intelect care intuieşte întreguri şi poate vedea particularităţi în necesitatea lor.

Aşa cum un artist poate să realizeze printr-un mic şi neînsemnat desen ceva mai important decât realizează altul într-o mare pictură, tot aşa şi eu am putut să exist într-o realitate în care nu există o graniţă între figurativ şi simbolic, sau mai bine zis într-o poveste de viaţă în care nu mai ştiu care este personajul cu adevărat important: cel din film sau cel real?

Reducţia la esenţă

Gândește-te înainte de toate la ce nu trebuie să arăți lumii, încât să devină clar ce anume trebuie să arăți.

În opera sa, Eisenstein vede totul în proporţii gigantice, cosmice şi în legătură cu aceasta este şi ceea ce numeşte chiar el "lipsa de omenie a sistemului de imagini groaznice" (deşi această obsesie a cruzimilor trebuie să aibă şi o altă explicaţie). Mărturiseşte că interesul său în cercetarea fenomenelor se stinge îndată ce lucrurile ajung la pragul stadiului de dezvoltare omenesc îngust.

El se află mereu undeva, la nivelul păianjenului înţelept. De aceea, de pildă, tema care revine constant în opera sa, aceea a răzbunării, este văzută printr-o optică aparte: răzbunarea este, pur şi simplu, o reacţie, ca o anexă parţială a legii generale a egalităţii acţiunii, ca rezistenţa care dictează pendulului mişcarea de oscilare.

*Eisenstein urmăreşte totdeauna în filmele sale reducţia la esenţă. Obişnuia să spună în glumă că regizorul este dator să se gândească înainte de toate la ce nu trebuie să arate şi atunci îi va deveni clar ce anume trebuie să arate. Urmărind filmele sale, vom constata - de exemplu - o esenţializare simbolică prin prezenţa permanentă a celor trei elemente de bază: apa, focul şi pământul. **

Leadership: Interesul tău în cercetarea fenomenelor se stinge îndată ce lucrurile ajung la pragul stadiului de dezvoltare îngust, din perspectiva unei imagini care nu se potriveşte în realizarea unei creaţii unice?

Cine reușește să parcurgă întreaga evoluție a raportului dintre știință și filosofie, tehnologie și societate, va aborda tema propriei creaţii cu o stare de ură, de ostilitate, sau cu o atitudine de condamnare, care creează un zid gros între ceea ce încearcă să surprindă și ceea ce trebuie să dovedească. Dar zidul se poate transforma într-o oglindă dacă știi ce trebuie să abordezi. Imaginea pe care o surprinzi în mod obiectiv, în diferite aspecte ale vieţii tale, este tema care va reveni constant în creaţia ta.

Leadershipul, orientat spre reprezentarea expansiunii unicităţii individului, trebuie să valorifice interesul în cercetarea fenomenelor de noutate, definite prin prezenţa permanentă a unor elemente de bază. Iar acest interes nu trebuie să se stingă îndată ce lucrurile ajung la pragul stadiului de dezvoltare îngust, adică până la epuizarea posibilităților de reconfigurare a unor așteptări legate de o realitate pe care numai tu o poți înţelege. Ci trebuie amplificat continuu prin combinarea elementelor de bază la o anumită instanţă de context.

Meritul principal al unei opere reușite îi aparține regizorului pentru faptul că sistemul de convingeri, sintetizat într-o temă care se vrea esenţa unei idei originale, sau a unei realităţi anume dorite întru manifestare, asigură atingerea unei stări de perfecţiune care îl poate ajuta să facă faţă cerinţelor de demonstrabilitate a unor teorii și adevăruri personale. Gândeşte-te înainte de toate la ce nu trebuie să arăţi lumii, apoi vei găsi motivul principal din spatele temei pe care trebuie s-o utilizezi în jurul imaginii care trebuie inserată în mintea celorlalţi.

Dacă vrei să devii un lider excelent, învaţă să joci rolul unui regizor. Gândește-te înainte de toate la ce nu trebuie să arăți lumii, elimină toate componentele realităţii cunoscute, astfel încât să creezi un subiect particular de dezbătut. În același timp învaţă să vezi totul în proporţii gigantice, adică dintr-o optică aparte, atribuind fiecărui aspect o mai pronunţată semnificaţie personală pe care să o aduci constant în atenție.

Leadershipul este semnificaţia pe care o atribui unei creaţii al cărei subiect principal nu-l constituie doar libertatea de expresie, ci mai ales esenţializarea unei idei care prinde contur după ani şi ani, declanşând un adevărat fenomen numit: "o amplificare a ceea ce este în tine".

Reducţia la esenţă sugerează acea obţinere a clarităţii în abordarea unui anumit subiect de scenariu, prezentat sub forma unei constatări surprinzătoare.

Un regizor excelent reușește să arate lumii reacția sa de tipul „Doar eu ştiu asta” în direcția a ceea ce vrea să schimbe, sau în direcţia a ceea ce reprezintă esenţa tuturor realizărilor sale, printr-o evidenţiere particulară a ideilor şi trăirilor sale.

Reflecţii despre leadership

Acceptă realitatea înainte de a te concentra asupra lucrurilor pe care crezi că le cunoşti.

Uitaţi părerea mea. Excelenţa în leadership se obţine numai dacă accepţi schimbarea, liber şi nesilit de nimeni. Este ca o necesitate imperioasă a prezentului şi a viitorului. Lumea, cerinţele, sunt într-o permanentă schimbare şi deci trebuie să fii capabil să fii în pas cu ele. Vreau să spun că trebuie să fim permanent dispuşi să ne luăm avântul spre automotivare, spre ideal şi spre originalitate, ca să ne schimbăm mentalitatea şi ca să fim în pas cu lumea şi cu vremurile.

Degeaba înţelegi leadershipul, dacă nu ştii să te foloseşti cu înţelepciune de esenţa lui. Esenţa leadershipului se manifestă prin deciziile pe care le iei ori de câte ori interacţionezi cu ceilalţi oameni, dar şi ori de câte ori îţi educi propriul sine, stocând şi analizând cele mai noi particularităţi din care se constituie natura umană. Nu degeaba am spus de nenumărate ori în seminariile mele că liderul, înainte de a trece în fruntea oamenilor şi de a-i ghida spre o direcţie benefică amândurora, trebuie să-şi descopere propriile valori, propriul sine, să încerce să-şi combată constant imperfecţiunile până ce ajunge la acel nivel în care rezultatele şi performanţele i se îmbunătăţesc.

Dincolo de autocunoaştere, o altă trăsătură caracteristică liderilor este faptul că ei sunt în permanenţă deschişi la nou, se supun regulilor şi îşi asumă doar riscuri calculate. Atenţie, e vorba de regulile de "interior", de circuitul pe care aceste riscuri le urmează pentru ca desăvârşirea liderului să fie deplină.

Să adaug faptul că liderii cei mai buni au un grad crescut de încredere în sine, încredere ce se plăsmuieşte pe curăţarea şi uniformizarea năzuinţelor lor (dând voce trăirilor lor) - ceea ce, de multe ori, îi face să devină mai agreabili şi să accepte mai uşor un eşec sau o opinie contradictorie. Diverse studii au mai arătat ceva important - un interes crescut faţă de statusul lor emoţional şi moral, faţă de felul în care sunt văzuţi, faţă de felul în care se percep pe ei înşişi. Un lider excelent, spre exemplu, nu-şi va dori să aibă maşina cea mai scumpă şi casa cea mai mare, ci cât mai mulţi oameni care să-l urmeze.

Leadership: Valorile cu care se mândreşte personalitatea ta pot să influenţeze deciziile necesare pentru o eventuală ajustare a trăirilor imperative care pot aduce ascensiuni incredibile?

Valorile sunt importante pentru liderii tuturor companiilor din lume, de la cea mai mică – la cea mai mare, fiind deosebit de edificatoare. Spre exemplu, cum bine remarca cineva, femeile manager tind să fie altruiste, mai conservatoare şi nu în puţine cazuri îşi bazează deciziile de afaceri pe intuiţie. Bărbaţii, însă, sunt mult mai pragmatici, rezultatele imediate îi preocupă cel mai mult, discută numai de termeni băneşti şi aproape întotdeauna pun afacerile înaintea vieţii personale - "asta îi va face pe acţionari să-i iubească pe lideri, însă trebuie să aibă grijă ca angajaţii să nu ajungă să-şi urască liderii".

Valoarea ta personală şi profesională izvorăşte din adâncimea propriei tale fiinţe. Prin asta mă refer la amploarea pe care o capătă încrederea ta în ceea ce te defineşte, în credinţa şi voinţa noastră atunci când îţi exersezi abilităţile şi îţi verifici competenţele. Poţi să împiedici procesul de eroziune a potenţialului tău creând un impact pozitiv asupra acţiunilor proprii.

Ca să atingi excelenţa în leadership, ca să devii un performer, caută să descoperi ceea ce li se potriveşte mai bine oamenilor, foloseşte-ţi influenţa pentru a inspira valoare organizaţiei tale. Implicarea ta în activităţi de cunoaştere a oamenilor, înseamnă un fapt pozitiv. Şi găsesc că este foarte bine atunci când pui în evidenţă, cu orice prilej, valorile care fac obiectul leadershipului tău, atunci când îţi expui preocuparea faţă de ceea ce te defineşte, faţă de ceea ce gândeşti, faţă de ceea ce te doare sau te bucură.

Ascensiunea incredibilă a unui lider poate să însemne trecerea omului de la imperfecţiune la desăvârşire, sau trecerea de la un rol neînsemnat - la altul foarte important.

Dar, în acelaşi timp, trebuie să-ţi opreşti atenţia asupra acelor erori de conştiinţă, asupra acelor elemente pur personale, iraţionale, emoţionale care şi-au pus amprenta asupra realităţii vieţii tale (precum durerea, tristeţea, ura, frica, etc.) şi să înlături trăirile care te pot duce la o "paralizie" emoţională. Odată ce acestea îţi inundă existenţa, nu mai poţi fi decât foarte greu schimbat. Leadershipul este ca un măr care trebuie să fie frumos pe dinafară, matur şi sănătos în interior – dar un măr care nu se usucă odată cu schimbarea anotimpurilor şi a climei, ci continuă să rodească. Acest lucru este posibil numai dacă oamenii din jur îl îngrijesc şi-i asigură toate condiţiile optime de rodire.

Întrebarea care a adresat-o odată marele expert în domeniul conducerii, John Maxwell, este aceasta: "Eşti compatibil prin felul de a gândi cu organizaţia şi felul tău de conducere?" Dacă răspunsul este nu, nici nu te mai gândi să îndeplineşti rolul de mentor. Căci, ca să fii excelent în leadership, trebuie să existe compatibilitate cu ceilalţi oameni.

Niciun fel de instruire din lumea asta nu va face din tine tipul de lider pe care îl vor oamenii şi de care au într-adevăr nevoie. Înzestrarea ta cu acele calităţi acceptate şi dorite de oameni, cere angajare. Este nevoie de timp şi de efort din partea ta. Cu cât drumul înzestrării tale este mai lung şi mai greu, cu atât va da roade pe termen lung.

Rolul unui lider este de îndrumător al acelor oameni care l-au ales. În baza cunoaşterii profunde a naturii umane şi mai ales a acelora pe care îi reprezintă, trebuie să ştie să-i îndrume pe drumul cel mai bun spre atingerea ţelului comun, prin modalitatea unanim acceptată (şi în concordanţă cu cerinţele şi standardele impuse de prezent).

Un lider care doreşte să atingă excelenţa îndrumă oamenii pe acelaşi drum spre atingerea performanţei şi excelenţei, şi categoric nu poate fi un...."Gică Contra"... dar nici un ... "Dorel de România"... (un om care strică azi ce-a făcut ieri, şi care repară azi ce va strica mâine). Nu uita: Degeaba înţelegi leadershipul, dacă nu ştii să te foloseşti cu înţelepciune de esenţa lui.

Leadershipul vizează atingerea unui scop măreţ, îndeplinind rolul de autoritate în situaţiile în care sunt identificate evenimente care dovedesc existenţa unor incidente la nivel de gestionare a unor situaţii de urgenţă.

Reflecţii despre leadership poţi extrage din orice eveniment aleator, din orice situaţie care te pune pe gânduri referitor la felul cum trebuie să gestionezi inteligent evoluţia fenomenelor incerte care pot să determine o pierdere excesivă de susţinere din partea oamenilor.

Reflexia privirii mele spre cele înalte

Ceea ce vezi la tine însuţi este ceea ce ochiul surprinde la o imagine simbol cu efect de creare a profunzimii în existenţa ta.

Privesc cerul, de culoarea albastru-ciel, după ce mintea mi s-a îmbibat cu zâmbetul soarelui. Ştiu că trebuie să fac o schimbare în toate, bănuiesc acest lucru, conştiinţa îmi cere asta iar sufletul îmi porunceşte, dar nu înainte să fiu una cu cerul, nu înainte să mă bucur de culoarea lui. Un fel de calm, luminos şi răbdător, stăruie înaintea ochilor mei care nu se mai satură de culoarea albastru-ciel, atât de mult se adâncesc ei în contemplare, admirând lăcaşul împărăţiei lui Dumnezeu.

Înainte de a mă regăsi ca şi confident al unei culori care, din câte observ, ar putea să evoce o nouă realitate prin metafore pline de înţeles, mi-am amintit că toată credinţa de care face dovada un artist adevărat se rezumă la victoria luminii, izvorâtă dintr-un Ossetonevah (luminozitatea învăluitoare a unui real candid, suav și pur). Pe măsură ce desenez mai mult, totul devine mai fascinant. Aşa cum desenul este ritmul picturii, tot aşa culoarea albastru-ciel, sugerând exprimarea sinelui și înțelepciunea, poate să accelereze ritmul cu care contemplu o frumusețe neveștejită, așa cum cred că este trăitul, fără să simt vreo durere.

Să nu văd umbrele vagi din jurul meu, să văd doar semnele timpului intercalate cu vizualul unei zone de relaxare şi confort, în care mintea şi sufletul, atât cât pot să se completeze una pe cealaltă, să facă parte din tonurile sau nuanţele aceleiaşi culori. Şi poate astfel mă voi convinge de sensul real al unei combinatorici din universul creaţiei artistice care face posibilă ascensiunea sufletului din materie către lumea spirituală.

De unde oare să am puterea de a zămisli şi de a contrapune două ipostaze ale aceluiaşi tip uman, artistul şi muza lui, într-o aventură a creaţiei de o mare coerenţă, încât să păstrez în suflet liniştea pe care o dă frumuseţea unei culori menite să destindă atmosfera?

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să atragă printr-un conţinut lăuntric ce rezonează cu "trăitul realizat prin asemănare" şi care nu se poate menţine vie decât prin reprezentarea exterioară a unei realităţi relative?

În mod justificat, dacă eu aş fi o culoare, şi m-aş descrie prin intermediul nuanţei albastru-ciel, cu văzute şi nevăzute legături între pământ şi mai sus, apoi între mai sus şi mai sus, doar ca să sugerez spiritului de artist încotro şi în ce sens să activeze relaţia cu Dumnezeu, atunci ar trebui să sensibilizez materia care mă înconjoară, a cărui vibrație îmi aduce fericire și o stare de sprit înaltă.

Să-mi fie viaţa tot atât de strălucitoare şi mai deschisă, pe cât este culoarea. Iar dacă sunt mulţumit cu mine însumi este pentru că mă mulţumeşte acel aspect al unei culori descris cu un nume ca "albastru-ciel". Prin urmare, materia care stabileşte culoarea ochilor unei zile senine, substanţa naturală prezentă la oameni în diferite proporţii şi concentraţii diferite, substanţa care devine formă, având legătură cu senzaţia plăcută pe care mi-o poate lăsa un tablou bine colorat, este realul văzut cu alţi ochi, este orizontul lăuntricului care trece vederea prin credinţă.

Înălţându-se în imperiul luminii, materia (potenţa superioară a formei) este un spaţiu al reflecţiei despre lume, despre mine însumi. Este reflexia privirii mele spre cele înalte, şi, în acelaşi timp, este reflexia privirii mele spre înlăuntru, spre sinele meu, validă prin compararea vizuală a culorii cerului cu latura ideală a lucrurilor care mă împlinesc cu adevărat în căutarea adevărului şi sensului creaţiei. Numaidecât, mă oglindesc în culoarea albastru-ciel după cum artistul se oglindeşte în opera de artă şi în sufletul contemplatorului său.

Leadership: În viziunea ta esenţa formării statutului de creator poate fi un dat al privirii îndreptate spre instantaneele ce însoţesc un lucru care se vede, dar care nu are un efect de creare a profunzimii unei imagini?

Albastru-Ciel. Desigur, tu ai meritul de a-mi comunica acea trăire interioară pe care artistul o imprimă adesea naturilor sale statice, cu flori înmiresmate ce emană o liniște blândă. Cu surprindere şi cu eleganţă, te mişti calm şi neutru sub privirile mele, mereu sub o altă formă, cu ajutorul figurilor de stil. Dar în acelaşi timp, oricât de larg ţi-ar fi orizontul şi oricât de imensă diversitatea, oricât de mult mi-ai deschide mintea şi sufletul, voi gândi despre tine acelaşi lucru pe care îl gândea scriitorul Alexandru Vlahuţă despre opera pictorului român Nicolae Grigorescu:

"Cât de armonioase sunt culorile pe pânzele artistului. Visezi, gândeşti în faţa lor. Cele mai mici lucruri îţi şoptesc vorbe de o adâncă putere de evocare. În florile lui e frăgezimea şi respirarea umedă a vieţii, ele surâd cu strălucirea lor de-o clipă şi cu ceva din privirea ochilor omeneşti. Te aştepţi să se scuture. Te aştepţi să le vezi ofilite, moarte peste câteva momente - atâta gingăşie, atâta proaspătă lumină tremură în fiecare petală. Te gândeşti admirându-le: ce curat trebuie să fie sufletul artistului, pentru ca, trecând prin ele, spre a intra în eternitate, florile astea de-o clipă să nu-şi fi pierdut nimic din farmecul vremelniciei lor."

Draga mea culoare. O bucurie a nuanţei tale de senin îmi însoţeşte sufletul în tot ceea ce plămădesc acum sub semnul artei, sub pecetea cuvântului. Dacă vreodată mă voi oglindi în ochii cerului albastru, în tema florilor de câmp, sau în apele limpezi ale râurilor, şi dacă aş câştiga o parte din accesul universului la frumos, atunci mi-aş vedea propria frumuseţe reprezentată într-o figură plină de expresivitate care nu şi-a pierdut nimic din farmecul ei.

Leadershipul oglindeşte acea imagine de unitate şi de stabilitate care dezvăluie calităţi mai profunde ale fiinţei atunci când ea se prezintă în comparaţie cu un creator al cărui Ego masiv este temperat de spirit.

Reflexia privirii mele spre cele înalte poate fi interpretată numai făcând o călătorie în lumea culorilor, în care albastrul-ciel redă strălucire spaţiului în care spiritul meu de artist poate hoinări în voie şi se poate bucura de minunea creaţiei.

Asta spune totul. Culoarea oglindeşte limpede sentimentul de automulţumire pe care se clădeşte întreg tabloul personalităţii mele. Cât despre seninul cerului, sper să îmi zâmbească mereu !

Regele şi Creaţia lui

Fă din leadership cea mai de preţ creaţie, lăsându-te condus de alternanţa de stări sufleteşti prin care poţi scoate în evidenţă ascunsurile înţelegerii tale despre viaţă.

Eu însumi cădeam pradă focurilor lăuntrice, şi totuşi mă temeam să lupt cu ele, cuprins de un fel de nebunie trecătoare, asemenea rătăcitorilor în infinit, în imprevizibilitatea procesului de evoluţie a unei căutări de sens existenţial. Era ciudată alternanţa de stări sufleteşti cu care prilej reuşeam să scot în evidenţă ascunsurile înţelegerii mele despre viaţă şi să le transpun într-o grădină plină de flori arzătoare, să pulsez surpriza asemenea unei adieri uşoare acolo unde curentul rectiliniu al adevărurilor integrale se întrerupea.

Literatura devenea o cale spre un dincolo care chema cu necesitate sensul adânc al firii mele, contribuind la transpunerea adevărurilor tăinuite într-un limbaj de nivel înalt, adesea metaforic, într-o ştiinţă ce se dovedea tot mai mult un veritabil instrument al maturizării.

Cuptorul în care ardeau mocnit oasele fragile ale ştiinţei şi lemnele aromate ale cursului vieţii, combustia tuturor resturilor de gânduri eliberate după recoltarea unor probe noi de imaginar, distilate mai apoi în convingeri, chiar dacă uneori izbucnea câte-o explozie şi înainte mea se înălţa măiastră o nouă atracţie, făceau ca puterea mea să se cristalizeze, în text, într-un diamant. Eram regele unui regat format din comori infinite.

Creaţia unei gândiri care se raportează la universul vieţii, cu referire la înţelegerea unei stări de spirit detașate și receptive, vizează alegerea unui decor de poveste care stârneşte o senzaţie de "Uimitor ! ".

Dar literatura are o mie de săbii încovoiate, şi tot atâtea morţi şi învieri. Chiar dacă se întrevedea la orizont abisul, o lipsă a inspiraţiei, şi eram năpădit de sentimentul renunţării, striga în mine un glas căruia şuieraturile îi dădeau o anumită forţă, dezvăluindu-mi o frântură din istoria lumii:

Henric al III-lea al Navariei, urmărit de arcaşii asasini, spuse cu teamă în suflet: „ Credeţi c-am să mai fiu rege, eu, un fugar? ”

Florentinul Rene, meşterul de parfumuri, îi răspunse: „ Priviţi, sire, arătându-i regelui o stea care se zărea, strălucitoare, după un nor întunecat - nu eu spun asta, ci ea. ”

Leadership: Poţi demonstra marea însemnătate a realizărilor tale în sfera cunoaşterii, prin extinderea dimensiunii tale ascunse spre latura unui sentiment de putere absolută şi de controlare a realităţii?

Când ştii cum să foloseşti în ordine tot ceea ce este risipit în dezordine, când strigătul lăuntric pare să primească drept răspuns toate acele elemente de sens prin care se realizează subiectivitatea, în cazul procesului de creaţie se constată o anumită apropiere de superioritate prin lărgirea cuprinsului noţiunii de „interes”.

Devii tot mai interesat de ceea te reprezintă ca artist, ca măsură a acelor procese de creaţie care lansează tema, atât de realistă, atât de complexă şi totuşi atât de sensibilă, pe care majoritatea nu o stăpâneşte: VIAŢA.

Iar prin perseverenţa neclintită în săvârşirea operei concepute după modelul experienţei de viaţă, din care gândirea îşi extrage seva, reflectând-o în forţa expresivă a talentului de a fi, se creează în măsura posibilului acea chimie, acea fuziune între chemare şi tumultul care alimentează transformarea ta într-un „rege”.

Devii regele creaţiei atunci când rezişti tuturor „morţilor” şi „învierilor” pricinuite de lecţiile vieţii din care nu înveţi doar să găseşti idei principale, ci din care realizezi cât de mult mai ai încă de învăţat.

Leadershipul, cu posibilităţile de aplicare a legilor sale cât mai corect în dezvoltarea ştiinţei şi a omului, înseamnă să insufli creaţiei personale o viziune cu totul inedită şi să o faci unică punându-ţi în ea propriile cunoştinţe despre viaţă.

De aceea, a demonstra marea însemnătate a realizărilor tale în sfera cunoaşterii, prin extinderea dimensiunii tale ascunse, nu trebuie să se concretizeze doar într-o poveste care bate viaţa, ci într-o vedere de ansamblu care te face să înţelegi mai bine dimensiunile ei. Viaţa este o stea de la care cu greu îti poţi lua ochii, iar tu eşti creatorul ei.

Trăirea unui sentiment de putere absolută şi de controlare a realităţii se poate manifesta prin intermediul unui demers de conştientizare a relaţiei dintre ceea ce reprezinţi în plan creativ pentru schimbarea sensului vieţii şi ceea ce eşti pregătit să afli despre tine într-un act artistic, extrem de subtil, cum este aranjamentul cuvintelor într-o lume a scrisului.

Regele şi creaţia lui scoate în evidenţă gradul de acceptare a unui stil de gândire şi de reflectare la ceea ce-ai dobândit prin încercările vieţii, transpuse în propria variantă de a fi care face cinste sensului de deschidere spre treapta cea mai de sus a creaţiei. Dar, cum spunea cineva pe o pagină web, orice act artistic porneşte din trăiri, căci creaţia reprezintă un mod de confruntare a fiinţei cu limita, cu destinul.

Regizorul cu 20 de capete

Analizează legătura dintre percepţie şi realitate, definindu-ţi un stil de leadership cu tendinţe de evidențiere continuă a laturilor caracteristice personalității tale.

Totul începuse ca o glumă. În 1928, institutul îşi avea sediul în clădirea fostului restaurant "Iar". Sala studenţilor din clasa I de regie era fosta sală a oglinzilor. Sunase clopoţelul şi studenţii îşi aşteptau nerăbdători profesorul pe care-l cunoşteau doar din fotografii. Uşa se deschise şi profesorul intră. Oglinzile multiple reflectau de nenumărate ori prim-planul lui Eisenstein. Profesorul surâse: "Sunteţi într-adevăr norocoşi: după cum vedeţi, nu veţi avea un singur profesor, ci o droaie ! "

Mai târziu, Eisenstein era numit "Regizorul cu 20 de capete". De data aceasta nu mai era însă o aluzie la jocul de oglinzi, ci la metoda sa pedagogică: profesorul gândea la cursurile sale concomitent cu minţile celor 20 de studenţi ai săi. *

Leadership: Transformarea ta trebuie înţeleasă ca o lecţie pe care ţi-o transmite propriul sine în ecuaţia unei superiorităţi care decide asupra felului cum transmiţi un anumit concept?

Un artist care ştie să facă din creaţia artistică o transformare de sine este un regizor care ştie să pună în scenă cât mai elocvent scenariul unei intervenţii spectaculoase în realitatea lumii din jur, printr-o poveste emoţionantă despre curaj, determinare şi compromisuri. Limitele dezvoltării performanţei, respectând proporţia punctelor de experienţă care influenţează modul cum te prezinţi în faţa altora, se cer a fi depășite prin provocarea de a te regăsi uneori în postura de a fi altcineva, în dimensiunile cât mai captivante ori înălţătoare ale unei realităţi multiplicate.

Acest tip de realitate, ce intervine în leadership printr-un fel de introspecţie amplă care îţi permite să vezi greşelile şi erorile, permiţând abordări ale identităţii personale din unghiuri diverse, se susţine la nivel diferit, în funcţie de prin-planul în care eşti surprins.

Prim-Planul reprezintă suma unor identităţi parţiale, deci care nu urmează modele şi norme curente de reprezentare, având tendinţa de a se accentua, de a se compara şi de a se război între ele pentru dobândirea unor noi însuşiri, pentru a obţine un indicator de măsurare a gradului de variabilitate a ascensiunii pe plan profesional. Este poate cel mai folosit cadru de raportare voluntară la elementul esenţial al autorităţii tale şi, mai exact, la o nouă ierarhie de valori care defineşte relaţiile tale cu ceilalţi.

Poţi să clădeşti conceptul de a ajunge un cu totul alt om, prezentat sub aspectul unei învăţături speciale care încurajează restul lumii să o practice, numai dacă ideea pe care o ai despre valoarea ta este o extindere a propriei personalităţi într-o accepţiune mai larg utilizată a termenului de "prim-plan".

Prim planul care te validează ca regizor-artist este dimensiunea temei numită "memorie" pe care o expui în faţa unei majorităţi în stare să se autodeclare drept aparţinătoarea unei realităţi care continuă să se reinventeze.

Or această memorie nu trebuie judecată după manifestarea activă a libertăţii personale de a gândi, simţi şi acţiona potrivit nevoilor, înclinaţiilor, intereselor, capacităţilor şi posibilităţilor individuale, ci după felul cum îţi dovedeşti valoarea adăugată - faptul de a fi mai mult decât un efect sau o cauză, ci un tot a mai multor manifestări, activităţi, fenomene şi evenimente menite să marcheze o anumită superioritate.

Memoria este termenul ultim al unei lungi evoluţii, a unei experienţe vaste de viaţă, de muncă, de cultură şi creativitate, care te validează drept un întreg ce are inclus în interiorul său un şir nesfârşit de succesiuni evenimenţiale şi valorice.

Transformarea ta trebuie înţeleasă ca o formă de eliminare a identităţilor care se camuflează reciproc sau ca o lecţie pe care ţi-o transmite propriul sine pentru a-ţi aduce aminte cine eşti cu adevărat în câmpul unei autoanalize, a unei autocredibilităţi. Dar şi în câmpul unei relaţionări profunde cu tot ceea ce încă nu cunoşti despre tine sau cu ceea ce doreşti să fii intrând în rezonanţă cu alţii.

Un lider îşi întăreşte continuu capacitatea de a da valoare lucrurilor, de a fi măsura lor.

Leadershipul este un domeniu vast în care omul ce se impune cu autoritate în faţa celorlalţi trebuie foarte bine înţeles. Dar percepţia individuală este întotdeauna diferită. Căutând să înţelegi cum sunt percepute ideile tale de ceilalţi, ajungi să te transpui în locul lor bazându-te pe o bună cunoaştere a raţiunii umane, în strânsă corelaţie cu modul de gândire şi educaţia fiecăruia.

Acest lucru te ajută să faci o distincţie clară între modul în care eşti înţeles şi accepţiunea condiţionată de postura impusă de autoritatea recunoscută de ceilalţi. Este o modalitate de a te descoperi pe tine însuţi în faţa a ceea ce este evident sau în faţa a ceea ce îi faci pe ceilalţi să creadă.

Lecţia pe care ţi-o transmite propriul sine în ecuaţia superiorităţii este că poţi deveni mai mult decât o simplă entitate gândire, poţi deveni un tot cu mai multe reuşite, pe mai multe planuri, numai dacă realizezi că părerile celorlalţi nu mai contează deloc, sau cand realizezi că ceea ce le ai tu de oferit lor este mai mult decat ceea ce sunt ei dispuşi să îţi ofere ţie.

Regizorul cu 20 de capete evidenţiază felul în care leadershipul se reflectă în conştiinţa celorlalţi, dar şi o modalitate de autocontrol pentru a-ţi menţine intactă identitatea. În funcţie de realitatea pe care o descoperi în gândirea celorlalţi vei putea să construieşti noi abordări de dezvoltare personală şi profesională. Şi mai ales printr-o apreciere obiectivă a poziţiei tale de „monopol" faţă de alte forme de conducere şi instruire, nu doar prin cunoaştere şi reflecţie asupra naturii umane.

Regizorul își adaptează montajul la muzică, după un mecanism aparte

Găsirea coincidenței perfecte între imagine și "o revelaţie mai înaltă" necesită o cunoaștere clară a materialului vizual disponibil.

Prokofiev îl socoate pe Eisenstein un fin muzician tocmai pentru că remarcă caracterul simfonic al construcţiilor sale de montaj, înţelegerea nuanţată a fenomenului muzical. Eisenstein, care în numeroase rânduri remarca nepriceperea sa în muzică, scrie totuşi odată: "Cred că numai dintr-o întâmplare nu sunt compozitor. Deoarece nimic nu mă pasionează mai mult decât problemele compoziţionale".

Compozitorul ţine seama de părerile muzicale ale regizorului, i se întâmplă să refacă şi de şase ori muzica unui fragment şi când o dată introduce nişte teme compuse mai demult, reface apoi muzica la cererea lui Eisenstein care "nu a lăsat să i se strecoare potcoave vechi."

Când începe Prokofiev, regizorul îşi adaptează montajul la muzică, după un mecanism aparte. În primul rând trebuie să-şi închipuie foarte viu, să vadă limpede întreg materialul plastic disponibil pentru acea scenă. Apoi trebuie să caute coincidenţa perfectă dintre o imagine precisă şi un anume fragment al muzicii.

Caută coincidenţa dintre "factura obiectului sau peisajului" cu timpul unui pasaj muzical, o consonanţă intimă ce nu se poate explica raţional, dintre un fragment muzical şi un fragment din imagine. Nu este chiar atât de simplu, pentru că în această fază fragmentele de imagini sunt în haos şi ordonarea lor, după structura precisă a muzicii, îl împinge să sară de la un capăt al filmului la altul, pentru a ghici care alăturare de fragmente va corespunde unei anumite fraze muzicale.

Leadership: Cum poate munca ta să devină o interpretare vizuală a ideilor și emoțiilor exprimate într-o compoziție realistă, oferind o viziune integrată asupra poveștii care te inspiră?

Textul evidențiază complexitatea procesului de sincronizare a muzicii cu imaginea filmată. Eisenstein era un perfecţionist care dorea o potrivire absolută între cele două elemente artistice. Colaborarea lor demonstrează puterea artei de a transcende limitele și de a crea opere de o frumusețe unică. Textul oferă o perspectivă valoroasă asupra relației artistice dintre Prokofiev și Eisenstein, subliniind respectul reciproc, exigența artistică și spiritul de colaborare care au definit această colaborare fructuoasă.

Muzica reprezintă "o revelație mai înaltă", dacă considerăm munca regizorului drept o interpretare vizuală a emoțiilor și ideilor exprimate prin sunet.

Prokofiev îl consideră pe Eisenstein un fin muzician tocmai pentru că remarcă caracterul simfonic al construcțiilor sale de montaj și înțelegerea nuanțată a fenomenului muzical. Relația dintre muzică și imagine a fost un subiect de dezbatere în rândul compozitorilor și regizorilor timp de decenii. În esență, structura simfonică a unei lucrări muzicale poate fi comparată cu montajul unui film: organizarea temelor, armoniile, frazele muzicale și pauzele reflectă mișcarea dintre scene și ritmul poveștii.

Leadership: În ce fel poţi repoziţiona viziunea ta artistică pentru a integra aspirația spre o coincidență perfectă între imaginea precisă și ceea ce răsună în sufletul oamenilor?

În crearea unei consonanțe perfecte între muzică și imagine, compozitorul caută un echilibru fin între structura melodică și expresia vizuală. Când începe Prokofiev, atunci Eisenstein își adaptează montajul la muzică, după un mecanism aparte. În primul rând, trebuie să-și închipuie foarte viu, să vadă limpede întreg materialul plastic disponibil pentru acea scenă. Apoi trebuie să caute coincidența perfectă dintre o imagine precisă și un anume fragment al muzicii.

În această fază, fragmentele de imagini sunt în haos și ordonarea lor, după structura precisă a muzicii, îl împinge să sară de la un capăt al filmului la altul, pentru a ghici care alăturare de fragmente va corespunde unei anumite fraze muzicale. Cu toate acestea, o astfel de alăturare ideală nu este întotdeauna ușor de realizat, căci "montajul muzical" al filmului poate fi un proces complex și necesită deseori reinterpretări repetate pentru a găsi concordanța perfectă."

Un regizor de excepţie trebuie să știe cum să reflecte în propria creație procesul de ordonare a fragmentelor vizuale în acord cu ceea ce răsună în sufletele oamenilor.

Regizorul își adaptează montajul la muzică, după un mecanism aparte, luând în considerare imaginea vizuală și emoția care răsună în sufletul celor care privesc. De asemenea, el combină sunetele și ritmul cu secvențele vizuale pentru a crea o experiență armonioasă și captivantă pentru public.

Regizorul producţiilor ştiinţifice

On Iunie 10, 2014

Fii ferm în intenţiile tale de a te apropia de leadership, clarificându-ţi perfect viziunea asupra mijloacelor de producere a ştiinţei.

"Greva" trebuia să fie tema celui de al cincilea film. Prima viziune a "Grevei" era de fapt o transpunere a ideilor sale aplicate pe scenă, în această artă nouă a filmului. Aparent, Serghei Eisenstein se juca cu pelicula. El pare a-şi crea un divertisment artistic pe care-l practică cu o frenezie copilărească, parcă. De fapt însă "Greva" era o încercare serioasă. Pare de neînţeles cum acest regizor, un recent cursant al politehnicii, om cu o neobişnuită curiozitate pentru orice întâlneşte în cale, a gândit un film, a compus un decupaj înainte de a cunoaşte mijloacele tehnice de care dispunea.

Singura explicaţie rămâne aceeaşi a unui Eisenstein ferm în intenţiile sale artistice, cu idei cât se poate de clare, cu o "primă viziune" asupra filmului perfect clarificată, adică un artist pe care modalitatea strict practică, tehnică a concretizării ideilor îl interesează doar în subsidiar. Aşa se şi explică faptul că adeseori pretindea soluţii tehnice aparent imposibile, realizate însă apoi, totuşi, în clipa în care factorii tehnici înţelegeau scopul artistic propus. *****

Leadership: Poţi sparge zidurile invizibile ale neajunsurilor generate de solicitările imposibile ale perspectivelor de abordare a creaţiei care se suprapun cu direcţiile actuale ale ştiinţei?

Sursa potenţialului constant de inovare a ideilor se construieşte pe lungimea de undă a curiozităţii, omul putând astfel să îşi manifeste curiozitatea în două mari direcţii: înspre ceea ce se numeşte "practica raţională a relaţiei efort-recompensă" sau înspre ceea ce devine în timp ce obţine anumite rezultate.

Acestea ne spun cât suntem de predispuşi la acumularea de noi frustrări, de la erori şi contradicţii, şi cât de multă satisfacţie obţinem comparabil cu aşteptările noastre.

Calitatea activităţii de creaţie, adăugată la toată scara de percepţii, aprecieri, tehnici şi motivaţii care se potrivesc modalităţilor de generare a valorii de "unicat", de o altă făcură decât cele obţinute prin valorificarea rezultatelor prin transfer tehnologic, are ca primă menire o stimulare a curiozităţii, dar totuşi trebuie să remarcăm aici, instinctive, cât mai ales a dorinţei lor de a descoperi o nouă viziune.

Iar această curiozitate sistematică, recizelată de-a lungul unei întregi cariere, luptându-se să îşi găsească un preţ bun de şedere în spaţiul destinat construcţiilor de noi tipare şi noi repere care permit realizarea distincţiei între zona "profesională" şi zona "personală", se cere întotdeauna sporită, în ciuda tututor riscurilor pe care le comportă o poziţie de începător în ale tehnicii.

Neajunsurile generate de solicitările imposibile ale perspectivelor de abordare a creaţiei, în raport cu cerinţele practicii, se referă îndeosebi la modul cum încerci să-ţi evaluezi întreaga activitate desfăşurată de-a lungul timpului în funcţie de modalitatea de concretizare a ideilor şi viziunilor: prin imagini plastice, figuri de stil cu penetraţie deosebită, capacitatea de redare a unei istorii, sensibilitatea interioară, tehnica specială de redare a lucrurilor reale, etc

Incapacitatea de a atinge punctul maxim de inovaţie, cuprins în interiorul unei ştiinţe care îşi

extinde orizonturile, este mai mult favorabilă compromisului, relevând instalarea unei tendinţe descendente de concretizare a ideilor din subsidiar. Compromisul între tendinţa de a pune în acţiune Eul personal şi dorinţa de a acţiona conform Eului colectiv şi social reprezintă un deziderat pe care trebuie să-l duci la bun sfârşit.

Poate ştiinţa ta să configureze traiectoriile de creaţie ale unui leadership superior?

Standardele de excelenţă pe care le elaborezi au ca suport de bază legăturile de intensităţi diferite acumulate între "neobişnuita curiozitate pentru orice întâlneşti în cale" şi "concretizarea ideilor în subsidiar", implicate într-un proces de generare a valorii de unicat adăugată tendinţei de a pretinde o anumită manieră de creaţie.

Eşecul la examenul de realizare profesională este decisiv prin manevrele greşite de instalare şi repoziţionare a creatiei la nivel de autenticitate. Iar transpunerea ideilor de utilizare şi promovare a ştiinţei în realitate, cu soluţii originale pe gustul tău şi al celorlalţi devoratori de noutate, include automat leadershipul în ecuaţia elaborării noilor teorii şi metode de abordare a ştiinţei. Această știință se ocupă cu identificarea, localizarea, configurarea traiectoriilor de creaţie prin extinderea conștiinței și capacităţii liderului de a experimenta realităţi diferite.

Capacitatea de a experimenta atât lumea ta interioară, cât mai ales o lume care poate în cele din urmă să pună constrângeri aparent nefirești cu privire la compoziția de „inserturi” în afara ştiinţei unanim acceptate, îţi oferă şansa de a te reinventa.

În caz contrar, putem vorbi chiar de un eşec de tip cognitiv, care are în vedere nerealizarea obiectivelor de performanţă stabilite, şi unul de tip necognitiv, care se referă la inadaptarea ta la exigenţele unei ştiinţe prea înalte. Trebuie să inserezi întotdeauna noi valori, perspective, concepte şi idei care să conducă la crearea unui nou set de semnificaţii pentru leadership, ca să te transformi într-un artist al evadărilor din normele și standardele universal acceptate.

Întotdeauna un artist pe care modalitatea strict practică, tehnică a concretizării ideilor îl interesează doar în subsidiar, chiar dacă pretinde soluţii tehnice aparent imposibile, va reuşi să dea viaţă unei creaţii autentice. Iar această creaţie va avea acces deschis la o nouă sursă de energie regenerabilă pe măsură ce el își perfecţionează mijloacele tehnice de construcţie viziunilor de care dispune.

Leadershipul superior ia accente de ştiinţă reflectată într-o "operă artistică" atunci când creaţia ta pretinde ca posibilităţi de valorificare nişte tehnici de compoziţie aparent imposibile.

Regizorul producţiilor ştiinţifice este liderul care, printr-o cunoaştere profundă a ceea ce se aşteaptă de la el, devine un veritabil vector al schimbării, un întemeietor al unui leadership performant, bazat pe analiză proprie, interpretare, clarificare şi sugestivitate. Leadershipul trebuie să fie o creaţie unică, personalizată cu un stil aparte de a privi lucrurile şi de a crea noi abordări ştiinţifice.

Regizorul se luptă cu materia filmului care încă nici nu s-a născut

Schițele unui artist sunt semințe ale creației viitoare, așteptând doar contextul potrivit pentru a se desfășura în toată splendoarea lor.

Schițe, desene... Stenograme ale gândurilor, încercarea de a surprinde și păstra imaginile care asaltează imaginația. Eisenstein notează cu înfrigurare aceste gânduri care curg dezordonat, cu teama de a nu le pierde: pe carnete, pe fâșii rupte din plicuri, pe dosul unor telegrame, anunțuri, invitații. Însemnările și desenele sale acoperă complet aceste foi și bucăți de hârtie. Eisenstein se luptă cu materia filmului care încă nici nu s-a născut. Desenele acestea consemnează gândurile.

Uneori materializează o primă impresie imprecisă, intuiția unei scene din viitorul scenariu. Alteori încearcă să prevadă comportamentul viitor al unui interpret. Câteodată reprezintă senzația pe care o scenă trebuie să o nască, alteori caută cel mai eficace mod al întrețeserii curbei unei bolți cu o siluetă întunecată. Adesea, concretizate în scene refăcute și schimbate chiar și de douăzeci de ori, ele prefigurează filmul printr-o idee privind cadrul, mișcarea, atmosfera sau poate chiar și numai un element al decorului sau al machiajului.

"În intenție, aceste desene nu sunt mai mult (dar nici mai puțin) decât acele jucării japoneze din hârtie care, aruncate în apă caldă, se desfășoară în tulpini, frunze și flori cu forme fantastice și surprinzătoare."

Materializarea primelor impresii și intuiții pentru viitoarele scene implică o luptă constantă cu materia filmului încă nenăscut, fiecare schiță fiind un pas către concretizarea viziunii.

Procesul de creație al unui film începe adesea cu intuiții imprecise, schițate pe bucăți de hârtie, care apoi evoluează în scene, cadre și elemente de decor.

Schițele și desenele unui regizor de film sunt precum jurnalul intim al unui explorator ce cartografiază tărâmuri necunoscute ale imaginației. Aceste stenograme vizuale ale gândurilor reprezintă încercarea frenetică de a surprinde și conserva imaginile fugitive ce asaltează conștiința creatoare, înainte ca ele să se risipească în neant. Eisenstein, cu înfrigurarea unui om posedat de viziuni, notează aceste gânduri tumultoase și dezordonate pe orice suprafață disponibilă: carnete uzate, fâșii rupte din plicuri, versuri de telegrame, anunțuri efemere sau invitații mondene. Foile și bucățile disparate de hârtie devin rapid palimpseste acoperite complet de însemnări febrile și schițe nervoase, mărturii ale luptei titanice pe care cineastul o poartă cu materia încă informă a filmului ce urmează să se nască.

În acest caz, desenele lui Eisenstein sunt mai mult decât simple exerciții grafice; ele constituie o consemnare vie a procesului său creator. Uneori, ele materializează o primă impresie difuză, o intuiție vagă a unei scene din viitorul scenariu - precum o sământă ce conține în sine întreaga structură a copacului ce va deveni. Alteori, schițele sale încearcă să prevadă și să modeleze comportamentul unui interpret, ca un demiurg ce sculptează caracterul personajelor sale fictive. În anumite cazuri, desenul reprezintă senzația pe care o scenă trebuie să o nască în spectator, un fel de partitură emoțională tradusă în linii și umbre. Sau poate că regizorul caută obsesiv cea mai eficace modalitate de a intersecta curba unei bolți arhitecturale cu silueta întunecată a unui personaj, orchestrând un dialog vizual între decor și actori.

Munca artistică a unui cineast presupune să știe să transforme schițele și desenele brute în elemente concrete ale filmului, prefigurând cadre, mișcări și atmosfere.

Adesea, aceste schițe preliminare se transformă în scene refăcute și modificate de nenumărate ori, într-un proces iterativ de perfecționare continuă. Ele prefigurează filmul printr-o multitudine de idei privind compoziția cadrului, coregrafia mișcării, textura atmosferei sau chiar detalii aparent minore ale decorului ori machiajului. Să nu uităm că procesul creativ este o luptă continuă cu fluxul haotic al ideilor, iar artiștii dezvoltă metode unice pentru a captura și materializa aceste gânduri fugitive.

Fiecare element vizual este disecat, analizat și reconfigurat cu minuțiozitatea unui ceasornicar elvețian aplecat asupra mecanismelor fine ale timpului. "În intenție", reflectează Eisenstein, "aceste desene nu sunt mai mult (dar nici mai puțin) decât acele jucării japoneze din hârtie". Comparația cu origami-urile nipone este revelatoare: aruncate în apa fierbinte a procesului creativ, schițele sale rudimentare se desfac și se metamorfozează în structuri complexe - tulpini narative robuste, frunze de simbolism bogat și flori cu forme fantastice ale expresiei cinematografice, toate împletindu-se într-o operă de artă ce sfidează așteptările și surprinde prin profunzimea sa.

Cel ce explorează diverse aspecte ale filmului, de la comportamentul interpreților la intersecția liniilor arhitecturale cu siluetele personajelor, mai întâi trebuie să stabilească o viziune clară asupra narațiunii, pentru a asigura coerența și unitatea artistică.

Un regizor adevărat trebuie să creeze un cadru conceptual detaliat, pentru a integra fiecare element în scopul de a accentua atmosfera și mesajul dorit, și totodată să înțeleagă contextul emoțional al fiecărei scene, astfel încât să poată dirija toate elementele în aceeași direcție artistică.

Regizorul se luptă cu materia filmului care încă nici nu s-a născut de fiecare dată când își imaginează o scenă sau o secvență, în continuarea ideii că imaginația precede materializarea artistică, din care decurge procesul de creație autentic. Preferând o anumită abordare vizuală, regizorul va ști să își adapteze viziunea, considerând că fiecare element trebuie să susțină atmosfera dorită, în varianta unei construcții cinematografice organice.

Regizorul şi Magicianul

Diminuează vulnerabilitatea poziţiei tale de protagonist în spectacolul vieţii, efectuând cercetări amănunţite care să aibă ca rezultat întărirea aspectelor pozitive care caracterizează "Omul" din tine.

Nutream în subconştient o atracţie anormală pentru lucrurile stranii, lipsite de tâlc, dar revelatoare şi purtătoare de semnificaţii prin însăşi modul în care mă raportam la ele. Dintotdeauna am avut sentimentul că altceva îşi împarte viaţa cu mine, o prezenţă constantă care îmi trimitea mesaje printr-o permanentă comunicare non-verbală. Un efect cu potenţial revelator al unei confruntări dintre două tipuri umane, doi protagonişti în spectacolul bine închegat al vieţii: Eu şi El, Regizorul şi Magicianul.

O trecere de la o stare la alta. Ca un fel de schimb de suflete care ar fi trebuit să funcţioneze uşor şi fără probleme. Fără să bănuiesc că tot acest capitol al vieţii mele, tot acest angrenaj în care se cuplau cele două jumătăţi ce-mi compuneau personalitatea, acest va-et-vient continu , avea să se transforme într-o cursă în care mă înstrăinam tot mai mult de mine însumi.

Am păţit ca prinţul din povestea orientală care, rupând un sigiliu după altul de pe uşile încuiate, găseşte tot mai multe bijuterii şi nestemate, grămădite în fiecare încăpere. Şi, tot mai lacom, le ia la rând, nerăbdător de a ajunge la cea din urmă. Spectacolul vieţii lui consta în a fi mereu în căutarea a ceva care să aibă ecou înlăuntrul său, care să-l facă fericit, ceva care să exprime indispoziţiile şi chinurile sale interioare, dar nu-şi putea disciplina mintea să accepte aprecierile unei vieţi axate pe relaţia cu Dumnezeu.

Excesele mele erau tot mai mult de natură "selectivă", fantastică, mistică. Forţat de o intensitate fără precedent mă îndreptam spre sediul unei autorităţi mai înalte, a unei conştiinţe agnostice, păcătoase prin faptul că îmi îngropa sau reinventa toate principiile şi valorile. Poziţia mea faţă de mine însumi, faţă de orientările mele, faţă de realitate, faţă de societate şi lume, era ambiguă, extrem de şubredă, dominată de o influenţă străină.

Leadership: Poţi să te iei ca exemplu în construcţia calităţii vieţii în scopul cristalizării unei conştiinţe a cărei îndelungi agonii este a desprinde experienţa individuală de experienţa unei convertiri profunde la autenticitatea şi valabilitatea unei abordări non-posesive?

Magicianul era prins într-un joc neîntrerupt de oglinzi ce reflectau mereu o altă personalitate. Un joc straniu care punea în mişcare - într-un mod nemaipomenit - toate fibrele îndrăznelii, întărind toate pretextele mult prea convenabile care justificau lipsa continuităţii trăsăturilor care caracterizau "Omul" din el.

Era atât de obsedat de arta sa, a actoriei pure, constând într-un schimb de identităţi, de chipuri şi roluri diferite. Nu era preocupat atât de prestaţia sa de pe scenă, cât mai ales de cea care rezulta din întrepătrunderea "live" cu oamenii de rând, micii spectatori. Încât ajunsese perfect stăpân pe mijloacele sale de a se impune printr-o formă camuflată.

Posesivitatea de care dădea dovadă se referea la faptul că nu era dispus să pătrundă conştient în conflictualitatea vieţii şi să o rezolve printr-o muncă de purificare a sentimentelor și valorilor cele mai de preţ ale vieţii, ci era interesat numai de fascinaţia pe care o dau trucurile şi efectele de magie. Conştiinţa îi dicta un singur lucru: "fii cât mai bun în ceea ce faci, fără să-ţi asumi riscul de a te hotărî ce reprezinţi ca om înfrânt de forţa vieţii."

Uitase pur şi simplu orice altă preocupare umană. Uitase literalmente că viaţa îi putea oferi şi alte plăceri decât cea materială, profesională, de interceptare a celor mai vaste, complexe puncte de vedere. Ca un obiect preţios aruncat în mare, magicianul îşi adâncea gândurile într-o realitate tot mai vulnerabilă.

Leadership: Mergi pe o cale care îţi reflectă sinele superior, sau pe una care îţi reflectă sinele inferior?

Sinele lui, desprins parcă dintr-una din constantele experienţei de a aparține unei lumi subterane misterioase ce nu va dispărea niciodată pentru că ilustrează cu succes unul din cele mai vechi meşteşuguri, de a găsi, inventa şi reinventa motive pentru a pune în funcţiune acea parte a creaţiei latente, a-i da o speranţă, a-i crea un rost, constituie de fapt stadiul final al succesului autentic.

Un sine superior, fiindcă îşi recunoaşte perfecţiunea în descoperirea unor noi mijloace de a se exprima dincolo de orice cuprindere umană. Nu un sine inferior care susţine predestinarea unui om mândru ce ştie toate răspunsurile, dar nu are replică - o tristă experiență a neîmplinirii și a fragilității condiției umane.

Şi tocmai această volatilizare extremă a constantei sale de "a fi", îl determina să-şi folosească în chip tendenţios măştile. Totul se învârtea în special în jurul unei anumite măşti, închegarea unei identităţi de sine stătătoare. O mască albă, rece ca gheaţa polară, clădită pe fondul uitării de sine, al ignorării necesităţii de a revedea periodic condiţiile care îl împiedicau să facă în mod curent o schimbare de 90 de grade. Numai această mască îl ţinea prizonier în întunericul profund, absolut, al raţiunii. Al raţiunii prinse în caruselul unei înfruntări continue.

Aportul incontestabil al măştii, al acestui panaceu, era de a arăta că poate exista o psihologie şi o fizionomie a unei noi stări?

Leadership: Poţi oare să escaladezi o stâncă fără a fi la fel de dur ca ea, în cazul constituirii unei identităţi care se opune durabilităţii în termeni de "realitate vulnerabilă" ?

Scopul omului care îmbrăţişează ştiinţa conducerii la fel de mult ca şi dezvoltarea personală, nu trebuie să fie doar acela de a se ridica la un nivel înalt de funcţionalitate, ci mai degrabă de a sonda acea înţelegere care îi scapă. Identificând formula de transformare şi trasare a coordonatelor propriei sale identităţi în funcţie de constantele intelectuale, emoţionale, comportamentale, profesionale ce împlinesc scopul existenţei sale, el îşi va putea doborî cu adevărat adversarul nevăzut.

Adversarul nevăzut, acel Eu care se exteriorizează în altcineva multiplicat, acel Alter-Ego bine „regizat", devine o prezenţă constantă care îi dictează noi reguli, oprindu-i funcţionarea şi înstrăinându-l de adevăratele valori şi principii. O identitate care se opune durabilităţii în sfera "cauzalităţii limitate" este o reflectare a experienţei de a face parte dintr-un scenariu al cărui protagonist trăieşte înconjurat de mirajul unei realităţi epurate de concret, verosimilă numai în faţa iscusinţei de a întreţine o atmosferă exuberantă.

Un surplus de potenţial funcţional, o acumulare de idei, semnificaţii, tendinţe, acceptarea unei alte "jumătăţi" dăunătoare adevăratei tale identităţi. Rezultând o combinaţie negativă între durabilitate şi evoluţie, o aşchiere uşoară a felului tău de a fi, o desincronizare, o orânduire eronată a motivelor din spatele acţiunilor tale.

O îndepărtare de la felul tău de a fi care te apropie, fără să bănuieşti, de o autoritate mai înaltă, de un Alter Ego care mereu îţi şopteşte, îţi ordonă să fii altcineva. Iar această îndepărtare de sine este similară cu escaladarea unui munte.

Te caţeri pe panta unei stânci ca să admiri un peisaj uimitor, eşti cuprins de vraja unui alt orizont temporal. Te simţi măreţ şi puternic. Dar asta nu înseamnă că eşti o "bucată de stâncă", nu înseamnă neapărat că ai o gândire mai matură şi solidă.

Înseamnă doar că ai ajuns la un nivel în care abandonezi anumite idei în favoarea altora mai noi. Înseamnă că îţi adânceşti gândurile într-o realitate care poate deveni tot mai vulnerabilă, prin faptul că noul orizont te îndepărtează de cine erai, îngrădindu-ţi vechile orizonturi.

Leadership: Îţi permiţi să fii "Omul de dincolo de mască" în prezenţa unei realităţi care poate fi inclusă într-o creaţie plină de contraste, încât să faci din harul vocaţiei tale o artă de a-ţi reinventa existenţa?

Să-ţi păstrezi acel " spiritus purus subtilissimus " care străbate ca un efluviu creator şi universal eternul fiinţei sale, iată, aceasta este adevărata măreţie !

Să găseşti puntea îndelung căutată ce întregeşte cele două structuri care îţi definesc existenţa: Ego-ul şi Alter-Ego-ul, şi să te supui numai aceleia care literalmente îţi poate oferi şi alte plăceri decât cea materială, profesională, precum condiţia ta de a fi ce eşti până la capăt, iată, aceasta este adevărata împlinire, cea care te înalţă şi îţi risipeşte orice mască !

Cât priveşte "măştile" selectate pentru a fi incluse în esenţa unei personalităţi, ele accentuează autoritatea celor ce le poartă. Şi reprezintă, în cazul leadershipului, exceptând studiul interpretărilor pe care le acordăm anumitor situaţii, reproducerea unor părţi sau chiar a întregului "Omului". Fie ca atare, fie sub forma unor capitole din existenţa sa cu o priză mai largă la tot ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul său, dar cu efect de înceţoşare a realităţii.

Leadershipul este realitatea pe care o răstorni după felul cum îţi exprimi aprecierea faţă de tot ce înseamnă "abordări constructive" şi faţă de ceea ce reprezinţi într-un cadru plin de personaje grupate în jurul exceselor de imagine, care se dovedesc altceva decât ceea ce crede lumea că sunt.

Care este poziţia ta faţă de tine însuţi, faţă de orientările tale, faţă de realitate, faţă de societate şi lume? Este ambiguă, extrem de şubredă, dominată de o influenţă străină, de un alt fel de "a fi"?

Studiul "magicianului", cu toate particularităţile sale, ca om şi ca lider, a fost conceput special pentru latura umană a leadershipului. Iar măştile sale reflectă, în studiul de faţă, o poziţie vulnerabilă a omului pus în faţa tranziţiei spre maturitate, spre acceptarea condiţiei sale de "a fi".

Te laşi prins într-un joc neîntrerupt de oglinzi ce reflectă mereu o altă personalitate? Te îndepărtezi tot mai mult de tine însuţi? Îţi impui personalitatea printr-o formă camuflată?

Diminuează vulnerabilitatea poziţiei tale, efectuând cercetări amănunţite care să aibă ca rezultat întărirea aspectelor pozitive care caracterizează "Omul" din tine.

Aspectul pozitiv care caracterizează "Omul din Tine" este faptul că tot ceea ce doreşti să obţii prin intermediul magiei îţi dă posibilitatea să observi pe îndelete, cum te manifeşti în situaţii diferite, şi astfel să-ţi dai seama care este graniţa dintre schimbările de personalitate pe care le aduce o carieră memorabilă, plină de provocări şi decizii controversate.

Regizorul şi Magicianul sunt două feţe ale aceleiaşi măşti în spatele căreia unii se încăpăţânează să se situeze mereu, realitatea lor depinzând doar de opţiunea „sucelii" până la refuz, ce uneori poartă numele de "geniu", exprimat în foarte multe dimensiuni pe care e foarte greu să le cuprinzi.

Regula ceasornicarului

Înlătură însuşirile negative ale oamenilor, ajustând atitudinea lor după acele convingeri şi valori pe care ei le preţuiesc, dar pe care le trec cu vederea.

Vivian Ward, dama de companie a controversatului om de afaceri, Edward Lewis. Nu călcase niciodată prin astfel "locuri" – nici cea mai neînsemnată urmă, nici cel mai firav semn nu arăta că a fost într-adevăr interesată să meargă vreodată la operă. Ea, o prostituată fără viitor, fără orizonturi, introdusă în lumea nouă, întrând în contact cu un alt gen de cultură, cu un alt gen de gândire. Şi cu toate astea, iată-i împreună, într-o lojă centrală, urmărind spectacolul cu opera "Madame Butterfly".

Dar ceva se întâmplă. Brusc totul se schimbă în viaţa ei. Pentru o clipă priveşte în ea însăşi. Ea, care nu cunoscuse niciodată tandreţea şi afecţiunea, care nu cunoscuse plăcerea aceea care există într-o relaţie – şi care se traduce prin iubire, ea care nu gustase niciodată din acea bucurie deplină pe care o primeşti în schimbul propriei dăruiri. Ea care cu o imensă ambiţie şi rezistenţă îşi ţinuse întotdeauna în umbră puterile sufleteşti, care nu-şi respectase niciodată îndatoririle faţă de propria ei inimă, faţă de simţămintele ei cele mai profunde.

Ea, care cu o tenacitate de invidiat nu se lăsase niciodată condusă, niciodată păcălită, niciodată momită de ispita atât de atrăgătoare a dragostei – secretul unei relaţii de durată, frânându-şi întotdeauna la timp tentaţia fidelităţii, fiind absorbită numai de pofta banului. Ea, făptura aceasta atât de frumoasă care îşi îndurase singură chinul atâta vreme, care îşi închisese undeva în ea toate tristeţile şi toate furtunile interioare, având puterea de a nu se exterioriza niciodată - iată că pentru prima dată în viaţa ei îşi dezvăluie adevăratul caracter.

Încearcă să-şi oprească lacrimile care o cuprind, dar ele curg, nestingherite, alunecând blând pe obraji - scoţând la iveală adevărata ei strălucire interioară.

Leadership: Te simţi dator viitorului să-ţi încerci şansa de a creşte însemnătatea atitudinii tale faţă de realitate, în funcţie de semnificaţia ambiguă a imaginii pe care ţi-o construieşti în universul tău imaginar?

Un univers imaginar este un fel de memorie a durerii şi a viselor neîmplinite care exclude orice fel de compromisuri. Însă această memorie poate fi modificată în funcţie de conştiinţa care facilitează receptarea mesajelor din exterior, venite pe "undele sensibile" ale intensităţii cu care simţi o conexiune sufletească şi intelectuală.

Semnificaţia ambiguă a imaginii pe care ţi-o construieşti în universul tău imaginar se referă la câştigarea unei biruinţe spirituale care să te scoată de sub stăpânirea deprinderii de cele obişnuite care nasc patimile faţă de ceea ce ţi se întâmplă. Semnificaţia se poate concentra şi în puncte cu totul neaşteptate, cum ar fi aceea de oprire în faţa unui loc cu uşile mari larg deschise din care poţi observa fenomenul spectaculos al "viului", fără să poţi atinge belşugul lui.

Îmi amintesc o remarcă interesantă a lui Jules Verne: " În noi există două forţe distincte: cea a sufletului şi cea a trupului, adică o mişcare şi un regulator. Sufletul este principiul vieţii: deci el este mişcarea. Că este produsă de o greutate, de un arc sau de o influenţă imaterială, tot în inimă se află. "

Leadership: Trebuie să înveţi să dai o semnificaţie tuturor lucrurilor şi situaţiilor care te înconjoară, în funcţie de valoarea de "AŞTEPTARE A UNUI ÎNCEPUT SINCER" introdusă în rezultatele funcţionării unui mecanism de stocare a memoriei numit "CACHE" ?

Totul în leadership creşte şi descreşte în funcţie de priceperea ta de a face schimbările necesare în sufletul celor din jurul tău. Edward Lewis, din filmul "Pretty Woman (1990)" , şi-a însuşit bine rolul de "ceasornicar", reglând cu mare precizie acea legătură dintre cele două forţe distincte: cea a sufletului şi cea a trupului. Ducând-o pe Vivian la operă, care aducea în prim plan o poveste de dragoste, el a reuşit să scoată la iveală din bagajul ei sufletesc acea doză emoţională care o făcea să fie mai simţitoare faţă de propria ei persoană. Era ca şi cum şi-ar fi reglat ceasul după pulsul inimii ei.

Aşa cum un ceasornicar iscusit este capabil să ajusteze piesele cele mai delicate din cele mai fine ceasuri, tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să fii în stare să sesizezi ceea ce merge neregulat la oameni şi să ajustezi atitudinea lor după acele valori pe care ei le preţuiesc dar le trec cu vederea; să încerci să combaţi în întregime sistemul lor de convingeri, puternic dar ineficient, scoţând la suprafaţă doza emoţională care este îngropată în ei.

Edward Lewis a urmărit mai consecvent decât oricine altcineva dezvăluirea, dincolo de aparenţe, a adevărului interior, vizibil la ea numai prin înţelegerea amplă şi profundă, prin empatie, a sentimentelor şi a trăirilor ei cele mai intime. Tu cum repari un ceas drag sufletului tău?

Tu poţi privi înăuntrul oamenilor? Poţi vedea acele câteva rotiţe, dintre multele care ţin în mişcare angrenajul marelui lor sistem de convingeri? Ai înţeles cum acţionează forţele care combină gândirea cu simţirea lor? Poţi sesiza legătura intimă care există între modul în care ei îşi exprimă atitudinea şi modul în care îşi gestionează emoţiile? Ştii ce piese trebuie să ajustezi încât să trezeşti în ei sentimentele pierdute sau uitate?

CACHE este memoria care te leagă de ceilalţi oameni atunci când se produce o lărgire a conştiinţei peste întreaga experienţă a reîntoarcerii tale la stadiu de fiinţă dominată de dorințe neîmplinite.

Poţi oricând să dai un "clean" pentru a rula în backgroundul conştiinţei un nou exemplu de a fi în acelaşi timp: un izvor de viaţă şi o sursă de inspiraţie.

Regula ceasornicarului: " Nu ai cum să repari un ceas scump cu ciocanul. "

În relaţia ta cu oamenii, trebuie să respecţi aceeaşi regulă, puţin schimbată: " Nu ai cum să repari sufletul unui om dacă nu ocroteşti tot ceea ce e delicat şi într-un anume fel fragil la el, dacă nu reuşeşti să scoţi la suprafaţă adevăratele lui sentimente, ori, mai rău, dacă îl înstrăinezi de ele."

Aşa cum un ceasornicar trebuie să aleagă rotiţele de care are nevoie pentru a porni un ceas mai vechi sau pentru a face un ceas nou, tot aşa şi tu trebuie să păşeşti pe teritoriul sufletesc al oamenilor, să asculţi acordurile lor interioare şi să înlocuieşti toate acele rotiţe lăuntrice neîntreţinute care împiedică funcţionarea lor la nivel optim. Devii preţuit după măsura priceperii tale.

Eşti capabil să pui în relaţie toate acele rotiţe şi mecanisme necesare unei eficiente funcţionări? Eşti la fel de iscusit ca un meşter ceasornicar?

Înlătură însuşirile negative ale oamenilor, ajustând atitudinea lor după acele convingeri şi valori pe care ei le preţuiesc, dar pe care le trec cu vederea.

Relaţia dintre Eu Însumi şi Universul Paralel

Dă formă şi substanţă realităţii tale prezente, fără să te cramponezi la acel schimb de limite care poate afecta structura ta funcţională.

Aveam acea senzaţie chinuitoare de apartenenţă la o zonă de timp paralelă, setata în funcţie de viziunea unui regizor care și-a scos din vocabular cuvântul "bariere". Propriul trecut se contopea cu viitorul - condiţia existenţei reale a unui caracter misterios, oarecum fantastic, care favoriza traiectoria ascendentă a evoluţiei mele. Iar această evoluţie era pe alocuri pusă sub semnul lipsei consensului dintre mai multe opinii proprii, care se contraziceau, se excludeau reciproc.

Era doar un obicei de-al meu de a mă transpune în alt timp, într-un alt univers, în mijlocul unor alte locuri, în acea realitate virtuală invincibilă care depăşeşte senzaţionalul. Nebruiat de niciun factor perturbator, traversam un spaţiu alb, continuu. Şi în acelaşi timp schimbător şi greu de înţeles. Un semn de falsă ştiinţă? Aici era marele mister al artei? Iar spaţiile albe dintre două puncte de susţinere erau, pentru mine, ca o moarte cerebrală, dar şi o reînviere a spiritului. Aveam sentimentul că pot vedea şi trăi totul, cu mult înainte de a se petrece inevitabilul.

Mă izolam complet de o lume, dar intram în alta. Rezultatul acestui proces imaginativ, făcea din mine un inculpat în faţa respectatei instanţe de judecată: imposibilul. Eram prins în zona de iluzie. Gradul de încorporare în sistemul de coordonate a noii locaţii în care mă aventuram întrecea măsura, atingea absurdul. Ceea ce trezea o teamă justificată de tipul " cât timp mă voi menţine pe această linie de judecată pe care am încercat să o trasez aici? când mă voi dezlipi de ea? "

Măiestria în leadership se vede atunci când deţii toate atuurile unui joc pe care alţii nu-l pot juca.

Nu înţelegeam prea bine de ce anumite spaţii exercitau o asemenea putere de atracţie, o vibraţie rapidă şi cu frecvenţă înaltă, chintesența unei experienţe ce trezeşte o încântare absolută. Dar nevoia de a reveni şi de a staţiona în aceste locuri neînţelese, imprecis delimitate pe harta minţilor obişnuite, în răgazul de numai câteva clipe, era una dintre cele primordiale. Şi fără a o satisface nu puteam fi mulţumit. Dar nu putea să dureze la nesfârşit acest periplu pe meleagurile necunoscute şi neexplorate.

În mod sigur, încercam acelaşi sentiment pe care îl trăia şi personajul din romanul lui John Fowles, atunci când a cumpărat ferma Thorncombe. Nevoia de a avea acest loc, de a-l poseda pe de-a-ntregul, venea cumva din străfundurile subconştientului, toate celelalte motive conştient raţionale aflându-se pe un plan secund.

Simultan, rezistenţa şi supunerea în faţa unei autorităţi mai mult de ordin metafizic, dădeau formă şi substanţă realităţii mele prezente. Dar nu mai puteam să ţin pasul cu update-urile perspectivelor mele în lumina unei lumi ireale. Eram supraîncărcat cu o materie care nu lucrează cu limite. Cât mai rapid, trebuia să dezactivez acest câmp de atracţie, să renunţ la acest échange de limites care ar fi putut afecta serios structura numită "eu însumi".

Jocul pe care îl jucam era un fel de combinaţie între ascunsul unei lumi proprii ajunse la limitele ei şi trăirea ineditului din perspectiva credinţei într-un ideal de autenticitate înţeles ca o pătrundere într-o realitate care îşi omite dimensiunea temporară (fiind pusă la îndoială).

Leadership: Conştientizezi că varianta de a te inventa ca o operă de ficţiune este primul pas către învingerea unui Ego care ar vrea să crească tot timpul şi nemăsurat, inclusiv din punct de vedere al unei realităţi necunoscute?

Te ascunzi de lume, şi te închizi în alta? Ai sentimentul că poţi vedea şi trăi totul, cu mult înainte de a se petrece inevitabilul? Cât timp poţi suporta periplul pe meleagurile necunoscute şi neexplorate?

Nu consider necesar să cercetez orientarea reală a leadershipului prin analiza acelei variabile cu impact pozitiv care aduce o contribuţie maximă la fundamentarea a ceea ce poate deveni paradigmă de gândire. Dar cred că pot să realizez o sinteză a principalelor constatări, după caz, rezultate în urma analizei efectuate pe un singur capitol existenţial, care are ca pivot regândirea structurii şi a modului de funcţionare a individului supus propriei sale raţiuni.

Apartenenţa individului la propria lui identitate, singura de natură să producă argumente decisive pentru o nouă direcţie de urmat, toate aspectele diverse, multiple, complexe ale maturizări, toate frământările, neliniştile, contradicţiile, speranţele şi visurile - sunt însumate într-o analiză secundară care vizează planul concret al existenţei sale.

Iar acest plan trebuie să fie raţional şi aplicabil în tot ce ţine de el ca persoană, în toate tiparele gândirii sale pentru ca leadershipul să capete o mai mare pondere mai mare în sânul devenirii sale, favorizând traiectoria ascendentă a evoluţiei sale.

Universul pe care ţi-l clădeşti cu grijă în imaginaţia ta este consecinţa trăirilor pe care le dobândeşte disperarea de a evada din realitatea dură a unui prezent care nu duce nicăieri şi care amplifică dezamăgirea.

Aici, întrebarea pe care o adresa odată expertul internaţional, John Maxwell, este binevenită: " Intri într-o zonă şi rămâi acolo? " Această intrare într-o zonă care nu e centrată pe realitatea imediată, poate asigura un confort de natură psihică, ca un stimulent de a pătrunde tot mai adânc în taina creaţiei. Dar dacă rămâi prea mult acolo rişti să nu te mai poţi dezlipi de ea.

Evoluţia ta va fi mai bună sau deficitară în funcţie de poziţia pe care o ocupi în raport cu referenţialul, dar şi de modul cum menţii legătura cu tine însuţi în încercarea de a-ţi depăşi limitele. Şi de modul cum îţi extinzi cadrul de percepţie a realului. Căci încercarea de a te situa pe un plan mai înalt de " a fi ", care te forţează să te închizi în imaginar şi creativ, nu-ţi garantează obţinerea unei superiorităţi în dezvoltare, forţându-te să te întorci împotriva valorilor şi a adevărurilor acceptate de raţiune.

Leadershipul se referă şi la succesiunea alternativă a mutărilor pe care le faci pentru a ajunge la un nivel mai înalt de înţelegere a cine eşti tu cu adevărat. Să cazi în abisul gândurilor şi imaginaţiei poate însemna o mână întinsă în timp ce faci pasul de bază spre înţelegerea mai amplă a vieţii şi a rolului tău în lume. Dar totodată poate facilita îndepărtarea ta de realul acceptat de tine însuţi şi de majoritate.

Cine eşti cu adevărat se reflectă în realitatea pe care o trăieşti în interiorul unei ficţiuni care reprezintă viitorul din perspectiva a ceea ce alţii nu pot să întrevadă.

Relaţia dintre Eu Însumi şi Universul Paralel are la bază compromisul dintre două entităţi: Ego şi Alter-Ego. Primul îţi cere să rămâi în limitele normalităţii unanim acceptate, celălalt îţi cere să pătrunzi într-un spaţiu neexplorat.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să nu se expună atacului mediocrităţii, atunci dă formă şi substanţă realităţii tale prezente, fără să te cramponezi la acel schimb de limite care poate afecta structura ta funcţională.

Însă nu uita ! Dacă te menţii permanent într-o "lume paralelă", neacceptată şi neînţeleasă de contemporani, poţi fi catalogat drept necorespunzător pentru o societate normală.

Renașterea continuă în opera supremă a trăirii

Ceea ce percepi ca fiind "real" poate fi simpla suprafață a unei lumi iluzioniste menită să te pregătească pentru o cunoaștere superioară.

Experiența pe care am trăit-o recent a fost cu adevărat uluitoare, un fel de Erisyoacyk Amoselion, o punte dintre minte, corp şi suflet, prin care o lume exterioară a curs nestingherit în mine. Încă sunt în căutarea semnificației ei profunde.

Când m-am trezit în această dimineață, obiectele pe care le-am găsit lângă mine, o mască, un ceas şi un trandafir, erau indicii că realitatea și visul sunt mai strâns legate decât pare la prima vedere. Masca de teatru de pe noptieră mă făcea să mă gândesc la rolurile pe care le-am jucat în viață, fără voia mea, Prospero, Hamlet, Timon sau Macbeth, și la dorința trecătoare de a-mi ascunde adevărata față sub diverse măști. Visul, trăirea mea în altă realitate, ar putea fi o chemare pentru a-mi deschide ochii la posibilitățile ascunse și la experiențele neexplorate din viața aceasta?

Povestea visului meu este povestea secretelor prin care am trăit. A fost ca şi când aş fi încercat să evadez dintr-o amintire fără de prezent sau, dimpotrivă, să mă alătur unui proces de revedere a unei jumătăţi din mine, condiţionată de artă să-mi lumineze sufletul printr-o vădită tendinţă de intensificare a dialogului dintre real şi ireal. Cu cât un magician îşi protejează mai bine secretele, cu atât acestea se dovedesc a fi mai banale. Scena, bineînţeles, se dezvoltase în jurul meu, datorită pretinsei mele capacităţi de a mă afla în două locuri în acelaşi timp.

Dar cel mai intrigant obiect din vis, care face trimitere la obiectele descoperite lângă mine, era o pictură abstractă, ale cărei culori vibrante și forme nebuloase păreau să mă conducă către o percepere din ce în ce mai acută a infinitului. Acea mișcătoare întindere albastră, stagnantă în mișcarea ei, valabilă doar prin expresivitatea degajată, pe care mi-o oferea pictura, se afla într-un echilibru instabil, undeva între informal și figurativ, între abstract și concret.

Leadership: Descoperirea că "ceea ce vezi nu este ceea ce este de fapt" te invită să te întrebi cât de mult din ceea ce știi este de fapt filtrat prin iluzii?

Drept urmare, confruntându-mă cu demonstrarea definitivă a imposibilului, oscilam între cele două identități ale picturii, ambele atrăgându-mă într-un mod izbitor. Una care îmi aparţinea cu adevărat, cealaltă care împinge către nebunie, acea stare permanentă de somnambulism, prin care viaţa, cu formele ei de manifestare, îşi înregistrează suita sa de variaţiuni fără sfârşit. Echilibrul instabil dintr-o operă de artă poate oglindi tensiunile interioare ale observatorului.

Am închis înapoi ochii. Niciun cuvânt. Nimic explicit. Aveam senzația că sunt într-o încăpere vidată, plină de tăcere, în care Dumnezeu, purtând o pelerină neagră cu glugă de Halloween, își dezvăluia prezența misterioasă într-un tablou mişcător, fluid, care se scurgea precum timpul din operele lui Salvador Dali. Era ca un fel de revelație spirituală profundă, o conexiune cu divinul dincolo de formele obișnuite, fiindcă ceva mă făcea să ies din tiparele percepției obișnuite și să experimentez o stare alterată de conștiință, o fuziune misterioasă cu realitatea de dincolo de aparențe.

Abandonarea conștiinței limitate este calea spre iluminare.

Când am deschis ochii, senzaţia rămăsese atât de puternică, încât am crezut că eu însumi fusesem topit într-un peisaj fluid ca timpul, din picturile lui Dali. Tulburător şi neliniştitor, mă simțeam ca și când realitatea obiectivă se dizolvase, granițele dintre mine și lumea exterioară devenind neclare, iar percepția mea era complet distorsionată și suprarealistă. Totuşi, mă copleşise un sentiment de singurătate, ca şi când m-aş fi despărţit de lumea asta, doar ca să-l cunosc pe Dumnezeu, iar odată ce l-am găsit, imediat a dispărut. Arta abstractă te provoacă să găseşti sens și ordine în haosul aparent.

Leadership: Ai putea să percepi o imagine care conduce la o estimare subiectivă a realității, împrumutând elemente simbolice capabile să construiască o ființă creativă organică, cu o diversitate infinită de întruchipări?

Magicianul din romanul lui Christopher Priest, mărturisea o parte din secretul iluzionismului:

"La baza misterului se află trei, posibil patru dintre cele şase categorii fundamentale de iluzii: dispăruse, apoi dispăruse în altă parte, cumva părea să fi fost şi un element de transfer, iar toate fuseseră realizate cu aparentă sfidare a legilor naturii. O dispariţie pe scenă este relativ uşor de pregătit, prin plasarea oglinzilor sau a jumătăţilor de oglinzi, folosirea luminii, utilizarea pânzelor sau stolurilor negre, şi aşa mai departe. Apariţia în alt loc este, de obicei, o chestiune de plasare dinainte a unui obiect sau a unei copii fidele a acestuia. Sau, dacă este vorba despre o persoană, plasarea unei dubluri convingătoare a persoanei respective. Combinarea acestor două efecte îl produce pe al treilea; în dezordinea sa, publicul crede că a asistat la sfidarea legilor naturii."

Just a dream artist. Dumnezeu mi-a dat visul ca să-mi împlinesc realitatea. Încă mă gândesc, dacă nu cumva visul meu a fost prezentarea rafinată a unei iluzii de scenă, suficient de bună încât să mă determine să mă cunosc mai bine sub aspectul unui Delirium, a unei Synaesthesia, care uneşte trecutul și prezentul într-un mod special.

Tatăl şi fiul, amândoi află adevărul neliniştitor: "ceea ce vedem, nu este ceea ce este de fapt". Unul se confundă cu celălalt, până când amândoi devin una - o singură conștiință fuzionată, în care granițele dintre identități se estompează complet. Trec pe nesimțite de la unul la celălalt, fără a ști măcar dacă acest transfer se efectuează într-un sens ori în altul.

Momentul în care Dumnezeu intervine în vis sugerează tranziția de la creație la revelație.

Pictura a prins viața din vis și a devenit realitate. Dintr-o dată, și fără niciun prag, ea m-a introdus în acest infinit al iluziilor generate de însuşi forţa creativă a minţii, într-un moment în care Dumnezeu a spus: "Destul". Şi, ştergându-şi sudoarea de pe frunte, El m-a invitat să păşesc mai departe pe calea spre infinit. Cu condiția de a mă abandona viziunii sale, curând am început să prețuiesc, la justa ei valoare, calitatea implicată în această pierdere - sau redobândire - de conștiință.

Într-un final, am izbutit să desluşesc adânc sensul acestei experiențe inexplicabile. Iată-l: "Unirea identităților într-o singură conștiință poate simboliza integrarea aspectelor divergente ale sinelui."

În leadership te vei lovi mereu de această lege aspră: "Fii pregătit să îți pierzi temporar reperele obișnuite, pentru a câștiga o cunoaștere superioară."

Această cunoaștere superioară se obține prin integrarea și reconcilierea aspectelor divergente ale sinelui într-o conștiință unificată, astfel încât să se obțină o perspectivă mai profundă și mai cuprinzătoare asupra realității și a propriei ființe.

Renașterea continuă în opera supremă a trăirii simbolizează transcendența limitărilor și evoluția constantă a ființei către nivele superioare de înțelegere și conștientizare. Visurile pot funcționa ca un teatru al minții, punând în scenă iluzii complexe care dezvăluie adevăruri profunde. Deci, iată singurul adevăr care m-a inspirat să scriu acest articol:

"Cu cât vrei să afli mai multe despre tine și despre lume, cu atât trebuie să visezi mai mult, pentru că visele sunt portaluri către adâncurile inexplorate ale ființei și ale universului."

Renunţare dincolo de creaţie

Manifestă-ţi autoritatea în lupta cu tine însuţi, focalizându-te pe opoziţia dintre simplitatea aparentă a producerii unei creaţii distincte şi complexitatea ei ulterioară.

Într-o scrisoare din Mexic, regizorul Serghei Eisenstein scria unui prieten: "Ştiţi bine că spiritul, inima şi...soarta mea sunt melodramice". Sunt rânduri scrise la 28 decembrie 1931. Soarta sa devine însă profund tragică şi, într-o scrisoare de peste numai patru luni, scrisă la 27 ianuarie 1932, după ce Sinclair dă dispoziţia categorică de oprire a filmărilor, citim aceste rânduri cutremurătoare:

"Renunţ la tot. Tot, tot, tot - numai să mi se lase posibilitatea de a termina ceea ce, în condiţiile unor greutăţi dintre cele mai de neînchipuit, nu lucrez, ci pentru care lupt... Este vorba, aşa cum suntem cu toţii convinşi, despre filmul nostru cel mai bun. Nu se poate distruge aşa ceva...Groaznic este că oamenii nu înţeleg că filmul nu-i un cârnaţ pe care-l poţi mânca în întregime sau la fel de bine şi numai pe trei sferturi din lungimea lui..

Poate totuşi se întâmplă un miracol şi voi mai putea filma episodul pentru care aş da sângele inimii mele (şi nu o spun ironic - îmi cunoşti doar caracterul). Ajută-ne... Asemenea scrisori nu se scriu deseori...În situaţia mea omul îşi trage un glonţ în cap. Mă şi mir că nu o fac ! Cine ştie - asta s-ar putea totuşi întâmpla ! Există aici toate posibilităţile şi să trebuiască totuşi să renunţ la tot ! " *

Leadership: Cum te percepi în faţa instanţei supreme numite "renunţare", în limitele a ceea ce poţi experimenta şi obţine prin intermediul actului de creaţie care îţi pune la încercare răbdarea şi ambiţia?

În adâncul fiinţei care îşi actualizează constant rănile pricinuite de eforturi care deseori nu produc decât o oboseală cumplită, se manifestă o sfârşeală ce rămâne agăţată de vreo iluzie trecătoare. Acesta este un sindrom al personalităţilor puternice, chiar dacă pare greu de crezut. În faţa actului de creaţie se aşează întotdeauna un zid, numit renunţare, o luptă straşnică cu însăşi posibilitatea de a fi parte din povestea căreia i-ai dat o formă absolut fantastică, fiindcă puţini reuşesc să transpună o poveste într-o celebrare a spiritului autentic de sacrificiu, a loialităţii faţă de un ideal, manifestat în lupta pentru victoria unui vis, a unei viziuni sau a unei pasiuni.

Însăşi actul de creaţie este o definiţie a menirii, a implicării omului ambiţios într-un proiect numit "O şansă la demnitate". În cugetările dospite în poliedrul desfăşurării existenţei care te împiedică să materializezi o viziune, ca o slăbiciune adusă de loviturile sorţii propriilor tale puteri, adică în cugetările care năzuiesc să explice acea stare psihico-emoţională care strigă că ai ajuns acolo unde nimic nu te aşteaptă, putem să deosebim două orientări.

Una, reprezentată prin senzaţia de opoziţie dintre simplitatea aparentă a producerii unei creaţii distincte şi complexitatea ei ulterioară, manifestând o relativă independenţă faţă de conţinutul ei, ceea ce te apropie de un fel de barieră sau graniță, marcând limita dintre valoare şi non-valoare. Cealaltă, reprezentată prin ceea ce ţi se întâmplă atunci când simţi că te blochezi şi nu mai poţi avansa, inefabilul existând aici în stare pură, duce la un fel de degradare accelerată a imaginii de sine, a propriei fiinţe, în locul descoperirii şi dezvoltării ei.

Leadership: Poţi să evidenţiezi imaginea unui destin abordat ca o consecinţă a unei căutări care implică efort şi incertitudini în direcţia unei "conştiinţe de sine" chemată să-ţi aducă aducă aminte de faptul că orice te încearcă are un scop evolutiv?

Puterea de a te cunoaşte şi înţelege nu poate fi deplină dacă în descoperirea alternativelor din care se desprind stările efect nu urmăreşti în acelaşi timp aceste două orientări. Nu uita că prima caracteristică a leadershipului - şi pentru aceasta îl numim parte integrantă a unui stil puternic de combinare a nuanţelor vieţii cu eforturile de creaţie - este de a accepta această "renunţare" în esenţa ei ca o anexă a personalităţii tale.

Iar confesiunea "Există aici toate posibilităţile şi să trebuiască totuşi să renunţ la tot" , desprinsă din durerea de a nu mai putea ajunge la înfăptuirea "marii opere", nu poate direcţiona leadershipul spre transformarea stabilită prin autoritatea de a te angaja în decizii efective (nu iluzorii) referitoare la aspectele vieţii personale şi profesionale.

Căci disperarea, legată de creaţia căreia nu-i poţi da o anumită formă, căreia nu-i poţi seta o anumită dimensiune şi valoare, afectează stilul tău de a gândi, de a acţiona, de a te exprima şi de a-ţi expune ideile. În leadership asta se numeşte că ai atins punctul de rezistenţă de la care nu mai vrei să faci niciun pas un plus. Înseamnă că începi să te afunzi în zona obscurităţii personale.

Conştiinţa de sine, care include un set de alte structuri cum ar fi: cunoaşterea, pasiunea, voinţa, imaginaţia, este acea trăire de încredere profundă definită prin imperativul "nu renunţ la ce mi-am propus" pe care şi-o însuşeşte numai artistul care ştie să facă din strădaniile cele mai înverşunate o caracteristică a maturităţii spirituale.

Renunţare dincolo de creaţie aduce în prim plan acea însuşire a creatorului de a trăi o stare tensiune, anxietate şi neîncredere, rezultată în urma eforturilor de a-şi demonstra talentul şi valoarea.

Puţini recunosc ca obiect de studiu această zonă obscură – a renunţării. Ea fiind o formă de a te manifesta ca factor activ în procesul de retrasare a graniţelor propriei lumi, oferind interpretări noi propriei fiinţări.

Susceptibilă de un studiu cu adevărat relevant în leadership, este arta de a te cunoaşte în ipostaza de învins de propriile eforturi, manifestată ulterior într-o formă de a fi învingător - integrată în conştiinţa celorlalţi oameni.

Poţi fi un model de urmat pentru ceilalţi oameni dacă reuşeşti să îţi manifeşti autoritatea în lupta cu tine însuţi.

Resortul reconfigurării personale

On Aprilie 09, 2009

Amplifică-ţi leadershipul până la cel mai înalt nivel, punându-ţi în valoare forţa lăuntrică.

Un anonim s-a ridicat singur împotriva unui uriaş imperiu. Spartacus, sclavul schingiuit care s-a răsculat împotriva legiunilor şi cohortelor Imperiului Roman, a fost cel care a determinat schimbări de proporţii. Aşa cum spuneam şi într-unul din articolele mele de pe site, el a devenit o legendă fiindcă a avut curajul să-şi rişte viaţa pentru libertate şi dreptate. El a arătat lumii prin exemplul său viu ce este libertatea, cum robii sunt în stare să devina eroi, şi că oamenii sunt în stare să lupte pentru o viaţă mai bună şi pentru fericirea lor.

Concluzie: Nu vei putea niciodată să obţii din nimic puteri incomensurabile. Ci trebuie să te concentrezi asupra naturii tale lăuntrice, să-i conferi sinelui tău o mare putere de sugestie care să te ajute să te împotriveşti acelor factori negativi care îţi diminuează capacităţile.

Întăreşte-ţi credinţa în propriile virtuţi morale, stabilindu-ţi acea stare de spirit pozitivă care să-ţi deblocheze orice fel de limite pe care "climatul" tău ţi le-a impus, efectuând o manevră salvatoare care să ducă la creşterea leadershipului tău. Pentru aceasta este necesar să-ţi foloseşti la maximum resursele lăuntrice.

Leadership: Tu eşti în stare să te concentrezi asupra naturii tale lăuntrice şi să-i conferi sinelui tău o mare putere de sugestie care să te ajute să te împotriveşti acelor factori negativi care îţi diminuează capacităţile de conducere?

Spartacus a avut potenţial de lider. Dar aşa cum o floare, ca să înflorească, are nevoie de condiţii potrivite - tot aşa şi el a avut nevoie de curaj ca să-şi urmeze cu rigoare impulsul de a se orienta spre dezvoltarea lui spirituală atunci când mediul îl obliga să rămână mic şi neînsemnat.

Dar ceea ce i-a definit caracterul puternic a fost faptul că a ştiut să se concentreze asupra naturii sale lăuntrice, adică a ştiut cum să-şi facă raţiunea să pară profundă, a ştiut să rabde şi să aştepte momentul favorabil pentru a se face remarcat, a ştiut să propovăduiască şi să transmită învăţătura de bază a istoriei: cum şi de ce să nu fii uitat niciodată. A ştiut să-şi gestioneze căderile, a ştiut să trăiască şi să moară cu sabia în mână - exact ca un adevărat luptător. De asemenea, cred că a ştiut să-şi păstreze până în ultima clipă acel chip zâmbitor dincolo de care cu atfit mai mult se simţea de atâtea ori amărăciunea.

Natura lăuntrică a omului nu se îndreaptă spre ceea ce omul poate să înfăptuiască, ci spre ceea ce el îşi auto-induce cu acea naturaleţe cu care scriitorul îşi clădeşte personajele din romane. Acea naturaleţe care este semnul omeniei nepervertite. De fapt, personajele asemenea lui Spartacus au acea naturaleţe care te face să le îndrăgeşti până la o anumită limită, însă devin pe alocuri prea conştiente de rolul lor, pierzând din realismul pe care mizează oamenii cu adevărat cumpăniţi.

Leadership: Poți insera o imagine personală într-un mesaj despre viaţă, astfel încât imaginea să facă parte din împlinirea ta definitivă căreia i se asociază o stringentă realitate ce nu poate fi pierdută din vedere?

Cel care ştie să se facă ascultat captând atenţia şi sufletele oamenilor, cel care se ascunde în bagheta magică a unei personalităţi foarte puternice mai întâi trebuie să-şi stimuleze sigur avântul de a „înflori”. Ca să capeţi încredere în tine şi în capacităţile tale, trebuie să-ţi stimulezi şi să-ţi dezvolţi însuşirile pozitive, trebuie să te conectezi la acea stare interioară de fundal şi să trezeşti în tine acel imbold de autodepăşire care să te ajute să reuşeşti să ieşi din anonimat.

De la Spartacus a pornit acel curent puternic care a trezit în conştiinţa a mii de inşi necesitatea schimbării. El a reuşit să atragă de partea lui o mulţime de oameni care s-au răsculat împotriva unei stări de lucruri care trebuia schimbată.

Ce imens potenţial de energie, de credinţă stăruie în stare latentă în tine? Ţi-ai neglijat conştient ani de-a rândul virtuţile şi performanţele? Sau continui să te înstrăinezi de ele?

Învaţă să creşti în tine, iar ceilalţi din jurul tău, urmându-ţi exemplul, vor creşte şi ei. Nu uita că nu poţi să ceri mai mult de la ceilalţi, dacă nu ceri mai mult de la tine însuţi. Şi chiar asta înseamnă să inserezi o imagine personală într-un mesaj despre viaţă, adică să ai o mare putere de evocare a straşnicei tale lupte cu propriile limite.

O stringentă realitate nu poate fi pierdută din vedere, anume că cine se situează deasupra puterii asumate la nivel de reacţie a sinelui la lume şi la legile implacabile ale finitudinii, acela nu-şi va găsi niciodată eliberarea din paginile poveştii sale nemuritoare.

Resortul reconfigurării personale este reprezentat de acel impuls sufletesc pozitiv prin care liderul îşi accelerează propria dezvoltare, progresând mai rapid decât ar face-o la insistenţele altora. Este cea mai puternică parte din tot arsenalul de care dispui, pe care dacă ştii cum să ţi-o configurezi şi să ţi-o pui în valoare, vei putea să-ţi clădeşti şi să-ţi modelezi leadershipul până la cel mai înalt nivel.

Concluzie: Există o tendinţă naturală în majoritatea oamenilor de a-şi îmbunătăţi viaţa, de a obţine fericirea, dar nu toţi au curajul să iasă din anonimat şi să-şi dezvolte la maximum abilităţile şi forţele lăuntrice mobilizatoare spre materializarea dorinţelor lor.

Pentru a-ţi dezvolta leadershipul trebuie permanent să-ţi extinzi resortul interior prin care se produce o reconfigurare personală a forţelor tale lăuntrice mobilizatoare.

Return To Innocence

On Decembrie 17, 2017

Ajustează-ţi paşii pe care îi faci, încât să te situezi în sfera virtuţii de a crede în tine însuţi şi de a te socoti capabil de fapte mărețe înaintea măreţiei creaţiei lui Dumnezeu.

Ajunsesem în cu totul altă geografie a prezentului, în demersul mental al căutării de noi căi pentru depăşirea de praguri şi trepte, adaptate circumstanţelor unor experienţe de ştergere a păcatului numit "hoinăreală", de-a lungul vieţii psihice şi sociale care parcă îmi lua minţile, îmi acoperea nădejdea de îndelungată continuitate în redefinirea şi îmbunătăţirea imaginii mele în lume.

Voiam să fiu cineva cu adevărat sclipitor, întemeietor al unei științe incomensurabile, poate într-un viitor care mi se părea tot atât de imaginar ca şi vieţile anterioare pe care, cândva, le-am trăit prin ochii lui Dumnezeu, dar nu îmi amintesc nimic despre ele. Imensa diversitate a ochiului sensibil care cercetează cu atenţie faptele, reperul de orientare pentru reglajele fine ale funcţiei "Just believe in destiny" , îşi aveau replica în nuanţele impuse de psihologia artei de a fi pregătit pentru şansa unei regăsiri a autenticităţii credinţei, atunci când aceasta urma să apară.

Mâna sigură a împlinirilor care mă obsedau şi mă stăpâneau cu tristeţe în acelaşi timp, pentru magia cu care mă întâmpinau angajamentele asumate în perioada apartenenței la conştiinţa profundă a timpului prezent, era o certitudine a scopului de a poseda o valoare unică, grandioasă, numită "Follow just your own way".

Ce mi s-a părut mai ciudat, mai bine integrat în realitatea paşnică a unei lumi însorite care te face să uiţi de ceea ce trăieşti în prezent, cu excepţia condiţiei referitoare la situaţia financiară, era acea alternanţă continuă şi perfect riguroasă dintre schimbare şi imuabilitate care parcă mă ducea la ideea de reversibilitate: "That's not the beginning of the end".

Leadership: Îți asiguri starea de spirit specifică unei firi statornice, prin definirea expresă a noţiunii de "împrejurare" pe care se întemeiază decizia de a poseda o valoare unică?

Iată cum exprima scriitorul român Artur Silveştri acest tip reversibilitate: "Sunt oameni care scriu la marginea apei, adică acolo unde Timpul îşi desluşeşte altfel marele mister al sfârşitului fără început. Şi ei, ca şi mine, poate că odată vor fi înţeles, într-un fel, sufletul natural care ne defineşte ca un fel de entelehie." Just look into your heart my friend, that will be the return to yourself.

Punctul culminant al unui înainte, pe care îl pregăteam în străfunduri, se dezvolta între redarea precisă a realității dure și halucinațiile minții mele rătăcite în haosul nerăbdării de a-mi dovedi elanul de reînnoire a credinţei, prin dispreţul conformismului şi prin exersarea relaţionării cu posibilul unei aventuri provocatoare, ca viziune a artei mele. Cu posibilele ei denaturări.

Şi încă o dată, fără o trădare a formelor aducătoare de conţinuturi, viaţa mi se revela ca o ofertă personalizată, mai mult îndreptată spre cultivarea sentimentului de superioritate sau de dominaţie, din forţa acelei interpretări a imposibilului ce trebuie atins prin abandonarea totală într-o nebunie a performanțelor, nu neapărat voită, dar cu siguranță apreciabilă.

Valoarea unică pe care mi-o acorda acea parte a vieții care caută răspunsuri din orice împrejurare se caracteriza printr-o fragmentare a totalităţii unui ansamblu de reprezentări şi punerea lui într-un cadru de referință care presupune să crezi în el, să fii convins că are potențialul şi puterea de îndeplinire a unui scop.

Leadership: Încerci să te regăseşti în prim planul „Marii Opere" atunci când ești singurul care nu se potrivește imaginii din jur?

Ești singurul care nu se potrivește imaginii din jur atunci când te angajezi într-o depăşire a valorii personale în arta de a-ți urma propriul drum spre realizarea menirii tale adevărate.

Ce este arta, faza roşie a Marii Opere, altceva decât o potrivire a circumstanţelor care îţi pun în valoare unicitatea, încă o treaptă de apropiere de Dumnezeu, be yourself don't hide , identificând mijloacele de a face faţă cu succes situaţiilor zilnice cu care te confrunţi, doar astfel putând să afli mai multe despre tine însuţi.

Don't care what people say , îmi şoptea neobosită conştiinţa cu acea greutate a stâncii care se prăbuşeşte în mare, când te prăbuşeşti sub tensiunea unor forţe dinlăuntru şi încerci să te ridici din anonimat, când eşti pus sub apăsarea unei puteri de sus. E vorba de acea conştiinţă a diferenţelor, adică acel ceva care ţine de realitatea superioară a integrării unor scenarii divergente într-un singur model de perfecţiune: Dumnezeu, urmată de reprezentarea totalităţii acestor diferenţe pe durata vieţii. Just believe in destiny !

Presimțirile, controversele, situațiile aproape fără ieşire, pasiunile alese din puzderia de nonsensuri ce-mi ocupau timpul liber, izbucnirile vitale, alternarea între fatalitate și izbăvire, toate îmi consolidau destinul. Credeam că dacă îmi examinez parcursul ca o reflecţie a credinţelor despre mine însumi, paralel acordându-mi totuși răgazul unei incursiuni în trecutul plin de învăţăminte, voi putea să-mi onorez mai ușor angajamentele faţă de scopul de a fi creator și de a-l pune în practică în mod curajos și cu stil.

Măreția creaţiei lui Dumnezeu se observă în existența pe care omul o trăiește prin tot ceea ce el îşi poate închipui că este cu putinţă să împlinească.

Return To Innocence simbolizează imaginea sufletului unui om desăvârşit care se apropie de Dumnezeu prin chintesenţa unei maxime personalizări a parcursului pe care îl urmează, pentru a se putea situa în sfera virtuţii de a crede în el însuşi şi de a se socoti capabil de fapte măreţe.

Este vorba de acea inocentă a Ego-ului care îşi imaginează că i se vor împlini închipuirile, manifestată prin plăcerea sănătoasă de a trăi certitudinea scopului propus, învingându-şi teama de „înălţime" prin iubirea pentru Dumnezeu.

Revărsările neliniştilor creatoare

Ţine pasul cu iniţiativele de îmbunătățire a proceselor de constituire a creaţiei, acordând prioritate căutărilor de montaj a tuturor componentelor "conţinutului" ei.

Căutările continue din timpul redactării scenariului - care, iniţial bătute la maşină, conţin numeroase ştersături, adăugiri, modificări - dovedesc, cred, că cristalizarea în conştiinţa realizatorului s-a petrecut şi pe parcurs. Aşa se explică probabil că unele din însemnări pot naşte presupunerea că au fost făcute după filmări. În timp ce elementele esenţiale există în foile de montaj, deci au fost gândite dinainte, altele vor apărea ulterior de-a dreptul în film.

Toate aceste constatări, ca şi numeroase altele pe care nu are rost să le detaliem aici aruncă o lumină asupra felului în care a fost creat filmul "Crucişătorul Potemkin". Din clipa sosirii lui Eisenstein la Odessa şi până la finisarea filmului, constatăm căutări neîntrerupte, desfăşurate într-o febră a creaţiei. O nelinişte creatoare permanentă care îl ducea pe maestrul Eisenstein la găsirea succesivă de noi soluţii. "Crucişătorul Potemkin" a fost creat într-o stare de incandescenţă creatoare, cu o spontaneitate evidentă. *

Leadership: Îţi dovedeşti, în orice condiţii de improvizaţie, puterea de a lupta cu mijloacele de constituire a creaţiei printr-un "Think Back" care are puterea de a cristaliza o nouă formă de fuziune între subiect şi fundal?

Din punct de vedere al construcţiei leadershipului care se află în contact direct cu terenul fertil de transmitere unei cunoaşteri teoretice şi practice, avem de-a face deseori cu o schimbare relativ însemnată de accente în ceea ce priveşte actul şi raţionalitatea Creaţiei. Iar aici avem de-a face cu o fuziune nouă între subiect şi fundal, în sensul că ceea ce vrei să scoţi în evidenţă trebuie să aibă impact la nivel de viziune, dar trebuie să aibă şi rezonanţă la nivel de receptare, abordare şi utilizare a mijloacelor de realizare a creaţiei interpretative şi improvizate.

Construcţia unei creaţii are la bază căutări neîntrerupte de noi orizonturi, de noi aranjamente, de noi suporturi de realizare a obiectivelor de performanţă individuală. Aici trebuie avut în vedere căutarea expresiilor de intelectualitate (care îi înnobilează munca artistului) şi sugerarea lor atât prin tehnică cât şi conceptual.

"Think Back" este mărturia unei lupte pe care ai dus-o cu mult timp în urmă, cu strângerea şi găsirea unor formule asociative de prezentare şi promovare a artei. Găsirea unor dovezi care să ateste veridicitatea unei arte necesită eforturi susţinute şi o documentare aprofundată, dar rezultatele merită cu prisosinţă.

Conţinutul unei creaţii se cristalizează prin numeroase ştersături, adăugiri şi modificări ce dovedesc o punere în contextul pasiunii a unui parcurs inițiatic, tumultuos și fecund.

O operă se realizează deseori din improvizaţii ale momentului şi din improvizaţii ale temelor abordate, în procesul de identificare a elementelor semnificative ce trebuie transmise prin mesaj. De fapt, creaţia se bazează pe un du-te vino neîncetat de sentimente, gânduri și emoții, idei, conexiuni, interpretări, de "aş vrea, n-aş vrea" care se răsucesc unele în jurul altora. Toate făcând parte din procesul de stabilire a unor noi abordări şi viziuni privind implementarea unei noi variante de „produs".

Într-un anumit sens, punctul de vedere a liderului artist, care porneşte de la premisa că singurul mod în care poate înţelege şi susţine arta este să vadă dincolo de prejudecăţile construite de-a lungul timpului, corespunde cu iniţiativele de îmbunătățire a proceselor de producţie a creaţiei.

Căci nu poţi să efectuezi o îmbinare şi să conferi stabilitate formelor de întemeiere a unei ştiinţe, bogate în elemente de cultură tehnică, indispensabile bunei funcţionări a instanţei de autoritate în faţa altora, dacă nu acorzi prioritate căutărilor de montaj a tuturor componentelor "conţinutului".

Leadership: Creşterea autorităţii tale în sfera creaţiei implică o nouă alcătuire a mijloacelor de construcţie a fundamentelor şi conceptelor ce urmează traiectoria unor preocupări frecvente faţă de potenţialitatea şi trebuinţele tale de cunoaştere şi de acţiune?

Analiza conceptului de autoritate în sfera creaţiei, dar şi promovarea artei de o particulară şi elevată rezonanţă care instituie noi forme de exprimare, cristalizează în conştiinţa realizatorului o anumită formulă a compoziţiei, o sumă de erori numite valori, o nouă alcătuire a mijloacelor de construcţie a fundamentelor şi conceptelor de interes major.

Priorităţile acordate mijloacelor de instituire şi gestionare a creaţiei, în reprezentările ştiinţifice, devin mai mult o chestiune de putinţă decât de voinţă. Două realităţi sunt prezente în sfera priorităţilor: revizuirea idealurilor şi reînnoirea tuturor elementelor de cunoaştere, pe de o parte, şi formele de organizare a procesului de învăţare-evaluare pe de altă parte. Şi găsirea succesivă de noi repere care să contureze specificul unui anumit rol profesional. Asta, numai în cazul în care consideri arta ca fiind o formă de exprimare a valorii individuale.

A fi regizor înseamnă să descoperi o nouă formă de exprimare a propriilor emoții printr-o modalitate de creație în care orice combinație de noţiuni şi realităţi este permisă.

Revărsările neliniştilor creatoare scot în evidenţă acea agitaţie febrilă din partea liderilor, creată din pricina căutării unor noi mijloace de producţie şi transmitere a creaţiei, respectând condiţiile implementării unor noi concepţii despre calitate şi performanţă.

Revelări a lucrurilor secrete: duşmanii noştri din lăuntrul nostru

On Decembrie 05, 2010

Iluminarea interioară este o călătorie personală, unică fiecăruia, ce nu poate fi grăbită sau impusă din exterior.

- Aş putea să primesc şi eu viziunea inefabilă?

- S-ar putea, dar nimeni nu poate cunoaşte căile interioare ale celuilalt, nici el însuși, căci doar în urma unei căutări neobosite de sine şi a propriului spirit ajungi să te cunoşti suficient ca să începi să speri că vei putea primi iluminarea interioară. Prin vieţi succesive sau într-o singură viață, prin asceză şi efortul meditaţiei, putem reuşi, totuşi, să scăpăm de duşmanii noştri din lăuntrul nostru, să ne alungăm călăi.

- Îmi poţi spune cine sunt?

Leadership: Ai experimentat vreodată o revelație prin care ai simțit că începi să înțelegi o viziune inefabilă care îți ghidează sinele tău spre transcendere?

- Cine sunt duşmanii tăi? Ţi-i pot doar numi, dar asta nu înseamnă că vei avea şi forţa de a-i alunga, de a-ți purifica sufletul. Primul duşman este ignoranţa. Al doilea este nedreptatea, opusă acelei Maat, care este nu numai echitatea față de tine şi faţă de ceilalți, ci şi tot ceea ce este susceptibil de a frâna bunul mers al lumii, de a distruge echilibrul lucrurilor. Al treilea este invidia, căci ea ne dăunează mai mult nouă decât celorlalți; ne roade inima, alungând seninătatea sufletului. Al patrulea este răutatea, căci ea ne împinge să facem rău celorlalți şi naște nedreptate. Al cincilea este perfidia, căci ea foloseşte minciuna şi viclenia, care sunt condamnate de Maat.

Al şaselea este avariția, căci te face să trăieşti doar ca să posezi bunuri, astfel încât ești gata la toate trădările, la toate crimele ca să-ți satisfaci o pasiune atât de funestă. Al şaptelea este senzualitatea, căci nu mai trăieşti decât pentru satisfacerea simţurilor, nu te mai gândeşti decât la plăcerea pe care o procură unirea trupului cu alt trup, fără să-ți mai pese de propria demnitate, fără să te fereşti de răul pe care l-ai putea face celorlalți. Al optulea este furia, căci aruncă sufletul în cea mai mare tulburare, alungând orice stăpânire a voinţei noastre: fiind cuprinsă de o furie nedemnă de o divinitate, zeiţa îndepărtată a pustiit Pământul, semănând moartea şi teroarea.

Leadership: Mintea ta este suficient de formată ca să poată merge mai departe pe drumul cunoaşteri, fără să fie perturbată de sentimente considerate inferioare sau neadecvate naturii tale?

- Un zeu poate să se lase în voia unor sentimente atât de umane, care par nedemne de natura lui?

- Desigur, când acest zeu nu este altceva decât creația minţii omeneşti, când nu are nicio realitate în afara imaginaţiei oamenilor. Dar poate că vei descoperi prin tine însuţi că zeii pe care îi adoră oamenii nu sunt nimic altceva decât creaţii ale minţii lor.

- Vorbeşte-mi mai mult despre asta, căci totdeauna mi s-a spus contrariul, că zeii i-au creat pe oameni.

- Este o mare blasfemie şi rodul unei minţi incredibil de naive dacă spui că un zeu, indiferent care ar fi, l-a creat pe om după imaginea sa, căci un astfel de zeu nu poate avea o existenţă reală, el uzurpă atributele zeului, care este total diferit atât de oameni, cât şi de animale, acestea fiind, toate, creaturi apărute din negura timpului, în urma unor lungi maturizări, a unor lungi transformări. Dar mintea ta nu este încă suficient de formată ca să poată merge mai departe pe acest drum al cunoaşterii. Să trecem la al nouălea călău al sufletului: necumpătarea. Căci, precum senzualitatea, care este o nevoie exagerată de voluptate, necumpătarea este un abuz de băuturi fermentate care duce la beție, care ne face să pierdem noțiunea de noi înșine şi orice stăpânire a corpului și minţii noastre.

Leadership: Cum îți propui să îmbunătățești continuu înțelegerea realităților inițiale, depășind obstacolele impuse de interpretarea subiectivă dată unei cunoaşteri limitate?

Al zecelea este lăcomia, căci abuzul de hrană deformează corpul şi incită la adâncirea şi mai mare a sufletului în materie. Al unsprezecelea este temeritatea, căci ea te înclină să neglijezi orice prudenţă - care este o mare virtute -, îndemnându-te nu numai să-ți rişti viaţa corpului prin cutezanțe criminale, ci şi viaţa sufletului, prin lipsa de măsură şi de înţelepciune. Este un viciu pe care orice om destinat să-i guverneze pe ceilalți trebuie să-l alunge din inima lui.

În sfârşit, al doisprezecelea nu este altul decât greșeala.

- Te-am ascultat, zise Neferu, dar, în timp ce ai adus câteva precizări scurte, referitoare la zece dintre aceste pasiuni periculoase, nu ai spus nimic despre ignoranță, prima, și despre greşeală, ultima.

- Acestea, fiule, le vei afla mai târziu, până în cele mai profunde realități. Află totuşi că ignoranţa este opusă cunoaşterii realităților iniţiale, esenței reale a lucrurilor, a naturii universului, iar greșeala este interpretarea falsă sau viciată a acestei revelări a lucrurilor secrete. Dar, deocamdată, trebuie să mă limitez la prezentarea acestor concepte înţelegerii şi meditaţiei tale.

Înțelepciunea costă în recunoașterea ignoranței și în strădania de a o depăși pentru a evita greșelile unor revelaţii nedistorsionate de adevărurile ascunse.

Revelări a lucrurilor secrete se referă la dușmanii din lăuntrul nostru atunci când încercăm să urcăm mai sus spre vârful înțelepciunii. Farul nostru călăuzitor este acel luminos sentiment de auto-cunoaștere care ne iluminează calea în întunericul îndoielilor, astfel încât să putem distinge clar între adevăr și iluzie.

Rezonatorii armonici

Foloseşte orice prilej pentru verificarea ideilor tale de actualizare a leadershipului, amplificând sensul conţinutului său prin mijlocirea simbolurilor de creaţie.

Sosit la Paris, regizorul Serghei Eisenstein începe pur şi simplu să devoreze oraşul, inhalând cu voluptate atmosfera sa, cercetându-i fiecare ungher cu un nesaţ firesc pentru un om pasionat şi dornic de atâta vreme să cunoască metropola pe care o ştia de acasă în amănunt. Colindă neîntrerupt străzile. Cercetează rând pe rând anticarii de pe cheiurile Senei, pivniţele din Rue Bonaparte în căutarea picturilor. Străbate Saint-Germain, vizitează apoi Fontainebleau, Compiegne, Versailles, se întoarce în oraş şi explorează Foire aux Puces. Umblă prin magazine. În prăvăliile de obiecte religioase din cartierul Saint-Sulpice detectează câteva piese care-i dovedesc deformaţia în superstiţie a religiei. Bate străzile din Montmartre, frecventează balurile populare din localurile de dans, întârzie în cafenelele ticsite de tinerii artişti, rătăceşte până şi în saloanele elegante unde este plimbat ca o celebritate.

Toate aceste drumuri devin prilej pentru verificarea ideilor sale despre arta de realizare a filmului. Ele nu sunt doar simple plimbări de plăcere, ci tot atâtea prilejuri pentru confruntarea de idei şi îmbogăţirea lor. Totul e simbol: privirea e simbol, gestul este simbol, şi atitudinile... şi decorul. Şi cum toate acestea (această emoţie şi impresie generală) sunt raportate exclusiv asupra conţinutului operei sale, puteţi vedea cu ce bogăţie emoţională se amplifică îndată.

Iată cum ar trebui interpretată o imagine filmică, iată care este raţiunea care mă determină să le compun plastic, iată scopul: să amplific sensul conţinutului cu toţi rezonatorii armonici, cu toate simbolurile cuprinse în forma particulară prin care se prezintă ochilor noştri "datul imaginii". *****

Leadership: Ce lipseşte creaţiei tale pentru a se elibera de limitele şi constrângerile temporare ale rutinei mestecării informaţiei, încât să poţi amplifica sensul conţinutului de idei pe care îl comunici?

Leadershipul îşi amplifică valoarea prin creaţie, constituindu-se pe linia raţiunii de a privi dincolo de cadru, dincolo de aparenţe, dincolo de conţinutul comportamental al lucrurilor, deci în măsura în care sunt evidente paralelismul şi corespondenţa dintre ce vezi şi ce crezi. Sau parafrazând-o pe actriţa Nia Long: "Stabileşte hotarul dintre ce vezi şi ce crezi, dintre ce ştii şi ce crezi, iar apoi spune-ţi: ar trebui să accept acest lucru aşa cum e?"

Tot ceea ce poate amplifica reacţia de „Wow ! " la nivel de unghiuri de percepţie a realităţii, făcând obiectul unor interpretări diferite ale aspectelor de noutate propuse pentru îmbunătăţirea înfăptuirilor în materie de creaţie, produce un anumit rezultat, delimitabil şi definibil. Acest rezultat măreşte şansele de întregire a ceea ce lipseşte creaţiei pentru a se elibera de limitele şi constrângerile temporare.

Verificarea constantă a realităţii, în direcţia percepţiei corecte a indicilor de actualizare a conţinutului de idei, care te ajută să implementezi sau să elimini anumite determinante din planul de alcătuire a unei viziuni ample, este o condiţie şi o strategie de dezvoltare a cercetării-inovării. Prilejurile pentru confruntarea de idei şi îmbogăţirea lor, asigurând o corectă identificare a particularităţilor şi sensurilor de imaginar şi de percepţie comparativă (care influenţează structura a ceea ce vrei să realizezi), dau la iveală deopotrivă adevăruri şi informaţii certe cu privire la gândirea ta vizionară.

Leadership: Zona de orientare alocată pentru un câmp larg de percepţie este dependentă de o cheie specială de înţelegere care să favorizeze legătura dintre ceea ce exprimi şi ce scoţi evidenţă?

Unul dintre cele mai puternice seturi de semnificaţii atribuite lucrurilor şi relaţiilor dintre ele, acceptându-le nu doar ca o provocare, ci ca ceva autentic și definitoriu pentru articularea unei viziuni trebuincioasă elaborării modelului propriu de creaţie, se referă la regulile jocului de limbaj pe care le consideri esenţiale în dezvoltarea artei.

De exemplu, simbolurile, elementele decorative, realitatea, ajută la conturarea unei imagini complete a evenimentelor pe care le speculează regizorul, dar ele pot fi confundate dacă nu le atribuim o semnificaţie bazată pe întrebuinţarea expresiilor de manifestare a unei atitudini faţă de ideile expuse, de tipul: "eu cred că..., simt că...., vreau să".

Zona de orientare alocată pentru un câmp larg de percepţie este dependentă de acea cheie specială de înţelegere, numită „Smart connections" care stabileşte asociaţii între diverse experienţe şi lucruri. Leadershipul poate constitui pentru creatorii de viziuni obiectul unei analize externe, obiect al unei practici ştiinţifice de conştientizare a valorii realităţii înconjurătoare – prin evaluarea ansamblului indicatorilor experimentali: simboluri, concepte, efecte speciale.

Omul care se reînnoieşte permanent pune pe primul loc beneficiile simbolurilor preluate din diverse surse, intenţionând să ajungă la miezul preţios al experienţei de creaţie. El caută implicaţiile mai profunde ale întâmplărilor şi găseşte un echilibru în interpretarea aspectelor cele mai relevante din viaţa lor şi din experienţa lor de căutare a noului. Obiectul cunoaşterii devine obiect al unei practici ştiinţific conştientizate de actualizare a potenţialităţii de a genera idei.

Leadershipul este o căutare a prilejurilor pentru confruntarea de idei şi îmbogăţirea lor din orice act al vederii într-o anumită etapă a amplificării sensului unui conţinut care invocă emoție pentru o susţinere excelentă a imaginii pe care o transmiţi despre lume şi despre tine.

Rezonatorii armonici sunt factorii de impact, dătători de inspiraţie, care influenţează direct procesul transformării variabilelor cu o multitudine de semnificaţii (gânduri, fapte, trăiri, imagini, aprecieri, impresii, reflecţii, perspective, senzaţii, experienţe) în creaţii individualizate, care conturează un profil bine definit al leadershipului.

Prin extindere, ne referim la capacitatea liderului de a crea ceva nou, dar recunoscut ca valoare de toţi cei ce îl înconjoară, determinându-i să acţioneze sinergic şi concertat pentru realizarea idealului comun.

Rezultatul major al creaţiei lui Eisenstein

Foloseşte-ţi experienţa de creaţie într-un mod cât mai obiectiv, astfel încât să poţi rezolva problemele compoziţionale ale leadershipului.

Rezultatul major al creaţiei lui Serghei Eisenstein în „Nevski" rămâne, evident, unitatea imaginii audio-vizuale. În acest film artistul a rezolvat o dificilă problemă compoziţională, găsind apoi, pe baza ei, teoretic, cheia pentru acordarea calculată a benzii muzicale cu banda de imagine. Orizontalitatea continuităţii în muzică sau imagine, este acum acordată şi vertical, prin simultaneitatea coincidenţelor muzical-vizuale.

*Eisenstein descoperă metoda construcţiei corespondenţelor audio-vizuale pe care o va analiza cu prioritate şi o va descrie pe larg, folosind pentru aceasta tocmai experienţa din filmul „Alexandr Nevski". În calcule şi scheme desenate cu minuţiozitate matematică, Eisenstein descoperă coincidenţele perfecte, cadru cu cadru şi măsură cu măsură, între elementul vizual şi cel auditiv. **

Leadership: Poţi să pui în valoare unitatea unei imagini care se integrează perfect într-un cadru de imaginaţie regizorală, luând ca punct de reper ideea simultaneităţii coincidenţelor apărute între planurile de abordare ale actului artistic?

Analizând proporţia dintre resursele de cunoaştere şi experienţă, foarte accesibile pentru producerea unei tranziţii spre un nou model de leadership, de care te poţi folosi în scopul realizării unei bune promovări a viziunii personale (şi luând în considerare bogăţia de sensuri ale abordării acesteia), poţi să estimezi efectul cumulativ al schimbării pe plan profesional. De aceea rezultatul major al demersurilor de integrare a creaţiei într-o perfecţiune absolută, demnă de invidiat, sub acţiunea altei proporţii, dintre idealitate şi obiectivitate, reprezintă un câştig în sfera productivităţii, dar şi o ridicare a nivelului calităţii evoluţiei tale.

Experienţa de creaţie a unui regizor este strâns legată de imaginea cu care îşi asociază scenariul de film, dar aşa încât să confere continuitate poveştii cu care el însuşi se identifică.

În acest caz, este nevoie de o anumită ordonare a materialului compoziţional (fapte, trăiri, evenimente, decoruri, costume, roluri, dialoguri incredibile, personaje cât mai reale) dar mai ales este nevoie de o anumită întindere în timp şi de o succesiune imagistică pentru a produce efectul final, cât mai exploziv. Ideea simultaneităţii coincidenţelor apărute între planurile de abordare ale actului artistic deserveşte la alegerea materialului pe care artistul are libertatea de a-l folosi cum crede el de cuviinţă, cu o condiţie: să studieze caracterul vieţii şi să-l toarne în pielea unui personaj plin de vitalitate.

Şi dacă ne gândim la faptul că planurile de abordare ale actului artistic vizează tocmai vizualitatea, simbolismul, limbajul, decorul, povestea şi fondul muzical, atunci regizorului i-ar conveni de minune să vadă totul printr-o singură pereche de ochi care percepe totul din afara iluziei pe care personajul o vede reală datorită coincidenţelor dintre desfăşurarea evenimentelor în plan extern şi evoluţiile psihice pe plan intern.

Leadershipul tău prezintă avantajul unei „rezistenţe de intrare" care poate produce continuitate în procesul de exploatare a creaţiei, în vederea obţinerii unor beneficii de ordin compoziţional?

În cazul în care doreşti să măsori progresul realizărilor personale, efectuând analiza tuturor formelor de exprimare prin creaţie, mai întâi măsoară pulsul experienţei tale de tranziţie spre nişte standarde mai înalte de calitate. Leadershipul este ca un amplificator de calitate, prezentând avantajul unei "rezistenţe de intrare" care produce continuitate în procesul de exploatare a creaţiei, printr-o dinamică a preocupărilor pentru artă şi abordările ei datorate dezvoltării ştiinţei.

După cum un regizor descoperă coincidenţele perfecte, cadru cu cadru şi măsură cu măsură, între elementul vizual şi cel auditiv, tot astfel un mijlocitor al ştiinţei conferă valenţe de semnificativ propriei sale creaţii printr-o îmbinare a experienţei şi know-how-ului. Dar mai ales prin metoda construcţiei corespondenţelor dintre conţinutul de idei şi efectul utilizării acestora în cadrul activităţilor de cercetare şi perfecţionare.

Leadershipul este manifestarea abilităţii de a te integra în rolul unui personaj văzut într-o imagine de "stop-cadru" gândită prin prisma coincidenţei perfecte dintre vizual şi conceptual, în evoluţia raportului dintre ceea ce vezi pe ecran şi propria ta viaţă.

Rezultatul major al creaţiei lui Eisenstein reprezintă consecinţa firească a utilizării experienţei şi a dezvoltării cunoştinţelor în domeniu, servind atât ca instrument de evaluare a progresului, cât şi ca instrument de promovare a propriei identităţi.

Evoluţia, prin cizelarea continuă a capacităţilor de integrare a gândirii în domeniul care te defineşte, ţine de nivelul pe care îl experimentezi - începător, mediu sau avansat - în momentul în care faci upgrade la facilităţile ştiinţei, utilizate în scopul continuităţii efectului de dominaţie asupra variantelor de prelucrare a creaţiei personale.

Un domeniu care are nevoie de dezvoltare, precum leadershipul, va beneficia de un nivel înalt de orientare prin rezultatele obţinute datorită trecerii creaţiei la o etapă nouă de adaptare, superioară celor anterioare, prin simultaneitatea coincidenţelor între elementele ei de conţinut.

Rezultatul unui experiment numit Myself

Fii propriul tău model de analiză pentru consolidarea leadershipului, încât să dobândeşti o înţelegere mai profundă a ceea ce eşti.

Eram condamnat la propriile mele resurse de autocunoaştere, care dădeau consistenţă descoperirilor ştiinţifice ce aveau o tot mai mare relevanţă pentru domeniul conducerii. Nimeni nu mă salvase din nebunia compromiţătoare pe care singur mi-o creasem, din dilemele în care mă zbăteam cu putere, nedormindu-mi nopţile. Şi care cereau întotdeauna un răspuns nou.

Devenisem propriul meu model de analiză, subiectul principal al unui experiment crucial care purta numele de eveniment, unul de tipul " Open your mind ". Un punct al separării de lumea exterioară. Involuntar, ignoram interdicţiile pe care intenţionat conştiinţa mi le punea, ca la comanda unui robot, ca să-mi testeze credinţa manifestată în jurul unor noi abordări intelectuale. Neîntrerupt, simţeam că duc o existenţă captivantă de visător, înconjurat numai de ideile sale.

Singura greutate era că tendinţele cele mai inovatoare de utilizare a cunoştinţelor privind principiile de funcţionare ale unui spaţiu restrâns şi foarte complex, nu se aliniau întotdeauna principiilor unanim acceptate de ceilalţi cercetători din domeniu. Accesul la spaţiul meu interior era dificil pentru că punea în scenă, în mod cu totul natural, eterna poveste a Omului ce caută misterul Creaţiei.

Asta mă îndemna să înţeleg un fenomen la fel de important precum anunţul descoperirii unei planete asemănătoare cu Pământul ce va schimba modul în care omenirea îşi percepe locul în Univers. Şi anume că, printr-o cunoaştere de sine la nivel superior, urmată de o rotaţie a unghiului de vedere și de o potenţare a percepţiei, se poate da viaţă unei arte totalmente ştiinţifice, metaforice, ce capătă proporţii reale.

Leadership: Percepţia pe care o ai despre tine însuţi într-un spaţiu al creaţiei, reflecţiei şi visării, îţi conferă fundamentul unei experienţe de dedublare a gândirii menită să-ţi garanteze un nivel superior de evoluţie?

Era o exploatare sustenabilă a Omului din mine. Aveam nevoie de un reper sigur care să mă împiedice să mă rătăcesc, un fir care să mă călăuzească prin acest labirint al cunoaşterii de sine care să nu se rupă. Practic, încercam să fac din mine o "Creaţie" cu care să mă autodepăşesc, cu care să mă mândresc, cu care să mă identific într-un spaţiu al revelaţiilor de ordin mistic sau ştiinţific.

Nu pot să pretind că am dobândit o înţelegere corectă, riguroasă a autonomiei persoanei mele. Căci această aventură pe teritoriul propriei mele individualităţi era caracterizată de o alianţă atipică între elemente de fond ale căii de cunoaștere şi elementele funcţionale ale unei ştiinţe lipsite de constrângeri.

Unirea lor constituia o presiune din ce în ce mai activă, o doză minimă de absolut, fundamentul imprecis al unei experienţe de dedublare a gândirii care mă făcea să mă cataloghez, sistematic, drept o clonă a unei realităţi complexe. Sau o copie fidelă a acesteia.

Creaţia este rezultatul unui proces de autodepăşire care începe cu "Open your mind" în căutarea unei cunoaşteri profunde şi superioare, şi se continuă cu "I am what I am" în direcţia orizonturilor deschise (şi nelimitate) ale virtuţii şi înţelepciunii.

Leadership: Întregul demers de afirmare a gândirii tale are la bază o sursă inepuizabilă de autocunoaştere evaluată prin manifestarea liberă a unei revelaţii experimentată prin dualitatea "Public-Privat"?

Folosirea, timp îndelungat, a unui sistem de ordonare a preferinţelor de dezvoltare utilizate în procesul cunoaşterii de sine, cu posibilitatea de a stabili o proporţie armonică între leadership şi creaţia intelectuală, interconectată la viaţa de zi cu zi, influențează modul de desfăşurare a relaţiilor dintre ceea ce eşti, ceea ce faci şi ceea ce obţii de pe urma experienţelor tale.

Poţi să profiţi de pe urma lor implicându-te direct în găsirea unor "idei-răspuns" noi, încât să simţi pulsul zonei de productivitate extinse până în vecinătatea graniţelor cu performanţa şi să accepţi valorile ei obiective într-o complexitate de forme. Leadershipul se poate autodistruge dacă reprezentarea acordului dintre propriile tale resurse de cunoaştere şi reglare eficientă a persoanei, pe lungimea eforturilor tale continue de cercetare lăuntrică în scopul unei funcţionari îmbunătăţite, nu corespunde modelului de analiză propriu care acceptă ideea de autonomie prelungită.

Dualitatea Public-Privat are loc atunci când potenţialul sinelui tău de a se raporta la o cunoaştere superioară intră în contact cu potenţialul celorlalţi oameni de a exprima la unison logica unei gândiri care nu este pregătită să recunoască meritele şi importanţa Creaţiei în care te manifeşti.

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti hotărârea de a duce o campanie de tipul „Open your mind" la nivel de ceea ce îţi poate comunica Sinele Superior, încât să-ţi extinzi cunoaşterea la un nivel de Macro-Univers?

Numai printr-o cunoaştere de sine la nivel superior, integrată în aspectele leadershipului, se poate da viaţă unei arte care se dovedeşte totalmente ştiinţifică, metaforica, căpătând proporţii reale. Numai printr-o exploatare sustenabilă a Omului din tine vei putea să găseşti acel reper sigur care să te împiedice să te rătăceşti în zona în care nu ai şanse să-ţi extinzi şi să-ţi desăvârşeşti creaţia intelectuală.

Cea mai importantă şi mai nobilă cucerire a omului este Sinele, fără a contesta experienţa şi valoarea profesională dobândită în timp. Poţi găsi acel fir rezistent care să te călăuzească prin marele labirint al cunoaşterii de sine? Îţi manifeşti hotărârea de a duce o campanie de tipul „Open your mind"?

Nu vei putea aprecia niciodată leadershipul până când nu vei conştientiza, realizând un crescendo al aşteptării de tip stimulator, că întregul demers de afirmare a gândirii creatoare are la bază o sursă inepuizabilă de cunoaştere şi autocunoaştere care poate alimenta cu suficientă energie acel "switch" care nu se blochează la o simplă pană de inspiraţie. O energie de natură necunoscută până în prezent.

Switch-ul care conectează doar dispozitivul de înmagazinare a elementelor de bază ale ştiinţei, cu rol de receptor, din reţeaua locală de conţinut a informaţiilor şi ideilor pe care o administrezi la nivel mental, oferă posibilitatea de a gestiona întregul flux de producţie a regulilor după care te ghidezi în tot ceea ce faci. Fără să se blocheze, acest switch acordă inovării şi îmbunătăţirii calităţii leadershipului o perioadă lungă de garanţie înainte de "expirarea" duratei normale de folosinţă, dotându-te cu noi performanţe.

A-ţi extinde cunoaşterea la nivel de Macro-Univers presupune să-ţi instruieşti Sinele să se manifeste deplin prin Creaţie, încât el însuşi să devină vizibil la nivel de imagine arhetipală a totalității de care eşti înconjurat.

Rezultatul unui experiment numit Myself desemnează acel proces de cunoaştere în cele mai mici amănunte, a propriului tău "Eu", de clarificare a aspectelor legate de cine eşti, ce vrei să fii şi în ce direcţie te îndrepţi.

Omul îşi poate pierde a sa raison d'etre dacă nu reuşeşte să se conformeze spaţiului său interior care este sursa şi fundamentul acelei experienţe, din ce în ce mai profunde şi mai clare în totalitatea ei, care conferă sens şi identitate personalităţii sale.

La alchimişti, ideea de spaţiu interior, ce adăposteşte energia creatoare, este simbolizată adesea prin imaginea cercului circumscris punctului. Ori prin imaginea unui templu.

Nu vei putea să pătrunzi tainele ştiinţei de a conduce dacă nu reuşeşti să descoperi comorile ascunse în acest templu. În zidurile căruia se păstrează, printr-o îmbinare de excepţie, acea lapidis fortuno care vibrează şi rezonează cu puterea şi măreţia.

Rhythm of My Heart

On Februarie 10, 2020

Învaţă să te redescoperi într-o ipostază de care îți vei aduce aminte cu plăcere în roşul-pur al unui timp nemăsurat.

Am început să pictez trandafirul, cu fineţe şi mare talent, In The Rhythm of My Heart , aşa cum m-aş picta pe mine însumi în culorile vii ale unui înţeles sublim atribuit rememorării unei vieţi pornită din însăşi miezul unei arte nonfigurative ce se percepe doar prin deschiderile unei metafizici Heideggeriene. Un roşu aprins este rezervat vârfului de petale, înainte ca ele să se deschidă în faţa unui univers veşnic care începe de la o pură coincidenţă, sau de la o banală asemănare cu o piramidă răsturnată şi concentrată în forma unui diamant.

Trandafirul este obiectul observaţiei mele, al interpretării mele la nivel estetic, ca un fel de abstractizare capabilă să simbolizeze orice obiect posibil investit cu fervoarea unul suflet sfânt. Trebuie să stau nemişcat ore în şir, la fel ca obiectul creaţiei mele, ştiind că amândoi avem puterea să trăim acelaşi vis dintr-un timp ce relaţionează exclusiv cu sintagma "Let me still exist in another place" , în aşa fel încât să-mi păstrez acel sentiment de „self value" într-un univers dual.

Comparaţia perceptuală cere ca bază artistică, într-un fel în care metafizicii l-ar numi Asqachumensi (recunoștință făuritorilor Marii Uniri), un procedeu de a desena cu sufletul, încât să surprinzi mişcarea dublă a traiectoriei unui glas, a unei linii, senzaţii de formă, lumină, temperatură, toate întărite prin mijloace corespunzătoare artei: figură, culoare şi orientare în spaţiu. Marea artă a cabalei se ocupă cu perceperea exteriorizării unei lumi mistice asemănătoare celei pe care o trăieşti la nivel de simţire, dar în alt spaţiu şi sub altă formă.

Leadership: Poţi să te laşi îndrumat de accesibilitatea unei încărcături afective izvorâtă dintr-o imagine veridic închipuită a modului în care poate arăta lumea într-un plan artistic mai înalt, încât să te recunoşti într-o altă ipostază?

Vântul adie uşor. Soarele încălzeşte plăcut atmosfera unui realism poetic cu accente simboliste. Simt pensula artistului cum îmi creionează sufletul, înainte ca pictura să capete o formă frumoasă, potrivită mie, concentrată în ochiul unui diamant care străluceşte printr-un operator metaforic: „Where the ocean meets the sky". Stăpânul meu îmi spunea adesea în timp ce amestеca culorile într-un mix de efort fizic și căutare mistică: "Să te joci cu ştiinţa aşa cum pictezi un suflet, fără să fi văzut vreodată o pictură. În asta constă toată magia cabalei ! " Ultimul dintre cabalişti, în viaţă şi în nemurire, încearcă o nouă modalitate de a se integra în alte lumi, pe refrenul unei încărcături afective, aparţinând planului divin: „Burning down the bridges of my memory".

Delicat ca o atingere fugitivă, recreat de o mişcare intensă de pensulă - dublată pe traiectoria deosebirii părţilor de întreg, mă simt transpus în altă realitate prin asemănarea izbitoare cu figura unui faraon egiptean care sugerează putere și frumusețe regală. Alţii mă privesc în conformitate cu figura unui Bamby cu ochii mari, apoşi şi candizi. Depinde de unghiul în care figura şi orientarea spaţială sunt menţinute în aceeaşi stare de spirit, deschisă spre cercetarea vizual-conceptuală.

Sunt un trandafir neobişnuit pe care de multe ori îl defineşte experienţa de a controla spaţiul dintre lumi, în acelaşi mod în care artistul se integrează, cu sufletul şi simţirea divină, în subiectul principal al picturii sale. Artistul se face vorbire, se face dialog, devine liantul dintre lumi, un reflex condiționat al unei ordini superioare, constrâns să urmeze cursul acţiunii unei "With the words I love you".

Mă puteţi privi oricât doriţi, dar nu mă vei putea înţelege cu ochiul obişnuit al muritorului, ci numai printr-o activitate analoagă cu creaţia marcată de posibilitatea traversării lumilor.

Leadership: Oferirea unei experienţe de vizualizare sigure şi uşoare pentru proiecţia unei imagini pe care să o poţi vedea doar dintr-un anumit unghi, este valoroasă prin simularea condiţiilor pentru vizualizarea unui nou format al realităţii?

Ajungi la reţeta creării unui lucru numai în momentul în care ai înţeles natura lui, divinul în armonie cu esenţa omului trecută prin filtrul materiei. De fapt, însemnătatea unui trandafir poate fi recunoscută după felul în care artistul realizează iluzia mişcării generate de Alter-Egoul său în chip de spirit divin. Şi nu ştiu cum se face, dar de fiecare dată când artistul încearcă să-mi dea o tuşă nouă, mereu cu însufleţirea neasemuită a unui zeu nemuritor, mă simt ca şi când aş experimenta o iluzie într-o dimensiune fizică ce pur şi simplu mi se pare reală.

Prin tot felul de reprezentări artistice, îmi permit adesea să combin diferitele elemente ce simbolizează valori spirituale: sacrificiu, revelaţie, puritate, maiestate şi distincţie, imortalizate aleator pe pânza fină de in, de la diverse forme abstracte la un degradeu al tușelor care dă impresia unei tridimensionalități. Formele sunt unite compoziţional printr-un mobilizator de forţe "Love may still alive", dar şi interpretate vizual ca având o singură semnificaţie: Elscogrellar (imaginarea unei scriituri neobişnuite).

Light up my darkness ! Singura condiţie pentru vizualizarea unei alte realităţi este să mă transpun într-un vis frumos care se repetă, într-un plan superior de unde să-mi privesc viaţa ca şi cum aş fi la cinema.

Sunt un trandafir neobişnuit fiindcă curge în mine roşul unui sânge divin care se cere exteriorizat în gânduri şi trăiri tot mai intense. În timp ce lumea îmi admiră înfăţişarea, dar îmi ignoră cu desăvârşire profunzimea, forţa unificatoare a figurii coerente utilizată simbolic într-un spaţiu specific, la adăpost de alte raporturi sau interacţiuni sociale, artistul îşi rememorează destinul pe întinderea pânzei atât de grăitoare, dominat de învăţătura tainică a lui Papus:

"După cum în omul invizibil circulă fluide şi celule (fluide sanguine şi nervoase), factori activi ai organismului, tot aşa în Natura Invizibilă circulă forţe şi fiinţe, factori activi ai planului fizic. Ocultistul care a putut constata în om existenţa unui corp astral, factor şi conservator al formelor organice, nu se mai opreşte în studiul Naturii la forţele fizico-chimice sau la rezultatele evoluţiei. El ştie că aceste lucruri vizibile nu sunt altceva decât rezultatul principiilor invizibile pentru simţurile noastre."

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti sensibilitatea faţă de percepţia receptorului pentru înalta lui misiune de Creator, redând fidel imaginea ta văzută printr-o analogie cu termenul "înviere în alt plan"?

Marea ştiinţă poate fi percepută doar prin mijloacele de expresie artistice din câmpul unui mijloc perfect de analogie: "Precum în cer aşa şi pe pământ". În cazul de faţă, trandafirul este personificat într-un artist care ştie să redea fidel imaginea divinităţii obţinută printr-o analogie sesizantă cu o vorbă de duh: „With the words I love you".

Prin prisma cabalei, poate că totuşi sunt egalul lui Dumnezeu, fiindcă ştiu să fiu un trandafir pictat cu sufletul unui artist de geniu, şi fiindcă sufletul meu ştie foarte bine cum să facă trecerea în alte lumi şi alte universuri prin intermediul mijloacelor artistice. Dar lumea din ziua de azi a uitat însemnătatea nobilă a artei, fiindcă însăşi lumea şi-a pierdut coordonatele însemnătăţii sale în univers. Numai artiştii mai pot să aducă la lumină mântuirea și nemurirea. Iar dacă n-ar fi fost cei hotărâţi dinainte de providenţă, omenirea nu ar fi putut să trăiască niciodată minunea transformării.

Artistul care ştie să-şi dezvăluie sensibilitatea integrându-se în viaţa unui trandafir, ştie de asemenea că Iisus este o parabolă aleasă cu dibăcie de vechii cabalişti. Fiul lui Dumnezeu a înviat din morţi fiindcă a ştiut să se transforme, schimbându-şi compoziţia din spirit în materie solidă, şi invers. Aşadar, în esenţă este vorba despre modul în care te poţi integra în două lumi asemănătoare: prin spirit, prin îndumnezeire, prin mântuire, prin apel la întrupare, reînarcare, înviere şi înălţare la cer.

Artistul este personificarea unui trandafir, fiind un receptacul pentru emoţii care vin de peste tot: din cer, din pământ, dintr-o bucăţică de hârtie, dintr-o formă trecătoare, dintr-o pânză de păianjen, sau dintr-o undă sonoră. Picasso a ştiut asta cel mai bine, înainte de a se deplasa în timp, înainte de a se încorpora în mine. Iar eu am readus arta în prim planul celei mai înalte ştiinţe.

Leadershipul, din perspectiva artistică, este întreţinut de ideea că o imagine poate rămâne întipărită în memoria lumii şi a timpului atâta vreme cât Creatorul ei pleacă de la realitate pentru a merge în adâncimea unei vaste cosmologii.

Rhythm of My Heart este consecinţa însufleţirii ce se naşte din contopirea a două realități, diferite ca substanță și ca manifestare, cea imediată și cea de lungă durată, încât să se ajungă la un numitor comun numit „construcţie artistică”.

Să iubeşti arta înseamnă să priveşti creaţia minunată a lui Dumnezeu cu ochiul unui artist capabil să surprindă spontan acea actualitate care are şanse să reziste probei timpului.

Creează-ţi o conştiinţă clară a sinelui şi a devenirii, întemeindu-ţi realitatea pe conceptele de sens şi valoare ale existenţei.

Omul acesta era să moară deznădăjduit. Moartea însemna pentru el un abis. În picioare, tremurând pe marginea acestei prăpăstii fioroase, se trăgea înapoi îngrozit. Nu era chiar atât de ignorant ca să rămână cu totul nepăsător. Condamnarea lui, care-l zguduise adânc, destrămase întrucâtva, pe alocuri, în jurul lui, hotarul care ne desparte de taina lucrurilor şi pe care noi îl numim viaţă. Se uită fără încetare dincolo de lumea asta, prin aceste spărturi fatale şi nu vedea decât întuneric. Numai episcopul îl făcu să zărească o lumină.

Episcopul petrecu toată ziua şi toată noaptea cu acest condamnat, uitând de masă şi de somn, rugându-se lui Dumnezeu pentru iertarea sufletului său. Îi spuse cele mai frumoase adevăruri, care sunt cele mai simple. Îi fu părinte, frate, prieten. Episcop, numai pentru a-l binecuvânta. Îi vorbi despre toate liniştindu-l şi îmbrăţişându-l.

A doua zi, când veniră să-l ridice pe condamnat, episcopul era tot acolo. Îl întovărăşi. Se urcă în căruţă cu el, se sui cu el pe eşafod. Osânditul, atât de abătut şi copleşit în ajun, era acum transfigurat. Îşi simţea sufletul împăcat şi avea nădejde în Dumnezeu. Episcopul îl îmbrăţişă, şi în clipa când cuţitul sta să cadă, îi spuse:

" Pe cel ucis de mâna omului, Dumnezeu îl reînvie. Cel izgonit de fraţii săi e primit de tatăl ceresc. Roagă-te, crede, treci în viaţă veşnică ! Acolo este Domnul ! " *****

Leadership: Manifeşti o anumită discreţie în a interpreta valoarea umană atunci când ea se destabilizează, pe fondul unei maxime toleranţe faţă de cei căzuţi în întunericul necunoştinţei de Dumnezeu ?

Când ne raportăm la credinţă, atunci intelectul şi ratinea sunt pur şi simplu detronate în faţa combinaţiilor furnizate de senzaţii şi trăiri intense. Omul nu se mai defineşte prin prisma concepţiilor lumeşti, starea de umilinţă fiind socotită categoric o stare de degradare, de înjosire, de alterare a demnităţii umane. Instinctiv te întrebi ce se petrece în mintea unui chinuit al conştiinţei şi realizezi cu uimire că el nu mai este un adept convins al descoperirii minunilor lumii, ci este un sclav al unei vieţi lipsite de sens, de disciplină, de perspectivă, de credinţă.

O realitate pe care poate n-am urmărit-o niciodată cu atenţie, vibrând în faţa întregii existenţe umane, contrapusă schemelor formale de abordare a elementelor ei, este discreţia ce întovărăşeşte întotdeauna sufletele – cele chinuite şi sensibile care au nevoie de atenţie, şi cele puternice care ştiu să anestezieze temerile şi suferinţele celor din jur.

Discreţia furnizează o anumită stare emoţională. Ne referim la discreţia în a-ţi etala sentimentele în faţa altora, doar într-un spaţiu de intimitate. Discreţia în a interpreta valoarea umană atunci când ea se destabilizează sau micşorează, care nu răpeşte puterea raţiunii. Discreţia în a-ţi impune părerea, de a o susţine în faţa celor care şi-au compromis onoarea, integritatea şi credibilitatea. Discreţia de a fi un poet al reînvierii spiritului şi de a trăi starea "poeziei" altora, punându-te în locul lor. O subtilitate în încercarea de a înţelege trăirile profunde ale fiinţei umane, în special laturile ei obscure. Nu o manipulare emoţională.

Iubirea faţă de aproapele nu se vede doar din ceea ce dai, cât din modul cum dai, la fel cum credinţa nu se deduce doar din prezenţa lui Dumnezeu în detaliile vieţii, ci şi din pocăinţă, din rugăciune, din propovăduire, din faptele inimii.

Leadershipul, care trebuie aplicat în toate ariile vieţii, derivă atât din complexitatea stărilor pe care le încearcă fiinţă umană însetată de trăire şi de exprimare, cât mai ales din ipostazele pe care ea şi le asumă în virtutea sau în detrimentul calităţilor sale. Omul care îmbrăţişează leadershipul nu trebuie văzut ca un servitor umil al lui Dumnezeu, nici ca un mărturisitor al credinţei în timpuri grele, ci ca un om al cărui cuvânt este calm şi sincer şi care te încântă cu ceea ce sufletul lui primeşte numai dintr-o lume spirituală atunci când povestea acestei vieţi se apropie de final.

Leadership: Personalitatea ta se focalizează pe acea conştiinţă de martor detaşat care revelează gradat existenţa unei realităţi profunde din care se poate intui evidenţa unei Prezenţe Eterne?

Iei în considerare factorul "conştiinţă" în procesul de exercitare a influenţei, adiacent sentimentului de resemnare? Când vrei să influenţezi prin spiritualitate trebuie mai întâi să intuieşti goliciunea omului, să-i simţi gustul amar al vieţii, în încercarea de a rămâne tu însuţi neschimbat de suferinţa lui. Nu-i de ajuns să te rogi la Dumnezeu şi să arăţi dragostea lui pentru iertarea păcatelor, ci trebuie să iei în considerare caracterul durabil al schimbării pe care îl impui.

Toate acestea fac ca misiunea pe care o ai de îndeplinit, considerând-o ca cea mai înaltă dintre formele de exercitare a leadershipului, focalizându-te asupra conţinutul omului, să capete valenţe profunde. E acea misiune de a te dirija pe cărările nemarcate pe suprafața mlaștinii numite "suferinţă", raportându-te la gândirea şi simţirile omului, luând în considerare factorul "conştiinţă" în procesul de exercitare a influenţei.

Posibilitatea de a pătrunde în sufletul sensibil al omului, cu forţele gândirii raţionale şi ale sentimentelor, într-o anumită măsură hotărâtoare pentru modul în care îţi creionezi concepţia despre lume şi viaţă, absolut necesară în procesul de autocunoaştere şi dezvoltare, deschide leadershipului perspective noi de înţelegere şi abordare a realităţii. Această realitate, întemeiata pe conceptele de sens şi valoare ale existenţei, o poţi folosi pentru a crea o conştiinţă clară a sinelui şi pentru încercarea de a răspunde la întrebarea: " Cine și ce sunt eu? "

Răsfrângerea unor sentimente puternice în interiorul naturii umane, în toată gradaţia lor, dar mai ales căldura pe care o comunici în sufletul celor pe care îi susţii, capătă un contur de luminozitate, mult mai semnificativ dacă urmăreşti modul în care evoluează omul.

Mângâierea vie a spiritualităţii se simte din intensificarea şi asumarea unei Prezenţe Eterne, atunci când povestea vieţii derivă dintr-un sentiment de resemnare.

Roagă-te, crede, treci în viaţa veşnică ! Este un îndemn la găsirea motivului pocăinţei ca schimbare radicală a modului de trăire şi gândire. Chiar în prada celei mai încordate tensiuni sufleteşti, nu uita că eşti dator ţie însuţi să-ţi înalţi conştiinţa la un nivel de conştientizare care să-ţi permită să te vezi aşa cum eşti de fapt, prin prisma celor care te susţin şi au acces la puterea ta interioară.

Robul propriei sale răzvrătiri

On Februarie 14, 2011

Ceea ce ești dispus să vezi depinde de ceea ce ești pregătit să interpretezi, cu referire la propriile tale așteptări.

Regizorul rus, Serghei Eisenstein, făcea o afirmație categorică: „Să clădești cinematografia pornind de la ideea despre cinematografie și de la principii abstracte este o barbarie și o prostie."

Ar mai trebui adăugat că filmul „Octombrie" încearcă, într-un mod original, să compenseze vizual, în mai multe cazuri, absența sunetului din film. Ecoul loviturii de tun al crucișătorului „Aurora" străbate sălile Palatului de Iarnă, care sunt filmate printr-o deschidere și închidere ritmată a diafragmei. Astfel, ecoul „se vede". După cum „se văd" zgomotele mitralierelor la asaltul aceluiași palat, semnalate de mișcările corespunzătoare ale unui candelabru de cristal, puternic scuturat. În ultimul caz, este vorba evident de un echivalent realizat prin asociere (clătinarea cristalului evocă direct zgomotul), în timp ce, în primul caz, avem de-a face cu un echivalent grafic al sunetului.

Cu toate evidentele mari eșecuri, filmul „Octombrie" rămâne o experiență de dimensiuni mărețe. Eisenstein gândește întotdeauna la scară mare. De aceea, și greșelile sale sunt uimitoare: îți taie răsuflarea. Ca un Achile temerar în lupta sa iconoclastă împotriva tradiționalismului, dar totodată un ciudat Don Quijotte, urmărit de halucinațiile proprii, Eisenstein devine, câteodată, robul propriei sale răzvrătiri.

Leadership: În ce fel echivalentele expresive din creația ta dezvăluie posibilitatea unui mesaj pur vizual, încât ecoul „se vede" să fie urmat de răsunetul imaginii „după cum se văd"?

În studiul cinematografiei, experiențele vizuale se propagă asemenea undelor sonore, suferind transformări și modulații creative. Fenomenele de ecou și reverberație ale tunului sunt traduse în limbaj vizual prin ritmarea îndrăzneață a diafragmei, transformând energia abstractă a sunetului în reprezentări cinematografice palpabile. Structurile vizuale, precum candelabrul vibrant, devin medii de transmitere a zgomotelor absente, într-o răzvrătire experimentală împotriva limitărilor tehnice. Asemenea unui fizician care studiază undele sonore, Eisenstein transformă aceste halucinațiile artistice în echivalente grafice ale realității acustice. În această încercare de a clădi o nouă formă de expresie, el depășește barierele tradiționalismului, chiar dacă uneori devine robul propriilor sale experimente vizuale.

După cum se observă, Eisenstein respinge categoric ideea de a construi cinematografia pe principii abstracte, considerând-o o prostie, la fel cum psihologia percepției explică faptul că lipsa unui stimul poate fi compensată doar prin asocieri concrete.

În filmul „Octombrie", regizorul încearcă să compenseze absența sunetului printr-un limbaj vizual original: ecoul loviturii de tun al crucișătorului „Aurora" străbate sălile Palatului de Iarnă printr-o deschidere și închidere ritmată a diafragmei, făcând „ecoul" vizibil. Zgomotul mitralierelor din asalt este, de asemenea, transpus vizual prin imaginea unui candelabru de cristal care se scutură violent, un echivalent grafic menit să evoce sunetul absent.

Astfel, Eisenstein creează un echivalent vizual al percepției auditive, încercând să ofere o experiență unitară spectatorului. Această abordare ambițioasă, de a adăuga dimensiuni vizuale pentru a compensa sunetul lipsă, face ca „Octombrie" să fie o experiență de o amploare impresionantă, dar și cu eșecuri uimitoare, rezultate din abordarea sa iconoclastă și, uneori, halucinantă. Eisenstein devine astfel prizonierul propriei revolte, balansând între rolul unui Achile temerar în lupta contra tradiționalismului și un Don Quijotte urmărit de halucinațiile sale artistice.

Leadership înseamnă să transformi absența în prezență creatoare. Tu cum transformi limitarea aparentă într-un triumf al vizualului, unde absența devine prezență și tăcerea capătă formă vizibilă în creația ta?

Robul propriei sale răzvrătiri este cel care creează opere fascinante, dar uneori greu de înțeles, prin raportare la propriile standarde și viziuni radicale, din care rezultă atât capodopere, cât și erori spectaculoase. Spun asta fiindcă în „Octombrie" se poate observa o combinație între geniul inovator și excesul stilistic, cu referire la modalitatea inedită de a echivala vizual sunetul, în ideea că experimentarea constantă poate depăși uneori limitele comprehensiunii spectatorului.

Rolul leadershipului într-o reprezentaţie a personalităţii

Încearcă să-ţi înţelegi propriul sine şi direcţia pe care vrei s-o urmezi în dezvoltarea ta, fără să-ţi umbreşti cumva modelul de viziune pe care îl reprezinţi.

În studiul său "Le maitre-probleme de l'Esthetique", esteticianul francez Victor Basch scoate în evidenţă importanţa contemplaţiei ca punct de plecare al cercetărilor estetice. Unul din argumentele pe care le invocă este un argument de metodă: "Este extrem de greu să pătrunzi în sufletul artistului, în sursa profundă (şi chiar şi pentru el misterioasă) din care ţâşneşte instinctul creator. Al doilea argument este că artistul însuşi, înainte de a crea, a contemplat şi s-a delectat." *****

Aşadar, ce este leadershipul? Aş zice că leadershipul este expresia acelui instinct creator ce se revarsă în continuitatea unei viziuni cu suport ideatic. Fără artă, nu am putea vorbi despre leadership, căci arta este măsura de testare a viziunii care devine mai reală decât realitatea.

Or ideea de a raporta la cei din jur poate fi privită ca o întrecere cu tine însăţi, nu cu ei. Nimeni nu poate să dobândească un nivel înalt de influenţă dacă nu stabileşte relaţii de durată cu cei de care se înconjoară. Dar mai întâi de toate trebuie să-ţi înţelegi propriul sine şi direcţia pe care vrei s-o urmezi în dezvoltarea ta, şi să nu-ţi umbreşti cumva modelul de viziune pe care îl reprezinţi.

Personalitatea ta trebuie să fie definită ca aceea a unui om de mare caracter, făcut pentru roluri strălucitoare şi memorabile. Deci, trebuie să ai puterea de a-i mobiliza pe oameni făcând uz de toate abilităţile, făcând apel la toate resursele minţii şi ale sufletului tău. Dacă încercarea ta de a compune un rol care nu ţi se potriveşte dă greş, atunci oferă-te imediat să renunţi la rol şi să-l cedezi altcuiva.

Merită deci de subliniată importanţa autoevaluării incluzând gradul de conformitate cu standardele proprii, cât şi importanţa succeselor obţinute în manipularea în scopuri benefice maselor.

Leadership: Specificul sinelui tău devine semnificativ şi foarte subtil prin felul cum te raportezi la o realitate care îţi armonizează şi protejează personalitatea, sau care o inhibă şi îi diminuează valoarea?

Izvorul de perfecţiune ţâşneşte din Eu-l liderului alimentat de educaţie, standarde morale şi profesionale, de abilităţile lui dezvoltate în timp, dar şi de capacitatea de sugestionare şi de influenţare a maselor în vederea obţinerii unor rezultate benefice tuturor. A face "pact cu diavolul" denotă o instabilitate morală, o construcţie şubredă a caracterului, o deviere gravă de la noţiunile de dreptate şi legalitate. Toate acestea vor destabiliza întreaga viaţă a unui om care nu-şi poate găsi circumstanţe atenuante nici în obţinerea beneficiilor materiale şi nici în aparenta ascensiune socială.

Dulcele izvor al perfecţiunii are menirea de a stabili jaloanele unei evoluţii aproape neîntrerupte ale liderului care urmează un model de leadership bazat pe etică, onestitate şi responsabilitate.

Dacă prin acţiunile pe care le întreprinzi, dacă prin deciziile pe care le iei pierzi încrederea celor care te urmează, atunci relaţia se poate deteriora definitiv, cât ai clipi din ochi. Astfel, orice tendinţă a ta spre perfecţiune va fi anihilată. Mare dreptate avea specialistul în materie de leadership, John Maxwell când spunea: "Ca să urci la un nivel superior, o mulţime de lucruri trebuie să fie făcute, însă uneori este nevoie de un singur aspect greşit pentru ca o persoană să o ia în jos."

Cred că una din cauzele care împiedică progresul calitativ al leadershipului, fapt ce stânjeneşte îndrăzneala liderului de a exprima idealuri înalte, diminuând dorinţele sale de a tinde spre perfecţiune, este conformismul lui faţă de preferinţele acelei categorii de indivizi care nu vor sau nu pot să-şi manifeste solidaritatea şi care se complac într-o stare de inerţie. Acest gen de indivizi, mai rău decât atât, încearcă să te corupă, să te manipuleze, să te convingă să te aliniezi propriilor lor convingeri, interese şi valori. Dacă vrei să urci treptele spre performanţă, atunci străduieşte-te să combaţi orice fel de factori nocivi, orice argumente, orice gânduri, orice acţiuni care contravin scopurilor tale şi principiilor etice pe care se întemeiază opiniile sau ideile tale – pe care, de altfel, le reprezinţi.

Leadership: Poţi să schimbi rezultatul impactului pe care îl ai asupra vieţii celorlalţi oameni, printr-un efort al sinelui de a se manifesta ca un efect de evidenţiere a unei performanţe individuale pe termen lung?

Totuşi, un lider trebuie să fie un om iniţiat, cu o anumită pregătire privind înţelegerea şi aprecierea vieţii, şi cu un indiscutabil simţ al dreptăţii şi cu calităţi morale deosebite. Nu vrea să spun prin aceasta că trebuie să creezi un stil propriu care să se adreseze unui cerc restrâns de iniţiaţi. Ci trebuie să-ţi canalizezi eforturile de îmbunătăţire a leadershipului mai mult spre acea categorie de indivizi predispuşi la a-ţi întreţine starea de spirit şi interesul. Ei trebuie să aibă acelaşi crez ca şi tine. Iar pentru aceasta, este necesar să-ţi canalizezi eforturile în vederea îmbinării carismei tale cu personalitatea ta dinamică pentru a reuşi să-i câştigi de partea ta şi mai ales să-ţi exprimi ideile pe înţelesul tuturor.

Eşti perceput ca un partener de lungă durată? Foarte mulţi lideri dovedesc o preocupare tot mai mare faţă de atingerea rezultatelor, punând mai puţin preţ pe latura umană. Ei caută să-i împingă pur şi simplu pe oameni în direcţia dorită, forţându-i direct sau indirect să se alinieze convingerilor şi valorilor lor proprii. Însă ei nu înţeleg că pentru a schimba oamenii trebuie să intervii în comportamentul, în gândirea şi mai ales în procesul formării sentimentelor lor. Oamenii simt cine eşti, iar dacă nu te percep ca o persoană capabilă să exprime sentimente autentice de grijă şi compasiune, ca un partener de lungă durată, ci te percep ca un stăpân, atunci nu se va crea niciodată o legătură spirituală între tine şi ei.

Realizările personale şi profesionale sunt rezultatul impactului pe care îl ai asupra vieţii celorlalţi oameni. Aşa cum eşecurile sunt cei mai buni profesori şi constituie adevărate trambuline către marile succese, tot aşa oamenii de care te înconjori pot fi cei mai buni profesori, constituind adevărate trambuline către marile succese dacă îi laşi să-şi aducă aportul la formarea personalităţii tale şi la dezvoltarea capacităţilor tale de leadership.

Leadership: Dovedeşti că ai prezenţă de spirit în deciziile pe care le iei sub presiunea unei imagini de sine avantajoase, dar care nu are acoperire reală în zona de acţiune a celorlalţi oameni?

Un lider care nu-şi sprijină eforturile şi iniţiativele pe puterea sa de a empatiza cu ceilalţi oameni, nu va reuşi niciodată să-şi păstreze poziţia pe care o deţine – ci este ca un pilot de curse aflat în competiţia vieţii lui, a cărui maşină rămâne fără combustibil. Odată ce ai construit relaţii cu oamenii şi ai trecut la un nivel superior de performanţă, nu abandona şi nu neglija niciodată aceste relaţii.

Ca lider trebuie să întreprinzi o călătorie plină de satisfacţii: călătoria spre adevărata ta valoare. Priveşte-te cu ochii sufletului, apoi modelează-ţi potenţialul după propriile tale convingeri, criterii şi idei. Caută să fii aşa cum te vezi. Dă glas realităţii prin intermediul a ceea ce eşti, a ceea ce gândeşti, a ceea ce simţi şi a ceea ce-ţi doreşti. Te-ai convins că totul se bazează pe leadership?

Perfecţiunea este greu de atins, însă izvorul ei stă în oameni şi în lider, în principiile generate de leadership, în respectarea eticii şi legalităţii acceptate unanim de societate la un moment dat.

Tu poţi lua decizii chiar dacă ceilalţi nu sunt de acord cu tine? Mergi până în pânzele albe pentru o cauză dreaptă? Cum te faci vizibil pentru ceilalţi, ai prezenţă de spirit? Poţi lua decizii în ciuda incertitudinilor şi a presiunilor? Îţi sprijini eforturile şi iniţiativele pe puterea ta de a empatiza cu ceilalţi? Crezi că oamenii din jurul tău îţi pot fi profesori în anumite momente? Ce ai învăţat până acum de la ei?

Leadershipul urmăreşte formarea unei imagini de sine conforme cu realitatea, dar care pune în prim plan adevărată valoare a viziunii din care purcede instinctul efortului individual de a schimba percepţia oamenilor despre realitate.

Rolul leadershipului într-o reprezentaţie a personalităţii este acela de a construi punţi spre noi orizonturi ale cunoaşterii de sine, din care se dezvoltă deprinderile necesare unei mai bune adaptări la situaţiile din viaţa profesională.

Romanele unor lumi închise

On Aprilie 10, 2014

Exprimă-ţi identitatea prin trăirea experienţei de sine, realizând comuniunea dintre o lume închisă şi constrângătoare, şi lumea cunoaşterii nelimitate.

Sunt doar o întrebare fără răspuns în această lume, fără de care nu aş putea exista. Sunt actorul din mijlocul unui spectacol, fără experienţe asimilate, dotat cu o minte fără întoarcere, pentru care numai un maestru al hiperrealismului ar putea avea răspuns: "Gândesc chiar dacă lumea nu există."

De ce sunt ceea ce sunt? Această întrebare complicată se cere întreţinută de multe alte întrebări, tot aşa cum sângele circulă în organism asigurând hrana tuturor organelor şi celulelor, virând în contul existenţei mele nelămuriri şi contradicţii de la care nu-mi pot lua gândul. Vădit lucru, lumea mea seamănă tot mai mult cu romanul unui exilat ilustru în pagina unui destin care-şi asumă o istorie mai puţin obişnuită, romanul unui caz de conştiinţă care trăieşte printr-un destin al nimănui, dar care are configurată ideea unui fragment din cartea lui Umberto Eco (De la arbore spre labirint):

"Personajul lui Borges nu numai că nu uită nimic, dar în cadrul fluxului memorial care-l obsedează reușește să facă să ne scape singurul lucru care contează pentru găsirea soluției. Textul borgesian, povestindu-ne despre un personaj care-și amintește totul, în realitate ne vorbește în chip metanarativ despre un cititor care nu-şi amintește nimic și despre un text care face totul pentru a-l determina să uite."

Leadership: Experienţa pe care o trăieşti sub imperiul unui destin atipic favorizează impulsul trezirii tale din veghea aparentă a unei lumi suprarealiste?

De ce sunt ceea ce sunt? Dar îndoiala pe care o provoacă această întrebare, tot mai intensă şi mai plină de trăire, pentru care răspunsurile cele mai convenabile m-ar lua prin surprindere, şi pentru care însăşi universul, întruchipat într-o infinitate de semnificaţii şi-ar găsi cu mare dificultate locul în continua sa expansiune, favorizează cumva impulsul trezirii din veghea aparentă a unei lumi suprarealiste.

Ideea pe care această întrebare o declanşează despre mine însumi, nu este aceea pe care şi-o formează omul de rând, a cărui gândire se înscrie în fenomenul numit "normal-mode". Ci aceea trăită de un spirit independent, eliberat din neantul unei lumi închise, obligat parcă să păstreze în adâncul lui adevăratul secret al creaţiei universale. În timp ce alţii experimentează ştiinţa fără să vadă stratul reformei radicale a cunoaşterii, eu o recompun după legii proprii.

Mă simt foarte încărcat de gânduri, bulversat de micile revoluţii interioare pe care le declanşează timpul şi spaţiul, cu a lor putere de concepere a lumii. De parcă aş fi atras de gravitaţia unei materii necunoscute, aflate în afara universului. Ca orice scriitor aplecat spre frontierele ficţiunii şi ale Necunoscutului, în procesul creator al unei arte fără egal, îmi construiesc lumea sub semnul unei imaginaţii suprearealiste, care este de fapt rezultatul unei nelinişti interioare, un torent de simţiri din care se desprind mutiple şi variate imagini despre mine însumi, false imagini în ochii altor persoane.

Sunt istoria secretă a unei lumi pe care o poţi înţelege doar închizându-te într-o solitudine interioară, despre care nebunia şi raţiunea, ca doi pugilişti îndrăgostiţi, deghizaţi într-o unitate de supraveghere, nu ştiu că sunt fabricate de acelaşi om.

Leadership: Ştii să faci din experienţa sinelui o cale a cunoaşterii fără egal prin intermediul poziţiei asumate de cerinţele unei arte care se refuză repetabilităţii şi inerţiei?

Ştii de acel jucător de şah care ani de zile n-a cunoscut niciun alt adversar decât pe sine? Fusese prizonier în timpul celui de-al doilea război mondial, închis într-o cameră goală. Învăţase să joace şah confecţionându-şi piesele din nasturii de la tunică, tabla fiind reprezentată de cearşaful cadrilat. Ani de zile nu jucase decât singur, cu adversarul său închipuit. Şi, când în cele din urmă l-a întâlnit pe campionul lumii la şah, pe marele Mirko Czentovic, în prima şi unica sa partidă cu un adversar real, a câştigat fără nicio problemă.

Acesta este rodul experienţei inegalabile a sinelui, din spatele marii ştiinţe, făcând radiografia uluitor de matură și precisă a leadershipului, care atinge acel nivel de măiestrie neînţeles şi neînchipuit de spiritele mărginite sau chiar de cele superioare. O enigmă pentru cei mici, un punct de întâlnire cu infinitul pentru cei cu adevărat mari.

Căci maniera proprie de a te dezvolta, fără să-ţi descompui cunoaşterea în factori de vulnerabilitate, reprezentând una din primele „producţii" ale existenţei bazate pe valorificarea resurselor lăuntrice, reconstituie la scară redusă lumile închise din perspectiva unui mod specific de a fi. În care sinele dă tonul.

O artă care se refuză repetabilităţii şi inerţiei se relevă ca o întâlnire cu tine însuţi într-o realitate care nu trebuie neapărat să fie credibilă, ci să atragă cât mai mult atenţia asupra ecoului pe care îl are amestecul (în cantităţi variabile) dintre „adevăr" şi „proiecţiile unei conştiinţe noi şi extinse".

Marele alchimist, părintele ceramicii, Bernard Palissy, spunea referitor la ceea ce constituie siguranţa cunoaşterii depline, care nu poate stagna în mod definitiv, ci ocupă o mare întindere în profunzimea vremurilor: „ N-am altă carte decât cerul şi pământul pe care tuturor le este dat să le citească. "

Cerul şi pământul simbolizează punctele de reper ale unei cercetări în desfăşurare, urmarea unei iniţiative privind schimbarea percepţiei realităţii şi dezvoltarea unei reprezentări imaginare despre lume şi viaţă. Care constituie premiza implementării în leadership a unei gândiri fără de care omul nu ar putea concura spre piscurile cugetării, care cântăreşte totul. Şi a nemărginirii care întreţine marea ştiinţă.

Ascultă-te, şi astfel vei afla totul. De ce eşti ceea ce eşti? De ce ştii ceea ce alţii nu cunosc? Eşti istoria secretă a unei lumi pe care o poţi înţelege numai închizându-te într-o solitudine interioară?

Materia de bază a scrisului autentic este trăirea experienţei de sine în culisele unei realităţi incerte şi necunoscute, pe care puţini o anticipează, dar care are rolul de a pune în valoare uriaşa forţă de reinventare a unei poveşti care tratează viaţa din punct de vedere al unei conştiinţe extinse.

Romanele unor lumi închise evidenţiază acele latenţe ale sinelui la care nimeni nu are accesul, acele capacităţi superioare ale oamenilor, dezvoltate de-a lungul timpului. A acelor oameni cărora nu le ajunge conştiinţa pentru a învăţa să interacţioneze cu toate nivelurile realităţii, ci cărora trebuie să li se ofere tentaţia de a cunoaşte o altă dimensiune a lumii, chiar imaginară, care să vizeze gestiunea mai bună a unor tipuri de personalitate înnoitoare şi progresiste.

Liderul este un roman captivant, apreciat, complex şi modern, cu o simbolistică puternică, construit înainte de toate în jurul unui singur personaj puternic: himself.

Leadershipul este o anexă la ceea ce ştiinţa şi practica, întreţinându-se reciproc, ar trebui să ofere ca alternativă la consumul de materie intelectuală. Te poţi ridica spre un grad superior de înţelegere pentru doctrina unei identităţi lărgite numai dacă înveţi să faci din experienţa sinelui o cale a cunoaşterii fără egal în faţa celorlalţi oameni. În faţa mulţimii pregătite să înţeleagă întrebările existenţiale ori revelaţiile tale, ce pot deveni instrumentul de promovare a unor noi "produse" intelectuale.

Romanul unui destin care îşi asumă o istorie

Înscrie-ţi existenţa într-un model de acordare a aprecierii şi preţuirii artei unui creator care şi-a educat deprinderea de a fi întotdeauna "altcineva".

Experienţa vieţii îmi este atât de apropiată de o semnificaţie a culorii sângelui, a gândirii în imagini şi a perfecţiunii, poate şi a norocului, indicând faptul că orice schimbare îşi are cauza ei, la fel cum orice transformare de stare îşi are rădăcinile în eternitate. În creaţia căreia îi dedic o întreagă cunoaştere a priori, fără a avea neapărat o probă a versiunilor de adevăr derivate prin deducţie, pe diferite meridiane spirituale, se instituie un vast repertoriu simbolic de culori, mărimi, spaţii, în şir de imagini ale unor imagini percepute doar cu ochii sufletului.

Totul este surprins într-un moment care deja a trecut, în cursul unei înşurubări exagerate a unui ideal de viaţă care îşi găseşte fundamentul în maniera experienţială a unor descrieri şi concepte cheie, specifice limbajului vizual. Labirintul privirilor aruncate în marea percepţiilor despre sine, în cadrul unei proiecţii de trăiri sumarizate în complexitatea unui destin implacabil, îşi schimbă mereu centrul pentru cei neiniţiaţi în arta mesajelor, a indiciilor, a ghicitorilor şi a puzzle-urilor pe care arta le presară din loc în loc în fiecare arie a vieţii.

Pentru mine, încărcătura simbolică a artei de mare anvergură spirituală este asociată unui trandafir. Regizor excepţional prin semnificaţiile aduse vieţii, trandafirul îmi oferă prilejul de a deschide în chip misterios, ca o fereastră spre adâncurile unei stratificări de semnificaţii, un nou capitol al vieţii sufletului meu. Un ciclu de imagini şi simboluri care arată în mod cât se poate de sugestiv, chiar profetic, o alternativă a realităţii percepută ca un fel de corespondenţă între narator şi naraţiune, între cuvintele alese cu grijă şi înţelesul lor cu totul diferit de cel obişnuit.

Leadership: Creaţia ta impune evidenţierea a ceea ce se vede prin amintirea unei lumi demult uitate, în raport cu nevoia de a da semnificaţie unei vieţi descoperită altfel de fiecare dată?

Ce proprietate uimitoare a unui trandafir poate fi scoasă în prim planul unei naraţiuni de fluenţă fermecătoare, dacă trasăm o curbă de interferenţă între viaţă şi artă, între nostalgie şi ataşamentul faţă de experienţele altei persoane?

Într-un roman scris de Cella Serghi, ne este destăinuită o informaţie plină de esenţă care exprimă adâncurile ascunse ale unei trăiri menită să-şi contemple neîncetat semnificaţia, propria direcţie:

"Pe acest pământ, când nu ştiam să vorbesc, am învăţat să ascult durerile mării; când nu ştiam să citesc, am aflat din cioburi poveşti cu daci şi cu geţi. În limba pe care o înţeleg numai învăţaţii şi copiii, stăteam de vorbă cu cioburile bunicului, cu scoicile mele. Pe aici a umblat Ovidiu, aici şi-a strigat amarul şi şi-a săpat în piatră "tristele". Aici am învăţat să văd şi să iubesc ce mă înconjoară, aici am învăţat abecedarul şi tot ce nu se poate scrie şi povesti în cuvinte, de aici am luat tot ce am păstrat şi voiam să se păstreze."

Acest scurt fragment constituie doar o introducere asupra modului de funcţionare a unei destăinuiri care îşi are corespondenţa în definirea unei atmosfere şi a unui mediu intim, raportat la o nouă concepţie despre om în dimensiunea spaţiu-timp, una de tipul: "Seek to remind yourself in a variety of ways that your life has meaning".

Trandafirul, sub forma simbolică a unei atitudini, a unei credinţe, a unei fiinţe inferioare ce aspiră la perfecţiune, trebuie să sufere, adică să îndure acea luptă sufletească de a se lăsa în voia mersului lumii, sub călăuzirea unui Dumnezeu care îşi ascunde lucrarea în spatele unei înlănţuiri de evenimente imperceptibile, atât în domeniul harului cât şi al naturii.

Aşadar, proprietatea uimitoare a trandafirului este de a evidenţia realitatea dintre două instanţe de interpretare a rolului atribuit omului într-o creaţie care se adresează sufletului. El pare să sugereze asumarea unui destin care se repetă de mii de ani în două forme: "realismul a ceea ce se vede prin amintire" şi "conştiinţa a ceea ce trăieşti prin prisma unei confesiuni care înlătură durerile existenţei".

Leadership: Poţi să dai un înțeles cu totul nou termenului "izolare" în baza dorinței de a recupera pozitiv o experiență trecută cu vederea, în favoarea unei creaţii care îşi revendică termenul de "impact"?

Orice artă îşi are retuşurile ei. Mă refer la portretele care spun povestea unei idei neobişnuite, o atentă observare a încercării minţii de a cataloga totul ca fiind bun sau rău, trecător sau veşnic, pe care numai comparaţia cu un trandafir splendid "Red Delight" poate să mişte o parte din lumea pe care o surprind într-o alteritate narativă, fără sfârşit. Astfel, a început călătoria mea spre abordarea interpretării aduse unei creaţii pe care natura o identifică cu un soi de poartă a pătrunderii în adâncul lucrurilor şi chiar dincolo de ele, sub semnul cunoaşterii realităţii înconjurătoare.

Izolarea de orice comunitate este proba cea mai dificilă a maturităţii creatoare. În tot timpul petrecut în mijlocul naturii, în grădina mea cu trandafiri, am învăţat că magia clarviziunii, dar şi a artei de a hrăni o realitate mult mai amplă şi mai expansivă, stă în contemplarea unui lucru tainic care se revarsă spre om din pământul matern care-l hrănește.

De aici, încercarea de îmbogăţire a percepţiei unei alterităţi prea îndelung trecute cu vederea, de ambele părţi ale unui subiect fantastic, bântuit de nori alburii, încadrat într-un tablou cu perspectiva de simbolizare a unei geneze sacre, plecând de la ideea haosului dinaintea creaţiei.

Prin compoziţia subiectului meu, construită pe un dinamism al imaginilor vii menite să emoţioneze o lume întreagă, a non-separării de perspectiva vieţii de dincolo de moarte, mi-am exagerat un pic puterile de observator şi de creator al ideilor, al formelor, al inovaţiei, poate chiar al profeţiei. Dar şi asta face parte din romanul vieţii mele.

Iar cum orice imagine a unui trandafir poate transmite delicatețe, tenacitate fiindcă a rezistat vremurilor, întreţinând nostalgia unei lumi de dincolo de obişnuit, sunt adesea nevoit să mă integrez în opera-model a altor scriitori, ca un fel de procedeu de variaţie a dimensiunilor de impact spiritual, cultural şi social.

Impactul unui creator asupra artei are ca prim considerent expresia unei trăiri intense pe care trebuie să o transmiţi prin referire la ideea de transformare a propriei existenţe într-un plan al roadelor spirituale (răbdare, perseverenţă, toleranţă, iertare, înţelepciune) şi într-un plan al eternităţii.

De fiecare dată când port o discuţie cu trandafirul meu, ca între doi prieteni ce şi-au împărţit cunoaşterea de atâţia şi atâţia ani, simt că trăiesc o repetare a istoriei pe care nu o mai credeam posibilă. Şi tot de fiecare dată, ceea ce îmi încearcă sufletul cu tărie sunt cuvintele lui Sinuhe, egipteanul din opera lui Mika Waltari, făcute parcă să apropie ideea de "suferinţă" cu ideea de înălţare a omului mai presus de condiţia sa de muritor:

"Într-o clipă, ceva mi-a deschis ochii şi m-am trezit ca dintr-un vis minunat, ceva care mi-a răvăşit mintea. Mă întrebam pe mine însumi: "De ce?", fiindcă în faţa oricărei adevărate cunoaşteri există cheia de care ignoranţa se teme. Această întrebare este mai viguroasă decât bastonul de trestie al zeului Thot, mai puternică decât scrisul dăltuit în piatră... Dar, poate că nimic din tot ceea ce face omul nu are vreo importanţă. Poate că important este ceea ce simte el când face ceea ce face."

Există o anumită rigoare în a înţelege detaliile unui tablou înfăţişând etapele vieţii unui om care îşi împinge cugetul într-o paralelă a timpului pe care trandafirul o impune prin simpla lui prezenţă într-un loc în care nu te-ai aşteptat niciodată să-l întâlneşti.

De aceea, în arta cea mai aleasă, în arta de a realiza o deprindere cu virtutea de a fi „altul în cel dintâi", ca şi „întâiul în cel din urmă", eşti nevoit să te plasezi într-un cadru de timp în care imaginile dispar, încetul cu încetul, apoi trebuie s-o iei de la capăt cu o altă posibilă continuare.

Durabilitatea unei imagini despre viaţă ţine de prezenţa pe care ţi-o confirmă propria ta creaţie într-un dialog cu o adevărată minunăţie a naturii, dialog a cărui finalitate este deprinderea de a fi întotdeauna "altcineva".

Romanul unui destin care îşi asumă o istorie scoate în evidenţă retrospectiva unei vieţi care implică pe parcurs povestea altor vieţi, la fel de biruitoare în faţa timpului, într-o continuă renaştere. Totodată, evidenţiază acea statornică ajungere la prezenţa unei mari varietăţi de realităţi la toate nivelurile fiinţei (spiritual, intelectual, cultural, artistic, cauzal, etc).

Rostul omului în spaţiul închinat tăcerii

Asigură omului din tine o forţă mobilizatoare majoră, controlând instinctele, sentimentele şi reacţiile în raport cu realitatea exterioară.

Agent FBI, Clarice Starling. Nu mai fusesem niciodată atât de singură, intimidată de reacţiile de îndoială ce se desfăşurau în mine. Eram atât de aproape de graniţa delicată dintre ridicol şi desuetudine, între oroare şi valoare. Căci ajunsesem în locul cel mai înfricoşător, în mijlocul tăcerii de mormânt care înfrigurează trupul.

Dacă un pictor m-ar fi văzut în starea în care mă aflam, încărcată de atâtea sentimente de nelinişte pe care le resimţeam chiar la nivel fizic, mai cu seamă în mijlocul disperării de a nu putea face nimic, şi-ar fi putut întemeia demersul artistic pe căutarea purităţii originale a unei inimi care tânjeşte de dor după Dumnezeu. Totul în jur era mai negru ca oricând, fără speranţa promisiunii unei explozii de culoare, ca într-un peisaj sinistru de Salvator Rosa. pe care experienţa vizuală îl face de fiecare dată accesibil doar unei imaginaţii halucinante care nu-şi poate şterge amintirea.

Iar tăcerea, năucitoare, sursa căldurii de ardere dinăuntrul meu care nu mai putea fi alimentată simultan sau alternativ cu vreun combustibil energizant, devenise o piatră de mormânt. Niciun elan, nicio forţă mobilizatoare nu venea de la noile întrebări pe care mi le puneam. Toţi îngerii mă abandonaseră în acel moment negru al doliului, la care ancheta m-a "invitat" să asist. De unde să preiau energia revitalizantă pentru întărirea stimulilor de control?

Leadership: Îţi permiţi o experienţă vizuală care să completeze scenariul cel mai dur al vieţii, asumându-ţi destinul unei fiinţe care nu se manifestă încă în străfundul sufletului decât sub formă de acceptare a unei despărţiri de realitatea imediată?

Înmormântarea se dovedise un bun prilej de experimentare a funcţionalităţii mele, în viziunea unei lumi triste. În atmosfera unei realităţi psihologice impuse. Pe care o trăiam printr-o ceaţă vie şi tremurătoare care-mi îngheţa cu uşurinţă sângele, avertizând prin aceasta că nu este momentul să mă arăt curajoasă. Eram observată, eram pândită, încolţită de acea combinaţie stridentă de negru şi alb, care devenise compromisul maxim acceptabil de factorul obiectiv al motivaţiei mele.

Ceva mă chinuia, încetul cu încetul. Umilinţa de a fi urmărită, sorbită din priviri. Starea de nelinişte dusă până la extrem. Eram prinsă într-un joc al ironiei sorţii, izolată de gardul ruginit de sârmă ghimpată al neîmpotrivirii. Ca şi cum învinuirile, cele mai aspre, ar fi planat asupra mea. Asta era atunci viaţa mea. O redută a propriei limitări.

Să-i privesc pe toţi bărbaţii aceia din jurul meu. Pe toţi. Unul câte unul. Să fiu privită de ei cu o stranie reticenţă, pe care dacă ai fi întâlnit-o de prea multe ori te-ar fi făcut să crezi că viaţa nu merită a fi trăită. Era o cărare pe care nu păşisem niciodată. Flacăra disperării ridica temperatura stimei de sine, agitaţia moleculelor din sistemul meu funcţional se acutiza. Amploarea acestui fenomen de strâmtorare psihică, accentua nivelul indispoziţiei pe care o puteam accepta şi suporta.

Leadership: Dispui de certitudinea cunoaşterii sensului şi a valorii vieţii, precum şi de aprecierea limitelor lor de valabilitate, prin intermeiul unei stări de luciditate care confirmă intenţiile tale de a depăşi condiţia de învins?

Mă simţeam prost, intrasem aşa, în gol, într-un spaţiu pustiu şi încordat care mă încerca cu multă reţinere, chiar cu frică. O intruziune într-un real părăsit de orice nădejde, de orice fărâmă de compasiune, accentuând anxietatea. Nu aparţineam nimănui. Aş fi plecat bucuroasă, numaidecât. Dar, intimidată, nu găseam niciun pretext. Aşa că m-am resemnat cu gândul că în curând totul se va sfârşi.

Diferiţi munţi pot fi formaţi din aceeaşi rocă, diferite câmpii pot avea acelaşi sol, diferiţi arbuşti pot face fructe asemănătoare. Iar gândurile care cotropesc omul, golindu-l de orice substanţă revitalizantă, sunt adăpostite în acelaşi lăcaş, în funcţie de sistemul propriu de reglare a rezistenţei setate iniţial. Când gândurile acestea declanşate din exterior şi consumate în interior nu încetează la timp, se aşterne vălul gros al dualităţii dintre ignoranţa tihnită şi inteligenţa anxioasă.

Clarice Starling a căzut pradă unei clipe de trăire încordată, copleşită de un sentimentul instabil, de vinovăţie. Părea să pândească scăparea din prinsoarea lanțurilor de oțel ale minţii. A minţii rătăcite în labirintul pustnic al complicităţii asumate în jurul convenţiei dintre tăcerea nemărginită şi ascultarea cea mai supusă.

Limitele de valabilitate ale sensului şi valoriii vieţii ei păreau cuprinse între îndoială şi regret, între delir şi suferinţă, însă acestea erau combătute prin intermediul unei stări de luciditate de tipul "Aminteşte-ţi motivul pentru care te afli aici" ce o determina să-şi tempereze atitudinea, implusul, conştiinţa.

Leadership: Îţi poţi asigura o forţă mobilizatoare majoră controlându-şi instinctele, sentimentele şi reacţiile în raport cu o realitate pe care n-o poţi schimba, încât să nu cazi în patima momentului care te poate face prizonierul propriei limitări?

Două forţe acţionează concomitent asupra unei minţi condiţionate de realitate: o forţă de presiune, care acţionează asupra schimbării de fond a emoţiilor, generând conflicte interne. Oferind pe această cale un bun prilej de experimentare a funcţionalităţii în viziunea unei lumi triste, reprezentată de acea combinaţie stridentă de negru şi alb, care poate deveni compromisul maxim acceptabil de factorul obiectiv al valorii şi motivaţiei individuale.

Şi o forţă de răspuns, dotată cu o anume putere de decizie, alimentată simultan sau alternativ cu " combustibil energizant ", dar care rămâne subordonată puterii centrale - puterea gândului.

Aceste două forţe se anulează reciproc sau îşi amplifică potenţialul în funcţie de capacitatea de a face să se întâmple ceva, de a crea o alternativă la acceptarea unui statu-quo rigid şi de a trece foarte repede la o stare de dispoziţie bună.

Omul care nu-şi asigură o forţă mobilizatoare majoră, controlându-şi instinctele, sentimentele şi reacţiile în raport cu realitatea exterioară, dură, nu poate fi decât lipsit de punctul de sprijin al identificării cu caracteristicile şi atuurile lăuntrice care pot face din el un lider.

Momentul care te poate face prizonierul propriei limitări se produce atunci când devii conştient de faptul că oricât ai încerca să fugi de realitatea exterioară vei fi nevoit să te conformezi Sinelui care trăieşte suferinţa ca pe un obiect de studiu psihologic, sau ca un simptom al slăbiciunii de a nu-şi putea înăbuşi glasul conştiinţei care îi spune că "Nu există Dumnezeu".

Rostul omului în spaţiul închinat tăcerii scoate în evidenţă dezvoltarea şi intensificarea acelor forţe interne care determină adaptarea la nou, mai ales în situaţii extreme neprevăzute şi apărute intempestiv. Orice destabilizare internă atrage după sine acţiuni haotice, nepotrivite şi inadecvate.

O călire a materialului intern se impune obligatoriu, mai ales pentru cei ce vor să se menţină lideri. Dezvoltarea rezistenţei la stres, ca şi dezvoltarea capacităţii de răspuns rapid şi adecvat situaţiilor care nu pot fi anticipate, este o cerinţă stringentă în domeniul conducerii.

Roşul unui trandafir rătăcit în lumea artei

Valoarea simbolică a unei creaţii este amintirea imaginii din care se întocmeşte înţelesul şi filosofia Eului (responsabil pentru receptarea mesajului naturii) hotărât să uimească continuu prin diversitatea subiectelor abordate.

Mi-am ales trandafirul preferat, Double-Delight. El nu se află mai presus de fraţii lui decât prin amintirea ce o degajă înflăcărarea unei aşteptări fericite, visarea unui întreg orient artistic al cărui singur element de exprimare a fost, mii de ani, privirea asupra frumosului, conţinutul imagistic cursiv, susţinut de culori bogate şi vii, cum numai un pictor ar fi putut să-l traverseze prin intermediul unui amplificator de emoţii puternice.

Semnificaţia lui simbolică se regăseşte numaidecât într-o pictură, capodopera unei minţi care developează continuu roluri, rosturi, rostiri şi interpretări diverse, menită să pună în superioritate expresia unei emoţii instantanee.

Iată cum se deschide floarea de trandafir, încet, graţios, fără zgomot, ca o minunată îmbinare de bogăţii şi frumuseţi rar întâlnite, dezvăluind o paletă cromatică şi aromatică fabuloasă, ca semn de apreciere pentru un moment artistic dedicat naturii pure, maiestuoase, pline de viaţă. Aprecierea unei frumuseţi neconştientizate, mesajul ascuns al unui trandafir se poate sesiza într-un fragment din "Dialog despre pictură" de Lodovico Dolce:

"Lauro: Nu ştiu cum aş scoate-o la capăt dacă nu s-ar vinde culori frumoase, care îmi aduc trecere şi câştig.

Fabio: În felul ăsta le iei ochii doar celor nepricepuţi. Eu nu te dojenesc pentru că foloseşti culori frumoase, însă aş vrea ca ele să aibă de câştigat datorită ţie, şi nu tu datorită lor."

Leadership: Cum se produce impactul dintre ceea ce aştepţi să găseşti la tine în plan artistic şi ceea ce prezinţi lumii prin prisma similarităţii cu sintagma "Distincţie valorică"?

La o adică, cred că sunt ceea ce gândeşte un trandafir în preajma artistului consacrat: ce bine mi-ar prinde să produc o impresie frumoasă, să împărtăşesc o mică poveste, o satisfacţie de ordin estetic, cu cineva care să mă înţeleagă. Ca un fel de investiţie de inteligenţă, de sensibilitate, de pasiune şi fantezie în gestul minunat al naturii de a se exprima liber. Da, aşa este. Arta necesită o mare putere de pătrundere în viaţa privată a fiecărei creaţii a naturii.

Trandafirul este impactul dintre ceea ce aştept să găsesc la mine în plan artistic şi ceea ce prezint lumii prin filtrul similarităţii cu sintagma "Distincţie valorică". Pentru că frumuseţea are întotdeauna un cost, un concept valoric care îl urmează pe cel de popularizare a artei şi culturii, reprezentându-se printr-o relaţie directă a unei experienţe subiective cu lumea obiectivă.

Impactul importalizării unei frânturi de realitate într-o manieră unică şi personală, în ipostaza de muză, se produce prin prisma descrierii pe care o dau realităţii alternative din care se naşte un stimul de recompensă imediată: faptul de a fi "de dorit", faptul de mă socoti important.

Mai ales că de foarte multe ori, cu eleganţă şi tact de gentleman, îmi creez o anumită dispoziţie de a înţelege şi de a compara o vedere mai veche cu una nouă, ca un fel de obsesie pentru ceva mirific şi înălţător. Îmi induc o stare de concordanţă cu miracolul unei prezenţe ocrotitoare, parcă scoasă dintr-un rai de basme, încât atitudinea pe care o adopt în faţa unei imagini relativ greu de perceput pentru un om oarecare să devină pentru mine obişnuinţa unei activităţi creative care să mă ducă cu gândul la rafinamentul acelor domnişoare din lumea orientală.

În plan artistic, totul trebuie să pară real, tangibil într-un sens poetic, chiar şi iluzia trăirii într-un rol de mascul simțitor care salvează o prinţesă de la o posibilă soartă tragică - aceea de a-şi etala frumuseţea până la saturaţie. Aşadar, costul redării unei imagini artistice de rară frumuseţe este dat de efortul de a surprinde ceva ce nu moare niciodată, ca moment de mare intensitate emoţională, reprezentând un indicator de exprimare a eficienţei în cazul producerii tonurilor de culoare, închise sau deschise, într-o explorare a realității subiective cu sorgintea în receptarea vizuală.

În câmpul artei, costul are ca substitut inducerea impresiei de viu, trăirea nemijlocită a sentimentelor transferenţiale şi luarea în considerare a sugestiei de "minune a naturii care se află nu doar în afara omului, ci şi în interiorul său".

Adevărata apreciere a artei este dată de efortul artistului de a realiza ceva grandios prin participare redusă la viaţa socială, dar în aşa fel încât sentimentele transmise în opera sa, prin culori, figuri de stil şi imagini artistice să fie interpretate ca o confirmare a valorii sale inestimabile.

Îmi închipuiesc că sunt destui pictori în stare să redea o trăire neirosită de timp prin asocierea cu tot ce se întâmplă în jur, cu lucrurile îndepărtate, deformate, detaşate de experienţa personală. Dar eu nu sunt ca ei. Sunt visarea unui necunoscut care priveşte cu un ochi nou personificarea unei impresii concrete, unei senzaţii de plenitudine, unei eleganţe princiare de care sunt legat în acel moment de extaz în care se vede că natura este mulțumită de alegerea mea, ca şi prieten de suflet al ei.

Fiindcă mereu îmi impun să văd umanizarea naturii de aproape, prin ideea de „paradis neatins", ceea ce pe pânză pare neobişnuit de familiar, atât de nelimitat, indispensabil în viaţă. Nu-i de mirare că ori de câte ori vorbesc despre trandafiri am în vedere un singur aspect: similitudinea cu calităţile Creatorului. Şi, ca orice artist de mare valoare, am ajuns să constat acest mare adevăr: „Eu numai printre oameni mă simt singur şi numai în mijlocul naturii mă simt eliberat de orice constrângere".

Costul realizării unei creaţii fără egal, ca expresie a purităţii şi frumuseţii interioare, are ca bază de evaluare însăşi impactul culorilor asupra psihicului uman, asupra emoţiilor, asupra percepţiilor şi ideilor despre viaţă. Infiltrarea masivă şi perpetuă a emoţiei în întreaga suprafaţă a unui tablou cere neapărat o fericită îmbinare de trăsături între creator şi creaţia lui, bazându-se pe principiul separării culorilor în mici tuşe care eliberează din peisagistica operei restricţiile de tehnică sau de tematică.

Stilul meu este inconfundabil, nu-i aşa?

Valoarea unei creaţii este dată de imaginea pe care o păstrezi în minte despre o realitate care nu îți promite o experiență interactivă și un eveniment memorabil, până ce nu îți asumi riscul de a face parte din plasticitatea ei.

Roşul unui trandafir rătăcit în lumea artei este culoarea din care îţi extragi toate informaţiile necesare exprimării în termeni de „repere de interpretare a unei realităţi libere", adică a naturii apărând ca independentă într-un mediu artistic special creat pentru a oferi viziunii o empatie profundă, o senzație de senzualitate, o nouă perspectivă a frumuseţii.

Rotiţele leadershipului

On Ianuarie 15, 2009

Menţine-ţi tot timpul leadershipul în echilibru, manifestându-ţi tot interesul faţă de "serviciul de întreţinere" a potenţialului tău la capacitate maximă.

Pe vremuri aveam în camera mea un ceas extraordinar de frumos. Era un ceas din acela vechi, cu ramă din lemn de abanos şi cu pendul. Nu se putea să nu-l observe prietenii mei atunci când intrau la mine în cameră. De fapt, era atât de frumos şi interesant, încât toţi mă întrebau de unde l-am cumpărat şi dacă nu vreau să-l vând. Ţineam foarte mult la ceasul acela, şi de aceea încă îmi amintesc cu drag de el.

Însă, într-o zi, ceasul s-a oprit pe neaşteptate, aparent fără niciun motiv. Rotiţele erau în stare bună şi bine rostuite, dar arcurile îşi pierduseră toată elasticitatea. Am încercat de multe ori să le înlocuiesc, le-am demontat cu grijă, le-am remontat cu şi mai multa grijă, dar rotiţele rămâneau în continuare nemişcate. În cele din urmă n-am avut de-ales şi l-am dus la un ceasornicar. I-am explicat meşterului despre ce este vorba, i-am spus că l-am demontat de multe ori dar fără niciun folos. Meşterul s-a uitat cu atenţie la ceas câteva minute.

- Mda. Ştiu care-i problema.

- Care e? am întrebat eu imediat.

- Tinere, ca să afli care este problema, trebuie în primul rând să înţelegi mecanismul de funcţionare al ceasului. Apoi tot ce trebuie să faci este să ajustezi componenta potrivită la anumiţi parametri. Tu ai schimbat arcurile, dar n-ai pus pendulul în poziţie de echilibru pentru că n-ai cunoscut principiile fizicii care stau la baza funcţionării ceasului.

Leadership: Ce piese trebuie să ajustezi pentru a-ţi atinge potenţialul, încât să nu declanşezi un simptom de anxietate în diferite momente din evoluţia ta?

În fiecare dintre noi există rotiţe pe care nu le putem vedea, care ne dau inspiraţia şi creativitatea de care avem mare nevoie pentru a funcţiona mai bine, pentru a găsi soluţii la problemele cu care ne confruntăm. Uneori, însă, se poate întâmpla ca rotiţele care ne pun în mişcare strategiile şi planurile de acţiune, să înţepenească. Atunci când se va întâmpla acest lucru, vom şti oare ce piese trebuie să ajustăm astfel încât să ne atingem din nou întregul potenţial, să dăm naştere unor gânduri îndrăzneţe, unor idei noi, interesante şi realizabile?

Una din cele mai importante "piese" pe care trebuie s-o ajustezi pentru a-ţi atinge potenţialul este capacitatea de a schimba ceea ce te împiedică să fii tu însuţi în condiţiile tendinţei de exces a gândirii bazată pe cercetarea şi pe reflecţia inovativă.

O altă piesă este distanţarea de sublimul ce vine de nicăieri - care îţi inundă creierul cu imagini, stări şi senzaţii de dincolo de personalitatea ta. Sau ar putea fi apropierea de un statut al meşterului care are ambiţia capodoperei, dar nu şi a lucrului bine făcut.

Îţi manifeşti tot interesul faţă de fenomenul de întreţinere a potenţialului tău de lider la capacitate maximă? Urmăreşti cu atenţie evoluţia leadershipului tău? În cazul în care potenţialul tău ar suferi o „defecţiune”, ai putea să ajustezi acea componentă cheie din el la anumiţi parametri astfel încât să-l faci să „ticăie” din nou?

Orice tip de leadership am practica, oricât de bine ar fi pus la punct, el va suferi mici modificări în timp fie din cauza unor elemente neluate în calcul iniţial, fie din motive independente de noi. De aceea se impune revizuirea lui permanentă (a fiecărei strategii şi adaptarea la noile condiţii impuse, cât şi la constrângerile ce apar). Un lider trebuie să dea dovadă de maleabilitate, flexibilitate, adaptabilitate şi să deţină cunoştinţe consistente şi variate de a-şi pune leadershipul în poziţia de echilibru.

Leadership: Ce anume te face să fii animat de aspiraţia spre autodepăşire, încât să eviţi refugierea într-o inactivitate confortabilă?

Ca şi ceasurile, inspiraţia ne dă forţa pierdută prin oscilaţiile sale. Inspiraţia este mecanismul care realizează legătura dintre strategiile pe care le construim şi materializarea lor practică. Leadershipul nostru va fi reglat cu o precizie absolută dacă, din când în când, facem o ajustare uşoară a modului în care privim lucrurile, a felului în care abordăm şi remediem fiecare „defecţiune" care se poate produce. Iar dacă lăsăm inspiraţia să se uzeze, toate rotiţele din subconştient care ne oferă soluţii se vor strica si ele.

Scriitorul american Frank Tibolt afirma cu convingere: "Acţiunea generează întotdeauna inspiraţie".

Dacă suntem pasivi şi ne refugiem într-o inactivitate confortabilă s-ar putea ca rotiţele care ne pun în mişcare capacitatea de gândire şi inovaţie, să ruginească şi să rămânem în urmă. De aceea, în orice moment trebuie să fim gata să devenim cât mai buni, cât mai creativi şi cât mai profesionişti. Dacă facem acest lucru şi dacă suntem dispuşi să părăsim zona de confort, vom putea să funcţionăm tot timpul la capacitate maximă.

Aspiraţia spre autodepăşire este expresia unei perspective creată în jurul a ceea ce vrei de la viitor, care se transformă într-o nouă realitate sau într-una mai bună, conform alegerii "piesei" care te face să fii mai plin de energie. Este cu neputinţă să posezi sensul unei existenţe bazată pe rezultate şi performanţă dacă te împotriveşti conţinutului propriei interiorităţi, fără altă constrângere decât aceea a autenticităţii unei "piese".

Psihologia din spatele leadershipului se bazează pe potenţialul de valorificare a extra-atenţiei asupra componentelor ceasului, care se potriveşte cu ansamblul de reguli menite să determine modul de constituire a unei noi teorii a cunoaşterii.

Rotiţele din mecanismul leadershipului sunt mijlocul sigur care te propulsează înainte. Ca lider trebuie să ai grijă ca toate rotiţele potenţialului tău să fie unse între ele chiar şi în stare de normală funcţionare, să te asiguri mereu că ele corespund anumitor parametri - ca să nu se blocheze. Astfel întregul tău mecanism de leadership va merge continuu fără să scârţâie sau să se oprească.

Menţine-ţi tot timpul leadershipul în echilibru, manifestându-ţi tot interesul faţă de "serviciul de întreţinere" a potenţialului tău la capacitate maximă.

Rough Boy

On Iulie 19, 2018

Sporeşte valoarea estetică a creaţiei pe care o promovezi, făcând referire la un fragment din structura spiritului omenesc pătrunsă de acea expresie a receptivităţii artistice în stare să se constituie ca pură noţiune a unei existenţe particulare.

Angajamentul vizionar pe care l-am urmărit de-a lungul întregii vieţi, plin de măreţie asemenea unui drum pe care păşesc doar spiritele pure, a fost acela de a nu face compromisuri cu tot ceea ce în lumea artei moderniste reprezintă avalanşa kitsch-urilor sau "performanţelor" second hand. Gimme just a minute and I'll tell you why !

Practic, eram pus în faţa dependenţei de a fi un personaj de poveste prins în capcana mirajului vrăjit al filosofiei secunde, expusă verbiajului înşelător al teoriei, fiind stimulat doar de acea preferinţă a pictorului pentru abstractizarea formei, care ridicând culoarea la rangul de "substanţă morală", purtătoare de expresie a umanului, introduce o anumită fragilitate şi suavitate care spune despre el mai mult decât şi-ar fi dorit.

Există un curaj născut numai din mândrie, legat de acea dependenţă de contextul unei experienţe de scriere care constituie însemnele utilizării literare a cuvintelor drept arme ale victoriei unui crez indiscutabil, care ar spune: "Nu bate nicio clipă în retragere ! "

Leadership: Creaţia ta păstrează subtil urmele vanităţii într-un anumit context de timp şi spaţiu, conturând o viziune unică şi de impact, în loc să învingă prin forţă brută?

Desigur, se impune imediat comparaţia şi paralelismul cu un mare cuceritor, precum Ginghis Han. În timp ce el cucerea teritorii după teritorii cu sabia plină de sânge, artistul din mine izbea cu atâta forţă expresivă în grandioasa literatură a secolului 21 până ce scuturile de apărare ale moraliştilor deveneau inutile.

Extraordinara originalitate intelectuală care mă diferenţia de ceilalţi artişti, punând cap la cap detaliile unei munci asidue şi sistematice de impunere a unui Art Nouveau de factură spirituală, împovărat totodată de o taină sufletească încadrată într-un anumit context de timp şi spaţiu, lasă să se întrevadă un mesaj extrem de emoţionant afirmat cu atâta energie în puritatea lui expresivă: "Nu păstrez în mine urmele nici unei minime vanităţi."

Mai trebuia să dovedesc că am meritat încrederea marilor titani ai literaturii, să îndrăznesc o străbatere a deşertului obişnuinţelor grosolane, chiar dacă îmi era teamă din cauza slăbiciunilor mele vizavi de stilistica exprimării. Şi trebuia s-o fac în maniera unui pictor care redă exact ceea ce are sub ochi, servindu-se de culoare mai arbitrar doar ca să se exprime mai puternic. I am the one who can fade the heat, the one they all say just can't be beat.

Leadership: Îţi actualizezi în permanenţă demersul artistic analizând realitățile lumii contemporane prin mijlocirea unui parcurs sincretic ce ia în considerație fascinaţia unei exprimări aparent exhaustive proiectată în direcţia extrapolării unor observaţii de la individual către general?

Când încerci să te exprimi literar, dar împotriva felului de a picta a artistului care e fecundat numai de imagine, fond, culoare, senzaţie şi aparenţe pentru a facilita procesul de înţelegere a artei, încet-încet credibilitatea ta începe să poarte un nou nume: Kitsch sau Destrăbălare. Ain't got no rap, ain't got no line.

Fii un pictor de mare fineţe înainte de a-ţi alege exemplar cuvintele care pot bate timpul în spaţiul scriitoricesc. Autenticitatea scrisului este construită cu tehnica timpului de către un ceasornicar care întoarce arcul și apoi lasă ceasul să funcţioneze singur.

I'm a rough boy. Inflexibil pe dreapta cale a calităţii, mi-am câştigat sprijinul adevărului nedezminţit al unei experienţe fără seamăn, fără a face concesii conformiste în faţa comunicării neobişnuite a conţinuturilor echivoce, dar aleasă ca mijloc de constatare a unor trăsături distincte ale artei, mai ales în cazul mirabilei constatări a unor înţelegeri străvechi care le depăşesc pe cele actuale.

Leadership: Arta ta își afirmă puterea în puritatea expresiei, servindu-se de expresivitate pentru a atinge noi orizonturi?

Imaginile pline de savoare, atinse de sensibilitatea unei spiritualităţi mistice de frumuseţe unică, gata să-şi ia înapoi investiţia de generozitate cu care evocau în acelaşi timp o lume reală şi una fabuloasă, puteau oricând să se concretizeze într-un fragment dintr-o iluzie ce va rămâne mereu un vis spulberat de amintiri.

Deci, am extins noţiunile unei educaţii artistice înalte plecând de la propriile mele constatări şi continuând prin a le atribui conotaţii proiectate în lumina lumii exterioare.

În epoca tehnologiei superinteligente, a momentelor de libertate, a răgazului de destindere, îşi face întotdeauna loc pe pânza şevaletului corpul plin de sudoare al unei făpturi delicate şi simţitoare. În timp ce scrisul îşi continuă călătoria dincolo de fereastra modestei căsuţe a magicianului, explorând noi frontiere ale esteticii în lumina unor reflectoare, cu decor şi costume tot mai îndrăzneţe.

Leadership: Sensul pe care îl dai unui element izolat poate fi corelat cu alte elemente care, din acel moment, constituie împreună cu primul un ansamblu numit "formă de dominaţie mascată sub aparenţa improvizaţiilor"?

Încă o dată mă văd nevoit să mă întreb ce se întâmplă cu sufletul celui care trăieşte o anumită experienţă într-un univers nou, când raţiunea face o examinare prea strictă chiar de la poartă ideilor de "aici" şi "în altă parte", de la distanţa unei comparaţii cu anumite norme de consum a fanteziei cele mai impenitente.

I don't care how you look at me / Because I'm the one and you will see.

Ca ultimă replică a unui dialog dintre existenţa trecătoare a muritorului şi eternitatea universului, la care se adaugă extazul în faţa cerurilor reci, giganticul proces metafizic, mereu înnoitor, al identităţii şi alterităţii, sub cupola frumosului, este justificat de necesitatea de a cuprinde sentimentele puternice ale eului liric, precum: regretul şi punctul de start, locul de unde am plecat, pe care nu pot să îl uit și pe care trebuie mereu să-l respect.

Eroul din romanul "Lolita" spunea la un moment dat: "Am întruchipat cu atâta măiestrie liniştea disperării extreme, tăcerea de dimineaţa dinaintea unei izbucniri de nebunie, încât soţii Farlow m-au dus la ei acasă."

Dacă modalitatea de a expune o idee, o teorie, o poveste, o chestiune ce intrigă lumea este legată de rădăcina lucrurilor întărite prin sintagma "a institui o realitate de altă factură", atunci veţi înţelege bazele sincretice ale creaţiei mele pe lungimea de undă a unui lirism de o altă formulă şi adâncime, care impresionează prin rafinamentul cu care pătrunde faptele, stările de lucruri ale lumii.

Prin spirit artistic mi-am dominat reacţiile şi sentimentele, sub aparenţa improvizaţiilor izvorâte dintr-un simt superior al frumosului ca valoare partitivă (care exprimă ideea de parte dintr-un întreg sau întregul din care s-a luat o parte) şi dintr-un efectiv omenesc ce nu era supus restricţiilor de experienţa artistică.

În artă este exclusă inserarea expresiilor care adună senzații active, îmbărbătează "reflecţia care proiectează în infinit", dar care nu pun suficient de mult în evidenţă valoarea anumitor fenomene de graniţă cu alte lumi şi alte realităţi.

Rough Boy reprezintă acea expresie a receptivităţii artistice în stare să se constituie ca pură noţiune de existenţă particulară, fiindcă face apel la comparaţii de necrezut în imagini şi la asociaţii simbolice cu grad înalt de credibilitate, uneori puţin exagerate, dar care pot spori cunoaşterea, intensifică trăirile şi introduc un plus de existenţă într-o realitate tot mai dinamică în procesul de transformare a unui subiect într-o dezbatere mai largă.

Rugăciune pentru un zeu

Evaluează-ţi bine calităţile şi limitele, înainte să-ţi ridici leadershipul pe nişte false piedestaluri.

Cei mai mulţi dintre conducători îşi urmăresc până la bătrâneţe ambiţiile, mai presus decât orice. Animaţi de un singur gând, de un ţel nobil, plini de iniţiativă, energici până aproape de epuizare, ei acţionează cu bună credinţă şi într-un spirit constructiv cu intenţia de a-şi croi drum spre succes şi pentru a-şi asigura pe termen lung poziţia, înfruntând cu bărbăţie toate obstacolele ce le stau în cale.

Tutankhamon, faraonul Egiptului, a avut şi el o mare ambiţie, una singură, dar pe măsura unui ideal care depăşea cadrul îngust a ideilor din acea vreme. Aceea de a readuce în regat prezenţa divinităţilor. Însă ambiţiile nu sunt cuantificabile pentru cel care nu-şi evaluează corect calităţile şi limitele.

Leadership: Întreţii iluzia prin care destinul predestinat al unei "opere" neterminate se reflectă în viitorul unei infinităţi de determinări din care majoritatea cu valori peste limitele admisibile ale nivelului tău de performanţă?

Duşmanii sunt la fel de numeroşi în interior cât şi în exterior. Tutankhamon era plăpând ca un fluture de noapte, în nici într-un caz o fire ambiţioasă cu un caracter puternic. Acest băiat nu era în stare nici măcar să tragă o săgeată şi, după cum bine a remarcat unul dintre generalii săi, „chiar dacă ar putea să tragă, n-ar şti încotro să ţintească”.

Înainte să fie ales rege, înalţii demnitari au crezut că sunt asiguraţi că, graţie autorităţii lui, ţara va cunoaşte bunătatea şi gloria. S-au înşelat amarnic, fiindcă Tutankhamon pe de o parte n-avea stofă de conducător, nu era un om hotărât, energic, nu un luptător neînfricat, pe de altă parte suferea de o maladie evolutivă fatală ce ducea la decalcifiere, cunoscută ca „boala oaselor de sticlă”.

Zeul şchiop. Se putea numi Tutankhamon rege? Un tânăr care boleşte fără nădejde – un biet olog, o povară pentru regat, obiect de silă pentru el însuşi? Se putea numi rege un neputincios, o epavă, o rămăşiţă de om? Se putea numi rege cel care tremura tot de emoţie când trebuia să ia o decizie, cel care nici la 19 ani nu avea forţa necesară ca să încordeze un arc elementar, cel care în loc să fie sprinten ca o veveriţă, să ardă de dorinţa de a trăi intens cădea pradă celor mai aprige suferinţe? Se putea numi rege cel care în loc să domine şi să controleze mii de oameni printr-o energie debordantă, prin tărie de caracter şi dârzenie, era mereu ajutat de cineva să-şi ţină echilibrul?

Mereu sprijinindu-se de un toiag ca să stea drept sau ca să nu se istovească, un astfel de om nu poate fi decât dominat de un puternic sentiment de pesimism, nu poate fi decât timorat şi urmărit de un puternic sentiment de inferioritate, în nici într-un caz pătruns de un puternic sentiment al datoriei.

Opera neterminată a unui lider este încercarea de a domina o lume din care el rămâne literalmente exilat şi în al cărei spaţiu comun nu va mai avea loc atunci când îi va sosi momentul asumării propriei imagini. Poate fi comparată cu încercarea unui fizician de a controla gravitaţia sfidânt legile fizicii.

Leadership: Dispui de "continuări" care să te aducă mereu în avantaj material sau poziţional?

Cum poate un lucru lipsit de orice valoare să determine valoarea altuia? Mulţi dintre cei care aleg calea grea a leadershipului, sub raportul unei viziuni integratoare şi a unei atitudini specifice, deseori propunând un model nou de a merge înainte, pun accent doar pe evoluţia interioară, dar nu şi pe slăbiciunile lor datorate lipsei de predictibilitate. Aceste slăbiciuni se manifestă îndeosebi față de ei înşişi, în acele momente care îi fac vulnerabili contextelor exterioare, generatoare de anxietate, făcându-i pe ceilalţi să se îndoiască de trăinicia leadershipului lor.

Leadershipul este mutarea pe care o faci pe tabla de şah a lumii, analizând utilitatea a ceea ce transmiţi, care deseori poate fi interpretată în mod absolut ca fiind "împotriva ta". Latura leadershipului care se formează, se modelează şi se practică pe tabla de şah a vieţii, cuprinde "Pionul" şi câmpurile pe care acesta le are de străbătut până la linia de transformare, adică până la statutul de "Rege". Pentru ca regele să nu fie în şah, el trebuie să dispună doar de continuări care să-l aducă în avantaj material sau poziţional.

Vei resimţi ca foarte dificilă şi stresantă această tranziţie de la un bun executant la un excelent lider, dar mai rău decât atât, chiar destul de neliniştitor, vei resimţi tranziţia de la o stare de referinţă, de bună dispoziţie, la una de panică. Ţinând cont mai ales de modul în care susţinătorii tăi o vor interpreta pe tabla de şah a succesului lor, care îi va defini în viitor.

Leadership: Răspunzi cu un "DA" necalculat principiilor folosirii puterii, chiar şi atunci când puterea este deghizată în spatele unor formule relevante de tipul: "Visul a fost și va rămâne pentru totdeauna esența pentru care merită să lupți până la capăt" ?

Crunta boală i-a fost fatală. În timp ce cobora scările spre sala de audienţe, lui Tutankhamon, dintr-un motiv nevăzut şi misterios, i-a alunecat bastonul în care se sprijinea şi, pierzându-şi echilibrul, s-a prăbuşit pe scara cu pantă abruptă. Capul lui s-a lovit de muchia piedestalului unei coloane. Muri pe loc, fără măcar să apuce să-şi spună ultima rugăciune.

Cel sortit să aibă un "corp de lut" , nu unul de "lumină" , nu poate ajunge niciodată un conducător desăvârşit, aşa cum nici puful unei păpădii nu poate sa reziste unei rafale de vânt puternic. Niciodată visul nu va putea fi experimentat până la capăt de omul ce nu este născut cu înclinații pentru marile provocări ale vieții.

Pe un astfel de om nu-l poţi impulsiona, nu-l poţi motiva, iar el nu se poate însănătoşi miraculos. Un astfel de om nu poate fi adormit şi îndată ce se află în transă, în somnul său hipnotic, cu ochii închişi, el să-şi ghicească singur boala şi tot din somn să ordone medicamentul potrivit.

Nu există medicament pentru cel ce, trupeşte şi sufleteşte, nu a fost menit să ajungă conducător. Pentru a fi conducător, trebuie să ai atât capacităţi fizice, cât şi înclinaţii native. Pentru acela căruia îi lipsesc acestea două, nu-i mai rămâne decât să-şi spună o rugăciune sau să meargă pe alt drum decât acela al leadershipului.

Principiul folosirii puterii sună cam aşa: "Încearcă să mărșăluiești fără să oboseşti prin locurile pe unde n-a mai umblat nimeni, fără să te împiedici de un ciob numit ghinion."

Concluzie: Vechiul proverb "omul potrivit la locul potrivit" este valabil şi în zilele noastre. Un lider trebuie să aibă forţa fizică şi psihică necesară pentru a-şi îndeplini menirea. Desigur, unii parcă s-au născut lideri, parcă sunt scrise în codul lor genetic abilităţile de lider, dar pentru cei mai mulţi aceste abilităţi sunt rodul unor munci neobosite. A promova însă un om nepotrivit în funcţia de lider este o mare greşeală ce va sfârşi printr-un mare eşec.

Tu îţi clădeşti viitorul pe o himeră? Te bazezi întotdeauna pe cineva să-ţi facă povara conducerii mai uşoară? Te foloseşti întotdeauna de resursele altora pentru a rezolva problemele a căror responsabilitate îţi revine ţie?

Nu cumva îţi fundamentezi dorinţele pe nişte convingeri eronate? Evaluează-ţi bine calităţile şi limitele, înainte să-ţi ridici leadershipul pe nişte false piedestaluri. Nu uita că nu se poate face nimic durabil pe o structură fragilă.

Run with Us

Începe să te dezvolţi sub îndrumarea unei puteri imense din care poţi să deduci nu doar existenţa Fiinţei Supreme din tine însuţi, ci mai ales adevărul care îţi trădează emoţiile și adevărata personalitate.

În infinitul tăcerii, urlă puternic glasurile gândurilor care-mi sar în ajutor, undele lor survolând în jurul lumii, ca nişte circuite oscilante, între pozitiv şi negativ, cu propria lor frecvenţă la rezonanţă, acordată pe diferite valori specifice de hazard: You can run with us ! We got everything you need ! După o cercetare atentă a acestor glasuri, ca într-un tablou plin de simboluri, de unde şi ideea de frumos în dialogurile cu mine însumi, realizez că tăcerea corespunde nevoii de a mă cunoaşte prin relaţie cu arta, cu personajul unei opere care continuă să-şi caute rostul între vis şi realitate.

Bineînţeles, în orice imagine artistică se poate distinge un glas al artistului care te cheamă, care te face să tresari, care răzbate secolele doar ca să pună la curent cu ceea ce te face să fii unic. Evoluez între ceva mai presus de emoţie şi ceva mai presus de dorinţă, ceva care nu poate fi denumit de ceea ce se întâmplă înăuntrul meu, când îmi urlu furtunile mâniei la granița între logic și fantastic, între real și vis, fără ca din senin să se producă cauza vreunei schimbări subtile. Don't be afraid / You're not alone.

Aşa cum o armă dă totdeauna unui om plăpând siguranţa de sine, aşa cum există întotdeauna o soluţie magică de afirmare pentru o inimă înflăcărată, în care domneşte spiritul de aventură, tot astfel există o lungime de undă, percepută de ochi ca având o singură culoare, numită frică, şi care verifică relaţia manifestată în încercarea de a fi mai mult decât ceea ce eşti: Don't be afraid / Wipe that fear from your eyes ! / And if you feel you're going under / We'll be around.

Leadership: Forma care dă creaţiei tale o anumită orientare poate fi pusă în legătură cu vocea variantei tale de a fi plasată într-un spaţiu al inspiraţiei care îşi trăieşte netructat intimitatea adâncă?

Temător, mă cufund într-un moment de curiozitate metafizică şi încerc să mă ridic la suprafaţă încărcat pe deplin de ecoul unei voci încurajatoare - ecoul unei aventuri, ca şi când, sub îndrumarea unei puteri imense aş fi putut să deduc existenţa Fiinţei Supreme din mine. Între frică, îndoială şi curaj există acea „naivitate”, rudă a curiozităţii care oferă mereu o direcţie lucrativă propriei mele vitalităţi, aprinzând toate tiparele învechite pentru a-mi centra identitatea în jurul unui scop măreţ.

Arta este vocea cu care îmi expun povestea vieţii într-un tablou pictat de Fiinţa Supremă din mine, în timp ce o altă viaţă se scurge în paralel mult mai repede. Încep să cred că există o mai mare originalitate de expresie, un conductor mai receptiv la primirea energiei însufleţitoare, pentru a ocupa un loc mai de frunte în poezia unei stări de spirit, pe măsura caracterului meu plin de avânt. O împărăţie care nu se poate clătina, cu grijă clădită în tonul versurilor: When you're behind closed doors / All alone by yourself / And you're longing inside / To be somebody else.

În artă, este cu neputinţă să îţi înţelegi trăirile dacă, mai întâi de toate, nu îţi trăieşti intimitatea adâncă prin experienţa subiectivă a temporalităţii sau a întâlnirii cu nemăsuratul, tradusă ca o uimire în faţa propriilor tensiuni interioare. Conţinutul vieţii sufleteşti este o culme a creaţiei de maturitate a artistului. Nu-ţi fie teamă să te pui, măcar aparent, în linia întâi a infinitului obscur, leaving shadows in the night , parcă nesfârşit de dur cu tine însuţi, cu ceea ce înseamnă realitatea. Şi să-ţi dai seama de exagerarea emoţiilor tale raportate la anumite momente sau situaţii, cause there's still time....to change your mind.

Leadership: Atitudinea ta, exprimată printr-o legătură asumată cu dezvoltarea spiritului de aventură, este depăşită de sugestia unei atmosfere care dă o notă de distincţie modului tău de manifestare lăuntric?

Humbert Humbert, eroul lui Nabokov din romanul „Lolita", îşi destăinuie chinurile, dorinţele, visele, aspiraţiile aşa cum doar el le cunoaşte, pentru a scăpa de ele:

Şi eu o priveam. O priveam şi am înţeles clar, aşa cum ştiu că o să mor, că o iubeam cum nu iubeam nimic din ceea ce văzusem sau imaginasem pe pământ sau sperasem să întâlnesc altundeva. Acum, ea nu mai este decât adierea slabă a violetei şi ecoul de frunză moartă a nimfetei peste care mă rostogolisem cu asemenea strigăte în trecut. Ecoul pe marginea unei pasiuni viguroase care se trădează pe ea însăşi, diluându-se în ceţuri sau se topindu-se într-un haos de misticism.

Dar, mulţumescu-ţi ţie Doamne, eu nu m-am închinat numai în faţa acestui ecou.

Nicio metodă de cercetare umană, pliată (într-o primă instanță) asupra mijloacelor și posibilităților de a răspunde diverselor solicitări de control în planul activităţii mentale, prin direcţionări ale emoţiilor şi transformarea din sfera negativului în cea a pozitivului, nu poate fi efectuată fără prezenţa unei anumite forme de reciprocitate, în baza unei acţiuni exterioare.

Reciprocitatea este acea nevoie continuă de regăsire de sine care se întinde între ceea ce dai mai mult din tine pentru a te raporta diferit şi mai constructiv la lumea din jur, și ceea ce înveţi de la tine atunci când nu-ți ascunzi dependenţa faţă de o pasiune arzătoare și rafinată, faţă de o stare de energie aparte.

Leadership: Poţi să te raportezi la frumosul din tine punând în prim planul artei un cuvânt adresat conţinutului vieţii sufleteşti a unui Creator, raportându-l la puterea de a-l concretiza într-o operă unică prin interpretarea caracteristicii tale definitorii?

Modul de manifestare al fiecărui om este efectul ecoului unei aventuri, când se dezvoltă sub îndrumarea unei puteri imense din care poate să deducă nu doar existenţa Fiinţei Supreme din el însuşi, ci mai ales adevărul care îi trădează emoţiile și adevărata personalitate. Prin felul cum te manifeşti lăuntric se produce efectul ecoului de putere inspiraţională care îndrumă existenţa unei emoţii întru bucuria Creaţiei trăite ca un soi de eliberare de tot ceea ce aparţine lumii din jur.

Iar leadershipul, alături de formarea unei atitudini pozitive, nu are ca notă de vârf strânsa unitate între rolul și importanța pe care îl ocupă acest adevăr în procesul formării personalităţii, ci mai cu seamă acea latură a curiozităţii care oferă o direcţie lucrativă propriei vitalităţi, aprinzând toate tiparele învechite pentru a centra identitatea ta în jurul unui scop măreţ.

Fiinţa Supremă, atribuită unui caracter modelat între frică, îndoială şi curaj, este rezultatul unei căutări perpetue de cauze și abordări ale limitelor puterii tale de a te transforma în ceea ce vrei să fii. La urma urmei, frumosul din tine poate fi pus în prim planul artei printr-un cuvânt adresat conţinutului vieţii sufleteşti al unui creator unic: "Intimitate" sau provocarea de a te înţelege singur, de a te autoperfecţiona din cărarea singurătăţii.

Atmosfera care dă o notă de distincţie modului tău de manifestare, în care trăiești după capriciile trăirilor cele mai înalte, este dominată de modalităţile eficiente de a-ţi orienta energia şi atenţia spre scopul tău din viitor, fapt care, la rândul lui, îţi ajută subconştientul să rămână concentrat pe rezultatul dorit.

Caracteristica definitorie a unei fiinţe care se autoperfecţionează din priveliştea lăuntricului ei este aceea că se consideră, uneori involuntar, interpretul intenţiilor artistului creator care încearcă să-şi extindă punctul de vedere asupra contemplaţiei intelectului său.

Run with Us este îndemnul conştiinţei şi simţirii de a nu renunţa la ceea ce iubeşti cu adevărat, la ceea ce te leagă de trecut, la ceea ce ai din plin: pasiunea care te descătuşează, energia de a te simţi în largul tău, a te bucura de viaţă, de a te reinventa, de a te manifesta cu mai multă încredere în orice situaţie. Ca răspuns la acel ecou de întrebări, transformate într-un cuib de disperări, ferecate în inima ta, care te ajută să înţelegi ce ţi se potriveşte mai bine pentru a păşi cu încredere pe drumul redevenirii.

S-au iubit pentru că s-au privit

Învaţă să apreciezi frumosul unei compoziții care îţi duce mintea mai aproape de mesajul ascuns în mijlocul lumii, combinat cu simțul realității dat de mișcarea unei roţi în mijocul altei roţi.

Cosette, în umbra în care trăia, era sortită, ca şi Marius, să fie cuprinsă de flacăra iubirii. Destinul, cu răbdarea sa tainică şi de neînlăturat, apropia una de alta aceste două făpturi încărcate şi dornice de furtunile clocotitoare ale patimii; aceste două suflete care purtau dragostea aşa cum doi nori poartă trăsnetul, şi care trebuiau să se întîlnească şi să se contopească într-o privire, ca norii într-un fulger.

În romanele de dragoste s-a vorbit atît de mult despre privire, încît a ajuns să fie dispreţuită. Azi abia mai îndrăzneşti să spui că doi oameni s-au iubit pentru că s-au privit. Şi totuşi aşa se iubesc oamenii, şi numai aşa. Ce rămîne nu e decît ceea ce rămîne. Nimic nu e mai adevărat decît ciocnirea dintre două suflete cînd schimbă această scînteie.

În clipa în care Cosette, fără să-şi dea seama, îi aruncă lui Marius acea privire care îl tulbură adînc, el nu bănui că şi privirea lui o tulburase pe Cosette. Îi făcuse şi el acelaşi rău şi acelaşi bine.

Ea îl privea de mult şi cerceta, aşa cum văd şi cercetează fetele, uitîndu-se în altă parte. Marius o găsea încă pe Cosette urîtă, pe cînd Cosette îl şi socotea pe Marius frumos. Dar, pentru că n-o lua în seamă, băiatul acesta îi era indiferent. Totuşi, nu se putu opri să nu-şi spună că avea păr frumos, ochi frumoşi, dinţi frumoşi, un glas frumos, cînd îl auzea vorbind cu colegii lui, că nu se ţinea destul de drept cînd umbla – dacă e vorba să-i găseşti neapărat un cusur – totuşi cu o anumită graţie, care era numai a lui, că nu părea prost, că toată făptura lui era aleasă; blajină, simplă şi mîndră, că, în sfîrşit, părea sărac, dar nu un înfrînt. *

Leadership: Hotărârea de a te dărui unei clipe de mare înălţare spirituală se poate interpreta ca o încercare a minţii de a se deschide în faţa sufletului, aşa cum te deschizi în faţa unui destin care se înscrie pe o linie orizontală, nu pe cea verticală?

Destinul este un cuvânt pur, dar care tulbură adesea, dincolo de evenimentele pe care le consideri cele mai importante pentru tine, aceleaşi evenimente care pun în mişcare frumosul unor clipe de neuitat. Mai este ceva tot atât de pur ca şi destinul, exprimat prin piesa finală din puzzle-ul vieții noastre: "Iubire", iar acest cuvânt simbolizează frumosul unui lanţ de evenimente (adesea inexplicabile) care te conduc de la o stare la alta, spre diferite locuri, în timp ce te afli în căutarea scopului vieţii.

Dar nu orice destin este favorabil, nu pentru oricine care îşi zice creştin, fiindcă adesea este completat de o privire aruncată în direcţia greşită, doar asupra schimbărilor importante din viaţă, dar nu şi asupra nevoii de a te şti complet mulţumit în ipostaza de purtător de duh sfânt. Acest lucru se întâmplă când unica ta preocupare este să-ţi pui în ordine viaţa, în loc să fii împăcat cu tine însuţi, şi prin aceasta cu candoarea înțeleptei frății cu destinul dat de Dumnezeu.

Iar pentru ca vraja unei prietenii să rămână mereu aceeaşi, sau să se transforme în iubire, trebuie să regândeşti modul în care decurge viaţa ta în fiecare moment, punând pe primul plan acele căi ale lui Dumnezeu care trebuiesc împlinite în slujirea Sa. Iubirea nu este prim planul unei vieţi care se dovedeşte a fi o distincţie pentru realizări excepţionale în activităţi sau acţiuni ce aduc atingere unei imagini de sine ridicate, nici chiar dacă ea constituie o sursă de elevaţie în universul marilor spirite.

Iubirea este un dar al lui Dumnezeu pentru cei care l-au căutat pe El înainte de orice altceva, înainte să te îmbarci în orice călătorie, înainte să reacţionezi la provocările vieţii.

Iubirea este hotărârea de a te dărui unei clipe de mare înălţare spirituală ce se poate interpreta ca o încercare a minţii de a se deschide în faţa sufletului, aşa cum te deschizi în faţa unui destin care se înscrie pe o linie orizontală, nu pe cea verticală. Un asemenea destin, deschis pe orizontală, marchează descoperirea lui Dumnezeu în tine, în totul din jur, în evenimente, în oameni, în aşa fel încât realitatea pe care ţi-o doreşti să fie realitatea pe care şi-o doreşte El.

Mesajul ascuns este acesta: urmează-ţi calea vieţii aşa cum ţi-o aşterne conştiinţa faptului că totul se petrece din voinţa lui Dumnezeu, şi ca iubirea este darul sfânt pentru cei ce l-au găsit pe Dumnezeu înainte de orice altceva.

S-au iubit pentru că s-au privit sugerează împlinirea unui destin prin apropierea de un Dumnezeu care iubeşte îndeosebi acei oameni care ştiu să-l slăvească neîncetat, concentrându-se cu totul asupra slujirii unei meniri spirituale şi ducerii ei la bun sfârşit.

Să dăruim câteva clipe studiului perspectivei

On Februarie 12, 2009

Perspectiva apropie părțile corpurilor, sau le face să se depărteze prin proiectarea părților lor văzute printr-un plan interpus între ochi și obiect.

- Durer și-a manifestat dragostea sau poate cultul pentru geometrie și prin gravura lui, în aramă, intitulată "Melancolia", pe care a executat-o în 1514 după ce s-a întors din cea de a doua călătorie în Italia. Se pare că a realizat această lucrare sub impresia durerii pe care i-a pricinuit-o moartea mamei lui. Această gravură, care a fost de multe ori și în diverse feluri comentată, Melancolia a luat chipul Geometriei, este înaripată și ține în mână un compas. Este îngrijorată. La ce se gândeşte ? Nu a putut stabili legea care leagă frumosul de matematică?

La picioarele ei se află o sferă, la dreapta ei un imens dodecaedru și deasupra capului, pe un perete, se vede un pătrat magic, de ordinul patru, ceea ce arată că pe lângă problemele de geometrie pură, pe Durer l-a mai interesat și această problemă, deloc ușoară, din teoria numerelor. Jucându-mă odată cu acest pătrat, a cărui sumă a cifrelor este 34, m-am întrebat dacă nu cumva Durer a ales acest număr drept constantă a pătratului său, fiindcă în acel an el împlinea tocmai 43 de ani ?

- Asta s-ar putea să fie o simplă coincidență, dar nu-i tot o simplă coincidență faptul că tu ai remarcat acest pătrat magic. Cred că poate fi un subiect foarte atrăgător pentru viitoarea noastră întâlnire. Ești de acord ?

- Bine, dar pană atunci, să ne întoarcem la perspectiva noastră în legătură cu care am de gând să-ți citesc câteva rânduri scrise de Diderot în Eseurile despre pictură: "Primul pas spre înțelegerea clarobscurului îl formează studiul regulilor perspectivei. Perspectiva apropie părțile corpurilor, sau le face să se depărteze, numai prin simpla scădere treptată a mărimii, numai prin proiectarea părților lor, văzute printr-un plan interpus între ochi și obiect, și legate, fie chiar pe acest plan, fie pe un alt plan închipuit, dincolo de obiect. Pictori, dăruiți câteva clipe studiului perspectivei: veți fi răsplătiți din belșug prin ușurința și siguranța cu care vă veți regăsi în practicarea artei voastre !

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi cultivi o perspectivă obiectivă în privinţa a ceea ce vrei să demonstrezi, legat de o realitate de acelaşi gen cu aceea a punctelor materiale şi a distanţelor dintre ele?

Ca să înţelegi universul, sau cum stau lucrurile în această lume, trebuie să demonstrezi că există o realitate independentă de construcţiile fizicianului teoretician, sau independent de gândirea analitică a matematicianului autentic. Este vorba despre o realitate a conştiinţei sau a sufletului în care visul nu este decât un eveniment ce a fost sau ce va fi manifestat. Dar, până atunci, hai să analizăm gândirea analitică a unui matematician.

Cugetați o clipă și veți recunoaște că trupul unui profet înfășurat în toată uriașa lui mantie, și barba lui stufoasă, și părul care i se zbârleşte pe frunte, și vălul pitoresc care-i dă capului un caracter divin sunt supuse în toate privințele acelorași principii ca și poliedrul. Până la urmă, unul vă va stânjeni la fel de puțin ca și celălalt. Cu cât vă veți înmulți numărul ideal al planurilor, cu atât veți fi mai corecți și mai adevărați, și să nu vă temeți că veți fi reci din pricina unei condiții mai mult sau mai puțin adăugate tehnicii voastre".

- Diderot a scris aceste Eseuri după 1765 și, după cum văd din nota ce le însoțește, ele au apărut "la unsprezece ani după moartea filosofului (1795)", așadar la sfârşitul veacului al

XVIII-lea. Deduc din ele că atunci, entuziasmul și râvna pentru studiul și mai ales aplicarea perspectivei în pictură scăzuse simțitor. Așadar, înainte de a atinge această problemă, cred că ar fi cazul să ascultăm sfatul lui Diderot și să "dăruim și noi câteva clipe studiului perspectivei", ce zici?

Leadership: Viziunea pe care o proiectezi asupra lumii are la baza presupunerea că lucrurile se schimbă în funcţie de ceea ce ţi se întâmplă atunci când perspectiva ta obiectivă este în mod constant zdrobită de experiențe care nu se aliniază cu ea?

Un matematician îşi împarte mintea în trei părţi: una analitică, una logică şi una intuitivă. Şi atunci se întâmplă ceva ciudat cu el, căci începe să gândească totul în proporţii şi concentraţii. Însăşi viaţa lui devine o concentraţie de sensuri atribuite evenimentelor din jur, acest lucru reprezentând un tip de problematizare, care produce un conflict intelectual mai complex şi are anumite dificultăţi de rezolvare, fiindcă totul dă întotdeauna "cu virgulă".

- Zic că-i bine, hai să începem ! Din punct de vedere geometric sunt posibile două moduri de reprezentare în perspectivă: perspectiva paralelă și perspectiva centrală. în perspectiva paralelă, corpurile din spațiu sunt proiectate pe planul desenului printr-un fascicul de raze paralele cu o direcție dată. Este o metodă convențională, bazată pe presupunerea că ochiul observatorului se află la infinit. Perspectiva paralelă este folosită pentru figurarea corpurilor din spațiu, în desenele din manualele școlare, dar și de pictorii din Estul Asiei: Japonia, China, India. în acest caz, atât liniile verticale, cât și cele paralele în spațiu, rămânând paralele și în desen (fig. 33).

În perspectiva centrală, lucrurile se schimbă. în acest caz, proiecția obiectului din spațiu se face printr-un fascicul de raze concurente, punctul O de întâlnire, numit și punct de vedere, se presupune a fi ochiul observatorului. Totodată se presupune că planul pe care desenăm, P, este transparent, astfel că razele vizuale duse din O la obiect să-l străbată. Dar mai bine să considerăm un exemplu. Fie P planul tabloului și O punctul de vedere, iar obiectul de proiectat un pătrat ABCD, planul lui fiind înclinat față de planul P, iar dreptele AD și BC paralele cu planul orizontal (fig. 34), anume AD este deasupra orizontului, iar sub orizont, punctele A și fiind mai aproape de planul P decât C și D. Razele vizuale OA, OB, și OD înțeapă planul P respectiv în a, b, c, d, așa că trapezul abcd reprezintă perspectiva pătratului ABCD din spațiu, în planul P.

Viziunea este distanţa pe care o străbaţi între două puncte: un punct în care perspectiva temporală de evaluare a evoluţiei lumii este discontinuă, şi un punct în care perspectiva asupra realităţii depinde de felul în care aplici conceptele matematice pentru a explora noi modele de materializare a ideilor şi conceptelor novatoare.

Să dăruim câteva clipe studiului perspectivei ca să putem înţelege mai uşor gândirea analitică a matematicienilor care, jucându-se cu teoriile numerelor, au descoperit noi modalităţi de a închipui o nouă realitate într-o lume care nu întotdeauna este recunoscută. Sau, după cum bine spunea cineva: "Când priveşti, priveşte fără a interpreta. Astfel, te vei conecta direct la realitatea concretă, nu la o realitate abstractă, formată de opiniile tale asupra realităţii. Iar asta te va ajuta să transcenzi orice iluzie."

Să ne amintim de noi, aşa cum ne-am privit pe noi înşine

În fiecare etapă a drumului nostru, ignorăm un infinit posibil care nu este altceva decât acea proprietate pe care o au amintirile noastre de a se putea combina între ele.

S-a terminat concursul de running montan de la Slănic Moldova. Mulţi din alergătorii din Iaşi s-au reunit pentru deja tradiţionala petrecere de la final de zi. Soarele apusese demult, dar eu parcă tot îmi doream acel look însorit din timpul concursului, să fiu din nou prezent în atmosfera cea mai palpitantă. Şi ce aplauze ! Şi ce strigăte de încântare mi se înghesuiau în minte, ca nişte raze de soare revărsate în interiorul unei inimi care încă şi acum bate cu speranţă, cu nostalgie, cu sufletul la gură. Primul cuvânt care mă însufleţeşte, iată-l: Evrika ! Căci m-am redescoperit altfel: rezistent, luptător, puternic.

Grupul de prieteni părea a fi susţinut de două motive complet diferite: unii voiau să se relaxeze, alţii păreau să se simtă superiori propriilor lor aşteptări, ca şi când s-ar fi înapoiat din cea mai palpitantă aventură a vieţii lor.

Primul motiv, emoţiile de reuşită, gheme de vise, putinţe, idealuri, păreau să sintetizeze bucuria unei realităţi care doar în artă se regăseşte, acea realitate a sufletului în care visul nu este decât un eveniment ce a fost sau ce va fi manifestat. Al doilea motiv, un salt mare spre înainte, printr-un gând venit dintr-o amintire, un gând care se ridică deasupra lucrurilor şi deasupra vremurilor pe care le-am traversat împreună, trebuia să se încadreze în exigenţele fiecăruia faţă de valorile estetice ale naturii. Traversând muntele în alergare este o adevărată enciclopedie vizuală.

Leadership: Poţi să pătrunzi cu privirea o lume care se extinde în realitate dincolo de cadrul "ferestrei", cu condiţia de a respecta distanţa cuprinderii unei viziuni ideale?

În timp ce gândul de a face mari performanţe părea să aparţină fiecăruia dintre noi, în mod unic şi evidenţiator, drept rezultat al traversării punţii dintre obiective şi realizarea lor, puteam simţi fiecare din noi constrângerea muntelui de a accepta anumite circumstanţe pentru a ne atinge un scop. Nu doar că a fost un concurs epuizant, desfăşurat în plin soare, însă numai astfel am putut pătrunde cu privirea o lume care se extinde real dincolo de cadrul "ferestrei", cu condiţia de a respecta distanta cuprinderii unei viziuni ideale: puterea de a ne implica empatetic în realizarea unei sarcini dificile, aceea de a ocupa un loc fruntaş pe podium.

Fereastra, deschiderea noastră spre marea aventură, ca o înfrumusețare suplimentară a spiritului de învingător, se poate închide oricând dacă nu vom fi în stare să vedem mai departe de podium, mai departe de un simbol al reputaţiei. Uneori suntem prea ignoranţi să vedem mai departe de ce ni se prezintă şi luăm totul "by default".

N-aş fi în stare să explic modul în care conţinutul fiecărui gând existent în fiecare din noi, dacă ar fi descris în termeni psihologici, ar fi putut să influenţeze realitatea tabloului pe care l-am avut în faţă, a tabloului pe care a fost aşezată cu atenţie culoarea succesului: galbenul. Totul se întâmplă în interiorul unui algoritm social şi psihologic bine-cunoscut alergătorilor de top. Simţeam, la unison, că am fost doar noi împotriva întregii lumi, călăuziţi de spiritul de neînfrânt al celor victorioşi, mai ales că am fost cât p-aci să fim ajunşi din urmă.

Unii din noi au câştigat un loc pe podium, dovedind că nu au fost doar nişte personaje ascunse în interiorul unui desen combinat din mai multe forme văzute într-o mişcare istovitoare, pe care un Creator figurativ, foarte riguros, le prezintă în contrast cu exteriorul. Imaginaţia creatoare, dacă încă punea stăpânire pe gândurile noastre, şi încă cum, se datora faptului că distanţa dintre noi, prin care se emitea o informaţie de tip win-win, era foarte mică.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi hrăneşti sufletul cu amintiri care îţi îngăduie să identifici un chip bine cotat dintr-o mulţime, aşa încât mulţimea să faciliteze recunoaşterea reciprocă a imaginii pe care doreşti să o comunici?

Şi apoi a avut loc un miracol. Teodor a preparat un cocktail răcoritor, iar noi am ştiu să apreciem o băutură fresh realizată din cele mai bune ingrediente naturale. Trei culori într-un singur pahar, trei cantităţi diferite din trei sortimente diferite. Tricolorul într-un singur shot a fost consumat dintr-o singură înghiţitură. Cine a privit fotografia noastră în timp ce ciocneam paharele, ar fi simţit că cineva a spus o poveste a supravieţuirii, a vindecării, a vieţii şi a aventurii, în doar 5 secunde.

Să punem personajul principal, the bartender , în interiorul unei mărturii retrospective. Să ni-l amintim pe Teodor. Nu în ţinută de alergător, ci cu şorţul de bucătărie strâns în talie, preparand mai multe feluri de cocktail. Să ne amintim de noi toţi, cu un surâs pe faţă, cu mare putere în inimă, aşa cum ne-am privit în acea seară, cu ochii care nicidecum nu poartă vestă. Neîntâlnind nicio rezistentă dură din partea naturii, ci doar însufleţiţi de o altă chemare a aventurii, ne-am deprins să utilizăm energia intrinsecă a unei reprezentări de grup, construind puntea dintre năzuinţă şi apartenenţă - numită Antissitusni .

Aceste experienţe de viaţă par a fi motorul insight-urilor care l-au făcut pe Borges să trateze în operele sale tema amintirii care se revarsă, dintr-un preaplin al faptelor încă neconsumate definitiv, asupra unui prezent care nu a fost gândit de tine pentru tine, ci de alții, sau de Altcineva:

"S-a petrecut ceva. Orice. Ceva ce nu vom putea să recuperăm, ceva al cărui înţeles îl cunoaştem, dar nu-i cunoaştem forma, ceva cotidian şi obişnuit şi nemaisurprins până atunci, care ne-a dezvăluit că universul (care ne este dat în întregime în orice clipă, în orice loc, nu numai în operele lui Dumas) era şi el acolo, în acea împrejurare prezentă. Intraţi, căci şi aici se află zeii, le-a spus Heraclit din Efes celor care l-au găsit încălzindu-se la focul din bucătărie."

Leadership: Poţi să te plasezi în acea realitate a sufletului tău în care suma amintirilor este efectul unui eveniment ce a fost sau ce va fi manifestat la nivel de experienţă subiectivă?

Va răsuna mereu ecoul profund al prieteniei dintre noi. Însetaţi de largi orizonturi, ne-am străduit să prindem şi ecoul secret al universului. Se vede că am fost alergători de top chiar şi pe planul gândurilor, în contrast cu tumultul scenei anterioare, când muntele ne-a pus la încercare abilităţile şi tăria de caracter. Apoi, ne-am testat echilibrul emoțional, nicidecum n-am picat în plasa delăsării şi a uitării de noi înşine.

Multe din aceste gânduri se pot regăsi în tabloul unui pictor care, prin conexiunea minte-suflet, surprinde bogăţia lăuntrică a tinereţii fără bătrâneţe.

Printre poveştile vieţii fără bătrâneţe se află una despre alergătorii din Iaşi care au înţeles că nu trebuie să se cantoneze în aceeaşi buclă a destinului, bătând pasul pe loc după o mare competiţie. Dacă Dumnezeu ne-a privit cu ochiul care nu doarme niciodată, atunci El ne-a văzut doar ca nişte creaţii menţinute în sincronicitate, contopite într-un halou de lumină pură, ce pare nepământesc. Proust ar accentua astfel această înrudire spirituală:

"În fiecare etapă a drumului nostru, ignorăm un infinit posibil care nu este altceva decât acea proprietate pe care o au amintirile noastre de a se putea combina între ele."

Leadershipul este un catalizator pentru recuperarea amintirilor care nu te părăsesc nici atunci când câştigi un loc pe podium, nici atunci când viaţa devine mai dificilă, nici atunci când interesele comune dispar, nici atunci când nu mai ai nimic de oferit.

Să ne amintim de noi, aşa cum ne-am privit pe noi înşine, ori de câte ori ne stabilim un scop mai mare decât cel urmărit iniţial: bucuria de a fi toţi împreună, nu doar o parte, când trăim la unison emoţia şi magia unui nou început de drum.

Să ne temem de noi înşine

On Iulie 16, 2014

Schimbă deznodământul luptei cu ceea ce reprezinţi pentru lume, prevenind orice intruziune în spaţiul propriei tale manifestări.

Episcopul Myriel s-a dus la bieţii săi munteni cu mâinile goale şi s-a întors cu ele pline. Plecase numai cu credinţa sa în Dumnezeu şi a adus odoarele unei catedrale. El a spus:

"Să nu ne temem niciodată de hoţi şi de ucigaşi. Acestea sunt numai primejdiile din afară, primejdiile mărunte. Să ne temem de noi înşine. Prejudecăţile - iată hoţii; viciile - iată ucigaşii. Primejdiile mari sunt înlăuntrul nostru. N-are nicio importanţă ceea ce ne ameninţă capul sau avutul. Să nu ne gândim decât la ceea ce ne ameninţă sufletul.

Iar preotul nu trebuie să ia vreo măsură de prevedere împotriva semenului său. Tot ceea ce face aproapele său este cu voia lui Dumnezeu. Să ne mărginim a ne ruga lui Dumnezeu atunci când ne închipuim că o primejdie e gata să se abată asupra noastră. Să ne rugăm, nu pentru noi, ci pentru ca fratele nostru să nu cadă în păcat din cauza noastră." *****

Leadership: Înţelesul pe care îl acorzi liniei de demarcaţie între siguranţă şi vulnerabilitate are expresia de „trezire spirituală", fapt ce face distincţia dintre ce este durabil şi ce este trecător?

Orice abordare a conceptului de valoare îşi are originea în subiectivismul propriei tale persoanei, în voinţa de a te angaja într-o luptă nu atât cu obiectul conştiinţei tale, cât mai ales cu ceea ce ea a intrat în obişnuinţă. Adică, cu prezenţa harului sau a păcatului, cu absenţa binelui sau a răului, cu deznodământul luptei cu tine însuţi, cu demonii din viaţa ta, cu imprevizibilul unei experienţe noi care te face să te întrebi dacă nu cumva ai comis nişte greşeli care îţi sabotează demersurile de maximizare a puterii de a te ridica deasupra circumstanţelor vieţii.

Ceea ce constaţi de-a lungul vieţii despre tine însuţi se poate prezenta sub aparenţa unui "firesc" înspăimântător dacă nu reuşeşti să faci compromisuri, dacă nu reuşeşti să creezi atracţie între ceea ce ţi se întâmplă şi felul cum reacţionezi la ceea resimţit ca nedreptate a destinului. Libertatea de a răspunde eficient provocărilor vieţii este combinaţia dintre rugăciunea închinată lui Dumnezeu şi virtutea de a face binele în orice acţiune sau în orice decizie care defineşte poziţia şi intervenţia ta în mersul lumii.

Durabil este ceea ce simţi pentru tine în faţa împrejurărilor cele mai triste ale vieţii, cu privire la menirea pe care ţi-o asumi în încercarea de a preveni situaţiile care nu te pun într-o lumină bună. Trecător este ceea ce te face să te simţi plin de viaţă atunci când singurul tău merit este de a fi generos cu oamenii care depind strict de latura ta bună şi sensibilă.

Principalul instrument care permite construirea leadershipului este însăşi posibilitatea de o construi un orizont care să lumineze drumul pe care mergi în viaţă, prevenind orice intruziune în spaţiul propriei tale manifestări. Şi care să limiteze permanent zonele de contrast negativ. Liderul din tine, îndeplinindu-şi menirea de a prezenta lumea dintr-o nouă perspectivă asupra dezvoltării calităţii vieţii, ia în calcul însăşi posibilitatea de modelare a raţionalităţii pretinse de ceilalţi oameni şi prelucrarea ei conştientă în favoarea unei orientări spre o comuniune spirituală.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi evaluezi puterea de a te ridica deasupra circumstanţelor vieţii prin prisma a ceea ce eşti în stare să refuzi de la bun început în etapa transformării lăuntrice de-a lungul căreia vei atinge apogeul posibilităţilor tale de a face faţă înţelesurilor date destinului?

Schimbarea generează o anumită doză de rezistenţă, nu întotdeauna privilegiază acea raţionalitate care caută un fundament de stabilitate şi echilibru interior. Ci este determinată de existenţa unei mentalităţi ce ameninţă imaginea de sine şi însăşi existenţa omului. Conştiinţa vine în sprijinul acestei schimbări, mulându-se perfect pe acea normă raţionalităţii, care este credinţa, articulându-se în mod special pe imaginea despre bine şi rău pe care liderul o construieşte în procesul de remodelare a realităţii.

Înţelesul pe care îl acorzi liniei de demarcaţie intre siguranţă şi vulnerabilitate are expresia de „trezire spirituală" numai atunci când "primejdiile din exterior" şi "primejdiile dinăuntrul tău" nu provoacă un blocaj în ceea ce priveşte asumarea şi păstrarea identităţii. Trezirea spirituală este doar o formă liberă de construcţie a unui cadru nou de funcţionare şi dezvoltare.

Pentru a te împăca cu tine însuţi trebuie să refuzi a te compara cu alţii, mai ales dacă drumul tău nu coincide cu drumul lor.

Leadershipul generează un sens de vitalitate şi de apartenenţă la o realitate care încorporează acea dimensiune a personalităţii pe care eşti dispus să o arăţi lumii. Episcopul Myriel a atins apogeul posibilităţilor sale de a face faţă înţelesurilor date destinului atunci când şi-a dat seama că este o excepţie faţă de restul lumii, credinţa lui fiind o absolvire a oricărei vinovăţii ce ar fi putut constitui obiectul unei remuşcări fără sfârşit.

Leadershipul se prezintă conştiinţei omului sub puterea unui destin care îşi găseşte înţelesul în totalitatea faptelor pe care eşti dispus să le accepţi ca pe o favoare a providenţei de a te diferenţia de restul lumii şi de a te împăca sufleteşte cu adversităţile ei.

Să ne temem de noi înşine evidenţiază acel blocaj ce poate apărea în forul nostru interior, atunci când ne lăsăm dominaţi de frică, de prejudecăţile proprii. Ceea ce în mod sigur nu îşi pierde valoarea în timp este acea putere spirituală a omului, deschisă în faţa oricărei schimbări, care îi conferă identitate şi-l ajută să depăşească condiţionările societăţii.

Să ştii că nu acord nicio importanţă banului !

A-ţi măsura caracterul prin prisma trăirilor altora, înseamnă să separi suferinţa de fericire, respectiv să le reconectezi ulterior într-o coerenţă a întregii complexităţi a fenomenului "presiunea timpului".

- Prietenul meu este pe moarte. Nu mai trăieşte decât pentru această supremă speranţă. A i-o nărui, înseamnă a-i nărui existenţa. O adevărată crimă. Să-i alungi acest gând? Cu neputinţă. Vrea să se căsătorească cu tot dinadinsul. El ţine la căsătorie cu încăpăţinarea aceea specifică doar copiilor şi muribunzilor. Prietenia mea se înfruntă cumplit cu dragostea mea. Simt că este aproape un act criminal să respingi unui biet suflet ce se va stinge, fericirea care nu-i face rău nimănui în această lume, dar care l-ar ajuta pe el să plece cu un surâs în lumea cealaltă.

- Eşti bun, zise Frédérique, înduioşată de accentul cu care Samuel pronunţa aceste cuvinte generoase.

- Dar nu la Julius mă gândesc eu în primul rând, reluă Samuel, ci la tine. Căsătoria aceasta îţi va aduce brusc o bogăţie de milioane şi face ca frumuseţea ta, deşteptăciunea ta, inima ta atât de generoasă să capete o strălucire mai mare decât ai fi putut-o spera în cele mai cutezătoare vise ale tale. Am eu dreptul să te lipsesc de un viitor încununat de splendoare? Pot să-i port pică, pentru că te iubesc? Numai cineva care blestemă dragostea consimte să-şi sărăcească femeia iubită; n-aş vrea să mă blestemi.

- Nu te teme, prietene, răspunse Frédérique. Mă cunoşti prea bine ca să ştii că nu acord nicio importanţă banului. Nu ştiu ce-aş putea face cu bogăţia. Crescută în singurătate, n-am avut nevoie de nimic şi luxul m-ar pune în mare încurcătură. Nu-ţi fie deci teamă că ţi-aş putea reproşa vreodată că m-ai lipsit de prilejul de a mă îmbogăţi. Dacă domnul conte von Eberbach ar fi sărac, şi dacă n-ar fi nevoie să-i alin suferinţa ultimelor zile de existenţă, aş fi putut regreta că nu sunt liberă. Dar dacă se pune problema banilor, sunt fericită că pot să-ţi dovedesc că între bogăţie şi dumneata, n-aş prefera niciodată bogăţia.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te accepţi din perspectiva unei suferinţe căreia îi eşti dator să i te supui, în felul în care putința de a vedea o nouă față a realității devine posibilă?

Una dintre dificultăţile întâmpinate de majoritatea oamenilor care nu reuşesc să se apropie unii de alţii, emoţional şi empatic, încercare care deseori le dă adevărate bătăi de cap, par strâns corelate cu aspectele profunde ale structurii lor psiho-emoţionale. Mai exact, eşecul încercării lor de a se contopi sub acelaşi ideal, suportând orice diferenţă dintre ei, este pus pe seama fenomenului numit de psihologi „dependenţă afectivă”.

De fapt, dependenţa, este prezentă în orice relaţie, pe lângă iubire şi alte soiuri de interese, cu precădere în cazul celor care nu se privesc cu aceeaşi ochi (ingredientul primordial într-o relaţie fiind atracţia), şi uneori tocmai dependenţa aceasta transformă începutul glorios al unui cuplu într-un sfârşit dramatic.

Exemple de schimbare care să faciliteze apropierea dintre oameni găsim peste tot, dar cu condiţia să te instruieşti să cauţi în primul rând "Împărăţia lui Dumnezeu şi neprihănirea Lui", adică adevărul acela capabil să te lumineze, care să te vindece de orice neîncredere, care să anuleze sentimentul brut pe care îl ai din cauza unei percepții față de comportamentul partenerului.

De fapt, într-o relaţie, "împărăţia lui Dumnezeu" seamănă cu acel model de realitate care transcende existenţele individuale, care transcende orizontul Eului condiţionat de o motivaţie superioară (respectiv de dorinţa de câştig), sau depinde de o inferioritate apărută în lipsa de sensibilitate altruistă și morală, pe care eşti nevoit să o suporţi.

Leadershipul este recunoaşterea empatică pe care o dai în schimbul statutului de "bun creştin" (nu de victimă într-o relaţie), care trebuie să înfrunte ceea ce se teme cel mai mult: reproşul de a fi unilateral. În leadership te vei confrunta cu suferinţa dată de incapacitatea ta de a empatiza cu persoanele care se îngrijorează, deci care sunt hipersensibile la emoţiile negative.

În momentul când înveţi şi reuşeşti să îţi schimbi atitudinea despre tine însuţi, prin râvnă mare şi prin mărturisire cu inima zdrobită, prin căinţă, prin iertare, prin revizuirea propriei vieţi, atunci Dumnezeu are grijă de toate celelalte lucruri. Ţinta ta principală trebuie să fie căutarea adevăratelor valori – înţelepciunea, cunoaşterea şi evlavia, apoi nevoia sau dorinţa de a face schimb de calităţi cu altcineva care te poate completa pe diverse planuri.

Să ştii că nu acord nicio importanţă banului, nici măcar dacă mă provoci să îţi fiu confident. Cam acesta este mesajul transmis de Alexandre Dumas în fragmentul de mai sus, luând în considerare faptul că tot ceea ce te face să te simți bine, tot ceea ce te inspiră, ce te pasionează, ce îți provoacă bucurie, depinde în mare măsură de capacitatea ta de a empatiza cu gândirea celorlalţi oameni, cu frustrările lor, cu suferinţele lor, cu nevoile lor, fără să te consideri o victimă a circumstanţelor (pe care nu ai putut să le prevezi şi a căror înlăturare nu depinde de tine).

Bine spunea blogerul Dmitri Gorobic: "Ambii avem calităţi de aceeaşi valoare. Dacă calităţile sunt identice atunci ne plictisim unul de altul destul de repede, dacă sunt diferite (însă în sumă au aceeaşi valoare) atunci e mai bine. De fapt la acest punct vroiam să ajung din start. Atunci când între noi există acest proces de vânzare – cumpărare unde calităţile este produsul iar dragostea este moneda de plată, şi mai ales dacă ele sunt de aceeaşi valoare, putem uşor echivala pentru a elimina „moneda", adică dragostea, din schimbul acesta, şi să se producă doar schimbul de mărfuri, adică de calităţi."

Să vezi ceea ce contează cu adevărat când alții sunt orbi

Asupra a ceea ce te concentrezi determină claritatea percepţiei care îţi modelează perspectiva.

Fiul craiului cel mai mic, făcându-se atunci roș cum este gotca, ieşi afară în grădină și începu a plânge în inima sa, lovit fiind în adâncul sufletului de apăsătoarele cuvinte ale părintelui său, care nu voise să-l trimită la război. Și cum stătea el pe gânduri și nu se dumerea ce să facă pentru a scăpa de rușine, numai iaca se trezește dinaintea lui cu o babă gârbovită de bătrânețe, care umbla după milostenie.

– Da' ce stai așa pe gânduri, luminate crăișor? zise baba; alungă mâhnirea din inima ta, căci norocul îți râde din toate părțile și nu ai de ce fi supărat. Ia, mai bine miluiește baba cu ceva.

– Ia lasă-mă-ncolo, mătușă, nu mă supăra, zise fiul craiului; acum am altele la capul meu.

– Fecior de crai, vedea-te-aș împărat! Spune babei ce te chinuiește; că, de unde știi, poate să-ți ajute și ea ceva.

– Mătușă, știi ce? Una-i una și două-s mai multe; lasă-mă-n pace, că nu-mi văd lumea înaintea ochilor de necaz.

– Luminate crăișor, să nu bănuiești, dar nu te supăra așa de tare, că nu știi de unde-ți poate veni un mare ajutor.

– Ce vorbești în dodii, mătușă? Tocmai de la una ca d-ta ți-ai găsit să aștept eu ajutor?

– Hei, luminate crăișor ! Cel-de-sus varsă darul său peste cei neputincioși; se vede că așa place sfinției-sale. Nu căuta să mă vezi gârbovă și stremțuroasă, căci, prin puterea ce-mi este dată, știu dinainte ceea ce au de gând să izvodească puternicii pământului și adeseori râd cu hohot de nepriceperea și slăbiciunea lor. Așa-i că nu-ți vine a crede, dar să te ferească Dumnezeu de ispită ! Căci multe au mai văzut ochii mei de-atâta amar de veacuri câte port pe umerii aceștia. Of ! crăișorule! crede-mă, de-ai fi avut tu puterea mea, de-ai vântura țările și mările, pământul l-ai da de-a dura, lumea aceasta ai purta-o, uite așa, pe degete, și toate ar fi după gândul tău.

Leadership: Ce revelații inedite îți oferă momentul prezent, conform tendinței de a da formă trăirilor greu de îndurat, pe fondul experiențelor resimțite ca ghid spiritual?

Fiul craiului, fermecat de vorbele babei, scoate atunci un ban și zice:

– Ține, mătușă, de la mine puțin și de la Dumnezeu mult.

– De unde dai, milostivul Dumnezeu să-ți dea, zise baba, și mult să te înzilească, luminate crăișor, că mare noroc te așteaptă. Puțin mai este, și ai să ajungi împărat, care n-a mai stat altul pe fața pământului așa de iubit, de slăvit și de puternic. Acum, luminate crăișor, ca să vezi cât poate să-ți ajute milostenia, stai liniștit, uită-te drept în ochii mei și ascultă cu luare-aminte ce ți-oi spune: du-te la tată-tău și cere să-ți dea calul, armele și hainele cu care a fost el mire, și atunci ai să te poți duce unde n-au putut merge frații tăi; pentru că ți-a fost scris de sus să-ți fie dată această cinste. Tatăl tău s-a împotrivit și n-a vrut să te lase, dar tu stăruiește pe lângă dânsul cu rugăminte, că ai să-l înduplеci. Hainele despre care ți-am vorbit sunt vechi și ponosite, și armele ruginite, iară calul ai să-l poți alege punând în mijlocul hergheliei o tavă plină cu jăratic, și care dintre cai va veni la jăratic să mănânce, acela are să te ducă la împărăție și are să te scape din multe primejdii. Ține minte ce-ți spun eu, că poate să ne mai întâlnim la vreun capăt de lume: căci deal cu deal se ajunge, dar încă om cu om!

Și pe când vorbea baba aceste, o vede învăluită într-un hobot alb, ridicându-se în văzduh, apoi înălțându-se tot mai sus, și după aceea n-o mai zări defel. Atunci o înfiorare îl cuprinse pe fiul craiului, rămânând uimit de spaimă și mirare, dar pe urmă, venindu-i inima la loc și plin de încredere în sine că va izbuti la ceea ce gândea, se înfățișază înaintea tată-său, zicând:

– Dă-mi voie ca să mă duc și eu pe urma fraților mei, nu de alta, dar ca să-mi încerc norocul. Și ori oi putea izbuti, ori nu, dar îți făgăduiesc dinainte că, odată pornit din casa d-tale, înapoi nu m-oi mai întoarce, să știu bine că m-oi întâlni și cu moartea în cale.

Cum se reflectă "incertitudinea" în viziunea asupra a ceea ce poți deveni, pe fondul tensiunii dintre așteptările altora și dorința de a-ți demonstra valoarea personală, într-un context care dezvăluie natura intențiilor tale imediate?

– Lucru negândit, dragul tatei, să aud așa vorbe tocmai din gura ta, zise craiul. Frații tăi au dovedit că nu au inimă într-înșii, și din partea lor mi-am luat toată nădejdea. Doar tu să fii mai viteaz, dar parcă tot nu-mi vine a crede. Însă, dacă vrei și vrei numaidecât să te duci, eu nu te opresc, dar mi-i nu cumva să te întâlnești cu scârba în drum și să dai și tu cinstea pe rușine, c-apoi atunci curat îți spun că nu mai ai ce căuta la casa mea.

Și atunci, fiul de împărat se sui în pod și coborî de-acolo un căpăstru, un frâu, un bici și o șa, toate colbăite, sfarogite și vechi ca pământul. Apoi mai scoase dintr-un gherghir niște straie foarte vechi, un arc, niște săgeți, un paloș și un buzdugan, toate pline de rugină, și se apucă să la îngrijească bine. Pe urmă umplu o tavă cu jăratic, se duse cu dânsa la herghelie și o pune jos între cai. Și atunci, numai iaca ce iese din mijlocul hergheliei o răpciugă de cal, grebănos, dupuros și slab, de-i numărai coastele. Cine mai știe de când i-or fi putrezind ciolanele! Și venind de-a dreptul la tavă, apucă o gură de jăratic. Fiul craiului îl lovi atunci cu frâul în cap, zicând:

– Ghijoagă urâcioasă ce ești ! din toți caii, tocmai tu te-ai găsit să mănânci jăratic? De te-a împinge păcatul să mai vii o dată, vai de steaua ta are să fie !

Leadership: Cum influențează percepția ta capacitatea de a realiza lucruri extraordinare, având în vedere simbolistica unui act de libertate și putere înscris într-un context de încercări și îndoieli?

Apoi crăişorul începe a purta caii încolo și încoace, și numai iaca, din nou, slăbătura aia de cal se repede și apucă o gură de jăratic. Fiul craiului îi mai trage și un frâu în cap, apoi iar începe a purta caii de colo până colo, să vadă, nu cumva a veni alt cal să mănânce jăratic. Și numai iaca, și a treia oară, tot gloaba aia de cal vine și începe a mânca la jăratic, de n-a mai rămas. Atunci fiul craiului, mânios, îi mai trage un frâu, iar cât se poate de tare, apoi îl prinde în căpăstru și, punându-i frâul în cap, zice în gândul său: "Să-l iau, ori să-i dau drumul? Mă tem că m-oi face de râs. Decât cu așa cal, mai bine pedestru".

Și cum stătea el în cumpănă, să-l ia, să nu-l ia, calul se și scutură de trei ori, și îndată rămase cu părul lins-prelins și tânăr ca un tretin, de nu era alt mânzoc mai frumos în toată herghelia. Și apoi, uitându-se țintă în ochii fiului de crai, zice:

- Sui pe mine, stăpâne, și ține-te bine! Fiul craiului, punându-i zăbala în gură, încalecă, și atunci calul odată zbură cu dânsul până la nori și apoi se lăsă în jos ca o săgeată. După aceea mai zbură încă o dată până la lună și iar se lasă în jos mai iute decât fulgerul. Și unde nu mai zboară și a treia oară până la soare și, când se lasă jos, întreabă:

- Ei, stăpâne, cum ți se pare? Gândit-ai vreodată că ai să ajungi: soarele cu picioarele, luna cu mâna și prin nori să cauți cununa?

Leadershipul este încărcat cu măsura discernământului de a distinge între aparență și esență, atunci când curajul de a accepta necunoscutul devine crucial pentru a-ți împlini destinul într-o manieră remarcabilă.

Cam așa trebuie să alegi în viață. Norocul este de partea celui care îndrăznește să vadă dincolo de aparențe și să asculte sfaturile înțelepte, chiar dacă acestea vin din surse neașteptate sau de la persoane aparent neînsemnate. Lucrurile pot căpăta un nou înțeles și o nouă valoare, chiar și din direcția din care nu te aștepți.

Să vezi ceea ce contează cu adevărat când alții sunt orbi înseamnă să recunoști valoarea și semnificația adâncă a lucrurilor, acordând importanță esențialului chiar și atunci când este trecut cu vederea de alții.

Întotdeauna, la momentul potrivit, chiar atunci când eşti mai descumpănit sau mai dezorientat, vei întâlni pe cineva special care îţi va da îndrumare. Dar nu va fi din partea cui te aştepţi, fiindcă mesagerii providenţei nu se pot recunoaşte după haine sau după înfăţişare. Nu vei avea nici puterea să alegi momentul, nici circumstanțele, nici condiţiile, dar ce poți face este să vezi ceea ce contează cu adevărat când alții sunt orbi la esența valorilor autentice.

Numai celui ce-a primit un dar special de la Dumnezeu i se revelează destinul în feluri neașteptate, nu la oricine. Numai cel ce este în stare să împlinească Voia Divină, cel mai ales dintre cei mulți chemați, cel mai luminat dintre cei mulți umili, cel mai pur dintre cei mulți simpli, cel mai adevărat dintre cei mulți rătăciți, cel trecut prin mari încercări şi cel salvat din nenumărate primejdii. Numai cel ce ştie să vadă semnele pe care Dumnezeu le-a pus în calea sa, cel ce ştie să vadă dincolo de masca superficialităţii, dincolo de veșmintele exterioare, dincolo de aparenţa situaţiei în care se găseşte. Numai lui i se potriveşte fix viaţa din poveştile cu tâlc.

A vedea este o știință aleasă care impune o deschidere spirituală rară, și de care puțini au prilejul să beneficieze pe deplin.

Să vezi ceea ce nu se poate vedea decât foarte rar

On Iulie 31, 2024

Reprezentările artistice sunt interpretari ale semnificaţiei unui eveniment particular, motivate din cauza constrângerii noastre de a atribui valoare acelui eveniment.

Sunt un om care pictează ceea ce vede, cu ochii care văd ceea ce nu se poate vedea decât foarte rar. Și numai datorită unei șanse curioase de a mă afla în câmpul vederii totalizatoare, surprinzând un fel de versiune a imaginii interioare a omului, realizată într-un desăvârșit realism, desigur, am putut să găsesc înțelegere asupra naturii profunde a artei. Aşa se face că, aflându-mă la locul potrivit, ochii mei au putut evidenţia relaţia dintre ceea ce atrage atenţia şi ceea ce se pierde din vedere, chiar atunci când m-am pus de acord asupra semnificaţiei unui eveniment particular.

Îmi imaginez scena în amănunt, fiecare detaliu vibrând cu energia momentului într-un fel aparte, ca și cum realitatea însăși ar fi devenit o pânză vie. Eu, un pictor care capturează esența a ceea ce vede dincolo de văzut, m-am trezit în fața unei scene de un realism desăvârșit, dincolo de orice aşteptări. Împins de o șansă curioasă, am încercat să prind în pensulă parcursul sublim al unei alergătoare, sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, într-o coborâre noroioasă de la recentul semimaraton, la care a obţinut locul întâi.

Vremea era sumbră, noroiul și alunecarea erau adversarii ei, dar ea își croia drum cu hotărâre și ironie, triumfând asupra oricărei adversități. Peisajul se desfășura înaintea ei ca o "Azenthopia Meteorologica", o stare de adversitate atmosferică ce oglindește frământările ei interioare. Vremea năprasnică, noroiul trădător și alunecușul perfid, devenind protagoniști tăcuți ai acestui tablou vivant, se cuvenea a fi tratată ca un fel de poveste triumfătoare ce înconjoară crearea tabloului final. Nu credeam că ochii vor izbuti să surprindă totul de-a gata, ca și când realitatea ar fi fost deja pictată pe pânza timpului.

Leadership: Efortul tău spre a te autodepăși poate să fie catalizatorul unei profunde introspecții, tradusă în artă prin puterea expresivă a emoțiilor pure de a transcende limitele convenționale ale formei și culorii?

Oana Fântânaru întruchipează triumful ironic asupra adversităților, fiecare pas al ei fiind o afirmare a "Elan Vital"-ului bergsonian în fața inerției materiei. Iar parcursul ei a fost o acțiune care s-a împotrivit limitărilor temporare, căutând să afirme valori durabile precum reziliența și transcendența. Fiecare pas pe acel drum noroios, fiecare încordare a muşchilor, fiecare bătaie a inimii, a fost o cucerire a sinelui, o depășire a condiției umane ce amintește de mitul sisific reinterpretat de Camus. Noroiul prin care treci este o parte inevitabilă a ascensiunii.

Totuşi, fiecare trăsătură de penel conturează voința neobosită a atletului. Acest spectacol al luptei cu elementele naturii mă îndeamnă să cred că același fenomen de golire de substanță se produce și în arta contemporană, ajunsă, prin propriile ei excese, la o sleire care a transformat-o într-o simplă supraviețuire. Arta este o luptă continuă pentru autenticitate, iar Oana a alergat prin noroi, ca un artist în căutarea culorilor vii. În acest sens, viziunea artistică devine posibilă prin intermediul unui pasaj din romanul "Arcul de triumf", scris de Erich Maria Remarque:

"Determinarea începe treptat să se strecoare în noi, cenuşie, decolorată. La început numai câteva pete, apoi mai multe. Numaidecât, se întinde peste gândurile noastre ca o râie, în sângele nostru, picură mereu întunericul orb al inconştientului în noi - şi apoi, deodată, fiecare dintre noi rămâne singur, plutim singuratici aiurea, de-a lungul unor canale întunecate, pradă forţelor necunoscute şi ameninţărilor neconturate. În artă, construcția determinării omului se reflectă în fiecare tușă de pensulă, captând esența efortului și perseverenței umane."

Leadership: Cum echilibrezi contrastele puternice între momentele de îndoială și de triumf, știind că fundalul estompat accentuează focalizarea asupra obiectivului tău?

Orice cale firească se deschide întotdeauna înainte, asemenea traseului unui semimaraton. Fie că substratul intențional este îndoielnic, fie că pornește dintr-o autentică convingere, arta, ca și alergătoarea, pare a se confrunta cu un teren alunecos al semnificațiilor. E drept că această deschidere spre necunoscut, această miraculoasă aventură, nu este prevăzută cu garanții, nici cu vreun fel de siguranță. Ca să te avânți pe ea, ca să dai totul din tine, îți trebuie poate mai multă determinare decât ca să o iei înapoi. Dar mai trebuie și altceva: o autentică sensibilitate. Presupun că arta "dă de văzut" înainte de "a da de recunoscut", exact cum alergătoarea simte drumul înainte de a-l vedea.

Pe aceeași linie de gândire mi se pare firesc a se situa un pictor care se lasă ghidat de intuiție mai mult decât de convenții. Alergarea, ca și pictura, nu dobândește valoare de sine decât în măsura în care parcursul greoi este o cheie a lăuntricului, o "Alethesira Icnusemut", o revelație a adevărului ascuns în efort. Mai mult decât atât, în lupta cu capriciile neprevăzute ale naturii, sora mea a descoperit umilitatea, un soi de înțelepciune tăcută, una fuerza interior que nace del reconocimiento de la fragilidad. Nu poți fi decât umil în fața obstacolelor nedorite, la fel cum un pictor se pleacă în fața misterului creației.

Mai cred că piedicile au fost puse în slujba unui mesaj autentic: "Rezistența naște frumusețe", una transfiguración del sufrimiento en belleza trascendente. Tuturor acestora trebuie să știi să te împotrivești, tot așa cum un pictor se împotrivește clișeelor şi conformismului artistic. De fapt, frumuseţea în artă, similară cu lupta dusă cu capriciile neprevăzute ale naturii, înseamnă transformarea obstacolelor în expresie autentică a spiritului uman, descoperirea armoniei în haos și transcenderea limitelor prin viziune și efort susținut. Contrastele puternice simbolizează lupta cu obstacolele întâlnite.

Când compar leadershipul și arta, am în vedere următorul lucru: "Compoziția dinamică evocă mișcarea continuă spre țelul propus atunci când textura pânzei transmite asprimea drumului parcurs."

Până la urmă, este și asta o cale de a transforma provocările în creație și viziune.

Să vezi ceea ce nu se poate vedea decât foarte rar, este o calitate a artistului care percepe esenţa dincolo de aparențe. Într-adevăr, trebuie să privești cu sufletul ca să descoperi esența nevăzută a lucrurilor.

Cum reușește arta ta să transforme efemera strădanie fizică într-o reflecție atemporală a spiritului uman neînfrânt?

Să vezi în timp ce ochii dorm

Realitatea este o iluzie creată de minte pentru a te provoca să te descoperi în feluri în care nu ai fi bănuit.

În vis, totul părea atât de real. Mă plimbam într-o grădină încărcată de parfumul trandafirilor înfloriți, căutând simbolul pierdut al Divinității, printr-un șir de analogii între planurile create și simultaneitățile coloristice ale unei capodopere. În acest timp al tainelor fără de seamăn, privirile îmi fuseseră atrase de un trandafir superb, un Double Delight a cărui frumusețe părea să emane o strălucire divină printr-un Argysor Useiniroz Akihorbia, liantul dintre prezentul etern și clipa suspendată în infinit.

Era ca și când aș fi făcut parte dintr-un puzzle în care trandafirul, supus convenției universale dintre frumusețe și efemeritate, încerca să-mi transmită un mesaj ascuns despre natura trecătoare a existenței. Grijă mare aici ! Simbolul trandafirului, o mică tentativă de a capta esența dualității spaţio-temporale unitare, oferă o înțelegere solidă despre contrastul și armonia universală, deoarece îmbină delicatețea și fragilitatea petalelor cu tăișul și forța spinilor, reprezentând astfel dualitatea și echilibrul necesar existenţei.

În mintea mea empatică, parcurgând linia fină dintre lumină și întunericul meu interior, şi-a făcut loc un secret sacru şi inviolabil, încercând să surprind esența acelei minunății a naturii: "Înainte de a suprapune visul peste realitate, trebuie să înțeleg esența fiecăruia." În planul simultaneității, prin puterea imaginației, am întâmpinat această idee deseori, ca și când aș fi fost martorul unui joc divin, într-un desen nesfârșit care revelă complexitatea și interconectarea tuturor lucrurilor.

Leadership: Poți să transmiți o experiență vizuală unică, evidențiind profunzimea unei imagini interioare, prin utilizarea unui simbol capabil să servească drept liant între două lumi aparent distincte?

O artă completă cere un orizont larg de stilizare a unei realități reflectată în Eferateth Olyonshura, adică trecută prin filtrul unei perspective transcendente. Mi-am dat seama de asta chiar în momentul când, înainte de a mă trezi, am simțit lângă mine prezența unui trandafir care, luând chipul lui Dumnezeu, mi-a înmânat următoarea revelație divină: "Pentru a găsi adevărul, trebuie să privești dincolo de aparențe."

Apoi s-a lăsat tăcerea. Tăcerea aia adâncă de la care începi să înțelegi lucruri care nu-ți sunt tocmai la îndemână, tăcerea aia ce creează o legătură durabilă cu altcineva. Şi ea curgea în jurul meu necontenit, ca sângele ce curge dintr-o rană nevindecată, ca un fel de flux misterios, în timp ce aerul căpăta nuanțele unui curcubeu magic, care învăluia totul într-o aură de mister și revelație.

Însuşi trandafirul din vis, simbolul eternităţii mereu prezente, acest minunat Double Delight, se desprindea din preaplinul lumii înfăţişate de scriitorul Jon Fasman în romanul "Biblioteca geografului":

"Un vrăjitor întunecat se îndrepta spre regiunile reci şi neîmblânzite, un păgân plăcut la vorbă, mare cunoscător al lumii naturale şi a tuturor lucrurilor invizibile. Avea tot timpul la el o desagă în care se lăuda că se află ceea ce poate da unui om salvarea eternă, ori îl poate distruge pentru totdeauna."

Leadership: Poți să reflectezi la lumea ta ca la o reflectare a universului în oglinda eternității, relevând o descoperire profundă într-o imagine artistică?

La fel cum vrăjitorul purta o desagă cu puteri de salvare sau de distrugere eternă, trandafirul din visul meu simboliza esența dualității, o reprezentare artistică rafinată, gravată pe fibra timpului, capabilă să îmi ofere o înțelegere profundă și salvatoare a vieții, sau să mă cufunde într-un haos interior. Văzut că o reflectare a lumii mele în oglinda eternităţii universului, trandafirul era la fel de misterios și plin de potențial ca și desaga vrăjitorului, purtând în el promisiunea unei revelații sau a unei rătăciri fără sfârșit.

Pe măsură ce priveam trandafirul, ca pe o taină tot mai cunoscută şi tot mai indefinibilă în acelaşi timp, o stare de extaz mă cuprinse, simțind cum mă conectez cu energia cosmică și cu profunzimea vastă a universului. Căutând în lumină și întuneric semnificații care să îmi îndrume drumul către revelație și împlinire spirituală, sur la diagonale d'une frânge d'illusion, am înţeles că singurul mod de reconstruire a unei realităţi, într-o notă artistică inedită, era să mă las purtat de fluxul unei comuniuni nesfârşite cu transcendentul.

Sinele meu, activ în alt spaţiu, reprezintă simbolul trandafirului, Ilyanoetriss, esenţa profundă a Creaţiei, manifestarea sublimă a conexiunii dintre umanitate şi divinitate.

Fiecare petală părea a fi un indiciu de pe hartă, o fărâmă de lumină, o promisiune a eliberării ce stă să vină, dintr-o viaţă efemeră, într-o viaţă fără de moarte. Altfel spus, sinele meu în spațiul visului a acționat ca o reprezentare sau o expresie a esenței profunde a trandafirului. Asta poate sugera că într-o comuniune spirituală (sau într-o conexiune cu transcendentul), m-am identificat şi conectat la acea puritate, frumusețe și semnificație profundă asociată cu trandafirul.

Imaginea artistică este o călătorie a simțurilor și a spiritului, care m-a purtat dincolo de limitele realității obișnuite, invitându-mă să explorez aspecte profunde ale existenței mele și ale universului în ansamblul său.

Apoi m-am trezit. Totul a fost atât de real, dar atât de real, încât am crezut că sunt încă parte din vis.

Leadershipul prinde contur de talie artistică atunci când creația pe care o înfăptuiești devine un simbol al viziunii nelimitate a sinelui tău capabil de a se proiecta într-un scenariu de poveste, într-un context existenţial neo-realist.

Să vezi în timp ce ochii dorm înseamnă să explorezi lumea subconștientului, să fii deschis la percepții și la experiențe care depășesc limitele conștientului. Este ca și cum ai avea o fereastră către universul interior, unde visele, imaginația și simbolurile pot să-ți ofere înțelegeri și revelații profunde despre tine însuți și despre lumea din jur. Este o modalitate de a-ți extinde conștiința și de a accesa aspecte ale realității care altfel ar rămâne neexplorate.

Ceea ce vezi ca fiind realitatea nu este decât un vis elaborat al minții, o lume paralelă menită să te provoace spre autocunoaștere autentică.

Sabia cu două tăişuri în leadership

On Februarie 01, 2014

Formează-ţi o viziune clară a ceea ce viaţa îţi aşterne înainte, schimbând ceva în trăirile pe care eşti dispus să le accepţi ca fiind o parte dintr-o realitate care întrece orice aşteptări.

"Sunt oameni pentru care imaginaţia e echivalentă cu un fapt ireal şi o acceptă ca un lucru împlinit văzut cu ochii lor" i-am răspuns citând din Sparkenbroke.

- E şi părerea doamnei Bengescu. Pretinde că mai întâi imaginează o întâmplare, până ce o acceptă ca pe o realitate, apoi o pune pe hârtie. Era în tot ce spunea o forţă pe care nu o mai întâlnisem decât în lupta dintre mare şi stânci, dar spre deosebire de mare, care îmi dădea sentimentul neputinţei de a se elibera de ţărmurile stâncoase, personajul meu părea un făt-frumos care înfruntă balaurii, doboară stejarii şi e în stare să elibereze şi marea în lupta ei cu uscatul.

Eu porneam de la realitate. Fugeam şi mă întorceam la ea. Voiam să-mi apăr cartea de ştirile zilnice, de viaţa care intră prin uşi ferecate şi ferestre închise, prin ziduri. Numai romancierul François Mauriac a înscris ca motto al biografiei sale următoarele cuvinte care, în acelaşi timp, mă caracterizează pe mine:

"Singură, ficţiunea nu minte. Ea deschide asupra vieţii o uşă ascunsă, prin care se strecoară în afara oricărui control sufletul tău necunoscut."

Leadership: Eşti în stare să demarezi construcţia unei imagini inedite despre sine, expunând lucruri despre fragilitatea vieţii cu intenţia de a testa semnificaţia unei viziuni despre lumea în care trăieşti?

Te afli în conflict cu tine însuţi? Poţi să accepţi faptul că nu se poate trăi într-o lume proprie, utopică? Ai curajul să explorezi misterul a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat? Eşti învăluit de o veritabilă colecţie de gânduri şi întrebări, eşti stăpânit de acea poftă agresiv-pătrunzătoare de a poseda? Poţi să-ţi amputezi acea latură din tine care acumulează noi stimuli şi intensifică fiecare stadiu al evoluţiei tale?

Forţa ta de a contribui la schimbare, amestecul de nerăbdare şi curiozitate cu care te priveşti este, departe de abstract, un refugiu, dar nu spaţiu izolat, nu un loc părăsit, ci unul dintre punctele tale tari. Acest atu, concretizarea gândirii deschise, creative, care se adresează sieşi, acţionând în sprijinul propriei transformări, îţi vor schimba stilul de leadership.

Cunoaşterea de sine este sabia cu două tăişuri în leadership. Pe de o parte te ţine la distanţă de o lume utopică, pe de altă parte te apropie de ea. Iar această apropiere între cele două feţe ale unor realităţi distincte, între cele două moduri de gândire independente, dimensionându-ţi existenţa, pot produce pierderi, nu de natură directă, ci indirectă.

O imagine inedită despre sine se formează prin intermediul comparaţiei dintre revelaţia unei posibile aspiraţii sufleteşti şi manifestarea unui deja vu care te făce să simţi că trăieşti viaţa altcuiva.

Capacitatea ta de a stabili limitele personale, dispunerea de acele resurse care nu sunt în detrimentul tău, dorinţa de a explora misterul a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat, asigurând un echilibru între "formă şi funcţionalitate" - forma de a te disocia de impactul unei cuceriri precare a cunoaşterii, şi funcţionalitatea propriei tale entităţi care te individualizează (cum ar fi puterea de creaţie), sunt înscrise în aria dezvoltării tale. Alcătuind, în realitate, pilonii care susţin esenţialul edificiu al leadershipului.

Dacă continui să oscilezi între două lumi sau două direcţii, nu te vei simţi bine în nici una din ele. Vei trăi mereu într-o încercare bizară de a schimba "Omul" din tine, într-o încercare incomodă de a stăpâni activ o lume, un cumul de situaţii noi, o succesiune de cunoaşteri, care însă îţi vor da peste cap toate acordurile cu tine însuţi.

Ficţiunea este iluminarea unei formulări unice şi inspirate despre o realitate în care tu singur controlezi lucrurile care ţi se întâmplă, pe care le trăieşti sub formă de amintire sau de viziune, în timpul unui deja vu care te face să simţi că trăieşti viaţa altcuiva. Ea este perfect coerentă dacă avem în vedere relația între episoadele particulare ale întregii vieți care se suprapune unui timp prea scurt pentru anumite momente de excepţionalitate, aducând satisfacția unui mod de gândire unicat, accesibil printr-o poveste care te reprezintă.

Întreaga măsură a creaţiei unui artist se axează pe romanul unei vieţi din care din care emană o învăluitoare şi cuceritoare căldură sufletească, propunând cu blândețe, un mod de a trăi prin experienţa de a fi altcineva.

Sabia cu două tăişuri în leadership este graniţa dintre ficţiune şi realitate pe care scrie "Accesul interzis", adresându-se tuturor celor care nu reuşesc să facă distincţia dintre ce e trecător şi ce este permanent.

Adevăratul pericol pe care îl poţi simţi, în calitate de om dominat de deconspirarea sensului vieţii pe pământ, este că nu ştii ce anume îţi rezervă destinul, dar cu siguranţă te poate scoate serios din zona de comfort şi împinge în toate limitele posibile. Limitele unei lumi care se transformă prin tine şi datorită ţie.

Sacrificiul lui Eliot

On Aprilie 22, 2009

Exercită-ţi în mod inteligent influenţa, inducându-le celorlalţi oameni acea stare prin intermediul căreia să-şi dezvăluie adevărata esenţă a caracterului lor.

Ai văzut filmul " Brotherhood of the Rose (1989) "? Romulus, agentul CIA sub acoperire, reuşeşte să se infiltreze în adăpostul Abelard. Şi-a pus viaţa în pericol fiindcă avea o singură nelămurire: de ce fratele său, Chris, a trebuit să moară? Vinovatul era fără îndoială Eliot, tatăl lor vitreg, şeful CIA. Trebuia cu orice preţ să afle răspunsul, chiar de la el.

- Spune-mi ceva, Eliot. Cum de ai putut să sacrifici pe cineva pe care îl iubeşti, pentru o cauză nobilă? Ce cauză e aşa măreaţă, încât să justifice faptul că ai luat şi alţi 18 băieţi orfani şi i-ai transformat în nişte maşini de ucis? Cine naiba te crezi Eliot? Dumnezeu? Cu armata ta de roboţi criminali? Am făcut totul pentru a obţine respectul şi dragostea ta, dar m-ai trădat tot timpul !

Leadership: Rezultatele prelucrării imaginii cu care ceilalţi oameni se prezintă în faţa ta, pot să identifice o cauză de natură a atrage schimbarea unei hotărâri pe care o califici incorectă şi chiar abuzivă?

Ce preferi: un reflector sau un felinar? Imaginează-ţi că eşti într-o peşteră întunecată în care există două surse de iluminat: un reflector mic, a cărui putere de iluminare este foarte intensă, dar îngustă, şi un felinar de vânt, care împrăştie o lumină estompată, difuză. Pe care l-ai folosi pentru a vedea unde te afli?

Felinarul îţi dă o imagine mult mai clară a locului în care te afli, faţă de reflector care ar scoate la iveală doar mici detalii pe care cu greu le-ai putea potrivi între ele. Practic, felinarul redă imaginea altor personalităţi care rezistă cu bună ştiinţă la realitatea esenţei tale spirituale, morale, vizionare, şi de multe ori aceste personalităţi pot să lumineze o nuanţă de îngrijorare care însă trădează intenţia ascunsă de dezarmare a adversarului (care trebuie liniştit sau redus la tăcere).

Ca să schimbi oamenii, trebuie să te apuci să "vânezi" esenţa lor, acea calitate care îi face mai simţitori. Pentru asta trebuie să-ţi formezi o imagine mai clară a fiinţei lor, trebuie să afli unde se află ei în raport cu tine şi cu restul lumii, să îndrepţi asupra lor acea lumină difuză, caldă, binefăcătoare a înţelegerii şi convingerilor tale, a cărei putere să poată să le schimbe structura interioară.

Tonul cu care Romulus i-a adresat acele întrebări tatălui său, tonul trist, dar ferm, care vădea acea sinceră iubire şi compasiune pentru fratele său, l-a determinat pe Eliot să fie cât se poate de sincer. Pentru prima oară acesta a cutezat să spună adevărul şi să divulge toate acele jocuri murdare, toate acele acţiuni criminale pe care singur le construia şi le executa fără probleme, lipsit de orice remuşcări, pentru a-şi satisface toate aspiraţiile. Cuvintele lui Romulus au străbătut astfel toate căile înţelepciunii ajungând direct la Eliot, înfigându-se adânc în mintea lui ca raza de lumină a unui felinar.

Leadership: Este nevoie să faci un pas în spate şi să observi ceea ce e acolo pentru tine, ca să fii gata să întâmpini ceea ce simţi că are sens să se împotrivească cursului evenimentelor care se succed?

Tu ştii să te raportezi la ceilalţi oameni astfel încât să le câştigi inima, determinându-i astfel să fie sinceri cu tine? Ai puterea să schimbi temperamentul şi atitudinea "bătute in cuie" ale oamenilor dificili? Măsura în care reuşeşti să scoţi adevărul de la oameni depinde numai de capacitatea ta de a te raporta la ei, abordându-i într-un mod diferit, apelând la sentimente.

Trebuie să fii deştept, creativ şi flexibil, potrivit împrejurărilor în care te afli. Iar dacă acestea se schimbă, trebuie să răspunzi şi tu în moduri diferite - să-ţi foloseşti spiritul de iniţiativă, să-ţi asumi riscuri şi să pui întrebări adecvate. Dar mai presus de toate, trebuie să ajungi la conştiinţa lor.

Faţă în faţă cu adevărul pe care l-a destăinuit tatălui său, Romulus ştia că va trebui să întâmpine ceea ce simţea că are sens să se împotrivească cursului evenimentelor: trebuia să-şi asume posibilitatea de a fi redus la statutul de victimă. Asta se întâmplă când te afli faţă în faţă cu un adversar de temut: trebuie să faci un pas în spate, ca să fii sigur că nu te ajunge braţul fatal al adevărului, mai exact consecinţa acceptării adevărului. Ca idee, atunci când pui cărţile pe masă nu înseamnă că îţi creşti neapărat şansele de a câştiga jocul, ci că te complaci într-o trăire de moment ca un fluture care se apropie prea mult de o lampă.

Adevărul este o ajustare a Ego-ului tău la însuşirile inerente ale unei situaţii care îţi poate leza un drept, credibilitatea, sau chiar împlinirea sufletească.

Aşa cum montajul reprezintă o laborioasă construcţie a secvenţelor de film, tot aşa calităţile pe care trebuie să le recunoşti la ceilalţi oameni necesită o laborioasă căutare între gândurile şi convingerile lor existente. Tu treci cu vederea trăsăturile lor bune de caracter, sau te concentrezi numai la defectele lor? Nu uita că sentimentele devin uşor contagioase - se transmit de la o persoană la alta şi împing către acţiuni.

Leadershipul este împotrivirea ta în faţa cursului evenimentelor pe care le întâmpini cu acea simţire a fiinţei netrucată de efectele adevărurilor pe care nu le poţi schimba, dar le poţi accepta ca şi când ele ar fi de partea ta.

Sacrificiul lui Eliot denotă schimbarea pe plan emoţional care se produce chiar şi în oamenii "de fier", aparent lipsiţi de o profunzime extraordinară. Ce fel de calităţi trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi pentru a reuşi să trezeşti acea înflăcărare în starea lor emoţională? Ai puterea de a-i determina să fie sinceri şi să scoţi la iveală adevăratele lor calităţi morale?

Concluzie: Pentru un lider acţiunile "în forţă" nu aduc niciun beneficiu, ci mai degrabă stârnesc aversiune, nemulţumiri şi răzvrătiri. Puterea de convingere, stimulul psihologic pozitiv şi comunicarea bilaterală, dau rezultate mult mai bune, dar impun o exercitare inteligentă şi permanentă a unei influenţe pozitive asupra celorlalţi.

"Schimbarea" este un proces destul de lent şi de durată, dar este de preferat decât modificarea peste noapte a comportamentului şi gândirii omeneşti, ceea ce este o dovadă mai degrabă de superficialitate şi de modificări de suprafaţă, nu de profunzime.

Sadeness

On Iunie 10, 2017

Consolidează-ţi poziția de facilitator al unei experiențe memorabile, prin prisma a ceea ce exişti într-un spațiu nedefinit.

O rază de lumină, reflectată de un cristal încastrat în partea superioară a peretelui care mă ţine prizonier în spaţiul pământean, neîngăduindu-mi să mă arăt lumii aşa cum sunt în voia legilor universale, îmi încălzeşte gândurile, îmi traversează spiritul şi mă lămureşte despre cum să fac sentimentele să vorbească pentru mine.

Semnificativ, scriu în prelungirea unei construcţii metafizice anterioare care îmi permite să mă ridic până la nivelul cunoaşterii sublime, experimentând manifestarea propriilor pulsiuni şi experienţe. Simt cum o convingere nestrămutată ţâşneşte din fiecare cuvânt, legat mereu de un alt înţeles din fraze neterminate. Trezirea conştiinţei Eului infinit, mai mult decât reflexul unui vis minunat, se ţine departe de lume.

Este ca şi când aş gusta dintr-un mister mult mai mare decât cel rezervat spectacolului unei realităţi care se autoregenerează continuu din ascunsurile sensului unic al unei metafore arbitrare. Asta aduce cu noutatea unor întâmplări aleatorii, transformate într-un subiect cu iz ocult, dexteritate pe care o necesită numai operaţiunea rebelă a curiozităţii pentru lucrurile neîngăduite de providenţa atotştiutoare.

Întotdeauna o operă supusă nevăzutului, expresia celui mai înalt grad al disperării cugetului, "The Virtue of Vice and The Vice of Virtue" , are legile, condiţiile, principiile, agenţii ei secreţi. Ea rezultă din prea multe acţiuni şi influenţe combinate aleatoriu, prea diverse pentru a compune empirismul unui Georg Lukacs, construcţia unei viziuni estetice originale, coordonatele unei gândiri prospective, fluide, artistice.

Leadership: Îți afirmi fidelitatea faţă de ceea ce se câștigă prin inspiraţie şi revelaţie atunci când faci tranziţia spre spaţiul altei lumi?

Simt cum totul se mişcă împreună cu mine, ca într-un carusel care sfidează timpul printr-o rotire lentă, dar continuă, în ciuda voinţei mele. Şi adorm. Somnul creează o compoziţie cu mult mai liniştită şi mai lesne de cuprins cu privirea din direcţia spiritului Universului. O mistică a începuturilor de cărți mari, provenită dintr-un spațiu-timp nedefinit.

Peniţa cade lin, ca adierea unei despărţiri de viaţă, în tăcerea unei încăperi în care nu există nimic altceva o picătură din sufletul artistului, un extract al condiţiei de trecător în căutarea ultimei destinaţii. Chiar şi în somnul cel fără de veste, unde culorile reprezintă nişte modificări ale simţului văzului afectat de lumina unei stele, sunt robul unei pofte nesfârşite de a cunoaşte o nouă aventură.

Traversez fără voia mea PORTA MAGICA, condus de o forță invizibilă. Întunericul ascunde după cortină tristeţea unei încrederi în ceva ce nu permite o apropiere directă: „In nomine Christi, Amen ! ”. Ajung pe meleagul tăinuit al simbolisticii din perioada Renaşterii, într-un loc plin de figuri ilustre, statui ca nişte paznici în noapte, parcă vii în faţa păcatului original de a se lega de cele veşnice. Aceeasi temă care guvernează romanul „Misterul Catedralelor”, pe care Fulcanelli îl descifrează până la un punct.

Compoziţia portretelor se remarcă printr-un caracter mai puţin unitar, fiind urmate de o îndoială care îmi cere să le explorez din unghiul unei epistemologii realiste şi al unei ontologii evoluţioniste. Totul este învăluit de înţelepciunea inscripţiilor, în cuprinsul cărora se regăseşte o anumită sete de cunoaştere şi de expresie, sub o anumită semnătură: DAT JVSTVS FRENA SVPERBIS (Omul drept îi ţine în frâu pe cei trufaşi).

Poziția de facilitator al unei experiențe memorabile, prin prisma a ceea ce exişti într-un spațiu nedefinit, se caracterizează prin manifestarea poftei nesfârşite de a accepta o nouă aventură. În care poți să descoperi profunzimea unei viziuni superioare inventându-şi propriile concepte asupra unei singure realităţi.

Încet, îmi şopteşte glasul unei viori în contextul unei istorii pline de simboluri: "What is it that you seek? The rightness of wrong?". Ceea însoţeşte o nedumerire fără margini. Încep să-l înţeleg pe omul acela care încă din timpul vieţii şi-a luat toate măsurile necesare pentru a-şi ascunde identitatea. El a vrut să dispară din faţa ştiinţei, iar opera sa din piatră să nu aibă decât titlul elevat, al rozicrucianismului.

Simt că ceva în mine lipseşte puternic, că ceva neobișnuit se petrece în altă parte decât în vârful gândurilor întreţinute de vis. Apoi, mă trezesc brusc.

Marea cunoaştere este o puternică poţiune a adevărului spiritual obţinut prin revelaţie, în timpul unui vis lucid: faptul că visezi şi în timp ce se petrece visul poți controla ce se întâmplă în el. Cu singura favoare a învăţăturii ştiinţei hermetice, aurul înţelepţilor: de a te face nevăzut, de a dispărea din prim-planul vieții mondene. Și de a te adânci în lumina revelatoare a unei stele cu multiple înțelesuri.

Adevărata bogăție care te va însoţi pentru totdeauna este cunoaşterea pe care ți-o ataşezi într-un cadru de aducere aminte: aminteşte-ţi prin interpretare sensurile adânci ale unei revelaţii produse într-o stare de conștiință modificată.

Fondul muzical şi vizionarea videoclipului "Sadeness" îmi stârneşte de fiecare dată imaginaţia, mă face să adorm într-un somn adânc şi să mă trezesc de fiecare dată tot mai plin de semnificaţii şi revelaţii, asamblate şi reţinute de aurul înţelepţilor după proporţia de lumină primită din partea unui timp de dincolo de spaţiul acestei lumi.

Şah la rege !

On Mai 12, 2016

Ia în considerare posibilitatea de a muta în orice direcţie o singură pătrăţică, dar care să aibă însemnătate într-o lecţie de verificare şi apreciere de sine.

Ce imensă putere de sugestie zăcea latentă, încă de pe atunci, în creierul meu, în acest conductor de energie pus în legătură cu tot ceea ce mă definea în baza unei înţelegeri de cooperare între certitudine şi aşteptare? Ce fel de descătuşare a minţii putea să introducă esenţialitatea, ideea de coabitare totală a două entităţi atât de asemănătoare dar şi atât de diferite, între mine şi proiecţia unei superiorităţi absolute?

Ce proprietate a materiei de transfigurare, prin forma şi schimbarea unui potenţial constant de referinţă, putea fi măsurată prin asocierea cu un câmp de cunoaştere care varia periodic în timp? În ce mulţime a valorilor unei variabile reale se putea dezvolta o nouă claritate, o nouă proiecţie a viitorului, spre binele meu, fără a influenţa rezultatul final al câtorva ani de viaţă plini de experienţe intuitive, nu doar reale?

Puterea de a vorbi cu mine însumi, veşnic scormonitoare, într-un excelent exercitium mentale , fără mijlocirea vreunei viziuni cu potenţial constant de determinare, regăsindu-mă tot mereu acel de odinioară, un oarecare incognus înainte de ştiut, era rezultatul unui joc absurd împotriva mea. Era confirmarea disponibilităţii de a mă acomoda în fața provocărilor mari sau mici pe care le implica capacitatea de a mă plasa în spaţiul nelimitat al psihicului.

Leadership: Eşti afectat de receptarea unei realități cu vădite caracteristici metafizice în care îţi poţi regăsi posibile puncte de congruență cu o obsesie care te determină la reflecţie în compunerea unui joc ce-şi explorează la infinit posibilităţile de expresie?

Iar această complexitate a cufundării în mine însumi, de care era în stare s-o depăşească numai un maestru al şahului, ca un Kasparov, ca un Karpov, îmi oferea ocazia de a mă întâlni într-o partidă memorabilă cu un homo obscurissimus . Se justifica astfel plasarea mea de-a lungul unei imitaţii a dimensiunii realităţii, în virtutea că peste tot opera un soi de înlănţuire cauzală ce-mi dilua esenţa într-o compunere de noi forţe, făcând-o mai uşor de înţeles.

Manifestam aceeaşi stare de spirit ca cea a Doctorului B din opera lui Stefan Zweig, smuls violent din normalul acceptat, neavând altceva decât jocul acesta absurd, numit şah. Ceva în mine voia să-şi dovedească dreptatea şi nu aveam de combătut decât pe celălalt din mine.

Singurul joc ce-şi explora la infinit posibilităţile de expresie, printr-o interpretare forţată a situaţiei reale de câştig, avea drept miză principală atacul dublu: mai întâi îmi găseam un motiv bun să-mi reproşez o anumită vină, apoi îmi căutam o scuză pentru că mi-a scăpat varianta cea mai bună de a mă evalua la adevărata valoare.

Era un fel de obsesie năucitoare care nu îmi ataca doar creierul, nu doar psihicul necesar desăvârşirii percepţiei unui statut de învingător, într-o fază de derută precedată de luciditate, părând mai degrabă o sforţare a spiritului de felul unei experienţe la limita paranormalului, ci mă menţinea în limitele înguste ale unui careu invariabil.

Ah, Şah la Rege ! Regret, dar nu era niciun şah, eram apărat de un nebun.

Leadership: Te afli în punctul de unde începe şi se sfârşeşte acea acţiune unică de punere în mişcare a tuturor contrastelor, al cărui unic exponent este remiza?

Leadershipul, în faza de supraofertă de informație revelatoare, asupra cărora își focalizează atenția numai fiinţele individuale, cele ce experimentează fiorul rece al insuportabilului „ Who The Hell Am I ? ", are ca primă arie de acoperire acea putere de incursiune într-un joc cu dublu profil: un profil care utilizează o piesă de tip „Rege" și un profil care utilizează o piesă de tip „Nebun". Două contraste care se atrag şi totodată se resping.

Regele simbolizează bătălia omului cu existența, varianta lui pozitivă, dorind să îşi biruiască lăuntrul strigării patimilor departe de lume, dominat de tendinţa exponenţială de evadare din real, dar totodată ataşat unei continue şi îndestulătoare provocări la luptă împotriva lui însuşi.

Nebunul, dovedindu-se de multe ori singura soluție firească, este alunecarea omului în demenţă. Este starea psihică pe care derapajele inacceptabile ale experienţelor personale o creează în fiecare moment al vieții, împingându-l să nu mai judece lucid. În acelaşi timp nebunul poate reprezenta determinantul acelei stări de veghe care îţi permite să te focalizezi asupra punctelor de referinţă ale propriei fiinţe care nu sunt suficient de bine dezvoltate pentru a-ţi asigura un echilibru moral şi emoţional, optim şi sigur.

Leadershipul gândit în termeni de "pion contra rege" are semnificaţia unui drum iniţiatic spre acea cunoaştere de sine revelată de conştiinţa putinţei de a alege între a elimina egoul care-și cere dreptul de a fi cel mai tare, şi de a păstra doar starea de linişte interioară, indiferent că întâmpini succesul sau eşecul.

Remiza se mai consideră atunci când regele nu este în şah, dar orice mutare ar face, ar intra în şah. Omul care intenţionează să-şi domine caracterul și să câştige avans în procesul cunoaşterii de sine, de care oricum va fi silit să se lovească, spre a se conecta o zonă nouă de manifestare, întotdeauna va încerca să găsească acea constantă definitorie care anulează capacitatea Nebunului de a da Şah.

Sensul unei descoperiri apropiată de acea înălţime a înţelepciunii care condiţionează o îmbunătăţire a stării de spirit, reclamă neobosit acel "altceva" al tău într-o meta-lume, pe pătrăţele albe şi negre ale anticipărilor creatoare, de unde începe şi se sfârşeşte acea acţiune unică de punere în mişcare a tuturor contrastelor, al cărui unic exponent este împăcarea, remiza, ca termen al unei înţelegeri mai adânci.

A-ţi păstra acea stare de spirit proprie leadershipului care îndeamnă la o atitudine de superioritate, înseamnă să te împaci cu cine ai fi putut fi atunci când ai gândit şi ai acţionat ca şi când ai fi fost altcineva.

Creierul matematic şi strategic al marelui joc, catalizatorul cel mai puternic a sferei de putere psihică, este responsabil, în această privinţă, de spectacolul unei combinaţii de mutări cheie, făcând obiectul acceptului de validare a unei logici de tipul „ mută în orice direcţie o singură pătrăţică, dar care să aibă însemnătate într-o lecţie de verificare şi apreciere de sine ".

Şah la rege se produce atunci când încerci să-ţi combaţi alter-egoul într-un excelent exercitium mentale , fără mijlocirea vreunei viziuni cu potenţial constant de determinare, regăsindu-te tot mereu acel de odinioară, un oarecare incognus înainte de ştiut. Este rezultatul unui joc absurd împotriva propriei tale fiinţe. Este confirmarea disponibilităţii de a te acomoda în fața provocărilor mari sau mici pe care le implică capacitatea de a te plasa în spaţiul nelimitat al psihicului.

Salonul spaţios al întâlnirilor privilegiate

On Aprilie 14, 2014

Susţine amenajarea unui spaţiu de exprimare personală şi de afirmare a ştiinţei, ca să-ţi sporeşti autoritatea de înfăptuitor al creaţiei perfect asumate şi înţelese.

În salonul spaţios al întâlnirilor privilegiate dintre închipuire şi certitudine, în aranjamentul utopic încărcat cu elemente tăinuite, nu imposibil de manipulat, căruia numai un Dante Alighieri i-ar putea asigura the high availability , domnea un clarobscur, ca în amurgul serii, când stelele răsar, se văd şi se simt.

Mă aflam aici plin de chemare şi întoarcere la Dumnezeu, din nevoia de a explora un teritoriu plin de gândiri persane şi latine, modelat spiritual la răscrucea dintre profunda influenţă a spiritului occidental şi a celui universalist, ca şi când aş fi intrat într-o lume aflată dincolo de sfera mea de experienţă, fără să pot face vreo schimbare într-o realitate care oferă speranţa că ceea ce se vede ar putea fi şi altfel.

Oglinzile timpului, păstrând nealterată întreaga imagine a lumilor paralele, reflectau puternic de pretutindeni, ca într-un ceremonial magic, creând o arhitectură nemaivăzută - a increatului - care folosea procese multiple de transmitere a mesajelor de dincolo de raţional. Rolul artistului în acest loc semăna cu rolul trandafirului într-o grădină plină de flori colorate, adăugând splendoare unei pline de nostalgie, înţelepciune, umor şi dragoste, adaugând semnificaţie simbolului de credinţă menit a servi drept normă pentru toţi credincioşii.

Locul unde îţi stabileşti întâlnirile de ordin intelectual trebuie să ofere un cadru de organizare a priorităţilor existenţiale şi de plasare a ambiţiilor şi idealurilor într-o anumită perspectivă de tip creator asupra autenticităţii unei gândiri care se străduieşte să dezvăluie totul a priori despre lume, despre lucruri, despre realitate.

Imagini ale miraculosului mă bântuiau necontenit, ca o intervenţie superioară ţinută în secret, fiindcă încercam să-mi sporesc autoritatea de înfăptuitor al creaţiei prin arta desăvârşită a trecerii spre o altă dimensiune, încărcată de simboluri şi semnificaţii. Tăinuirea secretelor şi a adevărurilor nespuse, cu proprietatea de a străbate lesne prin materia din care este structurată lumea, multiplica forţa de expansiune a sentimentului de invulnerabilitate.

Iar în acest salon căutat, dar de negăsit, care prin nuanţele misterioase l-ar fi sedus pe însuşi Elminster Aumar, toate simţurile, văzul, auzul, pipăitul, erau în mod direct implicate, forând simultan în căutarea răspunsurilor de la înălţimea suficienţei, fără a antrena efecte secundare. Toate se puneau în acord asupra aceluiaşi spaţiu: al transformării materiei într-o altă ordine decât cea a formelor, una exterioară.

Acest salon reprezintă locul unei gândiri care smulge omul din universul unei realităţi prea cunoscute, şi îl introduce într-o atmosferă a lumii magice, a extremelor, într-un teatru al umbrelor şi a creaţiei non-conformiste.

Fiecare moment petrecut în acest salon era decisiv, căci de la mine pornea acea puternică direcţie a ştiinţei inovatoare. Nu eram o victimă a propriei nechibzuinţe, intrată în adâncul unui prea plin metafizic, din dorinţa care nu se potoleşte decât împlinindu-se. Ci un iniţiat călătorind în spaţiul consacrat demonstrării autenticităţii, încercând a mă distinge de ceilalţi scientists prin capacitatea de a elabora ceea ce pare de neînţeles.

Leadership: Poţi să extragi un model propriu de înțelegere a imaginii unei lumi aparte care te acaparează prin interpretarea pe care o dai demersului de a face parte dintr-un univers în care poţi regăsi valorile tale, trăite şi împărtăşite prin elemente de simbolizare ale unui ÎNTREG SPIRITUAL mai înalt?

Salonul este un spaţiu al minţilor cele mai strălucite, un spaţiu de studiu al artelor şi ştiinţelor cele mai de seamă, un loc mai presus de lumea văzută cu ochii unui om obişnuit, în care nu te poţi integra decât prin imaginaţie, creaţie, descoperire. Salonul este lumea propriei conştiinţe transpusă într-un ideal spiritual, artistic, vizionar şi conceptual.

Oricine poate deveni inventatorul unei lumi gândite după normativele de construcţie şi funcţionare a leadershipului, conceptibile într-o ficţiune care face din ştiinţă o oglindă a timpului, proiectând o lumină puternică asupra viitorului, care se întâmplă să fie deopotrivă lămuritoare şi obscurizantă.

Această lume nouă subliniază contrastul dintre tentativele prin care se încearcă individualizarea elementelor fundamentale ale leadershipului, ce apar retrospectiv ca sortite eşecului, şi întreprinderea ştiinţifică propriu-zisă, al cărei succes, compatibil cu acordurile unei împliniri de sine, ne permite să alegem în mod direct organizarea spaţiului de creativitate, deci de libertate profesională.

Dacă vrem să transformăm leadershipul într-un "gadget" care să ne ducă într-o nouă lume a cărei perspectivă asupra creației tinde să fie tot mai largă şi mai dinamică, încât să ne bucurăm de funcţiile lui în continuare, ne rămâne să selectăm, să decidem între posibilele căi de urmat în situaţia unei creşteri de mare amploare a indicatorului de calitate privind nivelul performanţei în cercetarea ştiinţifică - şi înălţimea suficienţei pe care ne-o dă o poziţie câştigată întâmplător şi efemeră, aceea de înfăptuitor al creaţiei.

Leadership: Până când îţi reînnoieşti dreptul de utilizare a spaţiului de confidenţialitate al ştiinţei?

Noul gadget al leadershipului face astfel parte din spaţiul de confidenţialitate al ştiinţei, din "salonul spaţios" al întâlnirilor privilegiate dintre închipuire şi certitudine, maximizând potenţialul de a reprezenta o cunoaştere alternativă, inaccesibilă prin mijloace pur intelectuale. Această cunoaştere proiectează o lumină ce iradiază din interiorul unei creaţii autentice extrem de bogate, dar bulversantă prin complexitate şi diversitate.

Spaţiul de confidenţialitate al ştiinţei este o călătorie într-un alt timp şi într-o legendă faimoasă, atât de iscusit povestită, încât o poţi savura cu aceeaşi iscusinţă a artistului de a transpune în limbaj plastic imaginea unei lumi ideale, a unui spaţiu plin de cunoaştere care nu se termină la nicio graniţă.

Liderul îşi poate reînnoi dreptul de utilizare a acestui spaţiu, revenindu-i în acest sens meritul de a se fi preocupat de descoperirea şi analiza marilor izvoare ale evoluţiei, şi mai presus de toate a forţei tainice prezente înlăuntrul propriei fiinţe, numai dacă se evidenţiază prin originalitate, prin valorificarea unor lumi ascunse, aşezându-le în construcţii distinctive, care să încurajeze avansul ştiinţei.

Elementele de simbolizare ale unui ÎNTREG SPIRITUAL mai înalt, precum: "diferenţierea între conţinut şi formă, controlul creaţiei, existenţa universurilor paralele, jurnale secrete, coduri de limbaj, credinţe conducătoare", ţin de felul cum te raportezi la ceea ce ţi se întâmplă în planul unei realităţi de alt ordin, cu semnificaţii înalte.

Depinde de tine ce semnificaţie dai acelui spaţiu de forme şi conexiuni între ştiinţă şi ezoterism, dar cu menţiunea că ceea ce te motivează să fii perseverent în provocarea de a-ţi depăşi limitele este tocmai curajul de a crea o realitate care funcţionează ca substitut pentru cunoaşterea de sine, indiferent de ce se întâmplă în jur.

Salonul spaţios al întâlnirilor privilegiate reprezintă o mărturie a nivelului de cunoaştere la care ai ajuns, din perspectiva criteriilor de definire a domeniului de cercetare. Este singurul spaţiu de valorificare a potenţialului creativ, unde poţi să fii sigur că nu mergi la risc. Căci înnoirea gândirii şi percepţiilor, prin varietatea experienţelor de creaţie care realizează acoperirea golului dintre teorie şi practică, imprimă întotdeauna leadershipului o direcţie mai puternică.

Niciodată nu vei putea aprecia o formă de existenţă a perfecţiunii, dacă nu te alimentezi din adâncimile nemărginirii ei.

Pe parcursul vieţii mi-am făcut fără odihnă însemnări despre visuri înalte, ambiţii extrem de mari pentru un artist al cuvântului şi al frumuseţii veşnice, a căror semnificaţie o poate da numai marea. Această forţă a naturii, plină de o subtilă poezie a mişcării valurilor, cu sclipirea şi framătul sunetului lor, îşi păstrează nealterată splendoarea peste timpurile Iliadei şi ale Odiseei.

Întinderea nesfârşită în care răsună cântecul sirenelor şi glasul stins al poetului, șlefuitor de metafore, pare în stare să orchestreze alcătuirea multor vieţi, să unească lumile sau să le absoarbă într-un abis nesfârşit. Un singur gând pare să-mi şoptească despre iubire şi credinţă, prin apariţia misterioasă a unei armonii inefabile ce va fi trăită sub forma unei fericiri oceanice: să plec într-o lungă călătorie ce bifează ca destinaţie tărâmurile neştiute ale universului mitic.

Cufundându-mă în visuri, precum se cufundă nisipul fin în marea întinsă, necunoscută şi totuşi atât de familiară, mă simt ca şi când aş adopta o metodă de deplasare dintr-o realitate în alta, o proiecţie de perspectivă asupra experienţei de a circumscrie printr-o linie de contur o arie spaţială, definind-o din afara unei forme de asociere impusă de gândirea de gloată spre înăuntrul unei arte însufleţitoare.

Pentru o clipă ce seamănă cu eternitatea, o renaștere la altceva decât ceea ce era înainte, intru în posesia unor secrete adunate peste timpurile străvechi când trăirea şi gândirea se contopeau într-un singur târâm.

Toate cele care pier în mine par a renaşte mereu din forţa de creaţie a experienţei de navigare într-un spaţiu virtual, acceptat de nemurire ca pe un document vechi, în formele pe care le cunosc doar cântecul mării şi solo-urile brizei de vară. Răsăritul unei iubiri solemne sau apusul unei zile toride, sunt sugerate într-o manieră sintetică, evanescentă, dar fermecătoare, în cadrul unei compoziţii alcătuite din pete de culoare, predominând albastrul şi verdele, vizavi de actul plăsmuirii unor noi orizonturi de vis şi de speranţă.

Leadership: Apelezi la o nouă versiune de transformare personală, utilizând ecourile intense ale unui TOT nesfârşit pentru realizarea imaginilor din acea parte greu accesibilă a unei realităţi receptată doar în plan artistic?

Când artistul contemplă nesfârşitul mării, imanent proceselor de percepţie a profunzimii ei reflectată prin comparaţii şi alte figuri de stil (abilitatea vizuală de a percepe dimensiunea fiecărei clipe), el izolează forma şi conţinutul întregului univers ca pe o existenţă separată de fondul extensiei frumuseţii care îl înconjoară.

Aşa se face că pentru unul ca mine, prins în angrenajul cuvintelor al cărui efect de suprarealitate posedă un nesfârşit potenţial de expresivitate, măsura de înţelegere a vieţii rezidă din curiozitatea vie pentru cele ce alunecă într-un abis fără fund, şi ţâşnesc pe neaşteptat ca un torent într-o exprimare creativă. Una este să observi o realitate, cu alt totul altceva este să trăieşti în ea.

Mesajul atât de abil camuflat într-un soi de rezumat al timpului, adus de valuri într-o sticluţă transparentă, de culoarea oglinzilor retrovizoare, îmi apare în lumina roşiatică a inseratului şi mi se pare cât se poate de clar: sunt mult prea mic într-o lume mult prea mare. Numai pictura, prin năzuinţa ei de a reda materialitatea spaţiului modelat în adâncime, se îndreaptă spre ambiţiile unei teorii de a se extinde dincolo de vuietul mării, unde se simte aroma depărtărilor.

Marea îţi dă fiori şi clipe de soare, îţi dă furtuni şi minunate oaze de linişte. Întinderea plină de cunoaştere a acestui colos plin de înţelepciune, desfăcându-şi braţele până la ţărm ca şi când ar vrea să-i testeze rezistenţa, oricum şlefuindu-i marginile, este exemplul pe care de atâtea secole bătrânii îl dau celor tineri: niciodată nu vei putea evalua o capodoperă dacă nu contribui la desăvârşirea, nemurirea şi dumnezeirea ei.

Leadership: Încerci să-ţi dovedeşti adevărata forţă de creaţie rămânând la stadiul "constatator" al unei compatibilităţi depline prin exigenţele unui prezent etern care este reactualizat de trăirile cele mai intense?

Pentru a nu ştiu câta oară simt nevoia stranie să calc pe urmele lui Ulise sau Dionysos, asemenea stelelor rătăcitoare, să ascult melodia plină de flaut a mării, să fiu suflarea de vânt care te poartă mai departe decât îţi permite destinul, să mă aventurez dincolo de răbdarea timpului. Doar ca să imprim într-o scriere fără egal ideea de fluiditate spirituală.

Marea are o singură formulă de penetrare pe care o simte toată lumea, dar numai exploratorul Jacques-Yves Cousteau a găsit cuvintele potrivite s-o exprime cu atâta rafinament stilistic: "odată ce şi-a aruncat vraja, te ţine prins în mrejele ei pentru totdeauna".

Ca un filosof antic, marea mă domină prin învăţături moralizatoare, vorbindu-mi din revărsarea unei dureri care mă priveşte exclusiv, din amploarea relaţiilor simbolice pe care le poate exprima ca mijloc de limbaj (de configurare şi expresie) al artei picturii, în turul unui joc speculativ al conştiinţei privitor la limitele fiinţei. Toate acestea fiind sublimate într-o vibraţie seismică care descarcă înalta tensiune a trăirilor cele mai complexe: visarea şi imaginaţia.

Ea răspunde aspiraţiilor inimilor simple, dar numai acelora ce i-au măsurat abisul.

Dacă ar trebui să mă descriu în câțiva termeni "oceanici" m-aş considera norocos, deplasând astfel cursorul interpretării dinspre artistic înspre psihologic, filozofic şi existenţial. Şi mi-aș atribui, cu o oarecare urmă de culpabilitate, un drept Dumnezeiesc, reprezentând calitățile neîndoielnice ale unei realităţi agitate, ca omagiu adus singurătăţii care îşi dobândeşte, astfel, funcţia creatoare şi întemeietoare: dreptul de succesiune asupra unui conţinut plin de enigme care se poate descifra numai printr-o cunoaştere ezoterică.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi descifrezi conţinutul plin de sentiment într-o singură zonă de impact dintr-o întindere nesfârşită care depăşeşte toate adversităţile unui destin care te urmăreşte fără să ştii?

Cu o duioasă băgare de seamă, dornică să-şi clarifice sentimentele, marea îmi aduce în atenţie o mică bucăţică din vastul discurs interior al împăratului Hadrian care îşi rememora viaţa cu un aer rătăcit, grav şi sfâşietor, dominat de o pasiune moralizatoare:

"Pe vremuri, când mă gândeam la propriu-mi sfârşit, aidoma unui cârmaci nepăsător de sine, ci tremurând pentru pasagerii şi încărcătura corăbiei, îmi spuneam cu amărăciune că această amintire se va scufunda o dată cu mine. Tânăra fiinţă, îmbălsămată cu grijă în străfundul memoriei mele, mi se părea, aşadar, că va trebui să piară a doua oară. Teama, atât de îndreptăţită totuşi, s-a mai domolit în parte. Am compensat cum am putut acea moarte timpurie. O imagine, un reflex, un ecou slab va răzbate cel puţin câteva secole. În ce priveşte nemurirea, nimic mai temeinic nu poate fi făcut."

Marea urmăreşte formarea unui spirit reflexiv, îşi revarsă meandrele unui destin exemplar pentru alternativa morţii într-o singură simţire încremenită în nemurire, printr-o identitate vizuală, printr-un soi de rezumat al ei, de esenţă austeră, fără corporalitate, posedând un potenţial nesfârşit de expresivitate.

Când voi mai avea ocazia, cu siguranţă mă voi mai întoarce s-o contemplu prin ochii unui artist înarmat cu pretenţiile unui demiurg care îşi asumă riscul de a face din pictură un spaţiu al purităţii faptei creatoare, ca mod de comunicare mai directă între sensibilitatea unei lumi aflată în plină renaştere şi povestea unui vis care se repetă.

Are cantitate, străbate ciclul recurent al evaporărilor, al norilor şi al ploilor, are căldură, are profunzime, ascunde o comoară inestimabilă, are o putere sfinţitoare, are efect terapeutic, are o experienţă fără margini, are o ecologie aparte, are tărie, sensibilitate, farmec, însemnătate. Are tot ce ai nevoie ca să faci din tine un Ulise dăruit cu iuțimea uimitoare a penelului și a minții. Şi încă te învaţă o lecţie importantă de leadership:

Niciodată nu vei putea aprecia o formă de existenţă a perfecţiunii, dacă nu te alimentezi din adâncimile nemărginirii ei.

Saltwater sugerează conţinutul unei mări fermecătoare care îşi varsă albastrul în acelaşi punct, în neîntrerupta şi nestingherita curgere într-un ocean mult mai vast, numit Timp, pe care universul îl conturează dintotdeauna şi omenirea abia îl poate înţelege.

Sămânţa succesului

On August 25, 2010

Stabileşte o legătură mai strânsă cu oamenii, exprimându-ţi cea mai înaltă preţuire faţă de contribuţia lor la transformarea ta.

Actorul de comedie român Puiu Călinescu, a fost invitat demult la show-ul de televiziune "Profesioniştii". Realizatoarea emisiunii, Eugenia Vodă, l-a întrebat dacă îşi aminteşte vreun moment mai special din viaţa lui actoricească care l-a marcat cu adevărat. Puiu Călinescu i-a răspuns pe un ton cald şi plăcut:

- Îmi amintesc de un spectacol pe care l-am jucat la spitalul nr. 9. I-am distrat pe pacienţi şi pe doctori. Şi n-am să uit, a venit o femeie simplă la mine şi mi-a spus: "Domnule Puiu. Îţi mulţumesc pentru tot ce-ai făcut pentru mine. Dacă dumneata vii la noi de două ori pe săptămână, nu mai iau medicamente."

Iar apoi Puiu Călinescu i-a spus prezentatoarei: "Acesta a fost pentru mine...ce premiu Oscar, ce artist al poporului... m-am simţit ca un chirurg care face o operaţie şi salvează o viaţă..."

Tu cum stabileşti o legătură mai strânsă cu oamenii: prin intermediul unui show menit să impresioneze, sau printr-un "emoţional content" capabil să promoveze valori de tipul: "trebuie să te gândeşti mereu că trăieşti ceva mult mai special decât crezi" ?

Conceptul de inteligenţă relaţională mă preocupă de mult şi din acest motiv voi zăbovi mai mult asupra lui în acest articol. Pentru că, aşa cum bine preciza cineva, ne naştem ca urmare a unei relaţii, ne dezvoltăm într-un sistem de relaţii şi suntem în permanenţă în relaţii, de aceea cred că e important să ne descoperim şi să ne cultivăm resursele necesare unor relaţii sănătoase.

Dezvoltarea leadershipului tău trebuie să înceapă cu stabilirea relaţiilor şi a modului de lucru cu oamenii, dar acest lucru poate fi realizat mai uşor printr-o etalare, printr-o dezvăluire a acelor calităţi şi trăsături care te fac unic – lucru care te ajută să te impui în mintea şi în sufletul lor. Aceste calităţi şi trăsături care determină atitudinea ta faţă de ceilalţi oameni, precum şi atitudinea lor faţă de tine, sunt cele mai relevante pentru recunoaşterea ta, pentru ascensiunea ta, generând acea infimă scânteie care te apropie de excelenţă.

Ai dispoziţia de a te pune în postura de apărător al binelui oamenilor? Leadershipul este condiţionat, deci, de selectarea acelor calităţi şi trăsături care îţi conferă un plus de valoare, lărgindu-ţi propriul univers, făcându-te să înţelegi mai profund realitatea propriilor tale gânduri şi trăiri, a propriilor tale valori, a propriilor tale orientări şi tendinţe în materie de oameni.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dovedeşti nobleţea sufletească numai prin felul în care îţi pui în valoare conţinutul personalităţii, ca fiind o recunoaştere a adevărului pe care se sprijină puterea ta spirituală?

Să ne amintim de actorul Puiu Călinescu, a cărui întreagă existenţă a fost cuprinsă de sentimentul binelui făcut celorlalţi, atunci când biata femeie bolnavă i-a evaluat nobleţea sufletească şi i-a întărit convingerea că nimic nu este mai presus decât omul, că nimic nu îţi satisface mai bine setea de a te autocunoaşte decât felul în care îţi pui în valoare conţinutul propriei personalităţi. Acesta este cel mai bun medicament pe care ţi-l poate administra cineva, ca o reînviorare a întregii tale simţiri, o recunoaştere a adevărului pe care se sprijină puterea ta spirituală.

Toate calităţile tale, pentru a fi apreciate şi susţinute de ceilalţi oameni, trebuie să fie dublate de postura de apărător al binelui lor. Care e nevoia ta elementară? Să-ţi defineşti cât se poate de clar drumul în viaţă – iniţiind acele fapte, acele procese care să vină în sprijinul lor, sau îţi minimalizezi potenţialul de dezvoltare acţionând numai în scopuri de "întreţinere" şi maximizare a beneficiilor proprii?

Nobleţea este sămânţa succesului tău, ea îţi permite să iniţiezi acele acţiuni care garantează atingerea standardelor de performanţă ale leadershipului bazat pe principii sănătoase. Iar aşa cum am spus de atâtea ori, nobleţea o poţi descoperi numai prin interacţionare, ca rezultat al modului în care eşti tratat sau a felului în care îi tratezi tu pe alţii. Condimentând viaţa oamenilor cu un adaos cât mai mare de căldură sufletească, ostenindu-te să le furnizezi un nou suflu de viaţă, o nouă strălucire interioară, îţi vei putea dezvolta mai bine acea zonă cu potenţial de creştere numită: interacţiune.

Leadershipul are ca prim reper de caracterizare acea nobleţe fără margini pe care o poţi descoperi numai prin interacţionare, ca rezultat al modului în care eşti tratat sau a felului în care îi tratezi tu pe alţii.

Nobleţea, aşa cum scria cineva pe "cristiantube.net", nu o recunoşti decât în momentul în care constaţi superioritatea, generozitatea, căldura şi amabilitatea ce fac conţinutul răspunsului primit. Iar când, în schimb, persoana respectivă nu-ţi cere nimic, atunci te simţi copleşit şi îndatorat fără putinţă de a te achita cumva faţă de ea, rămânând doar să preţuieşti calitatea şi farmecul caracterului ei.

"În urma unei astfel de experienţe, devii mai bun, lumea parcă se înfrumuseţează de bogăţia descoperită, percepţia asupra relaţionării se modifică şi începi să-ţi doreşti să ai şi tu acea trăsătură de caracter şi s-o imprimi în alţii. Şi, purtându-te cu nobleţe faţă de alţii, aduci la suprafaţă comori minunate depuse adânc în codul tău genetic proiectat de Dumnezeu."

Care sunt acele calităţi şi trăsături care îţi conferă un plus de valoare? Te preocupi de înzestrarea leadershipului tău cu acele particularităţi benefice celorlalţi? Leadershipul tău se sprijină pe principii sănătoase? Condimentezi viaţa oamenilor cu un adaos cât mai mare de căldură sufletească?

Cea mai înaltă preţuire faţă de contribuţia oamenilor la transformarea ta este legată de acea atitudine, o însuşire morală superioară de care faci dovadă atunci când nimeni nu te aplaudă, atunci când nimeni nu crede în tine.

Sămânţa succesului se poate regăsi foarte bine în acest citat: "Cel mai mult sunt preţuite acele fapte nobile care rămân neştiute."

Întâlnirea actorului Puiu Călinescu cu bolnavii din spital, i-a întărit acestuia convingerea că singura modalitate de a-şi atinge întregul potenţial ca om de influenţă, ca fiinţă umană destinată oferirii unei cantităţi mari de afecţiune, este să-i propulseze pe oameni pe o treaptă mai înaltă de credinţă şi dezvoltare spirituală, ajutându-i să atingă o stare ideală de existenţă. Aceasta este convingerea care stă în spatele schimbării oricărui lider.

Tu simţi nevoia de a susţine renaşterea spirituală a oamenilor?

O permanentă cercetare a sinelui permite autocunoaşterea şi logic, prin raţionament poţi găsi metodele de înlăturare a aspectelor negative ce constituie o frână în dezvoltarea personală. Prin acest proces de autocunoaştere vei putea ajunge să-i cunoşti pe ceilalţi. Prin urmare, lucrul cel mai de seamă este să-ţi vezi sufletul prin suflet, şi să le cunoşti celorlalţi sufletul prin propriul tău suflet - asta este adevărata cunoaştere (ce constă în a te cunoaşte în primul rând pe tine, apoi pe ceilalţi).

Sanctimoris

On Iulie 29, 2013

Descoperă aspectele necunoscute ale fiinţei tale, astfel încât să parcurgi cu succes fazele importante ale deveniri totale şi permanente.

Din nou, în liniştea nopţii, m-am trezit. Vocea nu venea de unde m-aş fi aşteptat. Auzeam cuvântul " Sanctimoris " murmurat iarăşi şi iarăşi, ca o ameninţare. Un simbol obscur al profunzimii care se cerea, dacă nu descifrat, cel puţin explicat raţional. Într-un fel, mă simţeam legat de ceva straniu, o experienţă a îndepărtării de real, ca şi când un duh neprietenos, care abia fusese eliberat din sticlă, mă îndemna să mă apropii de un fel de barieră, aparent reprezentând frontiera dintre viaţa pământească şi viaţa de apoi.

Acest fenomen devenise un soi de dominanţă a fiinţei mele, în relaţie cu aspectele necunoscute şi neexplorate situate între conştient şi inconştient, ce progresa tot mai mult spre o stare de alertă. Era oare una din părţile componente a unei şarade din a căror însumare trebuia să rezulte o nouă interpretare a sinelui?

Leadership: Vocea interioară devine o oglindă a nevoii de a-ți redefini existența, transportând în mintea ta o nouă viziune spre ceea ce ai putea deveni cu adevărat, dincolo de limitele autoimpuse de convingerile tale restrictive?

Din momentul în care acest şir interminabil de şoapte şi-au făcut loc în mintea mea, nu am mai putut trăi viaţa calculat, cu exactitate, ca înainte. Ci într-o continuă negare a individualităţii mele. În tandem cu nenumăratele interpretări greşite care apăruseră în jurul meu, cu tot ce intra în acţiunea mea. Aproape zilnic se stârnea din senin, în anumite momente, acest murmur unic, greu de înţeles, în care se concentra parcă întreaga mea personalitate autentică, discretă.

Pentru a explica această neconcordanţă de încadrare în realitate, admiteam că vocea apărută din senin, această trecere la o extremă pe care nu o puteam înţelege, era o reacţie la propriile mele îndoieli în legătură cu ceea ce trăiam. Care îmi împiedicau evoluţia.

Sau mai degrabă era rezultatul unei succesiuni de reacţii elementare de respingere, care continuau de la sine, una după alta. Ca şi cum în organism mi-ar fi intrat o substanţă fină, un messenger , transportat rapid la creier, producând un efect modificator în mintea mea timp de vreo 20 minute.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi construieşti o realitate care să fie în rezonanţă cu Eul tău autentic, fără să transformi produsul înţelegerii tale în stricta corespondenţă cu evoluţia unei forţe dominante ce nu poate fi identificată?

Duhul acesta neaşteptat, forţa aceasta dominantă ce mă trezea noaptea ca să-mi inducă un sentiment de nelinişte, partea nematerială a naturii mele, părea un fel de plăsmuire a unei fiinţe suplimentare care mi-a aparţinut odată, dar am pierdut-o prin fidelizarea faţă de căpriciile lumii. Cine m-a lăsat să le înfrunt de unul singur? Era aproape imposibil să înţeleg fenomenul, chiar parcurgându-i fazele importante, de la apariţie până la dispariţie. Trebuia să pornesc de la ideea definitorie, că profunzimea şi complexitatea jucau rolul ţintei care trebuia atinsă.

Iar dacă nu permiteam intuiţiei să pătrundă dincolo de limitele pe care explicaţiile raţionale nu le puteau transcende, şi să ajung la adevărul însuşi, atunci nu aş fi reuşit niciodată să mă axez pe relaţia cu mine însumi şi să mă înţeleg mai bine.

Sinele, văzut din perspectiva unei făpturi nevăzute, a unei conştiinţe aflată mereu la pândă, îmi pare o aproximare a unei entităţi de tip "paznic" sau de tip "vânător", în funcţie de modul cum răspund la fluxurile şi refluxurile vieţii. Sinele reprezintă adevărul ascuns în spatele aparenţelor pe care nu-l poţi birui prin vervă, inteligenţă, viclenie sau prin împotrivire directă, ci doar printr-o atitudine deschisă, de acceptare, în legătură cu orice faptă pe care am săvârşit-o.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti o imagine a revelaţiei asimilate existenţial care să se datoreze unei apartenenţe la o realitate tăinuită, fără să-ţi pui la zid acea parte a personalităţii pe care o arăţi lumii?

Toată această confuzie care dădea naştere la întrebări, dovedindu-se fatală pentru prezentul şi viitorul meu, putea să aibă sens atât timp cât exista şi opusul ei. Iar impactul real pe care vocea din capul meu o avea asupra mea, putea avea o singură explicaţie, şi anume:

Căutarea sinelui, arhetip al totalităţii, îl poate conduce pe om spre procesul în urma căruia devine stăpân pe propria sa gândire, lăsând Eu-lui posibilitatea de a face faţă unor noi trăiri şi de a se autodepăşi.

Te confrunţi cu un fenomen care devine un soi de dominanţă a fiinţei tale? Un şir interminabil de şoapte şi-a făcut loc în mintea ta? Trăieşti într-o continuă negare a individualităţii tale? Intuiţia ta poate să pătrundă dincolo de limitele pe care explicaţiile raţionale nu le pot transcende?

Leadership: Poţi să folosești momentele de modificare a conștiinței pentru a accesa noi perspective și înțelegeri despre tine și lume, atunci când vocea interioară pare să contrazică tot ce ai considerat calculat și exact în viață?

Iată ce confirmă din plin perspectiva dezvoltării. În momentul în care personalitatea, intuiţia, capacitatea ta de a face faţă impactului schimbării îţi poartă paşii spre adevărata fortăreaţă a autocunoaşterii, spre tot ce te reprezintă de fapt, de fapt intri într-un joc superior şi captivant. În care, pentru a câştiga, trebuie să conştientizezi că eşti un jucător. Apoi să evaluezi câştigurile şi riscurile, să cunoşti regulile şi urmările ce pot apărea în cazul în există o diferenţă foarte mare între ele două.

Leadershipul intervine în performanţa propriei tale dezvoltări atunci când te transformi dintr-un jucător într-un investigator, deci atunci când încerci să explici neconcordanţa dintre tine şi realitatea marelui joc al vieţii. Atunci când faci trecerea de la o apartenenţă şi de la o identitate la alta. Practic, în acest moment important, parcurgi drumul spre tine însuţi în sens invers. Nu mai încerci să te împaci cu realitatea cu care te-ai obişnuit, ci faci paşii necesari spre a te cunoaşte în profunzime.

Aceasta este de fapt semnificaţia "şoaptelor" care îţi pătrund în toată fiinţa, dându-ţi fiori la ureche atunci când îţi transmit, într-un mod straniu, acele vibraţii interioare care trezesc partea individuală din natura ta şi îţi permit să conştientizezi cine eşti cu adevărat.

Leadership: Începi să înţelegi că atitudinea faţă de ceea ce simţi într-un moment cheie al vieţii îţi poate oferi în acelaşi timp posibilitatea de a fi sincer faţă de ceea ce eşti cu adevărat într-o realitate care doar ţie îţi aparţine?

Marchizul de Vauvenargues a spus la un moment dat un lucru important care merită să se întipărească în memoria fiecărui lider: " Raţiunea şi simţirea se sfătuiesc şi se completează rând pe rând. Cine n-o consultă decât pe una din ele şi renunţă la cealaltă se lipseşte fără chibzuinţă de o parte din ajutoarele care ne-au fost hărăzite pentru a ne conduce. "

Pentru a fi un bun slujitor al leadershipului trebuie să-ţi păstrezi ajutoarele care ţi-au fost hărăzite pentru a te conduce singur pe drumul excelenţei, trăind sub o lege care să-ţi impună criteriul ce trebuie folosit în evaluarea abilitaţilor şi resurselor proprii.

Există o artă a gestionării propriei persoane şi a utilizării la maximum a timpului pe care îl acorzi "şoaptelor". Ele te deconectează de la acea negare continuă a individualităţii tale, până la nivelul impunerii şi recunoaşterii adevărului a cine eşti cu adevărat. Leadershipul devine justificat şi valoros abia atunci când te gestionezi bine pe tine însuţi, când te obişnuieşti să intri în relaţie cu latura ta neexplorată, când reuşeşti să elimini îndoielile în legătură cu ceea ce eşti.

Între procedeele principale utilizate în analiza propriei persoane şi a propriei previzibilităţi, se numără centralizarea resurselor necesare producerii schimbării şi descoperirea punctelor tari necesare pentru a elimina confuzia între " a fi " şi " a nu fi ".

Reuşita în leadership nu este rezultatul unei succesiuni de reacţii elementare de respingere a "adevărului", care continuă de la sine, una după alta. Ci este rezultatul unei negocieri cu tine însuţi, atunci când te axezi pe relaţia cu tine însuţi şi să reuşeşti să te înţelegi mai bine.

A fi sincer faţă de ceea ce eşti cu adevărat într-o realitate care doar ţie îţi aparţine înseamnă să ţii cont de felul cum te influenţezi singur, de felul cum îţi creşti personajul interior, în aşa fel încât să nu rupi legătura cu ceea ce se petrece în afara ta atunci când trebuie să găseşti o justificare a "subiectivităţii" tale.

Sanctimoris este cheia unei şarade a cărei înţelegere îţi poate asigura o dezvoltare ascendentă. Reprezintă o metaforă care îţi scoate mintea din făgaşul ei obişnuit şi te face să îţi pui întrebările fundamentale care te ajută să alungi ceața din faţa ochilor, şi să desluşeşti mai bine cine eşti cu adevărat.

Cu cât te cunoşti mai bine şi explorezi aspectele necunoscute ale Eu-lui tău, cu atât şansele de a te abate de la tine însuţi sunt mai mici. Prin această autocunoaştere profundă vei putea să afli cine eşti, ce vrei să construieşti şi încotro te îndrepţi. Vei afla care este menirea ta şi care trebuie să fie aportul tău în această lume, de pe poziţia de lider.

Sărăcia unui om tânăr nu e niciodată nefericită

On Aprilie 27, 2012

Încearcă să te cunoşti mai bine în încercarea de a răbda împlinirea unui vis, prin tăcerea suferinţei asumate departe de lumea dezlănţuită.

În ziua în care bunicul lui îl alungase fusese un copil; acum era bărbat în toată firea. O simţea. Sărăcia – o spunem iar – îi priise. Sărăcia tinereţii, atunci când ajunge la liman, are meritul de a mâna voinţa către luptă şi sufletul către năzuinţe înalte. Sărăcia despoaie viaţa materială şi arată în toată urâţenia ei, dând avânturi nemărginite către viaţa ideală. Un tânăr bogat are zeci de distracţii strălucitoare sau grosolane: alergările de cai, vânătoarea, câinii, tutunul, jocurile de noroc, ospeţele şi celelalte; toate îndeletniciri în paguba elanurilor mari şi duioase ale sufletului.

Tânărul sărac se trudeşte pentru pâine şi mănâncă cu economie; după ce a mâncat nu-i mai rămâne decât să viseze. Se duce la spectacole gratuite lăsate de Dumnezeu, se uită la cer, priveşte spaţiul, stelele, florile, copiii, omenirea în mijlocul căreia suferă, creaţiunea în care străluceşte şi fiinţa lui. Priveşte atât de mult omenirea, încât vede sufletul, priveşte atât de mult creaţiunea, încât îl vede pe Dumnezeu. Visează şi se simte mare. Visează mai departe şi se simte bun. Trece de la egoismul omului care suferă la mila pentru alţii a omului care gândeşte.

Un sentiment minunat înfloreşte în el; uitarea de sine şi iubirea pentru toţi ceilalţi. Gândindu-se la bucuriile nenumărate pe care natura le dă, le împarte, le risipeşte sufletelor deschise, şi le refuză sufletelor închise, începe să-l plângă el, bogatul în gânduri, pe bogatul în bani. Pe măsură ce lumina îi pătrunde în suflet, ura îi părăseşte inima. De altfel, e oare nenorocit? Nu. Sărăcia unui om tânăr nu e niciodată nefericită. Orice băiat tânăr, oricât ar fi de sărac, are să fie totdeauna pizmuit de un împărat bătrân, pentru sănătatea, puterea, mersul lui vioi, ochii lui strălucitori, sângele lui fierbinte, părul lui negru, obrajii lui fragezi, buzele lui trandafirii, dinţii lui albi şi răsuflarea lui proaspătă. *

Leadership: Poţi să testezi maturitatea reacţiei tale la evenimentele vieţii, încât dovada valorii tale să fie valabilă într-o singură direcţie - de la general la specific?

Ceea ce este restrictiv în domeniul intra-umanului ni se prezintă uneori ca o formă de renegare a trecutului „alterat" şi ca formă de proiectare a unui viitor „proaspăt", legat de acele experienţe de viaţă care te transformă în altcineva. Începând cu sărăcia, care poate fi o virtute sau o slăbiciune, ar putea fi semnalată (într-o sumedenie de situaţii existenţiale) şi apariţia unui nou erou de luptă, de nivel superior, care să nu fie afectat de complexul numit "Stimă de sine scăzută". El este viitorul proaspăt, nu trecutul fermentat.

Statutul "Omului Nou" devine perfect explicabil dacă luăm în considerabil înclinaţia lui spre visare, spre analiza unor stări sufleteşti subtile, extrase din momentele plăcute petrecute în mijlocul naturii, spre a vedea viaţa într-un mod optimist. Adică tot ce îi trebuie unei povești de neuitat. Omul Nou este un iubitor al naturii, nu un rob al lucrurilor materiale, prin aceea că îşi arată disponibilitatea de a trăi fără vreo pretenţie de originalitate şi notorietate, dar întruchipând ideea de erou care are în el o flacără menită să-i să contamineze şi pe alţii cu vitejia lui. Fie din capacitatea de a-şi răbda propria robie, pe care şi-o observă în mod dureros, fie dintr-o revoltă față de ceea ce a trăit în mod intens.

Lumina întregii sale cunoașteri și înțelepciuni este ca o poezie: se naşte mai mult dintr-o tristeţe profundă, decât din fericire.

Sărăcia şi sufletul sunt amplificate de lupta omului cu el însuşi, spre slava lui Dumnezeu, către năzuinţele înalte de cinste, de datorie, de dreptate, care fac ca experienţele vieţii să nu-l doboare, ci să-l aducă la un nivel înalt de spiritualitate. Adevărata spiritualitate înseamnă să laşi experienţele vieţii să te facă conştient de însemnătatea apropierii de Dumnezeu prin lupta dată cu tine însuţi, încât prin transformarea durerii în forţă şi în înţelepciune, să găseşti sensul acestei lumi.

Iată, aceasta este definiţia Iluminării: să te întăreşti într-o suferinţă pe care să o poţi răbda, treptat, chibzuit, cu folos, şi astfel să te cunoşti mai bine pe tine însuţi în lumina lui Dumnezeu. Nu încerca să ascunzi realitatea durã cu confortul ireal. Nu eşti mai dur sau mai răsărit dacă te manifeşti în ireal, doar în lumea visurilor, dar e bine să visezi că eşti altcineva, "the man", exponentul unei spiritualităţi înalte, dacă vrei să te întăreşti în realitatea lui Dumnezeu.

Încearcă să te cunoşti mai bine în încercarea de a răbda împlinirea unui vis prin suferinţa de a trăi o vreme singur, doar astfel îţi vei dezvolta anumite calităţi precum umilinţa, răbdarea sau smerenia. Trebuie să treci prin focul suferinţei şi al îndoielilor, într-o încleştare a voinţelor de fier, dacă vrei să-l cunoşti pe Dumnezeu şi dacă vrei să devii tu însuţi un Iluminat.

Dovada valorii tale poate fi valabilă într-o singură direcţie (de la general la specific) - atunci când sacrifici comorile acestei lumi pentru câştigarea mântuirii sufleteşti abordată din perspectiva unei spiritualităţi care caută esenţa lucrurilor, nu forma lor exterioară.

Sărăcia unui om tânăr nu e niciodată nefericită dacă luăm în calcul povestea din spatele izbânzii sale ulterioare, într-un raport continuu cu Dumnezeu. Un asemenea om înţelege cu desăvârşire rostul şi cauzele izbânzii sale în viaţă doar dacă se raportează la partea spirituală a naturii sale, nu la partea materială a lumii.

Şi aici, aş adăuga ceea ce mi-a mărturisit aseară un poet al marilor nelinişti existenţiale, fiindcă întotdeauna cuvintele unei minţi alese sunt ca o suflare de aer proaspăt în mijlocul atâtor curenţi înşelători:

"Nicu, dragul meu prieten. Sărăcia unui tânăr nu are nicio speranţă să fie nefericită. Pentru el viaţa este când un şir de pierderi din prea mult entuziasm, când un şir de acumulări dacă stă pe picioarele lui. Pierderile depind uneori de el, iar alteori nu pot fi evitate. Câteodată este ca un naufragiat ajuns la mal, dar risipind de unde are, apoi dă din ce este. El simte mereu că este fericit pentru că legăturile de suflet nu pot fi calculate în procente. Nimic nu este inaccesibil speranţelor sufletului lui, el fiind plin de vise ce nu pot fi doborâte nici măcar de lăsarea nopţii. Mintea lui este pregătită pentru decizii pe care le ia dimineaţa cu ochii larg deschişi."

Scânteia dintre polii contrastului

Configurează-ţi traseul existenţial, fără să denaturezi factorul de amplificare a propriei tale evoluţii.

Mă găseam în situaţia unui rătăcitor plasat într-o lume fără frontiere, haotică şi fragmentată, în căutarea a ceva în care să cred şi de care să mă ataşez. Fără nicio direcţie, mă simţeam prins într-un context dominat de contradicţii şi paradoxuri, o deconectare uşoară de la o obişnuinţă savuroasă. Provocarea dificilă prin care treceam putea fi percepută drept topirea lentă a unei motivaţii continue, a unei energii care mă umplea până când se revărsa, o scădere a capacităţii mele de înţelegere a lucrurilor, a lumii, a timpului, dar mai ales a Omului din mine.

Uneori viaţa este o încercare de a reda imposibilul unei relaţii cu o lume mai largă, într-o neîntreruptă rotire de carusel. Într-un fel, trăiam senzaţia deconectării de la elementul care mă definea, care mă împlinea ţâşnind din mine ca un izvor, dar curgea neîncetat în direcţia opusă cursului firesc. Era rezultatul unui conflict cu mine însumi, derutant ca o furtună care-mi risipea liniştea interioară. Intensificarea unui Ego hipertrofiat, extrem de confuz şi vulnerabil.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea de a renaște dintr-un proces de diminuare și regres, ca semn de forță interioară și viziune în mijlocul confuziei?

Ceva ce se risipea într-un spaţiu infinit, apoi se reîntorcea. O diminuare a energiei care ajungea la zero, începând apoi să crească din nou, însă în sens contrar. După ce atingea o nouă valoare maximă, de sens opus primei, descreştea iarăşi ajungând la zero. Un ciclu care se repeta tot mai des, mai dezlânat, mai imprevizibil, pentru a întări acel nefiresc al evoluţiei mele, pentru a mă păcăli tot mai mult - efectul advers al unei judecăţi suspendate, a unei reacţii neintenţionate.

Nu mai puteam deosebi adevărul de fals, iluzia de realitate. Cine m-ar fi studiat cu atenţie, un observator fin precum Dostoievski sau Balzac, m-ar fi plasat într-un context impregnat de confuzii, nefavorabil curiozităţii mele intelectuale anterioare, amplificat de neputinţa de a studia, de a mă cultiva în toate sensurile. Demonul neclarităţii îmi învăluia în mod abuziv cunoaşterea, întreaga fiinţă, afectând tot mai mult gradul meu rentabilitate şi factorii de care depindea leadershipul.

Un ansamblu de regres şi involuţie rapidă aducătoare de previziuni sumbre, caracteristice acelui moment greu şi încordat ca o strună de vioară, subţire şi tăioasă, reflectând tot mai vizibil o formă a disperării duse la limită. O eroare asumată? Un avertisment? Un temporisation a capacităţilor mele dus până la extrem?

Leadership: Poţi să te privești dintr-o perspectivă mai largă decât aceea a propriei vieți, identificându-te cu o realitate a cărei forţă constă tendinţa ei de a se opune oricărei forme de înţelegere?

Nimeni nu ar fi putut înţelege logica vieţii mele decât ţintind spre idealul unei raţiuni eliberate de tensiunea emoţiilor, punând în discuţie conceptul de "realitate avansată". După cum Gobsec, cămătarul din opera lui Balzac se juca cu victimele lui, toţi acei oameni chinuiţi de neajunsuri care veneau disperaţi să împrumute bani de la el, tot astfel şi eu simţeam că cineva se joacă cu mine, dominându-mă prin superioritatea sa.

O voinţă malignă, cămătărească, o conştiinţă majoră, înşelătoare, cercetându-mă cu cruzime, atrăgându-mă forţat ca un magnet numai pentru a sorbi cu nesaţ din mine şi ultima picătură de lumină, profunzimea propriei mele gândiri, miezul identităţii mele. O insuficienţă a funcţionării mele? Viaţa este o realitate desenată de un inginer care face minuni şi îşi împărtăşeşte invenţiile prin intermediul unei negaţii: nimic din ceea ce crezi că ştii despre lume nu este al tău, iar ceea ce ştii despre tine se transformă în incertitudine şi suspiciune.

Ceva nedrept şi exagerat în mijlocul cunoaşterii mele. Un fenomen electric, ca o auroră boreală, care provoca o senzaţie intensă, dar furtunoasă. Un supracurent în instalaţia care aprindea dintr-o dată LED-ul uriaş al progresului şi evoluţiei mele, apoi îl stingea la scurt timp, fără să mai pot da "restore". Scânteia dintre polii contrastului, semnalul unei stări de incertitudine, o dorinţă de exploatare a realităţii transformată rapid într-o vâlvătaie, stingându-se apoi la fel de uşor cum a apărut, în întuneric.

Ceva îmi denatura factorul de amplificare al propriei mele evoluţii. Eram obsedat de ideea de a poseda tot mai multă ştiinţă. Şi totuşi, chinuit de acest simţământ cu zimţi foarte fini, al inutilităţii şi abandonului, eram în aşteptarea izbăvitoarei reveniri. Un LED roşu care se stingea şi se aprindea repetat - la un influx electric extern.

O realitate a cărei forţă constă în tendinţa ei de a se opune oricărei forme de înţelegere este o entitate condusă de legi eterne, necunoscute încă omului de rând, o entitate nevăzută şi ale cărei principii de funcţionare rămân un mister pentru lume. Iar eu exact asta încercam să fac: să înfrunt o realitate care agresa viziunea mea asupra lumii.

Leadership: Te resemnezi în faţa predestinării de a aparţine unei existenţe care îşi modifică permanent realitatea, cel puţin ca posibilitate de trăire a unui mod de a cunoaşte ceea ce îndeobşte nu se cunoaşte?

Te laşi prins într-un context dominat de contradicţii şi paradoxuri? Care este factorul care contribuie la topirea lentă a motivaţiei tale continue de a fi mai bun? Trăieşti senzaţia deconectării de la elementul care te defineşte? Îţi plasezi identitatea într-un context impregnat de confuzii? Ce anume denaturează factorul de amplificare al propriei tale evoluţii?

Dacă nu vrei să trăieşti senzaţia deconectării de la elementul care te defineşte, atunci apără-ţi Ego-ul. Conştientizează-ţi limitările în acele situaţii în care avansezi cu paşi repezi spre noi posibilităţi de a înţelege mai bine semnificaţia unui conţinut, integrându-l într-un sistem propriu de valori şi conferindu-i sensuri personale. Nu te grăbi, nu-ţi diminua energia în drumul tău de a deveni mai performant.

Aşa cum hipertensiunea creşte vulnerabilitatea organismului la condiţiile meteo extreme, tot astfel şi tu, dacă te laşi învăluit de incertitudine în modul tău de a percepe şi interpreta realitatea, funcţionarea ta va scădea sub gradul de acceptare a lucrurilor ce pot fi schimbate. Personalitatea ta va avea de contracarat un permanent bruiaj al gândurilor şi al reacţiilor exterioare la stimuli de tot felul care vin şi pleacă. Un clipocit permanent, un bruiaj care nu îţi permite niciodată să avansezi spre perfecţiune.

A trăi un mod de a cunoaşte ceea ce îndeobşte nu se cunoaşte înseamnă să te cufunzi într-o poveste captivantă, plină de resurse, al cărui subiect plin de mister este propria ta minte pe care vrei o întinzi dincolo de graniţele sale.

Scânteia dintre polii contrastului reliefează existenţa acelui conflict dintre realitate şi putinţa de a o înţelege, care poate determina stagnarea şi chiar involuţia.

Când încerci să te înţelegi mai bine din prisma a ceea ce trăieşti, punând în prim plan o cauză intelectuală şi imaterială care face ca un lucru să fie ceea ce este, precum şi mijloacele prin care vrei să-l cunoşti, va trebui să te întrebi: cât anume provine din realitate şi cât anume din conştiinţă? Ce anume este efemer şi ce anume este constant?

Scapi din vedere desenul final?

On Aprilie 25, 2009

Evaluează-i pe oameni fără să pierzi din vedere „lumina" de care ei se înconjoară.

Într-o zi un tată şi-a dus fiul la o expoziţie de grafică şi desen. Acolo se aflau mai mulţi artişti care realizau gratuit portrete în creion tuturor celor care doreau să aibă o amintire în alb/negru.

"De ce să nu am şi eu o amintire cu fiul meu? şi-a zis el. Aşa că l-a rugat pe unul dintre artişti să-i realizeze portretul fiului său în vârstă de şapte ani. Artistul a acceptat, l-a aşezat pe copil pe scaun şi l-a rugat să stea nemişcat, apoi s-a apucat de treabă.

Mai întâi i-a desenat ochiul stâng când, brusc, tatăl copilului îl întrerupe: "Nu prea seamănă la ochi cu fiul meu".

"Aşteptaţi puţin vă rog, încă nu este gata desenul", a răspuns artistul care a continuat să deseneze.

După ce a terminat de desenat şi ochiul drept, tatăl copilului, cam dezamăgit, îl întrerupe din nou: "Mie tot nu mi se pare că seamănă cu fiul meu".

"Vă rog, aşteptaţi încă puţin, încă nu este gata desenul", veni imediat răspunsul artistului. Tatăl copilului începea să-şi piardă răbdarea. Apoi artistul a desenat nasul, buzele, bărbia, obrajii, urechile, sprâncenele, capul şi părul copilului.

"Acum seamănă cu fiul dumneavoastră?" îl întrebă artistul. De data aceasta tatăl copilului a rămas cu gura căscata. Desenul întruchipa perfect imaginea fiului său.

Leadership: Iei decizii înainte sau după ce lucrurile capătă o formă definitivă?

Respecţi adevărul pe care se bazează realitatea?

Ar fi mult mai uşor să întreţinem relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni dacă am vedea de la început desenul final şi nu ne-am grăbi să tragem concluzii. Din păcate însă, la fel ca tatăl copilului, uneori suntem tentaţi să vedem realitatea fără să preţuim adevărul pe care se bazează ea. Iar atunci când nu cunoaştem adevărul, nu avem cum să-l respectăm – în consecinţă vom avea tendinţa să-i judecăm pe oameni greşit şi să-i critică aspru uneori.

Prima reacţie a oamenilor este de asociere - încearcă să găsească asemănări între informaţia nouă şi cea cunoscută. La început tatăl copilului nu a găsit nicio asemănare între fiul său şi portretul neterminat de artist, dar pe măsură ce acesta a adăugat noi elemente imaginea fiului său a început să se contureze frumos.

Cea mai fireasca reacţie a noastră este să ne grăbim să acuzăm pe cineva atunci când nu-şi face treaba cum trebuie. Dar cine ştie, poate că lucrurile nu sunt ceea ce par a fi la prima vedere. Poate că dacă mai aşteptăm puţin în loc să ne grăbim să tragem concluzii pripite, lucrurile căpătând o formă definitivă, vom fi mulţumiţi de rezultatul final.

Imaginea personală care hrăneşte leadershipul este "desenul" din care se deduc posibilele tale înclinaţii spre adoptarea unui mod de gândire şi de exprimare original.

Accesarea realitatii pe care o proiectezi asupra celorlaltii este de multe ori similara cu conștientizarea imaginii pe care o ai în minte dar nu o poti exprima intr-un mod cat mai original si lipsit de clisee. Aici intervine propria perceptie asupra destinatarului caruia ii livrezi imaginea si "negativul" ei, focusata asupra unirii intre ceea ce stii si ceea ce presupui, avand ca si caracteristica definitorie un moment de viaţă reală.

Viziunea, axată pe observaţia directă a fenomenelor şi faptelor concrete, trebuie să fie mai întâi o versiune completă a ceea ce s-a aflat tot timpul în faţa ta. Apoi trebuie să fie o repoziţionare a ceea ce contează pe termen lung ca şi conţinut al unei lecţii de orientare în alegerea celui mai bun parcurs de urmat. Ori de câte ori încerci să aduci o viziune nouă asupra realităţii, cu siguranţă vei experimenta formula: “ Aşteaptă încă puţin, încă nu este gata desenul ! ”

Leadership: Te afunzi într-un întuneric profund fără să ştii cum arată ceea ce ţi se pune în faţă?

A nu percepe corect realitatea celorlalţi oameni, sau a o denatura, este ca şi cum ai intra într-un un pasaj îngust care pe măsură ce înaintezi lumina îşi pierde din intensitate şi se transformă într-un întuneric de nepătruns. Te afunzi din ce în ce mai adânc în întunericul profund ca şi când ai cunoaşte drumul, când de fapt te abaţi tot mai mult de la calea cea dreaptă.

Realitatea este „lumina” pe care tu o pierzi din vedere atunci când te bazezi pe propriile tale convingeri fără să înţelegi pe deplin mentalitatea oamenilor (sau când o conteşti) - deci, atunci când nu efectuezi o cercetare critică a naturii umane pentru a fi convins că-i poţi evalua corect. Dacă te lipseşti de o astfel de cercetare vei curma orice avânt spre înălţime al leadershipului tău.

Liderii nu iau decizii până când nu văd “desenul” final. Dacă sărim direct la concluzii înainte de a cunoaşte faptele pierdem esenţialul. Nu vom putea niciodată să stabilim relaţii dacă nu încercăm să înţelegem esenţialul pe care îl încorporează oamenii în sistemul lor armonios de convingeri şi reprezentări ale realităţii.

Aşa cum un jucător începător de fotbal poate dobândi un grad de măiestrie deosebită în aplicarea tuturor execuţiilor tehnice prin exerciţii constante şi bine dozate, tot astfel tu poţi atinge un grad de măiestrie în leadership dacă îţi dezvolţi capacitatea de a înţelege cu adevărat realitatea oamenilor în complexitatea ei.

Efectuează o cercetare critică a naturii umane pentru a fi convins că-i poţi evalua corect pe oameni. Evaluează-i fără să pierzi din vedere „lumina” de care ei se înconjoară.

Scara laterală

On Iulie 02, 2011

Înclină-te adânc înaintea celor mai importante valori ale tale şi păstrează-ţi mereu respectul pentru ele dacă vrei ca efectul leadershipului tău să fie maxim.

Ieri seară am avut prilejul să întâlnesc unul din acei oameni care ne fac cinste prin păstrarea unor norme etice bine stabilite, chiar dacă, poate, nu-şi asumă responsabilităţi majore. Mă aflam în parcarea din Carrefour, coborâsem din maşină şi mă îndreptam spre magazin. În faţa mea era un domn de vârstă mijlocie, părea un om obişnuit.

Dintr-o dată, un individ se apropie de domnul respectiv, într-un mod foarte ciudat, ca şi cum ar fi avut vreun secret important să-i spună, ca şi cum ar fi avut o misiune supremă să-i încredinţeze. Într-o clipă individul scoate din buzunar un telefon mobil de toată frumuseţea, cred că un Nokia C7. Părea nou nouţ. Dar individul voia să-l vândă cu numai 150 de RON.

Dându-şi seama că avea de-a face cu un hoţ mărunt, unul din acei hoţi care tocmai şterpeliseră ceva şi voiau să scape cât mai repede de obiectul furat vânzându-l la un preţ mult sub cel al pieţei, răspunsul domnului veni cu o promptitudine şi o fermitate de neegalat: „NU".

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi extinzi valabilitatea propriilor convingeri sub condiția categorică a obținerii tuturor aprobărilor conştiinţei, în conformitate cu o formă mai înaltă de responsabilitate?

Iată, mi-am spus eu în sinea mea cu vădită admiraţie, iată un om care îşi serveşte cu credinţă valorile, acele valori care nu-ţi îngăduie să dai curs impulsului de moment de a trece peste propriile principii şi criterii morale, bine înrădăcinate în fiinţa proprie. Domnul respectiv putea foarte uşor să se aleagă cu un telefon nou nouţ, la un preţ minim. Însă nu a vrut să-şi însuşească un bun de care era conştient că a fost furat.

Aşa cum o rachetă poate să învingă toate barierele gravitaţiei şi să se propulseze până la Lună, şi chiar mai departe - tot aşa şi tu trebuie să fii capabil să-ţi învingi toate ispitele şi slăbiciunile, trebuie să fii îndeajuns de abil şi tenace ca să te fereşti de toate acele căi care îţi indică un traseu greşit - o variantă ocolitoare a propriilor tale valori şi convingeri, şi să-ţi propulsezi propria persoană pe o treaptă mai sus.

Convingerile, despre care avem impresia că ne limitează sau ne blochează de fiecare dată când trecem pe un drum secundar, un drum al lipsei de cumpătare sau un drum al ispitelor, reprezintă un simptom al unei obişnuinţe adânc înrădăcinate în oameni: de a privi totul prin prisma propriilor interese.

Iar conştiinţa este partea superioară din noi care ordonă convingerilor să nu faulteze dreapta judecată care străbate calea bunei reputaţii în planul experienţelor noi şi a situaţiilor limită.

E de datoria ta, ca om de calitate, să-ţi respecţi mereu valorile şi să ai grijă să îţi aşterni drumul în viaţă cu cele mai bune intenţii, practici şi abordări. Cruţă-te de zilele triste pe care nu le poţi prevedea, acele zile în care nu îţi vei măsura aşa cum trebuie pulsul propriilor hotărâri şi norme. Înclină-te adânc înaintea celor mai importante valori ale tale şi păstrează-ţi mereu respectul pentru ele dacă vrei ca efectul leadershipului tău să fie maxim.

Leadership: Legătura de tip "Eu-Duşman" VERSUS Legătura de tip "Eu-Aliat"

În studiul percepției sensului leadershipului, observăm două criterii de relevanță enunțabile sub formă de ipostaze ce rezultă din cercetarea propriei conştiinţe: fie eşti de partea ta bună, fie eşti de partea ta delăsătoare. Aceste două ipostaze, care apar în primul plan al preocupării tale pentru formare şi dezvoltare, ridicându-se cu severitate la nivelul cerinţelor leadershipului, îţi clarifică grila de valori în timpul călătoriei tale spre un sine îmbunătăţit.

De fapt, aceste două ipostaze care pot conferi leadershipului un plus sau un minus de valoare, se întrepătrund pentru a indica de partea cui eşti. Eşti de partea legăturii tainice de tip "Eu-Duşman" , care îţi diminuează însuşirile cele mai valoroase? Sau de partea legăturii tainice de tip "Eu-Aliat" , care îţi securizează conexiunea la leadership prin acţiunea de „dedicare totală" faţă de cerinţele sale obligatorii?

Fiecare om alunecă pe drumul incertitudinii, constrâns să aleagă între cele două ipostaze, în funcţie de propriul bagaj cultural și emoțional, etic şi raţional. Dar mai ales în funcţie de felul său de a se împăca cu sinele înainte şi după deciziile luate.

Este evidentă conștientizarea totală de sine, diferită în funcție de circumstanţele în care aceasta se produce. Uneori poţi fi orb la defectele tale, şi să trăieşti cu ruşinea de a fi retrogradat la statutul de sine pătat. Sau poţi să-ţi zugrăveşti leadershipul cu puternice culori care să-ţi pună în evidenţă valorile tale incoruptibile, precum responsabilitatea morală şi obligaţia de a acţiona împotriva "petelor gri", împotriva acelor porniri specifice mentalităţilor care slujesc cauze şi alternative nedrepte.

În această privinţă apar deci, sensuri diferite ale liderului sub impulsul condițiilor strict impuse de principiile după care se conduce în viaţă, în muncă, în situaţii diverse, care determină o serie de efecte pozitive sau negative asupra leadershipului practicat. Treptele de evoluție pe care liderul le urcă se află într-o strânsă interdependență cu mediul în care se dezvoltă şi evoluează, şi cu măsurile pe care le ia şi le sprijină integral pentru a nu-şi altera identitatea.

Leadership: Conştientizezi deosebirile între modul de a defini valoarea maximă a propriului Eu şi atingerea limitei maxime a propriei capacităţi de asimilare a unui nou mod de a te mişca printre nuanţele slăbiciunilor morale?

A nu-ţi respecta în orice moment principiile de bază, sănătoase, călăuzitoare, care stau la baza propriei tale personalităţi, înseamnă să-ţi ocoleşti adevărata ta natură, înseamnă să urci spre un nivel mai ridicat pe o „scară laterală", secundară, una obscură, deseori şubredă, care nu îţi garantează succesul pe lungă durată. Această scară te îndepărtează de desăvârşirea deplină a leadershipului tău, nu-ţi aduce niciun plus de performanţă vizibilă, niciun beneficiu moral. Şi cu cât urci mai sus pe această scară alternativă, cu atât te vei distanţa mai mult de propriile tale valori.

În orice moment al vieţii tale te vei afla faţă în faţă cu tine. Vei fi întotdeauna pus în faţa unei oglinzi ce reflectă propriile tale convingeri, credinţe, valori. Vei fi doar tu, faţă în faţă cu propria constiinţă, cu ceea ce greşeşti sau cu ceea ce faci bine. Te vei regăsi. Îţi vei da seama de adevăratul tău caracter, de adevărata ta valoare, de adevărata ta natură interioară. Şi îţi vei recunoaşte atuurile, sau, dimpotrivă, părţile vulnerabile - slăbiciunile şi defectele pe care le ai.

Valoarea maximă a propriului Eu se determină prin diminuarea contrastelor dintre ceea ce eşti când nu ai nimic de ascuns şi ceea ce eşti când îţi extinzi viziunea despre persoana ta în contextul unei dovezi a fermităţii de neegalat în faţa ispitei, a corupţiei şi a nedreptăţii:

„NU".

Concluzie: Însuşeşte-ţi acele norme morale care într-adevăr au valoare într-o societate civilizată, păstrând mereu respectul pentru ele, căci ele reprezintă adevărata comoară cu o valoare inestimabilă. Ele îţi vor permite să urci pe scara valorilor, totdeauna cu fruntea sus, chiar dacă ascensiunea va fi mai lentă decât cea de pe „scara laterală" - aparent mai accesibilă, dar mai nesigură.

Scenarii de film: "Magicianul"

On Mai 10, 2008

David Worse, fost atlet de performanţă, porneşte în căutarea visului său. Are nevoie de ajutor în călătoria sa, dar e mereu ocolit, mereu refuzat, fiind perceput de toată lumea drept un tip superficial în orice şi incapabil de a realiza ceva măreţ în viaţă. Dar, într-o zi, aşa li cum se întâmplă în general tuturor oamenilor perseverenţi care îşi doresc cu ardoare ceva, David descoperă secretul - cu ajutorul căruia îşi poate îndeplini visul.

Iar secretul se găsea sub... o mască.

Un magician se formează sub presiunea evenimentelor. Se transformă, îşi pierde fiinţa lui adevărată, îşi dizolvă identitatea, îşi elimină propriile slăbiciuni, încalcă orice bariere - ca apoi să dispară cu totul, apărând dintr-o dată într-o nouă ipostază - urmată la rândul ei de alte ipostaze. Mai întâi este chimist, apoi botanist; când doctor, când înţelept, când fizician; apoi preot şi avocat. Întotdeauna implicat într-un proces de acţiuni şi reacţiuni, de respingeri şi atracţii, de eliminări şi coordonări, într-o lume a simbolurilor şi a filtrelor magice create chiar de el însuşi. Din toate elementele astfel asociate se alcătuieşte un complex nou, un tip uman cu totul diferit.

Scenariul de leadership

On Decembrie 12, 2010

Leadershipul este un scenariu pe care trebuie să-l pui bine la punct înainte de a-i da drumul în lume.

Cineva mi-a adresat de curând o întrebare cu totul surprinzătoare, la care a adăugat un compliment cu totul special. M-au bucurat amândouă. Întrebarea domnului Sergiu era dacă mi-am creat cumva vreun scenariu de lucru, vreo metodă, sau vreun tipar special după care mă ghidez în realizarea articolelor mele, atât de reuşite din punctul dumnealui de vedere, articole care surprind într-adevăr esenţa a ceea ce înseamnă leadership.

Domnule Sergiu, mai mult decât orice, încerc să spun mereu o poveste minunată în fiecare articol sau carte pe care o scriu, căutând să ajung la esenţa ideii pe care o am de transmis, ţinând cont doar de ceea ce este prioritar. Ideea căreia îi dau naştere trebuie să fie cât mai simplă – cât mai uşor de înţeles, deci să fie exprimată în termeni obişnuiţi, să fie concretă, credibilă, şi, în acelaşi timp cât mai profundă. Pentru a le menţine cititorilor interesul treaz trebuie să vin în întâmpinarea aşteptărilor lor, altfel ideea mea nu va persista şi nu va trezi curiozitatea lor.

De unde îmi apare inspiraţia? De peste tot. O simplă conversaţie, o informaţie gasită într-o carte, o ştire de ultimă oră, un material comic de pe web, o imagine dintr-o revistă, etc., toate îmi pot oferi inspiraţie. Însă trebuie să am intuiţia de a vedea ideea… înţelepciunea de a o înţelege …şi curajul de a mă folosi de ea.

Leadership: Care este locul pe care îl ocupa "brandul" tău în încercarea de încadrare a propriei experienţe de cunoaştere în realitatea unui univers narativ în care nu orice pretext de reflecţie ocupă un loc central?

Aşa cum fiecare scenarist îşi creează un scenariu pe care apoi îl ecranizează, aşa cum fiecare echipă de fotbal profesionistă îşi aranjează mai întâi scenariile de joc, după care intră pe teren, tot aşa un scriitor bun îşi creează mai întâi scenariul, şi abia apoi trece la scrierea cărţii.

Scenariul pe care eu îl creez, adică schema articolului sau a cărţii pe care urmează să o "scot în lume", este pus la cale minuţios. Sub nicio formă nu trec la textul propriu-zis dacă scenariul nu e bun. Acesta trebuie să aibă un punct de plecare şi un punct final. Şi este absolut imperios ca descrierea articolului/capitolului (fraza aceea scurtă de la început care ilustrează esenţialul) să se potrivească întotdeauna cu finalul, iar titlul pe care îl aleg să fie în strânsă legătură cu subiectul pe care îl abordez.

Performanţa mea va avea o valoare cu atât mai mare, cu cât scenariul va fi mai bun.

Brandul este povestea modalităţii de a introduce un nou concept, un nou act de limbaj sau un nou fel de a vedea, de a judeca și de a aprecia lucrurile și viața, care recunoaşte în mod explicit importanţa extinderii propriei experienţe de cunoaştere.

Reflecţia este un proces de gândire şi de receptare a ideilor ce are ca primă condiţie (de manifestare a potenţelor creatoare) acea creştere a cantităţii de informaţie care ia naştere în urma procesului de trecere de la faza sintetică la cea analitica. Reflecţia este trebuincioasă la analiza modalităţilor de construcţie a unor noi viziuni, perspective sau puncte de vedere, conform condiţiilor proprii de funcţionare care iau naştere în spațiul foarte vast în care te desfășori artistic.

Leadership: Arta şi măiestria ta se contopesc în acelaşi timp într-un adevărat performance din unghiul înţelegerii reflecţiei faţa de un Ego care se vede cea mai importantă parte din realitate?

Cele două tipare, arta şi măiestria, trebuie să se contopească în acelaşi timp pentru ca leadershipul tău să aibă un efect de "intrare" într-o creştere accelerată de performanţă. Scenariul elaborat potrivit leadershipului, prin care îţi ghidezi măiestria de a-ţi stăpâni profesia, mai ales acele înclinaţii care merită determinate sistematic şi periodic, trebuie să fie inclus într-un cadru specificat de referinţă al valorii tale. Consolidat pe un fundament unic al întregii determinări de a-ţi exprima identitatea, prin forţa fertilizantă a gândurilor, ideilor, părerilor şi punctelor de vedere ce ţin de contexte diferite de cele convenţionale.

Pentru artiştii şi maeştrii care alternează în diferite roluri în afirmarea identităţii personale, succesul în a atribui artei un sens capabil să submineze inteligent orice reper de interes, semnificaţie şi apreciere din partea oricui, devine un spaţiu pe care ei îl explorează la maxim şi ştiu să scoată tot ceea ce pot mai bun din el.

Din alt punct de vedere, mai pragmatic, semnalarea unui potenţial insucces profesional, datorat lipsei de exemplaritate în plan ideatic şi expresiv, dar în special îngrădirilor sau constrângerilor de ordin "intern" şi "extern", strânge laolaltă versiunile de abordări care nu sunt succesive versus diferenţele dintre versiuni succesive.

Ego-ul tău se vede cea mai importantă parte din realitate atunci când rolul pe care ţi-l asumi (conform mixajului dintre imagine, realitate, mesajul transmis şi contextul de producere a efectelor) interacționează cu subiectul şi devine el însuși o necesitate a lumii. Un actor ştie să-şi controleze comportamentul şi reacţiile astfel încât impresia pe care o induce audienţei să fie pe măsura intenţiilor sale.

Leadership: Reuşeşti să-ţi prezinţi "povestea" în funcţie de reflectarea propriilor performanţe într-o receptare aparte, astfel încât impactul tău să fie recunoscut și valorizat dincolo de aparențele superficiale?

Scenariul este de fapt o versiune de adevăr pe care o pui la dispoziţia oamenilor, un mare flirt cu ştiinţa compoziţiei de valori şi idei în spiritul căruia te-ai format şi educat profesional, o adaptare a propriilor tale convingeri şi orientări la aşteptările celorlalţi, de tipul "merită" sau "nu merită".

În plus, poziţia ta faţă de ceea ce transmiţi, un mesaj, o viziune, o învăţătură, stări sau emoţii, poate fi relativ marginalizată şi chiar imaginea de sine poate fi defavorabilă în cadrul semnificaţiei pe care o atribui leadershipului. Uneori ele dezvoltă, treptat, un soi de inferioritate în faţa Ego-ului tău, un chin interior, mai ales dacă nu reuşeşti să-ţi prezinţi "povestea" în funcţie de adevărata măsură a performanţelor tale.

Faptul că ai calităţi de lider nu înseamnă că deţii toate răspunsurile şi că eşti capabil să găseşti "povestea" potrivită pentru a-i atrage pe oameni. Oamenii vor povestea potrivită pentru rolurile lor, şi un scenariu care să-i reprezinte acolo unde datoria le-o cere.

Leadership: În ce fel construirea unui scenariu plauzibil și detaliat poate deveni o formă de artă în sine, luand in considerare relevarea un gol în conştiinţa oamenilor: "iată ce vă scapă"?

Celebrul personaj Peter Munk, din opera scriitorului Wilhelm Hauff, i-a cerut Omuleţului de Sticlă să-i îndeplinească dorinţa – de a avea cea mai bogată sticlărie din regiune, dar fără să-l roage să-i destăinuie şi taina unde anume ar putea vinde sticla la preţul cel mai bun.

Dacă te vei hazarda să treci în fruntea oamenilor, construind scenarii bazate doar pe ficţiuni, deci care nu întăresc acel sens de control a realităţii pe care oamenii o doresc schimbată, vei sfârşi la fel ca Peter Munk. În final vei rămâne cu un scenariu cu scop, dar fără verdict şi fără prea mari aşteptări. Receptarea propriei creaţii va fi făcută de pe poziţia unui fapt neîmplinit.

Iată ce ştiţi ! Iată ce vă scapă ! Secretul succesului tău stă în scenariul de leadership pe care ţi-l creezi, şi pe care trebuie să-l pui bine la punct înainte să-i dai drumul în lume. Doar nu-ţi închipui cumva c-ai să treci în fruntea oamenilor, adoptând stilul clasic: doar promisiuni şi explicaţii, dar nimic concret şi viabil.

Oamenii îţi vor acorda votul de încredere numai dacă vii cu un scenariu bine pus la punct, care are sens şi e plauzibil, şi în care sunt expuse cât mai multe detalii concrete (atenţie ! detalii care se pot concretiza rapid în direcţii de acţiune). Dacă vrei să spargi tiparele şi să obţii cât mai multe puncte bonus, trezeşte-le oamenilor interesul realizând un scenariu al cărui mesaj să aibă un impact de durată. Stârneşte interesul oamenilor relevându-le un gol în conştiinţa lor: "iată ce ştiţi" şi "iată ce vă scapă".

Scenariul de leadership constă în puterea de pătrundere şi de înţelegere a esenţei lucrurilor; este singura formă de "artă" pură prin care îţi poţi exprima ideile şi intenţiile – şi este cea mai sigură formă de manipulare. Reprezintă mijlocul prin care poţi să marchezi punctul decisiv, făcându-ţi o grămadă de susţinători.

Pentru ca ideile pe care vrei să le promovezi să persiste, este absolut imperios ca scenariul cu care te prezinţi în faţa oamenilor să fie surprinzător, să vină în întâmpinarea aşteptărilor lor, dar în acelaşi timp să fie uşor de înţeles şi de aplicat ca să-ţi permită să te foloseşti de idei imediat.

Dacă vrei să-ţi faci cunoscută calitatea leadershipului tău, atunci ieşi în lume cu un scenariu excepţional. Dar nu-ţi irosi timpul scriind un "eseu" care nu vă plăcea nimănui şi a cărui esenţă n-ai să fii în stare s-o pui în practică.

Ideal ar fi ca fiecare fragment din scenariul tău să fie deosebit de fermecător, să-i seducă pe oameni şi să le stimuleze emoţiile – aşa cum reuşeşte s-o facă un adevărat scenarist sau un adevărat scriitor. Ai dreptul să pui în scenă orice tip de personaj, orice decor, orice fel de acţiune, orice idee, orice principiu sau orice regulă de leadership, şi să le manevrezi pe toate după bunul plac.

Concluzie: Leadershipul presupune că dispui pe lângă calităţi native şi competenţe atestate, şi de un scenariu de acţiune bine pus la punct în care să fie precizate atât metodele cât şi căile de obţinere a efectului scontat – un scenariu pe care să-l faci cunoscut în lume, altfel nu vei avea niciodată niciun susţinător.

Schimbarea la faţă a universului

Respectă principiile şi elementele de care depinde ordinea gravitaţiilor în lumea morală şi materială, pentru ca dreptatea supremă să nu intervină în cursul evoluţiei tale.

"Era oare cu putinţă ca Napoleon să câştige bătălia? Noi răspundem că nu. De ce? Din pricina lui Wellington? Din pricina lui Blucher? Nu. Ci fiindcă nu se mai potrivea în legea veacului al XIX-lea ca Napoleon să fie învingător la Waterloo. Se pregătea o altă serie de fapte printre care Napoleon nu mai avea loc. Reaua voinţă a întâmplărilor se anunţase mai demult. Venise vremea ca omul acesta uriaş să cadă.

Omul acesta atârna prea greu în balanţa destinului şi-i strica echilibrul. Era unul singur şi cântărea mai mult decât lumea întreagă adunată laolaltă. Dacă prisosul vitalităţii omeneşti, adunat într-un singur cap, şi lumea suită în mintea unui singur om, ar fi ţinut prea mult, civilizaţia s-ar fi prăpădit. Venise momentul ca dreptatea supremă şi neînduplecată să intervină.

Poate că înseşi principiile şi elementele de care depinde ordinea gravitaţiilor în lumea morală, ca şi în cea materială, s-au plâns. Sângele care abureşte, cimitirele prea încărcate, mamele cu ochii în lacrimi sunt acuzatorii cei mai de temut. Iar când pământul suferă pentru că e prea împovărat, se nasc din umbră gemete tainice pe care hăul le aude.

Veşnicia l-a tras pe Napoleon la răspundere şi căderea lui era hotărâtă. Îl stingherea pe Dumnezeu. Waterloo n-a fost o bătălie, ci schimbarea la faţă a universului. Ziua aceea a fost hărăzită de o forţă mai presus de om." *****

Leadership: Care este logaritmul raportului dintre ceea ce transmiţi după recepţionarea confirmării valorii tale şi ceea ce erai înainte?

Întotdeauna omul care vrea să trăiască pe un picior mare, străbătut de mireasma unui sentiment care încă se ignoră sau caută să se desluşească, dacă se trezeşte peste noapte în mijlocul unui drum lung şi drept, va avea credinţa că această nouă cale de urmat îi va garanta accesul la infrastructura unei noi ordini. A cărei utilizare este supusă unor taxe suportate direct de ceilalţi. Practic, acest om pornește de la zero într-o nouă etapă de acumulare a unei cunoașterii "cauzative", potrivită viziunii sale şi modelului său de personalitate.

Dar această nouă etapă care gravitează în jurul leadershipului nu se întemeiază întotdeauna pe reconstrucţia sensurilor interioare de echilibru, cuprindere şi împlinire, deci prin utilizarea unei cunoaşteri profunde şi înalte. Ci, deseori, pe neaplicarea normelor unanim acceptate de societate, pe percepţii subliminale referitoare la statutul şi rolul său, între "ce este" şi ce "ar trebui să fie" realitatea, între eforturi şi valorile aşteptate.

Napoleon a cedat în faţa propriei ignoranţe, apoi a devenit sclavul grandomaniei. Logaritmul său a fost prisosul vitalităţii adunat într-o singură direcţie: egocentrismul. Dacă privim la o oglindire sau la o reflectare a celorlalţi în conştiinţa unui astfel de om, nu putem sesiza nicio vibraţie, nicio notă sufletească. În el nu bootează nicio obligaţie morală. Decuplarea de la conducta mentală colectivă este totală.

Prisosul vitalităţii omeneşti nu are niciodată ca finalitate acel miracol al "momentului potrivit" sau al "ceasului bun", ci dimpotrivă, se împleteşte cu gravitatea caracterului pe un traseu al deşertăciunii: liderul devine victima propriilor decizii, victima propriei grandomanii.

Un asemenea om, înflăcărat de raporturile dintre ceea ce conferă sens vieţii sale şi ceea ce se petrece în jur, rareori va face apel la o tresărire de umanism şi de înţelepciune din partea tuturor acelora care au o responsabilitate oarecare în situaţiile pe care el însuşi le creează.

Iar unui asemenea om, pustiit de conţinut, nu-i putem cere o reflectare în interior a spaţiului exterior în mod spontan, ci mai degrabă trebuie să lucrăm la nivelul conştiinţei sale dacă vrem să integrăm câteva puncte de reper în şirul mult prea numeros al preocupărilor privind optimizarea parametrilor funcţionali ai leadershipului. Precum ruşinea, vina, apatia, durerea, frica, bunăvoinţa, acceptarea, raţiunea, iubirea, bucuria, pacea, iluminarea.

Logaritmul raportului dintre ceea ce transmiţi la nivel de conştiinţă, între exterior şi interior, în plan material şi moral, după recepţionarea confirmării valorii tale de profesionist, este puterea la care trebuie să-ţi ridici condiţia spirituală pentru a obţine un număr nelimitat de câştiguri pe plan social.

Leadershipul este rezultatul unei justiţii cauzale ce adesea ne scapă din vedere, atunci când ajungem să ne considerăm mult prea importanţi pentru promisiunea unei vieţi care oricând îşi poate găsi sfârşitul.

Există un concept în vânzări care este valabil şi în leadership. Clientul care intenţionează să cumpere un serviciu vrea cel mai mic preţ, pe când ofertantul îl vrea pe cel mai mare. Ca lider, preţul pe care îl plăteşti pentru că ai ignorat semnalele de "preţ" ale celorlalţi, fiindcă te-ai poziţionat în afara normalului acceptat, îmbrăţişând doctrinele radicale, va fi conform cu prevederile aprobate de acea instanţă superioară, numită "fatalitate", mâna aprigă a proniei cereşti.

Nu spunea Victor Hugo: " Aşa sunt întâmplările astea uriaşe, pe măsura unui infinit care ne scapă. " Această măsură dă rezultatele pe care niciun om nu şi le imaginează până când nu le suportă pe propria piele sau pe propriul suflet. Statusul obţinut fiind câştigat în detrimentul evoluţiei tale în timp şi spaţiu.

Momentul când dreptatea supremă intervine în viaţa omului, este momentul când omul se transformă dintr-un simplu muritor de rând - într-un muritor care îşi reneagă sensul vieţii şi obârşia.

Schimbarea la faţă a universului atrage atenţia asupra consecinţelor ce apar în urma plasării leadershipului spre o extremă neînţeleasă şi neacceptată de cei pe care îi vrei ca însoţitori în atingerea unor scopuri comune. Sau, poate reprezenta oscilaţia între extreme care dezorientează şi determină pierderea unui procent important de susţinători.

Numai aplicând corespunzător principiile şi elementele constitutive ale unui leadership performant, numai respectând armonia proprietăţilor cantitative şi calitative ale unei funcţii dependente de timp, de tipul " Serve and Support Others ", vei putea să aduni laolaltă ştiinţa, tehnica, competenţele, valorile, credinţele şi arta care conferă măiestriei o anumită "aură".

Scopul luptei noastre pentru nemurire este libertatea omenirii

On Ianuarie 03, 2017

Viața și moartea sunt legate într-un joc continuu, în care nemurirea se atinge prin contribuția la evoluția socială.

Tema de bază a filmului "Que viva Mexico" este: viaţa, moartea, nemurirea. Gânduri proprii, mai vechi, se amestecă aici cu cele născute din ambianţa Mexicului. Artistul îşi pune problema morţii şi a nemuririi. Biologic suntem muritori. Nemurirea o putem atinge doar prin contribuţia noastră la activitatea socială. Suntem câte unul din cei ce predăm ştafeta evoluţiei de la generaţia precedentă la cea următoare. "Scopul luptei noastre pentru nemurire, a oamenilor trecuţi prin vulcanul revoluţiei socialiste – se gândeşte Eisenstein – este libertatea omenirii".

Gândurile iscate de luptele de tauri, care simbolizau, metaforizau ideea generală în concretul lor, renasc acum în gândirea artistului cu altă forţă, la alte dimensiuni. Acum are loc geneza acestui fir conducător care ordonează toate impresiile din aceste lumi, transformând învolburarea senzaţiilor într-o precisă desfăşurare a temei. În gestaţia operei se oglindeşte astfel nu numai multitudinea de fapte percepute, ci însăşi dinamica procesului de creaţie.

Drumul acesta înălţător către o viaţă nouă, către ideile noi nu mai este o simplă formulă compoziţională, ci tema însăşi în forma unei imagini vii, plastice, născută din nenumăratele chipuri, imagini, evenimente, obiceiuri, festivităţi, întâmplări, în care zeii vieţii şi ai morţii îşi încrucişează drumurile. Este aici un joc al vieţii şi al morţii, o întrecere între viaţă şi moarte.

Leadership: Poţi să scoţi din tine esența sufletului tău și să creezi o operă care să depășească granițele națiunilor, ilustrând libertatea ca un catalizator al evoluției?

De ce ar trebui să ținem cont de drepturile omului? De ce ar trebui să acordăm prioritate libertății națiunilor sau a indivizilor, în loc să privim lumea ca un singur organism unitar? Mulți oameni își pun problema vieții și a morții, a nemuririi. Ei cred că suntem biologic muritori, dar nemurirea o putem atinge doar prin contribuția noastră la activitatea socială, predând ştafeta evoluției de la generația trecută la cea următoare. Scopul luptei noastre pentru nemurire, a oamenilor trecuți prin vulcanul revoluției socialiste, este libertatea umanității.

Pe măsură ce trecem prin istorie, putem vedea geneza unui astfel de viitor, ordonând impresiile din trecut într-o linie coerentă. Gândurile iscate de luptele de tauri, care simbolizau, metaforizau ideea generală în concretul lor, renasc acum în gândirea artistului cu altă forță, la alte dimensiuni. Acum are loc geneza acestui fir conducător care ordonează toate impresiile din aceste lumi, care transformă învolburarea senzațiilor într-o precisă desfășurare a temei. Procesul de creație al omenirii este reflectat în dinamica acestui proces. În gestaţia operei se oglindește astfel nu numai multitudinea de fapte percepute, ci însăși dinamica procesului de creație.

Drumul acesta înălțător către o viață nouă, către ideile noi nu mai este o simplă formulă compozițională, ci tema însăși în forma unei imagini vii, plastice, născută din nenumăratele chipuri, imagini, evenimente, obiceiuri, festivități, întâmplări, în care zeii vieții și ai morții își încrucișează drumurile. Este aici un joc al vieții și al morții, o întrecere între viață și moarte. Totuși, întrebarea rămâne: suntem în stare să ne depășim biologicul și să atingem nemurirea, sau suntem destinați să rămânem muritori în esență?

Întotdeauna când un artist se raportează la leadership, el ţine cont de următorul aspect: "Multitudinea de fapte percepute în desfăşurarea operei dezvăluie geneza unui viitor ordonat prin dinamica procesului de creaţie."

Poate virtutea luptei dusă împotriva orânduirii sociale să devină un simbol puternic în opera ta, oferind o viziune despre libertatea umanității care transcende limitele muritoare? Cum poate gândirea artistului să scoată la lumină relevanța luptei pentru nemurire prin creația sa, renăscând cu forță la alte dimensiuni ale existenței?

Scopul luptei noastre pentru nemurire este libertatea omenirii, mai ales în cazul artiștilor care își pun inima și sufletul în munca lor. Poate oare dinamica procesului de creație a umanității să scoată în evidență virtuțile artistului care transformă învolburarea senzațiilor într-o desfășurare precisă a temei alese? Cum poate procesul de creație al omenirii să evidențieze firul conducător care ordonează toate impresiile trecutului într-o linie coerentă către un viitor al libertății umanității?

Scorul de leadership

Intră pe culoarul campionilor, reglându-ţi potenţialul la valoarea optimă.

Ieri după-amiază m-am bucurat de vizita unui prieten de familie, care este manager la una din cele mai mari companii de consultanţă din Romania. L-am invitat să joace cu mine tenis de masă pentru că auzisem că în tinereţe fusese un mare împătimit al acestui sport. Oare mă puteam măsura cu el în ceea ce privea stilul de joc şi schemele tactice?

După ce am schimbat câteva mingi mi-am dat seama că sunt mai bun decât el. I-am spus cu o uşoară nuanţă de părere de rău că nu doresc să joc pe scor ca nu cumva să se simtă jignit în cazul în care ar pierde. Dar el, cu un zâmbet care arăta că e foarte sigur pe sine, privindu-mă cu o expresie gânditoare şi totodată, cred, plină de admiraţie, mi-a răspuns imediat cu mare bucurie:

- Nicu, eu nu mă pot mulţumi doar să fac schimb de mingi cu tine. Ceea ce mă interesează este scorul final. Încă de mic am fost dominat de spiritul de competiţie, de dorinţa de a mă arunca în luptă şi, pentru a-mi dovedi mie însumi că sunt în stare de mai mult, am jucat întotdeauna pe scor cu toată lumea. De altfel, nici nu pot juca bine dacă nu joc pe scor, joc cu neatenţie, cu nepăsare, fără să fiu îmboldit de ceva.

Urmă un scurt moment de tăcere, o tăcere pe care tot el a întrerupt-o:

- Nicu, îmi plac rezultatele. Vreau să văd rezultate. Indiferent ce joc, indiferent dacă pierd sau dacă câştig, vreau să văd rezultate. Chiar şi dacă pierd, până la urmă şi acesta este tot un rezultat, dar la care ar fi bine să reflectez. Nu pot să mă ambiţionez şi să dau tot ce am mai bun din mine dacă realmente nu mă întrec cu cineva.

Spunând acestea, a vrut să-mi dea de înţeles că pentru el scorul final este foarte important. Scorul final face diferenţa dintre învingători şi învinşi. Scorul final îi mână pe oameni să se ambiţioneze să câştige.

Leadership: Încerci să-ţi asiguri o poziţie de inferioritate sau de superioritate în raport cu tine însuţi, în funcţie de rezultatul diferenţei dintre "valoarea dobândită" şi "presiunea de încercare" ?

Spaţiul de dispută dintre ceea ce este înnăscut şi ceea ce este dobândit, dintre ceea ce deţii şi motivele pentru care lupţi să obţii mai mult de la tine în situaţii în care nu eşti sigur pe tine, comportă o notă de distincţie, stabilind un standard care te ajută să-ţi identifici, ierarhizezi şi gestionezi diferenţele de percepţie legate de ceea ce înseamnă "a fi mai bun".

În aceste condiţii, prezenţa leadershipului e resimţită, parcă mai mult decât oricând. Aşa se explică de ce astăzi leadershipul este reclamat, cu insistenţă, ca prezenţă necesară nu numai în concursurile desfăşurate de către profesionişti, ci şi în afara acestora, deci la "domiciliu", pentru a asigura dorinţa de afirmare şi exprimare personală.

O dimensiune inconfundabilă, ce ţine de tendinţele interpersonale, este poziţia (de inferioritate sau superioritate), cu o notă dominantă de interes pentru ceea ce rămâne de descoperit: calitatea performanţelor proprii.

Uneori, poziţia pe care ţi-o construieşti şi o adopţi în raport cu cei din jur, prin elocvenţa cu care exprimi valoarea a ceea ce simţi pentru o realizare deosebită, se poate califica drept un gest disperat sau un act de curaj în condiţiile în care trebuie să accepţi şi urmezi anumite reguli dintr-un joc numit: "Nu te supăra, frate ! ".

În plus, trebuie să realizezi o analiză obiectivă a potenţialului tău de învingător, prin calitatea acelei prestaţii realizate în regim liber, din dorinţa de a-ţi proba potenţialul de care dispui atunci când contribui la un proces autentic de redefinire a ceea ce înseamnă să fii bun.

Asta, în condiţiile în care ai ajuns la o anumită performanţă în modelarea sau construirea unei forme de putere care îşi are originea în nevoia ta de a produce un nou tip de resurse care să-ţi schimbe starea interioară. Marea încercare nu este să te asiguri că eşti mai bun decât ceilalţi, în orice moment, ci să-ţi regăseşti acea parte din tine care merită susţinută şi promovată.

Valoarea pe care ai dobândit-o în timp, în contextul diverselor încercări de a depăşi anumite recorduri, care în fond reprezintă nişte încercări de depăşire a condiţiei umane, te recomandă ca un candidat mai bun decât ceilalţi pentru câştigarea poziţiei de învingător. Însă ceea ce te va atrage întotdeauna în jos, ca un bolovan aruncat în mare, este presiunea de încercare pe care o exerciți atunci când trebuie să-ţi adjudeci laurii victoriei.

Ca lider, adevărata încercare la care poţi fi supus este să priveşti victoria ca pe un fel de fericire banală pe care n-o poţi experimenta, s-o foloseşti ca pe o haină veche pusă pe în umeraş, pe care parcă nici nu ai arunca-o şi nici nu ai mai purta-o.

Liderii joacă întotdeauna pe scor. Atunci când joci pe scor cu cineva îţi reglezi potenţialul la valoarea optimă - rezultatul poate să te ridice, sau poate să te coboare în ochii tăi. Abia atunci dovedeşti ce poţi, abia atunci dovedeşti adevăratul respect pentru leadershipul tău şi abia atunci iese la iveală adevărata încredere pe care o ai în tine. Abia atunci faci progrese.

Tu îţi amplifici potenţialul sau îl scazi la valoarea de repaus? Ce anume dă valoare leadershipului tău?

Este greu sau chiar imposibil să fii un lider, un „cap de serie", dacă te rezumi numai la a schimba mingi cu fiecare. Ca să ajungi în vârful ierarhiei şi să te menţii acolo trebuie să fii pregătit să joci pe scor cu oricine, dar mai ales cu cei mai înverşunaţi adversari.

Oamenii care nu ajung niciodată „cap de serie" sunt aceia care nu joacă niciodată pe scor şi se feresc să participe la competiţii. Astfel ei manifestă ezitare şi incertitudine; categoric nu sunt demni să intre pe "culoarul campionilor".

Un lider trebuie să fie un jucător tenace, cu o voinţă de fier, stăpânit de acea poftă nebună de a lupta pentru obţinerea locului întâi. Numai cel al cărui singur ţel este acela de a câştiga va fi în stare să se implice cu mai multa abnegaţie în joc, şi să se ridice deasupra celorlalţi.

Leadership: Îţi asumi consecinţa victoriei în baza clauzei "Doar rezultatele contează" sau în baza unui screenshot numit "A fost odată" ?

Aşa cum clădirile se depreciază, aşa cum maşinile se uzează, aşa cum sistemele expiră – tot astfel potenţialul tău scade dacă rămâne în actuala formă. Tu îţi îmbunătăţeşti potenţialul prin optimizarea calităţilor tale, sau îl menţii la limita normalului?

Liderii vor să obţină rezultate, de aceea se concentrează în mod sistematic la „jocul” pe care îl fac. Este oare posibil să fii lider fără să te intereseze rezultatele? Răspunsul este NU. Liderii îşi analizează potenţialul în funcţie de rezultatele obţinute de ei, cât şi de cele obţinute de ceilalţi „competitori”. Cei care nu sunt interesaţi de rezultate se îndepărtează încet, încet, de pe „culoarul campionilor”.

Să-ţi faci din victorie un screenshot numit "A fost odată", încât să nu mai existe conflicte între tine şi ceea ce se petrece în viaţa ta, sau între ceea ce poţi realiza şi ceea ce te frământă, este similar cu a întreba „Cum pot trăi autentic?”

Este ca şi când ai face alpinism având încredere în ceva sau în concordanță cu valorile personale, dar fără să-ţi înfăşori cum trebuie frânghia în jurul mijlocului.

Şi totuşi este posibil, mai ales atunci când te dai ceea ce nu eşti. Când ceea ce te leagă de un om puternic este o victorie nemeritată, obţinută din greşeală sau cu ajutorul norocului. Sau când ceea ce te împlineşte nu este lângă tine. Când ceea ce te bucura înainte, acum nu-ţi provoacă nici o emoție. Când ceea ce te-a fascinat atâția ani, trebuie să capete o altă formă.

Forma cea mai necesară pe care o capătă victoria deplină este viaţa pe care o câştigi prin experienţa numită "întrecere" sau "luptă".

Scorul de leadership este strâns legat de miza „jocului”, iar miza nu este altceva decât succesul obţinut înaintea celorlalţi competitori de pe piaţă. Unde nu este miză nu poate exista luptă, respectiv competiţie. „Jocul” se consideră terminat când unul dintre competitori şi-a atins scopul urmărit de toţi, iar scorul final arată pe ce poziţie se află fiecare competitor.

A pierde nu înseamnă întotdeauna neapărat un eşec. Analizând cauzele eşecului şi remediindu-le, aducând îmbunătăţiri şi inovări, scorul se poate modifica în favoarea ta, iar din învins să devii învingător.

Se vor deschide ei, odată, ochii care văd

On Mai 27, 2023

Arta nu reprezintă vizibilul, ci este puterea de a face vizibilă continuitatea dintre trup şi suflet, într-un maraton al emoţiilor.

Am alergat cu prietenii mei în lanul de răpită, şi am alergat cu sufletul la gură, cu inima deschisă, ca şi când aş fi păşit pe urmele unui pictor care şi-a propus să înfăţişeze cât mai fidel viaţa şi frumuseţea ei, într-un fel uluitor. Pentru prima oară după mult timp, după un fel de pauză între două alternative: abandon şi mobilitate, am simţit şi am gustat din acea libertate copilărească, din acel concept filosofic a cărui semnificaţie este "absenţa constrângerilor", fapt care face posibilă obţinerea spaţiilor de autonomie, deschiderea către lume şi către noi experienţe (de neuitat).

Şi ce aer de sărbătoare au toate amintirile acelei minunate zile, surprinse pe o pânză de culoare deschisă de pictorul unui tablou impresionist. Un tablou plin de culori vii, aducător de energie pozitivă, menit să îmi reamintească de bucuria de a trăi. Evident, impactul exterior poate fi determinat doar de conştiinţa propriei valori, insuflată de acea forţă de reînnoire mereu activă, mai ales de acea pură spontaneitate pe care numai pictorul o poate vedea atunci când foloseşte accente valorice şi cromatice în scopul dinamizării ritmului plastic şi a vibraţiilor cromatice.

Şi am alergat, şi am alergat, aproape o zi întreagă. Fiecare din noi a trăit o clipă de pace intensă, lăsându-ne în voia tentaţiei de a folosi timpul ca pe un munte vrăjit, un spaţiu fără început și sfârșit, dorind să-l transformăm din infinit în ceva mai palpabil și mai finit, dincolo de rostul mângâietor al unui Etacecituben Vorigeneh Hugahanat, partea intrinsecă a unui prezent totdeauna luminos. Era ca şi când am fi făcut parte dintr-un ambiţios proiect de restituire a operei unui pictor desăvârşit care, identificându-se total cu impresionismul, trezind un sentiment de uimire, stimă, mândrie şi nostalgie în acelaşi timp, a ales să vadă, să amplifice frumusețea și lumina din oameni, din tot ceea ce-l înconjoară.

Leadership: Poţi să te integrezi într-un tablou care marchează debutul unei arte abstracte, convingând privitorul că există adâncime acolo unde de fapt nu există decât aparenţe?

Era un galben viu peste tot, înconjurându-ne ca un inel luminos cu un contur neregulat, reprezentat simbolic într-o pictură care transmite perfect sentimentul de integritate și luminozitate a percepției vizuale a naturii. Era o evadare dintr-o lume care promite doar indiferenţă şi obscuritate, un abandon mişcător într-un spaţiu liber și vast, conform stilului unei arte ce surprinde viaţa dintr-o cu totul şi cu totul altă lumină. De fapt, totul se petrecerea în corelare cu revelaţia unei alte lumi, a unei ordini misterioase, a unui continuum spaţio-temporal care, o dată întrezărit, greu poate fi uitat. Exact ca într-o operă de Eliade.

Simţeam că exist, că trăiesc într-un soi de dedublare între narator şi protagonist, pentru că existau ochii aceia de artist care aşteptau să mă transporte brusc într-un alt spaţiu, într-o falie a realului deschisă între două lumi distincte, dintre care una este povestea memorată, iar cealaltă este cutia de rezonanţă a ecourilor unei întregi generaţii de tineri artişti. Cred că toţi eram artişti într-o pictură finalizată în aer liber care, în momentul exploziei impresioniste, reușește să convingă privitorul că există adâncime acolo unde de fapt nu există decât aparenţe.

Individul unic în sine, înseamnă o sută de mii pentru alţii, adică în ochii altora el se vede doar pe sine, împăcat cu ideea de libertate pe modelul permisivităţii, distingându-se într-un tablou în care ceilalţi rămân închişi, aşteptând ca el să dea tonul. În acel moment de mare bucurie, pe care toţi l-au aşteptat cu mare nerăbdare, alergarea prin lanul de rapiţă a fost dovada că în mine există o adâncime care adăposteşte un fragment dintr-o uriaşă pictură, o lume în miniatură care îşi vrea întregul, demnă de un spirit de mare armonie.

Leadership: Ştii să vezi într-o activitate fizică acea legătură strânsă cu arta, ca fiind o deschidere a perspectivei spre un "stop cadru" în timp?

Nu ştiu de ce, dar alergarea a întrecut timpul, cel puţin mie mi s-a părut că timpul a luat-o razna. Nimeni nu se mai concentra asupra alergării desfăşurată într-un ritm moderat pe distanțe lungi, nimeni nu se concentra asupra respiraţiei, asupra ritmului, flexibilităţii, mişcării corecte. În schimb, toată lumea părea să acumuleze experienţă în domeniul picturii de plein-air, fiindcă toţi păreau să vadă în galbenul din jur o sursă de efecte expresive, o fereastră spre armonia cu sine şi cu celălalt, o zonă vizuală care permite afișarea atitudini favorabile pentru actul de creare a unei picturi adresată cunoscătorilor.

Aşa este. Exersarea vederii este supusă unei forţe creatoare care nu acţionează orbeşte, chemând natura la înviorare, ci vine din frumuseţea pe care o ai în suflet, care te încântă imediat cu toate culorile naturii, la modul că priveşte exclusiv trăirea propriu-zisă, fapt ce ţine de dinamica actului perceptiv. Luaţi seama la înţelesul cuvintelor mele căci iată, ochii mi se însufleţesc din nou cu mici detalii colorate care mă luminează, inima mi se încălzeşte şi bate din nou la vederea locurilor care îmi înseninează ziua. Cu atât mai bine. Am continuat să alerg fără stres, și am făcut asta până la sfârșit. A ieșit bine.

Până la urmă, runningul include vederea centrală şi periferică. Concretizat în realizarea unui Self Univers, însăşi actul vederii mele părea încărcat cu simplitatea pânzelor pictorului Rogier din Brugge, despre care scriitorul Carel van Mander spunea că "erau vrednice de atenție și prețuire, deoarece ca să faci ceva la scară atât de mare, trebuie să fii bun desenator și om deștept. Altminteri ceea ce la scară mică ar fi putut deveni lesne o operă reușită, la scară mare poate să dea greș."

Leadershipul împinge şi mai departe paralelismul dintre artă şi o activitate fizică care întăreşte caracterul (şi produce bucurie), dacă ţinem seama de limita superioară a aptitudinilor transformate în talent creativ.

Iar arta nu reprezintă vizibilul, ci este puterea de a face vizibilă continuitatea dintre trup şi suflet.

Se vor deschide ei, odată, ochii care văd. Spun asta, fiindcă nimeni n-a ştiut să vadă într-o banală experienţă de alergare acea legătură strânsă cu arta, filtrată prin pânza unui pictor, ca fiind o deschidere a perspectivei spre un "stop cadru" în timp.

Nu-i uşor să fii artist, şi doar foarte puţini înţeleg cu adevărat arta, la fel cum sunt foarte mulţi alergători care nu reuşesc să se integreze într-un orizont mai larg, suprarealist.

Secretul bine păstrat în spatele contrariilor (II)

On Mai 29, 2013

Fii realitatea pe care ceilalţi oameni o văd în jurul lor, efectuând o radiografie a complexităţii fenomenelor unei identităţi noi.

Laura Quinn. În exterior rămâne simplă şi nepretenţioasă. Dar tocmai ţinuta ei discretă şi modestia înfăţişării ei ascunde un secret, ceva ce este superior în ea însăşi, virtutea de a ridica necunoscutul pe cele mai înalte culmi. Naturaleţea ei atât de firească induce un anumit grad de respect, o anumită imprecizie în evaluarea personalităţii ei. Ceea ce e şi mai puţin sigur este atribuirea unei subtilităţi afective în configuraţia acestei fiinţe ce pare complet străină de ea însăşi, nelămurită în privinţa atâtor intrigi care se desfăşoară în tăcere în jurul ei.

În închipuire, încerc să-i refac întregul curs al vieţii până la îndepărtatul izvor al esenţei ei, aproape de frontiera cu imprevizibilul din marele ducat al sufletului ei. Ciudat, de ce oare devine atât de nesigură în preajma mea, alteori distantă, în timp ce cu ceilalţi pare atât de obiectivă? De ce se preface că nu ştie nimic, atâta vreme cât dă totul din ea pentru a-şi dovedi neimplicarea şi nevinovăţia? De ce oare, în felul ei nepăsător, înşiră dintr-o dată o grămadă de plusuri de caracter?

Pe baza datelor experimentale existente în acest moment, am stabilit următoarea relaţie empirică de dependenţă a constantei ei de a fi: S = A + P. (Sporirea încrederii în forţele proprii se bazează pe existenţa unui Atu major şi a unui fel de a se Poziţiona deasupra majorităţii.)

Complexitatea fenomenului care defineşte o personalitate marcantă se relevă prin semnificaţia acordată unei existenţe care poate suporta sensibilitatea de a pune în valoare lucrurile care trebuie spuse în şoaptă.

Sigur, sigur ascunde ceva. Ezită să se manifeste în spaţiul ei personal, refuză să-şi etaleze contrariile propriei fiinţe, îşi neagă fiecare sentiment. De parcă ceva invizibil, infailibil printr-o certitudine personală, îi alungă firavele speranţe, îi comandă fiecare mişcare, anulându-i fiecare stimul, scindând fiecare legătură cu grupa ei de valori.

Mă zgândăre o bănuială bolnăvicioasă, un nor de neoprit care se mişcă spre o destinaţie imprecisă. Intuiesc că femeia aceasta blândă, caracterul acesta distinct care domină prin delicateţe şi frumuseţe chiar şi în momentele zbuciumate, nu s-a trezit dintr-o dată să-şi pună la bătaie toată priceperea în ancheta declanşată în vederea descoperirii diamantelor. Îi adresez fără conjur câteva întrebări, dar ea se joacă cu mine, mă trimite pe piste false. Ce să cred?

Leadership: Îţi poţi construi o cunoaştere amplă despre om prin interpretarea experienţelor ce suportă transformări continue de tip "swirl"?

Leadershipul, o ştiinţă a practicării schimbării gândirii la nivel individual şi colectiv, se poate transforma într-un neînsemnat "zbor printre nori" dacă nu reuşeşti să identifici transformările de tip "vârtej" aplicate modelului de personalitate pe care îl investighezi, pentru a te putea încadra în tiparele unei maniere de interrelaţionare dezvoltate.

O transformare de tip "vârtej" vizează trecerea de la o experienţă inedită de redescoperire a sinelui într-o atmosferă apăsătoare, la planul existenţei concrete menit să dea naştere la o nouă imagine a dorinţei de a schimba lumea.

Transformarea informaţiilor primare, absorbite din experienţa tumultuoasă de viaţă a oricărui om, încadrate în unităţi de cunoaştere care pot să contribuie la îmbunătăţirea performanţelor tale de bun evaluator, nu este posibilă fără revelarea unei imense realităţi prin medierea verbală. Doar prin simpla observare şi prin angajarea capacităţii de analiză nu vei putea să atingi zonele greu insondabile ale profunzimii umane.

Înainte de a exprima o opinie responsabilă referitoare la intenţiile unei entităţi, integrează-te în mecanismul complex al conştiinţei oamenilor cu care interacţionezi. Ceea ce încerci să reliefezi trebuie să capete valoarea de adevăr - fiindcă nu tot ceea ce e valabil, logic şi previzibil pentru tine se aplică şi în cazul celorlalţi oameni.

Experienţa fenomenologică a unui om care se ascunde în spatele sindromului de introspecţie, fragilitate, dorinţă de singurătate, poate să sporească sensul vieţii lui prin facilitarea conştientizării simţămintelor de preţuire personală.

Este nevoie de o apreciere solidă acolo se simte exigenţa unui tip nou de mentalitate şi a unei schimbări de imagine, de conştiinţa limpede a insuficienţei omului de a-şi stăpâni propriile emoţii şi sentimente, deci de radiografie fidelă a complexităţii fenomenelor unei identităţi noi, cuprinzătoare, înainte de a pronunţa un verdict în favoarea sau în defavoarea lui.

Leadershipul este „administrat" prin evaluarea activelor de producere a unui tip de prognoză la valori juste, printr-o lărgire a perspectivei de abordare a omului, determinând reconsiderarea anumitor caracteristici pe care le judeci şi le pui la zid.

Orientarea ta spre înţelegerea unei realităţi străine, aparte, formează obiectul ştiinţei dobândirii unei noi identităţi în ceea ce priveşte conţinutul unei experienţe de sine stătătoare? Această experienţă care, de altfel, îţi poate furniza oricând un nou tipar de idealitate, contribuie la progresul cunoaşterii sociologice de tip "intuitiv".

Cât de bine te cunoşti încât să nu te influenţeze nimic din exterior? Valori precum "respectul de sine" se câştigă mai ales în momentele când te întâlneşti cu tine însuţi într-o ipostază vulnerabilă, de genul: "Convinge-te că poţi să-ţi controlezi gândurile şi emoţiile fără să influenţezi realitatea din jur".

Ei bine, prin luarea în considerare a finalităţilor de ansamblu (atitudini transpuse în veşnice nemulţumiri), sau a finalităţilor definite de gradul de utilitate sau însemnătate la care omul poate să adere, poţi cu uşurinţă să-ţi iei un anumit mod de putere. Acea putere de a te ridica deasupra a ceea ce te face diferit de ceilalţi, de a-ţi manifesta valoarea prin repoziţionarea modelului de gândire înaintea unei entităţi distincte de tip "Live View" . Aceasta entitate are rolul de a oferi o perspectivă de ansamblu asupra evoluţiei manifestărilor pe care le "găzduiesc" oamenii, uneori cu o frecvenţă greu de invidiat.

Înainte de a fi capabil să produci leadershipul încearcă să trăieşti experienţa revelării sinelui într-un context de "separare de realitatea din jur", încât să deprinzi capacitatea de a-ţi păstra calmul, de a-ţi exersa stăpânirea de sine, luciditatea, răbdarea, ca şi când ai fi singur într-o lume care se depărtează tot mai mult de noţiunea de schimbare.

Secretul bine păstrat în spatele contrariilor pune în evidenţă acel raţionament care observă, analizează şi înţelege în profunzime un fenomen, atât în detaliile lui cele mai intime cât şi în ansamblul existenţei sale. Numai prin modul de percepție empatică, cunoscând impulsurile şi actele voinţei omului, dar mai ales prin medierea verbală, vei putea să-ţi iei un anumit mod de putere care să-ţi reducă efortul de receptare a unei revelaţii despre natura lui adevărată.

Secretul bine păstrat în spatele contrariilor (I)

On Mai 29, 2013

Redefineşte felul în care se raportează ceilalţi la tine, astfel încât să surprinzi subtilităţile esenţiale care definesc identitatea lor.

Laura Quinn. Mai ieri aproape că nici nu te băga în seamă. Dar acum vocea ei este cu totul alta, mai hotărâtă, mai sigură pe ea, mai motivată. Surprinzător, nu-i aşa? Pe faţa ei un muchi tresare puternic, o emoţie intensă se conturează, iar acest fapt consfinţeşte o legătură cu misterul pe care caut să-l deslușesc de ceva vreme.

Gavin Finch. Îmi îngădui să continui investigaţia, imaginându-mi lumea acestei femei după felul în care se raportează la mine. Simt că în jurul ei pluteşte ceva suspect, incriminator, o primejdie. Prea se regăseşte în altă parte decât unde ar fi trebuit să fie. Prea mult se apropie de mine, alteori prea mult se îndepărtează. Inconsecvenţă? Nu ştie ce vrea? Sau ştie prea bine? Comportamentul ei mă induce în eroare.

Îi face plăcere să aştepte. Simte îndreptată spre ea privirea mea îndoielnică care aşteaptă cu nerăbdare acea singulară scăpare, emoţia unică şi neputincioasă care ar putea-o da de gol. Care ar putea descifra întregul ei istoric şi întregul mister al poveştii. Iar eu simt cum se cutremură în prezenţa mea, îi este groază de ce-aş putea afla. Temperamentul şi atitudinea mea de oţel, exigente ca un pumnal ameninţător care pătrunde încet, dar sigur în rana deschisă, îi induce o stare latentă.

Leadership: Tensiunea creată de dorința de a domina și imposibilitatea de a supune complet voința ta celuilalt poate să conducă la recunoașterea unei forțe egale într-o altă persoană?

Palpit de admiraţie faţă de autoritatea dinamică a voinţei ei, faţă de multiplele ei feţe pe care le înfăţişează în diferite situaţii. Merită s-o cunosc mai bine, s-o supun în mod special atenţiei.

Din prima secundă am simţit că este la fel de tare ca şi mine. Nu mă va putea niciodată supune voinţei ei, după cum nici eu nu sunt sigur că o voi putea supune întru totul voinţei mele. Un fel de îndârjire care nu iartă, o voinţă de a trece peste orice obstacole, o trăire deosebită, o firească supremaţie de ambele părţi.

Asta este ceea ce ne leagă şi ne apropie tot mai mult unul de celălalt. Dar în acelaşi timp ne împiedică să ne exprimăm adevăratele intenţii şi gânduri. Unul din noi trebuie să lase de la el, trebuie să aibă o scăpare în acest război provocator al contrariilor. Care va fi acela? *

Leadership: Cum îţi exprimi trăirea pe care ţi-o asumi într-un context de "schimbare de roluri" când eşti pe cale să-ţi construieşti o identitate redefinită prin intermediul comparaţiei dintre un atribut al celor puternici şi un atribut al perspectivei de pătrundere în sfera spiritului pur?

Ce ascunzi superior în tine însuţi? Rămâi strâns legat de virtutea de a ridica necunoscutul pe cele mai înalte culmi? Te foloseşti de un atu constrângător pentru a spori încrederea în tine însuţi? Ceva invizibil îţi comandă fiecare mişcare?

Leadershipul se poate ridica la înălţime numai atunci când omul iese învingător în lupta cu el însuşi. Când îţi rezervi timpul şi îţi asumi riscul de a te apropia de oameni, şi de a-i lăsa pe ei să se apropie de tine, se poate întâmpla să pici într-o extremă nefavorabilă. În special în cazul în care ei deţin o anumită superioritate faţă de tine, această conştientizare a neputinţei de a te situa la acelaşi nivel cu ei te împinge spre o evoluţie nefirească, cu o tendinţă spre o stare de dezechilibru.

Pentru a ajunge la acea trăire de a nu mai judeca pe nimeni, Gavin Finch trebuia să-şi exprime trăirea de ataşament faţă de cineva, fapt ce ne leagă de ideea că tot ceea ce devii depinde de felul cum te raportezi la ceea ce simţi că eşti atunci când faci parte din realitatea altcuiva. El îşi exprimă trăirea de ataşament prin asemănarea dintre idealurile sale profunde (dreptate, adevăr, justiţie) şi valorile cele mai de preţ ale Laurei Quinn (mândrie, afectivitate, tolerenţă, intimitate, respect, protecţie şi curaj).

Ca să pui în aplicare leadershipul, mai întâi trebuie să te apropii de oameni, să-i cunoşti, şi aceştia să aibă încredere în tine. Sporirea încrederii în forţele proprii trebuie să se bazeze pe existenţa unui atu major şi a unui fel de a te poziţiona deasupra majorităţii. Nu te ascunde în spatele unor aşa zise plusuri de caracter, căci acest lucru poate avea şi un efect contrar, determinând o diminuare a stimei de sine, o intensificare a sensibilităţii.

Să apelezi la inteligenţa emoţională înseamnă să conferi un caracter durabil trăirii pe care o experimentează altcineva, încât să-ţi defineşti o personalitate integrată în lupta interioară a unui caracter dârz care nu suportă limitările propriei "finitudini".

Imaginea ta deznădăjduită şi resemnată în faţa implacabilului tău deznodământ, dar şi în faţa neputinţei de-a fi mai mult decât ceea ce eşti, are un impact special asupra celorlalţi oameni. Singura lor victorie asupra ta, singura lor posibilitate de a te cunoaşte mai bine depinde de felul în care te raportezi tu la ei.

Finitudinile care limitează omul sunt acei factori (responsabilităţi, interdicţii, atribuţii, nevoi) care îl ţin într-un loc atunci când ar trebui să se mişte înainte. Îmi amintesc de acest pasaj din romanul "Doctorul Misterios", de Alexandre Dumas. Jacques îi spune Evei: "Aici, eşti cu totul la tine acasă; uşile nu se deschid decât pe dinăuntru. Când le vei lăsa deschise, înseamnă că-mi va fi acordată permisiunea de a intra."

Ceea ce se întâmplă cu tine în raport cu ceilalţi oameni, acea relativă lipsa de comunicare şi interacţionare care te transformă într-un om cu multiple feţe şi contururi, supus tot timpul îndoielii, poate fi foarte destructivă.

Dacă vrei să fii exclus din cercul "suspecţilor" lasă uşile deschise spre lumea ta, acordă-le oamenilor permisiunea de a te cunoaşte mai bine. Cunoașterea reciprocă este drumul de la simpatie la empatie.

Leadershipul este rezultatul articulării unei identităţi care se redefinește în funcție de persoana cu care intri în contact, în contextul identificării constantelor realităţii care pot lua valoarea de "atribute ale voinţei însufleţită de sensibilitate."

Aceste constante ale realităţii pot fi: încercarea de a te elibera de presiunile unei situaţii care te împinge la supunere, ambiţia de a trăi o altă existenţă decât cea personală, faptul de a trăi conform unei porunci a conştiinţei sau nebunia de a menţine vie iluzia puterii.

Secretul bine păstrat în spatele contrariilor este acel element strâns legat de identitatea ta care generează stabilitate sau instabilitate, putând fi oricând extins şi actualizat cu noi opţiuni - până la nivelul inacceptabilului. Căci la un moment dat secretul se poate transforma într-un spectacol lipsit de credibilitate. Iar leadershipul se sprijină doar pe credibilitate.

Ca să surprinzi subtilităţile esenţiale care definesc identitatea reală a omului, mai întâi redefineşte felul în care se raportează el la tine.

Secretul este în altă parte

On Martie 06, 2012

Învaţă să transformi performanţa activităţilor tale într-o artă rafinată care să contribuie cu o semnificaţie de mare valoare în perimetrul unei cunoaşteri capabile să reconstruiască realitatea timpului prezent.

Uneori trag cu ochiul la ce fel de traininguri mai furnizează comunitatea de speakeri, traineri, coaches, mentori sau consultanţi din România (în principal). Ochiului nu-i este greu să observe o asemănare între toţi aceşti specialişti în domeniul discursurilor motivaţionale, mai ales dacă luăm în calcul faptul că tot ce spune unul ajunge să spună şi celălalt.

Pe primul loc la asemenea cursuri se încadrează varianta de subiect care parcă se repetă la nesfârşit, doar cu puţine diferenţe de abordare:

1. "Cum să-ţi atingi scopurile" sau "De la obiectiv la rezultat".

2: "Cum să vinzi mai cu folos" sau "De la vânzare la prosperitate"

3: "Cum să faci bani din...orice" sau "De la idee la bani"

4: "Curs formator de formatori" .

Când văd asemenea titluri de subiecte, pur şi simplu îmi vine să mă retrag într-un spaţiu limitat din care a fost eliminat totul, are un punct zero atât de mare încât simt cum se goleşte totul din mine. Numai respiraţia curată şi parfumul florilor din grădină mă mai ţine în viaţă.

În locul acestor traineri "specializaţi în domeniu" aş căuta să nu mă mai repet, ci aş veni cu ceva nou. Există atâtea şi atâtea lucruri noi de descoperit sau de cultivat care nu-şi găsesc niciodată catalizatorul de energie, care nu te lasă niciodată să uiți că ești mai mult decât crezi că eşti. Iar unii oameni au uitat de legea marii cunoaşteri care spune că "un lucru care se repetă des este un lucru deja banal."

Leadership: Creaţia căreia i te dedici cu însufleţire prin raportare la materialul faptic este începutul unui mod de gândire care poate deveni începutul nou al "Renașterii în Unu" ?

Secretul succesului în orice domeniu se găseşte în altă parte...în lărgirea orizontului de interpretare şi aplicare a cunoaşterii. Ideile noi şi bune vin din partea celor care nu se grăbesc să-şi demonstreze valoarea, decât printr-o nevoie acută de a face din cunoaştere un proces de creaţie continuu, apropiat de un soi de gândire care este începutul unui mod de gândire care poate deveni începutul nou al "Renașterii în Unu".

Iar aici mă refer la un soi de creaţie a cărui punct de sprijin este arta şi o terapie pentru suflet, o ştiinţă a hrănirii minţilor diverse cu o înclinare spre spiritualitate (pe care foarte mulţi au abandonat-o).

Renaşterea în Unu, o privesc ca un lucru special şi delicat, definitoriu într-o creaţie unică care promovează ideea unei asocieri între estetica artelor vizuale şi estetica cuvântului scris, plin de semnificaţii, trimiţând către vechiul simbolism al lui Fulcanelli.

Iar această idee expusă într-o formă cât mai organizată şi cât mai la obiect, trebuie să aibă forţa de a determina cursantul să spună: "Da, asta este ce îmi doresc". Cumva, ştiinţa ta trebuie să conducă oamenii spre autonomie, autodeterminare, încredere în forţele proprii, un înalt nivel de profesionalism, pro-activitate, spre capacitatea de explorare şi schimbare a condiţiilor lor de manifestare.

Mai trebuie să ştii ceva. Adevăraţii promotori ai progresului au norocul să se întâlnească întotdeauna când este mai mare nevoie de ei, şi să formeze o echipă redutabil. Dar mai întâi trebuie ca fiecare să dovedească faptul că ideile sale reprezintă o condiţie indispensabilă a progresului. Încetul cu încetul, se va forma un cerc al forţelor vitale ce vor contribui la poziţionarea fiecăruia pe primul loc în clasamentul celor mai valoroase Branduri.

În fiecare zi devii tot mai conştient de valoarea ta şi nu-ţi mai rămâne altceva de făcut decât să te gândeşti cum poate fi ea măsurată (mai întâi de toate) în cuvinte, în modul cel mai credibil. Evident, sunt multe situații în care ideile nu vor fi în totalitate acceptate, deci trebuie să le revitalizezi, să le dai o altă nuanţă sau să le pui în valoare aspectul natural de "simbol" - şi de fiecare dată să faci asta cu gândul că atunci când îi schimbi unui om costumul, îi schimbi, de fapt, personalitatea.

Dacă împărtășești cu mine aceeași filosofie, te aștept în echipa mea !

Leadershipul este condiţia de manifestare a puterii de creaţie în planul subtil al unei cunoaşteri care nu mai are nevoie decât de o valoare practică pentru a se putea aprecia drept cheie de boltă a viziunii de tipul: "orice este posibil".

Secretul este în altă parte decât acolo unde îţi laşi amprenta personală. De fapt, secretul constă în promovarea cunoaşterii de care te învredniceşti pentru a fi de folos unei generaţii care trece puntea de la un nivel de conştiinţă (la care se ridica numai artiştii) la altul (la care se ridică doar oamenii însetaţi de perfecţiune).

Secretul liderilor

On Noiembrie 29, 2009

Leadershipul trebuie să găsească un atât de imens răsunet în sufletul tău, încât să radieze o strălucire cât mai intensă în jurul tău.

În 1971, cineva afirma cu tărie: " Lui John Lennon îi iese totul din prima. " Antrenorul de fotbal al lui Edison Arantes do Nascimento nu-şi făcea griji niciodată: " Pele va înscrie sigur un gol în prima repriză. " Este binecunoscut faptul că Jim Carey, astăzi considerat cel mai bun actor de comedie din lume, încă de mic reuşea să stârnească râsul tuturor cu o uşurinţă extraordinară, iar Christina Aguilera - fetiţa cu voce înaltă, a debutat în muzică încă de la vârsta de nouă ani şi a avut un succes peste orice aşteptări.

Desigur, te întrebi ce au toţi aceşti patru oameni diferiţi în comun. Ei bine, lor le-a ieşit întotdeauna totul din prima. În timp ce mii de cântăreţi exersau luni în şir pentru a compune o singură melodie, John Lennon lansa un album întreg, şi aproape fiecare melodie compusă şi interpretată de el ajungea pe prima poziţie în topurile muzicale. Foarte mulţi jucători de fotbal nu reuşeau să înscrie niciun gol un sezon întreg, pe când Pele, aproape în fiecare meci înscria şi încă din prima repriză. Jim Carey nu a trebuit să se străduiască niciodată prea mult ca să-i facă pe oameni să zâmbească – firea lui făcea totul, iar despre Christina Aguilera, ce să mai zic, vocea ei făcea totul.

Pe scurt, toţi oamenii care au avut un succes nebun şi care continuă să ne eclipseze cu rezultatele lor remarcabile, cu strălucirea lor, şi-au descoperit talentul cu care au fost înzestraţi. Acesta este şi motivul pentru care ei reuşesc să se conecteze atât de uşor la public. Ceea ce altora li se pare greu, lor li se pare foarte uşor. Ceea ce alţii nu reuşesc să realizeze într-un an, ei realizează într-o lună. Ei şi-au descoperit la timp adevăratul potenţial şi au învăţat să se folosească de el. Iar lumea îi iubeşte pentru asta.

Cât de realist este leadershipul în zonele tale de influenţă în contextul acumulării unui set de valori şi concepţii asupra atitudini şi acţiunii cerute de normele unei clasări pe prima poziţie?

Ca lider trebuie să arăţi că leadershipul este realist, nu subiectiv, în zonele tale de influenţă. Poţi afirma cu mult temei că există un realism în leadershipul tău, doar dacă acesta lasă să se vadă acea cunoaştere, acea expresie a potenţialului tău care rezidă din actul de autoobservare şi autoevaluare a capacităţilor proprii.

Leadershipul este o artă care exprimă însuşirile tale cele mai preţioase. El se caracterizează prin caracterul tău puternic, prin eforturile tale, prin pasiunile tale – el trebuie să găsească un atât de imens răsunet în sufletul tău încât să radieze o strălucire cât mai intensă în jurul tău.

Leadershipul nu e o ştiinţă care se bazează pe calcule, analize şi probabilităţi, nu este o ştiinţă care utilizează diferite metode şi tehnici, nu se mişcă pe informaţii calitative – ci este o artă, o operă de sensibilitate, de gust, de stil, care solicită un anumit naturalism, care se produce numai atunci când îţi pui în valoare potenţialul cel mai înalt.

Leadershipul este strâns legat de structura ta interioară şi tinde către o anumită obiectivitate. Nu e un demers de natură logică, ci o chemare către acea profunzime a conştiinţei tale care îţi spune: „Da" sau „Nu" atunci când nu reuşeşti să-ţi focalizezi bine atenţia la cine eşti cu adevărat, atunci când tinzi să te abaţi de la percepţia realităţii.

Clasarea pe prima poziţie este expresia unei atitudini constructive faţă de modelul de decizie care cere o anumită obişnuinţă a funcţionării în termeni de autodeterminare, cu valoare imperativă: luptă sau renunţă.

Leadershipul creează o conexiune stabilă şi fără întreruperi între tine şi ceilalţi oameni. Dacă îţi respingi propriile înclinaţii şi ambiţii, dacă nu-ţi valorifici potenţialul tău maxim, dacă talentele tale nu ies în evidenţă vei eşua în a construi relaţii cu ceilalţi oameni.

Nu vei putea niciodată să stăpâneşti arta conducerii, nu te vei simţi niciodată fericit şi împlinit pe deplin dacă nu încerci sa descoperi ce anume face potenţialul tău să „ticăie", dacă nu descoperi în ce anume excelezi. Care este lucrul la care te pricepi cel mai bine? Ce anume face potenţialul tău să „ticăie"?

Potenţialul pe care ţi-l dă sfera ta de activitate este asemenea unei oglinzi: felul cum te priveşti şi îţi afişezi rezultatele revelează acea forţă a pasiunii pentru creşterea performanţei.

Ce spunea Mark Fisher, autorul celebrei lucrări „Milionar peste noapte " este foarte adevărat: " Oamenii de succes sunt mânaţi de pasiunea din inima lor. Ei sunt nişte romantici, indiferent dacă este vorba de arta sau de lumea afacerilor. Intră în acţiune datorită bucuriei pe care o au vizavi de ceea ce fac şi dorinţei lor de a descoperi produse sau servicii noi, de a-şi asuma noi riscuri, de a face faţă unor noi provocări. " Acesta este şi secretul liderilor: ei fac exact lucrurile pe care le ştiu cel mai bine să le facă, şi de aceea stabilesc uşor legături cu ceilalţi oameni. John Lennon, Pele, Jim Carey, Christina Aguilera confirmă acest adevăr. Leadershipul tău are un efect de „strălucire"?

Arta conducerii începe cu identificarea a ceea ce vrei să realizezi în urma implicării tale într-o anumită activitate şi se continuă cu creşterea valorii potențialului de reuşită.

Ca să ajungi lider într-un anumit domeniu, ia în vizor numai acel lucru la care te pricepi cel mai bine. Dacă eşti talentat într-o anumită direcţie, atunci leadershipul tău nu va întâmpina prea multe dificultăţi.

Tu cum poţi să produci o „strălucire" intensă în jurul leadershipului tău? Ai un talent anume? Descoperă-l şi utilizează-l la maximum – acesta este secretul în leadership.

Secretul unei descoperiri diacronice şi actuale

On Octombrie 29, 2010

Înainte să reprezinţi progresul lumii învaţă să înţelegi ce presupune acceptarea de sine într-o lume care nu îţi acceptă viziunea.

Iată cum se încheie minunata carte "Robur Cuceritorul" scrisă de Jules Verne, şi ce avem de învăţat de la acest personaj:

- Cetăţeni ai Statelor Unite, experienţa mea s-a încheiat şi pot să vă împărtăşesc de pe acum părerea ce mi-am format-o: cred că nu trebuie să precipităm niciodată lucrurile, nici chiar când este vorba de progres. Ştiinţa nu trebuie s-o ia înaintea moravurilor. Sunt pentru evoluţie, mai degrabă decât pentru revoluţii. Într-un cuvânt, fiecare lucru se cuvine făcut la vremea lui. Ar însemna să sosesc prea curând azi ca să pot birui atâtea interese deosebite contradictorii. Naţiunile nu sunt încă de ajuns de coapte pentru a realiza o unire.

Plec, aşadar, luând cu mine secretul descoperirii mele. Secretul acesta însă nu va fi pierdut pentru omenire. Lumea îl va dobândi în ziua când va fi destul de luminată ca să tragă foloase de pe urma lui şi destul de înţeleaptă ca să nu abuzeze de el. Cetăţeni ai Statelor Unite, bun rămas !

Şi acum rămâne totuşi întrebarea: "Cine este Robur? Se va şti vreodată? Se ştie chiar de pe acum. Robur este ştiinţa aşa cum va fi peste ani, poate chiar mâine. Este rezerva sigură a viitorului. Dar cu Robur Cuceritorul ce se întâmplă? O să se mai arate vreodată, aşa cum a făgăduit?

Nici vorbă că da ! O să vină să dea în vileag secretul unei descoperiri în stare să schimbe condiţiile sociale şi politice ale omenirii.

Leadership: Poţi să consolidezi legătura dintre ştiinţă şi credinţă printr-o reflectare a predestinării tale ce purcede din vecinătatea unui destin de excepţie care îşi asumă o istorie, şi care totodată poate fi rescris?

Ceea ce eu numesc progres, sau geneza unui popor, se defineşte prin referirea la raportul dintre tradiţie şi inovaţie, dintre influenţă şi asimilare creatoare, fiind interpretat dintr-o altă perspectivă, aceea a unei posibile corespondenţe între interiorizarea unei experienţe valide de creaţie şi bucuria atingerii unei certitudini, greu cucerite.

Iar dacă progresul este greu de atins, prin referire la o tradiţie care semnifică dobândirea unei noi vieţi spirituale, deci dacă adevărata credinţă reprezintă o contribuţie a omului la dezvoltarea ştiinţei, îmbogățind-o cu o analiză complexă conceptual-practică a argumentelor pro și contra diverselor invenţii şi tehnologii, atunci Robur Cuceritorul a făcut dovada unei previziuni remarcabile: când oamenii vor conştientiza importanţa trecerii de la o etapă la alta a dezvoltării, abia atunci ei vor putea să aibă pretenţii la o viaţă mai bună.

Cititorul îşi va întări conştiinţa unităţii diacronice (evolutive) dar şi actuale a Credinţei, constatând în cât de unitară a fost şi a rămas ştiinţa de-a lungul timpului, dacă va înţelege că adevărata moştenire a Divinităţii este acea forță motrice a progresului care posedă capacitatea de a se împotrivi și opune rezistență degradării acestei lumi.

De fapt, necesitatea actului de creaţie care leagă ştiinţa de adevărata credinţă, spre atingerea unei dezvoltări durabile, prin corespondenţă cu valorizarea inovaţiei bazată pe informaţie şi cunoaştere, se califică ca o tentativă de a influenţa perspectiva de a vedea în viitor. În timp ce posibilele certitudini ale ştiinţei, conştientizarea acelor forţe aflate în centrul cultivării Divinităţii, au ca punct de pornire experienţele valide de interpretare ale fenomenelor şi evenimentelor lumii înconjurătoare care îngăduie sporirea inteligibilităţii şi controlul lor.

A fi predestinat unui destin de excepţie care îşi asumă o istorie, şi care totodată poate fi rescris, înseamnă să conştientizezi importanţa încercării celorlalţi oameni dinaintea ta de a împinge mai repede lumea spre evoluţie. Într-adevăr, este de dorit să urmărim evoluţia şi progresul, iar asta înseamnă să depindem de evoluţia şi progresul unei societăţi pline de informaţii atrăgătoare şi halucinante.

Leadershipul este consecința unei istorii care presupune alinierea unei întregi societăţi la standardele de viziune şi competenţă a câtorva oameni singulari care au ştiut să spună "DA" unei viziuni extraordinare, acolo unde toţi ceilalţi au spus "NU".

Secretul unei descoperiri diacronice şi actuale îl vom găsi numai în analiza progresului accelerat al ştiinţei şi tehnicii pe care o propun ca afirmare intuitivă a funcţiilor intelectuale. Căci omul care îmbrăţişează ştiinţa este un gânditor care a refuzat să facă parte dintr-o turmă ce urmează clerici din afara timpului, pe această cale analizând tendințe și fenomene esențiale din societatea actuală, şi care poate intra în "Mintea Divină" după ce a transcens limitările umane.

Secunda neagră din timpul trecător

Temperează-ţi nevoia de a-ţi însuşi ştiinţa cea mai înaltă, astfel încât să eviţi acel conflict cu tine însuţi care te poate duce în pragul unui final trist.

Johann Friedrich Böttger a fost un alchimist, chimist și inventator german. El a fost cel care a inventat porțelanul de Saxonia, ducând la întemeierea unei industrii care a devenit tradiţională în Europa. Cu toate acestea, soarta lui a fost una neaşteptat de înşelătoare. Iată ce aflăm despre celebrul alchimist de la scriitorul M. Solomon, în cartea "Lumini în Retortă":

La 23 ianuarie 1710, regele poloniei Frederick Augustus semnează un decret prin care înfiinţează o manufactură de porţelan, ale cărei venituri aveau să cotribuie la îmbunătăţirea situaţiei finainciare a Saxoniei, grav zdruncinată după invazia lui Carol al XII-lea al Suediei. Decretul conferă drepturi speciale persoanelor eminente care se ocupă de producerea porţelanului alb.

Dar Bottger se află în arest, sub ameninţarea pedepsei cu moartea pentru o ipotetică înşelătorie. Îl slujeşte pe rege doar pentru a-şi câştiga libertatea. Astfel, încurajat de succesul descoperiri sale, alchimistul trece la noi încercări. El este urmărit de gândul găsirii unei argile cu aceleaşi proprietăţi de vitrifiere, dar de culoare albă. Şi reuşeşte.

Regele este foarte mulţumit de munca lui Bottger care, la rândul lui, se simte îndreptăţit să-şi ceară eliberarea. Dar Frederick Augustus nu vrea să scape din mână un om de o asemenea valoare, îi impută mereu câte o vină ipotetică, sau o datorie, sau diverse erori. Aur nu ştia să facă Bottger, dar porţelan dur ştia prea bine. Şi acest secret trebuia păstrat.

Bottger a rămas prizonierul regelui toată viaţa. La vârsta de 35 de ani, în 1719, el moare sărac, chinuit de dorinţa de libertate, ros de alcoolismul la care l-a împins tragica soartă. După moartea lui Bottger, regele a continuat să încaseze veniturile aduse de manufactura din Meissen.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti capacitatea de a reacţiona eficient la situaţiile de viaţă mai puţin predictibile, încât să obţii o viziune mai clară asupra asupra relaţiei "condiţionare-sacrificiu"?

În înţelegerea raporturilor de dependenţă între dezvoltarea vieţii sociale şi a celei cultural-profesionale, nu ezit să-i atenţionez şi chiar să-i reproşez aceluia cu o viziune prea încărcată asupra relaţiei: condiţionare-sacrificiu. Un astfel de om merge pe linia cea mai avansată, dar şi cea mai subţire, auto-reducându-se la prototipul omului modern, al descoperitorului, al omului de ştiinţă care poate întâmpina, stoic, orice reţineri de natură emoţională.

Esenţa vieţii lui se poate pierde în esenţa timpului, pentru satisfacerea nobilei sale dorinţe de a şti, de a pătrunde în secretele lucrurilor, din centrul marilor cuceriri din culisele ştiinţei. În tot acest timp de căutări ale adevărurilor neştiute, forţa lui spirituală şi emoţională se poate estompa încetul cu încetul. O coroană de lauri care cu greu se vestejeşte şi lasă urme adânci în propria fiinţă, cu atât mai mult cu cât peste ştiinţa de a accepta cine eşti se suprapune ştiinţa de a trăi în armonie cu o realitate autoimpusă.

Ori de câte ori încerci să ieşi din rutina cu care te-ai obişnuit, în încercarea de a-ţi dezvolta potenţialul de leadership, te afli în faţa porţii adverse: logica şi raţiunea. După ce-ai trecut superb de toţi adversarii, vrei să deschizi scorul. Raţiunea ta de a fi şi propria-ţi identitate se modifică brusc. Şi tot ce faci gravitează în jurul noului tău moment de a înscrie un succes. Dar ele pot ajunge să fie în contradicţie cu raţiunea celorlalţi. Te bucuri, dar în acelaşi timp cineva pierde - Egoul tău.

Leadership: Descoperile tale te obligă să-ţi aduci aportul la constituirea unei noi imagini despre tine ca dependent de un "cost" semnificativ de întreţinere a vieţii, sub aspectul validării unei singure opţiuni posibile de justificare a deciziilor de a nu te plafona?

Greşeala enormă pe care a făcut-o Bottger a fost aceea că rezultatul experienţelor sale a ajuns la urechea unor oameni puternici, fără să propună în prealabil un contract pe măsura valorii descoperirii sale. Şi nu doar atât, el a fost "săltat" din planul vieţii normale fiindcă a susţinut că poate obţine aurul prin transmutarea aramei, afirmaţie care la vremea respectivă a fost doar o amăgire. Practic, i-a lipsit capacitatea de percepţie a valorii descoperirii sale.

Iar când a descoperit formula porţelanului, care valora aproape cât greutatea lui în aur, a fost deja prea târziu să mai schimbe ceva. Imaginea lui despre lume a căpătat aura unui gladiator aruncat în arenă de un sistem pe care nu-l mai poate opri, iar singurul "cost" semnificativ de întreţinere a vieţii sale a constituit doar afirmarea în istorie, intrarea în legendă.

Egoul este măsura propriei ştiinţe şi a propriei neştiinţe, contribuind la validarea unei singure opţiuni posibile de justificare a deciziilor de a nu te plafona: "Fii deosebit prin a nu te face cunoscut prea devreme", altfel rişti să rămâi prizonierul unei perioade de timp când "toţi vor să profite de tine".

Cu cât Egoul te împinge să te mândreşti mai mult cu tine însuţi, încă de la primele descoperiri, cu atât trebuie să te ţii departe de ochii lumii. Altfel rişti să nu te mai poţi dezlipi de alţi oameni mult mai abili şi mai puternici decât tine, care vor şti să profite de pe urma ta.

Leadership: Care poate fi măsura propriei tale fericiri în culmea prosperităţii, dacă nu te poţi bucura de avantajele unei investiţii dobândite în timp printr-un efort de reconfigurare interioară?

Ca urmare, focul scapă de sub control. Intri într-un loop temporar, eşti sufocat de un noian de întrebări dificile, de paradoxuri, ambiguităţi şi decalaje între semnificaţie şi sens. Scăpări de înţelegere a cauzelor şi efectelor. Ceea ce trezeşte o teamă nejustificată de tipul “cine mă poate oare salva”, care îţi reduce energia de activare a reacţiei de orientare.

Iar leadershipul îşi limitează astfel calitatea, prin faptul că nu reuşeşti să te dezlipeşti de acea parte din tine care îţi comandă să te arunci într-o luptă care nu se va sfârşi niciodată. O luptă în care ştiinţa te face oricând knockout, căci nu o vei putea cuprinde niciodată pe de-a-ntregul.

Tempereazǎ-ţi nevoia de a-ţi însuşi ştiinţa cea mai înaltă, astfel încât să eviţi acel conflict cu tine însuţi care te poate duce în pragul unui final trist. Efortul de reconfigurare personală presupune să-ţi evaluezi şansele de reuşită într-o anumită direcţie, în aşa fel încât să nu contrazici imaginea pe care te aştepţi s-o vezi la tine în caz de eşec.

Prima lege a alchimiei ţine de modul cum îţi foloseşti capacitatea de percepţie a valorii descoperirilor tale, încât să nu ajungi să fii transformat în prizonierul propriei limitări în diversele aspecte ale vieţii.

Secunda neagră din timpul trecător aduce în prim plan acel moment din viaţa celui ce se vrea un lider de excepţie, care-l determină să găsească răspunsuri la absolut toate necunoscutele din evoluţia lui şi a altora, disecând timpul trecut, prezentul şi viitorul. Desigur, aruncând o privire în trecut, înseamnă să iei aminte la greşelile importante ale altora pentru a nu le repeta în viaţa ta.

Self Control

Înainte să crezi în ceva trebuie să te prefaci că îl crezi.

Noaptea este lumea mea, la fel cum soarele este primăvara din sufletul meu. Nu doar ca rezultat al efectului unui contrast de umbră şi lumină, de la un moment la altul sau de la un loc la altul, ce îşi au inspirația de la modelul unei vieți construite în jurul cărților și ideilor proaspete ce descriu complicata traiectorie a simţămintelor de moment, mai mult uneori decât prin prisma raţiunii. Ci ca o solicitare a confirmării gândului captiv într-un joc real: „I'm living in the forest of my dream".

Acolo unde viața sufletească încâlcită pătrunde în acceptarea celor două măști: a trăitului în ascuns și a creației prin funcțiunile Spiritului Infinit, pe care închipuirea unui decor plin de mister mi le așterne în cale ca pe o experiență a unei rătăciri asumate, în sfârşit ceva vrednic de făptura mea complicată şi plină de pasiune, se revelează o nouă lume, superioară celorlalte abordări unilateraliste.

Another night, another day goes by, and I am still trapped in the Realm of Twilight, using the Inverse Spell of Forgetting Who I Am.

Ca un artist închis în singurătate, așternând repere ale zbuciumului său în spațiile necuprinse ale acestei lumi necunoscute, căruia i se înșiră de o parte și de alta a cortinei aparenței o slăbiciune numită "I haven't got the will to try and fight" , în primul rând interpretativă, până când voi reuși să o străpung și să o sfâșii de tot, mă cuprinde îndoiala cu privire la trăinicia trecutului, la realitatea şi statornicia prezentului.

Oare arta poate scoate la iveală sensul ascuns al unei identități pline de dark and light , tratând cu talent şi zel maxim facerea acestor luminători cerești - soarele şi luna, nu neapărat mărturia unei conștiințe tulburi sub un cer acoperit de nori? Cât timp mă pot cufunda într-un mister mai negru ca niciodată, în interiorul unei enigme mai grele ca timpul, prin comparație cu distribuția șansei de a demonstra că pot folosi în avantajul meu experimentul unei izolări în cochilia unei credințe oarbe? „ Before the morning comes, the story's told."

Leadership: Adopți o poziție neutră, intermediară, între învins şi învingător, atunci când asupra ta planează incertitudinea realității?

Cât despre refugiul meu în obscuritatea celui mai profund mister, ca în adâncul unei temnițe chinuitoare, sau între zidurile convențiilor şi prejudecăților, care atrage rolul de santinelă în fața unei apărări foarte vulnerabilă, aş vrea să pot să dau aceeaşi replică dintr-o scenă din romanul Doctor Faustus: "De-ai cunoaște spiritul legăturii dintre noi, ai şti că linIştea mea nu-i de loc ameninţată, ci dimpotrivă, totul are la temelie calmul şi pacea, o fericire aşezată şi netulburată."

O poziţie neutră, intermediară, între învins şi învingător, a celui asupra căruia planează incertitudinea unei realități copleșite de temeri şi fantasme, se obține în același fel în care ai tăia o bucată dintr-un film care rulează în negativ într-o sală slab luminată: fără ca ochii să lăcrimeze, fără ca cineva să-şi dea seama ce se petrece, fără ca nimănui să îi pese de aceste lucruri.

Poziția pe care o adopţi în faţa realităţii este un tur al resorturilor cele mai intime ale vieții sufletești. Înainte de a te angaja într-o depășire a limitelor de rezistență în fața incertitudinilor care te apasă, trebuie să iei parte la acest tur.

Prin efectul angajamentului în obținerea unei atmosfere pline de tensiune pe care o inspiră slăbiciunea numită inteligenţa sufletului sincer , şi pe de altă parte, formele ample, epurate de detalii, înscrise riguros în compoziţia unui "Self Control" purtat de-a lungul vieții, servind a mă proteja de abuzul oricăror vanități aprinse în vârful unui decor scriitoricesc, de marile frustrări şi resentimente, îmi apropii tuşa creaţiei mele poetice de locul privilegiat al neliniștii artistice, de mare anvergură şi intensitate.

Uneori întunericul - You help me to forget to play my role ! - este un fragment de timp decupat dintr-o împăcare cu angoasa, cu care încă mai sunt în contact nemijlocit, minunată apropiere de ceva ireal, dar totuşi posibil, un scenariu născocit de creierul meu şi pus în contradicţie cu atracţia faţă de melancolia recurentă. Un traseu parcurs prin descoperirea unui simptom dispoziţional al vieții în stare de germinaţie, a unei compulsii defensive, a unei formaţiuni reacţionale, continuată cu acea stare de blocaj apărută ca în urma unui eveniment traumatic.

Leadership: Reuşeşti să conştientizezi la nivel de percepţie ceva ce există dincolo de ce se vede?

Datorită contactului meu cu Adrian Leverkuhn din opera lui Thomas Mann, am ajuns să reflectez la complexitatea condiţiei umane, la limitările ei dar şi la posibilităţile de a le depăşi on this night that will never go :

"O operă este făcută din munca artistică în scopul creării aparenţei - şi se pune întrebarea dacă în stadiul de astăzi al conștiinței şi cunoașterii noastre, al simţului pentru adevăr, acest joc mai e permis, dacă mai e admisibil din punct de vedere intelectual, dacă mai poate fi luat în serios, dacă opera ca atare, ca plăsmuire autonomă şi armonic organică, mai poate sta într-un oarecare raport legitim cu totala incertitudine. Dacă nu cumva orice aparenţă, chiar şi cea mai frumoasă, ba tocmai cea mai frumoasă, n-a devenit azi minciună."

Întotdeauna când încerci să te încui într-un întuneric de nepătruns, adânc şi misterios ca o uşă spre un univers paralel unde timpul se scurge invers, asemenea unei întrebări la care nu primeşti niciun răspuns, se întâmplă să retrăiești culminant acea stare incitantă de cercetare care susţine generarea unor noi teorii sau modele plecând de la "nothing matters" şi continuând cu "I never stop myself to wonder why".

Tot ceea ce se întâmplă într-un stop-cadru din lung metrajul realității reprezintă fundamentul unei minciuni pe care o inventezi nu atât pentru că ai fost constrâns, ci pentru că ai dorit să o crezi și în numele căreia te-ai lăsat folosit. Minciuna poate fi combătută prin trăirea minunii unei lumi noi, prin asumarea unei identităţi de simţire stabilită între conceptul de "alteritate" şi "spaţiu privat".

„I must believe in something, so I'll make myself believe it."

Minunea care te ajută să trăieşti este să crezi în ceva care este greu de văzut sau să cauți în continuare ceva care este foarte greu de găsit.

Self Control este însușirea omului de a se elibera din ceea ce pare a fi capcana fatală a circumstanțelor pe care le-a creat sentimentul de detașare de sine. Nu mai ești tu atunci când îți pui la îndoială calitățile, identitatea și crezurile.

Dacă vrei să treci peste un moment de slăbiciune, uneori trebuie să crezi în ceva care nu e neapărat adevărat. La fel se întâmplă și dacă tinzi să te adâncești într-o limitare de natură spirituală, emoţională şi, câteodată, fizică.

Self Leadership

On Iunie 22, 2018

Înainte să te ridici in fruntea oamenilor învaţă să te orientezi spre conţinutul motivaţiei care dă un sens înălţător vieţii tale în cadrul unei opere de artă.

Viaţa mi-a pus în jocul ei intrigant un sistem de schimbări vizând destinul unei lumi tot mai abătută de la planul divin, pe măsură ce evenimentele haotice se intensifică faţă de o realitate tot mai ostilă, împotriva căreia am început să lupt cu stiloul unui veritabil romancier care scrie istorie şi cu metodele unui artist conceptual care vede lumea pictată într-o expresie de uimire.

Ca un excelent jucător de şah aflat într-un continuu exerciţiu cu el însuşi, viaţa mea îşi încredinţează prima mutare caracterului unitar al ştiinţei, salvându-mă astfel de la o rătăcire fără traseu prefigurat înlăuntrul unei teme de consistenţă nebuloasă. Dincolo de toate, am suficient de mult spirit pentru a realiza imediat adevărul exprimat de un campion, că un astfel de joc este echivalent cu părăsirea stării de echilibru primar, static şi sigur, pentru căutarea unui alt tip de echilibru, care este progresiv, dinamic, nesigur.

Şahul se întretaie cu arta în punctul în care sunt nevoit să mă supun unor reguli mai stricte, cu care nu aş fi de acord în mod normal. Dar pentru că ordinul vine de Sus, de la Cineva mai puternic decât mine, nu pot face altceva decât să spun "Da" unui destin necunoscut.

Leadership: Ești dornic de a tinde spre cunoașterea supremă, depășind limitele autosuficienței prin aventurarea dincolo de ceea ce este cunoscut?

Aripile îngerului din mine, bătând cu însufleţire spre cele mai de sus şi mai desăvârşite, avântul spre marea cunoaştere, tendinţa spiritului de a se descătuşa de apăsarea terestră, pun în lumină gloria unei atenţii divine îndreptate spre setea de îmbrăţişare a unei incursiuni în mijlocul unei lumi ce păstrează încă puritatea şi farmecul naturii puţin atinse de om.

Culoarea pe care o dau scrierilor mele, sângele jertfei lui Hristos şi a martirilor, a iubirii şi a focului de Rusalii, un limbaj universal nonverbal folosit în mod intuitiv care trece dincolo de orice limite impuse de condiţia umană, este o aripă de lumină învârtoşată, zburând de una singură spre cele neştiute, dar, mai ales, spre cele voit ignorate de muritorii unei cetăţi învinse, numită "autosuficienţă".

Toate aceste consideraţii sunt destul de hazardate atunci când se revendică o vestire eficientă a cuvântului scris cu italice în versul „Şi eu poate sunt nobil" , în ciuda transparenţei neschimbate a energiei ce împiedică sufletul și mintea să se ridice spre lumină. Încerc să fac abstracţie de apartenenţa mea la contrastul dintre alb şi negru de pe tabla unei totale nemişcări, în felul în care îmi accept soarta, rătăcind fără noimă pe urmele unei reînnoiri după care habar nu aveam că tânjeam câtuşi de puţin.

Leadership: Motivaţia care dă semnificaţie vieţii tale depinde de percepţia ta asupra capacităţi de a realiza o sarcină spirituală, precum şi de valoarea pe care o atribui acestei sarcini?

Dincolo de participarea la viaţa densă a lucrurilor şi fenomenelor, prin proiecţia unei estetici legate de teoria şi promovarea unei arte misterioase, mi-am făcut obiceiul ca la sfârşitul fiecărei zile să-mi pun 4 întrebări, la care ar trebui să reflecteze orice erudit pus în situaţia de a da o semnificaţie statutului său de refugiat într-un ţinut narativ, şi totodată imaginar, în contact direct cu toate timpurile cărora le aparţine prin sondarea abisalităţii sale:

1. Cum am contribuit la dezvoltarea ştiinţei?

2. Cum am contribuit la extinderea universului?

3. Se îndreaptă lumea în altă direcţie datorită a ceea ce se petrece în mintea mea?

4. Ce motiv bun ar avea Dumnezeu să-mi facă o stea pe cer?

Preţul amintirilor care rănesc, servite la masa destinului, capcana imaginilor şi proiecţiilor care mă leagă de viitor, izvorăsc din prezentul unei enigme în care trăiesc fără să-mi dau seama, la care se adaugă schimbarea de paradigmă de la cea a unei revizuiri de tip instantaneu la cea de evaluare continuă.

Leadershipul adevărat nu este o mutare finală pe tabla de șah a vieții, ci o călăuzire conștientă către împlinirea sufletească care eliberează spiritul de constrângerile impuse de circumstanțe și îi permite să prospere dincolo de limite.

Tabloul lumii în care domină negrul şi albul pe o tablă de şah care arde de nerăbdare ca cineva sau ceva să facă mutarea finală, matul unei vieţi cu toate momentele ei de cumpănă, pare a fi pictat cu sângele unui artist necunoscut care s-a sinucis imediat după ce l-a terminat, din lipsă de motivaţie. O pictură originală încărcată de conţinut, raritatea cu care cineva îşi arată independenţa faţă de clişeele unei gândiri fade - ca un manifest de libertate faţă de cele privative, inspiră idea de a realiza o artă plină de intelectualism pasibil a steriliza misterul poetic.

Perfecţiunea este geometria secretă a formei şi a fondului, în niciun caz o culoare aruncată la întâmplare pe lungimea unei vieţi îndelungi care nu-şi găseşte o formă de satisfacţie totală, altceva decât ceea ce simţi în căutarea unei justificări a ipotezelor pe care se bazează proiecțiile conştiinţei.

După cum se poate intui, valoarea sarcinii spirituale pe care o abordez în formarea conceptelor de leadership depinde, mai întâi de toate, de împlinirea sufletească care mă face să simt că am avut impact asupra acestei lumi. Apoi, depinde de mâna destinului care mă călăuzeşte acolo unde trebuie să fiu şi să înfăptuiesc „lucrarea" unirii cu prototipul unei fiinţe umane perfecte.

Leadership: Poţi să te propulsezi dincolo de limitele credibilului, studiind forma şi proprietăţile unei gândiri axate pe imortalizarea destinului omului de creaţie într-o capodoperă a literaturii universale?

Chiar în acest moment citesc descrierea cărţii "Tabloul Flamand", de Arturo Perez-Reverte: " O restauratoare de artă găseşte o inscripţie misterioasă în forma unei table de şah pe un tablou al unui pictor flamand din secolul al XV-lea. Surprinzătoarea descoperire determină o galerie întreagă de personaje să înceapă o aventură plină de riscuri pentru a dezlega enigma. Dar nu e vorba de o enigmă oarecare: aceasta constituie cheia unui secret care ar fi putut să schimbe istoria Europei. Mişcările de şah marchează, pas cu pas, succesul sau eşecul anchetei, mereu pândită de diabolicul joc de capcane şi echivocuri, la care participă nu numai pictura, ci şi muzica, literatura, istoria şi matematica."

Între mine şi cartea de faţă cred că există o asemănare, printr-o incertitudine care mă aruncă într-un păienjeniș de dubii legat cu justificarea cu care îmi înfrunt destinul, exprimată în modul unui pictor de a înfăţişa o realitate net diferită de cea ştiută de toată lumea. Dacă mă adâncesc într-un stil de viaţă care-mi permite să fiu comod şi amorţit, nu mă mai pot transforma într-o enigmă pentru ceilalţi. Aşa e şi cu viaţa pusă în slujba creaţiei, este simbolul unui paradox: ea trebuie consumată din abundenţă, dar niciodată nu se consumă.

Cea mai înaltă menire a omului pe Pământ este să atingă desăvârşirea. Să găseşti fix lucrul pentru care te-ai născut şi să-l sculptezi în înaltul cerului cu mână de maestru. Urmează să-ţi închipui că pătrunzi în plin Orient, că te adânceşti într-un vis ca în „O mie şi una de nopţi” şi devii prizonier în adâncul unui poem scris cu ajutorul culorilor în loc de cuvinte.

Literatura de leadership nu trebuie dominată de teorie, ci de sensibilitatea similară artei. Acest gen literar trebuie să manifeste o deosebită predilecţie pentru efectul de contrast sau de adâncime pe care-l dă o imagine constituită din puterea sufletească pe care o are omul în spaţiul de creaţie, din virtutea cu care omul se simte îmbogăţit după experienţa spaţiului de exprimare a artei în diversitatea formelor sale şi, mai ales, din simţirea cu care omul se îndreaptă spre Dumnezeu printr-o activitate neobosită.

Imaginea care te inspiră spre a face schimbări importante în viaţă este împlinirea unei ascensiuni spre culmile mândriei de a fi superior acestei lumi, a cărei poveste cutremurătoare farmecă generaţie după generaţie de cititori.

Self Leadership reprezintă expunerea în cadrul unei proiecţii vizuale a unui mesaj, a unei idei, pentru o perioadă de timp suficient de lungă încât creierul lumii să o poată înregistra în mod conştient ca un fel de efect al tentaţiei “fructului oprit”. Acesta devine cu atât mai tentant cu cât regulile de construire a unei semnificaţii acordate vieţii sunt prezentate ca o enigmă învăluită într-o ghicitoare.

Înainte să-i conduci pe ceilalţi oameni trebuie să conştientizezi faptul că te afli în marele teatru experimental al vieţii nu doar pentru a fi citit de restul lumii, ci pentru a juca tu însuţi un rol de voluntar în derularea unei enigme numită “motivaţia desăvârşirii”, la care lumea nu trebuie să renunţe.

N-am crezut dintotdeauna în mine, dar acum cred cu toată puterea. Desăvârşirea mi-a fost hărăzită fiindcă am pus la dispoziţia universului o parte din mine care contemplă „cum ar fi să"... şi duce întotdeauna planul până la capăt.

Self-Raising Flower (II)

On Aprilie 23, 2021

Asumă-ţi realitatea pe care o creezi, fără să te detaşezi de propriu tău Eu.

Un om scrie şi altul se simte trântit pe caldarâm când citeşte. Dar în toate lucrurile este o legătură şi nu toţi oamenii văd la fel privind acelaşi cuvânt. Aşa că mă gândesc în sinea mea: bine să ne limităm doar la cuvinte. Deseori trecem sub tăcere faptul că ne acceptăm greu unii pe alţii, eventual abia ne transmitem un salut, crezând că totul ţine de spaţiul din afara comunicării ca să fim împăcaţi cu noi înşine.

Cuvintele sunt cercul de foc al încrederii în sine, miracolul unei tămăduiri care îţi ia orice durere. Doar natura îmi este cel mai bun prieten, cu precădere în cazul când scriu cu aceeaşi mână cu care însăşi natura m-a înzestrat, nădăjduind că astfel îmi voi afla rostul într-un spaţiu al meditaţiei, al reculegerii şi al descoperirii de sine. Devine cu atât mai necesară această apropiere de mine însumi cu cât scrisul capătă proporţiile obiective ale evoluţiei naturii, uneori răsfirându-se în prefigurări inedite de varii orizonturi, determinate de motivaţia subiectivă a susţinerii diferitelor idei.

Nici nu-i de mirare. Am înţeles că viaţa se scurge ca bătaia din aripile delicate ale fluturelui, iar cuvintele mele nu pot opri cursul firesc al naturii. Ele îşi pot lua zborul precum albinele spre o floare a libertăţii, ori spre o floare a purităţii încărcată cu polenul staminelor care, în timp, vor ajunge la maturitate. Dar nu toţi oamenii au ajuns la maturitate.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să înfrânezi conflictele tale lăuntrice prin dăruire şi ordine, datorită unei capacităţi de interconexiune cu natura ce îţi poate individualiza Creaţia?

Nu-i o legendă că florile ce trăiesc din rodul-pământului sunt flori fierbinţi care, asemenea cuvintelor cresc numai din dragoste, din adevărata apreciere a sinelui. Sunt cazuri când fluturele trebuie să se lase condus de destin şi ajunge să se odihnească abia atunci când ajunge la capătul drumului, alteori el trebuie să aştepte până când aripile se uscă pentru a zbura.

Dar oamenii care scriu, la fel ca oamenii care citesc, nu toţi cercetează cuvintele care sunt eligibile pentru asigurarea polenizării încrucişate a florilor frumoase menite să atragă şi, mai ales, să reţină micile vieţuitoare. Faptul că izbutesc să evit orice conflict lăuntric, să duc bătălia din spaţiul realităţii, chiar să produc o hiperbolizare a unei identităţi corespunzătoare cu cea din spaţiul realităţii fizice, dar pe plan spiritual, este o capacitate a artistului de a imita natura şi de a crea o iluzie puternică.

Fiecare cuvânt poate avea un miros aparte, diafan, sublim, poate avea un gust dulce şi aromat, numai dacă ştii să-l asociezi florilor din care se produce mierea, nu doar cele din care se împletesc cununi în care micile vieţuitoare se strecoară fără să fie băgate în seamă. Temeiul creaţiei mele este ideea că orice realitate terestră poartă în sine în chipul unei forţe a naturii redate cu ajutorul cuvintelor. Simplu de realizat la prima vedere, cu toate acestea eu încă îmi caut cuvintele...

Leadership: Îţi orientezi demersurile livreşti spre autenticitatea unei lumi edificată pe distincţiile operate de intelect şi de stările emoţionale provenite din expresiile unui limbaj bazat pe percepţia vizuală?

Ar mai fi ceva. Cuvintele cu multiple înţelesuri. Particularitatea lor este că ele cresc din organele plantelor de depozitare suculente. Alteori cuvintele de acest fel emit un parfum deosebit, specific florilor pe care le vizitează femela albină Euglossa Cordata , descris doar într-un singur mod: AWESOME. Este începutul unei poveşti fabuloase pe care numai copiii o pot îmbrăţişa. Şi astfel, cuvintele scapă de năpasta unor judecăți strâmbe şi condamnări fără vinovăție.

De fapt, cuvintele se umplu cu polen numai atunci când încearcă să copuleze cu florile, sau doar vizitând florile de Anacamptis a căror polenizare este asigurată de albinele ce populează o imagine plină de culoare. Iar mesajul unei picturi care surprinde zborul albinelor sună cam aşa: "Fereşte-te de înţepătura dragostei ! "

Cât de frumos sunt alese cuvintele astea, cu câtă uşurinţă se combină ele în alcătuirea unui buchet de flori în care se remarcă parfumul iasomiei și delicata prospețime a lăcrimioarei.

Din fericire suntem diferiţi, altfel ar fi mare plictiseală. Semenii, îi înţelegem, nu suntem obligaţi să îi şi acceptăm, fiecare rezonează cu ce îi seamănă. Înţelegerea este mai mult decât acceptare, iar dacă accepţi ai multe de făcut după aceea. De multe ori oamenii sunt mai frumoşi văzuţi de la distanţă, la fel ca zborul fluturilor, succesul lor având aceeaşi durată de viaţă ca cea a reginei albinelor. Ei se hrănesc din cartea cuvintelor cu o ultimă picătură de miere.

Însăşi cuvintele pe care le citiţi aici sunt îndulcite cu o miere bogată și hrănitoare de rozmarin, dar nu oricine simte gustul mierii, la fel cum nu oricine simte vibraţia cuvintelor care tocmai pe mine mă conţin.

Leadership: Poţi să surprinzi particularul unei gândiri intelectualiste axată pe cunoaşterea realităţii percepută ca act al existenţei cuvintelor într-un univers încercat de voluptatea imaginilor vii?

Natura m-a cuprins aici ca formă indirectă asupra relaţiei dintre spiritualitate, pe de o parte, şi materie şi formă de de alta. Privind lucrurile în felul acesta ajung să-mi pun întrebări parcă tot mai încuietoare, cuvinte care aduc în atenţie acea predilecţie a unui personaj notoriu din opera Margueritei Yourcenar pentru tot ce este în perpetuă schimbare:

"Din universul ideilor, Zenon se întorcea în universul mai opac al substanţei cuprinse şi delimitate în câte o formă. Ghemuit într-un ungher, la el în odaie, îşi irosea ceasurile de veghe în strădania de a dobândi o concepţie mai justă cu privire la raporturile dintre lucruri, sau în meditaţii neformulate asupra naturii. Corectă astfel acel viciu al gândirii ce constă din a înhăţa obiectele, ca să te slujeşti de ele sau, dimpotrivă, din a le arunca fără să examinezi mai îndeaproape substanţa specifică din care sunt făcute."

Spunând acestea vreau să indic un adevăr al Marii Cunoaşteri: până ce omul nu-şi va conduce cuvintele spre sondarea legăturii dintre fluture şi albină, luând în considerare modul lor de comunicare spre a obţine o armonie a creaţiei (pe care însuşi Creatorul o doreşte şi o va instaura treptat), nici formele variate ale jocului dialectic nu vor apărea ca necesitate în categoriile frumosului.

Marea cunoaştere se concentrează asupra modalităţii de transmitere a sentimentelor sau a trăirilor, cu precizarea că orice se vede poate fi o extensie a unui vis, a unei viziuni, a unei contemplări sau a unei dorinţe.

Marea cunoaştere are ca prim considerent faptul că totul fi poate fi interpretat diferit în funcție de percepţia vizuală.

Self-Raising Flower este începutul unei schimbări lăuntrice care îşi are izvorul în cultul naturii, cum ar fi pământul, vântul, apa, lumina solară, etc. Trebuie să învăţăm să introducem în lumea noastră lăuntrică orice element al naturii, cu care să comunicăm de-a dreptul, fără învăţător şi tălmaci, ci doar cu sufletul. Aceasta este baza adevărată a alchimiei ce permite realizarea progresivă a Marii Opere Hermetice.

Chiar acum, drag cititorule, încearcă să renunţi la concepte superioare în favoarea unei cercetări mai amănunţite asupra sinelui: ce anume face ca zborul unui fluture să-ţi influenţeze sufletul?

Ce anume determină vibraţia sufletului tău ştiind că, asemenea unei albine, trebuie să faci 3.000 de zboruri pe zi pentru a aduce în stup 100 g de apă? Cum ai putea exprima acestea în doar câteva cuvinte aflate în strânsă legătură cu mama natură?

Self-Raising Flower (I)

Felul în care percepi legătura dintre artă şi creaţie este identic cu felul cum percepi legătura dintre ştiinţă şi suflet în contextul cerinţelor unui mediu înconjurător sănătos.

Mi-a plăcut întotdeauna să scriu, să mă las purtat de ritmul motivaţiei inepuizabile, nădăjduind că astfel îmi voi afla liniştea, discernământul creativităţii poetice, identic cu raportul dintre sublim şi efemer. Pesemne, este şi asta o virtute, de a avea o viaţă interioară bogată, la fel cum o trăieşte orice artist al penelului care ştie să se identifice cu ceea ce numim esteticeşte "frumosul unei opere de artă".

Uneori am scris câte ceva pentru cineva aparte, şi chiar şi atunci alăturarea mai mult sau mai puţin întâmplătoare a unor categorii variate de forme artistice au dus în acelaşi punct, la acordul dintre interior şi exterior, dintre convingere intimă şi declaraţie, dintre percepţie şi viziune. Fiindcă scrisul apare în profunzimea fiinţei mele ca un fel de impuls dat de iluminarea divină ca să pot lua de braţ libertatea nelimitată a exprimării prin mijloace artistice, în aşa fel încât să observ mai uşor legătura strânsă, sau chiar identitatea percepută dintre rigoarea interpretativă şi claritatea empirică.

A fost atât de interesant să aflu că scrisul, oricât de variat s-ar manifesta în interiorul unui Inserifamech (înţeleapta rânduială a marii Creaţii), mai ales pe plan artistic, face acordul întâmplător cu percepţia intimă a unei memorii bazată pe cunoştinţe, ca rod al cercetării oamenilor competenţi în oricare dintre domeniile ştiinţei şi vieţii. Şi mai interesant dect att este interesul pe care mi l-am acordat faţă de ceea ce mă preocupa, lund cunoştinţă de nevoia imperioasă de a mă întlni cu mine...

Leadershipul tău poate fi interpretat dintr-o altă perspectivă, aceea a unei posibile corespondenţe între limbajul unei chemări launtrice si limbajul exterior al simbolurilor?

ntr-adevăr, de cele mai multe ori am scris doar pentru mine, fiindcă nimeni nu mai este ca mine. Mai bine zis, am rămas acelaşi ca atunci când alergam vara de unul singur pe câmp, adulmecând parfumul plantelor cu petale colorate care, la rândul lor, îşi selecţionau partenerii de convieţuire din lumea insectelor zburătoare. Esenţialul era ca polenul florilor să ajungă pe stigmatul altor flori, indiferent cum se îndeplinea această înfrumuseţare naturală, şi astfel cuvintele mele să capete caracterul descoperirii unei polenizări întâmplătoare.

Explicaţia ştiinţifică a acestei influenţări "de la distanţă la apropiere" urma s-o dau abia mai târziu, când afinitatea reciprocă a insectei şi a plantei ar fi ajuns la un grad uimitor de empatie, nemaiputând trăi una fără cealaltă. Vă las pe voi să decideţi ce anume simbolizează afinitatea reciprocă a insectei şi a plantei în marea carte a Creaţiei.

Au fost şi cazuri cand înţelegerea naturii şi artei, prin actul de creaţie izvort din imitarea naturii, intuind cumva faptul că o creaţie care poate fi înţeleasă de la fiecare nivel de trăire a vieţuitoarelor, de la fiecare mişcare a lor, s-a făcut prin intermediul unei sintetizări a imaginii circumscrise unui tip de realism care reclamă multiple influențe, de la conexionism la simbolism.

Toate acestea se întâmplau într-un moment de transformare personală, când începeam să cumpănesc asupra aportului naturii adus la formarea artei. În acest sens, mă asemănam foarte bine cu un personaj al Marqueritei Yourcenar care pornise în căutarea pietrei filozofale:

"Căci ajunsesem mult mai departe pe calea negării tuturor valorilor pentru a vedea dacă mai apoi se poate afirma totuşi câte ceva, pe calea descompunerii tuturor lucrurilor, pentru a le privi după aceea cum se încheagă din nou pe un alt plan sau într-un alt chip."

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să aloci timp pătrunderii unei largi varietăţi de condiţii de mediu şi oferirii unei privelişti care aduce exteriorul în interior, încât să surprinzi esenţa artei care încununează Opera Creaţiei?

Natura este oglinda unei arte care îşi îndreaptă penelul, cu delicateţe, în profunzime, spre pânza vieţii unor miniaturi vii de excepţie (vieţuitoare tandre, energice, curioase, şi ele tot atât de credincioase actului de creaţie). Sunt şi ele un fel de călăuză, consolare sau ajutor. Mizând pe această observaţie, pot spune că scrisul însuşi se repetă ca un nou exemplar de rodul-pământului, recâştigându-şi libertatea, nu fără a trece prin inelul de flori ale unei cunoaşteri amănunţite despre "obiectul sensibil".

Alteori, scrisul este posibilitatea de a fi neputincios, pentru că orice cuvânt e "incolor" la fel ca discreta insectă Chrysopa Carnea , care dacă nu ajunge să fie proiectată pe cerul minţii cu o înţelegere clară, poate să inspire o oarecare teamă celui ce o vede. În continuare scriu cu sinceritate, în câmpul esteticii, în plină concordanţă cu nectarul plăcut mirositor al unei game variate de flori preschimbate într-o descriere onirică a luptei dorințelor şi a planurilor de viitor, o luptă mistică ce are loc numai în sufletului meu.

Când alegem să aflăm efectul cuvintelor ar trebui să discernem între liniştea sentimentelor şi dorinţă arzătoare de a fi una cu natura, scriitorul fiind nu doar vameşul cuvântului, ci şi o condiţie a prezenţei albinuţei care adună polen pentru a face mierea dulce şi plină de virtuţi terapeutice.

Or fiecare cuvânt pe care îl scriu aici repetă aceeaşi operaţie de polenizare a sensurilor de îmbogăţire a limbajului, producând fecundaţia unei flori speciale: Euphorbia Milii (Coronița lui Hristos). Chiar şi fluturele are în aparatul său bucal o crestătură cilindrică adaptată special pentru recoltarea polenului din plante, iar dacă ale mele cuvinte reţin ceva din zborul său, acel ceva este numaidecât "Simbolul Metamorfozei". Iar singurul mod prin care pot să exprim bătaia din aripi a fluturelui, în timp ce zboară din loc în loc, este o sumă a următoarelor cuvinte: Ars longa, vita brevis . (Arta este lungă, viața este scurtă).

Iată deci concluzia. Faţă în faţă cu splendorile naturii un scriitor trebuie să sesizeze partea integrantă a unei arte dinamice, expresive, care crește și se schimbă și își extinde continuu gama de semnificaţii, evoluând spre noi tipuri de expunere a informaţiei provenită din jocul metamorfozelor.

Marea Operă a Marii Creaţii este o interacţiune constantă dintre ego şi mediu, susţinută de ştiinţă şi suflet. Iar esenţa artei ce încununează Opera Creaţiei este conceptul de verosimil, imitaţia netransfigurată a naturii şi realităţii.

Self-Raising Flower evidenţiază începutul unei noi forme de manifestare a Creaţiei cuprinsă între ceea ce se petrece în natură și ceea ce se petrece în mine însumi. Până la urmă, am înţeles că ceea ce se petrece în natură se petrece şi în mine însumi, natura însăşi fiind o reflecţie a formei mele de viaţă. Iar ceea se petrece între actul creaţiei şi revelaţia propriului sine psihologic evidenţiază începutul cuprinzător al unei noi avangarde.

Două cerinţe prevede mediul înconjurător pentru finalizarea actului de creaţie: să găseşti o logică în orice mişcare din mijlocul naturii şi să stai la baza apariţiei unui criteriu sistematizator al efectelor produse de orice mişcare sau fenomen al naturii.

Semn că privirea îşi caută încă ochii

O privire îndreptată către sine este viziunea unor ochi care se deschid în faţa nemărginirii unei lumi invizibile.

Am vorbit atâtea despre ochii care îşi caută privirea artistică în frumuseţea unei lumi accidentale, redată în culori vii şi pastelate. Şi vreau să spun că privirea cu care ochii cercetează orizontul deschis al frumuseţilor acestei lumi este o excelentă ocazie de a-mi testa spiritul de observaţie, gravitând în jurul fanteziei şi suprarealismului, ca să pot descoperi în imagini vii întreaga poveste a unei transformări personale fără margini.

Iar dacă mă numesc artist, şi pentru că dincolo de orice artist se află o privire îndreptată spre distanță şi adâncime, unde culoarea și contrastele alb-negru ajută la crearea unei imagini sublime, acest lucru se datorează faptului că tot ceea ce îmi încântă vederea este cântărit cu coada ochiului înainte de a fi imortalizat pe pânză.

Chiar şi privirea-mi, o proiectare a vizualului spre palpabilul unei lumi devenite memorial pe harta ficţiunii, stă bine ascunsă în atuul natural al ochilor căprui, limpezi, plini de viaţă, scoţând în evidenţă aspectul luminos al tuturor lucrurilor, Oshultarityo , aspectul pământesc şi aspectul ceresc. Şi dacă ar trebui să-mi iau privirea de la cele atotcuprinzătoare, doar ca să trasez în creion conturul unui tablou al naturii mele spirituale, şi dacă ar trebui să-mi cuprind ochii cu privirea unei inteligenţe fără vârstă, poate că aş fi îndreptăţit să cred că tot ce este în concordanţă cu arta şi creaţia mea activează o rază de lumină vie care pleacă de la un ochi și ajunge să locuiască în spirit.

Să ştiţi că ochii artistului sunt ca o oglindă nesfârşită cu două feţe: pe una se întinde universul material, iar pe cealaltă se întinde spaţiul metafizic al unei analize introspective care mă pune în prim plan, rose up by the power of the spirit , în mijlocul unui tablou care trebuie să se integreze perfect în mediul înconjurător pentru a fi pus în valoare. Mai bine zis, dacă ochii mei consideră privirea drept întreaga măsură a unei viziuni artistice autentice şi singulare, atunci este foarte uşor de ajuns la pictură prin vederea 3d care arată mai multe laturi ale aceleaşi realităţi, prin rezonanţă cu realizarea Unităţii Sinelui şi a lumii vizibile.

Leadership: Potenţialul nelimitat al creaţiei tale poate conduce la o proiectare a vizualului spre palpabilul unei lumi devenite memorial al unei chemări spre înălţimi spirituale?

Nici nu cred că există o singură privire pe care ochiul s-o cuprindă în unanimitate, există mai multe priviri pe care ochii le dezvăluie numai artistului, cum este acea privire a sufletului care creează diferite convingeri prin adevăr, prin meditație și introspecție, prin unitatea ideii, prin imaginaţie, prin propriul exemplu. În acest moment, convingerea mea cea mai profundă este că alegerea a tot ceea ce este frumos înseamnă să înţelegi arta ca pe o "trăire totală" aplicabilă tuturor timpurilor şi tuturor formelor de manifestare ale credinţei în existenţa unei puteri universale creatoare, inclusiv a zeilor.

Însăşi receptarea omului are loc la o profunzime care se află dincolo de cuvinte, dincolo de emoţii, dincolo de sfera esteticului, în planul mai larg al permanenţelor inefabile. În acest caz, spiritualitatea îşi menţine automat înălţimea la punctul indicat de o Creaţie care încununează o realitate interioară. Iar, aşa cum spunea cineva, dacă avem o realitate interioară asumată, pe care o comunicăm în exterior, atunci avem capacitatea de a modela lucrurile aşa cum ne dorim.

Am găsit vorbindu-se despre acest aspect pe internet, într-un articol cu semnificaţii spirituale:

"Într-un anumit moment, un om l-a văzut pe altul nu doar cu ochii, ci cu o anumită pătrundere a inimii şi a minţii. Şi omul acela, care era doar unul dintre mulţi, devine deodată unic. El apare atunci cu o nouă frumuseţe, cu o nouă profunzime, cu o nouă însemnătate. O astfel de viziune poate să ţină ani, poate să ţină întreaga viaţă. Dar câteodată, după ce trece o vreme, viziunea aceasta păleşte (aşa se întâmplă când soarele dispare din fereastră şi deodată strălucirea ferestrei cu pricina păleşte). Şi, iată că în acea clipă intră în scenă credinţa - credinţa iată în ce sens: credinţa ca încredinţare că ceea ce a fost văzut cândva, iar acum a devenit nevăzut, este neîndoielnic. Cu această credinţă toţi trăim, mai mult sau mai puţin."

Câte destine n-au fost schimbate și tulburate printr-o singură privire, nu-i aşa? Luând în considerare acest lucru, trebuie să subliniez ceva important: ori de câte ori ne călăuzim privirea în căutarea unei realităţi aflată dincolo de cea vizibilă, ori de câte ori privirea noastră o întâlneşte pe cea a artistului care, prin imaginaţie dă viață unui spațiu flexibil într-un sistem codificat de culori şi semne, tot de atâtea ori credinţa noastră în armonia creaţiei, în doctrina creaţiei artistice, se întăreşte, se intensifică şi se cultivă prin însemnătatea pe care o dăm puterii noastre de a schimba o realitate cu alta.

Leadership: Cum îţi instruieşti vederea să afişeze un şir lung de constante ale unei expresivităţi aparte, presupunând că recunoaşterea propriei excelenţe în câmpul estetic depinde de nevoia ta de însemnătate?

Să ţinem cont de faptul că cele mai importante constante ale expresivităţii sunt linia, culoarea şi forma, pe când cele mai importante indicii de sensibilitate ale artistului sunt profunzimea, vizibilul, ideea de infinitate, vederea din apropiere şi de la depărtare. Prin urmare, să avem grijă cum şi spre ce ne îndreptăm privirea, încât ochii cu care timpul ne traversează vieţile, insistenţa cu care timpul se furişează în eternitate, sau în răgazul unei singure clipe de viaţă, să intre în contact cu fascinanta lume a artei.

Lucrările finisate cu măiestrie, operele de pictură ori de sculptură, chiar şi ele mă privesc cu coada ochilor uneori, cu acei ochi plini de expresie, plini de profunzime, ajutându-mă să mă concentrez la exercițiul de a vedea dincolo de orizontul propriei persoane. Faptul acesta presupune acceptarea unei densități aparte a luminii pe care o dă fragila frumuseţe a finitudinii mele într-o dimensiune a nemărginirii temporale.

Însăşi nevoia de însemnătate plasată într-un timp al dorinţei de a percepe o nouă realitate, în universul lăuntric al fiecărei fiinţe umane, denotă că imaginea sinelui nu o estompează pe cea publică. Cine ştie cum se va împlini misiunea mea spirituală în lumea artei...

Poate că timpul va aşterne praful peste cuvintele mele, poate el va aşterne uitarea şi peste numele meu, dar nu înainte ca privirea mea să fi cuprins în limbajul ei propriu, elevat, subtil, acele cuvinte îndelung meşterite, şlefuite şi curate ca lamura luminii, pe care numai ochiul artistului le poate colora mereu cu o altă nuanţă de frumos.

Da. Sunt cu adevărat un artist, mai mult decât un artist oarecare, fiindcă însăşi timpul a aşteptat întâi recunoaşterea excelenţei mele în câmpul estetic, ca să mă investească mai apoi cu încrederea că arta mea a meritat văzută şi admirată.

Potenţialul spiritual al unei creaţii trebuie să reflecte disponibilitatea artistului de a surprinde mult mai realist o clipă suspendată în imortalitate.

Iar dacă lumea mea este invizibilă, neputând fi cuprinsă prin intermediul experienţei senzitive, acest lucru se datorează faptului că nimeni nu-mi înţelege efortul intelectual şi spiritual de a realiza o creaţie care deschide alte perspective de înţelegere a comunicării dintre idee şi materie, dintre ideal şi material, dintre privitor şi imagine.

Oricum, dacă aţi ajuns până aici, înseamnă că sunt deja în mintea voastră, poate sunt şi în sufletul vostru, chiar dacă tot nu mă vedeţi şi nu ştiţi cum arăt. Semn că privirea voastră îmi caută încă ochii...

Semnătura originală a artistului

On August 17, 2018

Oricare ar fi valoarea pe care ţi-o dă timpul şi şcoala vieţii, cel care are de pierdut este acela care nu-şi permite să se conecteze la tine.

Mi-aș dori uneori să pot rămâne veşnic acolo, în acea lume fascinantă a artei ghidată de spiritul viu al prozei incendiare, la fel de răsunătoare ca ecoul unei șoapte de scoică ce se aude în suflet peste timp. O lume în care să fiu doar eu, plutind într-o mare de idei corelate cu eforturile de a creşte probabilitatea de conectare la ceva mai presus de mine, în condiţiile unei experienţe din care să am multe de învăţat.

Expresivitatea cuvintelor nu e deloc gratuită dacă nu îmi definitivez o ştiinţă, un stil, o teorie, căci se adresează mai puţin ochiului şi mai mult sufletului abandonat în favoarea dezlănţuirii fanteziei cele mai nestrunite. De aceea, sunt cuprins de regrete la înţelegerea faptului că arta îşi păstrează şi o variantă de "ratare", aceea care stă sub semnul lui "nu avea cum să fie" din pricina semnificaţiilor ce decurg din comparaţiile cu stările de lucruri ale unei lumi aflate într-o eternă alcătuire şi dezalcătuire.

Reprezentarea fidelă şi monitorizarea imparţială, aproape mecanică, a realităţii, cu o anumită deschidere spre cele mai variante aspecte ale spiritului uman, o poate întreprinde doar literatura în fiecare pagină scrisă admirabil cu eleganţa firească a artistului ce-şi câştigă unicitatea prin actul creaţiei dominat de elementele limbajului caracteristic ficțiunii.

Poate că amănuntul acesta n-ar depăşi semnificaţia unei coincidenţe, dacă n-ar trebui să inserez într-o notă personală înregistrarea nouă a unei lumi care dispare într-un fel de plânset în piepturile acelora care pot păstra o amintire vie despre mine. Sinceritatea artistului este o podoabă a exprimării prin diferite forme și metode, un caz particular al folosirii termenului "asemănător" într-un univers cromatic obținut prin suprapunerea și contopirea materiei de inspiraţie.

Leadership: Poţi să redai expresivitatea unei experienţe de cunoaştere prin posibilitatea de a transmite cu forţă ideile şi sentimentele unui literat care interpretează totul prin prisma infuziei de cultură artistică?

Într-un cuvânt, simţindu-mă atins de acea inspiraţie caracteristică artiştilor care tălmăcesc cu intensitate înfăţişările cele mai frapante ale realului, atras deopotrivă de procedeul de tratare "decorativă" a unei zone de creaţie mai puţin explorată, ajung să mă integrez cu uşurinţă în lumea pe care o experimentez sub forma particulară de a vedea dincolo de ceea ce "se vede". Că doar de-asta am aterizat în 3D-ul unui spaţiu plin de taine şi de imaginaţie.

Încă nu m-am decis ce rol să-i confer personajului din acest spaţiu.

Efectul plinului şi efectul golului, frumosul şi urâtul, mişcările vitale ale fenomenelor şi stările emoţionale ale creierului, pe scurt o distanţă mică între marginile unei sfere de contraste, pot să imortalizeze o clipă de semnificaţie acordată ineditului unei exprimări resimţite de cititori într-un fond sentimental care nu pare a fi real decât dacă luăm în calcul tot ce se poate vedea în perspectiva unui spațiu creator de artă și cultură.

Baza sensibilă a construcţiei literare, sprijinită pe un joc al interacţiunilor şi al vecinătăţilor radiante ale totalităţii - matrice generatoare de mister, de sugestie şi de simbol, într-o artă aparent temporară, se poate acorda la meşteşugul picturii care cere stăpânirea deplină a compoziţiei. Mă simt ca şi când aş strânge în braţe un cerc luminos al cărui centru este peste tot, iar circumferinţa nicăieri. Apectul acesta face parte din legile compoziţiei.

Expresivitatea unei experienţe de cunoaştere impresionează prin posibilitatea de a transmite cu forţă ideile şi sentimentele unui literat care interpretează totul prin prisma infuziei de cultură artistică ce o aduce în punctul în care totul este de o naturaleţe efervescentă.

Leadership: Contribui la împlinirea potenţialului de expresivitate aflat în stare latentă în alcătuirea limitelor de interpretare a unei arte care se adresează doar celor ce nu constituie "o entitate de conţinut foarte rară"?

Cineva mi-a adresat zilele trecute o întrebare interesantă, fiind însufleţit de convingerea existenţei unei puteri de judecată superioare ce se regăseşte în operele mele:

"Domnule Fântânaru, nu vă este teamă că se va găsi altcineva care să vă depăşească în ce priveşte aspectele intrinseci ale cunoaşterii în corelație înțelesurile pe care filosofia artei le atribuie cuvintelor sale fundamentale: „estetica şi hermeneutica literară" ?

I-am răspuns cu însufleţirea pe care o încearcă pictorul atunci când atinge pânza albă cu cele mai frumoase culori pentru a reda un moment perfect, irepetabil:

"În primul rând nu îmi va fi niciodată teamă de foştii elevi/studenţi de nota 10, de indivizii îmbrăcaţi la patru ace sau de aceia care ocupă diverse poziţii de conducere. Ei sunt depăşiţi de limitele de interpretare ale artei, sunt înfrânţi precum Goliat dintr-o singură lovitură de unul mic şi neînsemnat ca David. Marea cunoaştere în lumea artei nu tolerează deloc înălţimea sau conformismul.

Însă, mi-ar fi teamă de tipul acela pricăjit, pe care nu-l bagă nimeni în seamă, pe care îl vezi câteodată vorbind singur, dar care face jogging în fiecare noapte, pe orice fel de vreme."

De aici va veni noutatea în viitor, din cunoaşterea pe care nimeni nu şi-o închipuieşte că va fi vreodată posibilă şi din acea experienţă de viaţă care trece drept o banalitate, un fapt care nu interesează pe nimeni.

În leadership stă veşnic în picioare o singură concepţie: oricare ar fi valoarea pe care ţi-o dă timpul şi şcoala vieţii, cel care are de pierdut este acela care nu-şi permite să se conecteze la tine.

Leadershipul, ca parte componentă a artei ce poartă în sine posibilitatea de tratare a unor zone de creaţie mai puţin explorate, trebuie să dispună de posibilitatea dezvoltării unei cunoaşteri însuşite dintr-o experienţă de viaţă care se lasă citită din unghiul unei receptări care nu îţi neagă vizibilitatea şi convingerile.

Semnătura originală a artistului se revede în dispoziţia cu care el se apropie de lumea coeziunii în relaţia dintre expresivitate şi vizibilitate, impresionând cu vioiciunea descrierii sale, cu iscusinţa cu care îşi clădeşte naraţiunea, aducând-o treptat până la o culminaţie maiestuoasă.

Frumuseţea în artă este să te ştii întotdeauna pictat cu ochii care nu se văd, dar care se pot întrezări în fundalul unei vederi din altă lume.

Sunt mirajul unui trandafir fiindcă mă văd reflectat într-o lume mai pură, însufleţitoare, mai aplecată spre bine şi frumos, chiar dacă sunt mărit și deseori distorsionat de nostalgia unui timp pregnant, repetitiv. Sunt puterea trandafirului de a se face ascultat, înţeles, adorat, prin nobleţea unei autenticităţi artistice, grăitoare şi perene. Sunt istoria nespusă a unui trandafir dublat în plan artistic de trecerea de la spaţiul emoţional la spaţiul unui eveniment literar de mare anvergură şi vizibilitate care presupune, în principal, o concentrare asupra interiorităţii.

Sunt mai mult decât un om, sunt un dar al naturii, un adorator al naturii, un spirit întrupat al naturii. Iată de ce, în artă este atât de important să ţinteşti spre absolut, acceptând valoarea de simbol al unei înnoiri periodice. Pentru că a fi un om de mare rafinament, şi totodată un produs al naturii, constituie combinaţia impecabilă dintre imaginaţie şi culoare, dintre deschiderea omului spre înfrumuseţarea sufletului, cultivarea gustului către select şi frumos, şi sinceritatea cea mai pură.

Am realizat în timp că pictura este produsul naturii judecat într-un fel omenesc, înveşmântat într-un limbaj omenesc cu toate limitările şi imperfecţiunile lui, dar întotdeauna redat printr-un cod psihologic al culorilor. Iar atitudinea de abordare a portretului în pictură poate fi justificată prin relaţia omului cu el însuşi, dar şi cu natura, într-o eternitate a sentimentului de apropiere a divinului, a trăirilor exprimate metaforic, în manieră expresivă, spre acuratețea unei imagini vizuale.

Leadership: Poţi să te angajezi într-un proces imaginativ care reflectă concepţiile, grijile şi preocupările emoţionale ale celui ce se visează ca făcând parte dintr-un demers artistic cu deschidere către natura divină?

Cred că numai aici, în lumea picturii, în tehnica pensulaţiei, în acest pact nescris cu divinitatea, mă simt cel mai în largul meu, altul decât sunt în viaţa reală, cu o pondere atât de mare a emoţionalului în decizia de a dezvolta ce e mai bun într-o poveste despre dualitatea sufletului omenesc. Munca unui artist este opera creată de o fiinţă divină după acceptarea înțelegerii naturii: eternă, neschimbată, perfectă.

Este o mândrie, nu o corvoadă să te ştii înălţător prin expresia artei pe care ţi-o aruncă în faţă sentimentul apropierii de fiecare tușă a pensulei și a lecturării ei minuţioase printre detalii impresioniste. O mândrie şi mai mare este să faci din arta ta expresia unei aventuri a sufletului trecut printr-o memorie tainică a naturii. Dacă prin moarte devenim un fel de memorie a naturii, atunci prin viaţă devenim destinul unei picturi care se păstrează întotdeauna nealterată în faţa ochilor de sfinţi.

Ciò ha portato al suggerimento che tutti i miei ricordi sono fragili in natura.

Este un impuls de mare însemnătate. Atunci când scriu despre artă, la fel ca atunci când scriu despre un trandafir care mă fascinează până la adoraţie, făcându-mă să retrăiesc o altă viaţă, mă delectez cu imaginea mea proiectată într-un spaţiul dublu: al viselor fără sfârşit şi al călătoriilor astrale. Cu siguranţă, întreaga cunoaştere de care mă leagă existenţa visului modelat prin artă este un proces imaginativ care reflectă concepţiile, grijile şi preocupările emoţionale ale celui ce se visează ca făcând parte dintr-un demers artistic cu deschidere către natură divină.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te integrezi într-o lume în care poţi fi orice, cu condiţia să-ţi duci arta la nivelul unui instantaneu de înţelepciune sau a unei imagini irezistibile?

Graţie rezonanţei mele cu inteligența iubitoare a naturii, cu energiile ei subtile, mă simt demn de o întinerire spirituală pe care trandafirul o consideră drept miracolul unei expresivități artistice deosebite. Însuşi trandafirul, aşa cum este el, splendid, candid, de peisaj, mă introduce parcă într-un curent artistic definit de un colorit grav, într-un stil de artă abstractă de felul Rayonismului, prin care pictorul rus Mihail Larionov îşi propunea să sugereze a patra dimensiune în pictură, să dea impresia că opera este atemporală și aspațială, printr-o spiritualizare a imaginii vizuale realizată prin tehnica razelor colorate paralele și contrastante.

Astfel am ajuns să cred despre mine, ocupându-mă de problema creaţiei, că sunt autorul unei conştiinţe noi legate nu doar de frumuseţea naturii, cât de tema naturii Athempisyon (un pact nescris cu divinitatea) surprinsă printr-o comparaţie de excepţie: sunt mai mult decât un pictor, sunt ceea ce pictorul a uitat să deseneze despre el însuşi într-o căutare a celuilalt personaj pe care numai opera literară poate să-l redea întocmai. Sunt o imagine vizuală în pictură pentru că reuşesc să surprind atât de viu, grăitor, colorat, o încercare de a cădea la învoială cu viaţa.

Senzitiv, expresiv, vibrant, trandafirul îmi face semn că aude ce-i spun, ca printr-un noian de gânduri pure, atâta timp cât sunt pregătit să mă integrez într-o lume în care pot fi orice, în care orice suflet poate să se situeze în plan spiritual. Partea divină a unui pictor este reflectarea unor lumi aflate undeva între aproape şi foarte departe, între ceresc şi pământesc, între dimensiunea sufletească umană şi luxul naturii înflorite.

Dacă trandafirul ar fi fost un artist al culorilor într-o lume veşnică, pur, instinctiv, vibrant, probabil mi-ar strânge călduros mâna ca a unui creator de lumină suspendat între vis şi realitate. Iar dacă trandafirul ar fi fost un scriitor, scriind despre viaţă sub semnul ficţiunii, atunci probabil aş fi fost adaptat la psihologia unui personaj care moare şi revine pe pământ în altă ipostază de a fi.

O imagine irezistibilă în leadership poate să apară ca o imagine irezistibilă a creaţiei împărţită între ceea ceea ce te conține (nivelul spiritual) și ceea ce te atrage (să zicem orizontul unei lumi alternative).

Pentru asta, trebuie să fii un artist care trăieşte mereu între aici şi acolo, între trecut şi prezent, între spaţiu şi timp, între universal şi particular, între viaţă şi moarte.

Senianymo - i-am dat acest nume trandafirului meu, însemnând deschiderea omului la viaţa artistică, fiindcă este singurul care îmi ascultă sufletul, gândurile, durerea sau bucuria, contopind în el două forţe: a creaţiei şi a divinităţii. El este specia aleasă a Creatorului, simbolul transformării mele interioare, este chipul lui Dumnezeu transpus într-o profundă lecţie de renaştere, transcendenţă şi reinventare înfloritoare.

Îi aud mesajul şi apoi ţin seama de el chiar dacă mi se pare ceva nebunesc sau imposibil.

Sensibilitatea contemporană reinterpretată în viziunea modernă

On Aprilie 16, 2012

Sursa creației artistului, privită ca o mărturie a unui trecut îndepărtat, poate reprezenta un obiect al atenției sale în a oferi un context de improvizație unitar.

Eisenstein îl roagă pe compozitor să scrie muzica pentru acest episod înainte de filmare. Îi arată desenele cadrelor pe care le va filma, îi expune ideile de construcţie a episodului, modul de confruntare a celor două tabere…Îl întreabă apoi pe compozitor dacă nu va putea folosi vechi cântece catolice. Prokofiev îl asculta cu atenţie, urmăreşte schiţele, apoi îi comunică propriile gânduri. A fost şi el ispitit să folosească muzica epocii. A şi cercetat-o. Dar a constatat că ea a devenit străină sensibilităţii contemporane.

Muzica pe care catolicii o cântau probabil frenetic în urmă cu 700 de ani te lasă azi rece, indiferent. Deci trebuie făcut altceva. Şi intenţia lui Prokofiev se întâlneşte, de fapt, organic cu concepţia lui Eisenstein. Compozitorului i se pare mai potrivit să redea muzica "nu în forma în care suna pe vremea bătăliei pe gheaţă, ci în aceea în care ne-o închipuim noi astăzi". Acelaşi lucru în ceea ce priveşte muzica rusă. Deci, muzica vă trebui scrisă într-un limbaj cu care este deprins auditorul nostru, dar el va trebui înşelat în mod inteligent, ca să o ia drept o muzică a trecutului îndepărtat.

Leadership: Cum ar trebui creaţia ta să își repoziționeze sensibilitatea pentru a deveni un obiect al atenției publicului, încât să exprime cei trei R: "realitate, renaștere și reconstituire"?

Manifestările unei creații artistice, precum arta cinematografică, se instalează brusc într-o concepție de tipul "neo-realist" și sunt, de obicei, empirice. Scenariștii le descriu ca fiind cei "3R" (realitate, renaștere, reconstituire). Concepțiile precoce în care ideile evoluează progresiv ca intensitate și extensie reflexivă, pot fi mascate de profunzimea sensibilității cu care publicul le receptează. Mai ales gradul de reproducere a emoțiilor din realitate în film, prin muzică și prin imagine, constituie un bun indicator al calității și al posibilității de rezonanță, fapt ce semnifică o anumită autenticitate.

Abolirea oricărei sensibilități pe plan muzical sau vizual, prin apariția unor modele repetitive, determină o anumită rigiditate în narațiune, fiind un semn de gravitate în ceea ce privește originalitatea. Așa cum, la un bolnav, cianoza cutanată care nu dispare la presiune semnalează dispariția și a viabilității tegumentelor din aria ischemică, tot astfel în cinematografie lipsa de originalitate conduce la pierderea interesului publicului. Să nu uităm că în artă, adaptarea elementelor istorice la gusturile contemporane poate revitaliza teme vechi într-un mod surprinzător.

Pentru a obţine o creaţie de calitate în cinematografie, este esențială colaborarea între două gândiri opuse: una axată pe sensibilitate, cealaltă axată pe analiză şi detalii. Planificarea inițială a creației, în ceea ce privește modul inteligent de a compune un scenariu, stabilește ideile majore și conturează construcția de bază a unei imagini realiste față de viziunea artistică propusă. În ce privește regia în cinematografie, fiecare componentă, muzică sau cursivitatea scenelor, trebuie integrată armonios pentru a crea un sistem de elemente narative care să funcționeze ca un tot unitar.

Leadership: Autenticitatea creației tale depinde de modul în care emoțiile sunt reconstituite într-o concepție ce valorifică intensitatea reflexivă, pe planul unei viziuni capabile să devină o mărturie a forței tale interioare?

Un regizor talentat consideră că intenția unei creații cinematografice constă în a fi deschizătoarea unei perspective noi asupra realității, fiind un motiv de aspirație către un nivel artistic superior. Mai trebuie adăugat că în cinematografie, este esențială o colaborare între două abordări aparent contradictorii: sensibilitatea artistică și analiza detaliată. Planificarea inițială a creației necesită definirea clară a ideilor majore și stabilirea unui cadru care să susțină o viziune artistică realistă, integrând elemente precum muzica și cursivitatea scenelor într-un sistem narativ coerent.

Pe de altă parte, regia reprezintă un proces strategic în care fiecare componentă trebuie să se îmbine armonios pentru a oferi o perspectivă nouă asupra realității. Un regizor talentat poate atinge un nivel artistic superior prin explorarea colaborativă a ideilor, analiza detaliată a structurii narative și integrarea unei game diverse de elemente pentru a forma un tot unitar.

În acest context, fiecare detaliu contează, iar colaborarea între sensibilitate și analiză oferă o deschidere către o unitate narativă ce permite crearea unei opere cinematografice complexe și inovatoare. Viziunea artistică își găsește astfel expresia într-un sistem bine planificat, care integrează componentele într-un mod armonios și aspiră la un nivel artistic superior.

Tu poți crea o imagine realistă în care valoarea ei arhetipală să conste în reconstituirea fidelă a emoțiilor și în recompensarea publicului cu un scenariu cu relevanță artistică?

Sensibilitatea contemporană reinterpretată în viziunea modernă vizează acea profunzime a emoțiilor umane care poate crea o legătură autentică între public și scenariul artistic. Mai mult decât atât, aceasta facilitează descoperirea unei narațiuni mai profunde și a unei abordări artistice care îmbogățește experiența spectatorilor.

Sensul Leadershipului

Găseşte esenţa înţelegerii imaginii care te uimeşte prin intriga ei neaşteptată, acceptând ca punct de reper realitatea „din afara” aşteptărilor tale.

Îmi făcusem o obligaţie imperioasă din a şti asemenea lucruri, pe care doar sugestia unor revelaţii - cu rol de „ia aminte” - le putea determina importanţa, la răscrucea opţiunilor de care depindea viitorul meu. Într-o imagine ce corespundea în foarte mare măsură acelei realităţi unde răsuna biruinţa tentativelor de interpretare a unor situaţii, acţiuni individuale şi colective, în încercarea de a găsi un fir călăuzitor între zbuciumul vieții și admiraţia pentru înaltele virtuți morale.

O astfel de realitate putea să rămână integrată la nivel elementar de conştiinţă, cu riscul de a se dilua într-o pasivitate condamnabilă, ca un fel de pedepsire a preocupărilor mele revelatoare, fiind evaluată în conformitate cu capacitatea de a recunoaşte emoţiile celorlalţi şi capacitatea de a reacţiona la ele. Concepţia înaintată despre lume, extrăgând minereul preţios a-l perspectivei de a vedea totul prin ochii unui artist care îşi face religie din refuzul faptului împlinit, pentru a-l topi la creuzetul memoriei ce coagulează sensuri împărtăşite de grupuri largi de oameni, putea să constituie expresia supremă a mentalității și artei mele.

În plus, destul de înaintat în privinţa ideilor, simţirilor şi actelor cugetării care îmi puneau la încercare capacitatea de previziune a unei variabile de tip "Tablou", ce includea apariţia anumitor răspunsuri şi teorii sub acţiunea unor forţe întâmplătoare, de care numai o minte plină de asteptări până la refuz este în stare să le sesizeze, m-am aşezat eu însumi de nenumărate ori între modul de a vedea lumea şi modul de a acţiona în limitele ei.

Se forma astfel un ţesut continuu în interiorul parcursului meu literar, de la senzaţia de văz în condiţiile pătrunderii în mister, de coborâre în adâncurile deschise în creaţie, prin relaţionarea cu profunzimile cele mai tainice ale omului, până la senzaţia de a fi participant la crearea conţinutului unei noi abordări de leadership.

Dar întotdeauna o abordare nouă necesită, prin varietatea și amploarea situaţiilor, o necontenită dinamică a vieții şi personajelor care o compun, forţe în mișcare care încearcă să se opună schimbării sau care o acceptă fără să se opună.

Leadership: Te calific în fazele parcursului formator de tip „ghidează explorarea lumii din jurul tău, spre ceea ce poți face cu ea”, încât să produci o viziune esenţializată cuprinsă între ceea ce ţi se întâmplă şi ceea ce descoperi că ţi se ascunde de fapt?

Un fragment din cartea Copiii Vântului de Jorge Icaza, scoate în evidenţă realitatea acelor lucruri pe care încercam să le înţeleg, acele piese importante necesare în completarea „tabloului” pe care trebuia să le şlefuiesc bine înainte de a le da o anumită culoare în lucrările mele.

"Într-o după-amiază de vară, atotputernicul preot de la Guagraloma a fost chemat să dea sfânta împărtăşanie unui om care trăgea să moară. Dar în cale i-a ieşit diavolul. Un grup de metişi făcuseră cerc în jurul unei palpitante lupte de cocoşi, râzând şi făcând prinsori. Ce mai contează un muribund, când intervine un joc bănesc şi o miză pe măsură?

După ceva vreme, în mijlocul strigătelor şi comentariilor de la sfârşitul luptei, se ivi un copil, plângând şi gâfâind din cauza urcuşului greu. Apropiindu-se de preot, îi spuse: "A murit ! A murit, părinte ! " Se înţelege că a murit, cine spune altfel? A primit două lovituri în cap ca nişte gloanţe ! răspunse preotul, tremurând de emoţie.

Nu, nu, ci de friguri a murit, în cocioaba lui. Toţi l-au părăsit... Acum nu mai are nevoie de nimic... Nu mai are nevoie de nimeni, a oftat adânc băiatul. Şi abia în acel moment i-a fost uşor să descopere în surâsul dulceag şi slugarnic al preotului lăcomia vicleană, lipsită de scrupule."

În fiecare om cu sutană se ascunde un vrăjitor, şi este uşor de înţeles că binele sau răul atârnă, după cum zicea Schopenhauer, mai ales de ceea ce se află în el însuşi şi se petrece înăuntrul lui.

Iar tabloul pe care îl conturează un scriitor interesat de redarea umanului, lucrând la portrete vii inspirate din realitate, ceea de admirăm la profunzimea şi perspectiva imaginii pe care textul său îl aduce în prim plan, este modalitatea de a surprinde tocmai acel ceva dinăuntrul omului care iese la iveală atunci când realitatea "din afara" aşteptărilor sale are o mare influenţă asupra lui însuşi.

Leadership: Ce ai la îndemână ca să controlezi emoţia descoperirii unor frânturi de adevăruri izvorâte din experienţele vieţii, în interacţiunea cu imaginea unei noi versiuni de realitate care te introduce automat în concursul unei cauze care nu înlătură caracterul şi urmările faptei?

Realitatea „din afara” aşteptărilor, creată de caracterele cele mai atipice, surprinde toate acele împrejurări cu impact sporit care susțin sau paralizează emoţia descoperirii unor adevăruri sau frânturi de adevăruri, izvorâte din experienţele vieții, din impresiile asupra celorlalți și care îți produc plăcere sau neplăcere, dorință sau repulsie, simpatie sau antipatie.

Drept pentru care avem de ales între a presupune că înțelegerea leadershipului, axată pe acceptarea diferenţelor dintre bine și rău produse de recunoaşterea adevăratului potențialul uman, se află în fazele parcursului formator de tip „ ghidează explorarea lumii din jurul tău, spre ceea ce poți face cu ea ". Și faptul că roadele vieții, așa cum o înțelegem și o dorim, acele părţi pe care le putem controla şi acelea pe care nu le putem accepta ca fiind normale, se află la intersecția dintre măreţie și josnicie.

A ghida propria explorare a lumii din jurul tău spre ceea ce poţi face cu ea, înseamnă să te apropii de o înţelegere clară a adevărurilor care se ascund în spatele aparenţelor şi să optezi pentru faţada esenţei a ceea ce rămâne în tine după ce ai acceptat totul.

Esenţa înţelegerii leadershipului este asemănătoare procesului însuşirii scrisului cel mai pătrunzător: se dezvăluie prin parcurgerea unui dificil și tulburător drum.

Mai întâi trebuie să suporţi un timp îndelungat consecinţa manifestării unui eveniment extern fiinţei tale, a cărui efecte cresc posibilitatea producerii unei game variate de trăiri. Apoi trebuie să-l accepţi în realitatea existenței tale drept punct de reper pentru determinarea poziţiei tale dominante: de moderator al unei imagini generale severe, de revelator al unei semnificaţii mai nuanţate a lumii sau de om care suportă cu stoicism acea presiune a unor revelaţii care nu concordă cu setul de valori urmat și promovat în lume.

Singurul lucru pe care îl ai la îndemână ca să controlezi emoţia descoperirii unor adevăruri incomode sau derutante izvorâte din experienţele vieţii este acea motivaţie moderată de conştientizare a celorlalte contexte şi valori din viaţa ta care să favorizeze o nouă traiectorie a ascensiunii spirituale.

Ascensiunea spirituală urmăreşte doar manifestarea binelui şi a alegerii de a rămâne fidel credinţelor bazate pe smerenie, toleranţă, dăruire de sine şi iubire pentru om şi umanitate.

Sensul leadershipului este dat de parcursul pe care îl ai de urmat după trecerea intersecţiei dintre modul de a vedea lumea şi modul de a acţiona în limitele ei, dintre adevărurile constatate independent de propria ta voinţă şi acceptarea unei realităţi evaluată în conformitate cu capacitatea de a recunoaşte emoţiile celorlalţi şi capacitatea de a reacţiona la ele.

Sensul omului într-un vis numit realitate

Visul este o lume sublimată a cărei realitate, transpusă pe un plan superior de existenţă, poate să dezvolte sentimente înălţătoare, de natura intelectuală.

Viaţa mea pare să fie povestea unei dedublări a fiinţei mele, datorată în parte unui fel de pătrundere în interiorul unui vis care m-a impresionant într-o aşa de mare măsură încât şi acum simt cum sunt atras de o forţă spirituală ieşită din comun. Este, şi aceasta, o caracteristică a artistului rafinat care, excelând prin bogăţia fanteziei, capătă dedublare prin forţa şi farmecul discursiv al unei experienţe de transformare a realităţii obiective într-un univers interior inedit.

Visul însuşi, actul eliberării de presiunea zilnică, fuga de banalitate, faptul de a fi parte dintr-un ansamblu de imagini, idei, emoţii, senzaţii, într-un montaj de decoruri şi momente alternativ îmbinate într-un plan nemaiîntâlnit (artistic şi interpretativ în acelaşi timp), mă face să tresar din contemplarea aflată la limita cu nostalgia. Pe plan spiritual, visul în care îmi întrupez cu înțelepciune puterea artistică este victoria unui suflet care caută mereu o imagine de dincolo de aparenţe.

Nu degeaba creaţia mea este dată unui vis atât de înalt, încât foarte puţini îl pot cuprinde cu mintea, cu sufletul, cu acel instinct al artei care nu acceptă înţelegerea simbolisticii decât printr-o străduință încordată.

Leadership: Imaginea cu care îţi poţi transforma realitatea este o reconectare la acea parte din tine care are curajul să accepte că ceea ce ai devenit este de fapt ceea ce îţi lipseşte?

La urma urmelor, visul este doar un vis, dar în interiorul lui există viaţă, exista opere de artă nemaipomenite, există tot ceea ce nu se vede în realitatea lumii obişnuite, fiind perceput cu lupa unei versiuni reinterpretate a adevărurilor ascunse sub fardul unor aparențe schimbătoare. Dacă lucrurile stau astfel, atunci un artist nu poate fi decât visătorul care visează şi apoi trăieşte în vis.

Iar dacă visul mă face să simt că mă ridic deasupra tuturor situaţiilor ambigue, ambivalente, prea complexe, constituite din perspectiva unei lumi care a hotărât să păstreze în durata ei de viaţă doar lucrurile materiale, asta se datorează umilinţei cu care omul spiritual se cufundă în omul fizic sensibil, uitându-se înainte la ceva ce Dumnezeu a promis, care încă nu a fost creat, dar a fost visat spre a deveni o creaţie nemuritoare.

Cumva, imi lipseşte puterea de a accepta faptul că ceea ce reprezint în această lume nu este un act de cunoaştere prin care, ordonând semnificaţiile, se introduce un sens specific. Mai degrabă, ceea ce sunt, este strâns legat de posibilitatea unei reflexii involuntare într-o existenţă perpetuă, dar anonimă şi imaterială, din care aspectele practice ale vieţii par să fi dispărut cu desăvârşire.

Şi dacă sunt parte dintr-un vis plăsmuit cu suflet de artist, superiori potentia spiritualis submissionem, este pentru că în vis sunt întotdeauna mai deschis cu mine însumi. Forţă şi farmec discursiv capătă o asemenea dedublare a mea, ca o a doua persoană inclusă în dialogul-monolog dintre reflexie şi imaginaţie, dintre percepţie şi iluzie. La urma urmelor, arta este visul întregii creaţii care se repetă la nesfârşit prin intermediul aceloraşi visători.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi induci prin autosugestie o altă imagine a fiinţei tale, încât ceea ce proiectezi în dimensiunile creaţiei şi ale realităţii să deschidă o fereastră între timp şi spaţiu?

Asemenea consideraţii m-au condus la o estetică diferenţiată a permanentei transformării mele. Am devenit altcineva, vizibil distins prin alte nuanţe decât aceea a stocării vitalității personale într-un cosmopolitanism multistratificat, în oricare din modalităţile de contact cu privirea mea din altă lume, din altă realitate.

Am înţeles că întinderea minţii mele este mai amplă decât cerul şi pământul, immortale et aeternae , asemănătoare cu cea spiritelor sublime ataşate de multiplicitatea stărilor existenţei manifestate reflexiv printr-un Vidhysonsum (unitatea unei multiplicităţi, o unitas multiplex).

Încă demult, mi-am dat seama că fiecare om este parte dintr-o creaţie care mai întâi a fost vis, apoi a devenit realitate. Celelalte forme de artă: muzicală, vizuală, lingvistică, convenţionale sau neconvenţionale, adoptă un punct de vedere dinamic, aşa cum o cere natura lucrurilor. Dar ca să ajungă la nivel de "operă de artă", adică să aibă însuşirea de a fi o plăsmuire autotelică expresivă şi originală, ele trebuie să treacă prin filtrul subiectivităţii, prin filtrul intransigent al unui al treilea ochi care are o conexiune spirituală cu o stare evolutivă de conştiinţă.

Mă întreb dacă nu cumva fac parte dintr-un vis oarecare, ce nu lasă o impresie vizibilă. Sau poate că sunt însăşi proiecţia creaţiei mele din realitate. O altă metamorfoză a fiinţei mele aşteaptă să se desfăşoare? Fiindcă singura operă de artă care îmi reflectă realitatea este o formă de gândire distinctă, o formă de manifestare a subconştientului ce constă într-o succesiune de imagini care mă fac să trăiesc o experienţă transformatoare, o treaptă către autocunoaştere.

Leadership: Poţi trece prin filtrul individualităţii tale întreg materialul experienţei directe, cât şi sugestiile provenite din imaginile văzute într-un nou context care oferă foarte multe informaţii despre o lume "sublimată"?

Visul este ca o bibliotecă care îşi recuperează cărţile pierdute, sau degradate în timp. Iar dacă am fost vreodată înţelept, şi fiindcă marea înţelepciune se trage din studiul artelor şi esteticii, este pentru că am recunoscut în visul meu o altă imagine a fiinţei mele sincretice. Şi tot în vis mi-a apărut un trandafir, simbol al tainei divine, a cărui pecete este DISTINCŢIA şi SINCERITATEA, puritati et nobilitatis . Şi tocmai despre această bibliotecă vorbeşte Umberto Eco în romanul său de căpătâi, "În numele trandafirului":

"Nimeni în afară de două persoane nu intră în ultimul cat al Edificiului. Nimeni nu trebuie. Nimeni nu poate. Nimeni, chiar dacă ar voi, nu ar izbuti. Biblioteca se apără singură, este de nepătruns ca şi adevărul pe care-l găzduieşte, amăgitoare ca şi minciunile pe care le păstrează. Labirint al minţii, ea este şi un labirint pământesc. Poţi să intri, dar nu poţi să mai ieşi. Şi spunând asta, aş dori că domnia ta să te supui regulilor abaţiei."

O altă imagine a fiinţei mele se naşte din aceste considerente, înţelese şi mărturisite de un bibliotecar a cărui determinare a devenit poveste a vieţii mele. Şi nu trebuie să mi se pară absurdă respingerea acestei imagini de către necunoscătorii în ale artei şi filosofiei din spatele simbolurilor.

Cert este un singur lucru: dacă într-o bună zi mă veţi întâlni într-un vis cu semnificaţii adânci, fără să ştiţi cum arăt sau cum îmi sună vocea, este pentru că orizontul vostru s-a deschis în faţa unei creaţii pe care nu o puteţi înţelege, decât crezând. Păşiţi în biblioteca mea, în spaţiul nesfrşit al gândurilor mele, iar dacă ele se vor bucura de vreo trecere, niciodată timpul nu le va şterge din amintirea voastră.

Creaţia căreia îi corespunde visul transformat în realitate este, mai întâi de toate, o înţelegere a ceea ce se petrece în interiorul structurii psihice a unui artist al cărui univers se defineşte prin „pendularea între figurativ şi abstract”.

Sentimentul de reducere la elementele primare

On Decembrie 19, 2012

Creaţia presupune o căutare a nucleului fundamental, a elementelor și principiilor de bază ce stau la originea unui fenomen, proces sau creație complexă, încât să ofere înțelegere profundă asupra subtilităților și înțelesurilor ascunse.

Liniile şi culorile se modelează, se transformă pe parcursul străbaterii Mexicului. Duritatea liniilor şi asprimea culorilor se înmoaie spre sud. Cruzimea platoului central se atenuează. În nord păsările roşii nu-şi mănâncă prada îndată ce o ucid, ci înfig gândacul sau viermele în vârful unei frunze şi aşteaptă, pentru a-l devora, să fie uscaţi de arşiţa soarelui. Acolo caii sunt mânaţi să sfarme cu copitele testele peonilor răzvrătiţi după ce aceştia au fost îngropaţi în pământul dogorâtor. Acolo e o lume a cruzimii. Spre sud, frunza ascuţită de maguey se dantelează şi se transforma în buclele lianelor. Coloritul aprins cedează tonurilor de verde. Cruzimea se dizolvă în nepăsare.

Acel "day-dreaming", setea aceea de semi-somnolenţă diurnă, continuă să rămână pentru Eisenstein un mijloc de percepere a mediului înconjurător, aducând în conştiinţă viziuni ciudate, metamorfozări ale realităţii. În acest "paradis al artei grafice" artistul începe să deseneze. Mult, enorm de mult. Consemnează cele văzute. Apoi, depăşind această primă fază, prin intermediul liniei abstractizate, intelectualizate, desenul surprinde un raport foarte senzual, totodată delirant, între figurile omeneşti aflate în situaţii neobişnuite.

Senzaţia de geneză a lumii pe care o încearcă peste tot timpul în Mexic, sentimentul acesta de reducere la esenţe, la elementele primare, stă probabil şi la baza gândirii esenţializate despre relaţia viaţă-moarte.

Leadership: Poţi să dezvolţi o viziune holistică asupra lucrurilor, pornind de la esențe pentru a putea integra apoi multiplicitatea de aspecte și detalii într-un întreg coerent și profund?

În peisajul cultural al oricărei regiuni, liniile și culorile se modelează și se transformă, reflectând nu doar schimbările geografice, ci și cele emoționale. De asta are nevoie regizorul ca să realizeze o capodoperă. Duritatea și cruzimea din nord, unde chiar și frunzele sunt martore ale violenței, se transformă treptat în maguey-ul sudului, unde metamorfozările realității devin frecvente. Acest proces este asemenea unei reacții alergice ale pielii, unde schimbările vizibile sunt răspunsuri la stimuli externi, fiecare regiune reacționând diferit, similar sensibilității individuale la alergeni.

O creaţie cinematografică stimulează introspecția, conștientizarea și înțelegerea relațiilor fundamentale precum cele dintre viață și moarte, deoarece în artă există adesea o tendință de a explora și transmite esențe ale condiției umane, teme existențiale profunde legate de ciclul vieții, moarte, suferință, iubire etc. Prin tehnici cinematografice precum simbolism, metafore vizuale, imagini puternice, arta poate provoca introspecție și cugetare profundă asupra marilor întrebări existențiale ale ființei umane.

Leadership: Poţi să depui străduința de a descoperi și înțelege profunzimea, rădăcinile, sursele sau substraturile din care izvorăște o realitate, dincolo de aparențele ei imediate?

Arta autentică tinde să transmită adevăruri universale și intime despre natura umană, forțându-ne să ne confruntăm cu frământări și întrebări fundamentale ce definesc experiența noastră pe acest pământ. Poveștile și personajele din filme pot reflecta și explora condiții-limită ale existenței precum moartea, suferința, sacrificiul etc., conducând privitorul către meditații asupra sensului și valorii vieții.

Un regizor talentat, captivat de acest „paradis al artei grafice”, își exprimă trăirile și percepțiile prin desene, folosind o linie abstractizată pentru a captura raporturi senzuale și delirante între forme. Aceasta reflectă geneza lumii și dinamica relației viață-moarte. Artistul identifică și utilizează elemente culturale care pot minimiza disonanța emoțională și maximiza expresia artistică, îmbunătățind astfel percepția și aprecierea operei sale în diverse contexte.

Leadershipul facilitează o gândire "esențializată", concentrată asupra elementelor și principiilor de bază, a nucleelor generatoare din care derivă întregul.

Mai mult decât atât, acest sentiment de reducere la elementele primare oferă o viziune mai cuprinzătoare asupra genezei, originilor și proceselor primordiale care stau la baza fenomenelor sau creațiilor complexe.

Sentimentul de reducere la elementele primare reprezintă străduința de a descoperi și înțelege rădăcinile, sursele sau substraturile din care izvorăște o realitate, dincolo de aparențele ei imediate. Este o cale de acces către adevărurile și semnificațiile de bază, către nucleele generatoare de sens ale unei opere, gândiri sau experiențe umane complexe. Este o tentativă de simplificare, de reducere la forme sau expresii pure, de esențializare a creaţiei prin eliminarea excesului și conservarea a ceea ce este cu adevărat definitoriu.

Sentimentul de reducere la esenţe

Trebuie să te hrăneşti cu esenţa unei perspective de afirmare artistică ca să poţi să înţelegi valoarea creaţiei care te reprezintă cel mai bine pe planul unei viziuni curat-plastice.

Liniile şi culorile se modelează, se transformă pe parcursul străbaterii Mexicului. Duritatea liniilor şi asprimea culorilor se înmoaie spre sud. Cruzimea platoului central se atenuează. În nord păsările roşii nu-şi mănâncă prada îndată ce o ucid, ci înfig gândacul sau viermele în vârful unei frunze şi aşteaptă, pentru a-l devora, să fie uscaţi de arşiţa soarelui. Acolo caii sunt mânaţi să sfarme cu copitele testele peonilor răzvrătiţi după ce aceştia au fost îngropaţi în pământul dogorâtor. Acolo e o lume a cruzimii. Spre sud, frunza ascuţită de maguey se dantelează şi se transformă în buclele lianelor. Coloritul aprins cedează tonurilor de verde. Cruzimea se dizolvă în nepăsare.

Acel "day-dreaming", setea aceea de semi-somnolenţă diurnă, continuă să rămână pentru regizorul Serghei Eisenstein un mijloc de percepere a mediului înconjurător, aducând în conştiinţa viziuni ciudate, metamorfozări ale realităţii. În acest paradis al artei grafice artistul începe să deseneze. Mult, enorm de mult. Consemnează cele văzute. Apoi, depăşind această primă fază, prin intermediul liniei abstractizate, intelectualizate, desenul surprinde un raport foarte senzual, totodată delirant, între figurile omeneşti aflate în situaţii neobişnuite. Senzaţia de geneză a lumii pe care o încearcă peste tot, în timpul şederii sale în Mexic, sentimentul acesta de reducere la esenţe, la elementele primare, stă probabil şi la baza gândirii esenţializate despre relaţia viaţă-moarte. *

Leadership: Actul de asimilare a mijloacelor artistice trebuincioase cultivării creaţiei tale se încadrează în esenţa unor perspective dar şi limite de receptare a mesajului vizual-artistic, ţinând cont de ceea ce trebuie să cunoşti la nivel abstract?

Dezvoltarea capacităţii de receptare a mesajului vizual-artistic este prima sarcină pe care trebuie s-o îndeplinească un regizor, ştiind că varietatea complexului în care sunt înrădăcinate noţiunile, expresiile şi semnificaţiile care susţin şi promovează un curent artistic modernist, atârnă de felul conţinutului pe care îl furnizează spectatorilor. În ecranizările sale, regizorul nu surprinde doar figurile omeneşti aflate în situaţii neobişnuite, prin succesive metamorfozări ale realităţii, reflectând orizonturile unei creaţii impresionante prin vastitate, diversitate şi profunzime, el surprinde mai degrabă relaţia dintre natura gândirii şi modul de organizare a datelor experienţei umane.

Şi ce este acest mesaj-artistic, exprimat prin intermediul imaginilor, altceva decât rezultatul utilizării efectelor intrinsece ale artei în plan emoţional şi psihic, fiind consonant cu teme majore de reflecție, printre care relația armonioasă dintre om și natură. Sau, cum spunea cineva pe o pagină de internet: "Mesajul artistic este acea aureolă ideatică în care autorul îşi înveşmântează opera pentru a face din conţinutul ei un vehicul către sufletul şi spiritul receptorului."

Întrevedem aici două perspective ale mesajului artistic: conştiinţa viziunii şi metamorfozarea realităţii prin întoarcerea la mit şi legendă, adică prin depăşirea coordonatelor spaţio - temporale. Iar ca limite surprindem, într-un plan de vizibilitate accesibil, incapacitatea de a te focusa asupra înţelegerii rolului experienţei subiective şi invaliditatea unui progres în ceea ce priveşte armonia dintre decor şi atmosferă, dintre personaje şi motivaţiile lor.

Prin urmare, este necesar să ţinem cont de mesajul-artistic, găsind armonia dintre sunet şi imagine, atunci când ne plasăm într-un plan mult mai apropiat de privitor decât sunt personajele în realitate.

Ceea ce trebuie să cunoşti la nivel abstract pentru ca viziunea ta să înglobeze semnificaţiile unei imagini ori ale unor nenumărate imagini în mişcare (ca în cazul filmelor), este cum poţi aborda formele şi atitudinea unei figuri omeneşti printr-un mijloc de percepere a mediului înconjurător. În acest caz poţi apela la un procedeu artistic prin care, pe baza unor trăsături comune, se alătură doi termeni, cu scopul de a-l evidenţia pe primul.

În ceea ce priveşte arta regizorală, mai important decât imaginile extrase din experiența vieții este povestea în care viața stochează toate imaginile în jurul unei personalităţi care a încetat a fi o promisiune şi a devenit o certitudine.

Sentimentul de reducere la esenţe se distinge prin relaţia dintre ceea ce vedem și ceea ce dorim să vedem la nivelul unei creaţii autentice care evoluează printr-un mesajul cu conţinut artistic: "Ceea ce exprimi într-un mod comprimat (reacţii, emoţii şi stări) este ceea ce oferi naturii la nivel de cunoaştere prin imagini."

Ia seama la esenţa unei perspective de afirmare artistică ca să poţi să înţelegi valoarea creaţiei care te reprezintă cel mai bine pe planul unei viziuni curat-plastice. De reţinut: o perspectivă de afirmare artistică are ca suport de noutate esenţializarea unei idei care se doreşte să fie transmisă prin imaginile realizate atât din punct de vedere vizual cât şi tehnic. Iar o viziune curat-plastică este o imagine pe care nu ai cum s-o uiţi, chiar dacă o vezi o singură dată, putând fi modelată oricând prin modul de gândire a unui artist fotograf.

Servitorul diavolului

On Iunie 10, 2010

Analizează bine convingerile pe care ţi le formezi despre cel care te conduce, atribuindu-le o ordine care să ţină seama de impactul pe care îl pot avea asupra ta.

Principiul pacifiştilor spune să nu faci niciodată rău altora. Dar diavolul nu ţine niciodată cont de morala şi de etica pe care le promovează oamenii. El judecă oamenii după nişte criterii foarte riguroase, numai de el ştiute, tratându-i după criteriul intereselor sale.

Îţi aminteşti filmul: "The Mummy – Tomb Of The Dragon Emperor (2008)"? Speranţa generalului Yang a fost dintotdeauna aceea de a-l reduce la viaţă pe împăratul Qin Shi Huang, singurul care putea reinstaura ordinea în haosul din patria sa, şi apoi să devină mâna lui dreaptă. Şi a reuşit. Deşteptându-l pe adormit, şi-a văzut visul cu ochii. Mai rămânea doar să-şi demonstreze absoluta loialitate faţă de EL.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi creezi o realitate nouă a vieţii tale cu un "duplicate content" de tipul THE VERY BEST, fără să simţi că ai pus o parte din tine acolo?

Mulţi sunt cei chemaţi, dar puţin cei aleşi. Niciodată diavolul nu-şi poate duce la îndeplinire planul fără ajutorul unor servitori loiali. Chiar şi el are nevoie de sprijin. Însă cel mai greu lucru din lume este să-şi găsească servitorul perfect, care să se dedice cu însufleţire, trup şi suflet, zi şi noapte, idealului său. Servitorul perfect trebuie să fie în măsură pentru toate. Imperfecţiunea, îndoiala, greşeala, sunt considerate slăbiciuni.

Vechiul lui general, generalul Ming îl înşelase de aceea împăratului Qin Shi Huang i-a fost oarecum greu să se încreadă în noul pretendent la o funcţie atât de înaltă. Cu toate acestea a acceptat ca Yang să-i fie general fiindcă l-a înviat din morţi. Asta da dovadă de loialitate. Un astfel de om n-are nevoie de CV, nu mai trebuie să fie testat, evaluat, monitorizat, să dea probe şi să primească calificative. E fără îndoială omul potrivit, e decisiv, posedă minte de explorator şi emană încredere în sine.

Leadership: Importanţa ta se măsoară prin misiunea pe care ti-o asumi într-un demers făra sorţi de izbândă, dar care are potentialul de a corespunde standardului de probă al unei măreţii de necuprins?

Ura care zace într-o inimă statornică nu poate fi tăinuită la nesfârşit. Împăratul Qin Shi Huang, a cărui singur obiectiv era să ajungă stăpânul lumii, nu ar fi putut niciodată să-şi ucidă ura faţă de adversarii săi, adică faţă de toţi acei oameni care nu au vrut şi care nu ar fi acceptat niciodată să i se supună.

Împăratul Qin Shi Huang, readus la viaţă după 2000 de ani, nu a putut da uitării vechiul lui gând, acela de a cuceri lumea, ci dimpotrivă, s-a înverşunat şi mai tare să-şi atingă scopul, mai ales că atât el, cât şi armata sa, au fost condamnaţi la o moarte chinuitoare.

Prin faptul că nici după moarte nu şi-a abandonat misiunea pe care singur şi-a asumat-o, împăratul Qin Shi Huang a devenit un conducător de temut.

Leadership: Poţi să deschizi o perspectivă promiţătoare de reconectare la o entitate supremă, câştigându-i încrederea în contextul unei schimbări de orgine?

Cine îşi urmează cu devotament conducătorul, împărtăşeşte aceeaşi soartă cu el. Cine întră în slujba diavolului nu se mai poate elibera de el. Este şi cazul generalului Yang. E o nebunie. E sinistru, dar s-a creat un soi de relaţie între ei, o relaţie misterioasă pe care nu o pot denumi. Dar în niciun caz nu putea fi vorba de prietenie, căci diavolul nu-şi face niciodată prieteni, doar servitori.

Ambiţia lui nemăsurată de a-şi sluji stăpânul şi credinţa pe care o avea în izbânda acestuia, la care se adaugă încrederea în forţele proprii, i-au dat generalului Yang un avânt puternic, un curaj ce nu poate aparţine decât nebuniei sau geniului, dar care l-au dus la pieire. El a fost foarte ambiţios, dar în avântul lui de a reuşi în tot ceea ce şi-a propus, a judecat superficial. Şi a plătit pentru greşeala lui. Ar fi trebuit să se gândească mai bine înainte de a se avânta într-o astfel de aventură, alături de diavol.

Originea unui om sălăşluieşte în libertatea lui, dar în leadership libertatea prea mare în ceea ce priveşte regulile dă naştere la antipatie, fiindcă înseamnă în cele din urmă lipsă de coerență în atingerea obiectivelor şi instabilitate în ceea ce privește autonomia decizională. Această origine a omului trebuie să utilizeze o altă variantă de dobândire a unui statut privilegiat, anume prin echivalenţă simbolică: “to go one's way”.

Practic, generalul Yang trebuia să revendice doar valoarea de "afişaj" a unei puteri supreme, nu şi varianta personală de utilizare a ei.

Leadership: Evaluezi cât mai obiectiv tendinţa de a fi orientat spre sarcini, fără să acţionezi împotriva reprezentări de imagine care de cele mai multe ori este simultană cu o altă reprezentare coordonată acesteia?

Aşa cum un lider trebuie să aibă capacitatea de a-şi evalua oamenii, tot aşa şi cei ce-şi aleg un lider trebuie să-l evalueze cu deosebită atenţie. Nu rareori se întâmplă ca un lider să aibă alte intenţii decât cele declarate şi să înşele încrederea echipei sau să o călăuzească spre un punct terminus, altul decât cel iniţial, şi chiar spre eşec.

Ai abilitatea de a sesiza adevărul despre firea celui pe care accepţi să te conducă? Ţi-ai făcut cumva o impresie greşită despre el? Intri pe un teren nou doar de dragul de a servi pe cineva? Recunoşti importanţa selectării liderului potrivit? Cum îl poţi recunoaşte pe adevăratul lider?

Succesul tău depinde, la propriu, în mare măsură de abilitatea ta de a alege. Analizează bine convingerile pe care ţi le formezi despre cel care te conduce, atribuindu-le o ordine care să ţină seama de impactul pe care îl pot avea asupra ta. Gândeşte-te de două ori înainte să-ţi alegi liderul.

Reprezentarea unei imagini de superioritate este de cele mai multe ori este simultană cu o altă reprezentare coordonată acesteia: o multiplicare a unui sine, care îl proiectează pe celălalt în sine însuşi.

Servitorul diavolului este omul care nu se poate ridica mai sus de condiția spirituală a predicatorului unei credințe înfricoșătoare.

Set The World On Fire (II)

On Ianuarie 08, 2019

Dacă nu ştii să citeşti foarte bine chipul unui om, în orice circumstanţă, nu poţi prevedea nici îmbunătăţirea imaginii pe care o văd ceilalţi la tine când te transpui într-un tablou impresionist.

Ori de câte ori încercam să-mi creez o nouă imagine personală, în corespondenţă cu tăria gândurilor şi aspiraţiilor cele mai avântate, sfârşeam prin a-mi crea o identitate datorită intensificării fidelităţii faţă de micile activităţi de creaţie. Trecerea la o personalitate aparte se face printr-o asumare responsabilă a condiţiei de artist, dialogând numai cu vibraţia de înaltă puritate a culorilor culese din pulberea luminoasă a unui caleidoscop de fapte marunte, insesizabile şi efemere.

Singura logică a înţelegerii resorturilor şi reperelor estetice, suficientă înţelegerii adâncite a legăturii cu lucrurile care mă priveau sau îmi aparţineau, se asocia preponderent cu optimizarea superioară a contrastului dintre subiectul investigat şi şevaletul unei lumi multicolore. Am înţeles că totul poate fi schimbat la mine dacă practic conştientizarea actului creator.

Puterea unui artist constă în vraja mişcărilor vitale şi emoţionale, potrivite în special pentru pictura pe şevalet, cu care făureşte din haosul lumii o capodoperă plină de simboluri şi aluzii pricepute numai de iniţiaţii în alchimie, în arta filosofiei, în natura spiritualităţii, dar mai ales în arta citirii chipului.

Dacă nu ştii să citeşti foarte bine chipul unui om, în orice circumstanţă, nu poţi prevedea nici îmbunătăţirea imaginii pe care o văd ceilalţi la tine când te transpui într-un tablou impresionist.

Efectul artei în leadership este imaginea dintr-o oglindă care a căpătat viaţă, înfrumuseţând caracterul unei situaţii de a fi capabilă să provoace emoţii, să impresioneze.

Şi totuşi, simţeam că nu este de ajuns să mă integrez într-o imagine vibrantă concepută într-un spaţiu pictural aparte, asociat unui context cvasi-figurativ, apropiat abstracţiei lirice şi expresionismului. Mai trebuia să înmagazinez întruna şi impulsurile unei inteligenţe absolute, dincolo de tematica aleasă.

Cel care reuşeşte să făurească din sine însuşi frumuseţea unei metafore, descrierea unei făpturi magice, cel care reuşeşte să dea viaţă şi vedere unei lumi în care realul şi ficţiunea se confundă ceva mai mult, acela îşi câştigă imaginea de reformator al unei întregi culturi.

În timp ce îşi păstrează o anumită imagine în minte, ca şi cum ar fi o hartă a unui drum în viitor, artistul închide ochii şi se deplasează într-un spaţiu al creaţiei, reflecţiei şi visării, ghidându-se cu ajutorul memoriei spre alteritate.

În cazul meu, fiindcă totul din jur părea o oglindă care se încăpăţânează să se mărească odată cu forţa semnificativă a unei concepţii noi despre Dumnezeu, despre impactul interacţiunilor din natură, expresia artistică a talentului meu trebuia să pună în valoare frumuseţea unei trăiri de mare intensitate de tipul: "I'll do anything, to be the one ! "

Leadership: Poţi să te angajezi într-un demers de exaltare a ceea ce poţi exprima la cel mai înalt nivel prin intermediul unui limbaj plastic conceptual, astfel încât să devii mai mult decât ai fost vreodată?

Dacă tu nu faci un pas înainte într-o anumită direcţie, nimeni altcineva n-o să-l facă. În asta constă frumuseţea puterii unui lider, cel puţin asta este ideea din spatele gândirii unui titan al spiritului care vrea să stăpânească universul, simbol al cutezanţei, chiar dacă nu se situează în mijlocul unui poem persan.

Din perspectiva artei care captivează prin atracția irezistibilă a misterului, fascinantă prin însăşi amestecul de hazard şi de necesitate în conturarea unei profunzimi tainice, acest deziderat pare de neatins, puţin probabil în condiţiile în care arta mizează pe distincţia dintre real şi imaginar. Niciodată nu m-am crezut în stare, prin expresivitate proprie, să concept un art nouveau , dar am reuşit să-mi creez o nouă identitate, aceea a unui artist care poate deveni un exemplu pentru fiecare prin faptul că poate surprinde acel quelque-chose inefabil care face diferenţa dintre ÊTRE şi AVOIR.

Expresia cea mai evidentă a unei incursiuni în lumea individualităţii creatoare este magia de a nu te lăsa învins de aparenţe, sau invers, de a lăsa aparenţele să facă diferenţa dintre o artă curajoasă, revoluţionară şi o porcărie banală, jalnică. Iar poate singura modalitate de a explora adâncimile unei imagini care se vrea a fi capabilă să încorporeze şi să conjuge materia cu memoria şi conştiinţa de sine, este să te gândeşti la tine ca la un dublu al tău, protagonist al unui univers fără măsură temporal-spaţială.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să traversezi imensul fecund al unei viziuni bazate pe improvizaţie artistică, încât să introduci o imagine a cutezanţei într-o explozie de frumos?

Lăsând la o parte modestia, căci aşa ceva nu există în leadership, cel mai probabil voi trăi etern prin imaginile pe care numai un artist excepţional poate să le redea cel mai bine într-un limbaj plin de subtilităţi, aşa cum te-ai apropia de un Zeu care se arată dintr-o dată şi dispare apoi în chip misterios. One is a wonder !

Omul care îşi dezvăluie gândirea simbolică, modul cum înţelege să interpreteze emoţiile, trăsăturile, dorinţele, percepţiile, propriul personaj dintr-o creaţie fără precedent, plină de frumuseţe şi forţă, este asemenea artistului care uimeşte prin capacitatea de a se reinventa datorită încercării de a da sens unei idei sau unei experienţe trăite la cote maxime: Set the world on fire !

Un asemenea om nu evoluează în timp prin intermediul unui portret de mare valoare cromatică, ci doar trăind perfecţiunea ca o experienţă destul de reuşită vizual, în prelungirea unui vis de o sensibilitate supremă, înclinată spre visul continuu. Improvizaţia artistică care îi domină talentul, traversând înălţimile unei purităţi de mare rafinament stilistic şi concentrare simbolică, se identifică cu tendinţa de sintetizare a unor imagini care dau speranţe şi fiori, ca o demonstraţie în forţă în faţa măreţiei naturii.

Leadership: Poţi să compui o imagine care să ilustreze povestea unei experienţe cu neputinţă de povestit, identificată în termeni de "o aventură a ta cu tine însuţi" ?

Practic, ideile şi lucrurile în care credeam, deosebite de cele care fascinau printr-un ciudat concurs de împrejurări, erau ca nişte explozii de creativitate pură, naturală, nestudiată, crescută dintr-o curiozitate înnăscută, compunând cu grijă nişte conexiuni neaşteptate între domenii sau teme fără nici o legătură.

Efectul artei în termeni de energie, excelenţă, sofisticare şi frumuseţe, savurând o aventură a forţelor artistice reunite în mine însumi la cote maxime, se întregeau prin senzaţia de ireal sau de suprareal pe care o transmiteam mai ales celor neavizaţi. Provocări pline argument raţional se aliniau după următorul deziderat: "I'll do anything, to get what I want. Aim even higher, I'll do anything, to be the one ! "

Singurele entităţi consistente care făcea cinste artei de a fi în vârful propriei suite de gânduri, emoţii, conştientizări, opinii, toate putând fi cuantificate în condiţii optime de timp şi de spaţiu, adăpostind istoria unei vieţi plină de mişcare şi adrenalină, constituiau transfigurarea realităţii şi redarea adevărului într-un mod cât mai fidel impactului pe care îl are un tablou personalizat, determinat de o combinație a mijloacelor artistice.

O frântură de alb îmi apare şi acum în faţă când îl recitesc pe Artur Silvestri. "Mi se pare că, de fapt, acolo se măcină o materie nedesluşită care, prin repetiţie interminabilă, se străduieşte să-mi comunice şi să mă înveţe ceva. Poate o concluzie impenetrabilă? Poate un gând fără cuvinte? Şi cine să fi încercat să-mi spună toate acestea, în acest fel enigmatic pe care nu-l mai întâlnisem de când nu mai puteam vorbi cu Cel ce mă învăţase arta fără grai?"

Leadershipul este puterea sufletească de a accepta realitatea din spatele unui tablou după ce ai ascultat prea multe voci care pretindeau că este un fals.

Set The World On Fire este reprezentarea unei imagini reale, dar una tot atât de bine încadrată în inima unei ficţiuni impresionante, a cărei multiple corespondenţe simbolice se întâlnesc doar pe teritoriul unei personalităţi fulminante capabilă să-şi croiască drum în atmosfera unei lumi aparte ce aparţine prin excelenţă doar artiştilor de mare clasă.

Set The World On Fire (I)

On Ianuarie 07, 2019

A-ţi întemeia un stil personal de a face artă înseamnă să urmăreşti neîncetat dovedirea existenţei unui Creator care poate face din sine oglinda realităţii celor din jur.

Încercam să interpretez viaţa şi realitatea prin prisma unei personalităţi care nu oboseşte să fie prizonierul dorinţelor cele mai înalte, una atât de însetată după o cunoaştere fecundă, superioară, fapt ce implica cultivarea spiritului inovator şi cutezanţa de a deveni eu însumi Dumnezeu. Un visător care se visează creator de lumi, modelat cu acea aparenţă a înţelesului şi intenţiilor ascunse pe care le are un vrăjitor dotat cu o baghetă magică, care poate face orice, mai ales să stăpânească materia şi să-i ordone orice lucru.

La acea vreme nu-mi închipuiam deloc că există un acord fin între faptele care evoluează de la realitate la simbol prin semnificaţia atribuită în mod cauzal cuvântului "artă", în care se poate specula o oarecare fascinație pentru imperativul "I am the one and only".

Îţi trebuie o cheie cu care să pătrunzi în intimitatea unui gânditor progresist, pe care altfel nu l-ai putea cunoaşte, deci într-o lume croită după mintea unui singur Creator. În orice făceam totul trebuia să depindă numai de mine, de cel care înţelege fenomenul artistic al unui protagonist desprins parcă dintr-o ficţiune a poetului Torquato Tasso care dorise să creeze un microcosmos unitar structural, căutând să facă din lume un suport al unei existenţe nelimitate. "So I am what I am and what I feel can not be wrong. This is the way that I feel and I'm coming on strong."

Leadership: Te dedici încercării de creare a unei personalități de mare anvergură pentru a reuși un progres în planul artei, creându-ți o imagine unică a Eului creator printr-un autoportret de mare prestanță?

Aşadar, cheia întregii mele încercări de creare a unei personalităţi de mare anvergură, cu posibilele ei interpretări, trebuia să constituie o primă formă a ispitirii şi a vrăjirii, dinamica unei existenţe în plan artistic, o întreagă panoplie a anumitor gesturi, atitudini, forme de limbaj, ca într-o legendă persană redată cu ajutorul unei imagini plină de culoare, plină de semnificaţii, plină de continuitate.

Pentru a reuşi un progres în planul artei, încât să creez o imagine unică a Eului creator printr-un autoportret de mare prestanţă, ar fi fost interesant să experimentez mai întâi ideea universului holografic: să mă aşez între două oglinzi mari şi să observ cum imaginea mea se multiplică la infinit. Asta da perspectivă nouă. Numai astfel se poate câştiga sentimentul intens: "Only One is a Wonder" !

Leadership: Eşti în stare să produci o impresie vizuală prin excesul de Ego, încât să ajustezi impactul imaginii care transformă spectatorul în ostatic datorită trăirilor şi senzaţiilor unice pe care le oferă combinaţia: "oglindă-magie"?

Cât despre imaginea pe care o implică sentimentul acela de siguranţă, triumf al înnoirii unui decor existent prin schimbarea culorii obișnuite, vă mărturisesc că în urma unei mari demonstraţii de penel am reuşit să cunosc o bucăţică din viaţa unui artist de excepţie şi mai ales să am grijă cum îmi evidenţiez calităţile dăruite de Dumnezeu.

Arta este întotdeauna aproape de modul în care natura ne spune: "Să înceapă spectacolul ! "

Numai magia m-a ajutat să fac surf pe valul sincronicităţii între o întrebare și configurația astrală a momentului în care se pune acea întrebare: "Ce se întâmplă dacă mă privesc simultan în mai multe oglinzi?"

În fond, singurul subiect ce-l puteam găsi în lipsa unui adevăr artistic sau în afara legilor magiei părea a fi "Omul Vitruvian", văzut din perspectiva unui dublu al meu într-o oglindă care reflectă numai frumuseţea şi perfecţiunea, cu mult diferită de Oglinda Fermecată a lui Michael Ende, una din porţile magice prin care trebuia să trec ca să mă recunosc sub fascinaţia altei identităţi. Cu siguranţă oglinzile oferă multă perspectivă, însă răpesc la fel de mult conţinut.

Leadership: Poți să-ți vezi reflecția într-o oglindă care intensifică percepția asupra realității, încât viziunea ta artistică să transfigureze o imagine mereu în schimbare?

Combinaţia oglindă-magie, a cărei funcţie de bază este să împletească valorile optice cu exaltarea fanteziei care-ţi îngăduie să transfigurezi realitatea şi s-o îmbraci în imaginile cele mai cutezătoare, vine să intensifice forţa de iradiere a unor curente sau personalităţi care caută modalităţi inedite de expresie.

Negreşit, senzaţia pe care o trăiau toţi cei care încercau să mă înţeleagă era aceea de fascinaţie rezultată dintr-o infinitate de combinaţii coloristice ce conţin mai mult sentiment decât îşi poate cineva imagina. Ego-ul, conceput ca o reflecţie a unei viziuni situată în aria de mijloc dintre artă şi magie, nu era o entitate de sine stătătoare, ci mai degrabă reprezenta o resursă inepuizabilă de interpretare a realităților și a punctelor de vedere dintr-un unghi sensibil al jocului de umbre şi lumini surprinse într-o imagine care se modifică la nesfârşit.

Leadershipul este o artă inegalabilă, un spectacol de magie, improvizaţie şi metafore, susţinut numai de o minte care nu-şi pierde nicio clipă agerimea tinereţii, o minte care îşi întăreşte percepţia despre performanţă examinându-şi adesea imaginea mărită în oglindă.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o inserezi în cadrul unui decor de plasticitate desăvârşită poate confirma valabilitatea unei devize pe care o putem ataşa artei: „unitate în diversitate"?

Sentimentul care nu-şi pierde niciodată din intensitate este starea de vis care însoţeşte conştiinţa în faţa unei puteri care te duce înainte spre un altfel de a înţelege semnificaţia artei şi de a aprecia pe artistul care convinge prin subtilitatea cu care manevrează semnul, linia, pata, culoarea. Cine ştie să îmbărbăteze culoarea, intensificându-i forţa de expresie prin mişcarea liberă a tuşei, acela este un vrăjitor al mijloacelor subtile de cucerire a lumii.

Microcosmosul este ca o pictură trăită de un spectator prin ochii artistului căruia îi poţi intui povestea, dar nu te poţi gândi la ea prin raportare la valoarea obligaţiei de a o face mai frumoasă.

În corespondenţă cu ideea de macrocosmos, reflectat într-un Ego care se apropie de calitatea de lider, împingându-te într-o poziție de om ajuns la maxima expansiune artistică, sentimentul capătă un contrast cromatic irezistibil, exploziv, între roşu şi negru, care conduce la asemănarea cu un mistic îndumnezeit, sau cu o putere de natură malefică, seducătoare, care domină şi subjugă materia.

Pentru cine a înţeles secretele picturii, în timp ce repetă continuu întrebarea "De unde porneşte acţiunea sau mişcarea?", leadershipul devine un fel de imagine care se extinde la nesfârşit prin reflexia reflexiilor individuale ale unui subiect uman care ştie să redea conflictul dintre lumea interioară şi cea exterioară, dintre profunzime şi aparenţe, dintre Ego şi Univers, astfel încât să nu exagereze nici cu patetismul, nici cu ridicolul.

Acesta era crezul meu, sentimentul de a nu lăsa lucrurile așa, la voia întâmplări, ci atribuindu-le un efect grandios într-un spaţiu plin de simetrie, plin de decoruri, plin de vitalitate, plin de semnificație și autenticitate, pe care numai un artist ştie să-l închipuiască printr-o reprezentare a conexiunii cu un univers plastic unic, printr-o viziune cromatică vie şi o densitate a simbolurilor impresionantă.

"Unitate în diversitate" este deviza artei care asigură lărgirea experienţei umane într-un cadru de referinţă artistic ale cărui coordonate sunt cuprinse între microcosmos şi macrocosmos.

Set The World On Fire scoate în evidenţă forma unei creaţii de a se plasa într-o zonă unde se întrepătrund magia, frumuseţea de a da viaţă unei atmosfere vibrante şi sentimentul de a fi mult mai mult decât eşti, astfel încât să realizezi schimbarea dorită în viața ta şi a celorlalţi.

Sferele atotstăpânitoare ale naturii omeneşti

Ţine-te la distanţă de lumea complexă şi covârşitoare a "exilului", stabilind o relație tainică și profundă cu cele mai adânci trăiri ale unei vieţi minuţios dimensionate.

Jean Valjean nu iubise niciodată pe nimeni. De douăzeci de ani era singur pe lume. Nu fusese niciodată tată, amant, soţ, prieten. La ocnă era răutăcios, ursuz, cast, ignorant şi sălbatic. Inima acestui bătrân ocnaş era neprihănită. Sora lui şi copiii surorii sale nu-i lăsaseră decât o amintire ştearsă şi depărtată, care sfârşi prin a se risipi aproape cu totul. Făcuse tot ce i-a stat în putinţă ca să-i regăsească şi, neizbutind să-i regăsească, îi uitase. Aşa era firea omenească. Celelalte emoţii duioase ale tinereţii, dacă avusese vreuna, se năruiseră în gol.

La rândul ei, Cosette devenea şi ea alta, fără să-şi dea seama, biata micuţă. Ca toţi copiii, asemenea tinerelor mlădiţe ale vieţii, care se agaţă de orice, încercase să iubească. Nu izbutise. Toţi o respinseseră: Thenardierii, copiii lor, ceilalţi copii. Nimic şi nimeni n-a mai vrut să ştie de ea. E trist că trebuie s-o spunem, aşa cum am mai spus-o: la opt ani avea inima de gheaţă. Nu din vina ei, nu putinţa de a iubi îi lipsea, ci, vai ! Împrejurările prielnice.

Soarta contopi pe neaşteptate aceste două existenţe dezrădăcinate, deosebite prin vârstă, asemănătoare prin nenorocire şi le logodi cu puterea ei atotstăpânitoare. Într-adevăr, una o întrecea pe cealaltă. Prin instinct, Cosette îşi căuta un tată, aşa cum, prin instinct, Jean Valjean îşi dorea un copil. Întâlnirea lor însemna o regăsire.

Din clipa când aceste două suflete s-au întâlnit, ele şi-au dat seama că nu pot trăi unul fără altul. *

Leadership: Poţi să te întorci cu spatele la zidul care te înconjoară neîncetat, luând în considerare înţelegerea profundă a unei viziuni şi a unei stări de spirit care te ajută să priveşti cu mare atenţie darul vieţii?

În timp ce o parte a vieţii tale este angrenată în actul separării de lume, al cărui conţinut este determinat prin slăbirea voinţei de a rezolva cererile propriului sine superior, care se cere a fi urmat cu stricteţe, o altă parte (cea a leadershipului care include viziunea pe termen mediu şi lung), te ajută să-ţi îmbogăţeşti mai bine personalitatea prin relaţia cu ceea ce te aştepţi să oferi şi ceea ce primeşti de la ceilalţi.

Viziunea este scenariul posibil al unei întâlniri cu tine însuţi într-o împrejurare în care geneza gândirii tale dă naştere unui model de asociere cu frumuseţea unei experienţe de ataşament faţă de o forţă motivantă puternică. Prin extindere, darul vieţii ţine îndeosebi de vibraţia intersectării a două conştiinţe curate într-o aceeași unică realitate.

Cine spunea că " Tot ceea ce oferi, reflectă conştiinţa din care oferi " avea nu doar dreptate, ci mai multe dreptăţi. Mai întâi, fiindcă aspiraţia spre luciditate şi duioşie determină o anumită vulnerabilitate, mai presus de orice acorduri cu viaţa, care amână accesul la acea faţă nevăzută a lumii, împiedicându-te să aluneci în abisurile negaţiei sau ignorării valorilor adevărate. Apoi fiindcă gândirea bazată pe convingeri solicită în mod explicit un anumit tip de protecţie, un fel de putere interioară ţâşnită din adâncul fiinţei care îţi oferă încrederea că nu e totul pierdut, manifestându-se în exterior.

Aşadar conştiinţa este un simbol al aspiraţiei şi gândirii care, asemenea unui glob magnetic care atrage toate obiectele de fier din jur, armonizează toate elementele pozitive şi negative ale omului, după care le transformă în manifestări adaptate realităţilor vremii. Conştiinţa, bazată pe instinct, alcătuită din intuiţii şi forme ale cunoaşterii, schimbă acea componentă stranie a spiritului uman, în cadrul perioadei de tranziţie spre un stadiu dezvoltat, spre un alt tip de personalitate. Una deschisă oricărei provocări materiale, morale sau sentimentale.

Modul cel mai bun de a înţelege valoarea poziţiei pe care o ai faţă de sensul pozitiv al evoluţiei tale este să explorezi o regăsire între două existenţe. Crearea omului nou, prin lepădarea de cel vechi, are ca miză șansa unei regăsiri într-un plan comun cu o altă entitate de aceeaşi natură.

Poţi să te întorci cu spatele la un zid care te înconjoară neîncetat? Nu poţi. Dar îl poţi accepta şi utiliza ca un nou stil de a evolua, făcând din el o cazemată, un sprijin puternic care să te separe de lumea complexă şi covârşitoare a „exilului". În care accentuarea contrastelor dintre înălţimi şi abisuri, între întrebări şi răspunsuri, între minte şi inimă, pot determina o destabilizare nefavorabilă.

Exilul reprezintă o realitate dură, foarte răspândită în zona leadershipului, puţin cunoscută, dar cu atât mai surprinzătoare, dezvăluind latura nevăzută a omului. El poate recunoaşte realitatea propriului său suflet abia după ce elementele "durere" şi "suferinţă" au devenit trecut.

Leadershipul are ca sursă de alimentare acea ipostază a conştiinţei care experimentează totalitatea unei vieţi care nu diferă calitativ de segmentele care o alcătuiesc: măreţia sufletească şi tăria de caracter, filtrate prin procesul de formare al "Omului Nou".

Sferele atotstăpânitoare ale naturii omeneşti relevă acele schimbări ce pot apărea în conştiinţa noastră ca modificare a viziunii despre noi înşine, determinând modalităţi de acţiune diferite, cu impact asupra prezentului şi viitorului nostru şi al celor din jur. Reprezintă o regăsire a sinelui superior între două existenţe.

Sfinţenia uitată a lucrurilor mici

On Martie 18, 2021

Marile opere nu impresionează doar prin unitatea lor, ci prin banalitatea cu care reuşesc să se deschidă privirilor cele mai agere.

Ieri m-am oprit la unul din anticariatele de pe strada Lăpuşneanu, fapt pe care îl consider un gram de bun simţ pentru orice minte care se deschide către misterul Varkishes , Darul Zeilor, sursa Înţelepciunii de Sus. Ca de fiecare dată, într-un colţ al anticariatului era aşezată o cutie mai veche de carton în care se găseau numai cărţi la preţul de 1 RON.

Şi ce să vezi, şi să nu crezi, mai mult decât ceea ce priveşti fără să te încerce vreo emoţie. Iată aruncată acolo, în cutie, o carte genială scrisă pentru copii, apărută în anul 1979. Interesant. Numai eu dau peste cărţile astea banale, dar genial scrise, poate pentru că ştiu la ce să mă uit? Fiindcă eu ştiu să văd ceea ce alţii nu ştiu să vadă?

Cartea prezintă modalităţi de surprindere a realităţii în momentul petrecerii acesteia. Ea vizează în principal observarea animalelor, a plantelor, a obiectelor şi fenomenelor din natură. Găseşti aici informaţii despre morcovi, ardei, urşi, găini, narcise şi trandafiri.

Dar, atenţie ! MARE ATENŢIE: contează felul cum este transmisă informaţia, felul cum se leagă informaţia de materie, felul cum este simplificată informaţia, felul cum este produsă informaţia în cadrul unui experiment care desemnează exact inversul probabilităţii de apariţie a acestui eveniment. Genial structurată, genial scrisă !

Găseşti aici tot ce-ţi trebuie pentru a înţelege adevăratele acorduri ale analizezi stilistice. Ai pârghii. Ai ancore. Ai identificatori. Ai referenţiali. Delimitatori. Substituenţi. Repere. Tot ce este necesar pentru actul de creaţie artistică. Şi toată lumea trece pe lângă cartea asta. Şi nimeni n-o citeşte… Şi nu vă spun cum se numeşte, nici cum arată, nici cine a scris-o, tocmai ca să învăţaţi să acordaţi atenţie lucrurilor (aparent) banale care pentru cei mulţi trec neobservate. Autorul nu este necunoscut…şi va rămâne necunoscut.

Leadership: Urmarea descoperirii tale poate să pună o reflexie a fiinţei tale în fiecare mic detaliu al unei forme de gândire localizată la nivelul conceptului „Too Far To Be Saved" ?

De fapt, sunt foarte mulţi oameni care privesc fără să vadă ceea ce oricum nu se prea vede, iar dacă s-ar vedea, ei oricum tot nu ar vedea şi nici n-ar înţelege ce anume ascunde vederea adevăratei credinţe. Fenomenul acesta intrat sub incidenţa banalităţilor se numeşte ignoranţă, acea continuitate a delăsării în faţa valorii unui diamant neşlefuit care aşteaptă să fie descoperit, dar nimeni nu-l descoperă.

Aşa stau lucrurile. Cei mai valoroşi oameni din viaţa ta, cei care contează cu adevărat, nu sunt cei sus puşi la rang de CEO sau VIP. Ci tocmai aceia care înţeleg şi reuşesc să facă legătura între necesitate şi întâmplare.

De fapt, unii oameni au linia lor adâncă de ochire a esenţialului aflat sub aparenţa polimorfă a unei inter-lumi aflată la răspântia dintre ştiinţă şi artă, fiind înzestraţi cu acea capacitate a pictorilor de a realiza o radiografie a esenţialului dinăuntrul operei de artă. Şi ei merg cu o consecvenţă de neînvins pe această linie, fiind în plină concordanţă cu legile unei mistici de sorginte platoniciană, ceea ce înseamnă că au o logică aparte în ceea ce priveşte aprecierea exteriorităţii lucrurilor şi fondul lucrurilor care redefinesc relaţionarea cu hazardul.

Într-adevăr. Cărţile sunt precum oamenii: nu le poţi citi pe toate decât dacă le simţi undeva în interior, dacă e ceva subtil ce te atrage la ele. Or, în alt caz, cel mai valoros om din viaţa ta, adevăratul super hero, s-ar putea să fie tocmai acel individ necunoscut care te trage de mânecă cu câteva secunde înainte să fii lovit de o maşină. Fii sigur că niciodată n-o să te salveze de la înec Mihai Bendeac, n-o să-ţi sară în ajutor Andra Măruţă, iar adevăratele valori ale sistemului tău cognitiv n-o să le identifice niciodată Smiley în locul tău.

Şi, cu adevărat, cele mai importante lecţii despre viaţă, despre creaţie, despre univers, le vei afla din lucrurile banale, de la oamenii banali care, la fel ca şi cărţile banale, trec aproape întotdeauna neobservaţi, dar apar brusc în momentele cheie ale vieţii tale.

Or interiorul cărţilor, dacă ajungi să-l cuprinzi cu forţa minţii, vei simţi că şi el te citeşte pe tine prin forţa atracţiei universale. Te acaparează printr-o constantă a luminii spirituale (sufletul aservit legăturilor materiei care ignoră frontierele spaţiului şi timpului), făcând apel la subtilitatea cu care artistul îşi imortalizează impresiile cele mai tainice, conferind operei sale valoarea unor confesiuni intime care devin eterne în existenţă, şi totodată în infinit.

Leadership: Poţi evita o degradare în caracterul unei revelaţii despre tine, punându-te în faţa unei realităţi abstracte pe care o poţi recunoaşte când o întâlneşti cu privirea, dar o poţi simţi ca fiind ceea ce ţi-a lipsit dintotdeauna?

Aceasta este cosmogonia rară a cărţilor: ele se scriu neîncetat, se regândesc neîncetat, se revarsă neîncetat în direcţia înţelegerii lucrurilor mici şi mari, constituind logica inerentă a unei teorii izvorâtă dintr-o coerenţă internă (sau uiversală). Este o idee mai veche asupra căreia ar trebui să insist. Tot de atâtea ori, omul fuge după eternitate şi n-o găseşte tocmai pentru că eternitatea constă în menţinerea organizată şi uşor accesibilă a lucrurilor mici pe care lumea le ignoră.

Este vorba despre marea victorie a lucrurilor mici, neluată în considerare de oamenii mari. Este vorba de sfinţenia uitată a lucrurilor mici care oferă imaginea cuprinzătoare şi corectă a "Marii Opere". Prin sfinţenie înţelegându-se acea selecţie a lucrurilor, a întâmplărilor, a experienţelor de viaţă de care nu vrei să te desparți și care devin în timp o reflexie a personalității tale în mişcarea unui univers liber, expresiv, autentic.

Aceeaşi observaţie a fost remarcată de criticul de artă Victor Ieronim Stoichiţă, fiind întemeiată de tradiţia medievală reprezentată de Vincenţiu Beauvais care complica lucrurile cu obişnuita dezinvoltură a epocii de atunci:

"Mai ales în acele vremuri, atenţia era îndreptată spre păcatul original care va avea tot timpul trei cauze, anume: ignoranţa, lăcomia, slăbiciunea. Faţă de acestea reacţionează trei forţe divine: sapientia (forţa intelectuală), virtus (forţa morală) şi necessitas (forţa practică). Acestora le corespund trei activităţi umane: ştiinţa (theoretica), etica (practica) şi arta (mecanica)."

Iată tâlcul acestei remarci: oricărei cauze existenţiale îi corespunde o forţă care reacţionează cu aceeaşi intensitate, şi oricărei activităţi intelectuale îi corespunde o acţiune de instruire, informare, formare şi însuşire a cunoştinţelor. Iar dacă vom reuşi să facem o punte între cele două modele deterministe de orientare în lume (cauzele existenţiale şi activităţile intelectuale), poate vom reuşi să înaintăm cu o ambiţie de neînvins spre aflarea şi înţelegerea lucrurilor sfinte.

Un vizionar îşi orientează demersurile existenţiale spre autenticitatea unei lumi edificată în acele operele de cunoaştere care nu sunt direct puse în valoare, ci printr-un soi de intuiţie a incidentalului.

Sfinţenia uitată a lucrurilor mici stă în spatele legăturii dintre necesitate şi întâmplare, fapt pe care unii îl reneagă cu desăvârşire, iar alţii încă sunt departe de vremea când totul va fi mult mai simplu de înţeles şi de acceptat.

Fapt semnificativ. Fără un gram de incursiune lucidă într-o lume nouă, înţelepciunea cu care se hrăneşte simţirea fiinţei (netrucată de efectele vieţii moderne) nu se va plia niciodată într-o cutie a minţilor deşarte care nu-şi alocă timp dezvoltării personale.

Şi acum, spune-mi adio !

- Ajunge ! - spuse Mercedes - ajunge, Edmond ! Fii sigur că cea care te-a putut recunoaşte, singura din toată lumea, tot ea te-a putut şi înţelege. Dar, Edmond, femeia care a ştiut să te recunoască, aceea care te-a putut înţelege, femeia aceasta, chiar dacă ai întâlnit-o în cale şi ai sfărmat-o ca pe un ciob, tot ea a trebuit să te admire ! După cum între mine şi trecut s-a căscat o prăpastie, şi între tine şi ceilalţi oameni există o prăpastie, iar cel mai groaznic chin pentru mine, îţi spun, este să fac o comparaţie. Căci nimic în lume nu preţuieşte cât tine, nimic nu ţi se aseamănă. Şi acum, spune-mi adio, Edmond, şi să ne despărţim.

- Înainte de a te părăsi, spune-mi ce doreşti, Mercedes? - întrebă Monte Cristo.

- Nu am nevoie de nimic. Trăiesc între două morminte: unul este al lui Edmond Dantes, mort de atâta vreme. L-am iubit. Dar l-am trădat, așa cum procedează toți oamenii slabi, invidioşi și cu pretenţii. Cuvântul nu se mai potriveşte pe buzele mele vestejite, dar inima îşi mai aminteşte încă şi pentru nimic în lume n-aş voi să pierd amintirea aceasta a inimii. Celălalt este mormântul omului pe care Edmond Dantes l-a ucis. Aprob uciderea, dar trebuie să mă rog pentru mort.

Ştii, Edmond, că eu nu mai gândesc. Nu mai am altă hotărâre decât aceea ce a nu lua nicio hotărâre. Dumnezeu m-a zgâlţâit atât în furtunile lui, încât mi-am pierdut voinţa. Mă simt în mâinile lui ca o pasăre în ghearele unui vultur. Dacă trăiesc, înseamnă că El nu vrea să mor, ci îmi dă prilejul să mă căiesc. Dacă-mi va trimite ajutoare, înseamnă că El va voi şi le voi primi. Adio, îmi cer iertare, chiar dacă iertarea nu va fi niciodată completă, fiindcă nu-mi voi putea ierta niciodată faptele de care mă fac vinovată ! *

Leadership: Atitudinea faţă de ceea ce ai săvârşit prin natura ta se cere a fi modelată sub forma moralei desprinse din deznodământul pe care ți-l oferă viaţa?

O turnură în viața ta, însumând toate faptele săvârşite din propria voința, se poate produce în momentul în care ajungi să percepi şi să recunoşti în tine chipul unei vinovății imposibil de iertat. Rezistenţa faţă de ceea ce este esenţial în fiinţa ta, constând în depăşirea limitelor a tot ceea ce este rațional, firesc și cu bun simţ, se şubrezeşte sub învinuire într-un proces al memoriei prin care se evocă realitatea sufletului din cursul anumitor experiențe anterioare.

Un avocat știe exact ce şi cum să spună astfel încât balanţa să încline în favoarea cauzei pe care o apăra pentru clientul său. Însă pentru clarificarea situației în care amploarea temei şi diversitatea obiectivelor stabilite nu sunt în concordanţă cu prevederile legii, el se vede nevoit să apeleze la fel de fel de tertipuri pentru a câștiga procesul.

În marea călătorie a vieții omul poate fi asemenea unui avocat care, în încercarea de a-şi gestiona cât mai bine relaţiile, se simte în permanenţă constrâns să apere cauza propriei sale firi vicioase şi fataliste. Practic el se pune în bătaia deciziilor ce au efecte directe asupra propriei subiectivităţi, apoi asupra propriei demnităţi exprimate prin următoarea recurentă: „ Sunt o povară a sentimentului de vinovăţie ".

Ceea ce poate împinge un om pe calea cea dreaptă este o asumare profundă realităţii care produce efecte copleşitoare la nivel de ceea ce el este în stare să devină atunci când descoperă despre sine ceea ce nu ştia anterior.

Sigur că omul îşi pune întrebări, se corectează prin intuirea procesului de realizare a unor argumentări care să-i susţină greutatea morală. Deseori își conservă candoarea și inocenţa prin observarea și înțelegerea directă sau indirectă a efectelor pe care le au anumite acțiuni asupra vieţii sale. Se jură că de acum încolo va fi un alt om. Ar putea fi aceasta o circumstanţă atenuantă? Oricum, va avea întotdeauna alte scuze de rezervă.

Așa este, omul se disculpă mereu. Iar când un om se disculpă înseamnă că ori se simte vinovat, ori se minte singur. Desigur, că şi minciuna, la fel ca şi vinovăţia pe care omul o trăieşte cu intensitate, pe care o simte cu toată puterea conştiinţei, pe care o ia cu sine, în vreme ce încearcă un ultim act de evadare în faţa realităţii, nu poate fi decât rezultatul unei răzvrătiri împotriva cerinţelor vieţii. Când te simţi vinovat de o faptă pe care minciuna n-o poate acoperi, deci atunci când minciunea devine o practică curentă, atunci este vorba despre o tulburare de personalitate care provoacă stări foarte intense, instabilitate în relații și crearea unei viziuni a lumii în alb și negru.

Leadershipul este adevărul dureros pe care îl afli despre tine însuţi şi pe care îl preferi în locul unei minciuni frumoase care pe moment îţi oferă un acoperiş de calitate.

Şi acum, spune-mi adio ! este o mărturisire a suferinţei abătută asupra omului din cauza unei greșeli impardonabile. Nu poți să te disculpi la nesfârșit fără a suporta consecințele adevărului.

Dacă ești interesat să-ţi formezi un tablou veridic al realităţii care te încătuşează, atunci evaluează-ţi caracterul în măsura în care te înşeală propriile "calităţi" negative. Fii sincer şi dă-ţi singur verdictul răspunzând la următoarele întrebări:

Cum te percepi prin evitarea gravităţii unei situații sau a unei fapte? Ești dispus să accepţi suportarea cu extremă anxietate a unor situaţii din care ieşirea poate fi dificilă ori jenantă?

Împodobeşte-ţi sufletul cu cea mai curată sinceritate înainte de a accepta să faci parte din realitatea operei de artă.

Toți o respectă ca pe un loc al lui Dumnezeu, această grădină splendidă plină cu trandafiri, în care timpul atât de grăbit uneori, asemenea unei voci divine auzite în mod constant, are ca valenţă de nobleţe realitatea unui tablou pictat cu delicateţe şi romantism. Singurul lucru care contează acum, prin valorificarea elementelor de limbaj plastic, în reprezentări expresive intenţionate, este ca trandafirul să aleagă momentul potrivit pentru a-şi destăinui câte ceva din experienţa deschiderii sale spre orizontul umanist.

We started out as friends . Trandafirul era acolo, în ceasurile acelea de adâncime a judecăţii, când pictorul încerca să sondeze imaginea unei fetiţe care plângea, şi plângea şi plângea, fără ca lacrimile ei să ajungă la inima vreunui părinte, sau la auzul vreunei veşti bune. Realizarea de figurări după natură şi imaginate cât mai viu, utilizând elemente de limbaj plastic, necesită adesea o exacerbare a unei trăsături umane, precum solidaritatea sau compasiunea, într-o reprezentare simbolică a sufletului coborât în infern.

Era acolo, prezent într-un moment de mare intimidate, când fetiţa a crescut mare, s-a făcut frumoasă, atât de naturală, totuşi atât de strâns unită cu suvenirurile copilăriei, admirându-se pe ea însăşi în inocenţa unei iscusinţe fără egal: de a exprima acel ceva dintr-o inimă caldă, dar rănită şi confuză, ca o pată de culoare pe o pânză gri, simţindu-se atât de străină de tot ce se petrece în jurul ei. Răvăşită de fiecare lovitură de pensulă, încât ai fi zis că nu mai ştie care este calea bună spre cosmica enigmă ce planează asupra existenţei ei, şi-a păstrat tot timpul o urmă de delicateţe în câmpul de manifestare a experienţei spirituale, preţioasă şi dătătoare de speranţă, care se numeşte: însufleţire.

Are înaintea ei o bătălie neterminată, începută demult, the symptoms are so deep , şi nu-şi va găsi liniştea până ce nu va câştiga îmbrăţişarea aceea blândă, plină de şarm, a artistului desăvârşit ce face podoaba peisajelor vesele din povestea viselor ei maiestuoase, neterminate.

Leadership: Poţi obţine o imagine sugestivă a unui subiect cu impact de lungă durată prin experienţele vieţii tale, încât să conturezi o viziune nouă asupra realităţii datorită mijloacelor de exprimare specifice limbajului plastic?

Fortunately you have got someone who relies on you. Atunci când scriu despre ea, tulburătoare şi misterioasă, cu extracte din frunzele trandafirului, mă gândesc şi la băieţelul acela plin de energie, adevărat năzdravan, care ştia încă de pe atunci că într-o bună zi va reuşi să imortalizeze sensibilitatea unei spiritualităţi mistice, de frumuseţe unică, pe propria lui planşă de pictură. E o izbândă a sufletului să ştii să-ţi alegi arta încă dinainte de a o deprinde cu vrednicie.

Dialogul dirijat pe tema comunicării în limbaj plastic comunică într-un fel experienţa cunoaşterii profunde a conceptului de prezenţă-absenţă, conjugat cu alte elemente simbolice, precum crenguţe de brad, pomul vieţii, motivul puternic al florii de aur, rozeta solară, ochiul lui Horus, birds never look into the sun , în combinaţia cromatică: roşu, verde, galben.

Time I'm sure will bring disappointments in so many things. Dar nici el, nici ea, nici Maestrul, nici Margareta, nici după atâta sigilare îndepartată de suflete înăuntrul unei vieţi fabuloase, nu se lasă înghiţiţi de profundul mister al anulării conştiinţei prin ipostaza de urmăritor şi urmărit al trandafirului, prin contrast cu caracterul tranşant al unor vremuri de mult apuse. Vremuri pline de tandreţea unor îmbrăţişări pe care nimeni nu a vrut să le ofere, niciunuia dintre ei.

Ne-am împărtăşit emoţiile revederii prin fineţea desenului, o modalitate frumoasă prin care puteam vindeca rănile trecutului, esprimendoci in modo naturale e suggestivo , întruchipând unul şi acelaşi lucru, unul fiind dublul, reflectarea celuilalt.

Leadership: Poţi obţine o copie superfidelă a unei versiuni anterioare de personalitate care să poată fi remarcată cu ajutorul unei construcţii pur subiective, sub impresia unei imagini văzute din unghiul unei rememorări semnate: „Rămâi aşa cum eşti…”?

It seems to be the way. Destinul, consistenţa spirituală a trandafirului, ne-a adus împreună, încă de pe atunci, când colecţionam visuri şi speranţe în micile noastre universuri, colţuri din natură ferite de ochii lumii, de atâtea ori dărâmate de prejudecăţile şi convenţionalismul dobândite prin traiul controlat de efectele altor realităţi.

Era un fel de dorinţă care se voia împlinită cu orice preţ, dincolo de orice iluzie, dincolo de orice judecată referitoare la gust, dincolo de orice dogme, în toate înţelesurile unei posibile lumi simbolice, dar care punea în evidenţă valorile spiritului şi sensibilităţii umane. În artă contează mai mult imaginaţia decât predictibilul.

Nedesluşind nimic la început, închipuindu-ne aceeaşi exilaţi într-o lume ostilă, mai bine zis într-o clipă de vitregie a memoriei, disimulată prin false iluzii, ne-am apropiat timid unul de celălalt, după atâta amar de vreme, cu un fel de constrângere, ca şi când am fi fost convertiţi într-o ficţiune care spulberă mitul copilăriei, spectrul neînsemnătăţii căutându-şi leacul în reprezentarea simbolică a virtuţii de a aparţine unei orientări estetice identice.

Trandafirul este acelaşi Eu care o reflectă pe Ea, şi înţelegeţi de ce, ca pe un fel de argument identitar împotriva kitsch-urilor, ca pe un fel de portiță înspre lumea fantastică din interiorul unei cărți plină de delicateţe, fără a o deschide. Dominanta cromatică a unei reîntâlniri On a peaceful day, Oh the light shines brighter , poate fi remarcată cu ajutorul unei construcţii pur subiective, sub impresia unei imagini văzute din unghiul unei rememorări de tip proustian: „Caută să rămâi aşa cum eşti, reînsufleţind mereu faptele şi cuvintele tale cu o gândire creatoare.”

Leadership: Latura de conţinut a personalităţii tale dezvăluie forţa de a face trimitere spre acele imagini vizuale în care fiinţa relevată prin esenţa unei opere de artă se angajează în intensificarea conexiunii cu o viaţă trecută?

Însăşi imaginea acelor vremuri, de care doar trandafirul îşi leagă numele, Nostalgic Artemis, te face să vezi, ca la lumina lumânării, umbrele unei iubiri netrăite la timpul ei, dar câştigată mai târziu prin redarea pe pânză a magnificului spectacol cromatic oferit de fenomenul misterios numit „Regăsire”, un balsam pentru suflet.

All alone with you makes the butterflies in me arise , ca însuşi faptul că tot ceea ce-am îngrijit în dosul cuvintelor, pline de pete de culoare aruncate pe o pânză umedă, s-au transformat în Coada Rândunicii, acest fluturele atât de neînțeles și amenințător de frumos pe care nu oricine are ocazia să-l imortalizeze în adevărata lui splendoare.

I want you to be my baby . La această imagine s-ar putea ajunge dacă, identificând calmul unei naturi măreţe şi nepăsătoare, am lua în serios cuvintele scriitoarei Dora Pavel, prin odiseea întoarcerii în lume a unui restaurator de artă, ca pe o legătură poetică cu un Apolo al marilor emoţii:

„Acolo învăţase el că a re-picta înseamnă mai ales a-ţi înfrâna impulsul de-a picta. Important nu-i să dai culorii devitalizate o strălucire pe care n-a avut-o niciodată, ci să o înviorezi în limitele palorii ei. Să-ţi reprezinţi temperanţa cu care maestrul a aplicat pasta pe pânză odinioară."

Trandafirul, printr-o privire aruncată trecutului, are puterea de a lega o promisiune plină de speranţă de o gândire avangardistă, de-a lungul unei căutări îndelungate, însufleţite cu harul de a scoate în evidenţă cele mai frumoase calităţi de înţelegere a artei: răbdarea, duioşia, unitatea spirituală, sinceritatea, similaritatea, visele şi atracţia.

Leadershipul este ecoul puternicei întâlniri dintre artist şi muza lui, deschizându-se lumii ca o delicată bătaie în uşa inimii care nu conteneşte a ne chema spre configurarea unui tablou cristalizat prin juxtapunerea a două structuri: suspansul din jurul subiectului şi expresivitatea unei viziuni numită sugestiv "Înnoirea Omului".

Sign your name across my heart marchează momentul unei reîntâlniri mult aşteptate care păstrează ecoul unei lacrimi, a acelei speranţe care nu s-a pierdut, a acelei delicate bătăi în uşa inimii care nu conteneşte a ne chema înăuntrul ei printr-o voce eternă care parcă subliniază cuvântarea unui tablou: „Împodobeşte-ţi sufletul cu cea mai curată sinceritate înainte de a accepta să faci parte din altă realitate, a operei de artă."

Sigur nu ai uitat nimic în urma ta?

Încearcă să conştientizezi care sunt lucrurile cu adevărat importante pentru tine, reflectând asupra experienţelor care nu au o semnificaţie precisă.

S-a întâmplat puţin mai devreme. Am plecat de la sala de sport destul de entuziasmat, prins cu mintea în inimă, evitând orice contradicţie cu gândirea care săvârşeşte întreaga înlănţuire a deducţiilor raţionale. Şi mă gândeam, şi simţeam, şi îmi continuam drumul, şi totuşi ceva din mine îmi repeta constant: sigur n-ai uitat nimic în urma ta?

Cumva, regăseam în atitudinea mea aceeaşi atitudine plină de pulsaţie, de inspiraţie a pictorului care uită să-şi strângă ustensilele după terminarea lucrului, dar totuşi se bucură de minunea căreia i-ar putea da viaţă. Şi, deci, nu se putea altfel. Am uitat ceva în urmă. Mintea părea a fi focalizată pe recunoaşterea momentului principal când pictorul încearcă să se afirme din plin în artă, prin exprimarea dinamismului vieţii, dar este prins în țesătura fragilă a unei povești din viaţa personală când timpul îşi pierde orele şi clipele aflate în registrul pământesc.

Iar timpul şi-a spus imediat cuvântul. Repede, cu tot elanul unui spirit de o invincibilă tinereţe, am fugit înapoi la sală, mi-am luat pe mine puloverul uitat. Înainte să părăsesc din nou sala, am aruncat o privire înapoi, observând că cei din sală erau concentraţi la treaba lor. Nimic nu părea să se orânduiască în jurul meu. Distanţa dintre mine şi totul din jur s-ar fi putut numi "adâncime de pătrundere a undei de trăire", prin exces de inteligibilitate, în prezentul continuu al unei amintiri lipsite de încărcătură emoţională.

Aşa că mi-am ascultat gândurile, mi-am măsurat emoţiile, m-am lăsat străbătut de pretinsele asimetrii ce se remarcă adesea în domeniul artelor, precum: abaterea de la direcţie, preferinţa ochiului de a sesiza doar aparenţa realităţii, interacţiunea dintre o imagine repetitivă şi o perspectivă de dinamism lipsită de orizonturi, sau o mişcare fără un anumit impuls din lumea exterioară (dar capabilă să creeze un proces din procesul în sine).

Leadership: Poţi să accentuezi o caracteristică a fenomenelor care te tulbură, dată de tot ceea ce le diferenţiază şi le particularizează în relaţia dintre ce te aștepți să vezi și ceea ce n-ai văzut de prima dată?

Dar ce m-a interesat cel mai mult la momentul reîntoarcerii mele la sală fost dinamismul inerent ce s-a revărsat asupra freamătului lumii mele lăuntrice. Nu este vorba despre un obiect uitat într-un loc cu multă încărcătură fizică și psihică, nu este vorba despre vreo ţesătură raţională în sânul căreia firele sunt într-o completă încordare. Chiar dacă se putea simţi o apăsare curioasă care apare de regulă în condiţiile unui efort fizic mare, pe care n-am mai simţit-o niciodată până atunci. Ci faptul că, dintr-o dată, revenind în acel loc, m-am simţit claustrat într-un colț de lume fără orizonturi.

Pur şi simplu nu mă vedeam încadrat în tabloul unui pictor care îşi desfăşoară arta într-o linişte deplină, dorindu-şi în acelaşi timp explorarea uneu noi abordări a modului de a face şi de a aprecia un produs artistic. Ceea ce uitasem la sală a reprezentat de fapt o cale de explorare a lumii interioare, a relaţiei pe care o am cu mine însumi, nu cu ceilalţi. A fost o cale de a mă deconecta de la rutina zilnică, un fel de a mă lăsa surprins de ceea ce este preconştient (adică lucrurile de care aş putea deveni conştient în momentul în care încerc să nu mă gândesc la ele).

Un pulover uitat denotă acţiunea unei minţi confuze care amestecă timpurile, spaţiile şi emoţiile, o viaţă, un destin, o chemare, şi mai apoi le afundă pe toate într-o urmă pe care mi-am lăsat-o fără să vreau. Pentru câteva minute am plutit într-un fel de vârtej al adaptărilor, al reconfigurărilor de intenţii şi meta-perspective, fără să înţeleg ce se petrece cu mine. Ceva m-a pus pe gânduri în acel moment, dar în acelaşi timp trebuia să nu alunec prea tare într-o zonă a emoţiilor expansive şi eidetice.

Poate că, totuşi, a trebuit să uit ceva la sală, ca să nu uit că ceea că mă poate răni cel mai tare este chiar ceea ce mă inspiră şi mă binedispune: decizia de a rămâne în limitele unei normalităţi aproximative. Puloverul uitat nu-mi poate schimba starea de spirit, la fel cum starea mea de spirit nu depinde de revenirea mea într-un loc în care orice pasivism dispare, făcând loc perspectivei dinamismului să aducă modificări unei existenţe intensificate.

Mai degrabă, cred că revenirea mea temporară la sală a reușit să schimbe realitatea peisajului urban, transformându-se într-un loc al autoreflecţiei. Am înţeles că trebuie să evoluez ca un om care şi-a recunoscut responsabilitatea autoreflecţiei şi a noilor începuturi, prin simpla convingere că revenirea mea într-un loc anume nu-mi poate schimba destinul, nu-mi poate răsturna concepțiile de viață, nu-mi poate schimba starea de spirit sau gândirea pozitivă.

Prin leadership se explică de ce atitudinea mea trebuie revizuită prin evitarea tendinţei de a mă supune emoţional unui moment de neatenţie, sau de uitare, care în clipa următoare se schimbă şi se răsuceşte în altă direcţie în care există o singură supapă de control: autoreflecţia şi autoevaluarea.

Sigur nu ai uitat nimic în urma ta? Pune-ţi mereu această întrebare atunci când simţi că ceva lipseşte din viaţa ta, din interiorul tău, cu precizarea că tot ceea ce tot ce-ai lăsat în urma ta poate fi o demonstrație mică a ceea ce se află înaintea ta. Trebuie doar să ştii să identifici diferenţa dintre ceea ce ştii şi ceea ce crezi că ştii, sau diferenţa dintre ceea ce ai fost, ceea ce eşti şi mai ales ceea ce vei fi.

Aş putea să accentuez o caracteristică a proceselor şi fenomenelor care m-au tulburat în relaţia dintre ce m-am aşteptat să văd și ceea ce n-a văzut de prima dată. Această caracteristică se numeşte: "abatere de la determinismul cauzal", şi ea marchează o revenire la ceea ce trebuia să fie normal.

Siguranţa unui maestru

On Aprilie 15, 2009

Imprimă leadershipului tău un caracter deosebit de expresiv prin puterea ta de coordonare a factorilor care contribuie la dezvoltarea ta proprie.

La realizarea teatrului des Champs Elysees din Paris, marele sculptor Bourdelle n-a avut numai rolul sculptorului decorator, ci lui i se datorează şi ideea generală a ordonării faţadei şi a interiorului. Numai pentru faţada teatrului, Bourdelle a făcut 17 proiecte şi a găsit în final soluţia cea mai clară îmbinând organic suprafeţele netede, calme, în ritm regulat, cu reliefuri sculptate.

Plăcile din marmură în care apar Apollo şi muzele, ca aluzii poetice eterne, sunt cioplite în planuri mari, liniştite, în perfect acord cu spiritul arhitecturii moderne. Bourdelle spunea: "Trebuie ca zidul însuşi să pară că se animă în anumite locuri într-o ordine stabilită, luând forme umane." *

Leadership: Creaţia ta evoluează către un model bazat pe o abordare cuprinzătoare, în eventualitatea obţinerii unei performanţe vizuale care cu greu va fi întrecută?

Adevărata ta valoare, ca şi lider, este dată de rolul pe care îl ai în crearea şi promovarea propriului stil de conducere, a propriului stil de abordare a "faţadei şi interiorului" propriei tale personalităţi, fără impurităţi, care cresc nivelul tău de performanţă şi de influenţă. Tot ţie îţi revine sarcina de a proiecta propriul model de consolidare a poziţiei tale de control, şi de a examina modalităţile de consolidare a propriei capacităţi de a-ţi forma abilităţile necesare pentru efectuarea activităţilor într-o manieră cât mai eficientă.

Aşa cum un pictor realizează opere valoroase prin profunzimea observaţiei bazate pe realitate, tot astfel şi tu, poţi să te situezi deasupra celorlalţi dând leadershipului tău o formă prin care să-ţi pui în evidenţă experienţa. La marii sculptori, îndeosebi la Bourdelle, totul trebuia să se concretizeze într-o formă prin care îşi lăsa amprenta propriului său stil. Iar leadershipul la fel, evoluează prin forma pe care o capătă după ce, în prealabil, ţi-ai modelat şi şlefuit caracterul.

Te poţi situa deasupra celorlalţi numai dacă îmbini cu succes "forma" cu "funcţionalitatea", adică dacă îmbini caracterul cu competenţele.

Înţelegerea priorităţilor şi a proceselor prin care îţi îmbunătăţeşti performanţele constituie elemente critice ale succesului în leadership. Punctul forte al concentrării energiei tale înspre dimensiunea Creaţiei artistice se manifestă cu precădere în timpul actului de creare a valorii proprii, inteligent şi cuprinzător, atunci când faci un pas mai aproape de perfecţiune. Pentru te apropia de excelenţă, concentrează-ţi gândirea şi faptele în mod explicit asupra elementelor (legate de influenţa valorilor şi caracterului propriu) care nu funcţionează la parametri optimi.

O performanţă vizuală care cu greu poate fi întrecută vizează de fapt acea parte a creaţiei tale care stă sub semnul pasiunii pentru excelenţă, prin interesul manifestat faţă de stabilirea legăturilor cauzale ale ideilor de design acumulate în timp.

Ce anume duce la înmulţirea ideilor explorate? Ce anume duce la evitarea ideilor prea deosebite şi dăunează procesului de creaţie? Ce anume declanşează procesul ce duce la actualizarea ideilor innascute? Ce anume duce la cristalizarea ideilor şi facilitează luarea deciziilor? Ce anume duce la concentrarea ideilor și obținerea de rezultate?

Siguranţa unui maestru este ceea ce te ghidează şi te ajută să ajungi la punctul în care poţi spune: "Sunt excelent." Dar pentru asta, asemenea unui pictor, trebuie să creezi o armonie între toate calităţile şi defectele tale, între elementele care compun leadershipul tău, până când vei obţine o formă finală impecabilă.

Ai descoperit adevăratele beneficii ale efectului pe care îl are leadershipul tău? Care sunt limitele care îţi definesc stilul? Ce au în comun caracteristicile leadershipului tău? Este "forma" o necesitate vitală de care depinde leadershipul tău? Ţi-ai delimitat clar acele zone de risc, acele concepţii care nu dau rezultate?

Imprimă leadershipului tău un caracter deosebit de expresiv prin puterea ta de coordonare a factorilor care contribuie la dezvoltarea ta proprie.

Concluzie: Şi în leadership îmbinarea armonioasă dintre formă şi conţinut conduce spre succesul râvnit de lider. În leadership, lipsa de siguranţă, oscilaţiile, bâlbâielile nu fac altceva decât să reducă valoarea, rolul şi puterea de coordonare a liderului. Orice discordanţă şi oscilaţie va fi taxată.

Silence Must Be Heard

On Iunie 05, 2017

Exprimă-ţi măreția raţiunii de a fi tot ceea ce reprezinţi în mod particular, aventurându-te într-un exod nesfârşit spre înălţimile grandioase ale spiritului.

Me pierdeam în virtutea momentului de a nu mai fi acelaşi, imaginându-mă singur şi al nimănui, în faţa măreţiei ideii de a rămâne blocat pe singura treaptă a dezvoltării spiritului uman. Era o particularitate a nevoii de a mă căuta în alt loc, sprijinită de exorbinanta voinţă de a crea esenţa unei noi existenţe, de care şi acum mă leagă o nedezminţită solidaritate.

Întotdeauna modul de a vedea lumea, spre care tinde deosebirea esenţială dintre talentul artistului de a se juca cu ingredientele artei şi cugetarea gânditorului de a se aventura într-un exod nesfârşit înspre înălţimile grandioase ale spiritului, dincolo de limitele propriilor observaţii, însoţeşte ascunsul unui sens unic al vieţii, ca într-un labirint fără început şi sfârşit.

Asemenea unui pictor care cu câteva trăsături de penel reuşeşte să înfăţişeze esenţele unei complexităţi deosebite, trăiam experienţa de a fi cuprins de ceva mai puternic decât mine, ceva pe care oamenii îl numesc Dumnezeu, interpretat cu însetată curiozitate printr-o reprezentare unică a providenței atotștiutoare, prin prisma ochiului ce veșnic stă de veghe.

Era un fel de variantă a conversaţiei pe care o purtam cu mine însumi, unde totul reieşea din luminile unui timp aşternut pe coperta unui roman al devenirii, al formării unei noi conştiinţe. O conversaţie în care în loc să discut despre ceea ce știam deja, mă aruncam în ridicolul de a uita cine sunt. Pay attention, you're playing with fire !

Leadership: Te defineşte un mod particular de a recepta şi de a-ţi înţelege potențialul creator prin vizorul unei raţiuni care are puteri asupra pluralităţii lumilor în care alegi să te retragi?

Tăcerea este măreţia raţiunii care construieşte o filozofie indispensabilă experienţei de a fi altcineva, mai presus de ceea ce tu însuţi simţi că eşti, ce obligă la redescoperirea de sine numai în cadrul cunoaşterii fără precedent izvorâtă din meditaţia asupra unor acţiuni spirituale, chemări de dincolo de lume şi de mintea obişnuită, no words just vibrations.

Încă mai continui să-mi deznod conversaţiile cu mine însumi, adevărurile ascunse, să-mi rechem aducerile aminte patinate de trecerea timpului, fără a rămâne prizonier în zona „fantasy”. Cercetările ştiinţifice ar putea identifica în creierul meu anumite fenomene de rezonanţă ce conduc la activarea unor mecanisme de autodeterminare, o activitate electrică intensă a neuronilor responsabili de coordonarea inspiraţiei spre spaţiul Revelaţiei.

Tăcerea se pierde în depărtările unei mări întinse şi subit ivite în imaginaţie, se leagănă în mirajul unei lumi inaccesibile şi se scufundă în teritoriul plin provocări al unei percepţii subiective asupra realităţii şi interpretărilor pe care le dai evenimentelor, pe baza căreia începi să ştii cu o precizie relativă la ce să te aştepţi de la tine.

Sprijinindu-mă pe temeiul "diamonds will burn, friendly cards will turn" am ajuns la concluzia că singura cunoaştere autentică, în esenţa maturităţii spirituale, este expresia unei profunde judecăți de sine materializată într-un context de învăţare. Câtă fineţe să strecori o idee bună în conţinutul unei raţiuni capabilă de o flexibilitate continuă, printr-o energie creatoare, ca în faţa unui tablou căruia îi poţi releva frumuseţea doar îndepărtându-te de el. The time has come to learn, that silence..

Tăcerea este o formă non-verbală de manifestare a unei trăiri aparte generată de curajul unei rostiri de sine care dă naștere unei lumi verosimile în afara lumii pe care o trăieşti.

Nu degeaba îşi mărturisea eroul din romanul "Lolita" convingerile pline de patimă în raport cu modalitatea de a-şi spori experienţa lumii interioare, cause silence has the right to be heard :

„Am preferat dintotdeauna igiena mintală a lui "n-aude, nu vede". Acum când mă frământ cu întâmplările trecutului, încercând să-mi pledez cauza, îmi aduc aminte că în împrejurările de felul celei povestite mai înainte adoptam întotdeauna metoda de a nu lua în seamă stările de spirit ale fiinţei cu care mă asociasem. Însă încercam în acelaşi timp să-mi liniştesc eul meu josnic."

O singură privire îndreptată spre mine însumi într-un exces de curiozitate, back to the greatness of a time read through the lines of such a powerful representation of life , păstrează forţa creatoare care deschide poarta secretelor împlinirii infinite. Aceeaşi forţă aflată la baza ipostazei de fiinţă care în lume nu s-ar putea recunoaşte, ci numai în relaţie cu ceea ce poate fi rostit prin suflet, prin exaltarea trăirilor care inspiră, însoţesc şi mobilizează demersul cognitiv.

Leadershipului i se poate alătura oricând un răspuns izvorât din ceea ce înveți să fii într-o poziție de inacţiune. Într-un moment de vârf al meditației. Această poziţie, care blochează rănile realităţii, impune o bună concentrare asupra felului în care îți guvernezi individualitatea.

Silence Must Be Heard relevă acel moment de infinită inspiraţie necesar pentru crearea şi transmiterea de noi conţinuturi de conştiinţă care contribuie la cerinţa de a deveni mai conştient de modul în care îţi gestionezi rostul şi semnificaţiile vieţii.

Reprezinţi în mod particular un simbol al tăcerii din care izvorăşte sensul unei alte realităţi?

Simbolistica procesului de individualizare

On Februarie 09, 2014

Experimentează o transformare de sine egală cu înălţimea intelectuală la care vrei să te ridici, astfel încât să realizezi o reconfigurare a modelului tău de Om.

Neînduplecat, mă concentram către lumea-mi interioară, învăluită în mister şi surprize care adăugau profunzime creaţiei intelectuale. Puteam să dizolv unitatea haotică a naturii mele într-un solvent nevolatil, uşor de manipulat, numit " aqua munda ". Funcţionând cu eficienţă maximă, ca un agent de valorificare a activelor mele de fond, acest solvent neutraliza substanţele de provenienţă externă a unei realităţi imuabile, prilejuind traversarea unei experienţe de viaţă care contabiliza schimbările mele radicale.

Dar, întotdeauna pentru ridicarea unui corp pe verticală la o anumită înălţime este necesară o forţă cel puţin egală cu greutatea corpului. Această lege putea fi aplicată în condiţiile unei relaţii echilibrate şi stabile cu realitatea spaţiului meu lăuntric, despovărat de greutatea unei ascultări care facilita o mai mare conştientizare în toate aspectele vieţii mele.

Privilegiul de exploatare a acestui spaţiu se reînnoia o dată cu evoluţia concepţiilor despre mine însumi, în raportul cu lumea reală a unei structuri de judecată echilibrate. O consecinţă firească a unei reconfigurări interioare şi exterioare complete care se potrivea în bugetul cunoaşterii pe care îl aveam la dispoziţie.

Leadership: Poţi face dintr-o construcţie subiectivă o comparaţie cu modelul conceptului de sine care ştii că este oridinal, angajându-te într-o anumită manieră faţă de adevărul unei anumite caracteristici a lumii exterioare?

Niciodată omul nu-şi poate ridica nivelul de luciditate sau nu-şi poate lărgi experienţa realităţii dacă este tras în jos de greutatea unei dimensiuni de sine care o depăşeşte pe aceea a existenţei tale. De aceea incursiunea în universul fabulos al experienţei de sine, în intimitatea celor mai controversate tendinţe de individualizare, stârneşte un freamăt aparte, o reacţie pozitivă de revitalizare, ca un motor care te determină să dai tot ce ai mai bun din tine.

Este uşor să te rătăceşti în propriul spaţiu lăuntric, în labirintul aspectelor de valoare de care eşti conştient, dar este foarte greu să calculezi media geometrică a tuturor elementelor de contrast care intensifică calităţile ansamblului tău. Şi este cu siguranţă foarte greu să descoperi acel număr natural diferit de "zero", acel pătrat perfect, nedivizibil care îndeplineşte condiţiile enunţului conform căruia " unei conştientizări de sine îi este alocată o cerinţă de deschidere spre exterior, dar ea nu este totul pentru o dezvoltare armonioasă. "

Adevărul unei anumite caracteristici a lumii exterioare de care mă diferenţiam, ţinând seama de informaţiile care mă ajutau să devin altcineva, prezentat fie tendenţios, fie exagerat, fie parţial, era acela că interpretam realitatea raportându-mă mai puţin la aşteptările, pasiunile, intersele şi aspiraţiile mele. Mai mult la acea logică ce face ca partea văzută şi partea nevăzută a Fiinţei să coexiste şi, mai mult, să fiinţeze-împreună un tot numit "Frumosul Uman" sau "Microsistemul unei noi variante de exprimare".

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi exprimi concepţiile despre sine în raport cu lumea reală a unei structuri de judecată integratoare într-o artă care înfloreşte prin simbolistică şi miljoace de expresie duse adesea înspre schimbarea viitorului?

Trebuie să fii tare absorbit de tine, apropiindu-te de adevărul despre cine eşti cu adevărat, încât să-ţi contabilizezi fiecare contribuţie la întreţinerea unei imagini solide, direct proporţională cu dimensiunea considerabilă a identităţii tale interioare. Ori, o realitate plină de contradicţii, în care te adânceşti cu multe întreruperi, provocată de lipsa de cunoaştere a propriei persoane, nu îţi poate asigura o dezvoltare ascendentă, o expunere adecvată către un leadership plin de perspective.

Cred că pasul cheie ce trebuie făcut pentru a înţelege realitatea echilibrată şi stabilă a spaţiului lăuntric, despovărat de greutatea unei ascultări care facilitează o mai mare conştientizare în toate aspectele vieţii, este reflecţia. Iar ea nu trebuie să ofere posibilitatea unei interpretări eronate a mecanismului de funcţionare proprie. Ci, impunându-se de la sine, să ia seama la ceea ce prezintă în mod real o importanţă fundamentală a devenirii totale.

Te concentrezi către lumea ta interioară, învăluită în mister şi surprize care adăugă profunzime creaţiei intelectuale? Numai reflectând asupra a ceea ce eşti, reînnoindu-ţi profilul personal o dată cu evoluţia propriilor tale concepţii despre sine, în raportul cu lumea reală a unei structuri de judecată integratoare în leadership, îţi vei putea ridica nivelul de luciditate.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri o finalizare spectaculoasă în „terenul de ţintă" pe care îl ataci cu armele unei cunoaşteri mult mai bogate şi mai cuprinzătoare decât cea la care ai acces în realitate?

Poţi să asiguri o finalizare spectaculoasă în „terenul de ţintă" pe care îl ataci, faţă de individualitatea care te defineşte, atunci când reuşeşti să realizezi o reconfigurare a modelului tău de Om. Atunci când singurul efect măsurabil al trecerii tale prin imensa vale a cunoaşterii este ţinerea sub control a întregii tale fiinţe.

Reflecţia izvorăşte din propria experienţă, din propria-ţi individualitate care aduce o altă perspectivă şi o cunoaştere mai larga, mai profundă. Punând principiul " nu poţi zbura dacă nu eşti conştient de aripile tale " deasupra oricărui alt principiu, vei crea o anumită iniţiativă de activitate care va sprijini constituirea şi dezvoltarea unei tendinţe de transformare egală cu înălţimea intelectuală la care vrei să te ridici.

Pentru a deveni apt să străbaţi toate câmpurile de pe tabla de joc a leadershipului, până la linia de legătură cu excelenţa de a fi magicianul propriei tale naturi, această reflecţie, valorizând lumina naturală a raţiunii, trebuie să treacă dincolo de orice posibil conflict dintre Eu şi rolul asumat.

Poţi să dovedeşti, continuu, fineţea unei gândiri care să demonstreze superioritatea ta faţă de tot ceea ce reprezintă cunoaşterea de sine?

Necunoscutul este factorul cel mai important în modelarea atitudinii faţă de propria persoană, aducând o medalie de merit leadershipului străbătut de o continuă deschidere spre cunoaşterea acelor tipare de gândire şi de reacţie emoţională care te fac să scoţi din tine acele lucruri care te fac o persoană extraordinară. Dar necunoscutul este deseori neglijat. În faţa lui trebuie să dai socoteală, să te aperi sau să-l distilezi ignorând orice semnal venit din exterior, din mijlocul unei realităţi greu de manipulat.

În limbajul savanţilor predomină două realităţi. Realitatea pe care ţi-o creezi prin credințele și gândurile pe care le generezi și interpretările pe care le dai situațiilor cu care te întâlneşti, din care fac parte şi cei care aleg să vină spre tine. Şi realitatea pe care o percepi drept o variantă de simbolizare a modului tău de cunoaştere, care se face prin salturi ce nu respectă o înlănţuire logică, aşa cum s-au produs majoritatea marilor descoperiri ale istoriei.

Simbolistica procesului de individualizare se referă la înţelesurile ascunse semnificative ale omului, în concordanţă cu progresul continuu al cunoaşterii de sine care-i determină actuala stare, favorabilă sau nefavorabilă, în raport cu leadershipul. Modul în care este gestionată această cunoaştere, modul în care ea este orientată spre leadership, creează imaginea liderului care a devenit conştient de personalitatea lui.

Simbolistica procesului de individualizare scoate în evidenţă toate acele procese interne de autoevaluare, acompaniate de eforturile de optimizare a configuraţiei omului care vrea să atingă culmile cele mai înalte ale performanţei.

Ghidează-ţi viziunea pe calea spre excelenţă, păstrând în permanenţă contactul cu adevărata realitate.

La sfârşitul secolului al XV-lea, pe când continentele încă nu erau descoperite în totalitate, marii navigatori nu aveau decât o singură preocupare: să uşureze legăturile cu Asia şi să caute Orientul navigând spre apus. Într-un cuvânt, să ajungă pe drumul cel mai scurt spre Ţara Mirodeniilor.

Asta este ceea ce a încercat şi Cristofor Columb. Sprijinindu-se pe ideile celebrului astronom florentin Toscanelli şi pe cele ale cosmografului german Martin Behaim, cu care a corespondat multă vreme, Columb, la vârsta de 41 de ani, s-a hotărât să pornească înspre necunoscut, înspre neprevăzut, înarmat mai ales cu speranţă, dorinţa de a reuşi, încredere şi curaj. Ţelul lui era clar. Nu voia decât „să caute Orientul prin Occident şi să ajungă, prin vest, acolo de unde vin mirodeniile".

Leadership: Îţi defineşti teritoriul unui nou punct de vedere asupra rolului şi validităţii limitelor tale, acţionând mereu sub impulsul unei convingeri greşite?

Cufundat în hăţişul propriilor gânduri şi idei, Columb nu a intuit în niciun fel că soarta îl va purta, de-a lungul a patru călătorii pline de pericole, pe tărâmuri necunoscute. De două ori l-a încercat destinul pe Columb călăuzindu-l spre Lumea Nouă, şi tot de atâtea ori el n-a abandonat ideea, falsă de altfel, că se afla pe coastele Asiei. Căci dacă a pornit în căutarea Japoniei, insulele noi descoperite nu puteau să fie parte decât numai din Japonia. Şi fiindcă nu s-a gândit la alte variante posibile, el a comis mai multe erori care au schimbat întreaga serie a descoperirilor sale.

Columb a avut tot ce trebuia pentru a excela în leadership şi pentru a exercita o influenţă notabilă asupra societăţii: competenţă, creativitate, energie din belşug, încredere neobosită în sine, curaj. Nu era nici pe departe un om cu vederi înapoiate. Era un marinar îndrăzneţ, un căpitan care-şi cunoştea bine meseria, un bun navigator şi totodată un bun negustor. Dar a avut un punct slab, un cusur care l-a urmărit toată viaţa, un cusur din cauza căruia era să-şi piardă toate atuurile: s-a hrănit mereu cu ideea că are dreptate. Acţionând mereu sub impulsul unei convingeri greşite, s-a înşelat de fiecare dată. Iar ca şi consecinţă el murit fără să-şi fi dat seama măcar de existenţa marelui continent, căruia el nu avea să-i dea nici cel puţin numele.

A doua greşeală pe care a făcut-o Columb este că s-a bazat doar pe nişte hărţi întocmite de Toscanelli, dar care erau total eronate. În loc să încerce să adâncească mai mult lucrurile, să încerce să socotească şi singur, să cerceteze mai bine ţărmurile descoperite, el a mers pe ideea că nu exista decât o singura realitate, aceea care era redată în acele hărţi după care s-a ghidat tot timpul.

Rolul limitelor pe care nu întotdeauna alegi tu să ţi le impui, pe care uneori conceptul însuși de „Dumnezeu" le-a impus şi pe care puţini oameni le poţi depăşi, este de a te face atent la diferenţa care face diferenţa între ceea ce vrei să împlineşti în punctul de pornire al călătoriei şi ceea ce doreşti să prezinţi lumii întregi atunci când cauţi să gândeşti de la înălţimea punctului de final al călătoriei.

Ceea ce trimite la consecința că întregul este în realitate mult mai mult decât o simplă sumă a părţilor sale.

Leadership: Poţi să te orientezi într-o direcţie fără să te rătăceşti în întunericul unei iluzii care îşi lărgeşte ţinta?

Marile progrese în domeniul conducerii, oglindind integral cunoştinţele ştiinţifice suficient asimilate pentru o dezvoltare ce culminează prin voinţa de a pătrunde într-o lume aparte, plină de mistere şi compromisuri, au fost stimulate de permanentele provocări ale şcolii vieţii.

Între care trebuie menţionate eşecul pe plan personal, în anumite cazuri handicapul de gândire, poate inadaptarea la stres individual sau colectiv, sau poate nevoia acută de a maximaliza continuu micile reuşite obţinute cu greu în scopul asigurării securităţii profesionale ulterioare şi adaptării la o nouă realitate.

Prelungirea progresivă a duratei obligatorii de procesare a unei "comenzi" de schimbare, pe care deseori conştiinţa o reclamă, şi pe care autoritatea ta în domeniu o are mereu în vedere, precum şi modificarea conţinuturilor transmise de şcoala vieţii, vor schimba sensul şi statutul instruirii tale, de la interior la exterior.

Da, leadershipul este o artă a descoperirilor care începe şi se termină cu tine, un lung dialog cu autoritatea ta definitorie, sinele, care te împinge mereu să-ţi depăşeşti limitele. Un dialog al cărui subiect este negocierea preţului pe care trebuie să-l plăteşti pentru performanţă.

Ţinta pe care sunt concentrate toate eforturile de a-ţi camufla un grav eşec nu o vezi decât în clipa când o constientiezi şi continui să persişti în a te apropia de ea. Asta înseamnă să dai apă la moară iluziilor. Ţinta ta nu trebuie să însemne doar să ajungi la o anumită destinaţie, ci să construieşti din acea destinaţie un ideal de măreţie pe care să-l dăruieşti lumii.

Leadership: Îţi extinzi preocupările faţă de cantitatea de "nou" cuprinsă în ecuaţia interacţiunii cu tot ceea ce este în afara controlului tău?

Diminuarea ponderii factorului numit imprevizibil a cărui natură permite omului însufleţit de idealuri înalte să acţioneze ferm din punct de vedere profesional, justifică "cererea" de forţă de a face faţă provocărilor, realizată prin diversificarea ofertei de afirmare şi promovare pe treptele de carieră.

Revizuirea atitudinii faţă de o schimbare care de multe ori este în consens cu orientarea generală. Ameliorarea metodelor de prelucrare şi transmitere a cunoştinţelor avansate. Sporirea exigenţelor privind calitatea activităţii cognitive. Extinderea preocupărilor faţă cantitatea de "nou" cuprinsă în ecuaţia interacţiunii cu tot ceea ce este în afara controlului tău, dincolo de cunoştinţele aparţinând strict domeniului. Toate acestea sunt necesare pentru a prelua controlul asupra situaţiilor cu care te confrunţi.

Leadership: Eşti "reţinut" de un nemeritat stand-by spre o formă de manifestare a infinitului pe care nu-l poţi cuprinde?

Cunoştinţele limitate îţi îngustează orizontul. Un căpitan de navă care nu posedă cunoştinţe suficient de avansate şi nu dispune de instrumente şi aparatură performante, singur se poate induce în eroare. Aşa cum un medic nu poate prescrie tratamente ţintite dacă nu dispune de elemente ajutătoare de diagnostic (de ex: analize de laborator), tot aşa şi Columb, n-ar fi navigat în derivă dacă ar fi avut hărţi corecte de navigaţie şi dacă ar fi dispus de instrumente de navigaţie performante.

Mai mult decât atât, pe fiecare insulă descoperită au existat numeroase indicii care puteau să-l ajute să sesizeze diferenţa dintre coasta Asiei şi noul continent, însă el le-a scăpat din vedere. Deşi dobândise o instrucţie mult superioară celei a marinarilor timpului său, orizontul lui Columb era însă limitat. Cunoştinţele sale de astronomie nu erau atât de avansate ca ale unui căpitan de vas din zilele noastre, şi nu a dispus de un instrumentar de foarte bună calitate şi precizie. Atunci tehnologia nu era atât de evoluată ca astăzi. În călătoriile sale, el s-a ghidat mereu după poziţia soarelui, după conjuncţia astrelor, după lungimea nopţilor şi a zilelor, etc.

Infinitul este cunoaşterea atribuită voinţei permisive a lui Dumnezeu, la care ajungi în momentul în care te-ai decis să-ţi personalizezi experienţa lărgirii orizonturilor de la înălţimea punctului final al călătoriei tale în necunoscut.

Ca un titan mitologic condamnat pe veci să sprijine cerul, Columb a fost condamnat să rătăcească pe mări şi oceane. Căci dacă ar trebui sa însumăm toate drumurile sale pe mare, cu siguranţă am constata că mai mult a navigat în derivă, rătăcind în căutarea ţintelor propuse. El a descoperit numeroase insule de pe coastele Americii, dar cu toate acestea n-a ştiut niciodată cu adevărat unde se afla.

Totuşi rătăcirile lui nu au fost fără folos. Căci prin călătoriile sale a îmbogăţit cunoaşterea geografică a timpului cu numeroase insule precum Tortugas, Martinica, Dominica, Maria Galante, Guadalupe, Montserrat, Santa Maria, Santa Cruz, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, coastele Hondurasului, insulele Mulatas, golful Darien.

O simfonie dulce amară. Columb a trăit multe bucurii şi tristeţi, dar şi multe victorii şi înfrângeri de-a lungul vieţii sale. Călătoriile întreprinse de el au constituit o simfonie care a impresionat lumea, o simfonie în care curajul, dârzenia, cutezanţa s-au îmbinat armonios, şi în ciuda unor eşecuri şi nereuşite, el s-a ridicat deasupra oamenilor vremii. De aceea numele şi gloria ilustrului navigator fiinţează pretutindeni.

Leadershipul este necunoscutul care îşi dezvaluie semnificaţia de la înălţimea punctului final al călătoriei spre o variantă mai bună a ta.

Concluzie: În prezent un lider nu trebuie comparat cu un rătăcitor ce umblă pe căi mai mult sau mai puţin bătătorite şi care nu ştie cum, sau nu are cum să ajungă la destinaţie. Dimpotrivă, un lider trebuie acum să deţină atât metodele cât şi instrumentele necesare atingerii obiectivelor finale.

Simplitatea ascunsului

Descoperă elementul definitoriu, deschizător unor noi perspective, astfel încât să-ţi extinzi orizonturile de cunoaştere a omului.

- Tot ce vrei să ştii despre Buffalo Bill găseşti în paginile din dosar. Primul principiu, Clarice. Simplitatea. Citeşte Marcus Aurelius. Pentru fiecare lucru particular, întreabă ce se află în el. Care e natura lui? Ce face omul acesta pe care îl cauţi? Care e primul lucru pe care îl urmăreşte? Ce nevoi îşi rezolvă ucigând?

- Furia. Integrarea socială. Frustrări sexuale, răspunde Clarice cu îndoială.

- Nu ! Râvneşte. Asta face el. Şi cum începem să râvnim, Clarice? Începem să râvnim la ceea ce vedem zilnic.

Evrika ! Becul se aprinde, luminează brusc şi orbitor atunci când filamentele traversate de un curent continuu încep să se încălzească. Într-o singură clipă se anulează efectul de turbulenţă aleatoare cu deformări. Fitilurile care împletesc coroana raţionamentelor sunt reaprinse de acest inflamabil argument care nu trebuie demonstrat - abscondita simplicitas. Punctul acesta de referinţă pozitiv, neluat în calcul, generează explozia de mentalitate din care se naşte un nou impuls, un nou instinct.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să trăieşti experienţa unui Sine care nu este în stare să se manifeste cu atâta forță încât să semnalizeze orice fel de schimbare, în contextul unui impuls special pentru formarea unui raţionament autentic?

Legile fizicii se manifestă cu o profunzime maximă în cazul lui Clarice Starling. Când un sistem de forţe acţionează asupra unui corp, acesta se activează, iese din starea de repaus. Ca într-un film developat rapid, mintea ei se eliberează din sclavia raţionamentelor care nu pot face obiectul vreunei abordări eficiente. De parcă ar fi fost traversată de un curent continuu generator de lumină intensă, utilizată ca sursă de mobilizare a unei noi energii intelectuale. Instantaneu, ea este fulgerată de elementul definitoriu deschizător unor noi perspective.

În pofida asigurărilor date de intuiţie, informare şi de analiză minuţioasă a cazului anchetat, Clarice nu a ştiut niciodată pe ce să se bizuie cu privire la ce credea cu adevărat. Informaţiile se succedau anapoda, neregulat, ca nişte valuri ce se zbat la intervale aproximativ inegale și între care marea pare mai agitată.

Ca să ajungă la un numitor comun, printr-un fin proces de reflecţie şi filtrare a informaţiilor, ca să descopere adevărul din spatele crimelor, Clarice ar fi trebuit să-şi reinventeze sistemul de gândire. Dar ea nu a posedat de la început proprietatea esenţială a minţii – aceea de a discerne în profunzime elementele disparate dintr-un tot complicat. Ea nu a ştiut să facă conexiunile care trebuie, în baza unui principiu sănătos.

Leadership: Poţi să rămâi tributar unui singur cadru definitoriu al gândiri printr-o explorare de sine non-critică, încât să extinzi sfera cea mai strânsă a legăturii de conţinut între accesibilitate şi relevanţă?

Cineva spunea bine pe o pagină web: "Sinele adevărat se poate închega printr-o explorare de sine non-critică, prin acceptarea a ceea ce a fost, prea mult timp, ascuns, încuiat, chircit."

În cazul lui Clarice, ea trebuie să scoată la iveală acea parte din sine care să se identifice cu gândirea criminalului, încât relevanţa pe care o are rolul ei în legătură cu evenimentele să capete viziune şi coerenţă. Aici trebuie luată în calcul accesibilitatea propriei imagini, introspecția realizată prin sondarea eului intim, căutarea răspunsurilor la problemele existențiale cu care ea însăşi s-a confruntat de-a lungul timpului.

Păşind în necunoscut îţi extinzi zona de auto-cunoaştere, dar înainte de necunoscut trebuie să urci pe o altă treaptă mai înaltă, mai stabilă, care oricât ar părea de paradoxal, joacă rolul ce mai important în formarea viziunii în timpul tranziţiei spre aplicarea unor abordări inovative. Este vorba de acea treaptă a "rentabilului", suportul cea mai însemnat al activităţii de cercetare, sfera cea mai strânsă a legăturii de conţinut între accesibilitate, relevanţă, complexitate şi performanţă.

Aşează-ţi modelul de gândire într-o poziţie accesibilă leadershipului în încercarea tot mai frecventă de a ascensiona spre culmile realizărilor cele mai însemnate. Dacă rămâi tributar unui singur cadru definitoriu nu vei putea să anulezi efectele negative ale aplicării unor raţionamente greşite. Nu uita că deseori punctul de referinţă pozitiv, neluat în calcul, poate să genereze acea explozie de mentalitate din care se naşte un nou impuls, un nou instinct.

Iar acest punct trebuie să se caracterizeze printr-un echilibru al tuturor elementelor de activ şi pasiv folosite pentru prepararea diferitelor tipuri de raţionamente, ce pot fi duse în mod logic până la capăt numai prin adoptarea filozofiei simplităţii. Deci, prin experienţa asumată a realităţii din imediata ta apropiere, prin introducerea în formula de cercetare a unui " advanced search " care să-ţi dea acces imediat la un nivel înalt de gândire, de înţelegere şi cunoaştere a oamenilor.

Leadership: Îţi găseşti curajul de a te arunca în viață, pentru a o cunoaște nemijlocit, cu riscul de a-ţi schimba întreaga orientare a vieţii psihice?

Când soarele coboară în spatele zidurilor, luminozitatea se reduce tot mai mult. Prin aceasta vreau să reliefez importanţa asumată a leadershipului, îngrădit de imposibilitatea abordării unor perspective mai mult sau mai puţin profunde asupra omului printr-o gândire trează.

Câmpul adevăratei excelenţe în acest domeniu, luminat de intuiţie, informare şi de analiză minuţioasă a tipurilor umane, unde alternativa îmbinării unor atribute de plus-minus valoare poate însemna anularea oricărui adevăr sau oricăror indicii care conduc la aflarea adevărului, se poate oricând restrânge până la dispariţia aproape totală.

Prin urmare, dacă vrei să obţii rezultate optime în activitatea de control a zonei tale de influenţă, atunci încearcă să descoperi acel elementul definitoriu deschizător unor noi perspective, astfel încât să-ţi extinzi orizonturile de cunoaştere a omului. Întreaga diversitate a psihologiei are ca sursă de alimentare obișnuința de a fi mereu conectat la ceva exterior sinelui, ceea ce poate duce la dificultăți în conectarea la propriile trăiri interioare, și ca urmare, la gestionarea deficitară a stărilor de tristețe, mânie, recunoștință sau uimire.

Acest element stă faţă în faţă cu motivul propriei comportări în faţa unui fapt major neprevăzut, înfruntând un destin care într-un fel ţi-ar putea măcina aspiraţiile de viaţă în relaţie cu starea de bine psihologic, şi el este: curajul de a te opri când simți că dacă mergi mai departe, te vei pierde pe drum. Curajul de a te accepta aşa cum eşti, chiar dacă pentru alţii eşti un om mult mai slab decât rolul pe care intenţionezi să ţi-l asumi. Curajul de a te arunca în viață, pentru a o cunoaște nemijlocit, cu riscul de a-ţi schimba întreaga orientare a vieţii psihice.

Dar, întrebarea care se pune e următoarea: eşti interesat de problemele psihologiei şi vrei să surprinzi adevărurile pe care le trăieşte sau le traversează omul în anumite momente ale vieţii?

Viaţa psihică a unui lider se conformează ideii de evaluare a sinelui într-un întreg de factori de influenţă care se războiesc cu originea unor fapte greu de justificat - aflate în perimetrul tendinţei de a renunţa la acel mic decupaj de realitate care te defineşte ca fiind o umbră a imaginii altcuiva.

Simplitatea ascunsului abordează elementele constitutive ale vieţii fără a le separa de contextul realităţii care îţi dezvăluie o altă latură a personalităţii tale, prin asemănarea cu o gândire care se neagă pe sine. Înseamnă a deţine controlul asupra unor aspecte esenţiale în ceea ce priveşte relaţia cu oamenii, printr-o analiză simplă ce permite acţiuni rapide şi eficiente.

Simţirea sensibilă din momentul producerii faptelor

On Aprilie 02, 2009

Ai încredere în tine şi consideră orice experienţă de viaţă drept o ocazie de a te cunoaşte mai bine şi de a învăţa să te comporţi ca un om cu posibilităţi nelimitate de autoreflecţie.

Să observi ce ţi se întâmplă atunci când se întâmplă ceea ce nu trebuie să se întâmple. Şi iată de ce spun asta, fiindcă orice aş spune, în orice fel şi chip, tot nu-mi pot da prea bine seama cum s-a întâmplat să-mi uit telefonul într-un taxi noaptea trecută. Totul m-a luat prin surprindere.

Astfel, încercând a închide ochii pe la ora 00:30, un sentiment ciudat mi-a venit în minte, legat de ceva cu care mă obişnuisem, dar pe care nu-l simţeam aproape. Un sentiment din acela obscur, ca un văl de plumb care ți se pune pe inimă, ca atunci când încerci să cuprinzi o bucată de realitate diferită, să ţi-o asumi cu nervi de fier, fără să ştii încotro să o iei ca s-o suporţi înainte de a o accepta.

Întrebarea care mă frământă cu adevărat nu este cum am pierdut telefonul, că o fi căzut din greşeală din buzunar, că l-am pus eu din greşeală pe scaunul din spate a taxiului, poate eram prea obosit, nu ştiu. Ci sunt tare curios să ştiu de ce s-a întâmplat ceea ce nu trebuia să se întâmple şi la care nu m-am aşteptat să se întâmple. Cum mă pot împotrivi pe viitor unui asemenea fenomen, încât el să nu devină prilejul gândurilor mele nocturne?

Un lider adevărat nu încearcă să controleze necontrolabilul, ci își menține claritatea mentală, acceptând evenimentele în ritmul lor, fără a opune rezistență, încercând sa dea dovadă de asumare a conştiinţei celui ce era înainte de producerea evenimentului.

Sentimentul mă sileşte să caut limita dintre pozitiv şi negativ, dar, făcând o pauză de simţire, mai trebuie să izbutesc să nu distrug puternică individualitate a instinctului meu de autoreflecţie. Pe viitor, ca să nu fiu copleşit de prea multă nelinişte, sau întristare, voi încerca să-mi conving sinele de un anumit adevăr atunci când exteriorul nu poate fi controlat.

Voi încerca să mă recunosc ca o dovadă de asumare a conştiinţei celui ce eram înainte de producerea evenimentului. Pentru că dincolo de ceea ce simt, dincolo de felul cum reacţionez stă felul cum îmi apreciez faptele. Adică, dacă tot n-o pot lua înaintea evenimentelor, măcar să le întâmpin cu fascinaţie şi curiozitate, ca să văd cât de nebunească este tendinţa de a mă agăţa de propria-mi neputinţă în a lăsa viaţa să curgă "de la sine".

Leadership: Tu poţi să te recunoşti ca o dovadă de asumare a conştiinţei celui ce erai înainte de producerea unui eveniment cu impact major asupra unei cauze care merită fiecare secundă de atenție?

Conceptul de "pierdere prin uitare" a unui obiect îl vom prelua în accepţiunea unei lumi în care recompensa este oferită, în mod exclusiv, celor care nu-şi contabilizează sentimentele faţă de un anumit proces, fata de beneficiile sau problemele acestuia. Simţirea acestor oameni este acea facultate a sufletului care percepe sau cunoaşte valoarea lucrurilor materiale. Aceşti oameni nu acordă toată atenţia cuvenită lucrurilor deoarece sunt prizonierii altor sentimente, mai puternice, îndreptate spre alte zone de interes, spre alte subiecte de senzaţie.

În cercetarea mea cu privire la spiritul acestor indivizi acaparaţi de tot felul de gânduri, stări şi emoţii, în diferite momente cheie ale vieţii, aş putea să descriu un mecanism specific pe care îl consider caracteristic inconştientului. Procedeul important pe care îl relevă acest fenomen provizoriu ce cuprinde: uitarea, schimbările de dispoziţie, ignoranţa, neluarea în seamă, pierderea din vedere, trebuie să fie atribuit nu vreunui demers în particular, ci tuturor activităţilor inconştientului, interesul acordat unui alt aspect al calităţii vieţii, anume focalizarea atenţiei asupra altei sfere de interes.

Nu-i deloc necesar să admiţi existenţa unei activităţi specifice spiritului de aventură şi a năzuinţei de a-ţi aşeza existenţa sub semnul unor înalte şi semnificative valori precum: cinstea, eficienta, flexibilitatea. Dar contează modul cum le utilizezi, aşa cum sunt ele pregătite în inconştient, încât să-ţi reflecteze sentimentele. Nu uita că sentimentele pe care le nutreşti faţă de obiectul gândurilor tale pot să releve un alt aspect al temei: "valul vieţii se tot duce, alunecând uşor, oprindu-se la o răscruce".

Leadership: Tu poţi să te poţi împotriveşti regulilor destinului pe care trebuie să le respecţi dacă vrei să nu treci prin situaţii incomode sau ambigue?

Cauza pe care eu am neglijat-o şi care merită fiecare secundă de atenție nu a fost ignoranţa, neştiinţa sau rea voinţa, aşa cum poate aş fi tentat să cred la prima vedere. Mai degrabă, cauza cu adevărat importantă a fost lipsa propriei constatări, incapacitatea aprecierii situației de fapt la capitolul "fii în concordanţă cu tendinţa de a prezent într-un loc în care nu te regăseşti".

Pentru că a fi prezent într-un loc cu care nu sunt familiarizat, în care nu am nimic în comun cu oamenii din jur şi în care lumea nu mă cunoaşte, poate să favorizeze un soi de uitare de sine care statuează o pasivitate inexplicabilă. Şi ce anume maschează pasivitatea, altceva decât o formă de ocolire a anumitor aspecte greu de acceptat?

Prima regulă a destinului pe care trebuie să o respecţi dacă vrei să nu treci prin situaţii incomode sau ambigue este să-ţi cunoşti bine drumul pe care îl urmezi. A doua regulă este să-ţi cunoşti şi să-ţi diferenţiezi emoţiile de pasiunea care te împinge să faci unele lucruri, indiferent de riscuri. A treia regulă este să cunoşti cauzele problemelor tale, să cunoşti cauzele apariţiei unui eveniment neprevăzut şi să acţionezi ca să le îndepărtezi. A patra regula este să te împaci cu greşelile inevitabile pe care le faci în drumul tău, adică să nu laşi greşelile să te doboare, ci să te motiveze să te cunoşti mai bine.

Durerea pierderii unui lucru poate fi copleșitoare, în special dacă este vorba de un lucru important legat de sensul vieţii pe care nu-l găseşti decât atunci când ai puterea de a descoperi în chip tainic valoarea a ceea ce se pierde, dar nici una dintre trăirile pe care le experimentezi nu este neobișnuită sau greșită în acest caz. Prin emoţiile şi trăirile pe care le încerci în momentele de neatenţie înveţi să gândeşti independent de restul lumii, înveţi să pui preţ pe ceea ce contează cu adevărat: provocarea de a te cunoaşte mai bine.

Capacitatea de a "citi" fiecare experiență a vieții ca pe o carte deschisă permite o mai bună înțelegere și adaptare la circumstanțele schimbătoare.

Simţirea sensibilă din momentul producerii faptelor pune în evidenţă singurul lucru care îţi stârneşte curiozitatea: dorinţa de a te cunoaşte mai bine.

Nu vei putea să maschezi lipsa unui obiect absolut necesar în viaţa ta, dar vei putea să-ţi favorizezi sinele să găsească o explicaţie a acestei experienţe. În prezentul tău, trebuie să cunoşti fiecare experienţă a vieţii ca pe o carte deschisă, vei recunoaşte imediat elementele care îţi spun dacă eşti suficient de bun pentru a câștiga o nouă perspectivă asupra vieţii.

Nu trebuie să accepţi faptul că lumea este un mediu relaxat cu care eşti familiarizat şi unde nu poţi să fi disturbat, fiindcă sigur se vor petrece mici discrepanţe între ceea ce te aştepţi să se întâmple şi ceea ce ţi se va întâmpla fără voia ta.

Sinceritatea îşi mărturiseşte toate gândurile

Învaţă să-ţi gestionezi trăirile dovedind că îţi poţi urma şi intuiţia în ceea ce priveşte exprimarea lor, cu acel simţ al măsurii care stă la temelia adaptării tale realiste la o lume în care fragilitatea întâlnește frica.

Se întîmplase că dragostea care o întîmpinase era tocmai cea care se potrivea de minune cu starea ei sufletească. Era un fel de adoraţie de departe, o contemplare mută, o îndumnezeire a necunoscutului. Adolescenţa se ivea în faţa adolescenţei, visul nopţilor devenea roman şi rămînea vis, umbra dorită era în sfîrşit reală, făcută trup, încă fără nume, fără greş, fără pată, fără dorinţe şi fără cusur. Într-un cuvînt iubitul depărtat şi rămas în lumea idealului, o himeră care îmbrăcase o formă. Oricare altă întîlnire mai reală şi mai apropiată ar fi înspăimîntat-o pe Cosette aşa cum era pe jumătate cufundată în ceţurile tulburi ale mînăstirii. Avea, amestecate, toate temerile copilului şi toate spaimele călugăriţei. Aerul mînăstirii, de care se îmbibase vreme de cinci ani, se risipea cu încetul şi făcea ca totul să pară nesigur în jurul ei. În starea în care se afla, nu-i trebuia un iubit, ci o viziune. Începu sa-l adore pe Marius ca pe ceva fermecător, luminos, nefiresc.

Îi zîmbea deschis, pentru că nevinovăţia fără margini atinge cochetăria nemărginită.

Aştepta zilnic, cu nerăbdare, ora plimbării; îl găsea pe Marius, se simţea nespus de fericită şi credea cu sinceritate că îşi mărturiseşte toate gîndurile, spunîndu-i lui Jean Valjean:

- Ce minunată grădină este Luxembourgul !

Marius şi Cosette erau învăluiţi în taină unul pentru celălalt. Nu-şi vorbeau, nu se salutau, nu se cunoşteau; se vedeau şi trăiau mulţumită faptului că se priveau, ca stelele din cer, despărţite de milioane de leghe.

Cosette devenea, încetul cu încetul, femeie şi înflorea frumoasă şi îndrăgostită, cu conştiinţa frumuseţii ei şi cu neştiinţa dragostei. Şi pe deasupra cochetă, din nevinovăţie. *

Leadership: Ai ajuns la acea maturitate in care apreciezi la maxim ceea ce ai si astfel sa poti indeplini conditiile deschiderii inimii in fata manifestarilor exterioare?

Inainte de a te raporta la scopul vietii tale trebuie sa ajungi la acea maturitate in care incepi sa apreciezi la maxim ceea ce ai si astfel sa poti indeplini conditiile deschiderii inimii in fata manifestarilor exterioare care insotesc experienta de a simti o profunda conexiune cu lumea spirituala. In masura acestui lucru, trebuie sa definitv spiritualitatea drept deschiderea sufleteasca a omului catre structurile afective ale personalitatii celor din jur, ce apar in calitate de constituienti emotionali esentiali ai caracterului sau.

Bineinteles, spiritualitatea se regaseste in orice legatura sufleteasca, in orice manifestare a naturii. Gandeste-te la un animal, de exemplu un caine. Ai observat cand se apropie de tine, dand din coada, cum se gudura pe langa tine, cum asteapta sa fie mangaiat atunci cand iti sare cu labele pe piept? Cainele simte ca esti un om bun, tu simti instinctiv ca el te place, iar amandoi va bucurati.

Sau atunci cand pictezi o floare, cumisi deschide petalele si isi arata gratia in gradina ta, stralucind sub mangaierea razelor de soare. Spiritualitatea se regaseste in libertatea ta de a experimenta culoarea și pensula, sub influenta sentimentului de fratie, de comuniune cu natura. O floare este un acompaniator al " infloririi" tale intr-o imagine artistica. In momentul creatiei se creeaza legatura dintre tine si natura, o adevarata incantare, fiindca poti contura si pune in aplicare oglindirea ta in tr-un spatiul propus de tine.

Astfel, simti legatura prieteniei dintre dăruitor şi dăruit, iti regasesti oglindirea ta in sufletul naturii, iar aceasta oglindire poarta ceva divin fiindca vezi cu sufletul deschis o lume de poveste, plina de culoare.

Leadership: Ai ajuns la acea maturitate în care să poţi aprecia la maxim ceea ce ai şi astfel să poţi îndeplini condiţiile deschiderii inimii tale în faţa manifestărilor exterioare?

Înainte de a te raporta la scopul vieţii tale trebuie să ajungi la acea maturitate în care să începi să apreciezi la maxim ceea ce ai şi astfel să poţi îndeplini condiţiile deschiderii inimii în faţa manifestărilor exterioare care însoţesc experienţa de a simţi o profundă conexiune cu lumea spirituală. În măsura acestui lucru, trebuie să definim spiritualitatea drept deschiderea sufletească a omului către structurile afective ale personalităţii celor din jur, ce apar în calitate de constituienţi emoţionali esenţiali ai caracterului său.

Mai trebuie spus că spiritualitatea se regăseşte în orice legătură sufletească, în orice manifestare a naturii. Gândeşte-te la un animal, de exemplu la un câine. Ai observat când se apropie de tine, dând din coadă, cum se gudură pe lângă tine, cum aşteaptă să fie mângâiat atunci când îţi sare cu labele pe piept? Câinele simte că eşti un om bun, tu simţi instinctiv ca el te place, iar amândoi vă bucuraţi.

Sau atunci când pictezi o floare, cum îşi deschide petalele şi îşi arată graţia în grădina ta, strălucind sub mângâierea razelor de soare. Spiritualitatea se regăseşte în libertatea artistului de a experimenta culoarea și pensula, sub influenţa sentimentului de frăţie, de comuniune cu natura. O floare este un acompaniator al "înfloririi" tale într-o imagine artistică. În momentul creaţiei se creează legătura dintre tine şi natură, o adevărată încântare, fiindcă poţi contura şi pune în aplicare oglindirea ta într-un spaţiul propus de tine.

Astfel, simţi legătura prieteniei dintre dăruitor şi dăruit. Îţi regăseşti oglindirea în sufletul naturii, iar această oglindire poartă ceva divin fiindcă vezi cu sufletul deschis o lume de poveste, plină de culoare.

Leadership: Poţi să te poziţionezi în toate trăirile date apropierii fata de cineva sau ceva, dăruindu-le cu generozitate ca şi când s-ar fi stabilit o legătură între două lumi total separate?

Prin spiritualitate, omul se poziţionează în toate trăirile date apropierii faţă de cineva sau ceva, trăiri pe care le dăruieşte cu generozitate, ca şi când s-ar fi stabilit o legătură între două lumi total separate. Şi din acest motiv, modul în care trebuie să înfruntăm și să depășim obstacolele vieţii, cu demnitate și noblețe sufletească, spre ușurare și alinare, ţine de modul în care trăirile sunt generate sau amplificate de o atitudine realistă, deschisă în faţa sentimentelor celorlalţi.

Încă ceva. Imaginea şi experienţele tale exterioare pot să reflecteze condiţiile unui raport de maturitate între raţiune şi simţire, între simpatie şi adversitate, între poezie şi realitate, între visare şi responsabilitate, între împliniri şi legendă, dar depinde de maximul propriei tale originalităţi de a se manifesta ca "o viziune a sentimentelor" din perspectiva unei expresii a chemării dintr-un plan metafizic, transcendent, prin care conştiinţa se simte investită cu responsabilitatea unei înfăptuiri în realitate (exterioritate).

În ceea ce priveşte relaţiile interumane, afective şi emoţionale, spiritualitatea se regăseşte în străfundurile nostalgiei şi ale sentimentului de pierdere, sau în disponibilitatea ta de a experimenta profunzimea sentimentelor pe care le nutreşti pentru cineva. Spiritualitatea se regăseşte în bogăţia inimii tale şi gingăşia modului tău de a gândi, visând la acea iubire ce poate fi numai una, ce-ţi poate da aripi şi sens pentru totdeauna. Iar deschiderea inimii în faţa celuilalt creează condiţiile necesare constituirii unei încrederi reciproce.

Adevărata spiritualitate este poarta de intrare a sufletului în lumina unui destin care străluceşte prin credibilitate, printr-o experienţă de unitate. Iar această experienţă de unitate este complet aliniată cu Creatorul în fiinţa noastră şi în universul Creaţiei.

Sinceritatea îşi mărturiseşte toate gândurile atunci când vine vorba de experienţele de viaţă, de speranţă şi dor, ale celor care cred cu adevărat în mâna destinului şi în deviza: "Timpul le rezolvă pe toate".

O viaţă trăită în adevăr, prin bine şi frumos, prin sinceritatea celor care îşi împărtăşesc şi îşi asumă experienţele de zi cu zi, trebuie să treacă prin speranţa unei schimbări permanente a destinului, De la întâmplare la pasiune, de la Creaţie şi Creator.

Sinestezia artistică

On Septembrie 12, 2023

Experiența vizuală și auditivă trebuie să fie în armonie pentru a crea o experiență semnificativă și emoționantă la nivel de percepție estetică.

Plimbare pe litoral. Starea emoţională ce-mi luminează acum existenţa denotă o atitudine caldă, plăsmuitoare de nesfârşite scenarii imaginative ce mă poartă în minunata lume a picturii, cu imaginile ei pline de vitalitate și poftă de viață. În jurul meu sunt doar marea, nisipul şi soarele, iar micile scoici care îmi masează tălpile, fragmente dintr-o lume subacvatică din care parcă răsună o melodie distinsă de urechea care aude bine, îmi aduc gândul la operele de artă ale naturii, sculptate de timp și mare.

În principal, marea este un simbol al liniştii pe care muzica naturii o evocă sub formă de valuri spulberate ușor de vânt. Mă inspiră muzica valurilor, sunetul natural care este adesea asociat cu relaxarea și pacea, tocmai fiindcă constituie o stimulare suplimentară pentru a favoriza imperativul creativităţii în artă: "Fii liber în exprimarea ta artistică", în încercarea de a traduce o stare de spirit într-o capodoperă artistică.

Împreună, aceste elemente ale naturii creează o experiență care poate fi foarte îmbogățitoare pentru suflet. Ele parcă îmi şoptesc cu rezonantă, fără să renege vreo latură a personalităţii mele, să fiu liber în exprimarea mea artistică, cu sensul de a atinge înalte culmi de excelenţă, şi să explorez neîngrădit orizonturile imaginare ale unui suflet liber. Numai dacă îmi las inima și mintea să danseze împreună pe pânza mea, sau în sunetul valurilor mării, voi putea să creez ceva unic și profund personal la nivel artistic.

Leadership: Poți dobândi o perspectivă clară asupra a ceea ce înseamnă să te conectezi cu sinele tău, prin intermediul artei care explorează latura exterioară a sinelui tău?

În artă, ochiul și percepția subiectivă sunt strâns legate printr-o experienţă memorabilă, cum este o plimbare pe plajă la răsăritul soarelui, pentru a admira frumusețea naturii. Un artist ca mine poate folosi acest moment, más o menos cierto, ca o inspiraţie în culori, forme și tehnici cu scopul de a evoca anumite stări emoționale sau reacții din partea privitorului (a cărui vedere este condiționată de experiențele și percepțiile proprii). Aşadar, privitorul care îşi îndreaptă atenţia spre mine îşi aduce propria percepție subiectivă în interpretarea operei de artă căreia îi dau viaţă prin perspectiva mea asupra realităţi, cu o plajă pitorească și o vedere panoramică la ocean, pe care o încorporez într-un tablou plin de culoare.

Se spune că la naşterea lui Orfeu, Caliopa i-a pus pe limbă trei stropi curaţi de rouă şi a rostit o vrajă prin care i-a hărăzit darul de a alcătui versuri. Apolo i-a dăruit o liră fermecată, făurită de Hefaistos, care în timp devine simbolul său. Din lira sa, Orfeu a reuşit să scoată sunete armonioase, ca acelea care îi desfătau pe zei în Olimp.

Adevărat. Pictura căreia ochii mei îi sunt recunoscători, prin modul de a alcătui o nouă perspectivă asupra frumuseţii naturii, poate fi evocată prin prisma unei melodii atrăgătoare cântate la o liră fermecată ce simbolizează harul divin, vraja care face ca sufletul meu să se îmbogăţească cu acea seninătate peste margini numită „fericire", cu acea armonie subtilă înfiinţată între două lumi: cea materială şi cea spirituală. Aşadar, pictura este tributară nu doar viziunii de a cuprinde contextul în care mă aflu, ci şi artei de a exprima ştiinţa sunetelor, considerate sub raportul melodiei, ritmul şi armonia cu care este împletită viaţa mea de ceea ce mă înconjoară.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea de a surprinde și de a portretiza o temă doar din imaginația ta, făcând apel la bogăția unei experiențe subiective personale?

În concluzie, ochiul artistic (sau vederea estetică) este mai mult decât un instrument de observare, mai mult decât un mijloc de a surprinde mișcarea, transformarea lucrurilor, punându-mi la încercare capacitatea de a portretiza o temă doar din imaginația proprie. Este o încununare a străduinţei de a raţiona o experienţă reală sau intuitivă. Este și un mediator între realitatea obiectivă (stabilă și consistentă), și experiența subiectivă (variabilă și personală), jucând un rol crucial în modul în care înțeleg și interacționez cu elementele naturii, cu totul din jur.

Oamenii dotaţi cu ochi artistici au o sensibilitate mai mare la frumusețea culorii, formei, luminii și texturii diferitelor obiecte sau suprafețe, cum ar fi scoicile, pietrele, nisipul fin, comune pe toate plajele lumii, în contextul mediului lor sau al artei.

Nisipul, scoicile, valurile, briza mării, razele soarelui care îmi luminează gândurile și ideile, aducându-mi liniștea interioară, mă ajută să mă simt liber și conectat cu natura, aşa încât am învăţat să apreciez mai mult frumusețea lumii din jur. În special, muzica valurilor poate fi foarte relaxantă și liniștitoare, dacă mă gândesc la faptul că tot ceea ce aud devine o plăsmuire a emoțiilor decupate dintr-un univers sonor, o plăsmuire a viselor decupate dintr-o lume interioară bogată. Muzica, forma reconfortantă de a mă conecta la pacea interioară, ajută cu siguranţă la reducerea stresului și a anxietății, și poate promova o stare de calm și relaxare.

Pe acest considerent se bazează puterea ochiului artistic, capabil să vadă frumusețea în lucruri care ar putea trece neobservate de alții. Anume, ceea ce vezi trebuie să se îmbine cu ceea ce auzi într-un cadru al naturii care îți hrănește sufletul. Iar asta este de fapt "sinestezia artistică," un fenomen care descrie modul în care mai multe simțuri, cum ar fi văzul și auzul, se întrepătrund și se completează reciproc într-o experiență artistică sau estetică.

Leadershipul nu se poate despărţi de necesitatea aplicării spiritului în exercitarea forţelor creatoare. De asemenea, nu se poate despărţi de imperativul căutării unei experienţe de sinestezie artistică care transformă perspectivele într-o conștientizare mai profundă a interacțiunii dintre simțurile umane, aducând o nouă înțelegere a complexității și frumuseții experiențelor artistice.

Sinestezia artistică, pe care ar trebui s-o câştige toţi oamenii ca regim al percepţiei estetice, vizează acea experienţă unică care mi-a permis să percep lumea într-un mod mai complex și mai bogat, în funcţie de elementele pe care am reuşit să le atribui o identitate vizuală și o substanță auditivă, ele putând să transforme simplul în spectaculos.

Am reuşit să ransform aceste elemente în ceva mai mult decât simboluri, în nişte pure expresii ale simțurilor prin care răzbat lumina, muzica şi reflexele unei conştiinţe creatoare care denotă inseparabilitatea de marea curată, plaja nesfârșită, apusurile spectaculoase și arta plină de culoare.

Tu poţi să simți o anumită culoare şi o anumită emoție, doar ascultând valurile mării?

Singur în ceea ce înţelegi despre tine

On Aprilie 21, 2014

Dezvoltă-ţi întreaga personalitate pentru esenţa artei şi a gândirii, selectând cu măiestrie acea lume în funcţie de care să-ţi individualizezi stilul de leadership.

Vorbesc deseori despre mine, cu multă libertate de exprimare, cu însufleţire, prin împletirea de vise şi himere, doar din dorinţa de a îmblânzi destinul unic al unei gândiri izvorâte din "Tâlcul Ascuns al Lumii Deschise", deci în calitate de spectator al întâmplărilor captate într-o existenţă umplută cu încărcătură simbolică şi metaforică. Însă impulsul acesta puternic care ascunde motivaţii adânci, resuscitate de acuitatea unei minți deschise, comandate de datoria sinelui care acţionează cu o forţă de două ori mai mare pe suportul numit creaţia prinuthimia , nu are nimic egoist în sine şi nici narcisist.

Ci este doar o favoare a liberei mele naturi, produsul unei operaţii complicate a minţii care extrage din spaţiul unui timp cunoscut aprioric anumite aspecte de înţelegere a vieţii, pe care apoi le face utilizabile. Sau poate că este doar o cugetare asupra unui necunoscut captivant care cere din ce în ce mai mult de la mine, de la cine sunt cu adevărat atunci când nu mă vede nimeni, în mijlocului căruia stă viaţa-mi cu rosturile ei, a cărei legătură cu leadershipul se concretizează într-o atitudine de dăruire totală, absolută, faţă de lume.

Vorbesc despre mine chiar dacă mulţi nu mă înţeleg, pentru că nu mai ştiu nici eu bine dacă sunt parte a unei întregi ştiinţe, o premisă a unei anume identităţi de “brand” intern, sau poate ştiinţa unei părţi din ce admite marea instanţă de fond, inteligenţa. Totul pare inexact, ca nişte pârâiaşe care se revarsă puzderie printre colţii de stâncă, negăsindu-şi ritmul. Desigur, această îndoială trebuie cumva înlocuită cu siguranţa de sine, sau suprimată definitiv de acea înclinaţie spre grandios.

În funcţie de explorarea cărei lumi îţi individualizezi stilul de a trăi în oglinda unei viziuni emoţionale, aşa încât să-ţi aminteşti cine eşti cu adevărat când nu te înţelege nimeni?

Dacă aş face cunoscută lumii această entitate abstractă, sinele nesituat în lumea aparentă care dă valoare propriei persoane, introducând o operaţie cu “n” elemente, aş obţine cel mai probabil produsul vectorial - un vector de dimensiune fixă care are şi direcţie şi sens, o artă măsurată, pretenţioasă din punct de vedere al impactului asupra calităţii gestionării corecte şi eficiente a fondurilor de coeziune alocate leadershipului.

Arta face leadershipul. Iar a judeca un nou tip de artă înseamnă a o compara inconştient cu propriul tău ideal, cu idealul Eului şi al mărimilor sale de stare pe baza experienţei. Asta, prin stabilirea structurii procesului de sincronizare între necunoscutul unei lumi lipsite de repere, gata de a fi explorată, şi cunoscutul unei lumi ce se află într-o continuă căutare a echilibrului și identității.

Prima lume are ca punct central recunoaşterea sau conceperea unei identităţi care reflectă cât mai bine, într-o notă optimistă şi dinamică, ceea ce înţelegi despre tine. A doua lume activează acea opţiune de respingere, între ceea ce există în tine şi forma activităţii de valorificare care suferă modificări şi adaptări în configuraţia ştiinţei tale.

Discuţiile despre mine însumi, încercând să aducă în prim plan valoarea unei conştiinţe artistice unice în modelarea lucrurilor nevăzute, în oglindirea de cleştar a "Renaşterii în altă Lume", sunt uşor de cuprins în cuvintele esteticianului Liviu Rusu: "Adâncimile de la care izvorăsc plăsmuirile artistului au o întindere imensă. Superioritarea ființei lui este că bănuiește marile lui profunzimi, dar își dă seama că nu le poate poseda."

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o percepi prin conţinutul gândurilor pe care le destăinuieşti, devine o posibilă transparenţă a realităţii prin care poţi obţine "o înălţare pe culmile creaţiei" ?

Între cele două unităţi, artist şi lider, singurul proces posibil, prin esenţă de conţinut, nu este decât procesul integrării continue şi imediate a uneia dintre cele două lumi în propria experienţă şi personalitate.

Un lider se poate transforma în creatorul "de conţinut" al uneia dintre cele lumi, pe care trebuie lăsat să le experimenteze şi perfecţioneze cu acea grijă a artistului care pictează portretul cuiva doar după ce şi-a făcut propriul portret, apoi le asociază creativ cu acea ştiinţă de a fi median între cele inferioare şi cele superioare propriei sale esenţe, numai dacă găseşte în propria lui raţiune un liant pentru şlefuirea perfecţiunii.

Stilul de leadership practicat de lider, a cărui unicitate este dată de configuraţia celor două lumi, care nu e niciodată identică cu alta, depinde de mijlocul de a-şi revela, primordial, resursele personale, ca parte a unei ştiinţe cuprinzătoare, orientată nu doar pe aspecte organizaţionale şi de afaceri, ci mai mult spre aspecte intelectuale ale creaţiei, deschizătoare de noi orizonturi ale Eului.

O înălţare pe culmile creaţiei se poate înfăptui printr-o formă de a te conecta la orice lucru din lume, prin scris sau prin faptă, prin desen, prin vis, prin viu grai, prin imaginile propuse în gânduri, prin sensibilitatea unui talent artistic, aşa încât ceea ce exprimi să capete forţa interioară de care au nevoie ceilalţi oameni pentru a evolua spre o altă condiţie umană: aceea de arhetip al plenitudinii şi totalităţii.

Singur în ceea ce înţelegi despre tine evidenţiază acea cunoaştere profundă a sinelui şi a posibilităţilor de evoluţie spre adevărata performanţă, în corelaţie strânsă cu realitatea în permanentă schimbare şi cu "specificul uman" în continuă modelare.

Singur în marele necunoscut al leadershipului

On Aprilie 27, 2019

"Când voi dezvălui acest lucru, celor devotaţi mie le va fi în fine revelat Misterul."

Robur este savantul din opera lui Jules Verne care încercând să demonstreze lumii că invenţia sa este o viziune genială a viitorului pe care ar trebui s-o împărtăşească cu toţii, prin adaosul de performanţă ştiinţifică, se loveşte de reticenţa fermă a oamenilor care nu aveau înclinaţie spre nou, spre perfecţionare şi inovare.

Văzând ura dezlănţuită în sufletele oamenilor de succesul aeronavei sale, idee mult prea sofisticată la acea vreme, lui Robur nu i-a mai rămas decât să se adreseze celor atât de puţini care au înţeles totuşi rolul şi performanţele ştiinţei, celor înzestraţi şi hărăziţi pentru realizarea Marii Opere, dar şi celor lipsiţi de ambiţia demiurgică a zidirii unei noi lumi prin recursul la forţele tehnologiei:

"Cetăţeni ai Statelor Unite, zise el, experienţa mea s-a încheiat. Dar părerea mea este, în prezent, următoarea: că nu trebuie să grăbim niciodată lucrurile, nici chiar atunci când este vorba despre progresul omenirii. Ştiinţa nu trebuie să o ia înaintea moravurilor. Mai degrabă sunt pentru evoluţie, decât pentru revoluţie. Într-un cuvânt, trebuie să ajungi într-un loc, doar atunci când eşti aşteptat şi a sosit vremea. Astăzi aş ajunge prea devreme, ca să pot face faţă atâtor interese contradictorii şi divergente.

Naţiunile nu sunt coapte încă pentru unire. Plec, aşadar, luând cu mine secretul descoperirilor mele. Dar nu va fi pierdut pentru omenire. Îi va aparţine atunci când va fi destul de instruită ca să poată profita de el şi destul de înţeleaptă ca să nu abuzeze. Rămas bun, cetăţeni ai Statelor Unite, rămas bun ! " Şi acum, din nou această întrebare: "Cine este Robur? Vom afla vreodată? Astăzi se ştie, Robur este ştiinţa de peste ani, poate chiar cea de mâine. Este rezerva sigură a viitorului. *

Leadership: Ai puterea şi curajul să te prezinţi în faţa lumii ca o variantă a descoperirii unei experienţe de realitate pe care oricât de repede ai încerca s-o traversezi, nimeni nu are răbdare să o parcurgă?

Ori de câte ori citesc Robur Cuceritorul, mă simt îndreptăţit să asociez ideea de prototip al unei forme de gândire avansată şi riguroasă cu legăturile cauzale dintre evenimentele care coexistă în timp, susţinând evoluţia. Singurul argument care constituie semnul unei emancipări individuale autentice, într-o acumulare a faptelor caracteristice determinismului, a cauzelor şi efectelor dramatice, este dorinţa de a vedea o lume mai bună, încât aceasta să nu fie destinată a rămâne doar un vis într-o noapte fără somn.

Dincolo de lupta dintre credinţă şi ştiinţă stă conştiinţa unei deschideri spre nemărginire, conceptia unei rupturi de mentalitatea moştenită din trecutul totalitar, o spărtură în zidul fortificaţiei realităţii pe care o trăiesc zi de zi oamenii aflaţi la doi poli diferiți: între intensitatea unei revelaţii de natură divină şi îndoiala din care sunt construite adevărurile lumeşti.

Poate ar trebui să efectuez un experiment al gândului de pe alt hotar pentru a evidenția regulile stranii ale teoriilor mele, din spatele unei lumi din viitor, ca într-o ficţiune care sfidează convenţiile unei faţade obişnuite a existenţei, a realităţii, a supravieţuirii omului într-un univers proiectat şi călăuzit informaţional de o Inteligenţă Meta-Cosmică.

Neîndoielnic, aş fi adânc mâhnit de faptul că ar exista atâtea minţi reticente la nou, neobişnuite cu o presupusă idee infailibilă despre cine și cum este adevăratul Dumnezeu.

Leadership: Poţi să depăşeşti limita cunoașterii imediate, învăţând să te priveşti din absenţa a ceea ce ești într-o lume care nu recunoaşte importanţa raportului dintre "prioritate şi hibernare"?

Ştiinţa îţi furnizează un prilej de a experimenta o realitate diferită, dar tăria sufletească ce provine din încrederea acordată depăşirii limitelor normalului unanim acceptat de societate este dată de gradul de relevanţă al reprezentării imaginii pe care o construieşti despre o lume ideală.

Deocamdată, lumea aceasta pare mai înclinată spre evoluţie atunci când este înconjurată de o aură sfântă plină de mister, atunci când este indisolubil legată de existenţa unei fiinţe speciale căreia, din păcate, nimeni nu-i cunoaşte numărul de telefon, adică a cărei existenţă nu poate fi verificată. Curiozitatea este singura mare provocare ce te ajută să reflectezi mai bine asupra realităţii.

Lăsaţi-mă să vă induc o stare de curiozitate cultural-afectivă. Ce au în comun Iisus Hristos şi Robur Cuceritorul, în ciuda faptului că au suferit ocări, dafăimări, persecuţii? Ei bine, poate că amândoi, unul şi acelaşi ascuns sub alt nume, au părăsit această lume deoarece oamenii nu erau pregatiţi să recunoască genialitatea unei viziuni mult prea ambiţioase. De fapt, cred că lumea aceasta îi aparţine celui care a ştiut să o schimbe într-un viitor nevoit să-şi ascundă trecutul.

Dacă l-as caracteriza pe Robur ca fiind un pas al biruinţei asupra anonimatului, într-un timp în care totul, aproape totul, e tratat prin prisma unei comunităţi exasperate de negativism sau credinţă îndărătnică, probabil l-aş bănui ca fiind ocazia unei lecţii de conversaţie pe tema „Sorry - seems the hardest word".

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te socoteşti ca fiind ultima versiune a unui adevăr care dacă ar fi încărcat în mod excesiv cu îndoieli şi temeri, ar putea fi denaturat şi nu ar mai putea fi înţeles?

Aş crede că lui Robur îi este propriu ceea ce afirma la un moment dat Carl Gustav Jung într-un moment atemporal de meditaţie: "Am trăit experienţa de a fi cuprins de ceva care e mai puternic decât mine, ceva pe care oamenii îl numesc Dumnezeu".

Iar dacă aş evalua durata, puterea unei forme de gândire și cât de departe poate călători aceasta în timp, m-aş lega de faptul că Robur încă mai trăieşte în zilele noastre prin intermediul fiecărui om de ştiinţă care deţine secretul constructorilor de piramide, Marea Operă, o imagine a perfecţiunii care nu poate fi decât eternă, nelimitată, infinită.

Nu încerc să bag nimănui în cap o proiecţie a realităţii care, adesea, m-a pus şi pe mine în dilemă. Fiţi fără griji, nu am de gând să schimb o întreagă lume, la fel cum nici Robur nu a reuşit la vremea lui. Dar îmi permit să fac în aşa fel încât lumea să nu mă schimbe pe mine. Robur reprezintă o formă de protest faţă de ceea ce oamenii vor sau aşteaptă într-o societate fără direcţie, plină de moravuri.

Aşadar, chestiunea cu adevărat importantă, de a oferi unitate maximă cunoaşterii umane, trebuie abordată pornind de la ideea că nici o soluţie nu este perfectă şi că mereu poţi pierde ceva din alegerea unei soluţii în detrimentul alteia. Ca întindere spaţială, planul divin este limitat de doua coordonate pământeşti, geometric definite în două direcţii ortogonale fundametale: cauza şi efectul, ştiinţa şi cuceririle ei.

Leadership: Ştii să vezi imaginea de ansamblu a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă într-o lume în care nu există nici trecut nici viitor, ci doar un tărâm idilic controlat de ştiinţa unui artist care de ani buni ne spune o poveste fascinantă?

Peste numai câteva ore va avea loc slujba Învierii Domnului. O simplă coincidenţă cu aburii acestui espresso numit "opinie personală" care abia a ajuns pe magistralele internetului, în văzul lumii, asteptând să pătrundă spiritele care au scântei de geniu, şi nu numai. Poate că moartea lui Hristos coincide, în mod straniu, cu plecarea lui Robur de printre oameni, şi că "Învierea" este reintoarcerea Lui într-o lume cu mari incertitudini și evenimente extreme, o lume de care totuşi este mare nevoie pentru a susţine expansiunea universului.

Omul fără cunoaştere rămâne un copac putred fără rădăcini. Nu-mi permit să judec purtarea oamenilor în faţa unei forme de inteligenţă superioară care constituie o premieră în lumea ştiinţei. Mă abţin de la orice nerăbdare în a critica minţile puţin educate şi leneşe, fără perspectivă spirituală, care n-au înţeles simbolul acestui eveniment sacru, o bucurie a împărtăşirii adevărului biblic: faptul că "Învierea lui Isus" este pusă în intregime pe seama celei mai mari isprăvi a ştiinţei pe care alchimiştii o numeau "transformare", o divizare şi o reorganizare a materiei în alt spaţiu şi alt timp. Secretul elixirulului nemuririi.

În fiecare an ştiinţa îşi incordează tot mai tare muşchii, aducând argumente de rigoare faţă de adevaratele valori ale spiritualităţii, în formă de invenţii, creaţii şi descoperiri, cu ajutorul căruia lumea îşi extinde orizonturile, la fel cum universul îşi extinde marginile. Este necesar să existe un Hristos sau un Robur ca semn al biruinţei lui Dumnezeu asupra slăbiciunii firii umane, ca o prefigurare a eliberării multora din robia păcatului de a rămâne neştiutori.

Adevărata putere a spiritualităţii constă în a te elibera de rănile trecutului și a redescoperi drumul către ceea ce vei deveni, fără să cazi pradă mândriei de a te vedea deasupra celorlalţi.

Robur nu s-a vrut a fi un conducător, nu şi-a impus autoritatea prin mijloacele ştiinţei ca să schimbe radical o lume, ci i-a lăsat pe oameni să-şi conducă vieţile cum vor ei, astfel încât să-şi dea seama singuri de consecinţele lipsei de viziune şi de cunoaştere. A ales să plece decât să recurgă la constrângere, dar a lăsat în urma lui o dovadă a ceea ce părea până atunci doar o probabilitate: ştiinţa face ca totul să fie posibil.

Hristos nu a condus lumea prin darul minunilor sale, care trebuiau să adeverească nişte cuvinte pline de înţelepciune, ci a lăsat în urma Lui firimiturile unei realităţi alese: că totul poate avea o rezolvare, dar mai ales totul poate lua o altă formă. Orice boală poate fi învinsă cu uşurinţă, iar moartea poate fi o proiecţie a vieţii într-un infinit fără sfârșit de multi-universuri.

"Secretul este să devii altul". Poate că cineva, precum Hristos sau Robur, reuseşte la fiecare generaţie să se deplaseze în alte traverstiri şi alte reîncarnări pentru a stabili cu succes o singură menire. Să-i urăm "Bun Venit" în fiecare an, de Paşte. Lucrarea şi slava lui Dumnezeu din împărăţia cerurilor constă, de fapt, în dezvoltarea şi aplicarea ştiinţei spre construirea unei lumi în care să fim mai buni unii cu alții.

În inima şi în mintea tot mai multor savanţi bate gândul descoperirii unui mijloc de dobândire a vieţii veşnice sau de cucerire a spaţiului şi timpului. Dar Robur încă nu şi-a dezvăluit adevărata identitate, nu-şi grăbeşte apariţia în mijlocul mulţimii. Şi nici pe Dumnezeu nu-l vedem nicăieri. Cu toate acestea ştim că El există printre noi şi peste tot, aşteptând ca lumea să fie cat mai deschisă în faţa unui adevăr care pe bună dreptate poate fi contestat.

Poate că la urma urmei Dumnezeu este tot un om, dar nu unul oarecare, ci întruchiparea ştiinţei cele mai înalte care a reuşit să străbată şi să guverneze întreg universul. Umberto Eco a spus-o mai bine ca mine: "Când voi dezvălui acest lucru, celor devotaţi mie le va fi în fine revelat Misterul."

Leadershipul înseamnă să te avânţi în concretizarea unei viziuni de mare amploare, manifestându-ţi totodată capacitatea de a nu te împotrivi reticenţei exprimate de ceilalţi oameni în faţa schimbării.

Singur în marele necunoscut al leadershipului este însăşi omul de ştiinţă, îngerului Domnului, care îşi împlineşte menirea prin puterea viziunii cu care îmbogăţeşte rostul şi frumuseţea lumii.

Nu încerca să schimbi convingerile celorlalţi oameni, lasă-i să afle pe pielea lor ce se întâmplă dacă nu-ţi urmează viziunea. O lume imperfectă va pune întotdeauna la grea încercare condiţia omului de a trăi în ea.

Singura aruncare a zarului

On Decembrie 19, 2009

Măsoară-ţi nivelul de experienţă cu ceilalţi oameni, fără să te situezi cumva mai presus decât ei.

Din păcate, de probleme nu scapă nimeni. Indiferent cât de mult se implică în muncă, în dezvoltarea personală, în tot ceea ce îşi propun să realizeze, oamenii se vor confrunta cu numeroase dificultăţi. Mai ales angajatorii. În perioade de criză, profiturile companiilor scad, ceea ce duce, inevitabil, la reducerea investiţiilor şi reducerea numărului angajaţilor. Evident, dorinţa cea mai mare a unui angajator este de a-şi păstra angajaţii, mai ales pe cei buni.

Dar dacă totuşi o companie înregistrează o scădere accelerată a numărului de clienţi şi profitul ei începe să se micşoreze de la o zi la alta? Mai întâi angajatorul poate încerca să reducă costurile salariale fără a reduce numărul de angajaţi. Însă dacă şi această opţiune nu acoperă pierderile şi prin aceasta nu se realizează rapid un echilibru, atunci el este nevoit sa desfiinţeze mai multe posturi. Ceea ce reprezintă o mare problemă.

Cu câteva luni în urmă, un manager de resurse umane dintr-o companie destul de mare, a concediat peste 30% din angajaţi fără să-şi stabilească însă nici un criteriu de selecţie, ceea ce conduce la ipoteza ca angajaţii disponibilizaţi, chiar şi cei loiali şi eficienţi, nu s-au regăsit printre „numerele lui câştigătoare". Ca şi cum ar fi decis soarta fiecărui angaja printr-o singură aruncare a zarului, cu riscul pierderii propriului loc de muncă.

Recent am aflat că respectivul manager de resurse umane abia ieşise de pe băncile facultăţii şi nu deţinea experienţa necesară pentru a ocupa acel post. Mi-ar fi uşor să-mi închipui un scenariu despre cum a reuşit să fie numit într-o funcţie aşa înaltă un proaspăt absolvent. Dar asta este o altă poveste.

Leadership: Îţi înalţi conştiinţa la nivelul la care oamenii să te poată accepta fără să te culpabilizeze, pornind de la efectul unei ascensiuni ultrarapide asupra caracteristicilor pe care le reflectă imaginea ta?

Ca sa desfiinţeze posturile, angajatorul trebuie să facă o analiză a posturilor care sunt redundante (adică care sunt în plus şi de care se poate lipsi). Următorul pas, cel mai important, este să stabilească anumite criterii pe baza cărora să facă aceste concedieri. De exemplu: să-i concedieze pe acei angajaţi care au mai multe locuri de muncă sau care nu sunt singurii susţinători ai familiilor lor şi să li se ofere nişte compensaţii băneşti.

Apoi să reducă numărul celor care au primit multe sancţiuni, apoi pe aceia care au înregistrat rezultate slabe la evaluarea profesională, etc. Sau, în cazuri extreme, dacă compania se confruntă cu o situaţie de criză serioasă, să apeleze la concedierea colectivă. Dar, aşa cum spuneam, cel mai important lucru este să-şi fixeze anumite criterii pe baza cărora să realizeze concedierile.

Este riscant să-ţi asumi răspunderea ca angajator, să disponibilizezi sau să concediezi angajaţi fără a stabili nişte criterii obiective. A da cu zarul în această situaţie înseamnă să fii un manager slab, căci laşi „norocul" să decidă soarta angajaţilor tăi, ei fiind cei pe care se bazează instituţia sau compania. Un lider eficace fixează nişte criterii bine stabilite pe baza cărora realizează concedierile.

Pentru a evita luarea unor astfel de decizii aberante, tu, în calitate de manager de resurse umane, trebuie să respecţi legislaţia în vigoare sau regulamentul intern al companiei în care sunt precizate pe ce criterii se fac disponibilizările cât şi compensaţiile de care ar beneficia cei rămaşi fără loc de muncă.

Caracteristicile pe care le reflectă imaginea ta reprezintă proprietăţile cele mai importante ale unei ascensiuni care se face, în primul rând, pe criterii valorice şi nu pe criterii de vechime sau de bune relaţii cu şefii?

Aceste caracteristici, în funcţie de ceea ce te defineşte ca profesionist, sunt date de valoarea realizărilor tale anterioare, de consecinţa logică a faptelor pe care ţi le asumi şi de natura obligaţiilor pe care le stabileşti în sarcina partenerilor sau angajaţilor.

O conştiinţă liberă de vinovăţie este condiţionată de prezentarea pe scurt a imaginii pe care ţi-o permite conexiunea cu putinţa unei ascensiuni fulminante prin intermediul sferelor tale de activitate. Acestea din urmă favorizează o dezvoltare armonioasă a experienţei de imagine, de relaţionare şi înţelegere în orientările pe care le abordezi.

Singura aruncare a zarului este asociată cu oferirea şansei de a lua singur decizii, obligatoriu cu prezentarea avantajelor şi dezavantajelor aferente, din care răzbate raţiunea morală de a identifica punctele forte şi punctele slabe ale soluţiilor alternative privind rezolvarea anumitor probleme. Această singură aruncare este înşelătoare pentru că nu întotdeauna nimereşte combinaţia câştigătoare pentru o mai bună fundamentare a deciziilor, cât și pentru o planificare mai eficientă a activităților la nivel de echipă.

Singurul indicator pentru valoarea unui conducator

On Aprilie 17, 2020

Înalţă-te până la nivelul de superioritate cerut de modelul leadershipului complet, fără să te cobori la nivelul de inferioritate cerut de subtilitatea unei alegeri care te depăşeşte ca posibilitate de realizare.

Scriitorul Mika Waltari scria la un moment dat despre sultanul Mehmed al II-lea, cuceritorul Constantinopolului:

Am cules din cărțile de istorie pasajele care descriau cele mai importante bătălii ale lui Hannibal și Cezar. Am ascultat cu nesaț fiecare poveste a vreunui asediu, fiecare descriere a vreunei mașinării de război care dobora zidurile. Am studiat planurile și desenele acestora și le compară cu mașinile de asediu folosite de Alexandru cel Mare. Citisem de unul singur tot ceea ce se scrisese despre acesta în greacă și arabă. Nu eram un elev plăcut, fiindcă foloseam orice prilej pentru a-mi bate joc de credulitatea oamenilor și de bunele lor intenții.

- Cu cât studiez mai multă istorie, a spus sultanul Mehmed, cu atât mă surprinde mai mult nechibzuința oamenilor. Nu există minciună pe care ei să nu fie gata s-o creadă, cât timp li se dau suficiente asigurări. Victoria încoronează cea mai infamă trădare, iar succesul este singurul indicator pentru valoarea unui conducător. Conducătorul victorios e mai presus de zei. Alexandru și-a spus Zeus-Amon, iar poveștile îi mai atribuie și numele de Bicorn. Prima condiție a puterii este o oaste solidă, dar un suveran trebuie să știe și cum să-și organizeze imperiul și să fie drept cât timp asta se potrivește cu obiectivele sale. Trebuie să construiască edificii durabile, să-i protejeze pe savanți, istorici și poeți pentru ca aceștia să-i transmită numele celor care vor veni, și să vegheze ca ei să pomenească doar de victoriile sale, omițând faptele rele, care sunt condiția celor dintâi. *

Leadership: Tot ce se aflǎ sub influenţa ta opereazǎ într-un context care îţi permite sǎ-ţi fixezi obiective și sǎ le duci la îndeplinire, formând o armonie perfectǎ între exterior şi interior?

A crede în capacitǎţile proprii de a acţiona eficient, încercând sǎ aduci semnificaţia evenimentelor tale în istorie, se deprinde totdeauna dintr-o relaţie cu ceva: valoarea dintre ceea ce ştii cǎ eşti în realitate şi ceea ce intuieşti cǎ vede în tine o lume întreagǎ. Asta ce înseamnǎ? Înseamnǎ cǎ privilegiul de a fi un lider poate da sens vieţii trǎite într-un moment în care trebuie sǎ legi imaginea unei aspiraţii vertical-spirituale cu imaginea unei personalitǎţi geniale.

Ceea ce propui ca fiind un eveniment al unei istorii personale, lǎsând amprenta propriei tale viziuni peste veacuri, se deprinde dintr-o întreagǎ luptǎ personalǎ, nu doar ca metodǎ de promovare a imaginii de învingǎtor. Implicarea ta în istorie trebuie sǎ favorizeze o putere supremǎ care sǎ „domneascǎ” și nu „sǎ conducǎ”, una care nu modeleazǎ "un sfârşit", ci şlefuieşte un nou început.

Iar în relaţie cu realitate unei puteri superioare, cred cǎ valoarea calitǎţii de a şti cum sǎ obţii ceea ce vrei, trebuie sǎ fie în concordanţǎ cu modalitatea de a acţiona în termeni de semnificaţie adusǎ apartenenţei tale la condiţia de "immortales hominem" şi de "homo religiosus". Ce triumf, nu-i aşa?

Sǎ aduci mai aproape de imaginea ta de lider aceea capacitate de a gestiona evenimentele în timp şi spaţiu, sǎ demarezi construcția unei imagini a trecutului fǎcutǎ cu sufletul unui credincios care ştie că are o datorie precisă în faţa faptei măreţe, asta ţine de modul de a vedea lumea, viaţa și pe cei din jur, de a te reconecta cu ființa ta interioară, de a redescoperi imensul potențial pe care îl ai: acela de a da sens unei existenţe continuu reinventată.

Liderul nu este un om oarecare, este un om care face diferenţa dintre oameni.

Liderul nu este doar un exemplu de fapte victorioase pentru prezentul plin de neprevăzut, ci reprezintă şi motivaţia de a da mai departe ceea ce e frumos în el însuşi, adică să preţuiască şi să favorizeze subtilitatea unei asemenea alegeri care depăşeşte posibilităţile de realizare a celorlalţi oameni.

În acelaşi timp, liderul riscă să se coboare la nivelul de inferioritate cerut de subtilitatea unei alegeri care îl depăşeşte ca posibilitate de realizare, atunci când ceea ce este capabil să înfăptuiască nu respectă convingerea esenţială a unui bun creştin: anume, că tot ceea ce ţine de el se poate duce sigur la îndeplinire sau că tot ce lasă în urma sa nu se va prăbuşi niciodată.

Obiectivele pe care le duci la îndeplinire pot forma o armonie perfectă între exterior şi interior, atunci când tot ceea ce personalitatea ta poate oferi în ciuda aparenţelor ei (seducătoare) se menţine în sfera unei abordări pozitive a Sinelui din perspectiva divinităţii. Or, după spusele scriitoarei Mihaelei Malic, să rămâi situat în Divin înseamnă să nu dai curs celor care vor să te destabilizeze. Mai înseamnă, cum spunea Domnul Iisus, să trăiești pe pământ, precum în cer, adică înseamnă să atingi perfecțiunea spirituală, imortalitatea, prin putere, înțelepciune, înțelegere și cunoaștere.

Tu poţi să te menţii în sfera unei abordări pozitive a Sinelui din perspectiva lumii ce aparţine fiinţei, şi prin prisma fiinţei ce aparţine lumii?

Misiunea ta este să te asiguri că fiecare eveniment pe care îl organizezi în chip de "tribut adus istoriei", să fie unul de succes, astfel încât tu să scapi de orice imperfecţiune şi să te bucuri de orice drum ai face în viaţă. Ideal este să conştientizezi faptul că acest eveniment poate fi depăşit numai confruntându-te cu ceea ce simţi şi acceptând situaţia. În cazul în care vrei să modifici un eveniment, în cât să fie legat de un alt proiect al evoluţiei tale, trebuie să ştii mai întâi că totdeauna, chiar dacă nu ai încredere în oameni, vei avea nevoie de ei.

O întreagă strategie de promovare personală este o construcție a imaginii prezentului făcută de un artist al viitorului.

Singurul indicator pentru valoarea unui conducător este superioritatea cu care se prezintă în mijlocul lumii, ca şi când întreaga lume ar fi este reprezentarea unei divinităţi supreme din nişte timpuri care se întorc mereu în altă versiune de realitate, în altă poveste de viaţă.

P.S. Singura alegere care depăşeşte un lider ca posibilitate de realizare este aceea de a redeveni un om obişnuit. Sau, cum spunea sultanul Mehmed, succesul este singurul indicator pentru valoarea unui conducător. Conducătorul victorios e mai presus de zei.

Singurul învins în bătălia minţilor (II)

On Noiembrie 18, 2013

Pune-te în locul altora la nivel de consecinţe pe care le ai de suportat, înainte să te ridici deasupra lor la nivel de competenţă şi de superioritate.

Am vorbit în articolul anterior despre Dr. Frederick Chilton care în dorinţa de a se arăta un cunoscător al tărâmurilor umane cele mai înalte, cu intenţia de a epata în domeniul psihiatriei, îndrăzneşte "neruşinarea" de a se arăta mai presus de însuşi personajul fenomenal al psihiatriei, talentul excepţional numit Hannibal Lecter. El caută o izbândă în intimidarea realităţii, prin faptul că are mai multă autoritate în sanatoriul de lângă Baltimore, unde canibalul cel mai aprig, criminalul în serie, acest trimis al întunericului, Hannibal, este ţinut prizonier.

Dar prizonierul scapă printr-un şiretlic psihiatric de mare fineţe, lăsându-l pe Frederick Chilton fără cuvinte. Ba mai mult, Hannibal are umorul de a-l invita la "cină" pe amicul său, căutând să-i inducă astfel victimei sale preferate ideea de adevărată superioritate. Conştiinţa luminată de teorie a lui Frederick Chilton nu mai este în stare să surprindă noul elementelor psihice care i-ar putea domoli atitudinea sufletească şi morală. Frica cea mai grea, coşmarul cel mai urât începe să-l bântuie cu asprime.

Leadership: Poţi evita să devii prizonierul propriilor proiecții mentale, fără să te laşi copleșit de o amenințare externă care îţi pune la încercare propriile slăbiciuni?

Doctorul se pierde de-a binelea, starea lui sufletească fiind condiţionată de prevederi din viitor, fără susţinerea puterii de voinţă în a vedea mai departe de momentul prezent. Se ştie cât de greu îşi schimbă psihiatrii punctele de vedere, dar în cazul lui Frederick Chilton, orice ciripit de vrăbiuţă se transformă în sunetul bătăii de aripi a unui vultur negru, fioros şi înfometat care se apropie cu toată viteza de el, gata să-i sfâşie inima din piept.

Iată ce trebuie să reţinem: nu poţi captiva atenţia cuiva dacă nu te deosebeşti de el prin curaj sau laşitate.

Un porumbel care se crede vultur începe să zboare haotic până la extenuare atunci când vulturul adevărat se năpusteşte asupra lui. Frederick Chilton nu mai este atent la lucrurile ce au raport cu ideile aflătoare în spiritul său, cu greu îşi mai fixează atenţia asupra lucrurilor capabile să fie duse la bun sfârşit, uită complet de predispoziţia pentru ştiinţă. Nu-i mai rămâne decât să alerge disperat după ajutor, ştiind că niciun ajutor nu poate opri glonţul plin de sânge al unei psihologii maniacale, pe care numai Hannibal Lecter este în stare să-l tragă din apropiere, fără greş. În surdină.

Leadership: Personalitatea ta îşi caută menirea în crearea unei identităţi plină de contradicţii care rămâne în sfera cauzalităţii unei game largi de efecte secundare?

Eficienţa ta în materie de performanţă în utilizarea leadershipului, ca instrument de cercetare şi înţelegere profundă a omului, este condiţionată de o serie pierderi lăuntrice? Îţi vine să renunţi la tine însuţi şi la valorile care te caracterizează doar pentru a îmbrăţişa un nou statut particular – de autoritate? Te asculţi înainte să porneşti un conflict cu tine însuţi, datorat contradicţiei dintre cerinţa de prudenţialitate şi cerinţa extinderii de potenţial?

A rămâne în sfera unei game largi de efecte secundare înseamnă să te opui oricărui impuls lăuntric spre superioritate, concomitent cu exprimarea dorinţei de a face lucruri pe care în mod normal nu ţi le doreşti.

Înainte de a-ţi extinde capacităţile de lider, înainte de a te dărui în totalitate ştiinţei înţelegerii omului, fii mai întâi un designer de interior care ştie să construiască o personalitate trainică. Antrenează-te pentru un nou mod de a fi, fără să te consumi aiurea pentru lucruri care nu ţin de tine, deci care să-ţi permită să instalezi fără erori în viaţa ta noi particularităţi de realizare şi afirmare.

Termenul design, astfel utilizat, priveşte atât creaţia unicat a structurii de caracter cât şi producţia de valori pozitive care, condiţionând profilul atitudinal şi moral, să te ajute la îmbunătățirea rezultatului de ansamblu în utilizarea leadershipului şi practicarea ştiinţei persuasiunii.

Leadership: Îţi desăvârşeşti evoluţia prin strania perspectivă a unui EXIL abstract şi ambiguu, în contrast cu sporirea dorinţei de control şi posesiune a unei puteri victorioase?

Când alergătorul ajunge la capătul puterilor şi simte că trebuie să se oprească din alergat, el poate merge. Dacă însă continuă să depună mai mult efort decât îi permite organismul, îşi va pune viaţa în pericol.

În contextul ştiinţei de a face faţă cu succes ambiţiilor înalte, prin verificarea acelei puteri de transformare în ceea ce priveşte eficienţa condiţionată de utilizarea temeinică a leadershipului, tendinţa prea puternică de extindere a ştiinţei sau o intenţie personală manifestată într-un studiu de cercetare ar justifica doar până la o limită eforturile de dezvoltare şi perfecţionare.

Efortul care îl domină şi îl depăşeşte pe om, greu de controlat mai ales în primele faze ale ciclului de dezvoltare, se consumă în disputele interne înspre exterior. Singur se izolează în încercarea de a se reînnoi pe plan profesional. Altfel spus, intensitatea acelor activităţi de utilizare sau exploatare a resurselor "străine" în scopul lărgirii cunoaşterii, provenite în urma manipulării subiecţilor umani într-un studiu al reacţiilor lor în faţa alternativelor decizionale, este cu cât atât mai mare cu cât liderul-cercetător vrea să colecteze mai multă informaţie şi cunoaştere necesare progresului său ştiinţific.

Dar, în acest mod, leadershipul se va plasa sub linia de plutire. Iar prin construirea unei credibilităţi tot mai şubrede şi a unei autorităţi ineficace, rezonanţa dintre lider şi ceilalţi oameni nu se mai produce, chiar dacă suprafaţa radiantă de transfer informaţional se măreşte. Drept urmare, nu-i mai rămâne decât să îşi desăvârşească evoluţia prin strania perspectivă a unui exil abstract şi ambiguu. Departe de orice înseamnă drum bun, departe de orice asociere cu oamenii din jur, departe de orice prilej de socializare.

Posesiunea unei puteri victorioase este o pătrundere în natura complexă a faptelor care se situează deasupra pragului emoţiilor de a trăi realitatea altora pe cheltuiala propriei tale condiții de marionetă în societate. Pune-te în locul altora înainte să te pui în fruntea lor.

Înainte de a practica leadershipul este important să conştientizezi ceea ce eşti în relaţie cu tine însuţi în timpul interacţiunii cu ceilalţi din jur. Un învins care şi-a primit pedeapsa pentru că a cutezat să se transforme într-un "extremist"?

A-ţi desăvârşi evoluţia prin strania perspectivă a unui EXIL abstract şi ambiguu înseamnă să te pronunți cu privire la competența ta de a judeca o cauză care împiedică punerea în mişcare a acţiunii de control asupra celorlalţi oameni, punând preţ pe explorarea valorilor (moralitatea, cinstea, non-agresiunea, onorabilitatea profesională) care te ajută să renunţi manifestarea exacerbată a puterii.

Exilul abstract şi ambiguu este de fapt o retragere în propria-ţi libertate, în independenţa minţii, analizându-ţi profunzimea gândurilor şi a psihicului din perspectiva unui terapeut care îşi observă singur tiparele şi motivaţiile, analizând care a fost şirul de circumstanţe care au dat naştere situaţiei în care te afli tu.

Leadershipul este arta de a deveni altcineva în câmpul unei filosofii a ştiinţei care spune că nimeni nu poate fi deasupra lumii, ci doar egalul celor nedespărţiţi de perfecţiune.

Singurul învins în bătălia minţilor este omul care reuşeşte să fie mai mult decât îi cere condiţia, idealurile şi statutul, încât să se alinieze condiţiei de performer într-un domeniu pe care conştiinţa îl consideră "integru", dar pe care vanitatea îl consideră mult prea flexibil, moale şi delăsător.

Singurul învins în bătălia minţilor (I)

On Noiembrie 18, 2013

Antrenează-te pentru un nou mod de a fi, fără să te consumi aiurea pentru lucruri care nu tin de tine.

Obişnuinţa de a fi la curent cu toate îl urmăreşte instinctiv pe Dr. Frederick Chilton, lăsându-l ispitit de terenul neexplorat al ştiinţei. El intră în etapa de grea încercare a unui exil auto-impus, dar captivant din pricina personajului cheie ales pentru studiu, în persoana lui Hannibal Lecter.

Iar această expresie a exilului interior, caraghioasă, ajunsă aproape de sine stătătoare, capătă rezonanţă pe fondul intuitivo-progresiv al unei creşteri extrem de mari de doză ştiinţifică. Căci, rezultatele atenţiei sale necontenite asupra ipostazelor lui Hannibal Lecter, proiectate prin strania perspectivă a unui filtru de raţionament aspru, au mereu alte semnificaţii. E greu să te desparţi de o gândire greoaie când ştii că eşti o fire mai fragilă decât modelul tău de analiză.

Fie că este luminat complementar prin noi parametri de descrieri a omului. Fie că beneficiază de o accelerare a procesului de cunoaştere prin absorbţia de noi aspecte care vin să întregească studiul întreprins, Chilton se confruntă cu aceeaşi problemă. Pur şi simplu nu reuşeşte să definească omul care se ascunde în spatele unei realităţi pe cât de complexe pe atât de rebele unor încorsetări intangibile.

Dacă este să luăm acest scientificus plin de nelămuriri şi ipoteze abstracte de cercetare, prin comparaţie cu opusul său, cu Hannibal Lecter, cu intelectul acesta ascuns în spatele măştilor sclipitoare, vom sesiza o extraordinară incongruenţă. O diferenţă de temperatură între două stări de luciditate, între două stări de dispoziţie, între o stare de mobilizare a energiei şi una de economisire a energiei.

Chilton caută să afle toate adevărurile, până la adevărul suprem, asta dacă va fi vreodată posibil. În timp ce Hannibal, deţinând toate cunoştinţele în ceea ce priveşte factorul uman, rămâne pasiv în jocul impus al sustragerii de informaţii.

Leadership: Te regăseşti în imaginea unei fiinţe gata să se încline în faţa unei superiorităţi pe care nu o poţi recunoaşte ca esenţială în Tine, în corespondenţă cu ideea unei cunoaşteri care nu se poate separa de natura complexă a studiului faptelor morale şi al inteligenţei?

Pierderile la nivel de înţelegere a fenomenului "Hannibal" sunt cu atât mai intense cu cât sursa aceasta de lumină se îndepărtează de zona de expunere. Adică, cu cât frecvenţa de rezonanţă emisă este mai mică, cu cât suprafaţa radiantă de transfer informaţional se micşorează.

Căci capacitatea lui Hannibal de a respinge orice tentativă de penetrare a teritoriului său funcţional ţine de numărul straturilor izolatoare, de permeabilitatea faţă de tendinţele neconvenţionale ale doctorului Chilton de sustragere a materialului gândirii, a materiei însufleţitoare.

Fără odihnă, Dr. Frederick Chilton ajunge să practice, ca un sport, ceea ce îi este interzis ca profesie - spionajul, mai ales atunci când nu are acces la mintea omului. Ca un spirit prins între dileme, ca un prizonier al unei materii pe care nu este capabil să o transceandă, el caută să privească cu ochii altora prin gaura cheii, să participe cu urechile altora la tot ceea ce Hannibal creează verbal în mica lui celulă.

Chilton dispune din plin de răgazul necesar pentru a reflecta în tihnă şi pe îndelete, în încercarea de a-şi croi un nou drum pe terenul fertil al cunoaşterii, pe care se joacă "tare". Însă procesele periodice de obţinere "ilicită" a informaţiilor şi cunoştinţelor, nu fac posibilă măsurarea lui Hannibal şi definirea etalonului de precizie superioară, corespunzător nivelului avansat al ştiinţei şi excelenţei în materie de cercetare.

Căci cine încearcă tot mereu să se măsoare cu un alt om, ajunge în final să se consume singur.

Leadership: Poţi să aprofundezi natura complexă a omului ca fiinţă morală, fără să-ţi condiţionezi răspunsul psihologic la sunetul "alarmei" pe care o dă Eul tău în actul de "manifestare a unei realităţi false" din imediata vecinătate a multiplelor ipostaze pe care le experimentezi?

Omul politic, Harriet Woods, a spus un lucru care merită gravat pe o placă şi pus pe frontispiciul Parlamentului: " Poţi să fii mândru de tine şi fără să calci peste cineva. Poţi să fii victorios şi fără victime. " Prin aceste cuvinte ea şi-a manifestat nemulţumirea faţă de metodele dure de explorare a leadershipului care nu se ancorează în punctul limită al evoluţiei spre performanţă. Dar a omis urmările, de ordin negativ, ce le-ar avea asupra liderului o incursiune prea meticuloasă în perimetrul de funcţionalitate al omului şi o exploatare prea forţată a resurselor sale de forţă.

Ca lider, îţi poţi deteriora "puterea interioară" de existenţă prin nejustificata creştere de autoritate asupra celorlalţi indivizi. Dacă nu ai posibilitatea de a opri la timp valul ispitirii ştiinţifice, dacă nu vrei să stingi fascinaţia pentru înţelegerea omului şi infinitudinea ipostazelor lui, atunci există riscul de a te deplasa spre un câmp de transformare care nu se află în bătaia excelenţei. Împiedicându-te să joci cu adevărat fair şi să devii propriul tău stăpân.

Dr. Frederick Chilton experimentează două ipostaze în preajma lui Hannibal, care îi asaltează Egoul şi îl aşează într-o realitate falsă, fără să-şi dea seama de particularităţile sale morale şi emoţionale.

Pe de o parte el pozează într-o ipostază de "regulă vulnerabilă", care prezintă anumite slăbiciuni la nivel intuitiv, fiindcă tot ceea ce ajunge să creadă despre el însuşi şi despre lumea exterioară este consacrat doar importanţei pe care o acordă propriei persoane. Pe de altă parte, el încearcă să-şi asume ipostaza de egal a lui Hannibal în domeniul psihiatriei, fără să aibă puterea să se supraîncarce cu învinuirile pe care i le impută modelului său, deci fără să aibe puterea de a se depăşi pe el însuşi.

Leadershipul este fiecare moment pe care îl experimentezi în încercarea de a fi prezent în viaţa altor oameni, cu riscul de a rămâne prizonier într-o lume care caută în mod constant să te facă altcineva.

Singurul învins în bătălia minţilor este acela care se crede un mare judecător al minţii, sufletului şi comportamentului uman. Un amestec de bine şi rău – două forţe ale aceleaşi monede.

Dar cine este decidentul care hotărăşte partea dominantă în numele căruia acţionează un om?

Este propriul său arbitru !

Un lider nu se poate substitui acestui liber arbitru. Şi în această bătălie a minţilor va fi învins.

Slave To Love

On Octombrie 21, 2018

Concentrează-ţi eforturile de a sonda o realitate aflată dincolo de cea imediat accesibilă, orientându-ţi atenţia spre contemplarea unei picturi axate pe cromatismul fin patinat al existenţei umane disponibilă în multiplele ei înfăţişări.

Orice gest al ei pare o invitaţie la lectură. Totul, în liniile precise ale privirii sale încântătoare, în graţia mişcărilor pe care le efectuează corpul ei, pare încredere în viaţă, rezultatul unor alegeri înţelepte. Ochii îi trădează cele mai ascunse gânduri, semne şi simptome ale prezenţei unui duh blând şi liniştit, dar care vrea să ţină în robie, în întunericul unui labirint viu, pe toţi aceia ce trăiesc într-o imagine a perfecţiunii. Aşa se naşte forma artistică a unui scris plin de însufleţire.

Fenomenul expresionist este infinit mai diferenţiat în cazul actualizării unei „aşteptări". Întâlnirea noastră pare răspunsul minţii ei la o situaţie de viaţă cu care nu s-a mai confruntat, o încercare de explorare a felului în care emoţia i-a modelat gândirea artistică, exact ca atunci când experimentezi un joc plin de neprevăzut din care se poate naşte o capodoperă a dramaturgiei. Delir sau exaltare?

O poveste care atrage toate privirile este un tablou care se poate citi numai de aproape. Preponderent creativ, sunt tentat să mă gândesc la ea ca la o provocare fără margini, aceea a unei îndrăgostiri ireversibile, privind-o ca din reflexia unei oglinzi fără sfârşit şi fără ascunzişuri. Dar în acelaşi timp o privesc cu teama cu care artistul încearcă o nouă combinaţie de culori pentru a spori efectul de spaţialitate.

Într-un act de creație profundă, adevărata influență constă în capacitatea de a transforma o simplă decizie într-o capodoperă care revelează adevăruri ascunse.

Impulsul trăirii care se cere exteriorizat, fundamentându-se prin valoarea suplimentară a unui tablou vrându-se descoperit până în cele mai mici detalii, în economia senină a subtilităţii tonale, denotă un ceva ipotecat necunoscutului, tainicului, enigmaticului. Ea nu pare absobită doar de gândul obsedant pentru vreo pasiune arzătoare, încurajată de ataşamentul pentru modul particular de a trata vreo întâmplare sub diferite aspecte, într-un aprori al sentimentelor subsumate conceptului de experienţă estetică. Mai degrabă pare să trădeze o slăbiciune, o atracţie neobişnuită faţă de frumosul artistic care întrece acea relativitate a frumuseţii unei fete tinere.

Probabil, în mintea ei plină de dorinţe, freamătă cuvintele lui Proust cu privire la mine: "Opera ta se relevă ca un lucru infinit mai real decât celelalte, ca o reînnoire a lumii, ca o surpriză în univers, oferind acea bucurie pe care o încerci când vezi o lucrare a pictorului tău preferat care diferă de acelea pe care le cunoşti."

Leadership: Poţi să demonstrezi cu succes că realitatea sporită prin adăugarea unor elemente de imprevizibil te poate ajuta să extinzi povestea unei creaţii artistice, fără a compromite imaginea unei emoţii imortalizată în toată splendoarea ei?

Datorită ţie, mai ales a ceea ce imaginaţia mea inventează în ţinta tuturor privirilor pe care mi le adresezi cu atâta sinceritate, mi-am reconstituit numele şi viaţa. Da, din aceste litere, din acest cuvânt rostit englezeşte: "in privat" . Nu-i de mirare că arta mea tinde să se coreleze cu creşterea concentraţiei de provocări ascunse pe care le încearcă numai un plăsmuitor de noi universuri.

Eforturile mele de a sonda un psihic pe care nu voi reuși niciodată să-l cunosc cu adevărat, par a fi orientate mai curând spre o pictură axată pe cromatismul fin patinat al existenţei umane disponibilă în multiplele ei înfăţişări, de la însingurare la fericire, de la rivalitate la amiciţie, de la o afinitate scăzută la una înaltă.

Mult mai important este sufletul pe care mi l-ai citit cu atenţie, privindu-mă ca atunci când trebuie să îmbogăţeşti conţinutul unei estetici pastelate cu însăşi conţinut imaginat al unei naraţiuni nostalgice, pentru a pune în valoare rostirea unei sensibilităţi inspirate de filmul fidel al unei realităţi posibile, dar intangibile.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea de a observa și valorifica detaliile subtile, evitând superficialitatea cauzată de neatenția față de complexitatea unui conținut profund dintr-un „prezent" neîntrerupt?

Nu sunt uimit fiindcă ai pus stăpânire pe o imagine, ci fiindcă ai dus acea imagine în prim planul unui univers apărut din nimic, care continuă să se extindă.

O clipă, ţi-ai îndreptat atenţia către peisajul rustic din tabloul mamei mele, cu case mici acoperite cu zăpadă, presărate ici şi colo în calea celui ce străbate la pas câmpia largă în azurul persistent şi infinit al unui cer fără nori şi fără… dureri. Nu, nu l-am pictat eu, dar ai fi vrut ţi-l fac cadou, ca amintire a unei lumi care te fascinează, ca şi conţinut de reprezentare a unei zone de cunoaştere ce palpită în inima unei creaţii de vis.

Există poeţi ai penelului de mare virtuozitate şi ai fanteziei plastice care nu caută să rămână doar o amintire, ci vor să trăiască într-un „astăzi" veşnic, într-un „prezent" neîntrerupt în care culorile, cu contrastele şi combinaţiile lor îndrăzneţe, creează stări de inspiraţie tuturor fiinţelor ce intră în contact cu ele.

Leadership: Poţi să intri în vibraţie cu pregnanţa unei imagini umplute cu semnificaţii ascunse, după ce în prealabil ai fost exaltat de participarea la conţinutul ei vizual în ipostaza de cauză a unei răni sufleteşti?

Mi-e greu și acum, ca și atunci când ne întâlneam zilnic, să accept din partea ei o laudă doar de dragul de a măguli. Totuşi, ea trăia o intensă viață interioară, cu închipuiri și vise de poet rebel ce parcă vrea să înviorеze acel contrast al culorilor şi formelor neînţelese ochiului reticent la constituirea unui Art Nouveau. Nimic din lume nu-i putea contrazice convingerile înconjurate doar de adevărul ascuns în spatele aparenţelor.

Nu-mi dădea răgaz să mă simt plin de energie, adesea îmi reprima tentaţia de a aspira la orice glorie pe care o puteam valorifica prin creaţie, evident luându-mă peste picior prin fiecare adăugire (cu iz de critică) pe care o aducea forţei mele de imaginaţie. Când vrei să cercetezi o picătură de sânge, verifică mai întâi cine în cine înfige cuţitul. I can hear your laughter. I can see your smile.

Părea învinsă de o cunoaştere pe care nu poate s-o suporte. Era un fel de invidie care o gonea spre a mă face să mă simt inferior ei, o întristare pentru bunăstarea aproapelui, cu atât mai periculoasă cu cât din ea lua naştere un întreg lanţ de împrejurări care se înrăutăţeau reciproc. Aici limita imposibilului era trasată de câte un strop de ironie, câte o apreciere mai puţin onestă, căutând să-mi anuleze stima de sine din sfera emoţională a cuvântului scris cu timbrul culorilor care inundă primăvara. You've got to know how the strong get weak.

"Nicu, am sperat să fii un artist doar al frumosului, dar tu pari mai degrabă un rezumat al detaliilor personale pe care le colectezi într-o formulă care nu spune lumii povestea unei imaginaţii căutătoare de sensuri".

Leadership: În ce categorie s-ar putea include, în extenso, întreaga arie a creaţiei tale artistice al cărei conţinut plin de sens vizează implicit un act de transcendere şi de simbolizare a unui moment care nu se uită niciodată?

Din ziua aia n-am mai văzut-o, dar ea încă trăieşte în amintirea mea. Şi sunt sigur că ea încă îşi domoleşte freamătul lăuntric în sfera emoţională a cuvintelor mele ce însoţesc culorile unei arte poetice.

Frumosul unei amintiri corespunde descifrării unui mister aflat între delicatele stingeri ale unor contraste ce par să-şi găsească pacea sub clipa de graţie a expresivităţii unei trăiri suprasensibile, făcându-te să te întrebi cu acea dulce sfială a scriitoarei Anais Nin: "De câte ori am refăcut drumul de la început? Unde e începutul? Începutul memoriei sau începutul suferinţei..."

Dacă încă îţi arunci privirea peste aceste rânduri, dragă cititor, mă simt dator să-ţi mai spun ceva. Dacă o vei întâlni vreodată pe fata aceasta tânără şi frumoasă de care ţi-am vorbit atât de sincer, ca unui prieten bun ce ştie să asculte povestea în imagini a unui artist în viaţă, te rog spune-i următoarele:

Tell her I'll be waiting in the usual place, with the tired and weary. There's no escape. We're too young to reason in the belief of a picture that came from an unknown sender. Your life will always be a perfect reflection of my state of heart and mind, and of my truest identity.

Imaginea unei amintiri care nu se pierde niciodată este inclusă în categoria unui realism al esenţelor sufleteşti, profund frământat de o literatură capabilă de a se ridica la sublim numai prin analogie cu un Creator care nu se desparte niciodată de creaţia Sa.

Slave To Love este începutul memoriei sau începutul suferinţei, în funcţie de experienţa pe care ţi-o oferă spunerea unei poveşti cu subiect profund, mai greu abordabil, dar care oferă o trăire intensă a legăturii cu aproapele.

Soare pentru recolta ta

On Martie 13, 2010

Sporeşte-ţi puterea de convingere, conferind leadershipului tău sensul pe care îl preconizează ceilalţi.

Scriitoarea franceză George Sand a fost atât de cucerită de lucrările unui compozitor german, încât i-a făcut la repezeală un libret de operă.

Muzicianul însă nu ştia o boabă franţuzeşte, astfel că – neputându-se orienta în text – a pus pe note până şi indicaţiile de regie (instrucţiunile).

Astfel s-a întâmplat ca, în finalul primului act, corul sătenilor să cânte, pe ritmul vesel al unui dans german:

"Mulţimea iese pe uşa din fund,

Mulţimea iese pe uşa din fund…"

Din clipa aceea, George Sand a renunţat definitiv la muzică. [1]

Leadership: Practici acceptarea de sine în timp ce accesezi o anumită versiune a cerinţelor celorlalţi?

Leadershipul se aplică ca un consens între ceea ce spui şi gândeşti atunci când inspiri un anumit sentiment, o anumită atitudine, sugerând o anumită invitaţie către ceea ce percepi în mod diferit. Totodată, implică schimbarea radicală a ceea ce eşti, a felului în care comunici o noutate. Este o artă a felului în care reuşeşti să realizezi o transformare a concretului, remodelându-te în contextul unui blocaj de receptare a ceea ce aşteaptă ceilalţi de la tine.

Un soi de confuzie şi nesiguranţă în a accesa o anumită versiune a cerinţelor celorlalţi - greu de îndeplinit, care condiţionează o parte importantă a reuşitei tale profesionale. Pretenţiile ridicate de ceilalţi sunt o extindere a felului în care te prezinţi şi te experimentezi pe tine însuţi în raport cu ceea ce îţi poţi asuma prin cunoaştere, prin consumul de artă autentică, dar în special prin acţiuni de control a "incertitudinii" care pot atenua frica de a eşua.

Tot ceea ce te reprezintă ca om de artă, străbătând stadiile de pregătire şi de transformare care produc o anumită rezonanţă în relaţia cu ceilalţi, o reciprocitate care nu dezamăgeşte în aşteptări pe nimeni, ar trebui să se potrivească în vreun fel "tematicii" propuse de ceilalţi.

Tematica vizează modalitatea prin care transmiţi ceva, o modalitate rapidă şi simplă de a oferi un aspect profesionist al experienţei tale, dar prin care se urmărește evaluarea modului tău de gândire, atitudinile față de sine și față de ceilalți.

Deschiderea (prin dialog) către noi orizonturi de percepţie, reprezentare şi de interpretare a realităţii trebuie să funcţioneze ca o combinaţie între ceea ce te reprezintă ca "artist" şi ceea ce agreează publicul ca fiind un echivalent al lor. Acceptarea de sine este o asumare a greșelii de a nu fi propus o alternativă viabilă la sensul de profunzime al compozitiei pe care încerci să o organizezi şi să o valorifici într-o manieră absolut personală.

Leadership: Îţi exprimi viziunea luând seama la sensul pe care îl dai cuvintelor tale, pornind de la faptul că fiecare experienţă pe care o trăieşti reprezintă o deschidere către acceptarea unui mod de a fi diferit?

De multe ori, chiar şi oamenii care nu te cunosc sunt capabili să spună multe despre tine, bazându-se pe simpla observaţie. Adevăratele tale competenţe de lider ies la iveală în momentul în care îţi exprimi în mod public, viziunea, opiniile, ideile, sentimentele. Reuşita ta ca lider depinde de modul în care reuşeşti să te faci înţeles, de modul în care reuşeşti să captezi atenţia celorlalţi, dar mai ales daca eşti în deplină concordanţă cu ceea ce vor ei, cu realitatea lor, cu cerinţele şi aşteptările lor.

Aşa cum un copil recită versuri învăţate mecanic, fără să ştie că versul e alcătuit din cuvinte care au fiecare un sens precis, tot aşa unii lideri îşi exprimă viziunea, ideile şi gândurile fără să ia seama la sensul pe care îl dau experienţei lor, activităţilor lor, cuvintelor lor, mesajelor pe care le transmit în raport cu aşteptările oamenilor şi cu necesităţile lor.

Sensul pe care îl dai cuvintelor tale reprezintă noi posibilităţi de "modulare" a frumosului prin corelaţiile sau convergenţele cu celelalte valori ale tale, precum creativitate, comunicare, înţelegere, fără să faci din ele nişte "active" redundante.

Leadership: Pot ceilalţi oameni să pătrundă sensurile şi modalităţile de expresie ale artei tale, inspirându-se dintr-un "vers" al propriei tale compoziţii?

Leadership înseamnă să creezi o relaţie de pe urma cărora să beneficiezi atât tu cât şi ceilalţi. Iar modul în care evoluează leadershipul tău, depinde de felul în care te faci înţeles şi dacă reuşeşti să îi convingi pe oameni de abilităţile tale. Modul în care îţi exprimi punctele de vedere influenţează percepţia lor vizavi de tine şi de modul în care ei trebuie să-şi organizeze munca.

Totul depinde de fondul, cu sensuri adânci, care stă la baza leadershipului tău. Altfel spus, ceea ce aşteaptă oamenii de la tine, s-ar putea să fie exact inversul a ceea ce le oferi tu. Deci, conferă-i leadershipul tău sensul pe care îl preconizează ceilalţi pentru ca puterea ta de convingere să crească.

Adaugă credibilitate leadershipului tău încercând să ajungi la aşteptările oamenilor, făcându-i să înţeleagă ceea ce exprimă leadershipul tău. Deci adaptează-te la realitatea lor înainte de a le impune propria ta viziune.

Versul propriei tale compoziţii trebuie să sugereze acea ieşire dintr-un cadru al experienţei, fără a fi nevoit să-ţi schimbi orizontul şi viziunea asupra domeniului în care activezi.

Soare pentru recolta ta serveşte spre a desemna acel leadership care promite calitate şi performanţă, al cărui mesaj nu deviază în sens invers. Dacă sensul pe care îl dai viziunii tale va coincide cu aşteptările oamenilor şi va fi corect, nedistorsionat şi funcţional atunci leadershipul tău va rodi, va înflori şi se va dezvolta armonios.

Aşa cum florile se întorc după soare pe măsură ce acesta se mişcă pe cer, tot aşa oamenii se vor întoarce spre tine în funcţie de ce le vei oferi, în funcţie de percepţia înţelesului pe care îl are leadershipului tău.

Concluzie: Un lider profesionist se exprimă clar, fără ambiguităţi şi fără a lăsa loc interpretării. Este aidoma unui soare care favorizează creşterea şi dezvoltarea fiinţelor vii pe pământ.

Se spune că “Culegem ce-am semănat”. Ceea ce înseamnă că degeaba avem parte de soare dacă seminţele sunt de calitate inferioară şi nu rodesc. Prin urmare calitatea “recoltei” depinde atât de soare cât şi de... seminţe.

Solar Wind

On Iunie 03, 2018

Învaţă să creezi mediul necesar pentru relevarea sentimentelor profunde, conferind credibilitate şi consistenţă unei realităţi care te modelează în baza unei conexiuni universale.

O mână din umbră îmi întinde cheia singurei căi din dinamica unor cauzalităţi multiple, tot aşa cum zeii îmi pun înaintea judecăţii nemărginirea lor. Dar nu în varianta de comunicare între corpuri planetare printr-un sistem energetic, nici ca alternativă de destinaţie spre un alt nivel al cunoaşterii, ci ca o lectură interesantă ce poate fi parcursă într-o singură unitate de timp bine determinată.

Negreşit, îmi concentrez toate simţurile asupra acestui braţ invizibil, străpuns de o enigmă fără margini, care se interpune între mine şi textul pe care-l redă tăria nemuririi, proiectându-mi profunzimea pe pagina unei conştiinţe cosmice alături de semnele pline de tâlcuri ale unei purităţi originale. Traversare a absurdului? Ficţiune reală? E ca şi când mi-aş propune descoperirea pe cont propriu a realităţii din spatele conceptului de viaţă după moarte, prin utilizarea unei combinaţii de culori care nu vorbeşte despre perfecţiune, ci despre triumful unei convenienţe sublime între nevoia de depăşire a propriilor limite şi starea de confuzie a unor gânduri dezbinate.

Nu sunt atotştiutor, dar pot simţi totul. Liber în totalitatea unei sclipiri de inspiraţie, faţă de o imagine care se vrea reală dar în realitate nu mai este, îmi aştern sentimentele cele mai expresive despre efectele lumii şi întunericului, hipnotizat parcă de spectacolul însăşi al intervenţiei divine. Aşa e cu artiştii, ei acceptă ca pe o normalitate motivul unei disperări a naturii spiritului de a interpreta misterele universului prin contraste cromatice care creează profunzime şi varietate într-un decor auster, situat la limita dintre vis şi realitate.

Culorile care îmi luminează destinul în veşnicia lui Dumnezeu, ca o infinitate a esenţelor cosmice mişcându-se necontenit în toate direcţiile, sunt conţinute în forma scrisă a unei înţelegeri care depăşeşte orice frontieră a timpului şi spaţiului, în marele dicţionar al limbajului figurativ. Ele par a îngriji implicaţiile profunde ale unui clarobscur pe care numai un Caravaggio l-ar fi putut vedea realizat fără dificultăţi prea mari.

Leadership: Îţi expui o parte importantă din ceea ce eşti pe linia continuă a unei opere de artă considerată originală, în măsura în care accepți să fii pus în ipostaza unei concurenţe cu tine însuți?

Ca două mâini împreunate, textul şi pictura se întrepătrund misterios într-un joc nebun de v-ați ascunselea cu viața și cu moartea împreună, între albul unei hârtii transformată în confesor şi negrul ca mormântul al unei profeţii de peste veacuri. Baza sensibilă a construcţiei artistice, sprijinită ferm pe un joc al contrastelor calitativ apropiate care dau naştere la ritmuri tensionate, capabile să sugereze stări emoţionale şi mişcări vitale, se potriveşte actului de raportare a subiectului la o realitate în care nimic nu este cum era înainte.

Privitorul tabloului al cărei esenţă confundată cu noţiunea de hazard o inserez în această pagină fără seamăn, esență pe care încă nu aţi ghicit-o de tot, pare a rămâne fără răspuns la o întrebare seculară: cum trebuie să interpretezi un labirint care continuu îţi stabileşte noi destinaţii, de cele mai multe ori făcându-te să te rătăceşti şi nu reuşeşti să ajungi la nicio concluzie?

O fereastră către o altă lume se lasă deschisă de confesiunea unui reflex al adevăratei entităţi spirituale de care aparţine imaginea unui artist pe scena creatoare a unei izbucniri de emoţie cotropitoare, la împărţirea unei constante cu infinit ca limită de şir al unei însemnări confidenţiale. Inevitabil, accept să fiu pus în ipostaza unei concurenţe cu mine însumi atâta vreme cât realitatea imediată în care cred cu toată fiinţa confirmă adevărurile unei lumi care își descoperă nemărginirea prin exersarea constantă a operaţiei de amestecare a luminii şi umbrei într-un spaţiu de comunicare cu Dumnezeu.

Adevărul pare mai dezorganizat ca oricând. Peisajul visurilor născut din paleta cromatică a unui stil impresionist interpus în faţa cerului şi luminii solare, pe care îl dă sentimentul unei întâlniri mistice cu Dumnezeu, se încadrează în limitele fixe ale unui tablou care e demn numai de mine.

Leadership: Faci totul pentru a convinge spectatorul erudit de calitatea numărul unu a geniului tău, oferindu-i posibilitatea de a savura un tablou în absenţa "înţelegerii" sale?

L-aş întreba pe făuritorul "Statelor lunii şi ale soarelui", fără a deranja nimic din hazardul unei inspirațiuni fără seamăn: Spune-mi cinstit, se poate concepe ca din nimic să se facă ceva?

Genialitatea lui Cyrano De Bergerac mi-ar răspunde în scris cu cerneală invizibilă, pe o foaie albă ca o vrajă care te ţine locului şi nu te înspăimântă: "Între nimic şi un simplu atom există o asemenea nesfârşire, încât nici cea mai ascuţită minte nu ar putea s-o pătrundă. Ca să ieşi din acest labirint inexplicabil, trebuie să admiţi că materia este eternă, ca şi Dumnezeu, şi atunci nu va mai fi nevoie să admitem un Dumnezeu, deoarece lumea ar fi putut exista şi fără el."

Mâna din umbră îşi retrage prezenţa, dar nu înainte de a îmbrăca veşmântul alb al unei pagini umplută cu gânduri intoarse spre tragediile unei biblioteci antice disparute. În sfârşit, mă despart aici de contrastul dintre aparenţă şi esenţă, modelat de clarobscurul unei oglinzi fermecate în care îmi văd încă o dată universul. Geniul meu întrece orice aşteptări prin faptul că lasă loc de orice interpretare când vine vorba de percepţia vizuală a imaginilor, a iluziilor imaginilor şi a iluziilor optice care demonstrează că ceea ce se vede nu coincide întotdeauna cu realitatea.

Probabil, nu voi putea ajunge niciodată la aceeaşi putere fără seamăn al lui Dumnezeu, iar corpul îngerului din mine nu face excepţie nici dacă ar fi imortalizat în literatura universală sub peniţa nemuritoare a lui Cyrano De Bergerac. Dar ceea ce e remarcabil în această zonă a tabloului pe care v-am făcut s-o adăugaţi la trăirile voatre în ultimele 5 minute, este că oricât aţi încerca să-mi atribuiţi o notă de "naivitate", sunt sigur că bucuria sufletului nu o veţi găsi decât la Mine. Şi nicăieri altundeva.

Într-un joc de cuvinte în care Luna acoperă efectiv discul Soarelui, ca o vrajă de ascundere a unor părţi din masa universală, probabil mai profund decât pare la prima vedere, se proiectează imaginea marelui orologiu care va înceta să mai arate cât este ora. Atunci voi deveni altarul dedicat unui Dumnezeu fără nume.

Statutul de creator de excepţie este sugerat în interiorul imaginii înseşi, prin mijlocirea unui aspect figurativ. El este în acelaşi timp în imagine şi altundeva, în felul cum e spusă povestea.

Solar Wind este o expresie bine înrădăcinată în literatura unei minorităţi care nu se descompune prin lipsa unei temeinice şi adânci înţelegeri a operei în sine, îmbinând culoarea cenuşie a unui univers imprevizibil, fără reguli, cu albul unei pagini scrise în limba sentimentelor şi dorinţelor.

Pe această cale, sunt nevoit să citez cuvintele pline de har ale unui mare învăţat, pe nume Wilhelm Hauff, al căror ecou a străbătut distanţele enorme ale universului şi s-a întors la mine, ca la toţi cei nemuritori, pentru o fracţiune microscopică din imensitatea unei secunde astrale:

“Sunt doar un biet tânăr nevoit să-şi croiască un drum prin lume cu pana sa. Aparţin tuturor, îmi aparţin mie însumi, dar nu aparţin nici unei şcoli... Nu simt deasupra mea niciun stăpân sau dascăl căruia să-i datorez supunere, în afara legilor eterne ale binelui şi frumosului, spre care tind, chiar şi aşa, într-o manieră nedesăvârşită. Se prea poate să nu fiu în stare să ţin forma departe de influenţa timpului, dar spiritul îmi va rămâne nemăsluit.”

Spuma consistentă a mării de culoare

On Septembrie 29, 2014

Învaţă „să vezi" şi „să simţi" la ceea ce te gândeşti, exprimând în elemente de creaţie tot ceea ce cuprind aceste forţe pe tot parcursul procesului de individualizare.

La Eisenstein rămâne, pentru toată viaţa, pasiunea pentru culoare în film. "Culoare: sonoritate pură, strălucitoare, răsunătoare. Când m-am îndrăgostit de ea? Unde? Devin posomorât când nu văd pe masa mea strălucind, unul lângă altul, creionul albastru şi cel galben, sau când perna roşie cu dungi verzi nu se află pe canapeaua albastră. Când halatul meu pestriţ nu e aici să strălucească orbitor... Şi cât de încântat sunt când panglica vărgată filipineză se răsuceşte de-a curmezişul cuverturii de pat uzbece. Sau când desenul brodat mongol se întinde de-a lungul fondului purpuriu al peretelui punctat atât de precis de emblema mexicană, din hârtie albă, a Zilei Morţii şi de cealaltă masca neagră cu rănile ei sângerânde, rătăcită aici, în chip neaşteptat din depărtări, din lumea semirituală a indienilor mexicani."

Din toată această spuma a mării de culoare şi a oceanului de cruzimi însângerate se va naşte, superb, personajul şi filmul "Ivan cel Groaznic".

Marele regizor, Serghei Eisenstein spunea la un moment dat: "Trebuie să vezi şi să simţi la ceea ce te gândeşti. Să-ţi simţi şi să-ţi stăpâneşti gândurile. Trebuie să le fii consecvent şi să le fixezi în memorie şi în simţuri. Şi trebuie să faci toate acestea în acelaşi timp." *

Leadership: Ce valoare poate să capete o creaţie care este ea însăşi rezultatul unei înţelegeri coordonate de o realitate reformatoare?

Simţul este un restaurator al viziunii pure, în timp ce gândurile sunt o parte importantă a înţelepciunii tale interioare. Ca factor de progres pentru stabilirea variantelor optime de aplicare a creaţiei în leadership, individualitatea ta se poate întregi prin ridicarea calităţii şi standardelor de „culoare" la un nivel înalt de abordare a condiţiei de creator. Cu condiţia să cercetezi combinaţiile posibile ce pot fi alcătuite din acest material profund numit „Sine" în relaţie cu obiectele din jur. Pentru un creator, culoarea este o reflectare a sinelui care ajută la stabilirea identităţii personale.

În leadership, termenului "creaţie" i se poate atribui o valoare TRUE atunci când mijlocul de exprimare a unui mesaj, a unui concept sau a unei idei artistice, prezintă o anumită atracţie vizuală sau o deschidere către noutate. Este cazul redării unei realităţi care a ieşit din amorf şi trăieşte deplin experienţa maximei diversităţi într-o exemplară unitate.

Când asociem cei doi termeni, leadership şi creaţie, ne putem referi la o navigare intuitivă într-un real aducător de satisfacţii, sesizarea unor noi puncte de vedere cu ajutorul simțurilor și al gândirii, prin reflectare nemijlocită. O formă de recunoaştere şi de mulţumire adusă inspiraţiei, prin comunicarea cu ceea ce se vede, se simte şi se aude - sau cu ceea ce se află dincolo de material, cu ceea ce este superior în tine şi în jurul tău. O modalitate de conversie a unui model de gândire, diferit şi particularizat, într-o formă în care dualitatea subiect-obiect este centrală, te poate transforma într-un consecvent tester al ştiinţei şi raţiunii, de tipul "I am a different person and when I am în my comfort zone."

Leadership: Facilitezi înţelegerea asumării inteligenţei de a se extinde înspre culmile cele mai înalte ale creaţiei, pentru a-ţi găsi o exprimare cât mai concisă în adaosul de valoare pe care trebuie să-l aduci în zona profunzimii care uimeşte prin simplitatea ei?

Ei bine, ca mijloc de dominare şi manipulare a ştiinţei care precede viziunea, intrarea în această stare de expansiune a raţiunii, prin conectare la noi sisteme de referinţă, nu face decât să unilateralizeze sau să diminueze răspunsul celor neavizaţi în trenduri, la marile provocări ale realităţii care se găseşte ascunsă în alte structuri ale conştiinţei. În percepţie, în senzorialitate, într-o înţelegere mai cuprinzătoare.

Liderii care au atins nivelul de maturitate intelectuală necesar accederii la o formă superioară de cunoaştere numesc acest fenomen de evoluţie: „ a dissolution of meaning into a real that is beyond signification. "

În absenţa unui punct de referinţă ca sursă de inspiraţie din care să rezulte o cunoaştere desăvârşită, fără o interpretare "obiectivă" a percepţiei vizavi de ceea ce încerci să creezi, aceste „iluminări intuitive" nu vor face parte din potenţialul de leadership, ci din rutina acestuia. Leadershipul se dezvoltă numai atunci când încerci să găseşti ceva puţin diferit, în incursiunile tale într-un orizont de interpretare a realităţii care depăşeşte să spunem, cunoaşterea raţională.

Creaţia ta poate să capete o valoare imensă în funcţie de modul cum utilizezi gândurile şi simţurile într-un context special al revelaţiei despre ceea ce cauţi să înţelegi, să descoperi şi să înfăptuieşti.

A facilita înţelegerea asumării inteligenţei de a se extinde înspre culmile cele mai înalte ale creaţiei înseamnă să conştientizezi că întreaga ta capacitate de a obţine rezultatul dorit se datorează fixării în memoria spectatorului acelei senzaţii de apartenenţă la un spaţiu ce pare imuabil. Precum realizarea unui film inspirat din realitate: parcugi întreaga acţiune şi ştii că nu ai cum să schimbi scenariu şi nici personajul din perspectiva căruia vezi filmul.

O exprimare cât mai concisă în adaosul de valoare pe care trebuie să-l aduci în zona profunzimii care uimeşte prin simplitatea ei, se poate obţine prin exploatarea la maxim a unei experienţe de creaţie din care se elimină "sofisticarea maximă" cu elemente surpriză.

Spuma consistentă a mării de culoare este o formă de exprimare indirectă care îşi pune pecetea pe toată creaţia ta, ca lider. Este urmarea unui vârtej de gânduri, senzaţii şi emoţii, bine direcţionate, integrate şi echilibrate într-un tip de artă care, cerând multă răbdare, arată lucrurile altfel de cum apar ele în realitate. Acest lucru poate face din tine subiectul şi obiectul propriei opere.

Spuneţi-mi, m-am gândit la toate?

On Martie 28, 2008

Formează-ţi o nouă percepţie asupra a ceea ce însemna să fii onest, fără să faci din tine însuţi un fel de iresponsabilitate pregătită să arunce totul peste bord.

- Aşadar, însănătoşirea lui continuă? Şi domnul Samuel Gelb?

- Domnul Samuel Gelb crede că, deocamdată, nu se poate dori ceva mai bun. Se teme doar pentru la toamnă.

- Dacă se va reîmbolnăvi la toamnă, zise Frédérique, vom fi acolo şi îl vom îngriji, amândoi, în aşa fel încât îl vom salva şi de data aceasta, nu-i aşa?

- Da, desigur, răspunse tânărul; dacă n-are nevoie decât de îngrijiri ca să trăiască, înseamnă că este mai sănătos decât noi.

- Îl vom îngriji. Dar de ce a fost nevoie să ne separăm? întrebă Frédérique.

- Ei, în privinţa aceasta, a avut toată dreptatea, se scăpă îndrăgostitul.

- Nu-i adevărat, s-a greşit, reluă ea, iar eu am făcut rău că am consimţit. N-ar fi trebuit să mă despart de el, când avea nevoie de mine ca să-l fac să zâmbească, pentru a-i aduce în preajmă veselia care înseamnă jumătate din sănătate. Poţi să mă consideri vanitoasă, dacă vrei, dar eu cred că unchiul dumneavoastră avea nevoie de cineva tânăr, de o mişcare care să-l învioreze şi sunt convinsă că i-ar fi făcut bine să mă poată privi. Şi apoi, am acceptat să viu aici cu condiţia de a-l vedea zilnic. Dar el nu şi-a ţinut făgăduiala. Nu vine nici măcar o dată pe săptămâna. Iar pe mine mă ţin aici închisă sub pretext că sunt bolnavă, în timp ce, dimpotrivă, niciodată nu m-am simţit mai bine. Însă situaţia aceasta nu mai poate dura. Începând de astăzi am luat o hotărâre.

Leadership: Mijlocul de probă în procesul de recunoaștere a propriei valori, de către una din părți, îl constituie faptele sau împrejurările pe care cealaltă parte își întemeiază pretențiile sau apărările?

- Ce hotărâre? întreabă Lothario, neliniştit. Credeam că este simplu planul: te vei vedea cu bogatul conte, chiar dacă este bolnav sau sănătos, în aşa fel încât el să creadă că-l iubeşti, iar astfel moştenirea să-ţi revină ţie. Asta chiar dacă valoarea omului este dată de capacitatea de a gândi dincolo de gândire, şi de a se îndrăgosti dincolo de iubire, fiindcă restul sunt doar liste de preţuri, după cum spunea Octav Bibere. Iar tu trebuie să conştientizezi că printr-un minim gest de implicare poţi contribui semnificativ la îmbunătăţirea vieţii unui om.

- Da, mi-am făcut un plan, continuă Frédérique şi, de acum înainte, domnul conte şi eu, chiar rămânând în case diferite, dacă asta îi face plăcere, ne vom vedea zilnic. Ascultă, e foarte simplu: Eu îmi voi petrece acolo două zile la rând, luând masa de seară la Paris, şi a treia zi, domnul conte va veni să-şi petreacă ziua şi să cineze aici. În felul acesta eu voi merge de două ori la el, şi mă va vedea zilnic fără să se obosească prea tare. Am plănuit bine, spuneţi-mi? M-am gândit la toate?

- La toate, în afară de mine, răspunse Lothario îmbufnat.

- Ba da! m-am gândit şi la dumneavoastră, zise fata. Conform planului meu ne vom vedea mai des. Când contele va veni la Enghien, îl veţi însoţi. Când eu voi merge la Paris, veţi lua masa la unchiul dumneavoastră. Astfel o să mă vedeţi zilnic şi nu doar o oră în fugă, ci oricât veţi voi; şi n-o să vă mai obosiţi atâta alergând pe drumuri.

- Da, zise Lothario, tot îmbufnat, voi câştiga mergând mai puţin şi n-am să vă mai văd decât în public.

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti o modalitate de a reprezenta simbolic lumea internă a omului pe care îl pui în antiteză cu "individualizările anterioare", în scopul de a ameliora capacitatea lui de răspuns la exigenţele externe?

Individualizările anterioare ale omului au drept scop dezvăluirea acelor emoţii şi convingeri, viziuni şi trăsături de caracter ce îl determină să reacţioneze într-o anumită manieră într-un caz dat. Şi nu numai atât. Determinarea individualizărilor cu ajutorul convingerilor care stau la baza scenariului de viaţă pe care omul îl materializează constant într-o expunere de motive, cu o vervă nedisimulată, şi maniera în care el îşi dezvăluie emoţiile într-un caz de superioritate (sau inferioritate), pot să evidenţieze anumite trăsături de caracter care îi compun fericirea sau nefericirea.

Iar exigenţele externe sunt factorii de influenţă care contribuie la schimbarea procesului decizional, reprezentând totalitatea caracteristicilor capabile să definească şi să cuantifice realizarea scopului propus. Ele sunt premisa unei concordanţe între adevărul obiectiv (nu interpretativ) şi explorarea lumii reale, între dreptate (ca şi concept de viaţă interumană) şi dreptatea judiciară, consacrată într-o hotărâre judecătorească definitivă.

Tânăra începu să ridă.

- Ei bine, zise ea. Dacă vă este totuna să vă obosiţi pe drumuri, şi dacă nu vă este totuna să discutăm de faţă cu contele, vi se va permite uneori, dacă vă veţi dovedi înţelept timp de opt zile, să veniţi să mă luaţi de aici sau să mă aduceţi seara, dumneavoastră călare, eu în trăsură. Aţi înţeles, dragul meu nepot? Aşa-i că o să fie minunat?

Şi naiva copilă bătu din palme încântată. Apoi continuă:

- Aţi văzut, gelos răutăcios, că totul se poate aranja şi că nu trebuie să te sperii dinainte de părerile femeilor. Ce ziceţi? Sunteţi mulţumit?

- Sunteţi inegalabilă, zise Lothario fericit.

Leadershipul vizează faţa adevărată a omului care exprimă trăiri, anxietăţi, conflicte, printr-o suprapunere cu cealaltă faţă pe care o ascunde de văzul lumii, al cărei înţeles nu-l putem descifra decât printr-o memorie semnată Victor Hugo:

"Sufletul ajută trupul şi uneori chiar îl ridică de la pământ, fiind singura pasăre care îşi poartă colivia."

Spuneţi-mi, m-am gândit la toate? Da, Frédérique, ai plănuit bine totul, dar nu ai luat în calcul două aspecte ale providenţei: totul se poate schimba oricând, şi tot ceea ce nu conţine afecţiune nu durează. Bine spunea Gonzales: "Persoana este valoroasă atunci când cuvintele ei coincid cu acţiunile sale". Şi, aş mai adăuga ceva din memoriile lui Einstein: "Dacă vrei să înţelegi o persoană, nu-i asculta cuvintele, ci observă mai bine comportamentul ei."

Spune NU metodelor extreme

On Februarie 21, 2009

Corectează-ţi poziţia pe harta pe care o întocmeşti din ceea ce te caracterizează, fără să fragmentezi sau să denaturezi realitatea propriilor tale orientări.

- Sunt cel mai bun ! Sunt singurul care a reuşit această performanţă ! Am avut cele mai multe realizări ! Doar eu am fost în stare de asta ! Nimeni nu este ca mine ! Sunt unic ! Votaţi-mă şi nu veţi regreta !

Sunt oare acestea cuvintele unui om cu adevărat puternic, optimist şi încrezător în forţele proprii?

Margaret Thatcher, premierul Marii Britanii intre anii 1979-1990, ştia cel mai bine ce înseamnă să fii cu adevărat o persoană puternică: "A fi puternic este la fel cu a fi o doamnă; dacă este nevoie să le spui oamenilor că eşti puternic, atunci nu eşti."

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi creezi un set nou de repere din imaginea unui întreg care intersectează în diferitele sale fragmente un act de voinţă liberă care poate să-ţi hotărască traiectoria puterii tale de auto-apreciere?

Acolo unde domină interesul personal cu siguranţă domină şi manipularea, iar modestia şi discreţia lipsesc cu desăvârşire. Din disperare şi din teama de a nu pierde bătălia pentru putere, unii oameni, dornici să obţină o funcţie importantă recurg la metode extreme pentru a-şi atrage de partea lor noi susţinători. Ei aruncă cu grenade gen: "Sunteţi totul pentru mine. Vă voi îndeplini şi ultima dorinţă." numai pentru a împrăştia orice fel de contestaţii cu privire la modul în care şi-au asumat răspunderea faţă de rezultatele sale slabe.

La capăt de drum ei fac o ultimă încercare, un ultim efort disperat de a-şi exercita influenţa asupra alegătorilor şi pentru a-şi salva reputaţia. Din nefericire, acei lideri care ajung într-o astfel de situaţie – critică prin felul lor de a reacţiona, probabil că nu ştiu sau nu au putut să-i câştige din timp pe oameni de partea sa.

Strigătul de disperare cu care încerci să-ţi afirmi cu tot dinadinsul puterea este un întreg care nu mai totalizează, nu mai unifică niciodată nimic, sugerând doar îndoiala cu care te confrunţi în încercarea de a te apropia de oameni. El poate semăna tot atâta confuzie ca şi nerecunoaşterea unui masterat în străinătate, fiindcă încerci să câştigi o "formalitate" în loc de aprofundarea unei anumite ideologii care oferă răspuns la întrebările celorlalţi.

Leadership: Ai probe suficiente pentru a demonstra faptul că gradul de justificare a unei convingeri, în baza anumitor criterii de predictibilitate, este o indicație a adevărului cu care poate fi atinsă o ştire?

O ştire este ceea ce ţi se întâmplă divulgat la cote mai înalte, care îţi întăreşte convingerile despre un anumit lucru. O ştire pe care intenţionezi s-o publici este precum reprezentarea unei hărţi a lumii: trebuie să fie mult prea bine definită în raport cu informaţiile de cartografie.

Pentru a demonstra faptul că gradul de justificare a unei convingeri este o indicație a adevărului cu care poate fi atinsă o ştire, trebuie să ai probe suficiente ca să susţii un punct de vedere şi să-l faci arhicunoscut în speranţa că vei schimba părerea cuiva.

Cineva a spus un mare adevăr: "Nicio hartă nu apare din senin, ele sunt realizate de cineva pentru a servi unui anumit scop. Dacă reuşim să pricepem care este acel scop vom face un pas important spre înţelegerea hărţii."

Pentru a diminua orice fel de bariere de comunicare între tine şi ceilalţi trebuie să creezi mai întâi o hartă a propriilor idealuri şi viziuni pe care le-ai transformat în realitate şi s-o utilizezi ca o formă de alchimie între tine şi ei. Însă dacă fragmentezi realitatea, dacă neglijezi sau limitezi acele puncte de referinţă care conduc la o înţelegere a modelului de leadership impus de tine, înseamnă că harta ta nu este bună, sau nu este actualizată, sau nu este suficient de bine pusă la punct.

Corectează-ţi poziţia pe harta pe care o întocmeşti din ceea ce te caracterizează, fără să fragmentezi sau să denaturezi realitatea propriilor tale orientări. Harta de leadership nu apare din senin, ci se bazează pe nişte date clare, pe nişte statistici făcute în urma unor aspecte studiate, pe acele elemente care accentuează sau diminuează calitatea evoluţiei tale, şi care dezvăluie intenţiile tale adevărate.

La fel cum tu îţi creezi o hartă prin care să-ţi exerciţi influenţa, tot aşa ceilalţi oameni îşi creează o hartă mentală şi sufletească care reproduce adevărul despre tine. Îţi limitezi potenţialul de lider dacă îi sileşti pe oameni să-ţi acorde atenţie, dacă îi obligi să se orienteze pe harta ta.

Leadership: Personalitatea ta se vede bine doar pe o hartă superior detaliată de care ştii să te serveşti doar tu?

Personalitatea unui om frustrat iese întotdeauna la suprafaţă atunci când voinţa lui se manifestă la maxim prin gânduri obsesive şi printr-o preocupare exagerată faţă de propria persoană. Nimeni nu poate juca la nesfârşit un rol duplicitar. Nimeni nu poate ascunde la nesfârşit adevărul. Căci rezultatele verifică acţiunile unui om şi sunt foarte convingătoare.

Este foarte greu să obţii bunăvoinţa oamenilor, admiraţia şi respectul lor, dacă nu eşti o persoană de încredere, serioasă şi pricepută. Asta este ceea ce ar trebui să ştie toţi aspiranţii la funcţiile înalte de conducere din stat înainte de a-şi depune candidatura. A fi eficient înseamnă să te mişti rapid şi să acţionezi în sprijinul oamenilor din timp, pentru ca ei să-şi poată forma o impresie bună despre tine. Cine speră să evite o catastrofă în ultimul moment, mai mult va intercepta numai mesaje de respingere din partea celorlalţi.

Întreaga lume se va întoarce întotdeauna către omul corect, cinstit, care într-adevăr a făcut ceva bun pentru ţara lui, pentru poporul său. La alegeri nu va fi votat acel candidat înzestrat cu o mare putere de convingere, ci acela care a avut realizări notabile.

Harta ta diferă mult de harta celorlalţi oameni? Serveşte ea la stabilirea adevăratei tale personalităţi? Modelul de hartă pe care îl creezi sau îl alegi poate fi accesibil celorlalţi?

Gândeşte-te bine la aceste lucruri înainte să faci primul pas spre eşec, înainte să înalţi "strigătul de disperare".

O hartă superior detaliată se remarcă printr-o customizare exagerată a caracterului atunci când tot ceea ce vrei să scoţi în evidenţă duce la un cu totul alt drum în viaţă decât cel aşteptat.

Stăpânul lumii

On Mai 15, 2010

Acceptă gândirea realistă, astfel încât să poţi vedea consecinţele acţiunilor tale.

Pentru un om care urmăreşte mereu, cu perseverenţă, ceea ce îl pasionează cu adevărat, acest lucru înseamnă totul. Dar când pasiunea lui cea mai mare care nu-i dă pace, pe care zi de zi, clipă de clipă şi-o întreţine singur printr-un entuziasm debordant şi printr-o dăruire totală, este să fie stăpân peste tot pământul şi peste toţi oamenii, atunci nimeni şi nimic nu-i poate sta în cale. În afară de orgoliul său nemăsurat. Care îl poate duce chiar la pieire.

Fenomenele de pe Great-Eyry, un punct inaccesibil din şirul Munţilor Albaştri pe care alpiniştii îl neglijaseră mereu, provocaseră neliniştea întregii lumi. Era oare Great-Eyry craterul unui vulcan născut din măruntaiele lanţului muntos? Căci cutremurele se înteţiseră iar pe crestele munţilor se zăreau uneori flăcări. Inspectorul de poliţie John Strock, căruia de multe ori i se încredinţaseră misiuni dificile, primi însărcinarea de la şefii lui să înceapă o anchetă. Lansându-se de unul singur într-o aventură neverosimilă, el reuşeşte să descopere în cele din urma enigma de nepătruns.

Great-Eyry era de fapt bârlogul de piatră al unei păsări uriaşe şi puternice, mai exact al unei maşini zburătoare în forma de vultur, Épouvante , construită de un extraordinar inventator, pe nume Robur. Acesta descoperise o cale de comunicare subterană cu exteriorul care îi îngăduia să părăsească Great-Eyry, lăsându-şi acolo aparatul misterios, aparat care putea să atingă o viteză uimitoare atât pe uscat cât şi pe apă, fiind deci şi avion, şi vapor şi automobil.

Leadership: Însemnătatea care ţi-o acordă lumea are ca determinant principal însemnătatea pe care ţi-o acorzi în absenţa factorilor de excludere din rândul lumii?

Însă Robur, inventatorul îndrăzneţ care se găsea de ceva vreme în atenţia întregii lumi, pe al cărui nemaipomenitul aparat de zbor se oferiseră sume colosale de bani, în loc să-şi pună în valoare invenţia ca orice alt inventator, s-a proclamat „Stăpânul Lumii". Nu se temea să se lupte cu toată omenirea. El împotriva tuturor. Oricând se putea folosi de aparatul său deosebit de performant pentru a se descotorosi de orice duşmani sau pentru a vătăma pe oricine. Nimeni nu-l putea prinde, nimeni nu-l putea găsi, nimeni nu se putea atinge de el. Dar el îi putea veni de hac oricui, oriunde, oricând.

Cine îl poate opri pe un astfel de om? Un geniu nu poate fi învins decât de un singur obstacol. Numai o singură forţă l-a putut învinge, în final, pe Robur Cuceritorul, cel animat de sentimente ostile faţă de omenire, cel înzestrat cu o minte creatoare uimitoare, a cărui încredere neţărmurită în geniul său îi dădea o siguranţă totală: imensul său orgoliu.

El s-a putut ridica deasupra tuturor oamenilor, dar nu şi-a putut ţine în frâu impulsurile şi atitudinea lui de superioritate. În final, aparatul în care se afla „nebunul de inventator", fu lovit de un fulger şi făcut bucăţi, atunci când din vanitate a încercat să zboare în timpul unei furtuni.

Din cauza gândirii lui patologice (excesive şi nerealiste) nu a putut vedea consecinţele acţiunilor sale.

Leadership: În rezerva din reevaluarea identităţii tale este înregistrată o sumă de perspective care elimină excesele de putere?

Întreaga valoare a deprecierii liderului, analizând toate acele caracteristici ce se manifestă de-a lungul timpului activ, nerestricţionate de virtuţile care fac podoaba personalităţii sale, se datorează în principiu apropierii lui de punctul de acces spre lupta cu sine însuşi. În care, în special, elementele sale de continuitate, modificate de orgoliul nemărginit, concurează în paralel cu realitatea acceptată de ceilalţi oameni. Proces care suplimentează ipotezele asupra evoluţiei sale improbabile.

Căderea liderului într-o extremă greşită, într-un exces de autoritate care transformă stocul inutilizabil de virtuţi într-un flux de venit sub formă de imbolduri care nu corespund întocmai demnităţii şi solidarităţii umane, duce la două schimbări: morale şi de credibilitate. Atrăgând după sine o viaţă de trudă şi infirmităţi mai mult de natură interioară decât exterioară, sfârşind în moartea lentă a propriei identităţi.

Identitatea pe care ţi-o asumi într-o ipostază de luptă ţine de marea varietate a reacţiilor de revoltă pe care le experimentezi într-o viaţă căreia îi lipseşte conştiinţa precarităţii, conştiinţa fragilităţii sau a propriei mediocrităţi.

Prin implicaţiile ei, identitatea este rezultatul dezvoltării intense a propriului tău Ego, mult prea pretenţios, pentru că nu poţi concepe ca nimeni, nicio gândire străină să se interpună peste umbra întunecoasă a planurilor tale şi, eventual, să-ţi limiteze accesul la marea ştiinţă a conducerii.

Dacă în rezerva din reevaluarea identităţii tale nu este înregistrată o sumă de perspective, aliniate virtuţilor slujirii unor idealuri înalte, care să elimine orice exces de putere, atunci interesele de leadership şi acumulările cantitative de experienţe şi cunoştinţe, ce pregătesc saltul calitativ pentru apariţia unor efecte de tip "feedback pozitiv" se vor dovedi nerentabile şi fără perspective de redresare.

Leadership: Un stăpânitor nu se teme decât de un singur lucru: să nu-i ia altcineva locul !

Dar oare de ce se teme un Stăpân al Lumii, un lider absolut? De orgoliul său nemăsurat? Bineînţeles că nu. Un astfel de om poate fi atenţionat de nenumărate ori de capcanele pe care i le poate întinde propria sa atitudine şi gândire egoistă, el niciodată sau prea puţin va lua în seama atenţionările primite. Căci, fără nicio îndoială, un stăpânitor nu se teme decât de un singur lucru: să nu-i ia altcineva locul. Doar atât. Asta e cea mai mare temere a sa.

El va râvni mereu la locul întâi, la perfecţiune, la „coroană”, va dori întotdeauna să domnească peste toţi şi peste toate, şi îşi va urmări interesele cu o încăpăţânare de nestrămutat. Iar cine va dori să-i intre în graţii cu siguranţă va fi pus la încercare, fiindu-i ridicate în cale numeroase piedici, iar dacă nu se va ridica la înălţimea aşteptărilor LUI, ori la prima dovada de neascultare, va fi pedepsit aspru.

Şi mai cred cu tărie că dacă ar exista un Stăpân al Lumii, ar avea, la fel ca Robur, o inimă de bronz. Neavând decât un singur obiectiv – acela de a stăpâni, el nu se va lăsa niciodată înduplecat, nu va fi niciodată înspăimântat de nimeni şi de nimic, nu face niciodată un pas înapoi în lupta pentru „titlu”, pe care odată câştigat va dori mereu să şi-l păstreze. Cu dublul său instinct, de luptător şi de conducător, fiind şi judecător şi legiuitor în acelaşi timp, va căuta să-şi impună mereu supremaţia, tăind şi spânzurând după bunul lui plac, ţesând mereu intrigi complicate împotriva acelora care vor să se ridice la rangul său, acela de Stăpân al Lumii.

Dar oricât de puternic ar fi, un Stăpân al Lumii va avea tot timpul un duşman teribil, nevăzut, care-l va vâna mereu cu insistenţă încercând să-l determine să facă o greşeală fatală: propriul său orgoliu.

Ţine cont de valorile tale şi de ceea ce te motivează să schimbi în lume cu intervenţia puterii care te stăpâneşte, atunci când produci conţinut de tip "access closed for good".

Concluzie: Orice reuşită, orice laudă, îţi gâdilă în mod plăcut orgoliul. Dar acest orgoliu trebuie cu grijă ţinut în frâu căci el îţi poate aduce necazuri şi poate determina chiar pieirea ta. Un orgoliul hipertrofiat îţi poate crea o imagine falsă asupra propriilor activităţi. De aceea e important să fii corect cu tine însuţi, să-ţi autoevaluezi corect propriile forte şi în nici intr-un caz să nu te gândeşti că eşti sau poţi deveni „Stăpânul Lumii", că deţii adevărul absolut sau cheia marilor mistere.

Acceptă gândirea realistă, astfel încât să poţi vedea consecinţele acţiunilor tale.

Starea de anxietate a minţii care declanşează transformarea

On Septembrie 19, 2013

Focusează-te pe o viziune transformatoare, astfel încât să treci testul dificil care îţi pune la încercare elementele active de siguranţă şi încredere în sine.

Un foc nestins o ţine acum pe Catherine Martin în viaţă. Este victima unei situaţii experimentale compromiţătoare din punct de vedere al solicitărilor de ordin psihic la care este supusă. Protagonista unui test dificil de trecut, care îi pune la încercare elementele active de siguranţă şi încredere în sine. Haotic sunt încărcate cu tensiune bateriile nervoase, în timp ce flexibilitatea şi maleabilitatea firii ei sunt compromise.

Exista un precedent în această privinţă, de natură să o înspăimânte atât de cumplit. Luase hotărârea să se comporte eroic şi să nu cedeze în faţa presiunilor maxime negative, care acum duceau la o suprasolicitare nervoasă. Inhibând impulsurile de autoapărare şi iniţiativa, atrăgând-o către introversie şi anxietate. Starea ei stimulează potenţialul neîmblânzit de escaladare a muntelui intangibil situat în masivul minţii, care străjuieşte zona funcţională. Gândul morţii.

Claustrată într-un spaţiu ostil, în mijlocul celor mai dense deznădejdii, unde parcă se înstăpânise alteritatea, senzaţia de a fi altcineva, Catherine renunţă definitiv la sentimentul că în Buffalo Bill mai zace vreo fărâmă de bunătate. În curând o va ucide !

Leadership: Te supui unei încercări de a prelua controlul întregii experiențe de utilizare a sentimentelor de apartenenţă la un nou mediu de "testare" a personalităţii, în modul în care alegi să răspunzi durerii pe care o simți în interacţiunea stabilită de compromisul propriei identităţi cu lumea?

Are loc o activare a substanţei de transformare, din natura intrinsecă, care aproape o îndepărtează de instinctele ei. Ochii măriţi de spaimă, chipul radiind o puternică deznădejde, muşchii feţei încleştaţi, mâinile tremurânde, toate mărturisesc într-un mod cât se poate de elocvent cu câtă înverşunare se luptă cu imposibilul, cu răbdarea şi voinţa, într-o stare continuă de încordare apăsătoare.

Operaţiunea care previne şi tratează mintea umană - supusă unei torturi sistematice, provocată în mod direct de presiuni exterioare ce determină oscilaţii de indispoziţie şi irascibilitate - se numeşte transformare. Această transformare lasă în urmă cadavrul psihic şi emoţional. Şi reînvie substanţa cu potenţial de propagare a undelor pulsatorii de înaltă frecvenţă care recompun sursa stimulatorie de energii nebănuite.

Credinţa reînvie. Funcţiile organismului revin treptat la normal. Fiinţa aceasta disperată se debarasează de anxietate. Depăşeşte stările limită de rezistenţă. Pulsaţia lăuntrică, care activează şi zoreşte toate instinctele de reacţie, determină un elan de acţiune neaşteptat. Forţa chemării înflăcărate spre o stare nouă de funcţionare, spre o stare de supremă conştiinţă, se manifestă prin găsirea unei soluţii salvatoare. Astfel barca fatalităţii se întoarce în altă direcţie, favorabilă ieşirii din criză.

Leadership: Incluzi fenomenele care devin un obstacol într-un nou mediu de existență, înlăturând în totalitate realitatea cu care te-ai obișnuit, sau începi să-ţi forţezi limitele pentru a afla de ce eşti cu adevărat în stare?

Arta de a cunoaşte manifestările naturii umane, explorând adânc, în interiorul omului pentru descoperi materialul acelor convingeri considerate de bază, care îi limitează sau amplifică trăirile, se poate defini, pe drept cuvânt, ca "lux". O chestiune profundă legată de cunoaşterea fiinţei umane supusă instinctelor şi efectelor forţelor de ordin interior. Un aspect ignorat, din păcate, tot mai mult. Căci nu oricine are acces la ea, fiindcă nu este profitabilă din punct de vedere material.

Dar poate fi o investiţie care să protejeze leadershipul de elementele încă nefinisate, care în plină desfăşurare a unei acţiuni pot prejudicia siguranţa individului.

Ca o artă greu de reprodus, netransmisibilă, leadershipul capătă o altă dimensiune, care va fi foarte mult apreciată în viitor. Deocamdată fiind slab alimentată cu noi tipuri de gândire şi acţiune. El devine un model de analiză, un ecran de deblocare a factorilor temporali interni din personalitatea omului, pe care doar psihologia evoluţionistă îl aplică în încercările ei de a înţelege design-ul minţii omeneşti.

Iar în etapa finală, cea mai vulnerabilă, care îţi finisează pe deplin meritul de a fi lider, trecând prin faza de blocaj şi de refacere, răscolind prin introspecția pe care o provoacă un eveniment critic, leadershipul se poate aborda numai direct.

În conjunctura unei selecţii a calităţilor şi deficitelor cuprinse în scheletul lăuntric, modelat cu dimensiuni optime ce asigură o rezistenţă superioară solicitărilor de orice tip, eşti silit să pui pe primul plan nu sentimentele, ci datoria faţă să propria existenţă în împrejurări în care ea este periclitată de forţe străine.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să pui minţii tale o nouă pereche de ochelari fără să-ţi însuşeşti o reacţie reflexivă, sau fără să-ţi creezi un ego care să te îndepărteze de calitatea ta de "produs al realităţii"?

Leadershipul capătă un rol important atunci când pui minţii o nouă pereche de ochelari şi încerci să ieşi învingător dintr-o situaţie ambiguă care declanşează războiul cu tine însuţi. Dacă devii protagonistul unui test dificil de trecut, care îţi pune la încercare elementele active de siguranţă şi încredere în sine (şi nu doresc firilor slabe să trăiască experienţe de acest gen), înseamnă că toate calităţile care pot contribui la menţinerea zonei de siguranţă, prin reglarea psihicului şi a stării de spirit, sunt reale şi dominante.

Starea de încordare nou instalată, care micşorează randamentul caracteristicilor structurale de flexibilitate şi maleabilitate ale personalităţii tale, nu oricând şi nu oricum poate fi învinsă sau substituită unei decizii care să fenteze realitatea. Sau care să ignore calitatea materialului din care eşti croit. De aceea o activare a substanţei de transformare din natura intrinsecă, care să declanşeze instinctele de luptător, este absolut necesară pentru a fi un lider veritabil.

Dificultăţile privind deplasarea psihică spre un punct de referinţă, precum credinţa şi încrederea în sine, nu asigură un elan de acţiune eficient, un paravan împotriva slăbiciunii de a lupta până la capăt. Aşadar eşti penalizat de propria neputinţă. Leadershipul fiind în acest caz calculat în baza probabilităţii minime de izbândă. Iar asta înseamnă că ai permis leadershipului să fie substituit unei distribuţii de frecvenţa slabă a valorilor tale de excelenţă, spre marginalizare sau chiar spre anulare.

Devii cu atât mai puternic cu cât posibilităţile de susţinere a unei experienţe fără orizont sau de eliminare a legăturii cu sentimentul de neputinţă, sunt mai ridicate. Dacă vrei să realizezi în condiţii bune trecerea spre un teritoriu mai vast de control al sinelui, focusează-te pe o viziune transformatoare, astfel încât să treci testul dificil care îţi pune la încercare elementele active de siguranţă şi încredere în sine.

Abordarea leadershipului se apropie de ceea ce alegi să fii atunci când lupţi cu imposibilul, cu răbdarea şi voinţa, într-o stare continuă de încordare apăsătoare, în preajma unui ego care tinde să te convingă de calitatea ta de "produs al realităţii".

Reacţia reflexivă care te îndeamnă să urmezi un nou traseu existenţial este o metodă de înlăturare a efectelor secundare produse de o realitate acută, prin găsirea unor noi motive de a explora o lume care-i mult prea dură pentru câtă viață ai la dispoziție ca să descoperi ce minuni și veleități ascunde.

Schimbarea ta începe cu hotărârea lui de a-ţi reconsidera realitatea în termenii unei eliberări din furtuna propriilor emoţii, din capcana unei vieţi trăite în suferinţă, alimentându-ţi conştiinţa cu următorul compromis: "accept faptul că am căzut într-o groapă, dar nu voi accepta niciodată să rămân acolo ! "

Starea de anxietate a minţii care declanşează transformarea nu este altceva decât mobilitatea forţelor intrinseci în situaţii critice, copleşitoare şi inhibante, care blochează orice acţiune. Este apanajul oamenilor cu un psihic puternic, a liderilor de excepţie, de a contracara rapid şi eficient această stare de anxietate, care cu cât este mai profundă şi mai îndelungată, poate pune în pericol chiar viaţa individului.

Statuia care nu se însufleţeşte

On Martie 21, 2019

Fii sublima trăire a ființei spirituale în lumea creată de tine, fără să pretinzi că eşti altcineva decât eşti în realitate.

Îmi place să admir grădinile oamenilor, cele îngrijite, pline de flori şi copaci, cu aspect stilat, ordonat și totuși natural, spontan. Ele par să sugereze o incursiune în tainele unei arte care a trecut cu succes testul timpului. Mai cu seamă, ceva din mine pare să nesocotească curgerea vremii ori de câte ori observ un nou decor, un nou ansamblu florar, un leagăn mai deosebit, sau o combinaţie de nuanţe amplasată pe fiecare răsad în parte.

Cumva, mă simt în preajma unor artişti capabili să dea tabloului culoarea vie şi vibrantă a mugurilor și a frunzelor armonizate între ele de o strategie a detaliului care surprinde şi deconectează de la agitația zilnică, aducându-te în fața minunilor mărunte dar pline semnificație ale prezentului.

A admira este prima operă a lui "a analiza". Observ persoana care se ocupă de grădină, atenţia fiindu-mi îndreptată spre uneltele cu care lucrează, spre materialele pe care le are la îndemână, dar mai ales la modul cum îşi meştereşte propriile decoraţiuni. Creativitatea există doar în cazul unui artist însufleţit de mâinile sale care ştiu să atingă graţios fiecare fir de iarbă, fiecare rămăşiţă de frunză, cu acea delicateţe cu care întinzi cu pensula culoarea pe şevalet.

Fiecare fir de iarbă şi fiecare frunzuliţă are locul ei în grădină. Unii îşi meşteresc viziunea personală asupra plantelor aranjându-le ca într-un puzzle, fără nici o preocupare pentru contradicţii.

Leadership: Lupţi să păstrezi aparența imaginii unei fericiri închipuite, așa cum trebuie ea făurită de un artist al naturii, chiar dacă asta te macină pe dinăuntru mai mult decât ai fi dispus să recunoşti vreodată?

Zilele trecute am văzut un bătrânel care dădea indicații servitorului său credincios: fă asta, fă cealaltă, asta e frumos, asta nu, etc. E un fel de parodie să observi un individ care arată cu degetul, dar nu posedă rara capacitate de a transforma realitatea într-un vis, şi visul într-o realitate. Dar bătrânelul, acelaşi pe care îl văd mereu fără ca el să mă observe, nu pune niciodată mâna pe greblă, nu tunde trandafirii, nu plantează, nu sapă, n-ai să-l vezi vreodată împingând o roabă.

Adevărata lui fericire lui constă în a-şi etala imensa apreciere pentru frumos, dar fără să simtă experienţa şi farmecul gustului pentru frumosul purtat de artă, fără să-şi poată exprima sensibilitatea artistică printr-o practică materială şi spirituală. El filmează într-un domn onorabil, admirator al celor mai fine arte, dar îi lipseşte acea continuă frământare a mâinilor murdare de pământ, îi este total necunoscută acea mişcare expresivă a mâinilor mânjite de culoare, îi lipseşte capacitatea de a lucra fără pauză până seara târziu.

Nici măcar stropitul florilor nu pare inclus în "palmaresul" său de competenţe. Există altcineva plătit special pentru toate treburile astea delicate. Dumnealui a descoperit facebook-ul. Se mulțumește să facă fotografii, rod al unei înşelătorii subtile, o confirmare falsă a modului său de a fi, ca şi când ar fi tare priceput în ale grădinăritului. Dar totul numai de dragul fanilor şi al like-urilor.

Arta şi ştiinţa sunt unite de una şi aceeaşi funcţie determinativă: de a crea prin uimitoarea forţă a naturii dispusă a se lăsa transformată de experienţă spirituală a omului.

Domnul acesta îşi găseşte refugiul în condiţia de mare iubitor al naturii, dar în străfundul inimii lui şade copia palidă a unei statui fără viaţă, chiar dacă nu şi-ar recunoaşte niciodată ignoranţa faţă de concretul vieţii şi al creaţiei divine, chiar dacă nu şi-ar recunoaşte niciodată limitele propriei importanţe pe care încearcă s-o exercite cu o mare autonomie.

Bineînţeles, nu doresc să aduc argumente vizavi de caracterul ce-l trădează enorm pe acest om molatic şi fără vlagă, căci la fel cum știi să te ocupi de grădina ta, tot la fel știi să le faci și le-ai făcut pe toate în viață.

Dar mai rău decât atât este că omul acesta n-a învățat să comunice cu natura după atâția ani de viață, el nu poate să simtă efemerul florii de cireş, nu poate să simtă atingerea pământului ca pe o blândă binecuvântare, nu poate să frământe pământul în palme ca pe un aluat sau să simtă vibraţiile pământului sub talpa desculţă. Iar acest lucru este mai important decât orice funcţie de conducere.

Domnule, nu cumva să murdărești mănușile cu care lucrează grădinarul tău. Iar un grădinar bun nu lucrează cu mănuși.

Leadership: Poţi percepe imaginea propriei fiinţe ca pe un semn că ai intrat într-o lume în care trebuie să ştii de la început unde să cauţi o asigurare a împlinirii idealurilor pe care le porţi în suflet?

Grădinarul comunică cu natura şi poate modifica codul personalizat al unui decor nu atât pentru că îi stă în puteri să "lase să se vadă ceva făcut cu mâna lui", ci pentru că îşi manifestă grija pentru mediul înconjurător fără să se concentreze asupra veritabilului mod de funcţionare a reprezentaţiei de tipul "one man show" pentru trecătorii spectatori.

Un grădinar adevărat nu se foloseşte de ispitirile aparenţelor ca să însufleţească viul, operele naturii, după chipul şi asemănarea sa, ci rămâne fidel unei estetici a virtuţilor de căpătâi: pragmatism, eficienţă, fidelitate, sensibilitate, afecţiune, hărnicie, îndemânare, etc.

În leadership este important să privim imaginea grădinarului ca pe un îndemn la o gândire mai profundă asupra transformării lucrurilor care nu îşi încheie ciclul de viaţă, ci compun acea realitate a eternului "Acum" la modul unei trăiri personalizate prin atitudinea de îngrijitor al unui loc al virtuţilor.

Idealul pe care liderul îl poartă în suflet este acelaşi pe care mi l-aș dori atins de un grădinar: să rezoneze cu puterea spirituală a creaţiei realizată din efort şi suflet.

Cel fel de grădinar de suflete umane este acela care nu simte ceea ce simt plantele înzestrate cu puterea să crească din seminţele sădite cu mâna sa?

Aici nu trebuie pus accentul doar pe trăsăturile omului, ci pe trăsăturile caracteristice ale disciplinei muncii pe care el o depune, evidenţiată prin plantarea şi îngrijirea florilor din propria grădină. Grija faţă de natură, grija faţă de Creaţie, grija faţă de condiţiile de mediu, respectul faţă de rânduielile unei bune gospodării, respectul faţă de frumos, respectul faţă de lucrul bine făcut, atenţia la detalii, atenţia faţă de bogăţia naturii şi faţă de varietatea ei de manifestări.

Leadershipul trebuie privit ca metodă supremă a activităţii de grădinărit, ca modalitate de control și perfectare a naturii.

Totodată, tema grădinăritului se plasează în centrul unei problematici mai largi, legată de puterile asociate imaginii unei fericiri netulburate, împlinite, acea de a contribui la realizarea unui decor încântător care să conţină o recompensă morală, sufletească, nu unul care să te ridice la înălţimea unui piedestal (ieşitul în evidenţă) care în esenţă e foarte şubred.

Imaginea fericirii poartă în ea posibilul vid al unei vieţi ratate, al unei înşelătorii, dacă gradina devine un teritoriu al duplicităţii.

Leadership este o descifrare a vieţii în direcţia abordării condiţiei omului care nu se mulţumeşte să cunoască doar ceea ce vede cu ochii lui, ci care este capabil să surprindă prin filtrele voinţei şi ale sensibilităţii întreaga esenţă a Creaţiei transpusă într-o grădină făcută cu mâna sa.

Statuia care nu se însufleţeşte evidenţiază personalitatea omului care nu a cunoscut niciodată acea senzaţie de înviorare, de statornică bună dispoziţie, de permanentă limpezire a gândurilor, datorată apropierii de nucleul vieţii care îl constituie: "o intervenţie artistică în natură cu scopul de a redescoperi frumosul, la o altă scară".

Chiar dacă ar şti să vorbească (ca din cărţi) despre artă, un asemenea om nu va fi capabil niciodată să producă arta, pentru simplul motiv că nu poate să îmbrăţişeze nemărginirea şi profunzimea Naturii. Avem atât de multe de învăţat de la natură. Să simţim înainte de a cuprinde...

Bine scria cineva la un moment dat: „Natura este cel mai expresiv model ce poate poza unui artist; acesta trebuie să se îndepărteze de artificial şi să capteze naturalul. În acest caz, artistul este «fiul rătăcitor» care se întoarce acasă, la Mama Natură şi Dumnezeu Tatăl".

Stealing Time

On August 22, 2015

Ia-ţi angajamentul de a da viaţă aspectelor ascunse ale navigării într-o direcţie nedeterminată, controlând admisibilitatea revenirii în punctul de plecare.

Scena vieţii mele din tinereţe reprezenta o ciudată copie a celei în care aveam să-mi trăiesc viitorul, dintr-o ascunsă aplecare spre cercetarea analogiei între circuitele realului şi nepătrunzătorului, prin convenţie cu distribuţia energiei mele de călător în spectrul finitudinii.

Nu am fost niciodată sigur de fenomenul acesta de deja-vu, de această senzaţie că am trăit deja ceea ce încă nu se întâmplase, în limitele unei cauze de emancipare, în concordanţă cu marja de eroare de care am abuzat – pe care, tentant mi-am asumat-o integral în cele din urmă. „And I know I'm living out of line”. Cred că interesul ce-l deşteaptă amintirea trecutului, memoria unei căutări a ceea ce am fost, care atrag atenţia prin culorile vii ale sentimentalităţii cu care trăiesc fiecare clipă a prezentului, surprinde revelaţia unei alte realităţi decât aceea la care particip prin existenţa mea cotidiană.

Negreşit. Eram influenţat de acea impetuozitate a cugetării, sub dubla presiune a sinelui încadrat în condiţiile anteriorului şi ulteriorului, prin rupere de real. Eram stârnit de nepotolita sete de cunoaştere proprie unui Francis Bacon în încercarea de a crea o teorie despre inducţie sau o metodă de clasificare a ştiinţelor, numai din acea fascinaţie a zonelor încă neexplorate ale omenescului intrate sub arbitrajul ştiinţei. Mai mult decât atât, cedam inclinaţiei mele către anticipare.

Practic, mă înfruptam din plăcerea firească de a gusta repausul intimităţii, ascunsele părţi ale memoriei mele ţâşnind ca o necesitate de ordinul gândirii într-un triumf luminos: „I'm stealing time from my own life.”

Leadership: Cauţi să afli semnificaţia existenţei tale în revelaţia unui trecut care se încăpăţânează să nu mai treacă, atribuindu-i o anumită prioritate în contextul permanentei confruntări cu ceea ce există imediat?

Important era crearea momentului de tensiune care se măsura în gol. Intram într-un film care se derula undeva în faţa mea, în favoarea unui trecut care se dorea prelungit în conştiinţa actualităţii, a prezentului de care mă îndepărtam mereu, a viitorului de care nu mă credeam capabil să-l produc. Fără îndurerare vădită, mă detaşam de mine însumi, ca un demon, ca un spirit fugar ce intră doar acolo unde găseşte un loc liber de manifestare şi expresie, în rândul intelectualităţii care experimentează tenebrele şi încearcă să se ridice la lumină.

Într-un fel mă regăseam în rolul acelui pescuitor din 2000 de leghe sub mări . Omul se scufunda în partea cea mai puţin adâncă a oceanului ţinându-se cu picioarele de o piatră în formă de căpăţână de zahăr, legată cu o funie de luntre. Asta era singura lui unealtă. Odată ajuns pe fund, la vreo cinci metri adâncime, se arunca în genunchi şi-şi umplea sacul cu scoici culese la întâmplare. Apoi urca, îşi golea sacul, trăgea sus piatra şi reîncepea operaţia, care nu ţinea mai mult de 30 de secunde.

Concret, în mintea mea nu exista decât una din aceste două alternative: plecarea sau rămasul, dusul sau întorsul, în afara duratei normale a timpului, „All the hours that God sends”, într-o spartană ignorare a oricăror slăbiciuni de ordin raţional - numai pe una mă bizuiam, numai de ea ţineam seama, în momentele ce altora li se părea că erau exagerări sau scorneli.

Leadership: Pui noi pietre de temelie la săvârşirea unei creaţii numite generic „living out of line”, efectuând o anumită operaţie de valorificare a experienţei de reamintire de sine care te urmăreşte toată viaţa?

Chiar şi acum, existenţa mea poartă semnificaţia unei interogări a trecutului din care încerc să lămuresc ce-i cu trecerea mea pe pământ. Este un fel de încercare de a da glas unei înţelegeri a prezentului în care nu-mi găsesc locul, luând parte la durerea, nemulţumirea sau contrariile unei realităţi care m-a dominat, m-a marcat şi mi-a încărcat sufletul, din care trebuie să ies cumva mai puternic, mai complet, mai purificat.

Timpul este un sistem deschis de formare a omului, monitorizând evoluţia sa de la subiectiv spre obiectiv, sau invers, care face un permanent schimb de date şi de informaţie cu contextul în care el se află. Pe măsură de omul trece de la un nivel inferior la unul superior de cunoaştere, modul în care percepe lumea şi interpretează situaţiile de viaţă, în baza tendinţei de a controla ceea ce i se întâmplă, se schimbă categoric. El începe să vadă lucrurile în lumina unei concepţii ştiinţifice, nu doar în lumina unei expuneri individuale la diferiţi factori de succes sau insucces.

A pune noi pietre de temelie la săvârşirea unei creaţii numite generic living out of line , efectuând, ca orice sistem, o anumită operaţie de valorificare a experienţei de reamintire de sine care te urmăreşte toată viaţa, înseamnă să preiei din evoluţia ta acele episoade care te-au luminat, inspirat, motivat, şi să le adaptezi la un scenariu mai amplu, care presupune la extrem inclusiv o desprindere totală de felul în care eşti tu.

Leadership: Meditezi asupra semnificației tale de ansamblu ca formă de călătorie în timp prin construirea unui prezent paralel și reevaluarea unui trecut cunoscut doar parțial datorită organizarea memoriei într-un demers arhetipal?

Atunci când afirm că leadershipul este totodată un instrument de măsurare al timpului folosit în scopul construirii unei identităţi mai bogate, evaluate prin formarea sinelui - încadrat în condiţiile anteriorului şi ulteriorului, încerc să reprezint de fapt reperele ideatice care survin în accesarea unei noi experienţe de utilizare a fenomenului „deja-vu”.

Dacă te agăţi deseori de acea senzaţie că ai trăit deja ceea ce încă nu s-a întâmplat, datorată nepotolitei sete de cunoaştere, deja te afli cu un pas mai aproape de acel potenţial de vizionar care te transformă dintr-un călător în spectrul finitudinii într-un manipulator al timpului. Cu cât cunoaşterea atinge nivele mai profunde, cu atât mai uşor reuşeşti să îţi imaginezi tabloul fantastic cât mai real şi, cum bine preciza cineva pe un blog, cu atât timpul tău de viaţă devine mai îndelungat.

Memoria se întemeiază într-un demers arhetipal atunci când dispui de mijloacele necesare recompunerii trecutului într-un prezent care continuă să fie subiectul examinărilor preferenţiale ale unor variate modalități de definire a EU-lui prins între aventura cunoaşterii pluriperspectivale şi strânsoarea provocărilor emoţionale.

Leadershipul are în vedere angajamentul omului de a da un înţeles totalizator aspectelor ascunse ale navigării într-o direcţie nedeterminată şi revenirea în punctul de plecare, într-un trecut de care niciodată nu se va putea desprinde fiindcă acolo se concentrează rădăcinile sale.

Stealing Time evidenţiază acea existenţă a omului în afara timpului, obţinută printr-o cunoaştere de tip „deja-vu”, născută din joacă, din creaţia şi imaginaţia exersată.

Ca să conferi leadershipului o valoare în plus trebuie să iei in considerare fenomenul „dus-întors”: urmăreşte ceea ce apare când „ţi se întâmplă să te reîntorci”, încât să faci lucrurile mai bine decât „data trecută”.

Steaua care străluceşte în fundul buzunarului

On Aprilie 02, 2014

Identifică acel factor de siguranţă care poate să întreţină mulţumirea sufletească şi credinţa, reinventându-te permanent în contextul unei lumi care îşi risipeşte minunile.

Călătorul îşi aminti obiceiul încântător şi străvechi al copiilor, care-şi pun încălţămintea la gura vetrei, în ziua de Crăciun, ca să aştepte în întuneric cine ştie ce dar strălucitor din partea zânei ocrotitoare. Cele două surori răsfăţate, Eponine şi Azelma, avuseseră grijă să nu scape prilejul şi-şi puseseră fiecare câte un pantof în vatră. Zâna, adică mama lor, doamna Thenardier, trecuse pe acolo şi lăsase în fiecare pantof câte o monedă de zece parale.

Omul se ridică şi era gata să plece, când zări în fund, departe, în colţul cel mai întunecat al vetrei, un papuc urât, din lemnul cel mai prost, pe jumătate rupt şi plin ce cenuşă şi noroi uscat. Era papucul Cosettei, al micuţei servitoare. Cu acea încredere mişcătoare a copiilor care pot fi înşelaţi întotdeauna fără să se descurajeze niciodată, Cosette îşi pusese şi ea papucul în vatră. Sperând.

Dar în papucul acesta nu era nimic. Atunci, străinul scotoci în vestă, se aplecă, şi puse în papucul Cosettei un galben. Mare-i fu bucuria fetiţei, dimineaţa, când descoperi cadoul. Pentru prima dată în toţi aceşti ani de muncă şi suferinţă, prea grea pentru un copil, cineva se gândise la ea. Biata făptură blândă, a cărei inimă nu se deschisese până atunci nimănui, pentru prima oară simţi o mângâiere.

Când Cosette mătura scara, se oprea, rămânea pironită locului, uitând de treabă şi de lumea întreagă, ocupată să se uite la steaua care-i strălucea în fundul buzunarului. *

Leadership: Eşti de acord ca povestea vieţii tale să se constituie ca o apropiere majoră de linia destinului trasată de alţii, în circumstanţele unei întâmplări neaşteptate care poate da o semnificaţie profundă vieţii?

Stările tale sufleteşti acționează ca factor de izolare atunci când te simţi constrâns să-ţi ţii sub control dorinţele şi aşteptările. Regulile impuse de zidurile realităţii care pare din ce în ce mai meschină, te pot face să trăieşti în tiparele unor vremuri care par de mult apuse. Sau atunci când năzuieşti la lucruri pe care nu ţi le permiţi. Altfel spus, stările sufleteşti sunt ca nişte ape adânci care ar putea să-i atragă fără scăpare în vâltoarea lor pe cei care nu reusesc să integreze miraculosul într-o lume săracă.

Suferinţa care te face mai slab într-o lume fără prea multe repere stabile, se instalează atunci când din anumite motive nu vrei să ceri mai mult decât ţi se cuvine de la viaţă şi te simţi constrâns să spui „bine” atunci când ţi-e teamă că pierzi totul dacă nu vei accepta.

O întâmplare neaşteptată poate da o semnificaţie profundă vieţii atunci când scoate la suprafaţă părţile tale bune în varianta unei oglindiri în ”ceva mai mult decât în tine însuţi”, în favoarea unui Dumnezeu determinist, plin de îndurare, care predestinează vieţile tuturor oamenilor.

Să scrii povestea vieţii tale într-o asemenea dramă a marginalizării este o formă a eşecului, este ca şi când ai încerca să capeţi înţelepciune printr-o experienţă de recunoaştere a finitudinii unei existenţe precedată de neant, fără a avea revelaţia unei trancenderi a condiţiei tale prin unirea cu Dumnezeu.

Asta înseamnă să te raportezi la surse imaginare de împlinire. Iar în clipa când vei începe să simţi că eşti constrâns să-ţi clădeşti scurta existenţă pe principiul: "Nu pot avea ", atunci nu vei mai putea atinge sublimul în spiritualitatea lumii în care Binele, Frumosul şi Adevărul îşi dau mâna şi înfăptuiesc miracole. Ci vei începe să fii secat de orice frumos, de orice sentiment uman pe care îl deţii, de orice ţel măreţ.

Sau, stările tale sufleteşti pot acționa ca server de comandă și control atunci când refuzi să primeşti instrucţiuni din partea unei autorităţi de ordin restrictiv şi punitiv, cum sunt împrejurările externe nefavorabile. Această reacţie de alegere este profund justificată în cazul liderilor, pentru că nu se bazează pe prejudecăţi, sau pe credinţa într-o opoziţie absolută.

Leadership: Eşti chemat să oferi valoare unei fapte de demnitate într-un context pe care oamenii nu l-au mai cunoscut, sub aspectul profunzimii unei conştiinţe morale răscolită de reacţii negative faţă de o greşită înţelegere socială?

Există ceva de o nobleţe aparte în tine? Capacitatea ta de esențializare a experienţelor-limită poate să satisfacă cerinţele nespecificate ale oamenilor de a primi ceva de la viaţă? Încerci să ridici ştacheta conştiinţei lor la măsura întregii tale fiinţe, responsabile pentru producerea schimbării?

Nişte versuri de pe internet mi-au atras atenţia zilele trecute: " Absurdele zbateri ale sufletului îmi străpung adânc fiinţa, până la a mă identifica în propria-mi neputinţă, sau neştiinţă de a găsi un răspuns. Şi singura armă ce mi-a mai rămas e deznădejdea de a mă regăsi mereu încătuşat în propria mea fiinţă. "

Liderii experimentaţi ştiu că răspunsul la cererile iniţiale în "negocierea" cu viaţa, mereu exagerate, începe cu o negaţie de genul " Nu fi naiv " sau cu expresia " A fost odată ca niciodată ". De aceea nu se simt deranjaţi să amplifice decorul lumii interioare a celorlalţi oameni, dimpotrivă sunt îndatoraţi. Şi, apreciind valoarea a ceea ce are demnitate superioară, ei acceptă să se transforme în adevăraţi creatori ai unui spaţiu de nădejde, de înfăptuire şi împlinire a năzuinţelor sufletului uman.

Lumea nu este aşa cum vrei tu să fie, ci este aşa cum trebuie tu să fii într-un mod sublim, astfel încât să te califici într-un concurs al hazardului care te găseşte fără să-l cauţi.

Într-un fel, ei înşişi retrăiesc momentele atât de dureroase pentru ceilalţi, simţind deznădejdea celor suferinzi. De aceea practică o formă de leadership care plasează experienţa vieţii într-un context neaşteptat, având o aură luminoasă, pe care ceilalţi oameni încă nu au cunoscut-o. Iar această formă de leadership, care transmite prin puterea emoţiilor un mesaj al credinţei, plin de înţeles: " să-ţi doreşti, să crezi, să speri şi să lupţi orice ar fi ", are efect stimulator şi mobilizator.

Înseamnă că ai ajuns să dispui de acel potenţial admirabil, asemenea unui vultur care simte forţa din aripi, datorită căruia ai ajuns la un nivel mai înalt decât în mod obişnuit. Înseamnă că ai devenit conştient de o anumită senzaţie de plenitudine şi satisfacţie morală, legându-te sufleteşte de acea zonă a lumii insuficient adusă la lumină, care depersonalizează individul şi îl lipseşte de omenie, pe care ai reusit să o explorezi şi, în plus, să o cucereşti.

Ca să fii eficient în studiul lumii înconjurătoare, posedând o anumită înţelepciune pe care numai în timp o poţi dobândi, e însă nevoie şi de ştiinţa omului lăuntric care cunoaşte acea limbă a sufletului, caracteristica timpului, de care să te simţi legat ca printr-o coloană vertebrală de acţiunile tale. Dacă pui valoare în vieţile celorlalţi, aceasta nu ţi-o va lua nimeni.

O conştiinţă morală răscolită de reacţii negative faţă de o greşită înţelegere socială se poate concretiza într-o destăinuire tainică a sufletului care se iveşte numai când simţi nevoia unei râvniri la o poveste fermecată de viaţă.

O poveste care a început cu „A fost odată ca niciodată” se poate schimba radical cu un îndemn: „Nu îţi împietri inima, roagă-te neîncetat ! ” care conduce la apariţia hazardului.

Steaua care străluceşte în fundul buzunarului aduce în atenţie acea motivaţie intrinsecă de a crea ceva nou, mobilizator, dătător de speranţă, care îi transformă pe oameni într-o puternică forţă de acţiune. Nu te crampona într-o limită a acceptibilitatii vieţii, oricare ar fi ea, ci ia aminte că trăieşti într-un prezent care este simultan, un viitor îndepărtat, dar şi un trecut îndepărtat.

Steaua unui rătăcitor care îşi duce crucea

On Octombrie 08, 2012

Înfruntă realitatea mergând înainte, fără să te pierzi în lanţul evenimentelor cărora tu însuţi le eşti protagonist.

Era o vreme când n-ar fi putut să se împace cu el însuşi: era prea dezamăgit de felul în care se schimbaseră lucrurile, din vina lui, fiindcă descoperise acea blestemată geantă plină cu bani.

Ca un pirat care îşi ascunde comorile, făcându-se apoi nevăzut, Llewelyn Moss, goneşte, goneşte, goneşte, nu se mai uită nici în stânga, nici în dreapta, goneşte cu acea credinţă totală că trebuie să lupte ca să supravieţuiască. Proba unei ultime rezerve de vitalitate. Reacţia disperată a unei puteri dezlănţuite din adâncul propriei conştiinţe.

Cu tărie de caracter şi hotărâre, el goneşte ca vântul spre acea implacabilă chemare a destinului, care întotdeauna tinde să se împlinească la timpul stabilit.

Prins într-un joc care avea ceva ce punea în mişcare - într-un mod nemaipomenit - toate fibrele îndrăzneţilor. Fiind urmărit ca o fiară de pradă de către vrăjmaşii lui înverşunaţi, pe de o parte de traficanţii de droguri, pe de alta de oamenii legii, şi, mai presus de toţi, de Anton Chigurh, nemilosul asasin.

Aşa că Moss trece graniţa spre Mexic asumându-şi o viaţă de rătăcitor, an outlaw , afundându-se în negura unui anonimat. O exilare bazată pe succesiunea continuă a unor acţiuni enigmatice şi disperate, în totală discordanţă cu personalitatea lui. O sustragere a individului din normalitate, prin crearea unei realităţi captive.

Leadership: Dovada ultimă a vitalităţii tale este o consecventă aplicare a precauţiei care te urcă neaşteptat la cota cea mai înaltă a simţirii, lăsându-te să crezi la nevoie, că este doar una din multiplele posibilităţi de orientare de care eşti în stare?

Ce se petrecerea în sufletul lui Moss? La fiecare pas, îşi spunea, probabil: "Alerg să îmi îndrept greşelile; trebuie să mă ţin bine ca un zid; voi răspunde cu viaţa mea pentru fiecare pas ce-l voi face îndărăt."

Toate simţurile lui păreau concentrate spre ocolirea primejdiilor. Se simţea târât înainte, irezistibil, de tăvălugul urmăritorilor, devenind protagonistul unei "opere" a cărei realitate aparţinea lor. Înăbuşitor, ca o povară grea, în el se făcuse o schimbare subită de la a fi într-o poziţie de forţă la a nu fi.

Urmărit peste tot, înconjurat asemenea unui cerb, de o turmă de lei. Nu făcea decât să-şi amâne moartea, ducându-şi în spinare crucea grea a păcatelor. Şi numai steaua lui norocoasă părea să-l mai ghideze, fără să ştie nimeni încotro.

Era deprins să meargă întotdeauna înainte, tot înainte. Fără să ştie că atunci când steaua se va stinge - şi asta se va întâmpla cu siguranţă - el va dispărea odată cu ea.

Leadership: Veghezi la respectarea precauţiei la nivelul luării deciziilor în condiţii de incertitudine, cînd activul punctelor tale forte este subevaluat?

Felul cum răspunzi la cursul evenimentelor pune în valoare anumite realităţi pe care le ignori sau persiflezi, ori nu le vezi, dar care sunt singurele realităţi cu adevărat însemnate care îşi pot câştiga un loc indiscutabil în existenţa ta.

Un cerc aparent inexpugnabil de situaţii neaşteptate, perspective, răsturnări de valori, realităţi care se întrepătrund, procese de transformare personală, cu evidente uniformizări şi regularităţi într-o sumă de factori haotici care se înmulţesc de la o zi la alta şi se manifestă arbitrar, într-o serie de conjuncturi, fericite sau nu, într-o vastă criză de personalitate.

De aceea urmărirea diversităţii de perspective, idei şi alegeri asupra cărora să te concentrezi în drumul tău spre excelenţă, este primordială. Ea te face să incluzi o anumită adâncime, anumite semnificaţii, sensuri, mai multe "faţete", dacă doreşti, aflate adesea într-o implicită polemică între ele.

Să asociezi elementele desprinse din realitate, uneori complementare, alteori contradictorii, fără să fii convins de veridicitatea rezultatului final, care să nu contrazică felul tău de a fi, iată care este încurcătura, frontiera de azi şi de mâine la care se opreşte iscusinţa şi înţelepciunea liderului.

Transformarea personală este o consecinţă a răstunării acelei realităţi pe care nu ai cum să o eviţi, dar din care emană forţa oglindirii morale şi spirituale în direcţia unei determinări care doboară orice bariere impuse de cursul evenimentelor.

A fi altcineva decât cel ce eşti în realitate, din cauza evenimentelor care se schimbă brusc, a circumstanţelor pe care viitorul le poate aduce, este o operaţie de inversare destul de riscantă, care şi ea are un corespondent bine precizat în realitate, în ceea ce simţi, în ceea ce gândeşti, în ceea ce faci.

Eşti altcineva decât cine pretinzi că eşti? Eşti dezamăgit de felul în care se schimbă lucrurile, din vina ta? Te simţi prins într-un joc care îţi pune în mişcare întreaga structură interioară? Îţi construieşti excelenţa după un cod în totală discordanţă cu personalitatea ta? Te simţi târât înainte, irezistibil, de tăvălugul unei evoluţii necontrolate? Evoluezi spre un alt fel de a fi? Eşti protagonistul unei "opere" a cărei realitate aparţine celorlalţi din jurul tău?

Leadership: Îţi grăbeşti transformarea în detrimentul constantei de a fi mereu într-o poziţie de forţă?

Citeam zilele trecute fabula " Omul şi demonul ". Un demon dă unui copil un ghemotoc de aţă şi-i spune. Acesta este firul zilelor tale. Ia-l. Când ai să vrei ca timpul să curgă mai rapid, trage de fir; zilele tale vor trece mai repede sau mai încet, după cum ai să dai drumul ghemotocului mai iute sau mai pe-ndelete. Atâta timp cât nu te vei atinge de fir, vei rămâne mereu în aceeaşi clipă a existenţei tale.

Copilul luă ghemotocul; trase de fir, vrând să-şi împlinească toate dorinţele, rând pe rând. După întâlnirea cu demonul, nu mai trăise decât patru luni şi jumătate.

Dacă există anumite dominanţe sau scăpări momentane ale voinţei tale de a contribui la schimbarea lucrurilor, atunci potenţialul tău de a fi ceea ce eşti menit să fii va scădea vertiginos. A fi altcineva decât cine eşti cu adevărat, este ca şi cum ai "trage de fir" - îţi grăbeşti transformarea în detrimentul constantei de a fi într-o poziţie de forţă.

Leadershipul este poziţia pe care o adopţi în acele situaţii în care te poţi uşor împotmoli, dar unde figurează acea constatare cu caracter de regulă: realitatea cea mai dură cu care te confrunţi este singura ocazie pentru a te gândi cum poţi deveni mai încrezător şi mai inspirat încât să schimbi clauzele convenţiei numită "capitulare".

O poziţie de forţă se obţine printr-o percepţie corectă a ceea ce eşti în contextul viziunii care supravieţuieşte rătăcirii într-o lume care îi îndepărtează și însingurează pe cei prinși în ea.

Această rătăcire poate fi percepută drept o formă a luptei tale contra morţii şi a ambiţiei tale de a controla timpul, de a fi cu un pas înaintea lui. Dar, totodată, poate fi percepută drept o capcană a propriei nesiguranţe în trăirea unei vieţi lipsită de semnificaţie, condusă de un scop neînsemnat.

Steaua unui rătăcitor care îşi duce crucea aduce în prim plan acea continuă transformare nefavorabilă care, precum vântul, risipeşte în goană toate eforturile tale de a-ţi menţine nealterat Eul şi perspectiva asupra acelui lucru unic pe care intenţionezi să-l atingi: excelenţa.

Înainte de a trece la un nivel mai înalt de leadership, găseşte-ţi curajul şi puterea interioară să te întrebi despre realitatea propriilor tale convingeri. Asa cum electronii au nevoie de un material conductor ca să se mişte, tot astfel tu trebuie să izbuteşti întotdeauna să găseşti un punct de sprijin în punctele tale de vedere asupra realităţii pentru ca personalitatea ta, trăirile tale, să fie congruente cu rezultatul final: siguranţa de sine.

Înfruntă realitatea mergând înainte, fără să te pierzi în lanţul evenimentelor cărora tu însuţi le eşti protagonist.

“Festina lente”. Nu te grăbi să-ţi atingi scopul cu orice preţ, cu o viteză nemaipomenită. Rişti să nu mai ajungi să ţi-l împlineşti. Fii în rezonanţă cu ceea ce eşti, cu contemporanii şi cu evenimentele în continuă schimbare. Adaptează-te la ele. Şi astfel steaua ta nu va apune prea curând.

Stelele comunică numai cu stelele

On Octombrie 30, 2010

Exagerând importanţa momentelor mobilizatoare şi trăitul în prezent, riscăm să pierdem adevărata măsură a performanţei şi a virtuţilor care dau temei unei existenţe semnificative.

Unii indivizi îşi găsesc "în sfârşit" o preocupare, mai mult sau mai puţin conjuncturală, dar fără să exceleze cu adevărat în vreo direcţie sau alta. Or aceşti indivizi seamănă întrucâtva cu puştiul de 7 ani care se bucură nespus la primirea unei jucării, cum ar fi o maşinuţă teleghidată. Imediat ce pune mâna pe ea, el o întoarce pe toate părţile, o examinează ca pe o operă de artă, fiind o alternativă super ok la prăpăditul Lego. În sfârşit copilul trăieşte intens momentul unui nou început de drum.

Şi începe distracţia, un nou orizont se întinde în faţă, visarea unei lumi vesele într-un vârtej de realităţi posace. Şi să-l vezi numai pe posesorul maşinuţei, este atât de fericit, atât de mândru de jucăria lui, ca şi când doar el ar avea acces la „faţa nevăzută" a unei lumi coborâte din nişte visuri de neatins. Uneori scoate la iveală egoistul şi posesivul din el: "Nu-mi atinge jucăria. E numai a mea ! " În majoritatea timpului, el se întrece cu alţii copii, cu alte maşinuţe...

Aşa că, zile întregi, nopţi întregi, săptămâni întregi, luni întregi, atât de bucuros este puştiul de 7 ani pentru că în sfârşit şi-a descoperit o ocupaţie interesantă, arătându-se atât de mândru, atât de avântat, atât de încântat de noua lui achiziţie în faţa celorlalţi copii care au şi ei maşini teleghidate, poate nu aşa rapidă ca a lui. Copilul rămâne cu maşinuţa, dar nu cu ştiinţa de a fi la înălţime.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi echilibrezi energia de a merge permanent înainte, dar fără să te laşi condus de ea, în aşa fel încât să-ţi descătuşezi potenţialul şi să-ţi maximizezi performanţa în călătoria ta continuă?

La un moment dat în viaţă, presupun că aşa sunt toţi copiii de 7 ani, prinşi într-un moment pe care viaţa îl numeşte copilărie. Doar un amănunt se încăpăţânează să nu se potrivească defel în tabloul general. Ei bine, copiii sunt rareori atenţi la multitudinea condiționărilor care determină realitatea exterioară, ei trăiesc momentul prezent fără să privească în printre gratiile realităţii. Puţini sunt avantajaţi de uimitoarea experienţă de viaţă care se supune unui destin grandios.

Copii nu iau în calcul faptul că, în timp. maşinuţa aia se va strica sau va ajunge aruncată în vreun dulap alături de alte jucării. Ei nu iau în calcul nici faptul că vor apărea alte jocuri şi activităţi mult mai interesante, cum ar fi jocurile pe laptop, iar după cum bine ştim emoţiile se manifestă diferit de la o anumită vârstă. Maşinuţa aia este un act de spectacol, un semn al mândriei de a fi egalul celorlalţi copii bine văzuţi şi bine poziţionaţi social, lângă scena numită WOW (your play is a wow).

Şi până la urmă, maşinuţa aia nu-i aduce pe niciun podium, nu-i învaţă nimic despre viaţă, despre toate feţele vieţii, nu-i învaţă despre conceptele specifice artei, despre cum avansează ştiinţa şi tehnicile, şi nici nu le ghidează paşii pentru a face alegerile corecte. Viaţa nu-i învaţă nimic, până când ştiinţa le-o ia înainte, şi în loc să-şi ghideze eforturile spre lumea artei şi a tehnicii care în viitor ar putea să-i claseze pe un podium al marilor învingători, ei se limitează doar la a trăi momentul prezent, în toată splendoarea lui.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care ţi-o construieşti şi pe care o afişezi în lume depinde de capturarea momentelor care vor trece în curând, sau de uimitoarea experienţă de reorganizare a vieţii care nu te aştepţi să te ducă departe?

Ei bine, fix aşa stau lucrurile cu unii oameni care cred că excelează într-o activitate. Sunt aşa bucuroşi că şi-au găsit o îndeletnicire, ca un fel de jucărie, numai a lor, ceva unic la care ştiu să se raporteze, să aibă cu ce se mândri, nu-i aşa? Dar, la urma urmelor, ei nu realizează că sunt doar nişte roboţei care luminează ca o jucărie, una ce poate fi înlocuită cu o altă jucărie. Şi oare câţi dintre ei ajung creatori la o fabrică de jucării? Oare câţi dintre ei ajung constructori de automobile electrice de înaltă performanță, la fabrica Tesla?

Şi, ca o ironie a sorţii, s-ar putea ca tocmai acela care conduce compania de automobile Tesla, să nu fi avut niciodată în copilărie o maşinuţă teleghidată. Poate că el privea cu ochi insistenţi cerul înstelat, după vreun meci de fotbal la care îl ducea din când în când tatăl său, şi privea cerul plin de stele cu profeția teribilă a astrologului care poate prezice viitorul unei industrii auto, fără măcar să înţeleagă fundamentele de mecanică.

Stelele vorbesc numai cu sufletul celor care ştiu să le privească, să le asculte, să le vadă strălucirea, şi ele sunt mai apropiate de o atitudine de neînfrânt în faţa furtunilor existenţiale. Omul dârz şi visător e mult mai important decât o sursă de distracţie. Şi el are răbdare ca stelele să-i garanteze reuşita. Adevăratul "The Future Hero" este acela care se identifică cu stelele, acela care ştie să citească în fiecare mică strălucire o împlinire a profeţiei sale.

Şi, ca să mă întorc de unde am plecat. Sunt oameni care şi-au găsit "în sfârşit" o preocupare. S-ar putea ca această preocupare să fie singura lor jucărie cu care să se poată mândri, dar tot ei s-ar putea putea să nu afle niciodată cum se conduce un automobil Tesla nou nouţ, abia ieşit dintr-o fabrică Tesla.

Aşadar, ai grijă cu ce te mândreşti, nu cumva să rămâi prizonierul unei lumi mici, pe cale de dispariţie, în timp ce altcineva ajunge înfăptuitorul unei lumi globale, cosmice. Poate că, totuşi, stele comunică numai cu stelele...

Ca să ajungi la nivel înalt în leadership trebuie să fii avantajat de o împletire a planului lui Dumnezeu cu decizia ta de a fi ferm în ce priveşte reprioritizarea lucrurilor care sunt trecătoare.

Stelele comunică numai cu stelele numai atunci când omul îşi dă seama că este favorizat de providenţă în aşteptarea unui viitor ce merită a fi trăit numai prin strălucirea credinţei de a afla adevărul ascuns sub aparenţa lucrurilor, sau de a schimba aparenţa lucrurilor care neglijează sensul adevăratei „ţinte” a vieţii.

Stigmatul celor hărăziţi osândei (II)

On Ianuarie 07, 2013

Încearcă să-ţi redefineşti identitatea, motivându-ţi existenţa printr-o autodisciplină care suportă consecinţele faptelor tale.

Un singur adversar continuă să stea tot mai departe de Anton Chigurh: stăpânirea de sine. Nicăieri nu găseşte o supapă pentru a se descărca de cruzimea sufletului său rece ca gheaţa. Numai dârele de sânge lăsate îl eliberează, reînnoindu-i raţiunea existenţei, ca pe orice alt asasin. Un fior crâncen ţâşneşte dintr-însul ca într-o hemoragie, întreaga sa ambiţie se armează într-un singur strat de mortar. Din nou arma cu amortizor îşi descarcă plumbul în tot ce ajunge în vizorul ei. Mereu un alt biet nevinovat este însemnat.

Lumina schimbării se aşterne la orizont, uneori rănile ocazionale îi ameninţă cu moartea imprimând umbre adânci şi compacte în gândurile sale. Această lumină face din el o siluetă nefinisată în atelierul lumii şi al evenimentelor care-l găzduiesc ca pe un osândit la o pocăinţă mai lungă. Dar nu i se permite să se împărtăşească. Conştiinţa singură trebuie să renască în el şi să-l pedepsească crunt. Care conştiinţă? De unde să răsară ea?

Perdelele negre, groase, de la fereastra lumii sale, modifică după necesităţi lumina slabă a schimbării, reducând la câteva fascicole pătrunderea razelor de omenie – tot mai iluzorii. Această repartizare de lumină şi umbră, de viaţă şi de moarte, capătă pentru el un caracter decorativ, se poate oricând întrerupe şi reconstitui.

Să fii asasin în lumea aceasta unde nimic nu e desăvârşit, să atragi fatalitatea ca un magnet de mare putere, este pentru Anton Chigurh forma cea mai aleasă a izbăvirii. Să ai tot timpul lângă tine o armă, şi în tine, adânc înaripat, un demon – voinţa de a ucide nestingherit. Iată marea discrepanţă dintre esenţă şi apartenenţă, dintre ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce trebuie să fii. *

Leadership: Poţi să te împotriveşti căderii în gol, în raport cu aşteptările corespunzătoare unei destinaţii a contrastelor dintre forţă şi fragilitate care surprind prin neobişnuit?

În ce sens trebuie întrebuinţată puterea de a te impune, cu toate caracteristicile ei şi cu toţi pilonii de bază ai caracterului tău, în aşa fel încât să te eliberezi de orice constrângeri morale? În acelaşi fel în care poţi respinge toate argumentele de autoritate care nu dau apă la moară ideilor tale de redefinire a identităţii, motivându-ţi existenţa printr-o autodisciplină care suportă consecinţele pe care le pot produce faptele tale la nivel social.

Asta înseamnă să-ţi cultivi intensiv toate resursele, să faci astfel încât să devii conştient de necesitatea de a fi compatibil cu o realitate în care lipsa de sens îşi are de spus cuvântul suprem. Să aduci un plus în viaţa ta, nu înseamnă să te laşi pradă "ofilirii", ci să te împotriveşti căderii în gol, în raport cu aşteptările corespunzătoare unei destinaţii a contrastelor dintre forţă şi fragilitate care surprind prin neobişnuit.

Forţa omului este dată de sentimentul unicităţii izvorât din impulsul către schimbare, în timp ce fragilitatea este un sentiment izvorât din înţelegerea profundă a alcătuirii vieţii şi din credinţa magică într-o lume dreaptă. Contrastele acestor două entităţi surprind prin neobişnuit atunci când o acţiune lasă în urmă o amprentă greu de şters, o amintire care se leagă de judecata pe care Dumnezeu ţi-o pregăteşte ţie dacă comiţi păcatul de a te crede mai presus de alţii.

Aici ne referim, în principal, la contrastul între structura de adâncime şi cea de suprafaţă, care trebuie să se pună reciproc în valoare, să nu se anuleze la fiecare resetare a limitelor care îţi pun la încercare caracterul. Structura de adâncime este dată de ceea ce te face să te simţi deosebit, ajutându-te să evoluezi într-o direcţie bună. În timp ce structura de suprafaţă este dată de ceea ce te înconjoară, te pătrunde şi te subjugă, acea duşmănie de lupi care urlă, acel haos dintre realitate şi iluzie, acea falsă legătură dintre oameni, acea inegalitate a şanselor.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să dai relevanţă conceptului de "reorientare a busolei vieţii" pe care îl configurezi în funcţie de ceea ce doreşti să accentuezi în mod reperativ în înfruntarea cu limitele propriei conştiinţe?

Leadershipul are ca prioritate intrarea într-o zonă fără "turbulenţe", o zonă în care omul percepe diferenţa dintre bine şi rău, dintre lumină şi întuneric, printr-o redefinire a existenţei sale. Bine mărturisea cineva pe o pagină de internet: "Confruntarea insului solitar şi angoasat cu Răul devine o întâlnire faustică de o brutalitate şi o inegalitate a forţelor în faţa căreia alternativele se simplifică şi se reduc la maximum."

Aşadar, leadershipul se poate anula prin însăşi motivaţia omului, prin însăşi contradicţia dintre trăirile sale şi concepţiile despre condiţia sa, ceea ce înlesneşte intrarea într-o zonă întunecată, însoţită de o stare de nelinişte profundă. Omul poate să dea relevanţă conceptului de "reorientare a busolei vieţii" atunci când îşi reînnoieşte raţiunea de a reacţiona la evenimentele care îl marchează, printr-o reconsiderare a interpretării rolului pe care îl joacă în dirijarea destinului celorlalţi oameni.

Pentru a fi unic în ceea ce transmiţi şi în ceea ce laşi în urma ta, nu trebuie să intervii în ordinea prestabilită a lumii, ameninţând-o. Ci să încerci să te integrezi în realitatea ei, fără să apelezi la extensii de personalitate puse pe o singură linie de căpătâi: câştigul obţinut prin înlăturarea celorlalţi, chiar dacă te loveşti de dezaprobarea lor. Într-un sens, fatalitatea, la fel ca şi vina personală, au ca reper un ansamblu de educaţie şi orientare experienţială - foarte compactă.

Personalitatea capătă alte nuanţe, care nu pot fi înţelese şi prevăzute decât atunci când eşti calm şi raţional. Senzorii de experienţă trebuie comprime o imensă cantitate de variabilitate umană în jurul unui ax central: înfruntarea prejudecăţilor şi eliminarea şabloanelor false de gândire. Leadershipul capătă semnificaţia pe care o are omul prin gestionarea eficientă a puterii de a se vindeca moral şi sufleteşte prin asumarea integrală a existenţei, prin parcurgerea tuturor ipostazelor posibile.

Prin rutina cenuşie a existenţei răzbate deseori un val de înţelepciune, o anumită stare de inspiraţie, o anumită chemare spre adevărata ta fiinţă, sau spre ceva mai înalt, de care trebuie să ţii cont pentru a te putea convinge de propria ta deschidere sau îndârjire, de propria ta superioritate sau inferioritate în faţa oglinzilor în care te vezi.

În înfruntarea cu limitele propriei conştiinţe, omul poate să accentueze în mod reperativ inevitabila frică de eşec sau acea senzaţie de dezorientare care îl face să fie perceput ori ca un labirint din care nu mai poate ieşi viu, ori ca un punct final al unei reflecţii care îi poate clarifica existenţa.

Stigmatul celor hărăziţi osândei surprinde acea zonă nesigură a experienţei care exclude necesitatea de a te înnoi mental şi sufletesc, făcând mai greu de observat ceea ce înseamnă să fii evoluționist.

Să ne aducem aminte de vorbele scriitorului Colin Turner: "Capcanele te ajută: aşa afli dacă vrei cu adevărat ceea ce crezi că vrei, dacă îţi urmezi cu adevărat îndemnul inimii şi dacă eşti cu adevărat vrednic de ceea ce te îndeamnă ea să înfăptuieşti."

Stigmatul celor hărăziţi osândei (I)

On Ianuarie 07, 2013

Adoptă o poziţie fermă faţă de propriile slăbiciuni, fără să te abaţi de la constrângerile liniei tale evolutive.

Oriunde îl urmărim pe Anton Chigurh, îl găsim învăluit parcă de o demonică mantie a neputinţei, sprijinindu-şi existenţa pe sentimentul de apartenenţă la o lume tot mai străină de a sa. Trăind izolat, fără a avea relaţii interumane, ajuns rob al propriilor slăbiciuni, el continuă să dea frâu liber furiei sale de nestăvilit.

Oriunde este Chigurh, putem fi aproape siguri că cineva este însemnat cu roşul sângeriu al sfârşitului. Ambiţia nemilosului asasin se revarsă prin toţi porii săi. Crunt şi imprevizibil pulsează în venele sale veninul malefic, când te aştepţi mai puţin răbufneşte şi împroaşcă pe oricine îi iese în cale.

Stârpirea, eliberarea din captivitate a demonului nemilos, agăţat ca un corp străin de tot ceea ce-l individualizează, devine absolut necesară, dar imposibilă. El îşi va continua multă vreme seria de "însemnări", devenite raţiunea sa de a fi.

Omul aparent banal, dar neobişnuit, sfinxul acesta funest care îşi întinde aripile misterioase în viaţa cotidiană, se lăsă, fără drept de replică, în voia avântului său nemăsurat spre piscuri tot mai înşelătoare.

Nesfârşite chinuri produce celor din jurul său. Iar el continuă să se complacă în plăsmuirea unei noi forme de existenţă, sub greutatea carapacei de cruzime izvorâtă din omul devenit o fiară. O deconectare de la realitate, o etapă care pregăteşte terenul pentru o nouă prefacere: " Pacem în obscuritas invenio ! ". *

Leadership: Îţi sprijini existenţa în umbra sentimentului de apartenenţă la o lume tot mai străină de a ta prin comparaţie cu o formă subtilă de a te proteja de o condiţie stânjenitoare?

Te laşi în voia avântului nemăsurat spre piscuri înşelătoare? Poţi să stârpeşti acel "demon" din tine, agăţat ca un corp străin de tot ceea ce te individualizează? Te complaci în plăsmuirea unei noi forme de existenţă care defavorizează sau compromite dezvoltarea relaţiilor? Care este motorul care reînnoieşte raţiunea existenţei tale?

Pentru a realiza ceva care să ţină de domeniul leadershipului sunt necesare nu numai priceperea şi îndemânarea în modelarea ori construirea unei forme determinate a valorii (măiestria de a face alegeri corecte în orice moment), ci şi ceea ce am putea numi " Întregul Omului ", cu tot ceea ce reprezintă el. Tot ce-l cuprinde, cu tot ce este insondabil şi misterios în el, cu universul lui lăuntric.

Omul este entitatea de răspuns la circumstanţele unei realităţi care uneori depăşeşte capacitatea lui de a o înţelege, sprijinindu-şi existenţa în umbra sentimentului de apartenenţă la o lume tot mai străină de a sa. El se distinge prin comparaţie cu o formă subtilă de a se proteja de o condiţie stânjenitoare, aceea de parte negativă a lumii, atunci când se opreşte din a gândi totul în termenii de: "orice fac nu suportă nicio condamnare".

Opera leadershipului este, prin urmare, nu atât o victorie răsunătoare, o realizare extraordinară a unui om cu vocaţie şi talent într-o anumită zonă, ci reglementarea caracterului său în ce priveşte puterea raţiunii de a crea norme de conduită interumană, în vederea unor acţiuni comune, prin corelarea corespunzătoare a caracteristicilor sale dominante cu cerinţele pe care le implică procesul său de evoluţie.

Dar opera leadershipului poate fi şi o caznă, nu doar un pas înainte, poate fi o formă de dezamăgire trăită intens de către cei care nu se conformează cu regulile ce-i sunt inerente și care nu se acuză în nicio împrejurare de propriile abuzuri. E bine ca fiecare să înveţe să-şi analizeze critic abaterile de la cursul normal al vieţii.

Leadership: Integritatea realităţii tale compune registrul întunecos al listei circumstanţelor de viaţă în care trebuie să-ţi demonstrezi atributele conştiinţei, dar nu în sensul sumbrului, ci într-acela al ascunsului într-o zonă mai puţin exploatată?

În "Sfaturile lui Kagemni", care pare să fi fost vizirul regelui Senefru, se regăseşte şi această observaţie interesantă: " Încăperea cea mai lăuntrică este deschisă pentru omul tăcerii. " Acestor vorbe li se pot atribui bineînţeles mai multe interpretări, însă ne vom opri numai asupra esenţei pe care o reclamă leadershipul.

Şi anume, la valoarea "omului ascuns", prin prisma acelei componente puternice, pregnante prin care el se manifestă, care zace neştiută în adâncul fiecăruia dintre noi. Valoarea omului care se manifestă vizibil în exterior, prin trup, dar care alternează permanent între polurile diferite: " a fi " şi " a nu fi ".

Caracteristicile cele mai înalte, cele mai de preţ ale omului, sunt stocate în "încăperea cea mai lăuntrică", această zonă de resurse vitale existenţei şi evoluţiei sale, în care el poate oricând interveni.

Integritatea realităţii sale este dată de intensitatea cu care îşi manifestă conştiinţa fermă a individualităţii sale diferentiatoare. El îşi demonstrează atributele conştiinţei, dar nu în sensul sumbrului, ci într-acela al ascunsului într-o zonă mai puţin exploatată numită "experienţe ratate" sau "senzaţie de respingere", atunci când nu-şi poate împlini un ideal, când nu i se dă posibilitatea să-şi refuleze emoţiile negative.

Omul care pune preţ pe valoarea umană, omul cu o atitudine bazată pe moralitate şi pe tărie de caracter – modelul perfect pentru leadership, îşi înfrumuseţează imaginea de sine debarasându-se de tot ceea ce este toxic, de tot ceea ce-l poate trage în jos, de tot balastul negativ ce îi poate subjuga existenţa. Numai un astfel de om poate să o ia de la început cu totul, numai un astfel de om poate înfrânge „demonul" din el.

Leadership: Te poţi pune în situaţiile în care îţi măreşti solidaritatea faţă de o experienţă care încă îşi lasă amprenta pe tine, zilnic, fără să fii riguros în combaterea duşmanului pe care nu-l cunoşti?

Am citit azi pe internet un articol interesant, în care oratorul Vasile Păun, punea în prim plan cunoaşterea omului: " Dacă lupt cu foc contra focului nu mă pot aștepta să obțin pace. Este o situație în care nu câștigă nimeni. Nu pot ajunge la integrare urmând dinamica: victimă – agresor – salvator / rezistență sau prin intermediul luptei, a negativității. Trebuie să integrez pozitivitatea cu negativitatea până când ajung la punctul de echilibru. "

Un leadership bun contează doar dacă obţii victoria asupra "Omului ascuns" din tine. Rezultatul unei bătălii între doi adversari redutabili: focul şi pacea, negativismul şi pozitivismul. O ieşire din conflictul cu standardul moral şi cu standardul imoral. Un concurs de împrejurări în care nu există rezerve şi nici alternative: ori câştigi, ori pierzi.

La un moment dat te poţi afla în ambele tabere. Ceea ce te poate ajuta să treci peste zidul incertitudinii, fundamentala etapă către lămurirea deplină a tuturor frământărilor, este să blochezi adversarul din tine, să nu-l laşi să te împroaşte cu venin. Înarmează-te cu cea mai de preţ calitate: stăpânirea de sine, ca să nu fii rănit. Impune-te în faţa realităţii false pe care El ţi-o impune. Doar astfel vei putea să stârpeşti acest "demon" din tine, agăţat ca un corp străin de tot ceea ce te individualizează.

Dacă vrei să fii ajutat să te schimbi, ajută-te singur. În fiecare din noi se ascund germenii unui "Anton Chigurh" care îşi repugnă raţiunea de a fi, limitând raportul cu sensul existenţei proprii, cu originea lor. Germeni provenind din primitivismul celor care au ales drumul greşit spre existenţa umană.

Dacă vrei să faci dovada omeniei, adoptă o poziţie fermă faţă de propriile slăbiciuni, fără să te abaţi de la constrângerile liniei tale evolutive. Îţi blochezi adversarul, sau îl laşi să se agaţe mereu de tine până te trage de tot în jos?

Duşmanul pe care nu-l cunoşti, dar îl simţi mereu prezent în realitatea ta, este acceptarea de a te complace în situaţii confuze şi frustrante alături de cineva duplicitar care slujeşte simultan la doi stăpâni: vrăjmăşia continuă şi refuzul de a trăi o existenţă morală.

Stigmatul celor hărăziţi osândei provine din acel "Eu" rămas în stare brută, necizelat sub influenţa educaţiei, a relaţiilor interumane, a cunoaşterii de sine şi a lumii înconjurătoare. În leadership, dorinţa, voinţa şi putinţa trebuie să acţioneze sinergic şi în concordanţă cu "Eu-l" – omul ascuns, devenit capodoperă în atelierul lumii.

Ştiind şi înţelegând

On Iunie 18, 2011

Convinge-i pe oameni de calitatea leadershipului tău, direcţionându-le convingerile spre un adevăr incontestabil.

Îţi aminteşti de locotenentul-colonel Frank Slade din filmul " Parfum de femeie (1992) "? Spre sfârşitul filmului, Slade se prezintă la şedinţa specială a comisiei disciplinare a elevilor de la colegiului Baird, pentru a-i ţine apărarea lui Charlie Simms. Acesta fusese martor la un act de vandalism petrecut în incinta colegiului şi trebuia să declare în faţa comisiei exact cum s-au petrecut faptele. Altminteri ar fi fost exmatriculat. Dar Charlie nu era un turnător, deci nu-şi putea vinde colegii.

Chiar înainte ca directorul colegiului, domnul Trask, să dea verdictul în privinţa vinovăţiei lui Charlie, locotenentul Slade, fără ezitare, îi întrerupe acestuia pledoaria pentru a-şi susţine propriul punct de vedere în privinţa chestiunii în discuţie, oferind pe această cale şi o adevărată lecţie de leadership:

„ Când am intrat aici, am auzit cuvintele: "leagăn al conducătorilor." Ziditori de oameni, creatori de lideri… Aveţi grijă ce fel de lideri produceţi aici. Nu ştiu dacă tăcerea lui Charlie de astăzi…e bună sau rea. Nu sunt nici jurat, nici judecător. Dar vă pot spune doar atât…el nu va vinde pe nimeni pentru a-şi cumpăra viitorul ! Iar asta, prieteni, se numeşte integritate ! Se numeşte curaj. Iată aluatul din care ar trebui croiţi liderii. "

Leadership: Eşti dispus să recurgi la adoptarea unei poziţii extreme, dincolo de limitele impuse de nivelul tău de acceptabilitate?

Ceea ce contează în definirea impactului pe care îl poate avea extinderea capacităţii de relaţionare este factorul de schimbare a percepţiei despre sine a individului. Leadershipul se distinge în încercarea de recunoaştere a gradului de maturitate în gândire, dar şi a caracterului constrângător al integrităţii care se străduieşte să iasă din capcana îndoielii.

Îndoiala cea mai gravă poate fi pusă sub semnul neputinţei de a recunoaşte cât este adevăr şi cât este minciună în existenţa şi în faptele altora. Dar mai ales în încercarea de a estima valoarea pe care o aşează oamenii asupra fiecărui act săvârşit pentru păstrarea unui drept, asupra aspectelor negative şi a variabilelor cheie care au impact major asupra prestigiului profesional şi a respectului în toate manifestările lui.

Deschiderea spre împărtăşirea convingerilor poartă deseori amprenta unei personalităţi puternice. Se datorează rolului deosebit de responsabil al experienţei şi al valorilor de referinţă în ghidarea fiecărui individ spre comportamentele potenţiale, declanşatoare de reacţii de răspuns. Bineînţeles în limite anticipate şi controlate, în ciuda impulsului de a se pune la adăpost şi de a-şi ascunde virtutea, chiar temându-se de judecata celorlalţi.

Nivelul tău de acceptabilitate în zona de responsabilitate a altora depinde de efectul pe care îl creează apartenența ta la un cadru mai larg de abordare a resorturilor de tip "priveşte orice om drept o capodoperă în devenire".

Leadership: Autoritatea ta se află sub semnul dublei identităţi confesive: cu sine şi cu adevărul, atunci când rolul tău poate fi preluat de altcineva?

Aşadar, ceea ce prezintă relevanţă în stabilirea "abaterilor" de la normele corectitudinii, se datorează pulsiunii acelui factor care tinde să se exprime în comportament într-o formă modificată sau disimulată. Iar cine caută să distingă aparenţele sau să dovedească circumstanţele pe care le consideră sprijin al pretenţiilor şi obiecţiilor sale, în favoarea susţinerii unei anumite cauze, se poate dovedi a fi un agent de potenţare a înţelegerii, a încrederii, a raţiunii care se focalizează pe direcţia adevărurilor nespuse, sau spuse parţial.

Autoritatea ta se află sub semnul dublei identităţi: cu sine şi cu adevărul, atunci când începi o investigare asupra aspectelor de fond ale unei realităţi mai adânci pe care oamenii o neagă din pricina tendinţei de apărare - sau o acceptă ca pe o penitenţă în plus.

Asta nu înseamnă a confunda esenţa crezurilor lor cu caracteristicile pe care ei le oglindesc. Nu înseamnă a lega acceptarea voluntară şi conştientă a unei vine de nişte consecinţe care schimba modul în care priveşti lumea. Ci înseamnă să te încăpăţânezi să priveşti departe, dincolo de rău, pentru a ţinti binele din om, potenţialul latent din el - care se poate înnoi prin mărturisirea şi cultivarea adevărului.

Leadership: Câştigi respectul celorlalţi prin argumente care atestă nivelul tău de competenţă într-o relaţie de tipul: "separaţi, dar împreună"?

Intervenţia lui Slade în favoarea lui Charlie s-a dovedit benefică şi hotărâtoare. El a trecut în revistă valorile esenţiale ale unui lider pe care, din punctul lui de vedere, profesorii nu ajunseseră să le înţeleagă într-o măsură suficient de mare. Prin discursul său plin de adevăruri, de putere dar şi de sensibilitate, şi caracteristic prin simplitate, Slade a izbutit să le clatine profesorilor convingerile ferme, dar înguste, despre ceea ce înseamnă a fi lider, şi să-i pună serios pe gânduri.

Slade a reuşit să-i convingă pe profesori de calitatea leadershipului său, direcţionându-le convingerile spre un adevăr incontestabil. Astfel ei s-au văzut nevoiţi să susţină punctul lui de vedere, şi să-l absolve pe Charlie de orice fel de vină.

Participarea locotenentului Slade la proces a însemnat, după părerea mea, un fapt pozitiv. A fost bine că a expus calitătile necesare unui lider. Procedând într-un mod inteligent şi cu totul surprinzător, el a izbutit să-şi susţină opiniile şi le redea profesorilor adevărata esenţă a leadershipul. Căci numai un om ca el care a fost prezent pe câmpul de luptă, care a văzut „băieţi de vârsta lui Charlie cu braţe sfârtecate şi picioare smulse”, numai un astfel de om putea să ştie cu adevărat ce înseamnă curajul, respectul, loialitatea şi onoarea.

Leadership: Simţi că oamenii te judecă în funcţie de modul în care îţi expui virtuţile de onestitate şi imparţialitate, în termenii unei retrospective a celor întâmplate fără voia ta?

Este vorba de energia sufletului tău şi de vibraţiile pe care le transmiţi atunci când într-adevăr ai ceva de spus, şi când într-adevăr vrei să-i convingi pe ceilalţi de adevărul tău. Dar trebuie să trezeşti în conştiinţa oamenilor concepţia despre ceea ce constituie adevărul din punctul tău de vedere, şi să-i încarci cu acele sentimente pe care ei să le resimtă la o intensitate crescută. E vorba de o schimbare în esenţa oamenilor, de o schimbare în starea lor sufletească şi mentală.

Leadershipul presupune o bună interpretare a rolului de lider. Numai anumite tipuri de personalitate corespund acestui rol. Oamenii te judecă în funcţie de modul în care îţi expui virtuţile de onestitate şi imparţialitate, sub aspectul unei retrospective a celor întâmplate fără voia ta.

Asta înseamnă că implicarea ta are conotații de respect, subtilitate şi înțelepciune, calitatea de a fi demn de încredere, care provin din autoritatea cu care profilul tău de model de urmat te inserează în lume.

Leadershipul înseamnă să-ţi expui într-un mod convingător viziunea şi valorile atât din perspectiva unui jurat, cât şi din perspectiva unui judecător, incluzându-le pe amândouă într-o nouă versiune a realității.

Puterea ta de influenţă este ca o lumină care ţâşneşte din interiorul tău şi-i învăluie pe ceilalţi. Este acea putere dată de structura ta interioară şi care le dă oamenilor o imensă încredere şi siguranţă, unindu-i cu uşurinţă în jurul tău. Este acea putere lăuntrică care reflectă valorile tale şi care poate străpunge zidul de convingeri şi prejudecăţi pe care şi l-au format oamenii.

Ştiind şi înţelegând bine o situaţie vei putea să iei răspunderea ei. Dacă vrei să-ţi fie recunoscută autoritatea, dacă vrei să-ţi asiguri continuitatea poziţiei de lider, oamenii trebuie să-ţi perceapă vibraţiile interioare şi să se ancoreze la convingerile tale bazate pe un adevăr pe care să-l aprecieze ca fiind incontestabil.

Aşa cum Noe, în arca sa, a traversat întinsul ocean pentru a-şi duce la îndeplinire sfânta misiune - tot aşa şi tu, ca să devii un lider bun, trebuie să traversezi distanţa care te desparte de ceilalţi oameni. Şi vei reuşi acest lucru doar dacă îţi vei susţine într-un mod convingător viziunea şi valorile.

Ştiinţa absolutului

Extinde-ţi capitalul de înţelegere a elementelor care controlează dezvoltarea ştiinţei pe care o slujeşti, astfel încât ele să îndeplinească exigenţele de performanţă care caracterizează calitatea evoluţiei tale.

Ştiinţa aceasta era mai grea decât oricare alta, percepută ca un cumul al contrastelor dintre cele văzute şi cele nevăzute. Căci însemna să consider elementele unor concepte, procese, legităţi, teorii, drept probabilităţi de acceptare a imaginarului. Reunite sub forma unui raţionament profund şi subtil care nega sau respingea orice principiu fundamental acceptat de toată lumea drept definitiv.

Era ştiinţa absolutului, factor înnăscut şi instinctiv în alcătuirea sentimentului de nemărginire care se poate transforma oricând în abis. O călătorie într-un spaţiu pierdut, aproape de neînţeles, cu atât mai fascinantă cu cât experienţa de a mă situa între două lumi diferite, între două extreme care se condiţionau reciproc, devenea, zi după zi, mai bogată. Totul în mintea mea se contura într-un zigzag foarte bizar, pe fondul suspiciunilor de incompatibilitate între ceea ce ştiam, ceea ce nu ştiam şi ceea ce presupuneam.

Fizicianul englez James Prescott Joule măsura căldura peste tot unde se afla. Ani de zile a măsurat căldura produsă prin orice proces, mecanic, electric sau magnetic, în orice mediu imaginabil.

Implicaţiile muncii sale colosale m-au convins că era necesară o extindere a capitalului de înţelegere a noţiunilor abstracte, pentru a include laolaltă, într-un cadru mai larg, noi proprietăţi ale materiei ce-şi aştepta plămădirea. Dar să descifrez tainele deosebit de complexe ale transformării elementelor rezultate din diviziunea tangibilului cu intangibilul, era mai mult o povară decât o provocare directă.

Leadership: Poţi să modifici tiparul relaţiilor cu cele ce te înconjoară astfel încât să te acomodezi cu ceea ce este independent de orice condiţii şi relaţii, atunci când te confrunţi cu limitele unei situaţii de tipul "you can not get something from nothing" ?

Ori de câte ori aveam în vedere o nouă formulă experimentală de multiplicare a sensului noţiunilor cercetate, mă cuprindea îndoiala. Mă simţeam prins într-un ciclu de oscilaţii care se auto-alimenta integral dintr-o rețea de interdicții de tipul you can not get something from nothing , atras într-un veritabil vortex de ambiguităţi, neputând să echilibrez şi să armonizez toate exigenţele de aplicare a regulilor ştiinţei într-un mod integrat şi coerent.

Întrucâtva, semănam cu un personaj al lui Dostoievski care îşi răscoleşte toate adâncurile tăinuite ale fiinţei sale pentru a-l găsi pe Dumnezeu. Şi, prin aceasta, înţelesul vieţii.

Chiar dacă diferitele forme de măsurare a activelor leadershipului nu posedă decât o oarecare valoare intrinsecă – cazul provocării de a explora cele mai speciale, mai îndepărtate sau mai ascunse regiuni ale ştiinţei, nedelimitate precis, dar din care se poate extrage minereul cel mai preţios, constând în puterea de înţelegere profundă – ele totuşi au menirea de a lega un spaţiu cunoscut de unul necunoscut.

Sensul noţiunilor pe care le cercetam, aceste active care se puteau extrage, izola sau reproduce din orice tip de eveniment sau situaţie, aveau ca principal obiectiv poziţionarea eficientă a conţinutului lumii mele de gândire pe un palier de incontestabilă valoare.

Ele erau date de conceptele, procesele, legităţile, teoriile susţinute şi promovate, reunite sub forma unui raţionament profund şi subtil care putea nega sau respinge orice principiu fundamental acceptat de toată lumea drept complet definitiv. Dar ca să producă rezultate de excepţie, aceste active trebuiau "deschise", aşa încât să consume cât mai multe resurse de cunoaştere, care, la rândul lor, să poată fi direcţionate spre o mai eficientă gestionare a ascensiunii spre excelenţă.

Leadership: Încerci să reprezinți într-o formă realistă ceea ce poţi percepe ca desăvârşit în limitele căutării de sine, fără să poți defini absolutul care te opreşte din evoluţie?

Necunoaşterea în profunzime a leadershipului, datorată utilizării ineficiente a resurselor puse la dispoziţie de ştiinţă, pe fondul suspiciunilor de incompatibilitate între ceea ce ştii, ceea ce nu ştii şi ceea ce presupui, scade pe un al doilea plan utilitatea a ceea ce faci şi transmiţi. Una din cerinţele minimale pentru promovarea leadershipului este să echilibrezi şi să armonizezi toate exigenţele de aplicare a percepţiilor şi înţelegerilor de la nivelul ştiinţei cultivate într-un mod integrat şi coerent.

Absolutul este ceea ce încerci să creezi sau să crezi independent de orice condiții sau relații cu totul din jur. El se extrage din reprezentarea unor lucruri concrete sau întâmplări exemplare ce au un corespondent într-o atitudine creatoare, care se descarcă în idei, ducând la o nouă reprezentare a raporturilor dintre particular şi general.

Care sunt însușirile spațiului în care sunt adunate toate obiectele exteriorului ce pot da însemnătate modului tău de a exprima o nouă realitate? Spațiul acesta care se conturează din mers, se produce prin chiar utilizarea sa ca un produs material şi, mai ales, imaterial, nicicând asigurat în stabilitatea şi durabilitatea sa, fiind „consumat" de către chiar utilizatorii săi. El se întinde între ceea ce se întâmplă şi ceea ce ceea ce nu se vede, sugerând deci o legătură sistematică între ceea ce se percepe la un moment dat și percepția ulterioară.

Leadership: Eşti stimulat să susții legătura și dialogul între lumea interioară și cea exterioară, ceea ce conduce la formarea unei noi reprezentări despre sine într-o independenţă absolută faţă de concretul nemijlocit?

Dacă vrei să obţii un avantaj practic în lupta cu ştiinţa, zugrăveşte-ţi punctele de vedere şi perspectivele pe temeiul puterii de înţelegere a unui real produs al gândirii creatoare, care să aibă reprezentare pe harta evoluţiei tale. Estomparea tendinţei de a experimenta tot ceea ce ţine de buna gospodărie a resurselor de cunoaştere va crea o anumită distanţă între tine şi ştiinţă. Nu vei fi niciodată în măsură să-ţi atingi potențialul maxim de succes profesional dacă tratezi cu prea puţină atenţie ancorele care susţin alternativele de remodelare a ştiinţei.

A clădi un lanţ de munţi, bogaţi în minereuri, în încercarea de plămădire a Omului Nou, constituie de fapt o încercare a ta de a-ţi manifesta libertatea nelimitată în gândire, pentru a nu deveni prizonierul unei orientări neclare sau defavorabile. Căutarea a ceea ce doreşti să acumulezi, să îţi însuşeşti ori să gestionezi din punct de vedere al ştiinţei, prin intersectarea noţiunilor abstracte şi integrarea lor într-un cadru mai larg, se poate dovedi a fi o treabă dificilă, dar este o măsură favorabilă dezvoltării.

Tendința de a experimenta cele văzute şi cele nevăzute evidenţiază o cultură a căutării de răspunsuri la nişte întrebări care par la prima vedere bizare, adesea testând cel mai elementar simţ al nebuniei, dar care devin simbolul unei pledoarii pline de originalitate pentru nevoia de unicitate, de renunţare la uniformizarea unor realităţi concrete devenite sinonimul normalităţii.

Cum bine preciza cineva pe un site: "concretul reprezintă unitatea multiplelor determinări, însuşiri sau laturi ale obiectelor, ființelor şi fenomenelor sau, cu alte cuvinte, unitatea în diversitate, care de fapt este sinteza unei serii de determinări."

Ştiinţa reprezintă ceea ce trebuie dobândit pe cont propriu printr-o abordare fenomenologică a experienţei de creaţie centrată în jurul observării acelor lucruri, procese, împrejurări particulare, din care pot rezulta judecăţi care nu-şi au izvorul în experienţă, adică apriori, dar care permit nişte deducţii logice cu valabilitate absolută.

Ştiinţa absolutului constituie forma esenţială a unui parcurs ascendent spre piscurile cele mai înalte ale performanţei. Înseamnă a găsi "apa vie", acel elixir al tinereţii fără bătrâneţe şi al vieţii fără de moarte, care te antrenează şi te menţine într-un continuu proces de ajustare a cunoaşterii, spre asigurarea unui progres care dă valoare semnificativă persoanei tale.

Ştiinţa construieşte Arta

On Februarie 11, 2016

Găseşte noi forme de expresie artistică, gândind lucrarea în materialul de care dispui.

Aveam mare nevoie de un remediu pentru separarea dintre concret şi abstract, în cursul interacţiunii dintre inovaţia revoluţionară şi extinderea unei entităţi de gând-formă până la o entitate "graniţă" unde solicitările de noi repere de creaţie se opreau. Talentul meu nu putea deveni evident prin unirea celor două, chiar dacă ele aduceau noi perspective de update în sprijinul permanenţei autorităţii mele în câmpul epistemologiei.

O primă limitare a mea se putea determina în funcţie de culorile vii şi umbrele adânci, toate legate alandala într-o unitate puţin strânsă, pe care încercam să le implementez într-un tablou, fără însă a le defini trăsăturile prin asocierea cu anumite stări sau situaţii. Era ca şi când ar fi trebuit să-mi instruiesc imaginaţia să redea viaţa unor obiecte care nu îşi mai găseau locul într-un univers fără nume, sau care pur şi simplu au fost uitate în timp, fiindcă tabloul părea să surprindă numai detaliile unei realităţi plină de contraste.

Nu trebuia să desenez grozav ca să redau anumite idei, mici licăriri de coerenţă, dar pentru asta trebuia să caut culoarea potrivită concepţiilor mele, tot aşa cum un sculptor îşi gândeşte lucrarea în materialul de care dispune. Mai mult mă pierdeam în conturul nedesluşit al unor mâzgăleli făcute aleatoriu, născute din imaginaţie, dar cu pretenţii de mare artă.

Leadership: Evaluarea creaţiei tale poate fi înţeleasă ca o "validare" a justeţei interpretării unui conţinut de gândire ce poate fi redus la căutarea unui realism sau unei estetici guvernată de reproducerea detaliilor unei realităţi pline de întrebări?

În realitate, talentul meu nu era o formă de exprimare aparte prin intermediul adaosurilor de prelucrare a elementelor ştiinţifice, nu era legat nici de plasarea corectă în spaţiu a diferitelor elemente ale compoziţiei artistice, ci era în strânsă legătură cu aplicabilitatea vastă a legilor de observaţie care alimentau noi teorii și concepte.

Conţinutul de gândire care mă avantaja în elaborarea creaţiilor, la fel ca în cazul inginerului care combină diferite date şi elemente materiale pentru construirea, ridicarea şi susţinerea unui pod peste un fluviu, nu era justificat în scopul de a explica fenomene noi, sau în scopul de a înţelege explicaţiile propuse de alţii, ci urmărea organizarea într-un tot armonic a ideilor diferite. Interpretarea acestui conţinut depindea de imaginea pe care mi-o dădea percepţia faţă de anumite întâmplări şi personaje literare care facilitau contactul direct cu opere de artă originale.

Savantul francez Rene Descartes, cel despre care se spune că a fondat geometria analitică, a încercat să prezinte un sistem al lumii în care întregul univers - de la Soare şi stele la fiziologia umană - era un uriaş mecanism guvernat de legi mecanice. Rezultatul preocupărilor sale a fost că a pus bazele unor noi perspective de abordare a procesului de schimbare, din care rezultau noi şi serioase provocări pentru mine, din care am avut mult de câştigat.

Inspiraţia, adesea greu de realizat, este o formă de a te introduce în spaţiul altcuiva mai presus decât tine, interpretând un număr de observaţii calitative cu ajutorul cărora încerci să răspunzi la întrebările personale.

Dar oricât de atent s-ar privi lucrurile în ansamblul unor preocupări comune, tot se înregistrează diferenţe de puncte de vedere. Iar o prezenţă care se întregeşte cu altă prezenţă ştie că aceste diferenţe reprezintă doar câteva dintre caracteristicile cu valoare adăugată ale modulului de a aborda ştiinţa şi arta.

Leadership: Poți să asiguri manevrarea propriilor „Replies" în încercarea de abordare a ştiinţei prin mijloacele de cultivare a vizibilităţii artei?

Este mai uşor să vorbeşti despre schimbare decât să o faci, ceea ce constituie doar un fel de intenție firavă de a lupta împotriva unei entităţi de gând-formă ce se vrea revelată pentru o înţelegere exterioară - de ansamblu - asupra evoluţiei personale.

Numai atunci când gândurile încep să capete o anumită o formă prin procesul creaţiei, depinzând de o influență care te împinge să te avânţi mai mult în cunoaştere, se poate face trecerea de la o abordare la alta, mai ales în cazul unei așa zise relații dintre „observare" și „experiment".

Dintr-o mâzgăleală de moment se pot pune cap la cap noi forme de exprimare, noi forme de expresie artistică. „Desluşitul" și „nedesluşitul" ce acţionează asupra cumulării de experiență în sesizarea aspectelor de detaliu, sau de maximă generalitate, alcătuind un tablou mai mult sau mai puțin reușit, sunt exclusiv dependente de un operator numit „complexitate" care își are ecoul în elementele de percepţie obiectivă.

Vizibilitatea artei se poate obţine din combinarea ideilor în imaginaţie cu toate acele aspecte ale realităţii furnizate de simţuri (a priori), pe linia trasată de calea spre recunoaşterea unei noi dimensiuni intrinseci ale fiinţei umane.

Simţi că un anumit lucru îşi găseşte corespondenţa cu lait-motivul tău interior, cu fluxul tău emoțional, cu viziunea unui început de drum? Leadershipul are ca suport de dezvoltare o abordare care explorează rolul individului în identificarea acelor nişe de interpretare a viziunilor, sentimentelor şi formelor de relații dintre reperele concludente de creaţie, ce pot genera abilităţi de înţelegere de nivel înalt.

Arta, despre care se poate afirma că are funcţia de reprezentare a unor compoziţii noi de imagine, devine vizibilă atunci când ceilalți oameni reușesc să se conecteze la această imagine. Ea poate să indice un concret al semnificativului creaţiei tale.

Ansamblul de „Replies" arată paralelismul dintre informațiile obţinute cu ajutorul unor noi reprezentări de forme și informaţiile pe care le poți lua drept adevăruri generale. Acestea din urmă pot contribui atât la dezvoltarea ştiinţei cât și la stabilirea fundamentului unui nou sistem de gândire.

Poți să asiguri manevrarea propriilor „replies" în încercarea de abordare a ştiinţei doar dacă reușești să reprezinţi elementele de referinţă ale unei imagini (reperele concludente ale creaţiei tale) în spațiul unei cunoaşteri aparte, în configuraţia unei experienţe emoţionale, sau în spațiul unei noi identităţi.

Leadershipul este reperul creativ de reprezentare a unei imagini de mare forţă sugestivă care poate fi îmbunătăţită în cazul când cauţi şi combini mijloacele necesare pentru realizarea unui scop practic.

Ştiinţa construieşte Arta atunci când omul gândeşte lucrarea în materialul de care dispune, sau când începe să caute şi să prelucreze materialul potrivit concepţiilor sale în urma mâzgălelilor aleatorii. Ştiinţa este în strânsă legătură cu aplicabilitatea legilor de observaţie care alimentează noile teorii și concepte.

Expresia artistică este un proces de invenţie şi producţie a noului care dă formă aventurii numită cunoaştere. De multe ori ea reprezintă o concretizare a mâzgălelilor...

Ştiinţa de a fi o ştiinţă

On Februarie 14, 2020

Întreabă-te ce-ai făcut pentru ştiinţă, dacă vrei să afli cât de folositor ai fost progresului lumii.

Sunt două feluri de cunoscători.

Cei care au înţeles dedesubturile Marii Cunoaşteri, reuşind să exprime esenţa ei într-un limbaj pur metafizic, adică perceput numai de cei iniţiaţi în domeniu (un număr foarte restrâns de indivizi).

Şi cei care au înţeles cum să pună în valoare esenţa Marii Cunoaşteri prin formulări simple care emană un fel de căldură sufletească, cu doză puternică de inspiraţie, ca atunci când asculţi continuu o melodie ritmată, veselă, sau senzuală, fără să-i memorezi versurile. Te atinge la suflet o asemenea operă.

Însă, cunoscătorul veritabil este cel care îmbină elegant, simplu, cu suflet, amândouă modalităţile de abordare a Marii Cunoaşterii - făcând-o nu doar accesibilă, ci mai ales nobilă.

Şi mai sunt "deşteptii", aceia care au înţeles totul, dar care toată viaţa lor n-au creat absolut nimic în numele Ştiinţei (poate aşteptând să facă alţii treaba în locul lor). Aceştia sunt cei mai nefolositori lumii şi progresului ei. Faptul că te prezinţi în faţa lumii drept atotştiutor, nu înseamnă nicidecum că ştiinţa se mişcă într-o direcţie sau alta.

Aici este bine să ne amintim ce spunea esteticianul român, Liviu Rusu: "Au fost oameni de seamă, în toate domeniile, puțin dotați. Dar ei au reușit să fie mari, au devenit "genii" (cum se spune) prin calități de a căror lipsă nimeni nu vorbește bucuros când o resimte. Toți au avut acea puternică conștiință de meșteșugari, care începe prin a învăța să execute fără greș părțile înainte de a cuteza să înjghebeze un mare tot. Ei și-au luat timp pentru a o face, fiindcă reușita amănuntelor, a accesoriilor, le procura mai multă plăcere decât efectele unui întreg strălucitor."

Leadership: Tiparul cunoaşterii tale despre lume urmăreşte intercondiţionarea dintre conţinut şi formă, dintre idee şi forma cristalizată a creaţiei încărcată cu multiple şi nebănuite semnificaţii?

De fapt, tot ce se întâmplă în lumea asta depinde de un singur factor: ştiinţa. Oamenii de ştiinţă sunt singurii care mişcă ceva colosal, împingând veșnic stânca uriașă a lui Sisif. Fără ei, nu ar exista putere, nici progres.

În timp ce politicienii caută să fure unii de la alţii un os mai mare, în timp ce oamenii normali îşi văd de treburile lor. Iată ce îi preocupă pe oamenii de ştiinţă: "Dominarea forţelor şi spiritelor naturii presupune cea mai înaltă perfecţiune morală, cea mai înaltă spiritualitate".

Un exemplu. Iată părerea celebrului medic francez Gérard Anaclet Vincent Encausse despre ce înseamnă să-ţi asumi impactul şi palmaresul ştiinţei:

"Puterea omului este aproape nulă pe lângă cea a electricităţii, a aburului sau a atomului. Dar, opunându-le, prin anumite combinaţii, forţe tot atât de puternice ca şi ele, omul le concentrează, le înmagazinează, le constrânge să transporte sau să sfărâme, să reducă la câteva secunde distanţele pe care altfel ar trebui să le parcurgă în câteva luni."

Totodată, aceasta este adevărata spiritualitate de care dă dovadă Prospero (personajul lui Shakespeare) atunci când supune materia şi legile pământului propriei sale voinţe. Practic, el este întruchiparea omului de ştiinţă, singurul capabil să se ridice la statutul de Dumnezeu. El este cheia care deschide porţile misterului: "Precum în cer şi pe pământ."

Leadership: Experienţa ta de a asimila o cunoaştere subtilă se ridică la nivelul cunoaşterii asimilate prin experienţa de creaţie care deschide porţile misterului: "Precum în cer şi pe pământ" ?

Tind să cred că Marea Cunoaştere aparţine îngerilor, sau celor care ştiu să trăiască veşnic. De fapt, aş zice că acest "Palat al lui Solomon" poate fi experimentat în acelaşi chip nemijlocit în care experimentezi ceea ce ţine de Creaţie şi Creator, punând în prim planul realizărilor tale experimentul unei minuni: de a realiza ceva ce n-a mai realizat nimeni niciodată. Iar celebrele cuvinte "Precum în cer şi pe pământ" se supun unui singur înţeles: orice lucru are un dublu al său.

Străduindu-te să raţionalizezi experienţa ta intuitivă asupra diferenţelor dintre idee şi obiect, dintre lucru şi formă, dintre idee şi limbaj, dintre idee şi manifestarea ei sensibilă, sau dintre simţire şi imagine artistică, vei putea să ajungi la un numitor comun: să consideri utilă abordarea unei noi perspective asupra naturii lucrurilor în concordanță cu ordinea lor obișnuită.

Astfel, vei ajunge să înţelegi metafizica. Care, în viziunea simplă a lui Leonardo da Vinci, are la bază următoarea sugestie: "Dacă priveşti un zid împestriţat de pete şi făcut dintr-un amestec de pietriş, şi dacă ai de inventat o privelişte oarecare, vei descoperi pe acest zid similitudini cu diverse ţări, cu munţii lor, cu fluviile, stâncile, arborii, landele, văile adânci, colinele de diverse aspecte, vei vedea bătălii şi mişcări vii de figuri şi de alte stranii apariţii de obraze, de costume şi mii de alte lucruri pe care le vei aduce la o formă bună şi integră."

Marea ispravă a leadershipului vizează trecerea omului de la statutul de fin cunoscător al lucrurilor mărunte la statutul de Demiurg, prin expunerea unei alte perspective asupra diferențelor şi asemănărilor dintre lucruri, fenomene şi stări.

Ştiinţa de a fi o ştiinţă se poziţionează în acord cu experienţa omului de a traduce orice aspect legat de lucrurile din jur într-un limbaj viu, care denotă o comunicare eficientă cu universul, sau cu Dumnezeu. Adâncimea pe care o simbolizează cunoaşterea cea mai aleasă, începând de la fiecare element minor de informaţie, amplificat prin rezonanţa cu care este înzestrat în alt plan, trebuie conţinută în simţirea celui care foloseşte limbajul propriu şi figurativ al "apostolilor".

Ştiinţa omului veşnic cuprinsă între naştere şi moarte

On Ianuarie 08, 2014

Pune în aplicare toate învăţăturile ştiinţei pe care o slujeşti şi o reprezinţi, pentru a-ţi călăuzi valoarea în direcţia trebuincioasă devenirii tale.

Marele savant de origine estonian, Karl Baer, căutând stăruitor să pătrundă în tainele dezvoltării ouălelor de găină, a ajuns în final să pună bazele unei ştiinţe noi – embriologia comparată a vertebratelor. Practic, studiul embrionilor permitea clasificarea înrudirii dintre animale.

Pentru mine, care voiam să urc marea piramidă a ştiinţei şi să pun bazele unei noi abordări a leadershipului, a însemnat foarte mult modul în care savantul a elaborat noua clasificare a animalelor. El a efectuat lucrul cel mai important: a arătat că embrionul urmează o cale proprie de dezvoltare la fiecare tip de animale.

Ecoul teoriilor sale au constituit pentru mine un etalon al inovaţiei, servind în acelaşi timp ca legătură de unire între două mentalităţi oarecum diferite. Iar modalitatea lui de aplicare a învăţăturilor şi adevărurilor descoperite pe parcursul cercetărilor au deschis orizontul devenirii mele viitoare ca om care rivalizează cu limitele impuse de reperele unei evoluţii ştiinţifice neîmplinite până la capăt.

Arta conducerii constă în a păstra echilibrul între forțele opuse, ajustând fin fiecare acțiune în funcție de contextul controlabil.

Plăcuta incursiune în lumea științei, stimulând curiozitatea și devenirea personală, asigurând dobândirea unei distinctivități ideologice şi culturale aparte, s-a concretizat la scurt timp într-o multitudine de reflecții interesante, teorii și considerații plauzibile legate de domeniul conducerii. Era atât de ispititor să înțeleg reprezentarea elementelor de identificare a compuşilor care favorizează o anumită chimie a individualităţii, era atât de palpitant să descâlcesc ițele atâtor ipoteze contradictorii care susțin modelul uman.

Numai astfel mi-am putut da seama ce se află dincolo de propria-mi persoană: valoarea măsurată şi orientarea pragmatică. Aceste două caracteristici îmi ofereau instrumentele necesare pentru a înţelege interacţiunea dintre ştiinţă şi metafizică, în favoarea unor abordări unice în leadership.

Leadership: Accepţi să intri într-o cădere liberă fără sfârşit, sub pretextul căutării unui ideal de mare prestigiu şi vizibilitate în domeniul ştiinţei care să depășească cadrul îngust al experienţei tale de a fi un observator?

Deseori păşim orbeşte prin labirintul incertitudinii în căutarea unor răspunsuri la întrebarea " Încotro ne îndreptăm? ", călăuzindu-ne după nişte consideraţii referitoare la ceea ce este îngăduit să cercetăm şi prea puţin după cele referitoare la ceea ce este util de folosit în analizarea de sine şi în autocunoaştere. Ştiinţa omului veşnic cuprinsă între naştere şi viaţă se lasă traversată de efortul total, de toate actele de voinţă, de toate angajamentele de a pătrunde tainele unei profesii complexe, nobile și frumoase, deci a unei forme puternice de gândire, aparţinând altora, dar însuşită de oricine ca o autodisciplinare constantă crescândă, într-o anumită direcţie.

În loc să ne ridicăm nivelul de gândire şi cultură din această mocirlă compromiţătoare a necunoscutului de sine, ne adâncim tot mai mult în ceea ce se numeşte carantina aşteptării decente. Suntem învăluiţi de o mantie de stricăciune lăuntrică în loc să manifestăm un entuziasm uriaş pentru căutarea, actualizarea şi salvarea acelor virtuţi ideatice care sunt în mod drept preţuite în societatea umană. Virtutea de a fi o lucrare terminată a savantului, o confesiune despre grandoarea creaţiei.

În timp ce bătrânii nu mai obţin de prea multă vreme rezultate notabile, tinerii îşi pierd cheful de a-şi însuşi ştiinţa, adică scade randamentul care face posibilă realizarea unor "venituri" suplimentare de valoare personală. Este evident că mulţi nu sunt în stare să realizeze o legătură între performanţa cognitivă şi rezultatele de o calitate superioară, relevante pentru zona leadershipului. Aceştia nu pot vedea în ce măsură sunt capabili să se autodepăşească respectând traseul pe care îl au de parcurs alţii savanţi în scopul stabilirii unor forme noi de reprezentare a lumii şi cunoaşterii.

Asta înseamnă să intri într-o cădere liberă fără sfârşit, într-un declin extrem, venind în prelungirea firească a stării numită apatie, care şterge o cantitate semnificativă din acele câştiguri prealabile de productivitate a resurselor alocate îmbunătăţiri aptitudinilor, în acord cu cerinţele leadershipului performant.

Leadership: Cât costă să construieşti o punte peste "abisul" ivit între involuţie şi ştiinţă, prin asociere cu un "eu însumi cu grad înalt de personalizare" care îşi cere dreptul de a-şi afirma autenticitatea?

Pentru a face posibilă acea privire interioară care să zădărnicească capcanele involuţiei şi inactivităţii funcţionale, analizând toate acele ipoteze, calcule, experimente, teorii selectate pentru a rezista mai bine la tendinţele de atracţie a modelului de gândire care face cinste ştiinţei, trebuie eliberat drumul spre putința de dezvoltare a individualităţii.

Drumul spre putinţa de a vedea o nouă interfață pentru harta numită " plan de deschidere şi reorganizare a studiului individual ", trebuie eliberat urmând o cale proprie de evoluţie şi de afirmare pe plan profesional. Nu-mi dau seama cum s-ar putea realiza acest lucru fără asimilarea cunoştinţelor necesare identificării şi analizei unor noi aspecte ale interacţiunii informaţie-materie, unor noi resurse de cunoaştere, conturându-se argumente privind oportunitatea extinderii unor noi concepte ştiinţifice şi arii de cercetare.

Leadershipul este ceea ce creezi sub greutatea unui "eu însumi" conceput prin recompunerea imaginii ştiinţei din fragmente ale învăţăturilor şi adevărurilor descoperite de alţii pe parcursul intervenţiilor lor în mersul lumii.

Îţi aminteşti de Turms, eroul romanului "Etruscul", de Mika Waltari? El încerca deseori să-şi înţeleagă fiinţa, ascultându-şi gândurile şi chemările interioare. Nesigur pe propriile sale valori, calităţi şi aptitudini, i-a rugat pe preoţii iniţiaţi să-l înveţe ce trebuie să ştie pentru a cunoaşte desăvârşirea. Ei i-au răspuns: "Ştiinţa este în tine însuţi. Nu în noi."

O incursiune în lumea științei poate fi nespus de plăcută doar dacă stimulează curiozitatea și devenirea personală, asigurând dobândirea unei distinctivități ideologice şi culturale aparte. Ea trebuie să se concretizeze în ceva interesant, palpabil, de viitor, util şi accesibil leadershipului pe care îl vei exercita într-o permanentă ascultare de tine însuţi. De propriile tale gânduri şi prejudecăţi, de valoarea ta, de imaginea pe care ţi-o creezi despre tine.

Ceea ce te costă ca să construieşti o punte peste "abisul" ivit între involuţie şi ştiinţă este conexiunea şi cheltuiala pe care o stabileşti cu angajamentul de îmbunătăţire continuă a performanţelor, asigurând continuitatea cercetărilor ştiinţifice în direcţia dată de domeniul tău de activitate. Dacă vrei să te situezi în stadiul de "savant" în ceea ce priveşte modul de consolidare a relaţiei cu excelenţa, pune în aplicare toate învăţăturile ştiinţei pe care o slujeşti şi o reprezinţi, pentru a-ţi călăuzi valoarea în direcţia trebuincioasă devenirii tale.

"Un eu însumi cu grad înalt de personalizare" îşi poate cere dreptul de a-şi afirma autenticitatea în cazul în care motivaţia de a servi ştiinţei este egală cu motivaţia de a apăra o cauză nobilă.

De asemenea, acest "eu însumi" trebuie să-şi demonstreze demnitatea de a trăi sub umbrela unui nume glorios a cărui rezonanţă se înregistrează în felul cum omul îşi deschide orizonturile în faţa unei realităţi diversificate şi complexe.

Ştiinţa omului veşnic cuprinsă între naştere şi moarte vizează acea angajare liber consimţită de a cunoaşte, de a învăţa, de a te autodepăşi, astfel încât să cucereşti piscurile cele mai înalte performanţei. Este o cale care cere o angajare de fiecare clipă, ţintind spre un nou ideal care sa te poziţioneze în categoria candidaţilor de top la premiul numit: desăvârşire.

Ştiinţa şi Intangibilul

Realizează o extindere a cunoașterii științifice, asigurând regenerarea continuă a mentalităţii specifice superiorităţii.

Puteam eu oare să mă încred în plăsmuirile unei lumi inexistente, să plutesc cu gândul deasupra limitelor omeneşti? Puteam eu oare să-mi impun convingerile, îmboldit de forţa înălţătoare a unor reflecţii angrenate într-un imaginar transcendent, pe care numai un creator universal le poate asambla în plan metafizic? Cum, eu care mă credeam îndrumat de o mână nevăzută, asemenea unui cugetător care nu se limitează la ceea ce cunoaşte ci la ceea ce înţelege, eu să îndrăznesc să mă armonizez cu ordinea internă a universului fără să-mi neg existenţa?

Mi se părea că mă uit într-o oglindă, încercând să definesc universul prin imaginea mea reflectată într-o infinitate de unghiuri, tot aşa cum Dante Alighieri a construit în mintea lui abisul, făurind epopeea spectrelor. Asta echivala cu fragmentarea întregii mele fiinţe în mici părticele, posibile doar prin integrarea conştiinţei într-un soi de supra-conştiinţă care deschidea totul în faţa mea, revelând adevărurile pe care se edifica întreaga materie. Însemna să accept apartenenţa mea la universalitate. Putea oare cineva să înţeleagă întinderea sacrificiului pe care îl făceam?

Alexandre Dumas îşi surprindea la un moment dat personajul: „ Închipuieşte-ţi că stăpânul suprem, după ce a creat lumea, după ce a fertilizat haosul, s-ar fi oprit la a treia parte din opera sa… Şi închipuieşte-ţi că, după ce a pregătit totul, după ce a plămădit totul, după ce a fecundat totul, în momentul când să-şi admire opera, Dumnezeu ar fi stins soarele şi ar fi zvârlit cu piciorul lumea în noaptea veşnică. "

Aceste vorbe erau pentru mine o adevărată cumpănă de ape între două prăpăstii – ştiinţa şi intangibilul, două maluri de pământ dezvoltând un câmp de forţe propulsatoare spre înălţimi încă necucerite, drumul şi destinul meu. Demoralizat, realizasem încă o dată că mă găseam în faţa unei geometrii complicate a cărei semnificaţie îmi scăpa, în faţa unei alcătuiri incomprehensibile. Fără să pot discerne dacă era vorba despre căutări ale cunoaşterii sau ale spaţiului şi timpului. O adevărată provocare pe tărâmul metafizicii.

Leadership: Poţi să dezvolţi o nouă direcţie de abordare a ştiinţei printr-un sacrificiu de ajustare a percepţiilor despre existenţă, lume şi realitate, încât să devii mai mult decât ţi-ai fi putut imagina că vei deveni vreodată?

Cunoaşterea cea mai înaltă pe care o poate cineva poseda, prin exercitarea unei voinţe programate de a construi o nouă abordare a adevărurilor despre viaţă, într-un mod în care să nu se reducă amprenta sa asupra lumii, se dobândeşte prin experienţa trăirii „întregului", prin evadarea în fantastic şi miraculos. La fel cum pentru un pictor o culoare nu este mai utilă decât alta, pentru musician, un sunet decât altul, tot aşa spaţiul care îi conferă omului de ştiinţă o evidentă unicitate este cuprins între fluxul gândirii, al conştiinţei sau al existenţei subiective şi încercarea de a discerne o semnificație în orice situaţie.

Un anumit tip de infantilism păstrat constant, o uşoară nebunie instalată în interiorul graniţelor gândirii, a must-see that becomes a must-have , în dependenţă directă cu interesul pentru un anumit domeniu precum şi cât de mult il acoperă, toate acestea permit o parcurgere mai uşoară a drumului spre leadership. O nouă direcţie de abordare a ştiinţei se obţine printr-un sacrificiu de ajustare a percepţiilor despre existenţă, ceea ce înseamnă să extragi o semnificaţie mult mai amplă din modul prin care selectezi, organizezi şi interpretezi informaţiile receptate din mediul înconjurător cu ajutorul trăirilor cele mai intense, a imaginaţiei, a intuiţiei, a acţiunii şi a consecinţelor ei.

Existenţa, văzută prin prisma ştiinţei, poate fi o formă de manifestare a relaţiilor dintre trăiri şi evenimente puse într-o singură idee, un efort de coordonare a unei multitudini de explicaţii oferite procesului şi dinamicii unei gândiri împărtăşite. Iar intangibilul reprezintă totalitatea a ceea ce încă nu ai asimilat la nivel de cunoaştere, încât să produci o schimbare în materie de exprimare prin creaţie.

Dificultăţii abordării ştiinţei care întruneşte condiţiile de a deţine „adevărurile adânci", din perspectiva cunoaşterii bazate pe convingeri reformatoare, i se poate imprima o direcţie de aprofundare a existenţei şi a lumii, create după un tipar personalizat. Dar asta numai printr-un sacrificiu de ajustare a percepţiilor despre realitate, numai prin încercări continue de generare a unor reflecţii vizavi de ce înseamnă de fapt „a fi" într-un anumit segment de timp.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi menţii o atitudine de superioritate prin intermediul unei activităţi indispensabile procesului creativ, încât focalizarea conştiinţei şi a existenţei tale să meargă spre ideal şi spre Absolut?

Leadershipul are drept criteriu de distincţie faţă de alte domenii de activitate consecinţele care decurg din convingerile individului, şi prin aceasta asigură regenerarea continuă în viitor a mentalităţii specifice superiorităţii, una de tip „ Închipuieşte-ţi că stăpânul suprem ". Or ideea de superioritate vizează, prin construcţia de decoruri şi teme alese de inspiraţie, tocmai încununarea unei opere de mare complexitate, acea recunoaştere a trecutului, a prezentului şi a viitorului dedicate atingerii unui ideal de tipul „toate-într-unul", reunind o diversitate de reflecţii, cercetări, exerciţii de gândire, opinii critice, etc.

Dacă reuşeşti să te upgradezi până la nivelul de predictibilitate al unui cugetător care nu se limitează la ceea ce cunoaşte ci la ceea ce înţelege prin „îndoieli", scormonind mai adânc în miezul unor aspecte particulare ale realităţii, abia atunci te vei putea apropia de desăvârşirea ideală a omului care îşi grăbeşte transformarea de la statutul de observator la statutul de la "gândire superioară".

Iar numai un asemenea om îşi poate justifica raţiunea de a fi, asumându-şi consecinţele însuşirii unor adevăruri nespuse, încorporării unei varietăţi de experienţe şi unor noi modalităţi de gândire care i se potrivesc. Numai un asemenea om îşi poate pune potenţialul de integrare a conştiinţei într-un soi de supra-conştiinţă, în slujba plămădirii unei noi identităţi. Numai un asemenea om va putea aduce o contribuţie importantă la dezvoltarea ştiinţei de a fundamenta o legătură între existenţă şi leadership.

Absolutul este cea mai înaltă formă de cunoaştere la care aspiră un creator dornic să-şi împărtășească perspectiva și viziunea asupra a ceea ce i se poate întâmpla într-o zi din viață, prin micile felii de inspiraţie ce decurg dintr-o realitate care parcă refuză să se lase descifrată.

Ştiinţa şi Intangibilul aduc în prim plan cele două laturi ale formării omului ce aspiră la o cunoaştere mai profundă. Prima este latura obiectivă, care se realizează prin intenţia de a intra în legătură cu o putere superioară, suportând deschiderea mentalităţii spre o pricepere mai adâncă a lumii, a vieţii şi a realităţii. Cealaltă este latura subiectivă, care ţine de tendinţa omului spre individualizare, spre conştientizarea adevăratului sine, creativ.

Ştiinţa superioară a leadershipului

Încadrează-ţi ştiinţa în noi ecuaţii, astfel încât ea să fie în deplină conformitate cu specificaţiile şi funcţionalitatea modelului de leadership unanim acceptat de rostul vieţii.

Căile şi orizonturile pe care le deschidea ştiinţa deveneau dintr-o dată tot mai interesante, avantajându-mă enorm, ca şi când aş fi fost favoritul unui concurs de împrejurări stabilit într-un loc în care nu există piedici. Acesta era rezultatul plasării mele în faţa unei realităţi de ordin superior, înţeleasă doar într-un mod aprioric, pe care nu o mai experimentaseră decât poate cercetătorii cei mai progresişti.

Sofisticat concepută, impregnată de accentele unei gândiri metafizice, iluminată de abstractizări sau materializări temporare, multe din ele fiind abandonate după o vreme, această realitate bogată şi complexă avea meritul de a aborda cu seriozitate aspecte deosebit de profunde ale dezvoltării durabile. Astfel, pătrundeam treptat într-o lume de semnificaţii care ajungea mai reală şi mai de preţ decât lumea experienţei obişnuite.

Zeiţa Atalanta, pentru a-şi potoli setea, a făcut să ţâşnească apa lovind cu suliţa ei o stâncă din care nu mai apăruse niciodată până atunci nici cel mai firav izvor.

În cazul meu, trebuia fiu mai ponderat în ceea ce priveşte interferenţele irealului şi irealizabilului. Aşa că, pentru a potoli reacţiile experimentului meu de explorare a complexităţii ştiinţei, am luat în considerare doar ipotezele cele mai verosimile ale cercetării, realizând mai multe tipuri de legături fundamentale între diferite noţiuni studiate.

Leadership: Realitatea pe care o experimentezi, în afara a ceea ce probabil ai constatat până la un anumit punct, poate să fie cu totul diferită de ceea ce poţi vedea mai departe de propria mentalitate?

Lumina strălucea peste toate lucrurile şi le punea acolo pentru ca ochii mei să le vadă şi să le perceapă cu acuitatea analistului fin. Lumina era calea de a ajunge la acel element definibil, sufletul materiei. Sugera în acelaşi timp încercarea de a uni şi a despărţi trăsăturile comune ale lucrurilor mărunte, dar relevante, întrupând două semnificaţii egale şi opuse, care la rândul lor se combinau în realizarea unui înţeles abstract.

Am încercat pe pielea mea o parte dintr-un experiment inedit, “ Vivre avec la lumière ”. Indiferent de natura sau cauza care provoca declanşarea acelei luminozităţi, aprinderea acelei flăcări interioare ce întreţinea creaţia ridicându-se până la înălţimea născocirilor cele mai subtile, un singur lucru era cert: găseam în permanenţă noi valenţe de interpretare, redare şi aplicare a noţiunilor dobândite.

Dacă fiecare om ar cunoaşte aceste alternative funcţionale de utilizare a noţiunilor şi cunoştinţelor, atunci fiecare ar contribui la dezvoltarea ştiinţei. Uneori, a vedea mai departe de propria mentalitate înseamnă de fapt să sesizezi o altă faţă a realităţii care te proiectează în linia vieţii pe care tu ţi-o doreşti nespus, fără să te supui unor norme de tipul "validează opiniile majorităţii".

Leadershipul trebuie să respecte următoarele specificaţii:

A vedea mai departe de propria mentalitate înseamnă să acorzi realităţii şansa de a se adapta la noi limite ale înțelegerii și explicării fenomenelor vieţii.

Ştiinţa ta generează o anume inconsistenţă faţă de transformările specifice la care este supusă materia leadershipului, fără să-ţi lezezi capacitatea de acţiune asupra realităţii externe?

Poţi să întreţii rezultatul plasării tale în faţa unei realităţi de ordin superior? Încerci pe pielea ta o parte dintr-un experiment inedit? Care sunt orizonturile pe care ţi le deschide realitatea pe care ţi-o creezi? Poţi să uneşti şi să desparţi trăsăturile comune ale lucrurilor mărunte, dar relevante pentru dezvoltarea ştiinţei tale?

Prin ştiinţă rezultă efectele leadershipului, acele resorturi ascunse pe care încă nu le-ai descoperit, dar care te pot avantaja enorm în cursa spre marele trofeu: desăvârşirea. Sunt, de asemenea, exploatate efectele facile ale intervenţiei unei noi "forţe de materie", în condiţiile unei convenţii cu tine însuţi, cu acel mod de gândire pe care încă nu ai reuşit să-l extinzi. Şi care face întotdeauna uşor de "descifrat", pe linia stimulilor de ordin vital care lărgesc nivelul de înţelegere a realităţii, conţinutul unei noi abordări a relaţiei cu tine însuţi.

Dacă ştiinţa ta generează o anume inconsistenţă faţă de transformările specifice la care este supusă materia leadershipului, deci dacă tot ceea ce descoperi nu uneşte acea relaţie specială cu nivelul superior de înţelegere şi aplicabilitate a cunoştinţelor asimilate, atunci factorii care pot conduce la creşterea sau descreşterea valorii tale se vor altera de la sine.

Practic, materia leadershipului uneşte toate acele lucruri mărunte şi extraordinare pentru viaţă, trecute prin sita unei realităţi care transcende orice orientare, făcând ca tot ceea ce te face să străluceşti, să evoluezi, să fii mai puternic, mai inspirat, mai fericit, să pară ca fiind o parte integrantă dintr-un plan mai înalt de unde poţi vedea o altă lume decât cea cu care te-ai obişnuit.

O ştiinţă precum leadershipul poate fi încadrată în ecuaţiile de determinare a unei noi direcţii de urmat atunci când rostul vieţii este dictat de priceperea de a observa şi investiga fenomenele realităţii care, prin modul lor de manifestare, dau naştere la coincidenţe sau corespondenţe semnificative.

Tocmai aceste coincidenţe sau corespondenţe semnificative, care uneori întrec orice imaginaţie, leagă lumea noastră interioară cu cea exterioară, arătând calea spre împlinirea destinului nostru.

Ştiinţa superioară a leadershipului este de fapt produsul a tot ceea ce ai creat de-a lungul timpului pentru a facilita accesul la excelenţă. Este o dovadă incontestabilă a transformării tale într-un savant care are capacitatea de a mânui materia în mod eficient, după bunul său plac.

Dar înainte de a deveni un savant, trebuie să contribui la dezvoltarea ştiinţei şi să reuşeşti să te impui prin aplicarea în practică a celor mai noi cuceriri ştiinţifice. Ceea ce presupune o actualizare permanentă a cunoştinţelor.

Ştiinţa unui singur om (VS) Ştiinţa întregii lumi

On Martie 10, 2012

Antrenează-ţi mintea să gândească în termeni de viziune, prin faptul că tot ceea ce priveşti la tine însuţi poate fi acceptat ca valoros abia după ce te-ai schimbat "dumnezeieşte" prin tăria menţinerii drumului asumat în viaţă.

Se povesteşte că într-o cetate în care se învăţau toate ştiinţele trăia un tânăr frumos şi plin de sârg la învăţătură. Şi, măcar că nimic nu lipsea fericirii vieţii sale era închipuit de dorinţa de a şti cât mai mult. Or, i se dezvălui într-o zi, din povestirea unui negustor călător, că într-o ţară tare îndepărtată trăia un învăţat care era omul cel mai sfânt din tot Islamul şi care el singur avea atâta ştiinţă de carte, atâta înţelepciune şi atâta har cât toţi învăţaţii veacului la un loc. Şi află că învăţătorul acela, cu toată faima lui, nu era de meserie decât fierar, meserie pe care, înaintea lui, o avuseseră şi tatăl sau şi bunicul său.

Auzind aceste vorbe, tânărul îşi luă traistă şi băţul şi pleca pe dată din cetatea lui. Şi merse vreme de 40 de zile şi 40 de nopţi şi, după multe primejdii şi osteneli se înfăţişă înaintea fierarului.

Aflând că tânărul voia să dobândească marea ştiinţă, fierarul îi puse în mână funia de la foalele covăliei şi îi spuse să tragă. Şi învăţăcelul ascultă. O zi, o lună, un an, fără să scoată un cuvânt, tânărul a întins iar şi iar funia foalelor. Dar într-o bună zi, tânărul a deschis gura şi l-a rugat pe maestru să-i spună cum poate fi obţinută Marea Ştiinţă.

Fierarul îi spuse doar atât: "Taci şi continuă să tragi de funie." Şi astfel s-au mai scurs încă 5 ani. Apoi, într-o zi mult prea istovitoare, învăţăcelul a lăsat din mână funia fierăriei şi îl imploră pe maestru să-i spună secretul Marii Ştiinţe.

- Fiul meu ! poţi să te întorci în ţara ta şi la casa ta, cu toată ştiinţa lumii şi a vieţii în inima ta. Căci pe toată ai dobândit-o, dobândind virtutea răbdării ! *****

Leadership: Poţi să-ți dezvolţi o atitudine demnă de un om superior, fără să execuţi mai multe repetări ale anterioarelor tale stări și experienţe?

În fiecare zi descoperi un mic secret ce intervine în formarea şi dezvoltarea gândirii, care adăugat la alte mici secrete contribuie la fabricarea Pietrei Filosofale. Dar ca să ajungi la o asemenea deprindere ai nevoie de minim zece ani de practică, a câte 16 ore pline de încercări şi limite pe care trebuie să le depăşeşti, zi de zi.

Şi mai trebuie să ai norocul să întâlneşti la timpul potrivit un alchimist, un om de ştiinţă genial care ştie să facă - ca nimeni altcineva - experienţe de chimie şi biochimie în laborator. Iar dacă acest alchimist este pe deasupra un pictor plin de viziune şi de mesaj, poţi spune că eşti cu adevărat norocos.

Ştiinţa unui singur om îţi este mai de folos decât ştiinţa întregii lumi ! De altfel, folosul unui om în mijlocul acestei lumi depinde de ştiinţa cu care el continuă să-şi pună visele pe hârtie, făcând din aceste vise o pârghie pentru atingerea performanţei într-un domeniu de activitate. Iar astfel de pârghie care te îmbogăţeşte sufleteşte, deprinzând o anumită maturitate în gândire, o anumită atitudine faţă de sarcinile importante ale vieții, este acea virtute numită "răbdare" prin care îţi observi toate lucrurile şi faptele după o anumită regulă, după o anumită măsură, apoi reuşeşti să le dai o conotaţie de natură socială.

Ar mai fi ceva. Ca să înţelegi vorba aia: "Precum în cer aşa şi pe pământ" trebuie mai întâi să explorezi tainele universului, apoi să funcţionezi tu însuţi după modelul infinitului care vrea să sugereze un singur lucru, şi anume că există o asemănare între ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce ar trebui să fii, sau între ceea ce eşti ca om şi ceea ce te mână înspre a evolua din punct de vedere spiritual-ştiinţific.

Ştiinţa, conform voinţei individului de a înţelege nepătrunsul, se actualizează după modelul artistului care şi-a propus să interpreteze senzaţiile optice prin echivalenţe cromatice - ele nefiind imitaţia literală a unui lucru natural, ci simbolul acestuia. Iar artist nu este decât acela care, prin intermediul senzaţiilor de cunoaştere primite din partea sinelui, nu neapărat din lumea exterioară, reuşeşte să elibereze informaţia vizuală de clişee şi să o răsucească în fuiorul unei rostiri personale. Căci lumea din jur este doar un tablou pe care nu îl poţi şlefui dacă culorile cele mai calde nu sunt mereu prezente în viaţa ta.

Aspectul spiritual al unei viziuni coerente despre viaţă vizează acel lucru pe care trebuie să-l transformi în prioritate, încât să nu trebuiască să pierzi ani de zile pentru a ajunge la el.

Ştiinţa unui singur om (VS) Ştiinţa întregii lumi oferă prilejul unei comparaţii între ceea ce eşti în stare să înveţi doar de la tine însuţi şi ceea ce eşti în stare să înveţi despre tine însuţi interacţionând cu restul lumii. Dacă ai timp, încearcă să enumeri 5 lucruri pe care ai putea să le transformi în priorităţi, încât să nu trebuiască să pierzi 10 ani de viaţă pentru a ajunge la ele. Iar dacă nu poţi să enumeri 5 lucruri, atunci gândeşte-te la măcar un singur lucru pe care să-l poţi schimba la tine, încât acesta să devină temelie pentru tot restul vieţii tale.

Stilizarea din "a doua mână" în cinematografie

On Decembrie 15, 2012

Pentru ca a ta creație să fie autentică, ea trebuie să prezinte natura înconjurătoare în felul în care a fost văzută de oamenii epocii pe care o zugrăvești.

Cum se pot toate acestea în decor, în ambianţa înconjurătoare? Devine necesară, bineînţeles, o stilizare şi în acest domeniu. Problema stilizării constă în prezentarea naturii înconjurătoare, în felul în care a fost văzută de oamenii epocii pe care o zugrăvim. Pentru că apare aici un pericol: stilizarea "din a doua mână". Atunci când artistul nu reproduce felul în care percepe nemijlocit natura unei epoci istorice, nu reproduce o reprezentare proprie a felului în care a fost văzută natura de contemporani, ci foloseşte interpretarea unei alte persoane... unul creează în genul lui Rerich, altul în genul lui Surikov.

Prin toate aceste gânduri Eisenstein ridică probleme generale ale filmului istoric. Cum trebuie deci rezolvată problema peisajului istoric? Răspunsul îl găseşte în urma unei serioase meditaţii: "Peisajului istoric îi este caracteristic o particularitate şi anume: senzaţia depărtării lui de privitor. Cred că această senzaţie a depărtării poate să apară atunci când peisajul păstrează numai elementele ce pot fi văzute din depărtare, când peisajul nu cuprinde un mare număr de detalii. Peisajul trebuie să acţioneze mai ales prin trăsăturile sale generalizate şi generalizatoare."

Leadership: Poate imaginea creată de tine să acționeze prin trăsăturile sale generalizate, păstrând numai elementele esențiale ce pot fi percepute de la distanță?

Proiectarea unei creații autentice în cinematografie implică un proces complex de planificare și stilizare. Este esențial să se țină cont de reprezentarea naturii înconjurătoare a epocii pe care o zugrăvește artistul. Detaliile sunt cruciale, de la alegerea elementelor scenografice până la distribuția spațiilor și ambianței. Un film de succes nu numai că optimizează utilizarea peisajului, dar oferă și o reprezentare estetică a viziunii regizorului, reflectând un echilibru între autenticitate și stilizare.

Problema stilizării în film constă în prezentarea naturii în felul în care a fost văzută de oamenii epocii, evitând pericolul stilizării "din a doua mână", când artistul folosește interpretarea altora în loc să creeze o reprezentare proprie. Peisajul trebuie să acționeze prin trăsăturile sale generalizate și generalizatoare, păstrând numai elementele esențiale ce pot fi percepute de la distanță. Astfel, o stilizare autentică a peisajului în film poate oferi spectatorului o senzație de depărtare și profunzime, capturând esența vizuală a unei epoci istorice fără a se pierde în detalii excesive.

Leadership: Cum influențează echilibrul dintre stilizare și autenticitate percepția vizuală a spectatorului în cinematografie, și cum poate un regizor să își optimizeze creația pentru a reflecta această esență istorică?

Leadershipul şi creaţia cinematografică au un lucru în comun: imaginea impactuală. Stilizarea este procesul de a adapta, modifica sau exagera anumite elemente estetice, vizuale sau narative într-o operă de artă pentru a crea un efect distinctiv și unic. Acest proces poate implică folosirea unor tehnici specifice de iluminare, culori, forme, sunet sau compoziție pentru a sublinia anumite teme, a evoca anumite emoții sau a conferi o anumită atmosferă. Stilizarea poate transforma realitatea într-o versiune idealizată, simbolică sau abstractă, contribuind la expresivitatea și originalitatea unei opere.

Echilibrul dintre stilizare și autenticitate în cinematografie poate influența percepția vizuală a spectatorului prin crearea unei atmosfere și estetici care să fie captivante și credibile în același timp. Un exces de stilizare poate distruge credibilitatea poveștii sau emoționalitatea filmului, în timp ce lipsa stilizării poate duce la o interpretare lipsită de inovație sau impact vizual.

Pentru a reflecta această esență istorică în mod optim, un regizor poate să se bazeze pe o înțelegere profundă a perioadei sau stilului pe care dorește să îl exploreze. Experimentarea tehnicilor cinematografice moderne poate aduce o interpretare proaspătă și originală asupra unei perioade sau teme istorice.

De asemenea, colaborarea strânsă cu echipa de producție, inclusiv scenografi, costumieri și directori de imagine, este esențială pentru a asigura coerența și autenticitatea estetică a filmului. Comunicarea eficientă a mesajului și a emoțiilor din spatele stilizării și autenticității este, prin urmare, crucială pentru a captiva și a conecta publicul. Prin găsirea unui echilibru conștient între aceste două aspecte, regizorul poate crea o experiență cinematografică profundă și memorabilă.

Un creator trebuie să exploreze modalități diferite de a oferi spectatorului o senzație de profunzime prin stilizarea autentică a decorului, revelând astfel esența unei imagini vechi prin juxtapunerea cu imagini noi.

Stilizarea din "a doua mână" în cinematografie reprezintă utilizarea și reinterpretarea elementelor vizuale și tematice preluate din opere anterioare, adaptându-le într-un context nou pentru a crea un impact original. Aici se pune totuşi întrebarea:

În ce mod poate planificarea detaliată a scenografiei și distribuția spațiilor să contribuie la o ambianță care să evidențieze viziunea regizorului, și cum reușește el să păstreze autenticitatea epocii reprezentate?

Stiloul şi pensula în sfera Creaţiei Sfințitoare

On Octombrie 29, 2020

Arta mi-a oferit șansa de a juca un joc numit Nemurire. Eu i-am oferit artei șansa de echilibra greutatea jocului, adăugând modul divin.

Stiloul cu care îmi scriu viaţa mi-a adus la cunoştinţă puritatea lucrurilor nemateriale transformate în opere de artă nemuritoare, fiind el însuşi un filosof învăţat şi profund care priveşte lumea prin rotirea uşoară a pensulei în curcubeul culorilor tot mai îndrăzneţe. Nici nu aş fi putut fi convins cu uşurinţă de existenţa lucrurilor nemateriale, dacă nu ar fi fost stiloul însuşi un mod de a vedea dincolo de aparenţe şi de a percepe realitatea dincolo de iluzie.

Tot aşa, dintr-un scris al trăirii ce aparţine în totalitate momentului de mare forţă interpretativă, se inspiră artistul luminii şi al valorilor picturale intrinseci care, cu ajutorul pensulei asigură valoarea frumosului ce se impune într-adevăr prin sine şi pentru sine. Printr-o voinţă fermă de a câştiga cerul, prin încercarea de a explica curcubeul ca fenomen natural al naturii, pensula este condusă pe acelaşi drum cu scrisul, în direcţia atemporală a inimii de toate vârstele, primind acea însufleţire a creaţiunii de dincolo de văz, în viitorul unei iluzii despre lume.

Eu însumi, am reuşit să comand pensulei să facă ceea ce promisese stiloul mai înainte: să scape de înfăţişare materială, ca să obţină o expresie sau o metaforă a purităţii. Potrivit puterii de înţelegere a unui artist, care este mai presus de orice înţelegere, cel mai corect este ca pensula să se folosească de gloria şi frumuseţea unui scris frumos, pentru ca însufleţirea ei să fie o binecuvântare a spiritelor pure.

Cu cât stiloul şi pensula vor fi instrumente mai pure în exprimarea emoţiilor de dincolo de suportabilul actual, cu atât voi vedea realitatea cu alţi ochi faţă de cum o văd acum. Stiloul va produce influenţe similare asupra pensulei atunci când un colţ fermecător din natură mă va îndemna la diferite raportări de ordinul concomitenţei, încât amândouă să fie contemplate ca reprezentare a divinului. Şi cred că de aceea sunt nemuritor, fiindcă stiloul meu, jucând rolul unei pensule plină de inspiraţie, reuşeşte să dea viaţă unei realităţi de dincolo de aparenţele vizibile, şi totodată reuşeşte să reproducă o imagine din altă lume, o feerie colorată, încărcată de simboluri.

Ochiul meu spiritual, în sfârşit se va deschide.

Leadership: Puterea ta de a rămâne în prezentul relației cu actul sublim al Creaţiei este o cale de a pătrunde în adâncul unei realităţi care cultivă mai mult spaţiu în câmpul vizual decât în câmpul unei teme comune?

După chipul şi asemănarea pensulei lucrează şi stiloul, întru sfinţirea unei exprimări care depășește formalismul șabloanelor, inerția tiparelor, determinând astrologic un efect de reflecţie a luminii de dincolo de forme, de dincolo de gând şi stele. Atunci când se află amândouă în conjuncţie cu planetele luminoase sau luminate, soarele sau luna, ajungând chiar până la ceea ce se numeşte "guvernarea universului", stiloul şi pensula pot căpăta o anumită strălucire prin faptul că oglindesc o realitate tangibilă care marchează mințile tridimensionale.

Prin aceasta vreau să spun că un artist nu este un artist adevărat până ce nu îmbrăţişează scrisul ca pe o mişcare a pensulei, din evoluţia mişcării universale. Şi amândouă, atingând foarte bine subiectul Creaţiei în faţa frumosului unei lumi imaginare, integrată în realitatea juvenilă, reuşesc să îmbrăţişeze "Graţia Divină" în punctul în care "Ochii lui Horus" deschid fereastra vieţii unei vârste fără vârstă spre o stare nouă de definire a trăitului prin transfigurare, prefacere şi înviere.

În conformitate cu acest aspect, absorbția de lumină se realizează prin folosirea unor culori pale, dar şi prin invocarea existenţei unui act de scriere cursiv, îngrijit şi ordonat ce transmite emoție, amintire, modelând și dând formă interiorului unei sfere de simboluri și semnificații rezultate dintr-un fond de vitalitate şi energie pozitivă. Da, aşa este, sunt nemuritor prin faptul că a mea Creaţie se întinde spre lucrurile uimitoare şi felurite lucrate de Dumnezeu în mine, graţie unei pensule care cuprinde mereu alte certitudini despre realitate, deghizate în opere de artă.

Atât stiloul, cât şi pensula, îmi dau aripi și puterea de a tinde spre perfecţiune, de a rămâne în prezentul relației cu actul sublim al Creaţiei, ca un fel de cod pentru a pătrunde mai departe în adâncul unei realităţi care cultivă mai mult spaţiu în câmpul vizual decât în câmpul unei teme comune de tipul „emoţia ca beneficiu".

Mai degrabă ceea ce se vede la scrisul meu, şi ceea ce oglindeşte pensula în forma şi aspectul ei delicat, se încadrează în tema "Nimic nu se schimbă până când tu nu te schimbi."

Leadership: Poţi să trăieşti experienţa unei părţi din tine însuti, experimentând împlinirea destinului unei întregi creaţii care îşi are punctul de sprijin în înţelegerea unei imagini abstracte?

Putem aminti aici despre existenţa unui trandafir, creionat prin asemănarea unei femei cu o operă de artă, fiind admirat şi plăsmuit în cuvintele unei picturi ce exprimă esenţa sufletului uman prins în situaţii de viaţă bulversante. Sunt nemuritor prin faptul că am dat viaţă unui trandafir, graţie stiloului ce s-a mobilizat în vederea înţelegerii şi mlădierii pensulei care face obiectul unei Creaţii abracadabrante, menită să exprime spiritul liber al "Creatorului de Lumi" care a ştiut să le imagineze, să le deseneze şi să le proiecteze în plan fizic.

Ei bine, chiar şi stiloul are o slăbiciune pentru pictură, deoarece pensula se poate dovedi mai presus de scris, fiind în mare parte vizuală, adică completată cerebral cu imagini anterioare ale unui Eu desprins din materie. Or fiind nemuritor în ale exprimării prin metafore şi simboluri, devenind vulnerabil doar în faţa puterilor cereşti, stiloul se articulează potrivit tendinţelor interioare ale artistului de a-şi exprima profunzimea prin îmbrăţişarea pensulei devenită un simbol alternativ al Renaşterii.

Îmi dau seama că nu este de ajuns să fiu un artist al scrisului ca să îmbrăţişez pictura, ci mai trebuie să fiu reflexia subiectivă a lumii obiective din creierul unei stele, similară cu Soarele, care remodelează prin raze colorante imaginea brută a naturii. Şi cred că acesta este destinul creaţiei mele pe care trebuie să-l împlinesc prin întâlnirea scrisului cu pictura: ocazia de a facilita înţelegerea unei imagini abstracte ce echivalează cu descoperirea unei identităţi între esență și existență, între aparenţă şi realitate.

Leadershipul, în prima fază a Marii opere, este actul de comunicare prin mesaj artistic a unei atitudini intelectuale care persistă la nivel spiritual, permiţând identificarea artistului cu Creatorul de Lumi Veşnice.

Stiloul şi pensula în sfera Creaţiei Sfințitoare sunt instrumentele divine folosite de un artist a cărui forţă spirituală nu poate fi cunoscută decât prin prisma faptului că adăposteşte trăirile unei conştiinţe sensibile.

Mai presus de toate, o creaţie sfinţitoare îi atribuie artistului o mare parte din anvergura conceptului de "totul într-unul", mai ales dacă considerăm stiloul ca fiind o înregistrare a mișcărilor pensulei pe şevalet, şi dacă considerăm pensula ca efectuând magia de conversie a scrisului de mână în simboluri de credinţă complexe.

Stiloul vorbitor şi pensula înaripată

On Octombrie 21, 2020

Propune-ţi să faci o incursiune în imaginarul unei lumi de dincolo de tine, prin sugestia pe care o propune destinul personajului pe care ţi-l creezi: de a te plasa în afara ta în diferite moduri, sau de a fi prezent peste tot în același timp.

Ţin în mână un stilou a cărui cerneală pare că nu se mai consumă, ci doar îşi încălzeşte substanţa plină de expresie, asemănătoare prin ponderea ei estetică cu varietatea culorilor pe care pensula unui artist le aplică pe suprafaţa pânzei. Dacă corelaţia dintre formă şi substanţă, dintre expresie şi conţinut este examinată prin prisma caracterului arbitrar al identificării stiloului cu o pensulă, oricât de importantă ar fi tema de care se preocupă artistul, probabil că spiritul lumii iluminate și existența specifică alchimiei se poate materializa în orice formă dorită.

Să fiu clar înţeles. Cel care va şti cum să facă dintr-un stilou vorbitor o pensulă înaripată, reducându-le pe amândouă la o singură dogmă: "Joacă-te ! ", va putea să treacă mai repede de la virtute la colaborarea cu Dumnezeu, şi de la creaţie la eternitate. Ori, experienţele repetate în actul de a scrie cu o inspiraţie aproape divină, dincolo de mulţimea sugestiilor şi provocărilor picturii care m-au condus în lumea culorilor, mă fac să cred în continuare că fac parte dintr-un roman a cărui autor este chiar artistul ce adaugă în tablourile sale planurile unei viziuni ale vieţilor pământeşti succesive.

În acest aspect al expresiilor de cunoaştere, de mare sinteză şi semnificaţie, constă măiestria artistului, ca şi virtutea alchimistului: ei experimentează o insuflare divină de artă în vârful unei coloane a infinitului şi numai ei pot înţelege Dumnezeirea prin îmbinarea puterii de creaţie a omului cu farmecul naturii din jur. Să ţinem seama că nu există creaţie fără creator şi că, dacă ea are vreo valoare pentru mine, este fiindcă în sufletul meu s-a petrecut ceva ce a imprimat această valoare capodoperei pe care o reprezint.

Leadership: Eşti destul de permisiv în a-ţi împărtăşi cunoştinţele despre creaţie, încât să recunoşti că în raporturile tale cu Omul Nou pe care îl construieşti se impune o simultaneitate a oricărui prezent înscris în alt univers?

Aşa e când eşti artist, trebuie să fii şi pictor şi scriitor, dăruindu-ţi bucuria de a găsi o corespondenţă alchimică printre culorile metamorfice ale frunzelor de toamnă. Dar trebuie să fii şi martor, personaj şi povestitor. Iar dacă stiloul meu o ia înaintea pensulei, prin aceasta înţelegând că ale mele cuvinte au o pondere mai mare decât culorile asupra impresiei finale a cititorului, atunci trebuie să devin cititor al unui scriitor de calitate, aşa cum este Andersen care povestea despre un palat de cristal în a cărui cămăruţă secretă se afla cea mai bogată carte a pământului: Cartea Adevărului.

Înţeleptul din acest palat se pricepea, pe deasupra, să strângă lumina stelelor şi razele soarelui, strălucirea forţelor tainice şi flacăra spiritului. Cu ajutorul acestor lumini amplificate, îndreptate asupra filelor cărţii, izbutea să citească tot mai multe din cele scrise în carte, dar la acel capitol care purta titlul "Viaţa după moarte", nu mai putea desluşi niciun punctuleţ. Această constatare îl neliniştea: să nu fie el în stare să găsească pe lumea asta o lumină care să înlesnească ochiului să citească ce scria acolo, în Cartea Adevărului?

Surprindem aici o incursiune într-un univers al devenirii pure, prin sugestia pe care o propune destinul personajului care se reprezintă în câmpul întâlnirii fericite dintre un contact vizual şi postura de implicare într-un destin al convergenței spre "Cele Sfinte", cauzat de un tonus crescut al convergentei spre dezvoltarea raţionamentului. Tot aici, mai trebuie luată în calcul simbioza mesajului expresiv cu forma unei noi ontologii a identității în care sinele cititorului se identifică cu sufletul scriitorului.

De exemplu, dacă stiloul îşi purifică menirea prin dezvoltarea unui scris cursiv, îngrijit şi ordonat, iar pensula îşi purifică calitatea de întindere a culorilor (vii şi delicate) prin accentuarea contrastului cu diverse decoruri, amândouă fiind reduse la forme cât mai simple de utilizare, atunci "Prima Materie" a dinamicii universale va fi manifestarea sufletului viu ieşit din mâinile Creatorului.

La prima vedere, stiloul poate să imprime puteri extraordinare imaginii pe care pensula o colorează sub acţiunea luminii. Iar două pensule, cu diferite dimensiuni, sporesc efectul decorativ al unei imagini de poveste, pe lângă cromatică, formă şi expresivitatea mesajului liric, dar totodată ele două îşi pot avea punctul de intersecţie într-un stilou care asigură un scris cursiv, fără întreruperi de cerneală.

Leadership: Poţi să faci o incursiune în imaginea unei opere improvizată dintr-o călătorie a spiritului expansiv care rescrie destinul unei structuri epice, încât să te poziţionezi în cu totul altă postură?

Stiloul şi pensula. Înţelegând natura, virtutea şi puterea acestora de a se autodetermina, fără să pierd din conexiunea lor acel "IN-VITRO" polivalent, am ajuns să cunosc amănunţit modul de funcţionare a lucrărilor naturale şi modul de percepţie a lucrurilor celeste, dar mai ales modul de semnificare corespunzător lucrurilor create şi recreate. Iar dacă scriu despre necunoscutele simbolice ale Creaţiei Divine, lucruri fine peste care trecem repede cu vederea, o fac în acelaşi mod în care artistul se integrează, cu sufletul şi simţirea divină, în subiectul principal al picturii sale: mişcarea accelerată a unei dorinţe continue de a fi mai aproape de opera alchimiştilor.

Nu m-am imaginat niciodată în postura de producător de forme, exprimări şi limbaje simbolice, până ce n-am dat imaginii mele, ondulată de amplasarea ei spaţială într-o mobilitate stilistică, semnificaţia de "pământ, din pământ" sau de "înviere în alt trup".

Adevărul este nimeni nu ştie cât de greu este să fii o pensulă care pictează în cuvinte mângâietoare, despre simţăminte, stări şi emoţii, viaţa unui artist de mare talent care ştie să dea sens unei lumi de dincolo de marginile realităţii, de dincolo de aparenţe.

În acest caz, greutatea construcţiei artistice nu înclină, ca într-o balanţă, mai mult asupra pensulei care îşi încetineşte sau grăbeşte ritmul de potrivire a culorilor pe paletă sau pe pânză, ci asupra stiloului care trebuie să pună cuvintele într-o anumită ordine, încercând să le construiască într-o istorioară improvizată, aşa încât ochii celor care citesc aceste rânduri să surprindă numai ceea ce mintea lor este pregătită să înţeleagă.

Tot timpul voi încerca să interpretez unele din experienţele şi concluziile mele din punctul de vedere al unui alchimist care amestecă continuu în creuzetele sale din laborator, ştiinţa cu ocultismul, arta beletristicii cu arta plastică. Şi asta pentru că un artist de talia mea, care în mişcarea pensulei face posibilă expresia unei vieţi oglindită în alte vieţi, îşi cere neînduplecat să îndeplinească cu mare ascultare menirea stiloului: de a cauza o modificare acceptabilă a compoziţiei sufleteşti cu care sunt alcătuite operele divine, acele opere renăscătoare de comori fermecate aflate sub protecţia nepământeanului.

Atributul nelipsit al unei arte abstracte este interfaţa unei versiuni a creaţiei plăsmuită din imaginea a două realităţi: o realitate care se extinde considerabil spre spiritul unei lumi purtate doar în suflet, şi o realitate care se schimbă prin incursiunea în destinul unor vieţi anterioare.

Stimulii psihologici şi bilanţul existenţei

On Ianuarie 13, 2010

Creația autentică izvorăște dintr-o pasiune totalizatoare, care transcende limitele unei singure sfere și se revarsă în întreaga existență.

Lucian Blaga remarca faptul că "Don Juan nu are o mie de pasiuni mărunte, ci o singură pasiune virtuală". Şi, parcă într-un dialog cu această idee, notează Eisenstein: "De ce să admitem donjuanismul numai în dragoste? Desigur că ele există mult mai mult şi în toate domeniile? Şi în primul rând tocmai în acelea unde lucrurile sunt legate de astfel de probleme ca succesul, aprecierea, victoriile, tot atât de clar ca în domeniul arenelor de dragoste.

Meditaţiile din această perioadă îl fac pe regizorul Serghei Eisenstein să recunoască stimulii psihologici, emoţionali ai dezvoltării sale, calea exactă a drumului pe care l-a urmat. Eisenstein încearcă, într-o chinuitoare cazna să se înţeleagă, să-şi facă bilanţul existenţei. Viaţa care i-a scăpat printre degete, prin care a umblat ca Peer Gynt prin vâltoarea frunzelor uscate - gândurile sale neîmplinite. Şi, fără doar şi poate, bilanţul, care cuprinde multe şi esenţiale victorii, îi redeschide durerile numeroaselor tragedii pe care le-a trăit şi le trăieşte şi acum chiar, prin interdicţia lui "Ivan". Şi de această dată el încearcă să învingă moartea prin ironie.

Leadership: Cum afectează reacțiile complexe de la nivelul creierului tău percepția "instanţelor" din creaţia ta, într-o expunere profundă a propriilor trăiri?

Instanțele unei creații pot fi date de personajele, de temele sau de simbolurile pe care regizorul le introduce în narațiune. Acestea au rolul de a asigura un flux continuu de stimuli la nivelul percepției spectatorilor, menținându-le atenția și emoția pe parcursul întregii experiențe cinematografice.

Din acest motiv, fiziologia emoțiilor implică o serie de reacții complexe în ce priveşte personajele dintr-un film. Ele reflectă modul în care regizorul Eisenstein remarca pasiunea lui Don Juan, nu ca o mie de pasiuni mărunte, ci ca o singură pasiune virtuală. Practic, emoțiile sunt generate de interacțiuni chimice și electrice la nivelul creierului, asemenea stimulilor psihologici și emoționali care l-au influențat pe regizorul Eisenstein în dezvoltarea sa. Reacțiile emoționale pot avea un impact semnificativ asupra sănătății generale, influențând nu doar succesul și aprecierea într-un anumit domeniu, dar și victoriile și problemele cu care se confruntă.

La fel cum stresul prelungit poate duce la probleme de sănătate precum hipertensiunea, Eisenstein reflectează asupra vieții sale, făcându-și bilanțul existenței, asemenea lui Peer Gynt. Înțelegerea modului în care emoțiile și gândurile neîmplinite afectează corpul poate ajută la dezvoltarea unor strategii mai eficiente de gestionare a stresului și îmbunătățirea sănătății mentale și fizice. Conştient de acest lucru, regizorul Eisenstein încearcă să-și vindece rănile sufletești cauzate de tragedii și interdicții, folosind ironia pentru a înfrunta moartea simbolică a creațiilor sale, precum în cazul filmului 'Ivan'."

Impulsul care animă energia creatorului provine din dorința profundă de a transforma visurile și emoțiile în realitate tangibilă, generând astfel opere de artă care transcend timpul și spațiul.

Stimulii psihologici și bilanțul existenței sunt legați printr-o singură idee: căutarea sensului în fiecare experiență trăită. Din acest motiv, arta devine un instrument esențial în explorarea și înțelegerea adâncimilor existenței umane, oferindu-ne perspective și revelând sensuri ascunse în momentele noastre cele mai intime și semnificative.

Stingerea luminii înseamnă cufundarea în întuneric

On Decembrie 17, 2012

Sensibilitatea excesivă poate amplifica semnificațiile obișnuite ale incidentelor de zi cu zi, conferindu-le o greutate emoțională suplimentară.

Ce tragedie cumplită a trebuit să trăiască acest om - împiedicat atât de des şi cu atâta cruzime să creeze - când trăia chiar evenimentele curente ale vieţii cotidiene la o neobişnuită intensitate, dând celui mai mic accident obişnuit, casnic, sensuri dramatice generalizatoare:

„Lumina se stinge pentru a se economisi energia electrică. Pentru mine nu este doar atât. Stingerea luminii înseamnă cufundarea în întuneric. Un telefon scos din priză înseamnă o rupere de lume. Întârzierea banilor (atât de des !) înseamnă spectrul mizeriei."

Şi totul în mare (cu majuscule). Şi totul resimţit foarte acut. Orice fleac tinde să se transforme aproape instantaneu în generalizare. S-a rupt un nasture - deodată te simţi zdrenţăros. Îţi scapă un nume - ţi se pare că a început procesul de descompunere conştiinţei şi pierderea memoriei, etc.

Privite dinafară toate acestea par poate foarte amuzante. A trăi însă cu ele este cât se poate de chinuitor, mai ales pentru un regizor precum Serghei Eisenstein. Prin ce a trebuit să treacă omul acesta supus atâtor lovituri – şi nu unor „fleacuri", atâtor autentice tragedii?

Leadership: Ceea ce trăieşti în momente de mare greutate emoţională poate să indice felul cum perspectivele subiective influențează percepția realității?

Adaptarea unui regizor la mediul său poate fi esențială pentru supraviețuirea acestuia în lumea dramatică și generalizatoare a filmului. Răspunsurile la evenimentele cotidiene pot varia; unii pot migra spre zone mai prielnice pentru creaţie, în timp ce alții pot dezvolta strategii noi pentru a face față cruzimii și intensității condițiilor schimbătoare. Înțelegerea acestor procese este crucială pentru a gestiona mizeria și întunericul psihologic care poate rezulta dintr-o rupere de lume.

Fiecare accident casnic, de la stingerea luminii pentru a economisi energia electrică, la întârzierea banilor, poate declanșa o tragedie interioară, transformând orice fleac într-o generalizare profundă și chinuitoare. Aceasta este viața unui regizor, în care chiar și cea mai mică perturbare poate deveni o descompunere a memoriei și a identității. Suferințele personale pot conduce la generalizări excesive și temeri existențiale. De aceea, echilibrul interior este esențial pentru a păstra o viziune rațională asupra lumii.

În acest context turbulent, evenimentele obișnuite devin încărcate de semnificații profund dramatice. O simplă schimbare în programul de lucru sau o mică perturbare logistică, cum ar fi stingerea luminii pentru a economisi energia electrică, este percepută nu doar ca o inconvenienţă minoră, ci ca o cufundare în întuneric - o metaforă pentru izolare sau pierderea direcției creative. În mod similar, un telefon scos din priză devine simbolul unei ruperi de lume, o izolare de societate și de posibilitățile de a comunica și colabora.

Leadership: Poate sensibilitatea ta artistică să amplifice vulnerabilitatea și conexiunea cu realitatea, revelând astfel creația unei opere capabilă să transcendă imediatul?

Se mai adaugă aici "întârzierea banilor" – o problemă aparent administrativă – ce este resimțită ca spectrul al mizeriei, prevestind probleme mult mai grave, precum insolvabilitatea sau incapacitatea de a continua proiectele artistice. Fiecare accident casnic sau fiecare mic incident este transformat într-o generalizare vastă, fiecare devine un episod dintr-o continuă luptă pentru exprimare și supraviețuire artistică. Aşadar, micile inconveniente cotidiene sunt resimțite ca prevestiri ale unor dezastre mai mari, amplificând sentimentul de nesiguranță și vulnerabilitate.

Prin această lentilă, viața regizorului nu este doar o succesiune de evenimente, ci un câmp de bătălie unde fiecare detaliu minor poate escalada într-o tragedie personală sau profesională. Astfel, este vital să se dezvolte mecanisme de coping și strategii de adaptare nu doar pentru a supraviețui, dar pentru a înflori într-un mediu care, deși adesea chinuitor, poate fi și profund inspirațional. Aceasta este realitatea unui regizor precum Serghei Eisenstein, pentru care realitățile vieții s-au transformat în artă, chiar și în cele mai provocatoare momente. Sensibilitatea artistică sporește vulnerabilitatea la trăiri copleșitoare ale realității.

Leadershipul poate fi o raritate în arta de a accesa și interpreta experiențele interioare profunde, cu o convingere personală: "Perspectivele interioare pot amplifica semnificațiile unor experiențe aparent banale, în timp ce stările emoționale intense pot deforma percepția evenimentelor obiective."

Stingerea luminii înseamnă cufundarea în întuneric și izolarea de lumea exterioară, un moment care poate declanșa temeri și anxietăți profunde pentru o persoană hipersensibilă cum este un artist. Cum reușești tu să transformi realitățile vieții în artă, chiar și în cele mai provocatoare momente, atunci când sensibilitatea artistică sporește vulnerabilitatea la trăiri copleșitoare ale realității?

Consideri că o cale de a depăși aceste provocări este de a-ți asuma o viziune unitară și o spontaneitate a simțirii, care să te ghideze în exprimarea sinelui prin limbajul artistic expresionist?

Ştiţi să vă apropiaţi de oameni?

On Februarie 01, 2009

Oxigenează-ţi potenţialul de lider, profitând de coincidenţa perfectă dintre conjuncturile în care te afli şi virtuţile pe care le ai de preţuit.

Înainte de a porni la război, un mare general s-a adresat oştenilor săi: " Vom lupta până la moarte. " Dar chiar înainte să înceapă bătălia, generalul şi-a dat seama că armata lui este inferior numerică celeilalte şi, deci, că şansele de a câştiga lupta în câmp deschis sunt minime. Atunci generalul s-a adresat din nou oştenilor săi: " Azi, ne vom retrage ".

Trăieşte azi, luptă mâine. Un lider trebuie să aibă o viziune clară astfel încât să poată prevedea riscurile cu mult înainte de a se angaja într-o acţiune. El trebuie să îi dirijeze pe oameni într-o direcţie favorabilă lor, să evite orice situaţie de risc şi să stabilească măsuri preventive pentru a împiedica apariţia problemelor. Numai dacă există realmente şanse de câştig, liderul va face un pas înainte în direcţia dorită.

Obişnuinţa de a se concentra numai asupra rezultatelor imediate, îi determină însă pe unii lideri să acţioneze rapid, fără să facă nicio evaluare a riscurilor care pot apărea ulterior, riscuri care pot pune în pericol uneori chiar şi viaţa oamenilor. Astfel de lideri îşi urmăresc doar propriile scopuri egoiste fără să ţină cont de nevoile celorlalţi, de părerile lor, de dorinţele lor şi chiar de soarta lor. Pentru ei nu contează nimic altceva decât propriul lor interes, propria lor persoana, şi cam atât.

Leadership: Îţi ridici virtuţile la nivelul de "permanenţă", practicând tot timpul o gândire care se preţuieşte şi se judecă pe sine?

Virtuţile de care avem nevoie pentru a elimina din noi defectele dăunătoare, care contribuie la remedierea statusului de lider, făcând faţă rezonabil acelor exigenţe de proiectare a unui nou traseu de urmat în funcţie de tipul evenimentelor aflate în desfăşurare, conduc la transformări personale prin intermediul impactului care le însoţeşte. Aceste virtuţi sunt: prudenţa, demnitatea, previziunea, chibzuinţa în luarea deciziilor şi asumarea responsabilităţii.

Acest impact poate fi conştientizat ca o senzaţie de presiune, greutate, apăsare, tensiune, un fel de amorţeală a autorităţii tale de a conduce în relaţia cu înalta sarcină de a te întări pe plan psihologic şi moral, şi de a te antrena pentru neprevăzut, dar la un alt nivel.

Leadershipul intervine în procesul schimbării de sine atunci când trebuie să răspândeşti şi să încurajezi implementarea altor virtuţi, precum eroismul, prudenţa, valoarea şi preţiozitatea, exercitând mai mult decât ocazional o gândire adaptabilă, lucidă, capabilă să construiască de fiecare dată modalitatea de acţiune corespunzătoare situaţiei existente, prin care să nu fii nevoit să dai socoteală la tot ceea ce ai făcut în calitate de lider.

Permanenţa constă în tendinţa liderului de a stabili neîncetat raporturi între apariția evenimentelor majore și gradul de control al riscurilor determinate de direcţia lor. Un lider trebuie să-şi definească poziţia în mijlocul evenimentelor măsurându-şi prezenţa de spirit în funcţie de timpul pe care îl are la dispoziţie pentru a accepta compromisul dintre adaptatbilitate şi oportunism.

Astăzi nu ne mai spune nimic ce este "gândirea care se preţuieşte şi se judecă pe sine", reprezentând în primul rând propria valoare nealterată de experimentul falimentului moral care admite posibilitatea existenţei mai multor proceduri, coordonate la rândul lor de capacităţile primordiale - de supravieţuire, şi cele secundare - de reflecţie asupra noastră și de reglare a echilibrelor noastre lăuntrice.

Aceste capacităţi sunt, pentru a spune astfel, un fond personal de valoare, având pentru noi o semnificaţie aparte, transferabilă în planul manifestării. De aceea capacitatea de a rămâne lucid şi concentrat pe acea traiectorie de autoapreciere, sunt atuurile celor mai puternici.

Leadership: Unicitatea ta se dezvoltă prin asumarea şi extinderea experienţei de utilizare a imaginii tale de fundal în desfăşurarea unei operaţiuni de tipul "renunţare temporară"?

Aşa cum herpesul apare pe fondul unei imunităţi scăzute, tot aşa scăderea calităţii leadershipului tău se datorează unei slabe „oxigenări" a întregului tău potenţial care se individualizează de restul lumii prin virtuţile pe care le adopţi la limita propriilor compromisuri cu factorul numit "Risc".

Tu îţi oxigenezi foarte bine potenţialul de lider respectând valorile care te fac excepţional şi care, totodată, sunt bine întipărite în ceilalţi oameni?

Poţi să-ţi exprimi viziunea în aşa fel încât să-i faci pe oameni să acţioneze în spiritul ei? Cum interacţionezi cu oamenii? Ce preţ are progresul tău? Oamenii sunt oare dispuşi să plătească acest preţ? Îţi controlezi aşteptările crescute? Leadershipul tău constituie o oportunitate cu risc scăzut, dar cu posibilităţi mari de câştig pentru oameni? Deciziile tale răspund aşteptărilor oamenilor, sau sunt împotriva naturii umane?

Imaginea de fundal este ceea ce rămâne de văzut la tine după ce ţi-ai dovedit măiestria în gestionarea unei situaţii în care te-ai simţit blocat.

Renunţarea temporară poate fi un efect al conjuncturilor de greşită interpretare a situaţiei care anulează momentului prielnic de a acţiona. Sau poate fi o formă amiabilă de stingere a legăturii dintre eşec şi recunoaşterea neputinţei de a aborda evenimentele.

A-i conduce pe oameni spre eşec nu este un act de eroism, este o lipsă de responsabilitate. Un lider bun îşi construieşte mai multe strategii înainte de a lua o decizie importantă, mai ales atunci când este pusă în joc cariera sau viaţa subordonaţilor săi. De foarte multe ori chiar se consultă cu subalternii săi privind modul în care este mai bine să acţioneze.

Oamenii tind întotdeauna să-i răsplătească pe aceia care îi îndrumă într-o direcţie care se potriveşte cel mai bine cu dorinţele lor. Este o mare diferenţa între a urma pe cineva de bunăvoie, fără nici o obligaţie, şi a-l urma pentru că n-ai încotro. Hotărârea fermă şi dorinţa adevărată de a lucra pentru binele comun este ceea ce îi caracterizează pe liderii talentaţi. Ei nu se implică într-o anumită acţiune fără să fie siguri că nu există riscuri majore şi că toată lumea iese în câştig.

În viaţa profesională oamenii reprezintă totul. Prin urmare, este deosebit de important să fii responsabil şi corect faţă de toţi aceia pe care îi ai în subordine şi să dai dovadă de mai multă flexibilitate în relaţiile cu ei. Doar aşa vei putea să le câştigi admiraţia, susţinerea, încrederea şi respectul, acel respect clădit pe devotament şi susţinere.

Felul cum te implici în derularea evenimentelor determină felul cum răspunzi la acuzaţiile de vină ce ţi se aduc în cazul unei depăşiri a limitelor care îţi pun la încercare caracterul.

Ştii să te apropii de oameni atunci când eşti pe cale să renunţi la misiunea ta?

Renunţarea temporară este o manifestare a raţionalităţii bazată pe o abordare empirică ce depăşeşte restricţiile impuse de realitatea văzută prin complexitatea şi profunzimea unor cauze determinate de percepţia succesiunii faptelor şi evenimentelor. Ea are ca punct de plecare de apartenenţa la un cadru mai restrâns de garantare a reciprocităţii dintre conştientizarea de sine şi conştientizarea vulnerabilităţilor altora în faţa unor evenimente neprevăzute.

Stop For A Minute (II)

On Mai 14, 2018

Sporeşte profunzimea artei tale, imaginându-ţi realitatea ca o mare concesie făcută autorităţii divine.

O neîncetată căutare de răspunsuri la numeroasele întrebări ce țin de contextul "cvasi figurativ" se eternizează în oglinda unei lucrări de excepţie, what is left to you , despre o mărturisire în cel mai profund realism transfigurat prin muzică în arta picturală, a cărei reflexie plină de toate misterele unui timp care-şi sfidează legile, ferecată într-o densitate materială, este cunoaşterea alchimică, cea mai pretenţioasă.

Încă o dată eşti tentat să-ţi asumi o istorie a prezenţei lui Dumnezeu în lumea unei pânze întinse pe şevalet care îşi aşteaptă cu nerăbdare infuzia de culori.

Argumentele convingătoare prin asociere cu estetica limbajului încărcat de subiectivitate, oglinzi în care universul se priveşte pe sine de la înălţimea sunetelor vindecătoare: cel al rezonanţei, al ritmului, al melodiei, al armoniei, al tonalităţii, al timbrului, luate ca energie de acţionare a trăirilor cele mai intense, sunt în sfârşit cuprinse în ordinea de explorare optică şi mental-asociativă a operei de artă.

Culoarea verde este folosită pentru a ajusta percepţia vizuală a întregului spaţiu de vizibilitate al intenţionalităţii conştiinţei. Even you can try !

Leadershipul autentic implică o înțelegere profundă a naturii efemere a vieții, orientându-se către esență, nu doar aparențe, și pregătind viziunea pentru un destin mai vast decât limitele imediate.

Urmează amploarea elementelor alchimice: materia, spaţiul şi timpul, absorbite de o posibilă reprezentare a Ochiului lui Dumnezeu. Conjuncţia a două stele nemăsurate, that secret down , cum ar numi un artist plin de subtilitate tot procedeul de obţinere a nuanţelor de culoare necesare pentru procesarea unei fotografii memorabile, stă mărturie cuvintelor lui Victor Hugo despre transfigurarea înstelată a unui extaz în agonie, respirația cerească a aerului din rai:

"Inimi adânci, spirite înţelepte, luaţi viaţa aşa cum a făcut-o Dumnezeu. E o încercare îndelungată, o pregătire neînţeleasă pentru un destin necunoscut. Destinul acesta, cel adevărat, începe la om o dată cu prima treaptă înăuntrul mormântului. Atunci se iveşte în faţa ochilor şi începe să se zărească veşnicia. Gândiţi-vă la cuvântul acesta: veşnicie. Dar până atunci iubiţi şi suferiţi, nădăjduiţi şi contemplaţi. Vai de cel care n-a iubit decât trupul, forme, aparenţe. Moartea îi va lua totul. Încercaţi să iubiţi suflete, numai aşa le veţi regăsi."

Leadership: Îţi aminteşti de tine într-un moment al inspiraţiei de dincolo de hotarul între mărginit şi nemărginit, într-o expresie a propriei identificări cu planul divinului?

Cred că există o superioritate distinctă în a aduce în faţa lumii ritmurile, imaginile şi senzualitatea unei trăiri pierdute în memoria trecutului. You better change your heart in time !

Aminteşte-ţi de tine într-un moment al inspiraţiei de dincolo de hotarul între mărginit şi nemărginit, într-o expresie a propriei identificări cu planul divinului izvorât din arta pictorului ce poate intui şi crea în imaginile sale de şevalet vibraţia trăirilor cele mai intense. Exprimarea lor directă, fără apel la artificii de efect, care devin nemuriri ale spiritualităţii privite ca o confirmare a descoperirii neaşteptate a unei idei colosale, sporeşte misterul unei realităţi care se anunţă purtătoare de semnificaţie în cadrul autenticităţii descrierii vieţii.

Devii adeptul echilibrului tonal, al organizării configuraţiei unei arte izvorâte din nevoia de atenţie din partea aleatorului - în relaţia cu raţionalul unei preferinţe pentru schimbarea lentă a vizualului pur, sensibil şi ataşat stărilor de conştiinţă aferente experienţelor de studiere a lumii exterioare la nivel primar. Înflăcărat de izbânda culorilor asupra psihologiei sentimentelor, te regăseşti în raporturi de gamă subtil armonizate sub semnul unei dominanţe al cărei impact conceptual este condiţionat de funcţia simbolică. I rely on your chance to know !

Când o scriitură se defineşte treptat ca expresie de sine, o interpretare conceptuală stând la baza unui nou curent artistic, atunci forţa magică a întregii tale opere capătă caracterul unei epidemii, "The Tipping Point", ce provoacă schimbări de proporţii în logosul cel veşnic. Divinul este lumea privită de sus, dintr-un punct îndepărtat, dar explorată de jos, din adâncimile expresiei atribuite încercării de a reda o realitate dintr-o logică ce scapă înţelegerii comune. Where are you going to?

Acordurile muzicale care te învăluie de la dimensiunea visului, acompaniind interfaţa unei noi versiuni a trăirii finitului în infinit, e ca un drog care creează dependenţă, un graf care se alungeşte peste teritorii de neguri, un pasaj tăiat dintr-o materie densă, clădind ideea de a defini formal un conţinut obiectual.

Leadership: Efectul inserat în mărturisirile tale este de aşa natură încât să poată identifica intenţia artistului de a portretiza destinul unei vieţi îndelungate realizat prin modulaţii la tonalităţi minore îndepărtate?

Intro-ul electronic completează energia piesei prin referire la o altă faţă a realităţii, dinspre zona artistică a mărturisirii mediate, începerea unei filosofii universale, spre construcțiile ce vizează abstractul și conceptualul existenţial, constelând rezultatul unei reacţii empirice în imagini simbolizatoare.

Peisajul unei clipe suspendate în infinit şi o entitate caracterizată de patru atribute: înălțime, durată, intensitate și timbru. Toate par a fi desprinse din arta pictorului care îşi imaginează altfel realitatea, ca o mare concesie făcută autorităţii divine, împlinind o înaltă tensiune metafizic-idealistă într-o operă de mare profunzime în care liricul freamătă de marile întrebări ale existenţei şi cunoaşterii.

Începi să conştientizezi ceea ce simţi în coordonatele unei intrigi încărcată cu suspans, sub forma unei povestiri care curge lin, reușind în același timp să fii aproape de spiritul unor personaje de legendă, ajungând aproape la o relație intimă cu acestea, constituind parcă simbolul secret al unei afinităţi crescute pentru romantism: You and I Could feel as once !

Esteticii armoniei îi place să rămână mereu deschisă împreună cu dorinţa pictorului de a pune clipă de clipă, prin opera lui, întrebări al căror răspuns e greu de rostit: What did you come to be now?

Profunzimea de care dispune leadershipul vizează arta de a încărca cu potenţial valorificabil expresia unui conţinut subiectiv din hăţişurile reprezentării fidele a celei mai frumoase haine pe care sufletul o îmbrăcă, în culorile percepute de ochiul artistului desăvârşit.

Stop For A Minute şi ascultă sunetul muzicii pulsând în ritmul visărilor tale, simte iubirea pură, impulsul către întregire, freamătul mistic, emoţia estetică, that sorrow in your life , cu care artistul înregistrează atingeri de natură cromatică şi vocală, însufleţit de puterea de a reinventa limbajul universului şi, odată cu el, realitatea aspră a lumii.

Ştiinţa de a trăi o melodie se întregeşte prin capacitatea omului de a se rupe de real pentru a însufleţi puţin irealul.

O lungă rădăcină sonoră se smulge din trecut şi iese la lumină ca o scânteie dintr-un uriaş foc ceresc, amestecată cu însăşi feluritele însemnări ale artistului despre originea, destinul şi menirea unei realităţi care multiplică imaginile unei lumi văzută doar în alb şi roşu, a ceea ce se vrea a fi o comparaţie între sursa vieţii veşnice şi finitudinea unei opere de artă.

Ea se întinde printre oglinzile memoriei universale ca un ecou al unei capodopere vibrante care uimeşte privitorii şi pune pe gânduri ascultătorii, într-o făgăduială adusă eternităţi aflată permanent dincolo de tot ceea ce este efemer şi pieritor: "What have you come to be, to be now?" Încă te întrebi de ce este importantă experienţa ascultării născută dintr-o motivaţie interioară ce îşi găseşte mijloacele ideale de exprimare?

Himeric, auzi o voce plină de expresivitate într-o aglomeraţie de praf de stele, sclipiri colorate ale unui ritm de simţire tacticos, întâlneşti fără să vrei o privire a unei lumi mult diferite care te atinge până-n străfundul inimii, care parcă vrea să spună: "I'll be protectin you from what you run into". Ea te înmărmureşte prin naturaleţea şi autenticitatea cu care este redată fulgerător o parte dintr-o experienţă privilegiată, despre o mărturisire care te ajută să îţi construieşti propriile adevăruri într-o formă artistică care îşi continuă revărsările de pasiune pură. You can believe that part of mine !

Ştiinţa de a trăi o melodie se întregeşte prin capacitatea omului de a se rupe de real pentru a însufleţi puţin irealul. Ştii profund că ai dat peste filonul care permite realizarea ambiţiilor unei lungi gândiri captivante, o invitaţie la o călătorie mentală în infinit, that secret down , împletind perfect măiestria şi iscusinţa unei neobosite alternanţe vizionare într-o magnifică limpezime a armoniei dintre conţinut şi formă, sub semnul a ceea ce s-ar putea numi "impulsul către inspiraţie".

Leadership: Consideri că cea mai coerentă abordare a unei teme din mai multe perspective ar fi extinderea semnificaţiei conceptelor de calitate şi valoare identificate în efectele de adâncime ale procesului de "a vedea" separat de "a înţelege"?

Inexplicabil, simţi că pluteşti în jurul unor lumini misterioase care strălucesc a fericire pură, ca o continuă devenire într-o lume eternă, vizavi de actul plăsmuirii unor noi orizonturi de timp. Pe linia acestei arii a imaginarului şi a limbajului poetic, te regăseşti sub forma unei povestiri care curge lin, reușind în același timp să fii aproape de spiritul unor personaje din opera lui Borges, ajungând aproape la o relație intimă cu acestea.

Auditivul se vădeşte a fi încărcat potenţial cu o dublă revărsare semantică - una spre întărirea expresiei unui conţinut emoţional şi alta spre revelarea purităţii expresive a efectelor sonore dominante prin modulaţii intense şi repetate, adaptate la tonalităţi minore îndepărtate. Press Repeat and Open up your eyes again ca să te recunoşti altcineva într-un alt cadru de poveste.

Ferecate într-o anumită densitate materială, variaţiunile născute din prelungirea sunetelor într-un text plin de cuvinte meşteşugite, înşirate sfâşietor şi inspirat în acelaşi timp, sunt gândite în aşa fel încât oricare dintre ele să poată deveni muzica unui film. Fiecare piesă este un univers. Fiecare muzică este o aventură de poveste.

Artistul expune diferenţele dintre a vedea şi a privi, dintre percepţie şi o veritabilă arheologie a imaginii, într-un univers a cărei poveste este legată de cromatica unei fotografii sau de personalizarea unui clip video, aplicând filtrele uniforme şi graduale. El vede imaginea finală a unei construcţii separat de a înţelege rolul şi utilizarea ei în favoarea temei alese.

Mai întâi compui melodia (având în minte o imagine), apoi îi scrii versurile.

Când Michelangelo a achiziţionat un bloc de marmură albă de Carrara, abandonată după eșecul altor sculptori, el a vizualizat modelul unui bărbat ideal separat de a-i atribui tema biblică a victoriei lui David.

"A vedea" înseamnă a crede în virtutea unei înfăptuiri fabuloase, în timp ce "a înţelege" înseamnă a descifra sau a dezvălui ce se ascunde dincolo de o impresie generală.

Leadership: Poţi să dezvălui importanţa şi originalitatea unei imagini care se deplasează liber în jurul unei acţiuni "îngheţate" în timp, prin prisma imaginarului care însufleţeşte o curiozitate amplă despre viaţă?

Iar dacă toate sunetele şi frecvenţele sunt strâns legate în univers, atunci literele transpuse în cuvinte formează o galaxie, o formă de organizare a materiei aflate în mişcare în spaţiu şi timp, în condiţiile în care totul este straniu. Orice melodie redă imaginar sau real o anumită scenă de viaţă, cauza unei viitoare nostalgii sau a unei viitoare bântuiri, un alt decor al minţii care îşi caută înţelesurile de pe culmea refuzului de a vedea adevărul dat de Dumnezeu. Try not to lose your own !

Se spune că celebrul inginer american, Washington Roebling, a suferit un accident imediat după începerea podului Brooklyn. Toată lumea credea că renunțase la opera sa. Rămas invalid, nu i-a mai rămas decât să urmărească cu telescopul progresele făcute la construcţia podului, de la ultimul etaj al clădirii în care locuia.

Scriitorul Paul Auster spunea despre Roebling: "Lucrul cel mai remarcabil era că întregul pod se afla literalmente în capul său: fiecare bucăţică fusese memorată până la cele mai micuţe piese de oţel şi de piatră. Şi chiar dacă el n-a pus niciodată piciorul pe pod, acesta se afla deja înăuntrul său, ca şi cum, după atâţia ani, structura aceea crescuse cumva în interiorul trupului său."

Fiecare inginer se loveşte de o barieră care îi susţine puternic viziunea înainte de a construi un pod. La fel, fiecare artist se loveşte de o îndoială. Ce preferi să ştii că eşti: un creator de materie sau un model explicativ al naturii ei?

Leadershipul este dat de creatorul care crede în virtutea unei înfăptuiri fabuloase, în timp ce dezvăluie ce se ascunde dincolo de o impresie generală.

Stop For A Minute este un efort pregnant de a reflecta la compoziţia unei teme care dă valoare unei imagini pe care mulţi nu o băga în seamă, sau o privesc fără să se întrebe ce anume exprimă ea.

Străfulgerarea unei minți înclinate spre nemărginit

On Ianuarie 14, 2015

Repartizează-ţi cunoaşterea sub formă de putere, stabilind o nouă direcţie de abordare a omului şi a lumii în relaţie cu ştiinţa.

Înaintam către o ţintă invizibilă, încadrată în tipicul relaţiei de determinism între încălcarea regulilor admise de conştiinţă şi excesul de raţiune care îmi încredinţa propriile ei forţe. Fără să fiu prea sigur de ceea ce puteam să descopăr. Oricât de straniu ar suna, consecinţele intrării mele într-un loop de tip ciclu din care nu mai puteam să ies, mă individualizau ca o axiomă matematică rigidă. Raţiunea îmi servea mai mult la măsurarea inducţiilor de transă, acea stare de conştientizare pasivă îndreptată spre interior, asociată cu o implicare puternică în evenimente imaginate.

Filozoful german Friedrich Wilhelm Schelling, care promitea o nouă direcţie de abordare a omului şi a lumii în relaţie cu ştiinţa în plină dezvoltare, spunea: „Omul prometeic nu recunoaşte concretul real aşa cum a fost zidit el de Dumnezeu, ci caută să dea formă realităţii după chipul şi asemănarea sa, ca să trăiască astfel ca un suveran şi obstinat într-o lume de ideal şi vis, adică într-o lume artificială."

Nu-i de mirare că mi-am stimulat noi curiozităţi înainte de a înţelege mai multe în privinţa ştiinţei care se ocupă cu studiul viselor şi a realităţii, percepută ca o experienţă simultană şi amintind de "Aventurile lui Alice în Ţara Minunilor", când tânăra de 19 ani ajunge într-o altă lume iar acolo porneşte într-o călătorie extraordinară pentru a-şi clarifica viitorul.

Singura formă de putere care îmi caracteriza demersul de aflare a unei noi raţiuni de existenţă era viziunea de a crea o versiune nouă a secolului 21 prin rememorarea unei lumi care transcende creaţia concretă a realităţii.

O ţintă invizibilă este asemănătoare pătrunderii într-un vis care nu se realizează, dar care continuă să te intrige prin balansul incredibil dintre fabulaţia radioasă şi adevărul cutremurător care l-ar putea ascunde.

Nemărginitul cuprins de mărginit care îmi putea furniza o idee despre ce aş fi putut să înţeleg şi nu am înţeles despre această lume, era definit de curiozitatea cu care voiam să ghicesc felul cum se va sfârşi motivul lui Alice de a intra și de a inspecta Țara Minunilor, şi bucuria ei de a privi în ea însăşi cu o profunzime cum nu s-a mai văzut.

Ştiam prea bine că pe conturul elementelor care trasează această lume artificială era determinat un anumit sens de parcurs. Transpunându-mă mental în spaţiul unei idealităţi râvnite, care se explica exclusiv subiectiv, până în întunecimile nemăsurate ale timpului, urmăream preponderent să prind acea linie a întrebărilor fără răspuns care puteau conferi credibilitate acestei lumi aparte.

Ca şi când aş fi permis spiritului meu curios să exploreze totul în exterior, spre sferele superioare ale unui multiunivers modelat printr-o undă universală de tip expansiune-contracţie, cu acea ingeniozitate a Creatorului Suprem care reuşeşte să dea viaţă relaţiilor dintre elemente. Să produc cu puterea minţii străfulgerarea unei iluminări petrecute în îndelungata experienţă a rătăcirii asumate într-un spaţiu golit de orice altă prezenţă perceptibilă. Asta da provocare.

Fără să-mi dai seama, eu însumi devenisem extensia unei minţi tulburate care plăsmuia noi ficţiuni la adăpostul spaţiului oniric. Un plan de existenţă paralelă, a cărui dimensiune metafizică era însă decisivă pentru stabilirea teoriilor ştiinţifice.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri condiţiile de eliminare a restricţiilor referenţiale ale lumii printr-o extindere a modului de a face ştiinţă, luând în calcul revelaţia unei noi identităţi: cine sunt cu adevărat?

Dacă vrei să îţi înalţi ştiinţa la un nivel superior şi să percepi realitatea care se ascunde în spatele lumii zi de zi, sau cea aflată dincolo de experienţa directă, atunci repartizează-ţi cunoaşterea sub formă de putere. Puterea de a crea noi revelaţii, puterea de a scoate la suprafaţă adevăruri la care nu ajungi pe calea directă a raţiunii practice pure, ci prin explorarea unei lumi artificiale, a unei realităţi de dincolo de vizibil, dincolo de limitările şi condiţionările impuse de propria ta minte asupra experienţei.

Va veni o vreme când necunoscutul va deveni cunoscut, iar cunoscutul va deveni atât de banal încât nici nu va trezi interesul. Tu trebuie să fii omul viitorului capabil să reglementeze puţinele excepţii de la această regulă, reconsiderând un anumit sens de parcurs. A face ştiinţă înseamnă să faci anumite constatări, înseamnă să ai o viziune mai largă, înseamnă să produci o descoperire, să realizezi o creaţie, şi să duci toate acestea la nivel de "capacitate de a vedea lumea aşa cum o vede Dumnezeu", printr-o multitudine de lumi care mai de care atrăgătoare şi misterioase.

Restricţiile referenţiale ale lumii sunt date de interpretările pe care le dai realităţii, de exemplu faptul că tot ceea ce te atrage la un moment dat sfârşeşte prin a te dezgusta subit, sau faptul că tot ceea ce îţi înfrumuseţează viaţa poate să te dezorienteze de la înţelegerea ei, sau faptul că orice descoperire te introduce în teritoriul necunoscutului.

Leadershipul se caracterizează prin reprezentarea veridică a realităţii, în virtutea unui algoritm de reacţie la întâmplările şi descoperirile vieţii, fiind determinat de înţelegere, de interpretare şi aplicare a unei judecăţi, a unei teorii care se bazează pe anticipaţie şi previziune. Ci se va sprijini în primul rând pe reconfigurare, redefinire şi adaptare a lumii la alte realităţi.

Revelaţia unei noi identităţi: "cine sunt cu adevărat?" se produce atunci când descoperirea pe care o faci în legătură cu lumea se înfăţişează potrivit manierei tale de a controla şi a interveni asupra realităţii pe care nu-ţi vine s-o părăseşti niciodată.

Este vorba de realitatea unei existenţe necondiţionată de clişeele scorţoase şi prăfuite care îţi determină artificial viaţa.

Străfulgerarea unei minți înclinate spre nemărginit evidenţiază acea schimbare radicală în felul de a gândi şi de a percepe lumea, în contextul dinamicii progresului, care poate să-ţi aducă acel plus de valoare de care ai nevoie pentru a atinge stadiul de regizor şi scenarist în acest veac al mixturilor de realităţi.

Ori de câte ori intenţionezi să te raportezi la schimbare, ori de câte ori încerci să te transpui mental în spaţiul unei idealităţi râvnite, aminteşte-ţi ce spunea scriitoarea Mădălina Virginia Antonescu: „În acest veac al fragmentelor de viaţă şi de aparenţă, realitatea se îmbină cu non-realitatea, până la confuzie, iar oamenii îşi creează propriile lor spaţii virtuale, unde domnesc după regulile lor proprii."

Străluceşte fără să te stingi

On Decembrie 22, 2011

Ajută-i pe oameni să-şi intensifice puterea emoţională, prin descoperirea adevărului din ei înşişi.

Ieri am revăzut unul din filmele mele preferate, " Tears of the Sun (2003) ". Locotenentul Waters împreună cu echipa lui de comando o escortau pe doctoriţa Kendricks şi pe cei aproximativ 35 de refugiaţi spre punctul Alpha, la graniţa cu Camerunul. Trupele de elită ale generalului Mustafa Yakubu erau pe urmele lor. La un moment, doctoriţa se aşează lângă el. Îl priveşte cu o anume mirare, dar şi cu admiraţie. Îi spune cu acea căldură a inimii pe care n-o găseşti niciodată când o cauţi:

- Ai făcut un lucru bun că ai ignorat ordinele superiorilor tăi şi te-ai întors să-i salvezi pe aceşti sărmani.

Locotenentul o privi păstrând o tăcere misterioasă. Dar această tăcere neaşteptată, neînchipuită, îi dădea impresia că mai erau multe de spus, dar că o anumită discreţie îl împiedica să vorbească. Totuşi îşi luă inima în dinţi:

- Nu ştiu cât de bun am fost. A trecut atâta vreme de când n-am mai făcut… un lucru bun, un lucru corect.

Locotenentul spuse aceste cuvinte de parcă ceva îi stârnise vechi remuşcări. Pentru prima oară îl înţelesese cu adevărat pe omul din el – o fiinţă plină de dragoste pentru toată lumea, iar această dragoste plină de spirit, plină de grijă, plină de înţelepciune, care nu-şi găsise niciodată locul în inima nimănui, care sfidase soarta aproape cu nonşalanţă, această dragoste a cărei rădăcini are puteri de transformare, această dragoste care îi face buni chiar şi pe ticăloşi - în sfârşit s-a trezit din hibernare. Pentru prima oară locotenentul îşi simţi cu adevărat sufletul împăcat.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să recreezi o temelie emoţională din analiza impactului unei forme de răspuns la condiţiile perceptive pe care le implică un nou tip de conştiinţă?

Sculptorii aleg rocile cele mai potrivite pentru operele lor viitoare, roci care sunt departe de a fi perfecte, ci au defecte vizibile şi defecte ascunse. Măiestria sculptorului va reuşi să anihileze numai defectele vizibile, dar nu şi pe cele ascunse.

Când un lider vrea să câştige încrederea oamenilor, el trebuie să sesizeze în primul rând defectele lor ascunse şi să le anihileze. Iar pentru ca iniţiativa lui să fie un succes, el trebuie să aleagă acele resurse emoţionale care şi-au pus amprenta pe caracterul lor şi să surprindă exact momentul potrivit de a le face accesibile.

O faptă mare l-a ajutat pe locotenentul Waters să se înţeleagă mai bine pe el însuşi. El a înţeles că cea mai importantă calitate de care făcuse tot timpul abstracţie era compasiunea, şi că totul stătea în puterea lui de a se schimba. Însă numai doctoriţa Kendricks a reuşit cumva să-i scoată la lumina acea bunătate care îi umplea şi inima ei.

Conştiinţa lui se reînnoise prin explorarea frontală a unei fapte care nu a fost incriminată sub nici o formă, chiar dacă atrăgea suspendarea lui din funcţia de lider. Devenise o conştiinţă eliberată de tendinţele anterioare de violenţă, o conştiinţă ferită de tendinţele de aliniere necondiţionată a lumii la principiile războiului, deci una ce se manifestă prin împărtășirea compasiunii, care nu înseamnă ignoranţă rece, ci promovare activă a binelui.

Condiţiile perceptive pe care le implică o astfel de conştiinţă se formează prin reflectarea realităţii în esenţa fiinţei tale, ca un fel de intrare într-o oglindă care are îți arată nu cine sti, ci ce ai putea fi într-o conjunctură de criză. Ceea ce înţelegi dintr-un eveniment care nu iese aşa cum ţi-ai dorit, ori te marchează sufleteşte, ori te înseamă pentru fapte glorioase cu preţul unor suferinţe morale umilitoare.

Leadership: Avântul tău spre maximizarea reuşitei întreţine conştiinţa faptului că aparţii unei credinţe cu valoare de "preaviz anterior deciziei finale"?

Tu eşti în stare să recreezi o temelie emoţională pentru cei ce şi-au îngropat sentimentele şi emoţiile? Poţi să găseşti ingredientul principal care se impune încorporat în leadershipul tău astfel încât, făcând uz de influenţa ta, să luminezi conştiinţa oamenilor?

Aşa cum un sculptor creează modele noi şi interesante din nişte bucăţi de piatră, tot astfel un lider care şi-a construit leadershipul pe nişte valori alese bine trebuie să-i modeleze pe oameni după natura lui fundamentală, după latura pozitivă a fiinţei sale. Trebuie să schimbe starea lor sufleteasca învăluindu-i cu acea vibraţie benefică, cu acea putere morală, cu acea energie vindecătoare capabilă să activeze sistemul lor interior de convingeri şi să amplifice motivaţia lor de a se schimba.

Un lider adevărat nu are rolul de a masca şi de a acoperi defectele vizibile ale oamenilor, ci trebuie să fie un " artist de suflete " înzestrat cu acea energie care să-i permită să aibă o mare înrâurire asupra lor. Unui astfel de lider i se datorează ideea generală a ordonării interiorului, nu a decorării exteriorului.

O credinţă cu valoare de "preaviz anterior deciziei finale" se dezvăluie sub forma unei atenţionări valabilă în situaţia în care eşti decis să contrezi un pronostic atunci când miza contrei depăşeşte percepţia ta faţă de cele întâmplate. Această atenţionare vine de regulă din partea conştiinţei pentru a putea menţine integritatea Eului faţă de conţinutul plin de "bine" ce izbucneşte cu forţă dintr-un suflet curat.

Să te păzeşti "fără de pată" din partea lumii înseamnă să te încumeți să faci parte dintr-un eveniment plin de consecinţe nedorite care se reinventează prin punerea laolaltă a cunoașterii, percepțiilor și credințelor ce pictează o imagine nouă a propriei tale naturi.

Străluceşte fără să te stingi exprimă metaforic acea forţă umană care produce necontenit energia necesară alimentării emoţiilor şi sentimentelor pozitive din " sistemul" emoţional al oamenilor. Ca să-ţi ridici leadershipul la rang de artă trebuie să întreţii această strălucire a oamenilor ţintind mai mult spre caracterul care îi defineşte, cercetând cu o sensibilitate de artist sentimentele lor, stabilind „compoziţia " lor de calităţi sufleteşti – precum compasiunea, mărinimia şi conştiinţa curată.

Dacă vrei să schimbi convingerile oamenilor trebuie să recurgi la un modelaj mai delicat, pe mai multe planuri (pe plan emoţional şi mental, nu doar profesional) şi trebuie să oferi o sursă inepuizabilă de stimuli care să se încadreze perfect în sistemul lor emoţional şi cognitiv.

Eşti în stare să-ţi dozezi leadershipul cu acest gen de energie, cu acea fineţe extraordinară de a reda oamenilor adevărata lor natură? Îi ajuţi pe oameni să-şi intensifice puterea emoţională prin descoperirea adevărului din ei înşişi?

Concluzie: În leadership resursele umane au un rol deosebit. Oamenii sunt diferiţi în ceea ce priveşte gândirea, concepţiile şi modalităţile de acţiune. Rolul unui lider este de a aduce la acelaşi numitor comun pe toţi aceia care l-au ales. Desigur, acest lucru este uneori foarte greu de realizat dacă nu există acea bunăvoinţă, acea disponibilitate sufletească şi bunătate de ambele părţi.

Dacă un lider va reuşi să îmbine armonios " modelingul sufletesc " cu îmbunătăţirea performanţelor, atunci el „va străluci fără să se stingă."

Strălucirea nestematei

On Octombrie 12, 2010

Luptă ca să străluceşti – dar fără a cădea în capcana puterii astfel obţinute.

Regele Persiei, Sharaman, avea planuri ambiţioase şi totodată convingerea că Dastan, fiul său adoptiv, era omul cel mai indicat să le ducă la îndeplinire. Dastan, supranumit "Leul din Persia" , reuşise printr-un adevărat tur de forţă să pătrundă în oraşul sfânt Alamut şi să deschidă porţile armatei regale ca aceasta să-l ocupe fără prea multe pierderi omeneşti.

În timp ce sărbătoreau victoria, regele Sharaman, care era întruparea celor mai preţuite virtuţi ale timpului acela: gândire clară şi ordonată, inteligenţă, generozitate, viziune, iscusinţă, înţelepciune şi mai presus de toate hotărâre, l-a felicitat pe Dastan pentru izbânda sa. Şi i-a dat o ultimă lecţie:

- Un om bun ar fi făcut ca tine Dastan, ar fi acţionat cu îndrăzneală şi curaj pentru izbândă şi cruţarea de vieţi. Însă un om mare ar fi oprit atacul de la bun început. Un om mare ar fi oprit ceea ce ştia că e greşit... indiferent a cui ar fi fost porunca. Tu puteai fi mai mult decât bun Dastan, puteai să fii mare...

Leadership: Modul de acţiune pe care eşti capabil să-l exerciţi într-un plan mai restrâns decât planul de ansamblu, trebuie privit sub raportul unor reglări de poziţie ca urmare a unei intervenţii de tip "take a second-look" ?

Fireşti consideraţii de la un spirit atât de pătrunzător. Ceea ce-l preocupa în primul rând pe regele Sharaman din filmul "Prince of Persia - The sands of time" nu era să-i insufle fiului său credinţă şi speranţă, ci să-l determine să se gândească mereu la evenimente şi la consecinţele lor.

Dastan era neîntrecut în curaj şi vitejie, ingenios şi inventiv, energic şi ambiţios, dar acestea nu-l salvau de la impresia proastă pe care a produs-o aliaţilor Persiei şi oamenilor din Alamut. Căci pentru toţi locuitorii Alamutului, el era văzut ca un uzurpator. Iar aşa cum Heliodor (din Vechiul Testament) intrând să jefuiască templul din Ierusalim a fost alungat de înger, tot astfel Dastan risca să fie alungat din Alamut şi poate chiar umilit în cele din urmă.

Pe o inscripţie dintr-un templu chinezesc stă scris: "O nestemată nu luceşte până n-o şlefuieşti." Un diamant, chiar dacă este acoperit de unul sau mai multe straturi de piatră, tot o nestemată rămâne. Însă acesta trebuie şlefuit pentru a da la o parte straturile respective şi pentru a scoate la iveală diamantul.

Sfatul regelui a servit numai pentru "şlefuirea" lui Dastan. Ceea ce a încercat de fapt să-i spună regele e că nu este deloc uşor să acţionezi împotriva simţului datoriei şi a celui dictat de propria inimă. L-a învăţat ce înseamnă tăria spiritului uman.

Leadership: Judecăţile tale se lovesc de limitări importante în ceea ce priveşte semnificaţia operei pe care eşti chemat s-o înfăptuieşti?

Pentru a fi un conducător desăvârşit nu-i de-ajuns să fii bun, trebuie să fii mare. Trebuie să faci loc unor idealuri mai înalte, unor formule cu semnificaţii general umane, nu doar să-ţi faci datoria. Trebuie să ştii cum să acţionezi pentru a-ţi transforma viziunea în realitate, evitând faptele care împiedică această transformare şi care îţi pot influenţa valoarea ta ca lider.

Concentrează-te asupra obiectivului principal în timp ce te gândeşti şi la toate celelalte, pentru ca gloria ta să cunoască o strălucire intensă. Ca un adevărat judecător, fii întotdeauna drept în hotărârile tale, dar şi omenos în acelaşi timp. Foloseşte-ţi toată priceperea pentru a nu eşua. Caci o hotărâre luată în pripă, bazată pe emoţii, îţi poate diminua influenţa şi îţi poate ştirbi autoritatea.

Limitarea cea mai cea mai grea pe care ţi-o impune urmarea directă a evenimentelor este obţinerea unei arii largi de autoritate care nu se manifestă în trăirea ta: "Eu sunt doar atât, nu mai mult ! "

Iar semnificaţia operei pe care eşti chemat s-o înfăptuieşti, înţeleasă doar de către cei înţelepţi, este să păstrezi o anumită nobleţe, de necontestat, fără să speri că eşti singurul din lume care cunoaşte arta de a deschide o cale nouă spre viitor.

Leadership: Îndrăzneşti să-ţi descătuşezi latura sensibilă, dând frâu liber propriei tale vulnerabilităţi?

Reţeta pentru un leadership ineficient este să faci deseori lucrurile greşit. Cucerit de idealuri înalte şi mânat de efemere iluzii ale ambiţiei sale, liderul îşi poate descătuşa latura sensibilă dând frâu liber propriei sale vulnerabilităţi. Un lider desăvârşit rămâne, însă, foarte ataşat realităţii, plecând de la observarea ei riguroasă şi pătrunzătoare. El pătrunde cu mintea evenimentele, apoi le filtrează prin suflet înainte de a lua hotărâri majore.

Mulţi oameni îşi imaginează că sunt lideri şi experţi, că deţin toate răspunsurile referitoare la modul în care trebuie să acţioneze. Dar celor mai mulţi le lipseşte "nestemata" care să le pună în valoare potenţialul. Ei sunt acoperiţi de imperfecţiuni care le rodează talentul şi-i împiedică să fie eficienţi în activităţile pe care le desfăşoară, respectiv în înţelegerea a ceea ce influenţează succesul lor pe termen lung.

Aici s-ar nimeri sfatul pe care mi l-a dat demult mama mea: "Luptă ca să străluceşti – dar fără a cădea în capcana puterii astfel obţinute".

Leadershipul cuprinde totalitatea lucrurilor mari pe care le înfăptuiești în numele unui ideal sfânt, din care trebuie să scazi mândria de a le deţine !

Concluzie: Aşa după cum valoarea unei nestemate creşte prin şlefuirea care-i sporeşte frumuseţea, tot aşa şi oamenii, dar mai ales liderii, trebuie să se "şlefuiască" pe parcursul vieţii pentru a-şi înlătura imperfecţiunile şi pentru a-şi domoli orgoliile.

Strălucirea unei senzaţii de redeşteptare

On Decembrie 17, 2016

Dezvoltă-te ca o consecinţă a observării dusă dincolo de constatările evidente, astfel încât să ajungi la conştiinţa unei noi dimensiuni.

Treceam cu mare uşurinţă de la o etapă la alta, când totul îşi pierdea sensul, precum forma unor enigme care nu mai trezeau suspiciunea, spunându-mi de atâtea ori, într-o continuă căutare a fiecărui strop de schimbare, că mă aşteptau alte întrebări, alte răspunsuri, la următoarea mea trecere printr-un bloc de „analiză" bazat pe transformarea unor cauze ascunse. Nimic din sensul lucrurilor pe care le adânceam, din enigmele pe care încercam să le desluşesc, nu părea să fie pe planul conştiinţei mele limitată în privinţa lucrurilor care o înconjoară, care parcă mă îndemna să adop o atitudine de retragere, la disponibilità di essere vulnerabili , şi să mă fac că nu văd, nu aud şi nu-mi pasă.

Cine a gustat o dată fremătătoarea plăcere a unor deplasări virtuale într-un spaţiu al abundenţei de culori, forme şi subiecte tari, cine a gustat beţia picantă, înspumată a unei asemenea evadări nechibzuite din real, acela arde de dorinţa de a o resimţi mereu şi mereu, acţionând cu deplinătate asupra unui sistem de redefinire personală.

Ceea ce observam în jurul meu, cu atenţie dar şi cu o oarecare doză de incertitudine, lucrurile care mă asaltau prin însăşi varietatea lor atât de amplă, era direct proporţional cu intrarea într-un soi de ficţiune a lui John Fowles, plină de măşti, decoruri complicate şi zeci de ipostaze diferite. Practic, trăiam senzaţia unei călătorii fantastice spre un ţinut familiar, dar fără să ştiu de unde să încep, cu ce să încep odată ajuns la destinaţie.

Eram exact că tipa aia, Rachel, din filmul "Fata din tren" care merge în fiecare dimineaţă cu acelaşi tren spre o destinaţie cunoscută. Vede mereu aceleaşi lucruri, îşi rememorează altele, şi viaţa i se pare trecută de orice bucurie, nicio aşteptare nu-i mai face inima să bată cu putere. Viaţa îi pare insipidă, o dramă fără sfârşit. Până când într-o zi vede ceva ce o şochează. Totul se schimbă şi Rachel are şansa de a lua parte la vieţile pe care le-a observat doar de pe margine.

Leadership: Experienţa pe care o trăieşti prin parcurgerea distanţei de la un punct la altul are ca principal determinant promisiunea unei revelaţii particulare, de tipul: "Sunt altcineva decât sunt în realitate" ?

Şi, dintr-o dată, totul se schimbă, lucrurile capătă un sens, viaţa începe să fie trăită cu sufletul la gură. Parafrazând un mare scriitor, un asemenea om se aruncă iar şi iar în valurile sulfuroase, înflăcărate, ale chinurilor devorante, numai ca să retrăiască acest "fermecător simţământ al propriei importanţe", această beţie aurie care înlocuieşte şi întrece de mii de ori toate stimulentele vulgare, ale alcoolului şi nicotinei.

De fapt, era un proces de reformare personală prin exercitarea unor forţe de interacţiune cu un fel de stare de deplinătate, senzaţia de nesfârşire a imaginarului, de-a lungul mai multor coridoare, cu caracter de îndumnezeire în raport cu accesoriile unui timp care nu primeşte pomană. De aici se iniţia schiţarea tot mai amplă a profilului unui sublim personaj, unui portret plin de autenticitate care putea să facă cinste dimensiunii ideale a unei noi conştiinţe.

Senzaţia că totul era foarte adevărat şi revelator, ca într-un soi de realitate provenită dintr-o forţă neîmblânzită, senzaţia de a fi ceva, de a fi făcut ceva important care atrage toată această lumină a raţionalităţii ineluctabile într-un loc presupus infailibil, când între ultimul grad al desăvârşirii şi primul grad al îndoielii este imposibil să se efectueze un calcul direct, părea să-mi dezvăluie ceva. Ceva cu conotaţii simbolice, livreşti, magice.

Totuşi, aş vrea să nu mă ia iar pe nepregătite o astfel de senzaţie, căci atunci când încerci să fii mai mult decât eşti, încet încet te îndepărtezi chiar şi de malul revelaţiei şi ajungi să te scufunzi în altcineva decât cine eşti.

Leadership: Poţi să te angajezi într-un proces de reformare personală prin exercitarea unor forţe de interacţiune cu un fel de stare perfectă, din care să răsară o nouă conștiință?

În celebrul roman "Magicianul", scriitorul John Fowles compară această senzaţie pe care o trăiam şi eu, cu o stea aflată nu mai aproape, dar într-o stare de izolare, ca atunci când este privită prin telescop:

"Steaua nu făcea parte dintr-o constelaţie, plutea singură în spaţiul negru-albăstrui, într-un vid. Mi-amintesc cum am văzut steaua pe un glob de lumină albă, care produce şi absoarbe spaţiul în care se află, eu aflându-mă la celălalt capăt, suspendat într-un spaţiu de întuneric. Eu priveam steaua, steaua mă privea pe mine. Ne aflam în poziţie egală, în echilibru, două dimensiuni egale, dacă se poate vorbi de conştiinţa unei anume dimensiuni. A durat parcă mult, nu ştiu cât. Două corpuri suspendate în acelaşi fel, opuse în acelaşi fel, lipsite de semnificaţie şi de efect. Senzaţia de frumos, de moral, de divin, de geometrie erau înlocuite de senzaţia de situaţie aşa cum o percepe orice animal."

Cel ce cunoaște și simte natura și farmecul revelaţiilor, care uneori are urmări la nivel simbolic toată viaţa, se lasă deseori plimbat încoace și încolo în călătoriile succesivelor sale frământări existenţiale, părăsind aleile formelor de trăire obișnuite. El caută în permanenţă un răspuns la chinuitoarele sale întrebări existenţiale prin extinderea unui mod de a se identifica cu o imagine ideală, o imagine pe care ar vrea s-o realizeze sau care pretinde a fi speranţa, înţelepciunea şi înţelegerea dincolo de evident şi fizic.

Înainte de a defini leadershipul, exclusiv dependent de elementele de percepţie obiectivă asupra realităţii pe care o compui şi o reprezinţi, este nevoie de o încercare de definire a concepției unei imagini despre care ai putea zice: uite, pe-asta aş putea s-o văd doar cufundându-mă într-o anumită stare, într-un alt rol, într-un loc în care să mă regăsesc şi care să mă ajute să îmi depăşesc neîmplinirile.

Omul care experimentează posibilitatea de a observa totul din perspectiva explorării unei imagini dintr-un alt unghi, aplicată unei constante simbolice, va pleda întotdeauna pentru existența unei alte dimensiuni, spirituală, mai plină de sens, dincolo de cea a lumii percepute în mod obișnuit.

Iar omul care-şi duce gândirea la un nivel mai înalt este cel ce se formează și se impune ca o consecinţă a observării dusă dincolo de constatările evidente, reuşind astfel să ajungă la conştiinţa unei noi dimensiuni. O dimensiune a ceea ce eşti care rezultă din conţinutul unui act de trăire individual.

Iar un asemenea act de trăire evoluează în funcție de ceea ce percepi prin comparație cu ceva care există prin lucrurile pe care le urmăreşti, prin aspectele care îți hrănesc inspirația.

Strălucirea unei senzaţii de redeşteptare evidenţiază acea nemărginire de simţiri, proprie omului care vrea să-şi continue cunoaşterea dincolo de ceea constituie, la un moment dat, aparenţă. Astfel se iniţiază schiţarea tot mai amplă a profilului unui sublim personaj, unui portret plin de autenticitate care poate să facă cinste dimensiunii ideale a unei noi conştiinţe.

Strange Personality

On Octombrie 09, 2017

În confruntarea cu tine însuți poți ieși învingător doar dacă adevărurile la care te raportezi nu sunt străfulgerate de sentimentul acut al conștiinței încărcate.

Am totul în mine, împrăștiat, fără răspuns, provenit dintr-o cunoaştere pe care numai Dumnezeu o înțelege, pe care doctorii ar putea-o diagnostica greșit drept o boală a sistemului nervos, care înnebunește sau strigă a disperare. O cunoaştere pe care sfinții ar lua-o drept auto-condamnare, o închipuire ce nu trebuie încurajată, fiind respinsă de la bun început ca neîntemeiată.

Însă una pe care artiștii, încercați de lupta dintre lumini şi umbre, în care există mereu o cale de mijloc pentru a îmbina cele două contrarii, dând rotunjime figurilor, o salută cu respect ca valabilă în propria ei originalitate.

Când încerci să te înțelegi, așa cum ar face-o un artist angrenat într-un proiect nebunesc, asumând un pariu existențial și creator, de recuperare a întrebărilor și răspunsurilor pierdute înăuntrul tău, îți încarci imaginarul și realul de prezența unui obstacol numit: prejudecată. Așa se explică neliniștea, febrilitatea, agitația sufletească.

Un lider adevărat, asemenea unui arhitect vizionar, integrează în viziunea sa nivelurile de manifestare ale gândurilor sale pentru a construi un tot armonios, rafinând fiecare detaliu până la esența sa.

Vulnerabil în direcţia închipuirilor firești, a căror măsură conduce dincolo de dispoziția nevrotică, în direcţia minimei rezistențe la nervi, fără vreo legătură cu blânda comparație între realitatea empirică şi iluzorie, simt cu toată căldura acea drăgălașă arătare a visului născocit de luciditatea unei minți fantastice. O mică confesiune a unui gând de Creator, unde domnește imposibilul, lăsându-şi amprenta replicii originale la toate nivelurile sale de manifestare.

Numai o trăsătura de penel reușește o sublimă surprindere a stării de haos lăuntric, acolo de unde începe lupta pentru o artă orientată spre o construcție a vieții şi unde se termină resemnarea în fata rațiunii pure. Identitatea ascunsă pe care mi-o asum, îndesată într-un tremur interior, este o implicită auto-condamnare la iadul de a mă vedea mic, cu propriile limite, simţindu-mă asemenea unui orfan, singur în faţa neantului.

Leadership: Poți să asiguri relevanța propriilor experiențe de explorare a sinelui în vederea lămuririi înțelesului acordat ideii de confidențialitate, pe măsură ce mesajul artei tale va fi adâncit în conştiinţa unei unui observator rezonabil?

Necunoscutul care pregătește îndelung cuvântul scris este experiența unei rătăciri asumate, linia de start a unei curse tulburi sub un cer acoperit de nori, un gest al performanței utopice cu multe înțelesuri, o căutare îndârjită a Tainei care se va destăinui cândva, tot atât de declanșatoare de tensiuni, neliniști, impregnări negative şi blocaje, precum adâncul unei prăpăstii chinuitoare.

În sfârșit, iată-mă modelator al conștiinței încărcate de puterea cu care Forța Divină m-a înzestrat de la naștere, după pofta inimii mele, dar nu după regulile rațiunii coerente care te ghidează numai după ceea ce mintea poate explica.

Rațiunii i se adaugă o viziune coerentă şi bine definită pentru viitor, modelând regulile explicate cu ajutorul artei raportată la conştiinţa Divină, forța puterii mele de creaţie, pornind din dreptul inimii şi unindu-se cu mintea plină de idei, nu de programări. Iată-mă în sfârșit, înzestrat cu mintea care pofteşte la darul de a fi înălţată la rang de experienţă de creaţie, dar prinsă într-un blocaj numit "confidenţialitate", adică incapacitatea de a oferi lumii mai mult decât este în stare inima să aducă în prim planul unei treziri spirituale.

Confidențialitatea este o mărturisire a unei experiențe trăite intens şi profund, prin referire la un transcendent „ezoteric", având ca sursă de inspirație o motivare puternică venită dintr-un alt nivel al realității. Un nivel în care pot fi produse schimbări profunde de ordin moral, psihologic, spiritual sau intelectual, într-o interpretare imaginativă, cum ar fi: „ mă simt atins de un fior mistic ".

Leadership: Tinzi să posezi o oarecare pertinență pentru gândirea promovată ca pe o îngăduință a psihicului şi a spiritului în mijlocul unei arte care îşi găseşte corespondenţa în interiorul unui monolog de o poetică existenţială aparte?

Am tot timpul în vedere simbolistica creației marelui scriitor Victor Hugo care a dedicat mereu câte un monolog ființei absente sau prezente în marele Tot spiritual, făcând apel la emoții conceptualizate ori obiectualizate, un monolog despre izolarea poetului în lumea gândurilor sale. Nu încetez să-mi aprofundez gândurile precum m-aş raporta la măreţia creaţiei divine, adoptând o tehnică de redare a importanţei artei prin intermediul unei simbolistici a lucrurilor din jur şi, mai cu seamă, printr-o surprinzătoare comunicare afectivă cu peisajul unui soare arzător, al unui vârf de munte, sau al unui basm frumos.

Un scriitor mare este asemenea unui artist genial care, dedicându-şi timpul plăsmuirii de emoții în unicitatea coloristicii, trebuie să se izoleze mai întâi într-un monolog adresat posterităţii, departe de felurite valori obiectualizate care îi elimină prezenţa din lumina cu totul nouă a ansamblului creaţiei, distrugând orice comuniune cu Dumnezeu. Culoarea este lupta eroică a unui suflet care se împotriveşte tuturor jumătăţilor de măsură.

Recunoscând faptul că lângă dreptul omului, sau cel puțin pe lângă el, este dreptul sufletului, Hugo şi-a îndreptat toată puterea minții spre căile misterioase ale etapelor firești din existența cea mai profundă, ale facerii de bine, ale vieții spirituale, ale Providenței, acest lung șir fiind singurul ritm al realităților sale. După părerea sa, în miezul oricărui fenomen există întotdeauna o lege şi o personalitate:

„Zdrobirea fanatismelor şi respectul adânc față de infinit, iată ce urmărește legea. Să nu ne mărginim a ne închina arborelui creației şi a contempla uriașele lui ramuri pline de stele. Avem o datorie: să prelucrăm sufletul omului, să apărăm misterul împotriva minunilor, să adorăm neînțelesul şi să respingem absurdul, să nu recunoaștem din ceea ce nu se poate explica decât ceea ce e necesar, să însănătoșim credința, să îndepărtăm superstițiile din calea religiei, să-l curățăm de omizi pe Dumnezeu."

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te judeci după ritmul gândirii şi al gradului de înțelegere a fiecărei limitări pe care o dă propria putere de apreciere a artei interpretative, alături de "ingenium" ?

Dacă cineva m-ar judeca numai după ritmul gândirii şi al gradului de înțelegere a fiecărei limitări, alături de ingenium , şi nu după faptele de fidelitate față de idealul echilibrului, acceptat ca valoare în sine, autonomă, pledând pentru libertatea imaginativă a artistului, probabil s-ar simți vrednic şi liber de a putea alcătui o lege. De a lega împreună pe "da" şi pe "nu", după cum îi place. Da-ul unei conștiințe bune față de Dumnezeu şi Nu-ul unei critici lucide, al unei minți nonconformiste.

Dar mai întâi el trebuie să posede o anumită pertinență pentru gândirea promovată ca pe o îngăduință a psihicului şi a spiritului de a judeca binele şi răul, deosebindu-le prin ceea ce mărturiseşti despre tine în numele a ceva mai presus de tine. O pertinență care, după părerea mea, trebuie să o încerce toți oamenii în faţa adevărurilor scoase la iveală de acest capitol al vieții, aferent nivelului de maturizare artistică: Coerența Destinală sau „To be nobody but yourself”.

Greșeala care te poate trage în jos în mod constant are ca și caracteristică definitorie tendința de a judeca propria „excepție” de fond ridicând-o la rang de cauză. Însă fără a cunoaște, fără a avea răbdarea de a înțelege, fără a trece prin filtrul conștiinței și psihicului aspectele care te împing să tragi în grabă concluzii. Aici, trebuie să amintim de termenul "ingenium", desemnând talentul imens al unui artist, devenit scriitor, care are răbdarea şi datoria de a se evalua în funcţie de monologul pe care îl construieşte în jurul frumuseţii perene a artei.

Puterea de apreciere a artei interpretative rezidă din expresivitatea creaţiei pe care o poţi ridica la rang de conştiinţă prin prezenţa monologului liric adresat unui personaj care te intrigă sau te fascinează, reflectat sub forma apelurilor către posteritate.

Conform wikipedia, în genul liric domină viziunea și transfigurarea artistică, autorul apelând la tehnici aluzive şi asociative, creând un univers de mare forță de sugestie ce se adresează sensibilității cititorului.

Strange Personality are sensul de concluzie la ceea ce ți se întâmplă când ești pus în dificultatea de a-ți judeca singur autenticitatea, limitele, calitățile, valorile și realitatea. Reacția ta în fața oricăror sub așteptări poate fi oricare, de la indiferență la o explozie de emoție copleșitoare, una de genul „sigur mă înșel” ori, pur şi simplu: „nu pot să cred”.

În confruntarea cu tine însuți poți ieși învingător doar dacă adevărurile la care te raportezi nu sunt străfulgerate de sentimentul acut al conștiinței încărcate.

Strigătul imperceptibil al inimii posedate de duhurile unei lumi deşarte (II)

On Ianuarie 10, 2014

Concentreaza-te asupra a ceea ce te face special, pledând pentru asumarea a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă în cadrul unei realităţi care scapă înţelegerii depline pe moment.

În loc să izbucnească într-o reacţie incontrolabilă de supărare, Marie îşi sporeşte puterile de a-l înţelege pe Jason, luptând cu îndârjire pentru a-i învinge fobiile şi pentru a-l convinge de veridicitatea sentimentelor ei – nu-l îndepărtează niciodată de lângă ea. Mai mult decât atât, ea se împotriveşte elementelor aparent primejdioase ale firii lui, ajungând să-l cunoască sub cele două aspecte esenţiale ale sale: statornicia şi tăria de caracter, pe care le intuieşte la nivel profund.

Jason refuză să-şi amintească trecutul, dar intuieşte o bună bucată din ceea ce i s-a întâmplat înainte de tragicul accident.

Chimia te prinde și nu te lasă. Marie îşi pune în joc toate trăirile. Raza de convergenţă a seriei de puteri lăuntrice nestinse se orientează către punctul de sprijin al identităţii lui Bourne, atingând acel element fragil care îl constituie siguranţa de sine scăzută. Influenţa ei tinde nu doar spre crearea unui amestec de stări şi sentimente în jurul căruia el să graviteze, ci spre obţinerea unei stabilizări lăuntrice solide prin intensitate. Iar această intensitate trebuie alimentată de cele mai subtile vibraţii, care să declanşeze instantaneu o reacţie de solidarizare, acea chimie care te prinde și nu te lasă.

"Mă lupt pentru viaţa mea ! Pentru vieţile noastre ! Poţi gândi şi simţi, Jason ! Hai, gândeşte ! Simte ! Simte acum ! Uită-te la mine şi spune-mi că ai privit în interiorul tău şi ştii fără dubii că eşti un asasin. Dacă nu poţi, atunci stai lângă mine şi lasă-mă să te ajut. Şi, iubeşte-mă ! Pentru Dumnezeu, iubeşte-mă, Jason ! "

Inima femeii dă imediat alarma atunci când flăcările disperării duse până la paroxism se înalţă deasupra slăbiciunilor omului de lângă ea. Abia acum dimensiunea intermediară a naturii ei - voinţa de pătrundere - poate fi luată în considerare, măsurând noi valori.

Reacţia ta în faţa evenimentelor pe care nu le poţi controla depinde de modul cum te raportezi la suferinţa pe care o simt ceilalţi în prezenţa ta.

Versiunea a ceea ce îl face pe un om special este o continuare a reacţiei pe care el o are în faţa unei realităţi care scapă înţelegerii depline pe moment. A conştientiza acest moment înseamnă să te laşi purtat printr-o întreagă experienţă a simţurilor, a emoţiilor, a gândurilor, care parcă sunt mai vii în ecuaţia reacţiei de descompunere a realităţii în factori de respingere sau de atracţie.

Cine vrea să afle adevărata măsură a abilităţilor sale de a accelera dezvoltarea celor de lângă el, este invitat să privească o scenă pe care evoluează suflete absolut diferite unul de celălalt, în complexitatea unei lumi recreate ca un întreg unitar. Întregul unei stări de spirit care rezidă din tonurile vii ale unei părţi din cadrul nevoii de a-şi împărtăşi, comunica şi exprima sentimentele: "Mă lupt pentru viaţa mea ! Pentru vieţile noastre ! "

Dintotdeauna au existat profunde comunicări și colaborări fecunde între conștiință și realitate, între simțuri și rațiune, între funcționalitate și armonie, între cele două constante "a lupta" și "a nu suporta durerea" - iar datoria liderului este să le stropească cu multă însuflețire și vie convingere.

Leadership: Bogăţia ta sufletească se ridică până la justificarea creată de proiecţia unei senzaţii "de a fi sub presiune", sub constrângerea unei imagini de sine pe care ceilalţi o consideră ca fiind proba unei sensibilităţi inedite?

Câte eforturi, cât entuziasm pune omul în înţelegerea celor mai tăinuite lucruri despre sine, înainte de a-i evalua pe ceilalţi şi de a se pune în locul lor? Aceasta este întrebarea de care depinde intersectarea leadershipului de realitatea trăită de individ, percepută deseori în mod intangibil.

Cine își propune să evalueze leadershipul, prin prisma unei analize a tendinţelor de personalizare ale omului, trebuie să urmărească existența conștientizată a unor proporții reale de transmisie a particularităților din structura lui funcţională. Precum capacitatea de a se deschide către un adevăr ulterior care să fie în stare să explice sensul vieţii, sau capacitatea de a se încrede în altă conştiinţă şi de a i se supune acesteia.

Imaginea de sine este reflexia a ceea ce transmiţi altora prin felul tău de a fi, prin vorbe şi gesturi, atunci când ei te consideră o versiune mai bună a lor.

A descifra singur harta omului, pătrunzând în lumea plină de semnificaţii şi emoţii care stabileşte regula lui de funcţionare, este primul pas spre descoperirea acelei realităţi de o surprinzătoare complexitate, comparabilă cu bec ergonomic care pâlpâie până atinge temperatura optimă, după care se stabilizează şi funcţionează la parametri normali.

Surprinzând acele intensităţi, sentimente trăite cu sinceritate şi exprimate cu nonşalanţă de om de-a lungul întregii tale incursiuni în psihologia personalităţii lui (greu descris pentru că se află în continuă schimbare) vei putea să mişti dublul resort interior care dă culoare vieţii sale şi care totodată îl conduce către un triumf profesional.

Acest resort, pe de o parte îi confirmă omului direcţia de dezvoltare. Pe de altă parte îi dă posibilitatea să aducă la împlinire, prin tot ce trăieşte şi simte, la fel de firesc cum înfloresc florile și pomii în primăvară, acel ideal de armonie ce-l poate călăuzi pe potecile întortocheate ale existenţei atât de provocatoare.

Sensibilitatea de care dă dovadă un lider se măsoară prin sacrificiul de sine făcut în numele unui alte exigenţe importante a vieţii, anume experienţa de a trăi suferinţa celorlalţi ca pe o etapă necesară pentru a deveni o persoană mai puternică.

Strigătul imperceptibil al inimii posedate de duhurile unei lumi deşarte semnifică acea dorinţă imperioasă, dublată de o voinţă puternică de a induce schimbări benefice în modul de gândire şi acţiune a oamenilor, în vederea realizării idealurilor comune.

Avea dreptate cine spunea: „Identitatea de sine este redusă la o poveste pe care ţii mereu să o spui în minte: Eu şi povestea mea - în momentele de luciditate."

Ca să percepi strigătul de ajutor al omului supus efectului de pierdere a identităţii de sine, pune-ţi în joc toate trăirile şi încearcă să generezi o reacţie de tip emoţional care să învioreze starea lui de spirit.

Strigătul imperceptibil al inimii posedate de duhurile unei lumi deşarte (I)

On Ianuarie 10, 2014

Explorează cu atenţie necunoscutul din om, pentru a găsi într-însul acea lume lăuntrică care poate da frâu liber reîntregirii individualităţii sale.

"Cine naiba te crezi?" strigă Marie Jacques cu voce neliniştită, lovită de mii de sentimente, înţepătoare ca nişte ace fine, bine înfipte pe trupul plin de freamăt. Pot oare ele să deblocheze circuitele energetice latente ce funcţionează dizarmonios în omul pe care îl iubeşte?

" Sunt un om care ucide oamenii pentru bani. Guvernele mă vor mort. Canadienii mă vor mort. Şi Carlos la fel. Gândeşte-te la asta ! " răspunde Jason Bourne, dezorientat de trecutul incert, plin de rătăciri şi de întuneric, în care nu poate pătrunde nimeni, nici chiar el însuşi. Câte eforturi, câtă determinare pune el în înţelegerea celor mai tăinuite lucruri despre sine.

Dar femeia hotărâtă are în buzunarul inimii ei o hartă a omului, o lume plină de semnificaţii şi emoţii, cu tot cu regula ei de funcţionare. Numai ea cunoaşte dragostea în formele ei cele mai nobile, partea curată, nemărginită, care cere sacrificiu şi îndurare. Numai femeia cu adevărat iubitoare percepe strigătul înălţat de un suflet care luptă cu întunericul, cu duhurile unei lumi deşarte. Numai ea deţine cheia transformării interioare a lui Bourne. Dar pentru ca transformarea lui să fie completă şi trăită cu toate simţurile, cu toată convingerea, trebuie ca sursa vitală a tuturor energiilor, speranţelor şi aspiraţiilor ei, precis direcţionate, să genereze o reacţie pozitivă.

Toate aceste forţe de intervenţie care pot echilibra sufletul omului aruncat de trecut într-un spaţiu derutant, imposibil de controlat, se află în ea însăşi, în proporţii stricte, benefice. Ele pot neutraliza agenţii inflamabili, orice pornire, orice zbucium, orice tristețe, orice neîmplinire și orice durere, numai dacă mişcă resortul interior - tăria lui sufletească.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dovedeşti valoarea inteligenţei emoţionale într-un moment definitoriu al vieţii care se înscrie în evoluţia ta ca un simulacru dureros al unei tragedii în plină expansiune?

Inteligenţa emoţională de care a făcut dovada Marie Jacques a constat în capacitatea de a face o corelaţie între ceea ce ştia despre viaţa lui Jason Bourne şi ceea ce i-a rămas interzis să afle într-un moment de primejdie, fără să se lase intimidată de efectele unei eventuale tragedii. Aşadar, inteligenţa emoţională este strâns legată de decizia pe care eşti gata s-o iei cu riscul vieţii atunci când tot ceea ce trăieşti în mjlocul evenimentelor are un ecou de mare anvergură în sufletul altei persoane.

La unul din webinarii am spus că, pentru a înțelege leadershipul, trebuie să pășești tot mai mult în grădina plină de tentații sufletești, să urmărești evoluţia seminţelor viitoarelor transformări ale omului, să oferi multă înțelegere falselor valori, să recunoști ceea ce dă culoare inclinațiilor, să presari multă lumină peste frământările existențiale. Să observi diferențele existente în modul de formare a personalităţii, să decodifici energia care permite dezvoltarea conştiinţei de sine. Să tratezi corespunzător fiecare parte componentă a resorturilor interioare care modelează condițiile de manifestare ale omului, cele care sunt ori care nu sunt resimţite.

După care trebuie să iei un hârleț și să sapi cât mai multe gropi la distanțe egale astfel încât să nu se suprapună cele două tendințe în principiu independente, de izolare sau integrare. Și în fiecare dintre aceste gropi să torni din abundență, cu o puternică motivație, multe accepțiuni și sensuri. Astfel încât, pe fondul lucrării intensive cu propriile convingeri, să stabilizezi suprafaţa solului care afectează negativ fertilitatea resurselor trebuincioase rentabilităţii capitalului moral al relaţiilor sociale.

Iar acest lucru este posibil numai printr-o intensă acţiune de reînnoire a caracteristicilor cele mai relevante şi mai folositoare devenirii omului, prevenind eroziunile libertăţii sale personale de a gândi, simţi şi acţiona potrivit nevoilor, înclinaţiilor, intereselor sale care joacă un rol esenţial în gestionarea eficientă a întregului său potenţial de funcţionare.

Cine vrea să înţeleagă leadershipul printr-o explorare amplă a psihologiei umane, care se măsoară deseori printr-o împărtăşire a durerii sau a bucuriei, trebuie să abordeze în sens propriu acea profundă identificare a omului cu o cauză anumită, care nu are neapărat o finalitate, rămânând o izbucnire solitară.

Cine vrea să dezvolte un leadership care se sprijină pe pilonii înalţi al înţelegerii profunzimii omului, trebuie pornească într-o căutare a identităţii care spune: „ Nu te închina unei realităţi din care a fost omisă viziunea şi influenţa ta asupra ei. "

Strigătul imperceptibil al inimii posedate de duhurile unei lumi deşarte este acea manifestare a durerii pricinuite de o rătăcire care duce pe om la aprecieri greşite asupra situaţiilor în care se află, şi asupra potenţialului de asumare a propriei identităţi.

Strigătul sfâşietor al misterului care îşi revarsă labirinturile

On Februarie 19, 2017

Fii un căutător al sensului propriului tău mister, exprimându-ţi scopul şi nevoile prin intermediul unui "înger".

Priveam cu teamă în jurul meu, împovărat de tăcerea mângâierii nopții. Priveam în sensul unei potriviri a inspiraţiei în bogata tapiserie a unei trăiri aparte, pe schema unei obsesii ce înfrunta înălţimile unei uriaşe măreții. Cu greutate, am înţeles cât valorează corelaţia dintre şoc şi motivaţie, dintre mesaj şi comunicare. M-am recunoscut drept altcineva în braţele întunericului, în această perfectă non-acţiune conformă cu anumite legi universale, un pic diferit, mai inspirat de universul fictiv al unui joc de-a ceva necunoscut.

Ştiu că nimeni nu ar vrea spaimele altuia când le are pe ale lui în aşteptare. Ştiu că nu va mai trebui să trec prin şoc o experienţă unică, măsurabilă tocmai datorită reducerii clarităţii, căreia îi corespunde tentaţia de a intra în lupta egoului, de a mă retrage în planul secund al unui subiect multiplu cu diferite termene de finalizare.

Mai cu seamă, nu doresc nimănui să încerce o asemenea tentaţie a expresivităţii aflate sub zodia unei exteriorităţi care-l depăşeşte pe om prin puterea închipuirii. Condiţionându-l la o perpetuă reflecţie asupra unei lecţii de nesomn, ca o formă de manifestare a somnambulismului, specifică epocii internetului, pentru a îndeplini rolurile neobişnuite ale nevoii de a birui strigătul sfâşietor al misterului care îşi revarsă labirinturile.

Leadership: Poţi să desluşeşti însemnătatea particulară a demersului de conştientizare a gândurilor şi a stărilor tale interioare, conferită de apartenenţa ta la o altă realitate, superioară celei contingente, neesenţiale, căreia îi aparţin celelalte fiinţe?

Dintre toate artele gândirii, meditaţia în întuneric nu se împotrivea încadrării conţinutului ei în rubricile înguste ale profilului de Révélateur des vérités , în momentul de referinţă al unei luni pline. Se vede că mă atrăgea ceva fantomatic, misterios şi plin de energie, plin de legendă, ce părea fi creat într-o altă lume, care conjuga activitatea forţelor şi capacităţile omului viu.

Trăiam acel moment ca şi când cineva şi-ar fi făcut simţită prezenţa în preajma mea, cu cât mai ireal cu atât mai concret, cu rol de intensificator al circulaţiei sanguine, un fel de străfulgerare a unui limbaj universal al simţurilor şi al raţiunii, ceva care mă ridica deasupra propriilor mele teorii şi mă izbea în focul magic al înţelesurilor supralumeşti, desfăşurate în surdină, în numele unei superstiţii.

Dacă m-aş fi transpus o clipă într-un personaj al scriitorului Colin Falconer, din romanul "Aztec", probabil la urechile mele ar fi ajuns aceste cuvinte, motivate de o realitate care nu poate fi epuizată niciodată: "Cineva mi-ai spus odată că viaţa este doar un vis şi durează o clipă. Toate spaimele noastre sunt ca umbrele făcute pe perete de mâna unui copil. Trebuie să ne lăsăm conduşi de inimile noastre. În cele din urmă, nu contează nimic, oricum."

Leadership: Îți intensifici pornirea de a crea un Om Nou, printr-o oglindire produsă în virtutea unei obsesii personalizate?

Într-o noapte, Nicolas Flamel, creatorul Pietrei Filozofale, a avut un vis. Cerul se deschisese pentru a lăsa să coboare pe pământ un spirit luminos. Îngerul ținea în mâini o carte cu copertă strălucitoare de aramă. Vocea lui caldă, cu timbru sublim, s-a concentrat într-un mesaj cu puternic impact emoţional:

- Priveşte această carte, Nicolas. Ţi se pare necunoscută, ţie, ca şi tuturor celorlalţi oameni. Dar într-o zi vei vedea în ea ceea ce trebuie să vezi şi vei şti ceea ce nimeni altul nu ştie..

O umbră de fiecare dată e ceva rar, dar şi mai rar este să faci din ea o sursă de lumină. Fără ea nu ai mai explora puterea prin care intelectul se vede pe sine. Fără ea nu ai mai putea veghea depărtări neştiute, nu ai mai trăi sentimente unice ca nişte apăsări sau senzaţii de plenitudine, în lipsa unei reprezentări clare a ceea ce înseamnă apartenența la spațiul unei minuni care şi ea, la rândul ei, respiră un aer particular: mirajul plin de adrenalină al unei utopii eliberatoare.

Personalitatea umană se înscrie în structurile de comandă ale unei experiențe psihologice. Ea se cere abordată ca unitate distinctă între trăsăturile de temperament, ce se găsesc în legătură indestructibilă cu situaţia în care te afli, și trăirile de tip halucinator care dau naştere în mod hotărâtor acelui sentiment de posibilă întregire şi desăvârşire, în prezenţa unei forţe închipuite sau a unui fenomen enigmatic.

Să te conectezi la o asemenea forță, la un asemenea fenomen, la o energie de vibraţie înaltă, înseamnă să dai un fir narativ nou şi plin de însemnătate existenței tale. A parcurge un asemenea fir, corelat cu tendinţa de a fi dependent de o nevoie stringentă de concepţie asupra sinelui, înseamnă să simulezi complexitatea unei faze de dezvoltare sub forma unei construcții a fanteziei.

Omul Nou este o creație a minţii, o formă a fanteziei din care nu vrei să te mai desprinzi, condiţionându-te la o perpetuă reflecţie vis-a-vis de felul în care poţi contribui la schimbarea realităţii lumii din jur.

Dacă vrei să-ți cizelezi modul de-a gândi şi să-ţi lărgeşti viziunea despre tine, atunci fii un căutător al sensului propriului tău mister. Joacă-ţi rolul în obsesia personalizată a unei identități cât mai conforme cu un model de fantezie care nu a mai fost niciodată abordat, dar care duce la o creștere în importanță a valorii de cineast. Regizează-ţi bine profilul şi fă din tine visul tău preferat. Exprimă-ţi scopul şi nevoile prin intermediul unui “înger”.

Omul Nou este chemat a da noţiunii de "experienţă psihologică" înţelesul cuvenit reprezentării cunoaşterii unei fiinţe care, expunându-se contrastului dintre aparenţă şi esenţă, doreşte să ne ţină trează speranţa şi să ne întărească curajul libertăţii de a gândi mai departe în limitele lumii acesteia.

Strigătul sfâşietor al misterului care îşi revarsă labirinturile este acea măsură a tipului de nuanţă psihologică care utilizează speculaţia găsirii unui răspuns la întrebarea: „Ce trebuie să vezi ca să afli ceea ce nimeni altul nu ştie”?

Lasă-ți mintea să evadeze într-un univers himeric. Lasă-te târât într-un vârtej febril de puterea unui vis revelator. Iar atunci când vei fi pregătit, ți se va arăta un înger.

Structura intim emoţională

On Aprilie 07, 2009

Încearcă să găseşti un mijloc de a experimenta frecvențele și dimensiunile mai înalte ale conștiinței și ale vieții, prin intermediul a ceea ce luminează minţile care trăiesc în viziunea realităţii tale.

Montajul regizorului rus Serghei Eisenstein realizează îmbinarea existenţei obiective a unui fenomen de patriotism cu atitudinea subiectivă a creatorului lui, iar marele compozitor Prokofief percepe structura intim emoţională şi îşi acordează propria sensibilitate cu ea. Tocmai pentru reuşita acestei acordări se întâmplă ca Prokofiev să-şi modifice muzica dacă imaginea o cere, după cum Eisenstein nu ezită să facă modificări în montaj pentru a permite muzicii să-şi spună cuvântul.

Singura neînţelegere se va ivi atunci când toată muzica va fi terminată. Eisenstein îl roagă pe Prokofiev să compună o uvertură. Compozitorul refuză: deoarece filmul începe cu un episod tragic, uvertura ar trebui să fie triumfal-eroică şi nu vede cum s-ar putea face trecerea dintre aceste două muzici diferite. Este dispus, declară el, să scrie oricâtă muzică, dar considerentele artistice îl împiedică să o scrie pe aceasta.

Eisenstein insistă totuşi. Atunci Prokofiev acceptă, însă numai cu condiţia ca regizorul să schimbe episodul trist de la începutul filmului. Dar, deoarece Eisenstein crede că nu se mai poate schimba planul de montaj, filmul rămâne fără uvertura şi genericul se proiectează pe linişte. Totuşi, mulţi comentatori văd aici un efect special urmărit de Eisenstein. *

Leadership: Tu poţi să realizezi îmbinarea existenţei obiective a unui fenomen de actualitate cu atitudinea subiectivă a creatorului care percepe structura intim emoţională a altor oameni şi îşi acordează propria sensibilitate cu ea?

În cinematografie, trecerea dintre două muzici diferite, la fel ca trecerea de la o temă la alta, este de fapt trecerea de la atitudinea subiectivă a creatorului la structura intim emoţională a celorlalţi oameni, adică o formă de a pune în prim plan sensibilitatea unei ipostaze a lumii, a unui mental colectiv aflat în permanenţă combustie.

De asemenea, o creaţie cinematografică în care contactul nemijlocit cu spectatorul se face prin muzică şi imagini, deci ne referim la o artă în care sunt reproduse caracteristici morale, emoţionale sau spirituale, fiind transmise publicului cu ajutorul montajului, comportă modularea specială a vocii actorilor şi o compoziţie a tuturor simţurilor.

Imaginea şi muzica sunt reunite într-o imagine unitară de mare anvergură scenică, mai ales dacă muzica cunoaşte o evoluţie spectaculoasă datorită imaginii şi a felului în care ea este livrată publicului spectator. Şi, având în vedere că muzica este o expresie a emoțiilor care nu pot fi vorbite, iar montajul este rezultatul unei creații de emoții diferite asigurate prin utilizarea sunetului și a imaginii, atunci poate că este bine să acordăm atenţie efectelor pe care le implică îmbinarea lor.

Leadership: Iei în calcul declanşarea unei emoţii de mare intensitate odată cu trăirea plenară a vieții veridice transformată într-o creaţie artistică care pune în prim plan subiectivitatea personajelor?

Când vine vorba despre regie şi film mai întâi este vorba de un efect de tip "antidepresiv", pentru că filmul te poate binedispune într-un mod plăcut, te poate motiva să impui o schimbare în viaţa ta. Şi apoi mai este un efect de tipul "maturizării, pe fundalul unei identificări acţiunii cu sentimentul, fiindcă filmul te învaţă valorile vieţii, te învaţă să dai sens vieţii tale şi să îţi depăşeşti limitele. În orice, caz, filmul este o artă regizorală care exprimă cu ajutorul sunetelor şi imaginilor sentimente şi atitudini menite să contribuie la declanşarea anumitor comportamente, acţiuni sau evenimente.

Aici intră în scenă existenţa obiectivă a unui fenomen de actualitate, ceea ce înseamnă să iei în calcul declanşarea unei emoţii de mare intensitate odată cu trăirea plenară a vieții veridice dintr-un film, din spatele filmului și de dincolo de film, sau măcar trăirea unui moment unic, frumos, chiar extatic.

Cu sigurantă, este mai uşor pentru un regizor să perceapă structura intim emoţională a altor oameni şi să-şi acordeze propria sensibilitate cu ea atunci când acţiunea filmului este îndreptată spre obiectivul de a schimba mentalități, de a consolida dorința și sentimentul de apartenență la un fel de a fi şi de a gândi, la repere morale, la concepţia legată de muncă, respect şi responsabilitate faţă de experienţă şi viaţă.

Leadershipul se referă la capacitatea regizorului de a găsi un mijloc de a experimenta frecvențele și dimensiunile mai înalte ale conștiinței și ale vieții, prin intermediul a ceea ce luminează minţile care trăiesc în viziunea realităţii sale.

Structura intim emoţională este o variabilă a procesului de comunicare a viziunii cu ajutorul muzicii şi a imaginilor pe care regizorul le montează în contextul desfăşurării filmului, în aşa fel încât să păstreze viu interesul spectatorului pentru acțiunea și jocul actorilor de pe scenă.

Regizorul trebuie, de asemenea, să păstreze interesul viu pentru un scenariu trasat în linii dinamice, dar rafinate, cu pretenţii inteligente de "Creaţie Premium".

Sub imperiul loialităţii

On Decembrie 21, 2009

Ridică-te deasupra propriilor tale limite, reglându-ţi potenţialul de leadership în acord cu idealurile celorlalţi.

Doar un om excepţional poate să îndrume spiritele în direcţia propriilor sale ambiţii, sub influenţa leadershipului. De fiecare dată când un conducător îşi propune ceva, el se implică personal în bunul mers al lucrurilor, cu multă seriozitate şi încredere, punând suflet în fiecare pas pe care îl face. Nu se îndoieşte nicio clipă de loialitatea oamenilor, la fel cum nici ei, la rândul lor, nu se îndoiesc de fidelitatea şi loialitatea lui.

Dorinţa lui de a-şi atinge scopurile, de a-şi îndeplini misiunea, este atât de mare încât nimeni şi nimic nu-l poate convinge să renunţe. Pentru el, victoria este, de cele mai multe ori, sigură. Numai o asemenea dorinţă nestăvilită, numai o asemenea încredere deplină în forţele proprii, în oameni şi în capacitatea lor de a-şi învinge propriile limite, colaborând unii cu ceilalţi, mobilizându-şi ambiţiile, îl poate tenta să meargă întotdeauna mai departe.

Cu o zi înainte de începerea bătăliei de la Austerlitz, Napoleon s-a adresat soldaţilor săi:

- Am să conduc eu însumi batalioanele. Mă voi ţine departe de foc dacă, cu vitejia voastră obişnuită, veţi semăna dezordinea şi deruta în rândurile inamice. Iar dacă victoria ar fi nesigură măcar o clipa, îl veţi vedea pe împăratul vostru expunându-se primelor lovituri.

Aceste cuvinte au electrizat cu adevărat trupele, care s-au dovedit la înălţime pe tot parcursul bătăliei. Şi de acea dată Napoleon a reuşit să-şi mobilizeze oamenii. Marea victorie de la Austerlitz a determinat destrămarea celei de-a Treia Coaliţii formată împotriva Imperiului Francez, iar EL, marele geniu militar, puternic şi maiestuos ca un leu, şi-a savurat la maxim o buna bucată de vreme clipele de glorie.

Leadership: Poţi realiza fuziunea dintre necesităţile demonstrative şi cele veleitare în vederea argumentării poziţiei de promotor al unei cauze nobile?

Pentru a reuşi realizarea principiului participării oamenilor la un act comun, evitând cu orice preţ absolutizarea unor direcţii care atestă continuitatea unor aşteptări nerealiste, trebuie să-ţi demonstrezi ataşamentul pentru un anumit mod evoluţionist de concepere a viziunii - printr-un exemplu concret, înlăturând opoziţia dintre dreptate şi nedreptate, dar mai ales opoziţia dintre geniu şi omul comun.

Deci trebuie să existe o continuă disponibilitate pentru compoziţia trăsăturilor şi atitudinilor exterioare, împărtăşind idealismul convingerilor tale despre propriile abilităţi printr-o demnitate eroică care să-i inspire pe oameni. Acest lucru îţi conferă chiar un soi de imunitate privind deciziile eronate.

Tot ceea ce liderii plămădesc cu harul lor de biruinţă, cu nebunia lor aparentă, dincolo de tumultul dezamăgirilor sau îngrijorărilor, este bazat pe convingeri temeinice, devenite repere, care conţin sintagma, deloc întâmplătoare: „ Tot ceea ce nu este reglementat de principii etice stricte, este reglementat de condiţiile de asigurare a reuşitei."

Demonstrarea puterii personale se axează pe limitele pe care eşti dispus să le încalci încât să-ţi validezi controlul în urma de greşelii pe care o fac ceilalţi oameni dacă nu acceptă să te urmeze.

Iar aceste limite sunt date de acţiunile de decizie şi control care îţi îngăduie să refaci cu exactitate secvențele prezentului, parcurs printr-o repetată asumare a tuturor riscurilor ce ţin de natura virtuţii de a te socoti capabil de fapte mărețe, înaintea alegerii unui scop unic.

Liderii conduşi de tendinţa de a judeca orice hotărâre în termeni de "corect" sau "incorect" pot realiza uşor fuziunea dintre necesităţile demonstrative şi cele veleitare, în vederea argumentării poziţiei de promotor al unei cauze nobile şi al gloriei , prin măsuri şi acţiuni concrete. Ei evită fiasco-ul pe linie de ataşament pentru un mod particular de a trata şi de a se raporta la elementele răspunderii, la elementele unei geografii personale care surprind un du-te-vino între realul obiectiv şi cel subiectiv.

Crezurile scuză mijloacele, având ca efect o imagine de sine pozitivă, o stimă şi o încredere puternică în propria persoană. Iar aceste expresii concentrate ale credinţei, construite pe baza convingerilor potenţatoare, reuşesc performanţa de a trezi o anumită sensibilitate pentru valoarea omului, o caracteristică impregnată de maturitate în ADN-ul stilului de conducere.

Ceea ce nu înseamnă neapărat înclinare spre surprinderea exclusivă a formelor de manifestare, evidenţiere şi demonstrare a experienţei, ci mai degrabă o preferinţă pentru tipul uman care vrea să se autodepăşească, izbitoare prin însăşi concreteţea sa.

Leadership: Exemplul tău de autodepăşire trezeşte imboldul oamenilor de a-şi depăşi limitele?

Dovada de loialitate şi fidelitate a împăratului le-a insuflat soldaţilor curajul şi dorinţa de a lupta cu mai mult zel şi, în cele din urmă, să câştige o bătălie în care şansele de izbândă erau de trei la unu. O viaţă întreagă Napoleon, aceasta minte atât de strălucită, a stat numai printre oameni. Atât pe timp de război, cât şi pe timp de pace. Era obişnuit cu vacarmul bătăliilor. Fiecare armă îi era ca o soră, fiecare soldat ca un frate. Lupta întotdeauna cot la cot cu soldaţii săi. Nu-i de mirare că îi ştia pe toţi pe nume. Ceea ce e mai important e că a fost iubit, admirat şi respectat.

Soldaţii lui Napoleon şi-au depăşit limitele, fiindcă el însuşi şi-a depăşit limitele.

A lipsit vreodată Napoleon de pe câmpul de bătălie, aşa cum obişnuiesc să procedeze conducătorii laşi şi fricoşi? Nu. Niciodată oamenii n-ar iubi şi n-ar respecta un conducător care îi trimite spre moarte, dar care lipseşte de pe câmpul de bătălie. Napoleon a fost aproape întotdeauna prezent pe câmpul de bătălie, deseori expunându-se primelor lovituri.

Acesta a fost biletul său spre inimile oamenilor. Al tău care este? Dacă nu ai, procură-ţi unul !

Loialitatea este o condiţie sine qua non pentru atingerea excelenţei în leadership. Este linia care desparte succesul de eşec. Napoleon şi-a dovedit de fiecare dată loialitatea faţă de soldaţii săi, faţă de poporul său, faţă de patria lui, chiar dacă deciziile pe care le-a luat de-a lungul timpului nu s-au dovedit toate eficiente, unele soldându-se cu eşecuri dezastruoase.

Înainte să te recomanzi ca unic model de leadership trebuie să ştii ce condiţii predomină în zona ta de receptivitate.

Receptivitatea este deschiderea liderului spre acceptarea unor condiţii de control a puterii, validate de credinţa oamenilor într-o inteligenţă superioară lor. În această zonă predomină două condiţii: flerul de a şti unde să pui pasul în cursul nefast al evenimentelor greu de anticipat şi flerul de a şti ce este aceea "atracţie", pe care să o cauţi într-o atitudine de dăruire absolută faţă de lume.

A te afla mereu printre oameni, atât la bine, dar mai ales la greu, reflectă gradul tău de loialitate faţă de ei, contribuind la succesul tău şi al lor. Oamenii sunt receptivi la tot ceea ce faci, la toate demersurile pe care le întreprinzi de-a lungul timpului. Îi laşi la greu? Îi renegi? Sau eşti alături de ei şi te implici cu multă dorinţă şi devotament în „lupta" pe care ei o duc pentru tine?

Aşa cum rinichiul (organul cu ajutorul căruia sunt eliminate substanţele care nu mai sunt folositoare organismului uman) intervine în reglarea tensiunii arteriale, tot aşa gradul tău de loialitate intervine în reglarea potenţialului tău de leadership – esenţial în buna funcţionare a echipei.

Liantul care uneşte o echipă. Majoritatea oamenilor ar face orice pentru tine doar dacă şi tu ai face totul pentru ei. Valabil este şi opusul, nimeni nu te va urma niciodată dacă nu dovedeşti, mai întâi de toate, că eşti alături de ei şi la bine şi la rău. Idealul oamenilor este să rămâi întotdeauna alături de ei.

Loialitatea unui lider faţă de subordonaţi contribuie la atingerea succesului comun. Oamenii sunt reticenţi dacă observă că gradul tău de loialitate este scăzut şi că nu îi susţii atunci când au nevoie de tine. Nu te poţi ridica deasupra lor şi nu îi poţi influenţa decât prin ceea ce faci alături de ei. Nu separat. Nu dând ordine şi supervizând tot timpul activităţile lor. Loialitatea se bazează pe implicare: cu cât te implici mai mult în acţiuni comune cu atât oamenii se ataşează mai mult de tine şi devin mai loiali. Daca gradul tău de loialitate scade, atunci şi gradul de atingere a scopurilor propuse va fi mai mic.

Loialitatea se verifică atunci când receptivitatea ta la nevoile oamenilor este limitată de acea parte grea din parcursul tău de auto-dezvoltare care excede "rezerva" lor de a se adapta la el.

Partea grea din parcursul tău de auto-dezvoltare este "curajul paradoxal" de a renunţa la putere în folosul celor care aleargă spre Ea?

Concluzie: Loialitatea reciprocă este o condiţie esenţială pentru reuşita; este unul dintre lianţii care uneşte o echipă în drumul uneori uşor, alteori greu, spre atingerea scopurilor finale. Lipsa ei ca şi dezinteresul faţă de scopul final este o mare piedică care poate determina un eşec definitiv.

Ridică-te deasupra propriilor tale limite, reglându-ţi potenţialul de leadership în acord cu idealurile celorlalţi.

Sublimul măiestriei

On Septembrie 14, 2010

Ridică-ţi leadershipul până la înălţimea la care năzuieşti, punând în prim plan cele mai proeminente nuanţe ale sale.

Maestrul revenise adesea asupra acelei teme: " Fata din oglindă ". Reuşise să realizeze, cu o minuţioasă grijă pentru detalii, zâmbetul trist şi misterios al fetei pe care o întâlnise în tinereţea sa, într-o călătorie în Egipt. Înflăcărarea, poate exagerată, îi susţinuse eforturile în vederea realizării unei nemaipomenite opere de artă. Imaginea pe care o aşternuse pe pânză exista de mult în mintea sa. Acum, după aproape două luni de muncă, era în sfârşit gata.

Îmi amintesc foarte bine ziua aceea, căci mă invitase înadins la el ca să-mi arate acea operă realizată cu măiestrie. Căci da, este într-adevăr necesară o adevărată măiestrie pentru a exprima o paletă largă de stări sufleteşti a unuia sau mai multor personaje dintr-o pictură: chipul, gestica şi mimica etc., şi să transformi culorile şi trăsăturile persoanelor în personaje sugestive.

Pentru prima dată am putut vedea pe chipul maestrului liniştea şi nădejdea sufletească. Avea acea privire mândră, acel entuziasm fermecător de care sunt pătrunşi numai cei care, dedicându-se cu adevărat muncii lor, reuşesc să creeze ceva cu totul şi cu totul deosebit, ceva care îi face să se simtă împliniţi cu adevărat.

Leadership: Eşti dator artei să-ţi evaluezi produsul muncii creatoare la adevărata valoare a calităţii propriei modalităţi de a-ţi exprima bogatul univers interior?

S-a ridicat încet de pe scaun, a făcut un pas înapoi ca să-şi privească opera, propria lui creaţie care exprima adevărata lui măiestrie şi îndemânare. Şi deodată, cuprins de un adânc simţământ de bucurie, a exclamat cu acelaşi ton ferm şi convins, plin de sentimente ca al marelui Arhimede când a intuit legea atracţiei universale: "Evrika ! "

Maestrul nu simţise niciodată mai multă poftă de viaţă ca în acel moment. Uneori schiţând, alteori căutând să concretizeze ceea ce ar năzui el să fie arta, a reuşit să realizeze sublimul în pictură. În sfârşit, succesul şi faima îi erau asigurate.

A pune leadershipul pe planul cel mai înalt al artei înseamnă să schiţezi o imagine al cărei sens va fi înţeles pe deplin doar de cei care sunt capabili să ia în considerare şi să cântărească în mod adecvat elementele definitorii ale formării tale intelectuale.

Pictorul este un artist, un creator care, stăpânit de o dorinţă puternică, îşi conturează în minte imaginea pe care urmează s-o aştearnă pe pânza sa, cu mult înainte de a se închide în atelierul său ca s-o schiţeze.

Tot aşa este şi liderul - un creator care îşi îmbogăţeşte galeria de valori şi trăsături, înfăţişând din plin marea gamă a sentimentelor sale - entuziasmul, respectul şi admiraţia - în sensul cel mai curat cu putinţă - oglindind astfel aspectele personalităţii sale. El pune în prim plan cele mai proeminenţe nuanţe de caracter moral şi social, care îmbină armonios valorile şi abilităţile sale intelectuale.

Iată de ce, este atât să important să urmăreşti această evoluţie a ta, valorificându-ţi propria competenţă şi experienţă, abordând mai profund feluritele aspecte ale leadershipului – mai ales pe plan afectiv şi moral, nu doar profesional. Pentru ca al tău leadership să se transforme într-o artă cu adevărat reuşită, cu nişte valenţe unice şi extraordinare, trebuie să-l pui pe planul cel mai înalt al imaginii pe care o schiţezi.

Pentru a ajunge la adevărata măiestrie nu este suficientă numai vizualizarea „operei de leadership" ce-i vei da viaţă, ci şi executarea ei cu o deosebită atenţie, cu migală, cu delicateţe şi cu răbdare, ca nu cumva efectul să fie altul decât cel scontat. Conturează-ţi în minte viziunea care să te împingă să faci pasul spre excelenţă - cu mult înainte de a te angaja în realizarea vreunui proiect, înainte de a deschide calea unui demers de amploare.

Leadership: Poţi să concepi o artă legată de o realitate plină de substanţă care să te reprezinte în planul imaginii pe care ţi-o formezi despre tine însuţi înainte de a atinge măiestria?

Creaţia unui lider nu este altceva decât o însumare a demersurilor şi activităţilor care duc spre realizarea ţelului propus. El dă naştere permanent unor imagini mentale. Pe "ecranul" imaginaţiei, sale vede fiecare detaliu reprezentat cu precizie fotografică: fiecare pas pe care trebuie să-l facă, fiecare decizie pe care trebuie s-o ia, fiecare tactică şi procedură pe care urmează s-o iniţieze, fiecare plus şi fiecare minus, prin care să-şi exercite o influenţă pozitivă dominantă asupra conducerii. Iar apoi concepe o "artă" legată de o realitate care să-l reprezinte, şi să atingă succesul la care accede.

Renunţă la vechile clişee. Caută necontenit prin opera ta, prin arta ta legată de realitate şi adevăr, să trezeşti în cei din jurul tău interesul, respectul şi admiraţia. Numai astfel îţi vei putea împlini năzuinţele cărora le-ai consacrat cei mai mult ani.

Sublimul măiestriei, în comparaţie cu lucrările de început ale artei care se consacră unei specializări în adâncime, precum psihologia şi expresivitatea umană, se manifestă prin perfecționarea tuturor facultăților sufletului și accesul la o formă superioară de cunoaștere.

O cunoaştere pe care numai tu o grăieşti prin intermediul procesului de autoobservare, reflecţie şi autocorecţie, cu ajutorul profunzimii unei abordări de substanţă a unei teme individuale din perspectiva criteriului estetic.

Concluzie: "Creaţia" liderului este desăvârşită dacă ea, în final, se ridică la înălţimea aşteptărilor sale, atingând scopul iniţial propus. Un lider nu simte cu adevărat fericirea determinată de atingerea scopului propus, dacă acesta nu este realizat la parametrii calitativi şi cantitativi, iniţial expuşi, care au constituit baza alegerii sale în poziţia de lider.

Ridică-ţi leadershipul până la înălţimea la care năzuieşti, punând în prim plan cele mai proeminente nuanţe ale sale.

Suferința umană devine adesea o povară silențioasă

On Decembrie 18, 2013

Un trecut dureros poate proiecta o umbră asupra oricărei noi începuturi, făcând dificilă distanțarea de experiențele anterioare.

Gemuse? Unde era? Îşi duse mâinile la gât. Mâinile îi erau umede. Gâtul îi era umed. Pieptul îi era umed, faţa... Deschise ochii. Nu-şi dădu încă bine seama unde era, în mlaştina dintre pini sau altundeva? Nu-şi dădea seama că e la Paris. O lună albă atârna deasupra unei lumi necunoscute. O lumină palidă atârna peste întuneric, aidoma chemării unui martir. O moarte albă ţipa fără glas pe cerul palid, de culoarea fierului. Luna plină, înapoia pădurilor, se zărea prin fereastra unei camere a hotelului Internaţional din Pariş. Ravic se ridică.

Ce fusese oare? O cale ferată plină de sânge, de sânge curgând, o goană nebună într-o seară de vară, de-a lungul şinelor însângerate - visul de sute de ori repetat, când se făcea că este iarăşi în Germania, că e înconjurat, persecutat, urmărit de călăii unui regim sângeros ce legalizase omorul; cât de adesea trecuse el prin toate acestea ! Privi luna, vampirul alb ce absorbea culorile lumii cu lumina ei împrumutată. Visurile acestea, pline de spaima lagărelor de concentrare, pline de figurile înţepenite ale prietenilor ucişi, pline de chipurile fără lacrimi, pietrificate de durere ale acelora care mai supravieţuiau, pline de despărţirile deznădăjduite şi de singurătatea mai presus de orice lamentare.

Leadership: În ce măsură consideri că poți schimba perspectiva văzută printr-o înțelegere nouă, într-o realitate conceptuală total diferită, atunci când te desprinzi de tot ce te ține ancorat?

În timpul zilei putea reuşi să treacă bariera, zidul mai înalt decât ochii - zidul pe care reuşise să-l clădească în timpul unor ani plini de sforţări, dorinţi gâtuite de cinism, amintiri înmormântate, călcate în picioare, când ţi-ai rupt din tine totul, până şi numele, ciment zidit peste propriile-ţi sentimente - şi când, în ciuda tuturor acestora, din timp în timp, ţâşneşte faţa lividă a trecutului într-o clipă de delăsare, dulce, ademenitoare şi plină de chemări, când te cufunzi în băutură până la nesimţire.

În timpul zilei - dar nopţile eşti la cheremul lor, frânele disciplinei îţi scapă şi căruţa începe să alunece, înapoia orizontului conştiinţei, se ridică iarăşi, sparg mormintele, piedicile se desfac, umbrele se-ntorc, sângele îţi fierbe, spaimele aleargă şi furtuna neagră trece peste toate întăriturile şi baricadele! Să uiţi - e uşor atâta vreme cât farurile voinţei iluminează lumea - dar când se sting şi zgomotul viermilor devine perceptibil, când o lume distrusă iese din valuri ca o Vineta scufundată şi trăieşte din nou - atunci e cu totul altceva. Poţi să bei, să te ameţeşti, să pleci noapte după noapte, ca să învingi toate astea - poţi să schimbi nopţile în zile şi zilele în nopţi - în timpul zilei visezi altfel decât noaptea, fără să pierzi, desprins de toate.

Leadership: Când încerci să îți transformi percepția asupra lumii, nu ești, de fapt, în căutarea unei viziuni mai clare asupra realității tale, încercând să păstrezi imaginea unui sine unitar?

Nu făcuse el toate astea? De câte ori nu se întorsese la hotel când culorile cenuşii ale dimineţii se strecurau de-a lungul străzilor? Sau nu aşteptase el în Catacombă, împreună cu cineva care primea să bea cu el până când venea de la Şeherezada, Morosow care continua să bea cu el sub palmierul artificial, în odaia aceea fără ferestre, unde numai ceasul arăta cât de mult crescuse lumina afară? Să te îmbeţi într-un submarin, asta era. E uşor să dai din cap şi să spui că trebuie să-ţi păstrezi sensibilitatea. Dar, drace, nu era chiar aşa de uşor! Viaţa era viaţă, bună de nimic şi mai presus de orice; poţi să te scapi de ea, e uşor şi lucrul ăsta.

Dar nu-ţi arunci, odată cu ea şi speranţa de răzbunare şi nu arunci, odată cu ea şi acel lucru scuipat, batjocorit, ridiculizat zi de zi şi oră de oră, ce se cheamă, fără îndoială în chip grosolan, credinţa în omenie şi umanitate ! O viaţă searbădă - n-o poţi arunca aşa, ca pe-o cartuşieră golită ! Mai e încă destul de bună ca să lupţi cu ea, cândva veni vremea şi când va fi nevoie. Nu din motive personale, nici chiar din răzbunare, nici din egoism, şi nici din motive altruiste, totuşi e atât de mult pentru tine să întorci roata, pentru a împinge lumea dincolo de sânge şi de sfărâmături - pentru nici un alt motiv în afară de luptă, lupta continuă, şi să aştepţi posibilitatea de a lupta până la ultima răsuflare.

Leadership: Cum se reflectă această alternanță între controlul zilei și haosul nocturn în percepţia ta despre lume, căutând un punct de echilibru între dezvăluire și ascundere?

Dar aşteptarea te macină şi poate fi fără speranţă, şi la asta se adaugă teama nemărturisită că, atunci când va veni în sfârşit vremea, vei fi prea zdrobit, prea ros, prea inert de atâta aşteptare, prea obosit ca să poţi merge împreună cu ceilalţi. Nu e acesta motivul pentru care cufunzi în uitare orice lucru ce-ţi poate aţâţa nervii, desfiinţându-l, definitiv şi pe nesimţite, cu ironie, sarcasm şi chiar contra-sentimentalitate, cu evadarea într-o altă fiinţă omenească, într-un eu străin? Până când să ajungi în starea asta, neputinţa brutală are să revină în timp ce te laşi în voia somnului şi-a fantomelor.

În timp ce aşteptarea ne consumă și adesea pare fără speranță, aceasta amplifică temerile noastre nespuse, lăsându-ne zdrobiți de inerția lungilor perioade de așteptare. Este exact acest sentiment de epuizare care ne împinge să ne detașăm, folosind ironia, sarcasmul și chiar contra-sentimentalitatea ca scuturi protectoare împotriva disconfortului emoțional. Scăparea noastră devine evadarea într-o altă ființă, într-un "eu" străin, ca o încercare de a evita starea de neputință care ne cuprinde în timpul somnului și al viselor tulburătoare.

Leadershipul presupune să rezişti în fața realităților care îți revin în memorie, văzute prin prisma unei expuneri mult mai rapide a mișcării interioare.

Suferința umană devine adesea o povară silențioasă care ne urmărește chiar și în cele mai neașteptate locuri. Mai mult decât atât, amintirile tragice pot invada momentele de liniște, transformându-se în viziuni care perturbă realitatea prezentă.

Suflarea divină în opera umană

Valoarea reală a unui creator se măsoară prin capacitatea sa de a insufla viață eternă operei sale.

Dusty Springfield – In private. Urmăriți și ascultați videoclipul. Veți remarca ce înseamnă să ai peste 50 de ani și să ai o voce superbă, joc de scenă simplist și mult entuziasm, completat cu acel timbru ce parcă mângâie aerul, ridicându-l într-o îmbrățișare invizibilă. Vocea ei își face loc printre note, asemenea unui fir de aur țesut printre umbrele unei pânze vechi, fiecare vibrație luminând o poveste uitată. Y con la gracia de un espíritu eterno, melodia artistei devine mărturie că a existat cândva o artă vie, pulsând de ceea ce anticii numeau "tinerețe fără bătrânețe".

Pesemne, unii oameni rămân neuitați în sufletul lumii, alții se duc și dispar, fără să lase nimic în urma lor, nimic frumos, nimic trainic, nimic plin de viață. Asa ștau lucrurile. O lume care își ignoră trecutul își pierde busola pentru viitor, devenind incapabilă să creeze ceva durabil.

Da, era o vreme când oamenii puneau suflet în tot ce făceau, se compunea muzică bună, și totul era plin de viață, plin de frumusețea nepieritoare a creației. Anii au trecut, nu mult, nu o veșnicie, doar vreo 25 de ani. Dar acum, totul s-a schimbat. Nu mai există acea vibrație sacră unde talentul uman întâlnește inspirația divină, un "Alithismail Ankh Onnavs" , acel mister profund, ecoul unei vremi când arta era mai mult decât divertisment.

Leadership: Poți transforma imperfecțiunea materialului brut într-o mărturie pură a dăruirii tale față de ceea ce reflectă esența sufletului tău?

Acum totul pare contrafăcut, nici măcar reinventat, ci doar stângaci pus pe gamele uzate ale originalului. Mai mult ca oricând, oamenii din prezent așteaptă să li se pună tot în traistă, fără să aibă nici cea mai mică inițiativă. Toți au pretenții de mari geniu, au terminat 2 sau 3 facultăți, toți eminenți, cu toate astea nu se întrezărește nimic din strălucirea lor reală. Pe toate drumurile găsești exemple de ambalaje fără conținut.

Adevărul e că oamenii nu mai creează la nivel profund, fiindcă și-au pierdut ultima fărâmă de divin, dincolo de zgomotul cotidian și superficialitate.

Iar cine nu luptă pentru un ideal, și nu scoate la iveală un talent, acela devine irelevant pentru o lume întreagă. Asta ne învață trecutul, pe care, cu atâta neglijență, nu am reușit să-l prețuim. Din păcate, realitatea este mult mai gravă. Prezentul nu mai este refugiul sufletului, păstrând ideea de „creație pentru Dumnezeu", cu șanse de a atinge perfecțiunea unei opere divine. Ci doar un ecou gol, uscat și rece, pe care vântul serii îl duce peste umbrele trecutului și nu-l mai întoarce niciodată.

Leadership: În ce fel poate căutarea perfecțiunii artistice să devină o formă de rugăciune activă, transformând creația într-un dialog neîntrerupt cu divinul?

Știți ce făcea Michelangelo cu câteva zile înainte să se stingă? Retușa pentru a nu știu câta oară un detaliu minor al celebrei „Pietà Rondanini", căruia nu reușea să-i redea perfecțiunea. Chiar și neterminată, așa nefinisată cum a rămas, această operă poate fi admirată astăzi la Castello Sforzesco din Milano, Italia. Ei bine, astfel se creează o capodoperă: muncind de dimineața până seara, zile și chiar nopți, numai ca să retușezi câțiva centimetri de marmură care nu au ieșit perfect. O minuțiozitate ce durează până la ultima picătură de sudoare.

Mai bine de cinci sute de ani s-au scurs de atunci, multe războaie au zguduit lumea, multe imperii s-au prăbușit. Rezultatul? Opera lui a rămas intactă, autentică, vie, păstrându-se ca o creație pură, dedicată întru totul lui Dumnezeu. Cred că asta înseamnă, de fapt, spiritualitatea: numai în ceea ce pui suflet se păstrează pentru totdeauna în memoria lumii ca un semn al talentului de a te dărui acelei sclipiri divine, primite de la Dumnezeu.

Leadership: Este perfecțiunea actului tău creator o armonie care reflectă sclipirea divinității din tine, atunci când îți pui întreaga ființă în slujba unui ideal mai înalt?

Dar noi? Noi, cei dintr-un prezent împietrit în superficialitate, ce am învățat din acele vremuri? Probabil, mai nimic. De la oamenii temporari nu poți învăța lecții permanente. Întrebarea nu este retorică, ci tragic de actuală. Prea puțini își mai deschid sufletul către creație, prea puțini se luptă cu materia brută a vieții pentru a scoate din ea o capodoperă. Totul a devenit un ambalaj strălucitor, dar gol. Ne-am pierdut gustul pentru adevăr, pentru muncă asiduă, pentru dăruirea totală.

Iar toate războaiele, pe care le catalogăm drept conflicte inevitabile, nu sunt un rod al întâmplării materialismului, ci o pedeapsă de la Dumnezeu, fiindcă oamenii și-au vândut sufletul în schimbul superficialității, ghidându-se în special după motto-ul: „N-ai decât o viață, deci trăieste-o din plin !".

Însă partea spirituală este mai importantă decât banii, decât satisfacțiile efemere. Numai ceea ce lași în urmă, în numele veșniciei, este ceea ce anticii au transmis cu credință dincolo de timp, spre slava lui Dumnezeu.

Sfințenia operei vine din efortul depus. Iar într-o lume unde timpul măsoară totul în unități de profit, există încă ecouri ale unei epoci în care arta era o rugăciune, iar creația - un act de comuniune cu divinul. Acele mici dovezi ale sacrificiului autentic, creații nepierdute peste secole, sunt nemuritoare, căci Dumnezeu a cruțat doar ceea ce provine din suflet. Sunt sigur că Dumnezeu își face simțită prezența numai acolo unde sufletul depune fiecare picătură de sudoare.

Leadershipul se manifestă prin capacitatea de a transforma talentul într-o misiune sacră, făcând din fiecare act creator o punte între temporal și etern.

Suflarea divină în opera umană ne revelează că adevărata creație transcende timpul și ego-ul, devenind o rugăciune vie care conectează umanul cu divinul, temporalul cu eternul. Te întreb, omule: se transfigurează trecerea ta prin lume într-o operă dedicată divinității, în aceste zile când totul se face peste noapte, și prestigiul se obține la fel de repede?

Mă întreb, oare ce rămâne, când muzica se stinge? Rămâne, totuși, ceea ce Dusty, Michelangelo și alții ne-au arătat: doar ceea ce purtăm în suflet poate rezista timpului. Numai printr-o creație devenită capodoperă, unii din cei stăruitori, vor duce mai departe legea supremă a lui Dumnezeu: „Eu sunt".

Sufletul bun din împărăţia întunericului

On Martie 16, 2009

Stabileşte o legătură cu inimile oamenilor, fără să ascunzi cine eşti cu adevărat.

Bill Parrish, fondatorul şi preşedintele corporaţiei Parrish Communications, era un om a cărui caracter putea impresiona profund pe toată lumea, un om foarte instruit, cu o cultură vastă şi cu o experienţă de viaţă bogată. Trebuia să se folosească de atuurile sale pentru a-şi exercita influenţa asupra lui Joe Black care se îndrăgostise de fiica sa, Susan, şi pe care vroia s-o ia cu el în împărăţia întunericului.

Pentru ca punctul său de vedere să-i influenţeze hotărârea lui Joe, Bill trebuia să-i demonstreze acestuia că are dreptate. Îi spuse lui Joe:

- Poţi lua orice doreşti pentru că aşa vrei tu. Dar asta nu e dragoste. E o infatuare fără sens pe care vrei să ţi-o satisfaci. Dar lipseşte tocmai lucrul cel mai important. Încredere, răspundere, acceptarea riscurilor, să-ţi petreci o viaţă întreagă încercând să te ridici la înălţimea visurilor tale. Şi, mai presus de toate, să nu răneşti obiectul iubirii tale.

Spui că o iubeşti pe fata mea, dar nu ştii ce înseamnă iubirea. Ea te "iubeşte", dar nu te-a văzut cum eşti în realitate. Susan s-a îndrăgostit de nenorocitul acela căruia i-ai luat trupul. Dar ea nu ştie cine eşti tu cu adevărat.

Te iubeşte? Cine eşti tu? I-ai spus cine eşti? Ea ştie unde o vei duce? De ce nu-i spui? Încearcă. Vezi ce se întâmplă.

Leadership: Poți insera o imagine într-un mesaj emoţional, astfel încât mesajul să facă parte dintr-o determinare raţională interioară care să fie în concordanţă cu obiectivitatea?

Îţi aminteşti de filmul „ Meet Joe Black (1998) ”? Imediat după ce Bill termină de vorbit, atitudinea lui Joe Black s-a schimbat. Era frământat de presentimente. Pe măsură ce reflecta la vorbele lui Bill, gândurile cele mai negre îi bântuiau mintea, începând să-l macine. În mintea lui se făcuse lumină, în timp ce în suflet îi stăruia tulburarea. Realiză brusc că existenţa lui devenise goală, atât de goală încât părea să nu-şi mai aibă sensul.

Dacă ar fi existat vreo îndoială în privinţa propriei lui persoane, toată încrederea lui Susan în el s-ar fi risipit. Căci un suflet curat, desăvârşit, cum ar putea oare să-l accepte ca partener pe însuşi „Prinţul Întunericului”? În finalul filmului, Joe Black renunţă la Susan, dându-şi seama că niciodată ea nu l-ar fi putut accepta în viaţa ei dacă ar fi aflat cine este el cu adevărat.

A stabili legături solide, bazate pe înţelegere şi încredere reciprocă înseamnă să ocupi în inima oamenilor locul pe care trebuie să-l ai, pe care îl meriţi şi pe care-l consideri corect. Percepţia lor despre tine trebuie să fie nu doar bună, ci şi în acord cu personalitatea lor, cu propriile lor valori, cu propriile lor aşteptări, cu propriile lor idealuri. Ca lider trebuie să reuşeşti să închizi în inima oamenilor sentimentul unei înţelegeri favorabile care să elimine posibilitatea oricăror conflicte. Ei trebuie să simtă o siguranţă totală, o pace absolută, ca să se solidarizeze cu tine.

A nu le oferi oamenilor posibilitatea să te cunoască, înseamnă să ridici un obstacol de netrecut între tine şi ei. Nu-ţi transforma leadershipul într-o fortificaţie de netrecut. Căci cel care ridică în faţa lui o fortificaţie de netrecut taie orice legături cu ceilalţi din jurul său. Continuă-ţi drumul spre inimile oamenilor cu îndrăzneală, lăsând loc dreptului lor de a te cunoaşte şi încercării lor de a se apropia de tine, de a se ataşa de tine pentru ceea ce eşti cu adevărat.

A insera o imagine într-un mesaj emoţional înseamnă să impui particularul, în care te întrupezi ca o "proiecţie a sensibilităţii", acolo unde nu se manifestă nicio reacţie pozitivă la schimbare.

Sufletul bun din împărăţia întunericului simbolizează acea parte bună din tine pe care nu ai reuşit s-o arăţi celorlalţi oameni din jur, în ciuda intenţiilor binevoitoare. Degeaba vrei să stabileşti legături dacă nu reuşeşti să te încadrezi în tiparul bine conturat al celorlalţi. Ca să astupi golul dintre tine şi ceilalţi este necesar ca frumuseţea ta interioară să fie pusă în valoare şi să fie în conformitate cu propriile lor convingeri şi dorinţe.

Aşa cum focalizarea manuală a aparatelor digitale se poate realiza cel mai bine prin manevrarea inelului cauciucat de pe obiectiv – tot aşa dezvoltarea legăturilor tale cu ceilalţi oameni se poate produce cel mai bine prin „manevrarea" propriilor lor trăiri şi aspiraţii interioare, înlăturându-le îndoielile, comportându-te conform propriilor lor sentimente şi focalizându-te asupra convingerilor lor. Stabileşte o legătură cu inimile oamenilor, fără să ascunzi cine eşti cu adevărat.

Concluzie: Cunoaşterea oamenilor este deosebit de importantă pentru a putea să-i conduci pe calea cea bună. Lasă-te cunoscut de ceilalţi, fii deschis şi nu te ascunde în spatele unor minciuni legate de persoana ta.

Degeaba ai un suflet bun dacă el este ascuns în „împărăţia întunericului". Cunoaşterea reciprocă generează legături între oameni, care stau la baza colaborării eficiente şi întrajutorării reciproce. Nu-ţi transforma propria persoană într-o fortificaţie de netrecut căci astfel îi vei îndepărta pe oameni. Fii deschis, fii cinstit şi corect, şi vei avea suportul oamenilor, suport de care orice lider are atâta nevoie.

Sufletul cere ochilor mai mult decât o simplă percepție vizuală

Ceea ce vezi în jur solicită o reflecție atentă asupra a ceea ce descoperi în tine însuți.

În fiecare moment al existenței mele pulsează o bucurie tăcută, un joc al luminii şi umbre, o împletire subtilă între singurătate și comuniune cu lumea. Poate că rătăcesc într-o lume a frânturilor de amintiri, unde fiecare colț de peisaj își revarsă povestea. Singurul lucru pe care îl știu cu adevarat este că totul se schimbă. Nimic nu e la fel, nici măcar clipa pe care cred că am prins-o în căușul mâinilor, cu prețul unei străfulgerări de claritate, când sângele, acest triumfător simbol al vieții, îmi pulsează prin mâna care scrie.

Este o artă să știi să te surprinzi pe tine însuți, astfel încât ochii să vadă dincolo de aparențe.

Soare. Cald. O îmbrățișare cosmică. Alerg prin lanul de porumb, un "Nexoris Temporal Eternix", spațiul unde timpul își pierde consistența obișnuită, doar pentru a redescoperi esența clipei prezente. Încet, cu multă simțire, mângâi cu palma dreaptă spicele verzi ca într-un ritual al reîntoarcerii perpetue, ca și când fiecare atingere ar fi o amprentă lăsată în memoria universului. Cumva, simt că trăiesc o amintire veșnic vie din primăvara trecută, din care se naște sentimentul de deja-vu, imagini aleatorii punându-se de-a curmezișul inimii, cerând ochilor mai mult decât să vadă, ci să descopere adevărul ascuns în detalii.

Încărcat cu seninătate, plin de voie bună, îmi trec palma peste frunzele dansate de vânt, iar ele mă recunosc nu doar ca trecător, ci ca martor al fiecărui moment care trece și rămâne, în același timp.

Leadership: În ce măsură reușești să transformi momentele simple ale existenței în revelații ale unei experiențe de flow perpetue, care transcende timpul și spațiul prin simpla percepție vizuală?

Paralel, mă pierd într-un alt loc, la fel de viu ca inima ce-mi bate a emoție pură, din care doar arta, creația, sublimul pot să dea sens existenței mele. Lumina care pătrunde prin retină nu este decât începutul unei povești pe care doar sufletul o poate înțelege. Pe faleza mării, unde valurile îmi șoptesc povești fără sfârșit, privesc acrobatul care sfidează gravitația într-un salt mare. Y con la gracia de un momento eterno, fiecare salt al său devine o metaforă a libertății, o poezie scrisă cu mișcări în aerul sărat al după-amiezii. În grabă, observ cum trecătorii își îndreaptă privirile spre orizont, fiindcă valurile șoptesc secretele lor doar celor care știu să-și asculte visele înălțate în zare, ca și când briza ar purta ecoul unor povești nesfârșite.

În tot acest timp grăbit, pe care încerc să-l opresc în inimă, cu un soi de neuitare încăpățânată, îmi înseninează gândurile cuvintele lui Ravic, din romanul „Arcul de Triumf", ca și când ar fi fost scrise special pentru mine:

"N-am uitat niciodată priveliştea. Învăţasem că Pământul e o planetă şi că se învârteşte, aşa cum înveţi din cărţi, fără să înţelegi. Dar atunci, pentru prima dată mi-am dat seama că, într-adevăr, aşa era. Vedeam cum Pământul străbate în tăcere imensităţile spaţiului. Am simţit atunci, cu multă putere, că eram cufundat în ceva din care nu mai puteam ieşi. Asta s-a întâmplat poate, fiindcă mă trezisem dintr-un somn adânc şi-mi pierdusem memoria şi obişnuinţele, şi-am privit cerul imens, mutat din loc. Deodată cerul nu mi s-a mai părut nemişcat şi odihnitor, şi de atunci nu mi s-a mai părut niciodată astfel."

Leadership: Cum poate un moment aparent banal să devină esența unui întreg univers interior, pe măsură ce înțelegi eternitatea oglindită în fiecare secundă care trece?

Clipa prezentă este un punct de întâlnire între trecut și viitor, un spațiu de creație infinită în care prind viață tot mai multe personaje. Bătrânul cu înghețata în mână, din fața benzinăriei, pare un personaj desprins dintr-un tablou impresionist, unde lumina și umbra creează pe chipul său un aer de mister, „Luminaris Ethereal Synoptix", o confluență între trecut și prezent, între copilărie și înțelepciune.

Și, aici, parcă tot Ravic ar vrea să completeze cu ceva adânc și nevăzut din mine: "Priveşte, Nicu. Omul ăsta nu ştie nimic. Nu ştie ce aripi ne-au atins pe noi. Se uită la noi şi nu vede că ne-am schimbat. Lucrul ăsta e foarte bizar în lume: poţi să devii un arhanghel, un nebun sau un criminal — nimeni nu observă nimic. Dar când îţi lipseşte un nasture - fiecare observă lucrul acesta."

Într-adevăr, o simplă privire asupra peisajului poate dezvălui adevăruri pe care cuvintele nu le pot exprima. Gândesc că poate așa se întâmplă cu toți oamenii atunci când se pierd, într-o învelitoare de tăcere, abia atunci își regăsesc esența. Oare adevărata libertate constă în a lăsa viața să curgă prin noi, fără să încercăm să o fixăm în cadre de timp rigide, anoste, sufocante?

Și flori, atâtea flori în jur. Doar eu le văd? Doar eu le simt parfumul? Dominând parcă în mijlocul acestui triumf al luminii, o cunună de flori în calea atâtor frumuseți eterne își caută creatorul, acel singur artist capabil să le redea o picătură de culoare, o adiere de visare străbătută de lumină, un mic prilej de eternitate.

Leadership: Amintirile tale revin întotdeauna cu o claritate mai mare decât momentul trăit, permițând ca o simplă atingere să poarte greutatea întregii existențe?

"Joan îi zâmbi. Un gest de apropiere, un pas înainte spre clipa de abandon total. Ravic îi cuprinse umerii cu brațul. Ea se rezemă de dânsul. Simțea că ceva s-a deschis în el și se răspândea, cald, blând, mângâietor, ceva care îl trăgea în jos cu nenumărate mâini, și-l făcea să nu poată sta în picioarele ce se clătinau, în loc să uite și să meargă pe jos, cedând chemării sângelui, chemarea de dincolo de milenii, când nu existau creier și gânduri, suferință și îndoială, ci numai fericire oarbă și sânge."

Cred că este un paradox al existenței. Timpul nu se măsoară în secunde, ci în intensitatea momentelor care ne rămân gravate în memorie. Cum vine asta? Dincolo de orice așteptări, mi se pare că trăiesc simultan în multiple dimensiuni ale lumii, ale realității, ale spațiului și timpului, oglindind bucuria copiilor din roata mare, zâmbetul vânzătorului necunoscut, privirea curioasă a trecătorilor, povestea de dragoste a tinerilor care n-au cunoscut mirajul. Nu încă. Sau chiar deloc.

Fiecare interacțiune devine o piesă din mozaicul existenței mele, o confirmare a conexiunii profunde care leagă toate ființele într-o țesătură invizibilă de sensuri și semnificații. Poate că este timpul să mă adâncesc în propriul univers interior, sperând ca înțelegerea să aducă lumină, fiindcă asta înseamnă arta: să știi să transformi emoțiile în creație, punând în prim plan autenticitatea trăirilor și profunzimea conexiunilor dintre frumuseţile lumii.

Leadershipul se poate deduce din abilitatea de a te pierde și de a te regăsi în micile momente care construiesc eternitatea, cultivând conexiuni spontane între poveștile lumii.

Sufletul cere ochilor mai mult decât o simplă percepție vizuală, cere un anumit înțeles distinct pentru care emoția devine puntea spre lumea interioară, dintr-un singur punct de vedere: „a vedea în profunzime înseamnă a înțelege viața". Astfel, orice moment trăit devine o altă dimensiune a realității, din care, poate, voi reuși să descopăr mai mult decât actul artistic de a vedea, ci acel adevăr esențial și autentic definit prin experiență în felul următor: "să simți ceea ce vezi și să înțelegi ceea ce simți ".

Sufletul îşi deschide singur orizonturile

On Decembrie 01, 2014

Ia-ţi libertatea de a te redefini, corectând eroarea de a te supune trecutului care te urmăreşte.

Se zvonea că nefericitul fusese pe vremuri, ofiţer de marină, închis pentru bonapartism. Adevărat, gândi contele, Dumnezeu m-a făcut să plutesc deasupra valurilor şi a flăcărilor. Şi astfel bietul marinar trăieşte în amintirea câtorva povestitori. I se spune povestea cumplită la gura sobei, iar cei ce-o ascultă se înfioară când aud cum a străpuns spaţiul ca să se afunde în adâncurile mării. El era numărul 34. Se spune că era într-atât de obişnuit cu întunericul, încât ar fi putut vedea şi un ac în colţul cel mai întunecat al celulei. Dar iau trebuit zece ani ca s-o poată face, gândi Monte Cristo.

Da - îşi spuse el - iată piatra pe care stăteam. Iată urma umerilor mei, întipărită pe un zid. Iată urma sângelui care mi s-a scurs din frunte într-o zi când am vrut să-mi sfărâm capul de pereţi... Şi cifrele astea... Îmi aduc aminte... Le-am scris într-o zi când socoteam vârsta tatii, ca să ştiu dacă-l voi mai găsi în viaţă, şi vârsta lui Mercedes ca să ştiu dacă o voi mai găsi liberă. După ce-am făcut socoteala, am avut o clipă de nădejde... Nu mă gândisem la foame şi la necredinţă. Nu mai ceream libertate, ci ţinerea de minte. Mai mult ca orice, mă temeam să nu înnebunesc şi să uit. *****

Leadership: Recurgi la ascunderea adevărului prin stabilirea unui alt adevăr, sau la distorsionarea realităţii prin proiecţia unei lumi ireale?

Nu-ţi poţi ascunde trecutul, la fel cum nu-ţi poţi alege părinţii. Adevărul, caracterizat în esenţă prin aceea că se acoperă gros de confidenţialitate şi non-divulgare, dar nu elimină durerea pierderii de sine în jocul vieţii, în interacţiunea cu trecutul pe care ţi-l aminteşti printr-un soi de constrângere subiectivă, este primul din coordonatele care îţi defineşte personalitatea în momentele de profundă mişcare emoţională.

Adevărul este un fel de victorie a raţiunii de a suporta presiunea evenimentelor în mod constructiv, fără a lăsa în urma ta o imagine falsă a realităţii pe care ai îndurat-o în încercarea de a da un sens vieţii. A justifica ascunderea adevărului prin faptul că te simţi vinovat, confuz, neştiind cum să găseşti eliberare şi pace, prin refuzul de a răspunde solicitării conştiinţei de a păcăli aceste sentimente, înseamnă de fapt să consimți la sinuciderea ta, să renegi ceea ce ai mai bun în tine, înseamnă să pierzi totul din avântul spre înălţimile împlinirii personale.

Distorsionarea realităţii prin jocul cu posibilităţile mărturisirii experienţei, a propriilor dezamăgiri, a identităţii umbrite de un trecut insuficient estompat, poate să anuleze raportul de succesiune între depăşirea obstacolului numit „ căderea într-un abis inimaginabil " şi poziţionarea pe o treaptă desăvârşită a vieţii şi societăţii. Amintirile reprezintă un indiciu al adevărului investit cu un vot de neîncredere, completat cu tendinţa spre complexe de inferioritate, un act de acuzare la adresa naturii tale reale care contribuie la perpetuarea falsificării imaginii de sine.

Leadership: Pe ce se bazează adevărul unei conştiinţe care se aşează deasupra realităţii, ştiind că ceea ce te leagă de persoana pe care n-o poţi compara cu altcineva este apanajul unui Ego fragil care se alimentează dintr-o permanentă negură a amintirilor?

În leadership, asta se poate traduce prin faptul că ţi-ai irosit posibilităţile de a controla

A recurge la ascunderea adevărului prin stabilirea unui alt adevăr înseamnă să faci abstracţie de ceea ce ai fost, şi să fii în acord cu ceea ce ştii că ai devenit. Nu degeaba mărturisea scriitorul Alexandre Dumas: „ Numai cei slabi văd totul ca printr-o pânză neagră. Sufletul îşi deschide singur orizonturile. "

Prin aceasta se înţelege libertatea omului de a se redefini prin corectarea erorii de a se supune trecutului care îl urmăreşte, manevrat de o forţă nevăzută, dar combătută cu o atitudine responsabilă. Adevărul este un moment important în pregătirea omului pentru confruntarea propriu-zisă cu un Ego care experimentează umilinţa de a trăi în permanenţă un adevărat proces de conştiinţă.

Bine spunea powerlifterul Konstantīns Konstantinovs: "Amintirea este o altă realitate în care noi participăm cu o dublă existenţă – cea prezentă şi cea din trecut. Viaţa noastră este de fapt numai o acumulare de amintire."

Iar eu sunt de părere că adevărul unei conştiinţe care se sprijină pe o asemenea existenţă, se măsoară prin simţământul neputinţei de a vedea mai departe de propriile limite, nevoie şi imperfecţiuni.

Conştiinţa care se aşează deasupra realităţii este acea voce lăuntrică care te îndeamnă la anumite acţiuni, dar nu te motivează să slujeşti unui loc şi unui timp care se repetă prin sentimentul nostalgiei, al sensibilităţii şi al unei devastatoare solitudini.

Sufletul îşi deschide singur orizonturile desemnează acea ridicare deasupra trecutului, acea eliberare din ceea ce ai ajuns să fii la un moment dat: un prizonier al durerii. Distorsionarea realităţii prin proiecţia unei lumi ireale este echivalent cu a trăi în ipostaza unui prizonier care nu are dreptul de a deschide uşa închisorii sale şi să evadeze - chiar dacă, în mod normal, eşti un om liber. Prezentul poate deveni, prin procesul aducerii aminte, o permanentă pendulare între cele două lumi - a realităţii şi a irealităţii - modelate de gânduri, sentimente, umbre şi dorinţe care te împrejmuiesc.

Lumea omului modern, ca produs al raţiunii şi simţirii aferente conştiinţei extinse în prezent, asigurând întreaga valoare a dimensiunii sale de entitate distinctă, funcţionează prin intermediul unui algoritm exclusiv, divizat în doi paşi. Primul pas este să te eliberezi de confuzie prin a şti ce trebuie să eviţi să-ţi aminteşti. Al doilea pas este să te accepţi ca promotor al unei abordări care vizează destructurarea vechii identităţi şi construirea uneia noi.

Acest algoritm, pe fondul unui sentiment puternic, trăit preponderent ca reflectare a trecutului şi prezentului, face din leadership o ecuaţie a continuităţii identităţii.

Sufletul unei comori pierdute

On Aprilie 04, 2013

Sporeşte valoarea existenţei tale, luptând contra acelui factor care te înţepeneşte în submediocritate.

Singurătatea este acum singura piatră de încercare pentru Laura Quinn, singura formă de a se lepăda de tot ceea ce o leagă de lume, singurul ei aliat împotriva acelui cancer care o rodea încet, zi de zi, mâncându-i toată viaţa, înţepenind-o în mediocritate. Ai senzaţia că întrezăreşti urme de fard în ridurile acestei fiinţe care n-a cunoscut decât munca de birou, o suspectezi că îşi construieşte un adevăr convenabil unei puteri de neînvins ce îi permite să cedeze unor instincte de adaptare la o captivitate greoaie, cu atât mai tristă, cu cât este numită, fraudulos, libertate.

Adevărul care o chinuieşte este senzaţia că nu poate să împartă cu nimeni aceeaşi soartă a omului revoltat de capriciile unei stranii Providenţe. O clipă ea rămâne singură pe terasă, pierdută într-o sumbră cugetare. Fără a fi mişcaţi de frumuseţea şi blândeţea ei, îi vom examina subtil trăsăturile, ca şi cum ar fi fost ale vreunei fiinţe cu o infinită sensibilitate şi discreţie, dar abandonată ca un condamnat într-o lume întunecată, în care se poate muri de tristeţe şi disperare. Căci asta şi ajunsese.

Factorul primordial care te înţepeneşte în submediocritate este prezenţa ta într-un loc unde trecutul și prezentul se întâlnesc într-un destin centrat în jurul noţiunii de "sfârşit al lumii".

Cu blândeţe, ochii ei scrutează întunericul nopţii. Nepăsare, dispreţ, nefericire. Rămăşiţe de rafinament amestecate cu cioburi de mândrie. După felul cum stă încordată, îngândurată, cu privirea obosită, cum totul în ea se desface şi se reface ca o legătură chimică, generând acea reacţie severă a propriei naturi care nu se poate produce în sens invers, - putem sesiza, desigur, acel amalgam de simţăminte sărmane şi sumbre care o stăpânesc în întregime, ca un germene puţin virulent afectând un bolnav care se apără bine şi este foarte greu de bătut.

Dar care este oare natura legăturilor care se stabileşte între elementele definitorii care o fac totuşi pe Laura să spere, să viseze la clipa când va uita complet totul, când va conta doar că este ea însăşi, atât? Să simtă lumina, să simtă viaţa, să simtă acea atingere însufleţitoare, dumnezeiască, care lipseşte din viaţa ei, vindecătoare de orice tristeţe, durere sau suferinţă.

Leadership: Intervenţia ta în crearea unui rezultat frumos permite accesarea unei realităţi create din propria ta esenţă care, prin doar negaţia ei, reuşeşte să tranforme o poveste într-o singură persoană?

Există gânduri care nu se destăinuiesc în faţa nimănui, şi ale cărui mărturisiri sunt dureroase, atât de chinuitoare, mai ales pentru cel ce le adăposteşte. Culori, linii, spaţii, amestecuri de elemente cu semnificaţii aparte, forţe inegale, testate, folosite, apoi revizuite în mod repetat, formând un adeziv natural ce se întăreşte şi devine foarte rezistent.

Iar aceste tipuri de legături dispuse aleatoriu într-un sistem de sine care nu e dotat cu nicio sursă bună de lumină, creând o firavă esenţă spirituală, dobândesc nuanţe secundare. Transformând-o pe Laura Quinn într-un "Mo", într-un roboţel lipsit de direcţie, ce se manifestă sub formă de tendinţă. Sârguincioasa tendinţă de a se închide în sine, de a-şi abandona valorile cele mai de preţ, şi tot ceea ce ea considera ca fiind rațiune.

Nu putem rămâne, de asemenea, nesimţitori nici faţă de Ego-ul şi atitudinea ei. Capul ridicat spre cer, în semn de respect atribuit Domnului, singurul ei aliat de nădejde, singurul care o înţelege. Suma de gânduri, asemenea unei rugi pe care nimeni nu trebuie să o audă, o duc dintr-o stare într-alta, deschizând încă o dată uşile inimii ei.

Toate aceste mici gesturi trădează cu uşurinţă o putere uriaşă: speranţa. Amintindu-ne de Eva de Chazelay din romanul lui Alexandre Dumas, care deşi suferindă şi neajutorată, în adâncul sufletului ei ascundea o comoară, o sumedenie de calităţi care aşteptau să fie scoase la iveală. Povestea Evei de Chazelay se sintetizează într-o singură persoană, Laura Qunn, care îşi neagă adesea esenţa legăturii ei cu Dumezeu, dar niciodată nu renunţă la posibilitatea unei noi creaţii numite reprezentativ "Omul Nou".

Leadership: Ai un rol major în viziunea pe care ţi-o formezi despre un destin inspirat din adevărurile cele mai triste ale vieţii, direct proporţional cu mândria de a te considera reperul primordial al unei credinţe înscrisă generic în sfera interogaţiei: „Ce glas s-a auzit venind de dincolo de sfârşit?"

În "Memoirs" scriitorul André Maurois spunea că "este o mare nebunie şi aproape întotdeauna pedepsită să te întorci şi să vrei să retrăieşti la patruzeci de ani tot ce ai iubit sau de care te-ai bucurat la douăzeci." Laura Quinn are această vârstă şi nici nu-şi îngăduie luxul de a se mai exterioriza ca alţii, ca să dea semnale de alarmă în legătură cu starea ei intelectuală şi socială. Cu solemnitate, ea acceptă un destin anost doar cu speranţa că ceva se va întâmpla în favoarea ei, fără a discerne erorile propriei vieţi, fără a căuta să le corecteze prin soluţii iluzorii.

Practic, Laura Quinn are un rol major în viziunea pe care şi-o formează despre un destin inspirat din adevărurile cele mai triste ale vieţii, acela de a se orienta în permanenţă după direcţia vântului schimbărilor, asigurându-se că toate activitățile ei se desfășoară în conformitate cu speranţa unui nou început de drum. Din prea-plinul sufletesc, ea îşi procură energia necesară pentru a împlinirea tuturor obiectivelor pe termen scurt, se observă responsabilitatea înţelepciunii ei de a aprecia fiecare zi prin micile bucurii pe care i le oferă fragilitatea viselor încă nespulberate, chiar dacă majoritatea se dovedesc a fi nişte himere, nişte promisiuni deşarte.

Până şi oamenii cei mai puţin clarvăzători ar fi putut citi pe chipul Laurei patimile pustiitoare, durerile sfâşietoare care au zvârlit-o în abisul insondabil al deznădejdii. Înţelege şi îndepărtează-te de această năpastă, fiinţă dragă ! Dar comanda simultană a frecvenţelor ei de acord, nu poate îndeplini relaţia de parteneriat, relaţia de unu-la-unu între lumea interioară şi cea exterioară.

Numai o izbucnire a sufletului, fulgerătoare, ar putea schimba starea ei de spirit. Numai un alt gând, mai puternic ca intensitate, mai bine optimizat, ar putea să-i redea seninătatea. Numai un singur component din sistemul care o defineşte ca om, mai poate reacţiona într-o unitate de timp: magia, ieşirea din zona critică, trecerea spre altceva, spre un nou început. Un pas care trebuie făcut cu încredere deplină în marea lume a vieţii.

Leadershipul este zona de potenţial pozitiv creată din viziunea pe care ţi-o formezi despre un destin inspirat din adevărurile cele mai triste ale vieţii, destin care poate fi oricând provocat, întors către punctul cardinal numit "Vârf de parabolă".

Sufletul unei comori pierdute evidenţiază acea tendință de a te închide în tine, de a-ţi abandona valorile cele mai de preţ care te orientează să mergi întotdeauna mai departe. Dacă vrei ca această comoară să fie accesibilă, atunci sporeşte valoarea existenţei tale, luptând contra acelui factor care te înţepeneşte în mediocritate.

Suflul creator

Ridică-ţi leadershipul la rang de artă, sugerându-le oamenilor să aleagă şi să accepte acea culoare dătătoare de energie care să le deblocheze potenţialul.

Am cunoscut-o pe vremea când eram student în anul întâi, pe la sfârşitul primului semestru. Era studentă, ca şi mine, doar că la o altă facultate. Foarte inteligentă, cultivată, nicidecum tipul de fată plină de ea şi prefăcută, ceea ce m-a bucurat şi m-a liniştit. Era, de asemenea, foarte frumoasă, de statură medie, cu figură de copil, ochi căprui dulci şi jucăuşi, sprâncene maro subţiri, arcuite, nas fin, niţeluş ascuţit, buze uşor cărnoase şi o privire plină de taină. Deloc machiată, îmbrăcată modest dar elegant. Părea lipsită de cusururi. Şi câtă tinereţe era în zâmbetul ei. Inspira totuşi o oarecare maturitate.

M-am văzut cu ea de prea puţine ori ca să spun că o cunosc îndeajuns de bine. Dar prima oară când am zărit-o, în biblioteca universităţii, mi-am dat seama că îmi era superioară în mai multe privinţe. O priveam cu multă atenţie, ea nu a observat şi din cauza asta nu s-a sesizat. Era chiar în banca din faţa mea. Ceva mi-a stârnit foarte tare interesul. Scria ceva. Nu ştiam ce. Stătea aplecată asupra caietului. Mi se părea că ascunde ceva. De parcă îşi crease un mic teritoriu încercuit de bariere invizibile, în interiorul căruia se retrăgea. Pentru că părea atât de absorbită de ceea ce scria, mi-am aplecat privirea asupra caietului ei, sperând să întrezăresc misterul. Am făcut ceva ce nu poate fi iertat? Nu cred.

Trăia în lumea imaginaţiei, scria o poezie. O poezie de dragoste. Cuvintele ei se legau atât de uşor, aveau sens, aveau rimă şi se transformau uneori în expresii frumoase. Nu se repeta. Metaforele pe care le planta inteligent între versurile scurte mă purtau în spaţii nevăzute, într-o lume de basm: cu cavaleri curajoşi, prinţese frumoase, zâne şi spiriduşi. Era o creaţie autentică, dar tema era asemănătoare cu cea din „ Visul unei nopţi de vară " de William Shakespeare.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi însuşeşti înţelegerea definitorie a ceea ce eşti într-un exerciţiu de admiraţie faţă de o figură remarcabilă, iluminat de revelaţia esenţei artei care este asimilată sufleteşte printr-un act de interogare vizuală?

O urmăream cu atenţie cum scrie. Ceva îmi ţinea ţintită privirea asupra ei. Nu ştiu ce. O forţă nevăzută, misterioasă. Oh, ce fată ! Am simţit că dacă stau mai mult în preajma ei voi putea şi eu să fiu ca ea, creativ, spontan, inventiv, unic şi extraordinar. Aş fi vrut să aflu ce-i trecea prin cap, la ce se gândea, cum îi veneau ideile, cum reuşea să scrie atât de frumos, atât de rapid şi atât de bine. Aşa cum spunea odată un scriitor, o fată tânără e un profesor înnăscut şi poţi întotdeauna învăţa ceva de la ea.

În acel moment, cu mult entuziasm şi cu o poftă nebună, mi-am dorit să învăţ de la ea să scriu. Dar nu să scriu poezii, ci să fiu creativ. Să am idei, mintea să-mi alerge tot mai repede, conştient fiind că doar oamenii creativi reuşesc să ajungă departe. Ca dintr-un izvor care a secat vreme îndelungată, deborda atunci în mine o bucurie creatoare nestăvilită. Trei cuvinte îmi sunau în urechi tot mai tare, tot mai des: cunoaştere, inventivitate, succes. Oamenii de succes au avantajul că sunt inteligenţi, ingenioşi, găsesc rapid idei şi ştiu să construiască ceva de la zero.

N-am vorbit niciodată cu nimeni despre ziua aceea în care am devenit scriitor. Din păcate n-am păstrat legătura cu ea deşi ne-am înţeles bine. Nu ne-am mai văzut de foarte mult timp. De aproape 6 ani. Îmi amintesc puţine lucruri despre ea. Mi-ar plăcea nespus de mult s-o revăd. Ştie că am scris câteva cărţi. A aflat de curând. Bănuiesc că încă mai este surprinsă.

Probabil se întreabă cum am reuşit. Oare ea îmi va afla vreodată secretul?

Leadership: Trebuie să respecţi o manieră de a exprima simţământul de apropiere faţă de cineva, care să-ţi permită experimentarea creaţiei numită "compromisul de a accepta o altă versiune a realităţii?"

Încercarea mea de a-mi exprima potenţialul a fost ca şi cum aş fi ales o culoare care m-a transformat complet ! O culoare care a scos în evidenţă partea aceea folositoare din mine, tot aşa cum un pictor se serveşte de anumite tonuri şi nuanţe pentru a reliefa anumite trăsături ale modelului. O culoare care a accelerat întregul meu proces de schimbare, sporindu-mi randamentul, înghiţind parcă orice nuanţe care nu se potriveau valorilor şi convingerilor mele.

„Culoarea" mea caracteristică a fost un mod de exprimare a propriilor sentimente. Şi îi mulţumesc Mariei că mi-a dat suflul creator de care aveam nevoie pentru a-mi manifesta competenţele.

Tu poţi să sugerezi oamenilor să aleagă acea „culoare" pe care s-o considere parte integrantă din fiinţa lor? Acea culoare care să le poată provoca trăiri, stări, sentimente, care să aibă un efect pozitiv asupra psihicului lor, care să conducă la transformarea lor totală? Culoarea ta are personalitatea unui artist care îşi asumă realitatea după un model de gândire care inspiră numai prin mărturia prezenţei sale?

Ridică-ţi leadershipul la rang de artă, sugerându-le oamenilor să aleagă şi să accepte acea culoare dătătoare de energie care să le deblocheze potenţialul.

Leadership: Poţi să exprimi ceea ce eşti într-un mod pur, autentic şi puternic, apelând intens la factorul instinctiv al sentimentului de mister care ţine în suspans o lume întreagă până în ultima clipă a vieţii?

O clipă în viaţa unui om poate deveni hotărâtoare. Pentru mine această clipă a fost când am întâlnit-o pe Ea. Dacă n-ar fi fost ea, cea care să-mi dea suflul necesar pentru a trece la acţiune, lucrurile ar fi stat acum probabil cu totul altfel. În sufletul meu îi mulţumesc pentru influenţa pe care a avut-o asupra mea. Misterul pe care îl împrăştia în jur, farmecul ei aparte, zâmbetul cald şi isteţimea, m-au convins să-mi doresc să trec la un alt nivel, să mai implic mai mult în cariera mea, să fiu mai bun din punct de vedere profesional, mai perseverent şi nu în ultimul rând mai creativ. De atunci nu a trecut o zi fără să scriu ceva, fără să-mi pun imaginaţia la bătaie.

Scriitorul român, Cristian Ţurcanu, observa: "Prezenţa misterului este ceea ce dă aripi şi inspiraţie minţilor cercetătoare. Prezenţa misterului şi nevoia de a-l elucida este ceea ce determină mintea să aprofundeze cunoaşterea şi să-şi însuşească o serie întreagă de calităţi. Misterul este ceea ce fascinează, dă profunzime şi savoare oricărei percepţii. Misterul trezeşte în noi dimensiuni nebănuite şi face ca viaţa să devină cu adevărat interesantă. Alungarea misterului din viaţa noastră este ca şi cum ne-am autoexila într-o zonă deşertică. Dacă,pe măsură ce afli tot mai multe, îţi dai seama că ştii tot mai puţine, înseamnă că misterul este prezent în viaţa ta, iar sufletul se dezvoltă în voie."

Scopul unui lider este acela de a-i determina pe oameni să creadă în el şi să-l urmeze. Trebuie să fie un model demn de urmat. Trebuie să aibă o putere de transformare. Trebuie să le dea oamenilor sursa de energie şi suflul creator de care au nevoie pentru a deveni mai buni şi mai eficienţi. Trebuie să le dea inspiraţia de care au nevoie.

Dacă oamenii vor da tot ce au mai bun din ei şi vor obţine rezultate peste orice fel de aşteptări înseamnă că au fost conduşi de un lider foarte bun. Iar dacă îşi vor egala liderul, atunci succesul lor va creşte semnificativ.

A accepta o nouă versiune a realităţii înseamnă să accepţi a trăi permanent cu consecinţa adoptării unei forme de putere care s-a creat pe fondul unei admiraţii nemăsurate faţă de cineva sau ceva.

Suflul creator este 50% inspiraţie şi 50% transpiraţie. Între a visa să realizezi ceva şi a putea să-ţi pui visul în practică este o diferenţă mare. Totdeauna trebuie să-ţi evaluezi bine potenţialul, posibilităţile de realizare, baza de la care porneşti, pentru a fi convins că urmezi o cale bună spre realizarea individuală.

Sunetul muzicii

Ieşi din tiparul obişnuit al stilului impus de preferinţele unei viziuni riguroase, gestionând cu pricepere efectele care trebuiesc relevate în lumina magică a propriei creaţii.

De câte ori se termină repetiţiile, compozitorul îl invită pe Serghei Eisenstein să asiste la înregistrare. De fiecare dată regizorul găseşte un amănunt care trebuie relevat, un efect dramatic care cere subliniat. „Îmbunătăţim astfel mult efectele muzicii noastre.", spune Prokofiev. Eisenstein se entuziasmează pentru muzica acestuia. Dar şi compozitorul este mulţumit.

La o înregistrare, cei din jur îl aud mormăind: „Ce ciudat sună ! " Nimeni nu înţelege ce vrea să spună marele compozitor, până când Prokofiev, remarcând nedumerirea celor din jur, le spune râzând: „Muzica nu seamănă deloc cu Prokofiev".

Dar mai târziu, avea să-i spună cu candoare soţiei sale: „Aud la radio un cântec frumos şi, când colo, era – Sculaţi, voi oameni ruşi – din filmul Nevski ! " *

Leadership: Tragi linia acolo unde "amănuntul" se transformă într-un efect de extindere a dimensiunii de creaţie?

Alături de aşa zisa originalitate a complexităţii, fondată pe corelaţiile înnoitoare dintre variabilele de „amănunt" dependente de o anumită reprezentare pe suportul liniei de creaţie, am putea vorbi de o microestetică ce vizează nu doar conţinuturi, ci raporturi de sensuri şi forme considerate proprietăţi ale percepţiei individuale, transpuse în elemente structurale ale unei serii evoluate de îmbunătăţiri.

Sensurile şi formele atribuite unui conţinut care variază, ca nivel de dificultate, în funcţie de temă şi amploare, în tandem cu cerinţele noi de acurateţe şi de calitate pe care le conţine un stil potrivit cu personalitatea proprie, sunt luate în considerare cu mai multă atenţie, şi în final integrate într-o nouă structură de susţinere a idealului de perfecţiune.

Aici putem vorbi despre un leadership care dă măsură performanţei şi capacităţii tale deosebite în recunoaşterea sensului şi formei pe care trebuie să o îmbrace opţiunea de inedit. Tu singur trebuie să conştientizezi şi să tragi linia acolo unde "amănuntul" se transformă într-un "efect de extindere a dimensiunii de creaţie", accentuând necesitatea de a materializa orice input de sens şi de formă într-un rezultat de excepţie.

Amănuntul care trebuie relevat pentru ca o creaţie să capete un efect de originalitate cu impact de durată este o ieşire din tiparul clasic al expresiei artistice, urmată de instituirea unui sens mai profund de regăsire a unei părţi din tine.

Această parte din tine este esenţa unei lumi în schimbare şi, în acelaşi timp, esenţa unei vieţi trăite din toată inima.

Ceea ce declanşează o resetare totală a leadershipului este posibilitatea de a ieşi din tiparul obişnuit al stilului impus de preferinţele unei viziuni riguroase, gestionând cu pricepere efectele care trebuiesc relevate în lumina magică a propriei creaţii. Mare dreptate avea cel care spunea: „ Din cauza unei viziuni prea stricte şi minuţioase, se poate pierde un lucru important, spiritul va deveni nesigur, iar în felul acesta poţi pierde şansa unei victorii certe. "

Victoria, pe planul unor activităţi convenabile de reinterpretare a compoziţiei creaţiei, sub aspectul multiplicării sensurilor şi formelor de expresie, cernute într-o formulă modernă şi bine închegată, este de fapt o consecinţă firească a raţiunii de pătrunde acolo unde nu ţi se permite accesul. În acea dimensiune a superiorităţii, în care variaţiile şi combinaţiile de inedit, mărginite adesea de părerile celorlalţi, pot atinge valoarea uimitoare de „Wow ! "

Preferinţele unei viziuni riguroase diferă în funcţie de modalitatea de exprimare a Sinelui în mijlocul unor prefaceri de ordin structural şi estetic care oferă muzicii puterea de a induce euforia.

Sunetul muzicii redă acea vibraţie interioară a firii înclinate spre studiu şi detaliu, în etapa de redimensionare a creaţiei, care se poate înalţa sau coborî în funcţie de satisfacţia resimţită în urma vizualizării rezultatelor finale.

Sunt şi nu sunt

On Aprilie 16, 2016

Reprezintă-ţi traiectoria în ecuația leadershipului, păstrând contactul cu zonele edificatoare ale făpturii tale.

Numaidecât, trebuia să găsesc o explicaţie plauzibilă punctelor de vedere ale formei mele de a interfera cu ceea ce voiam să ascund într-o altă fiinţă, pentru ca starea mea interioară să corespundă cerinţelor unui fel de început de lume. Puteam oare să supravieţuiesc cu ideea de dublă fiinţă, personificată într-un soi de Faust-Mefisto, despre care gândeam că îmi va arăta drumul spre valorificarea unei gândiri profunde, relevând o construcţie ideatică şi simbolică totodată?

O fiinţă care există în două lumi, una empirică-sensibilă şi alta transcendentă a ideilor, nu este altceva decât o copie imperfectă a unei trăiri expusă prin cuvânt, specifică unui vizionar de mare expresivitate, cineva profund în a evidenţia semnele unei realităţi aflată mai presus decât poate duce o minte obişnuită cu confortabila lume a simbolurilor. Cred că mă încadram fix în coordonatele gândirii unei asemenea fiinţe vizionare, pe durata nelimitată a ideilor provenite dintr-o realitate ce coagulează majoritatea simbolurilor ce impregnează mai ales latura mea inconştientă, părând că trăiesc (prin creaţie şi concepte) amintirea unor idei provenite din altă lume.

Leadership: A distinge esența de aparență, oscilând între trecut şi prezent, te obligă să-ţi ajustezi creația pentru a exprima o viziune completă.

Practic, întreaga mea făptură oscila între creaţia unui artist care foloseşte un limbaj artistic bazat pe ample generalizări, şi monologul unui scriitor care încearcă să reconstituie povestea unei amintiri din altă existenţă peste experienţa din prezent. O construcţie care să mă individualizeze pregnant în peisajul conştiinţei de sine, recurgând la tot ce era mai bun în mine, dacă nu aş fi izbutit să disting esenţa de aparenţă, ca o concluzie sugestivă pentru viziunea estetică a arhitectului catalan Antoni Gaudi: „ toate se unesc şi colaborează pentru a exprima marele cod al Creaţiei ”.

Aici trebuie făcută o altă paralelă. Căci îmi amintesc ce scria Marquerite Yourcenar în notele sale din romanul "Memoriile lui Hadrian":

A face cât poți de bine. A reface. A mai retușa imperceptibil retușa însăși. "Pe mine însumi mă corectez, spunea Yeats, corectându-mi operele." El a fost unul dintre cei ce au avut bunăvoința de a se deranja din proprie inițiativă spre a rectifica o greșeală, a confirma un detaliu, a sprijini o ipoteză, a înlesni o nouă cercetare - fapte pentru care îi aduc prieteneasca mea mulțumire.

Leadership: Prin intermediul a ceea ce te îndeamnă să fii legătura dintre artist şi creaţie, eşti pregătit să te constitui drept o copie perfectă a unei stări sufletești reflectată dintr-o imagine mai diferită despre tine?

Din nuanţele unui stimul "sunt şi nu sunt", în limitele unui timp care îşi doboară întrebările, se naşte un flux de acceptabilitate a unor consecinţe tot mai puțin vizibile sau simţibile, ca nişte fantezii dobândite prin ceva care nu se atinge niciodată. Legătura mea dintre artist şi creaţie, sugerând o anumită individualizare a subiectelor alese, concentrează o idee care se află deasupra tuturor celorlalte, anume faptul că orice te aştepţi să împlineşti prin cunoaştere confirmă acea emoţie de aventură, de imprevizibil şi necunoscut.

Trăiam cu impresia că pot să obțin o victorie asupra propriei mele naturi individuale nu doar prin confruntarea cu duhurile şi cu zeii, lărgind-o astfel până la limitele umanului, ci mai ales printr-o dedublare spontană a personalităţii, găzduind o voce interioară îndrumătoare şi una exterioară limitativă care nu-mi permitea să mă accept aşa cum sunt.

Legătura dintre artist şi creaţie este dată de ficţiunea unei vieţi în care tu poţi fi TOTUL, dar în care se poate recunoaşte oricine.

Ficţiunea pe care o emana creaţia mea reprezenta o copie perfectă a unei stări sufletești reflectată într-o imagine diferită despre mine, acea stare de care mă lăsam învăluit atunci când intram într-un vis cu nenumărate interpretări care făcea parte dintr-un proces continuu de a învăța despre mine însumi.

Impresia aceasta dureroasă, provenind dintr-un motiv real, mă urmărea peste tot. E aceeaşi impresie care-l urmărea din când în când pe Adrian Leverkuhn, dar care o uita destul de repede ascultând emoţionantul recitativ al parabolei Purgatoriul , despre omul care poartă în noapte o lumină în spinare: ea nu-i arată drumul, dar luminează în urma lui ajutând astfel celor ce vin după el.

Leadership: Poți să descoperi dintr-o dublă ipostază animaţia tabloului numit „O lumină în întuneric", prin felul cum îţi deschizi orizonturile în faţa unei realităţi care pare să-ţi fie a priori complet străină?

Traiectoria omului în ecuația leadershipului se poate reprezenta în contact cu zonele edificatoare ale făpturii sale, în care se decide trecerea de la o reprezentare de sine limitativă la una extensivă. Omul edifică ceea ce vrea el să susţină prin ceea ce a tot a exersat să accepte de la el însuşi, căutând să se afirme în ambele componente ale preţuirii de sine: cunoaşterea şi adevărul.

Personalitatea și gândirea unui om este exemplară deopotrivă prin traiectoria dublei ființe. Una care caută să se facă stăpână pe propria viaţă într-o lume creată. Cealaltă care caută să-și stăpânească conştiinţa de sine orientându-se într-o direcție întemeiată pe imaginaţie, în lumea reală.

Apartenența ta la un cadru mai larg de gestionare a dezvoltării personale este rezultatul unirii celor două ființe, dar fără a te centra mai mult pe una în defavoarea celeilalte. Învaţă să te corectezi pe tine însuţi, corectându-ţi opera numită Ego dintr-un Alter-Ego care nu-ţi dă pace și încearcă să se ascundă în spatele unei realităţi fictive.

Poți să descoperi dintr-o dublă ipostază animaţia tabloului numit „O lumină în întuneric" dacă te pui contextul unei consecinţe a unității tale, interferând cu identificarea și conturarea unei anumite direcţii în viaţă, la fel ca într-o ficţiune care captează atenţia. Astfel înveți valoarea unei separări dintre partea din tine care îţi cere cu ardoare "ceva-ul" ală de afară şi conştiinţa care îţi impune anumite restricţii.

Ceea ce eşti reprezintă consecinţa Eu-lui care doreşte să-şi facă cunoscute concepțiile despre lume în povestea vieţii.

„O lumină în întuneric" sugerează durata traversării propriei punţi de înţelegere, la intersecția dintre cele două ființe, până când constaţi că se amplifică perspectiva de sine până la angajarea directă în cadrul propice unei poveşti de viaţă reală.

Ceea ce nu se poate calcula este diferenţa dintre ceea ce este adevărat şi ceea ce percepem noi în mod limitat, având totuşi rezonanţă asupra felului în care interpretăm ceea ce ni se întâmplă în viaţă.

Dar ceea ce face din om profilul unei opere de o mare deschidere intelectuală şi emoţională, înfruntând complexităţile lui inerente, sub înrâurirea imboldului imperativ de a-şi pune în lumină acea parte din fiinţă care este adesea subestimată şi cel mai puţin înţeleasă, ţine de capacitatea de a distinge esenţa de aparenţă.

A-ţi deschide orizonturile în faţa unei realităţi care pare să-ţi fie a priori complet străină înseamnă să te recunoşti învingător în lupta dintre ceea ce cauţi să înfăptuieşti prin cunoaştere, la nivel de Ego, şi ceea ce trăieşti la nivel de conştiinţă şi simţire în mod dependent de un Alter Ego care se consideră „plin de contradicţii, exact ca lumea din jurul tău.

Leadershipul este fiinţa pe care o reprezinţi în procesul de căutare al sensului atribuit unei poveşti despre viaţă, dintr-o operă numită "Estetica unui creator care se caută pe sine".

Zonele edificatoare ale făpturii tale la nivel de Creator sunt: capacitatea de a gândi independent de ceilalţi, capacitatea de a prezenta construcții noi ale realității, capacitatea de a crea o lume nouă din cuvinte.

Sunt şi nu sunt este consecinţa regăsirii tale într-o dublă ipostază: o fiinţă care caută să se facă stăpână pe propria viaţă într-o lume creată. Cealaltă care caută să-și stăpânească conştiinţa de sine orientându-se într-o direcție întemeiată pe imaginaţie, în lumea reală.

Cu cât ne vom da seama mai bine de părţile profunde care se aseamănă, sub deosebirile aparente, cu atât vom fi în stare să ne înţelegem.

Sunteţi extraordinar de scump

On Martie 07, 2012

Fii valoarea pe care ţi-o câştigi prin modul de a te raporta la tine însuţi într-o lume care se raportează la un indicator calitativ al eficacității.

Marţi am fost în vestul ţării pentru a negocia condiţiile unui parteneriat cu o anumită universitate. La aceeaşi universitate, fără să acced la o poziție pentru prestigiul ei, am salutat sincer disponibilitatea anumitor competenţe de care au dat dovadă diferiţi profesori, dar şi eu mi-am asumat disponibilitatea de a face compromisuri în cazul în care voi semna un contract.

Condiţiile mele trebuiau să pună în evidenţă capacitatea mea deosebită de a preda şi de a ţine sub control câmpul unei anumite ştiinţe, mai bine ca oricine, dar se îndreptau pregnant spre capacitatea de explorare şi schimbare a condiţiilor de muncă şi a rezultatelor obţinute de ceilalţi profesori. Practic, am fost pregătit să le dovedesc acestora autoritatea mea în domeniu şi iscusinţa mea neîntrecută la capitolul rezultate ştiinţifice.

Încă de la început mi-am stabilit tariful în funcţie de numărul de cursuri şi seminarii, să spunem că nu am fost deloc modest, de altfel nici nu-mi permite conştiinţa să mă alătur cu modestie unor eforturi mari de a contribui de-a lungul anilor la prestigiul internaţional al Universităţii respective. Sunt un gânditor riguros şi pătrunzător a cărui concepţie foarte bine închegată despre ştiinţă şi artă se articulează, până la amănunt, curajos şi bine ţintit, pe axul flexibil al grijii permanente pentru coerenţă, intelectualism, amestecate cu un simţ impecabil al artei.

Prin știință și virtute devii vrednic de un renume considerabil, mai ales dacă te raportezi la consolidarea unei arte care se refuză repetabilității și inerţiei.

- Vai, dar sunteţi extraordinar de scump, nici chiar rectorul universităţii nu câştiga atât de mult, mi-a spus unul dintre reprezentanţii facultăţii.

- Aveţi perfectă dreptate, valoarea mea este mult mai mare decât a unui rector, mult mai mare decât a decanilor şi mult mai mare decât a profesorilor", i-am răspuns eu. Şi asta deoarece cunoaşterea de care dispun eu este mult mai vastă ca a lor, drept pentru care numele meu în lume, şi asta datorită internetului, este mai cunoscut decât toate universităţile din România. Chiar şi faptul că m-aţi invitat aici, este o certitudine că ştiinţa cu ajutorul căreia mi-am construit un BRAND denotă o credibilitate mare (chiar şi pe scena internaţională), numele meu fiind mult mai important decât al tuturor celor care reprezintă această universitate.

Leadership: Mesajul pe care îl pune la dispoziţie creaţia ta poate să inspire acel simţ al armoniei dintre arta bazată pe conceptul de "măsură" şi arta bazată pe o coeziune a ansamblului compus din frânturi diverse?

Beneficiile faptului de a fi un profesionist se regăseşte cred în celebra vorba: "Dacă tu crezi că un profesionist este scump, asta e din cauză că nu ştii cât te costă la sfârşit un incompetent." Bineînţeles, când vorbim despre felul profesionistului de a fi valoros, mai ales datorită rezultatelor pe care le obţine, vorbim despre valoarea căpătată cu ajutorul gândirii axată pe dezvoltare personală, pe inovaţie şi pe profit, prin intermediul Brandului format din experienţe individuale.

Profesionistul este un Brand care ştie să se reinventeze prin valoarea adăugată produsului sau serviciului pe care îl reprezintă. Iar menirea produsului sau serviciului oferit prin reinventarea imaginii proiectată în lume, este de a reprezenta valoarea adăugată a celui care ştie să comunice eficient un mesaj artistic impresionant: "Rezultatul creaţiei mele este frumosul afacerii tale de mâine".

Mai mult decât atât, este nevoie de un mesaj cu impact hotărâtor. Ori mesajul tău "Sunt extraordinar într-un domeniu" trebuie înserat în spațiul public ca să poată deveni un instrument de necontestat al performanţei, prin pregătirea unui teren de dezbatere critică a propriilor idei şi poziţii, într-un moment când este nevoie de o dovadă incontestabilă a talentului tău. Acest mesaj de mare impact nu trebuie, în primul rând, să vizeze definitivul, durabilul, extensivul unei imagini ultime a performerului de elită, ci performanţa intensivă, colectivă care ar putea obţine rezultate mult superioare.

Aşadar, creaţia ta în spaţiul public este Brandul de care te vei folosi pentru a putea spera la un câştig important, financiar sau spiritual. Este obligatorie capacitatea de creaţie mai ales în secolul 21, trebuind să semnaleze deschiderea publicului la nou într-un spaţiu al devenirilor colective, al posibilităţilor multiple de dobândire a unui altfel de determinism - unul bazat pe eficienţă şi evoluţie continuă (spirituală şi materială).

Adevărata măsură a unui Brand care se respectă este autonomia unei gândiri specializată în conceperea unei Creaţii care amestecă voit registrul miraculosului cu cel al naturalului.

Ce sunt aceste "frânturi diverse" care se impun pe ansamblul de receptare al artei? Ei bine, ele sunt urmarea firească a acelor strădanii de autodefinire a unei forme de exprimare şi a unei imagini reprezentative care să inspire o trăsătură puternică a personalităţii tale, cum ar fi: hotărâre, motivaţie puternică, dorinţa de a avea succes.

Arta se clădeşte pe o imagine definită pe trăsături puternice de personalitate, urmărind totodată ansamblul firesc al unor factori de progres în ceea ce priveşte condiţia omului în lume, pornind de la dorinţa de a avea succes la o formă de personalizare a ceea ce înseamnă "o încercare de reinventare a unui spaţiu marginalizat". De multe ori, omul pătruns de inspiraţie şi motivaţie trebuie să-şi intensifice strădania de a ieşi din anonimat şi de a se afirma drept performer pe o nişă de piaţă care încă nu a început să prindă contur în lume.

Leadershipul este trăsătura de caracter pe care o câştigi de pe urma strădaniei de reinventare a relaţiei dintre Creator şi Public.

Sunteţi extraordinar de scump ! - asta o să vă spună lumea care apelează la serviciile dumneavoastră, dar aceasta este şi dovada faptului că sunteţi un bun profesionist. Cine cere puţin, merită puţin, deoarece este considerat un slab profesionist sau chiar un incompetent. Aşadar, învăţaţi să cereţi cât mai mult celor care apelează la serviciile dumneavoastră !

Indicator calitativ al eficacității tale este un Brand serios care produce impact în schimbările de viitor ale lumii?

Supleţea deosebită a construcţiei de montaj

On Iulie 08, 2010

Cinematografia implică capacitatea de a crea o "suprafață de congruență a ideilor" care să proiecteze imaginea filmului într-un mod coerent și profund, creând o experiență "convexă" pentru spectator.

În genere, cunoaşterea, măcar informativă, a ideilor care erau acreditate în acei ani privind arta şi cu aplicaţie la cinematografie este importantă pentru înţelegerea uneia dintre sursele gândirii lui Eisenstein. Gândirea sa artistică din acea epocă nu s-a născut spontan, nu reprezintă o curiozitate, o bizarerie intelectuală, ci se găseşte în concordanţă cu evoluţia logică a ideilor contemporane. Vertov declara că supleţea deosebită a construcţiei de montaj îngăduie introducerea într-un "cine-studiu" a oricărei idei politice sau economice. Cunoscând aceasta, nu ne vom mai mira la apariţia "Grevei" lui Eisenstein.

Tot Vertov concluziona de aici că filmul nu mai necesită prezenţa dramei, a mizan-scenei. Istoricul Lebedev, într-un studiu despre istoria cinematografiei sovietice, constata că unul dintre principiile de bază ale Prolekult era acela al "colectivismului", care excludea existenţa eroilor individuali în favoarea maselor, a colectivelor. Ideea tipajului fusese la rândul ei aplicată de Eisenstein încă în teatru şi îşi avea obârşia în pasiunea sa pentru commedia dell'arte şi în concepţiile teatrale ale lui Meyerhold.

Coerența unui film de artă reprezintă abilitatea de a menține o narațiune 'plană', unde ideile converg spre un punct comun, asigurând o logică clară a mesajului final.

"Imaginea cinematografică reprezintă proiecția pe suprafața unei piese de sticlă, în funcție de poziția fațetelor plan-paralele. Dacă suprafața de verificat este sferică, franjele sunt concentrice. Pentru a stabili dacă suprafața de congruență a ideilor create de regizor este adecvată, atunci se procedează astfel: se ajustează plan-paralela și se observă sensul de deplasare a franjelor. Dacă acestea se deplasează spre exterior, cunoașterea ideilor artistice este "convexă", adică iese mult în relief prin profunzimea conceptelor; în caz contrar, ea este "concavă", adică prezintă o adâncitură în ceea ce privește claritatea mesajului.

În cazul în care imaginea cinematografică de verificat este plană, adică ideile ce se nasc spontan converg spre un punct comun, iar logica semnificației mesajului final pe care îl speculează regizorul este înclinată foarte puțin față de realitatea de verificat, atunci este drept să considerăm că narațiunea este bine fundamentată. De adăugat faptul că cadrele plan-paralele servesc la reproducerea, păstrarea și transmiterea unității de lungime a ideilor, adică se folosesc la etalonarea și verificarea realității măsurate de emoțiile personajelor, la reglarea precisă a dispozitivelor comparatoare, precum și la verificarea și reglarea diferitelor construcții de montaj care asigură coerența filmului."

Narațiunea bine fundamentată se obține atunci când "imaginea cinematografică" este plană și convergentă, asigurând că fiecare idee se aliniază logic cu scopul final al regizorului, creând astfel o experiență coerentă și profundă.

"Figura ideilor artistice în gândirea lui Eisenstein reprezintă franjele pe suprafața culturii cinematografice, influențate de poziția diferitelor idei contemporane. Dacă suprafața de verificat este sferică, franjele sunt concentrice, reflectând o gândire artistică complexă și integrată. Pentru a stabili dacă gândirea artistică este convexă sau concavă, se observă sensul de deplasare a conceptelor. Dacă acestea se deplasează spre exterior, gândirea este expansivă și integrativă; în caz contrar, ea este introspectivă și critică. În cazul în care suprafața de verificat este plană, iar perspectiva este înclinată foarte puțin față de suprafața de verificat, benzile de influență sunt drepte și directe.

Ideile plan-paralele servesc la reproducerea, păstrarea și transmiterea unității de gândire, adică se folosesc la etalonarea și verificarea conceptelor artistice, la reglarea viziunii asupra cinematografiei, precum și la verificarea și reglarea metodelor și tehnicilor cinematografice. Vertov declara că supletea deosebită a construcției de montaj permite introducerea în orice cine-studiu a oricărei idei politice sau economice. Cunoscând această influență, apariția filmului "Greva" al lui Eisenstein nu mai surprinde.

Congruența ideilor în cinematografie poate fi evaluată prin deplasarea "franjelor"; dacă acestea arată o imagine "convexă", ideile ies în evidență și sunt bine definite, oferind un mesaj clar și puternic.

Vertov concluziona că filmul nu mai necesită prezența dramei sau a mizan-scenei, reflectând o schimbare în normele culturale și valorile cinematografice ale epocii. Istoricul Lebedev, într-un studiu despre istoria cinematografiei sovietice, constată că unul dintre principiile de bază ale Prolekult era colectivismul, care excludea existența eroilor individuali în favoarea maselor și a colectivelor. Această idee a tipajului fusese aplicată de Eisenstein încă din teatru și își avea originea în pasiunea sa pentru commedia dell'arte și în concepțiile teatrale ale lui Meyerhold.

Cultura joacă un rol crucial în procesele de schimbare socială, influențând atitudinile și comportamentele colective. Studiul interacțiunii dintre cultură și structurile sociale oferă perspective valoroase asupra dinamicilor sociale și asupra modului în care inovațiile culturale contribuie la dezvoltarea societăților. În acest context, gândirea artistică a lui Eisenstein poate fi văzută ca parte integrantă a unei evoluții culturale mai largi, reflectând tendințele și inovațiile cinematografiei sovietice."

Cunoașterea ideilor acreditate în epoca lui Eisenstein privind arta cinematografică reprezintă un aspect crucial pentru înțelegerea surselor gândirii sale artistice. Asemenea franjelor de interferență care se formează pe suprafața unei piese convexe, ideile lui Eisenstein se întrepătrund și se dezvoltă în funcție de contextul cultural și artistic al vremii. Această interconexiune între gândirea sa și curentele contemporane demonstrează că viziunea sa artistică nu este o anomalie, ci o evoluție logică a conceptelor existente.

Imaginea cinematografică trebuie să fie ajustată astfel încât "franjele" conceptuale să se deplaseze înspre exterior, semnificând o profunzime adecvată a ideilor și o claritate optimă a mesajului.

Supletea deosebită a construcției de montaj se referă la abilitatea de a adăuga și a integra perspective diferite, prin faptul că îngăduie ca fiecare fragment să contribuie la un mesaj global, deoarece montajul funcționează ca un mecanism de unificare a diversității ideilor. Din acest motiv montajul este considerat esențial ca argument al faptului că filmul poate depăși simpla poveste pentru a exprima o viziune socială, adiacent unei analize colective asupra realității."

Suprafaţa limitativă a conului de umbră

On Septembrie 27, 2013

Creează-ţi o nouă platformă de judecată, astfel încât să ieşi din conul de umbră aruncat asupra minţii tale.

Nu numai mintea poate să stimuleze reînnoirea omului. Și inima poate. Ea se înflăcărează cu adevărat, răscolind fiecare fărâmă din energia distribuită în serii intensive de pulsuri consecutive, excitând substanţa de consistenţă care provoacă simţurile şi le alimentează alternativ, grăbind procesul primar de activare a sinelui.

Iar Ego-ul neînfrânat, acest semiconductor de mare sensibilitate nu poate să funcţioneze în absenţa unei puternice surse de energie revitalizantă. Sângele străin, intens şi iute, adulmecat cu ochii, cu poftă şi cu de-amănuntul, trezeşte din adormire instinctele cele mai adânci si mai feroce, dezlănţuindu-le cu acea satisfacţie perfidă a lupului sigur pe el care îşi atrage prada într-un loc dosnic.

Desigur, este ceva sălbatic în Hannibal Lecter, o sete carnală care vieţuieşte profund în sufletul său de atâta amar de vreme. Şi care abia aşteaptă să izbucnească, ca o reacţie secundară la o afecţiune primară.

Oare până la ce adâncuri trebuie să te cufunzi în mintea unui om cu sânge rece, coborât parcă dintr-o lume mai înaintată şi mai savantă decât a noastră, pentru a-l înţelege? Pe fundul căror abisuri de nedesluşit, de contradicţii şi îndoieli, se odihneşte adevărata lui fire şi de la ce depărtare trebuie scoase la iveală, în relativă siguranţă, planurile sale diabolice?

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te constitui într-un test al forţei hazardului, plasându-te sub influenţa forţei de redefinire a identităţii personale rezultată din sugestia unei realităţi ascunse?

O simplă misiune se transformă într-o aventură periculoasă, unind două structuri vecine: puterea şi slăbiciunea. Înşelăciunea şi adevărul. Acceptarea şi paguba. Căci nimic în atitudinea lui Hannibal nu-i alarmează pe cei doi ofiţeri de poliţie, absolut nimic nu se conturează ca certitudine, niciun nerv, nicio emoţie. Doar o stăpânire de sine exemplară. Totalmente, posibilitatea de risc este anulată. Însă reacţiile secundare curg inevitabil după o schemă orientativ-determinantă.

Cei doi supraveghetori, ca două găinuşe cuminţi plimbându-se deja sătule prin ţarcul lor, nu intuiesc defel că inima lupului bate regulat livrând un flux abundent de sânge corpului. Ei se lasă duşi de valul ignoranţei şi neştiinţei. Nu ştiu că procesele de reformare a materiei ce diferă de conştiinţă, a materiei care n-are linişte, depinzând de diferite interacţiuni şi relaţii între entităţile caracterului, se derulează cu rapiditate în mintea lui Hannibal.

Ei trebuie să iasă cât mai repede din conul de umbră pe care maestrul persuasiunii, depozitarul tuturor cunoştinţelor omeneşti l-a aruncat asupra minţii lor. Spontan să se elibereze din perimetrul sumbru. Să se desprindă cumva de această suprafaţă limitativă printr-o mai bună conştientizare a situaţiei în care se află şi a pericolului ameninţător. Să distrugă energia direct proporţională cu cantitatea de stimuli ofensivi, insesizabili, care treptat le anulează simţurile şi raţiunea.

Dar, umilitor, ei acceptă să fie absorbiţi de umbră, preferă să se scufunde tot mai adânc în apele tulburi ale dominaţiei psihologice.

Pui în situaţia de "şah mat" însăşi veridicitatea leadershipului extras din coeficientul tău de predictibilitate asupra rezultatului unor acţiuni de natură să mărească flexibilitatea autonomiei tale de voinţă şi decizie?

Ca artă autentică şi nereprodusă, iar din alt punct de vedere, ca artă a persuasiunii, leadershipul se dovedeşte tot mai imperios necesar în încercarea de a aduce un spor de obiectivitate şi siguranţă în chestiuni legate de control şi reglare a stărilor şi acţiunilor umane, ce par rezervate iniţiaţilor în domeniu.

Însă, o prea mare încărcare cu acele capacităţi de inducere a unor reacţii adverse, de sensibilizare a indivizilor, deci o creştere a expansiunii de dominaţie ce le anulează acestora orice posibilitate de a reacţiona în mod optim, poate pune în situaţia de "şah mat" însăşi veridicitatea şi corectitudinea leadershipului.

Leadershipul, în relaţie cu alte ştiinţe, precum psihologia sau filozofia, abordate dintr-o manieră originală, trebuie să poată stabili cu ajutorul cunoştinţelor avansate şi prin rezonanţă, o apropiere mai profundă de mentalitatea "dezarmată" şi sprijinirea ei.

Fiecare tip de artă, spunea cineva, îşi are principiile sale, îşi are rigorile sale şi constituie un univers în sine. Iar acest univers, ce poate fi tradus printr-un individualism exacerbat, reprezentând pe deplin tot mai mulţi lideri şi acceptat fără urmă de ezitare uneori până la paroxism, dacă se ciocneşte cu realitatea scoate adesea scântei. Care nu fac decât să dea jos pragul de încredere şi reputaţia "brand-ului" lor propriu.

A pune în situaţia de "şah mat" însăşi veridicitatea leadershipului este similar încercării de a-ţi înălţa Ego-ul până la a deveni Dumnezeu, menţinând aparentele unei lupte duse până la capăt cu adversităţile imposibile ale unei ipostaze de vinovăţie.

Desigur, este ceva instinctiv în fiecare lider, care vieţuieşte profund în sufletul său şi care abia aşteaptă să izbucnească. Anume, saltul spre o nouă fază de creştere valorică. Progresul spre un stadiu mult mai avansat de funcţionalitate, eliberându-l de chinul insuficienţei de putere care implică o restrângere a sferei de acţiune.

Hannibal Lecter nu era interesat de urmările faptelor sale, ci de decizia a subordona însăşi moralitatea unui test psihologic.

Eu-l neînfrânat, semiconductorul de mare sensibilitate care nu poate să funcţioneze în absenţa unei puternice surse de energie revitalizantă, ţine cu tot dinadinsul să îşi dovedească superioritatea, beneficiind astfel de „avantajul" distanţării de principiile de corectitudine ale leadershipului. Vinovăţia se instalează puternic în chimia conştiinţei atunci când ceva din tine, sub puterea instinctului de dominaţie şi al vanităţii, îţi comandă să săvârşeşti în mod voit un act incalificabil.

Oare până la ce adâncuri trebuie să te cufunzi în mintea unui lider, pentru a-l înţelege? Pe fundul căror abisuri de nedesluşit, de contradicţii şi îndoieli, se odihneşte adevărata lui fire şi de la ce depărtare trebuie scoase la iveală, în relativă siguranţă, planurile sale incerte?

Leadership: Poţi să te constitui ca tendinţă complementară a autonomiei tale şi ca reacţie împotriva situaţiei sale de tip "abuziv" care te forţează să alegi între un compromis şi lupta împotriva unui Ego care cere totul?

În condiţiile contactului cu leadershipul, prin înlesnirea pătrunderii în universul uman, apar o serie de situaţii de care indivizii obişnuiţi nu se pot apăra. Neputincioşi în faţa influenţei care îi încolţeşte, ei trăiesc un complex de judecată, sunt loviţi de incapacitatea de a ridica deasupra împotrivirilor. Ca şi cum ar fi constrânşi să execute un ordin judecătoresc care contravine propriilor convingeri. Dar nu pot reacţiona. Influenţa majoră, iscusit încadrată în erorile lor de judecată declanşează un val de slăbiciuni, o închidere în sine. Le este restrâns teritoriul de apărare. Se lasă duşi de valul ignoranţei şi neştiinţei.

Există o notă de stabilitate mai greu sesizabilă la prima vedere, pe care întâlnirea cu leadershipul nu o asigură necondiţionat. După cum nimeni nu-şi permite să meargă la teatru sau la concert în ţinută de plajă, tot astfel niciun individ care e prins în aria conului de umbră nu poate să-şi contureze o perspectivă unitară a realităţii. Nu este capabil să permită "vederii neformate" să experimenteze abordările în care se întrepătrund şi se completează reciproc "piesele" care determină funcţionarea lor perfectă.

Măsura puterii de a fi un om profund moral vizează compromisul dintre experienţa pe care o trăieşti prin gândurile şi faptele care îţi domină mintea, şi experienţa pe care o consideri tragică când este trăită de „altcineva" datorită ţie.

Suprafaţa limitativă a conului de umbră evidenţiază posibilitatea minţii omeneşti de a intra într-un con de umbră mai mult sau mai puţin extins. Acest lucru se întâmplă atunci când coborâm garda, reducem vigilenţa, sau nu suntem pregătiţi să facem faţă unor situaţii critice apărute intempestiv. Sau, dimpotrivă, atunci când ne considerăm imbatabili.

Conul de umbră poate fi mult micşorat prin dezvoltarea conştiinţei proprii, printr-o gândire raţională care orientează individul spre menţinerea unei situaţii de lungă durată în parametrii normalului, înlăturând haosul creat de cei mărginiţi sau răuvoitori. Dezvoltarea capacităţilor de răspuns rapid prin acţiuni eficace, a perspicacităţii, a vigilenţei, a mobilităţii gândirii şi crearea unei "expectative armate", anihilează orice con de umbră în care se poate cădea.

Extinde parametrii de referinţă ai identităţii tale, prin reglarea intensităţii simţirii pe care o percepi şi o transmiţi celor din jur.

El Dorado, singura oază de prosperitate în mijlocul crizei, tulbura somnul şi obseda imaginaţia hoardelor multicolore de aventurieri pe care vapoarele îi descărcau în fiecare zi pe coastele Cubei şi ale Espanolei.

În acelaşi fel nemăsuratul Ego al acestei femei fragile supusă vanităţii, singura ei oază de înseninare într-o lume neagră, nu-i mai dă pace, îi tulbură şi obsedează existenţa, satisfăcând principiul acţiunii şi reacţiunii: " Forţa pe care o exercită primul corp asupra celui de-al doilea este egală şi de sens opus cu forţa pe care o exercită al doilea corp asupra primului. "

Experienţa din viaţa Laurei Quinn este asemănătoare cu cea a unui supravieţuitor al luptei pentru dobândirea unei bogăţii uriaşe. Legile vieţii ei se dezvăluie prin forţa celor două elemente separate care se mişcă unul spre altul cu viteze diferite, rotindu-se unul în jurul celuilalt, ciocnindu-se dur, în mod absolut destructiv, ca nişte sateliţi într-un sistem planetar, până aproape de neutralizare: valorile şi convingerile.

Aceste două elemente singulare, aceste două antagonisme absolute, supuse unor legi complet diferite, se înfruntă categoric, se înlănţuie obsesiv, trompeuse et régressive , se dezvoltă mai mult pe verticală, printr-un frecuş neîncetat, cuprinzând fatalmente toată fiinţa ei. Un declin care se accentuează treptat, odată cu vârsta, provocând şi mai multă fragilitate psihică şi emoţională.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi înţelegi experienţele de viaţă în baza convingerii conform căreia tot ce este redat ca "fapt de a fi în lume împotriva lumii" este filtrat printr-o tărie sufletească care suportă orice tip de asalt din partea conştiinţei?

Laura Quinn este pusă în faţa unei dileme: să-şi recunoască vinovăţia pentru furtul diamantelor în valoare de o sută de milioane de dolari sau să-şi refuze avalanşa de sentimente şi trăiri pe care o declanşează speranţa unei împliniri. Că ceea ce aparţine fiinţei ei şi ascultă numai de ea, conform esenţei care o defineşte. dincolo de orice răsplată imediată, este capacitatea de a se imagina ca altă persoană. Începutul unei noi vieţi şi şansa unei noi identităţi esete mai întâi de toate un proces imaginativ sofisticat care necesită o planificare atentă a fiecărui pas și multă flexibilitate.

Decisivă este toată această stare de iritare care continuă mai ales în plan emoţional, o configurare a existenţei printr-o răsturnare a polilor individuali, o hibernare îndelungată a emoţiilor pozitive. Nemulţumirea duce la tensiune, la un sentiment de stânjeneală, degenerând până la a acţiona în direcţia opusă celei iniţiale.

Această experienţă prin care ea îşi satisface doar vanitatea, această experienţă care nu-i aduce niciun alt beneficiu pe plan afectiv, această inversare a scării de valori, dualitatea dintre otravă şi antidotul ei, dintre cinste şi necinste, dintre întuneric şi lumină, dintre "a fi" şi "a nu fi" un om bine rânduit, îi schimbă făgaşul vieţii.

Tăria sufletească de care dă dovadă Laura constă în a nu corela banii cu motivaţia alegerilor sale, în a nu-i lăsa pe oameni să pătrundă în lumea ei, în a nu cădea niciodată, ci în a se ridica de fiecare dată când cade. Ea suportă orice tip de asalt din partea conştiinţei nu fiindcă reuşeşte să dea o explicaţie faptelor ei, nu fiindcă faptele ei îi alungă stresul acumulat, ci fiindcă a reuşit să schimbe rezultatul a ceea ce a fost cândva printr-o scuză, o expresie a pocăinţei: "A fost mâna destinului, pură întâmplare".

Oare vorbele lui Pavel I, cu privire la contesa Vaninka, cât pot fi de valabile în cazul Laurei Quinn din filmul "Flawless (2007)"?

" Dacă i-au mai rămas câteva simţăminte de demnitate, atunci inima şi remuşcarea ei îi vor arăta calea ce trebuie să apuce. "

Leadership: Îţi accepţi alegerea de a trăi o experienţă de viaţă printr-o detaşare de trăirea sufletească a momentului de răscruce, respectând concretul alegerii tale ca o consecinţă a convingerii că "merge şi aşa"?

Viaţa e ca o minge care ricoşează, o poţi recupera, poţi continua mutarea ei din poziţia în care a ajuns în oricare alt punct. Aceasta este forţa de care dispunem, care ordonează cu ştiinţă şi elimină cu înţelepciune orice valori şi convingeri distructive. O lume întreagă ce se sprijină pe temelii şubrede poate oricând să fie reconstruită pe temelii de granit. Numai în faţa acestei confruntări ne arătăm valoarea.

Eşecul Laurei Quinn, momentul de răscruce şi amănuntul care a făcut diferenţa dintre o viaţă normală şi o viaţă plină de nelinişti, se datorează mândriei sale de a nu fi ca toată lumea, de a nu fi depăşită de ceilalţi, de a nu ceda dorinţelor trecătoare care apar la nivelul superficial al oricărei fiinţe. Laura a vrut să fie mai presus decât alţii, dar a fost nevoită să-şi rişte cariera când a început să-şi dea seama că este mai prejos decât toţi la capitolul fericire.

Pornind de la identitatea pe care ţi-o creezi prin raportarea potrivită la oameni, situaţii şi evenimente, instalând o versiune a sinelui care nu poate supravieţui decât prin intensitatea simţirii care îmbină conştiinţa cu valorile, poţi să alegi modurile de răspuns la acţiunile care se integrează sub umbrela încrederii şi respectului de sine. Identitatea, pusă sub semnul credibilităţii între parantezele luptei cu trăirile cele mai profunde şi mai puternice, are transparenţa unui cristal pur care are abilitatea de a curăţa/purifica energia din jurul lui, iradiind o lumină pe măsura valorii pe care vrei ca ceilalţi să ţi-o recunoască.

Leadershipul poate căpăta o nuanţă extrem de deschisă, corespunzătoare înălţimii sufleteşti şi greutăţii morale aflate într-o continuă pregnanţă, prin afirmarea ipostazei tale de interpret al stării de spirit caracteristice atitudinii pro, stârnind un val de aprecieri de valoare în rândul oamenilor care vor să-şi construiască un viitor mai bun. Pentru a da o nuanţă personală profilului tău de lider, care să te scoată din anonimat, fără să exagerezi sau să denaturezi în niciun fel sensul firesc al propriei tale existente, este bine să-ţi completezi aria de descriere, prin filtrul emoţiei pozitive, cu noi adaosuri de întărire şi înviorare.

Aceste adaosuri, cu suficientă putere expresivă, care nu sunt altceva decât o punctare continuă a ceea ce ai mai bun în tine în faţa adevărului, în prima linie a luptei cu nivelele de dificultate ale vieţii, îţi dă şansa să reduci diferenţa dintre ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce vrei să fii. Tot aici se poate distinge deschiderea în faţa măreţiei absolute a sinelui tău, sau închiderea ta în faţa celor care nu gândesc ca tine sau care sunt împotriva felului în care faci tu lucrurile.

Leadership: Te identifici cu acel sentiment unic care poate da semnificaţie muncii tale, dar care nu îţi pune în mişcare capacitatea de a trece peste ceea ce ţi se întâmplă într-un mod dramatic?

Liderul este mai întâi un exemplu de câştigător al confruntării dintre două personalităţi. Prima, o personalitate de "cameleon" care aduce tristeţe şi descurajare prin vanitatea imbatabilă a unei doctrine practicate fără iubire, sau prin vanitatea de a poseda din belşug ceva ce în realitate ea nu posedă. A doua, o personalitate care se eliberează de insuficienţa de a nu fi la nivelul aşteptărilor proprii, care se eliberează de ceea ce poartă în suflet pentru a fi fericită, astfel dând speranţe celorlalţi că se poate scăpa de fatala identitate care depinde numai de ceva schimbător.

Regizorul Robert Fritz a spus la un moment dat: "Dacă îţi limitezi alegerile numai la ceea ce pare rezonabil, te depărtezi de la ceea ce vrei cu adevărat, şi rămâi doar cu un compromis."

Liderii de tip afectiv, care se raportează cu succes la oamenii din jur, ştiu că rezonabil înseamnă să faci astfel încât coarda propriei sensibilităţi să fie bine întinsă, dar să nu se rupă în condiţii de stres, suprasolicitare sau blocaje datorate aşa-numitelor "gânduri negre". Compromisul cu care poţi să rămâi este acela de a-ţi pierde respectul faţă de sine, acceptând un mod de viaţă rudimentar, simplist - consumist în care nimic nu mai are valoare.

Ia în calcul sentimentul unic care poate da semnificaţie muncii tale, dar care nu îţi pune în mişcare capacitatea de a trece peste ceea ce ţi se întâmplă într-un mod dramatic: "ce-am avut şi ce-am pierdut".

Expresia unei traume sufleteşti provine din tăria de a alege ceea ce preferi să ignori şi a rezista în această alegere.

Suprema manifestare a vanităţii omeneşti scoate în evidenţă o formă a mândriei, dar una dintre cele mai uşoare. Mai exact acea caracteristică a oamenilor superficiali, a celor ce nu înţeleg rostul suferinţei de a nu obţine totul în viaţă – care totuşi, în leadership, pot lua forma unei investiţii personale ce ia în considerare implicare, dorinţa de a schimba ceva în lume, asumarea responsabilităţii morale.

Supremaţia magicianului

Impune-le oamenilor ideile şi convingerile tale, fără să crezi o dizarmonie între modelul de căpătâi al leadershipului tău şi modelul de personalitate pe care vrei să-l scoţi în evidenţă.

Emoţia resimţită în acea noapte nu se va şterge niciodată din amintirea mea. Mi-era frică în sala întunecoasă, aveam o spaimă de moarte în mine. Pe scenă, prin fumul cenuşiu, nu se vedea decât silueta magicianului, îmbrăcat într-o mantie neagră. Când m-am uitat mai bine la el, am văzut că avea o mască ce-i acoperea numai jumătate din faţă, tot neagră - o mască a chinului sau a veseliei, pe care se perindau de-a valma când zâmbete, când grimase de suferinţă, când o bucurie intensă, când o undă de melancolie. Chipuri create după propriile sale emoţii, după propria sa voinţă, după propriile sale legi.

Încercam să-i văd ochii prin masca sa, acea mască a aparenţelor. Îl puteam contrazice pe oricine ar fi spus că faţa aceea era veselă, tristă sau mânioasă. Tot ceea ce părea realist şi raţional la el era pus în umbră, ascuns în mod conştient. El era regele spectacolului, punctul de întâlnire al tuturor enigmelor, iar masca îl ajuta să ascundă realitatea. Eram convins că era ceva fictiv, că-şi crease propria sa lume ireală. Mă puteam uita la el, dar nu-i puteam ghici gândurile.

La un moment dat magicianul rosti cu glas tare, pe un ton ferm, sumbru, nişte cuvinte ciudate, nedesluşite. Ascultam. Vorbea foarte rar, dar vorbele sale misterioase, în mijlocul tăcerii, mă tulburau mai tare ca tot restul. Prin mulţimea de cuvinte pe care le rostea, unele sunau mai tare. Atunci mi s-a părut că sala s-a întunecat şi mai mult. Vorbea ca un judecător al ultimei instanţe care, fără să-şi justifice sentinţa, îi condamnă la moarte pe cei ce-au violat legile existenţei. Sau ca un nebun care şi-a pus în cap cu îndrăzneală să schimbe aceste legi.

Leadership: Înţelegerea rolului tău într-un moment de mare tensiune se schimbă definitiv odată cu succesiunea actelor de posesiune a realului?

Figura lui revenea neîncetat sub diverse înfăţişări. În fiecare spectacol, o altă mască, un alt rol, un alt scenariu. Uneori dorea să pară bucuros, alteori trist, uneori comic, alteori tragic, dar de cele mai multe ori terifiant. Îmi amintesc că la începutul acelui spectacolului, pentru a crea senzaţia de spaimă, a creat un „tablou" cutremurător amintind de chipul înspăimântător în care Jupiter îi doborâse pe titanii răsculaţi împotriva domniei sale, strivindu-i sub munţi. Apoi şi-a făcut trucul, relativ înfiorător, cu cuţitele.

Dar ceea ce se ascundea de fapt sub măştile sale, ceea ce părea o identitate falsă, nu era decât o ambiţie deghizată care se îndrepta spre interese mai mari, ştiute numai de el. Iar pentru asta el aplica un singur mod de gândire, acelaşi în fiecare spectacol: Unde pot câştiga? Unde pot pierde? Care sunt cele mai bune trucuri şi care sunt cele mai slabe? Ce-şi doreşte mai mult publicul? Ca orice magician adevărat, el deţinea propriul său instrument de testare şi control care-l ajută să-şi îmbunătăţească rezultatele în mod clar şi măsurabil.

Leadership: Îţi identifici autenticitatea într-o ambiţie deghizată care se îndreaptă spre o înţelegere extinsă dincolo de punctul de întâlnire al tuturor enigmelor?

Deşi suportul valorii practice rezultate din elementele ştiinţei pe care o prezinţi este impresionant, el nu e mai puţin uşor de demonstrat. O abordare ştiinţifică nu este legată, de fapt, nici de combinaţia de elemente care o conţine, nici de certitudinea pe care o oferă, ci de echivalentul inspiraţional al acestora, de acel ansamblu organizat de abstracţiuni, necunoscute, concepte cauzale prin care se realizează un ideal de as în domeniu.

A fi as în ale magiei înseamnă să continui să exişti, chiar dacă nimeni nu te vede, şi totuşi să fii în atenţia tuturor. A fi as înseamnă să ascunzi în mod conştient tot ceea ce este realist şi raţiona, dar cu scopul de a atinge plenitudinea semnificaţiei imaginii nou create pe care doreşti să o reprezinţi.

Punctul de întâlnire al tuturor enigmelor, având în minte o mişcare ce se repetă diferit într-o abudenţă de efecte acompaniate şi intersectate ritmic după un scenariu cu totul original, decurge dintr-un întreg de reguli, modele, tipare, scheme de creare a unor realităţi seducătoare prin conjugarea calculată dintre erudiţie, intuiţie şi forţa interpretativă, ca urmare a necesităţii reprezentării unor relaţii arbitrare între diferite obiecte, fenomene şi manifestări, respectiv a interconexiunilor dintre acestea.

Este şi asta un fel de înţelepciune ezoterică, care încă trebuie cizelată pentru a întări puntea misterioasă între identitatea ta adevărată şi personajele pe care le interpretezi. Decisivă, peste toate, e răsturnarea derutantă a reperelor de care te foloseşti pentru a redirecţiona atenţia celor din jur.

Oamenii care ştiu să se reinventeze se ghidează după următorul precept: "Dincolo de rol te afli tu". Legătura aceasta între mai multe realităţi, personaje, transfigurări, are o aderenţă profundă, care ar face ca valoarea a ceea ce descoperi când nu mai eşti adevăratul tu, să varieze cu forma organizării în jurul unei idei valorice fundamentale. Idee de tipul „omul se poate ascunde de multe, numai de sine nu."

Eşti valoros nu atât fiindcă ştii să jonglezi cu comportamente şi atitudini, ci pentru că reuşeşti să distingi ceea ce e important de ceea ce e secundar, ceea ce este propriu de ceea ce este străin de tine însuţi.

Autenticitatea este valoarea dobândită prin unirea experiențială a provocării de a te reinventa şi a noului izvorât din dorinţa de a fabrica continuu realitatea cu care operezi şi evenimentele pe care le trăieşti.

Fantastica ascensiune a unui lider. Ca să-ţi măreşti puterea de influenţă, trebuie să fii, din anumite puncte de vedere, un magician, să-ţi creezi propriul tău spectacol de magie, pe care-l conduci de cele mai multe ori singur. Trebuie să deţii acea forţă care-i influenţează pe oameni, să creezi o punte între sufletul tău şi al lor, o punte între fantezie şi realitate, o punte prin care să-i câştigi întotdeauna de partea ta. Abilitatea de a transpune, măiestrit, convingerile şi dorinţele tale celor din jur, este crucială în succesul tău ca lider.

Însa oamenii trebuie să vadă ca să creadă. Dacă în spectacolul pe care îl joci apari cu mai multe identităţi, oamenii nu vor şti niciodată ce să creadă şi ce nu. Simulând mereu o nouă expresie, o nouă fizionomie, o nouă identitate ca să pari altcineva în ochii celor din jur şi să fii crezut, nu-ţi va aduce succesul în leadership. Cel puţin nu pentru o perioadă lungă de timp.

Masca pe care o porţi reprezintă faţa pe care o arăţi lumii, în orice clipă. Dacă prezinţi oamenilor un chip neadecvat, sau care nu e în concordanţă cu aşteptările lor, aceştia nu vor mai putea deosebi irealul de real, ba chiar irealul va începe să li se pară mai mult real. Ai acea abilitate fantastică de a modela şi de a fabrica continuu realitatea cu care te confrunţi?

Aşa cum datoria unui arbitru este să impună respectarea regulamentului în litera şi în spiritul său, tot astfel datoria ta este să impui oamenilor anumite idei şi convingeri în litera şi în spiritul tău, fără să crezi o dizarmonie între modelul de căpătâi al leadershipului tău şi modelul de personalitate pe care vrei să-l scoţi în evidenţă.

Înainte să construieşti şi să răspândeşti magia încearcă să iei în considerare efectul unei stări de inhibiţie temporară datorată alterării realităţii.

Căci, aşa cum bine preciza cineva pe internet: "De multe ori inhibiția este o barieră în calea actului artistic. Gesturile pot fi necontrolate, mimica şi mesajul corporal poate fi ridicol şi necontrolat."

Concluzie: Supremaţia liderului se aseamănă cu cea a unui magician iscusit, abordând „masca potrivită” în situaţii potrivite. Acest lucru nu înseamnă însă să te joci sau să creezi iluzii de moment, căci în cel mai bun caz nu vei fi credibil, iar în cel mai rău vei fi luat drept un farsor care va fi urgent îndepărtat din funcţia de lider şi chiar din colectiv.

Tu îţi pui masca potrivită în situaţii potrivite? Ele îţi asigură o putere mai mare de influenţă? Ai puterea să le insufli oamenilor încredere în tine falsificând tot timpul realitatea? Eşti dispus să plăteşti preţul artei de a conduce, scoţând în evidenţă mereu adevăratul tău caracter? Eşti stăpân peste toţi şi peste toate numai atunci când ai toţi aşii în mânecă?

Te străduieşti continuu să te perfecţionezi şi să-ţi foloseşti la maximum potenţialul de om empatic care îşi comunică întotdeauna sentimentele? Sau te-ai auto-disciplinat să-i influenţezi pe oameni prin lipsa de empatie, ascunzându-ţi adevărata fire?

Supremul călăuzitor al leadershipului

On Iunie 21, 2011

Dă un impuls mobilizator oamenilor, exprimându-ţi acele sentimente care sunt în concordanţă cu valorile şi orizonturile lor.

Pe 16 martie Akihito, împăratul Japoniei, într-un discurs televizat calificat drept "fără precedent" de Reuters s-a declarat extrem de îngrijorat de criza nucleară şi le-a cerut oamenilor să se ajute reciproc.

Având o mimă extrem de sobră, Akihito, în vârstă de 77 de ani, a spus că problemele de la reactoarele nucleare ale centralei Fukushima au fost imposibil de prevăzut.

"Sper din adâncul inimii mele că, mână de mână, oamenii se vor trata unii pe alţii cu compasiune şi vor depăşi aceste vremuri dificile ! " , a spus împăratul Japoniei, care le-a cerut concetăţenilor săi să nu-şi piardă speranţa. Akihito a mai afirmat că se roagă ca fiecare victimă a seismului şi a valului tsunami să poată fi salvată. *****

Leadership: Tinzi să foloseşti funcţia "guarding" în extrem, în situaţia unei ieşiri din limitele parţiale ale dreptului de a acţiona după bunul plac?

Atitudinea pe care o adoptă liderul faţă de ceea ce-l reprezintă ca erou şi ca model de rezistenţă morală, exercitând o influenţă extrem de sugestivă la nivel de eveniment, este plină de ecouri diferite. Ecouri care se reflectă asupra imaginii sale, dar şi asupra celorlalte verigi ale lanţului de amplificare a valorii sale de izvor de gândire pozitivă.

Rolul de iniţiator al unei cauze importante ce necesită nu doar susţinere largă, ci şi de fonduri alocate superiorităţii, îi revine celui care beneficiază de o anumită exclusivitate în a trasa liniile după care înalta societate funcţionează. El recunoaşte importanţa vieţii şi a modului în care fiecare îşi poate aduce contribuţia la sporirea calităţii ei, dar mai întâi de toate îşi învinge propriile bariere, propriile nelinişti în privinţa delimitării de ceea ce alţii nu pot să schimbe.

Intenţia ta de a produce o schimbare începe şi se sfârşeşte acolo unde eşti condiţionat la supunere şi ascultare. În asemenea situaţie nu mai poţi acţiona după bunul plac, ci printr-o activare bruscă a stărilor emoţionale precum anxietatea, tristeţea sau sentimentul de vinovăţie, sub influenţa unor situaţii care pot facilita blocarea ta în poziţia de învins.

Vremurile dificile sunt răspunsul dat onoarei de a duce până la capăt o îndatorire care-ţi porunceşte să faci un lucru mult mai chinuitor decât să mori, anume să trăieşti cu durerea de a lăsa în urmă ceea ce ai construit.

A aşeza leadershipul într-o lumină obiectivă şi realistă, conştient de răspunderile lui, tratându-l ca pe o chestiune personală şi nu ca pe o misiune de însemnătate majoră, înseamnă de fapt să fii conştient de tine însuţi şi de acceptarea a ceea ce poţi controla.

Fii conştient de posibilităţile pe care le ai în faţă, dar şi de timpul restrâns pe care îl ai la dispoziţie pentru a schimba ceva de care te faci resposabil.

Liderul trebuie să fie sprijinit pe toată durata întregii lui misiuni care cere curaj, eforturi mari, multă perseverenţă şi care îi pricinuieşte nelinişti, griji şi destule încordări. Deci, este constrâns să se alinieze mai mult în direcţia unor forţe contrare propriilor aşteptări. Dar din care se extrag beneficiile unei trăiri autentice care, neexteriorizate, ar rămâne mute, facându-l să vadă într-o cu totul altă lumină ceea ce a trăit până atunci. Asta se întâmplă numai în momentele de mare încercare şi de mare impact.

A folosi funcţia "guarding" în extrem înseamnă de fapt să te pui în slujba celorlalţi sau a unui scop măreţ în situaţii de cumpănă, fără să omiţi răspunderea ta adevărata faţă de propriul sine, faţă de propria ta inteligenţă şi conştiinţă, faţă de acţiunea conformă cu ele.

Leadership: Te apropii de împlinirea menirii tale, reconsiderând ceea ce te defineşte ca reacţii în faţa confruntării cu tine însuţi?

Cineva spunea odată: „ Îmi pasă de ceea ce crezi, dar mă interesează şi mai mult să crezi în ceva anume şi să-ţi organizezi planurile în funcţie de acel lucru. "

Împăratul Akihito şi-a pus toată încrederea în concetăţenii săi. Aceştia trebuiau să creadă în el mai mult decât oricând, şi să-şi organizeze planurile şi acţiunile ca răspuns la mesajul său. Unitatea era prioritatea supremă în acel moment, de ea depindea reuşita întregului proces de refacere a ţării.

Aşa cum cercetătorii iubesc ştiinţa pentru partea bună ce rezultă din ea şi pentru aplicaţiile ei practice în folosul omenirii – tot astfel oamenii te vor susţine în demersurile tale pentru caracterul tău, pentru moralitatea ta, pentru partea ta bună, pentru deciziile pe care le iei în folosul lor şi pentru sprijinul acordat lor.

Mesajul pe care îl transmiţi este hotărâtor pentru consolidarea relaţiilor de cooperare. Trebuie să comunici un sentiment, o emoţie, o idee care să poată fi înţeleasă şi acceptată de ceilalţi cu complezenţă, cu entuziasm şi credinţă, determinându-i să se implice într-un parteneriat eficient şi să se alinieze la priorităţile care sunt într-adevăr necesare.

Într-un moment când neliniştea apăsa asupra întregii naţiuni, Akihito, împăratul Japoniei, i-a convins pe cetăţeni să nu-şi piardă speranţa.

Cuvintele sale erau reacţii ale conştiinţei, desemnând virtuţi precum responsabilitatea, dreptatea, înţelepciunea, compasiunea. Dar totodată erau o versiune a realităţii: "refuz să mă privesc drept o victimă neajutorată a sorţii". Ele au avut ca element important o înnoire de fond prezentată drept o calitate a imaginii de sine ce vine în întâmpinarea anumitor expectanțe şi care îl recomandă ca protagonist al luptei pentru onoare.

Leadership: Eşti cu adevărat vrednic de ceea ce trebuie să înfăptuieşti chiar şi atunci când fundalul viziunii tale se întunecă sub efectul unei constrângeri de integritate?

Chiar dacă ai îndoieli în privinţa reuşitei, trebuie să te străduieşti să găseşti întotdeauna un „punct de sprijin" de care să te agăţi şi pe care să-l susţii cu interes în demersurile tale dacă vrei ca oamenii să fie alături de tine. Menirea ta, ca lider, este să-ţi orientezi şi să-ţi exploatezi capacităţile în folosul celor din jurul tău. Dă un impuls mobilizator oamenilor, exprimându-ţi acele sentimente care sunt în concordanţă cu valorile şi orizonturile lor.

Închipuie-ţi un alergător aflat la blocstart. El e pregătit pentru sunetul pistolului de start, concentrat la maxim la linia de sosire aflată la o sută de metri distanţă. Ştie că doar primii finalişti sunt premiaţi. Ştie că dacă pierde o milisecundă, se întoarce acasă fără medalie. Nu trebuie să aibă deloc gânduri de îndoială, şi să ţâşnească vertiginos la sunetul pistolului.

În leadership lucrurile stau la fel ca la cursa de o sută de metri. Trebuie să-ţi orientezi gândirea, viziunea şi vibraţiile numai la „linia de sosire" ajungând astfel la inima oamenilor, fără să iroseşti timp preţios pe îndoieli şi temeri. Trebuie să fii călăuzit de sentimentul răspunderii, al echităţii, de chemarea sufletului tău spre îndeplinirea unui scop comun.

Integritatea înseamnă să fii aliniat cu cele mai înalte valori morale chiar şi atunci când te confrunţi cu riscul de a-ţi pierde autoritatea.

Supremul călăuzitor al leadershipului este credinţa pe care tu, ca lider, trebuie să le-o insufli oamenilor, o credinţă care să-i ajute moral să treacă peste situaţiile dificile. Este nădejdea pe care o sădeşti în inimile oamenilor. Dar trebuie să analizezi convingerile care stau la baza valorilor lor înainte de a le insufla încredere şi de a-i îndruma pe calea serioasă a încercării lor.

Surprinde-mi privirea cu o parte din culoarea cerului

Încearcă să imortalizezi imaginea în care te reflectezi, scoţând în evidenţă relaţia dintre ceea ce eşti obişnuit să priveşti ca „interior" şi ceea ce eşti obişnuit să vezi ca fiind „exterior".

Din nou, privirea mi s-a oprit asupra culorii care marchează zona de parcare pentru persoanele cu handicap. În micul dreptunghi pietonal proaspăt vopsit, nuanţa pregnantă (albastru-ciel) pare desprinsă din fundalul picturii "Bathing Pool" a lui Hubert Robert, unde un singur punct este reunit cu totalitatea. O privire exersată, deosebind şi distingând un ton deschis de altul închis, corelează culoarea aceasta vie, vibrantă şi intensă, cu caracterul spontan al picturii de mare artă abstractă şi, învăluind-o cu privirea-i creatoare, se proiectează într-un prezent care nu mai crede în viitor.

La culoarea albastru-ciel se poate adăuga şi reacţia artistului la realitate, răspunsul lui personal la această realitate izvorând dinspre interior către lume, mai palpabilă decât experienţa de creaţie, nu mai puţin reală decât o poveste de viaţă emoţionantă. Totuşi, culoarea bleumarin mă transpune într-o lume stranie care uimeşte la prima vedere prin îmbinarea fantasticului cu o poveste de viaţă incredibilă, dar în acelaşi timp îmi deschide mintea şi sufletul spre o nouă modalitate de a face artă, în lumea exterioară, sau în aparenţele stilizate ale naturii, construind o nouă formă de limbaj estetic pornind de la propriul meu interior.

Aici, în acest dreptunghi unde culoarea albastru-ciel se amestecă puţin cu cea a cerului, se aşează cu naturaleţe pictorul. Cu faţa spre răsărit, cu pensula în mână şi cu mult senin în suflet. Nu-şi are locul lui ştiut mai înainte, se vede bine asta, fiindcă a umblat ceva timp în căutarea subiectului potrivit, privind în lung şi în lat, cercetând fiecare colţişor al naturii. Culoarea o are deja, este deschisă şi plăcută la vedere, foarte asemănătoare cu topazul (piatra perfecţiunii). Dar pentru ca opera misterioasă de creaţie să înceapă, simţind că i s-a lămurit bine în suflet ce are de făcut, el trebuie să-şi descarce prin mână inspiraţia şi, prin suflet, toată bucuria.

Leadership: Poţi să aduci un plus de comparaţie unei experienţe concomitent "introspectivă şi vizuală" născută din atenta observare a unei imagini care se reflectă într-un spaţiu finit inclus în infinit?

Aşa cum pictorul trebuie să facă apel mai degrabă la imaginaţie decât la reprezentarea materială pentru a produce o nouă culoare, o nouă estetică, o experienţă concomitent introspectivă, tot astfel percepţia vizuală asupra contextului spaţio-temporal în care sunt folosite tonalităţile trebuie să fie încadrată într-o versiune de acuarelă, calmă și neutră, în care desenul, o etapă preliminară a compoziției, oferă un efect de oglindă.

Hotărâtor aici este dualismul om-natură. Putându-se efectua reglaje de claritate până în ultima clipă, acest plus de comparaţie va fi plătit scump printr-un insuficient sens al sinelui, în cazul în care omul nu reuşeşte să se transpună într-o viziune a naturii, într-o filozofie a spiritului.

În orice caz, pictorul din mine îşi lasă amprenta stării sale sufleteşti în lucrările pe care le realizează. Iar în acest moment de inspiraţie totul devine albastru-ciel, fiindcă par să fiu încadrat într-o zonă "mirror" a cerului, lipsită de stele strălucitoare, operând ca un iluzionist, adică punând într-o relație de oglindire și autorizare mutuală două tipuri de forţe: o forţă a sufletului ce descrie lucrurile altfel faţă de cum sunt, şi o forţă a imaginii, "un dincolo de" indescriptibil în cuvinte.

În special sufletul meu rezonează mai mult decât orice cu albastru-ciel. Culoarea aceasta este ca o fărâmă universală de plăsmuire a infinitului într-un finit nedeteriorat de intemperii, în măsura în care capătă o formă, o mereu altă formă, un alt desen, o altă imagine, într-un real care pare ireal îndată ce crepusculul începe să picteze cerul.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi singularizezi creaţia sub forma unei reprezentări vizuale, prin atenta observare a unei imagini care se potriveşte tuturor stărilor sufleteşti pe care le ai?

Mi-am dat seama bine despre culoarea albastru-ciel, ca poartă în sine o anumită semnificaţie. Şi, pentru a desfăta în mod absolut şi a fermeca un suflet receptiv la frumuseţea ei, ea are nevoie de emoţiile fireşti ce rezidă din rigoarea şi simplitatea formei pe care o îmbracă. La vederea acestei culori simt că sunt într-o conexiune inexplicabilă cu reflexul divinului, al suprasensibilului, simt că sunt printre stele, că sunt prins într-un vis care mă scoate din monotonia vieţii, dând trăiri intense şi aşteptări mai mari.

Extrem de semnificativ în acest sens este imaginea văzută de privitor într-o imagine cu un nivel maxim de profunzime şi performanţă a culorilor. Bine remarca lui Viktor Lazarev, vizavi de marele pictor Rembrandt:

"Sarcina lui Rembrandt rezidă tocmai în depăşirea acestui cadru atemporal al portretului în pictură, în a-l face dinamic, în a-l obliga să trăiască în timp. El şi-a propus drept ţel să întruchipeze într-un singur portret o imensă sumă de momente consecutive, pentru ca acest portret să poată da o biografie exhaustivă a celui înfăţişat. Şi de aceea omul este receptat în portretele sale târzii nu static, ci într-o continuă devenire. Se creează astfel impresia că pe imaginea văzută de privitor se stratifică insesizabil o serie de imagini anterioare şi consecutive, fapt prin care se restabileşte continuitatea torentului psihic."

Fără îndoială, cel ce caută în mod constant vederi particulare ale culorilor, încât să poată creiona portretul ideal cu un simț al sinelui puternic conturat și foarte consistent, trebuie să se eternizeze şi să se cufunde într-un univers al naturii unde principalul colaborator artistic - simţirea cea mai pură - are darul de a evoca un moment impresionant pentru privitor, momentul culminant a ceea ce s-ar putea numi "experienţă concomitent introspectivă".

Orientarea leadershipului spre artă cuprinde experienţa introspectivă pe care o capeţi în momentul când reuşeşti să compari o imagine care te invită la acţiune - cu o imagine care redă întocmai trăirile, gândurile, sentimentele tale.

Surprinde-mi privirea cu o parte din culoarea cerului dacă vrei să-mi înţelegi mai bine latura artistică pe care, într-un fel, am ţinut-o întotdeauna ascunsă. Am început să văd lumea altfel: plină de culoare, plină de emoţii, cu alți ochi, ca să înțeleg că se poate croi o nouă cale printre altele, de regăsire de sine și de autodăruire. Până la urmă, arta te face mai sensibil, oricât de capricios ai fi.

Sursa fluxului de materie pură

Fă uz de toate activele şi resursele trebuincioase dezvoltării ştiinţei, astfel încât să nu cazi victima degradării şi regresului.

Un factor important care a contribuit la perpetuarea liniei mele ştiinţifice a fost teama de a nu cădea victima degradării şi regresului, o formă de abandon ţinându-mă pe loc fiindcă nu reuşeam să transform această emoţie într-una constructivă. Inovaţia mă ţinea într-o permanentă încordare, mobilizându-mi toată atenţia, obligându-mă să fac uz de toate activele şi resursele de inspiraţie şi creativitate imediată într-un crescendo al trăirilor interioare, al interogațiilor afective.

Însă inovaţia, elementul infinit care putea fi determinat experimental pe baza observării sistematice a transformării, în unitate și echilibru, a codurilor şi simbolurilor, indiferent de domeniul lor de utilizare, se baza în bună parte pe relaţiile stabilite între două sau mai multe entităţi. Mintea mea nu putea să ţină pasul cu alte obligaţii, căci îmi împărţeam atenţia în proporţii aproape egale între entităţile pe care, cu mult chin, ajunsesem să le cunosc şi să le controlez.

Precum eroul dintr-un roman celebru, îmi axam privirea către două lucruri apropiate, apoi le notam caracteristicile comune cu acelaşi gest curgător, fără a mă opri deloc. Echivalenţele dintre aceste entităţi nu erau de la început pe măsura aşteptărilor. Şi, iniţial, încercarea de a găsi similitudini stârnea o mare îndoială. Însă interpretarea amănuntelor prin prisma selecţiei observaţionale şi a confuziei între corelaţie şi cauzalitate, dădea deseori naştere la idei şi teorii care mai de care mai interesante.

Leadership: Te-ai angajat să fii fidel ţie însuţi şi să construieşti o relaţie care sprijină adevărul, într-o demonstraţie a necesităţii afirmării unei ştiinţe care ulterior se va numi "metafizică" ?

Poate din nevoia de adrenalină sau din neobişnuita curiozitate de a încerca ceva nou, poate datorită tendinţei de a face comparaţii şi evaluări obiective, am reuşit întotdeauna să fac un pas înainte. Nu mai era un efort considerabil, izvorât dintr-o obligaţie asumată benevol, ci un angajament în ultimă instanţă. Un accelerator de startup-uri, sursa unui flux de materie pură, eternă, incoruptibilă, care integra în permanenţă particule noi de materie vitală - esenţială pentru menţinerea nivelului optim de stimulare a creativităţii.

Mi-a trebuit ceva timp să găsesc firul în labirintul demersurilor gândirii interpretative, în funcţie de relaţiile de analogie şi de contiguitate, căci nicio Ariadna nu mi-l pusese în mână. Astfel am ajuns să înţeleg ştiinţa şi importanţa părţii ei experimentale.

Iar ştiinţa nu este altceva decât rodul unui efort de natură mentală în scopul realizării unei înţelegeri a relaţiei între nenumărate ipoteze, calcule, presupuneri, aproximări şi estimări, incertitudini, pre-concepţii, echivalări, rotunjiri, extinderi, extrapolări, probabilități - şi combinaţiile dintre acestea.

Metafizica care începea să se cristalizeze la orizont era un fel de temei pentru realitatea empirică pe care o observam din punct de vedere afectiv, pe care o desemnează conceptul de a face parte dintr-o totalitate a fiinţei încheiate în sine printr-o reiterare a experiențelor, oferindu-mi fundamentele și cauzele întemeierii unui adevăr numit: „coerenţa complexităţii de a fi altcineva".

Leadershipul tău îndeplineşte condiţiile de eligibilitate ale excelenţei plamadită dintr-un soi de gândire multilaterală, în care afectivul și cognitivul colaborează superb pentru a da naștere unei lucrări artistice?

Care este factorul cel mai important care contribuie la perpetuarea liniei tale ştiinţifice? Inovaţia te ţine într-o permanentă încordare? Tendinţa de a face comparaţii şi evaluări obiective te ajuta să faci un pas înainte spre latura experimentală a ştiinţei?

Una din concluziile la care am ajuns treptat, în condiţiile consolidării riguroase a acelor "sectoare de cunoaştere" aflate în zona mea de potenţial, şi care ar putea să intereseze îndeaproape ca act de apropiere inspirată, de înţelegere şi de acceptare a rezultatelor propriilor cercetări, este că numai o categorie de indivizi sunt în măsură să atingă un nivel avansat de cunoaştere a leadershipului.

Pentru ca leadershipul să poată îndeplini condiţiile de eligibilitate ale excelenţei, individul trebuie să efectueze operaţiunile de bază prin care să obţină nişte rezultate viabile - drept urmare a aplicării cunoştinţelor. Numai prin antrenarea gândirii, punându-şi la bătaie curiozitatea, el va realiza cele două condiţii esenţiale ale dezvoltării sale: crearea superiorităţii într-o anumită privinţă sau într-o direcţie constructivă, şi perpetuarea liniei sale ştiinţifice până la atingerea pragului când va putea transcende orice obstacole.

În aceste condiţii, construirea propriului accelerator de startup-uri devine o necesitate, un factor determinant în această evoluţie pretenţioasă care merită savurată şi fructificată pe îndelete. Acceleratorul de startup-uri trebuie să integreze în permanenţă particule noi de "materie" vitală pentru sinteza elementelor care vor constitui fundamentul creării şi menţinerii propriei valori. El nu reprezintă altceva decât un proces de generare a noilor idei, dezvoltarea și rafinarea acestora, încât leadershipul să capete un contur mai bine definit şi mult mai sofisticat.

Lucrarea artistică ce a luat naștere dintr-un soi de gândire multilaterală, în care afectivul și cognitivul au colaborat superb, a fost racordarea mea la o nouă dimensiune a ştiinţei caracterizată în principal prin încercarea de a potrivi natura fiinţei mele în tiparele conceptuale oferite de evaluarea realității la un nivel nou: încercarea de a face știința mai tangibilă, de a-i da o notă mai umană.

Leadership: Îţi poţi asigura valoarea deplină prin transformarea materiei ştiinţifice într-o formulare diferită, odată ce te aventurezi în a realiza o nouă versiune a aplicaţiei numită generic „fiinţă umană" ?

Cineva spunea că educaţia de sine face dintr-un om ceea ce poate el fi. Exact. Adevăraţii gânditori şi practicieni ai leadershipului, sunt în fond adânc uniţi în demersurile lor educative, preocupându-se cu o intensitate egală de stabilirea unui sens mai înalt al potenţialului propriu. Eforturile lor sunt îndreptate în special spre întărirea sectoarelor de cunoaştere care le poate asigura valoare deplină, prin metode sensibile şi pretenţioase de transformare a materiei care poate stimula progresul în domeniu.

Deci, inovaţia îi ţine într-o permanentă încordare, mobilizându-le toată atenţia, obligându-i să facă uz de toate activele şi resursele de inspiraţie şi creativitate imediată pentru găsirea unor noi surse de aprovizionare a capitalului lor propriu de cunoştinţe, trebuincioase maximizării rezultatelor aşteptate.

Transformarea materiei științifice într-o imanenţă umană mi-ar fi putut asigura valoarea de om care poate face imposibilul posibil, unul care poate să gândească la nivel înalt printr-o mai însemnată pondere a sinelui emoțional.

O împlinire bazată pe explorarea a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă este o călătorie mistică a ascensiunii spirituale în zona adevărului aflat în vecinătatea unei lumi care te face să te simţi altcineva.

Sursa fluxului de materie pură nu este altceva decât rezultatul muncii individuale a liderului care pe parcursul timpului şi-a îmbogăţit cunoştinţele folosindu-se de experienţa înaintaşilor şi contemporanilor săi, ca şi de experienţele proprii. Rezultând a da naştere unei "materii" inedite, inteligibile şi cu aplicaţii practice, ce poate fi transmisă altora, fiind unanim înţeleasă şi acceptată.

Dacă vrei să fii un lider al cărui profesionalism nu este pus la îndoială, atunci fă uz de toate activele şi resursele trebuincioase dezvoltării ştiinţei de a conduce. Fereşte-te să cazi victima degradării şi regresului.

Susţineţi eforturile oamenilor

On Ianuarie 04, 2009

Încearcă să exerciţi un permanent control asupra realităţii cu care trăieşti, astfel încât eforturile de răspuns la solicitările ei să poată atinge nivelul de excelenţă.

Acum mai bine de un an şi jumătate am terminat de scris prima mea carte. Se numeşte „ Leadership pe înţelesul tuturor ", şi mi-au trebuit aproape şapte luni să o scriu. Nu mai scrisesem niciodată o carte şi nici nu lucrasem vreodată la vreun ziar sau vreo revistă, deci nu aveam absolut deloc experienţă în scris. De aceea, am oferit câte un exemplar la şase persoane, destul de importante, pe care le cunoşteam şi care ocupau funcţii înalte de conducere în diverse instituţii şi companii de renume din România. Rugămintea mea adresată lor a fost aceea de a-mi trimite un feedback vizavi de calitatea lucrării. Ştiam că sunt foarte multe aspecte pe care trebuie să le îmbunătăţesc, multe lucruri care trebuie modificate sau care trebuie adăugate.

Ştiţi câte persoane m-au ajutat?

Nici una. Atât au fost de dezinteresaţi cu toţii de mine, de eforturile mele şi de realizările mele. Norocul meu a fost acela că am intuit încă de la început faptul că nimeni nu-şi va bate capul cu lucrarea mea, şi de aceea nici nu mi-am pus prea mari speranţe în ajutorul lor. Dar, trebuia totuşi să mă conving cu orice preţ că intuiţia mea în ceea ce priveşte psihologia umană funcţionează bine.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi extinzi orizonturile dincolo de ceea ce crezi că reprezintă limitele tale, încât să-ţi faci cunoscută valoarea personală dincolo de preţul pe care trebuie să-l plăteşti?

Mulţi oameni depun eforturi considerabile pentru a realiza lucruri de valoare, iar în final au de luat măcar o decizie foarte grea. Dacă nu-i încurajaţi, dacă nu-i susţineţi moral atunci când au mai multă nevoie de ajutorul dumneavoastră, nu veţi reuşi niciodată să deveniţi un lider desăvârşit. Dacă doriţi într-adevăr ca oamenii să vă stimeze, trebuie să le arătaţi că sunteţi sincer interesat de soarta lor, de cariera lor şi de realizările lor.

Cu mulţi ani în urmă, filozoful american William James spunea: "Cel mai profund principiu al naturii umane este setea de a fi apreciat" . Apreciaţi eforturile oamenilor, susţineţi-i atunci când şovăie şi treziţi-le entuziasmul când sunt cu moralul la pământ. Dacă doriţi să vă creaţi o reputaţie de invidiat şi dacă speraţi să ajungeţi un lider eficient, trebuie să învăţaţi să fiţi cât mai generos cu toţi oamenii, mai ales cu aceia care cred în dumneavoastră şi au speranţa că îi veţi ajuta.

Preţul pe care eu l-am plătit a fost acela de a continua să-mi găsesc motive pentru a planta un copac acolo unde consider eu de cuviinţă, nu acolo unde îşi are fiecare căsuţa. Copacul nu a crescut dintr-o dată foarte mult şi nu a dat roade aproape deloc în primii ani. Dar şi-a dezvoltat rădăcini puternice care i-au dat putere şi încredere de sine atunci când a ajuns la înălţime. El m-a ancorat, dându-mi avânt și sens în viață.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să gândeşti BIG din perspectiva unei valori obţinută din nimic?

Adevărata magie a unui salt spre un nivel cu totul nou este să fii în stare să gândeşti BIG din perspectiva unei valori obţinută din nimic. Practic începi cu sfârşitul şi apoi faci tot ce este necesar ca să ajungi la el. Acest principiu este exprimat cel mai bine de scriitorul Roger Dawson:

Compania de automobile Cadillac a făcut odată o reclamă care merită revăzută şi peste o sută de ani.

Începea în alb şi negru şi arăta un tânăr îmbrăcat în costum de golf, din anii '30, el fiind băiatul care aduna mingile într-un foarte elegant şi exclusivist club. Aduna crosele de golf şi le punea într-un Cadillac dintre primele modele. O voce din off spunea: "Încă de pe atunci ştiai că într-o bună zi vei conduce un Cadillac."

După care imaginea devenea brusc color şi îl vedeam pe tânăr, care se mai maturizase între timp, ieşind din acelaşi club în propriul lui Cadillac nou-nouţ şi strălucitor.

Valoarea ta este dată nu de experienţa pe care o trăieşti, anume aceea a neputinţei de a depăşi o prăpastie a favorurilor pe care nu le câştigi niciodată, ci de puterea de a crede în abilitatea de a-ţi construi o scară care să te ridice la înălţimea dorită de tine.

A doua lecţie pe care trebuie să o învăţaţi dacă doriţi să urcaţi pe o treaptă superioară în carieră, este aceasta: "Nu vă puneţi toate ouăle într-un singur coş". Ori de câte ori vă confruntaţi cu o problemă, cu o situaţie în care aveţi nevoie de un sprijin, este bine să nu vă bizuiţi pe un ajutor venit numai dintr-o singură direcţie, căci s-ar putea să aveţi o surpriză neplăcută. De aceea, este important ca în orice situaţie să aveţi pregătit un plan B.

Probabil ştiţi cum stau lucrurile la noi în ţară. Cine nu are relaţii sus-puse sau cine nu dispune de resurse financiare suficiente pentru a apela la ajutorul unui specialist, mai greu va putea să facă un pas înainte. Cu unele rare excepţii s-ar putea ca nimeni să nu-şi dea interesul să vă ajute, de aceea este bine să învăţaţi să vă descurcaţi de unul singur, fără să vă bizuiţi prea mult pe ajutorul altor persoane. Nu uitaţi că pentru liderii cei mai talentaţi orice problemă ascunde o nouă provocare. Iar cea mai mare provocare este să înfruntaţi problemele cu optimism şi să le depăşiţi.

Leadershipul este responsabilitatea de a-ti asuma respingerea din partea celor din jur, cu credinţa că motivele care te împing înainte sunt mai importante decât greutăţile care te trag înapoi.

Suveranitatea lăuntricului (II)

On Aprilie 21, 2013

Continuă să te situezi la un nivel mai înalt de supervizare, încât să-ţi asiguri un scut invincibil împotriva propriei tale ambiguităţi.

Laura Quinn. Asupra destinului ei, a cărui curbă evolutivă se prăbuşeşte în realitatea cea mai sumbră, fatalitatea a decis în unanimitate: " coupable ". La un semn, biata făptură îşi pierde sclipirea de altădată, rămâne încremenită într-o atitudine ce trădează o mare durere. Întunericul fără margini din care se desprind ca nestăpânite jocuri de război senzaţii acute, năluciri. Ce cumplită viziune o încearcă !

În clipa când minuscula piatră de diamant atinge podeaua bine lustruită, toţi ochii sunt aţintiţi spre ea ca asupra unui criminal căruia nu i-a mai rămas decât să asculte pronunţarea sentinţei de moarte. Învăluită de sentimentul traumatizant că va fi claustrată într-un spaţiu inert, într-un teritoriu de netrecut, Laura se transformă într-un produs singular, personalizat după nişte coordonate ascunse despre care, fie-ne iertată nesiguranţa, nu ştim exact cum se vor desfăşura, dar putem presupune că sunt definitorii pentru leadershipul pe care ea îl va practica în continuare.

O înlănţuire de cauze şi efecte produc în Laura o perturbare dăunătoare a simţurilor, moleculele care contribuie la formarea universului ei lăuntric realizează legături tot mai slabe cu elementele ei de continuitate. Rămâne singură, cu ea însăşi, cu lucrurile de care se teme, împreună cu sufletul ei, atât de bătrân, atât de gol. Orice gând pozitiv se izbeşte de zidul de netrecut al covalenţei cu acea enzimă care nu-i permite să digere în voie trăiri de ordin fizic şi emoţional: sentimentul de impostură.

Ce păcat să întâlneşti un om sub forma a două ipostaze, dominate pe de o parte de voluptate, devotament, farmec, frumuseţe; pe de altă parte de onoruri pierdute, nume pătat, pierderea rangului, ştiinţa de a trăi în societate distrusă. Toate întrunite în aceeaşi formaţiune simplă de existenţă, înghesuită într-o singură clipă de coşmar care îneacă orice impuls al raţiunii şi orice considerent etic.

Leadership: Îţi îndrepţi privirea înapoi spre sensurile pierdute ale identităţii căreia îi atribui un rol de contrast prin costul ce-l ai de plătit pentru reset-ul vieţii?

Dacă conştiinţa nu se acomodează precis unei realităţi care se închide pe fondul lipsei de viziune şi a înţelegerii limitate a aşteptărilor, atunci omul nu vă ştii ce culpă trebuie să-şi asume, nu se va putea apăra împotriva propriei sale ambiguităţi, după cum nu se va putea sustrage mersului fatal al lucrurilor.

Odată trecut printr-o perioadă de regres, omului îi este mai greu să se elibereze de valurile propriilor insuficienţe, ceea ce conduce uneori la rezistenţe autodistructive şi la alegeri "prin evitare". Acestuia i se poate atribui un rol de contrast într-un context de „melancolie amestecat cu o umbră de fericire", sau într-unul de "vinovăţie amestecat cu regret", atunci când raţiunea sa se ridică până la conceptele de datorie şi de lege.

Un om cu poziţie înaltă, cum este Laura Quinn, îşi poate demonstra apartenenţa la o cultură unificatoare, a încrederii şi performanţei, specifice leadershipului, numai prin încercările sârguincioase de resetare a spaţiului care o umple de inutilitate. Un asemenea om îşi accentuează vizibilitatea numai prin creşterea respectului de sine, atunci când raţiunea lui se autopercepe într-o lume ce integrează existenţial natura unei noi obligaţii faţă de societate, ascunzându-şi trecutul şi încercând să imprime propriei metamorfoze un alt început, un alt parcurs.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să imprimi vieţii tale finalul ideal al unei fiinţe care a avut curajul să înfrunte neprevăzutul prin încadrarea sa în planul unei autentice căutări spirituale?

Iar dacă privirea Laurei este îndreptată nu înainte, ci printr-o oglindă retrovizoare, înapoi spre sensurile pierdute ale identităţii căreia îi atribuie un rol de contrast, atunci ea îşi va consuma trăirile prin utilizarea unui raţionament de tip inductiv - care porneşte de la o mică eroare şi ia o amploare din ce în ce mai mare. Acest rol de contrast, parcurs de la emoţie la conştiinţă, de la comportament la normă, se loveşte de încercarea omului de-a ajunge la cucerirea totalității sale autentice: "Eşti mai presus de linia evenimentelelor dacă trăieşti prin devotament, muncă cinstită şi prin voinţa de a-i ajuta pe ceilalţi."

În momentul când încerci să te împăunezi în faţa existenţei cu un sentiment de superioritate, bazat pe funcţia pe care o ocupi şi pe puterea pe care aceasta o presupune, nu vei reuşi să construieşti o perspectivă de acces la o viaţa mai bună, după un plan de rezistenţă gata întocmit.

Astfel vei fi dominat pe de o parte de voluptate, devotament, farmec. Pe de altă parte de onoruri pierdute, nume pătat, pierderea rangului, ştiinţa de a trăi în societate fiind distrusă. Toate întrunite în aceeaşi formaţiune simplă de existenţă, înghesuita într-o singură clipă de coşmar care îneacă orice impuls al raţiunii şi orice considerent etic.

De aceea, în tot ce-ţi propui să realizezi trebuie să te încadrezi totodată în planul unei autentice căutări spirituale, adică să îţi educi conştiinţa, să ţii cont de ea şi să asculţi de ea, dar mai ales să-ţi depăşeşti Ego-ul şi să încetezi a mai fi întors spre tine.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi optimizezi autonomia dacă rulezi în background aplicaţii de tip "Trojan"?

Autonomia redă condiţia individului care se bucură de o anumită independenţă în raport cu o autoritate exterioară sau cu autoritatea centrală - el însuşi. Iar această autonomie nu poate fi optimizată în favoarea leadershipului dacă individul rulează în background aplicaţii de tip "Trojan". Aplicaţiile acestea cuprind toate comenzile de tip "Set" care expun o falsă superioritate bazată pe un sentiment al contrariilor, pe o adevărată cursă a destinului, unde sinceritatea devine ambiguă.

Celebrul scriitor, Franz Kafka, prin intermediul personajului său din romanul "Procesul", a înţeles un adevăr nerostit de mulţi oameni: "Port în mine o lume nemaipomenită. Dar cum să mă eliberez şi cum s-o eliberez fără s-o sfâşii?"

Scriitorul lasă să se înţeleagă că foarte puţini oameni reuşesc să se încadreze într-un tipar dincolo de logica firească a dualităţii dintre existenţa umană ca şi individualitate şi existenţa umană în cadrul sferei de putere discreţionară - în lumina unei etape de evoluţii în leadership. Imaginea vieţii, aşa cum a perceput-o el, printr-o oglindă retrovizoare, este mai mult limitată de factori ce ţin de abordarea vieţii, prin neregăsirea echilibrului interior.

Leadershipul cel mai trainic se construieşte cu o perspectivă de viaţă sănătoasă în minte, nu după modelul unui proces mecanizat de producere a valorii, de "colectare a recoltei", de promovare a potenţialului, încât să nu mai ai nevoie de acceptare din partea propriei conştiinţe. Dacă perspectiva obiectului de interes nu este bună, focalizată pe aspectele pozitive ale existenţei, atunci nici fundalul nu va ieşi corect.

Autonomia unui om se bazează pe fundalul reprezentărilor sale despre viaţă, despre lume şi despre sine: poţi fi pregătit să-ţi accepţi spiritualitatea imperfecţiunilor tale sau poţi să-ţi recunoşti "ratarea" pe toate planurile.

Suveranitatea lăuntricului evidenţiază acea parte a sinelui responsabilă cu evoluţia existenţială, care transcende orice limitare.

Ideea este că ar trebui să-ţi formezi o perspectivă general-existenţială, pe care să îţi plasezi elementele de interes, apoi elementele secundare, de leadership şi performanţă, nu invers. În felul asta totul va fi acordat cum trebuie - gândirea şi simţirea, sub bolţile chemării spre mai bine. A chemării spre adevărata ta fiinţă, spre reîntoarcere la autenticitate, dincolo de temeri, dincolo de închistări, dincolo de limitări şi condiţionări.

Suveranitatea lăuntricului (I)

Evadează din gaura neagră a universului tău lăuntric, stabilind legături puternice cu elementele tale de continuitate.

Laura Quinn. Pentru ca sângele bietei fiinţe să freamăte din nou şi să se adapteze spontan la viaţă, sub efectul unei reacţiuni capabile să suplinească eşecul covârşitor, e câtuşi de puţin necesar să existe o coagulare a forţelor ei pozitive. Dar unde găseşti un spaţiu prielnic pentru o astfel de transformare?

Căci însăşi starea ei sufletească trebuie să se încadreze în intervalul ideal pentru obţinerea condiţiilor optime a transformării. Din nefericire esenţa ei se apropie tot mai mult de punctul critic care nu mai garantează reînnoirea totală, nici măcar parţială.

Nu lăsa să se apropie de tine monstrul ce mistuie cele mai trainice simţiri ! Dar monstrul se pregăteşte pentru lovitura finală. Pulsaţiile care regenerează sângele făcând inima se bată, îşi pierd din intensitate şi aproape că încetează complet.

În clipa aceasta profetică, când este prinsă asupra faptului şi este luată pe sus de oamenii de ordine, Laura este stupefiată, concentraţia reactantului care produce stimulii pozitivi necesari în momentele vitregi se reduce la zero. Ea nu mai intră în vibraţia normală, ci rămâne înţepenită, atinsă parcă de un suflu de gheaţă.

Un coşmar este ca un ţânţar care îţi scapă atunci când vrei să-l prinzi imediat după ce te-a pişcat. Laura se trezeşte, un fel de eliberare spirituală se produce la comandă. Toate frecvenţele necesare şi suficiente pentru activarea energiilor pozitive şi vindecătoare se contopesc din nou în ea. Acum se vede mai singură decât oricând, ca un clopot ruginit aruncat în mare de o mână nevăzută.

Atotputernicul demon al panicii şi al plânsului, ocupându-se cu arestarea datornicilor insolvabili, nu-i mai poate da Laurei decat o singura instrucţiune: capitularea. *

Leadership: Imaginea personalităţii tale poate fi inclusă în condiţiile de utilizare a unei realităţi legate la sursa de alimentare a existenţei tale cu un "negativ al memoriei" ?

Te simţi învăluit de sentimentul traumatizant că eşti claustrat într-un teritoriu de netrecut? Te transformi într-un produs singular, personalizat după nişte coordonate ascunse? Starea ta sufletească corespunde cerinţelor care asigură obţinerea condiţiilor optime a transformării? Esenţa ta se apropie tot mai mult de punctul care provoacă efervescenţa lăuntrică?

Una dintre capcanele care te pot obstrucţiona ca potenţial lider, este imposibilitatea de a te concentra asupra a ceea ce nu cunoşti despre tine. Trebuie să-ţi pui imaginea proprie în acord cu acceptarea realităţii atunci când treci prin cele mai proaste pase, atunci când eşti obligat să experimentezi suferinţa ca variantă de testare a neprevăzutului. În felul acesta, în timp ce te închizi în tine însuţi la comanda verdictului de moment “vinovat”, leadershipul tinde să se deprecieze în generoasa lui reprezentare pe scena vieţii.

Prin leadership putem surprinde trăirile individuale ale omului cuprinse în infinita galerie a aspectelor realităţii şi relaţiilor pe care aceasta se sprijină, prin conectarea lui la prezent, trecut şi viitor, în funcţie de schimbarea de atitudine raportată la propria existenţă personală. Un negativ al memoriei este o pată neagră în capacitatea omului de a-şi crea destinul după semnificaţia pe care o atribuie vieţii, mai ales când simte că a pierdut controlul asupra a ceea ce i se întâmplă.

Degeaba te uiţi în oglindă şi îţi spui "o să reuşesc să mă arunc înspre viitor", dacă nu îţi aminteşti lecţiile trecutului care te-au ajutat să fii împăcat cu tine.

Văzut din afară şi dinlăuntrul lui, în funcţie de cele trei timpuri, în diferitele medii prin care trece, în diferitele situaţii de viaţă în care este pus, omul poate să capete un nou look lăuntric. Poate să capete o altă configuraţie de personalitate care să aibă în componenţa sa un propulsor mai puţin dinamic şi capabil de a produce marea abundenţă de energii creatoare.

Omul supus schimbării poate fi învăluit de atâtea contradicţii spontane, în special de sentimentul traumatizant că va rămâne claustrat într-un spaţiu inert, al imposibilităţii de a se ridica deasupra lui însăşi în momentele de disperare, de derută. El este supus încercării de a se alinia normelor realităţii externe, încât ajunge să se transforme într-un produs singular, personalizat după nişte coordonate nesigure, dar totuşi definitorii pentru leadershipul pe care îl va practica în continuare.

Singurul moment din viaţa ta când îţi dai seama cine eşti cu adevărat se produce atunci când imaginea personală devine sinonimă cu asumarea unei dezamăgiri iminente sau cu asumarea unei victorii proaspăt realizate.

Leadership: Dispui de calitatea de a te menţine suveranul propriului spaţiu interior, în varianta încercării de a te ridica deasupra suferinţei determinate de starea lucrurilor care nu se schimbă de la sine?

Dacă ai citit " Trilogia New York-ului ", probabil îţi aminteşti de acel personaj al lui Paul Auster, care inundându-se cu lucruri exterioare, afundându-se în ele până la ieşirea din sine, reuşea să exercite un minim control asupra acceselor sale de disperare. Plimbările îl ajutau să înţeleagă legătura care exista între interior şi exterior. Folosind mişcarea fără ţintă ca o tehnică de inversare, el putea să aducă exteriorul înăuntru, uzurpând astfel suveranitatea lăuntricului.

Leadershipul, ca şi aşteptările pe care le ai de la tine însuţi, trebuie să se ridice din zona populată de trăiri pozitive la care te raportezi în situaţia creată de circumstanţele noi în care te afli, atunci când rămâi singur cu tine însuţi, cu lucrurile de care te temi, cu lucrurile de care nu te poţi despărţi sau cu lucrurile de care trebuie să tragi mai tare.

Nu lăsa monstrul să se apropie de tine, nu-l lăsa să-ţi dea instrucţiuni ! Exercită-ţi controlul asupra acceselor sale de disperare. Urmăreşte latura realistă a vieţii tale pe câmpul de luptă dintre interior şi exterior, atunci când se dezlănţuie acea gamă largă de cauze şi efecte ce produc în tine o perturbare dăunătoare a simţurilor. Nu uita că momentele cheie îţi arată cine eşti cu adevărat.

Dacă vrei să câştigi lupta cu ceea ce nu poţi accepta la tine în raport cu lucrurile de care iei cunoştinţă prin experienţă, atunci rămâi fidel viziunii pe care o ai şi nu te lăsa distras de ceea ce este în urma ta.

Atunci când călătoreşti pe ruta de la interior - la exterior, când trebuie să te raportezi la realitatea prezentului, viaţa poate erupe în zonele cele mai sensibile, cuprinzându-le tumultos cu forţa de neînvins a firului subteran autentic a cărui rază de acţiune duce (când nu poţi să activezi în voie trăiri pozitive) la erodarea psihică, emoţională şi fizică.

Toate frecvenţele necesare şi suficiente pentru activarea energiilor pozitive şi vindecătoare se contopesc în tine prin identificarea completă a elementelor tale de continuitate: echilibrul, claritatea, discernământul, puterea viziunii, pacea profundă, optimismul şi puterea de a te ridica deasupra durerii.

Dacă vrei să-ţi consolidezi legăturile puternice cu elementele tale de continuitate, evadează din gaura neagră a universului tău lăuntric. Nu-ţi omorî cu propria amăgire impulsurile raţiunii şi considerentele etice.

Umilinţa de a fi învins este starea de spirit pe care ţi-o provoacă evenimentele din viaţa ta, configurată după ideea că oricât te-ai strădui să faci o schimbare până la urmă tot vei fi tentat să te complaci în indiferenţă şi inconsecvență.

Verifică evenimentele din zona ta de viaţă (cea mai lovită de schimbări) şi alege evenimentul la care ai dori să participi !

Suveranitatea lăuntricului semnifică existenţa unui centru de comandă în forul nostru interior (format în timp şi bazat pe principii etice, solide, stabile şi inflexibile), care interpretând evenimentele din exterior ne monitorizează şi controlează acţiunile. Dacă acest comandant suprem este coruptibil sau coboară ştacheta calităţii de om, atunci efectele sunt sau pot fi dezastruoase pentru noi.

Suveranul destinelor

Concentrează-te asupra esenţialului leadershipului tău ca să fii în măsură să percepi diferenţa între ceea ce îţi închipui că eşti şi ceea ce eşti de fapt.

Pe când traversau marea se iscă o furtună atât de puternică, cu tunete şi fulgere, încât toţi oamenii de pe bordul vasului, inclusiv Alonso, regele Neapolului, fură cuprinşi de spaimă. Alonso încercă totuşi să-i îmbărbăteze pe marinari să manevreze cât mai bine corabia. Cert era că nimeni nu-i dădea atenţie, fiindcă el nu era nicidecum familiarizat cu manevrarea unei astfel de ambarcaţiuni.

Şeful de echipaj, conştient că prezenţa regelui la bordul navei nu ar fi făcut decât să încurce lucrurile, îi strigă acestuia:

– Plecaţi de aici ! Linişte ! Coborâţi în cabine, altfel daţi o mână de ajutor furtunii ! Dacă nu puteţi impune oprirea furtunii, plecaţi ! Nu mai încurcaţi treburile.

Leadership: Favorizezi alegerea unui rol care conţine o opoziţie între ceea ce nu vrei să ţi se întâmple şi ceea ce ţi se întâmplă ca să ştii care îţi este puterea?

– Ei, ei, prietene, mai domol. Nu uita pe cine ai la bord, îl atenţionă Gonzalo, bătrânul şi credinciosul sfetnic al regelui, pe şeful de echipaj.

Auzind acestea, şeful de echipaj replică:

– Nu ţin la nimeni mai mult ca la mine însumi. Mă voi domoli numai când s-o domoli marea. Plecaţi ! Parcă valurilor le pasă de cuvântul „rege" ! La cabine ! Tăceţi ! Nu ne mai stingheriţi !

Dacă aţi citit „ Furtuna " de Shakespeare, ştiţi că regele a fost nevoit să coboare în cabina sa. În cele din urmă, corabia a naufragiat pe o insulă pustie, dar tot echipajul a scăpat cu viaţă. Şeful de echipaj a dat dovadă de o puternică determinare în acel moment decisiv, şi de o atitudine profesionistă remarcabilă. El şi-a descătuşat potenţialul de lider dând marinarilor ordine clare, precise şi utile, cu o hotărâre şi o eficienţă deosebită.

Leadership: De multe ori persoana cheie este eroul singuratic care ţine cârma !

În leadership experienţa este de neînlocuit. Regele Neapolului nu a fost în măsură să comande nava, căci nu avea niciun fel de experienţă în această zonă. Cum să liniştească el marea înfuriată şi nestăpânită, când, la vederea fulgerelor şi a tunetelor, şi-a pierdut primul speranţa? Crezând că orice efort este inutil şi temându-se pentru propria-i viaţă, regele Alonso a ascultat sfatul sefului de echipaj şi s-a retras repede în cabina sa, lăsându-l pe el la cârmă.

Un căpitan adevărat rămâne întotdeauna alături de echipajul său, conducând toate acţiunile în concordanţă cu situaţiile ivite. Nava poate fi învăluită de furtună, poate fi purtată de valuri în toate sensurile, fără nicio cruţare, însă datoria căpitanului este să rămână pe bord şi să facă totul pentru a evita scufundarea navei.

Dacă vrei să treci puntea dintre fluxul evenimentelor din prim planul realităţii şi percepţia unui rol pentru care nu ai fost născut, este mult mai important să ajuţi la crearea unui pretext/contex de intervenţie "din afara" ariei de influenţă a regelui (liderul suprem).

În leadership trebuie să vedem dezvoltarea inteligenţei de a utiliza substanţa materială a evenimentelor, a conjuncturilor şi atuurile decorului pornirilor sufleteşti contradictorii care străbat ecourile unei lupte a instinctelor de orientare, de supravieţuire şi de dominaţie. Dar, mai important de atât, trebuie să permitem o radicală reconfigurare a sentimentelor în favoarea unei logici care vizează crearea de valoare personală.

Leadership: Poţi defini conceptul de "probabilitate de performanţă" ca fiind o măsură a şansei de producere a unui eveniment decisiv care îşi manifestă impactul asupra încrederii tale de a duce mai departe ce ai început?

Şeful de echipaj s-a ridicat la înălţimea reputaţiei lui de conducător fiind în stare să facă faţă primejdiei cu acel elan lăuntric, viu şi înălţător, cu acel entuziasm impetuos pe care numai oamenii cu adevărat dârzi îl au, în timp ce regele a rămas în umbră.

Aşa cum un pictor posedă acel complex de însuşiri psiho-fizice graţie cărora este în măsură de a percepe diferenţa între ceea ce face şi ceea ce simte, tot aşa şi tu, ca sa-ti aduci leadershipul la forma cea mai puternica, trebuie să posezi acel spirit de autoevaluare obiectiv şi corect ca să fii în măsură să percepi diferenţa între ceea ce îţi închipui că eşti şi ceea ce eşti de fapt – un lider, un erou, sau un biet stingher?

Prin faptul că iei parte la desfăşurarea unei acţiuni de amploare, despre care nu ştii cum se va încheia, slujeşti motivului de a refuza garanţia unui rezultat mult aşteptat din care derivă un caracter impecabil. Dacă pătrunzi în viitorul unui deznodământ pozitiv, chiar diferit de aşteptările tale, ca element de măsură a potenţialului tău de leadership, încă nu înseamnă că acest viitor îţi va îndeplini cererea (experienţa) şi îţi va da ceea ce ai cerut să trăieşti la adevărata valoarea pe care simţi ca o ai.

Ci înseamnă că ai văzut că nu există ieşire dintr-o situaţie cu mari consecinţe, la fel cum nu există ieşire dintr-o indecizie. Singurul lucru care rămâne de verificat este un concept supraevaluat în experiențele vieții: concordanţa dintre convingeri şi comportament, fără a ne lăsa subjugaţi de primejdioasa formă a iluzionării pe care o trăieşte omul în care se oglindeşte măreţia unui rege.

Leadershipul este calitatea unui erou singuratic din care se alimentează destinul unui rege.

Tu dispui de un potenţial de leadership, chiar dacă nu ai fost numit într-o poziţie de conducere foarte înaltă – precum şeful de echipaj? Sau eşti un lider numit, precum regele Alonso, dar lipsit de o orientare clară şi de simţul răspunderii? Eşti un slujitor pe tărâmul priceperii altora?

Cugetă mai bine asupra ta. Care este realitatea?

Concluzie: Aidoma unui căpitan care părăseşte ultimul nava după ce şi-a dat tot interesul să evite scufundarea ei, tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să fii în stare să faci faţă primejdiilor care pot apărea oricând – a face faţă însemnând a da comenzi precise şi ferme, a-ţi ascunde frica care te poate cuprinde şi a şti să-ţi asumi riscurile. Şi mai ales să nu precupeţeşti niciun efort, căci adeseori eşti „suveranul destinelor”, care hotărăşte reuşita sau înfrângerea, viaţa sau moartea.

Concentrează-te asupra esenţialului leadershipului tău, ca să fii în măsură să percepi diferenţa între ceea ce îţi închipui că eşti şi ceea ce eşti de fapt.

Sweet Harmony

On Ianuarie 25, 2016

Încearcă să te înfăţişezi ca o lume nouă, printr-un intens proces de interacţiune cu o altă cunoaştere.

Dacă promiţi că n-o să pomeneşti nimănui despre asta îţi voi dărui un secret, lampa fermecată a propriei mele raţiuni de a fi, esenţa regăsirii acelei părţi din mine care este eternă. Căci numai printr-o destăinuire neaşteptată, împinsă în exterior de puterea unor imagini mentale vii, ordonate pe nodurile unui alt model de receptare, pot ajunge să mă întâlnesc cu mine însumi într-un colţ din altcineva mult mai însemnat. Is it right or wrong?

Am făcut din mine prioritatea lumii, ceea ce nu mai reprezintă chiar o destinaţie, fiindcă acum lumea a devenit prioritatea mea, abisul meu dacă stau pe marginea unei bariere cu ochii închişi. Asemenea unui pictor care îşi caută inspiraţia într-un desen plin de acurateţe şi rigoare, deci fără retuşuri, tot astfel personalitatea mea îşi caută menirea în crearea unei identităţi vizuale menită să adâncească o experienţă completă de revelare a unei părţi a fiinţei mele, rămasă necunoscută. Eram asemenea unui personaj de Stephen King care depăşeşte limitele universului imaginar, cu condiţia să trăiască simultan o altfel de viaţă, spirituală, mai profundă decât ar fi capabil.

Uneori mă imaginez ca o bibliotecă prăfuită unde bătrânii stau şi citesc la nesfârşit manuscrisele vechi, cât mai departe de tot ce se prezintă ca o linie dreaptă, fără cotituri. Unde lupta dintre mit şi adevăr, dezvoltată pe suportul unei cunoaşteri apriorice pentru obţinerea unei victorii autoreflexive, alimentează mirajul unei ecuaţii existenţiale nemaiîntâlnite.

Astfel reuşesc să mă înfăţişez ca o lume nouă, un roman scris printr-un intens proces de pierdere într-o altă fiinţă, într-o energie de aceeaşi frecvenţă. No, it can't be wrong.

Leadership: Poţi face din tine o imagine cu tentă de operă de artă prin referire la o personalitate care iese în evidenţă prin însemnătatea acordată unei lumi care se conturează lăuntric, ca întregime în manifestare?

Este drept că nu-mi place să scormonească nimeni înlăuntrul meu şi să-mi afle adevărurile, aşa cum procedează un căutător de comori, ca Heinrich Schliemann, care în goana după aur a descoperit urmele legendarei cetăți grecești antice Troia. Dar anumite fenomene ale căror efecte pot fi neglijate de la frecvenţe mai coborâte, încep să se manifeste din ce în ce mai puternic, influenţând în mod pozitiv percepţia despre însemnătatea lor.

Îmi destăinuiesc gândurile, dorinţele, visele legate de mistica unei comuniuni cu acea conştiinţă a destinului intelectual atras și devorat de mirajul unei lumi lucitoare, imperiale, interzise, ca un prilej de a găsi nişte răspunsuri nebănuite despre mine însumi. Not just empty words / For a week or two. O imagine cu tentă de operă de artă este precum existenţa unui foc lăuntric bine dozat, are ceva în comun cu o realitate aflată dincolo de cea percepută de ceilalţi oameni, şi nu se consumă niciodată.

Interesant cum îşi începea Maurice Leblanc una dintre opere: "V-aţi gândit vreodată la aspectele originale şi neprevăzute din legătura unor fiinţe ce nu se cunoşteau cu o zi înainte, şi care pentru câteva zile, între cerul nesfârşit şi marea imensă, vor trăi viaţa în laţurile sale cele mai intime, vor înfrunta împreună mânia oceanului, asaltul înfricoşător al valurilor şi calmul şiret al apei liniştite?"

O personalitate care iese în evidenţă prin însemnătatea acordată unei lumi conturată lăuntric, ca întregime în manifestare, este un artist al penelului care îşi relevă cunoaşterea prin crearea unei realităţi diferite de tot cea trăit până atunci.

Leadership: Te afli în căutarea unui nou conţinut de sine întins între cele două extreme: "Spinning round and round" şi "Made the same mistakes"?

Pentru a-ţi dezvolta un model nou de personalitate, care să îndeplinească funcţia de bază a leadershipului - aceea de diferenţiere, trebuie să porneşti de la corelaţia și paralelismul dintre ceea ce cunoști și ceea ce afli prin dezvăluirea acestei cunoaşteri. Un fel de confesiune care se finalizează cu deducţia unor noi adevăruri despre tine.

Întotdeauna când am încercat să-mi reconfigurez viziunea despre ceea ce sunt și ceea ce voi deveni, prin alcătuirea unor concluzii vizavi de efectele eforturilor de a afla noi adevăruri despre mine și aplicarea acestora într-o nouă experiență, practic am făcut comparație cu altcineva, cu o altă cunoaştere care a putut actualiza permanent calitatea gândirii mele.

Simt o mare reţinere să accept orice de la ea, de la această lume furioasă pe care mi-o imaginez ca un fel de corabie condusă de valuri, împotriva voinţei echipajului, în toate părţile. Titanicul este metafora unei încăperi a istoriei, sugerând ciclul continuu al lumii cuprins între "Spinning round and round" şi "Made the same mistakes".

La fel şi comorile. Sunt mereu vânate indiferent unde ar fi ele şi cât de greu se poate ajunge acolo, dar în cele din urmă sfârşesc prin a fi din nou ascunse. Este un fel de învârtire în cerc, nu-i așa, o greşeală repetată la nesfârșit, fiindcă omul nu reuşeşte să se rupă de ceea ce nu poate stăpâni, sau nu reușește să înţeleagă ceea ce-l poate împlini. Let there be no doubt / We should sort things out.

Lumea întreagă, cu umbrele ei contrastante, devine o convenţie aparentă dintre o sumă de evenimente, simple sau dure, cu unicul scop de a ascunde efectele unui secret exprimat prin raportul dintre interesant şi autentic.

Omul este interesant prin însuşi alcătuirea lui, dar numai cursul vieţii lui trăit prin intermediul altcuiva este autentic. Înţelepţii se dovedesc a fi slabi şi fără putere în faţa acestei descoperiri inestimabile pe care timpul o ascunde sub vestmântul surprinzătorului, pe care uneori o dezvăluie un scriitor şi de o mie de ori o plămădeşte viaţa.

Leadershipul este viziunea extrasă din efectele eforturilor de a afla noi adevăruri despre tine însuţi, aplicată într-o experienţă de tipul: "am devenit parte dintr-o lume în care creatorul şi creatul se confundă".

Sweet Harmony este o reflectare a ordinii tale interioare prin raportarea la cunoaşterea celorlalți oameni din jur. Dacă vrei să aduci revelaţia unui adevăr unic, încearcă să te înfăţişezi ca o lume nouă printr-un intens proces de interacţiune cu o altă cunoaştere. We play a part in a greater scheme. Let's come together / Right now, oh yeah ! In sweet harmony !

Tabloul complet al reputaţiei

On Ianuarie 27, 2009

Investeşte cu grijă în motorul excelenţei tale, astfel încât să poţi garanta funcţionarea lui la parametri optimi.

La cine apelezi prima oară atunci când te îmbolnăveşti? La medic, evident. Dar nu la orice medic care oferă consultaţii, nu-i aşa? Ci la un medic care într-adevăr îţi poate indica calea de vindecare. Faima de care se bucură medicul şi încrederea în cunoştinţele sale de specialitate este, de fapt, ceea ce te determină să apelezi la el.

Un medic foarte bun nu trebuie să greşească niciodată, nu trebuie să ofere niciodată un tratament necorespunzător, deoarece, comiţând o eroare, îşi pierde reputaţia şi diminuează încrederea pe care o au oamenii în el.

Care este guma ta de mestecat preferată? Probabil Orbit, nu-i aşa? Dar de ce ai ales Orbit şi nu altă gumă de mestecat? Mai mult ca sigur pentru că Orbit îţi oferă o protecţie crescută împotriva cariilor în comparaţie cu celelalte tipuri de gume de mestecat. Încrederea în calitatea produsului şi garanţia că nu vei avea niciodată carii te-a determinat să investeşti banii în el.

Respectul şi grija pentru fiecare client a făcut marea companie Wrigley să ajungă la o cotă de piaţă de 96% din segmentul gumei de mestecat, dintre care 65% doar cu brandul Orbit. Dacă nu ar fi pus pe primul loc sănătatea oamenilor, Wrigley nu ar fi putut ajunge niciodată o companie cu adevărat extraordinară, şi nu ar fi putut niciodată să-şi creeze o reputaţie mai bună decât a celorlalţi competitori de pe piaţă.

Leadership: Preferinţa pe care o dezvolţi pentru o sumă de atribute şi caracteristici tangibile, reunite într-o formă identificabilă, oferă posibilitatea menţinerii unui anumit grad de autonomie în zona ta de afirmare?

Ascensiunea pe care singur ţi-o impui prin aducerea laolaltă a tuturor a resurselor și know-how-ului care permite explorarea unui anumit segment de piaţă se armonizează cu ceea ce oferi mai bun decât ceilalţi printr-o prestaţie 100% continuă.

Ţi-aş putea oferi multe exemple, din numeroase domenii, în care unele produse, sau unele servicii pe care le oferă anumiţi oameni sau anumite companii sunt mai cunoscute şi mai preferate decât altele. Dar n-am s-o fac căci probabil aş umple câteva pagini bune.

Îţi pot spune doar atât: ca să fii apreciat trebuie să ai o putere neobişnuită de a atrage în jurul lor mulţi susţinători şi să fii capabil să-ţi construieşti o reputaţie de invidiat. Trebuie să ai o mare putere de convingere, o capacitate ieşită din comun de a rezolva probleme, să inspiri încredere pentru ca ceilalţi să apeleze la ajutorul tău.

Ascensiunea în orice domeniu trebuie privită din perspectiva construcției şi utilizării unei maşini, dincolo de "vârsta" la care iese din garanţie: îi trebuie un tip special de roată care să nu fie înlocuită niciodată. Roata sugerează mişcarea perpetuă pe care nimeni nu o poate măsura şi gestiona simultan, este o invenţie care te ajută să faci progrese în direcţia schimbării lumii.

Leadership: Este necesar să evaluezi utilitatea unei anumite abordări ca să observi dacă ceea ce transmiţi pare să corespundă cu diferenţa dintre valoare şi atitudine?

Şi tu trebuie să-ţi creezi o reputaţie de invidiat dacă doreşti să îţi faci cunoscute pe piaţă serviciile sau produsele. Însă reputaţia nu se construieşte în mod natural, fără să mişti niciun deget. Nu te poţi aştepta să ai succes într-un domeniu şi să îţi formezi un nume sonor dacă nu câştigi încrederea oamenilor, dacă nu beneficiezi de o credibilitate sporită în ochii tuturor.

Atitudinea este reacţia şi poziţia indivizilor faţă de ceea ce văd într-o reclamă. Valoarea unui produs este ceea ce reclama încearcă să vândă prin sugerarea unei emoţii puternice în care stupoarea şi fragilitatea clipei de acum se întretaie cu revelaţia unui timp câştigat, sau cu redimensionarea unor momente privilegiate rămase doar în amintire.

Părerea mea în ceea ce priveşte marketingul este că valoarea trebuie să producă cât mai mult exteriorizarea atitudinii. O atitudine sofisticată denotă certitudinea livrării unui produs calitativ.

În marketing este o vorbă: " Clienţii te cunosc mai bine decât te cunoşti tu însuţi ". Cunoştinţele tale de specialitate şi calitatea serviciilor pe care le oferi influenţează în bine reputaţia ta. Este o dovadă de stimă şi admiraţie atunci când oamenii apelează la ajutorul / serviciile tale, de aceea nu trebuie să-i dezamăgeşti niciodată. Vei putea să afirmi că eşti un excelent specialist în domeniul în care îţi desfăşori activitatea numai atunci când vei învinge concurenţa şi când vei dobândi acea faimă de invidiat, recunoscută mai ales de cei din branşa ta.

Reputaţia ta este ca un motor care porneşte odată ce te poziţionezi în relaţia cu oamenii. Iar acest motor, creat special pentru dezvoltarea ta profesionala, este un mare consumator de credibilitate şi garanţie – si nu are voie sa se oprească odată pus in funcţiune.

Investeşte cu grijă în „motorul" excelenţei tale astfel încât să poţi garanta funcţionarea lui la parametri optimi.

Leadershipul este ceea ce laşi în urma ta după ce le-ai asigurat clienţilor tăi garanţia unui produs de calitate şi accesibil ca preţ, numit: "ÎNAINTE".

Tabloul în care ţi-am imortalizat portretul

On Noiembrie 03, 2018

Învaţă să tragi folos dintr-un amestec de artă şi decor, prin garantarea autenticităţii propriilor mărturisiri.

Memoria ei păstrează fiecărui lucru amprenta exactă, dinspre artistic spre estetic, vizavi de tot ce o înconjoară, aşa încât nu-i scapă niciun amănunt, nicio banalitate, niciun episod trăit în prezenţa ei. Nu i se întâmplă niciodată, asemenea scriitorilor care îşi spun povestea într-un mod sensibil, dar captivant, să ezite multă vreme ori să se hotărască prea repede în modul în care face constatarea unei stări de fapt în caz de vreo conjunctură imprevizibilă. Este doar ea. Peste tot şi în orice context.

De regulă, când încerci să caracterizezi pe cineva omiţi să-i menţionezi numele, dar îi atribui întotdeauna o identitate fictivă, de care se poate sprijini raţiunea bazată pe finitudinea unei lumi închise între macrocosm şi microcosm. Într-un fel, mă simt ca şi când ar trebui să îmbrăţişez o stea care luminează doar cerul întunecat al nopţii, fără să aştept altceva în schimb decât fiorul trăirii în care ea devine vizibilă. Iar dacă aş încerca s-o caracterizez într-un singur cuvânt pe tânăra domnişoară, frumoasă şi misterioasă, m-aş lupta cu plăcerea de a intra în posesia a ceea ce iubesc, fără să obţin acel ceva pentru care lupt.

Ea pare să beneficieze de toate atuurile unui actor stăpân pe arta teatrului non-verbal. Eu sunt magicianul abil al cuvintelor făcute să rimeze cu glasul unui demiurg care cunoaşte limbajul tăcerii.

Imaginea realităţii orientată spre experienta privirii în tine însuti depinde de surplusul de fundal alb pe care nu-l poţi pune în evidenţă într-un tablou de mare rafinament.

Dacă aş înfăţişa trăsăturile personalităţii ei, dincolo de imortalitatea unei lumi materiale în universul trecerilor umane, ca un fel de reprezentare a unei realităţi alternative, probabil aş naufragia într-un colaj suprarealist de imagini văzute doar prin caleidoscopul unui veac de singurătate. Garcia Marquez mi-ar invidia stilul literar pentru jocul straniu al asocierilor dintre plauzibil şi suprarealist ce permite doar odihna unei lecturi de identificare a unui spaţiu puternic impregnat de simbolism. Un simbolism pus pe seama unui demiurg care, absorbit în el însuşi, plăsmuieşte la nesfârşit universuri tot mai adânci.

Dintr-o privire, ea încearcă să-mi descopere toate gândurile, judecându-mă la rece, ca un avocat, dar asta nu face decât să-mi confere o mai bună poziţionare în mijlocul tentativei de a descoperi o geometrie secretă în natura unei intervenţii voliţionale inteligente, care i-a fascinat pe creatori de-a lungul timpului. Forma particulară de raţiune ce i-o pot atribui sub semnul imprevizibil al unui destin reconstituit în imaginaţie, aparţine măiestriei de a crea o lume complexă ilustrată prin surplusul puterii de colorare a unor secvenţe născute din misterul unui joc provocator şi riscant: "cine pe cine manipulează".

O fată tânără şi frumoasă este o realitate care se găseşte într-o eternă visare, o existenţă paralelă din scrierile mele, o apreciere despre trecut şi fără vreo indicaţie pentru viitor, îndeosebi când prin consultarea artei se încearcă o pătrundere în literatura unei lumi ce se dezvăluie în formula aglomerării de detalii fine. Mai am multe de învăţat despre viaţă, cu atât mai multe despre artă, mai ales dacă m-aş închipui frunzărind mintea unei fete închise într-o reprezentare de realitate diferită, care pare a emite un strigăt triumfalist din adâncul inimii: “Te admir, dar numai de la înălţime ! ”

Leadership: Poţi să te angajezi într-o acţiune temerară de răsturnare a aparenţelor de dincolo de percepţie, în raport cu adâncirea într-un tablou inedit din care se detaşează figura principală?

Nu i se întâmplă niciodată să uite ceva fără să se auto-suspende într-un spaţiu imaginar. Pe vremuri era o tipă dură, rece, dar intrai cu uşurinţă în graţiile ei de îndată ce îi gâdilai orgoliul. Aş vrea să fie acum mai îngăduitoare. De multe ori realitatea este o adâncire într-un tablou inedit din care se detaşează figura principală. Nu sunt aşa cum ţi-ai imaginat, dar tu eşti exact aşa cum mi-am imaginat. Nu le-am aranjat bine? Nu le-am dat lucrurilor importanţa cuvenită unei exprimări care să avantajeze calitatea puterii tale de a le împărtăşi cunoaşterea intrinsecă? Află, dragă domnişoară, că arta înseamnă să te desprinzi de fondul unei compoziţii care seamănă cu alta.

Adâncimea unui conţinut simbolic se pretează utilizării unui câmp cromatic variat, format din roşu, oranj, galben şi violet, ceea ce sporeşte randamentul activităţii intelectuale şi influenţează conduita de căutare a satisfacerii de noutate. Ca o paranteză, genul acesta de asocieri între frumuseţea modelului, enigmele unei cărţi uitate şi spaţiul simbolic al unei opere cu adâncire metafizică, îşi are precedentul istoric în tehnica colajului cubist care surprinde starea de moment a lucrurilor, spre deosebire de curentul futurist care surprinde mişcarea lor.

Ea continuă să creadă despre mine, prin intuiţie directă, că voi reuşi să alcătuiesc miezul unei creaţii de mare profunzime doar sporind intensitatea culorilor obţinute prin contactul direct cu mediul înconjurător, cu diferite imagini şi obiecte naturale. În acelaşi timp, expresia chipului ei pare literalmente contrariul impresiei pe care mi-o făcusem despre ea. Pare că născoceşte o cale prin care obiectele de zi cu zi iau forma oamenilor, pe care ar dori să-i conducă într-o permanentă călătorie pe tărâmuri enigmatice, înţesate cu magie și intrigi poliţiste. Probabil, draga mea, ai uitat cine e creatorul şi cine este privitorul.

Leadership: Beneficiezi de disponibilitatea perceptivă a ochiului de a trece succesiv de la o viziune la alta pe fondul aceleiaşi compoziţii, ştiind că pe spatele tabloului se ascunde o altă pictură?

Prin declanşarea trăirilor afective pozitive datorate aprecierii cu care am fost copleşit de nenumărate ori, am izbutit să realizez o empatie a firescului izvorât din impulsul dorinţei de a-mi ascunde un pic din aroganţa şi atitudinea de superioritate în faţa unei fiinţe care abia se apropie de acel savoir faire al lecturii artei. I-am dat impresia că încă mai am multe de învăţat până să ajung să fac creaţii în adevăratul sens al cuvântului. Clar, am făcut-o pe modestul, dar în spatele modestiei şade umbra vecină a unei glorii veşnice.

Te voi admira întotdeauna din multe puncte de vedere, eşti atrăgătoare, inteligentă, ştii să apreciezi bărbatul ce are mereu vânt din spate la corabia lui. Dar din umbra unei priviri aruncate în secret, dacă aş încerca să-ţi produc o încântare a simţurilor printr-o coloraţie a ochilor, dinspre puritatea senină a unei dimineţi de vară spre blândeţea unui asfinţit de toamnă, probabil n-aş izbuti să reproduc imaginea reală a ceea ce înseamnă prezenţă sau lipsă, chemare sau refuz, perspectivă sau opacitate, inocenţă sau greşeală, apropiere sau depărtare. Realitatea capătă o altă înfăţişare la omul pictat cu aripi de înger într-o gamă cromatică dominată de maro-uri şi orange-uri aprinse.

Arta este versiunea detaliată a unei lumi solemne definită prin simţire. Tuşa plină de înţelesurile unei poveşti în care totul pare miraculos câtă vreme totul pare plin de tâlc, reînnoită de la ochi la suflet, se îmbogăţeşte cu simţirea unei fericiri de o cu totul altă natură. O tânără frumoasă are darul de a sugera serii de asociaţii pasionante, o formulă care spune imaginaţiei mele că pot merge împotriva curentului. Ceea ce n-o oboseşte, o stimulează. Clar, seducţia este începutul unei aventuri în care lucrurile devin interesante.

Dar ei îi lipseşte îndrăzneala pictorului care ştie să facă dintr-un subiect plictisitor unul interesant. Nu luptă deloc să intre în posesia a ceea ce iubeşte cu adevărat, este condusă de un fel de laşitate acoperită de orgoliu, un colaj de sensibilităţi care nu înaintează spre virtute. Ceva îi dă totuşi avântul necesar de a savura lucrurile mici, plăcerile fine, fără să se gândească că lucrurile ar putea fi altfel, prin însăşi forţa lor de a se asocia sau de a se substitui între ele. Arta de a cuceri o femeie constă în abandonarea tuturor lucrurilor pe care ea le controlează.

Nu te voi cunoaşte niciodată prea bine, nu te voi putea salva niciodată din adâncul unei inimi sărăcite de conţinut, dar intuiţia îmi spune că faci parte din universul meu. Pentru că niciodată nu vei putea părăsi tabloul în care ţi-am imortalizat portretul.

Leadershipul este portretul pe care îl execuţi cu măiestrie pentru definirea profilului cuiva, lăsând totuşi un mic cerc de fundal alb care ocupă prim planul unei lumi niciodată cunoscute îndeajuns.

Tabloul în care ţi-am imortalizat portretul se poate regăsi cel mai bine în inima mea, care n-a cunoscut niciodată regretul de a te fi cunoscut, ci mai degrabă regretul că nu te-am putut reda într-o manieră mai expresivă, mai clară şi mai transparentă.

Tabloul propriei tale valori

On Martie 28, 2010

Oferă oamenilor posibilitatea să găsească semnificaţia profundă a creaţiei tale, pentru ca aceasta să nu fie interpretată în mod eronat.

O împrejurare deosebită m-a silit să doresc să port o discuţie cu cel pe care îl consider a fi un mare artist. Într-o cămăruţă simplă, dar care mi s-a părut, nu ştiu de ce, cât se poate de amuzantă, poate din cauza celor patru tablouri aşezate într-un mod aparte pe unul dintre pereţi, maestrul îşi concentra atenţia asupra finalizării ultimei sale creaţii, reprezentând o scenă din mitologia greacă, o scenă plină de viaţă şi de expresivitate ce necesita o tehnică deosebită.

Îi priveam tabloul cu aceeaşi atenţie cu care i le privisem, în alte rânduri, şi pe celelalte. Se putea zări la el o dorinţă neobişnuită de a face ceva spectaculos, ceva ce n-a mai făcut nimeni, ceva care să fie văzut bine în societate şi care să rămână în memoria oamenilor. Îşi transpunea cu multă iscusinţă şi creativitate propriile gânduri şi sentimente prin intermediul picturii în care se concentrau o varietate de culori vii şi pline de dinamism, dar şi eternele alb şi negru.

Putea să redea cu mult talent trăsăturile personajelor, cu coloritul lor natural; figurile erau foarte expresive, trăsăturile păreau exacte, ochii, mâinile, picioarele, constituţia, îmbrăcămintea fiind atent detaliate cu umbre şi lumini. N-am mai văzut atâta patimă pentru pictură, pentru frumos şi inedit.

Leadership: Poţi să te distingi ca artist prin aplicarea unui efect de sporire a vizibilităţii întregii imagini pe care o creezi sau doar a unei porţiuni din ea care reflectă practic uimirea de a fi tu însuţi într-o variantă de excepţie?

Mânat ce curiozitate, l-am întrebat:

- Impactul tablourilor dumitale asupra celorlalţi este cel aşteptat?

Maestrul s-a uitat la mine, un zâmbet plăcut i se aşternu pe faţă, ca şi cum ar fi dorit de mult să-l întrebe cineva asta. Mi-a răspuns:

- Un artist este observat şi admirat după tablourile pe care le face, după măiestria cu care reproduce realitatea, după modul în care ştie să transmită o impresie sau o stare sufletească. Când oamenii se uită la mine, ei nu mă văd pe mine. Ci văd tablourile mele, arta pe care o produc. Expresivitatea şi frumuseţea lor, mesajul şi emoţia pe care le transmit, forţa culorilor, a contrastelor şi a formelor reprezentate, fie ele abstracte sau realiste, arată la câtă îndemânare am ajuns în ramura aceasta a artei.

Tablourile mele sunt opere care dovedesc dacă sunt sau nu înzestrat cu mult talent, şi dacă da, prin ce anume mă deosebesc de ceilalţi pictori. Dar e nevoie de multă inspiraţie, de mult talent, de multă tehnică şi de o lucrare pe îndelete, pentru ca cei care îmi privesc creaţiile să mă considere un pictor cu adevărat excepţional.

Leadership: Alegerea unui sens pentru existenţă creşte ca preferinţă în ştiinţa pe care o aplici în conturarea unei experienţe perfecte de brand în raport cu cerinţele unei arte revelatorii?

Aceasta este cea mai importantă lecţie pe care tu, ca lider, trebuie să o înveţi. Este lecţia de aur pe care trebuie să ţi-o însuşeşti pe tot parcursul vieţii: oamenii nu te vor vedea niciodată pe tine, ci vor vedea „tabloul" realizat de tine.

Tabloul este însumarea tuturor calităţilor şi aptitudinilor tale, dar şi a defectelor şi imperfecţiunilor pe care le ai. El reflectă talentul cu care ai fost hărăzit şi pe care trebuie să-l scoţi la iveală. Reflectă îndemânarea cu care îţi împlineşti toate sarcinile care îţi revin, cu care îţi planifici şi îţi atingi scopurile. Reflectă pasiunea ta pentru arta de a conduce, pentru perfecţiune, dar şi modul în care te diferenţiezi de toţi ceilalţi, printr-un stil unic, eficient şi echilibrat.

Pe de altă parte poate reflecta nepriceperea în leadership pe care o demonstrezi în timp, cu toate defectele ei: neglijenţa cu care îi tratezi pe oameni, iresponsabilitatea, nepăsarea, nesimţirea, şi multe altele. Tabloul este, într-un cuvânt, valoarea ta.

O artă revelatorie are în compoziţia sa acea cunoaştere care te deschide spre câmpul nelimitat al unei experienţe de reînnoire a mijloacelor de expresie, referindu-se la construirea conexiunilor armonioase între toate elementele de noutate pe care încerci singur să le produci şi conţinutul de sens care primeşte diverse forme în funcţie de imaginaţia şi cultura pe care o promovezi.

A deveni un lider mai bun înseamnă să realizezi un tablou excepţional din toate punctele de vedere. Cu cât tabloul tău este mai nuanţat, mai expresiv, mai original, cu atât vei fi mai apreciat şi mai bine cotat de către cei din jurul tău. Poţi adăuga valoare uriaşă leadershipului tău numai dacă ai inspiraţie, viziune, potenţial, dacă ai dorinţa neobişnuită de a obţine performanţe maxime.

Leadership: Poţi să elaborezi o nouă formulă a unicităţii tale în raport cu excepţionalul?

În raport cu excepţionalul, aducând după sine o nouă formula a unicităţii tale, ţinând cont de domeniul leadershipului, tabloul s-ar defini drept - nu doar un reper al valorii tale, ci şi o prezenţă necesară în viaţa privată, o alipire la o realitate profundă, care există în mod obiectiv, dincolo de tine, dincolo de percepţiile pe care le au ceilalţi despre tine.

Această realitate este menită să asigure acea coeziune necesară dintre tine, artistul din interiorul unui spaţiu de creaţie şi afirmare, şi lumea aşteptărilor idealiste a oamenilor dinafara acestui spaţiu care, de asemenea, poate fi chiar a ta într-o oglindă care şterge detaliile inestetice sau deformate.

Tabloul aduce în discuţie tipul de obiect static, dar foarte maleabil în privinţa a ceea ce imprimă în mentalitatea oamenilor, expresivitate sau inexpresivitate într-un spaţiu larg de semnificaţii.

Un rol foarte important în conturarea unei experienţe perfecte de brand o are elaborarea unei noi formule a unicităţii în raport cu excepţionalul. Referindu-se la faptul că ceea ce încerci să redai prin intermediul imaginii trebuie să fie mai întâi o călăuză a celui ce doreşte să cunoască şi să exploreze necunoscutul, apoi un parcurs al regăsirii de sine într-o lume a adaptării dificile, şi, în sfârşit, un spaţiu al întâlnirii cu Dumnezeu.

Lumea de mâine, a cunoaşterii şi a înţelegerii, îşi pune mari speranţe în semnificaţia generală a tabloului, cu care individul poate învesti lumea. Şi pe bună dreptate. Căci înainte de a deveni un lider, individul se cufundă într-un anonimat lipsit de anvergură, al realităţii percepute doar lăuntric, deci într-o anumită zonă impersonală a existenţei. În care accesul la o nouă conştiinţă, eliberată de orice constrângeri, pare a fi strict şi problematic. Nu-i de mirare că nu poţi face anticipări cu privire la forma pe care o ia idealul sau fiecare virtute a ta când obiectivitatea îţi este pusă la încercare.

Prin intermediul tabloului, specific conceptului de sine, îţi vei putea asigura mereu un plus de valoare. Lumea de mâine îşi pune mari speranţe în posibilităţile de vehiculare a artei de a fi "artist", valorizând eforturile tale de a diferit în ceea ce priveşte prezenţa aspectelor intelective şi volitive ce influenţează pozitiv gusturile, în sensul repudierii producţiilor de imagine de prost gust.

Arta de a fi artist are ca fundament revelaţia pe care o trăieşti prin prisma imaginii proiectată asupra lumii, găsindu-şi expresia în sensul creaţiei pe care îl indică raţiunea unui nou mod de a te manifesta prin nevoia de autoexprimare şi trecând totul prin filitrul sensibilităţii unei cromatici simbolice.

Concluzie: Străduieşte-te să ajungi la un grad înalt de performanţă. Valoarea ta e reflectată de „tabloul" realizat de tine. Aşa cum un pictor caută mijloacele cele mai nimerite de expresie, tot astfel tu trebuie să cauţi mijloacele cele mai nimerite de a-ţi demonstra calităţile preţioase – valorificându-le prin crearea unui „tablou" personal, cât mai complex şi cât mai realist.

Să laşi ceva în urma ta, ceva care să rămână în memoria oamenilor, ceva prin care să duci organizaţia spre un alt nivel calitativ, mai bun, mai benefic, demonstrează valoarea ta ca lider.

Valoarea ta e reflectată de „tabloul" realizat de tine.

Tăcerea absurdă a unei lumi mute

On Aprilie 13, 2016

Cultivă-ţi voința de a-ți duce aspiraţiile mai departe de ceea ce cunoşti despre tine, proiectând acel „ascuns" care devine activ și are un rol central în conștiința ta.

Mă pregăteam să intru într-un posibil spaţiu care era un fel de timp lărgit, o resursă consumată cu mai mult folos decât faptul de a-mi prelungi existenţa într-un cadru fără fond, într-un simplu peisaj străin de mine, ca Elada prin care Faust rătăcea în căutarea frenetică a Elenei. În mintea mea totul căpăta aspectul unei experienţe mistice, ca un fel de realism invers al unei lumi avide de noi dezvăluiri senzaţionale, atribuită unei curse prin emoţie din cauză că artistului din mine se folosea de imagini pentru a creşte impactul vizual al unui limbaj electrizant, descătuşat de convenţii.

Pământul devine o sferă a nimănui într-un univers straniu dacă nu te hotărăşti să faci din el un domeniu specific al expertizei. El este noul purgatoriu al unui index epistemic din care trebuie să extragi cu chibzuinţă esenţa pregătirii pentru imortalitate, cu acea plăcere de experimentare a chimistului care aplică substanţelor o anumită tensiune electrică pentru a le aduce în situaţia de a reacţiona şi a emite energie.

Sentimentul acesta de integrare în tăcerea absurdă a unei lumi mute n-avea în sine nimic vinovat, nici nebunesc. Voiam să am un cuvânt de spus în rânduirea lucrurilor, simţeam intens că era datoria mea să le cântăresc temelia, să-mi pun semnătura asupra lor, să devin partea din ele care nu se pierde, ci se transformă constant în alt element chimic, numit Rodium , care durează până la moarte şi dincolo de ea.

Regulat, totul se mişca cu mine într-un cub transparent, cu partea superioară deschisă, prin care puteam să interferez cu energii superioare, forţe obscure, aparţinând unei neobişnuite stări de spirit capabilă să declanşeze durerea neîmpăcată de a fi peste tot şi nicăieri în această stranie lume.

Leadership: Cât de mult însemni într-un mod în care nu ai fi crezut niciodată că este posibil, din punct de vedere al aprecierii pe care o acorzi unei lumi noi care te aduce mai aproape de sinele autentic?

Lumea unui om este imaginea unei realităţi care se încăpăţânează să devină ideală fiindcă se deschide mereu mai departe de orizonturile imaginaţiei, cel puţin ca posibilitate de trăire a unei experienţe de viaţă care sfidează timpul, spaţiul, necunoscutul. Imaginea acestei realităţi rămâne în atenţia publicului fiindcă pare a deține rețeta tinereții fără bătrânețe.

Efectul de ancorare la ceva mai presus de aprecierea ta, trasând axele de coordonate ale leadershipului în jurul voinței de a-ți duce aspiraţiile mai departe de ceea ce cunoşti despre tine, către inaccesibil, se dezvoltă pe baza forței inspiraţionale de a te regăsi într-un alt plan sau context. Imaginează-l, apoi trăiește-l. Sau trăiește-l ca și cum n-ai exista.

Leadershipul presupune extinderea concepţiei despre tine într-un alt context existenţial. Acest context ar putea fi o replică a ideii de „purgatoriu", un segment al unui index epistemic mai complex din care trebuie să extragi esenţa pregătirii pentru încercarea de a te percepe sub forma predestinată unui adevăr ultim: Cât de mult însemni într-un mod în care nu ai fi crezut niciodată că este posibil?

Referitor la aceasta, aș adăuga îndemnul unui artist plastic: „ Secolul acesta este doar căutare și dor de adevăr. Nu te teme că adevărul te va înșela, ci teme-te de minciuna pe care mărginirea ta o ia deseori drept adevăr. " Mărginirea omului este dată de șederea lui într-o existență care exclude perspectiva unei alte existenţe.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi confecţionezi un alt tip de existenţă plecând de la ideea că orice spaţiu este o poveste nemuritoare şi că orice adevăr este o lume plină de oglinzi care se blochează complet atunci când se văd una prin cealaltă?

Viziunea este rezultatul creaţiei pe care îl experimentezi în "ascunsul" unei lumi care nu înfăţişează realitatea vieții de zi cu zi, ci una mai profundă, a tranziţiei spre idealul unei raţiuni a priori. Acest „ascuns" devine activ și are un rol central în conștiința ta fiindcă reflectă o altă faţetă a originalităţii tale în alte condiții de existență. În acest context, imaginaţia (sora geamănă a viziunii) este o îmbrăţişare a necunoscutului surprins în diferite ipostaze, ceva inepuizabil, este ideea unei vieţi care se întinde în timp, spre ceva mereu nou, stimulator din punct de vedere intelectual.

Este ca şi când ai privi printr-o oglindă o altă oglindă care reflectă o imagine inversată a lumii, în acest caz originalitatea înseamnă să descoperi „în labirintul oglinzii" eternitatea şi semnificaţia „ocheanului" întors spre sine pentru a privi spre infinit. (Ion Deaconescu)

De asemenea, poți să descoperi adevărul propriilor iluzii despre tine, care să te miște spre viața pe care crezi sau nu crezi că o meriți. Poți să descoperi o altă faţetă a unor lucruri prea bine cunoscute, pentru că în felul acesta, când le revezi din alt unghi și alt timp, ajungi să gândeşti în direcţii noi. Ca în acea poveste nemuritoare în care un bătrân încearcă să cumpere tinerețe prin intermediul lucrurilor pe care le-a creat, doar ca să-şi dovedească sieşi că deţine controlul asupra realităţii.

Viziunea preferă întotdeauna să dezvăluie un adevăr care lipseşte din perspectiva celor din jur. Omul care intenţionează să se evalueze în complementaritate cu lucrurile unei altfel de lumi, se autointroduce într-un desen de Gustave Dore, al cărui protagonist, Don Quijote, încearcă să se ridice la înălţimea unor visuri frânse de neputinţa de a le materializa şi de a demonstra că-şi poate decide singur direcţiile în viaţă.

Căci nu este vorba doar de a arăta lucrurile aşa cum sunt ele cu adevărat, ci să le faci să se întrevadă aşa cum le figurezi în lumea ta de viziuni.

Este imposibil de a exprima ceva real imitând suprafaţa exterioară a lucrurilor, mai ales când nu-ţi poţi schimba percepţia asupra lor, pe ideea de a rămâne sclavul propriilor tale idei năstruşnice, având soarta tuturor beţiilor în care omul se cufundă fără vreun ideal de adevăr.

Iată revelaţia predestinării mele într-o stare totală de neputinţă, aceea de a înţelege ceea ce nu se spune de obicei despre legea atracţiei lucrurilor. Ea nu se generează doar cu ajutorul unei "distanțe" aplicată dupa o anumită regulă, ci trebuie să o impui tu prin anumite transformări de sine, într-un soi de existență închipuită.

Putem spune că un adevăr este o lume plină de oglinzi care se blochează complet atunci când se văd una prin cealaltă, în cazul în care realitatea pe care o plăsmuieşti se dovedeşte imposibilă, deci lumea nouă în care crezi şi tinzi să te integrezi devine doar un simbol al evadării din cotidian.

Tăcerea absurdă a unei lumi mute evidenţiază acea incertitudine neliniştitoare generată de putinţa definirii unei realităţi în care existenţa devine o profundă suită de alte experienţe închipuite, cauzând blocarea sau acceptarea unor adevăruri care altfel ar fi fost ocolite.

Tăcerea unei priviri care se priveşte pe sine

On Aprilie 09, 2023

Ceea ce vezi cu adevărat este ceea ce simţi când trăieşti la maximă intensitate un moment de neuitat.

Sâmbătă am participat la un alt semimaraton. Multă lume, o atmosferă plină de farmec, şi un traseu destul de greu de parcurs. Runningul este o parte a provocării de a te regăsi pe tine însuţi, un reper al valorii de sine, o călătorie printr-un nesfârșit labirint al minții umane, dar este şi un eveniment de maximă profunzime şi luciditate. Desigur, este o sursă de emoţie intensă, controlată. Dar este şi o sursă de gând neîmpărtăşit, prin substanţa vitală, de o incredibilă emoţie, Rejuvenescimento do Espírito, o formă de materie care pompează oxigenul în celulele obosite, acţionând chimic la fel de puternic precum dopamină.

În timpul alergării, când sudoarea îţi curge pe frunte şi pe tot corpul, când eşti mai concentrat ca niciodată la fiecare pas, abia atunci te adânceşti în calmul atent al meditaţiei şi al păcii interioare: „Tot ce am dăruiesc Tăcerii", reprezentând o stare de spirit încadrată într-o imagine reală, fotografiată parcă cu funcţia de detectare impulsurilor de descărcare a nervilor. Trebuie să ţii seama de cuplajul magnetic al acestor stări induse pe cale de transformare a mişcării rectilinii-alternative, ca să reduci supratensiunea din articulaţii şi să produci o încălzire limitată a corpului.

Într-adevăr. Corpul se încălzeşte, capătă o altă postură, are o altă acceleraţie pe altă direcţie. Iar când expiri tot aerul din plămâni, într-un ritm constant, când toţi nervii îşi pierd vremea într-un labirint al încercărilor, abia atunci elimini toate supărările, toate gândurile rele, toate grijile. Devii un barometru al calmului și al fiabilității, mai liniştit în suflet, mai aplecat spre a-ţi asculta corpul, dincolo de exponentul unei puteri pozitive, Selemrhus Lutelfusios, privit ca parte a acţiunii spiritului asupra materiei. Căci gândul e materie, şi corpul este tot materie, deci unul trebuie să treacă prin celălalt ca să asigure un decalaj variabil continuu între tensiune şi intensitate.

Leadership: Poţi să urci valoarea de experienţă unică la rangul de "amintire de neuitat", oferind o imagine a propriului parcurs sufletesc la care nu toată lumea are acces?

Şi chiar dacă alergi mai puternic, când gândurile îţi sunt însoţite de emoţii profunde, inima bate totuşi liniştit, foarte liniştit, liniştit şi egal mărimea intensităţii sufletului de a-şi extinde orizontul în dimensiunea mistică Sancristhas, o confirmare a detaşării de banalitate, un drum propriu dincolo de frământările cotidiene. Hotărâtor, din imboldul unui instinct al anvergurii se naşte o înverşunare greoaie şi o exaltare a bunei dispoziţii care, amestecate, au devenit destin într-un univers niciodată început şi fără de sfârșit, un soi de chemare nestingherită spre tine însuţi, o înclinaţie liberă spre frumuseţea ritmată a unei „intimităţi" destăinuite, ceva măreţ, divin.

Plăcerea de a te simţi liber. Inima bate de la sine, bate ritmic, recunoscătoare, egal şi liniştit. Eşti mai calm, mai relaxat, aflat sub acţiunea unei forţe dinamice capabilă să facă cu direcţia deplasării un unghi de privire care te face să simţi că ai dori să dai mai multă substanţă "cadrului". O linişte plăcută te împresoară chiar în mijlocul acţiunii, calmul te acaparează tot mai mult, simţi o pace interioară profundă. Întregul corp este destins şi relaxat, chiar dacă muşchii se contractă printr-o comandă voluntară.

Leadership: Poţi să descrii o emoţie capabilă să genereze o imagine de sine intactă, încât vizualizarea ei să aibă un impact pozitiv asupra performanței tale?

Asta înseamnă liniştea, să cauţi să-ţi descarci energia printr-o activitate sportivă care prelungeşte tinereţea spiritului, urcând valoarea de experienţă unică la rangul de "amintire de neuitat", oferind o imagine a lumii la care nu toată lumea are acces.

Şi uite-i cum aleargă, nu-şi spun nimic, nu se privesc decât în cazul depăşirii, mai mult se simt, se sincronizează perfect pe traseul "tot înainte", respingând starea de repaus relativ. Tăcerea aceasta, o pauză de emoţie pură, departe de zgomot şi viteză, schimbând cursul pasului următor, devine un mijloc de concentrare asupra unui ritm stabil şi constant de alergare.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi creezi propria poveste vizuală atunci când gândurile se interpun între un eveniment activator și consecințele emoţionale ale deciziei de a parcurge distanţe lungi?

Cine aleargă şi mai departe cu gândul, nu doar cu trupul, va întrezări adevărul pe care îl exprima Alexandre Dumas în romanul "Mâna Providenţei":

"Singura învăţătură de nerespins pe care ţi-o dă experienţa este că sufletul, inteligenţa, pasiunea, geniul, nu există fără rest, fără materie, fără corp, fără veşmânt. Gloata nu vede decât ceea ce le ia ochii. Şi degeaba spunem: nu-mi pasă ce crede gloata ! Cele mai solide convingeri şovăie şi se neliniştesc când succesul nu le confirmă. Toţi avem nevoie de acest ecou al gândurilor care să ne demonstreze viabilitatea, repetând-o. Este deci necesar să reuşim, şi nu talentul reuşeşte, ci modul cum îl pui în aplicare. Nu sufletul, ci înveşmântarea. Cel mai mare diamant brut este o simplă piatră pe care ţăranul o zdrobeşte sub talpă; dar dă-l la şlefuit şi vei putea cumpăra cheia cabinetelor regale, sau pe cea a apartamentului reginei."

Deci, ascultaţi cu atenţie aici. Gândul alergătorului, forţa ce declanşează impulsul de energie, trebuie susţinută printr-o mobilizare preferenţială într-o singură direcţie, evitând demonul competiţiei care terorizează pe toţi profesioniştii. Eu însumi, condus de o energie situată în centrul unei siguranţe de sine resetabile, eu care mi-am lăsat de fiecare dată o parte din suflet pe traseele montane, eu care mereu am manifestat răbdare şi toleranţă faţă de spectrul emoţional predominant, mi-am promis de atâtea ori să caut eliberarea prin alergare, într-o oază de linişte cu peisaje parcă pictate.

Pentru aceasta a trebuit să ocolesc nuanţa de mândrie bolnăvicioasă, care arată bine în contrast cu slăbiciunea de a-mi pierde nădejdea în puterile proprii, când ecoul gândurilor se ascundea timid în stăpânirea demnă a febrei musculare. În cazul meu, diamantul, piatra preţioasă care m-a caracterizat întotdeauna, puternicul conductor de energie care m-a invitat de atâtea ori la introspecţie si autoobservaţie, a fost talentul de a-mi pune gândurile în ordine, de a înţelege situaţia concretă până în ultimele ei implicaţii.

Leadershipul nu se poate detaşa de viziunea conform căreia: "ceea ce vezi cu adevărat este ceea ce simţi când trăieşti la maximă intensitate un moment de neuitat".

Tăcerea unei priviri care se priveşte pe sine surprinde momentul în care devii egal cu tine însuţi, dincolo de amploarea evenimentului la care iei parte. Este străin de orice viziune cel ce nu cunoaşte ce se întâmplă în sine însuşi, la fel cum e străin de lume cel ce nu cunoaşte fiinţele care se găsesc în ea.

Tăietura de Aur SAU Proporţia Divină

On Februarie 11, 2009

Matematica reprezintă limba universală a umanităţii, cu ajutorul căreia putem să-L înţelegem pe Dumnezeu. (Dana-Georgiana FLOREA)

Cunosc această ecuație, ea este caracteristică segmentelor împărțite în raportul tăieturii de aur. Și acum, să tragem concluzia: în triunghiul meridian al piramidei lui Cheops, ipotenuza se află în tăietură de aur cu cea mai mică dintre catete. Acesta este triunghiul care poartă numele de triunghiul egiptean. Dar tăietura de aur se mai găsește inclusă și în dimensiunile camerei regelui, aflată în interiorul piramidei, la care se ajunge printr-un coridor ce comunică cu exteriorul printr-o deschidere în unul dintre pereții exteriori, aflată la vreo 14 m deasupra solului. Dimensiunile acestei camere, de forma paralelipipedică sunt baza - fiind un pătrat dublu (cu laturile 1 și 2), iar înălțimea egală cu jumătate din diagonala acestui dreptunghi.

Cine, și când s-a descoperit că, dacă două segmente dintr-o figură se află în raportul tăieturii de aur, acea figură face cu totul altă impresie decât celelalte în care această împărțire nu-i considerată, nu se va ști niciodată, fiindcă este un bun transmis din preistorie. Ipoteze există și le vom discuta mai târziu. Cert este că piramida lui Cheops, și altele în care raportul acesta a fost respectat, impune prin măreția ei, prin armonia și soliditatea formei. Mulți s-au întrebat dacă ea ar mai face aceeași impresie dacă ar fi mai înaltă sau mai turtită. Simpatizanții tăieturii de aur susțin însă că desăvârşita ei proporționalitate se datorează numai acestui raport, care a căpătat numirea de tăietura de aur sau de număr de aur de la Leonardo da Vinci - și de atunci a păstrat-o până azi.

Luca Pacioli a scris o carte întreagă despre acest subiect și a intitulat-o "Proporția divină", iar prietenul său Leonardo da Vinci a lăsat deoparte zecile de planuri și treburi ce le avea, numai ca să facă desenele necesare acestei cărți. Asta, în secolul al XV-lea, iar în secolul XX, Matila Ghyka a publicat mai multe cărți cu acest subiect, una intitulată chiar Numărul de aur. Apoi, tăietura de aur apare ca un element matematic care intervine în exprimarea frumosului în artă. Și, mai există un al treilea motiv: vom avea atâtea alte probleme de discutat încât nu cred că vom mai avea când să ne mai întoarcem la aceasta, dacă nu ne decidem să spunem acum tot ce avem noi de spus !

Leadership: Conţinutul redat de imaginea creaţiei tale este perceput ca o obligaţie ştiinţifică pentru elaborarea unei verigi de legătură ale omului cu Universul?

- Ai precizat bine, domnule: vom spune numai ce știm noi despre tăietura de aur, fiindcă vor mai fi și multe care nu le știm !

- Iar printre cele ce știm va trebui să aducem vorba și despre cei ce nu recunosc niciun merit tăieturii de aur ! Printre aceștia se află și Benedetto Croce, cred că ai citit și despre aceasta ?

- Se putea să nu o fi făcut ? N-am eu oare amintirile din trecut ca să nu știu ce m-ar aștepta dacă aș sări vreun rânduleţ mai important dintr-o carte luată de la mâta ? Iar dacă-i să discutăm tăietura de aur pe-ndelete, atunci trebuie să pornim de la greci, fiindcă ei au pus-o pe șleau, foarte probabil după ce au importat-o de la egipteni. I-a preocupat mult pe pitagoreici, apoi pe Platon și, natural, pe Euclid, cu care prefer să încep, ca să o prezint mai întâi din punct de vedere riguros geometric. În Elemente se vorbește de ea pentru prima oară în problema 11 din Cartea a doua, sub această formă: "Să se taie o dreaptă dată, în așa fel ca dreptunghiul cuprins de dreapta întreagă și unul dintre segmente să fie egal cu pătratul segmentului rămas". Mai întâi să precizez că matematicienii greci foloseau termenul "dreaptă" cu înțeles de "segment de dreaptă", apoi că problema aceasta este un exemplu de rezolvare, pe cale geometrică, a unei ecuații de gradul al doilea. Metoda folosită, cunoscută sub numele de "aplicarea ariilor", conduce la determinarea punctului C de pe segmentul AB, astfel ca să se realizeze relația cerută (fig. 6). Notând AB a și AC x, trebuie că a (a-x) = xz.

Se pare că în Cartea a doua această problemă servește drept introducere la problema 30 din Cartea a VI-, care-i formulată astfel: "O dreaptă finită, dată, să se taie după un raport extrem și mediu". Aici, în Cartea a VI-, se află și definiția care nu a fost introdusă în Cartea a II-a : "Se zice că o dreaptă se taie după un raport extrem și mediu când, după cum întreaga către segmentul mai mare tot așa cel mai mare către cel mai mic". Iată tăietura de aur care pentru Euclid și ceilalți geometri greci avea numele de împărțirea unui segment în medie și extremă rație.

- În adevăr, pe tăietura de aur se bazează construcția poligoanelor regulate convexe sau stelate cu 5, 10 și orice multiplu par de 5 laturi, și aceasta a fost opera pitagoreicilor. Aceste construcții se găsesc în Cartea a IV-a din Elementele lui Euclid, începând cu propoziția a 11-a, sau mai bine zis chiar cu problema din propoziția a 10-a: "Să se construiască un triunghi isoscel având fiecare din unghiurile de la bază dublu al celui rămas". Această problemă, care se rezolvă prin aplicarea împărțirii unui segment în tăietura de aur, se folosește apoi la construcțiile ce urmează. În Comentariul lui V. Marian se spune clar că aceste propoziții, ca de altfel întreaga Carte a IV-a, "este o descoperire a pitagoreicilor". Și mai departe: "Originea pitagoreică a construcției laturii pentagonului reiese și din faptul că semnul de recunoaștere al pitagoreicilor era pentagonul stelat (pentagrama)... Se pare chiar că alegerea pentagramei s-a făcut tocmai pentru a reaminti această descoperire importantă".

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o altă viziune a felului prin care se doreşte experimentarea compoziţională a ideii de "primordialitate a creaţiei" printr-o intensificare a manifestărilor vieţii?

- Admirație e prea puțin spus, cred că ei o adorau, mai ales dacă ne gândim și la faptul că tăietura de aur se poate construi cu rigla și compasul.

- Ai dreptate, pentru matematicienii greci acest argument trage greu în cumpănă, or tăietura de aur este, înainte de toate, o medie proporțională, așadar, se poate construi cu rigla și compasul. Și, efectiv, cum s-ar desfășura operația ?

- Nu-i greu de înțeles că această proprietate a segmentelor ce se află în tăietura de aur, de a-și transmite însușirea unul altuia la nesfârșit, i-a încântat pe matematicienii greci, iar pe Luca Pacioli l-a uluit într-atât încât l-a făcut să atribuie acestei proporții o origine divină ! Pare să fie o armonie care se transmite de la un segment la altul, ca o permanență a vieții !

- Dar e chiar așa în realitate, fiindcă prin numărul de aur se exprimă și una dintre manifestările vieții: legea creșterilor organice, pe care a stabilit-o, la începutul secolului al III-l, Leonardo Fibonacci. Problema, devenită de atunci celebră, intitulată a iepurilor de casă, se află în capitolul al XII-lea din Cartea Abacului. Dat fiind farmecul ei, am s-o citesc chiar după original:

"Câte perechi de iepuri de casă se nasc într-un an, dintr-o singură pereche de iepuri ? Pentru a afla câte perechi de iepuri se nasc într-un an, cineva a așezat o pereche de iepuri într-un loc îngrădit cu zid, știind că, după o lună, o pereche de iepuri aduce pe lume o altă pereche, iar iepurii încep să dea naștere la pui de la vârsta de o lună. Deoarece prima pereche da descendenți în prima lună, perechea se dublează și, în această lună se obțin două perechi, dintre acestea o pereche, și anume prima, va avea descendenți și în luna următoare, astfel că în luna a două vor fi trei perechi ; dintre acestea în luna următoare două perechi vor avea descendenți astfel că, în luna a treia se mai nasc două perechi de iepuri și numărul de perechi de iepuri din această lună este cinci. Dintre acestea, în aceeași lună vor avea urmași trei perechi, iar numărul de iepuri din luna a patra va fi opt. Dintre acestea, cinci perechi vor da naștere la alte cinci perechi, care adunate la cele opt perechi formează în luna a cincea treisprezece perechi.

Astfel, Leonardo Fibonacci a găsit că există o lege numerică prin care se poate exprima o însușire a materiei vii, și anume, sub forma unui șir de numere întregi : 1, 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 13, ... care are proprietatea că fiecare termen al șirului, începând de la al treilea, este suma celor doi termeni precedenți : (1) 2=1+1; Sau 3=2+1; ...13=8+5. Acest șir, dublu aditiv, poartă numele descoperitorului, adică "șirul lui Fibonacci" sau "legea creșterilor organice".

Primordialitatea Creaţiei se referă la actul de constituire a unui punct de sprijin, cum ar fi un calcul matematic, cu ajutorul căruia poţi determina o similitudine între "ceea ce este sus" şi "ceea ce este jos", între manifestările vieţii şi comportamentul universului.

Tăietura de Aur SAU Proporţia Divină aduce în prim plan mijloacele matematice prin care se poate determina o soluţie care intervine în exprimarea frumosului în artă, şi nu numai. De asemenea, după cum susţinea Pitagora, întreg universul este ordonat matematic şi orice poate fi exprimat prin numere. Iar în 1989, legendarul fizician John Archibald Wheeler a sugerat că Universul este fundamental matematic și poate fi văzut ca fiind alcătuit din informații.

Taina Naturii

On Iulie 4, 2023

Ceea ce vezi este ceea ce vrei să spui despre tine într-o imagine care te reprezintă prin imprimarea ei în sufletul lumii.

Marea este spectaculoasă, mai ales când razele soarelui îi oferă o strălucire deosebită, caz în care mă concentrez să văd doar o singură parte a unei imagini încântătoare: locul izolat al unei plaje dintr-o peliculă semnată Danny Boyle, care seamănă cu un paradis al naturii, de o frumuseţe naturală deosebită.

E o viaţă aici, o împlinire a sufletului, o prezenţă discretă accesibilă sub forma propriului meu sentiment de autoacceptare, care priveşte, care trăieşte deplin, care spune ceva cu privirea ei plină de har şi de semnificaţii, corelată cu ambiţia de a reprezenta în culoare orice moment din planul realităţii. Când soarele răsare, face acest loc plin de farmec, încât imaginea acestui loc, amprenta lui în sufletul meu, este mai mult decât o înşiruire de obiecte recognoscibile. Mă simt de parcă aş intra într-un prezent neutru, uitat de timp, şi aş ieşi altcineva, mai înclinat spre domeniul artistic, sub pensula unui pictor impresionist care transformă orice privelişte într-o poveste.

Sensibilitatea la lumina soarelui apare atunci când în ochii mei pătrunde prea multă lumină, sau atunci când ce ceea văd depășește așteptările artistului din mine, cu precizarea că orice manifestare a frumosului are ca premisă de bază modul intuitiv de redare a unui discurs cu natura, trecând în orice moment din planul realităţii în cel al ficţiunii.

Leadership: Imaginea la care îţi raportezi vederea poate să aibă un ecou sub forma unui sentiment de "prezenţă" suplimentară care se contopeşte cu tine?

Într-adevăr, ochiul este dominat metaforic de lumina pe care o absoarbe retina, ca un semnal de frecvență radio, iar emisia este preluată de un model de culoare translucid, care nu poate fi desenat oricum, ci în mod metafizic, adică sufletesc, divin, fără a produce niciun efect fizic real. Repetată prin multiplicare, vederea este influențată de artist în timpul procesului de creație, ceea ce face ca fiecare parte a ei să fie o expresie unică a imaginației ochiului care surprinde spațiul mistico-metafizic dintr-o simplă operă vizuală (fotografie, pictură), dintr-un prezent fără timp.

Natura este o prezenţă însufleţită, contopindu-se cu viaţa mea, făcând parte din mine, având un ecou în timp sub forma unui sentiment de "prezenţă" suplimentară, însufleţită. Nu degeaba, ceva din off îmi repetă chiar şi acum:

"Nicu, învaţă să pictezi cu sufletul, cu simțul vederii, cu căldura pe care o degajă lumina. Şi pictează pentru o lume care nu este dominată de finalitate, emiţând sugestia unei alte lumi, care dispare şi reapare, dar într-un mod diferit, şi anume mai puternic, astfel încât să te simţi mai energic, mai însufleţit de seva naturii."

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate fi rezultatul unui sentiment care sintetizează emoţia şi imaginea, luând în considerare un mijloc vizual abstract care cercetează posibilităţile infinite ale formei pe care o ia aprecierea "frumosului"?

În acest sens, ochiul trebuie să configureze imagini luminoase cu ajutorul unor structuri de conexiune între real și imaginar ce conduc privirea dintr-un prim plan perspectival - spre un orizont înalt, folosind diverse elemente cosmologice ale lumii (apă, aer, foc, pământ). E un proces firesc, care are loc când ceea ce văd îmi place mai mult decât ceea ce realitatea îmi arată în mod concret.

În acest fel, imaginea nu este mult mai clară, mai aerisită sau metaforică, dar pare atinsă de un răsunet superior, un delir inepuizabil prin care se manifestă dialogul între mine şi divinitate, Umatahn Ytualarripha Rifeshazna, luminarea minţii prin harul divin.

Marea, ea însăşi o perlă în ochii lui Dumnezeu, simbolizând viaţa plină de pasiuni, reprezintă o îndelungată lecţie de observare, o succesiune de vise, o serie de ciocniri cu viitorul, nu suma a ceea ce am fost, ci a ceea ce am învăţat să fiu. În acest caz, ochii mei bine antrenaţi să vadă, au ca sursă primară de producere a unei viziuni artistice determinarea unghiului de percepţie dintre planul de acţiune şi axul vizual, acestea două fiind determinate ca elemente active ale compoziţiei, precum sunt accentele de lumină, umbrele, jocul strălucirilor.

Într-adevăr, sunt un artist deosebit, fiindcă am înţeles un lucru important: ceea ce văd este exact ceea ce încerc să spun despre mine într-o imagine care mă reprezintă prin imprimarea ei în sufletul lumii. Sunt un artist veritabil care şi-a îngăduit folosirea unui nou procedeu pentru a reprezenta stările sufleteşti, în loc de a stimula dezvoltarea picturii prin mijloace iluzionistice, găsind mereu o asemănare între imagine și emoţie, între obiectul real şi conţinutul lui plin de viaţă.

Leadership: Poţi să reproduci într-o imagine sentimentul ivit dintr-o contemplaţie asupra imediatităţii din jur, printr-un determinism reciproc între frumosul naturii şi o viziune revelatoare?

Hans Christian Andersen povestea despre înţeleptul rege Solomon, care pricepea graiul făpturilor necuvântătoare, că le auzea cântecele şi discuţiile, dar prin aceasta nu devenea, cel puţin în acel punct, mai deştept. El descoperise forţele ascunse ale plantelor şi metalelor, forţe capabile să îndepărteze bolile, să îndepărteze moartea, dar nu s-o şi desfiinţeze. În tot ce s-a creat şi la care putea ajunge, regele Solomon a căutat să descopere lumina care să dezlege taina vieţii veşnice, dar nu a găsit-o, în timp ce Cartea Adevărului stătea în faţa lui de parcă n-ar fi cuprins decât pagini nescrise. Creştinismul i-a indicat în Biblie cuvântul de mângâiere despre o viaţă eternă, dar el ar fi vrut să-l afle în propria lui carte. Şi în ea nu se vedea nimic...

La fel s-a întâmplat cu mine: privind marea cu ochi expresivi, uneori cu nostalgie, dar întotdeauna cu ochii ce sclipesc datorită razelor de soare ce se reflectă în ea, am încercat să recunosc taina naturii Apsicumusia Anonimenry Eschetars Aoshijas. Dar, spre deosebire de regele Solomon, eu am descoperit înţelesul acestor cuvinte şi, astfel, am reuşit să redau esenţa tainei naturii printr-o singură idee călăuzitoare: "alege orice lucru din jur, şi încearcă să-l faci cât mai frumos".

Şi, iată, la orizont, cum se conturează o altă idee călăuzitoare: "încearcă să captezi și să păstrezi frumusețea efemeră a lucrurilor, transformându-le în ceva etern". În fiecare floare, de la petale până la produsul final, se regăseşte o parte din sufletul artistului. El vede frumusețea sufletului său în fiecare floare, în fiecare petală, și prin arta sa, această frumusețe este păstrată pentru totdeauna. În fiecare floare, artistul crează efectul de floare mai mare sau mai plină, mai misterioasă sau mai rară.

Aşadar, taina naturii este strâns legată de recunoştinţa pe care mi-a lăsat-o instantaneul unei clipe unice, inepuizabile, de nevoia de a surprinde într-o imagine de vis tot ceea vine din inimă, nestrăbătut de zgomotul lumii. Iar marea comoară a învăţăturii, iat-o exprimată de mine astfel: "Aşa cum pe cer sălăşuieşte soarele, tot astfel în sufletul meu sălăşluieşte afinitatea, chemarea nativă care dă viaţa pânzei, în forma şi în nuanţa exactă a culorilor care cuceresc treptat toate sufletele."

În ce priveşte leadershipul, voi ridica la nivelul reflecţiei acea activitate de reproducere a unei imagini fie în timpul percepției sale repetate (recunoaștere din memorie), fie pe baza unor idei despre aceasta, încât să reconstitui profilul autentic al unui vizionar care reuşeşte să creeze neaşteptatul inspirându-se din opera naturii.

Numai un geniu vizionar poate gândi în afara "cutiei".

Taina naturii este rezultatul unei reflecţii asupra minunilor naturii, aşa cum predomină ele în interacţiunea dintre imagine şi spirit, pe fondul unei sensibilităţi care nu se poate virtualiza în "excedente" temporare (precum sunt obiectele supuse perisabilităţii).

Tainele văzului nu au secrete faţă de mine

On Ianuarie 28, 2023

Ceea ce vezi la ceilalţi este ceea ce simţi când te reîntâlneşti pe tine în mintea lor.

Săptămâna trecută am participat la semimaratonul din oraşul Cluj Napoca. Îmi amintesc totul de parcă s-ar petrece chiar acum. Cu doar câteva minute înainte de start, organizatorul concursului a prezentat situaţia de pe teren: noroiul format peste noapte datorită ploilor torenţiale, multe crengi uscate căzute din copaci, nenumărate capcane pe care natura le-a presărat de-al lungul traseului şi care creşteau riscul posibilităţilor de accidentare. Se aşezase un pic ceaţa, temperatura 2 grade, bătea uşor vântul, ploaia şi lapoviţa păreau să se menţină pe tot parcursul zilei.

În tot acest timp priveam chipurile alergătorilor din prima linie, mai îndârjiţi ca oricând să câştige un loc pe podium, mai tentaţi ca oricând să-şi suprasolicite picioarele, spatele, nervii. Nu păreau să evite situaţiile stresante care creează stări de iritabilitate şi nervozitate, nu, nicidecum, de parcă ar fi vrut să domine haosul ce rezultă dintr-o lume care dispare şi alta care se constituie, recurgând la uma travessia sobre qualquer dor prin puterea sufletului de a-şi exercita voinţa.

Pe chipurile lor se citea parcă refrenul dintr-o spovedanie adusă experienţei de afirmare prin performanţe superioare: "mintea-ți va fi eliberată de orice durere și de orice teamă".

Aşa stăteau lucrurile. Ochii mei, a căror vedere îmbrățișa doar zone pline de contraziceri, percepeau vitalitatea elementară în toată sinceritatea ei. Alergătorii nu păreau să bage de seamă furia naturii pe care urmau s-o experimenteze, o natură hotărâtă să-şi impună legile cu orice preţ. Conduşi parcă de flacăra lui Iahve, adulmecând în aer primejdia de care orbii nu ştiu să se ferească, târâţi înspre necunoscutul primejdios de puterea Egoului de a controla orice rezistenţă, se agăţau parcă de un alt sentiment care merită trăit, fiindcă face istorie !

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti o realitate care nu se împotmoleşte în limitele unei temporalităţi imemorabile, organizându-ţi vizual emoţiile într-un simbol care generează capacitatea de a aduna energiile într-un singur ideal?

Peisajul sumbru căpăta aspectul unei realități obiective doar datorită ochiului care îl privește, îl judecă și îi urmează cu devotament înțelesurile. După cum un suflet simplu își poate exprima în voie liniștea interioară, tot astfel un ochi vizionar poate să dea o scânteiere vie tabloului naturii numai dacă este investit cu instinctul firesc de a ridica elementele din jur la rangul de simboluri ale speranței, ale dorinței sau ale visului. Numai un alchimist acceptă puterea naturii, extrage energia din sol şi o captează pe cea cosmică, pe când un artist se concentrează să atingă perfecțiunea, dar uită de multe ori să se conecteze cu sufletul lui.

Exact aşa stăteau lucrurile cu puţin timp înainte de start. Alergătorii, adunaţi la linia de start ca într-o fortăreață întărită, se înscriau sub zodia tuturor simţurilor şi pasiunilor - disciplinate ca nişte cai nărăvaşi înhămaţi la un car de foc care nu cunoaşte limite, care nu cunoaşte retragerea, care nu cunoaşte echilibrul şi nici dezechilibrul. Totodată, simţeai uitându-te atent în ochii lor, în "retina pură", faptul că s-au angajat într-o artă neoimpresionistă, conceptuală, unde artistul se concentrează mai mult pe ideile și conceptele din spatele artei sale, decât concentrându-se asupra produsului final.

Până la urmă, cred că fiecare concurent se ghida la acel moment după un singur ideal pentru care merita să lupte cu tot dinadinsul: “Voi cuceri o lume întreagă cu performanţa pe care o voi atinge.”

Leadership: Încerci să recompui portretul unei lumi care nu-i este suficientă sieşi, păstrând caracterul figurativ al unei imagini care ajunge să fie reperul unei biografii personale?

Aşa cum Platon scria la intrarea grădinilor academice: "Aici nu intră decât geometrii", eu aş fi putut să citesc pe chipul alergătorilor următorul lucru: "Pe un asemenea traseu nu se încumetă să intre decât aventurierii." Ochii aprinşi de o adrenalină maximă, ochii pentru care vederea însăşi se transformă în viziune, erau expresia unică a unei încăpăţânări îndrăcite de a persista într-o luptă devenită calvar, dar nu mai puţin dorită pentru aceasta.

Nu degeaba m-am uitat cu atenţie la chipul lor, în căutarea atmosferei întrezărite de un visător care nu renunţă niciodată la visul lui, fiindcă doar aşa puteam să-mi construiesc o realitate care nu se împotmoleşte în limitele unei temporalităţi imemorabile. Cum observa demult scriitorul Ion Frunzetti: "Nu aceeaşi forţă mâna demult pe individul eroic al antichităţii, la fel ca şi pe individul mizer al unui Ev Mediu tardiv?"

Leadership: Proiectarea lumii exterioare în spaţiul tău lăuntric oferă posibilitatea de a transforma orice imagine statică într-una interactivă, dincolo de ceea ce ar putea spune un observator neutru?

Alergătorii îşi gândesc propria artă, dar o gândesc şi pentru alţii care îi privesc. Şi nu este vorba despre o artă a prudenţei, ci de o artă a dăruirii de sine în spiritul păstrării stabilităţii adaptate la specificul intim al probei pe care au antrenat-o atâta timp.

De fapt, estetica pe care o degajă atitudinea lor se înscrie în spiritul valorilor de mobilizare, ţinând cont de forţa tensionată la nivelul fibrelor musculare. Fiecare din ei, la fel ca Don Quijote, luând înfăţişarea reală a luptătorului cu morile de vânt, şi-a preschimbat existenţa într-o intenţie de simbolizare, respectiv de transcendere a realităţii empirice, impresionând mai apoi ca o "fugă" de Bach.

Simbolul lor păstrează caracterul figurativ al unei imagini care ajunge să fie reperul unei biografii personale, reperul unei întregi generaţii, coagulând în momentele decisive energiile şi influenţele unei întregi opere d'altíssima excellència. Alergătorul însuşi este imaginea în relief a unei întregi pagini istorice sculptată într-o manieră fină, într-un Sfânt Graal, pe frecvenţa vibraţiei unei emoţii intense, nestinse, pentru care merită să sacrifici orice, pentru care trebuie să treci prin nenumărate provocări şi să faci tot ceea ce poţi pentru a fi sigur că o să avansezi mai departe cu bine.

Într-adevăr. Proiectarea lumii exterioare în spaţiul meu lăuntric arată intenţia fulminantă de a surprinde un moment de maxim suspans, într-o aşteptare care parcă nu se mai termină, printr-o directivitate a trăirii spectatorilor care aşteaptă plini de emoţie o evoluţie sau o finalizare neaşteptată.

Nu puneam tot ce vedeam pe seama unei poveşti spusă pe un ton monoton, cu personaje vacilante, realitatea obiectivă reducându-se la un simplu joc de senzaţii şi percepţii care continuau să curgă fără să schimbe măsura unor identităţi greu de zdruncinat. Ci, mai degrabă, puneam totul pe seama unei particularităţi expresive care devine deprindere de gândire: "Ceea ce văd la ceilalţi este ceea ce simt când mă reîntâlnesc pe mine în mintea lor."

Leadershipul se distinge prin reprezentarea unei imagini obţinute printr-o sumă a trăirilor care te vor rechema de multe ori să repeţi o anumită experienţă. Se caracterizează printr-o interiorizare observabilă prin intermediul unor rezultate pe cât de neaşteptate, pe atât de credibile.

Tainele văzului nu au secrete faţă de mine atunci când ochii mei surprind o realitate care mă formează ca om, dându-mi posibilitatea să trăiesc cele mai profunde emoții. Este o realitate pe care îmi vine câteodată greu să o procesez, fiindcă mă ţine într-un continuu deja-vu, aducându-mi trăirile într-un punct al vieţii în care încerc să recuperez multe momente, pe care, din varii motive, le-am scăpat în trecut.

Tainicul atelier al leadershipului

Asigură-ţi mijloacele de a-ţi rafina trăsăturile de caracter şi de a le folosi în favoarea ta, orientându-ţi deciziile în direcţia sentimentelor şi a trăirilor tale cele mai profunde.

Începutul filmului „ The Devils Advocate (1997) ". Kevin Lomax, un tânăr avocat foarte ambiţios, reuşeşte să-l scoată nevinovat pe clientul său foarte înstărit – condamnat pentru dublu viol. Imediat după acest succes este recrutat de renumita firmă de avocatură „Milton, Chadwick & Waters". Iar de aici şi până în Iad n-a fost cale lungă. Soţia lui moare, mama lui la fel, iar prietenii lui dispar în chip misterios. Viaţa lui se destrămă. De vină era nimeni altul decât tatăl lui vitreg, John Milton care, în finalul filmului, îi propune să se alăture lui, şi să „servească" păcatul. Dar Kevin, copleşit de amintirea soţiei sale, comite gestul neaşteptat: se sinucide, punând punct acestui pact cu diavolul.

Apoi acţiunea este derulată înapoi. Camera se îndreaptă către Kevin, intrând în sala de judecată, buimăcit, unde trebuia să-l apere pe respectivul inculpat acuzat de viol. Privirea lui o întâlni pe a soţiei lui, Mary, şi rămase pironită, ca o forţă magnetică, de seninătatea şi puritatea ei. Pătruns în adâncul inimii de o bucurie tainică, se apropie de ea.

Şi cele două capete fermecătoare, unul palid şi învăluit de magia binecuvântatei revederi, celălalt îmbujorat, blând şi zâmbitor, se apropiară cu graţie şi îşi împreunară buzele şi gândurile - ca şi când două picături de esenţă vie s-ar fi întâlnit, devenind un singur întreg. Inima lui Kevin părea să emane aceleaşi cuvinte pe care contele La Mole i le-a adresat altădată reginei Margot: "Am nevoie de tine aşa cum am nevoie de aer, de lumina zilei."

Chipul său, plin de bucuria unor sentimente foarte adânci, oglindea un singur gând: „Te iubesc, Mary ! " - iar aceste cuvinte scumpe, aceste cuvinte pentru care toate graiurile pământului au ales vocalele cele mai unduioase şi consoanele cele mai plăcute la auz – fuseseră într-adevăr grăitoare pentru modul în care şi-a susţinut pledoaria. De fapt, Kevin a decis să nu-şi mai reprezinte clientul, refuzând în acest fel să decadă moral.

Leadership: Ai încercat să-ţi testezi capacitatea de a simţi într-un context care te constrânge, dar îţi oferă ocazia de a te dezvălui lumii întru totul?

Orice schimbare importantă a sensului existenţei tale este de regulă susţinută şi întreţinută de evoluţia leadershipului tău. Modificarea propriului tău statut prin subminarea valorilor şi principiilor de bază (pe care este imperios necesar să le respecţi pentru a căpăta acele trăsături de personalitate acceptate de ceilalţi oameni) – îţi poate afecta nivelul de conştiinţă, credinţa, inducând stări sufleteşti şi mentale destul de apăsătoare. Care dacă persistă în timp îţi pot crea disconfort la nivel psihic şi emoţional.

Un astfel de disconfort, cauzat de trecerea la o viaţă altruistă, generatoare de iubire, la o existenţă egocentrică, l-a copleşit pe tânărul avocat Kevin Lomax după ce s-a abătut de la valorile morale pe care le întrupa. El reprezintă un exemplu semnificativ al tipului uman care nu şi-a pierdut complet onoarea, şi, îndatorat naturii sale interioare, şi mai ales, învăluit de sentimentele pe care le nutrea pentru persoana iubită, şi-a găsit salvarea propriului sine, din păcate, prin suicid.

De multe ori curajul de a te dezvălui lumii aşa cum sufletul ţi-o cere, prin accentuarea tendinţei de a te judeca aspru pentru greşelile făcute sau ca urmare a reamintirii unei experienţe de tipul „ lecţia morţii care dă viaţă" , sau printr-un efort al conştiinţei de a discerne între adevăr şi falsitate, între bine şi rău, iese în evidenţă în momentul când trebuie să-ţi împingi limitele către un sfârşit ineluctabil.

Leadershipul este o unealtă a redresării atitudinii faţă de menirea pe care ţi-o asumi, având ca suport puterea de a face dintr-un rezultat al unui lung proces de conştiinţă un vârf de lance pentru înnoirea propriei făpturi.

Important în evoluţia leadershipului tău sunt nu numai sinele şi cunoaşterea, ci şi ciclul de trăiri şi manifestări pe care le produci, - întreaga „producţie" a emoţiilor, a năzuinţelor, a pornirilor şi descătuşărilor interioare într-un anumit moment. Mai trebuie adăugat la aceasta încă o dimensiune importantă: faptul că îţi trăieşti „opera".

Întregul tău stil de viaţă combinat cu stilul de leadership adoptat condiţionează „opera de convertire" la tine însuţi.

A experimenta "oglindirea" înseamnă să urmezi tendinţa către unitatea dintre imaginea pe care ţi-o dă percepţia unei alunecări în păcat şi conţinutul credinţei care îţi asigură victoria valorilor în faţa lumii şi a destinului.

Kevin Lomax a renunţat la poziţia pe care o deţinea în cea mai puternică firma de avocatură din lume, reuşind astfel, în final, să revină la statusul lui iniţial, corect şi cinstit pe care s-a bazat existenţa sa – căsnicia cu Mary, relaţia cu mama sa şi cu prietenii săi. El a avut puterea să-şi reevalueze Eul şi să-şi pună în valoare trăsăturile de caracter, cam târziu ce-i drept, intensificându-şi percepţia asupra propriului sine în relaţie cu Eul celor pe care îi iubea, mai ales cu al lui Mary.

Tu, viitor lider, cum ai proceda? Ai renunţa la poziţia pe care o ai ca să întăreşti relaţiile cu cei apropiaţi, sau ai continua să-ţi depăşeşti condiţia, încercând cu adevărat să fii mai mult - şi să rişti să dai greş în cea mai importantă zona a fiinţei tale – conştiinţa?

Leadership: Poţi merge ore în şir în umbra unui turn, fără să o poţi depăşi?

Dă o şansă leadershipului tău să devină un punct forte al vieţii tale, menţinându-ţi integritatea morală şi emoţională mai mult timp. Dar pentru asta trebuie să pătrunzi în lumea interioară a celorlalţi oameni, să citeşti cele mai adânci sentimente ale lor, să încerci să te apropii moral şi emoţional de ei.

Atitudinea ta plină de atenţie mai ales faţă de cei care fac parte din viaţa ta, capacitatea ta de a te adapta la nevoile lor sufleteşti, este cheia întregului proces de finisare a propriului tău Eu. Ca să te ridici la înălţimea leadershipului, trebuie să primeşti acceptul propriului tău Eu de a te îndrepta şi de a te întări emoţional. Prin urmare, înglobează în conştiinţa ta, în adâncul fiinţei tale acele gânduri pozitive, constructive, bine şlefuite, şi nu lăsa să le întunece niciodată nimeni şi nimic.

În timpul efortului fizic inima trebuie să asigure un aport mai mare de sânge spre diferitele organe şi mai ales spre sistemul muscular.

Tot aşa şi tu, ca să evoluezi către un nivel înalt de conştientizare a îndatoririlor faţă de fundamentele propriei credinţe şi să asculţi strigătul, adesea tăcut, care se ridică din inimă, trebuie să adaugi un plus de echilibru sufletesc la nivelul relaţiei dintre ceea ce este just (corectitudinea) şi ceea ce este raţional (binele).

A nu te preocupa de schimbarea propriului tău fel de a fi este ca şi cum ai merge minute în şir în umbra unui turn foarte înalt, fără să o poţi depăşi. Turnul este proiecţia propriei tale conştiinţe, iar umbra este acea parte constantă din tine care te urmează peste tot. Dacă vrei să urci pe scara leadershipului, învaţă să te depăşeşti pe tine însuţi, să depăşeşti orice dubiu pe care îl ai în legătură cu propriul tău sine - întărindu-ţi valorile spirituale şi morale, şi dând dovadă de multă tărie de caracter.

Conştiinţa care te ghidează în viaţă pe calea cea bună este echivalentul şansei pe care ţi-o oferi de a da timpul înapoi prin rememorarea senzaţiilor, amintirilor, gândurilor, sentimentelor, dar şi prin "recâştigarea" sufletului pierdut printr-o formă a vinovăţiei şi a deznădejdii.

Tainicul atelier al leadershipului este locul unde se şlefuieşte şi se cizelează sistemul tău de norme morale şi de comportament, adunate în timp, pe care trebuie să le pui în valoare în orice situaţie ca să scoţi tot ce e mai frumos din tine şi din ceilalţi oameni. Şi, în permanenţă, să le menţii în condiţii corespunzătoare astfel încât niciodată să nu se degradeze şi să nu-şi piardă strălucirea.

Asigură-ţi mijloacele de a-ţi rafina trăsăturile şi de a le folosi în favoarea ta, orientându-ţi deciziile în direcţia sentimentelor şi a trăirilor tale cele mai profunde. Intensifică-ţi puterea de a percepe emoţiile celorlalţi şi, în funcţie de ele, să asiguri un aport mare de energie pozitivă sufletului tău şi să dai un sens nou vieţii tale.

Tălmăcirea viselor

Cine crede în vise, ar fi mai bine să urmărească realitatea mai întâi, iar apoi să viseze din nou.

Anhat veni la el dimineaţa devreme, ca să-l conducă la Marele Prezicător. Întrebat dacă avusese un somn liniştit sau agitat, dacă zeul îl inspirase, Keops îi spuse sincer ce visase. În acest fel, se văzu obligat să-şi mărturisească dragostea pentru această fată. Poate că ar fi putut sau ar fi trebuit să-i ascundă lui Anhaf pasiunea secretă, dar de vreme ce acesta fusese numit ghidul său spiritual, cel care trebuia să-l însoţească în drumul spre cunoașterea zeului, să-l îndrume prin labirint, Keops nu-şi imagina că putea să-i ascundă realitatea gândurilor sale, începând colaborarea cu minciuni sau cu o simplă neglijență. În Casa Vieţii îi fusese insuflat sentimentul că până şi omiterea unui adevăr era o ofensă adusă lui Maat, considerându-se înșelătorie.

- Keops, stăpâne, îi zise atunci fiul lui Imhotep, dacă ai visat-o pe această fată, înseamnă că aşa a dorit zeul. Cu siguranţă că a fost un semn din partea lui. Dar ca să ştii dacă o astfel de iubire este ceva bun sau ceva rău, trebuie să mai vezi şi care a fost purtarea ei în visul tău. A părut că răspunde iubirii tale? Cum s-a comportat cu tine?

Leadership: Crezi că o experiență vagă în care conturul realității se estompează în faţa unui fenomen impalpabil, reflectă dorința ta neîmplinită de a vedea mai clar viitorul printr-o revelație neașteptată?

- Lucrurile îmi sunt acum foarte vagi. Dar îmi amintesc că am vrut de mai multe ori să o sărut, să o strâng în braţe, însă nu reușeam, de fiecare dată se ferea sau, mai curând, era doar un nor, un lucru impalpabil, după care o vedeam din nou departe, deși o credeam lipită de mine.

- Nu mă pricep la tălmăcirea viselor, dar vom putea prezenta visul tău Marelui Prezicător, precum şi preotului care interpretează visele zeului. Văd că Hathor Cea Aurită a pus în inima ta iubirea pentru această fată; totuşi, faptul că, în visul tău, s-a ferit, că nu ai reușit să prinzi în braţe decât un nor, asta anunţă un semn îngrijorător. Cu toate acestea, simt că, dacă vei lua hotărârea să faci din ea a doua stăpână a bunurilor tale, nimeni nu te va putea împiedica.

- O singură persoană ar putea s-o facă: tatăl meu. El este regele.

Leadership: Încerci să descifrezi felul cum criteriile morale devin contururi vizuale ale adevărurilor, chiar dacă ele apar într-un mod ambiguu și difuz?

Un vizionar încearcă să fondeze o cunoaştere esenţială pe criterii morale şi pe adevăruri evidente prin ele însele, chiar dacă pare un lucru destul de ambiguu. Lucrurile vagi sunt cele mai greu de descifrat. Totuşi, adevărurile evidente sunt datorate relativismului cultural şi psiholgiei maselor de oameni, credule de cele mai multe ori în faţă oricăror "dovezi". De fapt, fiecare semn în viața noastră trebuie interpretat cu sinceritate pentru a descoperi un adevăr raportat la voia divină, dar în același timp, trebuie să fim conștienți de capcanele interpretării noastre subiective.

Şi exemplele pot continua în acelaşi sens, fapt ce ilustrează, contrar oricăror opinii, existența unei exigenţe de ordin principial, a unui principiu general de raţionalitate, care transcende diferitele barierele cunoscute și generează deschiderea căii spre cunoaștere. Mărturisirea unui sentiment profund poate fi un pas necesar în alinierea cu ordinea cosmică, dar în același timp poate fi o capcană de ordin mistic, deoarece cunoașterea adevărată se bazează pe discernământ și rațiune.

Leadership: Aspirația ta spre revelația unei raționalități principiale poate să modeleze o nouă reprezentare imaginativă a realității, în ciuda barierelor impuse de relativismul cultural și de percepția vizuală a maselor adesea influențabile?

Transparența în relația cu ghizii spirituali este crucială pentru evoluția personală. În ziua de azi, prezicătorul nu mai este omul care interpretează visele, ci vizionarul care ştie să vadă dincolo de limite, un mentor care îşi îndrumă echipa către noi orizonturi, reuşind să pună în practică multe idei fiindcă nu se gândeşte niciodată la eşec.

Prin urmare, decizia de a "clona" nişte vise, doar ca să transformi realitatea, pare a fi un act iraţional deoarece este efectuat în mod arbitrar, fără să-ţi asumi vreun merit important. În acest caz, principiul de raţionalitate care nu atrbuie viselor decât o importantă mediocră, chiar dacă nu garantează reuşita morală a acţiunilor tale, îţi poate totuşi indica acele situaţii în care nu mai poţi acționa în deplină cunoştinţă de cauză.

Concluzia imediată, în acest caz, este că nu poţi decide să faci o schimbare, decât dacă ştii ce faci. Cine crede în vise, ar fi mai bine să urmărească realitatea mai întâi, iar apoi să viseze din nou.

Leadershipul poate reprezenta o viziune asupra adevărului dacă menține un echilibru delicat între expresia clară și vizibilitatea ascunsă în umbrele relativismului.

Tălmăcirea viselor se referă la interpretarea și înțelegerea semnificației acestora în contextul vieții tale, raportat la un fenomen de cunoaștere ce are ca deziderat următoarea zicală: "Realitatea este puterea prin care cunoasterea este constituită."

Tânărul Ioannis

On Iulie 16, 2020

Poți să ajungi la rădăcina unui adevăr plin de sens atunci când hoinărești singur într-un timp accesibil doar prin intermediul unei poveşti care te învăluie şi te prinde în mreje pe parcursul întregii vieţi.

Tânărul Ioannis. Recomand această ultimă apariție de la editura Polirom, semnată Mika Waltari. O citesc cu drag chiar acum, lângă un pârâu foarte limpede, cu aceeași plăcere cu care am citit celelalte romane ale sale. Cititul te face mai îngăduitor cu rătăcirile vieţii, la fel cum actul de a scrie îl determină pe un scriitor să-şi asume mai multe roluri: de creator şi, în acelaşi timp, de parte a creaţiei, de regizor şi de personaj, deopotrivă. Latura spirituală este şi ea aferentă exersării cititului şi scrisului, împingându-l pe om să afle mai multe despre rostul lumii sale într-o lume diferită de a sa, o lume care aminteşte de însăşi existenţa sa paralelă în alte timpuri, în alte locuri, în alte condiţii.

Te simți mai inspirat, poate mai înțelept, dar cu siguranță mai matur, mai bun, mai apropiat de esența vieții spirituale atunci când citeşti Tânărul Ioannis , încât, pe parcursul cărţii simţi că devii tu însuşi însufleţirea unui personaj aflat în căutarea destinului sacru. Ori inspiraţia aceasta nu provine din peripeţiile unui personaj care trăieşte în povestea unui scriitor excepţional, şi care a trăit demult o viaţă plină de încercări, ci din destinul unui Ulise mai tânăr, mai ambițios, mai pus pe gânduri, mai dornic de compromis, mai energic în privinţa atingerii scopului propus. El extrage din fiecare experienţă de viaţă o învăţătură plină de avertizări, plină de moderaţie, plină de adevăr şi putere, plăcerea lui cea mai mare fiind posibilitatea de a scrie texte originale pentru eternitate. Era scrib, şi ca orice scrib, viaţa îi era mai puţin dragă decât cuvintele înşirate cu artă într-o ordine dumnezeiască.

Iar dacă Tânărul Ioannis vedea omnipotenţa lui Dumnezeu în fiecare expresie a fenomenului vieţii, în orice comparaţie dintre trecător şi etern, între creaţie şi evoluţie, era pentru că întreaga sa fiinţă părea a fi o lucrare asemănătoare cu cea a îngerilor care ştiu să aprecieze tot ce-i înconjoară. Plin de un suflet cald, luminos şi frumos, el se raporta mereu la complexa legătura dintre Pământ şi Cer.

Într-un final, el realizează că orice om care visează să cucerească tainele sfinte ale înaltei ştiinţe este nevoit să-şi croiască un drum diferit în această viaţă, care este o trecere prin istorie într-o altă viaţă. Şi numai această multiplicitate a propriului suflet, esenţială în lucrarea unor gânduri care sfidează orice închipuire, poate să producă frumuseţea unei lumi care şi-a pierdut sensul. Cerul Împărăţiei lui Dumnezeu este străbătut de foc, dar şi de un curent electric, o energie cosmică vitală numită Orsermisthos , îndreptând atenţia spre existenţa unui imens arsenal al imaginarului.

Leadership: Eşti condus de sentimentul că trebuie să-ţi croieşti drum într-o lume care transpune, ca într-o peliculă, viaţa ta interioară (sensibilitatea şi conflictele conştiinţei) într-o reflecţie filozofică universal valabilă?

Un om care se alimentează din secole trecute, poate chiar din întreaga evoluţie istorică trăită de umanitate, este inima unui Dumnezeu care îşi testează limitele toleranţei faţă de efectele creaţiei sale. Această reflecţie filozofică este valabilă pentru toţi cei care au înţeles că duhul ştiinţei nu este altceva o plasare a conştiinţei umane într-o lume exterioară, universală.

Tânărul Ioannis, hoinărind singur prin gândurile unei minţi zbuciumate de amintiri triste, dar purtat de vise şi însetat de cunoaştere, este manifestarea unui caracter tragic prin prisma destinului pe care nu reuşeşte să-l ţină în frâu după voia lui, fiind condus de o forţă tainică în mijlocul evenimentelor tulburi, scăpând de fiecare dată, ca prin minune, din cele mai mari pericole. Aici e mâna lui Dumnezeu. El este deopotrivă un erou plin de nobleţe precum Don Quijote, rănit adesea în orgoliul său, dar niciodată atât de grav încât să nu mai accepte realitatea, ajungând amândoi la aceeaşi revelaţie biblică: "Dumnezeu a ales lucrurile nebune ale lumii ca să le facă de ruşine pe cele înţelepte".

Iar când mă gândesc la Tânărul Ioannis, prin studierea unui destin rezistent, iscoditor, prins numai între culmi şi abisuri, mă gândesc la mine însumi, la acelaşi fiinţă elevată care a cunoscut regretul de a fi ajuns prea târziu în locul hotărât de providenţă, vinovăția față de lucrurile care au rămas nespuse sau nefăcute, constrângerea de a fi devenit altcineva decât mi-aş fi dorit să fiu. Profund, înălţător, nostalgic, încep să mă definesc prin ceea ce sunt în stare să trec ca să dau sens unei vieţi spirituale care abia acum începe să capete acceptare printre posibilii factori favorizanţi. Îmi închipuiesc că viaţa e mai uşoară dacă o suport în tăcere.

Şi, la fel, nu-mi pot închipui o altă mască a neputinţei de a cunoaşte absolutul decât prin suportarea unei vieţi care îşi cere dreptul la o lume fără adevăr, mai puţin însufleţitoare, dar receptivă la coincidenţele şi semnele unui destin care îşi asumă o istorie grandioasă. Dacă într-un anumit fel eu sunt identic cu Tânărul Ioannis prin toate încercările vieţii prin care am trecut, ceva totuşi diferă la noi. Unul este mult prea orgolios pentru smerenie, celălalt a învăţat că a fi orgolios este similar cu rănirea lui Dumnezeu, respingerea Lui din sufletul în care creşte cunoaşterea clarvăzătoare.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să îţi încredinţezi dramul de destin în mâinile unei voinţe divine, şi totodată să recunoşti că nu poţi reduce cunoaşterea ta elevată numai la ceea ce îţi oferă raţiunea?

"Mă simţeam tot mai matur, mai ştiutor. Aveam certitudinea că port în mine o bogăţie care i-ar fi făcut invidioşi chiar şi pe cei mai bogaţi oameni. Iar experienţa vieţii mă făcea mai puternic pentru că înţelegeam că nu merită să devin vreodată sclavul propriului corp în căutarea orbească a satisfacţiei trecătoare. Eu trebuia să fiu stăpânul, patima era sclava pe care o puteam constrânge să mi se supună dacă voiam. Această certitudine mă făcea mai puternic."

Expresia fundamentală a sufletului glorios de erou, în strânsă legătură cu însăşi apariţia lui Dumnezeu în orice vreme şi în orice situaţie, se poate restrânge uneori la o singură trăsătură de caracter care este cea mai izbitoare în ochii unui bun creştin: obsesia de sine. Cine se încrede prea tare în lecţiile înţelepciunii, cine îşi umple dramul de timp liber dăruindu-se total unei pasiuni sau unui vis debordant, riscă să nu-şi mai găsească dramul de linişte de care are atâta nevoie pentru a obţine fericirea.

Simt că arde în mine nevoia de a mă şti altcineva, mai puţin supus dorinţelor trecătoare. Cred că uneori trebuie să închid ochii în faţa înţelepciunii, sau măcar să mă prefac că nu deţin nicio cunoaştere. Nu cumva să apar ridicol din pricina colosalei prostii de a mă arăta inteligent. Mai bine era dacă ingeniosul hidalgo ar fi fost înfăţişat prin orizontul ontologic al personajelor lui André Malraux, al căror gândire nu urmează evenimentelor, ci le precede.

Despre mine aş vrea să cred că sunt diferit de personajul care, în altă viaţă, m-a întruchipat pe mine cu atâta măiestrie. Voi evita disperarea extremă, voi evita tăcerea de dinaintea unei izbucniri de nebunie. În vechile scripturi egiptene, cu precădere în "Învăţătura lui Ptah-Hotep" este repetat îndemnul de care aş vrea, eu însumi, să nu fac niciodată abstracţie: "Petrece-ţi zilele în bucurie, trăieşte fiind mulţumit, şi nu-ţi risipi vremea destinată veseliei."

Leadership: Poţi să te transpui în realitatea unui destin care se repetă mereu în altă versiune a timpului, în măsura în care toată experiența ta interioară se cristalizează într-o concepție privitoare la călătoria sufletului prin numeroasele sale întrupări?

Realitatea în care omul se întâlneşte cu Dumnezeu este o fragilitate a momentului pe cât de înduioşător, pe atât de greu de suportat, fiind parcă extras din cunoaşterea amarnică a altor lumi. Tânărul Ioannis şi-a însuşit arta marii cunoaşteri, dar nu a cunoscut arta de a controla visul vieţii prin prisma sentimentului de mulţumire sufletească nemăsurată. Bănuiesc că fericirea care i se cuvenea atât de mult în decursul vieţii a primit-o, poate, în lumea cealaltă.

Orgoliul exaltat al cunoaşterii sale a fost securea înfiptă în miezul vieţii. Iar ceea ce el socotea că fiind o realitate imposibil de negat, a reprezentat de fapt un avertisment pentru trezirea conștiinței sale.

Eu încă îmi scriu propria poveste în prezentul unei vieţi a cărui mesaj i-a scăpat până şi lui Don Quijote, izvorând din contemplarea inimii lui Cristos, şi pe care Tânărul Ioannis nu l-a procesat cu succes: "Deznodământul zilei de azi este revelația zilei de mâine."

Am învăţat din viaţa Tânărului Ioannis că nu trebuie să fiu produsul unui imens creuzet numit istorie care, asemenea unui val imens oceanic care îneacă o stâncă, se catalizează într-o covârşitoare călătorie a sufletului prin pustiul singurătăţii.

Dacă totuşi miezul poveştii mele provoacă o mobilizare a tuturor spiritelor timpului prezent, împotriva unei sincere împăcări a conştiinţei, în preajma unui destin prestabilit, punând piedică vreunui ingenios hidalgo de a se adapta la împrejurările unei vieţi lipsite de bucurie, înseamnă că Dumnezeu îşi merită soarta de a nu fi înţeles, de a fi ridiculizat, minimalizat, marginalizat.

Marea Cunoaştere se referă la viaţa pe care o trăieşti în scopul împlinirii unui vis care valsează cu durerea şi cu fericirea, şi din care ai de învăţat că nu există între ele două decât o singură nuanţă vibrantă: una nu poate să existe fără cealaltă, şi cine renunţă la una în favoarea celeilalte este sortit să piară sufleteşte.

Tânărul Ioannis este fiecare aspirant la pomul cunoaşterii, iar această aspiraţie dă sens unei vieţi care nu se poate trăi decât prin sacrificiu. Citiţi această carte dacă vreţi să fiţi fericiţi, înţelegând că fericirea înseamnă de multe ori să ocoleşti marea cunoaştere, şi că viaţa este mai blândă şi mai darnică cu aceia care nu pornesc în căutarea lui Dumnezeu.

Câteva versuri din "Cântecul Harpistului", text de mare însemnătate pentru istoria gândirii egiptene, îmi vin acum în minte:

Tango to Evora

On Iunie 23, 2017

Felul artistic de-a fi constă în faptul că printr-o singură trăsătură ni se reprezintă viu şi pe deplin ceea ce în lipsa ei nu s-ar putea niciodată reprezenta.

Îl aştept în încordarea unei încremenite tăceri, care pentru un pictor ar putea fi echivalentul sublimului. Dar el nu mai apare decât în tristeţea unei amăgiri continue, în îndoiala unor întrebări care asemenea pomilor se frâng sub greutatea rodului lor. Îl doresc, îl admir, îl invidiez. Încerc să mi-l reamintesc cu ardoarea unui artist aflat în căutarea conţinutului, iar el mă evită dincolo de ingenuitatea unui timp care pare să fie obstinat în a nu avea sens sau direcţie.

Fiindcă e mort şi eu am contribuit la această faptă dezonorabilă pentru care marele legiuitor, Dumnezeu, mă acuză fără mila cuvenită unui om ce merită a doua şansă. O lacrimă se prelinge pe obrazul căruia destinul i-a tras o palmă sănătoasă, sugerând acea angoasă niciodată total învinsă, dar care fură părţi din mine, făcând frumuseţea neinteresantă.

Sufletul plin de remuşcări încearcă să rostească ceea ce îmi şopteşte conştiinţa în cinetica unei imense lumi poetice: mea culpa , prin înclinaţia unei călătorii în timp din care pare că lipseşte geografia inimii. Oprindu-mă, aşadar, fără teamă într-o distanţă spirituală, când vinovăţia îşi întoarce faţa anume spre iertare – cea mai grea iubire dintre toate, furând un pic din momentul unei depresii, arunc o ultimă privire determinantă asupra vieţii.

Leadership: Îţi construieşti o nouă șansă de a-ți corecta trecutul lăsându-te prins în miezul intim al unei experienţe centrată într-o gândire de acuzat care își recunoaște vinovăţia?

Paharul pe care îl ţin în mână aproape tremurând, ceea ce pare la prima vedere un scenariu ţesut cu multă îndemânare de subconştientul meu, aparţine femeii care nu şi-a putut înfrânge mândria, model compensator al universului straniu, mai ceva decât al lui Stephen Hawking, dinspre care nu vine nicio inițiativă mai acătării.

Îngân refrenul unei arii a insuportabilităţii, a ticăloşiei pe care nebunia o acceptă ca trofeu. Buzele uscate, neatinse de suflul vreunei tentaţii, prevestesc punctul de maximă altitudine al sfârşitului. Închid ochii şi încerc să anulez efectul pe care uitarea Lui îl are asupra mea. Ochii de culoarea unei frunze luate de vânt, aproape încercănaţi de ruşinea umilinţei la care singură m-am supus, asemănătoare cu senzaţia de neputință totală, ar vrea parcă să simbolizeze exteriorizarea durerilor interioare.

Ceasul nu mai arată timpul fericirii, dar îmi strânge mâna delicată ca într-o menghină a moralei.

Suferinţa este îndoiala cu care tratezi prilejul unei remuşcări care poate să dea un sens nou lumii tale interioare.

O umbră cade asupra mesei, învăluind speranţele putrede cu un suflu cald de entuziasm. Străinul, care în secunda următoare nu mai este un străin, îmi atinge mâna, asemenea unei adieri primăvăratice, făcându-mă să suspin. De ce trebuie să te cunosc, când pot doar să te simt? De ce te simt când vreau numai să te uit?

Muzica ochiului anulează tăcerea minţii. Componenta sublimă a naturii mele este epuizată de așteptarea mult prea îndelungată și dezamăgită de un ego care se învârte neputincios în cerul unei iubiri fără ecou. Ce păcat că o asemenea inconsistenţă a conţinutului poate sta alături de o asemenea desăvârşire netrebnică a visării spre „atunci şi acolo". Surâd. Mă bucur că ai înviat, dragul meu.

Leadership: Ce sens oferi expresiei de sine pe fondul general al unui context care alcătuieşte situaţia corespunzătoare fineţii simţirii de a-ti recunoaște partea intunecată în admiraţia manifestată faţă de o conştiinţă curată?

Cantitatea de lepădare de sine eliberată prin reacţia unei supărări, brusc capătă o nouă turnură, se transformă într-o formă de energie, anume energia de mişcare. Let's dance, Tango !

Ce pofte demonice se dezlănţuie în cuprinsul setei de a respira o nouă aventură ! Expresiile rezultantei distanţării de trecut şi momentul forţelor de presiune ale neprevăzutului, amândouă urcă pe podiumul determinării curentului de magnetizare. Forţele îşi schimbă sensul, se atrag prin magnetismul unei dulci disperări în extremităţile unui generator de fluxuri energetice ce indică poziţia în timp şi în spaţiu a cauzei unei noi tresăriri apărute în suflet.

Din nou numai al lui, atinsă şi străbătută de fiorul unui spaţiu prin care nu a mai trecut de mult sunetul muzicii pline de energie. Of, de-aş rămâne singura dorinţă din sufletul pur al artistului care ştie să completeze caracterul fragmentar al momentului, construind din trăsături disparate o totalitate elegantă.

Îl privesc ca pe un duşman înviat din morţi, ucis din cumplita-mi vanitate combinată cu gelozia, cu înverşunarea păcatului de a nu crede în arta unei minuni. Dar acest duşman este, până la urmă, soţul meu. Îl ucid şi îi ador învierea neaşteptată. Numai tango-ul este sensibil la adevărul vieţii mele.

Iar în aceste rotiri pline de sens, pe care sensibilitatea artistului le aşează cu măiestrie în tango, pe ritmurile unei simţiri intense, demne de o impresionantă stringenţă predestinată, se întrevede acea lege a creaţiei, a lui Belinski:

Trebuie ca personajul, fiind expresia unui întreg univers distinct de indivizi, să fie în acelaşi timp şi un anume individ, un întreg, individual. Numai cu această condiţie, numai prin împăcarea acestor contrarii, poate să devină o figură tipică. Felul artistic de-a fi constă în faptul că printr-o singură trăsătură ni se reprezintă viu şi pe deplin ceea ce în lipsa ei nu s-ar putea niciodată reprezenta.

Trăsătura care te defineşte este dualismul pe care-l propui între realitatea marcată de dezamăgirea omului inferior, condus de instincte primare, și atitudinea plină de tandrețe a omului superior condus de înțelegere, maturitate, luciditate şi acceptare de sine?

Egoul are nevoie să fie abordat în sensul unei întunecări a conştiinţei atunci când nu reușești să te ridici din propria durere. Sau poate fi abordat în sensul ancorării într-o pasiune arzătoare pentru a ţine ritmul impus de curiozitatea aia care te face să vrei să ştii şi să descoperi mai mult ce e în celălalt de lângă tine.

Tango to Evora este ritmul pe care se înalţă strigătul trepidaţiilor sufleteşti: „să sufăr, sau să mor”. Dansul, ca formă de manifestare a iniţiativei particulare de a uita orice supărare, începe lent cu graţie şi aplomb, de la uimire la plăcut surprins. Şi se continuă alert pe tot parcursul ariei unei luări aminte asupra a ceea ce trebuie neapărat îndreptat în interior.

Încheierea dansului este senzațional prin renunţarea la ceea ce reprezintă omul vechi pe care vanitatea şi orgoliul l-au condamnat la ratare, undeva în mijlocul nicăierului.

Tărâmul nesfârşit al inimii

On Noiembrie 28, 2010

Învaţă să-ţi cunoşti inima, pentru a şti câtă încredere să-i acorzi.

Ascuns în spatele unei coloane de marmură, prinţul Dastan îl aştepta pe fratele său, Tus, moştenitorul tronului. Când acesta îşi făcu apariţia în dormitor, Dastan se repezi la el, aşa cum se repede vulturul la pradă, şi ameninţându-l cu pumnalul, îi vorbi cu speranţă, dar şi cu teamă în suflet:

- Tus, unchiul nostru, Nizam, ne-a minţit. Ai avut încredere în el, aşa cum am avut şi eu. Însă el e cel care l-a omorât pe tatăl nostru, otrăvind mantia pe care ţi-a dat-o, mantia pe care, la rândul tău, mi-ai dat-o mie, şi pe care eu i-am făcut-o cadou tatălui nostru.

Rostind aceste cuvinte, prinţul Dastan se aştepta să vadă înseninându-se chipul fratelui său, a cărui mohorâre se datora morţii tatălui lor, însă chipul lui Tus deveni, dimpotrivă, şi mai nepăsător, şi mai rece. Îl privea pe Dastan cu o atenţie ce nu vădea deloc bunăvoinţă, ci o asprime fără margini.

- Dacă ai de gând să mă omori, fă-o acum, îi spuse Tus, împins de ura ce o nutrea faţă de el.

Dastan, nădăjduind totuşi că fratelui său i se va înmuia inima, mai făcu o încercare, de data aceasta şi mai hotărâtă, de a-l convinge de nevinovăţia sa. Îi povesti fragmentat despre planul diabolic al unchiului lor. Dar, văzând lipsa de reacţie şi privirea sumbră şi severă a fratelui său, văzând că acesta nu avea încredere în el, nu avu de ales decât să recurgă la o ultimă soluţie, la un ultim gest de credinţă. Îşi adună toată puterea sufletului şi îşi implantă pumnalul în inimă.

Leadership: Cum interpretezi informaţiile despre persoanele care au participat în cadrul evenimentelor cu impact, în condiţiile analizei adevăratului lor statut?

Poţi să strângi şi să interpretezi informaţiile despre persoanele care au participat în cadrul evenimentelor cu impact, în condiţiile analizei adevăratului lor statut, de prieten sau duşman, numai prin evaluarea puterea lor de sacrificiu demonstrată peste tot unde ţi-ai jucat tu rolul de erou şi prin consecvenţa cu care îţi este susţinută puterea ta de a te ridica deasupra durerii şi de a lua totul de la început.

A-ţi demonstra nevinovăţia în faţa unui prieten bun este echivalent cu a fi sub stăpânirea păcatului de a ierta nedreptatea şi greşelile aproapelui: îţi expui întreaga viaţă şi trecutul unei crize de imagine, trăind permanent cu povara lipsei de recunoştinţă.

Printre notele esenţiale ale leadershipului trebuie recunoscută în primul rând "ieftinătatea", care cere anularea autorităţii valorice şi a virtuţilor de care depind relaţiile sociale. Cinstea, spiritul de dreptate, sinceritatea, tăria de caracter faţă de care nu poate exista eschivare, se pot transforma într-o închisoare în aer liber dacă permiţi altora să te definească după modul în care ai anunţat obţinerea unui rezultat final şi mai ales dacă îi îndreptăţeşti să de-a verdictul "right" sau "wrong".

Nu poate fi conceput un caz de construcţie a leadershipului, de-a lungul întregii vieţuiri interioare a omului, aducând în prim plan drepturi, acţiuni, credinţe ce-şi propun să fie viabile doar pe termen scurt. În acest caz leadershipul se dovedeşte o iluzie greu de susţinut, o modalitate de a face incompatibile funcţia, rolul şi modelul de receptare critică a mesajului de solidaritate transmis.

Leadership: Acţiunile pe care le îndeplineşti sunt o urmare a alegerii tale de a rămâne pe cont propriu într-un context cu valoare de "testare a conştiinţei" care se schimbă o dată cu modificarea amintirilor?

Abia în acel moment Tus, gândindu-se că în adâncul acestei întâmplări exista o taină cumplită, se cufundă în gânduri şi simţi chiar un fel de îngrijorare. Nu-i trecuse niciodată prin gând că pe Dastan – un luptător atât de curajos, atât de încrezător - îl va împinge sinceritatea, sau mai bine zis forţa sufletului, asprimea sufletului, până la o asemenea faptă.

Într-atâta îl miră această faptă, încât, amintindu-şi cuvintele pe care Dastan i le spusese înainte de a se sinucide, luă pumnalul vrăjit şi apăsă giuvaierul de pe mâner – eliberând nisipul magic, şi întorcând astfel timpul înapoi.

Câtă autoritate poate să capete un om care ia o hotărâre atât de curajoasă? Aflându-se din nou faţă în faţă cu Dastan, Tus îşi simţi conştiinţa împăcată. Căci urmase sfatul nepreţuit pe care tatăl lor, regele Persiei, Sharaman, i-l dăduse cu multă vreme în urmă: "Pleacă-ţi urechea la sfătuitori, dar întotdeauna ascultă-ţi inima".

Leadership: Dezvoltarea rolului tău de lider vine dinăuntrul tău atunci când te apropii de stadiul final al luării deciziilor bazate pe orgoliu şi impulsuri de moment?

O inimă mare este opera desăvârşită a leadershipului. Inima îţi conduce toate fibrele. Ascultă-ţi inima sau altfel te vei prăbuşi în abisul cel mai adânc.

În filmul "Prince of Persia – The sands of time" , despre care v-am povestit adineaori, Tus s-a simţit atât de mişcat de felul în care Dastan s-a dezvinovăţit, încât n-a mai fost destul de stăpân pe sine ca să-şi ascundă sentimentele adânc înrădăcinate în fiinţa sa.

Ţinea într-adevăr la fratele său, chiar dacă mintea şi inima îi fuseseră înşelate de sfătuitorul şi unchiul lor Nizam. În mijlocul tuturor întâmplărilor care se îngrămădiseră unele peste altele, şi în momentul când Dastan şi-a pus capăt zilelor, o spaimă teribilă l-a cuprins, o spaimă care l-a trezit la realitate.

Iată materialul din care era plămădit Tus – un conducător care nu avea deplină încredere în inima lui, dar care totuşi nu era străin de simţămintele omeneşti.

Există o otravă care poate ucide aproape fără să lase urme. Ea este deşertăciunea inimii tale. Este neîncrederea pe care o ai în propria inimă când vine vorba să iei decizii importante. Cum ai putea să te încrezi în cinstea ta, daca nu te încrezi în inima ta? Cum ai putea să iei decizii bune, dacă nu-ţi cunoşti bine inima? Ai de gând să-ţi urmezi calea aşa cum ţi-o va croi soarta, bună sau rea, sau să te încrezi în inima ta şi să încerci să te împotriveşti în cazul în care soarta ţi-e potrivnică?

Ca să-ţi simţi conştiinţa împăcată nu-ţi apleca urechea la sfaturile celorlalţi, decât după ce-ţi asculţi inima. Dezvoltarea rolului de lider vine dinăuntrul tău, din inima ta.

Leadershipul funcţionează în acelaşi fel ca inima: trebuie să însufleţească spre răbdare şi înţelegere, nu spre răutate şi duşmănie.

Tărâmul nesfârşit al inimii este un tărâm foarte vast şi foarte sensibil, este un tărâm nisipos, alunecos, pe care trebuie să-l abordezi cu multă precauţie. Este un tărâm pe care te poţi rătăci, sau pe care îl poţi stăpâni dacă îl cuprinzi în imensitatea lui şi dacă îl înţelegi cu adevărat. Este un tărâm pe care dacă îl cunoşti bine, dacă îi simţi mereu pulsul şi căldura, nu te va înşela niciodată.

Este un tărâm care se încrucişează cu alte tărâmuri de acelaşi fel, şi pe care dacă nu-l stăpâneşti în marea lui imensitate, dacă nu-l populezi cu emoţii pozitive, cu o atitudine pozitivă, cu încredere şi curaj, nu vei putea să obţii acea linişte interioară atât de râvnită de toată lumea, acea împăcare sufletească cu tine însuţi atât de necesară, ci vei simţi mereu suferinţă şi durere.

Concluzie: Cunoaşte-te pe tine însuţi pentru a-i putea cunoaşte pe ceilalţi şi, implicit, învaţă să-ţi cunoşti inima pentru a şti câtă încredere să-i acorzi – astfel îi vei putea cunoaşte şi pe ceilalţi, susţinându-i cu atâta încredere, câtă merită.

Tărâmul prea îndepărtat al zăcămintelor necunoscute

On Iunie 10, 2012

Scrutează orizonturile până departe, astfel încât să te apropii de tărâmul ce ascunde întreaga taină a lumii şi a universului.

Din clipa când mă interesa ceva, deveneam inaccesibil oricărei ocupaţii. Întotdeauna şi pretutindeni, eram călăuzit de această unilaterală impetuozitate, manifestarea acerbă a imboldului lăuntric către noi abordări, urmărirea complexă a celor mai bizare şi inedite aspecte în materie de simţuri şi simţiri care încordau peste măsură, ca un arc gata de tragere, resorturile vitale ale manifestărilor omeneşti.

Era vorba de o frenezie totală, nemaiîntâlnită, (paradoxală la cei ca mine a căror preocupări erau legate de practicarea sportului de performanţă), izvorâtă brusc din goana aprinsă după cel mai preţios, cel mai curat, cel mai semnificativ activ din lume: ştiinţa. Ştiinţa vieţii, a timpului, a gândurilor, a corelaţiilor şi a interdependenţelor, a înlănţuirilor mistice care conduc la apariţia unei lumi imperceptibile. A eternelor valori ce transformă simţămintele în energii alternative, negative şi pozitive existente în fiinţa omenească.

Comanda destinului a fost mai presus decât nivelul aspiraţiilor mele. Sau se întrepătrundeau? Simţeam că mi se dăduse în exploatare un imens rezervor cu potenţial extraordinar de energie umană regenerabilă. Şi trebuia să mă ocup de întreţinerea acestuia. Eram un călător aruncat în cel mai dur şi sinistru tărâm, având dificila, costisitoarea, înfiorătoarea sarcină de a-l explora în întregime, însă abordându-l într-o manieră suprarealistă, cu riscul de mă pierde în abisurile lui.

Leadership: Eşti îndeajuns de capabil să trasezi o graniţă între Ştiinţa Vieţii, care te învaţă să programezi întâlnirea cu destinul, şi misterul ei?

Aşa s-a născut magia, mecanica înţelegerii naturii umane, farmecele ei. Materia sfântă, însângerată de exploziile în lanţ a celor mai calde sau mai reci emoţii, a celor mai crunte aspiraţii ale sufletului. Căreia numai el, aprigul explorator al tărâmului iluziei şi realităţii, prin intermediul personajelor nenumărate, create şi interpretate la cea mai înaltă cota a profesionalismului, le putea da o formă armonioasă şi o imensă energie. Ca un sculptor care modelează fundaţia de bază a oricărei fiinţe, cu dalta bine ascuţită a propriilor gânduri şi simţiri.

Personajele create după o reţetă studiată şi îmbunătăţită în ani de zile, după chipul şi asemănarea celor ce-şi poartă în suflet când bucurii, când dureri, îmbrăcate cu cea mai strălucitoare combinaţie de alb şi negru (pentru că aceste culori sunt definitorii caracterului uman şi dezvoltării lui), îşi exteriorizau trăirile în cele mai variate moduri astfel încât să dea impresia că sunt perfecte şi nu trebuie ajustate cu nimic. Trunchiurile vii, pline de sevă, a pasiunilor şi pulsiunilor lor, îşi arătau toate asperităţile, părând astfel mult mai convingătoare.

Ştiinţa vieţii este ceea ce am învăţat din ce am trăit în timpul experienţelor mele de singurătate în sfera clipei prezente, de a fi hărţuit de gânduri intimidante, adevăruri relative, programe instalate în mintea mea de puterea lui Dumnezeu. Multe minuni am trăit în timpul rugăciunilor mele de a mă întări în răbdare, în nădejde şi în credinţă, pentru a uşura continuarea aventurii numită "Schimbări mici", în colţul meu umil de rai, din camera mea.

Magia se produce în cadrul inițierii tale în cele mai adânci mistere ale vieţii sub chipul unui alt personaj, apropiat de ceea ce ai în minte când eşti prins în jocul manifestării realităţii pe care o creezi în jurul ideii de "iluzie".

Spuneam la unul din webinariile mele că leadershipul te aruncă în "închisoare", apoi îţi întăreşte încrederea în tine, în ştiinţa ta, salvându-te de la un "somn" prelungit şi la un deznodământ păgubos.

Observ, ascult şi mă mir de felul absolut caraghios în care mulţi dintre cei aşa zişi lideri din diverse companii sau instituţii abordează leadershipul. Cred că multora le lipseşte cu desăvârşire esenţa magică, acea iluminare interioară a omului rafinat, chibzuit prin prisma cunoaşterii naturii umane într-un context de "self-reflection" . Si prin felul cum abordează trecerea de la "alb la negru" în cursul evoluţiei lor.

Ca nişte nebuni furioşi aceştia se năpustesc în pereţii celulelor tapetate cu printuri din propria lor realitate (lipsită de măsură şi deseori de suflet), se zbat în închisoarea invizibilă a unei glorii construite pe munca și sudoarea altora.

Împinşi tot mai mult într-un neant al nepăsării de o viziune necaracteristică oamenilor drepţi şi curaţi, improprie fondării leadershipului sănătos, prinşi în plasa neputinţei de a se ridica la nivelul pretenţiilor impuse de virtuţile cele mai de seamă. Singuri, îşi creează un anumit tip de leadership, pe nişte temelii tot atât de şubrede ca şi picioruşele posterioare ale greierilor adaptate la sărit – numai că ei sar peste tot ceea ce înseamnă "uman". Iluzia unei deziluzii.

Numai cei hotărâţi, dar şi plini de fineţe, a căror adevărată valoare stă în măreţia sufletească, îşi pot descătuşa spiritul cutezător şi îşi pot vădi calităţile de explorator al spiritului. Cercetând minuţios fiecare trăire, fiecare fior, fiecare impuls, fiecare gând ce încearcă fiinţă umană, eternele valori ce transformă simţămintele în energii alternative, negative şi pozitive existente în ea.

Leadership: Poţi să te plasezi într-un raport nemijlocit faţă de sinele confesiv pe fondul unei experienţe care te califică să cântăreşti valoarea unei creaţii care depăşeşte preţul ei?

Şi iau aminte. Am toate temeiurile să afirm că, în realitate, arta de a conduce se prezintă altfel decât au înţeles-o mulţi dintre indivizii aflaţi în posturi înalte, căzuţi sub înrâurirea ideii că felul cum îndrumi se datorează carismei, personalităţii, eventual a meritelor personale. Lipsiţi de orice fel de realizări, singurul lor punct de sprijin fiind marcat de numeroase "recomandări" sau de o lungă şi bogată experienţă în câmpul muncii.

Aceştia, ca nişte condamnaţi închişi într-o cameră obscură, şi-au format nişte false opinii despre leadership (sau insuficient de largi, nedeschizătoare de noi orizonturi), ce nu se bazează pe observaţie atentă, care nu se axează pe mecanica înţelegerii naturii umane. Ei nu sunt capabili să vadă în ei înşişi un „ exemplary true leader " - un investigator neîntrecut al construcţiei potenţialului uman, un stilist sigur pe el.

În orice proces de creație, valoarea adevărată depășește prețul ei imediat, fiind stabilită prin transfigurarea percepțiilor și concepțiilor asupra realității.

Oare mă înşel? Oare mai întâi de toate, liderul nu trebuie să fie un creator, un artist neîntrecut al perceperii celor mai fine simţuri, un fin cunoscător al relaţiilor inter-umane şi al resorturilor prin care acestea sunt reglate, având în centru atenţiei sale omul şi înţelegerea lui?

A te plasa într-un raport nemijlocit faţă de sinele confesiv pe fondul unei experienţe care te califică să cântăreşti valoarea unei creaţii care depăşeşte preţul ei, înseamnă să te raportezi la o imagine care îţi rămâne în minte pentru totdeauna sub aspectul formării unui orizont mai larg de înţelegere a lumii.

Preţul unei creaţii, pe linia valorificării elementelor de noutate, se stabileşte printr-o transfigurare de concepţie si de viziune asupra realităţii pe care o compui şi o guvernezi.

Leadershipul este un tărâm prea mare, prea bogat, prea îndepărtat ca să poată fi jefuit şi distrus – un fel de Atlantida care nu ar putea fi niciodată înghiţit de mare într-o zi şi-o noapte, scufundat în adâncuri de furia unui tsunami, în perioada sa cea mai înfloritoare.

Este un tărâm care se extinde continuu, tot mai departe, prin puterea liderilor de a scoate la iveală realităţile ascunse ale fiinţei umane, prin capacitatea lor de a surprinde cele mai expresive manifestări ale spiritului uman.

Tărâmul prea îndepărtat al zăcămintelor necunoscute rămâne inaccesibil pentru mulți. Foarte puţini reuşesc să se apropie de acest tărâm, să se adâncească, ca un pelerin neobosit, în căutarea luminii, a marii revelaţii, pe cât de complexă, pe atât de neînţeleasă, a omului. Puţini se dovedesc a fi navigatori de elită, puţini au curajul să se avânte ca un Nansen, ca un Magellan, ca un Columb în necunoscut şi imprevizibil, şi să izbutească să-şi însuşească, triumfători, adevărata înţelepciune prin eforturile lor.

Mulţi lideri sunt într-o permanentă căutare a unei realităţi care nu aparţine nicidecum acelui tărâm îndepărtat ce ascunde întreaga taină a lumii şi a universului: omul (nimeni nu i-a descoperit pe deplin capacităţile şi energiile înalte).

Aşa cum cel mai bun mod de a câştiga bani este să investeşti cu înţelepciune, tot astfel cel mai bun mod de a dirija progresul leadershipului tău este să pătrunzi tot mai adânc pe tărâmul existenţei umane, explorându-l în întregime, excavând fiecare deal, fiecare mină, descoperind fiecare zăcământ. Fără a te pierde în abisurile fricii de necunoscut, a indolenţei şi nepăsării faţă de semenii pe care-i conduci.

Te admir cu ochii ce nu-i vezi

On Aprilie 01, 2020

Ceea ce rămâne memorabil în momentele de mare trăire sufletească, este ceea ce te completează.

Vine un moment când nu mai ai nevoie de cărţi. Tu eşti singura carte care contează. Trebuie doar să extragi din fiecare pagină a vieţii tale un moment de neuitat şi să-l nuanţezi în culoarea sângelui care împodobeşte petalele unui trandafir. Este şi asta un fel de înţelepciune, singura provizie pentru călătoria din altă lume, percepută ca eveniment spiritual.

Căci numai trandafirul mai are de spus o poveste interesantă despre om, ca şi când ar fi el însuşi un om, dar mai presus de ceilalţi oameni. Şi momentul de neuitat, iată-l: trandafirul îşi resimte brusc impactul vieţii ca pe ceva fragil şi preţios prin vârful peniţei aurii a unui scriitor excepţional, deoarece capătă statutul cuvântului scris cu persistenţa unui gând profund despre Dumnezeu.

Continuând să aibă însuşiri umane, trandafirul este prezentat în prima pagină din cartea mea, iar literele mele şi culorile sale fac din aceste rânduri imaginea unui personaj din 1001 de nopţi care continuă să fie popular printre vizitatorii grădinii mele. Sensul receptării sale îndreaptă atenţia spre un pasaj din cartea unui alchimist ce descrie materia în care se desfăşoară procesul de cunoaştere atunci când cunoscătorii sunt trimişii lui Dumnezeu.

Ochii mei privesc cu drag spre liniştea acestui moment unic, când trandafirul meu preferat, Double Delight, îşi face destoinic datoria de a transmite ceea ce cuvintele, de multe ori, nu reuşesc. Simt cum mă priveşte, aşa cum îl privesc şi eu, căci sufletul lui şi sufletul meu conversează sub cerul liber sub vraja profundă a vocii lui Dumnezeu.

Este şi asta un fel de înţelepciune: să te ştii ascultat cu aceeaşi emoţie, bunăvoinţă, nostalgie, cu care te asculţi tu însuţi într-un moment de mare trăire sufletească.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi conturezi creaţia în jurul unei imagini care transcende viaţa, din punct de vedere al unei priviri aruncată asupra unei realităţi care poate fi înţeleasă în termenii conceptului de REFLEXIUNE?

Vă rog, luaţi acest moment de aducere aminte ca pe un dar al lui Dumnezeu făcut celui care ştie să spună o poveste despre un trandafir care nu-şi scutură petalele înainte de vreme, aservit conţinutului unei imagini despre principiile naturii prezentate, de altfel, în primul tratat al sfântului Toma de Aquino. Cumva, mă observ ca o imagine privită cu ochi de cunoscător, dar traversată cu putere sufletească de creaţia unui artist care ştie cum să îmbine intensităţile de culoare cu dragostea faţă de natură... și o face foarte bine, din moment ce, odată ce ai trecut în lumea realităţii sale, nu mai e cale de întoarcere.

Îmi place când eşti tu aşa cum te-am văzut întâia oară, nu atunci când vrei să pari altcineva, nu atunci când ochii tăi exprimă altceva decât aş vrea eu să văd reflectat în frumuseţea lor. Zâmbetul tău încă îmi face cu ochiul, deşi privirea ta este departe. Dar frumosul nu se uită. Atunci când te-am privit cu blândeţe, cu un glas aproape stins, ca şi când aş fi vrut să imortalizez o amintire, mi-am ocupat mintea cu un singur gând: să fiu mereu acelaşi tu. Neschimbat. Sincer. Bun la suflet.

Nu este nicio diferenţă între a recepta trandafirul ca pe un har care îi este făcut omului fără ca acesta să aibă vreun merit, şi a-l recepta ca o simplă parcurgere a paginilor unei cărţi al cărei autor sunt chiar eu. În final, trandafirul este subiectul principal al unei priviri care şi-a găsit alinarea, frumuseţea, admiraţia, în reflecţia unei creaţii artistice şi literare care ar face-o invidioasă pe însăşi regina persană, Șeherezada.

Te privesc cu duioşie. Te admir cu ochii, ce nu-i vezi. Te însufleţesc prin literele pline de duh sfânt, pentru că faci parte din mine, din grădina mea, din momentul meu de inspiraţie. De atâtea ori am crezut că te-am uitat, fiindcă tu m-ai uitat cu o poveste de care tot timpul îmi eşti dator.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te înrădăcinezi în memoria unei imagini de vis suficient de sugestivă pentru a nu-ţi mai justifica dublura în lumea reală?

Dumnezeu este undeva pe aici…deosebindu-se prin aceea că deţine pe lângă forma sa şi o altă formă, adiacentă sferei vitale a unei noi percepţii artistice, devenind plăsmuirea unui scriitor care ştie să fie un trandafir deosebit, plăcut privirii care încântă fiorul ochilor căprui. Pe coperta cărţii mele, frumos ilustrată, a carei fundal simbolizează încrederea discutată între două personaje nemuritoare, un singur pictor şi-a putut pune semnătura: acela care a ştiut să redea frumuseţea unui trandafir prin ochii care nu ţin cont de vârstă, prin ochii care nu judecă şi nu suferă.

Se povesteşte că Hind, fiica lui Al Neman, era cea mai frumoasă fată dintre fetele de pe vremurile ei, şi că era întocmai ca o gazelă la ochi, la gingăşie şi la frumuseţe. Or, faima strălucirii ei ajunse până la urechile multor emiri care au dorit-o de nevastă, cu preţul unor averi inestimabile. Dar ea a ales singură, nu tatăl ei. Umblă zvonul că Hind s-ar fi căsătorit cu un scriitor iscusit care a ştiut să-i redea nemurirea prin transpunerea ei într-un trandafir a cărui poveste se desfăşoară în paralel cu viaţa mea.

Fiecare om are un dublu al său, iar dacă acesta este camuflat sub forma unui simbol, este pentru că trebuie să luăm în considerare partea răsunătoare a unei idei de mare impact: ceea ce rămâne memorabil în momentele de mare trăire sufletească, este ceea ce te completează.

O privire spune ochiului amănuntele povestirii care prinde viaţă, şi aceeaşi privire poate să ghicească fluctuaţiile invizibile ale sentimentelor, poate să urmărească mişcările imaginaţiei sau ale sufletului. Dar însăşi privirea nu poate deveni o existenţă particulară şi complexă, decât dacă parcurge distanţa de la Creaţie la Creator… sub vraja unui scriitor în a cărui ochi, sinceri, duioşi, încă mai licăreşte o imagine. Trandafirul este splendoarea lui.

Vraja unui scriitor se activează atunci când partea aleasă a sinelui său se interpune între natura divină şi dimensiunea nemuritoare a creaţiei sale. Încununarea trandafirului devine mărturia unei identităţi care se regăseşte în ipostaza unei lirici confesive intens spiritualizate cu orice element al realului.

Te admir cu ochii, ce nu-i vezi pentru că tu exişti ori de câte ori îmi amintesc de tine, chiar dacă sunt departe de tine, chiar dacă eşti doar o creaţie a minţii mele. Ceea ce mă surprinde frumos în sufletul meu, nu se uită niciodată în altă lume.

Trandafirul este imaginea mea într-o altă lume, în altă variantă de realitate.

Te rog să mă reprezinți într-un chip ușor de înțeles ochiului

On Aprilie 29, 2024

Un act aparent simplu de observare poate deveni, prin intensitate și dedicare, o veritabilă operă de artă vie, capabilă să influențeze percepția și emoțiile celor din jur.

Iașiul, inima pulsantă a României, a fost teatrul unei competiții de alergare săptămâna trecută. Pe aleile sale pavate cu povești istorice, un alai de concurenți își încordau mușchii, însuflețiți de flacăra dorinței de a triumfa, fiecare pentru propriul ideal sau scop personal. În colțul meu de observație, în mijlocul unei vederi capabile să realizeze un join între imaginea artistică și spiritul competitiv, adevărata campioană era deja proclamată: sora mea, Oana Fântânaru.

În artă, nu medalia te face campion, ci stilul de alergare pe care îl adopţi în materie de expresivitate, graţie şi eleganţă a mişcării. În cazul ei, nu era o chestiune de superioritate fizică, ci mai degrabă o chestiune de măiestrie tehnică ireproșabilă, un soi de Ethuraank Amophiseness Eknaenger, o deschidere către universul artistic, un loc unde fiecare pas devine o mișcare estetică desfăşurată într-un balet al rafinamentului. Runningul urmărește exprimarea nonverbală a eleganței, a emoțiilor și de ce nu, a gândurilor și frământărilor omenești prin limbajul trupului.

Arderea cu care se angajează o persoană într-o activitate poate transcende scopul imediat, devenind o expresie adevărată a identității și rezilienței sale. Cu graţie, printr-un fel de mişcare fluidă, Oana alerga cu paşii săltaţi ai unei feline, cu o ardoare ce transcendea cadrul simplist al competiției sportive, manifestându-se drept o exprimare pură a plasticităţii mişcării, un veritabil spectacol al pasiunii și tenacității izvorâte dintr-un respect profund al esteticii care face ca un artist să strălucească.

Leadership: Eforturile tale de a-ţi exprima viziunea interioară pot deveni o manifestare a individualității unui eveniment memorabil, datorită puterii artei de a comunica stări profund umane?

Ochii mei urmăreau unicul model artistic care cucerea orice privire. Gândurile îmi zburau la acel fior unic, acel extaz al creatorului care, într-un elan de geniu, dă naștere și formă viziunii sale interioare. Cu fiecare pas grăbit, cu fiecare suflu de aer prins între buze, Oana își zugrăvea propria epopee a determinării, a curajului de a transcende limitările fizice în schimbul unei viziuni estetice de care se bucură artiștii.

Arta ei, profund subiectivă și personală, o exprimare a spiritului liber, izvorăşte din abisurile ființei neîngrădite de reguli sau așteptări exterioare, întruchipând esența libertății creative. În alergare, estetica nu este doar o simplă preferință vizuală, ci mai degrabă o manifestare a disciplinei și armoniei corpului în mișcare. Cert este că Oana nu alerga pentru lauri sau pentru medalia de aur. Scopul ei era să celebreze puterea frumosului, să descifreze și să interpreteze ca un artist coordonarea motrică adusă în stadiul de abilitate deosebită.

Niciun alt alergător nu a mai reuşit performanţa de a întruchipa o operă de artă. Unicitatea stilului ei de alergare este complementar talentului artistului de a picta, fiind o expresie vibrantă a armoniei dintre mișcare și expresie, fiecare element accentuând frumusețea celuilalt.

Leadership: Poate mesajul unei experiențe artistice să transforme percepția ta asupra limitelor realității, oferind astfel o nouă viziune asupra unor trăiri inefabile?

Observam expresivitatea spontană a stărilor ei sufletești, rar întâlnită, discreta, reflectată în mișcările rafinate și grațioase ale corpului. Cu mare bucurie, în acordul misterios dintre văz şi viziune, am înțeles că abandonul nu-și găsește loc în sufletul ei. Cu siguranţă, Oana este o forță a naturii, o vâlvătaie veșnică care sfida orice obstacol, urmând calea firească ce decurge din cunoașterea desăvârșită a conturului corpului văzut din toate unghiurile sale. Misiunea ei în cadrul acestei competiții era să dezvăluie lumii întregi frumusețea inefabilă, să acorde o voce mesajului criptic al unei experiențe artistice bazate pe cunoașterea conturului figurii, mai presus de orice limitări impuse de realitate.

Ideea spre care mă îndrept a fost exprimată mai uşor de un personaj al lui Erich Maria Remarque, din romanul "Arcul de triumf":

"E uşor să dai din cap şi să spui că trebuie să-ţi păstrezi sensibilitatea, în ciuda variaţiunilor fără de sfârşit ale unei lumi mereu schimbătoare. Dar, drace, nu-i chiar atât de uşor. Fiindcă sensibilitatea se naşte din luptă, la fel cum frumosul se naşte din umilinţă. La asta se adaugă teama nemărturisită că, atunci când va veni vremea, vei fi părea zdrobit, prea ros, prea obosit ca să poţi merge împreună cu ceilalţi. Oare nu acesta este motivul pentru care cufunzi în uitare orice lucru ce-ţi poate aţâţa nervii, desfiinţându-l, definitiv şi pe nesimţite, cu ironie, sarcasm şi chiar contra-sentimentalitate, cu evadarea într-o altă fiinţă omenească, în alternativa unui alt eu?"

Leadership: Este posibil să vezi în artă o modalitate de a evada într-un alt "eu", folosind refugiul temporar ca un mijloc de a explora și de a împărtăși aspecte nevăzute ale propriei identități?

Când o observam pe Oana, de fapt mă vedeam pe mine. Evadarea mea în alternativa unui alt "eu" a servit ca o formă de detaşare necesară pentru gestionarea emoțiilor intense. Aşadar, tranziția către o identitate alternativă poate oferi un refugiu temporar din calea emoțiilor copleșitoare. Printr-un proces de alteritate, am reuşit să înţeleg mai bine ca oricine personalitatea artistică a surorii mele, fiindcă amândoi avem un lucru în comun: pasiunea intensă pentru artă.

Stăpânul sufletului frumos este oglinda corpului armonios. Prin urmare, arta poate fi o cale de a explora identități alternative, permițând artistului să experimenteze și să exprime emoții prin prisma altor ființe, dacă rezonează profund cu perspectiva adoptată.

Prin arta ei, prin stilul ei de alergare, Oana a oferit tuturor o lecție de construire a unui model de exprimare a sensibilității, alcătuind armonia desăvârșită prin împletirea simultană a unor părți bine potrivite, forțate să se contopească într-un singur acord sau în mai multe. Ne-a invitat să fim martori ai triumfului artei, ai victoriei spiritului uman asupra limitărilor neşlefuite. Sigur, modelul ei de alergare a reprezentat o declarație de credință pictată în sudoare și pasiune, modul estetic de a ființa artistic, ce s-a scris direct pe străzile și în imaginile orașului Iași.

Însușirea cheie a leadershipului se exprimă în următoarea afirmație: "perspectiva trebuie să se potrivească ochiului celui care privește scena."

Te rog să mă reprezinți într-un chip ușor de înțeles ochiului, încât de fiecare dată când te gândești la mine, ca fiind eroul unui mare eveniment, să simți un strop de admirație. Arta încurajează evadarea într-un alt "eu", facilitând o mai profundă înțelegere și exprimare a diverselor stări emoționale.

Tehnica inegalabilă a maestrului

On Februarie 26, 2010

Fă din leadershipul tău o mare creaţie, adăugându-i acele efecte de „culoare” care să determine atingerea nivelului de performanţă dorit.

Te-ai întrebat vreodată care este dorinţa cea mai mare a unui artist?

Probabil dorinţa lui cea mai mare este să descopere tainele artei, ale picturii, şi să reuşească să cucerească privirile tuturor oamenilor.

Pentru a putea crea un tablou excepţional, atât de exact, atât de clar şi bine conturat ca o fotografie, pictorul are nevoie de multă inspiraţie şi de o tehnică aparte, superioară, fără cusur. Şi numai tablourile interesante demonstrează îndemânarea lui. Dacă privirea oamenilor nu rămâne animată de operele sale ca şi cum ar fi fost vrăjiţi, atunci el nu este un artist extraordinar, iar tehnica lui de lucru nu este inegalabilă.

Leadership: Îţi raportezi potenţialul de a-ţi demonstra îndemânarea la realizarea spectacolului prospectiv al artei, înlesnind acea înţelegere definitorie a ceea ce eşti printr-un "Hei-Rup" pus sub semnul unei valori de referinţă?

În inima unui adevărat artist zace o nesfârşită putere de creaţie, fiecare nou tablou este mai expresiv, mai frumos şi mai bine realizat decât celelalte. Arta lui are toate meşteşugurile şi toate eleganţele, îi place să aţâţe curiozitatea prin neprevăzut, uneori să înşele privirile prin jocuri de culoare şi iluziuni amuzante. "Hei-Rup" este deviza creării şi promovării unui concept de artă provenit din două particularităţi: experienţa de lucru în asigurarea calităţii şi experienţa unei emoţii care produce o stare „Wow de încântare plină de mulţumire.

Este aproape imposibil să ajungi la un nivel superior, să ai parte numai reuşite, dacă prin munca pe care o desfăşori nu devii în ochii tuturor oamenilor o excepţie - care să producă o „trezire” în mintea şi în sufletul lor. Valoarea ta este dată de capacitatea ta de a face progrese în domeniul în care activezi, şi în funcţie rezultatele pe care le înregistrezi.

Aşa cum un pictor, pentru a putea realiza efectele cele mai frumoase trebuie să dispună de o paletă complexă, care să nu se oprească la un număr restrâns de culori – tot aşa si tu, ca sa faci din leadershipul tău o mare creaţie, trebuie să-i adaugi acele efecte de "culoare" care să determine atingerea nivelului de performanţă dorit. Trebuie să-i dai o anumită strălucire leadershipului tău, un anumit luciu, pentru ca el să nu-şi piardă niciodată din farmec. Dar pentru asta trebuie să dispui de o paletă complexă de tehnici şi mijloace care să-ţi permită să obţii rezultatele cele mai bune.

Luciul este o necesitate pe care o cer formele relativ absolute ale unor noi imagini a "brandului" tău, prin cunoaşterea suprasensibilă a naturii tale creative, ca unică şi veritabilă cauză a tuturor proceselor de autoevaluare şi sociale ce formează obiectul de cercetare al ştiinţei pe care o cultivi. Accesorizând-o cu acea nuanţă pronunţată de gândire constructivă, care invită la originalitate, avantajându-ţi modelul de exprimare de sine şi reprezentându-ţi stilul.

Leadership: Îţi apreciezi adevărata măsură a valorii personale prin intermediul unui efect de "culoare" care voluminează tendinţele şi înţelesul unui concept de sine mai puternic?

Măsura talentului tău de conducere este dată de valoarea potenţialului tău de influenţă, acea generoasă porţie de magie, contribuţia concretă pe care o aduci în scopul exercitării cât mai benefice a autorităţii tale. Cu cât deţii o tehnică mai bună de conducere, cu atât vei puncta mai mult, cu atât va fi mai mare ranking-ul tău, putând astfel a te menţine la înălţimea performanţelor tale.

Efectul de "culoare" care volumineazâ tendinţele şi înţelesul unui concept de sine mai puternic este dat de experienţa alinierii tale la o diversitate de elemente, abordări, stiluri şi teme de largă circulaţie în mentalul colectiv al celor din jur, conform rafinamentul de a mânui situaţii mai subtile şi a rafinamentului de a parcurge cu demnitate un destin artistic.

Dezvoltarea unei tehnici de conducere care să vină în întâmpinarea necesităţilor organizaţiei şi personalului ei este una din caracteristicile cheie ale unui manager. Şi managerii sunt nişte artişti, în modul în care îşi exercită activităţile, în modul în care îşi conduc organizaţiile. Însă foarte puţini deţin o tehnică inegalabilă de conducere ca cea folosită de Jack Welch, nu-i aşa? Puţini reuşesc să-şi menţină organizaţiile în top pe timp de criză cum a făcut-o Lee Iacocca, puţini au reuşit să-şi transforme organizaţiile într-un gigant financiar cum a făcut-o Bill Gates, prin urmare puţini pot fi consideraţi maeştri în domeniul conducerii.

Vestea bună e că, aidoma unui pictor, nu neapărat talentul îl poate ajuta pe un individ să ajungă excepţional în postul de conducere pe care îl deţine. Ci tehnica pe care şi-a dezvoltat-o în timp, pe care o exersează şi o foloseşte mereu. Dacă tehnica lui de conducere va fi eficientă, şi el va fi excepţional, atunci şi compania sa va fi excepţională.

Există o regulă în leadership care se învaţă mai puţin din cărţi, ci mai mult din exerciţiile cotidiene, cu micile sau marile succese sau eşecuri. Uneori durează mult, alteori mai puţin, să-ţi ridici nivelul până la rang de artă. Ceea ce contează însă foarte mult nu este atât autoevaluarea, cât evaluarea din partea celorlalţi mai „mici” sau mai „mari” decât tine.

Valoarea de referinţă a unui lider reiese din destinul excepţional cu care se mândreşte un artist după expunerea celor mai deosebite creaţii într-o singură matrice recognoscibilă şi inconfundabilă numită "redimensionarea realităţii interioare".

Important pentru cei ce aspiră la a deţine arta leadershipului este faptul că aceasta are un caracter personal şi este inimitabilă.

Tehnica inegalabilă a maestrului se poate reprezenta printr-o combinaţie de trei orientări: producerea de valoare în folosul unei sugestivităţi rafinate, autoevaluare prin însăşi imaginea aflată în centrul atenţiei generale şi evaluarea performanţelor dobândite prin străduinţa atingerii unui maximum de expresivitate din varii teme existenţialiste.

Tema care cântă în fiecare piatră

On Ianuarie 03, 2009

Eforturile de reconstituire istorică prind viață atunci când creatorii se imersează complet în mediul și timpurile pe care încearcă să le reprezinte.

Este atacat scenariul. Filmările vor începe. Deocamdată, regizorul rus Eisenstein se pregăteşte. În iarna lui 1938 se duce la Novgorod, contemplează vechile clădiri şi prin ele "pipăie tema care cântă în fiecare piatră".

Încearcă să-şi imagineze oamenii care au populat cu şapte secole în urmă aceste locuri. Cum vorbeau ei, cum mâncau, cum umblau? Încearcă să vadă oamenii aceia. Efortul de imaginaţie este intens. Se urcă pe ziduri, în turnurile vechi. Priveşte în jur, se gândeşte că vede acum acelaşi peisaj pe care-l văzuseră şi oamenii pe care se străduieşte să şi-i imagineze. Pipăie lucrurile ce le-au trecut prin mâini, încercând şi astfel să le simtă realitatea. O tentativă de a reface drumurile lor prin oraş eşuează, deoarece locurile arată acum altfel. S-a păstrat însă aici catedrala Spas-Neredita, construcţie din secolul al XII-lea. Se gândeşte intens. "Aceste pietre l-au văzut pe Alexandr, iar Alexadr a văzut pietrele acestea." Dar nu reuşeşte să depăşească abstracţiunea acestui gând. Contactul viu cu epoca încă nu se naşte. Înconjoară zidurile catedralei.

Şi, deodată vede o tăbliţă cu obişnuita inscripţie "construcţia a început la data cutare şi s-a terminat la data cutare." Face un calcul firesc. Află că în câteva luni doar a fost ridicată catedrala. În câteva luni din veacul al XII-lea. Luni concrete, timp concret. Şi senzaţia construirii apare, Eisenstein percepe materialitatea întâmplărilor. Deci catedrala a fost ridicată de oameni... Da, desigur, de oameni care vin, nu de siluete stilizate de pe icoanele şi miniaturile vremii. Oameni ca şi noi. Îi vede, îi simte. Îi va putea desena, şi apoi crea pe ecran. Se nasc, acum, concrete, materializabile, imaginile filmului.

Leadership: În efortul de a te familiariza cu gândirea vremurilor trecute, te-ai ghidat vreodată după ideea că trăirea și respirarea atmosferei locurilor pot aduce o mai mare claritate în reprezentarea vizuală a opertei tale?

Metoda de imaginaţie a unui regizor implică nu doar o documentare riguroasă a subiectului istoric ales pentru film, ci și o imersiune totală în contextul epocii reprezentate de eroii cunoscuţi ai acelor vremuri. Procesul de compoziţie acesta nu e uşor de făcut, deoarece necesită un angajament de a "trăi" istoria prin fiecare lucru în parte, de a respira atmosfera locurilor și de a se conecta emoțional și intelectual cu gândirea acelor vremuri. În tentativa de a reface decorul acelor vremuri, regizorul poate să redea nu doar evenimentele, ci și esența umană a perioadei respective.

Efortul regizoral al lui Eisenstein în iarna lui 1938 demonstrează această metodă istorică adâncă. Pregătindu-se pentru filmările care urmează, el nu se limitează la documentarea riguroasă, ci se angajează într-o imaginare intensă a vieții oamenilor care au umblat pe străzile Novgorodului cu şapte secole în urmă. Atacat de nevoia de a înțelege cum vorbeau, cum mâncau și cum trăiau acești oameni, Eisenstein explorează scenariul nu doar prin cărți, ci și prin contemplarea vechilor clădiri, pipăind tema care "cântă în fiecare piatră".

Interacțiunea directă cu artefactele istorice poate facilita o mai bună înțelegere și reprezentare a trecutului într-o ecranizare de excepţie. Iar recrearea autentică a trecutului în artă depinde de capacitatea de a vedea dincolo de abstractizările istorice și de a percepe umanitatea comună.

Leadership: Prin prisma unei angajări totale în detaliile istorice, ai conștientizat cum pot artefactele să servească drept un reper vizual pentru o mai bună înțelegere și reprezentare a contextului în opera ta?

Ascensiunea lui Eisenstein pe ziduri și turnurile vechi nu este doar o căutare vizuală, ci o încercare de a vedea peisajul prin ochii lor. Deși eșuează în tentativa de a reface drumurile lor prin orașul modern, contactul cu catedrala Spas-Neredita, o construcție din secolul al XII-lea, îi amplifică dorința de a depăși abstracţiunea gândurilor și de a stabili un contact viu cu epocă.

Aşadar, metoda istorică profundă a lui Eisenstein implică mai mult decât documentarea riguroasă a construirii catedralei descoperite printr-o inscripție pe o tabliță, reflectând un calcul precis al timpului. Aceasta se extinde la o imersiune în veacul al XII-lea, permițându-i să "trăiască" în lunile concrete în care structură a fost ridicată. Nu doar că explorează materialitatea reală a lucrărilor, dar se conectează cu oamenii reali, departe de siluetele stilizate ale icoanelor și miniaturilor epocii. Prin această metodă, Eisenstein nu doar că vizualizează, dar reușește să creeze pe ecran imaginile autentice ale filmului, aducând în fața spectatorilor esența umană palpabilă și timpul concret al perioadei reprezentate.

Ca idee, prin conectarea cu realitățile vieții din alte veacuri, putem reda cu autenticitate esența umană și contextul timpului respectiv. Imersiunea în detalii istorice permite nu doar documentarea, ci și trăirea momentelor semnificative din trecut. Iar eșecul de a urma vechile drumuri într-un oraș modern poate intensifica dorința de a depăși barierele gândurii abstracte. Pe lângă asta, ascensiunea pe construcțiile de mare amploare nu reprezintă doar o descoperire vizuală, ci și o încercare de a înțelege perspectiva celor din trecut.

Având viziunea unui regizor care simte și percepe istoria prin fiecare piatră a vechilor clădiri, te-ai gândit vreodată la modul în care această percepţie profundă a trecutului poate influența expresivitatea și forța caracteristică a creației tale?

Tema care cântă în fiecare piatră trebuie să fie privită diferenţiat, de la regizor la regizor, deoarece constituie un punct de sprijin în reconstituirea vizuală a unui trecut uitat. În ideea că interacțiunea directă cu trecutul, printr-o meticuloasă reprezentare imagistică, te poate conduce spre revelarea unei realități palpabile, cum îți modelezi abordarea pentru a asigura o transfigurare interioară a percepțiilor tale istorice?

Tema fatalităţii implacabile a destinului în filmul lui Eisenstein

On Ianuarie 17, 2010

Prin dezvoltarea expresivității și a memoriei vizuale poți accesa o modalitate de expresie autentică, evitând astfel capcana compozițiilor neautentice.

Tema fatalităţii, a forţei groaznice implacabile a destinului, reapare în filmul lui Eisenstein, despre viaţa marelui dramaturg, Aleksandr Pușkin. De data aceasta capăta din nou expresie cromatică, dar acum nu negrul, ci albul o reprezintă. Să nu uităm că teutonii din filmul "Nevski" erau tot purtători ai temei albului. Albul înseamnă ceva tragic, ceva greşit…O ţigancă îi prezice poetului în tinereţe să se ferească de alb, verigheta cade, ca un semn rău, când Natalia poarta valul alb de mireasă, uniforma lui Dantes este albă, el însuşi fiind blond, zăpada albă e întinsă ca un giulgiu sub picioarele celor doi care se bat în duel…

Albul devine un leit-motiv, expresie a aceleiaşi obsesii a fatalităţii ameninţătoare, care cuprinde totul în mersul ei implacabil. În mijlocul promenadei pestriţe a Petersburgului, sania lui Puşkin îl duce spre locul duelului, spre moarte. Muzica veselă, dansanta capăta câteodată, în subtext, accentele grave ale acordurilor îndepărtate din "Requiemul" lui Prokofiev.

Pe măsură ce se amplifica sarabanda veselă a aristocraţiei burgheze, răsuna tot mai intens Requiemul. Culorile pestriţe se estompează, pălesc cu încetul, gerul, albăstriul aerului absorb culorile, promoroaca acoperă petele colorate ale părului, mustăţilor, favoriţilor. Zăpada care cade de pe copaci stinge sub vălul ei focul de artificii al culorilor. Mai apare o unică explozie de culoare: manşonul vişiniu – din tema sângelui – al Bătăliei. care trece într-o sanie fără a-l recunoaşte, din cauza miopiei, pe Puşkin. Apoi albul inunda totul, albul zăpezii de pe locul duelului pe care doar siluetele negre ale celor doi contrastează.

Leadership: Poți folosi virtuțile limbajului vizual pentru a exprima acea spontaneitate a unei naturale apartenențe la fluxul vieții, integrând totodată repere vizuale care creează efect de profunzime?

Economia creației artistice este studiul modului în care artiștii utilizează resursele limitate de mijloace expresive pentru a produce opere de artă și a le distribui publicului. Temă și motivele sunt concepte fundamentale care guvernează narațiunea filmică și determină impactul emoțional. Pe piața ideilor artistice, impactul emoțional este stabilit la intersecția dintre tema întunecată și motivele luminoase. Când tema fatalității crește, tensiunea dramatică tinde să crească, în timp ce o creștere a motivelor optimiste duce la detensionarea atmosferei. Regizorul și actorii iau decizii artistice raționale pentru a-și maximiza expresivitatea sau impactul asupra publicului.

Recunoști valoarea concentrării calme a figurilor și a mijloacelor de expresie în redarea verosimilului, permițând astfel o reprezentare autentic a realității înconjurătoare?
